tasimetry, n. [1 tásimetri, 2 tátimetri] tasimeter & -y Measurement of pressure task (I), n. [1 tásk, 2 tátsk] fr. O Nthn. Fr. tasque, fr. tasche, fr. L. Lat. tasca, fr. Lat. tasare, 'to censure, to touch'; see tax (I) 1 Specific piece or amount of work of any kind imposed by authority, specif., a piece of work, or lesson, prescribed for pupils by teachers at school Phr. to task a person to task, find fault with him 2 Any piece of work, whether imposed or undertaken voluntarily, which has to be accomplished task (II), vb. trans. fr. prec 1 To assign a piece of work to, set to a task. 2 (rare) To try, put a strain on, tax, mental or physical powers, to overtax to task one's memory, powers of endurance &c taskmaster, n. [1 táskmáster, 2 tátskmáster] An exacting master, teacher, or other person having authority to prescribe the work of others, esp. a severe taskmaster taskmistress, n. [1 táskmistress, 2 tátskmistress] Feminine of prec taskwork, n. [1 táskwérk, 2 tátskwérk] Piecework Tasmanian, adj. & n. [1 tázmánian, 2 tátzmánian] fr. Tasmania, named after the Dutch navigator Tasman, d. 1659 1 adj. Pertaining to Tasmania, specif. Tasmanian devil, a fierce, nocturnal, carnivorous marsupial Dasyurus ursinus 2 n. Inhabitant of Tasmania tass, n. [1 tás, 2 tát] fr. O Fr. lasse, 'cup', perf. fr. Arab lass Small draught, dram, esp. of spirits tassel (I), n. [1 tás, 2 tát] ME & O Fr. tasel prob. fr. Lat. taxillus, 'small die', dimin. of talus 'ankle, knuckle-bone, heel', see talus The dimin. is prob. formed on the anal. of scalla, fr. ala, see alar, alloron 1 Bunch of silk or other threads knotted or bound together at one end, used as ornament for dress, esp. banner &c 2 Any of various objects resembling a tassel, e.g. the arrangement of inflorescence in some plants, such as Indian corn. 3 Narrow ribbon fastened to top of book to serve as marker 4 Thin gold plate on back of bishop's gloves.

tassel (II), vb. trans. fr. prec 1 To provide, adorn, with tassel(s) 2 To cut off tassels from (Indian corn) to strengthen the plant tastable, adj. [1 tástabl, 2 tátstabl] taste & -able Capable of being tasted.

taste (I), vb. trans & intrans [1 tást, 2 tátst] ME tasten, fr. O Fr. taster, 'to handle, feel, taste', prob. fr. Low Lat. tastare*, fr. Lat. tascare, 'to appraise, value, to handle, touch', see tax (I) A. trans. 1 a To test, judge, appraise, flavour of by taking some into the mouth taste this coffee to see if you like it, b specif. to act as professional taster of 2 To perceive, distinguish, detect, the specific flavour of with the organs of taste I can taste pepper in this pudding 3 To partake of eat or drink a small quantity of he hadn't tasted food for many hours 4 To experience, try to taste the joys of freedom B intrans 1 To experience the sensation of taste, be able to distinguish flavours I am quite unable to taste on account of my cold 2 (archaic) To eat or drink a small portion, partake to taste of strange dishes 3 (archaic) To experience, undergo to taste of danger, of death 4 To have particular flavour, convey specific sensation of taste to, have specific effect upon, the organs of taste the milk tastes sour, this sauce tastes of nothing at all taste (II), n. ME tást, fr. O Fr. tast, fr. taster, 'to taste', see prec 1 One of the five senses, the faculty of experiencing, perceiving, and discriminating different flavours on the tongue and palate a fine taste in wines 2 The organostic sensation, other than that of texture, or of differences of temperature, produced upon the tongue by something coming into contact with it, flavour, gust, sapidity an unpleasant taste Phr. (fig.) to leave a bad taste in the mouth, to produce a bad impression, a feeling of disgust and repulsion. 3 Something which is tasted, specif. a small portion of food or drink I'll have just a (small) taste of ham, hence, b a slight suggestion a touch, a tinge, a trace, a faint smack just a taste of sadness in his remarks 4 Intellectual aesthetic, moral, discrimination, discernment, sensibility, trained judgement, critical appreciation a man of taste, a house furnished in the best taste; a cultivated taste in poetry, painting &c 5 Manner and expression as evincing sensibility and refinement, tact, delicacy of feeling, sense of what is fitting his speech was in excellent taste, his conduct was in the worst taste 6 Tendency, bias towards, preference, predilection for fondness, having a taste for low company, for dissipation, a taste for the theatre, for horse-racing &c Phr. not at all to my taste, not what I like, very much to my taste, just what I like 7 An experience of anything, a sample, evidence he gave me a taste of his skill, of his bad manners &c tasteful, adj. [1 tástfool, 2 tátstful] taste (II) & -ful Having, showing, good taste tastefully, adv. prec & -ly In a tasteful manner tastefulness, n. See prec & -ness Quality of being tasteful tasteless, adj. [1 tástles, 2 tátstles] taste (II) & -less 1 Without distinctive flavour, insipid, flat. 2 (rare) Lacking having lost, the sense of taste. 3 Having bad taste, possessing, evincing, exhibiting, no discernment or discrimination, tasteless tastelessly, adv. prec & -ly In a tasteless manner tastelessness, n. See prec & -ness Quality of being tasteless taster, n. [1 tástter 2 tátstter] taste (I) & -er 1 One who tastes specif. a (hist.) servant employed to taste his master's food and drink before it was served, b person employed professionally to test quality of articles of food and drink by tasting esp. tea-taster 2 (fig. colloq.) Publisher's reader

3 Vessel or other device used in tasting or sampling, specif. a small metal cup for wine, b long handled scoop for extracting sample from cheese &c tastily, adv. [1 tástli, 2 tátstli] Next word & -ly (vulg. or colloq.) In a tasty manner.

tasty, adj. [1 tásti, 2 tátst] taste (II) & -y 1 Having a distinctive usually agreeable, flavour, savoury, pungent. 2 (vulg.) Taste-ful, smart, attractive tat (I), vb. intrans & trans [1 tát, 2 tátst] Prob. back formation fr. tattooing 1 intrans To do tattooing 2 trans To make by tattooing

tat (II), n. Hind. Coarse Indian canvas.

tata, interj. [1 tátih, 2 tátst, tátst] (child's word) Good bye Tatar See Tartar (II).

tatter, n. [1 tátter, 2 tátst] Cp. O N. to urr; L.G. tater, 'rag' Rag, shred, torn fragment (usually in pl.) his coat was in tatters, hanging in tatters Phr. to tear (an argument, statement &c) to tatter, demolish, disprove, refute it tatterdemalion, n. [1 tátterdemálion, 2 tátst-demálion] Etymol. doubtful. A ragged, disreputable person.

tattered, adj. [1 tátterd, 2 tátst] tatter & -ed 1 Ragged, mangled in tatters. 2 Clothed in ragged garments

Tattersall's, n. [1 táttersál, 2 tátstésál] fr. name of founder, Richard Tattersall, d. 1795. 1 London market for sale of hunters, race-horses &c 2 This market regarded as the headquarters of racing and betting tattery, adj. [1 tátteri, 2 tátst] tatter & -y Tattered, ragged.

tattooing, n. [1 tátting, 2 tátsting] Etymol. doubtful. Lacco-hile trimming of knotted and looped threads tattle (I), vb. intrans & trans [1 tátli, 2 tátstli] Imitative, cp. L.G. talein, 'to gabble'. 1 intrans To chatter idly, to gossip 2 trans. To utter in idle chatter, gossip about.

tattle (II), n. fr. prec Idle or undecent talk, chatter, gossip, more often little tattle.

tattler, n. [1 tátler, 2 tátst] Earlier taster; tattla & -or 1 One who gossips or tattles. 2 Kind of sand piper tattling, adj. [1 tátling, 2 tátsting] tattle & -ing Given to idle chatter gossiping tattoo (I), n. [1 tátto, 2 tátst] fr. Du. taptoe, 'tattoo', orig. of public-house, 'the tap is closed', fr. tap, 'tap room', see tap (I), to 1 a Drum beat or hugh call summoning soldiers &c to quarters at nightfall. Phr. to beat the devil's tattoo, drum with fingers on table &c, b the hour at which tattoo is sounded 2 Loud and prolonged knocking. a loud tattoo on the door 3 Military display or pageant, performed, usually at night to musical accompaniment tattoo (II), vb. intrans, fr. prec To sound a tattoo tattoo (III), vb. trans [1 tátto, 2 tátst] fr. Tashuan tátau 1 To mark (the skin) indelibly with pigments introduced into punctures arranged in a desired pattern. 2 To produce (designs) on the skin by tattooing to tattoo a butterfly on one's arm tattoo (IV), n. fr. prec Design on skin produced by tattooing tatty, n. [1 tát, 2 tátst] fr. Hind. fatih, wicker frame Matting of osseous-grass hung in doorway, window &c and kept wet to cool the air tau, n. [1 taw, 2 tát] Gk. taú, loan word fr. Semitic, cp. Heb. tau 1 Greek letter corresponding to T, tau cross, T shaped cross. 2 Fish with T-shaped markings, esp. toad fish.

taube, n. [1 tonbe, 2 taube] Germ. 'dove', cogn. w. dove German military monoplane taught, vb. [1 tawt, 2 tátst] O E taht(e), ge-taht ME taught(e), taught, fr. P.P. of teach taunt (I), vb. trans & n. [1 tawnt, 2 tátnt] fr. O Fr. tauler, variant of tauler, 'to provoke, tempt' see tempt 1 vb To provoke, contemptuously, to twist, gibe at, taunt with, reproach with. 2 n a & ep. a. sarcastic, sneering remark levelled at another, a jeer, a gibe, b object of taunt.

taunt (II), adj & adv, fr adv taunt, (naut) 'fully rigged', fr Fr autant, 'so much', fr Lat tant (us), 'so much', see taunt-mount (naut) a adj (of mast) Tall, b adv, fully rigged taunting, adj [1 táwnting, 2 tónting] Pres Part of taunt (I) Provoking by spiteful criticism and insult, mocking, gibing tauntingly, adv Pres & -ly In a taunting manner tauriform, adj [1 tórnform, 2 tórnform] See Taurus & -form Having the form or appearance of a bull taurine, adj [1 tórn, tórn, 2 tórn, tórn] fr Lat taurin (us), 'taurine', fr taur-(us), 'bull', see Taurus, & -ine 1 Pertaining to, resembling, a bull, bovine 2 Of, pertaining to, Taurus as a sign of the zodiac taurumachy, n [1 tórnma, 2 tórnma] fr Gk tauros, 'bull', op Lat taurus, see Taurus, & -machy a Bull fighting, b a bull fight

Taurus, n [1 tórn, 2 tórn] Lat taurus, 'bull', op Gk tauros, 'bull', Lith tauras, 'aurochs', ON þjórr, 'bull', prob fr base tou-*, 'to swell', see tumid & words there referred to (oop) 1 A constellation, containing the Pleiades 2 One of the signs of the zodiac taut, adj [1 táwt, 2 tówt] ME toht, toht, 'firm, tight', fr PP of tōgen, tōwen, OE toġan, 'to draw, pull', see tow (I), & -t, suff or a weak PP 1 (or rope, sail &c) Stretched tightly, tense 2 In good condition, trim tauten, vb trans & intrans [1 táwtin, 2 tówtin] Pres & -en 1 trans To stretch tightly, make taut 2 intrans To become taut tautly, adv [1 táwth, 2 tówt] taut & -ly. In a taut manner, a tightly, tensely, b trimly tautness, n [1 táwtines, 2 tówtines] See prec & -ness State of being taut tauto-, pref representing Gk tautó, contracted fr tó autó, 'the same', see under ta & auto- The same tautochrone, n [1 táwtókrón, 2 tówtókrón] Prec & Gk khronos, 'time', see chronio Curve on which a body, moving from any point thereon by the force of gravity, will always reach the lowest point in the same space of time tautochronism, n [1 táwtókrónizem, 2 tówtókrónizem] Prec & -ism Property of being tautochronous tautochronous, adj [1 táwtókrónus, 2 tówtókrónus] See prec & -ous Having the nature of, pertaining to, a tautochrone tautog, n [1 táwtog, 2 tówtog] N Am Indian tautog Edible fish of Atlantic coast of N America tautologic(al), adj [1 táwtológik(l), 2 tówtológik(l)] tautology & -ic & -al Connected with or the nature of, tautology tautologically, adv Pres & -ly In a tautological manner tautologist, n [1 táwtológist, 2 tówtológist] tautology & -ist Person given to tautology tautologize, vb intrans [1 táwtológiz, 2 tówtológiz] tautology & -ize To express oneself tautologically tautology, n [1 táwtológ, 2 tówtológ] fr Gk tautologia, tauto- & -logy Pleonastic repetition or the same idea in a sentence, e g to speak all at once together tautophony, n [1 táwtófón, 2 tówtófón] tauto- & -phony & -y Constant repetition of the same sound taw, n [1 táw, 2 tów] fr Fr taw, 'appoint, arrange', & táva, 'order', op tool. To prepare, dress (skins), make them into leather taw (II), n Etymol unknown 1 Lane from which players shoot in game of marbles 2 Game of marbles 3 A marble tawdrily, adv [1 táwdril, 2 tódril] See tawdry & -ly In a tawdry, flashy, manner tawdriness, n [1 táwdrines, 2 tódrines] Next word & -ness State or quality of being tawdry tawdry, adj [1 táwdr, 2 tódr] fr St Andry (pronounced [san tódr]), OE Aedelbrýd, on whose day, Oct 17th, a fair was held, where gay finery was sold Showy but of inferior quality, flashy, gaudy tawdry garments, decorations &c tawer, n [1 táwer, 2 tów] taw (I) & -er One who taws skins tawery, n [1 táw-eri, 2 tó-eri] taw (I) & -ery Place where skins are tawed tawyness, n [1 táwynes, 2 tówynes] Next word & -ness State of being tawny, tawny colour tawny, adj [1 táwni, 2 tóni] ME tauni, tauni, fr O Fr tanne, PP of tanner, 'to tan', see tan (I) Light brownish yellow, tan, or sand coloured, tawny port, one that has been matured in the oak and has become pale taws(s), n [1 táwz, 2 tóz] Perh cogn w taw (I) (Seote) Strap for chastising children tax (I), vb trans [1 táks, 2 tóks] fr Fr taxer, fr Lat taxare, 'to estimate, compute, to censure, reproach, to touch', prob fr Gk tassein, 'to arrange, put in order, to appoint, to impose, to fix as payment', op taxis 1 a To impose tax upon (persons), compel to pay a tax, b to put a tax upon (articles of commerce) 2 To subject to a strain, make heavy demands upon to tax one's resources, memory, energies &c 3 Tax with, to accuse of, charge with, impute to to tax a person with rudeness, trickery tax (II), n, fr prec 1 Compulsory duty or impost levied by the State upon property, income, certain business transactions, articles of commerce, the right to use certain things &c 2 Strain, serious burden, heavy demand a tax on one's endurance, strength, resources &c taxability, n [1 tákabíliti, 2 tókabíliti] See next word & -bility State of being taxable taxable, adj [1 tákabíl, 2 tókabíl] tax (I) & -able Capable of being taxed, subject to taxation taxablousness, n Pres & -ness Taxability taxation, n [1 tákashun, 2 tóktshun] tax (I) & -ation Act of taxing, system of raising revenue by means of taxes, whole body of taxes payable at a given time tax-cart, n Light, tradesman's or farm cart exempt from taxation tax-collector, n Official whose business it is to collect taxes tax-farmer, n Person who buys from the government the right to collect taxes in a specific district tax-free, adj a Exempt from taxation, b (of dividends or interest) having the income tax paid by the company and not deducted when dividend or interest is paid to the shareholders, as some British war loans tax-gatherer, n [1 táks gásherer, 2 tóks gásherer] (archaic) Tax collector taxi (I), n [1 táks, 2 tóks] Abbr of taximeter (cab) Also taxi-cab, motor-cab for public hire, fitted with taximeter, by extension, any motor car plying for hire taxi (II), vb intrans, fr prec 1 To travel in a taxi 2 (of aeroplane) To move on surface of land or water under its own power taxidermal, adj [1 tákshídmál, 2 tóks-shídmál] taxidermy & -al Of, pertaining to, taxidermy

taxidermic, adj [1 tákshídmík, 2 tóks-shídmík] taxidermy & -ic Taxidermal taxidermist, n [1 tákshídmíst, 2 tóks-shídmíst] taxidermy & -ist Person who cures, stuffs, and mounts the skins of animals and birds so as to represent them as in life taxidermy, n [1 tákshídmí, 2 tóks-shídmí] fr Gk táxi (s), 'arrangement', see taxis, & -derm & -y Art of preparing, stuffing, and mounting skins of dead animals, birds &c so as to represent them as they appeared when alive taximeter, n [1 táksiméter, 2 tóksimíte] fr taximètre, fr taxe, 'charge, tariff, tax', see tax (II), & -meter Instrument fixed to a motor car plying for hire, having a dial indicating automatically the distance travelled and the corresponding fare taxin, n [1 tákain, 2 tóksain] fr Lat tax (us), 'yew', & -in Etymol uncertain See under toxic Poisonous, resinous compound obtained from leaves and berries of yew taxis, n [1 tákais, 2 tóksais] Gk taxis, 'arrangement, battle array, order, relative position', op Gk tassein, 'to arrange', no further cognates known certainly 1 (Gk antiq) Division of Greek army, varying in size in different states 2 (zool) System of classification 3 (surg) Application of manual pressure to restore displaced organs &c to their positions 4 (gram) Order, arrangement taxless, adj [1 tákales, 2 tókaless] tax (II) & -less Without taxes, not liable to taxation taxonomy, n [1 táksológ, 2 tóksológ] fr Gk tax (us), 'arrangement', see taxis, & -logy Science of classification taxonomic(al), adj [1 táksónómik(l), 2 tóksónómik(l)] taxonomy & -ic & -al Of, pertaining to, taxonomy taxonomist, n [1 táksónómist, 2 tóksónómist] Next word & -ist Student of, one skilled in, taxonomy taxonomy, n [1 táksónóm, 2 tóksónóm] fr Fr, fr Gk tax (us), 'arrangement', see taxis, & nóm (os), 'law, ordinance &c', see Nomenclature Science of classification taxpayer, n [1 tákspáyer, 2 tókspáyer] Person liable for payment of tax tea, n [1 tá, 2 tó] fr Fr thé, fr Chinese chai 1 a Also tea plant, evergreen shrub or small tree grown in China, Ceylon, Assam &c, b leaves of tea plant dried and used in infusion as a beverage 2 The drink made by steeping the leaves of the tea plant in boiling water 3 Light meal, taken esp in afternoon or evening, at which tea is drunk 4 a Strong broth made by stewing down meat in a closed vessel chicken, beef tea, b black currant tea, drink made by soaking black currant jam in boiling water tea-caddy, n Air-tight box in which small supply of tea is kept for daily use tea-cake, n Flat, slightly sweetened cake, toasted, buttered, and eaten at tea teach, vb trans [1 téch, 2 tít] OE tæcan, fr tahjan*, ME tēchen, op OE tācjan, 'sign', see token, oogn w Gk deigma, 'proof, example', fr base deig-, deig-, 'to show', parallel to deh-* &c, 'to show', seen in Gk gaithean, 'to announce', &c., op Lat dicere, 'to show, tell', see diction 1 a (i) To give instruction to guide studies of, impart knowledge, experience, skill, to teach children, apprentices &c, (ii) (with two objects) to give instruction to (person &c) in (a subject &c) to teach a child to read, to teach a class singing, to teach one French, b to accustom, train, habituate to teach a child to obey, to tell the truth, to teach the ear to distinguish sounds, c to train to teach a dog to beg 2 To give instruction in, to bring one to a knowledge of or skill in (a subject) to teach music, riding &c teachability, n [1 téchabíliti, 2 títshabíliti] See next word & -ity State of being teachable teach, n [1 táks, 2 tóks] Abbr of taximeter (cab) Also taxi-cab, motor-cab for public hire, fitted with taximeter, by extension, any motor car plying for hire taxi (II), vb intrans, fr prec 1 To travel in a taxi 2 (of aeroplane) To move on surface of land or water under its own power

taxidermal, adj [1 tákshídmál, 2 tóks-shídmál] taxidermy & -al Of, pertaining to, taxidermy

taxidermic, adj [1 tákshídmík, 2 tóks-shídmík] taxidermy & -ic Taxidermal

taxidermist, n [1 tákshídmíst, 2 tóks-shídmíst] taxidermy & -ist Person who

cures, stuffs, and mounts the skins of animals and birds so as to represent them as in life

taxidermy, n [1 tákshídmí, 2 tóks-shídmí] fr Gk táxi (s), 'arrangement', see taxis, & -derm & -y Art of preparing, stuffing, and mounting skins of dead animals, birds &c so as to represent them as they appeared when alive

teachable, adj [1 tēchabl, 2 tītēfēbl] teach & -able Capable of being taught, susceptible to training teachableness, n Proc & -ness State of being teachable teacher, n [1 tēcher, 2 tītēfē] teach & -er a One who teaches, trainer of the mind, instructor a child's first teacher is usually his mother, speak b one who does this as a profession a teacher of drawing, a school-teacher teachcrship, n [1 tēchership, 2 tītēfēp] Proc & -ship Office of a teacher tea-chest, n Light wooden, metal lined box in which tea is imported from the country in which it is grown teaching, n [1 tēching, 2 tītējŋ] teach & -ing 1 Act, occupation, of a teacher to take up teaching 2 That which is taught, specific doctrine the teaching of the apostles tea-cloth, n 1 Small cloth for tea table 2 Cloth for drying tea things &c when washed tea-cup, n 1 Small cup used, as used, at tea 2 Tea cupful tea-cupful, n Amount contained in a tea-cup tea-fight, n (slang) Tea party tea-garden, n Garden containing an open air restaurant where tea and other light refreshments are obtainable tea-gown, n Woman's loose gown worn for tea &c Teagun, n [1 tēg, 2 tīg] Ir name (con temptuously) Irishman tea-house, n Restaurant in China or Japan where tea &c is consumed teak, n [1 tēk, 2 tīk], fr Port teca, fr Malayalam teḷu 1 Large East Indian tree, Tectona grandis 2 The wood of this tree, a valuable kind of timber, used in shipbuilding &c tea-kettle, n Smallish kettle as used to boil water for tea teal n [1 tēl, 2 tīl] ME tēle, etymol doubtful Kind of small wild duck, genus Nehon, frequenting rivers and lakes tea-leaf, n 1 Leaf of tea plant, specif, the same dried and prepared for infusing and making into the beverage 2 (pl) Tea-leaves, a collection of leaves of the tea plant left after infusion team (I), n [1 tēm, 2 tīm] OE tēam, 'progeny, family, team of oxen', ME terre, prob connected (in Mod. sense) w tow (I), tug, & w Lat ducere, 'to draw', as duct, duke, op also team (I) 1 Two or more beasts of burden or draught harnessed together a team of horses, a sledge drawn by a dog team 2 Group of persons acting together in specific work, game &c, players forming one side team (II), vb trans, fr proc 1 To harness together to form a team 2 (colloq) To let out (work, job &c) to contractor employing team of horses, men &c teaming, n [1 tēmŋ, 2 tīmŋ] Proc. & -ing (colloq) System, method, of hiring out work to contractors employing gangs of workmen teamster, n [1 tēmster, 2 tīmster] team (I) & -ster a Driver of team of animals, as animal in a team teamwise n [1 tēmwise, 2 tīmwise] team (I) & -wise In the form or manner of a team team-work n Organized joint co-operation tea-party, n Social gathering w afternoon tea tea-pot n Earthenware or metal vessel with a handle and spout in which tea is brewed before being poured into cups tea-spoon n [1 tēspūn, 2 tītēspūn] fr thē & spūn 1 Spoon used for stirring tea &c 2 Amount contained in a teaspoon, one fourth of tablespoon

teat, n [1 tēt, 2 tīt] ME & O Fr tete, fr LG tilla, cp OE titt, Germ zitze, cogn w Gk tithē, 'nurse', fr base dhe-*, 'suck', & ultimately cogn w thēf, 'teat', thēahay, 'to milk', Bort dāht, 'nurse', Lat fēlāre, 'to suck', fēmina, 'woman', see foramine & filial Pointed projection on the breast of a mammal through which milk passes, nipple

ter-table, n Small table used for tea

tea-things, n Utensils prepared for use at tea

teatlike, adj [1 tēlik, 2 tītlik] teat & -like Resembling a teat tea-tray, n Small tray on which tea things are set out, and carried tea-urn, n Urn in which water is boiled for making tea

teazel See teasel

tear, n [1 tēr, 2 tīr] ME & O Fr tear, fr LG tilla, cp OE titt, Germ zitze, cogn w Gk tithē, 'nurse', fr base dhe-*, 'suck', & ultimately cogn w thēf, 'teat', thēahay, 'to milk', Bort dāht, 'nurse', Lat fēlāre, 'to suck', fēmina, 'woman', see foramine & filial Pointed projection on the breast of a mammal through which milk passes, nipple tear (II), n, fr proc Root, division, caused by tearing a tear in fabric, a garment &c tear (III), n [1 tēr, 2 tīr] OE tēr, ME tēre, O HG zahar, Goth tegr, cogn w Gk dakru, Lat lacrima, 'tear', fr lacrima, see lachrymal 1 Single drop of the saline secretion of the lachrymal gland, which normally serves to moisten the eye ball, but whose flow is increased by emotion or by violent contraction of the eye muscles in coughing &c to shed tears, to weep away one's tears, eyes filled with tears Phr in tears, weeping, crocodile tears, sham, hypocritical grief 2 Drop or drop like particle of liquid or transparent solid, e.g drop of dew, resin, amber &c, tears of strong wine, drops forming on side of glass partly filled with port &c tear-drop, n Single tear falling from the eye tear-droplet, n Droplet passing from lachrymal gland to nose passage tearful, adj [1 tērfool, 2 tīrfool] tear (III) & -ful 1 Shedding tears, given to weeping, lachrymose 2 Causing tears, sad, lamentable tearfully, adv Proc & -ly In a tearful manner with tears tearfulness, n See proc & -ness State of being tearful tear-gas, n Poison gas, contained in shells or otherwise discharged, causing violent watering of the eyes and temporary blindness tearing, adj [1 tērŋ, 2 tīrŋ] tear (I) & -ing (colloq) Violent, raging, furious a tearing rage, a tearing hurry, a tearing gale tearless adj [1 tērles, 2 tīrles] tear (III) & -less Not weeping, not causing the shedding of tears tea-room n Restaurant in which tea, coffee, and light refreshments are obtainable, room in hotel &c, set apart for tea tea-rose n Variety of China rose with scent supposed to resemble that of tea tear-shell, n Explosive shell containing tear-gas that causes the eyes to we or painfully tear-stained adj [1 tērstand, 2 tīrstand] Shown signs of recent tears tease (I), vb trans [1 tēz, 2 tīz] OE tēan to pluck, pull apart, ME tean, cp Dan tean ME tean 1 To tear apart fibres of separate into parts to tease jute &c 2 To raise a nap on (cloth) by scratching with teeth 3 To worry, annoy, as he teased her, he teased the monkey of b to subject to good natured chaff, to make fun of him c To jester impudently, to make fun of him d To do so with a teasing or playful manner tease (II), vb trans [1 tēz, 2 tīz] OE tēan to pluck, pull apart, ME tean, cp Dan tean ME tean 1 To tear apart fibres of separate into parts to tease jute &c 2 To raise a nap on (cloth) by scratching with teeth 3 To worry, annoy, as he teased her, he teased the monkey of b to subject to good natured chaff, to make fun of him c To jester impudently, to make fun of him d To do so with a teasing or playful manner tease (III), vb trans [1 tēz, 2 tīz] OE tēan to pluck, pull apart, ME tean, cp Dan tean ME tean 1 To tear apart fibres of separate into parts to tease jute &c 2 To raise a nap on (cloth) by scratching with teeth 3 To worry, annoy, as he teased her, he teased the monkey of b to subject to good natured chaff, to make fun of him c To jester impudently, to make fun of him d To do so with a teasing or playful manner tease (IV), vb trans [1 tēz, 2 tīz] OE tēan to pluck, pull apart, ME tean, cp Dan tean ME tean 1 To tear apart fibres of separate into parts to tease jute &c 2 To raise a nap on (cloth) by scratching with teeth 3 To worry, annoy, as he teased her, he teased the monkey of b to subject to good natured chaff, to make fun of him c To jester impudently, to make fun of him d To do so with a teasing or playful manner tease (V), vb trans [1 tēz, 2 tīz] OE tēan to pluck, pull apart, ME tean, cp Dan tean ME tean 1 To tear apart fibres of separate into parts to tease jute &c 2 To raise a nap on (cloth) by scratching with teeth 3 To worry, annoy, as he teased her, he teased the monkey of b to subject to good natured chaff, to make fun of him c To jester impudently, to make fun of him d To do so with a teasing or playful manner tease (VI), vb trans [1 tēz, 2 tīz] OE tēan to pluck, pull apart, ME tean, cp Dan tean ME tean 1 To tear apart fibres of separate into parts to tease jute &c 2 To raise a nap on (cloth) by scratching with teeth 3 To worry, annoy, as he teased her, he teased the monkey of b to subject to good natured chaff, to make fun of him c To jester impudently, to make fun of him d To do so with a teasing or playful manner tease (VII), vb trans [1 tēz, 2 tīz] OE tēan to pluck, pull apart, ME tean, cp Dan tean ME tean 1 To tear apart fibres of separate into parts to tease jute &c 2 To raise a nap on (cloth) by scratching with teeth 3 To worry, annoy, as he teased her, he teased the monkey of b to subject to good natured chaff, to make fun of him c To jester impudently, to make fun of him d To do so with a teasing or playful manner tease (VIII), vb trans [1 tēz, 2 tīz] OE tēan to pluck, pull apart, ME tean, cp Dan tean ME tean 1 To tear apart fibres of separate into parts to tease jute &c 2 To raise a nap on (cloth) by scratching with teeth 3 To worry, annoy, as he teased her, he teased the monkey of b to subject to good natured chaff, to make fun of him c To jester impudently, to make fun of him d To do so with a teasing or playful manner tease (IX), vb trans [1 tēz, 2 tīz] OE tēan to pluck, pull apart, ME tean, cp Dan tean ME tean 1 To tear apart fibres of separate into parts to tease jute &c 2 To raise a nap on (cloth) by scratching with teeth 3 To worry, annoy, as he teased her, he teased the monkey of b to subject to good natured chaff, to make fun of him c To jester impudently, to make fun of him d To do so with a teasing or playful manner tease (X), vb trans [1 tēz, 2 tīz] OE tēan to pluck, pull apart, ME tean, cp Dan tean ME tean 1 To tear apart fibres of separate into parts to tease jute &c 2 To raise a nap on (cloth) by scratching with teeth 3 To worry, annoy, as he teased her, he teased the monkey of b to subject to good natured chaff, to make fun of him c To jester impudently, to make fun of him d To do so with a teasing or playful manner tease (XI), vb trans [1 tēz, 2 tīz] OE tēan to pluck, pull apart, ME tean, cp Dan tean ME tean 1 To tear apart fibres of separate into parts to tease jute &c 2 To raise a nap on (cloth) by scratching with teeth 3 To worry, annoy, as he teased her, he teased the monkey of b to subject to good natured chaff, to make fun of him c To jester impudently, to make fun of him d To do so with a teasing or playful manner tease (XII), vb trans [1 tēz, 2 tīz] OE tēan to pluck, pull apart, ME tean, cp Dan tean ME tean 1 To tear apart fibres of separate into parts to tease jute &c 2 To raise a nap on (cloth) by scratching with teeth 3 To worry, annoy, as he teased her, he teased the monkey of b to subject to good natured chaff, to make fun of him c To jester impudently, to make fun of him d To do so with a teasing or playful manner tease (XIII), vb trans [1 tēz, 2 tīz] OE tēan to pluck, pull apart, ME tean, cp Dan tean ME tean 1 To tear apart fibres of separate into parts to tease jute &c 2 To raise a nap on (cloth) by scratching with teeth 3 To worry, annoy, as he teased her, he teased the monkey of b to subject to good natured chaff, to make fun of him c To jester impudently, to make fun of him d To do so with a teasing or playful manner tease (XIV), vb trans [1 tēz, 2 tīz] OE tēan to pluck, pull apart, ME tean, cp Dan tean ME tean 1 To tear apart fibres of separate into parts to tease jute &c 2 To raise a nap on (cloth) by scratching with teeth 3 To worry, annoy, as he teased her, he teased the monkey of b to subject to good natured chaff, to make fun of him c To jester impudently, to make fun of him d To do so with a teasing or playful manner tease (XV), vb trans [1 tēz, 2 tīz] OE tēan to pluck, pull apart, ME tean, cp Dan tean ME tean 1 To tear apart fibres of separate into parts to tease jute &c 2 To raise a nap on (cloth) by scratching with teeth 3 To worry, annoy, as he teased her, he teased the monkey of b to subject to good natured chaff, to make fun of him c To jester impudently, to make fun of him d To do so with a teasing or playful manner tease (XVI), vb trans [1 tēz, 2 tīz] OE tēan to pluck, pull apart, ME tean, cp Dan tean ME tean 1 To tear apart fibres of separate into parts to tease jute &c 2 To raise a nap on (cloth) by scratching with teeth 3 To worry, annoy, as he teased her, he teased the monkey of b to subject to good natured chaff, to make fun of him c To jester impudently, to make fun of him d To do so with a teasing or playful manner tease (XVII), vb trans [1 tēz, 2 tīz] OE tēan to pluck, pull apart, ME tean, cp Dan tean ME tean 1 To tear apart fibres of separate into parts to tease jute &c 2 To raise a nap on (cloth) by scratching with teeth 3 To worry, annoy, as he teased her, he teased the monkey of b to subject to good natured chaff, to make fun of him c To jester impudently, to make fun of him d To do so with a teasing or playful manner tease (XVIII), vb trans [1 tēz, 2 tīz] OE tēan to pluck, pull apart, ME tean, cp Dan tean ME tean 1 To tear apart fibres of separate into parts to tease jute &c 2 To raise a nap on (cloth) by scratching with teeth 3 To worry, annoy, as he teased her, he teased the monkey of b to subject to good natured chaff, to make fun of him c To jester impudently, to make fun of him d To do so with a teasing or playful manner tease, pluck, see tease (I) & -ol 1 a Plant, genus Dipsacus, with large burrs, or heads covered with hooked prickles, b one of these heads used in raising nap on cloth &c 2 Machine, brush &c, used in place of teasel teasel (II), vb trans, fr proc To dress, raise nap on (cloth), with teasel teaseler, teazler, n [1 tēz(ə)ler, 2 tīz(ə)ler] Proc & -er Person employed in, machine used in, teasing teaser, n [1 tēzər, 2 tīzər] tease (I) & -er 1 Person given to teasing 2 (colloq) Puzzling problem or task tea-service, n Tea set tea-set, n Set or cups, plates &c, for use at tea teasing, adj [1 tēzŋ, 2 tīzŋ], fr Pres Part of tease (I) Harassing, tormenting, causing petty annoyance teasingly, adv Proc & -ly So as to tease teaspoon, n [1 tēspūn, 2 tītēspūn] Small spoon, of steel used for stirring tea &c teaspoonful, n [1 tēspūnfūl, 2 tītēspūnfūl] Amount contained in a teaspoon, one fourth of tablespoon

teat, n [1 tēt, 2 tīt] ME & O Fr tete, fr LG tilla, cp OE titt, Germ zitze, cogn w Gk tithē, 'nurse', fr base dhe-*, 'suck', & ultimately cogn w thēf, 'teat', thēahay, 'to milk', Bort dāht, 'nurse', Lat fēlāre, 'to suck', fēmina, 'woman', see foramine & filial Pointed projection on the breast of a mammal through which milk passes, nipple

ter-table, n Small table used for tea

tea-things, n Utensils prepared for use at tea

teatlike, adj [1 tēlik, 2 tītlik] teat & -like Resembling a teat

tea-tray, n Small tray on which tea things are set out, and carried

tea-urn, n Urn in which water is boiled for making tea

teazel See teasel

teo, n [1 tēk, 2 tēk] Abbr of detective (slang) Detective teahly, adv See teahly techness, n See techiness technic, adj & n [1 tēknik, 2 tēknik], fr Gk technē (de), 'made by art', fr tēkhō (e), 'art, skill', & -ic, op Gk technōn, 'carpenter, workman', Sort tekon, 'carpenter's' O Slav tesla, O HG dehola, 'axe' Perh cogn w Lat texere, 'to weave, construct', see text 1. adj Technical 2 n A Technique, b (pl) techniques the arts in general, branches of knowledge dealing with the mechanical arts, o (pl) vocabulary or rules of the arts technical, adj [1 tēknikl, 2 tēknikl] Proc & -al 1 Connected with, pertaining to, based on, the industrial or mechanical arts technical education 2 Pertaining to, occurring, especially used in some specific art, industry, branch of knowledge &c technical knowledge, difficulties, terms, the technical use of a word technicality, n [1 tēknikāliti, 2 tēknikāliti] Proc & -ity 1 State of being technical, 2 Something a term, method, procedure &c, connected with, and peculiar to some specific art, science, branch of knowledge, occupation &c technically, adv [1 tēknikālī, 2 tēknikālī] See proc & -ly In a technical manner, in a technical sense, from a technical point of view technician, n [1 tēknishān, 2 tēknishān] technic & -ian. Technicist technicist, n [1 tēknisist, 2 tēknisist] technic & -ist. S adept of, or skilled in, technique technicon, n [1 tēknikon, 2 tēknikon] fr Gk technikon neut. form of technikos, see technic Device or apparatus for exercising powers of intellect technophone, n [1 tēknifōn, 2 tēknifōn] fr Gk technē (e), 'art, skill', see technic, & phōnē, 'sound', see -phone Instrument with keyboard producing no sound, for exercising powers of fingers, dumb piano

technophone, n [1 tēknifōn, 2 tēknifōn] fr Gk technē (e), 'art, skill', see technic, & phōnē, 'sound', see -phone Instrument with keyboard producing no sound, for exercising powers of fingers, dumb piano

technophone, n [1 tēknifōn, 2 tēknifōn] fr Gk technē (e), 'art, skill', see technic, & phōnē, 'sound', see -phone Instrument with keyboard producing no sound, for exercising powers of fingers, dumb piano

technophone, n [1 tēknifōn, 2 tēknifōn] fr Gk technē (e), 'art, skill', see technic, & phōnē, 'sound', see -phone Instrument with keyboard producing no sound, for exercising powers of fingers, dumb piano

technophone, n [1 tēknifōn, 2 tēknifōn] fr Gk technē (e), 'art, skill', see technic, & phōnē, 'sound', see -phone Instrument with keyboard producing no sound, for exercising powers of fingers, dumb piano

technophone, n [1 tēknifōn, 2 tēknifōn] fr Gk technē (e), 'art, skill', see technic, & phōnē, 'sound', see -phone Instrument with keyboard producing no sound, for exercising powers of fingers, dumb piano

tellership, n [1 télérship, 2 télásp] Proo. & -ship Office of teller telling, adj [1 téling, 2 téling] fr. Pres. Part of tell Producing a marked effect, impressive, striking tellingly, adv Proo. & -ly In a telling manner telltale (I), n [1 teltál, 2 teltál] 1 A Person inclined to divulge the private affairs of others, a gossip, b one who tells things to another's discredit, a sneak, an informer. 2 (fig.) Thing conveying information, a token, sign, evidence telltale (II), adj, fr. proo. Acting as telltale, tending to betray or reveal a secret, hidden feelings &c a telltale blush tellurial, adj [1 télural, 2 téljórél] fr. Lat. tellúr, stem of tellús, 'earth', see tellurium, & -al Of, pertaining to, the earth or its inhabitants tellurate, n [1 télurát, 2 téljúrát] See tellurium & -ate A salt or telluric acid tellurest, n [1 téljúrét; 2 téljúrét] See tellurium & -et Compound of tellurium telluretted, adj [1 téljúrét, 2 téljúrét] Proo. & -ed Containing tellurium tellurian, adj & n [1 télúrán, 2 téljúrán] fr. Lat. tellúr, stem of tellús, 'earth', see tellurium, & -ian 1 adj Of, pertaining to, the earth 2 n Inhabitant of the earth telluric, adj [1 télúrik, 2 téljúrik] See tellurium & -ic Of, derived from, tellurium telluride, n [1 télúrid, 2 téljúríd] See tellurium & -ide Telluride tellurion, n [1 télúrion, 2 téljúrion] fr. Lat. tellúr, stem of tellús, 'earth', see tellurium Apparatus illustrating motions of earth tellurium, n [1 télúrion, 2 téljúrion] fr. Lat. tellúr, stem of tellús, 'earth', & -ium, op. Sort talam, 'surface', O Slav tilo, 'ground' (obsc.) Rare, brittle, lustrous, crystalline element resembling sulphur and selenium tellurous, adj [1 télúrus, 2 téljúrús] See tellurium & -ous Containing tellurium télotype, n [1 télotíp, 2 télotíp] See tele- & -type 1 Electro telegraphic instrument which prints automatically 2 Telegram printed by this instrument télpher, adj & n [1 télfer, 2 télfer] Contracted fr. télé- & -phore 1 adj Conveying, transporting, by electricity télpher line, road &c 2 n An electrically driven truck or carrier for conveying goods &c télpherage, n [1 télferi, 2 télferíd] Proo. & -age Transportation by electricity telson, n [1 télson, 2 télson] Gk. télson, 'hind', prob. like télso, 'end', see télso, fr. base 'tel', 'to turn', see oýelo & whool Last abdominal section of some crustaceans Telugu, n [1 téloogú, 2 téljígú] Native A Dravidian language of Southern India temenos, n [1 témenos, 2 témenos] Gk. temenos, 'sacred enclosure', op. témnai, 'to cut', temos, 'part, portion, volume', see teme & op. also temple (I) (Gk. archaeol.) Sacred enclosure round temple &c temerarious, adj [1 téméráriu, 2 téméráriu] Lat. temerarius, 'rash', see temer- & -ary & -ous Foolishly venturesome, rash, reckless temerariouly, adv Proo. & -ly In a temerarious manner temerarioussness, n See proo. & -ness Quality of being temerarious, rashness, foolhardiness temerity, n [1 téméríti, 2 téméríti] fr. Lat. temeritatis (am), 'rashness', fr. temere, 'rashly', headlong', fr. temes, 'dark', op. Lat. temebrae, 'darkness', Sort kámerú, 'darkness', O H G dinstar, 'dark', Lat. tamsa, 'darkness', op. temebrae a Rashness, daring, b audacity, presumptuousness temp, adv [1 temp, 2 temp] abbr. of Lat. tempus, abl of tempus, 'time', see temporal (I) In the time of temp. Edu I Tempean, adj [1 tempeán, 2 templon] fr. Gk. Témpé, valley in Thessaly, & -an. Of, pertaining to, as beautiful as, the valley of Tempe temper (I), vb trans & intrans [1 temper, 2 tempe] O E tempran, 'to mingle, moderate, regulate', M E temperen, fr. Lat. temperare, 'to combine in due proportion, to rule, regulate, to be moderate', fr. tempus, stem of tempus, 'portion of time, due season, time', see tempus A trans 1 a (archaic) To blend, compound, b to moderate, regulate, to diminish, mitigate, potency of, by mingling with another ingredient to temper strong drink with water, (also in non-material sense) to temper justice with mercy, Phr. to temper the wind to the shorn lamb, to make allowances, show consideration, for weakness, poverty, misfortune 2 To reduce (clay) to desired consistency, by moistening and kneading 3 To toughen and harden (metal or glass) by heating, sudden cooling, and reheating (N B—Meanings 2 and 3 are probably influenced by fr. temper, 'to soak, temper steel' &c) B intrans To have, attain, a desired quality or state, esp to become soft and pliable temper (II), n, fr. proo. 1 Consistency of clay, mortar &c obtained by tempering 2 Condition and degree of hardness and toughness in metal produced by tempering 3 Disposition, cast, attitude, of mind, character, nature a stubborn, fiery, equable, uncertain, temper Phr. to lose one's temper, become suddenly angry, recover, regain, one's temper, become calm and equable again 4 Particular mood, transient humour to be in a good, bad, temper 5 State of irritation of mind, anger, passion to get into a temper, to show signs of temper 6 Calmness, equable state of mind 'To fall with dignity, with temper rise' (Pope, 'Essay on Man', 378) tempera, n [1 tempera, 2 tempera] Ital Distemper, esp as used in fresco painting temperable, adj [1 témperabl, 2 témperabl] temper & -able Capable of being tempered temperament, n [1 témperament, 2 témperament] fr. Lat. temperamentum, 'mixing in due proportion, disposition, constitution', fr. tempera-(re), 'to mix, mingle, temper', see temper (I), & -ment 1 A Characteristic combination of bodily, mental, and moral qualities, which together constitute the character and disposition of an individual, and predisposes him to act and behave in a particular manner excitable, placid, easy going &c, by temperament, the artistic temperament, b specif, an intense, passionate nature and character a woman lacking temperament 2 Adjustment of the tones of the scale in instruments of fixed tone (e.g. piano &c), so as to adapt the scale for use in all keys temperamental, adj [1 témperamentál, 2 témperamentál] Proo. & -al Pertaining to, depending on, arising from, the temperament, esp in sense 1, b temperamentally, adv Proo. & -ly By reason of temperament temperamentally disinclined for work temperance, n [1 témperans, 2 temperans] fr. O Fr. fr. Lat. temperantia, 'temperance', temper (I) & -ance 1 State or quality of being temperate, moderation, self-restraint, self-control, in action, conduct, speech, and, esp, in eating and drinking 2 Specif a Moderation in use of alcoholic liquor, b total abstinence from intoxicants, temperance movement, society &c, aiming at restriction or prohibition of intoxicating drinks, temperance hotel, one in which alcoholic liquors are not sold temperate, adj [1 témperat, 2 témperat] temper & -ate 1 (of persons) A Exercising self-restraint in pleasures, abstemious, not self-indulgent, b moderate in opinions, ideas, opinions &c (Not violent or excessive, not extreme 3 (of climate) Not exhibiting extremes either of heat or cold, moderate, fairly equable.

temperately, adv Proo. & -ly In a temperate manner temperateness, n See proo. & -ness State of being temperate temperative, adj [1 témperatív, 2 témperatív] temper (I) & -ative Having the power of tempering temperature, n [1 témperachur, 2 témper(a)-rété] fr. L. Lat. temperatura, 'temperature', see temper & -ure 1 Degree of heat or cold the temperature of the room was intolerably hot 2 Degree of heat possessed by a living body Phrs. to take one's temperature, measure and ascertain this by means of a clinical thermometer, to have a temperature, (colloq.) have a temperature above normal, to be feverish
-tempered, adj [1 témperad, 2 témperad] temper (II) & -ed Having a temper of specified kind good-, bad-, hot tempered &c
-temperedly, adv Proo. & -ly In a manner characteristic of specific temper He temperedly &c temperer, n [1 témperer, 2 tempera] temper (I) & -er One who, that which, tempers specif, machine for blending potter's clay tempest (I), n [1 témpést, 2 témpést] M E fr. O Fr. tempeste, fr. Low Lat. 'tempestia, Lat. tempestas, 'portion, space, of time, season, period, a storm', see tempus, temporal (I) 1 Violent agitation of the elements, rough, tumultuous state of the weather, violent storm of wind, rain &c 2 (fig.) Something resembling a tempest in violence; violent disturbance of the emotions, uncontrolled, tumultuous, expression of such disturbance a tempest of soba, weeping &c tempest (II), vb intrans & trans, fr. proo. a intrans To move violently and tumultuously, like a tempest to tempest through the house, b trans, to cause a tempest in, raise to the fury of a tempest 'Tempest the ocean' (Milton) tempestuous, adj [1 témpéstíus, 2 témpéstíus] O Fr tempestueux, fr. substitution of -ous, see tempest (I) a Resembling a tempest in violence, of the nature of a tempest, stormy a tempestuous wind, b (fig., of the emotions, or behaviour) violent, turbulent, powerfully excited, agitated a tempestuous sitting of Parliament &c tempestuously, adv Proo. & -ly After the manner of a tempest, violently, agitatedly. tempestuousness, n See proo. & -ness State, quality, of being tempestuous Templar, n [1 templar, 2 templar] M E templere, fr. Lat. templarius, see temple (I) & -ar 1 Member of the military religious Order, founded 1119 for the protection of the Holy Sepulchre, so called from headquarters of the Order, known as Solomon's Temple in Jerusalem, also called Knights Templar 2 Law student, esp one having chambers in the Temple in London, which formerly belonged to the Knights Templars 'And knights and templars every sentence raise' (Pope, imit and templars every sentence raise (Pope, 'To Arbutnot', 211) 3 A Member of an order in modern Freemasonry styled Knights Templars, b member of a temperance society known as Good Templars temple See temple temple (I), n [1 templ, 2 templ] fr. fr. Lat. templum, 'place or space of observation, marked off by the Augur with his staff, any open space (post)', place set apart for public functions, consecrated, sacred, place, place of refuge, place devoted to a particular deity, a temo 'Wilde sees as the sacred deity', a temo 'stretched, expectant', & connotes the word fr. Lat. temere, 'to stretch', see temd (II) & temse (II), other authorities regard the central meaning as 'place set apart, cut off, from surroundings', & connect with Gk. temenos, 'sacred enclosure', see temenos, fr. Gk. temnen, 'to cut', connected with teme, 'share', see teme 1 A building set apart for worship, a heathen temple, b place of Christian worship, a church, esp a Protestant church (in France), c a temenos place of worship 2 Specif, the Temple, the chief place of worship of Jehovah, built in Jerusalem by the ancient Jews 3 The Temple, a the Inns of Court, Inner and Middle Temple, in London, the site of which formerly belonged to the Knights Templars, b the Temple Church in London, c former headquarters of Templars in Paris 4 Place or object sanctified by the Divine Presence, the body thought of as the temple of the Holy Ghost temple (II), n O Fr temple, fr Lat templum, pl, 'the fatal spot', fr tempus, 'period of time, the fitting time', in pl 'the fatal spot, the temples of the head', see tempus One of the sides of the head on either side of the forehead in front of the ear temple (III), n See templet Device for keeping cloth taut on a loom templed, adj [1 templed, 2 templed] temple (I) & -ed. Supplied with, abounding in, temples templet, n [1 tēplet, 2 tēplet] Fr dimin. of temple, prob fr Lat templum, in sense of 'small raft, purkin', see temple (I) 1 Thin plate of wood or metal used as a pattern or guide in cutting wood or stone 2 Timber used under end of a girder or beam, to distribute weight 3 Wedge under block on keel of a ship in process of construction tempo, n [1 tēmpō, 2 tēmpō] Ital, 'time', see tempus (mus) Degree of speed at which a passage is to be played temporal (I), adj [1 tēporal, 2 tēporal] Lat temporalis, 'belonging to time, lasting only for a time, temporary', fr tempus, stem of tempus, & -al 1 Belonging to, existing under, the limitation of time, contrasted with eternal 2 Pertaining to, limited by, time, lasting only during the life time of humanity upon the earth, earthly, transient, contrasted with eternal 3 Pertaining to civil affairs as distinguished from ecclesiastical the temporal power of the Pope 4 (gram) Pertaining to tense temporal (II), adj & n Op temple (II) 1 adj (anat) Connected with, lying near, forming part of, the temples 2 n A temporal bone temporality, n [1 tēporaliti, 2 tēporaliti] temporal (I) & -ity Material rights and possessions, esp those pertaining to an ecclesiastical authority, generally pl, temporalities of the Church temporality, n [1 tēporaliti, 2 tēporaliti] See pro (rare) Temporality temporarily adv [1 tēporarili, 2 tēporarili] temporary & -ly For a time only temporality, n [1 tēporaliti, 2 tēporaliti] temporariness n [1 tēporarines, 2 tēporarines] See pro & -ness State of being temporary temporary adj [1 tēporari, 2 tēporari] Lat temporarius, 'belonging to time, lasting only for a time', tempor, stem of tempus, see tempus a Lasting only for a time, transient fleeting temporary pleasures, good fortune &c contrasted with lasting, b held, occupied, during a limited time only, not permanent c temporary job, employment, post, appointment, temporary possession temporization, n [1 tēporizāshun, 2 tēporizāshun] Next word & -ation. Act of temporizing temporize vb intrans [1 tēporiz, 2 tēporiz] Fr temporiser, stem of Lat tempus see tempus & -ize 1 To pursue a non-committal line of conduct or action, give evasive, indecisive reply so as to gain time before coming to irrevocable decision 2 To play the part of time-server couply, or appear to comply, with the requirements of the time and occasion temporizer n [1 tēporizer, 2 tēporizer] See pro & -or Person given to temporizing temporizing, n [1 tēporizing, 2 tēporizing] temporize & -ing Act of temporizing, temporization temporizingly, adv Pres Part of temporize & -ly In a temporizing manner temporo-, pref Lat tempora, see temple (II) Connected with the head or facial areas, or temporo-maxillary, pertaining to the temple and upper jaw tempt, vb trans [1 tempt, 2 tempt] ME tempten, tenten, fr O Fr tempter, tenter, 'to try, attempt, to tempt', Lat tenēre, 'to handle, touch, feel, to prove, put to the test, try, to essay, attempt, to urge, incite', the base is said by Walde to be an intans of tendere, 'to stretch, stretch out, to aim, strive, direct one's course towards', see tend (II) 1 a (archaic, Bib) To test, try, prove, b (poet) to attempt 2 (of human action) a To persuade, or endeavour to persuade, to do some thing, esp something wrong, by holding out certain inducements, to seduce, incite, urge on, to evil 'the woman tempted me', to tempt a man to steal, b (in innocent sense) to persuade, induce can't I tempt you to have another helping, I am almost tempted to accept

Phr nothing would tempt me to (leave England), I am determined not to 3 (of object of inanimate things, of circumstances &c) To attract, allure, entice, excite desire in your offer doesn't tempt me at all, everything to tempt the appetite temptation, n [1 tēptāshun, 2 tēptāshun] [n] Preo & -ation 1 A act of tempting, b state of being tempted 2 That which tempts, an attraction, allurements, inducement, a (in bad sense) one should not put temptation in the way of others, many temptations beset the young, b (in innocent sense) I am so comfortable here, that there is no temptation to leave tempter, n [1 tēptēr, 2 tēptēr] tempt & -er Person who tempts, spear, the Tempter, the Devil, Satan tempting, adj [1 tēpting, 2 tēpting] fr Pres Part of tempt Attractive, alluring, seductive a tempting offer, this peach looks very tempting temptress, n [1 tēptres, 2 tēptres] tempter & -ess Woman who tempts (chiefly in bad sense) tempus, n [1 tēmpus, 2 tēmpus] Lat, 'time, a period of time', stem tempor, see temporal (I) &c, the etymol, like the orig conception, whence the meaning springs, is doubtful Some regard this as being 'a particular region of the sky, & connect w temple (I), others believe the basal idea to be 'that which lasts', & connect w tendere, 'to stretch out, extend', & Sort tenēre, 'it lasts', & w Goth teihō, fr tenh*, 'time, season', others again believe the orig sense to have been 'particular, specific, period or point of time', still connecting w tenēre & teihō & also w O N ping, 'meeting hold at fixed times', see thing Time as thought of in connexion with music and prosody tempus fugit, phr [1 tēmpus fūjt, 2 tēmpus fūjdjt] Lat Time flies ten, numeral adj & n [1 ten, 2 ten] OE ten, tēn, OHG zehān, Mod Germ zehn, O S tehan, Goth teihun, all fr Aryan deh₁m*, whence also Gk deka, Sort deka, Lat decem op decimal 1 adj One more than nine twice five Phrs 'as times the man you are, a much better man ten times as big, a great deal bigger I'd ten times rather, much rather 2 n a The number one more than nine b the figure 10, or X, expressing this, c a collection of ten objects to arrange things in tens Phr the upper ten, for ten thousand, the aristocracy tenable adj [1 tēnabl, tēnabl, 2 tēnabl, tēnabl] Fr fr Lat stem ten, 'to hold, & -able Lat tenere, 'to hold, grasp, have in one's power, have, keep possession of, to hinder restrain to hold in the mind, to know, to take in, understand', is ultimately fr same base as tendere, 'to stretch, q v under tend (II) & ep tendon & tense (II) 1 (of a fortress, position &c) Capable of being defended, maintained, hold in possession 2 (of opinions, ideas &c) Capable of being reasonably held by the mind, in accordance with facts or with common sense, logical tenace, n [1 tēnās, 2 tēnās] Fr, see next word (whist) Combination of first and third best, or second and fourth best cards of the suit which has been led, hold by the same hand tenacious, adj [1 tēnāshus, 2 tēnāshus] Lat tenāx, stem of tenax, 'holding fast, sticky, stubborn', see base under tenable, & -ous 1 Holding, grasping, firmly a tenacious grip 2 Holding together firmly, a tough, cohesive, b adhesive, sticky 3 (of the mind and mental condition) a Grasping and keeping firmly, retentive a tenacious memory, b adhering firmly to a purpose, unyielding, stubborn a tenacious foe, to be tenacious of one's rights tenaciously, adv Preo & -ly In a tenacious manner tenaciousness, n See pro & -ness Quality, fact, of being tenacious (in physical and moral sense) tenacity, n [1 tēnāsiti, 2 tēnāsiti] Lat tenacitas (em), 'a holding fast', fr tenēre, see tenacious, & -ity a Resolution, fixity of purpose, stubbornness, b power of retaining, retentiveness tenaculum, n [1 tēnākūlum, 2 tēnākūlum] Lat, 'a holder', formed fr tenēre, see tenacious Sharp, slender hook used by surgeons tenail(le), n [1 tēnāl, 2 tēnāl] Fr, fr pro (fort) Outwork in main ditch between two bastions tenancy, n [1 tēnānsi, 2 tēnānsi] Next word & -oy 1 A act of holding property as a tenant, b period, duration, of such holding 2 Property, land, or house, held by a tenant tenant (I), n [1 tēnant, 2 tēnant] Fr, fr Pres Part of tenere, 'to hold', fr Lat tenēre, see tenable 1 (law) Person possessing real estate by any kind of right, whether for life, or for a term of years, or at the will of another 2 Person who holds house or land belonging to another on payment of rent, contrasted with landlord 3 Inhabitant, dweller, denizen tenants of the woods, trees &c, birds tenant (II), vb trans, fr pro To occupy, hold, possess, as a tenant, chiefly used in P P tenantable, adj [1 tēnantabl, 2 tēnantabl] tenant (II) & -able Capable of being, fit to be occupied by a tenant tenantless, adj [1 tēnantless, 2 tēnantless] tenant (I) & -less Empty, unoccupied, devoid of tenants or inhabitants tenantry, n [1 tēnantri, 2 tēnantri] tenant (I) & -ry Body of tenants collectively tench, n [1 tēnsh, 2 tēnsh] O Fr tenche, L Lat hinca A freshwater, cyprinid fish, Tinca vulgaris tend (I), vb trans [1 tend, 2 tend] Form of attend 1 To watch over, guard look after provide for the wants of to tend the sick and wounded, to tend sheep 2 (naut) To stand by, in readiness to attend to (a rope &c) tend (II), vb intrans Fr tendre, fr Lat tendere, 'to stretch, extend, to direct oneself, or one's course', cogn w tenere, fr tenjo*, 'stretch', Sort tenēre, 'he stretches' &c, also w Gk tenos, see tone, Lat tenere, 'thin', Sort tenere, 'thin, tender', op also tantra, tendor (IV), thin &c 1 To move be directed, in a certain direction 2 To have an inclination, tendency, bias, in a certain direction a (of human action) he tends to become tedious and long winded, I naturally tend towards conservatism, b (of other processes) it tends to become very cold at night now, the lowest rabbits tend to get the upper hand in revolutions 3 To have the effect of, have a tendency to too much smoking tends to injure the voice tendance, n [1 tēdans, 2 tēdans] Form of attendance, see tend (I) A act of tending, caring for, b care, attention tendacious, tendentious, adj [1 tēndāshus, 2 tēndāshus] fr Germ. tendensios, see next word & -ous (of writings, utterances) Having a distinct aim or purpose, or tendency, biased, not impartial tendency, n [1 téndensi, 2 téndensi] Fr tendance, tond (II) & -ance & -cy Process of tending towards, inclination, bent, drift, trend a tendency to corpulence, to insomnia, to drink too much, the tendency of events is towards war.

tender (I), n [1 ténder, 2 ténda] tend (I) & -er 1 Person who tends (in various senses), specif, person who looks after the sick or young children 2 Small ship in attendance upon a larger vessel for supplying stores, conveying messages &c 3 Truck carrying fuel attached to locomotive tender (II), vb trans & intrans [1 ténder, 2 ténda] formed fr next word A trans 1 To offer in payment of amount due to tender a sum in satisfaction of a claim 2 To offer, present for acceptance to tender one's apologies, thanks &c B intrans To make a tender, to offer to carry out work at a specified price tender (III), n, fr Fr infin tendre, 'to reach out, offer', used as n, fr Lat tendere, 'to stretch', see tend (II) 1 Offer made by a contractor, to carry out work according to specification at a fixed price 2 Money tendered or offered in payment of a debt, satisfaction of a claim &c Phr legal tender, any form of currency recognized by law in a given country as acceptable in payment of debt Russian roubles are not legal tender in England tender (IV), adj ME, fr Fr tendre, fr Lat tener, 'soft, delicate, susceptible, weak', either fr base *ten- &c, 'to stretch', see tend (II), or for *teren-, influenced by tenus, 'thin', oogn w. Gk terén, 'delicate, tender', Scrt tarunāś, 'young, tender', connected w Lat terere, 'to rub, wear down', see trite & op terado 1 a (of food, esp meat) Soft, easily broken up by chewing, reverse of tough, b easily injured, broken, or torn, by rough handling, flimsy, not firm, strong, or resistant a tender structure, fabric &c, a tender skin, c (of colour) soft, delicate 2 a Constitutionally delicate, not able to resist severe cold, feeble, liable to injury, reverse of strong or hardy a tender shoot, plant, blossom &c, also b immature, young of tender age, tender buds &c 3 Susceptible to pain, sensitive to pressure &c, as after an injury &c a tender place on one's head, my bruise is still tender 4 a Morally susceptible, full of compunction, scrupulous a tender conscience, b sensitive to, easily moved by, the suffering of others, pitiful, compassionate a tender heart 5 a Kind, loving, solicitous, feeling, expressing affection a tender glance, touch &c, tender care, b careful not to wound, considerate be tender of his conscientious scruples, tender of hurting his feelings &c tenderfoot, n [1 ténderfoot, 2 téndafoot] (Colonial slang) A new comer, esp in a newly formed, rough, settlement, camp &c, an inexperienced novice, a greenhorn tender-hearted, adj Having a tender heart, susceptible to, easily moved by, pity, kindly, compassionate tenderloin, n [1 tendorloin, 2 téndaoin] tender (IV) & LOIN (USA) 1 Undercut of arloin 2 District of New York or other city regarded as the centre of amusement tenderly, adv [1 ténderli, 2 téndaib] tender (IV) & -ly In a tender manner, with tenderness tenderness, n [1 téndernes, 2 téndaib] See prec & -ness State, quality, of being tender (in various senses) 1 Delicacy, softness, of texture. 2 Sensitiveness to pain 3 a Sensitiveness to suffering of others, compassionateness tenderness of heart, b moral scruple tenderness of conscience 4 a Affection, love, solicitude, b expression of these in action and behaviour, kindness, gentleness.

tendinous, adj [1 tendinus, 2 tendinus] fr Mod. Lat tendin, stem of tendo, see next word, & -ous Pertaining to, connected with, resembling, a tendon tendon, n [1 tendun, 2 téndun] Lat tendo, fr base in tendere, 'stretch, extend', see tend (II) (anat) Tough, fibrous connective tissue which joins a muscle to some other part, a sinew Achilles tendon, or tendo Achilles, that which connects the heel with the calf (so called because the heel was the one vulnerable spot of Achilles) tendrill, n [1 tendrill, 2 tendrill, tendril] op Fr tendrille, fr tender (IV) A slender organ in climbing plants, which coils in a spiral round neighbouring objects, parts of other plants &c, and serves to anchor and support the plant whence it grows tendrillar, adj [1 tendrillar, 2 tédrilla] Prec & -ar Pertaining to, playing part of, a tendril tenebrae, n pl [1 tenebrē, 2 tenebrī] Lat, 'darkness', for temesrā*, fr temesrā*, oogn w Scrt tamrā, 'darkness', op OHG dinstar, 'dark', OS thima, 'dark', op tenebrity, see also dust Matins and lauds for the last three days of Holy Week, commemorating the passion and death of Christ, at which the candles are extinguished tenebrous, adj [1 tenebrus, 2 tenebrus] Prec & -ous Dark, gloomy, dusky, shady tenement, n [1 ténement, 2 ténement] L Lat tenementum, fr tenere, 'to hold', see tenant (I) 1 (law) That which is held by tenure, the possessor of which is a tenant, hence land, houses, and forms of inchoate property hold of another, whether for life or for a term of years, houses, rents, an office, a peerage &c 2 A dwelling house, b one of a set of apartments in a building, each occupied by a separate family, also tenement house, one so occupied 3 (hg, poet) A dwelling-place the soul's tenement, the body tenemental, adj [1 ténement, 2 ténement] Prec & -al Pertaining to a tenement, held by tenants tenementary, adj [1 ténementari, 2 ténementari] See prec & -ary Tenemental, to be leased to tenants tenet, n [1 ténet, tenet, 2 ténet, tenet] Lat 3rd pers eng indio pres of tenere, 'to hold' &c, see tenable & tenant A principle, opinion, dogma, held and taught as true tenfold, adj & adv [1 tenfold, 2 tenfold] ten & -fold Ten times repeated, ten times as many tanner, n [1 tener, 2 téna] (colloq) A ten-pound note, ten pounds tennis, n [1 tenis, 2 tenis] ME tennis, in one 16th cent MS tenetis, origin obscure, possibly fr A-Fr tenetis, imper, 'bold, receive', ie 'play' 1 Ancient ball game for two or four players, played in a specially made covered court, divided by a net, the ball being originally struck by the hand, later with rackets 2 Somewhat similar game played on an open court lawn tennis tennis ball, n Ball used in playing tennis or lawn tennis tennis court, n Court in or on which tennis or lawn tennis is played tennis elbow, n Inflammatory condition of the elbow joint, caused by strain in playing tennis tenon, n & vb trans [1 ténun, 2 ténun] ME, fr O Fr tenoun, fr tenir, 'to hold', fr Lat tenere, see tenable, -oon 1 n Projection formed at the end of a piece of timber by cutting away wood around it, made to fit into a mortice cut in another timber 2 vb To shape (end of a timber) for insertion in a mortice tenor (I), n, [1 tener, 2 téne] Lat, 'a holding on, uninterrupted course or career', fr base ten-, 'to hold', see tenable, tenant 1 Course, general direction followed, career 'the noseless tenor of their way' (Gray) 2 General bearing, meaning drift, of a statement, speech, document.

tenor (II), n. Fr, fr Ital tenore, fr Lat tenor, see prec, so called because this voice sang and kept the principal part 1 The higher of the two adult types of male singing voice 2 The part in a song sung in harmony, taken by this voice 3 a The person who sings the tenor part, b an instrument which plays this part, the viola tenor (III), adj, fr prec Pertaining to the tenor part, or to the quality of voice possessed by tenors tenorino, n [1 tenorāno, 2 tenorino] Ital dimin of tenore, see tenor (II) Falsetto; sham soprano produced by a male voice tenotomy, n [1 tenotomī, 2 tenotomī] Gk tenōn, 'tendon', & -tomy, 'a cutting', Operation of cutting a tendon tense (I), n [1 tens, 2 tens] O Fr tens, 'time', fr Lat tempus, see tempus (gram.) That form in verbs which expresses the time—past, present, future—in which the action takes place tense (II), adj, fr Lat tensum, PP of tendere, 'to stretch', see tend (II) 1 (of material object or enstance) Tightly stretched, strained, braced up 2 Specif (phon) tense vowel, one uttered with the tongue braced up, in a tense condition, contrasted with slack 3 a (of the mind and emotions) Strained, keyed up, on the qui vive, alert, b (of the manner) expressing such a state of mind, strained, stiff, unnatural tense (III), vb trans, fr prec To brace, make tense (esp the muscles), specif, to make a vowel sound tense by bracing up the tongue tensely, adv [1 tensh, 2 ténsli] tense (II) & -ly In a tense manner tenseness, n [1 tensens, 2 ténsnis] See prec & -ness Condition of being tense tensibility, n [1 tensibilitā, 2 ténsibilitā] Next word & -ity Quality of being tensible, capacity for extension tensible, adj [1 tensibl, 2 ténsibl] tense (II) & -ible Capable of being stretched out or extended.

tensile, adj [1 ténsil, 2 ténsil] tense (II) & -ile 1 a Pertaining to tension, b (of musical instrument) producing notes from tightened strings 2 Capable of being stretched, tensile tension, n [1 ténsun, 2 ténsun] Lat tensio (em), fr tens, PP type of tender, 'to stretch', see tense (II), & -ion 1 a Act or process of straining, stretching, tightening; b state of being tightly stretched the tension of a fiddle string 2 a Mental or emotional stress and strain, suppressed excitement; b social atmosphere of uneasiness, stiffness, in which those present exhibit emotional strain, c (elect) only in compounds, high, low tension tensional, adj [1 ténsunal, 2 ténsunal] Prec & -al Pertaining to, of the nature of, tension tensive, adj [1 ténsiv, 2 ténsiv] See tense (II) & -ive Producing a feeling of tension or stiffness tenson, tenzon, n [1 ténan, -zn, 2 ténan, -zn] Ital tensione, see tension Contest of verse-making between troubadours tensor, n [1 ténser, 2 ténse] See tense (II) & -or Muscle which stretches a part or renders it tense tent (I), n, & vb trans & intrans [1 tent, 2 tent] Fr tente, Mod. Lat. tenta, prob orig 'something stretched', see tend (II) 1 n Protection, shelter, covering, formed of canvas stretched over poles and kept tight by ropes pegged to the ground 2 vb (rare) a trans To cover with or as with a tent, (in PP) tented field, having tents pitched in it, b intrans, to lodge in a tent, to encamp tent (II), vb trans & n, fr O Fr tenter, 'to dilate, try, probe', see tempt 1 vb To dilate (orifice of a wound or natural opening) by inserting a plug of lint, sponge &c 2 n Plug of lint, linen &c used for keeping open a wound or dilating natural orifice.

tent (III), n Span anto, fr Lat hincum, P P of tingere, 'to dye', see tinge & tincture A sweet, dark red Spanish wine, chiefly used for oenological purposes tentacle, n [1 tentakl, 2 téntakl] Lat tentaculum, fr tentare, 'to feel, handle', see tempt Any long, slender, flexible organ, or feeler, often prehensile, and used also for aiding movement, borne by many lower forms of animals tentacled, adj [1 tentakléd, 2 téntakléd] Pres & -ed Possessing, bearing, tentacles tentacular, adj [1 tentakulár, 2 téntakulár] See tentacle & -ar Resembling, of the nature of, a tentacle tentaculate(d), adj [1 tentakulát(ed), 2 téntakulát(ed)] See tentacle & -ate (& -ed) Furnished with tentacles tentative, adj & n [1 téntatív, 2 téntatív] fr tentat, P P type of tenāre, 'to try' &c, see tempt, & -ivo 1 adj Of the nature of a trial, experimental, done, made, as an experiment 2 n Something done, opinion, theory, put forward as a test or experiment tentatively, adv Pres & -ly In a tentative manner, experimentally, by way of a test or trial tent-bed, n Bed with a canopy tenter (I), n [1 téntér, 2 téntér] fr Scots tent, form of tend (I) Person in charge of machinery tenter (II), n M E tenture, tenture, fr Fr tenture, hangings, tapestry', fr Lat tentum, P P of tendere, 'to stretch', see tend (II) Frame for stretching cloth so that it may dry square tenter-hook, n One of the hooks that hold cloth on a tenter, Phr on tenter hooks, in a state of excitement, expectation, anxiety &c tenth, adj & n [1 tenth, 2 tentp] New formation fr ten & -th, the OE being teoda, see tithe 1 adj A next after the ninth, b referring to one of ten equal parts of a whole tenth part 2 n A tenth part, b the object in a series next in order to, and immediately following, the ninth tent-peggings, n [1 tént péging, 2 tént péging] Scot, practised as part of cavalry exercise, of approaching at a gallop, lifting, and carrying off on the point of a lance a peg firmly fixed in the ground tenuis, n, pl, tennes [1 ténus, 2, 3 ténus, b] Lat, 'thin, fine', used by grammarians to translate Gk psilós, 'bare, unspurred', the word is cogn w Gk lanu, 'slender, thin', Sort larál 'long, stretched out', OE þynn, see thin, the orig base is ten, as seen in extended form in tendere, 'to stretch', see tend (II) Antiquated grammatical or phonetic term applied to any one of the sounds expressed respectively by p, t, k, now usually called voiceless stops tenuity, n [1 tónutis, 2 ténutis] Fr tenuité, Lat tenuitas (em), 'thinness, slenderness, fineness', see prec & -ity Quality, state, of being tenuous, a rarity, thinness (of air, gas, liquid), b fineness, slenderness (of hair &c), c thinness, lack of substance (in something flat), d simplicity, thinness, lack of grandeur (of style) tenuous, adj [1 ténus, 2 ténus] Stem of tenuis & -ous a (of material things) Fine slender, thin, b (of distinctions) too subtle, over refined tenure, n [1 ténar, 2 ténar] O Ir tenure, fr tenir, 'to hold', see tunable & tenant 1 a lot of holding, right to hold property, esp holding of real estate formerly from a superior or overlord, b act, fact, of holding, esp as dignity &c 2 Manner in which, esp as to on which, property, a right, as a lot is held

tentacled, adj [1 tentakléd, 2 téntakléd] Pres & -ed Possessing, bearing, tentacles

tentative, adj [1 téntatív, 2 téntatív] See tentacle & -ative (& -ed) Furnished with tentacles teocalli, n [1 téokáli, 2 téokáli] Aztec (Mexican), lit 'house (calli) of the God (teotl)' An ancient Aztec temple tepee, n [1 tépa, 2 tépi] fr N Am Indian tipi A tent, hut, or wigwam of the N American Indians tepid, vb trans & intrans [1 tépi, 2 tépi] Lat tepere, 'to be lukewarm', see tepid, & -fy a trans To make tepid, b intrans, to become tepid tephrite, n [1 téfrit, 2 téfrit] Gk tephra, 'ashes', & -ite, tephra stands for thepra*, fr earlier dheg-hra*, op Sort dhat, 'it burns', fr same base come Lat fovere, 'to warm, to foster', see forment, Lat febris, 'fever', see febrile, see also day Ash-coloured volcanic rock tepid, adj [1 tépid, 2 tépid] Lat tepidus, 'warm', cogn w Sort tapat, 'it warms, burns', O Slav topiti, 'to warm', teplu, 'warm' Slightly warm, lukewarm tepid water, also of the feelings tepidarium, n [1 tépidárium, 2 tépidéar] Lat, see prec & -ary Intermediate room of moderate temperature in a Roman bath tepidity, n [1 tépiditi, 2 tépiditi] tepid & -ity Quality, state, of being tepid ter, adv [1 tér, 2 tí] Lat, 'thrice', see tri- & three (mus) Three times, indicating that a passage is to be played three times successively teraphim, n pl, as coll sing [1 térafim, 2 térafim] Heb Small idol or idols used in divination as a kind of household oracle among the ancient Jews terato-, pref Gk, stem of teras, 'a monster', fr tér*, op O N ekare, 'monster', ekyree, 'bad omen, phantom, dreadful apparition', op scare teratoid, adj [1 térateid, 2 térateid] Pres & -oid Of the nature of a monster, of abnormal, pathological, growth teratologist, n [1 tératelógist, 2 tératelódist] Next word & -ist Student of teratology teratology, n [1 térateológ, 2 térateológ] terato- & -logy The scientific study of animal and vegetable freaks and monstrosities and malformations terbium, n [1 térbium, 2 tárbium] Mod Lat, fr Ytterby, Sweden A metallic element, one of the rare earths terce See tierce

tercel, n [1 térel, 2 tárel] Fr, fr Lat terchius, dimin of terius, 'third', see tertian, fr belief that the third egg of a hawk produced a small male bird. Male falcon tercentenary, adj & n [1 térsenténari, 2 társenténari] ter & centenary 1 adj Pertaining to a period of three hundred years 2 n A three hundredth anniversary of an event, b celebration of, commemorative festivity in connexion with, such an anniversary tercet, n, also tiercet [1 téret, téret, 2 táret, táret] Fr, fr Ital terzetto, dimin of terzo, fr Lat tertium, 'third' (mus or pros) A triplet terebene, n [1 térobén, 2 térbén] See next word & -ene Disinfecting substance made from turpentine treated with sulphuric acid terebinth, n [1 térobinth, 2 térbinth] Gk terebinthos European balsamic tree which yields Chian turpentine terebra, n [1 térbra, 2 térbra] Lat, instrument for boring, a gimlet' fr terere, 'to rub, wear, away, to bore', see torulate & op trita & triturate (zool) A boring, esp depositing organ of certain insects teredo n [1 téredo, 2 táredo] Gk teredón, wood worm fr base ter, 'to bore', cogn w Lat terere, see prec Worm like mollusc which bores into the timbers of ships, the shipworm tergite, n [1 térite, 2 tárite] fr Lat tergum, 'back', cover of the back, anal, hide, leather', op Gk terphos, 'skin, hide, esp that on hind quarters of beasts' Belonging to the back, dorsal tergiversate, vb intrans [1 térvérsat, 2 tárvérsat] Lat tergiversari, tergiversari (um), P P type of 'to turn the back, to practise evasion', fr tergum, 'back', see prec, & versari, 'to turn oneself about', freq of vertere, 'to turn', see version To shuffle, behave in an evasive manner, to vacillate in one's opinions and intentions tergiversation, n [1 térvérsashun, 2 tárvérsashun] Pres & -ion Act of tergiversating, vacillation, shifty conduct term (I), n [1 térm, 2 tám] M E, fr O Fr terme, fr Lat terminus, also terminus, 'boundary, limit, end', cogn w Gk terma, terma, 'boundary, end', fr base ter-, 'to pass beyond, reach a point on the other side', op Sort tráti, 'wins through', ultimately connected w through 1 A limit, esp of time to set a term to the existence of 2 (geom) A limiting point, line, or surface 3 a fixed, limited period of time during one's term of office, specif b continuous period, officially fixed, during which instruction is given at a university or at a school, c continuous, specified period during which cases are heard in the courts of law 4 (law) a Continuous, limited period of time during which, by agreement, certain rights are to be enjoyed to let a house for a term of years, b day fixed for payment of rents &c, quarter day 5 (med) Menses 6 (log) One of the three parts of a syllogism major term, predicate of the conclusion, minor term, subject or conclusion, middle term, the part common to both premises 7 a Word expressing a definite object or conception, one in use in a particular branch of study, in a specific profession &c here is hardly the term to apply to him, terms of law, botanical terms &c, b (pl) mode of expression, style of language he spoke in terms of approval, in flattering terms Phrs in set terms, definitely, contradiction in terms, self contradictory statement 8 a Conditions of a contract the terms of an agreement, Phrs terms cash, conditions of business are payment on delivery, to come to terms with, reach an agreement, an understanding, with, b financial payment demanded for services &c rendered the terms asked for lodgings are too high, terms for private lessons are so much an hour 9 a Personal relations on good or bad terms with, not on speaking terms, b good, friendly, relations we are not on terms, to come to terms with, see also 8, a 10 (Rom antiq) A boundary post, usually taking the form of a tapering, square, or rectangular pillar supporting the head and shoulders of the god Terminus, cp the corresponding Greek herm term (II), vb trans, fr prec To apply a term to, to designate, call his life might be termed happy termagant, n [1 térmagant, 2 tármagant] M E termagant, termagant, fr O Fr termagant, cp Ital travagante, fr Lat ter or tri-, 'three', & Pres Part of agari, 'to roam about, wander', see vagrant Termagant was a fictitious personage, supposed by Christians to be a Mohammedan deity, and was represented as a boisterous, turbulent character noisy, quarrelsome, scolding woman termier, -or, n [1 térmer, 2 támer] 1 (law) Termier, person holding an estate for a term of years or for life 2 Termier, person serving a term of imprisonment second, third, termier terminability, n [1 términabiliti, 2 táminabiliti] See next word & -ity Quality of being terminable terminable adj [1 términabl, 2 táminabl] See terminable & -able Capable of being terminated, capable of being terminated after a specified time terminableness n [1 términableness, 2 táminableness] See prec. & -ness State of being terminable terminal (I), adj [1 términál, 2 táminál] Lat terminális, see term (I) & -al 1 Connected with, pertaining to, situated at or near, a term, limit, end a terminal ornament, leaf &c, terminal figure, a term, see term (I), 10 2 Connected with a term or fixed period of time a terminal rent, specif., connected with, occurring in or at end of, a university or school term terminal fees, examinations &c terminal (II), n, fr prec 1. Something forming the end or extremity of anything, specif. a (archit &c) an ornamental termination of a feature, a terminal figure, b the end of a wire conducting an electric current, c the end or terminus of a railway line 2 Examination occurring in or at end of a term at a school or university terminally, adv [1 términáli, 2 támináli] terminal (I) & -ly 1 At the end or extremity, finally 2 At fixed intervals, every school or university term terminate, vb trans & intrans [1 términát, 2 táminést], fr Lat terminat (um), PP of terminare, 'to set bounds to, to bring to an end', fr termin, see term (I) 1 trans a To put a bound or limit to, b to bring to an end, finish, conclude 2 intrans To come to an end, reach a close, terminate in, a to have as a final phase or feature, to have as a terminal, b (gram) to have as a final sound, syllable &c termination, n [1 términadabun, 2 táminéj-an] Prec & -ion 1 Act or process of terminating, of bringing or coming to a close the termination of an agreement, of an enterprise, of a lease &c 2 That which forms the end or close, conclusion, completion, a in space the termination of a journey, b in time the termination of one's life, c of a series of events or actions the termination of an adventure, a quarrel, of a game &c 3 (of material objects) The end, extremity, final portion the termination of a line, a pillar & (gram) Ending of a word, final sound or syllable, inflexion, final suffix terminational, adj [1 términadshunál, 2 táminéjshonál] Prec & -al Connected with, relating to, of the nature of, a termination, esp in grammatical sense terminative, adj [1 términatív, 2 táminatív] terminato & -ive a Serving to terminate, b (gram, of verbal forms) distinguishing between beginning or end of action terminator, n [1 términátor, 2 táminestá] See prec & -or Person who, or thing which, terminates, specif (astron) line dividing illuminated and unilluminated portion of disk of a heavenly body terminatory, adj [1 términatúr, 2 táminetúr] terminato & -ory Terminative terminer, n [1 términér, 2 táminér] Fr unfin, 'to end', fr Lat terminare, see terminate (law) A determining, for the writ of oyer and terminer see under oyer terminism, n [1 términizm, 2 táminizem] Lat termin, stem of termin, 'limit' &c, q v under term (I), & -ism Doctrine that the period during which a human being has the opportunity and offer of divine grace is limited terminist, n [1 términist, 2 táminist] Stem of prec & -ist Adherent of the doctrine of terminism terminological, adj [1 términológikál, 2 táminológikál] terminology & -ic & -al Connected with terminology, or the use of terms terminologically, adv Prec & -ly From the point of view of terminology terminology, n [1 términológ, 2 táminológ] Lat. termino, stem of terminus, 'limit, term', see terminus, & -logy System of special or technical terms used in some particular branch of learning, art, science, or in a specialized occupation, in a form of sport &c terminus, n [1 términus, 2 táminus] Lat, 'boundary-line, boundary, limit', see term

(I) 1 (rare) Goal, final point reached or aimed at 2 Station at the end of a line of railway Paddington is the London terminus of the G V R Lat Phrs terminus ad quem, goal of a line of action or argument, terminus a quo, starting-point of these 3 a (cap) The Roman God of boundaries, b a terminal figure or term termitary, n [1 térmitári, 2 támitári] See next word & -ary Nest, mound, of termites termite, n [1 térmit, 2 támit] Lat termes, 'wood worm', see base under teredo, & -ite One of a family of insects, popularly and wrongly called 'white ants', living in communities and often, in tropical countries, building large mounds for nests, they are extremely destructive to wood, textiles, paper &c termless, adj [1 térmlés, 2 támlés] term (I) & -less Having no term or boundary, limitless, unending tern (I), n [1 térn, 2 tín] ON perna One of various sea-birds of the gull family, often living in colonies, the common tern, Sterna hirundo, or sea swallow, has forked tail and black head tern (II), n & adj, fr Lat terni, 'three each', see ter & tri- 1 n Group of three, specif, group of three numbers in a lottery which win special prize if drawn together 2 adj Ternate ternal, ternary, adj [1 tárnál, tárnári, 2 tárnál, tárnári] Prec & -al, or -ary 1 adj Threelfold, (of numbers) consisting of, proceeding by, threes 2 n, Ternary, the number three, a triad ternate, adj [1 tárnát, 2 tárnét] See tern (II) & -ate (bot, of leaves) Arranged in groups of three terne, n [1 térn, 2 tín] fr Fr terne, 'dull, lustreless', see tarnish Alloy of tin and lead, terne plate, sheet of iron coated with terne ternery, n [1 tárnéri, 2 tárnéri] tern (I) & -ery Breeding place of terns terpene, n [1 térpén, 2 tápin] A combination of terebinth & turpentine (obem) One of a group of hydrocarbons, found in the volatile oils obtained by distillation from coniferous and other plants

Terpsichorean, adj [1 térpsikóreán, 2 tápsikóreán] Lat, fr Gk Terpsikhóre, the muse of dancing, & -an Pertaining to dancing the Terpsichorean art terra, n [1 téra, 2 téra] Lat (or Ital) terra, 'land, ground, soil, the earth', fr tersa*, 'dry', cogn w Lat terre, 'to burn, parol', fr tors*, see torrid & toast, see also thrust In various Latin words and phrases Terras filius [1 térs filius, 2 téri filius], lit 'son of the soil', person of humble origin Terra firma [1 téra férma, 2 téra fírma], lit 'firm earth', dry land, contrasted with water Terra incognita, [1 téra inkógita, 2 téra inkógasta], lit 'unknown country', unexplored country, (also fig) an unfamiliar, uninvestigated, region of thought or knowledge terrace (I), n [1 téras, 2 téras] O Fr terrace, fr Ital terrazza, see terra, 'earth' 1 A long, raised, flat platform of earth, either built up and levelled, or out in sloping ground, often forming a feature in gardens and pleasure grounds 2 (geol) A flat, raised surface with steep side, bordering a river or lake, marking the ancient water-level 3 A row of houses, properly one built on high level ground which slopes away immediately from the houses, often applied to any row of high houses standing back from a thoroughfare terrace (II), vb trans, fr prec To build up, or out, into the form of a terrace a terraced walk terra-cotta, n [1 téra kóta, 2 téro kóta] Ital, 'baked earth'; see terra, & cotta fr Lat cocq, P.P fem of coquere, 'to boil' &c, see cook, Reddish or pale brown hard but porous pottery terrain, n [1 térán, 2 téran] Fr, fr Lat terrēnus, 'made of earth', see terrene A tract of land, specif (mil) a tract of ground considered in relation to its uses for a battle, or for fortifications terramara, n [1 téramára, 2 táramára] Ital, fr Lat terra amara, 'bitter land', a Earthy deposit, especially from prehistoric mounds, suitable for use as a fertilizer, b (cap) an early type of bronze age culture, found in lake dwellings &c in Northern Italy terreneous, adj [1 térdeus, 2 térdéus] terra & -aneous Growing on, belonging to, the earth terrapin, n [1 térapin, 2 térapin] fr Am Indian word for 'turtle' Edible turtle, found in fresh or tidal water of the North Atlantic American coast terraqueous, adj [1 térdákueus, 2 tárdákueus] See terra & aqueous (of the earth) Consisting of, comprising, both land and water terrene, adj [1 térén, 2 térin] Lat terrēnus, fr terra, 'earth', see terra Connected with the earth, earthly, mundane terrestrial (I), adj [1 téréstrial, 2 tárestrial] O Fr terrestrial, fr Lat terrestris, see terra, & -al 1 Belonging to the earth, earthly, contrasted with celestial a terrestrial body, terrestrial preoccupations 2 a Consisting of this earth this terrestrial ball, b made to represent the earth a terrestrial globe 3 Inhabiting, living upon, the dry land, contrasted with aquatic, arborescent &c terrestrial (II), n, fr prec An inhabitant of the earth terret, n [1 téret, 2 tért] ME teret, also torit, etymol doubtful, prob fr O Fr torit, tourit, 'ring for falcon's leash', of tour (I) One of the rings on a (driven horse's) harness pad, or saddle, through which the reins pass terrible, adj [1 téríbl, 2 térobí, téribí] Fr, fr Lat terribilis, 'frightful, dreadful', fr base of terrere, 'to frighten', for ters*, teret*, cogn w Gk trein, 'to tremble', Scrt trāsati, 'trembles', Goth trāsai (balpei), 'andant', the base is an extension of ter*, 'to tremble', as in Lat trēmere, 'to tremble', see tremble, & trepidus, 'agitated, alarmed', see trepidation 1 Inspiring, calculated to inspire, terror, dread, awe, fearful, frightful the terrible sufferings caused by war, terrible in anger 2 (colloq) Excessive, tremendous a terrible heat, frost, a terrible man to drink terribleness, n Prec & -ness Quality, state, of being terrible terribly, adv See prec & -ly In a terrible manner, horribly, to a terrible extent terrier (I), n [1 tériér, 2 táriér] Fr (chien) terrier, 'a burrowing dog', fr L Lat terrari-um, 'a burrow, hillock', see terra & -ier One of several breeds of small or medium-sized dogs kept as pets, very lively, courageous, and affectionate, and good at killing rabbits and rats terrier (II), n Fr (papier) terrier, Lat (liber) terrarius, 'book relating to land', fr terra Document or book setting forth extent, boundaries, rents, and rights in land terrific, adj [1 térifik, 2 térifik] Lat terrificus, 'causing terror, frightful', see terrify Striking terror, of a nature to terrify, appalling, dreadful, awe inspiring, esp by reason of size or violence terrifically, adv [1 térifikál, 2 térifikál] Prec & -al & -ly To a terrific extent terrify, vb trans [1 térifí, 2 térifí] Fr terrifier, fr Lat terrificare, 'to frighten', see terror & -fy To strike terror in, to fill with fright, cause great alarm to terrigenous, adj [1 térigéus, 2 térigéus] Lat terrigenus, 'born of the earth', see terra & -genous Earth-born, produced by the earth, nature of the soil terrino, n. [1 tērīn, 2 tērīn] Fr, fr L Lat terrēnus, 'made of earth', see terra terrino, dish, jar, of earthenware, esp one used for containing and preserving some delicacy such as sole gras, and sold with this territorial (I), adj [1 tērītōriāl, 2 tērītōriāl] territory & -al 1 Connected with, consisting of territory territorial owner, property &c 2 Pertaining, limited, to some particular region or country under control of a state territorial rights, waters, boundaries &c 3 (mil, cap) Relating to a force of soldiers raised, by voluntary enlistment, in a particular area or country and serving as a second line to the Regular Army Territoria Army territorial (II), n, fr prec Member of the Territorial Army territorialism, n. [1 tērītōriālizm, 2 tērītōriālizm] Prec & -izm System of Church government, under which the ruler of a territory has religious jurisdiction over his subjects territorialize, vb trans [1 tērītōriālīz, 2 tērītōriālīz] territorial (I) & -ize 1 To extend (domains) by addition of fresh territory 2 To reduce to condition of a territory territorially, adv [1 tērītōriālī, 2 tērītōriālī] See prec & -ly From the point of view of, according to, territory territory, n. [1 tērītūm, 2 tērītūm] Lat territōrium, 'land round a town, domain', see terra 1 Large tract of land, region, district 2 Amount of land, country, under jurisdiction of a single ruler or government 3 Part of a state ruled as a dependency and not having yet attained full rights as an independent state. terror, n. [1 tērōr, 2 tērōr] Lat, 'great fear, dread, alarm', see under terrible 1 Extreme, overwhelming, fear 2 Person or thing which inspires terror Cromwell was a terror to his country's foes Phrs the king of terrors, death, the Reign of Terror, the Terror, the period from May 1793 to July 1794 of the French Revolution, characterized by countless executions &c 3 (colloq) A troublesome, unmanageable person, a pest, a nuisance a perfect terror, a holy terror terrorism, n. [1 tērōrizm, 2 tērōrizm] Prec & -izm. Method of government by inspiring terror by acts of brutality and savagery terrorist, n. [1 tērōnist, 2 tērōnist] terror & -ist One who practises, or believes in, terrorism terrorization, n. [1 tērōrizāshun, 2 tērōrizāshun] See next word & -ation Act of terrorizing, state of being terrorized terrorize, vb trans [1 tērōriz, 2 tērōriz] terror & -ize To reduce to state of terror by threats or acts of cruelty, to intimidate terry, n. [1 tērī, 2 tērī] Connected w Fr terre, 'to pull' Loop left uncut from nap of velvet or other fabric terse, adj [1 tērs, 2 tērs] Lat tersum, P P of tergere, 'to rub, wipe, off', prob connected w terere 'to rub', see trite 1 (of mode of expression) Concise, succinct, and polished, free from redundancy, b (of a speaker or writer) employing terse style tersely, adv Prec & -ly In a terse, succinct manner terseness, n. See prec & -ness Quality of being terse tertiary adj [1 tērshāl, 2 tērshāl] Lat tertius, see next word, & -al (zool) Referring to 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 32nd, 33rd, 34th, 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th, 39th, 40th, 41st, 42nd, 43rd, 44th, 45th, 46th, 47th, 48th, 49th, 50th, 51st, 52nd, 53rd, 54th, 55th, 56th, 57th, 58th, 59th, 60th, 61st, 62nd, 63rd, 64th, 65th, 66th, 67th, 68th, 69th, 70th, 71st, 72nd, 73rd, 74th, 75th, 76th, 77th, 78th, 79th, 80th, 81st, 82nd, 83rd, 84th, 85th, 86th, 87th, 88th, 89th, 90th, 91st, 92nd, 93rd, 94th, 95th, 96th, 97th, 98th, 99th, 100th, 101st, 102nd, 103rd, 104th, 105th, 106th, 107th, 108th, 109th, 110th, 111th, 112th, 113th, 114th, 115th, 116th, 117th, 118th, 119th, 120th, 121st, 122nd, 123rd, 124th, 125th, 126th, 127th, 128th, 129th, 130th, 131st, 132nd, 133rd, 134th, 135th, 136th, 137th, 138th, 139th, 140th, 141st, 142nd, 143rd, 144th, 145th, 146th, 147th, 148th, 149th, 150th, 151st, 152nd, 153rd, 154th, 155th, 156th, 157th, 158th, 159th, 160th, 161st, 162nd, 163rd, 164th, 165th, 166th, 167th, 168th, 169th, 170th, 171st, 172nd, 173rd, 174th, 175th, 176th, 177th, 178th, 179th, 180th, 181st, 182nd, 183rd, 184th, 185th, 186th, 187th, 188th, 189th, 190th, 191st, 192nd, 193rd, 194th, 195th, 196th, 197th, 198th, 199th, 200th, 201st, 202nd, 203rd, 204th, 205th, 206th, 207th, 208th, 209th, 210th, 211st, 212nd, 213th, 214th, 215th, 216th, 217th, 218th, 219th, 220th, 221st, 222nd, 223rd, 224th, 225th, 226th, 227th, 228th, 229th, 230th, 231st, 232nd, 233rd, 234th, 235th, 236th, 237th, 238th, 239th, 240th, 241st, 242nd, 243rd, 244th, 245th, 246th, 247th, 248th, 249th, 250th, 251st, 252nd, 253rd, 254th, 255th, 256th, 257th, 258th, 259th, 260th, 261st, 262nd, 263rd, 264th, 265th, 266th, 267th, 268th, 269th, 270th, 271st, 272nd, 273rd, 274th, 275th, 276th, 277th, 278th, 279th, 280th, 281st, 282nd, 283rd, 284th, 285th, 286th, 287th, 288th, 289th, 290th, 291st, 292nd, 293rd, 294th, 295th, 296th, 297th, 298th, 299th, 300th, 301st, 302nd, 303rd, 304th, 305th, 306th, 307th, 308th, 309th, 310th, 311st, 312nd, 313th, 314th, 315th, 316th, 317th, 318th, 319th, 320th, 321st, 322nd, 323rd, 324th, 325th, 326th, 327th, 328th, 329th, 330th, 331st, 332nd, 333rd, 334th, 335th, 336th, 337th, 338th, 339th, 340th, 341st, 342nd, 343rd, 344th, 345th, 346th, 347th, 348th, 349th, 350th, 351st, 352nd, 353rd, 354th, 355th, 356th, 357th, 358th, 359th, 360th, 361st, 362nd, 363rd, 364th, 365th, 366th, 367th, 368th, 369th, 370th, 371st, 372nd, 373rd, 374th, 375th, 376th, 377th, 378th, 379th, 380th, 381st, 382nd, 383rd, 384th, 385th, 386th, 387th, 388th, 389th, 390th, 391st, 392nd, 393rd, 394th, 395th, 396th, 397th, 398th, 399th, 400th, 401st, 402nd, 403rd, 404th, 405th, 406th, 407th, 408th, 409th, 410th, 411st, 412nd, 413th, 414th, 415th, 416th, 417th, 418th, 419th, 420th, 421st, 422nd, 423rd, 424th, 425th, 426th, 427th, 428th, 429th, 430th, 431st, 432nd, 433rd, 434th, 435th, 436th, 437th, 438th, 439th, 440th, 441st, 442nd, 443rd, 444th, 445th, 446th, 447th, 448th, 449th, 450th, 451st, 452nd, 453rd, 454th, 455th, 456th, 457th, 458th, 459th, 460th, 461st, 462nd, 463rd, 464th, 465th, 466th, 467th, 468th, 469th, 470th, 471st, 472nd, 473rd, 474th, 475th, 476th, 477th, 478th, 479th, 480th, 481st, 482nd, 483rd, 484th, 485th, 486th, 487th, 488th, 489th, 490th, 491st, 492nd, 493rd, 494th, 495th, 496th, 497th, 498th, 499th, 500th, 501st, 502nd, 503rd, 504th, 505th, 506th, 507th, 508th, 509th, 510th, 511st, 512nd, 513th, 514th, 515th, 516th, 517th, 518th, 519th, 520th, 521st, 522nd, 523rd, 524th, 525th, 526th, 527th, 528th, 529th, 530th, 531st, 532nd, 533rd, 534th, 535th, 536th, 537th, 538th, 539th, 540th, 541st, 542nd, 543rd, 544th, 545th, 546th, 547th, 548th, 549th, 550th, 551st, 552nd, 553rd, 554th, 555th, 556th, 557th, 558th, 559th, 560th, 561st, 562nd, 563rd, 564th, 565th, 566th, 567th, 568th, 569th, 570th, 571st, 572nd, 573rd, 574th, 575th, 576th, 577th, 578th, 579th, 580th, 581st, 582nd, 583rd, 584th, 585th, 586th, 587th, 588th, 589th, 590th, 591st, 592nd, 593rd, 594th, 595th, 596th, 597th, 598th, 599th, 600th, 601st, 602nd, 603rd, 604th, 605th, 606th, 607th, 608th, 609th, 610th, 611st, 612nd, 613th, 614th, 615th, 616th, 617th, 618th, 619th, 620th, 621st, 622nd, 623rd, 624th, 625th, 626th, 627th, 628th, 629th, 630th, 631st, 632nd, 633rd, 634th, 635th, 636th, 637th, 638th, 639th, 640th, 641st, 642nd, 643rd, 644th, 645th, 646th, 647th, 648th, 649th, 650th, 651st, 652nd, 653rd, 654th, 655th, 656th, 657th, 658th, 659th, 660th, 661st, 662nd, 663rd, 664th, 665th, 666th, 667th, 668th, 669th, 670th, 671st, 672nd, 673rd, 674th, 675th, 676th, 677th, 678th, 679th, 680th, 681st, 682nd, 683rd, 684th, 685th, 686th, 687th, 688th, 689th, 690th, 691st, 692nd, 693rd, 694th, 695th, 696th, 697th, 698th, 699th, 700th, 701st, 702nd, 703rd, 704th, 705th, 706th, 707th, 708th, 709th, 710th, 711st, 712nd, 713th, 714th, 715th, 716th, 717th, 718th, 719th, 720th, 721st, 722nd, 723rd, 724th, 725th, 726th, 727th, 728th, 729th, 730th, 731st, 732nd, 733rd, 734th, 735th, 736th, 737th, 738th, 739th, 740th, 741st, 742nd, 743rd, 744th, 745th, 746th, 747th, 748th, 749th, 750th, 751st, 752nd, 753rd, 754th, 755th, 756th, 757th, 758th, 759th, 760th, 761st, 762nd, 763rd, 764th, 765th, 766th, 767th, 768th, 769th, 770th, 771st, 772nd, 773rd, 774th, 775th, 776th, 777th, 778th, 779th, 780th, 781st, 782nd, 783rd, 784th, 785th, 786th, 787th, 788th, 789th, 790th, 791st, 792nd, 793rd, 794th, 795th, 796th, 797th, 798th, 799th, 800th, 801st, 802nd, 803rd, 804th, 805th, 806th, 807th, 808th, 809th, 810th, 811st, 812nd, 813th, 814th, 815th, 816th, 817th, 818th, 819th, 820th, 821st, 822nd, 823rd, 824th, 825th, 826th, 827th, 828th, 829th, 830th, 831st, 832nd, 833rd, 834th, 835th, 836th, 837th, 838th, 839th, 840th, 841st, 842nd, 843rd, 844th, 845th, 846th, 847th, 848th, 849th, 850th, 851st, 852nd, 853rd, 854th, 855th, 856th, 857th, 858th, 859th, 860th, 861st, 862nd, 863rd, 864th, 865th, 866th, 867th, 868th, 869th, 870th, 871st, 872nd, 873rd, 874th, 875th, 876th, 877th, 878th, 879th, 880th, 881st, 882nd, 883rd, 884th, 885th, 886th, 887th, 888th, 889th, 890th, 891st, 892nd, 893rd, 894th, 895th, 896th, 897th, 898th, 899th, 900th, 901st, 902nd, 903rd, 904th, 905th, 906th, 907th, 908th, 909th, 910th, 911st, 912nd, 913th, 914th, 915th, 916th, 917th, 918th, 919th, 920th, 921st, 922nd, 923rd, 924th, 925th, 926th, 927th, 928th, 929th, 930th, 931st, 932nd, 933rd, 934th, 935th, 936th, 937th, 938th, 939th, 940th, 941st, 942nd, 943rd, 944th, 945th, 946th, 947th, 948th, 949th, 950th, 951st, 952nd, 953rd, 954th, 955th, 956th, 957th, 958th, 959th, 960th, 961st, 962nd, 963rd, 964th, 965th, 966th, 967th, 968th, 969th, 970th, 971st, 972nd, 973rd, 974th, 975th, 976th, 977th, 978th, 979th, 980th, 981st, 982nd, 983rd, 984th, 985th, 986th, 987th, 988th, 989th, 990th, 991st, 992nd, 993rd, 994th, 995th, 996th, 997th, 998th, 999th, 1000th, 1001st, 1002nd, 1003rd, 1004th, 1005th, 1006th, 1007th, 1008th, 1009th, 1010th, 1011st, 1012nd, 1013th, 1014th, 1015th, 1016th, 1017th, 1018th, 1019th, 1020th, 1021st, 1022nd, 1023rd, 1024th, 1025th, 1026th, 1027th, 1028th, 1029th, 1030th, 1031st, 1032nd, 1033rd, 1034th, 1035th, 1036th, 1037th, 1038th, 1039th, 1040th, 1041st, 1042nd, 1043rd, 1044th, 1045th, 1046th, 1047th, 1048th, 1049th, 1050th, 1051st, 1052nd, 1053rd, 1054th, 1055th, 1056th, 1057th, 1058th, 1059th, 1060th, 1061st, 1062nd, 1063rd, 1064th, 1065th, 1066th, 1067th, 1068th, 1069th, 1070th, 1071st, 1072nd, 1073rd, 1074th, 1075th, 1076th, 1077th, 1078th, 1079th, 1080th, 1081st, 1082nd, 1083rd, 1084th, 1085th, 1086th, 1087th, 1088th, 1089th, 1090th, 1091st, 1092nd, 1093rd, 1094th, 1095th, 1096th, 1097th, 1098th, 1099th, 1100th, 1101st, 1102nd, 1103rd, 1104th, 1105th, 1106th, 1107th, 1108th, 1109th, 1110th, 1111st, 1112nd, 1113th, 1114th, 1115th, 1116th, 1117th, 1118th, 1119th, 1120th, 1121st, 1122nd, 1123rd, 1124th, 1125th, 1126th, 1127th, 1128th, 1129th, 1130th, 1131st, 1132nd, 1133rd, 1134th, 1135th, 1136th, 1137th, 1138th, 1139th, 1140th, 1141st, 1142nd, 1143rd, 1144th, 1145th, 1146th, 1147th, 1148th, 1149th, 1150th, 1151st, 1152nd, 1153rd, 1154th, 1155th, 1156th, 1157th, 1158th, 1159th, 1160th, 1161st, 1162nd, 1163rd, 1164th, 1165th, 1166th, 1167th, 1168th, 1169th, 1170th, 1171st, 1172nd, 1173rd, 1174th, 1175th, 1176th, 1177th, 1178th, 1179th, 1180th, 1181st, 1182nd, 1183rd, 1184th, 1185th, 1186th, 1187th, 1188th, 1189th, 1190th, 1191st, 1192nd, 1193rd, 1194th, 1195th, 1196th, 1197th, 1198th, 1199th, 1200th, 1201st, 1202nd, 1203rd, 1204th, 1205th, 1206th, 1207th, 1208th, 1209th, 1210th, 1211st, 1212nd, 1213th, 1214th, 1215th, 1216th, 1217th, 1218th, 1219th, 1220th, 1221st, 1222nd, 1223rd, 1224th, 1225th, 1226th, 1227th, 1228th, 1229th, 1230th, 1231st, 1232nd, 1233rd, 1234th, 1235th, 1236th, 1237th, 1238th, 1239th, 1240th, 1241st, 1242nd, 1243rd, 1244th, 1245th, 1246th, 1247th, 1248th, 1249th, 1250th, 1251st, 1252nd, 1253rd, 1254th, 1255th, 1256th, 1257th, 1258th, 1259th, 1260th, 1261st, 1262nd, 1263rd, 1264th, 1265th, 1266th, 1267th, 1268th, 1269th, 1270th, 1271st, 1272nd, 1273rd, 1274th, 1275th, 1276th, 1277th, 1278th, 1279th, 1280th, 1281st, 1282nd, 1283rd, 1284th, 1285th, 1286th, 1287th, 1288th, 1289th, 1290th, 1291st, 1292nd, 1293rd, 1294th, 1295th, 1296th, 1297th, 1298th, 1299th, 1300th, 1301st, 1302nd, 1303rd, 1304th, 1305th, 1306th, 1307th, 1308th, 1309th, 1310th, 1311st, 1312nd, 1313th, 1314th, 1315th, 1316th, 1317th, 1318th, 1319th, 1320th, 1321st, 1322nd, 1323rd, 1324th, 1325th, 1326th, 1327th, 1328th, 1329th, 1330th, 1331st, 1332nd, 1333rd, 1334th, 1335th, 1336th, 1337th, 1338th, 1339th, 1340th, 1341st, 1342nd, 1343rd, 1344th, 1345th, 1346th, 1347th, 1348th, 1349th, 1350th, 1351st, 1352nd, 1353rd, 1354th, 1355th, 1356th, 1357th, 1358th, 1359th, 1360th, 1361st, 1362nd, 1363rd, 1364th, 1365th, 1366th, 1367th, 1368th, 1369th, 1370th, 1371st, 1372nd, 1373rd, 1374th, 1375th, 1376th, 1377th, 1378th, 1379th, 1380th, 1381st, 1382nd, 1383rd, 1384th, 1385th, 1386th, 1387th, 1388th, 1389th, 1390th, 1391st, 1392nd, 1393rd, 1394th, 1395th, 1396th, 1397th, 1398th, 1399th, 1400th, 1401st, 1402nd, 1403rd, 1404th, 1405th, 1406th, 1407th, 1408th, 1409th, 1410th, 1411st, 1412nd, 1413th, 1414th, 1415th, 1416th, 1417th, 1418th, 1419th, 1420th, 1421st, 1422nd, 1423rd, 1424th, 1425th, 1426th, 1427th, 1428th, 1429th, 1430th, 1431st, 1432nd, 1433rd, 1434th, 1435th, 1436th, 1437th, 1438th, 1439th, 1440th, 1441st, 1442nd, 1443rd, 1444th, 1445th, 1446th, 1447th, 1448th, 1449th, 1450th, 1451st, 1452nd, 1453rd, 1454th, 1455th, 1456th, 1457th, 1458th, 1459th, 1460th, 1461st, 1462nd, 1463rd, 1464th, 1465th, 1466th, 1467th, 1468th, 1469th, 1470th, 1471st, 1472nd, 1473rd, 1474th, 1475th, 1476th, 1477th, 1478th, 1479th, 1480th, 1481st, 1482nd, 1483rd, 1484th, 1485th, 1486th, 1487th, 1488th, 1489th, 1490th, 1491st, 1492nd, 1493rd, 1494th, 1495th, 1496th, 1497th, 1498th, 1499th, 1500th, 1501st, 1502nd, 1503rd, 1504th, 1505th, 1506th, 1507th, 1508th, 1509th, 1510th, 1511st, 1512nd, 1513th, 1514th, 1515th, 1516th, 1517th, 1518th, 1519th, 1520th, 1521st, 1522nd, 1523rd, 1524th, 1525th, 1526th, 1527th, 1528th, 1529th, 1530th, 1531st, 1532nd, 1533rd, 1534th, 1535th, 1536th, 1537th, 1538th, 1539th, 1540th, 1541st, 1542nd, 1543rd, 1544th, 1545th, 1546th, 1547th, 1548th, 1549th, 1550th, 1551st, 1552nd, 1553rd, 1554th, 1555th, 1556th, 1557th, 1558th, 1559th, 1560th, 1561st, 1562nd, 1563rd, 1564th, 1565th, 1566th, 1567th, 1568th, 1569th, 1570th, 1571st, 1572nd, 1573rd, 1574th, 1575th, 1576th, 1577th, 1578th, 1579th, 1580th, 1581st, 1582nd, 1583rd, 1584th, 1585th, 1586th, 1587th, 1588th, 1589th, 1590th, 1591st, 1592nd, 1593rd, 1594th, 1595th, 1596th, 1597th, 1598th, 1599th, 1600th, 1601st, 1602nd, 1603rd, 1604th, 1605th, 1606th, 1607th, 1608th, 1609th, 1610th, 1611st, 1612nd, 1613th, 1614th, 1615th, 1616th, 1617th, 1618th, 1619th, 1620th, 1621st, 1622nd, 1623rd, 1624th, 1625th, 1626th, 1627th, 1628th, 1629th, 1630th, 1631st, 1632nd, 1633rd, 1634th, 1635th, 1636th, 1637th, 1638th, 1639th, 1640th, 1641st, 1642nd, 1643rd, 1644th, 1645th, 1646th, 1647th, 1648th, 1649th, 1650th, 1651st, 1652nd, 1653rd, 1654th, 1655th, 1656th, 1657th, 1658th, 1659th, 1660th, 1661st, 1662nd, 1663rd, 1664th, 1665th, 1666th, 1667th, 1668th, 1669th, 1670th, 1671st, 1672nd, 1673rd, 1674th, 1675th, 1676th, 1677th, 1678th, 1679th, 1680th, 1681st, 1682nd, 1683rd, 1684th, 1685th, 1686th, 1687th, 1688th, 1689th, 1690th, 1691st, 1692nd, 1693rd, 1694th, 1695th, 1696th, 1697th, 1698th, 1699th, 1700th, 1701st, 1702nd, 1703rd, 1704th, 1705th, 1706th, 1707th, 1708th, 1709th, 1710th, 1711st, 1712nd, 1713th, 1714th, 1715th, 1716th, 1717th, 1718th, 1719th, 1720th, 1721st, 1722nd, 1723rd, 1724th, 1725th, 1726th, 1727th, 1728th, 1729th, 1730th, 1731st, 1732nd, 1733rd, 1734th, 1735th, 1736th, 1737th, 1738th, 1739th, 1740th, 1741st, 1742nd, 1743rd, 1744th, 1745th, 1746th, 1747th, 1748th, 1749th, 1 against 2 (law) To state in accordance with legal procedure, give evidence of, affirm, on oath 3 To indicate, tend to show, make manifest, be evidence of his manner testified his eagerness to be off testily, adv [1 tɛstɪl, 2 tɛstɪl] testy & -ly In a testy manner testimonial, n [1 tɛstɪmɒniəl, 2 tɛstɪmɒniəl] Lat (litterae) testimōnialēs, '(letters, document) containing testimony', see testimony & -al 1 Uttered or written statement setting forth a person's merits and qualities of character, his capacities and abilities, esp a document stating a person's qualifications for an appointment 2 A tribute in the form of a written expression, of respect and admiration, or of appreciation and gratitude for services rendered, often accompanied by a public presentation of a gift and a list of names of subscribers testimonialize, vb trans [1 tɛstɪmɒnɪlaɪz, 2 tɛstɪmɒnɪlaɪz] Proc & -ize To write a testimonial for, to present a testimonial to testimony, n [1 tɛstɪmɒni, 2 tɛstɪmɒni] Lat testimōnium, 'evidence, attestation', fr testis, 'a witness', see testament 1 Solemn statement made to establish a fact, evidence given by a witness under oath in a court of law, to bear testimony (to), to affirm (truth of), state as a fact 2 A series of statements, general bearing, tenor, drift of such a series of statements the testimony of the Fathers of the Church, b the conclusion to which a series of actions, events, facts, points, evidence, indication, afforded by such a series of events &c the testimony of the rocks is sometimes held to refute the Moslem account of the Creation, to bear testimony, to indicate, point to truth of, help to establish, certain facts 3 Tables of the law, divine revelation, the Scriptures the testimonies of the Lord testiness, n [1 tɛstɪnɪs, 2 tɛstɪnɪs] testy & -ness Condition of being testy testis, n, usually pl testes [1 tɛstɪs, ɛz, 2 tɛstɪs, -ɪz] Lat, see testicle Testicle test match, n A cricket match played between representative elevens of two countries test-tube, n Slender tube of thin glass, usually closed at one end, used in chemical experiments testudinarius, adj [1 tɛstʊdɪnɪrɪs, 2 tɛstʊdɪnɪrɪs] Lat testudin-, stem of testudo, 'tortoise', see testudo, & -arius Mottled with the colours seen in tortoise shell testudinate, adj [1 tɛstʊdɪnət, 2 tɛstʊdɪnət] Lat testudin-, see proc, & -ate Vaulted, arched, like the shell of a tortoise testudineous, adj [1 tɛstʊdɪneʊs, 2 tɛstʊdɪneʊs] Lat testudin-, see proc, & -eous Resembling the shell of a tortoise testudo, n [1 tɛstʊdʊ, 2 tɛstʊdʊ] Lat, 'tortoise', formed fr Lat testa, 'shell', see under test (I) & (III) 1 (Rom antiq) Shell, covering, of wood used to protect besieging troops 2 (Rom archt) An arched, vaulted, roof 3 Land tortoise testy, adj [1 tɛstɪ, 2 tɛstɪ] M E testif, fr O Fr testu, 'headstrong', fr teste, 'head', fr Lat testa, 'shell, skull, head', see test (I) & (III) Easily angered, irascible, irritable tetanic, adj & n [1 tɛtənɪk, 2 tɛtənɪk] See tetanus & -ic a adj Connected with, arising from, of the nature of, tetanus, b n, a substance, such as strychnine, which produces muscular spasms similar to those of tetanus tetanzation, n [1 tɛtənɪzəʃən, 2 tɛtənɪzəʃən] See tetanus, & -ize, & -ation a Process of causing tetanic contractions in a muscle, b state of being affected by, or as by, tetanus tetanus, n [1 tɛtənʊs, 2 tɛtənʊs] Gk tetanos, 'a stretching, straining', redupl form fr base ten-*, 'to stretch' &c, see tend (II) a Disease caused by a specific bacillus, in which the muscles are violently contracted and affected with spasmodic movements, when tetanus affects the muscles of the jaw, it is popularly called lockjaw, b violent muscular contraction caused by drugs such as strychnine tetchily, adv [1 tɛtʃlɪ, 2 tɛtʃɪl] tetchy & -ly In a tetchy manner tetchiness, n [1 tɛtʃɪnɪs, 2 tɛtʃɪnɪs] See next word & -ness Condition of being tetchy tetchy, techy, adj [1 tɛtʃɪ, 2 tɛtʃɪ] O Fr tache, 'speak, blamish', & -y Torchy, thinskin, irritable, testy, petulant tête-a-tête, adv, adj, n, Anglco [1 tɛtəh tɛt, 2 tɛt tɛt] Fr, lit 'head to head', op cheek by jowl 1 adv Privately, with one other person to see a person tête à tête 2 adj Private, alone with one other person, confidential 3 n A private meeting or conversation with one other person, a confidential talk, private confab tether, n & vb trans [1 tɛðər, 2 tɛðə] M E tedir, fr ON týðr. 1 n A long rope or chain by which a grazing animal is made fast to a peg fixed in the ground, to prevent it from straying, Phr at the end of one's tether, a at the end of one's physical and mental resources, on the verge of a break down, b at the end of one's financial resources, c having done the utmost of what can be tolerated, having reached the limits of another's indulgence 2 vb To fasten with a tether tetra-, pref Gk, form used in compounds, fr tētares, variant tēssares, 'four', see thus numeral under tessera, four, quater- tetrachord, n [1 tɛtrəkɔrd, 2 tɛtrəkɔrd] See proc & chord, op Gk tetrakhorios, 'four-stringed' Series of four tones with interval of a fourth between first and last tetrad, n [1 tɛtrəd, 2 tɛtrəd] Lat tetrad- (em), fr Gk tetrad, see tetra- a The number four, b group, set, of four things tetragon, n [1 tɛtrəɡɒn, 2 tɛtrəɡɒn] tetra- & -gon (geom) Plane figure with four angles tetragonal, adj [1 tɛtrəɡɒnəl, 2 tɛtrəɡɒnəl] Proc & -al Pertaining to a tetragon, having four angles tetragram, n [1 tɛtrəɡrəm, 2 tɛtrəɡrəm] tetra- & -gram Word of four letters tetragrammaton, n [1 tɛtrəɡrəmətɒn, 2 tɛtrəɡrəmətɒn] Gk, see proc The four consonants forming the Hebrew name for God, the original pronunciation of which was lost as the word was only pronounced with vowels taken from other names for the Deity, no vowel symbols being written, the word was variously reconstructed as Jahweh, Jahveh &c tetragynous, adj [1 tɛtrəɡɪnʊs, 2 tɛtrəɡɪnʊs] tetra- & -gynous (bot) Having four pistils tetrahedral, adj [1 tɛtrəhɛdrəl, 2 tɛtrəhɛdrəl] See next word & -al Connected with, belonging to, of the form of, a tetrahedron tetrahedron, n [1 tɛtrəhɛdrɒn, 2 tɛtrəhɛdrɒn] Gk, fr tetra-, 'four', & hedra, 'seat, base', wh is cogn w- Lat sedere, 'to sit', see sedentary, & w seat & sit Solid, four-sided figure, a triangular pyramid tetralogy, n [1 tɛtrələdʒɪ, 2 tɛtrələdʒɪ] Gk tetralogia, 'series of four dramas', see tetraction & -logy Series of four connected dramas, as found in Greek theatre, or in Wagner's 'Ring' tetrameter, n [1 tɛtrəmɛtər, 2 tɛtrəmɛtər] See tetra- & -meter Verse, line, of four measures or feet tetrandrous, adj [1 tɛtrændrʊs, 2 tɛtrændrʊs] tetra- & -androus (bot) Having four stamens tetrarch, n [1 tɛtrɑrk, 2 tɛtrɑrk, 2 tɛtrɑrk] Gk tetrarkhes, -arkhos, see tetra- & -arch (Rom antiq) The governor of a part, ong the fourth part, of a province tetrarchy, n [1 tɛtrɑrkɪ, 2 tɛtrɑrkɪ] Gk tetrarkhía, see proc a The district ruled by a tetrarch, b offices of a tetrarch tetrastich, n [1 tɛtrəstɪk, 2 tɛtrəstɪk] Gk tetrastikhon, op distich Poem of four lines tetter, n [1 tɛtər, 2 tɛtə] OE & ME teler, 'ringworm, skin disease', cogn w Sert dadru, 'skin disease' A disease of the skin such as ringworm, eczema &c

Teucrian, adj [1 tɛukrɪən, 2 tɛukrɪən] fr Teucer, Gk Teukros, the first King of Troy a Pertaining to Teucer, b pertaining to the ancient Trojans

Teuton, n [1 tɛtʊn, 2 tɛtʊn] Lat Teutones, the name of an anct Gmo people, fr Gmo teuda, 'people, race', op Goth þiuda, OE þeod, OS thioda, OHG diota, fr this word comes deutsch (= piudisk, 'belonging to the people'), & Dutch a member of the Germanic race, b specif (colloq) a German

Teutonic, adj & n [1 tɛtʊnɪk, 2 tɛtʊnɪk] Proc & -ic 1 adj a Pertaining to the Germanic race, b to the primitive Germanic language, c to a or any Germanic language 2 n Germanic speech, esp primitive Germanic taw, vb See taw (I) tewel, n [1 tɛwəl, 2 tɛwəl] M E tuel, 'funnel, chimney', fr O Fr tuie, tuch, 'pipe', Mod Fr tuyau, prob fr Gmo soures, op Mod Germ Stille, dille, & see Solen The pips or chimney which carries away the smoke, tuyère text, n [1 tɛkst, 2 tɛkst] M E, fr O Fr texte, fr Lat textus, 'texture, structure, grammatical construction, context', formed fr tex (um), P P of texere, 'to weave, to plait, to fit together, contrive', cogn w Sert taksh, 'ho fashions, constructs', tekhar, 'carpenter', Gk tekhnē, 'handicraft, art', op technic The Lat shows a specialization of meaning fr an elementary sense 'construct, fashion' 1 The original words of an author, contrasted with paraphrase, commentary &c innumerable scholars have laboured to restore the text of Beowulf 2 a A verse or short passage of Scripture 'And many a holy text around she strows' (Gray's 'Elegy'), specif b a verse of Scripture taken as the heading and general theme of a sermon, hence, o the theme, subject, topic, of any discourse, argument, dissertation 3 The principal part of a literary composition, as distinct from preface, notes &c 4 Large type of handwriting, also text hand, in which the main part of a book was formerly written, the notes being in smaller writing text-book, n A manual for instruction, a compendious general treatise on a branch of learning, applied both to elementary, introductory treatises, and to advanced, standard works text-hand, n Large style of handwriting formerly used for the body or main part of a book textile, adj & n [1 tɛkstɪl, 2 tɛkstɪl] Lat textilis, woven, wrought, also aan, 'a fabric', see text & -ile 1 adj Connected with weaving, or with woven material textile industries 2 n A woven fabric textual, adj [1 tɛkstʊəl, 2 tɛkstʊəl] M E, fr Fr textuel, see text a Pertaining to, concerned with, based on, derived from, the text of an author textual criticism, emendation &c, hence b literal, word for word a textual quotation textualism, n [1 tɛkstʊəlɪzəm, 2 tɛkstʊəlɪzəm] Proc & -ism Insistence upon a strict adherence to an author's text textualist, n [1 tɛkstʊəlɪst, 2 tɛkstʊəlɪst] See proc & -ist 1 A student of an author's text, a textual critic 2 One who insists on rigid adherence to an author's text textural, adj [1 tɛkstʃərəl, 2 tɛkstʃərəl] See next word & -al Connected with texture texture, n [1 tɛkʃʊr, 2 tɛkʃʊr] Lat textūra, 'a web, texture, fabric, structure', see text & -ure 1 That which is woven, a woven fabric 2 a (i) Way in which the threads of a fabric or constituent elements of a substance are arranged and put together a coarse, fine, harsh, texture (of cloth &c, also of wood, rock &c), (ii) sensation produced by this upon the sense of touch, b (of the

'dow' A intrans 1 a (of the weather) It is thawing, passing to a degree of temperature sufficiently high for frost to disperse and ice to turn to water, b (of frozen matter, objects) to turn to water, to become liquid, to melt the ice is thawing, the snow on Scottish mountains thaws in summer, c (colloq, of persons) to become warm, pass from state of extreme chill to normal temperature I was half frozen after my drive, but I'm gradually thawing 2 (fig, of persons, manner, mental attitude &c) To become genial, cordial, frank, to pass from frigidity, embarrassment, and stiffness to ease and naturalness B trans To cause to thaw, to increase temperature of (frozen object) till liquefaction is produced thaw (II), n, fr proc Process of becoming warmer, or passing from freezing point to open, mild weather, change from frozen condition to liquefaction a thaw has set in and the snow is melting tho (I), def ert [1 dhē, 2 θi] when stressed, normally, when unstressed [1 dhi, 2 θi], before words beginning w a vowel, [1 dhi, 2 θi] before words beginning w a consonant Already in early ME θē is used as indeclinable art This is a new formation fr tho OE nom maso se, w p (th-) introduced fr the other OE cases, all of wh, in all numbers & genders, begun w p- (th-), except nom sing maso (se), & nom sing fem (seo) Orig a demonstr pron Cp Lat iste, is tunc &c, 'that', Gk tō, neut sing of def art, also other cases ton, tē &c, Sort ta, tam, tad &c See also that (I), their, them 1 Indicating some particular person or thing, contrasted with the indef art a the man I loved, the King of England, the author of 'Hamlet', the man for my money, the day that first we met &c 2 Before a noun expressing some well-known object, thing, or personage the Thames, row they bring in the Boar's Head, the Wrekin the Devil, the Pope, the King, indicating either the Sovereign of one's own country, or of some other country about which one is speaking, or in which one is 3 A Used before titles the Lord Bishop of Oxford, the Venerable the Archdeacon of London, the Mayor of Yarmouth, the Duke of Wellington, the Earl of Oxford, b used before the family name of the head of certain ancient families or clans, esp in Scotland and Ireland the Mackintosh, the Chisholm, the Macgillivuddy 4 Before a noun used to designate a whole class or genus the wild boar, the laughing jackass, the horse and the dog are faithful servants of mankind 5 A Before adjectives referring to a person or to persons possessing the qualities which it denotes: 'The young, the beautiful, the brave' (Byron, 'Brude of Ahydos', u 1), the living and the dead, a book much prized by the learned, b before adjectives expressing an abstract idea 'We needs must love the highest when we see it' (Tennyson, 'Guinevere'), the sublime and the beautiful, the public loves the sensational, the picturesque &c 6 With stress [θi] before a noun, denoting some unique object or person the specialist on liver complaints, the poet of the day, cider is the drink for hot weather the (II), adv [1 dha, 2 ðə] OE þi Instrumental of def art By so much, by that amount the more the merrier, the more I practise, the worse I sing theandric, adj [1 theandrīk, 2 þeandrīk] Gk theos, 'God', & andr-, stem of andr, 'man', see first element of androgynous, & -ic Pertaining to, based on, the combination of divine and human nature, as in Jesus Christ theanthropic(al), adj [1 theānthrōpik(l), 2 þeānthrōpik(l)] Gk theos, 'God', see theo-, & anthrōpos, 'man', see anthropo-, & -ic (a) Divine and human, embodying God in human form thoanthropism, n [1 theānthrōpizm, 2 þeānthrōpizm] a Anthropolatry, b belief in the embodiment of God in human form.

theanthropist, n [1 theānthrōpist, 2 þeānthrōpist] Believer in theanthropism thearchic, adj [1 thēárkik, 2 þēárkik] Next word & -ic Pertaining to, based on, of the nature of, thearchy thearchy, n [1 thēárki, 2 þēárki] See theo- & -archy a Divine rulership, b government claiming direct divine authority and guidance, claiming to act as God's viceroy, theocracy theatre, n [1 thēáster, 2 þiáster] Fr, fr Lat theátrum, fr Gk thēátron, fr thēá, 'sight, a spectacle', op also theásmos, 'I gaze at, behold', & thēáō, 'to be seen', prob related to Gk thaúma, 'object of wonder' &c, see thauma(-to)- 1 A building containing a large chamber, with a stage for the performance of dramatic pieces, and seats for spectators 2 A hall arranged like a theatre, with a dais, and rows of seats rising towards the back, for lectures, scientific demonstrations, surgical operations &c, or for public ceremonies operating, lecture, theatre, the Sheldonian Theatre (at Oxford) 3 The scene of important events or actions, region where these take place the theatre of war, the theatre of his early triumphs 4 Dramatic literature collectively, esp the dramatic writings of a particular author or period Goethe's theatre, the Elizabethan theatre theatric, adj [1 thēátrik, 2 þiátrik] Proo & -ic (rare, chiefly poet) Showy, see next word theatrical, adj [1 thēátrikl, 2 þiátrikl] Proo & -al 1 Pertaining to, connected with, the theatre, or with dramatic representation 2 a (of manner) Affected, studied, not natural, adopted for the purpose of impressing, not restrained, b (of appearance) showy, unreal, artificial, meretricious theatricality, n [1 thēátrikáliti, 2 þiátrikáliti] Proo & -ity Quality of being theatrical, affectation of manner &c theatrically, adv [1 thēátrikali, 2 þiátrikali] See proo & -ly In a theatrical manner, as though performing on the stage, affectedly, unnaturally theatricals, n pl [1 thēátrikls, 2 þiátrikls] Dramatic performances, esp those executed by amateurs

Thebaid, n [1 thēháid, 2 þiáid] Gk Thēbai, 'Thebes' a District round or near Thebes in Egypt, b poem (esp that by Statius) upon the siege of Thebes in Boeotia theca, n, pl thecae [1 thēka, 2 þiáka, kɪ] Lat, fr Gk thēkē, 'case in which to put anything', fr thēkō, 'I place', see thēme (bot and zool) Sheath, case, capsule, as of mosses &c, the case of the pupa of an insect &c thee, pron Objective case of thou thief, n [1 thēft, 2 þeft] OE þief, þeof, see thief & -th (I) a Act of stealing, b object stolen thegn, n [1 thān, 2 þeān] OE See thane theism, n [1 thēim, 2 þiim] fr thea, Latinized form of Gk thēā, 'goddess', invented by Linnaeus, as scientific name for tea, & -ism Caffeine as it occurs in tea their, pron [1 thēir, 2 þiir] ON þeirra, possess pl of 3rd pers pron See they theirs, pron, fr proo, -s added on anal of his Form of their used absolutely this is yours and that is theirs, also when preceded by of a favourite habit of theirs theism (I), n [1 thēizm, 2 þiizm] Thea, see thane, & -ism Pathological condition due to excessive use of tea theism (II), n [1 thēizm, 2 þiizm] Gk theos, 'God', see theo- & -ism Belief in a personal God capable of making Himself known by supernatural revelation theist, n [1 thēist, 2 þiist] See theo- & -ist Adherent of theism theistic, adj, rarer theistical [1 thēistik(l), 2 þiistik(l)] Proo & -ic (& -al) Connected with theism or theists them, pron [1 thēm, 2 þēm, þəm] ME þein, þer, fr ON þeir, cogn. w OE þēr, dat pl of def art See the, they Form of pron of 3rd pers used both as dat & acc, pl thematic, adj [1 thēmáthik, 2 þēmáthik], fr Gk themat-, see thēme, & -ic 1 (gram) Pertaining to the stem or theme of a word 2 (mus) Pertaining to the theme or melodic subject, thematic catalogue, one which gives, in addition to the title and full reference, also the opening measures of musical compositions 3 (rare) Relating to a theme or topic thēme, n [1 thēm, 2 þim] ME, fr O Fr teme, Mod Fr thème, fr Lat thema, fr Gk thēma, fr thēkō, 'I place', fr base dhē* &c, whence also deed, do (I), & Lat facere, see fact, op also thesis 1 Subject of thought, writing, discourse 2 (gram) That part of a word to which the inflections are suffixed, a stem 3 (mus) A brief melody occurring and recurring in a composition, subsequently elaborated in variations

Themis, n [1 thēmis, 2 þēmis] Gk, name of the goddess of law and order, 'Justice', fr the same word meaning 'that which is fixed, settled, agreed upon', hence 'law, right' &c, fr base dhē* &c, 'to place, set', see proo. Personification of law and justice themselves, pron [1 dhēmselfs, 2 þōmselfs] 1 Emphatic form of pron of 3rd pers pl they had often done the same thing themselves, or they themselves had &c 2 Reflex pron. pl they were ashamed of themselves, they felt themselves to be in the wrong

then (I), adv & conjunct [1 then, 2 ðən] Same in origin as than, OE þonne A adv 1 a At that (specified) time in the future 'now I know in part, but then shall I know even as also I am known' (1 Cor xii 12), when I know what the price is, then I shall be able to decide, I shall see you on Monday, and will then tell you the facts, b at some former time, in the past, in the old days, contrasted with now, at present ah, we were still young then, Phrs there and then, at that very moment, now and then, from time to time, occasionally 2 Next in order of time, immediately afterwards Queen Anne died in 1702, and then the first Hanoverian sovereign succeeded to the throne of England, he made a few convulsive movements and then died, take a hot drink and then go to bed 3 At another, subsequent time, later on he used to behave like a lunatic when he was in a rage, then, when the fit had passed, he would be full of contrition 4 In that case, that being so if you are tired, then you had better stay at home, well then, please yourself about it, if you didn't understand, then you should have told me, expressing rather unwilling acquiescence oh, all right then, do what you like 5 Expressing condition, under the circumstances, from what you say you don't want to go after all then, then you didn't expect me today 6 Now then, expressing protest, warning &c now then, what are you doing?, now then, don't hit me in the eye!, now then, a little less noise there B conj Moreover, in addition, also, further then there's the General still to be invited, then what about French, can you speak that language?

then (II), adj fr prec Existing, acting, at a specified time the then governor was a man of probity and honour then (III), n. See prec That (specified) time by then, till then, up to then, from then onwards thennar, n [1 thēnar, 2 þiān] Gk thennar, 'palm of the hand', cogn. w OHG þennar, 'palm' The palm of the hand, the protuberance in the palm at the base of the thumb thence, adv [1 thēns, 2 þēns] OE þanra, OHG danān &c, ME þenra, suff. of genit used adverbially 1 From that place we went to Geneva, and thence to the Prun Valley 2 (rare) From that time, the fourth a year thence, contrasted with a year hence 3 On that account, for that reason, from what has been said, therefore there is follows that we were wrong, he was very old, and thence very feeble thenceforth, adv [1 thénáforth, 2 thénáth] From that time or place, onwards, often from thenceforth thenceforward adv [1 thénáforward, 2 thénáfwad] Thenceforth theo-, pref Form used in compounds, fr Gk theos, 'god', later of the God of the Jews or of the Christians The etymol is disputed, some authorities derive the word fr the base dhues*, 'to breathe, breathe, spirit, life', & connect w Lat bēst & see beast, & w deor, also w Lat fūmus, 'smoke', see furne & dust, others derive fr dhēs* & 'religious act', & connect w Lat feriae, 'religious festivals', see ferial & fair (I), & w Lat festus, 'connected with holidays, solemn, festal' & festum, 'festival, feast', see fonst, festive & also Lat fanum, 'place consecrated to a deity', see fane theocentric, adj [1 thēōsēntrik, 2 plousēntrik] Proo & centric Considering God as the centre of the universe theocracy, n [1 thēōkrasi, 2 plōkrasi] theo- & -cracy A system of state government by direct guidance of God, & government by priests as purporting to represent God, and interpret His will

theocracy, n [1 thēōkrasi, 2 plōkrasi] theo- & -cracy A system of state government by direct guidance of God, & government by priests as purporting to represent God, and interpret His will

theocrat, n [1 thēōkrat, 2 plōukrat] theo- & -crat A ruler under a system of theocracy theocratic, adj [1 thēōkratīk, 2 plōukratīk] Proo & -ic Pertaining to, based on, theocracy theodicy, n [1 thēōdīai, 2 pīdīai] theo- & Gk dikē, 'justice', see dīcast Vindication of divine justice in permitting existence of evil theodolite, n [1 thēōdolit, 2 pīdīdolit] Origin unknown Instrument used by surveyors for measuring angles theogony, n [1 thēogon, 2 pīgōn] Gk theogonia, 'genealogy of the gods', fr theo- & gōnos, 'race, offspring, begetting', see under genus Branch of ancient heathen theology, dealing with the origin and descent of the various gods theologian, n [1 thēōlōgian, 2 plōlōdī(ā)an] Gk word is theologos, our word fr theologos, fr theologia, see theology & -an Student of, authority on, theology theological, adj [1 thēōlōgīk, 2 plōlōdīdīk] theology & -ic & -al Connected with, based upon, of the nature of, theology theologically, adv Proo & -ly From the point of view of theology, or of theologians theologico- pref Form of theological used in compounds theologico-philosophical theologue, n [1 thēōlōg, 2 plōlōlōg] Fr, Lat theologus, fr Gk, see theologian (archaic or obs) Theologian theology, n [1 thēōlōgī, 2 plōlōdīdī] Gk theologia, see theo- & -logy Systematic study and inquiry into the nature and attributes of God, also the systematic study of religion and the foundations of belief theomachy, n [1 thēōmakh, 2 pīmakh] fr Gk theomakhia, see theo- & -makh A battle with or among the gods theomorphic, adj [1 thēōmōrfīk, 2 plōmōrfīk] fr Gk theomorphos (see) & -ic see theo- & -ic first element in morphology Having the form or appearance of a god, in the form of a god theophany, n [1 thēōfani, 2 pīfani] fr Gk theophaneia, fr theo- & base discussed under phantasm An appearance, manifestation of God in human or divine form to man theorbo, n [1 thēōrbō, 2 pīōrbō] Fr theorbo, fr Ital horbo Origin unknown. Obsolete kind of lute, of large size, and having two necks, and sets of pegs and strings theorem, n [1 thēōrem, 2 pīōrem] Gk theōrēma, 'a sight, speculation', see theory 1 Something established as a law or general principle, a speculative truth. 2. (math)

A general statement, a proposition to be established by reasoning theorematic(al), adj [1 thēōrēmātik(l), 2 plōrēmātik(l)] fr theōrēmat, elem of proo, & -ic (& -al) Pertaining to theorems theoretic(al), adj [1 thēōrētīk(l), 2 plōrētīk(l)] Gk theōrētīkōs, see theory a Pertaining to, based upon, theory. b speculative, not based on actual experience, contrasted with practical theoretically, adv Proo & -y In theory, as a theory, from the point of view of theory theorist, n [1 thēōrist, 2 pīōrist] theory & -ist One given to forming theories, an unpractical person theorize, vb Intrans [1 thēōriz, 2 pīōriz] theory & -ize To form, put forward, theories theory, n [1 thēōri, 2 pīōri] Fr theorie, Lat theoria, fr Gk theōria, 'a spectacle, contemplation, speculation', op theōria, 'spectator', & theōria, 'to see', see also theatro

1 A general principle, a supposition, advanced to explain a group of phenomena, esp one which has been tested, and is regarded as supplying an acceptable explanation, distinct from hypothesis, which is an assumption not yet verified

2 General principles underlying a body of facts, contrasted with practices a theory of education, government, the theory of music

3 Contemplation, speculation, as distinct from actual experience foreign travel is all very well in theory 4 (popular usage) Opinion, fanciful belief, fad, whimsy I have a theory that a hot bath at night makes one sleepless theosophic(al), adj [1 thēōsōfīk(l), 2 plōsōfīk(l)] theosophy & -ic (& -al) Connected with, relating to, theosophy theosophist, n [1 thēōsōfist, 2 pīōsōfist] theosophy & -ist Believer in theosophy theosophy, n [1 thēōsōfī, 2 pīōsōfī] Gk theosophia, 'knowledge of divine things', theos, 'God', see theo- & sōphos, 'skill, wisdom', fr sōphōs, 'skilled, clever, wise', see sophist Mystical form of religious thought which aims at establishing a direct relation between the individual soul and the divine principle by contemplation and ecstasy, and thereby gaining superior spiritual insight and knowledge

-ther, compar suff, fr base ter*, tr*, seen in Gk teros, Lat terius, see inter-, found in proms & advs implying comparison, alter native possibility, distinction & eg either, other, whether, either, neither therapeutic(al), adj [1 thērāpūtīk(l), 2 pērāpūtīk(l)] Gk therapeutikōs, 'attentive, obedient, able to cure', therapeutikē, 'the healing art', op therapeuein, 'to serve, attend upon', fr therapōn, 'an attendant, servant', the orig sense is perh 'prop, support', op Gk thērōn, 'a bench, form', & Lat firmus, 'strong, firm', see firm (I), & frē tus, 'trusting to, relying on' Connected with the art of healing, with the cure of disease therapeutics, n, pl [1 thērāpūtīks, 2 pērāpūtīks] That side of medicine which is concerned with the treatment and cure of disease

-therapy, suff [1 thērāpī, 2 pērāpī] Gk therapeia, 'service attendance, medical attendance', see therapeutic Curative treatment, eg radio therapy, cure by radium

thera, adv & interj [1 thēr, 2 thē] O I thēr, belongs to the group of demonstrative words including the, that, them. 1 a In that place, referring to one other than that in which the speaker actually is, contrasted with here when we reached London my brother remained there, while I came on here, b to, towards, that place I've never been to Rome, but I'm going there at Easter Phrs look there look at that, in that direction & there it is = what you are looking for & 2 a At that point, stage (in action, discourse, argument & c) don't stop there, go on and tell us all about it, b towards a certain point (in action & c) I have not yet reached your intellectual position

thera, adv & interj [1 thēr, 2 thē] O I thēr, belongs to the group of demonstrative words including the, that, them. 1 a In that place, referring to one other than that in which the speaker actually is, contrasted with here when we reached London my brother remained there, while I came on here, b to, towards, that place I've never been to Rome, but I'm going there at Easter Phrs look there look at that, in that direction & there it is = what you are looking for & 2 a At that point, stage (in action, discourse, argument & c) don't stop there, go on and tell us all about it, b towards a certain point (in action & c) I have not yet reached your intellectual position

thera, adv & interj [1 thēr, 2 thē] O I thēr, belongs to the group of demonstrative words including the, that, them. 1 a In that place, referring to one other than that in which the speaker actually is, contrasted with here when we reached London my brother remained there, while I came on here, b to, towards, that place I've never been to Rome, but I'm going there at Easter Phrs look there look at that, in that direction & there it is = what you are looking for & 2 a At that point, stage (in action, discourse, argument & c) don't stop there, go on and tell us all about it, b towards a certain point (in action & c) I have not yet reached your intellectual position

thera, adv & interj [1 thēr, 2 thē] O I thēr, belongs to the group of demonstrative words including the, that, them. 1 a In that place, referring to one other than that in which the speaker actually is, contrasted with here when we reached London my brother remained there, while I came on here, b to, towards, that place I've never been to Rome, but I'm going there at Easter Phrs look there look at that, in that direction & there it is = what you are looking for & 2 a At that point, stage (in action, discourse, argument & c) don't stop there, go on and tell us all about it, b towards a certain point (in action & c) I have not yet reached your intellectual position

thera, adv & interj [1 thēr, 2 thē] O I thēr, belongs to the group of demonstrative words including the, that, them. 1 a In that place, referring to one other than that in which the speaker actually is, contrasted with here when we reached London my brother remained there, while I came on here, b to, towards, that place I've never been to Rome, but I'm going there at Easter Phrs look there look at that, in that direction & there it is = what you are looking for & 2 a At that point, stage (in action, discourse, argument & c) don't stop there, go on and tell us all about it, b towards a certain point (in action & c) I have not yet reached your intellectual position

thera, adv & interj [1 thēr, 2 thē] O I thēr, belongs to the group of demonstrative words including the, that, them. 1 a In that place, referring to one other than that in which the speaker actually is, contrasted with here when we reached London my brother remained there, while I came on here, b to, towards, that place I've never been to Rome, but I'm going there at Easter Phrs look there look at that, in that direction & there it is = what you are looking for & 2 a At that point, stage (in action, discourse, argument & c) don't stop there, go on and tell us all about it, b towards a certain point (in action & c) I have not yet reached your intellectual position

thera, adv & interj [1 thēr, 2 thē] O I thēr, belongs to the group of demonstrative words including the, that, them. 1 a In that place, referring to one other than that in which the speaker actually is, contrasted with here when we reached London my brother remained there, while I came on here, b to, towards, that place I've never been to Rome, but I'm going there at Easter Phrs look there look at that, in that direction & there it is = what you are looking for & 2 a At that point, stage (in action, discourse, argument & c) don't stop there, go on and tell us all about it, b towards a certain point (in action & c) I have not yet reached your intellectual position

thera, adv & interj [1 thēr, 2 thē] O I thēr, belongs to the group of demonstrative words including the, that, them. 1 a In that place, referring to one other than that in which the speaker actually is, contrasted with here when we reached London my brother remained there, while I came on here, b to, towards, that place I've never been to Rome, but I'm going there at Easter Phrs look there look at that, in that direction & there it is = what you are looking for & 2 a At that point, stage (in action, discourse, argument & c) don't stop there, go on and tell us all about it, b towards a certain point (in action & c) I have not yet reached your intellectual position

thera, adv & interj [1 thēr, 2 thē] O I thēr, belongs to the group of demonstrative words including the, that, them. 1 a In that place, referring to one other than that in which the speaker actually is, contrasted with here when we reached London my brother remained there, while I came on here, b to, towards, that place I've never been to Rome, but I'm going there at Easter Phrs look there look at that, in that direction & there it is = what you are looking for & 2 a At that point, stage (in action, discourse, argument & c) don't stop there, go on and tell us all about it, b towards a certain point (in action & c) I have not yet reached your intellectual position

thera, adv & interj [1 thēr, 2 thē] O I thēr, belongs to the group of demonstrative words including the, that, them. 1 a In that place, referring to one other than that in which the speaker actually is, contrasted with here when we reached London my brother remained there, while I came on here, b to, towards, that place I've never been to Rome, but I'm going there at Easter Phrs look there look at that, in that direction & there it is = what you are looking for & 2 a At that point, stage (in action, discourse, argument & c) don't stop there, go on and tell us all about it, b towards a certain point (in action & c) I have not yet reached your intellectual position

thera, adv & interj [1 thēr, 2 thē] O I thēr, belongs to the group of demonstrative words including the, that, them. 1 a In that place, referring to one other than that in which the speaker actually is, contrasted with here when we reached London my brother remained there, while I came on here, b to, towards, that place I've never been to Rome, but I'm going there at Easter Phrs look there look at that, in that direction & there it is = what you are looking for & 2 a At that point, stage (in action, discourse, argument & c) don't stop there, go on and tell us all about it, b towards a certain point (in action & c) I have not yet reached your intellectual position

thera, adv & interj [1 thēr, 2 thē] O I thēr, belongs to the group of demonstrative words including the, that, them. 1 a In that place, referring to one other than that in which the speaker actually is, contrasted with here when we reached London my brother remained there, while I came on here, b to, towards, that place I've never been to Rome, but I'm going there at Easter Phrs look there look at that, in that direction & there it is = what you are looking for & 2 a At that point, stage (in action, discourse, argument & c) don't stop there, go on and tell us all about it, b towards a certain point (in action & c) I have not yet reached your intellectual position

thera, adv & interj [1 thēr, 2 thē] O I thēr, belongs to the group of demonstrative words including the, that, them. 1 a In that place, referring to one other than that in which the speaker actually is, contrasted with here when we reached London my brother remained there, while I came on here, b to, towards, that place I've never been to Rome, but I'm going there at Easter Phrs look there look at that, in that direction & there it is = what you are looking for & 2 a At that point, stage (in action, discourse, argument & c) don't stop there, go on and tell us all about it, b towards a certain point (in action & c) I have not yet reached your intellectual position

thera, adv & interj [1 thēr, 2 thē] O I thēr, belongs to the group of demonstrative words including the, that, them. 1 a In that place, referring to one other than that in which the speaker actually is, contrasted with here when we reached London my brother remained there, while I came on here, b to, towards, that place I've never been to Rome, but I'm going there at Easter Phrs look there look at that, in that direction & there it is = what you are looking for & 2 a At that point, stage (in action, discourse, argument & c) don't stop there, go on and tell us all about it, b towards a certain point (in action & c) I have not yet reached your intellectual position

thera, adv & interj [1 thēr, 2 thē] O I thēr, belongs to the group of demonstrative words including the, that, them. 1 a In that place, referring to one other than that in which the speaker actually is, contrasted with here when we reached London my brother remained there, while I came on here, b to, towards, that place I've never been to Rome, but I'm going there at Easter Phrs look there look at that, in that direction & there it is = what you are looking for & 2 a At that point, stage (in action, discourse, argument & c) don't stop there, go on and tell us all about it, b towards a certain point (in action & c) I have not yet reached your intellectual position

thera, adv & interj [1 thēr, 2 thē] O I thēr, belongs to the group of demonstrative words including the, that, them. 1 a In that place, referring to one other than that in which the speaker actually is, contrasted with here when we reached London my brother remained there, while I came on here, b to, towards, that place I've never been to Rome, but I'm going there at Easter Phrs look there look at that, in that direction & there it is = what you are looking for & 2 a At that point, stage (in action, discourse, argument & c) don't stop there, go on and tell us all about it, b towards a certain point (in action & c) I have not yet reached your intellectual position

thera, adv & interj [1 thēr, 2 thē] O I thēr, belongs to the group of demonstrative words including the, that, them. 1 a In that place, referring to one other than that in which the speaker actually is, contrasted with here when we reached London my brother remained there, while I came on here, b to, towards, that place I've never been to Rome, but I'm going there at Easter Phrs look there look at that, in that direction & there it is = what you are looking for & 2 a At that point, stage (in action, discourse, argument & c) don't stop there, go on and tell us all about it, b towards a certain point (in action & c) I have not yet reached your intellectual position

out I may get there in time Phrs (along) to get there, attain one's object, do what one is trying to do, there it is, that is the situation. 3 Pro-nominal and impersonally, as subjunct of a verb, introducing a sentence there was once a great king, at beginning of a narrative, there was a sudden drop in the temperature, there was no excuse for his rudeness, what is there to do here?, there are plenty of foxes to be killed, also archaic or poet, a king there was & c 4 (as interj) There, there!, in soothing a child & c, there now, I told you it would land you in a mess!, there now, it has turned out all right after all!

thereabouts, adv [1 dhārābouts, 2 dhārābouts] 1 Near that (specified) place he lives in Wantage or thereabouts 2 Near to that amount, extent, degree, position & c a thousand a year, or thereabouts, top of his school or thereabouts thereafter, adv [1 dhārāhftor, 2 dhārāhftor] OE þārafter 1 After that time 2 (rare) According to, in accordance with, that listen to his advice, and behave yourself thereafter thereat, adv [1 dhārāt, 2 dhārāt] (archaic) At, on account of, by means of, that thereby, adv [1 dhārbi, 2 dhārbi] 1 Near to that place 2 By that means I have learnt my lesson, and hope to profit thereby therefor, adv [1 dhārfor, 2 dhārfor] (archaic) For it, for that, or this, in exchange for that therefore, adv [1 dhārfor, 2 dhārfor] On this, or that, account, for this, or that, reason therefrom, adv [1 dhārfrom, 2 dhārfrom] From, away from, that, by means of that therein, adv [1 dhārīn, 2 dhārīn] a In that thing, or place, b in this, that, particular thereinafter, adv [1 dhārīnāhftor, 2 dhārīnāhftor] In that part which follows (in a speech, or document) thereof, adv [1 dhārōf, 2 dhārōf, -ōf] (archaic) Of it, of that thou shalt not eat thereof thereon, adv [1 dhārōn, 2 dhārōn] (archaic) On this, on that thereto, adv [1 dhārto, 2 dhārto] (archaic) 1 To it, to that, to that place 2 Moreover, in addition to that theretofore, adv [1 dhārtofor, 2 dhārtofor] (archaic) Until then, up to that time thereunder, adv [1 dhārūnder, 2 dhārūnder] (archaic) Under that thereunto, adv [1 dhārūnto, 2 dhārūnto] (archaic, or obs) To that, to it thereupon, adv [1 dhārūpon, 2 dhārūpon] 1 Upon that 2 In consequence, as result, of that 3 At that point (of time), immediately after that therewith, adv [1 dhārwith, 2 dhārwith, -wīp] (archaic) 1 With that 2 Forth with, at that moment, thereupon therewithal, adv [1 dhārwithāwl, 2 dhārwithāwl] Besides, moreover, therewith theriac, n [1 thērīak, 2 pīōrīak] Lat Theriac (Andromachia), fr Gk thērīakē, 'antidote', formed fr thērion, 'wild beast', dimin of thēr, 'wild beast', fr ghēr*, & cogn w Lat ferus, 'wild', see feral, & ferocious, op treacle Ancient antidote for poison, composed of certain drugs mixed with honey therianthrope, adj [1 thērīanthrōpīk, 2 pīōrīanthrōpīk] Gk thēr, animal, beast', see therio- & anthrōpos, 'man', see anthropo- Combining human and animal form, as the centaur therio-, pref, fr Gk thērion, 'beast, animal', fr thēr, 'wild beast', see theriac theriomorphic, theriomorphous, adj [1 thērīomōrfīk, 2 pīōrīomōrfīk] Proo & Gk morphē, 'form', see first element in morphology Having the form of an animal

-therium, suff Mod. Lat, fr Gk thērion, 'animal', see theriac megatherium & c therm, n [1 thērīn, 2 pīōrīn] Gk thērma, 'heat', op thermōs, 'hot, warm', fr base

therm, n [1 thērīn, 2 pīōrīn] Gk thērma, 'heat', op thermōs, 'hot, warm', fr base

therm, n [1 thērīn, 2 pīōrīn] Gk thērma, 'heat', op thermōs, 'hot, warm', fr base

therm, n [1 thērīn, 2 pīōrīn] Gk thērma, 'heat', op thermōs, 'hot, warm', fr base

therm, n [1 thērīn, 2 pīōrīn] Gk thērma, 'heat', op thermōs, 'hot, warm', fr base

therm, n [1 thērīn, 2 pīōrīn] Gk thērma, 'heat', op thermōs, 'hot, warm', fr base

therm, n [1 thērīn, 2 pīōrīn] Gk thērma, 'heat', op thermōs, 'hot, warm', fr base

therm, n [1 thērīn, 2 pīōrīn] Gk thērma, 'heat', op thermōs, 'hot, warm', fr base

therm, n [1 thērīn, 2 pīōrīn] Gk thērma, 'heat', op thermōs, 'hot, warm', fr base

gherm*-, ghorm*-, & cogn. Lat forma, 'warm', also w warm Term for British thermal unit, or unit of heat, being the amount of heat required to raise a pound of water at maximum density, 1° Fahrenheit, abbreviated BTU thermae, n pl [1 thérmā, 2 pāmī] Lat, 'hot springs', fr Gk thérma, pl of thérmē, 'heat', see preo Hot springs, or baths, specif, the springs connected with ancient Roman public baths, also the baths themselves thermaesthesia, n [1 thérmesthēzia, 2 pām-espīzē] fr thermo- & Gk aisthēsis, 'sensation', see aesthete, & -ia (physiol) Sensitiveness to heat thermal, adj [1 thérmal, 2 pām(s)l] See therm & -al Pertaining to thermas, b pertaining to heat, hot thermal waters, springs &c thermantidote, n [1 thérmántidōt, 2 pāmāntidōt] See therm & antidote Apparatus used in hot countries for cooling the air thermic, adj [1 thérmič, 2 pāmīč] See therm & -ic Connected with, caused by, heat thermidor, n [1 thérmidōr, 2 pāmīdō] Fr, fr Gk thérmē, 'heat', see therm, & dōron, 'gift', base of wh see under donate Name given in French Revolution to the eleventh month of their calendar, from July 19th to August 17th

Thermidorian, n [1 thérmidōrian, 2 pāmīdōrian] Preo & -an One of those who took part in, or favoured, the overthrow of Robespierre on 9th Thermidor (July 27th), 1794 thermionic, adj [1 thérmionīč, 2 pāmīonīč] fr therm & -ion & -ic Term applied to a vacuum tube, thermionic valve, used in wireless, in which electrons given off by a heated filament carry current in one direction, thus converting the alternating current of the radio waves into wire-directional current which can be made to work a telephone and produce sound thermit(e), n [1 thérmit, -it, 2 pāmīst, -at] thermo- & -ite A mixture of finely granulated aluminum with an iron oxide, used in welding thermo-, pref Form used in compounds, fr Gk thermós, 'hot', or thérmē, 'heat', see therm thermobarometer, n [1 thérmobarōmeter, 2 pāmōubarōmītr] Apparatus for measuring a height by determining the boiling point of water at that altitude thermochemistry, n [1 thérmōkēmīstri, 2 pāmōukēmīstri] Branch of chemistry treating of relation between heat and chemical action thermo-couple, n [1 thérmō kūpl, 2 pāmōukūpl] Thermopile thermodynamics, n [1 thérmōdīnāmīks, 2 pāmōudīnāmīks] Branch of science dealing with the relation between thermal and mechanical energy thermoelectric(al), adj [1 thérmōelēktrīk(l), 2 pāmōulēktrīk(l)] Pertaining to thermoelectricity thermoelectricity, n [1 thérmōelēktrīsitī, 2 pāmōulēktrīsitī] Electricity produced by the action of heat, by differences in temperature &c thermoelectrometer, n [1 thérmōelēktrōmeter, 2 pāmōulēktrōmītr] Instrument for determining the power of an electric current by measuring the heat which it produces thermogenesis, n [1 thérmōjēnēsis, 2 pāmōudjēnēsis] The production of heat in the human body &c thermogenetic, adj [1 thérmōjēnētīč, 2 pāmōudjēnētīč] thermo- & -genetic Pertaining to thermogenesis thermogenic, adj [1 thérmōjēnīč, 2 pāmōudjēnīč] thermo- & -genic & -ic Relating to the production of heat thermogenous, adj [1 thérmōjēnūs, 2 pāmōudjēnūs] See preo & -ous Producing heat thermogram, a [1 thérmōgrām, 2 pāmōu- grām] thermo- & -gram Record produced by a thermograph thermograph, n [1 thérmōgrāfh, 2 pāmōugrāfh] thermo- & -graph Self-registering thermometer thermology, n [1 thérmōlōjī, 2 pāmōlōdžī] thermo- & -logy The science of heat thermometer, n [1 thérmōmēter, 2 pāmōmītr] thermo- & -meter Instrument for measuring degrees of temperature thermometric(al), adj [1 thérmōmētrīk(l), 2 pāmōmētrīk(l)] Preo & -ic & (-al) Pertaining to, measured by, a thermometer thermometrically, adv [1 thérmōmētrīkālī, 2 pāmōmētrīkālī] Preo & -ly By means of a thermometer thermometry, n [1 thérmōmētrī, 2 pāmōmītrī] thermo- & -metry The measurement of heat thermotive, adj [1 thérmōmōtīv, 2 pāmōmōtīv] Pertaining to motion produced by heat thermototor, n [1 thérmōmōtōr, 2 pāmōmōtōr] An engine worked by heat, usually by hot air thermophilic, adj [1 thérmōfīlīč, 2 pāmīfīlīč] thermo- & -phil & -ic (of bacteria) Heat loving, developing best at a comparatively high temperature thermophore, n [1 thérmōfōr, 2 pāmōufō] thermo- & -phore Apparatus for conveying warmth, heating appliance thermopile, n [1 thérmōpīl, 2 pāmōupīl] thermo- & -pile (III) Thermoelectric battery, used as delicate form of thermometer, consisting of junctions of dissimilar metals which produce an electric current on the application of heat thermoplegia, n [1 thérmōplējīa, 2 pāmōuplējīa] thermo- & Gk plēgē, 'blow, stroke', see under pneumonia & -ia A heat-stroke thermoscope, n [1 thérmōskōp, 2 pāmōuskōp] thermo- & -scope Instrument for indicating differences of temperature without exact measurement thermoscopic(al), adj [1 thérmōskōpīk(l), 2 pāmōuskōpīk(l)] Preo & -ic & (-al) Pertaining to, shown by, a thermoscope thermos flask, n [1 thérmōs fīlākh, 2 pāmōs fīlākh] Proprietary trade name, fr Gk thérmōs, 'hot', see therm A kind of vacuum flask or bottle used for keeping liquids contained in it hot or cold, also thermos thermostat, n [1 thérmōstāt, 2 pāmōustāt] See thermo- & static Device for regulating temperature automatically thermostatic, adj [1 thérmōstātīč, 2 pāmōustātīč] Preo & -ic Pertaining to, carried out by, a thermostat thermostatics, n [1 thérmōstātīks, 2 pāmōustātīks] See preo & -ics Branch of the science of heat dealing with the equilibrium of heat thermotaxis, adj [1 thérmōtākīč, 2 pāmōutākīč] thermo- & taxis & -ic Pertaining to the regulation of bodily heat thermotensile, adj [1 thérmōtēnsīl, 2 pāmōutēnsīl] Pertaining to variation in tensile force when affected by temperature thermotherapy, n [1 thérmōthērāpī, 2 pāmōupērāpī] The treatment of disease by heat thermotype, n [1 thérmōtīp, 2 pāmōutīp] Impression of an object, e.g. a section of wood &c, produced by damping the object with dilute acid, taking a print from it, and developing this print by the application of heat theroid, adj [1 thérōid, 2 pīarōid] Gk thér, 'wild beast', see theriac & -oid Resembling a beast, like an animal in appearance and habits theroid virus therology, n [1 thérōlōjī, 2 pīarōlōdžī] Gk thér, '(wild) beast', as in preo, & -logy Study of mammals thesaurus, n [1 thēsōrūs, 2 pīsōrās] Lat, fr Gk thēsaurós, 'treasure, treasure house', origin unexplained, prob a primitive compound A treasury, esp a treasury or collection of words, phrases, literary extracts or the like, a lexicon these, demonstr pron [1 dhēs, 2 ōiz] Pl of this thesis (I), n [1 thēsīs, 2 pēsīs] Gk thēsis, 'a setting, placing, arranging', fr base in tithēmi, 'I set, place', cogn w Eagle do (I) & Lat facere, 'do, make', see fact, & epitheme (pros) The accented part of a metrical foot, contrasted with arsis, the unaccented part thesis (II), n [1 thēsīs, 2 pēsīs], more rarely [1 thēsis, 2 pēsis] Same as preo 1 Some thing advanced, maintained, laid down, a proposition

2 Specif, formerly, a dissertation, a proposition advanced and publicly disputed, defended, or maintained by a candidate for a university degree, hence a dissertation, essay, treatise, written for purposes of a degree examination, embodying the candidate's research

Thespian, adj & n [1 thēspīan, 2 pēspīan] fr Gk Thēspis, supposed founder of Gk drama, & -an 1 adj Connected with the drama, or with acting theurgy(al), adj [1 thēurgīk(l), 2 pīdžīk(l)] theurgy & -ic & -al Magical theurgist, n [1 thēurgīst, 2 pīdžīst] theurgy & -ist A magician theurgy, a [1 thēurgī, 2 pīdžī] Gk theurgia, 'miracle', see theo-, 'God', & ergon, 'work', see erg A Divine work, miracle, b sorcery, magic thewed, adj [1 thūd, 2 pūd] See thews Having thews of specified kind thewless, adj [1 thūlēss, 2 pūlēss] thew(s) & -less Lacking physical strength, lacking mental or moral fibre thews, n pl [1 thūz, 2 pūz] OE þēow, 'custom, habit', later, 'strength', still used by Spenser in sense of 'manners, behaviour' three daughters, well upbrought In goodly thews, and godly exercise (F Q I x 4), cogn w OS thau, 'habit, custom', OHG thau, 'discipline', etymol doubtful 1 Siewew, muscles, esp thaws and siewes 2 Moral or mental fibre, robustness, vigour thewy, adj [1 thūi, 2 pūi] See preo & -y Muscular, sinewy they, pers pron of 3rd pers pl nom [1 dhā, 2 deī] ME þei, they &c, fr ON þeir, wh gradually takes the place of ME hi &c, fr OE his, cogn w the thiasus, a [1 thīasās, 2 pīasās] Lat, fr Gk thiasos, etymol doubtful (Gk antiq) A Religious brotherhood formed in honour of a god, b the sacrifice, festival, of such a brotherhood thick (1), adj [1 thīč, 2 pīč] ME thīck &c, prob fr ON þykk, the OE cogn piece wd result in thīch*, OS thīht, OHG dicch, relations outside Gmc doubtful 1 a (i) Of great circumference relatively to length a thick bough, thick trunk, thick neck, legs, fingers, (ii) of great, or relatively great, depth laterally, from one surface to that opposite, reverse of thin a thick slice of meat, sheet of paper, thick cloth, Phrs (colloq) a bit thick, of conduct, demands &c, hardly tolerable, too much of a good thing. of circumstances, fortune &c, hard to bear, arduous, b having, of, a specified thickness five foot thick &c 2 a (of fluids, vapours &c) Having considerable density, of semi solid consistency, unspun, having component particles closely packed together. b (of a group of objects) placed close together, having small space between, dense a thick wood, corn standing thick 3 (of water &c) Meddy, turbid, reverse of clear, turpid the river looks thick after the rain &c a Frequent, occurring rapidly one after another, repeated, crowded, numerous with nouns thick upon him, a thick shower of blows, b full of, abounding in the air thick with rain, snow &c 5 (of the voice, of sound) Dull, not distinct, resonant or ringing, reverse of clear & Dull of intellect, slow-witted, obtuse, dense 7 In time, much together, closely associated &c and I are very thick, Phr as thick as thieves thick (II), a, fr prec 1 The thick, thickest, densest, part, place where most is taking place to plunge into the thick of the fight, of politics &c Phrs in the thick of it, in the midst of, taking active part in, events, or affairs &c, to go through thick and thin, face and overcome great difficulties, hardships &c 2 A person of thick wits, a blockhead thick (III) adv, fr thick (I) Thickly the snow fell thick thicken, vb trans & intrans [1 thicken, 2 pikan] thick (I) & -en a trans To make thick (in various senses), b intrans, to become thick thickening, n [1 thickening, 2 pikan] Preo & -ing 1 Process of becoming thick, or thicker thickening of the tissues 2 Some thing or part which has become thick 3 Something which serves to thicken a liquid &c thicket, n [1 thicket, 2 pikan] OE þicet, Mod form reast on type of thick (I) Thickly wooded area, esp one with dense undergrowth of low growing shrubs and trees thicketed, adj [1 thicketed, 2 pikan] Preo & -ed Rich in thickets, covered with thickets thicket, n [1 thicket, 2 pikan] A stupid person, a blockhead thick, adj [1 thick, 2 pikan] thick (I) & -ish Rather thick thick-knee, n Popular name of the stone-curlew thickly, adv [1 thickly, 2 pikan] thick (I) & -ly In a thick manner, a densely, closely in such a way as to be, lie, thick thickly covered with snow, b indistinctly to speak thickly, o frequently, in rapid succession thickness, n [1 thickness, 2 pikan] See preo & -ness 1 Quality of being thick (in various senses) the thickness of his arms showed great muscular development, thickness of speech, thickness of intellect 2 Amount by which, extent to which, a thing is thick, measurement other than in length and breadth thickness, n [1 thickness, 2 pikan] A thickness of ten feet, three inches in thickness thickest, n [1 thickest, 2 pikan] Thickest part of anything wounded in the thickness of the back 4 Layer, fold, ply three thicknesses of felt thicket, adj [1 thicket, 2 pikan] Closely, densely, planted thicketed hedge 2 [1 thicket, 2 pikan] Stumpy, stocky, short, and broadly, solidly, built, reverse of slim, tall a man who is sturdy and thickset thick-skulled, adj (chiefly fig) Insensitive, having obtuse, blunted, sensibilities, slow to perceive or recognize subtle shades of feeling, not sensitive to the opinion of others thick-skulled, adj Dense, stupid, mentally obtuse thief, n [1 thief, 2 pif] OE þeof, ME þef, thef &c, OS thiof, OHG diob, Goth þiufs, etymol unknown 1 Person who steals 2 (colloq) Flaw in wick of a candle which causes this to gutter, thus wasting the wax thieve, vb intrans & trans [1 thiev, 2 pif] OE þeafian See preo a intrans To play the thief, be guilty of theft, b trans, to steal (a thing) thievery n [1 thievry, 2 pif] thief & -ry The act of stealing, theft thievish, adj [1 thievish, 2 pif] thief & -ish 1 Addicted to thieving 2 Of the nature of theft thievish habits thievishly, adv Preo & -ly In a thievish manner like a thief, dishonestly thievishness, n See preo & -ness a Habit of stealing b fact of being a thief thigh, n [1 thigh, 2 pih] OE þiuh, ME þi, þi, O Fris thioh OHG diuh, cp Lith kuokas, 'animal fat' fr base teu*, 'to swell', as in Lat, tumere, 'to swell' see tumid tumour a The thick part of the leg in man apes and birds and of the hind leg in quadrupeds between the hip and the knee b the bone of the thigh, the femur to break one's thigh thigh-bone n Bone of the thigh, the femur thighed, adj [1 thigh, 2 pih] Having specified kind of thigh 'celvich-thighed' (Browning), large thighed thill, thuller, n [1 thiller, 2 pil(p)] OE þille, 'structure of planks, flooring' (fr þeli*), ME thille, cogn w OE þil, 'plank', OHG diht, ON þiſa, 'plank', op Mod Germ diele, & deal (IV) (plank) Shaft of a cart thimble, n [1 thimble, 2 pimbli] OE þymel, 'thumbstall', fr pūma, see thumb, w dimin suff, see -le 1 Small cap of metal, bone &c used to protect the finger when sewing 2 (naut) Metal ring having the outer edge or surface grooved, fitted into a rope or sail, to prevent chafing thimbleful, n [1 thimbleful, 2 pimbliful] Preo & -ful As much (liquid) as could be contained in a thimble, hence, a very small quantity of liquid thimblery, n & vb intrans [1 thimbling, 2 pimbli] See preo & rig (III) 1 n Usually thimblerying, swindling game at cards &c, in which a player bets that he will detect under whose of three small thimble-shaped cups a small pea or ball of pith is concealed, after the operator has rapidly and dexterously shifted it from one to the other many times, the swindle consists in the fact that there is often no ball under any of the cups 2 vb To play this game, to swindle thimblery, n [1 thimblery, 2 pimbli] Practitioner of thimblerying thimblerying, n [1 thimblerying, 2 pimbli] a The game described under thimblery, b (fig) dishonest, unscrupulous practice thin (I), adj [1 thin, 2 pin] OE þinne, ME thinne, OHG dunne, ON þinnr, cogn w Lat lenius, 'thin, slender', see tenuis, Gk lanuēn, 'to stretch', & lanu- as in Latin glossa, 'long tongue', fr base ten*, 'stretch', see tend (II), tense (II), & op tone 1 (of flat objects) Having small depth in relation to extent of surface, reverse of thick thin paper, a thin layer of butter, a thin blanket, a thin slice, thin clothes 2 (of long objects) Having small circumference in relation to length, slender slim, tenuous o thin rope, chain, thin branch, thin fingers 3 (of the animal body) Not thickly covered with fat or soft tissue, lean, gaunt, emaciated, reverse of plump, stout, fat arms too thin for beauty, thin in face, to look thin after illness 4 Widely spaced, not placed close together, sparse, scattered, reverse of thick, or dense hair rather thin on the top, thin growth of herbage, also, a thin audience, congregation &c 5 a (of liquids, and gases) Rarefied, having small specific density, b (fig) easily penetrated, refuted, or unmasked, transparent, flimsy a thin excuse, disguise, deception &c 6 a Lacking in body, substance, richness thin ale, soup, porridge, b (in non material sense) Lacking weightiness, solidity, intellectual substance and force the style of the book is elegant, but the matter is rather thin thin (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo 1 trans To make thin (in various senses), a to reduce thickness of, make fine, b to weaken, make less dense, c to make sparser, by removing some to thin the branches of a tree, to thin out the shoots on a tree &c 2 intrans To become thinner (in various senses), also thin down, (of the body) to become thinner, thin out, (of an audience) to become sparser thine possess pron. of 2nd pers sing [1 thin, 2 daiv] OE þin, Ang þin, gent of thou, also declined as an adj In ME n is lost before words beginning with a consonant. See thy (archaic, Bib, and liturgical) 1 Possessive pronoun before vowel 2 Used absolutely all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine (1 Chron xxix 11) thing, n [1 thing, 2 pin] OE þing, also OS & ON, OHG ding, the old meanings included those of 'object, action, event, condition, meeting', cogn w OE þingian, 'to determine, settle, arrange, perh connected w Goth þingis, 'time, season', & þingon, 'to advance, thrive', fr Gmc base þing*, Aryan tenk-*, & further to be related to Lat tempus, 'time', see temporary & tempus At this rate the orig meaning of thing wd. be 'something occurring at a given or fixed time, or under certain conditions', hence, 'event, circumstance, condition' &c, op Germ bedingen, 'to make conditions, determine' This is one of the words most highly generalized in meaning 1 a Any object that exists or is thought of as existing, whatever is conceived of as a separate object of thought, fact, idea, in the most general sense things of the intellect, the good things of life, b a subject, topic, matter there's another thing I should like to speak to you about, he spoke of many things 2 An inanimate object or what appears to be such to lose one's mind is to become a mere thing, devoid of life, what are those black things in the field?, not a thing to be seen anywhere 3 (in pl) n Personal property, belongings, baggage &c I must collect my things at the station, take your things and go, b spent, wearing apparel, clothes put on your things and come out for a walk 4 (usually in pl) a Circumstances, events, conditions of life &c things are looking rather black for me, I won't to think things over, I fear things are going wrong, I have many things to worry me, Phrs that's a nice thing!, ironic, expressing indignation, it's a strange thing (that he doesn't write), b (in sing) action, aim the best thing (to do), the thing is (to say nothing for the moment) 5 a What is fitting or seemly it is not at all the thing to stare at people, b what one wants, what is adapted to one's purpose a nice trout stream is the very thing for a holiday, a good thrashing would be the thing for him, just the thing, exactly what is wanted Phr not to look, feel, quite the thing, to look, feel, unwell, out of sorts 6 (applied to persons) Expressing a mild contempt, or indignation he's rather a stupid old thing, you're a horrid, mean, thing, b affection, admiration (of women or children) a dear little thing, a pretty little thing, a dear old thing, o pity oh, poor thing! the poor thing lost her husband in the War thingamy, thingummy, n [1 thingumy, 2 þingumy] also thingumajig [1 thingumajig, 2 þingumajig], thingumbob [1 thingumbob, 2 þingumbob] Used for names of person or thing, when these escape the memory momentarily, equivalent to what's his name, what's your name think, vb intrans & trans [1 think, 2 þink] The form is derived fr OE þyncan, 'to deem', see methinks, but the meanings come fr the OE cogn þencan, 'to think' &c, OS þunkean, þenkean, OHG denkan, Goth þugkejan, þugkejan, w sense of corresponding OE þys, þank is also cogn Outside Gmc op Lat tongere, 'to know' (rare), wh must be cogn, but other suggested connexions are purely speculative A intrans 1 To exercise the mental faculties, esp to judge, draw inferences, to reason, ponder, reflect take time to think, learn to think clearly, unfortunately, he never thinks 2 Think about (a person or thing) a to allow the mind to dwell upon to think about one's home and friends, b to turn over in the mind, reflect upon I must think about it and let you know my decision 3 To hold an opinion, to surmise, believe, expect, often contrasted with know I'm not sure, but I rather think so, I don't think, I know 4 Think of, a to reflect upon think of what I told you, b to allow to enter the mind, have in mind, contemplate it is so dreadful that I don't want to think of it, Phr I shouldn't think of (doing such a thing), emphatic for I would not do, c to dwell upon, have vividly before one to think of old times, d to hit upon, invent, discover to think of a way out of a difficulty, what genius first thought of cooling?, e to have an opinion concerning (followed by qualifying adv) to think highly of a man, I don't think much of him Phrs to think better- of, reverse one's opinions, alter one's intentions, to think nothing of, to disregard, attach no importance to 5 Think on, upon, (archaic) same as think of B trans 1 To conceive, imagine, have in mind to think evil; to think no harm 2 To hold, esteem, consider, regard as I thought him a charming person, to think oneself all important Phr (archaic) to think scorn of, to despise 3 To surmise, believe, expect, that I don't think it will be very hot today, are you coming with us? I don't think I will 4 To reduce to specified condition by thinking to think oneself into a fever thinkable, adj [1 thingkabl, 2 pínkabl] Prec & -able That can be thought of, conceivable thinker, n [1 thingker; 2 pínke] See prec & -er One who thinks, a rational being, a philosopher thinking, vhl n & adj [1 thingking, 2 pínk-ɪŋ] 1. n The act of one who thinks, thought, reflection you had better do a little hard thinking 2 adj Capable of thought, rational man is a thinking animal thinly, adv [1 thínli, 2 pínli] thin (I) & -ly In a thin manner, sparingly, flimsily thinness, n [1 thínnes, 2 pínnes] See prec & -ness Quality, condition, of being thin thin-skinned, adj (chiefly fig) Sensitive, easily offended, touchy thio-, pref Form used in compounds, representing Gk theion, 'fumes of sulphur', earlier thioeson*, fr base dhuos-, dhuos, & o, 'spirit, breath', see theo- Containing sulphur, e.g. thio acid, an acid produced by substituting sulphur for oxygen in an oxygen acid, thionin, the dark blue solution of a sulphur compound, used as a stain in microscopy third (I), adj [1 thérð, 2 páð] OE þrida, ME þrida, cp Du derde, Goth þrida, Lat tertius, Gk tritos, see three 1 Coming after the second, specif in third person, that expressed by pronouns he, she, it, they 2 Forming one of three equal parts or divisions the third part of a ton third (II), n, fr prec 1 The person or thing coming next after the second in a series 2 Third part, one of three equal parts into which a thing or amount may be divided 3 (mus) Interval of four semitones third degree, n (chiefly USA) Severe examination or treatment or prisoner by police to extort an admission thirdly, adv [1 thérðli, 2 páðli] third (I) & -ly In the third place third man, n (oricket) Fielder placed rather deep on the offside between point and slip third party, n (law) A party in a case other than the two principals, third party risks, (insurance) of damage to persons not mentioned in policy third-rate, adj Third in order of merit or quality, hence, inferior, mediocre thirst (I), n [1 thérst, 2 pást] OE þyrst, ME thurst, thirst, OS thurst, OHG darst, Goth þaurstes, op also Goth þaurstus, ' parched, dry', cogn w Lat torrens for tors-*, 'to parch, dry up', see torrid, Gk tersomai, 'I become dry' 1 a (in living animals) Sensation caused by prolonged abstinence from drinking, natural craving for liquid, b (fig, of ground, plant life & o) condition of extreme dryness caused by prolonged lack of moisture, condition in which the earth & o rapidly absorbs moisture 2 a Craving for spiritual or intellectual nourishment a thirst for knowledge, for ghostly comfort & o, hence, b powerful desire, yearning, craving in general a thirst for pleasure, excitement & o thirst (II), vb intrans, fr prec 1. (absol., archaic) To experience thirst, to have a need of liquid in the system, to crave for something to drink I thirst, now replaced by I am thirsty 2 Thirst for a to experience a powerful craving for liquid refreshment to be thirsting for a drink, b to crave, desire strongly and eagerly to thirst for information, for new sensations, for amusement & o; also (rarer, except in fig sense) thirst after, to thirst after new experiences thirsty, adj [1 thérsta, 2 pásti] OE þyrstig, see thirst (I) & -y 1 a Experiencing thirst, desiring to drink, b causing thirst haymaking is thirsty work 2 Lacking moisture, parched, dried up thirsty soil thirteen, adj & n [1 thérstén, 2 pátn] OE þriotene, see three & ten 1 adj Cardinal numeral, one more than twelve 2 n a The number greater by one than twelve, or by three than ten, b symbol representing this number thirteenth, adj & n [1 thérteñth, 2 pátnp] New formation fr prec & -th, OE þriotezpa 1 adj a Next in order after the twelfth, b being one of 13 equal parts 2 n One of thirteen equal parts thirtieth, adj & n [1 thertioth, 2 páti:p] See next word & -th 1 adj a Next in order to twenty-ninth, b being, making, one of thirty equal parts 2 n One of thirty equal parts thirty, adj & n [1 thérta, 2 páti] OE þriltig, ME þrilty, thirty, terty & o, see three & -ty 1 adj Being the amount of three times ten 2 n a A cardinal number, the sum of three tens, b symbol expressing this, n the thirties, (i) that part of a century covering the time from the years thirty to thirty-nine of the century, (u) period of a person's life from the ages of thirty to thirty-nine just out of one's thirties this, demons adj & pron [1 dhis, 2 ðis] OE þis, neut sing, op tho & that 1 adj a Referring to, indicating, person or thing actually present, or near to, the speaker, often to something pointed to or touched when referred to in uttered speech, contrasted with that, b (i) referring to present time or a current period this very moment, this week, year & o, (u) referring to a specified time, or if several periods or points of time are mentioned, to the last of these by this time (that which I have just referred to) the King was past all earthly help 2 pron a In senses corresponding to above, for this one, the thing here, near me, which I now point out to you the last house you had was charming, but this 's not nearly so nice, b often referring to facts, actions, circumstances, situations & o, just mentioned, and assumed to be uppermost in the minds of hearers, and immediate to them what's all this? = this confusion & o, this will never do, you mustn't behave like this (as you are behaving), I don't like this at all, what has just happened, is happening, or of which you have just told me thisness, n [1 dhíanes, 2 ðíanes] Prec & -ness (philosophical term) Quality of being this, feeling of present reality thistle, n [1 thisl, 2 písl] OE þistel, op OHG dishla, ON þistell One of various plants with purple flowers and prickly leaves and stalks Phrs to grasp the thistle firmly, to face, and deal with, difficulties, awkward situations & o resolutely, Order of the Thistle, the Scottish order of knighthood thistle-down, n Light substance from ripe seed-vessel of the thistle which floats in the air and carries the seeds far and wide thistlely, adj [1 thisl, 2 písl] thistle & -ly a Resembling a thistle, prickly, b abounding in thistles thither, adv & adj [1 dhíðher, 2 ðíðs] OE þider, fr demonstr base as in that, tho, thus, & adv suff -þra, -ð, op Goth þaþrō, 'thence', & see hither 1 adv a To that place, point, stage, result he has not yet joined the Church of Rome, but is tending thither 2 adj (rare) a Lying beyond, on the other side (from the speaker) the thither side of the stream, b being beyond, further from a specified point of time on the thither side of 10 thlipsa, n [1. thlípsa, 2 plípsa] Gk.

2 n An actor

thlipsa, 'pressure, oppression, affliction'; op thlipem, 'to press, crush', also phlithen, the th- being prob due to the influence of thlipad, 'crush' & o, the orig form of phlith-u phlig-*, whence also Lat figere, 'strike', see afflict, inflict, Goth bligwan, 'to strike, kill', is prob not connected (med) Ex ternal compression of blood-vessels tho' See though

thole (I), vb trans [1 thāl, 2 þoul] OE þolian, 'to endure, suffer', ME tholen, thölen, OS tholōn, OHG dulōn, Goth þulan, fr base tel-, tol & o, 'to bear', see further under tolerate (archaic or provinc) 1 To endure, bear, sustain, under go 2 To tolerate, suffer, permit, to stand thole (II), thole-pin, n OE þol, 'row lock', op Dan töl, 'a stopple, thole, pin', Swed täl, 'thole', tall, 'pine tree', ON þollr, 'fir tree', prob fr the base tu-*, 'to swell', see turnid Peg in the gunwale of a rowing boat, serving as fulcrum for the oar; generally thole pin

Thomism, n [1 tóumzəm, 2 tóumzəm] After St Thomas Aquinas (1225-74) Doctrines of Thomas Aquinas and his followers in philosophy and theology

Thomist, adj & n [1 tómust, 2 tóumist] See prec & -ist 1 adj Also Thomistic(adj); pertaining to the doctrines or followers of Thomism 2 n Adherent of Thomism thong, n [1 thong, 2 þɒŋ] OE þwōng, ME þwōng, op ON þwengr, 'thong, lathet', perh cogn w twinge Narrow strip of leather, a strap, as used for a rein, or for fastening harness & o together, as a lash to a whip & o thoracic, adj [1 thórásik, 2 þórásik] thorax, stem of thorax, & -ic Connected with, situated on or in, the thorax thoraco-, pref Form of thorax used in compounds, e.g. thoracotomy, (surg) opening of the chest cavity thorax, n [1 thóraks, 2 þóraks] Gk thórax, 'breastplate, the chest', Boissac connects w Sort dhárayakh, 'he holds, supports' a That part of the body of vertebrates between the neck and the abdomen, consisting of the ribs and breast bone and the cavity enclosed by these, b the second or middle segment of the body of an insect thouite, n [1 thórit, 2 þórit] fr name of Thor, anct Scand god, see Thursday, & -ite Mineral of blackish brown colour found in Norway, a silicate of thorium thorium, n [1 thórūm, 2 þórām] Mod Lat, formed fr prec A rare metallic element, occurring in combination in thorite & o, it is highly radio active, and the oxide is used in making incandescent gas mantles thorn, n [1 thorn, 2 þɒn] OE þorn, 'a thorn, prickly, thorn tree', also þyrne, 'thorn tree', OS þorn, Goth þurnus, cogn w O Slav trǫnǫ, Serb trna, 'grass blade' 1 A epiky excrescence, spine, prickly, growing from the stems and boughs of certain trees, espec, one growing on a thorn tree, a rose, a bramble & o Phrs no rose without a thorn, all beautiful and pleasant things are liable to possess other, less desirable, qualities, pleasure is often attended with pain, a thorn in one's side, person or thing which is a constant source of annoyance, thorn in the one's flesh, a secret but disabling infirmity 2 The typical thorn-bearing tree, the hawthorn, or may tree 3 The Old English name for the letter þ thornbill, n [1 thórnbil, 2 þórnbil] 8

American humming bird with long, pointed bill thornless, adj [1 thórmləs, 2 þórmləs] thorn

& -less Having no thorns thorny, adj [1 thórni, 2 þórni] See prec & -y 1 Plentifully furnished with thorns

2 (fig) Difficult, arduous, painful a thorny subject, one giving rise to differences of opinion and controversy Phr (to tread) a thorny path, pursue a difficult, arduous course of action thorough, adj [1 thúre, 2 páre] OE þurra, variant of þurh, see through Complete, absolute, out-and-out, to the core, through and through a thorough blackguard, a thorough rest, holiday &c thorough-bass, n 1 System of musical notation in which chords are expressed by figures placed beneath the bass part 2 Theory of harmony thorough-bred, adj & n 1 adj n (of animals) Pure bred, specif, sprung entirely from ancestors who are in the official pedigree of the particular species, e.g. in the Stud Book in case of horses, b (of human beings) having the characteristics of aristocratic lineage, hence high spirited, of lofty and dauntless character and distinguished bearing 2 n A thorough bred animal or person thoroughfare, n [1 thurofár, 2 párféa] A street or road through which traffic, on foot or wheels, may pass uninterrupted, as contrasted with a cul-de-sac or a private road thorough-going, adj Carried out completely, uncompromising, out-and-out thorough-going reforms, a thorough-going disciplinarian thoroughly, adv [1 thórolí, 2 párolí] thorough & -ly In a thorough manner, completely a thoroughly bad man, to do a thing thoroughly thoroughness, n [1 thúrones, 2 páreus] See prec & -ness Quality of being thorough, completeness thorough-paced, adj Originally of a horse, thoroughly trained in all its paces, hence thorough, out and out thorough-paced rascal thorp(s), n [1 thorp, 2 páp] OE þorp, 'village', OS þorp, ON þorp, cogn w Germ. dorf, 'village', Goth. þaurp, cogn w Lith tróbá, 'house, building', W tréf, 'hamlet', some authorities regard this group of words as cogn w Lat traba, 'beam', see trabeated, others deny this, & connect thorp w Lat triba, 'crowd, mob', see turbulent Obs except in Place Names, orig in sense of 'village', occurring also in forms thrup, trup, threp, tryp, op OE variants þrop, þrep those, demons pron. [1 dhöz, 2 ðouz] OE þā nom & acc pl of þes &c, 'this' Pl of that thou, pron of 2nd pers sing [1 thou, 2 ðau] OE þú, ME tu, thou, OS thu, Goth þu, cogn w Lat tū, Gk (Doro) tu, (Attic) tu, O Slav ty Now entirely replaced by you, & obs except in dial, poet, Bib, & Liturgical Engl, or in prayers to God, formerly used by the Quakers, who, however, now use thee as nom. in addressing a single person though, conj & adv [1 dhō, 2 ðou] ME þogh, though &c, fr ON þō, op OS þōh, Goth þōuh, OHG dhō, the OE cogn þeah, þeh &c wd produce they* or thy* in Mod Engl, & survives as the &c in ME 1 Although, notwithstanding that he seems perfectly healthy, though his heart is said to be weak, he made a number of debts though he had a large income 2 As though, as if I fell as though I should die of hunger, as though he wasn't coming after all 3 (archaic) Even if, notwithstanding that though I were starving I would not ask a favour of him 4 (introducing a statement) All the same, nevertheless, in spite of this I will come, though I don't expect to enjoy myself (also absol.) I'll come and see you tomorrow—I can only stay a few minutes though thought(s), n [1 thawt, 2 pōt] OE þought (s) ME þought is due to association w PP þops* of think 1 a Act or process of thinking, reflection cogitation to spend the hours in thought 2 ab order in thought, b chain of reasoning series of consecutive reasonings and reflections a pretty he does not put more thought into his books, o body of ideas & opinions based on consecutive reasoning which are current at a given time, esp about a given subject modern thought rejects many of the old theological dogmas, scientific thoughtful, adj [1 tháwtful, 2 pōtful] thought (I) & -ful 1 (of persons and the mind) a Given to thought, reflective, contemplative, b serious, sad, pensive 2 a Ex pressing thought, full of thoughts a thoughtful lecture, book, b characterized by thought a thoughtful variable 3 Solicitous, anxious, considerate (for others) it was kind and thoughtful of you to call

thoughtfully, adv prec & -ly In a thoughtful manner

thoughtfulness, n See prec & -ness Quality, fact, of being thoughtful, solitudo

thoughtless, adj [1 tháwtles, 2 pōtles] thought (I) & -less 1 Not given to thought, heedless, careless 2 Lacking consideration for others, inconsiderate

thoughtlessly, adv prec & -ly In a thoughtless manner thoughtlessness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being thoughtless thought-reader, n One who reads a person's thoughts, esp one who practises thought reading

thought-reading, n The power or practice of reading people's thoughts by telepathy or thought transference

thought-transference, n Telepathy

thought-wave, n Supposed telepathic vibration thought in the 19th century 2 Solitude, care, as resulting from reflection to take thought for, be anxious about, I am grateful for your kind thought of me in sending back my umbrella

3 a The result of thinking and reflection, an idea, conception a great and noble thought, a striking and original thought, my mind is full of diurnal thoughts, b an opinion, belief I have very few thoughts on the subject Phrs on second thoughts, after thinking it over, second thoughts are best 4 A slight, trifling amount he looked a thought more serious than when I saw him last thought (II), vb OE þōht(s), ME þōgh(s), Pret & PP of think thoughtful, adj [1 tháwtful, 2 pōtful] thought (I) & -ful 1 (of persons and the mind) a Given to thought, reflective, contemplative, b serious, sad, pensive 2 a Ex pressing thought, full of thoughts a thoughtful lecture, book, b characterized by thought a thoughtful variable 3 Solicitous, anxious, considerate (for others) it was kind and thoughtful of you to call

thoughtfully, adv prec & -ly In a thoughtful manner

thoughtfulness, n See prec & -ness Quality, fact, of being thoughtful, solitudo

thoughtless, adj [1 tháwtles, 2 pōtles] thought (I) & -less 1 Not given to thought, heedless, careless 2 Lacking consideration for others, inconsiderate

thoughtlessly, adv prec & -ly In a thoughtless manner

thoughtlessness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being thoughtless

thought-reader, n One who reads a person's thoughts, esp one who practises thought reading

thought-reading, n The power or practice of reading people's thoughts by telepathy or thought transference

thought-transference, n Telepathy

thought-wave, n Supposed telepathic vibration

thousand, n & adj [1 thúszand, 2 þauzand] OE þūsēnd, ME thúszend, OS thūsēnd, OHG hūsant, Goth þūsēnd, origin unexplained 1 n a The number of 100 multiplied by 10 many thousands of times, Phr one in a thousand, unique, extremely good, person or thing b symbol for this number 2 adj a Consisting of ten times one hundred, b used to express an indefinite number I have told you a thousand times not to do that thousand-fold, adj & adv [1 thúszand(f)old, 2 þauzand(f)ould] 1 adj A thousand times as much or as many 2 adv A thousand times, to a thousand fold degree thousandth, adj & n [1 thúszanth, 2 þauzanth] 1 adj a Next in order to the nine hundred and ninety ninth in a series, b occurring after a large number I told him for the thousandth time, o consisting of, being, one or a thousand equal parts 2 n. One of a thousand equal parts thrall, n [1 thrawl, 2 þrāl] LOE þræl, fr ON þræll 'bondsmen', ME þrall, fr þrahl*, op OE þrāgan, & Goth. þragan, 'to run', cogn w Gk trekhēn, 'to run', & perh, remotely, w Lat trahere, 'to draw' 1 a A slave, bondman, b (fig) intellectual, moral, emotional, slave 2 Servitude, thralldom.

thrall, n [1 thrawl, 2 þrāl] LOE þræl, fr ON þræll 'bondsmen', ME þrall, fr þrahl*, op OE þrāgan, & Goth. þragan, 'to run', cogn w Gk trekhēn, 'to run', & perh, remotely, w Lat trahere, 'to draw' 1 a A slave, bondman, b (fig) intellectual, moral, emotional, slave 2 Servitude, thralldom.

thrall, n [1 thrawl, 2 þrāl] LOE þræl, fr ON þræll 'bondsmen', ME þrall, fr þrahl*, op OE þrāgan, & Goth. þragan, 'to run', cogn w Gk trekhēn, 'to run', & perh, remotely, w Lat trahere, 'to draw' 1 a A slave, bondman, b (fig) intellectual, moral, emotional, slave 2 Servitude, thralldom.

thrall, n [1 thrawl, 2 þrāl] LOE þræl, fr ON þræll 'bondsmen', ME þrall, fr þrahl*, op OE þrāgan, & Goth. þragan, 'to run', cogn w Gk trekhēn, 'to run', & perh, remotely, w Lat trahere, 'to draw' 1 a A slave, bondman, b (fig) intellectual, moral, emotional, slave 2 Servitude, thralldom.

thrall, n [1 thrawl, 2 þrāl] LOE þræl, fr ON þræll 'bondsmen', ME þrall, fr þrahl*, op OE þrāgan, & Goth. þragan, 'to run', cogn w Gk trekhēn, 'to run', & perh, remotely, w Lat trahere, 'to draw' 1 a A slave, bondman, b (fig) intellectual, moral, emotional, slave 2 Servitude, thralldom.

thrall, n [1 thrawl, 2 þrāl] LOE þræl, fr ON þræll 'bondsmen', ME þrall, fr þrahl*, op OE þrāgan, & Goth. þragan, 'to run', cogn w Gk trekhēn, 'to run', & perh, remotely, w Lat trahere, 'to draw' 1 a A slave, bondman, b (fig) intellectual, moral, emotional, slave 2 Servitude, thralldom.

thrall, n [1 thrawl, 2 þrāl] LOE þræl, fr ON þræll 'bondsmen', ME þrall, fr þrahl*, op OE þrāgan, & Goth. þragan, 'to run', cogn w Gk trekhēn, 'to run', & perh, remotely, w Lat trahere, 'to draw' 1 a A slave, bondman, b (fig) intellectual, moral, emotional, slave 2 Servitude, thralldom.

thrall, n [1 thrawl, 2 þrāl] LOE þræl, fr ON þræll 'bondsmen', ME þrall, fr þrahl*, op OE þrāgan, & Goth. þragan, 'to run', cogn w Gk trekhēn, 'to run', & perh, remotely, w Lat trahere, 'to draw' 1 a A slave, bondman, b (fig) intellectual, moral, emotional, slave 2 Servitude, thralldom.

trans 1 To thrash wheat &c 2 To move, toss, about violently thrasher, n [1 thrásher, 2 þræþe] prec & -er 1 Person who, thing &c which, thrashes, specif a person who thrashes wheat &c, b one who flogs (boys &c), o agricultural implement for thrashing grain 2 A kind of large shark with long, whip like tail, also called fox-shark thrasonical, adj [1 thrásonikl, 2 þreisonikl], fr Gk Thrasón, name of a braggart, fr thrassus, 'over-bold', & -ic & -al, thrassus is cogn w Gk tharsos, thrassos, 'courage, rashness', op Sort dharsai, 'to dare', & Goth (ga-) dars, 'dared', Pret of darsan, q v under dar Boastful thread(s), n [1 thred, 2 þred] OE þræð, ME thréd(s), OHG drāt, fr same base as OE þræwan, 'to twist', see throw (I) 1 A very fine cord of twisted fibres of flax, cotton, silk &c, used for sewing 2 A very fine line or filament of any substance, a fibre gold thread, a thread of light Phrs the thread of life, to hang by a thread, to be in a precarious, dangerous, state or position 3 Spiral groove with sharp edges, cut in a screw 4 Consecutive, connected, series of thoughts, train of reasoning, sequence of ideas, statements the thread of a narrative, discourse &c thread (II), v trans, fr prec 1 To put (a thread) through the eye or to thread a needle 2 To put upon a thread, to string to thread beads 3 a To make one's way along, cautiously, deliberately, or through difficulties and intricacies to thread the paths of a wood, b to pick out, select, and traverse with care to thread one's way threadbare, adj [1 thrédhár, 2 þrédþeá] 1 a (of fabric, clothes &c) Worn down, rubbed by wear, so that the nap or upper surface is worn off and the thread of wool becomes visible, b (of persons) wearing threadbare garments, shabby 2 (fig) Well worn, lacking novelty, hackneyed threadbare arguments, jokes &c threader, n [1 thrédér, 2 þrédér] thread (II) & -er Specif, machine for putting thread on screws threadlike, adj [1 thrédlik, 2 þrédloik] thread (I) & -like Filamentous, resembling a fine thread.

threadworm, n [1 thredwērm, 2 þredwām] Minute, threadlike, intestinal worm thready, adj [1 thrédí, 2 þrédí] thread (I) & -y a Composed of, covered with, thread, b resembling a thread in fineness threat, n [1 thret, 2 þret] OE þrēat, 'crowd, troop, violence, punishment, threat', op also OE þrēaton, 'to afflict, threaten, compel by threats', OHG (w) þrēozan, Goth (us) þrutan, 'to vex', cogn w Lat trudere, 'to thrust', O Slav truditi, 'to afflict', & truditi, 'oppression', see also words ending in trude, as intrude, extrude &c, & see thrust 1 Statement of intention to injure, punish, cause pain to &c, menace to utter threats of violence, revenge &c 2 Situation, circumstance, set of conditions, which seems to make probable the occurrence of something undesired, menace a threat of rain, drought &c threaten vb trans & intrans [1 thrétn, 2 þretn] OE þrēthan, 'to urge, compel', see prec A trans 1 To utter a threat to (a person), state intention of injuring, punishing &c, also threaten with, to express intention of hurting, punishing &c in a specified way he was threatened with imprisonment if he should ever transgress in the same way again 2 To state intention to inflict to threaten immediate retribution upon evil-doers 3 To present appearance, manifest a probability of imminent occurrence approach &c, danger and disaster threaten us on every side B intrans 1 To utter threats See do you mean to threaten? 2 To appear likely to occur, approach &c if danger threatens, it is all the more important to keep an unmoved mind threatening, adj [1 thrētning, 2 pretning] a Menacing, expressing threats, b portending, indicating disaster or some unwished-for occurrence a threatening sky three, adj & n [1 thrē, 2 prī] OE þreo, fem, pri, maso, OS thria, threa, OHG dri, Goth þreis, Lat trēs, tria, Gk treis, tria, Sort tri 1 adj One more than two. Phr the three R's, reading, writing, and arithmetic 2 n a The number greater by one than two, b symbol representing this number Phr rule of three, in arithmetic, a sum in simple proportion three-colour process, n. Method or process of printing in colours, by use of three blocks, yellow, red, and blue, produced by photography three-cornered, adj Having three corners or angles, triangular three-decker, n 1 Old fashioned ship with three decks one above another. 2 Obsolete form of pulpit having three floors threefold, adj & adv [1 thrēfold, 2 prīfold] a adj Thrice repeated, triple, b adv, triply three-halfpence, n [1 thrē hāpens, 2 prī hāpens] a The sum of a penny halfpenny, b obsolete coin worth this amount three-legged race, n [1 thrē lēgd, leged, rās, 2 prī lēgd, lēgd, reis] Race in which those taking part are linked together in pairs, in such a way that the right leg of one person is tied to the left leg of another, so that they must move at one and the same time three-master, n Sailing-ship with three masts threepence, n [1 thrēpens, thripens, 2 prēpens, prīpens] The sum of three pennies considered as a monetary unit threepenny-bit, n [1 thrēpeni, thripeni, bit, 2 prēpeni, prīpeni, bī] The smallest English silver coin, of the value of three pence three-per-cent, n British Government bonds yielding 3% interest three-gly, adj Having, woven with, three strands (of thread, yarn &c), also three ply wood, of three thin plates or layers of wood glued together with grain arranged transversely three-quarter, n One of the four backs in Rugby football, playing between the half-backs and the full-back threescore, n [1 thrēskōr, 2 prīskō] Three times twenty, sixty, threescore years, 60 years threesome, n [1 thrēsūm, 2 prīsēm] Game of golf played by three persons thremmatology, n [1 thrematōlojī, 2 prēmātōlōdži], fr Gk thremmatō, stem of thremma, 'nursing', & -logy, thremma is connected w vb trephēin, 'to fatten, nourish', for thrēbh, see trophic & cp thrombosis The science and art of breeding domestic animals threnetic(al), adj [1 thrēnētik(l), 2 prīnētik(l)] Gk thrēnētikos, fr thrēnos, 'a dirge', fr a variant of base threuo-* as in threomai, 'I shout', cp Goth þrunjan, 'droning sound', connected w OE drān, see drono (I), cp also OE drāma, 'revelry, joy', q v under dream (I) Mournful, of the nature of a dirge or lamentation threnode, also threnody, n [1 thrēnōd, thrēnōdī, 2 prīnōud, prīnōudis] Gk thrēnōdia, fr thrēnos, 'dirge', see preo & ode Funeral song, dirge, chant of lamentation threnodial, adj [1 thrēnōdial, 2 prīnōdial] Preo & -al Threnodic threnodic, adj [1 thrēnōdik, 2 prīnōdīk] threnode & -ic Pertaining to a threnody threnodist, n [1 thrēnōdist, 2 prīnōdistis] threnode & -ist One who sings or composes a threnody threnody, n [1 thrēnōdi, 2 prīnōudi] Threnode threpsology, n [1 threpsōlojī, 2 prēpsōlōdži], Gk threpsō, 'nourishment', see thremmatology & trophic, & -logy (med) Theory of diet, treatise on this thresh, vb trans & intrans [1 thresh, 2 pres] See thrash Same as thrash, more commonly used of beating grain, (also fig) thresh out, see thrash out thresher, n [1 thrēsher, 2 prēš] Preo & -er Thrasher threshold, n [1 thrēshōld, 2 prēshōld] OE þerscōld, wold, ME threshold, cp ON þrēskjōldr, fr base þersc-, see thrash 1 Stone or plank immediately below a door, hence, entrance, to a building, house, room 2 (fig) The entrance to, starting point of something on the threshold of life, the threshold of new experiences, of a new order 3 (psychol) Usually threshold of consciousness, translating German schwelle, the lowest stage at which sensation becomes noticeable, the limen, cp subliminal threw, vb [1 thrō, 2 prī] OE þrow, ME þreis, Pret of throw thrice, adv [1 thrīs, 2 prīs] ME thries, fr OE þriga, þriwo, 'three times', & gomit suff, used adverbially See three 1 Three times 2 To a threshold degree, hence, merely as intensive, very much, thoroughly, fully thrice blessed, thrice happy thrift, n [1 thrift, 2 prift], fr ON þrīft, 'prosperity', connected w þrīvo 1 Frugality, good, economical management, reverse of extravagance, waste 2 Genus of plant, Statice, esp the sea pink thrifty, adv [1 thrīfth, 2 prīfth] thrifty & -ly In a thrifty, careful manner, economically thriftness, n [1 thrīftines, 2 prīftines] See preo & -ness Quality of being thrifty thrifless, adj [1 thrīftles, 2 prīftles] Waste ful, extravagant thrifty, adj [1 thrīfti, 2 prīfti] thrift & -y a Practising thrift, b exhibiting, betokening, thrift thrill (I), vb trans & intrans [1 thril, 2 pril] OE þrīr(e)lian, 'to pierce, perforate', ME thrillen, thrillen, still used in sense of 'pierce' by Spenser, cp þīrel, 'hole', fr þurh, 'through', see through (I) 1 trans To cause profound emotional excitement in, to touch, cause glow of excitement in, stir, excite, penetrate deeply great actors thrill an audience to the point of pain, our hearts were thrilled by tales of heroism 2 intrans a To feel great emotional excitement, to be deeply stirred, to glow with enthusiasm, joy, indignation or the like, b to vibrate, tremble, tingle his voice thrilled through the hall thrill (II), n, fr preo Sensation of being thrilled, intense emotional stirring, a throb, glow a thrill of anticipation, of disgust, of terror &c thriller, n [1 thrīler, 2 prīls] thrill (I) & -er One who, that which, thrills, specif, a highly sensational and exciting novel or play thrilling, adj [1 thrīling, 2 prīling], fr Preo Part of thrill (I) a Causing a thrill, stirring, exciting thrilling news, b vibrant, penetrating a thrilling voice thrips, n [1 thrīps, 2 prīps] Gk, 'wood-worm', perch having as fundamental meaning 'the borer', & ir same base as OE drīfan, q v under drive (I) Name of various small insects which injure plants by sucking the vital juices thrive, vb intrans [1 thriv, 2 prāv] ME thriuen, fr ON þrifa, 'to grasp', prob fr reflex þrīfast, 'to grasp oneself', hence 'to have oneself well in hand' See also thrift 1 (of persons and businesses) To prosper, flourish, do well, be successful, speed, as a result of industry and thrift, (also in gen sense) to flourish, grow strong wickedness of all kinds thrives in big cities 2 (of living organisms) To prosper in health, grow fat and strong, to develop healthily and luxuriantly children thrive in good air, roses thrive in a heavy soil thriven, vb [1 thrīven, 2 prīv(e)n], ME þriess, PP of thrive.

thriving, adj [1 thrīving, 2 prāvīving], fr Preo Part of thrive Prosperous, flourishing, successful throat (I), n [1 thrōt, 2 prōut] OE þrota, ME throta, cp OHG croza, 'throat', Mod Germ drossel, prob cogn w Du stroel(e), 'throat' 1 a The passage from the back of the mouth to the stomach and the lungs, gullet, windpipe sore throat, inflamed condition of the lining of the throat, Phrs to stick in one's throat, of words &c, (i) to be difficult of utterance, (ii) to be uttered with reluctance, (iii) (of circumstances, actions &c) to be repugnant to, to ram, thrust, down another's throat, force to accept against his will, b the external, front part of the neck, which covers the jugular vein to cut one's throat, to commit suicide by severing the jugular vein, (also fig) to adopt a dangerous or destructive course of action, to take, seize, by the throat, to strangle, throttle 2 A constricted passage, neck, as the narrowed part of a river, valley, pass &c, the orifice of a vase &c, specif (archit) a groove, channel, in or under the surface of a projection throat (II), vb trans, fr preo (archit, rare) To provide with a throat or groove

-throated, adj [1 thrōtēd, 2 prōutēd] Having a throat of specified kind red-throated, braten throated &c throatiness, n [1 thrōtīnes, 2 prōutīnes], See next word & -ness Quality of being throaty throaty, adj [1 thrōti, 2 prōuti] throat (I) & -y 1 (of the voice) Sounding as though produced in the back of the throat, muffled, not clear 2 (of persons) Having a sore, or sensitive throat, having a throaty voice throb, vb intrans & n [1 throβ, 2 throβ] ME throbben, origin doubtful, possibly cogn w Lat trepidus, 'agitated, anxious', & trepidare, 'to bustle anxiously about, to move noisily and irregularly', see trepidation

1 vb a To beat, pulsate (as the heart, or a pulse) his heart had ceased to throb, i.e. he was dead, b to beat, palpitate, with abnormal rapidity or violence, as the heart &c, under stress of strong exertion or emotion his temples throbbed 2 n a A beat, pulsation, palpitation (of the heart &c), b (fig) a thrill, quasm throe, n [1 thrō, 2 prōu] OE þrawu, 'pain, punishment, affliction', ME throue, perch influenced by the gradational variants OE, ME þrowung, 'affliction', þrawian, 'to suffer', cp ON þrā, 'pain, throe' Great pain, anguish, access of pain, pang the throes of toothache, childbirth Phrs in the throes of, in very general sense, struggling with, having to cope with &c in the throes of a spring clearing, a move &c thrombosis, n [1 thrombōsis, 2 thrombōsis] Gk thrombōsis, 'clot, coagulation', cp Gk trophis, 'fat, well-nourished', see trophic & cp thremmatology Stoppage of a blood vessel by a clot throne (I), n [1 thrōn, 2 prōun] Lat thronus, fr Gk thronos, 'seat, chair, chair of state, throne, teacher's chair', cp also thrana, 'a bench', thrēnus, 'footstool', cogn. w Sert dharayoti, 'to support', dharman, 'prop', Lat firmus, 'fast, firm', see firm (I) 1 Chair, seat of state, specif an official seat with canopy, occupied on ceremonial occasions by a king or other sovereign ruler, b official seat of archbishop or bishop, in a cathedral 2 A Royal power and authority loyalty to the king's throne and person, b the king, or other sovereign ruler of a State it is rare in England that the throne is publicly attacked 3 Superior order in the hierarchy of angels Thrones, dominations, prince doms, virtues, powers (Milton, 'P L' v lvi) throne (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo 1 trans a To place upon a throne, to enthrone, b (fig) to accord a position of honour and dignity to, to esteem, venerate 2 intrans (rare, lit and fig) To occupy a throne or position of honour.

throneless, adj [1 thrónless, 2. prónless] throne (I) & -less Without a throne, used of a deposed monarch through, n & vb intrans & trans [1 thrúg, 2 prúg] O E (ge)þrang, 'crowd, tumult', op þringan, 'to press on, crowd, to afflict, to throng', OS þringan, Goth þrehan, fr *þringan, 'to crowd round, press upon' Etymol doubtful, prob not connected w Lat truncus, 'mutilated', see truncate 1. n A crowd, a press of people, a multitude, host 2 vb a intrans To form, gather, into a throng, to crowd multitudes thronged to hear the new preacher, b trans, to press, crowd into, to fill with a throng to throng the churches &c, (rarely) to crowd upon, press thropple, thrapple, n [1 thrúpl, thrápl, 2 þrúpl, þræpl, fr O E þrobbola, 'gullet, windpipe', see throat & boll. (provinc or rare) The throat throistle, n [1 throal, 2 þræsl] O E þroste, M E þroste, op Germ drossel & ON þrost, cogn w Lat turdus, turda, 'thrush', for *(a)þrōdōs, op Luth strēdōs, 'thrush', Gk. strouthōs, 'sparrow', -le is dimin, see also thrush (I) 1 The common song thrush, mavis, Turdus musicus 2 Machine for spinning wool, cotton &c, so called from the noise it makes throttle (I), n [1 thrútl, 2 þrútl] Dimin of throat (I) 1 [colloq] The throat 2 Valve in a machine which regulates flow of steam, gas &c throttle (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To impede breathing of, choke, by compressing the wind pipe, to strangle 2 (fig) To suppress, check to throttle discussion, to throttle trade &c 3 (mechan) To reduce flow of steam &c in an engine or other machine, to lessen the speed in this way through (I), prep [1 thrúð, 2 þrúð] O E þurh, M E þurh, through &c, OS þurh, OHG durh, Goth þurh, see thorough, & thrill (I), also fr in nostril 1 From one end to the other, traversing entire length, breadth, or depth, entering at one side or surface and coming out at opposite side &c, penetrating the outer surface to get a bullet through the head, a wound passing through the cheek, to hammer a nail through the lid of a box 2 Across, passing over the whole surface or extent of to travel through a country, continent &c 3 A Along, surrounded by, moving in the midst of flying through the air, sailing through the water, walking through a wood, b (also in non material sense) to pass, come, through dangers, tribulations, anxieties &c 4 By way of, expressing penetration, traversing, of an intervening medium opening, channel &c to look through a window, through the keyhole &c, hear sounds through a thin wall, to look through a telescope, listen through an ear-trumpet Phrs one can't see through a brick wall, can't do what is impossible, (also fig) to see through a man, his character, a plot, scheme &c, to detect faults and flaws in, not to be deceived by 5 Indicating channel, medium 'But looks through Nature up to Nature's God' (Pope), 'Eyes on Man', iv 332 6 Expressing duration of time, during the whole of a specified period he won't last through the night, to stay through the autumn, to sit through a long sermon 7 By agency of, by means of, by reason of, on account of I succeeded chiefly through your help, all his sorrows arose through the conduct of his son through (II) adv See preo 1 From end to end, from side to side, so as to traverse entire extent from one end to the other to shoot, pierce, something through 2 A From beginning to end to sing a song through, to read a book through, b (of time) for the whole extent or duration of to sleep the whole night through 3 Expressing completion, to the very end to carry one's plans through, to see a thing through, through and through in the whole substance, in all its parts, completely good sound material through and through, an honest man through and through Phr to be through with, to have done with, to have completed, be quit of through (III), adj See preo 1 Going, passing, extending, through a through passage, way, channel 2 Travelling direct from one place, station, or port, to another a through train, carriage, coach, boat thoroughly, adv [1 thrúðli, 2 þrúðli] Preo & -ly (obs and liturg and Bib) Completely, thoroughly 'Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness' (Psalm li 2) throughout, prep & adv [1 thrúðout, 2 þrú aut] 1 prep A Through every part of throughout the house, b for whole duration of throughout one's life, the night, the war &c 2 adv a In, through, every part of, right through, in every particular this peach is ripe throughout, an honest man throughout, b during the whole time it was a tedious discourse, but he sat perfectly still throughout thrive, vb [1 thrív, 2 þrúv] Pret of thrive, fr ON þrifa, M E þríf, on the anal of drove (I) &c Cp the ON Pret þreif, wh is etymologically equiv to the unrecorded O E *þraf, wh wd have become M E þríf throw (I), vb trans & intrans [1 thrú, 2 prú] O E þruwan, trans, 'to twist', intrans, 'to revolve', M E þruwen, cogn w Lat terere, 'to rub, wear away', see termites & trite, Gk terēin, 'to bore, turn', & terēin, 'to rub, wear, away', see teredo & trans 1 A To cause to fly through the air by a forcible movement, or jerk of the arm, to hurl, cast, fling, chuck to throw stones, to throw a ball, to throw a bone to a dog, Phrs (fig) to throw stones at, to asperse, make imputations against, to throw dust in the eyes of, to hoodwink, deceive, to throw a fly (in fishing), make a cast, to throw dice, to fling them out upon the table, to throw cold water on (a plan &c), to discourage (a person) in, make a little of, b of other rapid movements, to cast &c to throw a coat round one, o to nip (an opponent) in wrestling 2 To cast, propel, by mechanical means a big gun throws a heavy shell, a pump throws water 3 A To direct, concentrate, to cause to appear to throw an angry, hasty, glance at, to throw a light on the scene, to throw a gloom on the proceedings, b to cast to throw a veil of mystery over, the trees throw long shadows in the moonlight 4 (of a horse) To dislodge from the saddle a horse that throws its rider 5 To cast off, cast, slough a snake throws its old skin 6 (of animals) To bring forth, give birth to a cow throws its calf, a mare its foal 7 To bring into a specified condition, esp suddenly, and by violent means to throw into confusion, into a state of agitation, into a fever &c 8 To wind, twist (silk) B intrans To execute, carry out the act or process of throwing a long field must be able to throw, the fast bowler was thought by some to throw (not bowl) fairly C Followed by prepositions or adverbs Throw about, trans, to fling in various directions, to scatter, also in special uses to throw one's arms about, wave them, to throw money about, squander it Throw away, trans, to waste, part with unwisely, sacrifice, lose through one's own act to throw money away, to throw away one's advantages Throw back, intrans, to reproduce, revert to the type of, a remote ancestor Throw down, trans a to overthrow, upset, overturn, cast down on the ground, pull down, Phr to throw down the gauntlet, glove, to utter a challenge, to defy, b throw oneself down, to lie down with a sudden, forcible movement Throw in, trans, to give over and above, in addition to what is bargained for, in return for an agreed price Throw off, 1 trans, a to fling aside, cast off, remove hastily to throw off one's clothes, to throw off one's disguise, b to discard, repudiate, get rid of to throw off an acquaintance, o to shake off, get rid of, recover from to throw off a cold, an illness &c, d to compose, utter, easily, without effort to throw off brilliant sayings, an epigram &c, 2 in trans, to make a start with bounds at a hunt Throw (oneself) on, upon, to trust to, commit oneself to, in Phr to throw oneself (up) on the mercy of Throw open, trans, a to open widely and suddenly to throw open a door, Phr to throw open the door to (abuses &c), run the risk of, render possible, b to make widely accessible, permit entrance to to throw open the public parks on Sundays, to throw open one's house to all and sundry Throw out, trans, a to fling, cast out, specify, to eject, turn out to throw a roudy out of a meeting, b to reject, refuse to pass to throw out a bill in Parliament, o to utter lightly and casually in passing to throw out a suggestion, a hint &c, d to build on, extend (a building) into to throw out a new wing, a bay window &c Throw over, trans, to abandon, give up to throw over a friend, a plan, also throw overboard Throw up, trans, a to toss into the air, Phrs to throw up the sponge, acknowledge defeat, abandon the struggle, to throw up a window, lift the lower sash vigorously, b to pitch (a ball) in to a particular point, o g in cricket to throw the ball up to the wicket keeper, o to vomit, eject from the stomach throw (II), n, fr preo Act or process of throwing something (in various special senses), a good, a straight, throw (at cricket), a throw of the hammer, Phr a stone's throw, a very short distance, b act of casting a fishing line, a act of casting dice it's your throw, d act, manner, of throwing an opponent in wrestling throw-back, n An individual of any species which reverts physically or mentally to an ancestral type thrower, n [1 thrúer, 2 þrúer] throw (I) & -er One that throws, specially uses a one who twists silk, a throwster, b person who shapes vessels on a potter's wheel thrown, vb [1 thrú, 2 þrú] PP of throw (I), O E (ge)þruwan, M E þruwen throw-off, n The start of a hunt throwster, n [1 thrúster, 2 þrúster] throw (I) & -ster One who twists silk thrum (I), n & vb trans [1 thrum, 2 þrum] M E, fr ON þrum, 'edge, brim', cogn w Lat terminus 1 n A The end of threads of warp on a loom after the web is cut, b any loose thread or yarn 2 vb To cover with, provide with, thrums or fringe thrum (II), vb intrans & trans ON þrumma, 'to rattle', prob imitative in origin 1 intrans To play carelessly, idly, noisily, or incorrectly (on a musical instrument), to strum, also thrum on 2 trans To play (an instrument) badly, carelessly, incorrectly thrum-eyed, adj (bot) Having the anthers exerted, and visible at the throat of the corolla, contrasted with pin-eyed thrumming, n [1 thrumming, 2 þrumm] thrum (I) & -ing A Act of, noise made by, one who thrums, b recurring beat, and accompanying sound, made by an engine when run thrush (I), n [1 thrush, 2 þra] O E þrysc, see throistle One of several varieties of medium sized singing birds, genus Turdus, with darkish plumage save on throat and belly, which are pale with dark spots, esp the song thrush, T. musicus, and the mussel-thrush, T. viscivorus thrush (II), n Cp Dan troale, cogn w O E þryr, 'dry', & þryr, see thirst (I) & torrid (med) Inflammatory affection of mouth and throat, occurring most frequently in young children thrust (I), vb trans & intrans [1 thrust, 2 þrust] M E thrusten, fr ON þrjsta, cogn w Lat trudere, 'to push, thrust', see intrude in extrude, intrude &c, & op threat A trans 1 To push, shove, with a sudden, violent action to thrust a sword, a bayonet, a knife &c, into, or through, a body, to thrust one's fist in a person's face, he thrust his face into, close to, mine, to thrust a chair forward, to thrust one's hands into one's pockets, one's feet into a pair of slippers, thrust on, put on with sudden, impulsive movement Phrs to thrust one's way (through a crowd &c), to advance by pushing, and thrusting obstacles aside, thrust one's nose into (other people's affairs &c.), interfere in, or with, uninvited 2 (reflex) Thrust oneself, in various Phrs to thrust oneself into (a good place &c.), force one's way there, thrust oneself forward, (fig) deliberately make oneself conspicuous, obtrude oneself, thrust oneself into the society of, obtrude oneself, force oneself into, intrude B intrans 1 To make a thrust at (person &c.) 2 To force oneself through, past &c thrust (II), n, fr preo 1 Act of thrusting, a sudden, violent push a thrust with the elbow, b onset with a pointed weapon, a lunge a thrust with a sword, blow delivered in this way a sword thrust 2 (archit) Outward pressure (e.g. against a wall) exerted by a weight from above 3 (min) Breakdown of the roof of a gallery under weight from above thruster, n [1 thruster, 2 pristat] thrust (I) & -er Person who rides too close to, or over, bounds when hunting thud, n & vb intrans [1 thud, 2 pad] Cp O E pyðlan, 'to strike, thrust' 1 n Dull sound, as of a heavy, solid, but not very hard, body falling from a height upon the ground 2 vb a To make the sound of a thud, b to fall with a thud, also thud down thug, n [1 thug, 2 pag] Hind thag, 'a deceiver, a robber', Sort sthaga, 'a swindler' 1 Member of a fraternity of assassins and robbers in Northern India, suppressed in the late thirties of the 19th cent., whose method was to strangle their victims with a bow-string or a strip of linen, to plunder, and then bury the body 2 An assassin, a ruffian thuggee, n [1 thūgē, 2 pagi] Hind thagi, 'the act of a thing' System of murder by strangling as carried out by thugs thuggery, thuggism, n [1 thugeri, thugizm, 2 pagari, pagizem] thug & -ery, or -ism Thugges, ruffianism thuya, n [1 thūya, 2 pyūya] Gk thuis, Afr tree with scented wood The arbor vitae Thule, n [1 thūle, 2 pyūle] Name given by ancient geographers to the most northern of known lands, now only in Phr ultima Thule, q v under ultima thumb, n & vb trans [1 thum, 2 pam] O E pūma, M E pūme, thumbe &c., O H G dūmo, Mod Germ daumen, O N pūmall, fr base tūm*, 'to swell', see turnid, op also thumbable 1 n a The short, thick digit of the hand, opposable to the fingers, Phrs his fingers are all thumbs, said of a clumsy person lacking manual dexterity, rule of thumb, any rough-and-ready, practical way of doing anything, a method not based on principles, under the thumb of, in power of, ruled, influenced, by, b the corresponding digit of animals, c the division of a glove which covers the thumb 2 vb To wear, make dirty (the pages of a book &c.), by constant handling, to make thumb marks upon thumb-mark, n Dirty mark made by a person's thumb thumb-nut, n One with a flattened top so that it can be turned by the thumb thumb-screw, n Ancient instrument of torture, the functions of which are indicated by its name thumb-stall, n Covering of leather &c. for protecting the thumb thummin See under urim and thummin thump, n & vb trans & intrans [1 thump, 2 pamp] Of imitative origin 1 n Heavy blow inflicted with the fist or with a cudgel &c. 2 vb To inflict a thump or thumps upon, to pound with the fist thumping, adj [1 thumping, 2 pámpu] (colloq) Very large, possessing to a marked degree some characteristic quality a thumping lie, as adv, a thumping (good, great) dinner thunder (I), n [1 thunder, 2 pánda] O E punor, M E puner, thunder &c., O H G donar, cogn w Lat tonitrus, 'thunder', tondre, 'to thunder', & op Thursday See also astound 1 Loud, crashing, or rumbling sound caused by electrical disturbance in the air 2 Loud sound bearing some resemblance to thunder thunders of applause, the thunder of the cataract thunder (II), vb intrans & trans O E pun-ian, see preo 1 intrans a To emit thunder it is thundering, it thunders, b to give forth a sound like that of thunder the waves thunder upon the shore, to thunder at the door, knock loudly, c to speak in a loud voice, with powerful resonance, to roar preachers thunder weekly from a thousand pulpits 2 trans To utter with a loud, powerful voice to thunder words of warning in a person's ears thunderbolt, n [1 thunderbölt, 2 panda-boult] 1 Discharge of lightning and accompanying clap of thunder, so called from belief that the noise was caused by a bolt hurled by a god Phrs it came upon me like a thunderbolt, was a regular thunderbolt, a matter of overwhelming surprise, something entirely unexpected 2 Any of certain kinds of stone or fossils, supposed to have fallen from the clouds as a result of discharges of lightning 3 (har) Representation of supposed thunderbolt, consisting of a bar with blazing ends, and four darts issuing from the centre thunder-clap, n Clap of thunder thunderer, n [1 thunderer, 2 pándara] One who thunders, specif, the thunderer, one of the names of Jove thundering, adj [1 thundering, 2 pándarin] 1 Making a sound like, as loud as, thunder 2 (colloq) Very large, excessive, same as thumping, q v a thundering mistake, a thundering ass &c thunderous, adj [1 thúnderus, 2 pándarəs] thunder (I) & -ous 1 Thunderous 2 As loud as, loud like, thunder thunder-storm, n Storm of thunder and lightning thunder-struck, adj Struck by lightning, (usually fig) amazed, astonished, astounded thunderly, adj [1 thunder, 2 pándari] thunder (I) & -y (of weather) Tending to thunder, oppressive with thunder thurable, n [1 thúribl, 2 pyvaribl] Lat thúribulum, formed fr thúri-, stem of thūs, 'frankincense', fr Gk thuos, 'sacrifice', cp thuein, 'to sacrifice', orig 'to cause to smoke', fr base dhu*, as in Gk thúmdē, 'passion, courage', Lat fūmus, 'smoke', see fume (I) & cp thyme A censor thurifer, n [1 thúriŕ, 2 pyvarif] fr thuri-, as in preo, & -far Person who carries a censor, an acolyte Thursday, n [1 thérzdi, 2 pázdi] O E Dæres dæg, fr O N Þórr, 'the god of thunder', contracted fr earlier þonraz*, see thunder (I) Day of the week following Wednesday and preceding Friday thus, adv [1 thūs, 2 ðas] O E pus, op this, the, & that 1 In this (specified) way he spoke thus 2 To this extent thus far shall thou go thwack, vb trans & n [1 thwak, 2 pwæk] Prob a dialectal variant of whack (I) 1 vb To thrash, flog, beat, belabour 2 n A blow, a slap or thump thwaite, n [1 thwät, 2 pwät] O N prest, 'piece of enclosed land, i.e. land set apart or out off from surrounding area', cogn w O E puilan, 'to out', q v under whittle (I) (northern provinces and in northern Place Names and surnames) Piece of wild or forest land cleared and cultivated thwart (I), adv, prep, & adj [1 thwort, 2 pwört] M E as adv, fr O N piert, neut of puert, 'across', cogn w O E puerh, 'across, crosswise, perversely, angry', Goth torquere, 'to twist' &c., see torque (obs or archaic) Passing, lying, across See athwart thwart (II), n See preo Seat for oarsman in a boat thwart (III), vb trans See thwart (I) a To oppose will of, b to hinder, obstruct, prevent, fulfilment of (wishes, designs, intentions) thy, possess pron of 2nd pers sing [1. thi; 2. ðas] See thine & thou Of thee, belonging to thee thylacine, n [1 thilasin, 2 pasasin] fr Gk thylax, 'sack, pouch', & kun, 'stomach of kuon, 'dog' Tasmanian marsupial, resembling a dog in appearance, greyish brown with darker stripes across back and hind quarters thyme, n [1 tīm, 2 taim] M E thyme, fr O Fr, fr Lat thymus, fr Gk thymos, connoted w thausin, 'to sacrifice', see thyrille Pungent, aromatic plant, Thymus, common in English gardens, with palish purple flowers, the leaves are used for flavouring in cookery, also the wild thyme growing on chalk downs &c thymol, n [1 tīmōl, 2 taimōl] Preo & -ol An aromatic substance obtained from the essential oil of thyme and other plants, also made synthetically, used medicinally as an antiseptic &c thymus, n [1 thimne, 2 páimne] fr Gk thymos, 'thyme', q v, fr resemblance to shape of a bud of thyme A small ductless gland, in upper part of the chest, it is one of the so-called sweatbreads of calves or lambs, its functions are obscure, but its enlargement is associated with 'status lymphaticus', q v thymy, adj [1 tīm, 2 tāim] thyme & -y Scented with, covered with, thyme thyroid, adj & n [1 thirōid, 2 páirōid] Gk thyreoidēs, 'shield shaped', fr thureōs, 'a large, oblong shield', cogn w Gk thurā, 'a door', see under door & forum, for ending see -oid 1 adj Indicating a the ductless gland in the neck of vertebrates, which has an important effect on growth and metabolism thyroid gland, thyroid extract, of sheep, used for metabolic diseases, such as goitre &c., b the Adam's apple thyroid cartilage 2 n The thyroid gland or cartilage thyrus, n [1 thérus, 2 páras] Gk thyrōs, 'a light wand', etymol unknown A wand or staff, specif, a rod surmounted by a pine cone, and twined round with ivy or vine leaves and berries, the attribute of Bacchus thyself, pers pron [1 thihsēlf, 2 ðasēlf] Reflex & emphasis of thou tiara, n [1 tāhira, tāhira, 2 tāidra, tāidra] Lat, fr Gk tiara, of Pers origin 1 Ancient Persian head dress 2 A official head dress of the Pope, consisting of a high conical cap, surmounted by three crowns, emblematical of the threefold sovereignty claimed by the Papacy, temporal, spiritual, purgatorial, b (fig) the dignity and power of the Papacy 3 Jewelled head ornament or kind of coronet worn by women tibia, n [1 tibia, 2 tibia] Lat tibia, 'shin bone, a flute', Walde derives it fr tūbā-*, whence also Gk ephōn, see siphon (I) (anat) The larger of the two bones between the knee and the foot tibial, adj [1 tibial, 2 tibial] Preo & -al Pertaining to, connected with, the tibia tibio-, pref Form of tibia used in compound words, e.g. tibiofemoral, pertaining to the tibia and femur tie, n [1 tk, 2 tk] Fr, origin doubtful Often tie douloureux [dūliūrē], a convulsive twitching of the facial muscles, associated with neuralgic pains tick (I), n [1 tk, 2 tk] For ticket (I) (slang) Credit to buy on tick, to get tick tick (II), n Low Lat tēca, Lat tēca, fr Gk tikhē, 'a case, cover', fr base of tikhēnē, 'I put', cogn w do (I) & Lat facere, 'to do, make', see infect a Outside cover of mattresses, bolsters, pillows, b coarse striped material of which this is made tick (III), n M E tike, tēle, op L G tēle, Germ zecke, origin unknown Any of various parasitic arachnids, order Acari, which attach themselves to the skin of man or other animals and suck the blood of their hosts Phr as full as a tick tick (IV), vb intrans & trans & n. Imitative of sound 1 vb a intrans To make a slight, sharp, reiterated clicking, or tapping nouse, speed of a clock or watch, also of tape machine, to make the sound characteristic of the movements of the works, b trans, (1) to mark with a small stroke of the pen or pencil placed against a word, name, letter &c., Phr (along) to tick off, to reprimand, (u) also tick out, of tape machine, to give out the news on the roll of tape 2 n a sound made by clock or watch in ticking, b small mark or scratch of a pen &c. tickler, n [1 tɪkə, 2 tɪkə]. Preo & -er (along) a watch, b a tape machine.

ticket (I), n [1 tɪket, 2 tɪket], fr, O Fr etiquet, see etiquette 1 Small piece of cardboard bearing necessary printed inscription, showing a that owner has paid the price charged for entrance to, and seat at, a concert, theatre, or other entertainment, or that he is for any reason entitled to go in, b that possessor has paid his fare for a railway or tram journey &c. Phrs to take tickets for the opera, to take one's ticket to Edinburgh &c. 2 Any of various short notices, announcements, printed on small cards or sheets of paper, e.g. a label indicating price of goods exhibited for sale price ticket, brief document issued by pawnbroker when advancing money on an article left as a pledge pawn ticket, or issued as certificate of share in a lottery &c. take a ticket in a sweepstake 3 A list of political candidates for election, belonging to a particular party, b (fig) the principles of a political party the Tory ticket Phrs the proper ticket, orthodox ideas, behaviour &c., not quite the ticket, not quite the right thing ticket (II), vb trans, fr preo. To mark with a ticket, to affix a ticket to, ticket-of-leave, n [1 tɪket ɒv li:v, 2 tɪket ɒv li:v] Permission granted to a convict to be at liberty, with certain restrictions, before expiry of his sentence Phrs out of prison on ticket of leave, ticket of leave man, prisoner released with such a ticket tickle (I), vb trans & intrans [1 tɪkl, 2 tɪkl] Possibly freq of tick (IV) A trans 1 To excite, irritate, the superficial nerves and cause peculiar sensation, involuntary laughter, or slight spasms, by touching lightly and repeatedly some part of the skin, to titillate 2 A To please, gratify to tickle one's palate, b to amuse, cause laughter, excite risibility I was immensely tickled by his good stories B intrans a To experience a sensation of tickling, or irritation, on some part of the surface of the body, to itch, tingle my throat, nous etc tickles, b to cause, provoke, sensation of tickling nothing tickles so intolerably as a hair in the throat tickle (II), n, fr preo Sensation of tickling, tingling, irritation of superficial nerves a tickle in the throat tickler, n [1 tɪklə, 2 tɪklə] tickle (I) & -er A puzzle, a difficult problem tickling, n [1 tɪklɪŋ, 2 tɪklɪŋ] See preo & -ing A tickle ticklish, adj [1 tɪkɪʃ, 2 tɪkɪʃ] tickle (I), & -ish 1 Sensitive to tickling, easily excited to laughter or irritation by tickling 2 a (of persons) Too shy, difficult to deal with, b (of affairs) delicate, hazardous, requiring skilful handling tick-tack, -tock, n [1 tɪk tæk, 2 tɪk tæk, tɒk] Reduplication of tick (IV) 1 Childish name for a watch or clock. 2 (slang, usually tick tack man) A bookmaker's assistant who signals the change of odds and other news of a race from different parts of the course.

tidal, adj [1 tɪdəl, 2 tɪdəl] tide (I) & -al. Connected with the tide or tides, specif a experiencing alterations of tide a tidal river, b caused by the tide tidal waves, c sailing at times determined by the tide tidal steamer tidily-winkles n [1 tɪdli wɪŋkə, 2 tɪdli wɪŋkə] Child's game played on a table in which counters are slipped from the edge into a receptacle in the centre.

tide (I), n [1 tɪd, 2 tɪd] O E tīd, 'time', also OS & O Frs, O H G tīd, see base under turne (I) 1 Period, season, obsolete except in evening tide, Christmas tide, Whitsuntide, gyle tide, and in proverb 'Time and tide wait for no man' 2 Alternate rise and fall, ebb and flow, of the surface of the sea high, low, half, tide, or also neap- (I) and spring- tide (II) 3 Trend, flow, tendency, a (in feeling and emotion) the full tide of pleasure, passion &c., b (of circumstances and affairs) the high tide of fortune. Phr the turn of the tide, reversal of fortune tide (II), vb intrans, fr preo, 1 (rare) To drift with the tide 2 Chiefly tide over (a difficulty &c.), to surmount, manage to overcome tideless, adj [1 tɪdləs, 2 tɪdləs] tide (I) & -less Having no tide the Mediterranean is a tideless sea tide-waiter, n Custom house official who boards vessels and watches landing of cargoes, to secure payment of duties tidewater, n [1 tɪdwa:tə, 2 tɪdwa:tə] tide (I) & water (USA) 1 A Water on sea-coast or in estuary &c., affected by tides, hence, b sea-coast 2 (attrib.) On, belonging to, the sea coast tideway, n A Channel through which tide ebbs and flows, b ebb and flow of tide through such channel tidily, adv, [1 tɪdli, 2 tɪdli], fr tidy (I) & -ly, In a tidy manner tidiness, n [1 tɪdɪnəs, 2 tɪdɪnəs] See preo & -ness State, quality, of being tidy tidings, n, pl [1 tɪdɪŋz, 2 tɪdɪŋz] Take vb either in pl or sing M E tidings, tilttings, tilttings, prob, fr ON tīdind, op, however, O E tīdūŋ, fr, O E tīdān, 'to happen', see beside Piece of news, intelligence the good tidings, evil tidings tidy (I), adj & n [1 tɪdi, 2 tɪdi], fr tide (I) & -y, in sense of 'timely', op Mod Germ. zeitig 1 adj A Orderly, neat, well arranged, b (colloq) considerable, of some size, amount &c. a tidy income, to leave a tidy sum to one's heirs 2 n A small antimacassar or chair cover, b small receptacle in which odds and ends of the dressing table may be placed tidy (II), vb trans, fr preo To make tidy, to put in order to tidy a room, a garden, to tidy oneself, also tidy up (a room, myself &c.), intrans, I must just tidy up a bit, put things in order tie (I), n, [1 ti, 2 taɪ] O E tīah, tīh, 'bond, chain, enclosure', M E tēh, tēz (s), tīe, cogn w, ON tāug, 'a string, a tie', fr Gmc base teuh*, tīuh*, &c., 'to pull, draw', op O E tīon (fr tīoh*), 'to draw, pull', Goth tiuhan, see tow (I), cogn w, Lat dūcere, 'to pull, to lead', see duke, & duct, 1 A knot, ligature, bond, rope, chain string &c. used to fasten something 2 Specif, a strip of white lawn, or black silk, tied in a bow (evening tie), or folded piece of silk or other ornamental coloured material worn knotted round the neck, necktie 3 A bond, connecting piece, of wood, iron &c., used to hold together and make firm, or give support to, different parts of a structure, e.g. a wooden rod or spar fastened between two legs of a table or chair, a piece of timber, or an iron rod, used to hold together larger timbers in a building &c. 4 A spiritual bond, connecting link of feeling between persons a moral obligation the ties of parenthood, patriotism, friendship &c. 5 Object or circumstance the existence of which imposes certain duties and obligations that restrict one's actions, curb one's freedom &c., a burden I find my large establishment rather a tie, a dog is a considerable tie if one has sole charge of it 6 Equality of scores between two competitors in a sporting contest, or of votes between candidates in an election &c. 7 Match or game played between pairs of opponents or teams, the loser or losing side being eliminated from the contest, the winner subsequently being matched against another winner, until all are eliminated but the winner in the final bout 8 (mus) A curved line joining two notes of same pitch, indicating that the note is sustained for a period equivalent to the duration of both tie (II), vb trans & intrans O E tīgan, M E tīzen, tīzen, see preo A trans 1 To fasten, bind, attach, by means of a string, cord, rope to tie a branch of a rose to a trellis, to tie a horse to a tree &c. Phrs (fig) to tie the hands of, to hamper, curtail freedom of, to be tied hand and foot, be completely hampered and hindered in freedom of action. 2 A To form (a cord, string, strip of material &c.) into some kind of knot to tie one's tie, to tie a piece of ribbon into a knot or bow &c., b to form knot, twist &c. to tie a knot, a bow, a loop &c. 3 To make firm by connecting with a tie to tie the legs of a table 4 A To bind, impose an obligation upon, force to act in a certain way I won't tie you too rigidly, but I expect you to do what I wish, b to keep occupied, to engage, to hinder complete liberty of action my professional duties tie me for the greater part of each day 5 To unite, bind to be tied to a wife B intrans 1 To be capable of being tied or formed into a knot this rope won't tie 2 (of two competitors in a contest) To make an equal score, obtain same number of votes &c. C Followed by preposition or adverb Tie down, trans, 1 to fasten by tying so as to prevent from rising, 2 to bind, restrain (a person), by conditions, obligations, to exact an undertaking from. Tie up, trans, 1 to fasten securely together to tie up a truss of hay, a parcel &c., 2 to bind up, swathe round, wrap up to tie up a person's head, 3 to take such measures as will restrict (a person's) freedom of action, to impose conditions, obligations, restrictions upon, 4 to secure (property) by will &c. in such a way that it cannot be alienated or squandered, or so that it must pass to a certain line of heirs, or can only be enjoyed under certain conditions tied house, n [1 tɪd haʊs, 2 tɪd haʊs] Public house the liquor for which must, by contract, be purchased from a single, specified, firm of brewers tier, n [1 tɪə, 2 tɪə] O Fr tiere, 'row, rank, series', origin uncertain. A Originally, a row of guns (in a ship), b a row, series, of objects, forming one of several rows, also one of several shelves &c., placed one above another terce, n [1 tɜ:s, 2 tɜ:s] Fr tiere, 'third', fr Lat, see tertius 1 Wine cask containing 42 gallons, one-third of a pipe 2 The third of the canonical hours, service said at that hour (9 A.M.) 3 Position in fencing, both in attacking and parrying, in which the point of the weapon is on a level with the eye, the third position.

tercel, tiercel See tercel, tercet tiers état, n [1 tɪəz ɛtɑ:t, 2 tɪəz(ɛ) ɛtɑ:t] Fr, 'third estate' The common people, the class coming after, and inferior to, the nobility and the clergy tiff, n & vb intrans [1 tɪf, 2 tɪf] Supposed to be fr ON pīf, 'a smell', with vb pīfa, 'to sniff', Mod Norw teft, 'a scent', 1 n. A slight, passing, quarrel, trifling dispute, b (obs or provng) a small draught or taste of liquor 2 vb (rare or obs) To be peevish, pettish.

tiffany, n, [1 tɪfəni, 2 tɪfəni] O Fr tiffanie, fr L, Lat theophania, 'manifesting of God', fr Gk, see theophany & cp epiphany

Thin silk gauze, originally a dress for wearing on Twelfth Night tiffin, n [1 tɪfɪn, 2 tɪfɪn] Said to be from fr tift, 1, b Luncheon, word current among the English in India and the Far East tige, n, [1 tɪʒ, 2 tɪʒ] Fr, 'a stalk', fr Lat, see tibia, 1 (archit) The shaft of a column. 2 (bot.) Stalk, stem, of a plant tiger, n, [1 tɪɡə, 2 tɪɡə] M E, fr O Fr tygre, fr Lat tygris, Gk tygris, said to be fr, red city half as old as time' (Burgon) 120-from time immemorial, time out of mind, from the remotest period, (of legal memory) 'from time whereof the memory of man runneth not to the contrary' 3 Duration of time, a length, portion, of time, a period I've only been here a short time, that will take a long time Phrs in no time, very soon, in a brief space, take your time, don't hurry, in one's own time, in one's leisure moments, during time for which one is not paid, there is no time to lose, a time matter is urgent, b there is need of hurry, to have no time to spare, to be pressed for time, to have no leisure, to be very busy, to be compelled to hurry to get something done, have I time (to catch the train &c) i.e. enough time, to do time, (colloq.) undergo period of imprisonment, to serve one's time the agreed period of apprenticeship, what time, (archaic and poet) at the moment when, while 'What time the labourer or in his loose traces from the furrow came' (Milton, 'Comus', 291-2) 4 (often pl) Period distinguished by the occurrence of specific, memorable, historical events, by the activities of historical characters &c, e.g., epoch 'The spacious times of great Elizabeth' (Tennyson, 'Dr of Rar W', v 2), life and times of Queen Victoria Phr the good old times, the past 5 A portion of time characterized by specified conditions, or considered in relation to the kind of events that occur hard times, to pass through a terrible time, what wonderful times we live in Phrs to have a good time, to enjoy oneself, to have the time of one's life, a period of extreme and exceptional happiness and enjoyment, time was when, it used formerly to be that 6 A lifetime, duration of one's life the house will last my time, such things never happened in the old squire's time, b period in which one was associated with particular persons, places &c, or was engaged in some particular activities &c he was no longer head of the college in my time, that is, not while I was there, all these things happened in my time 7 Particular point or moment of time, esp the customary, normal moment for something to happen, a time fixed for something to be done or to happen, season, the proper time I was ill at the time, he arrived in due time I was ill at the time when, will you kindly fix a time to call? Phrs there are times when, sometimes, at certain moments, your, my, time has come, you are, I am, going to die, time of life, age, (of a woman) near her time, shortly to be delivered, (glad to see you) at all times, always, to do something in one's own good time, when one chooses, to be in (good) time (for), early enough, punctual, all in good time, soon enough, there's no hurry!, time!, (at contests &c where a given time is allowed for performance) time is up!, stop! 8 A mode of computing, of reckoning, lapse of time Greenwich time, Summer time, b specif, some particular hour in the day, or fraction of it, as reckoned in a given latitude what's the time?, the right time, the time of day Phrs to pass (him) the time of day, to greet, salute, exchange formal greetings with, at this time of day, (fig.) so late, after all that has happened, (of a timepiece) to keep good time, show the hour correctly 9 A portion of time in which an action is repeated, or an event recurs, occurs each time I see him I dislike him more and more, many a time, many times, often, on many occasions, time after time, again and again, repeatedly, b (in pl) as a sign of multiplication three times four is twelve Phr many times as large, much larger, or 10 a (mus) Measurement based on the periodicity of accents and classified according to the subdivision of the beats, Phr to beat time, indicate proper time by motions made with a baton b (prosody) duration of utterance, in (indiv. parts), as an element of metre time (II), b trans, fr preo 1 To calculate time that an action will take to perform, and adj., one's movements accordingly, to do something at, or within the right, or suitable, time to have one's arrival opportunely, to time one's start so as just to catch a train, to time one's blows skillfully 2 To observe and note length of time taken in performing an action, esp time taken in a race to run a given distance time-ball, n Ball which falls at a given hour, usually at noon, as an indication of the time time-bargain, n Contract to sell stocks, shares &c at an agreed price at a fixed future time time-expired, adj [1 tm ekspird, 2 tdm eksprid] Having completed the term of service (of soldiers and sailors) time-honoured, adj [1 tm bnrd, 2 tdm bnrd] Long respected or observed, respected on account of its antiquity a time-honoured custom time-keeper, n A person who keeps, observes, notes, measures, time, esp that spent by men at their work, b a timepiece timeless, adj [1 tmles, 2 tamlis] time (I) & -less 1 (poet) a Not to be measured by time, unending, interminable, b (archaic) unseasonable 2 Pertaining to no fixed time timelessly, adv. Preo & -ly Unendingly timelessness, n See preo & -ness State, quality, of being timeless timely, adj & adv [1 tmli, 2 taml] time (I) & -ly 1 adj Occurring at a suitable time, opportune timely help 2 adv (rare) In good, at a suitable time, opportunely timenoguy, n [1 tmnogi, 2 tamlngas] Origin unknown, op guy rope &c (naut) Taut rope over which running rigging slides, used to prevent fouling timeons, timons, adj [1 tmus, 2 tamsas] time (I) & -ous (rare, or Scots, esp Scots law) In good time, opportune, seasonable timeously, adv Preo & -ly Seasonably, opportunely timepiece, n [1 tmpls, 2 tamlps] A watch or clock time-saving, adj Serving to save time time-server, n Person who in his behaviour and actions subordinates duty and principle to self interest and expediency, an obsequious unprincipled toady who readily adapts his opinions and conduct to those which are popular at the time at which he lives, and among the more powerful people with whom he is brought in contact time-serving, adj Practising the behaviour of a time server, obsequious, phony time-sheat, n Record of time spent on a job of work or at work by a workman time-table, n 1 A List, in tabular form, showing the days and hours at which particular duties and work of any kind have to be done, or for which engagements, appointments &c have been fixed, b the whole series of duties, engagements &c assigned to particular days and hours 2 Specif a table, book containing a list, showing hours of the arrival and departure of trains, boats &c &c, b the total number of departures and arrivals, at fixed hours, of trains, boats &c running under direction of a particular company time-work, n Work, esp manual labour, which is paid at certain rates by the hour or day, contrasted with piece work timid, adj [1 tmld, 2 tmld] Fr timide, fr Lat timidus, 'faint-hearted, cowardly', cp also timere, 'to be afraid', the origin is uncertain, connexion w Lat tenebrae, 'darkness', see tenebrae, has been suggested. Easily frightened, lacking in courage, nerve, or spirit, lacking self confidence and enterprize, diffident, shy Phr as timid as a hare timidity, n [1 tmldti, 2 tmlditi] Lat timiditas (em) Preo & -ity Lack of courage and self confidence, nervousness, shyness, diffidence timidly, adv See preo & -ly In a timid manner shyly, hesitatingly timeliness, n See preo & -ness Condition of being timid, shyness, timidity timist, n [1 tmst, 2 tamlst] timo (I) & -lat. 1 Musical performer considered soording to the manner in which he observes the time of the piece which he is playing a good, poor, timist 2 (prosody) One who emphasizes the importance of time as an element in metre timocracy, n [1 tmokras, 2 tamlkres] Gk timokratia, fr timé, 'price, worth, moral worth, honour in which one is held, esteem, respect', & base *krat-, 'strength, government, rule', see -cracy, timé contains the same base *k as in Gk ktem, 'to place a value on, to honour, esteem' &c, wh is fr *kret-, *kret-, &c, 'to respect', whence also Sert daktai, 'he worships, has high respect for', it is possible that the first syllable o. Lat caerimonia, 'religious awe, reverence, religious usage', is fr the same source, see caerimonia 1 A state in which the love of honour and glory is the ruling principle 2 A state in which political power is in proportion to the amount of property possessed timocratic, adj [1 tmokrák, 2 tamlk-rák] See preo, w substitution of enfi -crat & -ic Pertaining to, based on, timocracy timorous, adj [1 tmorus, 2 tmuras], fr Lat timor, 'fear', see timid, & -ous Exceedingly timid, easily startled, prone to take fright, apprehensive, faint-hearted timorously, adv Preo & -ly In a timorous manner timorousness, n See preo & -ness State, quality, of being timorous timothy (grass), n [1 tmthi (grahs), 2 tmthi (grahs)] fr name of introducer, Timothy Hanson A grass with long spikes grown for hay in America and Europe timous, adj See timeous timpaco, n [1 tmpano, 2 tmpanou] Ital, see tympanum A kettle drum tin (I), n [1 tn, 2 tn] OE tin, in most Gmc languages, e.g. ON tin, OHG zin &c, origin unknown, not related to Lat stannum, stannum, 'tin'. 1 A white, malleable metal, taking a high polish, and almost unaffected by atmosphere 2 A thin iron plate or sheet coated with tin, used for making vessels, cases &c of various kinds a box made of tin, made of tin plates (also attrib) a tin box, saucepan &c Phr a little tin god, an insignificant person who on the strength of his position or other accidental circumstances is regarded by others, or by himself, as being very important, tin hat, (slang) a soldier's steel helmet, b a receptacle made of such plates a tin for biscuits, o the contents of a tin box or other receptacle, so much as such a box &c will hold to eat a whole tin of sardines, of biscuits &c 3 (slang) Money, wealth tin (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To coat with tin 2 To pack, preserve, in a box or case made of tin covered plates to tin fruit, fish &c tinamon, n [1 tmamou, 2 tmamú] S Am. word S American bird, member of the family Tinamidae, resembling a quail tincal, tincal, n [1 tngkl, 2 tngkl] Malay word Crude borax tin-clad, n (facet) An ironclad vessel, an ironclad tinclad, adj & n [1 tngkt, 2 tngkt], fr Lat tinclius, P P of tingere, 'to wet, moisten, to soak, steep, to soak in colour, to dye', earlier *tengere, op Gk tingen, 'to moisten', cogn w OHG dunlan, 'to steep, immerse' (poet and archaic) 1 adj Coloured, tinged 2 n A colour, hue, shade of colour tinction, n [1 tngkahun, 2 tngkfan] Preo & -ion Act or process of staining or dyeing tinctorial, adj [1 tngkhdral, 2 tngkhdral] Lat tinctoria, fr tinctor, 'dye', see tinact, & -al. a Connected with, pertaining to, dyeing, b pertaining to colour or colours, o tending to impart a colour tincture (I), n [1 tngkchur, 2 tngkfa] Lat tinctura, 'dyeing', see tinact & -ure 1 A tinge, shade of colour, a tint 2 (her)

The word used for colour on shields and bearings, but including, beside the heraldic colours, also metals and furs 3 (med.) A solution of some substance, esp. of vegetable character, used as a drug 4 (fig.) a (material sense) A slight trace, faint taste, or colour, smack a faint tincture of tobacco, vanilla, of red &c., b (in moral sense) a superadded quality or characteristic, a veneer some tincture of education, civilization, of good breeding tincture (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To impart a tincture to, to communicate a slight taste, shade of colour, to 2 (in moral sense) To affect slightly, imbue faintly, to impart a quality to in a small degree his character is but slightly tinctured with humanity tindal, n [1 tindal, 2 tudal], fr Malay tandal A petty officer of a lascar crew, subordinate to the serang tinder, n [1 tinder, 2 tinda] OE tjnder, tyndra, ME tinder &c., OHG tundara, ON tundr, op OE (on-)tendan, fr tand-fan*, 'to kindle, to inflame', OHG tunden, 'to burn, glow', Goth tandjan, 'to kindle', op Swed tända, see tandstokor, & Goth tunnan, 'to become kindled, enflamed' Inflammable material, esp. such as was formerly used for obtaining a light from a spark, consisting of scorched linen &c., impregnated with saltpetre Phr to burn like tinder, to blaze up and burn furiously tinder-box, n Case used before the invention of modern matches, for obtaining a light, containing tinder, flint, and steel tindery, adj [1 tinden, 2 tindari] tunder & -y Like tinder, very dry and inflammable tine, n [1 tin, 2 tan] OE tind, 'prong, spike', ON tindr, cogn w OE tōp, 'tooth', fr tanp-*, of wh base it is a gradational variant, w d instead of -p, on account of the conditions of accent formulated under Verner's Law, see tooth a One of the prongs of a fork, b one of the projecting spikes of a harrow, c a prong of a stag's antler tinea, n [1 tinea, 2 tinea] Lat, 'worm, moth' Prob fr turnea*, & cogn w Gk stínomas, 'to injure, damage', & w OE puīnan, 'to dwindle', also w OE puīnan, 'to moisten, soften' The base, according to Walde, meant 'moisture, injury caused by damp' &c., & tinea meant 'a worm produced from damp mould' See also tabes 1 (entom.) The genus of clothes-moths 2 (med.) One of various skin diseases, esp. ringworm tin-foil, n & vb trans 1 n Very thin sheet of tin, used for wrapping and packing 2 vb To wrap up in, coat with, tin foil ting, n & vb intrans & trans [1 ting, 2 tin] Imitative word 1 n A tinkle, sound, made by a bell 2 vb a intrans To tinkle, sound as a bell, b trans, to ring, tinkle (a bell) tinge (I), vb trans & intrans [1 tinj, 2 tin(d)ʒ], fr Lat tingere, 'to dye' &c., see tinct A trans 1 To colour slightly, to tint, imbue the setting sun tinged the sky with a rosy flush 2 (fig, chiefly in PP) To affect faintly but perceptibly, to cast a shadow, shed a brightness upon, to colour memories of past events tinged with melancholy, present sorrow tinged with brighter hopes for the future B intrans (rare) To become tinged tinge (II), n, fr prec 1 Some degree of colour, usually a faint amount, a tincture 2 A mixture, addition, of some extraneous feeling, passion &c., to a prevailing state of mind, a spice, a touch his piety had no tinge of hypocrisy, his banter contained a tinge of malice tingle (I), vb intrans [1 tinggl, 2 tinggl] Prob freq of ting 1 To experience a sensation as of slight pricking, smarting, tickling, or stinging ears tingling with the cold, the blow made my cheek tingle 2 To thrill, be excited, startled, roused, to throb, flutter we were all tingling with eagerness and excitement 3 To produce a sensation comparable to pricking or tingling, a to tremble, shimmer the tingling heat and sunlight of an August noon, b to vibrate, throb the air still tingled with the sound of distant bells tingle (II), n, fr prec a The physical sensation of tingling, b the emotional condition of tingling tinker (I), n [1 tinker, 2 tɪŋkə] In ME, lit 'one who tinkers', i.e. who makes a tinkling sound, as by striking a metal vessel with another piece of metal, as tinsmith menders of pots and pans used formerly to do, to announce their coming Tink was an imitative word, see tinkle 1 A mender of metal articles such as kettles, pots, and pans, esp. an itinerant mender of these 2 A clumsy botcher, an unskilful workman 3 (re-formed from tinker (II)) Act of tinkering, clumsy, unskilful attempt to mend or fix to have a tinker at the electric light tinker (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a To apply the craft of a tinker to, b to mend roughly, unskilfully, to hutch I've merely tinkered the pipe anyhow for the time being 2 intrans To ply the trade of a tinker (fig) to tinker with (anything), try to improve by heatating, unskilful means, also tinker away (at), to make prolonged, clumsy, ineffectual efforts at repairing, to fiddle with, tinker up, to get, or try to get, into working order, at least temporarily, by hasty, insufficient means to tinker up a broken-down car, his doctor tinkered him up so that he could make his promised speech tinkle, vb intrans & trans & n [1 tɪŋkl, 2 tɪŋkl], freq of imitative tink 1 vb a intrans To give out a series of clear, light, metallic sounds as of a bell, or of a succession of light pieces of metal falling one upon another, to fall with a tinkling sound, b trans, to cause to tinkle to tinkle a bell 2 n The sound of a small bell, sound of pieces of metal &c. falling with ringing noise, a jungle tinkling, vb! n [1 tɪŋklɪŋ, 2 tɪŋklɪŋ], fr prec Sound of that which tinkles, succession of tinkles 'Drowsy tinklings lull the distant folds' (Gray's 'Elegy') tinman, n [1 tɪnmən, 2 tɪnmən] Craftsman who works in tin-plate, one who repairs articles made of this, manufacturer of tin-plate goods tinned, adj [1 tʌnd, 2 tʌnd], fr PP of tin (II) 1 Preserved in tins tinned salmon 2 Coated with tin tinning, n [1 tɪnɪŋ, 2 tɪnɪŋ] 1 Act, trade, a of covering (iron plates &c.) with tin, b of enclosing and preserving (food) in tins 2 Lining of tin tinnitus, n [1 tɪnɪtʌs, 2 tɪnɪtʌs] Lat, formed fr tinĭtum, PP of tinire, 'to ring, jingle, tinkle', imitative (med.) Affection of the organs of audition, which causes a sensation of a continuous ringing in the ears.

tin-plate, n Thin sheet of iron coated with tin tinsel (I), n [1 tɪnsəl, 2 tɪnsəl], fr O Fr escintelle, 'spark', fr Lat scintilla 1 a Glistening material composed of thin strips or shreds of metal, used for trimming, esp. of theatrical costumes &c., b a thin textile material interwoven with metal threads 2 (fig) Anything gaudy, outwardly and superficially showy, but really cheap and meretricious, sham splendour, hollow pretence tinsel (II), adj, fr prec 1 Made of tinsel 2 (fig) Resembling tinsel, gaudy, cheaply showy, flashy tinsel (III), vb trans, fr tinsel (I) To cover, trick out, with tinsel tinsmith, n [1 tɪnsɪθ, 2 tɪnsɪθp] Worker in tin or tin-plate tint (I), n [1 tɪnt, 2 tɪnt], fr earlier tinct, see also taint (I) 1 A colour, a dye, b a particular shade, variety of a colour 2 A faint shade of colour, a slight tinge tint (II), vb trans, fr prec To impart (a slight) colour to, to stain, dye, to tinge tinter, n [1 tɪntər, 2 tɪntə] Prec & -er a Person who, thing which, tints, specif b coloured shade used with another in a magic lantern, to impart a particular tint tinnabular(y), adj [1 tɪnnəbʊlə(r)], 2 tɪnnəbʊlə(r)s], see tinnabulum & -ary a Connected with bells, with the sound of bells, b producing a sound of ringing tinnabulation, n [1 tɪnnəbʊləʃən, 2 tɪnnəbʊləʃən] Lat tininnāt, PP type of tininnāre, 'to ring, jingle' &c., fr tininnē, q v under tininnus, & -ion Ringing sound of bells tinnabulum, n [1 tɪnnəbʊlʊm, 2 tɪnnəbʊlʊm] Lat, 'a door bell, a cattle bell', formed fr tininnāre, 'to ring' &c. See prec The ringing, clanging sound, of bells tintometer, n [1 tɪntəmɪtər, 2 tɪntəmɪtər] See tint (I) & -meter Instrument for testing and determining tints tiny, adj [1 tɪni, 2 tɪni] Origin unknown See also teeny Minute, very small, diminutive, often tiny little (piece &c.)

-tion, suff [1 ʃn, 2 ʃən] Lat suff expressing action or state, used to form ns fr vbl stems, -i- is the termination of the stem of the PP. See also -ion & -ation tip (I), n [1 tɪp, 2 tɪp] In ME, or M HG zippel, 'point, peak', origin doubtful 1 Pointed or tapering upper part of anything the tips of the ears, a mountain tip 2 The pointed lower or outer end, extremity of anything the tips of one's fingers, toes, tongue, the tip of an animal's tail, of a wing &c., the tip of a spear, the tip of one's stick &c. Phrs to touch with the tips of one's fingers, touch very lightly, barely touch, to have something at the tips of one's fingers (or finger tips), handy, ready for use, to the tips of one's fingers (or finger tips), thorough and through, completely, at, on, the tip of one's tongue, just about to be uttered. 3 Various technical uses e.g. a ferule for a stick or umbrella, upper section of a fishing rod &c.

tip (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 a To put a special tip or end to to have one's red &c. tipped, b (poet) to affect, touch, adorn, the tip of 'And tipped with silver every mountain head' (Pope, 'II', viii) 2 To cut off the tip(s) of to tip a bush (in pruning), to have one's hair tipped 3 To touch very lightly, tap, as though with the tip of something [Possibly should go under tip (IV)] tip (III), n, fr prec in sense 3 A slight, light touch, tap, or pat, tip and run, a form of primitive cricket, in which the batsman must run if the bat touches the ball tip (IV), vb trans & intrans ME tīpen, 'to overthrow', origin doubtful, perch ultimately fr tip (I) & w sense of 'to bend, press, the tip over', hence 'to upset' A trans 1 To cause to lean away from the vertical, to make to slant, to tilt, cant tip a barrel, to tip a cart Phr to tip the scale, to cause one scale to be lower than the other, to be heavier than something else, (fig) to outweigh, preponderate over, have the advantage of 2 To cause to shoot out of a receptacle by tapping, to upset, empty out (a load) in this way to tip rubbish B intrans To lean out of the straight, to tilt, slant C Followed by prepositions or adverbs Tip off, trans, to pour out (liquor) by tilting the vessel Tip out, a trans, to cause to fall out by tilting, to upset to be tipped out of a cart, b intrans, to fall out through being tilted, to be tipped out Tip over, a trans, to upset, overturn, b intrans, to be upset, to capsize Tip up, 1 trans, a to cause to fall over, to upset, b to tilt backwards so that the lighter end rises to tip up a cart, hence, tip up seat, that allows free passage, 2 intrans, to lose one's balance when leaning backwards, to fall over through being top heavy, to topple over tip (V), n Place where rubbish &c. is tipped. tip (VI), n & vb trans & intrans Origin doubtful 1 n a A present, voluntary gift of money, a gratuity, esp. a payment not legally enforceable, made to an inferior for some slight extra service, b a useful hint, piece of advice, supposed to be based upon private information, recommending a certain line of action, esp regarding the probable winner of a horse race or concerning a financial speculation to get a good tip for the Derby, to get the tip to buy copper Phrs take my tip, do what I advise, to give a man the tip (to do something), recommend him (to), the straight tip, a definite, unambiguous hint, sound advice 2 vb a trans (1) To give a tip or present to to tip a waiter, a schoolboy, (u) (colloq) to give, bestow, communicate, (in restricted usage) to tip the company a song Phrs to tip the wink, give a hint, make a sign to, to tip a winner, indicate beforehand the horse which will win a race, b intrans, to give tips travelling is made easy if one tips freely tip-cart, n One made to tip backwards from the shafts tip-cat, n Boys' game in which a small piece of wood is struck with a bat or stick, so as to cause it to fly into the air, and is then struck again so that it flies several yards tipplet, n [1 tɪpɪt, 2 tɪpɪt] OE tæppet, fr Lat tapete, 'tapestry, coverlet', see tapestry A short cape covering shoulders and chest worn by women, b specif, cape or scarf worn officially by judges and by the clergy tipple (I), vb intrans & trans [1 tɪpl, 2 tɪpl] freq, fr tip (IV) 1 intrans To drink frequently, specif, to drink alcoholic liquor to excess 2 trans To drink, implying excess in strong liquor to tipple brandy all day long tipple (II), n, fr prec a Strong drink, b (facet) any kind of drink tippler, n [1 tɪplər, 2 tɪplər] tippler (I) & -er One who tipples, person who partakes, frequently, and to excess, of strong drink, a drunkard, a bibber tipplily, adv [1 tɪplɪ, 2 tɪplɪ] tipsy & -ly In a tipsy, drunken manner, as though tipsy tipseiness, n [1 tɪpsɪnəs, 2 tɪpsɪnəs] tipsy & -ness State of being tipsy, tipsy habits tipstaff, n [1 tɪpstɑf, 2 tɪpstɑf] A Rod tipped with metal, used as the badge of a sheriff's officer, b official who carries such a rod tipster, n [1 tɪpstər, 2 tɪpstər] tip (VI) & -ster One who lives by selling tips on likely winners (of horse races) tipsy, adj [1 tɪpsɪ, 2 tɪpsɪ] tip (IV) & -sy (refined and slightly old fashioned, lady's word) Drunk, intoxicated, the politest and mildest term, often implying only an early stage of intoxication tipsy-ozke, n Sponge cake soaked in wine, covered with jam, over which whipped cream is spread, the whole garnished with small macaroons or almonds tiptoe, adv & vb intrans [1 tɪptə, 2 tɪptə] Used by Chaucer 1 adv Usually on tip toes a on the points, tips, of the toes, to stand on tiptoe, as though trying to see over something, b (fig) nervously wrought up, stirred, eagerly expectant agog (to do) on tiptoes with curiosity, excitement 2 vb To walk on tiptoe to tiptoe into the room, tiptoe about, to walk gingerly as though to avoid making a noise or arousing attention.

tiptop n & adj [1 tɪptɒp, 2 tɪptɒp] 1 n a The highest point, esp b (fig) the highest point of excellence at the tiptop of his profession 2 adj (colloq) First-rate, most excellent a tiptop lecture, dinner, rider &c tirade n [1 tɪrəɪd, 2 tɪrəɪd] Fr, fr Ital tratta 'a pulling', a long, unbroken, a long speech, fr tirre, 'to draw', see second element in retire & op tier Long, impassioned, or intemperate speech, esp one in denunciation of a person or policy &c travailleur, n Compromise for Fr pronunciation [1 trəˈvɛljər, 2 trəˈvɛljər] Fr, 'elir masher, sharp shooter', fr travailleur, 'to shir mish', fr trier, 'to draw (trigger), to shoot'

In French army, sharpshooter, an infantry skirmisher, esp of the native, or colonial infantry tire (I), vb trans & intrans [1 tɪr, 2 tɪr] Origin doubtful, the vowel in ME tiren, & in the present form, is difficult to explain if we derive them fr OE teorran, 'to fail, not to be up to the mark, to be tired, to make tired' Even if we suppose that the word was partly influenced by OE tergan, 'to irritate, annoy, afflict', it does not help us much for the present form See tarry (II) A trans 1 To render weary, to fatigue, exhaust walking tires me, tire out, render very weary, to exhaust completely 2 To render weary, sick of, to bore he tired me with his long speeches B intrans 1 To become weary, grow fatigued, to become exhausted he tires very soon if he exerts himself 2 To tire of, to become sick of, bored by, to lose patience over, and interest in I soon tire of listening to classical music tire (II), n In sense 3 often tyre Form of attire (II) 1 (archaic) Raiment, apparel 2 (archaic) Apparatus, equipment, furnishing, trapping 3 A Circular iron band surrounding the outside of the wheel of a vehicle, and forming the tread, b thick solid band of rubber on outside of carriage wheels, relatively thick, cushion-like inflated tube fixed to the outside of wheels of bicycles and motor vehicles tire (III), vb trans, fr prec 1 (archaic) To attire, adorn, dress 'she painted her face, and tired her head' (II Kings, 9 30) 2 To put a tire on (a wheel) tire (IV), n. See tifara (archaic and poet) A tiara tired, adj [1 tɪrd, 2 tɪrəd], fr PP of tire (I) 1 Fatigued, exhausted, weary, in mind or body, as from exertion 2 Tired of, uninterested in, out of patience with, sick of, bored with tired of life, of doing, hearing, the same thing so often, to get very tired of, constant complaints &c, (also absol) you can shout till you are tired, i.e. tired of shouting &c Also frequently, sick and tired of, thoroughly disgusted with and bored by tiredness, n [1 tɪrdnəs, 2 tɪrədɪnəs] Prec & -ness Fatigue, weariness tireless, adj [1 tɪrləs, 2 tɪrlɪs] tire (I) & -less 1 (of persons) Unworn, not easily fatigued, hence, very energetic, active, industrious 2 (of actions and activities) Showing no weariness on the part of performer, unwearied, ceaseless, unabated tireless energy, zeal, solicitude, industry &c tirelessly, adv Prec & -ly In a tireless manner tirelessness, n. See prec & -ness Quality of being tireless tiresome, adj [1 tɪrsəm, 2 tɪrsəm] tire (I) & -some 1 Annoying, worrying, provoking, irritating, plaguing a tiresome child, illness, piece of work 2 Tedious, devoid of interest, dull a tiresome lecture, sermon tiresomely, adv Prec & -ly In a tiresome way tiresomeness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being tiresome tire-woman, n, fr tire (III) (archaic) Female attendant, lady's maid, esp a dresser in a theatre tiring, adj [1 tɪrɪŋ, 2 tɪrɪŋ] fr Pres Part of tire (I) 1 tending to produce fatigue, exhausting a very tiring job 2 (more rarely) Tedious, boring tiring-room, n, fr tire (III) (archaic) Dressing room in a theatre tiro, tyro, n [1 tɪrə, 2 tɪrəʊ], fr Lat tiro, 'young, newly enlisted soldier, recruit, hence, beginner', etymol doubtful A beginner, a new, unskilled hand one who is inexperienced in some particular occupation, craft, exercise &c tirocinium, n [1 tɪrəˈsɪnɪəm, 2 tɪrəˈsɪnɪəm] Lat, the first military service or campaign of a young soldier, military inexperience, fr tiro, see prec Apprenticeship, first steps in, elements of, an art or accomplishment tirra-lirra, n [1 tɪrə lɪrə, 2 tɪrə lɪrə] Imitative of a bird's note Used to designate a gay, light hearted carolling, equivalent to trilala and such combinations, substituted for words in a song 'Tirra lirra by the river Sang Sir Lancelot' (Tennyson, 'Lady of Shalott', iii 1) tir-wit, n [1 tɪr wɪt, 2 tɪr wɪt] Imitative Psswit, lapwing tisane, n [1 tɪzən, 2 tɪzən] See ptisan. A medicinal tea, herbal decoction tissue (I), n [1 tɪʃu, tɪʃ, 2 tɪʃju, tɪʃu] Fr tissu, 'woven fabric', formed fr isser, 'to weave', fr Lat texere, 'to weave', q v under text 1 A woven fabric, generally used only of finely woven material, specif b light, gauzy silken material, esp one interwoven with gold or silver threads 2 (biol) The structural material of the body of plants or animals, consisting of groups of cells and the intercellular substance 3 Complicated, interwoven, series, web esp a tissue of lies, falsehoods, absurdities 4 Tissue paper tissue (II), vb trans, fr prec (rare) To form into a tissue tissued, adj [1 tɪʃəd, tɪʃəd, 2 tɪʃəd, tɪʃəd], fr PP of prec a Clothed, covered, with tissue, b variegated like tissue tissue-paper, n Kind of very thin, soft paper, used to wrap or protect delicate, fragile articles tit (I), n [1 tɪt, 2 tɪt] Variant of teat.

tit (II), n, in ME op O N titr, 'a bird, a small thing' 1 Any of various kinds of small, bright coloured birds 2 (archaic, rare) A poor, small horse, b a child, girl tit (III) Origin unknown Cp Fr tant pour tant Only in Phr (to give, pay) tit for tat, blow for blow, an equivalent for something received, retaliation

Titan, n [1 tɪtən, 2 tɪtən] Gk mythol. Titan, name of one of the primitive deities, the gigantic children of Uranus & Gaia, fr two of these, Cronos & Rhea, Zeus & the Olympians descended The name is cogn w Lat titio, 'a burning brand', see entice A person of heroic size and strength, or of surpassing genius and intellect, (also attrib) gigantic, enormous Titan strength &c, specif, Titan crane, a large crane for hoisting and moving very heavy weights, travelling on rails under its own motive power

Titanesque, adj [1 tɪtənɪk, 2 tɪtənɪk] Prec & -esque Resembling, characteristic of, a Titan, or the Titans

Titaness, n [1 tɪtənəs, 2 tɪtənəs] Titan & -ess Female Titan titanic, adj [1 tɪtənɪk, 2 tɪtənɪk] Titan & -ic 1 Huge, gigantic, colossal 2 (chem) Connected with, derived from, titanium.

titanic acid

titamite, n [1 tɪtəɪt, 2 tɪtəɪt] See prec. & -ite A mineral containing titanic acid, found in igneous rocks titanium, n [1 tɪtəniəm, 2 tɪtəniəm] See prec & -ium A grey coloured metallic element, somewhat resembling alumin, found only in combination.

titbit, n [1 tɪtbɪt, 2 tɪtbɪt] See tit (II) = 'small', & bit (I) A choice morsel, extra delicate or tender piece of food, (fig) a sploy item of news &c titiable, adj [1 tɪdɪəbəl, 2 tɪdɪəbəl] tithe & -able (of land) Subject to tithes tiths (I), n [1 tɪð, 2 tɪð] OE teogopa, teopa, 'tenth part', ME tithes, tithe, fr primitive tigunpa*, ep Goth taihunda, O N tund, formed fr numeral tegun*, '10', see ten & -th, tenth is a later formation.

1 A tenth part, specif, a portion of the supposed yearly profit derived from a given piece of land from stock &c, anciently set apart for the support of the Church 2 (popular usage) A small portion or proportion of anything, a fraction, in Phr not a tithe of, only a very small part tithe (II), vb trans, fr prec To impose a tithe upon tithe-barn, n One in which the grain representing the tithe payable by a parish was anciently stored tithe-pig, n Pig set apart as tithe titling, n [1 títling, 2 títling] OE tíþung, 'a group of ten (men)', see tithe (I) & -ing Ancient administrative unit, consisting formerly of ten households living near together titillate, vb trans [1 títlát, 2 títlést] Lat títillat (um), PP of títillare, 'to tickle', prob imitative of rapid movement To tickle, usually in non-physical sense, to stimulate the mind, excite pleasurably, to exhilarate titillation, n [1. títillashun, 2 títilé[sən]] Prec & -ion 1 Act, process, of titillating 2 A sensation of tickling, b sense of being stimulated, exhilarated titillative, adj [1 títílativ, 2 títílativ] titillate & -ive Serving to titillate, producing titillation titivate, títivate, vb trans & intrans [1 títivát, 2 títivést] Origin unknown 1 trans To smarten up, to make clean and tidy, and adorn 2 intrans To smarten oneself up, put finishing touches to one's toilet titivation, n [1 títiváshun, 2 títivé[sən]] Prec & -ion a Act of titivating, b results of this process, smartness, extra adornment titlark, n [1 títlark, 2 títlark] See tit (II)

tit, n [1 tít, 2 tít] M'E, fr O Fr titile, fr Lat titulus, 'inscription, superscription, label, title, honourable appellation', the etymol is entirely uncertain, & none of the various suggestions appears even at all plausible 1 Distinguishing, descriptive designation, or inscription, placed on the front page &c of a book, pamphlet, or other literary work, at the head of a chapter of a book &c, also, such a distinctive appellation given to a musical composition, to a picture, sculpture &c, appellation, name by which any of these things is known and identified 2 Appellation of honour and distinction, whether inherited, or conferred upon an individual, borne by him, and used in addressing, and referring to him, in addition to, or instead of, his name, in specific sense, a title means either an hereditary dignity, e.g. that of duke, earl, baron &c, that of baronet, or one specifically conferred by the sovereign or his representative, e.g. that of knighthood, more generally, the term is used in reference to appellations indicating rank, status, such as General, Admiral &c, to those indicating some particular office such as Professor, Judge &c, and to others designating a degree conferred by a university, such as Doctor 3 (law) The heading forming the name of an act or statute 4 a An admitted, recognized claim or right, the ground, reason, of a claim the Odes of Keats would alone be a sufficient title to a place among the greatest poets, specif b (law) the elements as a whole which constitute right of ownership of property, esp in land, also the document whereby such rights are established, title deed 5 (eccles) Usually defined as sphere of work and source of maintenance, evidence of which is required by a bishop before he admits a candidate to Holy Orders, that is, evidence that such a candidate has been nominated to a curacy, College Fellowship, chaplaincy &c 6 (bookbinding) Panel on back of book which bears the name titled, adj [1 títld, 2 títld] Prec & -ed Possessing a title, specif, possessing a title of nobility, a baronetcy, or a knighthood title-deed, n Document which establishes ownership, esp of land title page, n Front page of a book, which bears the title title-role, n That part or character in a play from which it takes its name, e.g. the part of Hamlet in the play of that name titling, n [1. títling, 2 títling] title & -ing

Act, process, of stamping the title on the back of a book titmouse, n [1 títmous, 2 títmaus] M'E títmōse, fr tit (II) & OE māse, 'titmouse', op OHG maisa, the modern form has been influenced by mouse Any one of the small birds belonging to the family Paridae, allied to the anthrac titrate, vb trans [1 títrát, 2 títrest] Fr titre, see titlo, & -ate To subject to titration titration, n [1 títtráshun, 2 títtré[sən]] Prec & -ion Process of ascertaining the strength of a chemical solution by noting the amount of a standardized solution which requires to be added to it in order to produce a definite chemical reaction titter, vb intrans & n [1 títter, 2 tít] Imitative of sound made 1 vb To utter a partially smothered laugh, to giggle 2 n A shrill, smothered laugh titile, n [1 títli, 2 títli] M'E títel, 'superscription' &c, see title 1 (obs) Dia-critical mark over a letter or word to indicate contraction &c 2 A minute amount, particle not a titile of evidence against him titile-tattle, n & vb intrans Redupl of tattle (I) 1 n Gossip, idle talk, chattering, rumour 2 vb To gossip, to put rumours about tittup, vb intrans & n [1 títup, 2 títap] Perh popular form of titubate 1 vb To behave in a gay, frolicsome manner, to prance gaily about 2 n Light-hearted frolic, lively, frisky movement tittuppy, adj [1 títupi, 2 títupi] Prec & -y 1 Gay, frolicsome, cheerful, and lively 2 Shaky, tottery, rocky, groggy titubate, vb intrans [1 títubát, 2 títubést] Lat títubāt (um), PP of títubāre, 'to stagger, totter, to stagger', according to Walde, fr base steub-* &c, cogn w stumble (obs or rare) a To reel in one's walk, to totter, b to stagger titubation, n [1 títubáshun, 2 títubé[sən]] Prec & -ion a Act of reeling, staggering &c, specif b (med.) unsteadiness in the gait due to some nervous disorder titular, adj & n [1 títular, 2 títul] Lat titulus, see title, & -ar 1 adj a Connected with, of the nature of, a title a titular distinction, b existing in name only, nominal, holding a title without in fact enjoying the dignity it connotes, or performing the functions of the office Charles Stuart, the Young Pretender, was titular Prince of Wales, titular bishop, bishop who holds the title of an extinct see, esp one the seat of which is now in Mohammedan possession 2 n The nominal holder of a title of an office, who does not perform the functions of the office titular prince, professor, bishop titular, adj & n [1 títulari, 2 títulari] Prec & -y Titular tityre-tu, n [1 títurá tít, 2 títuré tít] fr the opening words of Virgil's 1st Eclogue, 'O Tityrus, thou &c' Name of a class or gang of young, noisy, and ruffianly men of fashion, infesting the streets of London during the late 17th cent, esp during reign of Charles II tizzy, n [1 títzi, 2 títzi] Familiar form of tester (III) (obsolesc along) A sixpence tmessis, n [1 tméas, 2 tméas] Gk tmésis, 'a cutting', tm- is the 'vanishing' grade of Gk base tem, tom, op temnen, 'to cut', & tomé, 'a cutting', see under tome (gram) The interpolation of one or more words between the parts of a compound, thus dividing the word, e.g. what name soever, or (vulg) also blooming lately to (I), prep [1 tō, 2 tū] when stressed, the unstressed forms are [tə] before cons, & [tu] before vowels OE, OS, & O Fns to, OHG za, zuo &c, Germ zu, outside Gmc op Lat de, 'from, concerning' &c, see de-, O Slav do, 'up to, to, till' 1 Expressing movement towards, in the direction of, a (not implying arrival) turn, keep, to the right, go to the south, on the way to London, b (implying arrival) as far as I am going to London tomorrow, and leaving next day, you can't possibly get to Oxford tonight; to fall to the ground, to go to sea, Phr to and fro, backwards and forwards, there and back, see fro 2 Expressing a progress, change, trend, in direction of particular state, set of conditions or circumstances from bad to worse, brought to poverty, to sink to the worst depths of misery, to put to death, b movement into and retention of certain position, starting and continuance of an action stand to attention, to horse!, to arms! 3 Expressing a some precise stage, phase, point, reached, just as far as done to a turn, expressed to a nicety, shade, frozen to the marrow, wet to the skin, b extent, intensity, of some quality or action an Englishman to the core, sick to death, cut to the heart 4 Expressing a final point of duration in time, until from Saturday to Monday, stay to the end of June, conscious to the last, to the end of his life he refused to see his brother 5 Indicating the dative case relation, denoting the indirect object of an action, that to which the action is directed, person or thing affected by the action expressed by the verb, indicating the recipient, possessor, one to whom something is imparted &c to do harm to a person, listen to me, I look to you for help, attend to what is said, hand round the wine to the company, to give money to the poor, it belongs to me, I wouldn't tell this to everybody, I put it to you 6 Expressing comparison, compared with nothing to what it might have been, all former wars were mere child's play to the Great War, he's quite rich to what he once was 7 In numerous phrases and constructions expressing various relations and conditions, a effect, consequence to my great distress, to my delight, horror, to his cost, to his credit be it said &c, b opposition hand to hand, face to face, c amount, extent, it comes to ten pounds, the park extends to several thousand acres, d agreement quite to my taste, to the best of my belief, to my way of thinking, e adaptation, suitability boots made to any foot, drawn to scale, f addition, advantage I put this to what you already have, to have a handle to one's name, five pounds to one's credit, all to the good, g intention, purpose to that end, to the end that 8 Followed by unaltered form of verb to form infinitive, a expressing purpose I said that to test you, everything was done to please her, he fights to win, have come to see you, I bought this house to live in, this was made to be used, (archaic or provere) for to do, see &c, b used before the second of two verbs I want to see, to refuse to stay, begin to talk &c, also elliptically at end of sentence, with verb omitted when it has been previously mentioned he asked me to go to dinner, but I don't want to, haven't time to &c (go to dinner understood), c forming with following verb the equivalent of a noun 'To err is human, to forgive divine' (Pope), 'Eas on Crit', u 526), =error, forgiveness, to defy the law is a crime, =defiance of, it is foolish to speak of what one does not understand &c to (II), adv Same as preo 1 Towards, into, the normal, deared, position, condition &c, esp condition of repose push the door to shut the window to, I can't get the lid of my trunk quite to 2 After certain verbs bring to, come to, go to, fall to, leave to &c, see these verbs toad, n [1 tōd, 2 tōd] OE tídde, usually tídyge, etymol unknown Cp tadpole 1 Amphibian, genus Bufo, shaped like a frog, but terrestrial in habits except at breeding season, more squat in shape, and having a rough skin, and less apt to leap 2 a A disgusting, loathsome person, b (archaic) applied playfully and affectionately to a person, esp a child, without intention of disparagement the poor toad was delighted to see his mother again toad-eater, n 1 Originally, a mountebank's assistant who pretended to swallow toads in order to show his master's skill at curing him of the poisonous effects 2 A flatterer, an obsequious sycophant toad-eating, n Sycophancy, servility, obsequiousness toad-flax, n Common European plant, Linaria, one species of which has flowers of two shades of yellow, called also butter and eggs toad-in-the-hole, n [1 tɒd ɪn ðə hɒl, 2 tɒd ɪn ðə hɒl] Beef steak cooked in batter toadstone, n [1 tɒdstɒn, 2 tɒdstəʊn] Stone formerly supposed to be formed in body of a toad, and to possess powers as a charm toadstool, n [1 tɒdstʊl, 2 tɒdstʊl] Any of various fungi other than mushrooms, esp those of supposedly poisonous species toady, n & vb trans [1 tɒdi, 2 tɒdi] Prob fr toad-eater 1 n A servile flatterer, a truckling sycophant of the rich and powerful 2 vb To truckle to, and flatter grossly, with ulterior motives of self interest toast (I), vb trans & intrans [1 tɔst, 2 tɔust] 0 Fr toster, fr Lat tostum, PP of torere, 'to parch, roast', sses torrid A trans

1 To render brown and dry by direct exposure to fire 2 To warm thoroughly to toast oneself, one's feet, before the fire B in trans 1 To become toasted, become brown by exposure to the fire 2 To toast oneself toast (II), n 0 Fr toster, 'toasted bread', PP See prec 1 A slice of bread made brown and crisp on the outside by exposure to fire, b specif, such a slice soaked in hot wine, the wine together with the toast 2 A person's health, a patriotic or other sentiment proposed, and honoured by the company raising their glasses and drinking in agreement to propose the toast of the King, b person whose health is drunk, specif, a woman whose beauty and charm are frequently celebrated in toasts

Mary Lepel was a favourite toast in the mid 18th century, c act of proposing or honouring a toast toast (III), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To propose and drink the health of 2 intrans To drink toasts toaster, n [1 tɔstə, 2 tɔustə] Any of various devices for toasting bread &c toasting-fork, n [1 tɔstɪŋ fɔrk, 2 tɔustɪŋ fɔrk] Fork with a long handle with which bread is held before the fire to be toasted toast-master, n Official who announces the toasts about to be proposed at a public dinner &c toast-rack, n Small rack for holding slices of toast in vertical position on the table toast-water, n Drink made by steeping well-browned toast in boiling water tobacco, n [1 tɒhəko, 2 tɒhəkoʊ] Span tabaco, fr a Carib (Haiti) native word. 1 A solanaceous plant, genus Nicotiana, grown for its leaves, which are smoked in a pipe, grown also in gardens for its flowers

2 The leaves of this plant, dried and variously treated, used for chewing, for smoking in pipes and cigarettes, rolled into cigars, and reduced to a fine powder and used as snuff tobacco heart, n Affection of the heart due to excessive tobacco smoking tobacconist, n [1 tɒhəkʊnɪst, 2 tɒhəkənɪst] An irregular formation 1 Person who sells tobacco in all forms retail 2 (obs) In 17th and 18th cents, one who smoked tobacco tobacco-pipe, n Small tube of wood, meerschaum, clay &c, with mouth piece at one end, and a receptacle or bowl at the other, in which tobacco is smoked tobacco-ponch, n Bag or case of indiarubber leather, or other air tight material, in which tobacco is carried in the pocket toboggan, n & vb intrans [1 tɒbɒɡən, 2 tɒbɒɡən] fr Am Indian name 1 n Kind of sledge with flat bottom, without runners, having the forward end curved upward, much used in Switzerland for coasting down snow covered slopes 2 vb To use, travel, coast on, a toboggan toby jug, n [1 tɒbi jʌɡ, 2 tɒbi dʒəɡ] Jug or tankard of porcelain, used for ale, in form of a fat stout man gaily dressed in 18th century style, wearing a three cornered hat which forms the brim of the vessel toccata, n [1 tɒkətsə, 2 tɒkɪtsə] Ital, PP fem of toccare, see touch (I) Old musical composition for organ or piano, formerly intended as an exercise for the touch toccarella, n [1 tɒkətɛlə, 2 tɒkɪtɛlə] Ital dimin of prec Short or simple toccata tocology See tokology tocsin, n [1 tɒksɪn, 2 tɒksɪn] Fr, 'alarm bell', earlier toquesing, cp Fr touquer, 'to strike', see touch (I), & sign (I) A bell sounded to give an alarm, b the sound of, alarm sounded by, such a bell toe, n [1 tɔi, 2 tɔi] ON toði, 'mass, tuft' 1 (archaic) Bush, thick foliage 2 (proviso, from its bushy tail) A fox 3 (archaic) Weight of wool, usually 28 lbs

Toda, n [1 tɔdə, 2 tɔudə] Member of a tribe in the Nilgiri Hills of Hindustan, speaking a Dravidian language, and characterized by a fair complexion and regular features today, adv & n [1 tʊdeɪ, 2 tʊdeɪ] OE to dæge, also uninflected ðedæg, see to (I) & day 1 adv a On this day, b at this present time, in the age in which we live our ideas today differ much from those prevalent in the 18th century 2 n This present time toddle (I), vb intrans [1 tɒdl, 2 tɒdl] Frag of totter 1 To walk with short, hesitating, uncertain steps, as a child does, to walk like a very young child. 2 (colloq) a To walk, stroll, in a quiet unhurried manner do you feel inclined to toddle down to the club?, b to take one's departure it's getting late, we must be toddling toddle (II), n, fr prec A Act of toddling, b a quiet, leisurely walk, stroll toddler, n [1 tɒdlə, 2 tɒdlə] toddle (I) & -er Person who toddles, specif, a young child just learning, or having just learnt to walk today, n [1 tɔdi, 2 tɔdi] Hind tārī, juice of palmyra tree' A drink composed of spirits, sugar, lemon, and hot water, punch to-do, n [1 tʊ dʊ, 2 tʊ dʊ] See to (I) & do (I) An ado, a fuss, commotion to make a terrible to do about losing one's luggage toe, n [1 tɔi, 2 tɔi] fr Fr toder, fr Lat todus, 'hind of small hind' A small brightly coloured W Indian bird allied to the kingfishers, living on insects and nesting in the banks of streams and rivers toe (I), n [1 tɔi, 2 tɔi] OE ta, āhe, ME tā, OHG zēha, org. the pointer', cogn w Lat digitus (*fr digitus), 'finger, toe', see digit, *fr hase dōi-, dōi-*, &c, see also diction, teach, token 1 a (in man and monkey) One of the digits of the feet corresponding to the fingers of the hand, Phrs to tread on a person's toes, wound his concepts hitties, to turn up one's toes, to die, from top to toe, from head to foot, big, great, toe, largest of the toes on a human foot, corresponding to the thumb of the hand, little toe, smallest, outside, toe of human foot, b (in other animals) one of the digits on fore or hind foot 2 a That part of a boot, shoe, stocking &c which covers the toes, b projecting point on under side of a horse shoe, designed to prevent slipping 3 The fore part of the foot, contrasted with heel 4 (colloq) The foot of man as a whole to toast one's toes, warm one's feet 5 The outer end of the toe (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To put a toe (cap) on to boots to be toed and heeled 2 To bring the toes level with to toe the line, originally of line marked at starting point of a race, (fig) to submit to discipline, conform to orders, custom &c 3 (slang) To kick with the toes to toe a person out of the room & 4 (golf) To strike (a ball) with part of club too near the toe toe-cap, n That part of a boot or shoe which covers the toes, usually made separate from the rest of the boot.

-toed, suff [1 tɔd, 2 tɔud] toe (I) & -ed As second element of compounds, having a particular kind of toe or certain number of toes square toed, three toed &c toe-drop, n Paralysis of foot muscles which causes inability to raise the toes toe-nail, n Nail growing upon a toe toff, n [1 tɔf, tɔwɪ, 2 tɔf, tɔf] Origin unknown (lower class slang) a A swell, a dandy, b a person of the better classes, a gentleman toffee, toffy, n [1 tɔfi, 2 tɔfi] Also Scots & US A. taffy, origin doubtful Compound of sugar and butter, boiled till it becomes thick, then poured into a dish and allowed to cool and harden toft, n [1 tɔft, 2 tɔft] In OE, 'piece of ground, hillock', fr ON toft, 'a green knoll, site marked out for a house' (only proviso, and in place names) a A knoll, hillock, b a homestead tog, vb trans [1 tɔɡ, 2 tɔɡ] fr togs (slang) Chiefly to go out, to dress, esp carefully and elaborately togged out in full uniform toga, n [1 tɔɡə, 2 tɔɡə] Lat toga, 'garment, esp the outer garment of a Roman citizen in peace, assumed at age of 14 as sign of manhood', connected w tegere, 'to cover', see this has under tegument, cp thatch (I) togaed, adj [1 tɔɡəd, 2 tɔɡəd] Clad in, wearing, a toga together, adv [1 təɡəðə, 2 təɡeðə] OE togedere, see to (I) & gather (I) 1 In company, associated one with another to go about together, to live together, specif of persons of opposite sex, to live as man and wife 2 Against each other, in mutually hostile conjunction I can't have you two boys always fighting together 3 Towards each other, in conjunction, so as to form a contact the opposing forces rushed together, to bring the blades of a pair of scissors together 4 (of time) a (of divisions of time) In continuous succession, uninterruptedly, on end to ponder for hours together, b (of events happening in time) at one and the same time or moment, synchronously all my troubles seem to come upon me together 5 Together with, in combination with, also, as well as, in addition to I am sending you a dozen new laid eggs, together with some fresh butter togger, n [1 tɔɡə, 2 tɔɡə] Oxford University slang for torpid (II), college boat in the Lent Term races Pl toggers, inter-collegiate boat races in Lent Term togger, n [1 tɔɡəri, 2 tɔɡəri] See togs & -ery (colloq) Clothes collectively, esp some special kind of dress, uniform &c an actor's, a bishop's, general's, togger toggle, n & vb trans [1 tɔɡl, 2 tɔɡl] Etymol uncertain, perh connected w tug (I) 1 n A metal pin fixed at right angles in the strands of a rope and projecting at either side, to serve as a means for holding another rope hitched over it 2 vb To fasten by means of a toggle toggle-joint, n Device for applying pressure sideways, consisting of two bars crossing each other near the ends, and pivoted or jointed together, so that force directed to straighten the joint is transmitted to the other end of each bar togs, n pl [1 tɔgz, 2 tɔgz] fr toga ? (slang, esp naut) Clothes, dress fine new togs toil (I), n [1 tɔil, 2 tɔil] Fr toile, 'cloth', fr Lat tela, 'woven stuff, web', *fr tel-, cp Lat texere, 'to weave', see text Only used in pl toils, net, meshes, snare, in the fascinated, charmed, under a spell &c toil (II), vb intrans ME tolen, fr O Fr tollere, 'to pull, drag about, cause to roll' &c, Lat tudicare, 'to stir', fr tudicare, 'to thrust, push', fr tudis stem of tudere, 'hammer', connected w the nasalized tundere, 'to strike'. Both nasalized & unnasalized forms of this base occur in other languages, cp Sert. tundaiz, & tudat, 'he pushes, strikes, pricks'.

See also contuse 1 To exert strength, to work hard, labour, also toil at, to work at laboriously 2 To go along, walk, painfully and with effort to toil up hill, to toil along the road &c toil (III), n, fr prec Severe, tedious labour, exacting, fatiguing work, drudgery toiler, n [1 toiler, 2 tóila] toil (I) & -er One who toils, a hard worker toilet, n [1 toilet, 2 tóilt], fr toilette, dimin of toile, 'cloth', see toil (I) 1 (formerly, now obs) A cloth for covering something, a one put over the shoulders while the hair was being dressed, b bag for night clothes. 2 A Process of dressing to spend time on one's toilet, b mode of dressing, a female costume colour was given by the brilliant toilets of the ladies toilet-cover, n Cloth or sheet placed over dressing table toilet-paper, n Thin sheets used in the privy toilet-powder, n Soothing powder applied to the skin after shaving &c toilet-set, n Set of articles and utensils used in the toilet toilet-table, n Dressing table toilful, adj [1 toilful, 2 tóilful] toil (III) & -ful Involving toil, toilsome toilfully, adv prec & -ly With toil, laboriously toilsome, adj [1 tóilsum, 2 tóisem] toil (III) & -some Laborious, wearying, involving toil toilsomely, adv prec & -ly Laboriously toilsomeness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being toilsome, laboriousness toison d'or, n [1 twahzon dór, 2 twaz dór] Fr The Golden Fleece Tokay, n [1 tóká, 2 tóuké], fr place in Hungary 1 A rob, scarce, Hungarian wine coming from Tokay 2 A kind of grape used in the making of this wine token, n [1 tóken, 2 toukan] OE tācn, 'sign, token, emblem' &c, ME tōken, OS tekan, OHG zeihhan, Goth teikns, all fr Gmc teikn-*, see also teach, fr base deik-, dīk- &c, 'to show, tell, point out' &c, op Gk deiknān, 'I show' &c, Lat dicere, 'to show, say, tell', see dictation 1 A symbol, evidence a token of respect, regard, affection &c, in token of, as a sign, as evidence of Phr by the same token, to introduce additional or amplifying statement 2 Object used, or given, as a symbol and sign of some quality, feeling, value &c, specif, a piece of metal formerly used by tradesmen and others instead of, but representing, money, (also attrib) token-money, see precoding sense, token vote, money vote taken in Parliament for specific purposes, with nominal sum stated, the full amount being afterwards voted under a supplementary estimate tokenless, adj [1 tókenles, 2 tóukenles] prec & -less Without, lacking, a token tokology, tocology, n [1 tokoloj, 2 tókóladz], fr Gk tolos, 'birth, offspring, child', fr base tel-*, op telēn, 'to produce, beget offspring', teknon, 'child', op thane & see -logy The science of obstetrics, midwifery tola, n [1 tóla, 2 tóula] Hind, fr Sert tulā, 'weight' An Indian weight, 180 grains toilbooth, n See toil(l)booth told, vb [1 tóld, 2 tóuld] OE talde, (ge)talde (op WS tealde), ME told(e), pret & PP of tell

Toledo, Toledo blade, n [1 tóldō (blād), 2 tóuldou (blēd)] Sword-blade of finely tempered steel made at Toledo in Spain tolerability, n [1 tólerabilitá, 2 tólarabílité] See next word & -ity Quality, estate, of being tolerable tolerable, adj [1 tólerabl, 2 tólerébl] Lat tolerābilis, see tolerate & -able 1 Endurable, capable of being borne the pain was severe but tolerable 2 A fairly good, neither of the highest excellence nor such as to merit severe condemnation the food was good and the company tolerable, b (colloq) in fairly good health, pretty well tolerably, adv prec & -ly Moderately, fairly, to a moderate degree or extent, (usually in favourable sense) tolerably well, tolerably satisfied tolerance, n [1 tólerans, 2 tólerans] Lat tolerantia, see tolerant & -ce Disposition of mind which is inclined to tolerate, and show forbearance to, opinions, beliefs, which one does not share, or a line of action which one does not approve of, toleration, reverse of bigotry tolerant, adj [1 tólerant, 2 tólerant], fr Lat tolerans (em), pres Part of tolerāre, 'to bear, endure', see tolerate 1 Disposed to tolerate, forbearing, indulgent, esp to opinions and lines of conduct which are not one's own 2 (med) Capable of bearing the action of a drug, inured by habit to considerable doses of poisonous drugs without suffering injury tolerate, vb trans [1 tólerāt, 2 tólerēt], fr Lat tolerāre (um), PP of tolerāre, 'to bear, sustain, endure' &c, fr same base as tolere, 'to lift up, to accept', cogn w Gk talanton, 'weight', see talent, also w Lat latus for latus*, 'borne', & Gk lēmōn, 'enduring', OE polian, 'to endure', see thole (I) 1 a To endure, show forbearance to, bear with, put up with tolerate a person's presence, b to show toleration of the opinions, beliefs &c of others 2 To be able to resist or endure his delicate constitution could not tolerate the severities of a northern climate 3 To permit, suffer to be done without attempting to prevent I will not tolerate interference in my affairs, no responsible government can tolerate disregard of the law toleration, n [1 tólerášum, 2 tólerášun] prec & -ion Act of tolerating, mental disposition to allow freedom of opinion and belief &c to others, tolerance, practice of allowing such freedom, esp in religious beliefs tolerationist, n [1 tólerášuníst, 2 tólerášuníst] prec & -ist One who advocates toleration, esp in religion toll (I), vb trans & intrans [1 tól, 2 toul] In ME, stymol uncertain, partly imitative 1 trans To cause to sound or ring in a series of strokes repeated at regular intervals to toll a bell, to toll a funeral knell

2 intrans To sound, ring, clang, with a series of regularly repeated strokes (of a bell) toll (II), n, fr prec The sound made by the tolling of a bell toll (III), n OE toll, 'a tax, money due for rent' &c, OS tol, OHG zol, all fr L Lat tolōnum, op telōneum, 'toll house', fr Gk telōnion, op telōnē, 'tax collector', & telos, 'tax' 1 a Tax, duty, paid for some privilege, specif, one paid for the right to pass along a road, or over a bridge, for use of a market &c, b the right to exact a toll 2 Portion of grain kept by miller in payment for grinding, hence Phr to take toll of, to exact something from tollable, adj [1 tólabl, 2 tóulebl] prec & -able Subject to toll tollage, n [1 tólj, 2 tóuldz] See prec & -age Payment, exaction, of toll toll-bar, n Toll gate toll(l)booth, n [1 tólbóth, 2 tólbúþ] Scots 1 Formerly, temporary shed erected at a market &c for payment of tolls 2 (Scots) Town prison toll-gate, n Gate placed across high road, kept closed to prevent persons and vehicles from passing until the toll is paid toll-house, n House at a toll gate, where the keeper of this lives

Toltec, n [1 tóltec, 2 tóltec] Race possessing considerable civilization, who preceded the Aztecs in Mexico tolu, n [1 tólo, 2 tóulu], fr Santiago de Tolu Also tolu balsam, an aromatic resin obtained from a S American tree, used medicinally and in perfumery toluene, toluol, n [1 tóloēn, tóliōl, 2 tóluin, tóluol], fr prec & second element of ben-zone, benzol An aromatic hydrocarbon obtained by distillation of tolu balsam, and from coal tar, used in dyeing and manufacture of explosives tom, n [1 tom; 2 tóm] Abbr of Thomas 1 (esp) Tom, Dick, and Harry, all sorts and conditions, people in general without selection, anybody and everybody 2 Denotes the male of certain animals, esp of the cat tomahawk, n & vb trans [1 tóma-hawk, 2 tómahók] Am Indian 1 n A light axe or hatchet used by American Indians, often made with a hollow handle, the passage in which communicates with a bowl on reverse side of handle to the blade, so that the weapon can also be used as a tobacco pipe 2 vb To strike, kill, with a tomahawk tomalley, n [1 tómáí, 2 tómáí], fr tourmalin, on account of colour Liver of a lobster, which turns green when boiled toman, n [1 tómahn, 2 tómán] Pers, 'beap, ten thousand' Persian gold coin worth about 7s tomato, n, pl tomatoes [1 tómáhtō, 2 tómáhtou] Span tomate, fr Mex tomatl a trailing plant, Lycopersicon esculentum, native of S America, bearing juicy, acid fruit, red or yellow when ripe, b fruit of this, much used for salads tomb (I), n [1 tóum, 2 túm] ME, fr O Fr tombe, fr Lat tumba, fr Gk tumbos, cogn w tumulus 1 a A grave in which the dead are buried, b a cavity in the earth, vault, in which the dead are deposited, c a monument erected over a grave or vault 2 (fig) The tomb, death, cp the grave tomb (II), vb trans (rare) To place in a tomb, to entomb tombac, n [1 tómbak, 2 tómbæk] Port tambaca, fr Malay tambaga, 'copper' Alloy of copper and zinc, used in making cheap jewellery tombola, n [1 tómbóla, 2 tómboule] Ital, fr tombolare, see tumble (I) Kind of lottery tombol, n [1 tómbol, 2 tómból] A noisy, romping girl, (not in derogatory sense) tombstone, n [1 tóumstōn, 2 tóumstoun] Stone placed over a grave recording the name, dates of birth and death &c of the deceased tomcat, n [1 tómkát, 2 tómkæt] Male cat tone, n [1 tóm, 2 tóum] Fr, fr Lat tonus, fr Gk tónos, 'piece cut off, section', cogn w Gk ténnein, 'to cut', op tenes, O Russ timet, 'he strikes', op also

-tonny 1 A volume, a book, esp a large, ponderous volume 2 A part, a volume, of a large work, usually bound separately

-tome, suff See prec Form used in compounds, in sense of a section, part, b instrument for cutting tomentose, adj [1 tómentos, 2 tóumentous] See next word & -ose Covered with long or matted hairs tomentum, n [1 tómentum, 2 tóumentum] Lat, 'stuffing for cushions' (of wool, hair &c), for tomentum*, fr same base as in lotus 'all', see total (I), & tumēre, 'to swell', see tumid (bot) Covering of dense, matted, woolly hairs tomfool, n [1 tómfóol, 2 tómfúl] A great fool, perfect fool, a silly buffoon tomfoolery, n [1 tómfóler, 2 tómfúlér] prec & -ery Buffoonery, stupid, senseless behaviour, nonsense tommy, n [1 tómi, 2 tómi] Familiar form of Thomas 1 (esp) A private soldier, also Tommy Atkins 2 Provisions given to workmen in lieu of wages, tommy shop, one where practice of providing tommy prevails 3 (slang) tommy rot, rank foolishness, absurd nonsense tomorrow, n & adv [1 tómorō, 2 támorōu] to (I) & morrow 1 n The day which follows today let us hope tomorrow will be fine 2 adv On the day following today we shall meet tomorrow tompion, n [1 tómpion, 2 tómpion] Variant of tampion Pad for inking, used in lithography tone, n [1 tóntit, 2 tóntic] Name or a bird, also called blue titmouse tontom, n [1 tóntom, 2 tóntom] Hind tamtam, imitative Primitive kind of drum used in India

-tomy, suff fr Gk. tomia, fr tomē, 'a cutting, section', see tome Indicates 'cutting', e.g. anatomy, ovariotomy &c ton (I), n [1 tun, 2 tan] Variant spelling of tun 1 A weight consisting of 20 hundredweights, the long or gross ton, of 2240 lb avoirdupois, the short, American, ton, of 2000 lb, metric ton, 1000 kilograms, 2204.6 lb, b (colloq and loosely) (1) a very heavy weight this box of yours weighs a ton, ie is very heavy, (u) a large quantity tons of money, you have tons of time, plenty of time, with tons of love &c 2 A measure of amount, volume, or capacity, varying with the article, as of timber, gravel, coke, wheat &c 3 (naut.) a Displacement ton, 35 cubic feet of water, b freight ton, 40 cubic feet, c register ton, 100 cubic feet ton (II), n [1 ton, 2 tñ] Fr, see tone (I) Stylo, fashion, vogue tonal, adj [1 tónal, 2 tónal] tone (I) & -al Connected with, pertaining to, tone or tonality tonality, n [1 tónaliti, 2 tónaliti] tonal & -ity 1 (mus) Quality of a composition derived from its key or from its system of tones 2 (paint) Quality, scheme, of colour tondo, n [1 tóndo, 2 tñdnu] Ital, 'round plate', fr Lat rotundus, see rotund A circular painted panel or canvas, b a sculptured relief in circular form tone (I), n [1 tón, 2 toun] Fr ton, fr Lat tonus, 'sound, tone, of an instrument', fr Gk tonos, 'that which tightens, or which can itself be strained or tightened, a cord, rope, a tightening, strain, a pitching of the voice, hoarse, a musical note', op Gk tenem, 'to stretch, strain, extend', fr ten-jo, base ten, 'tens, whences also thin, also Lat tenus, 'slight', see tenuis, & tenuity, & up tend (II) &c 1 Sound, esp conceived of as possessing a certain quality, resonance, pitch &c, a musical sound the tones of the voice, of a harp &c, sweet, silvery, harsh, gentle, tones 2 Pitch of the voice, modulation of this in speaking, as expressing varying emotion angry, loving tones a tone of encreasy, opology &c 3 (mus) The larger interval between the notes of the diatonic scale, as distinguished from semitone 4 (phon) One kind of accent, an intonation, degree of pitch in the voice in speaking, the note on which a given word or syllable is uttered, contrasted with stress 5 (med.) State of body or mind in which the organs and functions are vigorous 6 Prevailing spirit, mental attitude, moral atmosphere a school with a good health, tone the tone of a letter, the general tone of the speech was gloomy, frivolous, solemn &c 7 Shade, degree of intensity of colour, hue tone (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A. trans 1 To impart tone to, to sound, b of colour 2 Beautify (photog) to modify colour of by treating chemically B followed by adverb or preposition. To be down, 1. trans a. to reduce intensity of colouring of, b (fig.) to mitigate, diminish violence, in temp. of (pass. cis) opinions &c or their expression) to subdue render less marked and not real 2. intrans, to become subdued, to cease to be marked, to become calm, to become subdued, to be a subdued locution to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression,
to be a subdued tone, to be a subdued
expression, to be a subdued tone, to be a
subdued expression, to be a subdued tone,
to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued
tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a
subdued tone, to be a subdued expression, to be a subdued tone, to be took, vb [1 took, 2 tuk] L O E tōc, M E tōk, Pret of take tool (I), n [1 tōl, 2 tūl] O E tōl, not found in other Gmc languages, prob formed fr the base seen in O E tōwian, 'to prepare land for sowing', getāwe, 'apparatus', see taw (I), op Goth tawjan, 'to make, do, effect', tēwa, 'order, arrangement', taw, 'work' 1 A Any of a large variety of implements, instruments, utensils, used in making things, in shaping, working, preparing material &c, esp an implement held in, and worked by the hand, as distinguished from one moved by machinery carpenter's, gardener's, blacksmith's tools &c, b that part of a machine or mechanical contrivance which actually does the cutting, shaping &c, usually machine tool, o specif, a tool used by a bookbinder in decorating the cover of a book 2 The means whereby an occupation is pursued, aid in, equipment for, intellectual work books are the tools of a scholar, the tools of one's trade 3 (usually derogatory) A person used by another to perform actions, esp of a discreditable character, on his behalf, without the real mover appearing, a cat's paw, a servile confederate who acts as the instrument of another's will, person who acts entirely at the instigation of another, a puppet tool (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To use a tool upon, specif, to decorate back or edges of a book cover with a tool 2 (colloq) To drive a person in a leisurely manner in a vehicle let me tool you down to the station B intrans (colloq) To ride or drive oneself in an easy, leisurely way, also tool along, to bowl along tooling along the road in fine style tool-box, -chest, n Box specially designed, and used, for keeping tools tooler, n [1 tōlēr, 2 tūlēr] tool (II) & er Broad chisel for dressing stone tooling, n [1 tōlūng, 2 tūlūng] See prec & -ing 1 Mode of dressing stone, so that the marks of the chisel are left 2 Ornamentation, often gilt, made by pressing with a tool, on book bindings toon, n [1 tōn, 2 tūn] Hind tun, tuna An East Indian tree with fine grained reddish wood, used for furniture-making, sometimes known as Indian mahogany toot, vb intrans & n [1 tōt, 2 tūt] Prob imitative, the same word in very similar form exists in Du & Soand languages 1 vb To blow a horn, to sound like the note of a horn, to hoot 2 n The sound of tooting or hooting tooth (I), n [1 tōth, 2 tūp] O E tōp, M E tōth &c, fr earlier tanp-*, cogn w O S tand, O H G zand, Germ zahn, Goth tunpus, fr participial base (e)dent*, (e)odont-* &c, fr ed*, whence also eat, cogn w Sert danta, Gk odontos, see odont-, Lat dent, see dental, cp also tusk 1 One of the hard, ivory-like objects in the gums of human beings and the lower animals which serve to masticate food, and, for the latter, as weapons of attack and defence Phrs to cast something in a person's teeth, to reproach him with it, in the teeth of, in opposition to, in spite of, to draw a person's teeth, (i) to deprive him of his chief ground of complaint, (ii) to render him harmless, mollify him, to fight, oppose, loath and nail, with the utmost fierceness or energy, armed to the teeth, very completely armed, (to escape) by (properly with) the skin of one's teeth, by very slight margin, very narrowly, to have a sweet tooth, to be fond of sweet things, to set one's teeth on edge, disgust, cause to shudder, to show one's teeth, to exhibit anger, resentment &c 2 Any of various objects resembling, or supposed to resemble, a tooth, e.g. one of the separate divisions of a comb or saw, one of the projecting points or cogs on a wheel &c tooth (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To furnish (a wheel &c) with teeth 2 intrans To interlock, as the teeth or cogs on two engaged wheels toothache, n [1 tōthāk, 2 tūpēk] Pain in the nerves of the teeth tooth-billed, adj [1 tōth bīld, 2 tūp bīld] Having a bill the edges of which have projections or notches tooth-brush, n Small brush for washing the teeth toothful, n [1 tōthfool, 2 tūpful] (of brandy &c) A smell draught tooth-paste, n Cleansing, antiseptic paste used in brushing the teeth toothpick, n [1 tōthpik, 2 tūppik] Small instrument with pliable point and end, of quill, gold &c, for dislodging portions of food from between the teeth tooth-powder, n Medicated, gritty powder, used on tooth-brush, for cleansing the teeth toothsome, adj [1 tōthsum, 2 tūpsēm] tooth (I) & -some Dainty, choice, agreeable to the taste tootle, vb intrans & n [1 tōtūl, 2 tūtūl] Freq of toot 1 vb To toot, or hoot, repeatedly but not loudly, on a flute, horn &c 2 n The sound made by one who tootles top (I), n [1 top, 2 top] O E topp, 'summit', O H G zopf, 'tuft of hair, top of a tree', O N topp, 'tuft of hair, crest, summit' 1 A The highest part of anything, summit the top of the head, of a hill, house, tree, Phrs the top of the tree, ladder, highest point of success, excellence, highest rank, from top to toe, from head to foot, to come out on top, to beat others in a contest, be successful in life, on top of everything else &c, in addition to, as a last straw, b the upper portion of a flat surface the top of the page 2 Specif, kind of platform near the head of a ship's mast, to which part of rigging is fastened, and upon which men stand in taking in sail &c, also (pl) the tops 3 A tuft springing from the top of anything 4 Upper surface, outer side of anything on the top of the ground 5 That part of a plant above the ground, contrasted with the root 6 The greatest degree of intensity, fullest extent at the top of one's voice, very loud, the top of one's speed Phr to the top of one's bent, as much as one could desire 7 The highest, most honourable, position, rank, the highest place attainable the top of one's profession, the top of a class 8 Specif, a long fibre of wool after combing, fashioned into a conical shape for spinning, contrasted with noil, the short fibre top (II), adj, fr prec 1 Nearest to, or at the top, highest the top shelf, layer, step, top right-hand corner (of a page &c), top rung of a ladder &c Phr (fig) top rung, highest point of success, chief position 2 Having the greatest degree of intensity top speed, top price(s), highest price reached 3 Chief, foremost, highest in rank &c the top place in a class top (III), vb trans, fr top (I) 1 To furnish with a top, cover top of 2 To cut off top of to top a tree 3 To touch, strike, on upper part, above the centre to top a golf ball 4 To reach to the top of, come level with the wood just tops the rising ground 5 To surpass in height, reach beyond top of he tops his father by half a head, (also fig) be superior to his performance tops all previous records top (IV), n O E top, fr M H G topf, etymol doubtful Child's toy of wood or metal, usually pear-shaped and tapering to a point, or round, having a central metal point upon which it is made to spin either by whipping, or by means of a string wound round it and unwound by a sudden jerk topaz, n [1 tōpaz, 2 tūpaz] Lat, fr Gk topazos, etymol uncertain Semi precious stone, usually yellow, but sometimes white, or bluish top-boot, n Riding boot reaching to just below the knee, having a band of light-coloured leather round the top topcoat, n [1 tōpkōt, 2 tūpkōt] Coat worn above another coat, overcoat top-dress, vb trans To apply top-dressing to top-dressing, n Manure applied on the surface of the ground. tope (I), vb intrans & trans [1 tōp, 2 tōwp] Fr tope, etymol doubtful 1 intrans To drink alcoholic liquor frequently and to excess 2 trans To drink (strong liquor) frequently and excessively tope (II), n Etymol. unknown A small kind of shark, dogfish tope (III), n Hind tōp Cylindrical towers surmounted by a cupola, containing a Buddhist shrine topees See topi topek, n [1 tōpek, 2 tōupek] Eskimo tupel Eskimo hut of wood or some substance other than snow topey, n [1 tōper, 2 tōupe] tope (I) & -er One who topes, a drunkard topgallant, adj [1 topgalant, 2 tōpgalant] (naut) Designating a position above top mast and below royal mast top-hamper, n 1 The upper rigging of a ship 2 The upper, smaller boughs or the thinner upper part of the stem of a large tree top-hat, n Tall hat, silk hat top-heavy, adj Ill-balanced through having the upper part too heavy for the base, inclined to topple over Tophet, n [1 tōfet, 2 tōufet] Heb topheth, 'place to be spat upon' Place in valley of Hinnom, near Jerusalem, where rubbish was perpetually being burnt, and where sacrifices to Moloch were performed top-hole, adj (slang) Excellent, first rate, top top tophus, n [1 tōfus, 2 tōufas] fr Fr, in Engl sense, op tufa Calcareous deposit round the teeth, gouty concretion in, or on, a joint topi, topee, n [1 tōpē, 2 tōupē] Hind tōpi A pith hat or helmet, usually sola topi topiary, n [1 tōpiari, 2 tōupari] Lat topiarius, 'landscape gardener', fr topia, 'mural decoration depicting landscapes of fanciful character', fr Gk tōpos, 'place', see next word The art of outlining living trees, esp yews and boxes, into shapes of animals, birds, and other objects topie, n [1 tōpik, 2 tōpik] Gk topiōs, 'belonging to a place, concerning tōpos, i.e. commonplaces', fr tōpos, 'a place', prob cogn w Lat tēpti, 'to become', possibly also w O E pafian, 'to consent', assuming that the orig meaning was 'to yield place to', cp allow for similar development 1 Theme, subject, of thought, also, subject of discourse, conversation, discussion &c 2 One of the forms of argument employed in probatio, as distinct from demonstratio, reasoning, source from which arguments may be drawn topical, adj [1 tōpikl, 2 tōpikl] Prec & -al 1 Connected with a subject of current or local interest 2 Of the nature of a topic or general principle 3 (med) Affecting a particular area of the body only topically, adv Prec & -ly In a topical manner topknot, n [1 tōpnot, 2 tōpnot] 1 A tuft or bunch, projecting from the top of anything, specif a tuft of hair or curl on the top of the head, b (colloq) the head itself 2 Species of flounder topless, adj [1 tōples, 2 tōplis] top (I) & -less Having the top so high as to be invisible, hence very lofty, of a height so great that it cannot be estimated 'the topless towers of Ilium' (Marlowe's 'Faustus') top-light, n Lantern in a ship's tops topmast, n [1 topmahst, 2 tōpmahst] Mast between the lower and the topgallant mast topmost, adj [1 tōpmōst, 2 tōpmōust] Highest, chief, highest in importance or position topo-, pref, fr Gk tōpos, 'place', see topio topographer, n [1 tōpōgrāfer, 2 tōpōgrāf] topo- & -grapher One who describes a place or area, student of, one skilled in, topography topographic(al), adj [1 tɒpɒɡrəfɪk(l), 2 tɒpəɡrəfɪk(l)] topo- & grapho(al) Connected with topography, descriptive of an area or locality topographer, n [1 tɒpɒɡrəfɪst, 2 tɒpəɡrəfɪst] topography & -ist Topographer topography, n [1 tɒpɒɡrəfi, 2 tɒpəɡrəfi] topo- & -graphy 1 Systematic, detailed, description of a place, city &c, or of an area of country 2 General characteristics and relative disposition of geographical and other features of a region.

topology, n [1 tɒpɒlədʒi, 2 tɒpɒlədʒi] topo- & -logy Study of topography toponymy, n [1 tɒpɒnɒmi, 2 tɒpɒnɒmi], fr topo- & Gk ónoma, 'name', see onomatopoeia Nomenclature, a of places, b of regions of the body topper, n [1 tɒpə, 2 tɒpə] top (II) & -er 1 Something which lies or is placed on the top, a large stone used as top course of a wall, often set edgewise, b (slang) a top-bat 2 (colloq) Person who, thing which, tops or surpasses others, specif, term of praise of persons, a good fellow, good sort, a thoroughly admirable and likable person.

topping (I), vhl n [1 tɒpɪŋ, 2 tɒpɪŋ] top (II) & -ing 1 Act of one who tops or removes top 2 Part removed from, cut off, the top of anything 3 That which forms the top of anything topping (II), adj, fr Pres Part of top (II) Higher than, superior to, hence (colloq) term of indiscriminate praise, excellent, very good, first rate, agreeable, delightful a topping fellow, a topping dinner &c toppingly, adv Prec & -ly (colloq) In a topping manner, excellently the car ran simply toppingly topple vb intrans & trans [1 tɒpl, 2 tɒpl] Freq formed fr top (II), lit 'to fall because top heavy' 1 intrans a To totter, rock, to overbalance, to be on the point of falling, b topple over, to lose balance and fall over, c topple down, (of an edifice, pile, single object) to tumble down, tip over 2 trans a To cause to totter or to be unsteady, b topple over, push over, c topple down, to send tumbling down.

topsail, n [1 tɒpsəl, 2 tɒpsəl] Square sail next above lowest top-sawyer, n 1 Man who occupies upper place in sawing in a pit 2 (archaic) Person occupying prominent, important position in life top-shaped, adj top (III) Shaped like a top, pear shaped.

topside, n pl [1 tɒpsaɪd, 2 tɒpsaɪd] Upper part of ship's ends, above water topsy-turvy, adv, adj, n [1 tɒpsɪtɜːrvi, 2 tɒpsɪtɜːrvi] topsy = top so, for turvy cp OE tearftan, 'to roll' 1 adv & adj Up side down, in confusion, upset, confused, the wrong way about 2 n. State of confusion, a muddle topsy-turvydom, n [1 tɒpsɪtɜːrvɪdɒm, 2 tɒpsɪtɜːrvɪdɒm] Prec & -dom Condition of upset and confusion, whether in material objects or in ideas, affairs &c, an inversion of natural order and conditions toque, n [1 tɒk, 2 tɒk] Fr, fr Celt 1 Small, close fitting, round hat, esp as worn by women 2 Monkey found in Ceylon, Macaca pileata, the hair on the head of which gives it the appearance of wearing a cap tor, n [1 tɔː, 2 tɔː] OE torr, a Celt loan-word, cp OW torr, W tor, 'a boss' A high rocky pointed hill, now chiefly of such hills on Dartmoor torah, n [1 tɔːrə, 2 tɔːrə] Heb A law, precept, b divine revelation of law, specif, the Pentateuch toran, n [1 tɔːrən, 2 tɔːrən] Sort tōrana, archway, gate The ceremonial gateway to a Buddhist temple torch, n [1 tɔːtʃ, 2 tɔːtʃ] ME, fr O Fr torche, 'rag, wisp', fr L. Lat torca, fr Lat torqua*, variant of torque, torques, 'twisted neck chain, collar' &c, see torque, fr base torquere, 'to turn, twist, wind' &c, see also tort 1 a Piece of inflammable wood or wood soaked in inflammable substance, such as resin, pitch &c, which flares when kindled and is used to give light, a flambeau, a link, b (fig) something which produces spiritual enlightenment or enthusiasm for worthy things the torch of learning &c Phr to hand on the torch, to transmit a tradition of culture and spiritual enlightenment 2 One of various devices for giving light, esp electric torch, small electric lamp carried in the hand.

torchlight, n [1 tɔːtʃlaɪt, 2 tɔːtʃlaɪt] Light shed by torches, (attrib) torchlight procession, one in which those taking part carry torches torchon, n. used attrib [1 tɔːʃən, 2 tɔːʃə, ɔn] Fr, 'acrumpled rag, wisp of cloth' &c, see torch. Torchon lace, strong, coarse lace, made on a pillow, torchon paper, strong, hard paper with a rough surface, used for water-colour painting torcular, n [1 tɔːkylər, 2 tɔːkylə] Lat, 'that which twists, a wine press', see torque Tourniquet used by surgeons toreador, n [1 tɔːreɪdɔːr, 2 tɔːreɪdɔːr] Span. Cp Lat taurus, 'bull' See taurus Mounted bull fighter, cp torero tore, vb [1 tɔː, 2 tɔː] Pret of tear (I), fr ME PP type torē(n), see torn. Cp OE ter, ME tar torero, n [1 tɔːrɔːrɔ, 2 tɔːrɔːrɔ] Span. See toreador A bull fighter on foot toreutic, adj & n [1 tɔːrɪtɪk, 2 tɔːrɪtɪk] Gk, fr toreutēs, 'worked in relief', fr torēuēn, 'to bore through, to work in relief', cp also torēuēn, 'graving tool of a sculptor', connected w Gk teirō, fr terō*, 'rub away, wear away', cp further Lat terere, 'to rub to pieces, bruise, grind', terebra, 'instrument for boring', cp terebrā, teredo, & triturare, cogn w OE trawan, 'to twist, turn round', see throw (I), & OE præd, see thread (I) 1 adj Pertaining to chased, embossed, wrought work, esp in metal 2 n (pl) Toreutics, carved, embossed work.

torfaceous, adj [1 tɔːrfəsɪs, 2 tɔːrfəsɪs] ON torf, see turf, & -aceous Pertaining to, growing in, bogs or mosses torii, n sing & pl [1 tɔːri, 2 tɔːri] Jap A structure of wood of two posts with lintel, forming an entrance way to a Shinto temple torment (I), n [1 tɔːrmənt, 2 tɔːrmənt] Fr, fr Lat tormentum, 'instrument with which anything is turned, a windlass, an instrument of torture, torture, pain, anguish', for torquēmentum*, fr torquere, 'to twist' &c, see torque 1 a Severe suffering, anguish, pain, of mind or body, b pain deliberately inflicted on another, torture 2 That which gives rise to mental irritation, worry, annoyance, anxiety his undutiful sons are the torment of his life torment (II), vb trans [1 tɔːrmənt, 2 tɔːrmənt], fr prec 1 To inflict extreme pain and suffering upon, to torture. 2 To cause severe suffering to to be tormented by toothache 3 To annoy, tease, worry, harass to torment a person with perpetual questions, with one's complaints, with constant demands for money &c tormentil, n [1 tɔːrməntɪl, 2 tɔːrməntɪl] Fr tormentilla, a woodland plant, supposed to relieve toothache &c, see torment (I) Rosaceous plant, genus Potentilla, with four-petalled yellow flowers, and an astringent root, used in medicine and in tanning tormenting, adj [1 tɔːrməntɪŋ, 2 tɔːrməntɪŋ], fr Pres Part of torment (II) Causing torment bodily pain, anxiety, annoyance &c tormentingly, adv Prec & -ly So as to torment tormentingness, n. See prec & -ness tormenting, n. See prec & -ness tormentor, n [1 tɔːrməntɜː, 2 tɔːrməntɜː] torment (II) & -or 1 Person who inflicts bodily or mental suffering upon another 2 Kind of harrow 3 Long meat-fork used on board ship by the cooks.

tormentress, n [1 tɔːrməntres, 2 tɔːrməntres]. See prec & -ess Woman who torments tormina, n pl [1 tɔːrmɪna, 2 tɔːrmɪna] Lat, 'pains in the bowels, gripes', fr base torq-, 'to twist' &c, see torque (mod.) Gripping pains in the bowels torn, vb [1 tɔːn, 2 tɔːn] OE (ge)oren, ME tōren, PP of tear (I) tornado, n [1 tɔːnədo, 2 tɔːnədo] Span. tronada, 'thunderstorm', fr tronar, 'to thunder', fr Lat tonāre, influenced by Lat torāre, 'to turn' Violent, narrowly localized storm, hurricane, specif, rotary storm of extreme violence accompanied by a whirlwind and a cloud resembling a waterspout in appearance, occurring in West Africa, at beginning and end of rainy season, and in America during the summer months tornadic, adj [1 tɔːnədɪk, 2 tɔːnədɪk] Prec & -ic Pertaining to, having the character of, a tornado torose, torous, adj [1 tɔːrɔs, tɔːrus, 2 tɔːrɔs, tɔːrus] Lat torosus, 'branny', see torus & -ous (zool and bot) Knobbed as with muscle, having surface covered with rounded projections torosity, n [1 tɔːrɔsɪti, 2 tɔːrɔsɪti] Prec & -ity Quality of being torose torpedo (I), n [1 tɔːrpɛdo, 2 tɔːrpɛdo] Lat torpedo, 'numbness', fr torpere, 'to be numb, inactive, to be stupefied', prob fr base sterep-* &c, 'numb, stiff', whence, w s, OE stearfan, 'to die', see starve, & fr terp*, OE (ge)deorft, 'hardship', cp also OE pearflan, 'to be indignant', & pearf, Pret Pres, 'require, be compelled' See also torpid 1 Also torpedo fish, the electric ray, which kills its prey with an electric shock 2 a A cigar shaped apparatus filled with explosive discharged on impact, propelled and steered by mechanism, used for destroying or injuring enemy ships at sea, b similarly shaped heavy bomb discharged from an aeroplane or airship 3 Any of various kinds of explosive or detonating cartridge torpedo (II), vb trans, fr prec a To attack with a torpedo, b to strike or destroy with a torpedo torpedo-boat, n Small, fast vessel, used for firing torpedoes torpedo-boat destroyer, n Vessel of larger size, and still faster than a torpedo boat, the purpose of which is to overtake and destroy one of these belonging to the enemy and to attack other vessels by launching torpedoes torpedo-netting, n Heavy steel netting hung from booms used as a protection against attack by torpedoes torpedo station, n Naval base for torpedo-boats and their supplies torpedo-tube, n Steel tube through which torpedoes are discharged by compressed air torpid (I), adj [1 tɔːrpɪd, 2 tɔːrpɪd] Lat torpidus, 'henumbed, stupefied', fr torpere, 'to be numb' &c, see torpedo (I) 1 (in physical sense) Inactive, sluggish 2 (of the mind) Dull, lethargic, apathetic torpid (II), n, fr prec, facetiously in reference to their supposed inactivity 1 Usually torpids, boat-races rowed at Oxford in Lent 2 Boat with eight oars in which these races are rowed.

torpidity, n [1 tɔːrpɪdɪti, 2 tɔːrpɪdɪti] torpid (I) & -ity State or quality of being torpid torpidness, n [1 tɔːrpɪdnɪs, 2 tɔːrpɪdnɪs] See prec & -ness Torpidity torpor, n [1 tɔːrpɜː, 2 tɔːrpɜː] Lat, 'numbness, stupefaction', fr same base as torpid (I) 1 Loss of power of motion, state of inactivity accompanied by partial insensibility 2 Dullness, inactivity, of the mind.

torporific, adj [1 tɔːrpɔːrɪfɪk, 2 tɔːrpɔːrɪfɪk] torpor-, stem of torpor, & -fic Tending to produce torpor torquate, torquated, adjs [1 tɔːrkwæt, tɔːrkwætɪd, 2 tɔːrkwæt, tɔːrkwætɪd] Lat torquatus, 'wearing a collar or neck chain', fr torques &c, 'oallar', see torque, & -ate (zool) Having a ring round the neck distinct in colour from the rest of the feathers or fur torque, a [1 tork, 2 tšk] Lat torques, 'necklace' &c, fr torquere, 'to twist, bend', &c, fr same base also Sort tarkus, 'spadille', op also Gath puarhis, 'angry', O E puerh, 'crosswise, perverse', O N puerr, 'across', see thwart (I), op also torment 1 A twisted ring, or chain, worn round the neck by the ancient Teutons, Gauls &c 2 (mechan) A twisting force or movement torrefaction, n [1 torefakshn, 2 tšrfæk-ʃən] Lat torrefact, P P type of torrefacere, see next word, & -ion Act, process, of torrefying, state of being torrefied torrefy, vb trans [1 torefi, 2 tšrfai] Fr torrefier, Lat torrefacere, fr torrere, 'to parch, roast, scorch', see torrid, & -fy To dry by exposure to heat, to scorch, roast torrent, n [1 tóreat, 2 tšrant] Lat torrent-(em), Pres Part of torrere, 'to parch, scorch, burn, boil, rage', see torrid A violent rush, a pouring, rapidly flowing stream, of water, or other liquid, or of lava, a stream of water flowing down a steep incline, b (fig) also applied to (1) a rush of rapidly uttered words, (2) violent outbreak of abuse, grief &c torrential, adj [1 tórenshal, 2 tšrefəl] Preo & -ial Like a torrent, flowing, falling, with great violence torrentially, adv Preo & -ly After the manner of a torrent, flowing violently Torriceilian, adj [1 tšriseljan, 2 tšriselja], fr Torricelli, Italian physicist, 1608-47, & -an Relating to, discovered by, Torricelli, esp Torriceilian tube, vacuum &c, in which mercury was first employed in measuring the pressure of the atmosphere, thus originating the mercury barometer torrid, adj [1 tórid, 2 tšrid] Lat torridus, 'parched, dried up', fr base tors-, ters-, whence also Sort tarsyah, 'makes thirsty, starves', tarsak, 'thirst', tšyah, 'thirsts', Gk tersomai, 'become dry', tarsia, 'drying frame', Goth (ga) paírson, 'to dry' (fr ters-*), paírson, 'dry', paírson, 'thirst', O E pyret, see thirst (I) A Parched, dried up, by the sun, b very hot torrid zone, that between the tropics of Cancer and Capricorn torsel, a [1 torel, 2 tšal] O Fr, 'bnadle', dimin of torce, 'something twisted, bnach', fr Lat torqu, 'to twist' &c, see torque Pieces of wood, or iron, let into a stone or brick wall, to support the end of a beam torsion, n [1 torshun, 2 tšfan] L Lat, fr tor, P P type of torquere, 'to twist', see torque & tort & -ion 1 Act of twisting, e.g. young shoots in early summer, to check growth, or the end of an artery which has been severed, to prevent haemorrhage 2 State of being twisted 3 (mechan) Force with which a twisted wire, spring &c tends to return to its untwisted state or form, torsion balance, apparatus used for measuring minute differences of electric and other forces, by the twisting and untwisting of a wire, spring &c torsional, adj [1 torshunál, 2 tšfanál] Preo & -al Pertaining to, causing, due to, torsion torsive, adj [1 tórsiv, 2 tšsiv] Stem tors-, as preo, & -ive (bot) Twisted spirally torsk, a [1 torsk, 2 tšsk] Scand, O N thorskr, op Germ dorsch A valuable food fish, of the cod family, found in N Atlantic torsa, a [1 tórsə, 2 tšsə] Ital, fr Lat thyras, 'stalk, stem', fr Gk thyras, see thyras 1 The upper part of the human body, trunk 2 Piece of sculpture which has been mutilated by removal of head and limbs 3 Any piece of work which is unfinished, incomplete tort n [1 tort, 2 tšt] Fr, 'injury', fr Lat tortum, P P of torquere, 'to twist' &c, see torque (law) An injurious, harmful action, not involving a breach of contract, for which a civil action can be brought torticollis, n [1 tórtikólis, 2 tštikólis] Preo & Lat collum, 'neck', see collar (I) Twisted or stiff neck due to rheumatism tortale, adj [1 tórtál, 2 tštál, 1] Lat tortilis, 'twisted', fr tori, P P type of torquere, see tort, & -ile Twisted, coiled, wreathed tortility, n [1 tórtiliti, 2 tštšiti] Preo & -ity State of being twisted tortilla, n [1 tórtila, 2 tštšila] Span dimin of toria, 'cake', fr Lat torta, 'twisted roll', fr tori, P P type of torquere, see tort Thin flat cake of maize flour, baked on iron plates, the typical bread of Mexicans &c tortious, adj [1 tórtšus, 2 tššes] tort & -ious Of the nature of, implying, a tort tortiously, adv Preo & -ly In a tortious manner tortoise, n [1 tórtus, 2 tštšae], affected & artificial [1 tórtšis, 2 tštšiz] M E tortrue, fr tortrue, pl of tortrue, fr Lat torus, 'crooked, twisted', P P of torquere, 'to twist', see torque & tort Kind of reptile with complete scaly covering for the upper and under surfaces of the body, the head and legs being capable of protrusion beyond, or retraction within, the shell, a land turtle tortoise-shell, n [1 tórtšasal, 2 tštšəfəl] 1 The material forming the hard external covering of the tortoise, esp when polished and used for manufacture of various ornamental and useful objects 2 Tortoise shell butterfly tortoise-shell butterfly, n Common black and brownish-yellow butterfly with markings resembling those on polished tortoise shell tortoise-shell cat, n Female cat with dark brown, yellow, and black markings tortuasity, n [1 tórtušiti, 2 tštšusiti] Next word & -ity State of being tortuous, a winding, a twist, turn &c (in physical and moral sense) tortuous, adj [1 tórtušus, 2 tštšus, 2 tštšus] Lat tortuosus, 'twisting', fr tortrue, 'a twist', fr P P of torquere, 'to twist', see tort, torque 1 Full of twists, turns, and windings 2 (in non material sense, of the mind, methods, aims &c) Not straightforward, devious, disingenuous tortuously, adv Preo & -ly In a tortuous manner, with turns and twists tortuousness, n See preo & -ness Condition of being tortuous, a tortuosity torturable, adj [1 tórturabl, 2 tštšərabl] torture & -able Capable of being tortured torturableness, n Preo & -ness Quality of being torturable torture (I), n [1 tórtšur, 2 tštšə] Fr, fr Lat tortura, 'a twisting, torment', fr base torqu- as in torquere, 'to twist' &c, see torque, tort, & -ure 1 Act of deliberately inflicting severe bodily pain upon, of causing extreme physical suffering to, another, as a punishment, from revenge, or from love of cruelty &c 2 To put to the torture 2 Extreme, intolerable, pain, anguish, agony, of body or mind 3 To suffer the tortures of the damned torture (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To inflict physical torture upon as a punishment, or in order to extract a confession 2 To cause extreme agony to, of body or mind tortured by gout, by doubt and anxiety, don't torture me by keeping me in suspense torturer, n [1 tórtšur, 2 tštšə] Preo & -er One who inflicts torture torturing, adj [1 tórtšuring, 2 tštšəring] fr Pres Part of torture (II) Causing torture torturous, adj [1 tórtšurus, 2 tštšərus] torture (I) & -ous (rare) Connected with, of the nature of, causing, torture torula, n [1 tórtula, 2 tšrtšula] Mod Lat, Lat torulus, 'little mound, a tuft' &c, dimin of torus, 'a prominence, a knot, bulge' &c, see torus 1 A genus of fungus 2 Chain of bacteria 3 (bot) Small torus toruliform, adj [1 tórtuliform, 2 tšrtšulšim] Preo & -form Shaped like a torula torus, n [1 tórtus, 2 tšrtš] Lat, 'a prominence, a boss, knot, or bulge, a knoll, mound', etymol obscure 1 A round convex moulding used in the bases of columns 2 (bot) Modified end of flower-stalk forming receptacle for the floral leaves 3 (anat) A rounded muscular protuberance

Tory, n [1 tórt, 2 tšrt] Perh fr Ir toraidhe, 'pursuer', orig applied to one of a class of outlaws in 16th & 17th cents, who professed to be royalists 1 Originally applied to a member of the party who were loyal to King James II in 1688, opposed the Revolution, and who later favoured the Stuarts and opposed the accession of George I on the death of Anna, a Jacobite, contrasted with Whig 2 Term at present time denoting a strong Conservative, esp of the old fashioned kind, who upholds the constitution, the Church, and the landed interest, contrasted with so called Liberal Unionists, or Unionists, also attributively Tory party, principles &c

Toryism, n [1 tórtizm, 2 tšrtšizam] Preo & -ism Political principles and practice of Tories tosh, n [1 tosh, 2 tš] Origin unknown (slang) Rubbish, rot, nonsense tosh, n [1 tosh, 2 tš] Corrupt of unattached (colloq, slang) Unattached student at a university toss (I), vb trans & intrans [1 taws, 2 tšs, 2 tšs] Etymol doubtful A trans 1 A To fling, throw, with the hand to toss a ball, also b (of a horse) to fling his rider from his back, also toss off 2 To fling, jerk, with a sudden swift upward movement to toss the head, esp as expressive of spirited protest, contempt &c, or (of horses) of vigour and fire 3 Specif a (of a bull) to lift with the horns and fling into the air, b (of the sea in agitation) to fling (ships &c) violently up and down, to cause to rise and fall with violence 4 (fig) To cause agitation of mind to, to cast from one set of circumstances to another tossed about in the storms of life 5 To give a flip to and cause to spin into the air, in Phr to toss a coin, specif, to decide for or against something according as head or tail comes uppermost B intrans 1 To fling oneself about from restlessness &c to toss on a bed of pain, also loss about to loss about on one's bed all night 2 a (of the waves &c) To be agitated, to leap up, b (of plumes or other floating, wavering objects) to sway in the air, float, tremble, rise and fall, be alternately raised and lowered with the movements of the wearer tossing plumes, crests, banners &c 3 To be tossed in a ship &c tossing for days on the ocean 4 To spin a coin and allow the result to determine action, to bet upon result of a spun coin to toss for Phr I'll toss you for it, also toss up let's toss up who has first choice, or for first choice toss (II), n, fr preo Act of tossing (in various senses), a toss from a bull, b fact of being thrown by a horse, Phr to take a toss, to be thrown, have a fall, a act of tossing, jerking, flinging np, the head a knowing, pert, proud, toss of the head, a act of tossing, of spinning, a coin, result of this to win the toss toss-up, n [1 taws up, 2 tšš up] A act of 'tossing, spinning, a coin, heads, b an even chance it's a toss up whether he succeeds or not tot' (I), n [1 tót, 2 tš] Origin doubtful. A small, young child a tiny tot

tot (II), n & vb trans Lat, 'so many', prob also influenced by, or associated w, total 1 n a Aggregate, amount resulting from the addition of a row of figures, b an allotted portion, small glass, of drink (By many included under tot (I)) 2 vb Usually tot up, to add np total (I), adj [1 tótl, 2 tóutl] Lat totulus, fr totus, 'all, the whole of, entire', for totulus*, connected w Lat tumere, 'to swell'

1 Entire, complete, unqualified

2 Complete, utter, absolute, unqualified total abstinence, total eclipse, total loss, total as in O E stōn, fr leuhan*, 'to draw', see tow (I), & tug (I), cogn w Lat dicere, 'to draw', lead' &c, see duct, & words ending in duce A trans 1 To be, stand, be, up against, in contact with the creeper is touching the window, the overhanging bough touches the water 2 a To feel with the hand or fingers, to lay the hand upon, to handle, finger, lightly, to bring some part of the body into contact with to touch every lamp-post in passing, visitors are requested not to touch the exhibits, to touch a dog with one's foot, Phrs to touch one's hat, make a sign of greeting, touch one's hat to, to greet, express respect for, in this way, to touch a person on the arm, shoulder, call his attention in this way, b specif, to lay the hand on with a view to healing Dr Johnson, as a child, was touched by Queen Anne for scrofula 3 In various special senses implying physical contact, (usually in neg sentences) a to taste, partake of (food or drink) I haven't touched food all day, he couldn't touch his dinner, I couldn't touch anything, I am not hungry, I daren't touch lobster, b to play (musical instrument) I haven't touched the piano for months, c to misappropriate, take to one's own use unlawfully to touch money that doesn't belong to one, d to mis handle, ill treat, molest what is the child crying for? I never touched him, e to molest, affect injuriously the law can't touch him, f to disturb, interfere with, move out of place nothing must be touched until the police have been, g to concern, occupy, oneself with, to set about I haven't been able to touch my work all day 4, To reach (to), come up to, go as far as, attain his head nearly touches the ceiling, the glass just touched 90 yesterday, Phr to touch bottom, (fig) to reach lowest point of dement, depravity &c 5 To deal with, affect, involve, include, be related to what you say does not touch the point at issue, the new law doesn't touch my case at all 6 a To affect emotionally, stir feelings and emotions of, to move to touch the heart, his generosity touched me profoundly, he was greatly touched by the universal sympathy, b to arouse, excite, irritate (passions &c) his vanity and self esteem were touched no less than his sense of duty 7 To equal, rival in merit, be as good as, come up to there is nothing to touch a hot bath when you are tired, there are few things to touch sea air for bracing you up 8 (colloq slang) To extract money from, esp as a loan, attempt to borrow from to touch a man for a fiver 9 To treat of, deal with, lightly and casually we touched many topics in our talk, see also touch on, below 10 To receive, esp as a stipend or salary to touch 1000 supposes a month B intrans 1 To be in contact his nose and chin appear almost to touch 2 To practise toning, or laying the hand upon, as formerly the kings of England and France, for king's evil James I used to touch regularly and is said to have wrought many cures C Followed by adverb or preposition Touch at, intrans, (of a ship) to touch at a port, to visit for a brief time in the course of a voyage Touch on, intrans, to refer to there are many other points which I have no time to touch on now Touch up, trans, 1 to excite, stimulate, 2 to put touches to in order to repair, improve appearance of Touch upon, intrans, same as touch on touch (II), n See prec 1 Sense or sensation of feeling communicated by the nerves in the skin the sense of touch, soft to the touch 2 Act, fact, of touching, or bringing the hand &c into contact with, something, contact thus formed 'O for the touch of a vanished herd' (Tennyson) Phr in touch with, in social or intellectual relation 3 a A light, slight, passing contact, faint stroke or impulse so fragile that the slightest touch will break it, b (fig) a slight degree of persuasion, moral pressure, suggestion 'let me no more for at a touch I yield' (Tennyson) * Something, resembling a slight stroke, mild attack of disease &c a touch of gout, fever, lumbago, a touch of the sun, slight sunstroke 5 Characteristic movement of keys of a piano, mode in which these respond to the fingers of the player 6 Characteristic, individual, mode of touching a musical instrument, such as piano a light, firm, good, heavy, touch, b particular mode of applying a brush in painting, or a chisel in sculpture &c easy to recognize the touches of the master, a particular mode of verbal expression a happy touch, a characteristic touch (in a speech &c.) 7 Characteristic mode of behaviour, individual manner of doing something, or of dealing with a situation the Nelson touch 8 A stroke given, action performed, in the execution of a piece of work to put the finishing touches, a few deft, last touches 9 Test, trial, proof, only in Phrs to put, bring, something to the touch, a near touch, (colloq.) a close shave 10 A slight but perceptible amount, slight appearance, trace, a tinge, suggestion, dash, smack a touch of colour, a touch of bitterness in the voice, a touch of acidity to the taste, a touch of genius, of vulgarity, one touch of Nature 11 (slang) A thing for which a certain price is asked a shilling touch 12 (football) Part of the field beyond the flags 13 A child's game in which one player pursues and attempts to catch, or touch, any of the others, putting person so touched temporarily out of action touchable, adj. [1 tuchabl, 2 tát[ahl] touch (I) & -able That can or may be touched, capable of being touched, tangible touchableness, o. Free & -ness Capacity of being touched touch-and-go, adj. [1 tuch an(d) gó, 2 tát[an(d) gó] 1 adj. Uncertain, rat-y, changey a touch and go business 2 n. A risky, dangerous, situation or affair touch body, corpseful, n. One concerned in sense of touch, tactile body touch down, v. Placing of hand by player on ball when in touch in goal, behind his own goal line, in Rugby football, which renders the ball dead touched, adj. [1 tucht, 2 tát[t] PP of touch (I) Various specific uses 1 Emotionally moved, stirred, affected 2 Slightly mad, crazy, also touched in the upper storey 3 Phr touched in the wind, broken winded, short winded, short of breath toucher, n. [1 tucher, 2 tát[tə] touch (I) & -er That which touches, specif 1 (slang) a close shave, in Phr as near as a toucher, very nearly 2 (bowls) Bowl that touches the jack before coming to rest touch-hole, n. Vent in old fashioned guns through which the gunpowder was fired touchily, adv. [1 tuchil, 2 tát[il] touchy & -ly In a touchy manner touchiness, n. [1 tuchines, 2 tát[tinə] See prec & -ness Quality of being touchy touching (I), adj. [1 tuching, 2 tát[ŋ] fr Pres Part of touch (I) Pathetic moving touching (II), prep Regarding, concerning, with regard to, in reference to touching the subject of our conversation touchingly, adv touching (I) & -ly In a touching manner, pathetically touch-in-goal, n. (Rugby football) Each of the four corners between the touch lines and goal lines, if respectively produced touch-line, n. Side line bounding the field of play in Association and Rugby football touch-me-not, n. [1 toch m nót, 2 tát[mə nót] Garden balsam, or noli me tangere, whose ripe seed pods explode if a touch touch-paper, n. Paper impregnated with nitro, used formerly for firing gunpowder touch-piece n. Gold coin formerly presented by English sovereigns to the persons whom they touched for king's evil touchstone, n. [1 tuchstón 2 tát[stón] 1 Black siliceous stone formerly used to test purity of gold and silver, which left a streak on the stone when rubbed upon it 2 Anything taken as a test, standard, or criterion.

touchwood, n [1 tóuchwood, 2 tátíwud] Decayed wood, dried and used as tinder, also dried fungus used for same purpose touchy, adj [1 tuchi, 2 tátíí] Cp provino tetchy Easily offended, irritable, morbidly sensitive tough, adj [1 tuf, 2 taf] OE tōh, ME tough, fr earlier tanx*, op OHG zāh, Mod Germ zāh, 'tough', the nasal, lost before -h, still remains in the OE cogn (ge) lenge, 'near by, close to, occupying the mind, pressing', fr (ga)langi*, OS (bi)langi, 'oppressive', cp also OE (ge)lang, 'in contact with' The primitive sense of the base is 'closely pressed together, dense, tenacious', cognates outside Gmc have not been identified 1 (of material things) a Firm, resistant, of close, dense, consistency, resembling gristle or rubber, capable of being bent, but not liable to break or tear, difficult to cut or bite tough meat, leather, fibre &c, b (of human beings and animals) very strong and vigorous, resistant, having a powerful constitution and well-knit frame, robust, hardy, Phr a tough customer, strong, robust person, one difficult to overcome and subdue, one likely to become violent if attacked, c also as noun (slang, USA) a tough, a criminal, ruffianly person, cp rough 2 (in non material sense) a (of mind, character &c) Firm, possessing or evincing fortitude, tenacious, stubborn, b (of a task &c) difficult, laborious, to carry out, nphll work a tough job, proposition &c, op such Phrs as a tough nut to crack, tough row to hoe &c toughen, vb trans & intrans [1 tufn, 2 táfan] Preo & -en 1 trans a To make tough, b to render hardy and vigorous 2 intrans To become tough toughish, adj [1 tufish, 2 tátíí] tough & -ish Rather tough toughly, adv [1 tufi, 2 tátíí] tough & -ly In a tough manner, strenuously, with vigour toughness, n [1 tufnos, 2 táfnis] See preo & -ness Quality of being tough (in all senses) toupee, n [1 tóopā, 2 tópeí] Fr toupet, dimin, fr Gmc, connected w top (I) A tuft, esp a tuft of hair on the front of the head, usually, a false front of hair tour (I), n [1 toor, 2 tua] Fr, see turn 1 A prolonged journey consisting of encesseive visits to different places, a series of short journeys from place to place, a round of visits a foreign tour, a tour of inspection, the grand tour, journey through France and other European countries, formerly considered as necessary to pnt final touches on the education of a young man of the world 2 (mul) A turn of duty tour (II), vb intrans & trans, fr preo 1 intrans To undertake, make, a tour, to travel, also tour about, tour through 2 trans To journey through, visit, as part of a tour to tour France and Italy tourbillon, n [1 toorbilyun, 2 tuəbilyən] Fr tourbillon, 'whirlwind' Kind of firework which spins in the air, producing the effect of a spiral column of fire tour de force, n [1 toor de fors, 2 tua də fɔs] Fr Action requiring special skill or effort touring, adj [1 tóoring, 2 tuəring, tóring] Pres Part of tour (II) Touring car, large motor car designed for touring tourist, n [1 tóorist, 2 tuərist] tour (I) & -ist Person who goes on a tour, one who travels about from place to place as a visitor, without having a fixed abode in any of the places he visits tourmalin(e), n [1 tóormalān, -in, 2 túmālin, -in] Fr, fr Singalese bramalli, 'the carnelian' A composite mineral of various colours, often transparent, used as a gem, the mineral has special optical properties and is used for making certain optical instruments, e g the tourmaline lorgs tournament, n [1 tóor, tóornament, 2 tuatónement ME turnement, fr O. Fr turnement, 'a turning, wheeling', fr turner, 'to wheel, turn repeatedly' See turn (I) 1 a Mediaeval assembly to witness the knightly sport of jousting, b series of contests between mounted men in armour, armed with the lance, with which weapon each combatant tried to unhorse his opponent, also series of tilting matches and similar sports 2 (modern usage) A series of sports, or a series of matches between groups of players, in the same game, lawn-tennis, croquet &c, usually a competition for a championship, also applied to a series of contests in chess tourney, n & vb intrans [1 tórn, tóorn, 2 tórn, tuərn] O Fr turnei, tornoi, 'a turning', see tournament 1 n. A tournament in mediaeval sense 2 vb To take part in a tournament, to joust tourniquet, n [1 tóor, tóorniket, -kə, 2 tua, tóorniket, -kə] Fr, 'turnstile', also in Engl sense See preo Device used by surgeons for applying pressure by means of a screw to arteries to stop bleeding during operations or from accident tousle, vb trans [1 tóuzl, 2 tauzl] Connected w tussle To make untidy and dishevelled, to tumble, ruffle tousled hair tous-les-mois, n [1 tóo lə mwah, 2 tú lə mwā] Fr, 'every month', origin uncertain Kind of starch made from the tubers of canna, used for adulterating arrowroot and cocoa tout, vb intrans & n [1 tout, 2 taut] Origin doubtful, OE tōtan, 'to peep, pry', sometimes cited in connexion w this word, wd have become tūt* [tūt] 1 vb a To endeavour to obtain customers or clients by persistent and importunate offers of goods or services to persons who want neither, to pester persons to give their custom, to cedge, b tout round, to go about furtively in the hope of picking up scraps of private information, esp concerning condition and chances of horses entered for a race 2 n a Person who importunes and pesters those whom he hopes to have as customers, b one who professes to have, and endeavours to sell, information concerning likely winners of horse races, a tipster tout court, adv [1 tóo kóor, 2 tú kua] Fr, 'quite briefly' Without further formality, addition, explanation they addressed him as 'Bishop' tout court, I told him tout court that his services were not required tout ensemble, n [1 tóot onsembl, 2 tút əsəbl] Fr, 'all together, the whole' General effect, taken as a whole, without reference to single parts or details touter, n [1 touter, 2 tauts] tout & -er More usually tout One who touts tow (I), vb trans & n [1 tō, 2 tou] OE togan, 'to pull, draw', ME towen, formed fr Gmo type tug-, of base teuh- &c, 'to draw, drag, pull', op OE tēon, 'to draw' &c, cogn w Lat ducere, 'to lead, draw' &c, see duct, duke, & op tug (I) 1 vb a To draw (a barge &c) along in the water by a rope, by power exerted by a horse or person moving along on the land, esp in a canal or narrow river, the horse &c walking along a path by the side of the water, b (of a ship) to draw along in the water another vessel which has broken down, or one wishing to enter or leave a port or an estuary where navigation is difficult, c to pull a motor car or other vehicle along a road by means of a cable attached to a horse or to another motor-car &c 2 n a Act of towing, chiefly in Phrs to take in tow, to have (person) in tow, (fig) (i) have him under one's care, guidance, (ii) to have a person in attendance upon one, at one's disposal the cinema star had a number of admirers in tow b vessel &c which is being towed tow (II), n OE tow-, only in compounds, 'a spinning, weaving', cogn w taw (I) & tool (I) Coarse fibre of hemp, from which ropes are made towage, n [1 tōj, 2 toudz] tow (I) & -age a Act of towing, b fee charged for towing a vessel &c toward (I), adj [1 tōard, 2 toud] OE tōward, 'facing, imminent, future', see to (I), the second element is a form of the OE base weorþ-, as in weorpan, 'to become, happen' &c, cogn w Lat vertere, 'to turn', see vertigo & verse (I), version &c (obs or archaic) 1 Imminent, about to happen, at hand 2 Reverse of froward, docile, tractable, compliant toward (II), prep, also towards [1 tuward(z), 2 tawd(z)], more rarely [1 tord(z), 2 tōd(z)] Same as toward (I) OE tōward, tō weardes Towards gen used in prose writing & in speaking 1 a (of relation in space) In the direction of towards the sun, the south, the sky &c, Phr (now facet) I look(s) towards you, formula used in drinking a person's health, b expressing direction of a tendency, result of an action moving towards better things, drifting towards war, striving towards a better understanding 2 (of time) Approaching, round about, just before, specified hour or period he died towards six o'clock, towards dawn, the present tense plural in en died out of common use towards the end of the 15th century 3 With regard to, in respect of to feel kindly, well disposed, towards a person towardly, adj [1 tōardli, 2 tuərdli] toward (I) & -ly (archaic) Kindly, well disposed, gentle towardness, n [1 tōardnes, 2 tuərdnis] See preo & -ness (archaic) Quality of being toward towel, n & vb trans [1 tóuel, -il, 2 tauel, -il], vulg [tauəl] ME touaille &c, fr O Fr touaille, fr Low Lat toacula, fr Gmo source, fr some such form as puahila*, op OHG duahila, MHG tüchle, düchle, Mod Germ zuehle, 'towel', fr Gmo base puah-*, 'to wash', op OS thwahan, Goth puahan, OE puhan, 'to wash', op also Goth puahl, 'bath', OHG duahal, OE puhal, 'a washing, an ointment' 1 n Cloth used for drying the person after washing, oaken towel, (archaic slang) a ougel for administering a beating 2 vb a To dry or rub with a towel, b (slang) to thrash towel-horse, n A wooden frame on which towels may be hung towelling, n [1 tóueling, 2 taueling] A Straps of cloth, specially woven, from which towels are cut, b (slang) a thrashing tower (I), n [1 tour, 2 tau] ME, fr O Fr tour, fr Lat turre, 'a tower for defence, a castle, high building', prob fr Gk turrhis, tursis, 'a tower', origin & con nexions doubtful A lofty building, high in proportion to its diameter, a tower may be either round or square, and either isolated from other buildings, or forming a lofty part of a building, though distinct from the rest structurally and to the eye Phr a tower of strength, person who can be relied upon for help and support tower (II), vb intrans, fr preo a (of any tall object) To rise, rear itself the mountains seemed to tower to the clouds, also tower up, b tower above, to be much taller, higher, than, rise far above he towered above the crowd, (also fig) to exceed in power of mind, genius, character &c to tower above one's fellow-workers towering, adj [1 tónering, 2 tauaring] Pres Part of preo 1 Lofty, rising to a great height 2 (fig) In Phr towering rage, passion, excessive, violent town, n [1 toun, 2 taun] OE tūn, 'an enclosure, yard, estate, farm, village, town', cogn w Mod Germ zaun, 'hedge, fence', OHG zūn, cogn w O Celt -dunum, 'fortress, city', O Ir dún, 'fortress' Orig meaning 'hedge, fence, that which encloses, then, that which is enclosed or fenced in' 1 (gen sense) A large group of houses and other buildings with fixed, distinguishing name, larger than a village, but not entitled by charter or usage to the name of 'city' q.v. Phr man about town, fashionable, gay man of leisure, esp in London, b the inhabitants of such a unit of population collectively the talk of the town, c specif, a place where a market is regularly held, also market town 2 Specif a London, in such Phrs as to live in, go up to, town (often with cap.), out of town, away from London, in the country, b the town, the nearest market town, or important centre, in a rural neighbourhood 3 (Scots & Nthn Engl) A farm house with its outbuildings town-clerk, n Official, usually a lawyer, under a municipality, who keeps records of its proceedings and advises on legal questions town council, n Governing body of a town or city town councillor, n Member of a town council town crier, n [1 toun krier, 2 toun kraiz] Person employed by a municipality to make public announcements towns, n [1 touns, 2 touns] town & -ee (univ slang, disparaging and derogatory term)

Person, esp a tradesman, living in Oxford or Cambridge, who is not a member of the university town hall, n Building in which a town council holds its meetings, and where the business of a municipality is transacted town house, n Private residence in a town, esp as contrasted with the country house of the same person townified, adj [1 tounifid, 2 taunifaid] See town & -fy & -ed Pertaining to a town, or to a person living in and accustomed to a town, contrasted with countryfied townsfolk, n pl [1 tounzfolk, 2 taunzfolk] a Inhabitants of towns, contrasted with those who live in the country, b the inhabitants of a particular town township, n [1 tounship, 2 taunsp] 1 Ancient administrative unit, co-extensive with a parish 2 (U.S.A.) A unit of local administration in a county townsman, n [1 tounzman, 2 taunzman] a Man who lives in a town, as distinct from a country dweller, b inhabitant of a particular town, fellow townsman, person belonging to the same town as another townspeople, n pl [1 tounzpepl, 2 taunzpepl] Townsfolk tow-path, n Path running along the bank of a river or canal, used by horses towing barges tow-rope, n Rope used in towing vessels toxæmia, n [1 toksæmia, 2 toksæmia] See toxic & hæmiatoxic & hæmia- Blood poisoning toxic, adj [1 toksik, 2 toksik] Lat toxicum, 'poison in which arrows were dipped, a poison generally', fr Gk toxikon, neut of toxikos, connected with a bow', fr toxon, 'a bow' The common view of a relationship between this word & Lat taxus, 'yew', is not absolutely well authenticated since the latter never means 'bow' in Lat nor the former 'yew' in Gk Pertaining to, of the nature of, caused by, poison toxicant, adj & n [1 toksikant, 2 toksikant] Prec & -ant 1 adj Producing toxic results 2 n Toxic drug or agent toxico-, pref Form fr Gk toxikos, see toxic, used in compounds Poison toxicological, adj [1 toksikolodjiki, 2 toksikolodjiki] Prec & -logy & -ist Con- nected with poisons or with toxicology toxicologist, n [1 toksikolodjist, 2 toksikolodjist] Next word & -ist Student of poisons, their nature, and their effects on the living organism toxicology, n [1 toksikolodji, 2 toksikolodjidi] toxico- & -logy Systematic study of the nature and effects of poisons toxin, n [1 toksin, 2 toksin] Gk toxikon, 'bow', for mod sense see toxic, & -in A poisonous organic substance toxophilite, n [1 toksophilist, 2 toksophilist] Gk toxos, see toxic, & philos, 'loving', see philo-, & -ite A lover, a practitioner, of archery, one skilled in shooting with the bow toxophilite, adj [1 toksophilist, 2 toksophilist] Prec & -ic Pertaining to archers or to archery toy, n & vb intrans [1 toi, 2 toi] Cp Du toeg, 'tool, implement, stuff', cogn w Germ zeug, op Du speelzug, Germ spielzeug, 'plaything', ultimately fr same base as O Irl toon, 'to draw, lead', see tow (I) 1 n a A child's plaything, b any object which serves to amuse and distract, hence, c a trifle, bauble, thing of no value or importance 2 vb a To indulge in dalliance, toy with, to caress amorously, sport with, b to trifle with, linger over carelessly to toy with the wing of a pheasant, c to let the mind dwell on lightly, to consider casually and superficially to toy with an idea toy dog, n Very small lap dog, toy terrier, very small breed of terrier toys, n [1 toishop, 2 toisop] Shop where children's playthings &c are sold tra-, pref for trans-, in certain words derived fr Lat as tradition &c trabected, adj [1 trabected, 2 trabected] Lat trabs, 'beam', prob cogn w Gk teremnon, fr teremnon, 'anything closed, room, chamber', OW treb, 'dwelling', Lth tróð, 'building', & perh OE porp, 'village', q.v. under thorp, & -ate & -ed (archit) Built with horizontal beams or lintels, not arcuate trabeation, n [1 trabeshan, 2 trabeshan] See prec & -ion. (archit) Straight, distinguished from arched, construction, an entablature trabeula, n [1 trabekula, 2 trabekula] Lat, 'little beam', dimin. of trabs, see trabected. (anat) Small rod, or bundle, esp bundle of fibres or connective tissue in framework of an organ trabecular, adj [1 trabekular, 2 trabekular] Prec & -ar Pertaining to, consisting of, trabeculae trabeculate, adj [1 trabekulat, 2 trabekulat] trabecula & -ate Trabecular traces (I), n [1 trās, 2 trās] ME trays, pl, fr O Fr trave, travis, see tract. Part of harness, consisting of two straps or chains, one end of which is fastened on either side, to the hames on the collar, of a draft animal, and connected at the other end with the vehicle or other object to be drawn Phr (fig) to kick over the traces, to break loose from discipline, be guilty of unruly conduct trace (II), vb trans ME tracen, fr O Fr tracer, L latrāre, formed fr tract (um), P P of trahere, 'to draw', see tract (I) 1 To draw, delineate, mark out with lines &c, often traces out a (on paper &c) to trace (out) a map, plan &c, b to lay out, mark out (plans of buildings &c), on the ground 2 To follow exactly, with a pen or pencil, on thin, transparent paper &c, the lines of writing, or of a drawing placed below, and appearing through, the paper &c, on which one is working 3 To write, esp deliberately, carefully, laboriously as I trace these words to you I am deeply moved &c 4 a To perceive and follow a visible track to trace a person's footsteps in the snow &c, b to make out, discern I scarce could trace her features in the gloom c to find, reach by following a series of clues to trace one's long lost relations, to trace a criminal, d to find, come upon, put one's hand on I am unable to trace the document to which you refer, e to reason out, discover the various stages of, follow from point to point, work out the links of a chain of facts to trace the etymology of a word, the history, origin, of a family &c 5 To follow, proceed along (a particular path or route), to walk, traverse, tread see traced traces (III), n See prec 1 Mark made by something which has passed, track, trail, footstep, furrow &c we could plainly see the traces of big game along the river bank Phrs on the traces of, hot on the traces of &c, on the trail, following keenly, about to come up with 2 a Visible marks, signs, evidence, left by some earlier event, vestige war had left its traces on the countryside, every trace of the crime had been removed, b (in non material sense) recognizable evidence, result, of earlier experience, circumstances &c sorrow and disappointment had left their trace(s) upon his character 3 A very small amount, a slight but perceptible smack, tinge, touch, a (of material things) just a trace of onion in the salad, no trace of scent on the handkerchief, b (of non material things) he betrayed not a trace of fear, emotion &c traceability, n [1 trāsabiliti, 2 trāsabiliti] traceable & -ity Quality of being traceable traceable, adj [1 trāsabl, 2 trāsabl] trace (II.) & -able Capable of being traced traceableness, n Prec & -ness Quality, fact, of being traceable, traceability tracer, n [1 trāser, 2 trāser] trace (II.) & -er Person who, thing which, traces (in various senses), specif a a device for tracing patterns on cloth &c, b a person employed to trace out and find missing articles &c, cp also tracer shell, shell fired from a gun leaving a trail of smoke through the air, so that error in aim or trajectory &c may be corrected tracery, n [1 trāseri, 2 trāseri] trace (III.) & -ery 1 A series, system, group, of lines forming a kind of pattern, as though deliberately traced the delicate tracery of light and shade 2 Specif (archit) system of decorative ramifications of open stonework in the upper part of windows trachea, n [1 trākā, 2 trākā] Mod Lat, fr Lat trachea, fr Gk trākhēia (arteria), lit 'rough artery', fr trakhos, 'harsh, rough, rugged', cogn w Gk trāssein, 'to disturb', ON drengjar, 'dregs' (see drag), O Prussian dragios, 'lees' The wind pipe, that part of the air passage in vertebrates between the lungs and the back of the mouth tracheal, adj [1 trākēal, 2 trākēal] Prec & -al Pertaining to, connected with, the trachea trachelo-, pref fr Gk trakhēlos, 'neck, throat', etymol doubtful trachelotomy, n [1 trākēlotomi, 2 trākēlotomi] Prec & -otomy (surg) Incision in the neck of the uterus tracheo-, pref See trachea Concerned with, involving, the trachea tracheocele, n [1 trākēosēl, 2 trākēosēl] Prec & -cele Goutre tracheotomy, n [1 trākēotomi, 2 trākēotomi] tracheo- & -otomy Operation consisting in making an incision in the trachea trachoma, n [1 trākōma, 2 trākōma] Gk trakhōma, 'roughness', see trachea & -oma (med.) Disease characterized by roughness on inner surface of eyelids trachyte, n [1 trākit, 2 trākit] Gk trakhys, 'rough', see trachea, & -ite Light coloured volcanic rock with very rough surface when fractured tracing, n [1 trāsing, 2 trāsing] trace (II.) & -ing Writing or drawing traced, reproduction of pattern, writing &c, made by following lines of the original which are visible through superimposed paper &c tracing-paper, n Tough semi transparent paper upon which tracings are made track (I), n [1 trak, 2 trak] O Fr trac, 'track of horses &c, trace', origin doubtful, perh fr Gmc source, op Du trek, 'act of drawing' 1 A Mark left on the ground, or on surface of water, by something which &c, the track of a vessel, by extension also the track of a meteor, b specif, a footprint, beast Phrs on the track of, in pursuit, to make tracks (slang), to depart hurriedly, to make tracks for, go, run, towards, to cover up one's tracks, conceal one's plans, actions, designs &c, off the track (fig), on wrong path, following wrong line, to lose track of (fig), lose sight of, be no longer in touch with (a person or thing) 2 (in non-material sense) Signs, evidence, of a person's work, actions, designs &c he has left his tracks everywhere in the affairs and organization of the office, (often in bad sense) signs of intrigue &c 3 a A path, rough road, worn by use rather than properly made, Phrs (fig) the beaten track, the ordinary routine of action, the commonplace and conventional, he never leaves the beaten track, never launches out, never shows initiative, never does anything original, b a line of railway, including both rails, c a course, path, on which races are run track (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To follow the track of, trail, pursue by following tracks, track down, to run down, pursue to lair or hiding-place and capture 2 To make out, trace, by means of visible remains &c 3 To tow a vessel by a rope from the hank trackage, n [1 trákj, 2 trákidz] track (I) & -age a Railway tracks collectively, b extent of these tracker, n [1 traker, 2 trake] track (II) & -er 1 One who traces or tracks out a person or thing 2 One who tows a vessel from the hank trackless, adj [1 trákles, 2 trákli] track (I) & -less 1 A Not crossed by a path or track, untrdden - a trackless waste, b not having tracks or rails trackless trains 2 Leaving no track, footprint, or other mark of passage tracklessly, adv Prec & -ly Without leaving a track tracklessness, n See prec & -ness Fact, quality, of being trackless tract (I), n [1 trakt, 2 trakt] Lat tractus, 'a drawing, draught, extent, distance, district, region, a space of time', fr tract-(um), PP type of trahere, 'to draw', the group of words to wh this is related is disputed, Walde gives two possibilities (1) fr draghō* & cogn w OE dragan, see draw (I), (2) fr trigh-* & cogn w O Ir trag, 'fast' 1 a A continuous stretch, or expanse, of country, a region, area, district a tract of land, also tract of forest, woodland &c, unbroken stretch, b expanse of water, c expanse of sky 2 (of time) Continuous period, unbroken duration, lapse, extent 3 (anat) System of organs or parts of the body which fulfil a specific function or set of functions digestive tract tract (II), n For tractate A brief written dissertation or treatise, a pamphlet, esp one designed to enforce some specific religious or political doctrine or theory tractability, n [1 traktahiliti, 2 traktabiliti] tractable & -ity Quality, condition, of being tractable, docile tractable, adj [1 traktahl, 2 traktahl] Lat tractabilis, 'manageable, yielding', fr base of tractare, 'to drag about, to touch, to manage', formed fr tract-(um), PP type of trahere, 'to draw' &c See tract (I) & cp traces (II) 1 Capable of being easily wrought 2 Capable of being easily managed, open to persuasion and influence, controllable

Tractarian, n [1 traktáran, 2 trakteáran] tract (II) & -arian One of the founders of Tractarianism, b a believer in the principles of Tractarianism

Tractarianism, n [1 traktáranizm, 2 trakteáranizm] Prec & -ism Movement, in the Church of England, called also the Oxford Movement, started by the writers of the 'Tracts for the Times', Kahle, Newman, Pusey, Hurrell Froude, and others, published in Oxford in the thirties and forties of the 19th cent The main points of these teachings were a revolt against the extreme Protestantism which had become characteristic of the Church of England as a whole, an appeal in matters of faith and practice to the early fathers, and to the Anglican High Church divines of the 17th cent, such as Andrewes, Laud &c, and the insistence upon sacramental doctrine.

tractate, n [1 traktát, 2 traktet] Lat tractatus, 'a touching, handling, a treatment', see treat & treatise & cp tract (II) A treatise, an excursus, essay traction, n [1 trákshun, 2 trákshn] fr Lat tract-(um), PP type of trahere, 'to draw', see traces (II), & tract (I) & -ion 1 Act, process, of drawing, process of causing to move along by drawing 2 Method by which locomotive power is obtained, transport, esp along roads motor, steam, traction tractional, adj [1 trákshunal, 2 trákshenal] Prec & -al Pertaining to traction traction-engine, n Locomotive engine generally driven by steam, used for drawing heavy trucks along roads tractive, adj [1 traktiv, 2 traktiv] See tract (I) & -ive Having the function or property of drawing, tractional tractor, n [1 trakter, 2 trakte] tract (I) & -or That which draws, specif a traction-engine, b motor vehicle used for drawing agricultural machines, other vehicles &c trade (I), n [1 träd, 2 treid] ME, 'a path', connected w tread 1 A handicraft, a skilled employment the trade of a saddler, of a blacksmith, a wheelwright &c 2 a Business, commercial transactions, esp those of buying and selling commodities, traffic, barter engaged in trade, contrasted with one of the liberal professions, Board of Trade, (i) one of the great Government departments, dealing with commerce and industry &c, strictly a committee of the Privy Council, its ministerial chief, President of the Board of Trade is usually a Cabinet Minister, (ii) in USA, a Chamber of Commerce, b often specif, retail business, shopkeeping, contrasted with commerce his father was in trade, he kept a shop 3 Occupation, employment of any kind, a calling the trade of war 4 Group of persons engaged in some particular trade, specif, the trade, the brewers and distillers, sellers of liquor 5 (in pl) The trades, trade winds trade (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans To engage in, carry on trade, or a trade to trade with Russia, to trade in furs &c Phr to trade (upon), to presume upon, attempt to derive advantage from, esp to exploit in an unscrupulous manner to trade (upon one's father's reputation), to trade upon a person's tender heart 2 trans To barter, exchange to trade knives and beads with natives for skins trade board, n A board composed of equal numbers of representatives of employers and employed with a few nominated neutral members, appointed in certain industries by the Board of Trade, to fix minimum rates of wages &c trade-mark, n Registered name, symbol, device, used by a manufacturer to distinguish the goods made by him from others trade-name, n 1 Name by which an article or commodity is known among those who trade in it 2 Name by which an individual or a firm of traders is known in the commercial world trade price, n Price charged by manufacturers for their goods to those who deal in them trader, n [1 tráder, 2 treide] trade (II) & -er 1 One engaged in trade or commerce, a merchant an African trader 2 A trading vessel tradesfolk, n pl [1 trádzfók, 2 trendzfoúk] Tradespeople tradesman, n [1 trádzmán, 2 trendzmen] 1 Person engaged in trade, esp in retail trade, a shopkeeper 2 A handicraftsman, a skilled worker tradespeople, n pl [1 trádzpépl, 2 trendzplp] Persons engaged in retail trade, shopkeepers, the families of tradesmen, tradesmen as a class tradeswoman, n [1 trádzwooman, 2 trendzwuman] Woman engaged in retail trade trade union, n Legalized association of workers, clerks, or other employees in a particular trade, formed to protect the rights of the members by means of collective bargaining with the employers trade-unionism, n Principles and methods followed by trade unions, system of having trade unions trade-unionist, n Member of a trade union, supporter of the principles of trade-unionism trade-wind, n Wind which blows continuously from NE on north side of equator, and from SE on south side trading, adj [1 trádng, 2 tréidng] Engaged in, carrying on, trade or commerce a trading concern tradition, n [1 tradishun, 2 tradishn] Lat traditio-(em), fr tradit-(um), PP of tradere, 'to give over, deliver, surrender, to betray', & -ion, tradere is for trans, 'over, beyond' &c, see trans-, & dare, 'to give', see dower (I) & donation, & cp traitor & treason 1 (legal) Act of handing over to, of delivering into the hands of, another, delivery 2 Belief, habit, practice, principle, handed down verbally from one generation to another, or acquired by each successive generation from the example of that preceding it the great traditions of the British Army, to keep up the family traditions, it is a misfortune to inherit no traditions 3 A doctrine, based on divine revelation, statement of alleged occurrence &c, transmitted orally though not recorded in documents, concerning matters of religious belief, or great religious teachers, b belief in occurrence of events in the remote past of the history of a race, tribe, family, based upon oral transmission from generation to generation 4 Group of principles in art or letters based on the accumulated practice and experience of a series of generations the Dryden tradition traditional, adj [1 tradishunal, 2 tradishenal] Prec & -al 1 Based on, arising from, tradition, hence, b in accordance with, adhering to tradition, old fashioned traditionalism, n [1 tradishunalizm, 2 tradishenalizm] Prec & -ism 1 Adherence, exaggerated tendency to adhere to, tradition, b doctrine that religious belief must be based upon tradition of divinely revealed truth, and traditional interpretation of the Scriptures traditionalist, n [1 tradishunalist, 2 tradishenalist] See prec & -ist One firmly attached to tradition, believer in traditionalism traditionalistic, adj [1 tradishunalistik, 2 tradishenalistik] Prec & -ic Pertaining to, characterized by, traditionalism traditionally, adv [1 tradishunalh, 2 tradishenalh] traditional & -ly By, in accordance with, tradition traditionary, adj [1 tradishunari, 2 tradishenari] tradition & -ary Traditional traditor, n [1 traditr, 2 tradite] Lat, see tradition & -or, & see traitor Early Christian who betrayed his fellow Christians under persecution, or who handed over the Scriptures or sacred vessels to the Roman authorities traduce, vb trans [1 tradús, 2 tradjús] Lat tradúcere, 'to lead, bring, across', see trans- & ducere & duct To hold up to contempt, to disparage, run down, defame, blacken the character of, to calumniate traducer, n [1 tradúser, 2 tradjús] Prec & -er One who traduces, a calumniator traducian, adj [1 tradúshian, 2 tradjúsian] traduce (see Lat sense) & -ian Connected with, pertaining to, traducianism or traducianists traducianism, n [1 tradúshianizm, 2 tradjúsianizm] Prec & -ism Doctrine that the human soul is precreated along with the body in the act of generation traducianist, n [1 tradúshianist, 2 tradjúsianist] See prec & -ist Adherent of traducianism traduction, n [1 tradukshun, 2 tradáfshn] Fr, 'translation from one language to another', fr Lat traducción-(em), a trans-butt end near the ground, and the muzzle or point sloping forward, b to drag through the water to trail an oar, allow the blade to drag over the surface of the water, to trail a fishing line, draw it along in the water after a boat 2 To follow the track of, to track to trail a deer B intrans 1 To hang down loosely, so as to sweep the ground her long train trailed in the mud 2 To straggle, grow, or be placed, in an extended line from some fixed point, to stream out creepers trailing over the roofs and walls, seaweed trailing over the rocks trail (II), n See prec 1 Visible mark, track, wake, left by anything that has passed, also any other evidence of its passage left by an animal or thing, such as scent on the trail of 2 Path, track, esp through bush or wild country, worn by those who have passed, course, line of route followed through wild country 3 That extended part of a gun carriage which rests upon the ground trailer, n [1 trailer, 2 tréila] trail (I) & -er 1 One following the trail of another person or of an animal 2 Straggling growth of a plant, a long runner of a creeping plant 3 A vehicle of any kind drawn or trailed by another tram (I), vb trans & intrans [1 trān, 2 trēm] O Fr trahier, on Mod Fr trainer, 'to drag, draw along', L lat trahere, formed fr trahere, 'to draw', see tract (I) & trace (II) A trans 1 A To subvert (a person) to discipline and instruction, to educate, to bring up, rear, in habits of good behaviour and conduct to train a child, a horse &c, b to exercise in some specific mental, moral, or bodily discipline, to accustom to specific bodily exercises, or particular mode of reasoning, to cause to acquire skill, deftness, facility, to bring to a certain standard, by systematic practice to train a child to obey, to read music at sight, to be a good gymnast &c, c to produce, form, by training to train a cricketer, to train hospital nurses, soldiers, boatmen &c, to train racehorses &c 2 To cause (plants) to grow in a desired direction by bending, tying &c to train roses against a wall, 3 To direct upon, towards, a given point to train guns on a fort &c B intrans 1 To carry out the process of training, educating, instructing, either generally, or for some specific purpose and along special lines 2 To bring oneself to required pitch of physical condition by dieting &c, and of skill and precision in movement, by steady practice, for a specific contest or form of sport to train for a boat race, for a boxing match, for mountain-climbing train (II), n See prec 1 A body of attendants, a retinue the prince and his train 2 A procession, cortege, a number of persons, vehicles &c forming a continuous line, series, file a funeral train 3 Part of a dress, robe, cloak, cope &c, made long so as to extend along the ground behind the wearer 4 Series of railway coaches or trucks, coupled together, and drawn as a unit by one or more locomotives when does the train start for London? Phr by train, by the railway, as contrasted with by road, sea, air &c, also railway train 5 A series, sequence, of connected ideas do a train of thought, of reasoning, (more rarely) a train of words 6 Course of action process of movement, preparation, development, esp in such Phr as to put things in train, to start prepare for, action &c, 'everything is now in train for the attack' 7 A continuous line esp of gunpowder extending from a given point up to some explosive object or substance which it is desired to blow up train (III) vb intrans, fr prec 4 To travel by railway train train-band n for trained band A company of trained citizens capable of being used for defence started in London in 14th cent, which in the 16th cent. developed into the more highly organized militia train-bearer, n Fr, g or other attendant who holds up the train of the robe of a high personage on a ceremonial occasion, of bride at wedding &c trainer, n [1 trāner, 2 tréins] train (I) & -er One who trains, specif, person who trains men for athletic competitions or horses for racing train-ferry, n A vessel specially built to carry a railway train and transport it and its passengers and freight across water, b service of such vessels training, n [1 trāning, 2 tréinɪŋ] train (I) & -ing 1 A āct or process of forming, educating, instructing, disciplining training of mind and body, the training of teachers, instruction given them in methods and practice of their profession, b state of being trained, practised, disciplined, in some branch of mental or physical proficiency in first-rate training for a race &c training-college, n Institution for instructing young teachers in the theory and art of their profession, a normal school training-ship, n Vessel, usually moored in an estuary, in which the art and practice of seamanship is taught to boys training-stable, n Stables, exercising ground &c where racehorses are trained train-oil, n, fr Dn traen, 'tear from the eye', traem ol, up Germ trāne, 'tear' Thick kind of lubricating oil made from whale blubber

(A trapse, see trapeze)

trait, n [1 trā, 2 tré] Fr, 'a stroke, a feature', orig PP of trave, 'to draw', fr Lat tract (um), PP of trahere, see tract (I) & trace (II) 1 (rare) A stroke, touch a trait of humour 2 A characteristic feature, distinguishing mark the chief traits of a person's character traitor, n [1 trāter, 2 tréitə] ME traitour &c, fr O Fr trahiteur, fr Lat trāditor, 'betrayor', fr tradit (um), PP type of trādere, 'to deliver, surrender', see traditor One who betrays a person or a cause to whom he owes allegiance, specif, one who is disloyal to his king and country, and who consorts with, and betrays secrets to, his country's enemies to the detriment of his native land traitorous, adj [1 trātrus, 2 tréitərəs] Proo & -ous A pertaining to, of the nature of, a traitor or of treachery, b guilty of treachery, disloyal traitorously, adv Proo & -ly In a traitorous manner traitoroussness, n See proo & -ness A quality of being traitorous, b traitorous conduct traitoress, n [1 trātres, 2 tréitris] traistor & -ess A female traitor trajectory, n [1 træktrij, 2 trədžektəri] Lat trajet (um), PP type of trajicere, 'to throw across', & -ory, see trans- & jet (III) Path followed by a projectile fired at a given incline, and passing through the air at a given speed tram (I), n [1 tram, 2 trām] Fr trame, Lat trama, 'wool weft', perh for tragh ema*, op trahere, 'to draw' &c, see tract (I) & trace (II), another suggestion is that first element is trans, 'across', see trans- Double twisted thread, esp such forming weft of velvet or other silk fabrics tram (II), n & vb intrans Perb Scand, etymologists compare Swed dial. trama, 'a log' Norw trami, 'wooden doorstep', but connexion in sense w Engl word is very vague 1 n A large, heavy, public vehicle plying for hire, carrying passengers, and running on rails laid on a road, b truck used in coal mines for conveying coal to entrance of mine 2 vb To travel by tram tram-car, n Vehicle running on a rail laid upon a road, a tram tram-line, n A One of the rails, these taken together, upon which a tram runs b the whole route upon which rails for trams are laid trammel (I), n, [1 trāml, 2 trāml] Fr trama, earlier tremail, 'net', fr L Lat tremaculum fr trēs, 'three, triple', see tri-, & macula, 'a spot, mesh of a net', see macula, & mail (I) 1 (archaic) A net for catching birds 2 A shackle for controlling motions of a horse 3 Something which acts as a check or means of restraint, something which hampers and impedes movement and action, (esp in fig or non-material sense) the trammels of the flesh, the trammels imposed by poverty &c 4 Hook for hanging a pot over a fire, a pot hook, a figure (?) in form of this 5 Instrument for drawing ellipses 6 One of various devices for adjusting and aligning parts of a machine 7 (pl) A beam compass pair of trammels trammel (II), vb trans, fr prec To impose trammels upon, (chiefly fig) to hamper, impede, restrain.

tramontana, n [1 trāmōntāna, 2 trāmōntāna] Ital, see next word. Dry, strong, cold wind from the Adriatic tramontane, adj & n [1 trāmōntān, trāmōntān, 2 trāmōntēn, trāmōntēn] Fr, fr Ital tramontano, fr Lat trans, 'across', see trans-, & montānus, 'of the mountains', see mountain 1 adj Coming from, lying, beyond the mountains, (from Ital standpoint) foreign, barbarous 2 n A stranger, a foreigner tramp (I), vb intrans & trans [1 tramp, 2 tramp] ME trampen, LG trampen, 'to trample', op Goth (ana)trīpan, 'to press down', op trample (I) & trapse 1 intrans a To walk, tread, heavily heavy footsteps tramping overhead, b to plod along, to go on foot, in distinction to riding or going in a vehicle we shall have to tramp as there is no means of conveyance, c (from n) to travel on foot for long distances, after the manner of a tramp 2 trans To traverse by tramping to tramp the streets all night Phr to tramp it, to walk, go on foot tramp (II), n, fr prec 1 A homeless vagrant who wanders along the roads from place to place, sleeping out, and living by mendicancy, and by doing occasional short jobs of work Phr to look like a tramp, present a dirty, disreputable, shabby appearance 2 A long, esp a tedious and laborious, journey on foot 3 Sound of a heavy tread, as of a regiment &c marching past 4 Cargo steamer making short journeys to any port as occasion arises, not always between the same ports, and not going on regular voyages 5 Flat plate of iron on upper edge of blade of a spade to protect hoot when pressing the spade into the ground trample (I), vb trans & intrans [1 trāmpl, 2 trāmpl] ME trampelen, freq of trample (I) 1 trans To tread heavily and repeatedly upon so as to crush to trample grapes, to trample grass down, also trample down (growing corn &c), (also fig) to suppress to trample down one's feelings, to trample upon a person, to oppress, domineer over 2 intrans To perform the act of trampling to hear a person trampling about overhead trample (II), n, fr prec a The act of trampling, b sound of trampling tram-rail, n, a Rail upon which trams run, b (pl) whole system of such rails at given place tramway, n [1 trāmway, 2 trāmwei] Road laid with rails for trams, (also loosely) a tram tran-, pref Form of trans- used before words beginning w a. trance, n [1 trāns, 2 trāns] ME, 'fright, access of fear', fr O Fr trance, 'a swoon', fr transir, 'to chill, penetrate deeply with cold, to benumb', fr Lat transire, 'to pass over', see transire 1 (med) Bodily condition attended with unconsciousness, in which complete insensibility occurs, and the vital functions are reduced to a very low ebb, the general appearance being that of profound and prolonged slumber 2 Condition in which mystics believe that the soul leaves the body and passes into other spheres of being, seeing visions, and receiving enlightenment concerning spiritual mysteries tranquil, adj [1 trānkwil, 2 trānkwil] Op Fr tranquille, fr Lat tranquillus, 'quiet, calm, still', prob fr trans, 'over' &c, w intens sense, see trans-, & quil* noc, fr same base as quies, 'rest, repose', see quiet a (of material things) Calm, serene, not disturbed or agitated the tranquil air, tranquil waters of a lake &c, b (of non-material things) not excited, unruffled, not disturbed by violent emotions, peaceful a tranquil life, a tranquil heart, c expressing no agitation or excitement, exhibiting serenity and calm a tranquil gaze, face, voice tranquility, n [1 trānkwiliti, 2 trānkwiliti] tranquil & -ity State of being tranquil, a material calm, peacefulness, quietness, b calmness, serenity, of mind, composure tranquillization, n [1 trānkwilizāshun, 2 trānkwilizāzēshun] See tranquillize & -ation Act of tranquillizing, state of being tranquilized tranquillize, vb trans & intrans [1 trānkwiliz, 2 trānkwilāiz] tranquil & -ize 1 trans To cause to become tranquil, to quieten, appease, calm down 2 intrans To become tranquil, to die down, abate, become quiet trans-, pref Lat trans, 'across, over, beyond, on farther side of' In most Engl words this pref is pronounced indifferently w either [ab, ā] or [a, æ], even by the same speaker In compounds, trans- has the senses a 'over, across' transire, 'to go over, across', b 'through, through and through' transfigere, 'to pierce through', c 'beyond' transalpinus, 'lying beyond the Alps' In Lat compounds, trans remains unchanged before vowels, & often before cons other than s Before the latter, trans- is the form used, before cons it sometimes appears as trā-, as in trado, 'to give over, deliver' &c, see tradition, also trado In most Engl words where trans- occurs the compound comes direct fr Lat As a living suff it usually has sense of 'beyond, on farther side of', as in trans-Caucasian transact, vb trans & intrans [1 trānzākt, 2 trānzākt] Lat transact (um), PP type of transigere for -agere, 'to carry through, settle, dispatch', see trans- & act (I) 1 trans To carry through, perform, conduct (business, negotiations &c) 2 intrans To settle, put through, a piece of business transaction, n [1 trānzākhun, 2 trānzākhun] Prec & -ion 1 Act or process of conducting, settling (a piece of business) the transaction of affairs &c 2 Something transacted, carried out, negotiated, a piece of business engaged in various transactions 3 (in pl) Account, record, of business transacted, specif, record of papers read before a learned society, Proceedings Transactions of the Philological Society 4 (law) Compromise of a dispute by mutual concession and agreement transalpine, adj & n [1 trānzālpin, 2 trānzālpain] fr Lat transalpinus, see trans- & Alpine 1 adj Situated, living, from Italian point of view, beyond the Alps 2 n Person living beyond the Alps transatlantic, adj [1 trānzātlāntik, 2 trānzātlāntik] a Situated, living, across the Atlantic, b going, making a voyage, across the Atlantic transatlantic liner transcend, vb trans & intrans [1 trānsēnd, 2 trānsēnd] Lat transcendere, 'to step over, surmount, to surpass', trans- & ascendere, 'to climb, ascend', see scan & soandal & second element in ascend & desceod. 1 To go beyond, overstep to transcend the limits of decency 2 To be superior to, to surpass, excel the genus of Shakespeare transcends that of all other human beings transcendence, -ency, n [1 trānsēndēns(i), 2 trānsēndēns(i)] Lat transcendētia, see next word & -ce, -cy 1 Quality of being transcendent 2 Specif (theol) essential attribute of God in being superior to, apart from, and not subject to, the conditions and limitations of the material universe transcendent (I), adj [1 trānsēndēnt, 2 trānsēndēnt] Lat transcendēns (em), Pres. Part of transcendere, see transcend 1 Surpassing, excelling, superior to, others in quality or extent transcendent merit, beauty, also transcendent folly &c 2 Transcendental 3 (theol, of God) Possessing transcendence, see transcendence, 2 transcendent (II), n, fr prec Person or thing which is transcendent transcendental, adj [1 trānsēndēntāl, 2 trānsēndēntāl] transcendent (I) & -al. 1 (philos, of human experience and knowledge) Of a character which is a priori, intuitive, gained by intuition, contrasted with empirical 2 (popular) Vague, fanciful, visionary, abstruse transcendental style (of writing) transcendentalism, n [1 trānsēndēntālizm, 2 trānsēndēntālizm] Prec & -ism System of philosophy which emphasizes the intuitive rather than the empirical elements in thought and knowledge transcendentalist, n [1 trānsēndēntālīst, 2 trānsēndēntālīst] See prec & -ist Believer in transcendentalism.

transcendentalize, vb trans [1 trānsēndēntālāiz, 2 trānsēndēntālāiz] transcendental & -ize To make, regard as, transcendental transcendentially, adv [1 trānsēndēntālī, 2 trānsēndēntālī] See prec & -ly In a transcendental manner transcontinental, adj [1 trānzkontinēntāl, 2 trānzkontinēntāl] Passing across, traversing, the Continent, or a continent transcribe, vb trans [1 trānzskrib, 2 trānzskrib] Lat transcribere, 'to write, copy, from one document to another, to copy off', see trans- & scribe (I) To copy, to write out, write down transcript, n [1 trānzskript, 2 trānzskript] Lat transcript (um), PP type of transcribere, see prec & trans- & script Something transcribed, a copy written from another document transcription, n [1 trānzskripshun, 2 trānzskripshun] Prec & -ion 1 Act, process, of transcribing 2 A transcript, copy transcurrent, adj [1 trānzskurent, 2 trānzskurant] Lat See trans- & current (I) adj Extending, running, across transsect, vb trans [1 trānzsekt, 2 trānzsekt] fr Lat transseci (um), PP of transsecare, 'to cut across', see trans- & sect To cut across transsection, n [1 trānzsekhun, 2 trānzsekhun] Prec & -ion a Act, process, of cutting across, b a transverse section transenna, n [1 trānzēna, 2 trānzēna] Lat, 'a grating, lattice, fowler's net' Etymol entirely obscure Soreen of stone or metal lattice-work enclosing a shrine transept, n [1 trānz, trānzsept, 2 trānz, trānzsept] fr trans- & Lat septum, 'a hedge, an enclosure', see septum That extension on either side of the nave of a church which crosses at right angles before the apse or choir transfer (I), vb trans & intrans [1 trānzfer, 2 trānzfer] Lat transfere, 'to carry over, transport' &c, see trans- & -ferous

A trans 1 a To move, shift (person or thing) from one place to another, remove from one place or position and place in another to transfer a book from a table to a shelf, to transfer a name to another school, also to transfer a name to a different list, b (of non material action) to transfer one's affections, allegiance &c to a new object 2 Specif, to convey, deliver over (property, shares &c), into possession of, vest in, another 3 (lithography &c) To print, take an impression, from one surface to another B intrans Specif, to change one's place from one tram, train, boat, to another transfer (II), n [1 trānzfēr, 2 trānzī]

See pro 1 Act of transferring, state of being transferred, specif. a conveyance, transference, of any kind of property or the right in it, by any means, to another person, b legal instrument by which such conveyance is effected 2 Picture, device, design, made so that it can be transferred from one surface to another, esp. a highly coloured picture on very thin paper, fixed to a thicker paper, which on being immersed in water becomes detached from this, and can be transferred, and made to adhere to, another sheet or object transferability, n [1 trānzferabiliti, 2 trānzferabiliti] See next word & -ity Condition, property, of being transferable transferable, adj [1 trānzferabl, trānzferabl, 2 trānzferabl, trānzferabl] transfer (I) & -able Capable of being transferred, (specif. of rights, or documents attesting these) capable of being legally conveyed to, or vested in, another person transferable vote, method of electing parliamentary and other candidates, in which the voter signifies on the ballot paper the name of the candidate to whom his vote should be transferred if no candidate obtains an absolute majority transferee, n [1 trānzferē, 2 trānzferē] transfer (I) & -ee Person to whom anything, esp. a legal right or interest, is transferred transference, n [1 trānzferens, 2 trānzferens] transfer (I) & -ence Act of transferring, a conveyance, b passage from one place & to another transfereñal, adj [1 trānzferenshal, 2 trānzferenshal] Pro & -ial Pertaining to, of the nature of, a transfer or transference transferor, n [1 trānzferōr, 2 trānzferōr] transfer (II) & -or One who transfers, esp. a legal right or interest transferer, n [1 trānzferer, 2 trānzferer] See pro & -er transferor (in gen. sense) transfiguration, n [1 trānzfigūrāshun, 2 trānzfigūrēshun, trānzfigūrēshun] See transfigure & -ation A marked change of form or of appearance, espec. (esp.) a the miraculous change in the form and face of the Saviour, described in Matt xvi, b feast held by the Church in commemoration of this, on Aug 6th transfigure, vb trans [1 trānzfiger, 2 trānzfiger] Fr transfigurer, fr Lat transfigurāre, 'to change in shape, to transform', see trans- & figure (I) To alter the shape and appearance of, to transform, esp. to make more beautiful and glorious transfix, vb trans [1 trānzfiks, 2 trānzfiks], fr Lat transfix (um), pp type of transfigere, 'to pierce through', fr trans- & figere, 'to fasten, fix, attach', see fix (I) To pierce through, penetrate, to impale to transfix a bird with an arrow, (also fig) to affect profoundly to be transfixed with terror transfixion, n [1 trānzfiksion, 2 trānzfiksion] Pro & -ion. A act of transfixing, b state of being transfixed.

transform, vb trans [1 trānzform, 2 trānzform] Fr transformer, fr Lat transformāre, 'to change shape of', see trans- & form (I) 1 To alter the outward shape and appearance of to each an extent as to cause to appear something different he was quite transformed by the removal of his beard 2 A to change into a different substance, alter the nature of, transmute attempts to transform one metal into another are no longer considered practicable, b to alter the essential character, functions, uses, of to transform a cottage into a mansion a conventicle into a church 3 To change the spiritual nature and character of to transform a criminal into a decent member of society transformable, adj [1 trānzformabl, 2 trānzformabl] Pro & -able Capable of being transformed transformation, n [1 trānzformāshun, 2 trānzformāshun] See pro & -ation. A act of transforming, b condition of being transformed (in various senses both material and non material) transformation scene, n Theatrical scene which gradually changes before the eyes of the audience, specif. one at the end of a pantomime, in which the characters in this change into those of the harlequinade transformative, adj [1 trānzformativ, 2 trānzformativ] Fr transformatif, trans- & formative (I) Tending, serving, to transform transformator, n [1 trānzformātor, 2 trānzformātor] See pro & -or Mechanical device for altering strength of an electric current, transformer transformer, n [1 trānzformer, 2 trānzfōma] transform & -er Person who, thing which, transforms, esp. one of various mechanical devices in electricity or wireless for altering continuous into alternating current or the voltage of a continuous current transformism, n [1 trānzformizm, 2 trānzfōmizm] transform & -ism Biological doctrine, now obsolete, also called mutability of species, that entirely new species may arise from others already existing, chiefly through the modifying influence of environment transfuse, vb trans [1 trānzfúz, 2 trānzfúz], fr Lat transfus (um), pp of transfundere, 'to pour from one (vessel) into another, to pour off', see trans- & fuse (I) 1 To pour (liquid) from one receptacle into another 2 To transfer (blood) from veins of one person or animal into those of another 3 (in non material sense) To instil into, penetrate deeply with, imbue to transfuse one's own enthusiasm into one's audience transfusion, n [1 trānzfúshun, 2 trānzfúshun] Lat transfusio (em), 'a pouring from one vessel into another', trans- & fusio 1 Act, process, of transfusing in all senses, esp. transfusion of blood 2 An intermingling, interpenetration, of different elements, properties, qualities transfusive, adj [1 trānzfúsiiv, 2 trānzfúsiiv] transfuse & -ive Tending to transfuse, serving to bring about transfusion.

transgress, vb trans & intrans [1 trānzgrés, 2 trānzgrés] Fr transgresser, fr Lat transgre (um), pp of transgredi, 'to step across', fr trans- & gradi, 'to step, walk', fr gradus, 'a step', see grade (I) & gradus A transgress the bounds of decency, the limitations of an agreement & 2 To violate, infringe, break to transgress the law, the Divine commands & 3 Intrans To commit a breach of the law, to violate a moral principle, to sin.

transgression, n [1 trānzgréshun, 2 trānzgréshun] Lat transgression (em), 'a going across, a passage', fr transgre (um), see pro & -ion. Act of transgressing, the overstepping of a moral bound or limit, a violation of a moral principle or rule of conduct, a misdeed a sin transgressional, adj [1 trānzgréshunāl, 2 trānzgréshunāl] Pro & -al Pertaining to transgression transgressive, adj [1 trānzgrésiv, 2 trānzgrésiv] Fr transgressiv, fr Lat transgressivus, transgre & -ivus Prone, tending, to transgress transgressor, n [1 trānzgrésur, 2 trānzgrésur] Lat, transgre & -or One who transgresses, a breaker of laws or rules, b a violator of moral principles, a sinner tranship, vb See trans-ship transience, transiency, n [1 trānzniens(i), 2 trānzniens(i)] transient & -ce, -cy Quality, fact, of being transient transient, adj [1 trānzšient, 2 trānzšient] As though fr Lat transiens (em), Pres Part of transire, 'to pass through, to pass', on anal. of ambient, see transire Pass time, fleeting, brief, momentary, contrasted with lasting, permanent, a (of material things) a transient smile, a transient flush in the sky, b (of non material things) transient pleasures, joys, success &c transiently, adv Pro & -ly For a moment, in a brief space of time, not permanently transilient, adj [1 trānzšilient, 2 trānzšilient] Lat transilient (em), Pres Part of transilire, 'to spring over, or across', fr trans- & salire, 'to leap', see salient (I), (anat, of nerve fibres) Passing from one convolution of the brain to another, not adjacent transilluminate, vb trans [1 trānzšilūmināt, 2 trānzšilūminēt] trans- & illuminate To cause light to pass through, esp. to pass light through some part of the body for purposes of examination, as by X rays transillumination, n [1 trānzšilūmināshun, 2 trānzšilūminēshun] Pro & -ion. Act, process, of transilluminating transire, n [1 trānzšire, 2 trānzširē] Lat infin, 'to go through', see trans- & base 's', 'to go', discussed under itinerate Document issued by Custom house officials describing cargo of a ship, enabling it to be cleared, and setting forth names of consignors and consignees trans-isthmian, adj [1 trānzšimian, 2 trānzšimian] trans- & isthmus & -an Across an isthmus or through a ship canal through an isthmus, as through the Panama or Suez Canal a trans isthmian canal, trans isthmian traffic transit (I), n [1 trānzšit, 2 trānzšit] Lat transitus, 'a going over, a passage', fr transit (um), pp type of transire, 'to pass over', see transire 1 Passage through 2 Act, process, of conveying, sending, transmitting, causing to pass the transit of goods, Phr in transit, said of goods during time which elapses between the moment of their being sent off and that of the receipt by the person to whom they are consigned 3 Passage of a heavenly body, esp. of Venus or Mercury, across sun's disk, or across field of vision of a telescope, or apparent passage of a star across meridian transit (II), vb trans, fr pro (of a heavenly body) To pass across the sun's disk transit-circle, instrument, n Instrument for observing the transit of heavenly bodies transition, n [1 trānzšizhun, 2 trānzšizhun] Lat transitiō (em), 'a passing over, passage', see transit (I) & -ion 1 Change, passage, a from one place, or kind of place, to another a sudden transition from the plain to hilly country, b passage, alteration, from one set of conditions, mode of existence, state &c to another a gradual transition from a tropical to a cold climate, a rapid transition from poverty to wealth, a natural transition from grave to gay, a period of transition &c 2 (used attrib) Indicating a process of gradual change and modification transition period, one occurring between two well-marked, characteristic periods, Transition English, Early Middle English, Late Transition, that Old and Middle and Modern English transitional, adj [1 trānzšizhunāl, 2 trānzšizhunāl] Pro & -al Pertaining to, occurring, existing, under conditions of transition, marked by, characterized by, change from one state of things to another transitionally, adv See pro & -ly In a transitional manner transitionalary, adj [1 trānzšizhunari, 2 trānzšizhunari] transition & -ary Transitional transitive, adj [1 trānzšitiv, 2 trānzšitiv], fr 1 Lat transitivus, see transit (I) & -ive transitive verb one expressing an action which passes directly on to, and affects, the object, as to strike the iron while it is hot, contrasted with intransitive, as to strike while the iron is hot 2 Having the property of passing or another transitive heat transitively, adv Prec & -ly In a transitive manner, by use of a transitive verb transitiveness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being transitive transitivity, n [1 trānzitiviti, 2 trānzitiviti] transitive & -ity Property of being transitive, capacity of passing from one person or thing to another transitorily, adv [1 trānzituri, 2 trānzituri] transitory & -ly In a transitory manner, for a time only transitoriness, o [1 trānziturnes, 2 trānziturnes] Next word & -ness Quality, state, of being transitory transitory, adj [1 trānzituri, 2 trānzituri] Lat transitorius, 'adapted for passing through', see transit (I) & -ory Not lasting, tending to pass away, enduring but for a time, fleeting, evanescent this transitory life translatable, adj [1 trānzlātbl, 2 trānzlātbl] See next word & -able Capable of being translated translate, vb trans & intrans [1 trānzlāt, 2 trānzlāt], fr L Lat translatōre, formed fr translat (um), P P type of transfere, 'to carry over', see transfer (I), trans-, & lāt-, wh stands for lāt*, see base h-* under tolerate & thole A trans 1 a (archaic) To remove, transfer, from one place to another, specif b to remove, transfer, (a bishop) from one see to another, o to remove the body or relics of a saint, confessor, or martyr from one place to another 2 Specif, to remove, carry away, bodily, direct to heaven without death of the body Enoch is said to have been translated to heaven 3 To turn from one language into another, to render in one language what has been written or spoken in another 4 To render what is expressed or conceived in one medium into another to translate promises, schemes &c into actions, to translate phonetic symbols into sounds B intrans 1 To translate what is uttered or written in one language into another I can read Danish but can't translate into it 2 To be capable of translation poetry does not translate easily translation, n [1 trānzlāshun, 2 trānzlāshun] Lat translatiō (em), 'a removing, transferring, from one place to another', also of language, 'a version, translatiō', see translate & -ion 1 Act, process, of translating, a the transference of a bishop from one see to another, b removal to heaven without bodily death, n removal of body or relics of a saint &c from one place to another Specif 2 a act of translating from one language into another, b something which is translated, esp a version in a particular language of something originally written or uttered in a different language translational, adj [1 trānzlāshunāl, 2 trānzlāshunāl] Prec & -al Pertaining to, connected with, translation translative, adj [1 trānzlātiv, 2 trānzlātiv] Lat translativus, 'belonging to transference, capable of being transferred', see translate & -ive a Connected with, denoting, a transfer of property, b indicating, expressing, a transference of meaning, state &c translator, n [1 trānzlāter, 2 trānzlāter] Lat See translate & -or One who translates, esp ooe who translates from one language into another transliterate, vb trans [1 trānzlāterāt, 2 trānzlāterāt], fr trans- & Lat littera, 'letter', see letter (I) & lateral & -ate To write what is actually or commonly written with the symbols of a given alphabet in the corresponding symbols of another in this Dictionary, Greek is always transliterated with Roman letters transliteration, n [1 trānzlāterāshun, 2 trānzlāterāshun] Prec & -ion a Act of transliterating, b written word &c which has been transliterated translucence, translucency, n [1 trānzlūšens(i), 2 trānzlūšens(i)] Next word &

-ce, -cy Property, condition, of being translucent translucent, adj [1 trānzlūšent, 2 trānzlūšent] Lat, 'shining through', see trans- & lucens Allowing rays of light to pass through, transparent or semi-transparent transmarine, adj [1 trānzmarēn, 2 trānzmarēn] trans- & marine (I) adj Situated, living, coming from, beyond, on the other side of, the sea transmigrant, adj [1 trānzmiigrant, 2 trānzmiigrant] trans- & migrant Migrating from one place or oodition to another transmigrate, vb intrans [1 trānzmiigrāt, 2 trānzmiigrāt] trans- & migrate 1 To migrate, go, from one place or country to another 2 (of the soul) To pass at death into another body.

transmigration, n [1 trānzmiigrāshun, 2 trānzmiigrāshun] trans- & migration 1 Act of migrating from one place or country to another 2 (specif Hinduism &c) The passage of the soul at death into another body, human or animal, metempsychosis, usually, the transmigration of souls transmigrator, o [1 trānzmiigrāter, 2 trānzmiigrāter] Transmigrate & -or. One who transmigrates transmigratory, adj [1 trānzmiigratari, 2 trānzmiigratari] Transmigrate & -ory Give to, liable to, transmigration transmissibility, n [1 trānzmiishiliti, 2 trānzmiishiliti] Next word & -ity Condition, quality, of being transmissible, capacity of being transmitted transmissible, adj [1 trānzmiishil, 2 trānzmiishil] transmiss- as in transmission & -ible Capable of being transmitted transmission, n [1 trānzmiishun, 2 trānzmiishun] trans- & mission a Act of transmitting, b condition of being transmitted transmit, vb trans & intrans [1 trānzmit, 2 trānzmit] Lat transmittere, 'to send, convey, across, to allow to pass through, to hand over', trans-, & see missile & mission for base of second element A trans 1 To hand over, cause to be received, pass on (by a physical action) to transmit a package by rail, a letter by hand 2 To pass on, convey, hand on, or down, a by heredity parents transmit their characters and features to their offspring, b by inheritance and descent to transmit property, o title, to one's heirs 3 To permit passage of, allow to pass along, serve as medium for wires transmit an electric current 4 To communicate, pass on, tell to transmit news, to transmit a tradition to the younger generation B intrans (law) To descend by transmission transmitter, n [1 trānzmiter, 2 trānzmiter] Prec & -er a One who transmits 'No tenth transmitter of a foolish face' (Savage, 'The Bastard'), b that which transmits, part of a telephone or telegraphic apparatus which sends on the message, specif, apparatus by means of which wireless waves are sent out transmogrification, o [1 trānzmiognifāshun, 2 trānzmiognifāshun] See next word & -ification Act of transmogrifying, a complete change or transformation transmogrify, vb trans [1 trānzmiognifi, 2 trānzmiognifi] Mod coinage To cause to change completely in appearance or character, to transform, transmute transmutability, o [1 trānzmiutābiliti, 2 trānzmiutābiliti] Next word & -ity Quality, fact, of being transmutable transmutable, adj [1 trānzmiutātbl, 2 trānzmiutātbl] transmute & -able Capable of being transmuted transmutably, adv Prec & -ly So as to be transmutable transmutation, n [1 trānzmiutāshun, 2 trānzmiutāshun] Lat transmutatiō (em) transmute & -ation 1 a Act or process of transmuting, complete change in nature, form, or conditions, transformation, transmutations of fortune, ops and downs, fluctuations, b state of being transmuted. 2 Specif a (biol) change of one species into another (a process now called mutation), b (alchemy) transmutation of metals, supposed conversion of base metals into gold transmutationist, n [1 trānzmiutāshunist, 2 trānzmiutāshunist] Prec & -ist Believer in the transmutation of species or of metals transmutative, adj [1 trānzmiutātiv, 2 trānzmiutātiv] Lat transmutat (um), P P type of transmutāre, 'to change over', see transmute, & -ive Connected with, resulting from, transmutation transmute, vb trans [1 trānzmiūt, 2 trānzmiūt] Lat transmutāre, 'to change, shift', see trans- & mutable To change from one form, character, set of conditions, into another, to transform transoceanic, adj [1 trānzōshēanik, 2 trānzōshēanik] Across the ocean, a situated on the other side of, beyond, an ocean, b crossing an ocean transom, n [1 trānsom, 2 trānsom] Lat transum, 'a cross-timber, beam running from side to side in a vessel', formed fr trans-, w formative tr-, expressing an agent or instrument a Horizontal stone or wooden beam or bar across the top of a doorway or of a window, or across the middle of a window, b beam or timber fixed across the stern-post of a vessel, c any cross timber or strut used in building and engineering transom-window, n Window over the transom of a door transpadane, adj [1 trānzpadān, 2 trānzpadān], fr Lat transpadānus, fr trans, 'across', see trans-, & Padus, the river Po, & -an(e) Situated, lying beyond, i.e north of, the river Po transparence, n [1 trānzspārens, 2 trānzspārens] transparent & -ce Transparency 1 transparency, n [1 trānzspārens, 2 trānzspārens] transparent & -cy 1 Quality of being transparent 2 Something which is transparent, specif, a picture or device, concealed externally between thin sheets of paper, cloth &c, but becoming visible if looked at against a light transparent, adj [1 trānzspārent, 2 trānzspārent] Lat transparent (em), Pres Part of transparere, fr trans- & parere, 'to appear', see appear & pare 1. (of matter) a Permeable to light, having the property of letting rays of light pass through, and therefore of allowing objects and images behind or beneath, to be clearly seen, reverse of opaque, b (of fabric) open, having an open texture or mesh, so that what lies beneath is scarcely concealed transparent muslin &c 2 (of style) Clear, limpid, lucid, easy to be understood 3 (of the character and spiritual qualities) Candid, frank, not attempting to hide or dissemble transparent honesty, sincerity &c transparently, adv Prec & -ly In a transparent manner (lit and fig) transparentness, n See prec & -ness. Quality of being transparent transpierce, vb trans [1 trānzpiērs, 2 trānzpiērs] trans- & pierce To pierce through, to transfix transpirable, adj [1 trānzpiērb, 2 trānzpiērb] transpire & -able Capable of being given off in vapour transpiration, o [1 trānzpiērašun, 2 trānzpiērašun] transpire & -ation a Process of transpiring, of exhaling vapour, b moisture given off in form of vapour transpiratory, adj [1 trānzpiēratari, 2 trānzpiēratari] Lat transpirat (um), P P type of transpirāre, see transpire, & -ory Pertaining to, connected with, transpiration transpire, vb intrans & trans [1 trānzpiērs, 2 trānzpiērs] Fr transpirer, 'perspire' &c, fr Lat transpirare, trans- & spirare, 'to breathe, blow, to exhale', see spirant A intrans 1 To exhale, give off, watery vapour 2 To pass off, be exhaled, in form — watery vapour 3 (of events, or news concerning them) To become known, leak out nothing transpired of all that happened, what occurred did not transpire, it transpired that the Emperor was dead 4 (incorrect and vulg. usage) To take place, happen, occur grave events transpired which did not become known for many hours B trans To excrete, exhale through the pores, give off in form of vapour transplant, vb trans & intrans [1 trahnsp-lahnt, 2 trahnsp-lant] See trans- & plant (I) 1 trans a To dig up, remove (plant &c) from where it is growing, and re plant in another place, b to remove (persons) from one place of abode, and re settle them elsewhere 2 intrans a (of persons) To perform the act of transplanting, b (of plants) to be capable of being transplanted, to bear transplantation.

transplantation, n. [1 trahnsp-lahntshun, 2 trahnsp-lantshun] Prec & -ation a Act of transplanting (growing trees &c), b removal of skin &c by a surgeon, from one part of the body or from body of a given person, and the setting of it in another part, or in the body of another person &c, c removal of persons settled in one place, and resettling of them elsewhere transplanter, n [1 trahnsp-lahnter, 2 trahnsp-lante] transplant & -er a Person who transplants, b mechanical device for trans planting trees &c transpontine, adj [1 trahnsp-ontin, 2 trahnsp-ontin] trans- & Lat pont-, 'a bridge', see pons, & -ine Lying on the other side of a bridge, (specif usage) referring to a type of melodrama formerly popular in theatres on the south side of London Bridge a trans pontine drama, hero &c transport (I), vb trans [1 trahnsp-ort, 2 trahnsp-ort] Lat transportare, 'to carry across', see trans- & port (IV) 1 To carry, transfer, from one place to another to transport passengers and luggage &c 2 Specif, to convey criminals to a penal settlement, to banish as punishment for crime transported for sheep stealing 3 (fig) To take out of oneself, to ravish, charm, by powerful emotion transported with delight, grief &c transport (II), n [1 trahnsp-ort, 2 trahnsp-ort] fr prec 1 Act or process of transporting, carriage, conveyance the transport of goods &c 2 A vessel engaged in transporting goods and passengers specif b ship carrying troops 3 Violent, overwhelming emotion, gust of feeling, ecstasy a transport of joy, horror, rage &c transportability, n [1 trahnsp-ortabiliti, 2 trahnsp-ortabiliti] Next word & -ity Quality, state, of being transportable transportable, adj [1 trahnsp-ortabl, 2 trahnsp-ortabl] transport (I) & -able Capable of being transported, carried, conveyed.

transportation, n [1 trahnsp-ortashun, 2 trahnsp-ortashun] transport (I) & -ation 1 Act of transporting, conveyance, transport 2 Fact of being sent to penal settlement, punitive banishment transportation for life transporter, n [1 trahnsp-orter, 2 trahnsp-orter] transport (I) & -er a One who transports, (in various senses) transporter of goods &c, b machine, apparatus, for carrying goods from one place to another, a conveyer transposal, n. [1 trahnsp-ozl, 2 trahnsp-ozl] See next word & -al. a Act of transposing, b something transposed.

transpose, vb trans & intrans [1 trahnsp-oz, 2 trahnsp-oz] Fr transposer see trans- & pose (I) A trans 1 a To change the respective places or order of things, to put one thing in the place or order formerly occupied by another, and the latter in that place where, or order in which, the former stood, b to alter relative position and order (of words) in a sentence. 2 (mus) To put into a different key B intrans 1 Specif, to put piece of music into a different key 2 To be capable of, lend itself to, transposition the sentence is ambiguous as it stands—won't it transpose?

transposition, n [1 trahnsp-ozishun, 2 trahnsp-ozishun] trans- & position (I) Act of transposing, result of this transpositive, adj [1 trahnsp-ozitiv, 2 trahnsp-ozitiv] See prec & -ive Consisting in transposition.

trans-ship, vb trans [1 trahnz-ship, 2 trahnz-ship] trans- & ship To remove, transfer (goods or passengers) from one ship to another, the voyage being continued in the latter trans-shipment, n. [1 trahnz-shipment, 2 trahnz-shipment] Prec & -ment Act of trans shipping transubstantiate, vb trans [1 trahnsub-stan-shi-ah, 2 trahnsub-stan-shi-ah] Med. Lat transubstantiatio (um), P P of transubstantiatio, see trans- & substantiate To change into another substance, to transmute transubstantiation, n. [1 trahnsub-stan-shi-ah, 2 trahnsub-stan-shi-ah] Med Lat transubstantiatio (em) See prec & -ion. Doctrine that in the Eucharist a change is wrought in the elements at consecration, whereby the whole substance of these is transmuted into the very Body and Blood of Christ, nothing of the bread and wine remaining except the appearance.

transudation, n [1 trahnsub-dashun, 2 trahnsub-dashun] See transude & -ation a Process of transuding, b moisture which transudes transudatory, adj [1 trahnsub-datur, 2 trahnsub-datur] See next word & -ory Pertaining to, of the nature of, transudation transude, vb intrans [1 trahnsub-d, 2 trahnsub-d] trans- & Lat sudare, 'to sweat, perspire', see sudation & sweat (I) To pass out through, or as through, the pores, in form of perspiration transversal, adj & n [1 trahnz-ver-sal, 2 trahnz-ver-sal] transverse & -al 1 adj Transverse 2 n Line that intersects other lines transversality, n [1 trahnz-ver-saliti, 2 trahnz-ver-saliti] Prec & -ity Quality of being transversal transversally, adv [1 trahnz-ver-sal, 2 trahnz-ver-sal] See transversal & -ly Transversely transverse, adj & n [1 trahnz-ver-s, 2 trahnz-ver-s] transverse, transverse Lat transverse, also transversus, 'going, lying, across, or athwart', fr trans- & vers (um), P P type of vertere, 'to turn', see version, op also traverser (I) 1 adj Passing, lying, placed, so as to cross, crosswise 2 n Something which lies in a transverse direction transversely, adv [1 trahnz-ver-sal, 2 trahnz-ver-sal] Prec & -ly In a transverse direction tranter, n [1 trahnter, 2 trahnter] Etymol. doubtful, Mod Lat has trahentarius (pro vino) Hawker, carrier trap (I), n [1 trap, 2 trap] Swed trappa, 'stair' Any of various kinds of dark-coloured, igneous rocks, also trap rock, so called because they occur in masses rising one above another somewhat in the form of flights of stairs trap (II), n ME has trappen, 'to clothe, furnish with trappings &c', origin doubtful, op Span trapa, 'cloth', connexion w Fr drap, 'cloth', see draps, is doubtful. (colloq usually pl traps) Personal possessions, clothes &c, luggage trap (III), n OE has trappes, ME trappe, origin unknown 1 A mechanical or other material device for catching or snaring animals, birds &c, a pitfall, a snare, a gin 2 (fig) a A stratagem, an artful scheme, device, or plan to ensnare and deceive or to lead (persons) into an awkward dilemma, b anything having a deceptive, misleading appearance, a take in, a pitfall 3 Instrument used in trap ball, consisting of a wooden arm with a pivot in the middle, raised from the ground below the pivot, one and retains a ball and the other is struck downwards, causing the ball to fly up, he ball is then struck and driven in desired direction 4 Apparatus from which live or clay pigeons are released for shooting at 5 Bend in the upper end of a drain pipe, just below the opening, which holds a certain amount of water, and thus prevents noxious gases from escaping from the sewer 6 A horse carriage, esp one with only two wheels 7 A trap door trap (IV), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 a To catch in, or as in, a trap, to snare, also b (fig) to catch by artifice and stratagems, to cozen, deceive 2 To supply (drain &c) with a trap or traps B intrans To set traps, practice occupation of a trapper trapan, vb trans See trepan (II) trap-ball, n. Old game played with trap and ball trap-door, n. Hinged flap, opening upwards from a ceiling or roof, giving entrance to a loft &c, one giving access from below the stage of a theatre, for sudden appearance of demons, ghosts &c, trap door spider, a kind of spider which nests in a cylindrical hole in the ground which it closes by a hinged door trapeze, n [1 trapéz, 2 trapéz] Fr trapèze, fr Gk trapezion, see trapezium Short, swinging horizontal bar, suspended from two ropes, used by gymnasts and acrobats trapeziform, adj [1 trapéziform, 2 trapéziform] Prec & -form. Having the form of a trapezium trapezium, n. [1 trapézium, 2 trapézium] Lat, fr Gk trapezion, 'a little table', dimin fr trapeza, 'a table', fr tetra-, 'four', see tetra-, & péza, 'a foot', q v under padal (I) (geom) Four sided plane figure, no two lines of which, or according to another definition, only two, are parallel trapezoid, adj & n [1 trapézoid, 2 trapézoid] Prec & -oid. 1 adj Having the form of a trapezium, also trapezoidal 2 n Trapezium trapper, n [1 tráper, 2 tráper] trap (IV) & -er Person who traps animals, specif, one who traps animals for their skins trappings, n pl [1 trápings, 2 trápings] See trap (II). 1 Harness, accoutrements, caparison, of a horse, esp elaborately ornamented harness and adjuncts used on ceremonial occasions 2 Ceremonial or official dress, elaborate uniform with decorations

Trappist, n [1 trapist, 2 trapist] fr monastery of La Trappe in Normandy Member of a branch of Cistercian order of monks who observe strict silence among themselves trappy, adj [1 trápi, 2 trápi] trap (III) & -y Full of snares or traps, tricky trapse, trapes trapse, vb intrans [1 tráps, 2 tráps] Perhaps related to, or the same as, obs or dial trape, trappe, & cogn w M Dn trappen, Norw dial trappa, 'to tread, stamp', op w infixed nasal, tramps to ramble or gad about aimlessly trap-shooting, n Shooting at live or clay pigeons released from a trap trash, n [1 trash, 2 trash] Cp ON tras 'rubbish, twigs &c collected for fuel' Origin doubtful a Worthless stuff, rubbish, shoddy, cheap material, b literary or artistic work of very poor quality trashy, adj [1 trásh, 2 tráfis] trashy & -ly In a trashy manner or style trashiness, n [1 tráfines, 2 tráfines] See next word & -ness Quality of being trashy, esp in con material sense the trashiness of much modern writing trashy, adj [1 tráfis, 2 tráfis] trash & -y Worthless, rubbishy (of material and non-material things) trass, n [1 tras, 2 tras] Do tras, perb fr Ital terrazza, see terrace A volcanic earth, used as a hydraulic cement trattoria, n. [1 trátoria, 2 trétoria] Ital An Italian eating house trauma, n [1 trávma, 2 tróma] Gk trauma, 'a wound, damage', perb fr same base as Gk tráem, 'to wear down, or ont', op Lat terere, 'to rub, wear away', see tarado, tarmita & words there referred to (med) A bodily injury, a wound traumatic, adj [1 trawmátik, 2 trómotik], fr Gk traumat-, stem of trauma, see prec & -ic Pertaining to, caused by, following after or in consequence of, a wound or other bodily injury traumatic neurasthenia &c traumatism, n [1 trawmatizm, 2 trómetizam] See prec & -izm General pathological condition produced by severe wounds or injuries travail, n & vb intrans [1 trávál, 2 trávael] O Fr travail, 'toil', travailler, 'to labour, work', perb fr L Lat trepalum, 'an instrument of torture', fr trés, 'three', see trú-, & pálus, 'a stake', see pale (I) 1 n Pains of childbirth, labour 2 vb A To feel the pains of childbirth, be in labour, b to toil painfully and laboriously travel (I), vb intrans & trans [1 tráví, 2 tráví] Same word as prec, derived fr type accentuated on first syll fr early period A intrans 1 To move along, go, proceed a tram travels along a rail 2 To make a journey, to go from place to place, esp to journey for long distances, in remote places to travel on the Continent 3 Specif, to journey from place to place with a view to selling goods or to obtaining orders for goods from customers, to ply the business of a commercial traveller B trans To pass through or over (tract of country) in travelling, to traverse, journey through to travel the whole world in search of novelty travel (II), n, fr prec 1 (rare) Process of travelling, movement, mode, rate, of movement or progress (of parts of machine &c) 2 (chiefly pl) a Journeys, journeyings, wanderings, esp long journeys, in foreign and remote parts travels abroad, back from one's travels, b narrative, book containing this, of travels, and adventures occurring during those a book of travels travelled, adj [1 trávíd, 2 trávíd], fr PP of travel (I) Having experience of travelling, having travelled widely traveller, n [1 tráv(é)ler, 2 tráv(é)la] travel (I) & -er a One who travels, specif b one who travels to obtain orders for a trading firm a commercial traveller traveller's cheque, n. Cheque, usually for relatively small amount, issued by a banker to a client travelling abroad, payable by any agent of the bank which issues it traveller's-joy, n Species of clematis, Clematis vitalba traveller's tale, n A fantastic, exaggerated, highly coloured narrative, a tall story, story of fictitious adventures and exploits traversable, adj [1 trávrasabl, 2 trávrasébl] traverse (I) & -able Capable of being traversed, passable traverse (I), vb trans & intrans [1 trávras, 2 trávras] Fr traverse, fr O Fr travers, 'across', see transversa A trans 1 To pass, run, lie, be placed, across the railway line traverse the road at this point 2 A To cross, pass over, travel across to traverse the desert, the ocean &c, b (fig) to go over, treat of, deal with, in discussion, argument, exposition I need not traverse that ground in my present lecture 3 A To oppose, call in question, take exception to I must traverse several points in your statement, b (law) to deny (allegation of other party) 4 a (artillery) To move, turn sideways or laterally, in aiming to traverse a gun, b (carpentry) to plane (wood) across the grain, c (mach) to swivel, turn (lathe &c) laterally B intrans To execute a traverse, a in fencing, b in riding traverse (II), adj & adv, see prec 1 adj Lying across, formed, out, crosswise traverse trench 2 adv Crosswise traverse (III), n, fr prec 1 Something which traverses, which lies across, a a dividing bar or partition, b a structural part, a beam, transom &c, crossing a ceiling, lying across top of a door &c, c a path made across face of a cliff, glacier &c in mountaineering, d earth-work placed at right angles to the front of a trench or covered way, dividing it into bays, thus giving protection against enfilade fire and localizing effect of shell-bursts 2 (fig) Circumstance, event, which thwarts, hinders, a purpose or action, specif (law) a formal denial of fact alleged by opposite party in a suit 3 A cross movement, a (fencing) movement made in opposing or counteracting an attack, b oblique, crosswise, forward movement of a horse traverser, n [1 trávser, 2 trávse] traverse (I) & -er One who, that which, traverses, specif, device in form of platform on wheels moving laterally, used in shifting railway carriages from one line of rails to another, also traverse table travertine, n [1 trávrtin, 2 trávrtin] Ital travertino, Lat Tiburinus (lapis), 'Tibur (stone)', now Tivoli Hard, calcareous deposit of limy springs, used in Italy for building travesty, vb trans & n [1 trávvesti, 2 trávvesti], fr Fr travestir, PP of travestir, 'to disguise, make ridiculous', fr trans- & Lat vestire, 'to clothe', see vest (I) 1 vb A To cause to appear ridiculous, to caricature, to burlesque, mimic, to imitate (deliberately) in such a manner as to bring ridicule upon to travesty a person's manner, mode of speech, style &c, b to render absurd, represent, perform badly, misinterpret, through incompetence or lack of skill to travesty the part of Hamlet, the position of chairman 2 n A A deliberate burlesque, parody, comical imitation or mimicry, b an incompetent performance, a distortion, perversion, misconception a travesty of justice, of disciplines &c trawl, vb trans & intrans & n [1 trawl, 2 trál] O Fr troller, 'to move about, go to and fro, in a desultory fashion', see troll (I) 1 vb a trans To drag along after a vessel to trawl a net, a fishing line, b intrans, to practise trawling first we tried throwing a fly, and then we trawled 2 n a A fishing-net with a wide mouth, held open by a frame, and dragged along the bottom of the sea, also trawl-net, b a long line having short lines coming at intervals from it, with baited hooks attached, stretched out, and buoyed, and anchored at both ends, also trawl line trawler, n [1 tráwler, 2 trálle] prec & -er a Person who trawls, b vessel used in trawling trawling, n [1 tráwling, 2 trálín] See prec & -ing Act or process of using a trawl net or trawl line for catching fish tray, n [1 trá, 2 tré] ME trene &c, origin doubtful, possibly fr an OE treag*, or treag*, & connected by gradation w OE trög, see trough A flat, round, oval, or oblong board, plate, slab, of wood, metal, papier mâché &c, with edges slightly raised, used for holding, or carrying, light articles such as glass, china, crockery, silver &c, or for banding such articles or letters &c treacherous, adj [1 trecherus, 2 trétjerus] See treachery & -ous 1 a (of persons) Disloyal, false, apt to betray, unreliable, liable to break a pledge or a promise, perfidious, b (of actions, and bodily movements) expressing, involving, treachery and deceit, betrayal, disloyalty a treacherous glance, smile, move &c, c (of mental functions) unreliable, uncertain, apt to fail a treacherous memory 2 a (of animals) Not to be depended upon, liable to turn on their masters, b (of inanimate things) not as good as they appear, liable to disappoint expectation, not justifying hopes which they arouse treacherous ice, branch, liable to break, though seeming sound, treacherous weather, bright but cold, or likely to turn to rain &c treacherously, adv prec & -ly In a treacherous, treacherous manner treacherousness, n See prec & -ness. a Treacherous action, treachery, b disloyalty, falseness of heart and character treachery, n [1 trechen, 2 trétjeri] ME, fr O Fr trech, tricherie, op trechier, 'to deceive', cp trickary & see trick (I). Disloyal action, betrayal, breach of trust, allegiance, or of pledged word, perfidy treacle, n [1 trékl, 2 tríkl] O Fr triacle, cp Provenç triacle, triaca, fr Lat thiaria, 'antidote against poisonous beasts' fr Gk thiárakē, see thiaria 1 (obs) a A sovran remedy, cure against poison, esp of venomous reptiles & or disease, b remedy, balm, for spiritual ills 2 Thick, syrupy substance which drains out of sugar in the process of refining, molasses treacly, adj [1 trékl, 2 tríkl] prec & -ly a Having a thick, sticky consistency, like that of treacle, b covered with treacle, c (fig)unctuous a treacly smile

tread (I), vb intrans & trans [1 tred, 2 trad] OE & OS trēdan, ME trēden, OHG trēlan, Goth trudan (u is difficult to equate w the other forms), ON trōða, not found outside Gmc, unless the base may be connected remotely w that in Gk drōmos, a 'running', q v under dromedary A intrans To walk, step, go, specif (poet) to go on foot, contrasted with creep, tread on, upon, to put one's foot upon, a to crush with the foot to tread (up)on a black beetle, b to step, walk, upon (by mistake) to tread upon a slide and fall down, tread down, a to crush down, by treading to tread down flowers, b to suppress, oppress, overpower 'No hungry generations tread thee down' (Keats, 'Nightingale'), also to tread down one's feelings, tread under, crush down, oppress, tread out, crush, cause to flow or come out, by treading to tread out the juice of the grapes, to tread out the corn, tread in, press into the earth by treading B trans 1 To beat, press down, by treading to tread a path through the grass 2 To traverse, walk, pass, over, (often fig) to tread the paths of exile Phr to tread the boards, be an actor 3 To execute on foot, by walking, dancing 'Now tread us a measure,' said young Lochinvar (Scott) 4 (of male birds) To have connexion with (the female) tread (II), n, fr prec 1 a Act of treading, footstep the tread of armed men, b mode of treading, or walking, stepping a sprightly, airy tread 2 Thing, or part of something, designed for treading on, specif a the flat, upper surface of a stair or step, b part of a boot or shoe which presses on the ground, c part of tire of a wheel which rests, presses, upon the ground 3 Copulation of male bird treadle, n [1 trédle, 2 trédle] OE trēdel, fr tread (I) Part of a machine on which the foot rests in working a crank which turns a wheel, e g in a bicycle, sewing-machine &c treadmill, n [1 trédmil, 2 trédmil] Mill worked by persons who tread upon steps made on the periphery, formerly used as a punishment, and also as a means of exercise, for convicts treason, n [1 trázn, 2 trízín] ME tresun, trason &c, fr O Fr traison, fr Lat trādition (em), 'delivering up', see tradition 1 Betrayal of trust, treachery, perfidy 2 Specif, disloyalty, treachery, to one's king and country, any attempt to overthrow government or well being of a state to which one owes allegiance, the crime of giving comfort to the king's enemies, high treason, outrage offered to the king's person, to that of his consort, or that of his heir, attempt to depose the king or to levy war against him treasonable, adj [1 trézunabl, 2 trízunabl] prec & -able Pertaining to, involving, of the nature of, treason, treacherous, disloyal, perfidious treasonableness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being treasonable treasonably, adv prec & -ly In a treasonable manner treason-felony, n An act of high treason treasure (I), n [1 trezjur, 2 treža] ME trezor, tresour, fr O Fr, fr Lat thēsaurus, fr Gk thēsaurós, 'a store laid up, treasure, a treasure house, receptacle for treasure, a coffer', prob an old, obscured compound, origin unexplained 1 Valuables stored up and carefully kept, esp money, plate, jewels 2 Money the War cost the country great sacrifices in blood and treasure 3 Something of great value, beauty, or rarity, object to which great importance is attached treasures of art in museums and picture galleries, the unique MS of Beowulf is among the price-less treasures of the British Museum Library 4 A person (child or young woman) to whom one is devotedly attached, esp as affectionate mode of address my treasure!, b a person who is invaluable by reason of competence in his business, reliability of character, serviceableness &c my new buller is a perfect treasure treasure (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 a To store, hoard up, keep as, treasure, also treasure up to treasure up money and jewels, b to retain in the mind and memory, dwell on with affection, cherish fondly to treasure a person's memory, to treasure up in one's heart the recollection of former days &c 2 a (of objects &c) To set store by, regard as valuable, attach value and importance to that is not a book that I treasure very highly, b (of persons) to feel warm affection for we cannot treasure our friends too much treasure-house, n Place, building, where treasure is kept, a treasury treasurer, n [1 trézurer, 2 trežar] O Fr tresorier, treasure (II) & -or a An officer in charge of the funds, and who manages the finances, of a society, institution &c, b title of various officers of state, or of Royal household, Lord High Treasurer, now obsolete, Treasurer of the Household treasure trove, n [1 trézur tróv, 2 treža trov] See treasure (I) & trover Gold or silver articles, bullion or coin, found hidden in the earth, for which no owner can be traced, the right to which lies in the Crown treasury, n [1 trézuri, 2 trežari], fr O Fr tresoric, treasures (I) & -y 1 a Place for storing of treasure, treasure house, b (cap) place where public revenues are stored, c department of state which collects public revenues, and controls taxation and the expenditure of public moneys, this department is controlled by the Lords of the Treasury, the nominal head of which is the First Lord of the Treasury, usually the Prime Minister or Leader of the House, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Junior Lords, the chief of which are the Patronage Secretary, who acts as chief whip and the Financial Secretary, acting as assistant to the Chancellor of Exchequer 2 A literary collection or anthology the 'Golden Treasury'

Treasury bench, n The front bench on the right hand side of the Speaker in the House of Commons, on which sit the principal members of His Majesty's Government

Treasury bill, n A form of bill of exchange for raising short-term loans, offered for tender and issued to the highest bidder

Treasury note, n A form of currency note for £1 and 10s respectively, issued by the Treasury from 1914 to 1928

Treasury solicitor, n A legal official, who acts in all cases taken to secure payments due to the Treasury, as King's Proctor and formerly as Public Prosecutor treat (I), vb trans & intrans [1 trét, 2 trit] O Fr traiter fr Lat trahere, 'to drag, draw, to handle, manage, to perform, transact, to ose, conduct oneself towards, to discuss, reflect upon' See tract (I) & trace (II) A trans 1 a To conduct, do, manage, oneself, behave, towards, to use to treat one's servants with consideration, to treat a dog kindly, b to have a certain mental attitude towards, to consider, regard, to hold a certain view concerning, and express it in words and behaviour to treat the whole thing as a joke, to treat one's position as a means of securing one's own ends 2 To cause to undergo, submit (objects) to, some special process, for a particular purpose, specif a to deal with chemically to treat (a substance) with sulphuric acid, b to apply to, cover with &c to treat dry leather with grease, to treat fruit trees with chemical mixtures, c to give medical or surgical care to, prescribe for to treat a man for gout 3 To deal with, take as a theme for consideration, discussion, exposition &c many aspects of the subject are not treated at all by the author 4 To pay expenses of, or for, to bear the cost of entertaining (another), esp to pay for some exceptional pleasure to treat a person to a new suit, to a good dinner, to a box at the opera Phr to treat oneself (to a bottle of champagne), to have an exceptional indulgence B intrans 1 Treat of, to deal with, take as subject of discourse, discussion &c the sermon treated of sin and death 2 Treat with, to negotiate, discuss terms with, trans act business with it is humiliating to have to treat with a rogue 3 To stand expenses, bear the costs of entertainment whose turn is it to treat next?

treat (II), n, fr prec 1 Event, circumstance, condition, which affords satisfaction and pleasure, esp something unusual and therefore the more enjoyed it was a treat to hear a good sermon again, a great treat to me to be in the country, a fine day is a rare treat, if you are a good boy you shall come down to dessert as a treat 2 Entertainment planned to give pleasure a Sunday School treat 3 (colloq and rare) A Act of treating, or bearing cost of entertainment &c, chiefly in Phr to stand treat, bear expenses of amusement &c for another, b turn (of person) to treat treating, n [1 tréting, 2 tritit] Act of bearing another's expenses of eating and drinking, ordering and paying for food and drink for another treating in restaurants was forbidden during the war treatise, n [1 trétiz, 2 tritiz] A -Fr trétiz, prob connected w treat (I), Lat tract, in sense of something drawn up, or something treated of, op tractate Systematic written account of something, 'an excursus, a monograph treatment, n [1 trétment, 2 tritment] treat (I) & -ment 1 Way of behaving to, of using, treating, usage hard, rough, unkind, favourable, treatment 2 Act, mode, of treating, managing, caring for, attempting to cure, act of subjecting to particular processes a new treatment for black spot in roses, for consumption, medical, surgical, treatment treaty, n [1 tréti, 2 triti] O Fr traite, fr Lat tractat (um), P P of tractare, 'to handle' &c, see treat (I) 1 Negotiation, act of bargaining, discussion of terms and conditions, in Phr in treaty for (a house &c), in process of making arrangements, of coming to terms 2 Specif, an agreement, engagement, covenant, contract, agreed upon, and entered into, between different states or rulers treble (I), adj [1 trébl, 2 trebl] ME, fr O Fr, fr Lat triplex, 'threefold', see triple 1 Threefold, triple 2 (mus) Pertaining to what was formerly the third part, that is, the higher notes, sung by boys' voices, hence high, shrill treble (II), n, fr prec a The treble part or notes, b a treble voice treble (III), vb trans & intrans a trans To make threefold to treble one's income, b intrans, to become, increase, threefold expenses have trebled trebuchet, n [1 trébúsh, 2 trebujel] O Fr, 'a trap, gun', fr Fr trébucher, 'to stumble', fr Fr tré, fr trans, & Gmc word 'belly', op OHG bûh, Mod Germ bauch, 'belly' Obsolete military apparatus for hurling stones.

trecentist, n [1 trăbăntist, 2 trăstăntist] Next word & -ist Writer or painter of the trecento, imitator of these trecento, n & adj [1 trăbăntă, 2 trăstăntă] Ital, 'three hundred', for 'thirteen hundred' The fourteenth century as expressed in the great poets and painters of this period in Italy trechometer, n [1 trăkômetr, 2 trăkômtă], fr base of Gk trêchein, 'to run', see troche, & -meter Device for range-finding, a bodometer tree (I), n [1 trē, 2 trî] O E trēo, ME trē, OS trēo, Goth triu, cogn w Gk driś, 'tree, oak', see dryad, & dōr, 'beam, shaft, spear', see also trix (I) 1 A perennial plant with a woody stem, or trunk, and boughs, often employed in distinction to bush, or shrub, of a plant which has considerable height of trunk in proportion to the reach of its boughs, and one whose stem is devoid of boughs for some considerable distance from the ground, roses are called indifferently bushes or trees Phr up a tree, in a fix 2 A Any of several objects made of timber (for which the word tree was formerly used), esp in compounds axle tree, boot tree, saddle tree, whipple tree (see these words), also b (archaic or obs, except Bib) the Cross of Christ 3 Usually, family tree, a diagram showing descent or development from a common ancestor or source, formerly drawn in form of a tree with stem and branches tree of Jesse, hence, b a pedigree, lineage, descent tree (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a To drive up or into a tree, b (fig and colloq) to place in a dilemma, put in a difficult or awkward position 2 intrans To form, grow into, a tree tree calf, n Leather of fine calfskin, highly polished and grained to resemble polished wood, used for binding books tree-creeper, n Small bird, Certhia familiaris, which creeps about the trunks and branches of trees in search of insects tree-fern, n Large, tree like fern of warm countries, with woody stem and branching leaves tree-frog, n Small frog, genus Hyla, that climbs trees by means of small suckers on its toes tree-kangaroo, n Small arboreal marsupial of Australia treeless, adj [1 trēles, 2 trīles] tree (I) & -less Bare of trees tree-nail, n [1 trēnāl, trēnāl, 2 trīnāl, trēnāl] A long pin or nail of hard wood for fastening planks to a ship's timbers tree-peony, n Chinese peony, Paeonia Moutan, growing in form of a shrub, with woody stem and branches trefoil, n [1 tréfoil, 2 trīfoil] O Fr tréfoeil, fr Lat trifolium 1 Clover 2 (archet) Conventionalized, carved, representation of clover leaf trek, vb intrans & n [1 trék, 2 trāk], fr Cape Du, cogn w track (I) 1 vb to travel, make a journey, in an ox-wagon, b to wander far afield in search of a fresh place of abode, to migrate 2 n a Journey performed in an ox wagon, b migration trellis, n & vb trans [1 trélis, 2 trahis] ME trélis, O Fr trélis, op Mod Fr treillis, formerly 'caskcloth', then 'trellis', fr resemblance of lattice work to the coarse mesh, fr Low Lat trilicium, fr Lat trilix, 'woven with three sets of leashes, triple twilled', tri- & licium, 'thrum, or ends of a weaver's thread', see second element of oblique (I) 1 n Light wooden structure formed of laths crossing each other and nailed together, similar structure of wire &c, used as a screen and for training climbing plants 2 vb To supply with a trellis, to screen off with a trellis trellis-work, n Structure in form of a trellis, lattice work tremble (I), vb intrans [1 trémbl, 2 trémbl] Fr trembler, fr L Lat tremuläre, formed fr Lat tremulus, 'quivering', see tremulous 1 a To be shaken, agitated, with rapid, brief, intermittent, involuntary movements of the muscles, esp. such as are caused by fear, cold, excessive weakness, to shiver, to quake, h (fig) to quail, be dismayed, terrified, seized with fear the stoutest hearts trembled at the sound 2 (fig) To experience great anxiety, perturbation of mind, to have grave misgivings or apprehensions I tremble for your safety, I tremble to think what might have happened 3 (of the earth) To be shaken, as with earthquake, to quiver, as from the shock of a heavy body falling 4 (of light, fluttering or swaying objects) To be agitated with a rapid vibratory movement, to oscillate, be stirred, as by the wind, to flutter leaves of the poplars tremble, flags tremble in the gale, Phr (his fate &c) as trembling in the balance, has reached the critical moment in which it will be decided one way or the other 5 To be tremulous, shaky, to give the impression of trembling or vibrating his voice trembled tremble (II), n, fr prec Involuntary act of trembling, shivering, shaking, a tremor, quiver &c Phr (colloq) all of a tremble, shaking, trembling, greatly agitated and perturbed trembler, n [1 trembler, 2 trembles] See prec & -or One who, thing which, trembles trembling, n [1 trembling, 2 tremblings] trembling (I) & -ing State of one who trembles, a bodily shivering, b mental agitation Phr in fear and trembling, with great misgiving, diffidently tremblingly, adv, fr prec Part of tremble (I) & -ly a With physical, material trembling, b with fear and mental agitation, fearfully tremendous, adj [1 tremendus, 2 tremēdas] Lat tremendus, 'causing quaking and shivering, dreadful, terrible', & -ous, fr tremere, 'to quake, shiver', see tremble (I) & tremulous 1 A awe inspiring, overpowering, possessing great importance, momentous the tremendous events of the war, hence, b (popularly) (i) considerable in size, very large, huge, immense, enormous a tremendous house, tremendous applause, (ii) as adverb a tremendous long way, (also colloq) tremendous great (horse, book, jump, shout &c) 2 (colloq) In various rather vague senses, implying importance, magnitude &c to get a tremendous fright, it is a tremendous thing for me, a great advantage, it means a tremendous lot to him, is of vital importance tremendously, adv prec & -ly In a tremendous manner, to a tremendous extent, (colloq, as emphatic) very much, very tremendously improved, tremendously pleased to see you, I'm tremendously obliged to you tremendousness, n See prec & -ness (rare)

State, quality, of being tremendous tremolo, n [1 tremolo, 2 tremolou] Ital, fr Lat tremulus, see tremulous Tremulous, vibratory, quivering, effect deliberately produced in the tones of the singing voice, or in those of a wind or string instrument, e.g. in the organ or the violin &c tremor, n [1 tremur, 2 trema] Lat, 'a shaking, quivering', fr tremere, 'to quiver' &c, see tremulous A shaking, quivering, trembling, palsy, a of the limbs, voice, of leaves &c, b (of the mind) (i) a quailing of the spirit or courage, a quail &c he faced death without a tremor, also, (ii) a thrill a tremor of excitement tremulous, adj [1 tremulus, 2 tremulus] Lat tremulus, 'shaking, quivering', & -ous, fr base of tremere, 'to shiver, tremble' &c, op Gk tremēin, 'to shiver', & tromos, 'a trembling, quaking', cogn w OS thrumman, 'to leap', & Goth þrumstēs, 'grasshopper', ultimately prob an extension of base seen in terre, 'to frighten', see terror, terrible 1 Shaky, quivering, trembling, fluttering a tremulous hand, tremulous eyelids, tremulous plumes &c 2 Timid, fearful tremulous maidens, nervous, hesitating, vacillating tremulously, adv prec & -ly In a tremulous manner tremulousness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being tremulous trench (I), vb trans & intrans [1 trench, 2 trent] O Fr trencher, 'to out', op Ital trinciare, prob consorted w truncate, op trunk A trans 1 a To cut furrows or trenches in, b to cultivate, dig (land) thoroughly, by making series of parallel trenches, each one of which is filled with the soil taken from the one dug immediately after it 2 (mil) To out entrenchments in, to protect with trenches B intrans Trench upon, to encroach, infringe, upon to trench upon the sphere, rights, time &c, of another trench (II), n ME & O Fr tranche, fr prec Long, narrow opening, ditch, furrow, out or dug in the earth, specif, one made for soldiers to stand in, with the excavated earth thrown up in front, as protection from enemy's fire trenchancy, n [1 trénshans, 2 trénfens] Next word & -cy Quality of being trenchant trenchant, adj [1 trénshant, 2 trénfant] In ME, fr O Fr, prec Part of trencher, 'to out', see trench (I) a (chiefly poet) Having a cutting edge, cutting, sharp a trenchant blade, b (in non material sense) keen, incisive, biting, penetrating a trenchant humour, wit, style trench-coat, n Short waterproof coat worn by a soldier in the trenches in war trencher (I), n [1 tréncher, 2 trénfje] trench (I) & -er One who cuts or digs trenches trencher (II), n O Fr trenchsor, 'platter (for cutting on)' trench (I) 1 Wooden platter formerly used for cutting food, and as a plate from which food was eaten, now chiefly for cutting bread 2 (fig) What is on a trencher, food trencher-man, n One who eats from a trencher, esp a poor, a poor, trencher-man, a hearty, a small, eater trench-fever, n A form of low, intermittent, infectious fever, transmitted by lice, suffered by troops after serving in the trenches during the War trench-foot, n An affection of the feet and legs suffered by troops during the War after service in the trenches, due to long soddening in cold and muddy water, in severe cases ending in moist gangrene as distinct from the dry gangrene of frost-bite trench mortar, n A small, easily portable kind of mortar used for throwing bombs &c short distances, from trench to trench trend, vb intrans & n [1 trend, 2 trend] Origin doubtful, but connected w OE trendel & tryndel, 'a wheel', trendilian, 'to make round', & trinde, 'round lump', cp trundle 1 vb (rare) a To bend, be bent, inclined, slope, go, in a particular direction, b (fig) to have a particular tendency 2 n a Inclination, course, direction trend of a coastline, b (fig) general tendency, line, course, drift the trend of public feeling, the trend of events trental, n [1 tréntil, 2 trentil] Low Lat trentale, fr Lat triginta, 'thirty', op Fr trente, & see tri- Series of thirty Masses for the dead trente-et-quarante, n [1 trónt à karónt, 2 trát ei karót] Fr, 'thirty and forty', Gambling card game played on a specially marked table trepán (I), also trephine, vb trans & n [1 trepán, trefin, 2 tripen, trifian] Fr trepán, fr L Lat trepānum, fr Gk trūpanon, 'a borer', op trūpān, 'to bore', fr trūpa, 'a hole', ultimately connected w base ter-*, 'to bore, rub away', see toreutic & words there referred to 1 vb (surg) To remove, by cutting, (a portion of bone from the skull) to relieve pressure on the brain 2 n Saw for performing this operation trepán (II), vb trans, fr O Fr trappan, n, perh a loan-word connected w trap (III) (archaic) To ensnare, lure, delude trepang, n [1 trepáng, 2 trépáng] Malay

Sea slug, bêche de mer, used by Chinese for making soup trephine, vb trans & n [1 trefin, 2 trifian] Fr tréfine, see trepán (I) 1 vb To trepan 2 n A trepan trepidation, n [1 trépídāshun, 2 trépídē-jen] Lat trepidatō (em), formed fr P.P. of trepidare, 'to bustle about anxiously, be in a state of alarm', fr trepidus, 'agitated, disturbed, alarmed', cogn w Gk trepsin, 'to, burn', op also trope 1 State of alarm, quaking, nervous fluster 2 Involuntary trembling or twitching of the limbs, as in paralysis &c trespass (I), vb intrans [1 tréspas, 2 tréspas] O Fr trespasser, 'to go beyond, to die', see trans- & pass (I) 1 (obs) To die 2 To go unlawfully upon another's land to trespass in search of game 3 To encroach, infringe, upon to trespass upon a person's leisure, time &c 4 To go beyond, exceed, what is morally right and lawful, to offend, sin, commit an offence to trespass against the moral law, 'as we forgive them that trespass against us' trespass (II), n O Fr trespas, see prec 1 Act of trespassing upon another's land 2 A Act of sin, an offence against God, b an injury inflicted upon another person trespasser, n [1 tréspaser, 2 tréspas] trespass (I) & -er One who trespasses upon the land of another tress, n & vb trans [1 tras, 2 tres] ME tresse, 'lock of hair', fr Fr tresse, vb fr Fr tresser, 'to plait, twist', fr Low Lat trica, fr Lat tricae, pl, 'trifles, toys, subtleties, tricks', connected w torquere, 'to twist', see torque 1 n a Lock of hair, ringlet, plait, esp of long hair on a woman's head, (poet or facet) hair of the head generally golden, scanty, tresses, b (rare) spray, cluster, of flowers 2 vb To fasten, bind up, arrange (the hair) tressed, adj [1 trést, 2 trést] prec & -ed. a Having tresses, b bound, twisted up treasure, n [1 tréshur, 2 trésj] trés & -ure 1 Fillet, band for the hair, head-dress 2 (her) A double fillet round the shield, some distance from edge, ornamented with fleurs de lis treasy, adj [1 tréai, 2 tréai] trés & -y Adorned with tresses treble, n [1 tréal, 2 tréal] ME, fr O Fr treble, Low Lat trunstellum*, dimin of transum, 'cross-beam' &c, see transom 1 Wooden structure consisting of a piece of timber lying horizontally, and supported by braced legs, used to support planks forming a table, platform &c 2 A large framework of braced open timber or steel work, used as the support of a treble bridge treble-table, n Table of movable planks resting upon trebles tré, n [1 trét, 2 trét] Fr tré, 'transport', see trait, tract (I) Allowance made to buyers of certain goods for wastage during transit tréws, n pl [1 tróws, 2 trúz] See trousers Trousers made of tartan cloth worn by Highlanders, esp in Scottish non kilted regiments tréy, n [1 trā, 2 tréi] fr O Fr tréi, 'three', fr Lat trēs, see three The three at dice or cards tri-, pref Lat, or Gk tri, 'three, threefold, thrice' form of Lat trēs, tria, Gk treis, tria, Sort trays, 'three', see three, thrice Three, threefold triable, adj [1 triabl, 2 tréabl] try (I) & -able Capable of being, worthy to be, tried triad, n [1 triad, 2 tréad] Lat triad (-us), genit, fr Gk triad (os), see tri- Group of three persons or things, specif a (oham) trivalent element or radical, one with valency or combining power of three, b (mus) chord of three tones, c form of Celtic poetical composition, in which the subjects are grouped in threes 'Three things that ruin wisdom ignorance, inaccurate knowledge, forgetfulness' trial, n. [1 trial, 2 tríal] try (I) & -al.

1 Act of trying, testing, proving (in various senses), a test of strength, speed, skill &c in comparison with that of another, a match to decide relative proficiency, b act of testing the qualities, merits &c of anything by using it to give a thing a trial, Phr to have something on trial, in order to test it, c test of a person's character, temper, courage, patience, fortitude, honour, &c 2 A something which afflicts or grieves, a trying experience, adversity, ill fortune, trouble the loss of friends is among the most frequent trials of life, b an annoyance, source of irritation, a nuisance a dog that barks all night is rather a trial 3 A judicial inquiry in a court of law, a examination of evidence to establish the guilt or innocence of a prisoner charged with a crime a criminal trial, a trial for theft, the trial of a man for murder, b legal proceedings to determine the rights and wrongs of a civil case, to substantiate or negative a claim &c triangle, n. [1 triángul, 2 trasiángul] tri- & angle (I) 1 A Geometrical figure bounded by three lines forming three angles, b piece of ground, object, having approximately this form, Phr the eternal triangle, three persons, consisting of a married pair and the lover of either 2 Musical instrument consisting of a thin steel rod bent into the form of a triangle with one open end, suspended from a cord and sounded by being struck with another steel rod 3 A Framework of three poles fixed in the ground at suitable distances, the tops being fastened together, to which military offenders were formerly bound, to receive corporal punishment, b structure of similar form, with pulley hanging from the top, used for hoisting weights triangular, adj. [1 triánggular, 2 trasiánggular] tri- & angular 1 Having the form of a triangle, three cornered 2 Involving three persons or parties triangular fight, pact &c triangularity, n. [1 triánggulariti, 2 trasiánggulariti] Preo & -ity Property of being triangular triangularly, adv. [1 triánggulari, 2 trasiánggulari] See preo & -ly In triangular shape or form triangulate, vb trans & adj [1 triánggulat, 2 trasiánggulat] triangle & -ate 1 vb To divide into triangles for purposes of surveying, measuring heights, distances &c 2 adj Consisting of triangles, having form of a triangle triangulation, n. [1 triánggulashun, 2 trasiánggulashun] Preo & -ion Process of surveying by triangulating the area

Trias, n. [1 trías, 2 trasiás] See triad. (geol) A period preceding the Jurassic, b system of rocks formed during this period, so called by the Germans from their threefold division of the period

Triassic, adj [1 tríasik, 2 trasiásik] Preo & -ic Pertaining to the Trias tribal adj [1 tribl, 2 traibl] tribe & -al. Connected with, belonging to, a tribe tribal legends, feeling &c tribalism, n. [1 tribalizm, 2 traibalizam] Preo & -ism System of tribal organization, tribal sentiment, customs &c, characteristic features of a tribe or of its organization &c tribasio, adj [1 tribásik, 2 traibasísik] tri- & basio (chem) Having three hydrogen atoms in the molecule tribe, n. [1 trih, 2 traiib] In M E, fr Lat tribus, 'one of the three divisions of the Roman people', orig 'village', cogn w O Ir treb, perh fr tri, 'third' used in gen. sense of 'division', & base tribu-, 'to become, grow &c', see this further under future (I) folio (I), op also phyeto (I) & be 1 Social unit, a community, consisting of groups of families, or clans descended, or originally supposed to be descended, from a common ancestor, together with their slaves and others living with the community, later, the bond between the families of a tribe consists more in common customs and institutions than in actual consanguinity 2 Class, group, of persons having, or assumed to have, the same characteristics, occupation, habits, ideals &c lawyers and all their tribe, the whole tribe of politicians 3 (hol., often loosely) Group the dog tribe tribesman, n. [1 trihzman, 2 traiibzman] tribe & man Member of a tribe tribesmanship, n. [1 trihzmanship, 2 traiibzmanship] Preo & -ship Membership of a tribe triblet, tribolet, n. [1 triblet, tribolet, 2 trihlit, tribolet] Fr triboulet, Lat tribulus, fr Gk tribolos, 'instrument with three prongs, a caltrop', tri- & bólos, 'a throw', connected w ballean, 'to throw', see ballistics, & dimin -et Instrument for making rings, outs &c tribrach, n. [1 trí, tribrak, 2 trai-, tribrak] Gk tribrakhos, 'consisting of three shorts', tri- & brakhos, 'short', see brachy- (prosody) Foot of three short syllables tribrachic, adj [1 tribrákik, 2 traiibrákik] Preo & -ic Pertaining to, formed of, a tribrach tribulation, n. [1 trihlúshun, 2 traiibhlúshun] L Lat tribulatio (em), fr PP of tribulare, to afflict, fr tribulum, 'instrument for thrashing', fr tri, op perfr tri of terere, 'to rub' &c, see teredo & triturate, & -ion. 1 State of mental suffering, grief distress in great tribulation 2 Anything which causes suffering, an affliction, a trial beset by tribulations of all kinds tribunal, n. [1 tribúnl, 2 traiibúnl] Lat, 'raised platform where magistrates sat judgement seat, see tribune (I) 1 Seat, bench, upon which judges and magistrates sit when hearing cases 2 Court of justice, any court empowered to inquire into and decide an issue tribunary, adj [1 tribúnari, 2 traiibúnari] tribune & -ary Connected with, pertaining to, a tribune or tribunes tribunate, n. [1 tribúnat, 2 traiibúnat] tribune & -ate A Office, status, of tribune, b tenure of this office tribune (I), n. [1 tribún, 2 traiibún] Lat tribúnus, 'chieftain, headman of a tribe, a military officer with consular power, a civil magistrate', op Fr tribun, see tribe 1 (Rom. hist) Military or civil officer elected by the people to safeguard their liberties 2 A A popular champion, b title of a newspaper tribune (II), n. Fr, fr Ital. or Med Lat tribuna, prob fr Lat tribúnat see tribunal. 1 A Raised dais for magistrate's chair in Roman basilica, b bishop's throne, and part of church containing this, in basilican church. 2 Raised dais for speakers addressing an assembly, specif, such a platform in the French Chamber of Deputies tribunical, -tial, adj [1 tribúnishl, 2 traiibúnishl] See tribune (I) Pertaining to, befitting, a tribune tributary (I), adj [1 tribútari, 2 traiibútari] Lat tributarius, see tribute & -ary 1 Paying tribute to a higher authority, as acknowledgement of the other's superiority or overlordship tributary kings 2 Bringing, contributing, supplies, additions, to, esp a tributary stream, one flowing into a larger one tributary (II), n. fr preo 1 State or head of state paying tribute to another 2 A river or stream which discharges its waters into a larger river or stream tribute, n. [1 tribút, 2 traiibút] Lat tributum, 'stated payment, contribution, tax levied on citizens', fr PP of tribuere, 'to divide, distribute, to assign, allot', see triba 1 Enforced payment of an annual sum imposed by a conqueror or made in order to secure some benefit, such as immunity from attack &c 2 Payment made by an individual to a sovereign or other overlord, a tax. 3 Act performed, words uttered, testifying approbation of, esteem, respect, affection for, a person, quality, action a tribute of admiration, a tribute to the bravery of the dead, to pay a tribute to, express approbation of, admiration &c for, inter words of praise &c tricar, n. [1 tríkar, 2 traiíkar] tri- & car A small kind of motor car with two front wheels and driving wheel behind.

trice (I), vb trans [1 trís, 2 traiíe] M E trisen, op Swed trissa, 'a pulley' To haul up (a sail) and make fast.

trice (II), n. Ogon obscure. A brief space of time, an instant, chiefly in Phr in a trice, in an instant, in the twinkling of an eye triceps, n. [1 tríseps, 2 traiíseps] Lat adj, 'having three heads', fr tri- & ceps, fr caput, 'head', as in biceps Extensor muscles at the back of the upper arm tricerium, tricerion, n. [1 tríserium, -ion, 2 traiíserium, -ion] Lat, fr Gk trikérion, tri- & keros, 'wax', see cere- (Gk Ch.) Three branched candlestick used by the bishop in blessing trichiasis, n. [1 triklasis, 2 traiíklasis] Gk trikhiasis, fr trikh, gent trikhos, 'hair', see trich(o)- A Affection of the eyelashes in which these turn inwards and cause irritation, b occurrence of hairlike filaments in the urine trichina, n. [1 tríkina, 2 traiíkina] Mod Lat coinage, fr Gk trikhinos, 'hairy', see preo Minute, very fine, parasitic worm occurring in the flesh of diseased pigs, and sometimes introduced into the human body by means of imperfectly cooked pork.

trichinosis, n. [1 trikínosis, 2 traiíkinosis] Preo & -osis Disease produced by the presence of trichinae in the system.

trich(o)-, pref fr Gk trikhos, stem of trikh, 'a hair', origin obscure trichoma, trichome, n. [1 trikóma, trikóm, 2 traiíkóma, traiikoum] Gk trikhóma, 'growth of hair', see preo Any outgrowth, such as hair, nail &c, from the epidermis trichord, n. & adj [1 trikord, 2 traiíkord] tri- & chord (I) a n A three-stringed musical instrument, as lyre or lute, b adj, having three strings trichosis, n. [1 trikósis, traiíkósis] tricho- & -osis Disease of the hair trichotomous, adj [1 trikotomus, 2 traiíkótomus] Next word & -ous Connected with, of the nature of, trichotomy trichotomy, n. [1 trikotumi, 2 traiíkótami] Gk trikhos, 'threefold', see tri- & -otomy Threefold division, esp division of human nature into body, soul, and spirit trichromatic, adj [1 trikrómatik, 2 traiíkrómatik] tri- & chromatic Three coloured.

trick (I), n. [1 trík, 2 traiík] In M E, 'an artifice, a ruse', in pl 'odds and ends, knick-knacks' Origin doubtful, perh connected w tranchery, cp Dn trek, 'trick', wh may or may not be same word as trél, 'a pull, drawing' (cp trekken, 'to draw'), & O Fr triche, n. & trichier, variant of trichier, 'to cheat' &c The relations & origins of all these words are obscure 1 A An artifice, dodge, deception, deliberate contrivance to deceive and hoodwink, a ewindle, a piece of imposture to obtain money by a trick, none of your tricks with me, Phr the tricks of the trade, devices practised by the dishonest in any given trade or business to deceive and outwit customers, b an illusion a trick of the senses, of the imagination, tricks of the memory, unreliability, temporary failure

2 A Mischievous action, a playful, roguish prank, a whimsical practical joke, a harmless deception perpetrated without evil intent to play a trick upon, full of merry tricks, also b (in bad sense) a mean, underhand prank that was a dirty trick, a nasty trick to play 3 A A personal habit, an unconscious idiosyncrasy, or oddity, of manner, behaviour, speech &c, a mannerism queer little tricks of gesture and pronunciation; a trick of scratching his head, b an affectation, a foppish mannerism, deliberate eccentricity, esp tricks of style 4 A conjurer's artifice in imitation of magio, an act of sleight of hand, a piece of jugglery, Phr that just does, will just do, the trick, just accomplishes its purpose 5 (card games) A unit of scoring, the cards played in one round 6 (see second ME sense of pl cited in etymol) In Phr the whole bag of tricks, the whole matter and everything connected with it trick (II), vb trans & intrans See preco A trans 1 To swindle, cheat, impose upon he found the coin was false and that he had been tricked, to trick a person out of his money, to obtain money by fraud, to trick a person into doing something, to induce him to do it by false representations, to lure, inveigle, him into doing it 2 Trick out, more rarely trick up, (fr earlier sense of n, 'trifle, bauble, trinket &c') to deck, adorn, bedizen. tricked out in jewels and finery B intrans To practise trickery trickery, n [1 trikəri, 2 trikəri] O Fr triquerie, dial variant of tricherie, see trick (I) & -ery Aot of tricking, fraud, knavery trickish, adj [1 trikish, 2 trikish] trick (I) & -ish Inclined to trickery, undependable, rascally trickishly, adv Preco & -ly In a trickish manner trickishness, n See preco & -ness Quality of being trickish trickle, vb intrans & trans & n [1. trikəl, 2 trikəl] Origin dubious 1 vb a intrans To flow slowly or in a thin stream the pipe was so small that the water could only trickle, tears trickled down her face, blood was trickling from the wound, b trans, to cause to trickle 2 n A thin flow the stream had shrunk to a mere trickle trickster, n [1 trikstər, 2 trikstə] trick (II) & -ster A cheat, a dishonest rogue, a swindler tricksy, adj [1 trikisi, 2 trikisi] trick (I) & - (op tipsy) & -y Artful, crafty, deceptive tricky, adj [1 trikɪ, 2 trikɪ] See preco & -y 1 (of persons) Inclined to play tricks, unreliable, shifty 2 (of things) a Intricate, complicated, catchy, ingenious a tricky lock, a tricky brake, lamp &c; b difficult to follow, involved a tricky argument, problem &c trichino, adj [1 triklinik, 2 triklinik] tri- & clinio (of crystals) Having three axes inclined at oblique angles to each other trichinum, n [1 triklinum, 2 triklinikəm] Lat, fr Gk triklinon, fr tri- & klinē, 'couch', see clinio (class antiq) a A set of three couches set on three sides of a table for dining, b dining room arranged with such tables tricolor(u)r, n [1 trikoldr, trikolor, 2 trikald, trikald] Fr (drapeau) tricolore, 'flag of three colours', as n See tri- & colour (I) A national flag composed of three colours, arranged in equal stripes, esp the French national flag consisting of red, white, and blue stripes of equal width tricot, n [1 trikō, 2 trikō] Fr, 'knitting' a A coarse, large stitched knitting, fabric of this, b garment, jersey, made of this trio-trao, n [1 trik trak, 2 trik trak] Fr An early, difficult, and complicated form of backgammon tricuspid, adj [1 trikuspɪd, 2 trikaspɪd] tri- & cusp (id. is part of stem of latter) Having three cusps or points tricycle, n [1 trikisl, 2 traisisl] tri- & cycle (I) Cycle with three wheels, practically obsolete, except as tradesman's carrier tricyclist, n [1 trikislɪst, 2 traisislɪst] Preco & -ist Rider of a tricycle trident, n [1 trident, 2 trident] Lat trident (em), 'three-pronged spear', fr tri- & dent, 'tooth, prong', see dental A three-pronged spear, esp one represented as the characteristic symbol of Neptune and of naval power tridentate, adj [1 tridentat, 2 tridentest] Preco & -ate Having three prongs or divisions Tridentine, adj & n [1 tridentin, 2 tridentinəm] Med Lat Tridentum, 'Trent' 1 adj Belonging to, connected with, Trent, or the Council of Trent (1545-63) 2 n. One who accepts the doctrines defined as de fide by the Council of Trent tried, adj [1 trɪd, 2 traid], fr PP of try (I) Proved, tested, reliable, well established a tried friend, friendship, a book of tried excellence Phr old and tried triennial, adj & n [1 triennial, 2 triensəl], fr Lat triennium, 'space of three years', fr tri- & annus, 'year', see annual (I), & -al 1 adj a Lasting for three years, b occurring, appearing, once in every three years 2 n a Something that lasts for, or occurs once in, three years, b specif, a Mass said every day for three years for the repose of the soul of a deceased person.

trier, n [1 trier, 2 triə] try (I) & -er a One who tries, attempts, b one who tests, esp one who tests judicially trierarch, n [1 trierark, 2 trierark] Lat trierarchus, fr Gk trierarkhōs, 'commander of a trireme', see trireme & arch- 1 Commander of a trireme 2 (in ant Athens) Person who built and fitted out a trireme for the service of the state trierarchy, n [1 trierarki, 2 trierarki] Preco & -y Office, functions, of a trierarch trifid, adj [1 trifɪd, 2 traɪfɪd] Lat trifidus, 'cleft in three parts, three forked', tri- & fid-, form of base occurring in perf of findere, 'to split', see this under fissile, & op hite (zool) and bot) Divided into three lobes or sinuses, tridentate trifle (I), n [1 trifl, 2 traɪfl] ME trifle, trifle, O Fr trifle, trufe, 'mockery, trickery' Origin unknown, prob same word as truffle 1 a Thing of no value, small, insignificant object a few trifles for your birthday, b unimportant subject, a paltry matter, a worthless, trivial idea a mind occupied with, interested in, trifles Phrs he doesn't stick at trifles, not this man to stick at trifles, he is entirely without scruples 2 A sweet dish made of cake soaked in wine, filled with jam, stuck over with almonds, and covered thickly with whipped cream 3 a (colloq) A very small amount just the merest, a mere, trifle of sugar in my tea, b (adverbially) slightly, somewhat 'a trifle sad, dull, annoyed &c trifle (II), vb intrans & trans ME trifelen, see preco A intrans 1 a To speak jestingly, lightly, idly, b to speak and act without seriousness, speak漫不经心, to play fast and loose, to promise without intending to fulfil I beg you not to trifle with me, in no mood for trifling, not a man to trifle with, I did but trifle, didn't mean what I said 2 a To spend one's time idly, to lounge, dawdle, potter about, engage in frivolous pursuits he trifled through the best years of his life, b to linger over, toy with, play with to trifle with, over, a light meal B trans To waste in trifling, chiefly trifle away to trifle away one's time, one's time away trifler, n [1 trifler, 2 trɪflər] Preco & -er One who trifles, a frivolous, superficial person trifling, adj [1 triflɪŋ, 2 traɪflɪŋ], fr Preco Part of trifle (II) Slight, unimportant, trivial, of small account, inconsiderable a trifling error, remark, jest &c, a trifling ailment triflingly, adv Preco & -ly In a trifling manner, to a slight, trifling, extent trifoliate, adj [1 trifoliat, 2 traɪfɒliət] See next word & -ate Having three leaves or leaflets trifolium, n [1 trifolium, 2 traɪfɒliəm] Lat, 'trifol', lit 'three leaved plant', see tri- & folio (I). Large genus of plants; the clovers triformium, n [1 triforium, 2 traɪfɒriəm] L Lat, formed fr tri-, & foris, 'door', q v under forum Gallery with arched openings running along the nave and transepts of a church, above the main arches triform, adj [1 triform, 2 traɪfɒm] Lat triformis, see tri- & -form a Having three parts, b having a triple character or nature triformity, n [1 triformity, 2 traɪfɒmɪti] Preco & -ity Quality, state, of being triform trifurcate, adj & vb intrans & trans [1 trifurkət, 2 traɪfɒkət] tri- & Lat furca, see fork (I), & -ate 1 adj, also trifurcated Having three branches, forking in three 2 vb To branch out, divide, into three trifurcation, n [1 trifurkəʃən, 2 traɪfɒkəʃən] Preco & -ion a Process of branching into three, b place where a road, stream, bough &c trifurcates trig, adj [1 trig, 2 trig] ON tryggr, cogn v true Smart, trim, in good order and condition trigamist, n [1 trigamist, 2 trigamist] trigamy & -ist One who has three wives, or husbands at the same time trigamous, adj [1 trigamus, 2 trigamas] See next word & -ous 1 Thrice married, having three wives or three husbands at same time 2 (bot) Having male, female, and hermaphrodite flowers on same stem trigamy, n [1 trigami, 2 trigami] Gk trigamia, see tri- & -gamy Triple marriage, state of having three wives or husbands at the same time trigeminous, adj [1 trijəminəs, 2 traɪdʒəminəs] Lat trigeminus, 'three at a birth', tri- & geminus, 'a twin', see Gemini, & -ous Being one of three born at one birth trigger, n [1 trɪgər, 2 trɪgə] Earlier tricker, op Du trekker, fr trekken, 'to pull', op trek Lever which releases a spring, specif, one releasing the hammer of a firearm triglot, adj [1 trɪglɒt, 2 traɪglɒt] tri- & Gk glōtta, 'tongue, language', variant of glōssa, see gloss (III), glossary Written in, speaking, three languages triglyph, n [1 trɪglɪf, 2 traɪglɪf] Gk triglyphos, 'thrice carved ornament', see tri- & glyph Three grooved tablet repeated at equal distances along the frieze in Doric architecture triglyphic, adj [1 trɪglɪfɪk, 2 traɪglɪfɪk] Preco & -ic Connected with, consisting of, triglyphs trigon, n [1 trigon, 2 traɪgon] Gk trigōnon, 'triangle, musical instrument in this form', see tri- & under -gon 1 a A triangle, b (ant Gk) triangular lyre 2 (astrol) Division, group, of three signs of the zodiac trigonal, adj [1 trɪ-, trigonal, 2 traɪ-, trigonal] Preco & -al (of a cross section) Triangular trigonometric(al), adj [1 trigonometrik(l), 2 traɪgonometrik(l)] trigonometry & -ic (& -al) Pertaining to, based on, trigonometry trigonometry, n [1 trigonometri, 2 traɪgonometri] trigon & -o of stem & -metry Branch of mathematics dealing with the relations of the sides and angles of triangles trigonous, adj [1 trɪ-, trigonus, 2 traɪ-, trigonas] trigon & -ous Three cornered, having three angles trigraph, n [1 trɪgrəf, 2 traɪgrəf] tri- & graph Group of three graphic symbols used to express a single sound, e.g. sch=[s], in schism trilateral, adj & n [1 trɪlateral, 2 traɪlateral] tri- & lateral (I) a adj Having three sides, b n, three-sided figure or enclosed space triby, n [1 trɪbi, 2 trɪbi], fr name of novel by George du Maurier A soft felt hat trilemma, n [1 trɪlema, 2 traɪlema] Gk, see tri- & lemma, & op dilemma Choice between three things or three courses of action trilinear, adj [1 trilinear, 2 triline] tri- & linear Pertaining to, enclosed by, three lines. trilingual, adj [1 trilingwal, 2 trilingwal] tri- & lingual Speaking, written in, three languages trilateral, adj & n. [1 trilateral, 2 trilateral] tri- & lateral a adj Spelt with three letters, b n, word so spelt trilateralism, n. [1 trilateralism, 2 trilateralism] See prec & -ism. Property, condition, of being trilateral, specif of Semitic languages, fact of having words consisting of 'roots' which have three fixed consonant sounds, the vowels varying in cognate words according to the sense trilith, trilithon, n [1 trilith, trilithon, 2 trilith, trilithon] tri- & Gk. lithos, 'stone', see litho- A prehistoric stone monument, consisting of two upright stones supporting a third stone as lintel.

trill (I), vb intrans & trans [1 trill, 2 trill] Cp Fr triller, Ital trillare, prob imitative of sound. A intrans To make a vibrating sound with the tongue, utter such a note with the voice, or produce such a note on an instrument, b trans, to pronounce (a sound), sing, or play (a note) with vibratory effect trill (II), n. Fr trille, Ital trilla, see prec 1 (singing &c) a A rapid alternation of the voice between two notes, producing a vibratory effect, a shake, b a similar effect in a bird's song, a warble, c similar alternation of tone, and same effect, produced on a musical instrument 2 (phon) Consonantal sound produced by a rapid vibratory movement, a of the point of the tongue—[r] in Scots, b of the uvula—[r] in French.

trilling, n. [1 trilling, 2 trilling] tri- & -ling, cp Germ drilling, fr form of drei, 'three'. One of three children born at one birth.

trillion, n [1 trillion, 2 trillion], fr Fr, tri- ending on anal of million a A million million million, expressed by a unit and 18 zeros, b (Fr & Am usage) a million million, expressed by a unit and 12 zeros trilobate, adj [1 trilobāt, 2 trilobāt] tri- & lobate (bot &c) Having three lobes trilobate, n. [1 trilobāt, 2 trilobāt] See prec & -ite An extinct marine arachnid with trilobate body, found as fossils in Cambrian and Silurian strata trilogy, n [1 trilogy, 2 trilogē] Gk. trilogia, see tri- & -logy A series of three Greek dramas performed consecutively on the same day, b any connected series of three literary or musical compositions trim (I), vb trans & intrans [1 trim, 2 trim] OE trymman, 'to make strong, fortify, to arrange, array', fr OE trum, 'firm, strong, healthy', cogn w Lat dūrus, 'hard, strong', wh is for drūs*, see durable, cp further Gk. drūmōs, 'oak coppice', & drūs, 'oak', q v under dryad The base dereu-* meant orig 'tree trunk', & the adj derived fr this had the sense 'hard, firm, as a tree' &c See also tree (I) General sense, to set in order, bring to a desired shape, condition &c, various specialized uses A. trans 1 To clean up, smooth (wick of a lamp), so that it will burn, to arrange (a fire), make compact, put in condition favourable to combustion 2 To make tidy, shapely, cut into desired shape and size to trim a hedge, to trim one's moustache, one's nails &c, trim oneself up, make oneself clean and neat 3 (nant) a To adjust balance of, distribute weight in (a boat), so that she floats level in the water, b to arrange (sails) in position suitable for sailing 4 To ornament, attach edging, fringe, lace &c to to trim a jacket with fur, to adorn with ribbons, flowers &c to trim a (woman's) hat B intrans To perform act of trimming (in various senses), specif (fig) to waver in one's principles, adjust one's sentiments, or the expression of them, to modify one's policy &c to suit circumstances, public opinion &c trim (II), n. See prec a Condition, mode of adjustment or arrangement, order to put a home, garden &c in good, proper, trim, b bodily condition, c frame of mind, state of intellectual balance, mental disposition.

trim (III), adj, fr trim (I) Neat, trim, spruce, in good order, in condition suited for a particular purpose or function.

trimester, n. [1 trimēstar, 2 trimēstar] Fr trimestre, fr trimestris, 'of three months', tri- & mensis, 'month', see meno- Period of three months, school or university term of this length.

trimeter, n. [1 trimeter, 2 trimēta] See tri- & metre (I) (prosody) A verse of three measures trimetric(al), adj [1 trimetrik(l), 2 trimetrik(l)] Prec & -ic (& -al) Pertaining to, of the nature of, a trimeter trimly, adv [1 trimb, 2 trimli], fr trim (III) & -ly In trim, neat, condition or manner trimmer, n. [1 trimmer, 2 trimē] trim (I) & -er 1 A person who trims (in various senses), b instrument for trimming or clipping &c 2 Specif, person who sacrifices principle to expediency, a time-server trimming, n. [1 trimming, 2 trimm] See prec & -ing 1 Action of one who trims 2 A material, ornamental edging, border, frill &c used to trim a garment, ornamental edging to a table dish, b (fig) flowers or speech, ornamental redundancies of speech 3 Adjuncts, accessories boiled beef and trimmings trimness, n. [1 trimnes, 2 trimnē], fr trim (III) & -ness Condition of being trim, tidiness, order, neatness.

trine, adj & n. [1 trin, 2 trōn] Lat trinus, 'threefold', see tri- 1 adj Threefold, triple 2 n. A group of three, b (astrol) aspect of planets 120° apart, Phr in trine.

tringle, n. [1 tringgl, 2 tringgl] Fr, origin doubtful. 1 Rod for curtain, or for bed canopy 2 a (archit) Narrow, square moulding, b (artillery) bar on gun platform which takes up the recoil of the gun on discharge Trinitarian, adj & n. [1 trinitarian, 2 trinitarian] trinity & -arian. 1 adj Pertaining to the Trinity, or to the doctrine of the Trinity 2 n. Believer in the doctrine of the Trinity Trinitarianism, n. [1 trinitarianism, 2 trinitarianism] Prec & -ism. The doctrine of the Trinity, faith in this trinitrotoluene, n. [1 trinitrōtolūēn, 2 trinitrōtolūēn] tri-, nitro-, & toluene Abbr T.N.T., a high explosive obtained by action of nitro and sulphuric acid on toluene trinity, n. [1 trinitē, 2 trinitē] ME trinītee, L Lat trinitas (em), see trine & -ity 1 Combination of three (objects or persons) considered as forming a unity 2 Specif (theol, cap) the union of the three divine persons, Father, Son, Holy Ghost, in the Godhead.

Trinity House, n. A corporate body which licenses pilots, erects and maintains light-houses, buoys &c Trinity Sunday, n. The Sunday next after Whitsunday, the day on which the feast of the Blessed Trinity is kept.

trinket, n. [1 trinket, 2 trinkit] ME trinkel, 'small ornamental knive', O Fr trenguet, cp tranchier, 'to cut', see trench (I) a Small ornament, a jewel, a bauble, b small insignificant, trivial object, a worthless trifle trinomial, adj & n. [1 trinōmial, 2 trinōmial], cp Lat trinōmīus, adj, 'having three names'. See tri- & nominal. The above word is formed as though fr trinōmīus & alis, see -al 1 adj a (alg) Having consisting of three terms, b (bot. and zool) composed of three names or words, more usually trinomial, q v 2. n. (alg) Expression, equation, consisting of three terms.

trinomial, adj [1 trinomial, 2 trinomial] Lat., see prec. Having three names, esp (bot and zool) trinomial system, of describing animals or plants by genus, species, and subspecies trio, n. [1 trēō, 2 trōu] Ital, fr Lat. tri-, 'three', see tri- 1 Musical composition a for three voices, b for three instruments. 2. Group of three persons or things triolet, n. [1 trēōla, trēōlet, 2 trōules, trōulet] Fr Prec & -let Poem of eight lines with rhymes in the order abaaabab trior, n. See trier trip (I), vb intrans & trans [1 trip, 2 trip] ME trippen, cp Swed. trippa, prob connected w Germ. treppen, 'flight of steps', & w. trap (III), a snare A. intrans. 1 To move nimbly along with light, rapid, graceful steps 2 a To stumble, catch one's foot in an obstacle in walking or running and lose one's balance so as to fall, or nearly to fall, also trip up, b to perform the act of tripping another it is not legitimate to trip in football 3 (fig) a To commit an error, be guilty of an offence, or indiscretion in behaviour he was caught tripping several times and at last was dismissed, b to make an error in statement of fact, be inaccurate, c to halt, hesitate, stumble, over a word &c in speaking, to make a slip of the tongue B trans 1 (rare) To dance lightly and nimbly 'Come and trip it as ye go, On the light fantastic toe' (Milton, 'L'Allegro', 33-34), to trip a measure 2 a To cause to stumble or fall, e.g. by putting an obstacle in the way of the feet and suddenly checking forward progress, or (in wrestling) by catching and pulling away a leg, also trip up, b trip up, to detect in an error of statement, or in conduct in another, to catch (person) in a lapse from truth or honesty 3 To upset plans of, to outwit, cause to fail in enterprise 4 To loose (an anchor) from bottom of sea by means of cable trip (II), n., fr prec 1. A journey, tour, an excursion, esp one of short duration for purposes of pleasure, a jaunt, an outing a trip to the Continent, to the seaside. 2 A light, nimbly, rapid motion forward on the feet. 3 A act of tripping or stumbling, a false step, a slip, lurch forward, b act of causing another to stumble or fall, wrestler's device for causing opponent to lose his footing 4 (fig) A slip, a faux pas, an offence, in conduct, a slip of the tongue, an error in statement &c tripartite, adj [1 tripartit, 2 tripartit] tri- & part (I) & -ite 1 Divided into, consisting of, three parts 2 Existing, arranged between, three parties tripartition, n. [1 tripartishun, 2 tripartishun] tri- & partition. Division into three parts.

tripe, n. [1 trip, 2 triap] Fr, origin unknown. 1 (obs or vulg) The entrails, the guts 2 Part of the stomach of an animal of the ox kind, used as food. 3 (slang) Worthless stuff, rubbish, applied to inferior literary work.

tripedal, adj [1 tripēdī, 2 triapēdī] tri- & pedal (I) Having three feet trip-hammer, n. A tilt-hammer triphthong, n. [1 trifthong, 2 trifthong] tri- & second element as in diphthong A combination, or series, of three vowel sounds, of which only one is stressed, e.g. [aie] as in fire.

triplane, n. [1 triplān, 2 triapleyn] tri- & plane (V) Aeroplane with three supporting planes triple, adj & vb trans & intrans [1 tripl, 2 tripl] Fr, fr Lat triplex, see tri- & cp formation of duplex under double (I) 1 adj Threefold. 2 vb a trans To multiply, increase, threefold, b intrans, to become three times as great, to treble triolet, n. [1 triplet, 2 triplē] Prec & -et Group, series, or three, a three lines rhyming together, b three notes played or sung in time of two, c any one of three children born at one birth.

triplex, adj & n. [1 triplex, 2 triplex] Lat, 'triple', fr tri- & base phic, fold, see plicate 1 adj a Threefold, b producing threefold effect. 2 n. (mus) Triple time.

triplicate, adj, n, & vb trans [1. triphkát; 2 triphkót] Lat, see tri- & plicate 1 adj Threefold, esp reproduced in three identical copies 2 n One of three identical things or copies 3 vb To make three copies of, to treble triplication, n [1 triphkáfahun, 2 triphkáffən] Prec & -ion a Act of triplicating, b that which is triplicated triplicity, n [1 tri-, triplísti, 2 tri-, triplísti] Lat triplic, stem of triplex, & -ity State of being threefold tripod, n [1 tripód, 2 triaspód] Gk tripod-, 'three-legged', see tri- & pedal (I) 1 A stand, table, stool &c standing on three legs 2 Specif, three-legged stool, or altar, of bronze, on which the priestesses sat in the temple of Apollo at Delphi when giving the answers of the oracles tripoli, n [1 triplól, 2 triplól], fr name of place in Africa Friable, siliceous deposit, also called rotten-stone tripos, n [1 tripos, 2 triaspós] Gk tripous, nom, of wh the stem is seen in tripod. Honour examination at University of Cambridge, formerly the list of successful candidates in the examination, from the three-legged stool upon which the M A sat who delivered the satirical Latin speech at the degree giving on Ash Wednesday tripper, n [1 triper, 2 tripa] trip (I) & -er One who takes trips, a tourist, an excursionist tripping, adj [1 triping, 2 trippin], fr Pres Part of trip (I) Walking with light, rapid, nimble steps trippingly, adv Prec & -ly a As though tripping, numbly, b (of speech, utterance) flowingly, finely, readily triptych, n [1 triptik, 2 triptik] Gk triptukhos, 'consisting of three layers, or plates', fr tri- & ptux, genit ptukhos, 'layer, fold', the origin of latter is doubtful Cp diptych. Picture or carving upon three panels placed side by side, esp one as altar-piece with large central panel and a smaller one on either side triquetra, n [1 trikwétra, 2 trikwétra] Lat, fem of triquetrus, 'having three corners', fr tri- & second element orig. quadros*, 'sharp, pointed', cogn w O E hwæt, 'sharp, bold' &c, q v under whet (I) Ornament consisting of three arcs interlaced triquetrous, adj [1 trikwétrus, 2 trikwétrus] Prec & -ous Having three acute angles or edges trireme, n [1 triřm, 2 triřrim] Lat triremis, 'having three banks of oars', fr tri- & řemus, 'oar', fr řismos*, cogn w O E řodor, 'oar', see rudder, & row (II) Ancient galley, esp a Greek galley, with three benches for rowers

Trisagion, n [1 triságion, 2 triságion] Gk tris, 'three times', see under tri-, & hagion, neut, 'holy', q v under hagiology Greek hymn which invokes God three times as holy trisection, vb trans [1 trisékt, 2 trisekt] fr Lat tri- & sect (um), P.P. of secare, 'to cut', see sect To divide, cut, into three, esp three equal parts (specif geom) triskelion, n [1 triskélion, 2 triskélion], fr Gk triskéllos, 'three legged', fr tri- & skélos, 'leg', see isosceles Name given to a device of three curves or branches joined at a centre, developing into the three legs of the coats of ancient Sicily, and of the arms of the Isle of Man trismus, n [1 trizmus, 2 trizmas] Latinized fr Gk trismós, 'a squeaking, creaking', cp trizein, 'to squeak, creak', fr base stred*, stred-*, op Lat stridere, 'to creak, rattle' &c, see strident. (med.) Lockjaw trisyllabic, adj [1 trisilábik, 2 trisilábik] tri- & syllabic Having three syllables trisyllable, n [1 trisilábl, 2 trisilóbl] tri- & syllable (I) Word of three syllables tritagonist, n [1 tritágionist, 2 tritágionist] Gk tritagonistés, fr trikos, 'third', op third

(I), & agonistés, 'actor', see agonistic Cp protagonist Character third in importance in a Greek play trite, adj [1 trít, 2 trást] Lat trit-(um), P.P. of terere, 'to rub, wear away', see also toredo & toreutia, prob cogn w throw (I) Lacking novelty and freshness, commonplace, hackneyed, banal a trite remark, expression tritely, adv Prec & -ly In a trite manner triteness, n See prec & -ness Condition, quality, of being trite tritheism, n [1 tritthéism, 2 traspitthéism] tri- & theism (II) Heretical opinion that as each of the Persons of the Trinity is God, there are therefore three Gods tritheist, n [1 tritthéist, 2 traspitthéist] tri- & theist Believer in tritheism

Triton, n [1 trítun, 2 trást(a)n] Gk Trítón a (Gk. mythol) A minor sea god, son of Poseidon and Amphitrite, depicted with a fish's tail, and holding a conch shell as a trumpet, also, one of a number of demigods resembling Triton. Phr a Triton among minnows, of important personage among people of little or no consequence, b a genus of marine gastropod molluscs with large spiral shells triturable, adj. [1 tritúrabl, 2 tritúrabl] L Lat trituri, as in next word, & -able Capable of being triturated triturate, vb trans [1 tritúrát, 2 tritjárest] L Lat trituri (um), P.P. of trituri, 'to grind, pulverize', formed fr Lat trit (um), P.P. of Lat terere, see trite To rub, grind down, pulverize, reduce to a fine powder trituration, n [1 tritúrashun, 2 tritjárfan] Prec & -ion Act or process of triturating triumph (I), n [1 triúmf, 2 triámf] Lat triumphus, earlier trumpus, 'solemn procession attending entrance of a general into Rome after an important victory', fr Gk thrambos, 'procession in honour of Bacchus', the etymol is doubtful, some authorities interpret as 'a dance in three time', & derive fr Gk tris, 'three', & a hypothetical ambos*, 'a dance', supposed to be cogn w Sert ángam, 'a lumb', O H G ancha, 'leg', others believe that thrambos & dithrambos, see dithramb, are borrowed fr Asia Minor, the source being unidentifiable 1 Victory, ascendancy the triumph of good over evil, achievement, success the triumphs of modern science Phr in triumph, with victory, having achieved success 2 A Sense of, feeling of, exultation over, success achieved, victory gained &c he could hardly conceal his triumph at the result of the election, a note of triumph in his voice, b outward expression of sense of success &c there was triumph in the eye of the conqueror 3 Something which constitutes a victory, which is the expression of achievement and success Pope's life was a triumph over weakness and ill health triumph (II), vb intrans Fr trionpher, Lat triumphare, see prec 1 To win the victory, achieve success we hope that in the end righteousness will triumph, triumph over, to defeat, obtain ascendancy over good sense has triumphed over unreasoning impetuosity 2 To feel and express joy and satisfaction at success, to exult, commonly triumph over it is ungenerous to triumph over a defeated enemy triumphal, adj [1 triúmf, 2 triámf] Lat triumphalis, 'belonging to a triumph', see triumph (I) & -al Pertaining to a triumph, expressing triumph a triumphal procession, arch &c triumphant, adj [1 triúmfant, 2 triámfant] Lat triumphant-(em), Pres Part of triumphare, see triumph (II) 1 Victorious, successful triumphant generals, the triumphant progress of knowledge 2 A Feeling exultation, b expressing exultation, manifesting a sense of successful achievement or of victory a triumphant shout, triumphant bearing triumphantly, adv Prec & -ly 1 Successfully, victoriously to return triumphantly from the war. 2 Exultingly, so as to express joy in, assurance of, success to smile triumphantly triumvir, n [1 triúmvir, 2 triámvir] Lat, fr trium, genit pl of trēs, 'three', see tri-, & vir, 'a man', see virile The triumvirs were three men holding a public office conjointly, a board of three joint commissioners A triumvir was one of these triumvirate, n [1 triúmvirát, -it, 2 triámvirát, -it] Lat triumviratus, 'office, dignity, of a triumvir, a group of triumvirs', see prec & -ate a A group of three having conjoint authority, specif b (Rom hist.) one of two such associations formed in Rome in 60 B.C. and 43 B.C trium, adj [1 trífün, 2 triájün] tri- & Lat ünus, 'one', see union Three in one trinity, n [1 trífünit, 2 triájünit] Prec & -ity a Fact, condition, of being triune, b a trinity trivet, n [1 trívét, 2 trívét] O E trefeh, fr Low Lat form of Lat triped, 'three-footed', see tri- & pedal (I) Iron stand with three legs for holding a pot or kettle, iron utensil with three projections on lower surface, made to hook over bars of a grate and support a kettle &c Phr right as a trivet, all right trivial, adj [1 trívial, 2 trívial] Lat trivialis, 'belonging to the cross roads or public streets', hence 'commonplace, vulgar, ordinary', fr tri- & via, 'a way', see trivium 1 (archaic) Commonplace, ordinary 'The trivial round' 2 A Unimportant, of small value, not weighty, insignificant, trifling, negligible a trivial remark, a trivial mind, b inconsiderable, slight, not severe a trivial injury, trivial expenses trivially, n [1 trívialiti, 2 trívialiti] Prec & -ity 1 Quality, condition, of being trivial 2 A trivial thing, a trifling, trite, unimportant idea, piece of work &c trivially, adv [1 trívial, 2 trívial] trivial & -ly In a trivial, trifling, manner trivialness, n [1 trívialnes, 2 trívialnes] See prec & -ness Quality of being trivial, triviality trivium, n [1 trívium, 2 trívium] Lat, 'place where three roads meet, public square, highway', fr tri- & via, 'a way, road', see via The initial course of study in mediaeval schools, consisting of the three liberal arts, grammar, rhetoric, and logic, corresponding to the B.A. course of later universities, cp quadrivium

-tris Lat suffix expressing a female agent, corresponding to masc -tor trocar, trochar, n [1 trókar, 2 trókad] Fr trocar, fr trois, 'three', & carre, 'side of a square', fr Lat quadra, see quadrat (I) Surgical piercing instrument with triangular point used for drawing off fluid from the body trochae, adj & n [1 trókaik, 2 tróukaik] See trochee & -ic 1 adj Pertaining to, composed in, trochees 2 n. A trochaic verse or line trochee, n [1 trókē, 2 tróukē] Gk trókhē, 'something which runs round, a round wheel, a round ball or cake', connected w trékhein, 'to run', this base is seen in O E prægan, 'to run', see thrall. Small, round, flat lozenge of medicinal drugs trochee, n [1 trókē, 2 tróukē] Lat trochaeus, fr Gk trókhaios, 'tripping, running', see prec. A metrical foot consisting (in Greek and Latin) of a long syllable followed by a short, or (in English and other languages where stress metre prevails) of a stressed syllable followed by an unstressed trochilus, n [1 trókilus, 2 trókilus] Lat, fr Gk trókhilos, lit 'a runner', applied to several small birds, connected w base trék-*, 'to run', see trochee 1 A small bird, a variety of sandpiper, said to accompany the crocodile and clear it of leeches and other parasites 2 (ornith., esp) A genus of humming-birds trochlea, n [1 tróklee, 2 tróllē] Lat, 'a block containing a pulley', fr Gk trókhla,

'a pulley', for Gk trōkhē, trēkhē, see prec (anat.) Cartilage in a joint resembling a pulley in function trochlear, adj [1 trōkhēar, 2 trōkhēa] Preo & -ar (anat.) Pertaining to a trochlea trochlear muscle trocho-, pref Gk trōkhōs, 'wheel', see trocho trocho-, adj [1 trōkhoid, 2 trōkhoid] Preo & -oid a Working like a wheel, i.e. rotating on own axis b wheel shaped trochometer, n [1 trōkhōmeter, 2 trōkhōmētra] tracho- & -meter Hodometer or tachometer troco, n [1 trōkōs, 2 trōkhōs] Span truco, origin doubtful Obsolote game played on a lawn with wooden balls and spoon-shaped ones trod, vb [1 trod, 2 trod] Preo of troad (I), fr M E, P P type trod(e)n, see troaden troaden, vb [1 trodēn, 2 trodēn] P P of troad O E (gētroden), M E troaden troglodyte, n [1 trōglōdītē, 2 trōglōdītē] Gk trōglōdītēs, 'one who creeps into holes', fr trōglē, 'a hole', op trōgēin, 'to gnaw', fr haec trōg*, terg* &c, cogn w Goth paikō, 'hole', & O E pyrel, 'hole', see nostril & through (I) The second element is formed fr duen, 'to enter', the origin of wh is uncertain 1 Primitive cave dweller, cave man, (hg) recluse 2 Troglodytes parvulus, the common wren troglodytic, adj [1 trōglōdītēk, 2 trōglōdītēk] Preo & -ic Pertaining to a troglodyte trogon, n [1 trōgōn, 2 trōgōn] Invented word, fr Gk trōgōn Preo Part of trōgēin, 'to gnaw', see prec Typical genus of a family of brilliantly coloured birds, chiefly of S America troika, n [1 trōika, 2 trōika] Russ, op tri, 'three' cogn w tri- Carriage, drawn by three horses harnessed abreast trois-temps, n [1 trwā tom, 2 trwā tō] Fr, three times The musical time or rhythm of a waltz

Trojan, adj & n [1 trōjan, 2 trōjdžan] Lat Trojanus, fr Troia, 'Troy' 1 adj Belonging to, connected with, Troy 2 n Inhabitant of Troy Phr to work like a Trojan, work industriously and laboriously troll (I), vb intrans & trans [1 trōl, 2 trōul] fr O Fr troller, prob of Gmc origin op Germ trollen, 'to roll, troll', M H G sense, 'to run with short steps', etymol doubt

A intrans 1 To fish by trailing or spinning a revolving bait or lure, esp behind a boat 2 (archaic or obs) To pass the bottle round B trans 1 (rare) To fish (area of water) by trolling 2 To sing in a careless, light-hearted manner to troll a slave troll (II), n ON & Swed Fabulous creature, either a giant or a mischievous dwarf trolley, n [1 trōl, 2 trōl] Perh fr trull (I), see trawl 1 Any of various vehicles, a light cart usually on two wheels, pushed by hand, b a strong low truck on four wheels, running on rails, for moving stones and other heavy objects 2 Steel arm with pulley projecting from electric tram car, running along overhead wire and conveying current to the car, (also attrib) trolley car, -pole &c trolley-lace, n Origin doubtful Coarse lace the pattern on which is outlined in thick threads trollius n [1 trōlius, 2 trōlius] Mod Lat, fr Hung trōlia, the name of the plant Genus of ranunculaceous plants, with globe shaped yellow or orange flowers trollop, n [1 trōlop, 2 trōlap] fr troll (I) in old sense 'roll', op Fr rouleuse for meaning A slatternly, disreputable woman trumbone, n [1 trōmbōn, 2 trōmbōn] Ital, fr trōmba, 'trumpet', see trump (I), & -non Powerful brass wind instrument consisting of a tube bent and rebent on itself, with a bell shaped end, and a sliding section, by moving which the various notes are made trommel, n [1 trōmal, 2 trōmal] Germ, 'a drum' q v. Revolving sieve used in cleansing ores tromometer, n [1 trōmōmeter, 2 trōmōmētra] fr Gk trōmos, 'a tremblor', cogn w tremor, & -meter Instrument for measuring earth tremors trompe, n [1 trōmp, 2 trōmp] Fr, see trump (I) Apparatus for making powerful draught in a blast furnace, by means of falling water, water bellows troop (I), n [1 trōp, 2 trōp] Fr, see troupe 1 A number of people 2 (specif mil) A division of a cavalry squadron, commanded by a captain, and corresponding to a company in an infantry regiment 3 (specif pl) military forces troop (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans To move forward in large numbers, to flock people came trooping out of the theatre 2 trans In Phr (mil) to troop the colour, to perform ceremony of escorting the colour through the regiment on parade trooper n [1 trōpēr, 2 trōpēr] trōmp & -er Private soldier in a cavalry regiment Phr to swear like a trooper, to swear fiercely and forcibly troop-ship, n Vessel carrying soldiers, a transport Tropaeolum n [1 trōpēolum, 2 trōpēolum] Latinized dimin of Gk trōpaion, 'trophy', see trophy, so called fr the shield shaped leaves & scarlet flowers of the plant Genus of slender S American climbing plants with masses of scarlet or orange flowers, including the nasturtium and canary creeper tropes, n [1 trōp, 2 trōp] Gk trōpos, 'turn, direction, way', fr same base as trepas, 'to turn', cogn w O Lat trepit, 'turns', see under trepidation. Figure of speech, figurative, metaphorical, use of a word

-trops, suff Gk trōpē, 'a turning', cogn w prec Used in compounds, e.g. heliotrope, zoetrope &c, in sense of 'that which turns'

trophio, adj [1 trōfik, 2 trōfik] Gk trōphōs, fr trōphē, 'food, nourishment', fr same base dh(e)trōh-*, &c, as trepheim, 'to make firm, to feed, nourish, to cherish', op further Gk trōphāis, 'nourished milk', thrōmbos, 'clot, lump', fr dhro(m)bh*, see thrombosis Cp also Lith drabnus, 'thick, fat', & see draft Connected with nutrition trophy, n [1 trōfi, 2 trōfi] Fr trophée, Ital trofeo, Lat trophæum, tropaeum, fr Gk trōpaion, fr trōpē of tropaios, 'connected with turning, or with a change, connected with defeat', hence token of an enemy's defeat, consisting of shields, helmets &c, hung on trees or posts See trape 1 Memorial, token, of victory, something taken from a defeated enemy, spoils of victory 2 A something preserved in memory of victory, success, achievement, b specif, group of such objects, such as weapons, heads or antlers of stags &c, arranged in picturesque design, and fixed on wall as an ornament trophies of the chase &c

-trophy, suff Gk trōphā, fr trōphē, 'nourishment', see trrophic Form used in compounds, atrophy, hypertrophy, with sense of 'nutrition' tropic, n & adj [1 trōpik, 2 trōpik] In M E, fr Lat tropicus, fr Gk trōpikós (kullos) 'pertaining to a turn', see trops 1 n a Each of the parallels of latitude about 23½ degrees N (tropic of Cancer) and S (tropic of Capricorn) of the Equator, bounding zone where sun reaches zenith, b region of the earth lying between the two parallels of latitude, usually the tropics 2 adj Belonging to the tropics tropical, adj [1 trōpikl, 2 trōpikl] trōpik & -al 1 Occurring in, characteristic of, the tropics tropical vegetation, diseases &c 2 (of weather, temperature &c) Resembling that of the tropics, very hot, sultry 3 Pertaining to, of the nature of, a trope, figurative tropically, adv Preo & -ly a In a tropical state &c, b figuratively tropio bird, n One of several kinds of bird resembling a tern, found in the tropics tropist, n [1 trōpist, 2 trōpist] trops & -ant One who indulges in figures of speech or tropes tropological, adj [1 trōpōlōgikl, 2 trōpōlōgikl] See next word & -ic & -al. Characterized by tropes tropology, n [1 trōpōlōgē, 2 trōpōlōgē] trops & -logy 1 Figurative, metaphorical, mode of speech, use of tropes 2 Specif, method of interpreting Scripture so as to make words bear a figurative meaning troppo, adv [1 trōpō, 2 trōppou] Ital Cp Fr trop, 'too much' (mus) Too much, esp non troppo, not to excess trot (I), vb intrans & trans [1 trot, 2 trot] M E trotter, fr O Fr trotter, prob of Gmc origin, op O H G trōtōn, wh. is cogn w tread (I) A intrans 1 Specif a (of horse, mule &c) to move along as a trot, b (of persons) to ride at a trot 2 (of human beings) To move along with short, rapid steps, used a to express the motion of a jerky, irregular run, and b that of a hurried walking pace in which short steps are taken, contrasted with stride 3 Trot along, (colloq), n to move off rapidly to perform some specific task you had better trot along and feed the dogs, b to take one's departure good-bye, I must trot along now B trans 1 To cause to move at a trot to trot a horse 2 Trot round, (colloq) to conduct (a person) from one place to another in succession I'll trot you round Oxford and show you the colleges 3 Trot out, a to put (a horse) through its paces so as to show it off, produce, exhibit, show off for another's inspection, (colloq) b to bring out, and submit (a thing) for another's approval or acceptance to trot out one's best wares, o to submit, bring forward (a proposal, suggestion &c) for consideration, to bring to another's notice he trotted out all the old arguments trot (II), n, fr prec 1 a The rapid pace of a horse &c, between pacing and galloping, in which the fore and hind legs on the same side move forward at once, in regular succession, b a ride on a horse &c, at this pace 2 (colloq) a The movement of a rapid walk or run of human beings, b a spell of rapid exercise on foot, a quick walk, a jog Phrs (always) on the trot, to be kept on the trot, continuously moving, constantly busy 3 (colloq) A small child, a toddler troth, n [1 trōth, 2 trōp] Variant of truth, M E trōth (treth) Faith, fidelity, word of honour, chiefly in Phr to plight one's troth, to pledge one's word, specif in marriage trotter, n [1 trōtēr, 2 trōtēr] trunt (I) & -er One who, that which, trots (in various senses) 1 A horse specially bred and used for trotting 2 A The foot of a sheep or pig, esp thought of as food, b (colloq and facet) the foot of a person, esp of a child or young girl trottour, n [1 trōtwar, 2 trōtwar] Fr, fr trot (I) Pavement, side walk, for pedestrians, at the side of a road troubadour, n [1 trōbadōr, 2 trōbadōr] Fr, fr Provenç troubador, either formed fr trōbar, 'to find, invent, compose poetry', op Fr trouver, q v under trove, trover, & trouver, or fr a Low Lat trōpare*, to make tropes, to sing', op Lat tropus, 'a trope, a song', fr Gk, see trops A mediæval lyric and amatory poet of a school that flourished in Provence and the south of France, during late 11th and down to end of 13th centuries trouble (I), vb trans & intrans [1 trubl, 2 trabl] O Fr trobler, troubler, fr L Lat turbulare, 'to disturb, agitate', fr turbula, dimin of turba, 'a crowd', see turbulent A trans 1 (of physical action) To agitate, cause to become ruffled, put into violent motion to trouble the waters Phr troubled waters, disturbed, confused state of affairs 2 To cause agitation of mind to, to vex, render anxious, to perturb, to harass he was greatly troubled about his son's misconduct, what troubles me is the thought of her sufferings 3 a To cause annoyance to, to pester, inconvenience, importune, worry, esp with demands to do something, complaints &c, to disturb he is always troubling me about his private affairs, I'm sorry to trouble you about such trivial matters, also b in polite requests I fear I must trouble you to come upstairs, may I trouble you to pass the salt, (also ironical) I'll trouble you to hold your tongue 4 To cause physical pain or discomfort to his wound troubles him a good deal, much troubled by gout 5 To be a source of difficulty to, to compel to make an effort the learning of languages never troubled him much B intrans 1 To take pains, give oneself trouble, to make an effort he never even troubled to answer, don't trouble to write, if it is inconvenient to come, don't trouble 2 To feel anxious, to be in a state of mental agitation, to worry I shall not trouble if I never see him again trouble (II), n, fr preo 1 Mental agitation, grief, care, affliction one could read trouble on his face, a heart full of trouble, Phr in trouble, (i) sad, afflicted, (u) in danger of being punished for an offence, to get into trouble, render oneself liable to punishment, to ask for trouble, to behave in such a way as to court danger, disaster, to lay oneself open to opposition and attack, to create difficulties for oneself 2 A Difficulty, necessity for special effort or exertion I had some trouble in reading his handwriting, he opened the safe without any trouble, b effort, labour, pains to take trouble, thank you for all your trouble on my behalf 3 Cause, source, of trouble, something which afflicts, which causes grief or annoyance life is full of petty troubles, tell me all your troubles 4 State of political or social unrest, disturbance, confusion 5 a An ailment, physical or mental ill-health heart trouble, mental trouble, b specif (popular) childhith, confinement Mrs Jones is over her trouble troublesome, adj [1 trúbisum, 2 tráhlsum] Fr & -some Causing trouble (in various senses), a difficult, wearisome, laborious a troublesome job, b persistently harassing, a troublesome cough, c unruly, undisciplined, obstreperous a troublesome child troublesomely, adv, fr preo Fr & -ly In a troublesome manner troubulous, adj [1 trúbilus, 2 tráblus] trouble (II) & -ous (archaic) Characterized by troubles, disturbed, unsettled, esp troubulous times trough, n [1 trawf, trof, truf, 2 tráf, trof, traf] O E trōg, trōh, 'a hollowed wooden vessel', ON trōg, possibly connected w tree (I) 1 a A wooden vessel, or receptacle, esp a long, narrow, open one used for holding water or food for animals, b a similar vessel of iron or stone, c wooden vessel in which dough is kneaded 2 A hollow, narrow channel between two waves the trough of the sea 3 (meteor) Lane in a cyclonic area in which barometric pressure reaches the lowest point trounce, v trans [1 trouns, 2 trouns] Fr tronce, 'a stump, thick piece of wood', variant of tronce, see trunchon a To beat severely, castigate thoroughly, b (fig) to castigate verbally, to criticize, censure, severely troupe, n [1 trōp, 2 trúp] Fr, 'band, troop', see also troop, origin uncertain Derivation has been suggested fr LG dorp, 'a village', cogn w Engl thorp A band of actors or of other performers on the stage trousered, adj [1 tronzerd, 2 trauzed] See troussere & -ed Wearing, clothed in, trousers trousering, n [1 tróuzering, 2 trauzering] trousers & -ing (tailor's word) Material from which trousers are made trousers, n pl [1 tróuzers, 2 trauzez] Formerly trousses, fr Fr trousses, 'hundle', see trousse & truss (I) & cp trews a Male outer garment extending from the waist to the ankle, covering the lower part of the body and having a separate tubular covering for each leg, also pair of trousers, b long frilled drawers reaching to the foot worn by women in early 19th cent Rarely used in sing, & chiefly in such Phrs as the leg of my trouser, also in compounds trouser-button, trouser-leg, trouser-stretcher trousse, n [1 trōs, 2 trūs] Fr, 'a hundle', see truss (I) Case for holding a surgeon's smaller instruments trousseau, n [1 trōsō, 2 trūsou] Fr, 'bundle, clothes given to a bride', fr O Fr trossel, dimin of trousse Outfit of clothes, jewellery, and other personal belongings provided for a woman on her marriage trout, n [1 trout, 2 traut] O E trūht, fr Lat truda, fr Gk trōkhēs, 'a mubler, gnawer', fr trōghēn, 'to gnaw', see troglodyte Any of various species of small or moderate sized edible fish of genus Salmo, found in rivers and lakes, whose flesh resembles somewhat that of the salmon, but is more delicate in taste and texture, and of a lighter pink in colour, the colour of the skin varies from silvery white to brown, and is in many species sprinkled with pink spots trouver, n [1 trōvār, 2 trāvaz] O Fr & Mod Fr, see troubadour One of a school of poets belonging to Northern France, who flourished from 11th to 14th cent, and composed chiefly narrative poems—the so called 'Chansons de geste' trove, adj [1 trōv, 2 trouv] O Fr trouv, 'found' See next word Only in Phr treasure trove, q v trover, n [1 trōver, 2 trouva] O Fr, 'to find', op Mod Fr trouver, Ital trovare, 'to find', according to Meyer-Lubke, orig 'to disturb, frighten, start, stir up (fish)', fr Lat turbāre, 'to disturb', fr turbā, 'uproar, disorder, confusion', see turbid, turbulent (law) 1 Acquisition of personal property by finding or otherwise than by purchase 2 Action at law to recover goods, or the value of goods (assumed by a legal fiction to have been found), wrongfully detained trou, v intrans [1 tron, 2 trau] O E trūwan, 'to trust, believe', connected w true (obs or deliberately archaic) To suppose, believe, generally, I trou trowel, n [1 trowel, 2 trauil] Fr truelle, 'mason's trowel', fr L Lat trulla, dimin of Lat trua, 'ladle', cp also Lat trulla, cogn w Gk trōnē, 'implement for stirring', prob fr base trw-*, 'to stir', whence also O E pueran, 'to stir', cp also O E puwel, 'a whisk for whipping cream' &c Connexion w words in stir (I), storm (I), is purely speculative One of various small hand implements, of which the chief are a one with a flat blade, usually pointed, for spreading mortar (mason's trowel), Phr to lay it on with a trowel, to flatter grossly, b one with a hollowed out blade and sharpened edge for lifting small plants, stirring and scooping out the earth in planting &c (gardener's trowel) troy, adj & n [1 troi, 2 trai] fr 'Troyes in France Only in troy weight, so many ounces troy &c, indicating method of weighing, standard of weight used for gold and silver, in pounds, ounces, pennyweights, grains, one pound troy consists of 12 oz truancy, n [1 trōansi, 2 trānsi] Next word & -cy A Act of playing truant, b state of being a truant truant, n & adj [1 trōtant, 2 trānt] O Fr, 'a vagrant', prob fr. Celt, cp W truan, 'wretched' 1 n A Person who absents himself from his duties for his own pleasure and without just cause, b specif, boy or girl who stays away from school Phr to play truant, remain away from one's duties, esp to shirk school 2 adj. Shirking duty, staying away from school truce, n [1 trōs, 2 trūs] Apparently fr

ME trūsses, pl. of trūwe, 'fidelity, pledge; truce', fr trūwe, 'true, faithful', see true (I) 1 Cessation of hostilities, generally for a considerable period, by arrangement between the commanders of opposing forces, upon terms agreed upon by both parties, flag of truce, a white flag borne by party sent to ask for a truce, truce of God, suspension of all warfare, enforced by the Mediaeval Church at stated holy seasons 2 Cessation, intermission, esp in such Phr as a truce to jesting &c truck (I), n & v trans [1 truk, 2 trak] ME trūken, 'to exchange', cp O Fr troque, 'exchange, sale, bargain', fr Flem trok, 'pay, sale', op also A-Fr troquer, 'to barter', perh connected w Du trekken, 'to draw', see trak 1 n a Barter, exchange, hence, commerce, intercourse to have no truck with a person, have nothing to do with him, b small wares, hence, objects of small value, rubbish, nonsense, truck system (of wages), payment in kind instead of in cash, Truck Acts, various statutes abolishing the truck system 2 v trans (rare) To exchange, barter truck (II), n & v trans, fi Lat trochus, 'an iron hoop', fr Gk trōkhōs, 'a wheel', q v under trochee 1 n Any of various strongly built, low vehicles, running on small, strong wheels, used for conveying heavy weights, e.g. (i) two wheeled barrow used by railway porters for moving luggage, (u) an open waggon on a railway for transporting heavy goods, coal, iron &c, b the frame work and wheels upon which a railway carriage is built 2 v trans To place (goods) in or on a truck truckage, n [1 trukn, 2 trākidž] Fr & -age a Conveyance of goods by truck, b charge made for this truckle (I), n [1 trukl, 2 trākl] Dimin of truck (II) 1 (obs) A small wheel 2 A small cylindrical cheese, also truckle cheese 3 A truckle-bed truckle (II), v intrans, fr preo Orig, to sleep on a truckle bed, hence to behave as bedf. one who sleeps on a truckle bed, i.e. as one in a servile relation to another To cringe, behave in a servile, obsequious manner, also truckles to, cringe to, submit to (a person) as a servant to his master truckle-bed, n See truckle (I) 'A small, low bed, esp one on wheels, formerly one occupied by a servant, which could be pushed under that of his master in the daytime trucker, n [1 trūkler, 2 trāklz] truckle (II) & -er One who truckles, a servile, obsequious person truculence, -cy, n [1 trūkūlens(i), trōk-, 2 trākūlens(i), trūk-] Lat truculentia, 'savageness, harshness', next word & -ce, -cy Quality of being truculent truculent, adj [1 trūkulent, trōkulent, 2 trākulent, trūkulent] fr Lat truculentus, 'savage, cruel, harsh, grim, stern', fr truc, base of trux, w same meaning, the etymol. is uncertain Fierce, harsh, overbearing, arrogant, haughtily defiant truculently, adv Fr & -ly In a truculent manner trudge, v intrans & n [1 truj, 2 tradž] Origin uncertain, the various forms commonly adduced fr ON or Mod. Scand dual appear to agree neither in form nor meaning w the Engl word 1 v trans To walk along laboriously and wearily, to pursue a tedious and tiring course on foot. 2 n a A long, tedious, laborious walk, b a long walk undertaken for the sake of exercise rather than for pleasure let's go for a good trudge trudgen, n [1 trujen, 2 trādzan] fr J. Trudgen, swimmer who popularized the stroke Also trudgen stroke (erroneously trudgeon), swimming stroke in which the arms are brought over the head alternately and the head kept well down true (I), adj [1 trōs, 2 trūs] O E (de)trūwe, -trūwe, 'faithful, trusty, honest', ME trūwe;

OS truus, Germ trau, Goth truggus, ON tryggr 1 Faithful, loyal, constant, staunch, reverse of perfidious good men and true, true to one's king, principles, a man should remain true to his wife. Phr trus as steel 2 A In accordance with fact, veracious, contrasted with false a true story, what you say is not true, Phrs to come true, to happen as was foretold, be realized in fact, true as gospel, b (more rarely of persons) adhering to, telling, the truth, truthful, o the true, something which is true, truth 'Who battled for the True, the Just' (Tennyson, 'In Memoriam' lv 5) 3 Genuine, actual, authentic, not a sham, not counterfeited 'I am the true vine', a true son of his race, in accordance with a standard, pattern, ideal, exact, accurate a true copy, version, reproduction, a true Christian, true to type, weights and measures ought to be strictly true, the true time true (II), adv, fr prec 1 Truly tell me true 2 In accordance with ancestral type, of animals, to breed true, of plants from seed, to come true true (III), vb trans, fr true (I) To make true, accurate, to adjust accurately, make straight &c to true (up) a machine &c true bill, n A bill of indictment found to be based on prima facie evidence and endorsed as such by a grand jury true-blue, adj & n 1 adj a Of a fast and lasting blue colour, b (fig) of persons adhering rigidly and uncompromisingly to a principle, party &c 2 n a True blue colour, b (fig) true blue person.

true-bred, adj 1 Of pure and genuine breed a true bred West Highland terrier 2 (of persons) Well bred, possessing real breeding in manner, character &c true-hearted, adj Faithful, loyal true-love, n O E trēowlu, 'faithful love', M E truelove &c Beloved being, sweetheart true-love, or true-lover's, knot, n Intricate knot of two interlaced bows, hard to untie, symbolical of the lasting nature of love truthness, n [1 trōnes, 2 trāns] true (I) & -ness Quality of being true, a truth, veracity, b fidelity, o accuracy, exactness truffle, n [1 truif, trōif, 2 trāf, trāf] O Fr truffe, truffe, origin doubtful, perh oon noted w tuber Round, edible fungus, with pungent flavour, growing below the ground, used for flavouring, esp in pâté de foie gras truism, n [1 trōizum, 2 trūzom] true (I) & -ism A statement of the truth of which is self evident, a trite saying the truth of which no one disputes, and which it is unnecessary to utter trull, n [1 trul, 2 tral] Cp Mod Germ. trulle, variant of troll (II) A slatternly, disreputable woman, a low trampet truly, adv [1 trōli, 2 trāli] true (I) & -ly In a true manner (in various senses), a faithfully, loyally to serve a person truly, formally concluding letters yours (very) truly, b veraciously tell me truly what you think, c genuinely, actually, essentially a truly good man, to be truly happy, in Phr truly I am puzzled &c, really, speaking honestly trueman, n [1 trōmō, 2 trāmō] Fr, etymol doubtful, possibly of Gmc origin (archaic) Piece of wall or pillar between two windows or other openings in a wall trump (I), n [1 trump, 2 tramp] M E trump, trampe, Fr trampe perb fr Lat trumphus, see triumph. The sound made by a trumpet or a sound resembling this the last trump, that of the day of judgment trump (II), n & vb trans & intrans Ultimately same word as prec 1 n a The last card dealt by the dealer, dealt to himself and left face upwards on the table, thus and any card of same suit takes any card of other suits, also any card of a suit declared by bidding &c to be trumps, as at bridge, b a card belonging to the trump suit c (fig) a good natured, obliging person he behaved like a regular trump 2 vb To take (a trick) with a trump card trump (III), vb trans Fr tromper, 'to deceive', orig 'to blow a trumpet' (gen) Trump up, to fabricate, concoct, deliberately and with intent to deceive to trump up an accusation, a charge, against trump-card, n a Last card in a pack, dealt to himself by the dealer and turned up, see trump (II), b (fig) the chief and most effective means in one's possession of obtaining one's purpose, gaining one's point &c Phr to play one's trump card, to make use of one's best weapon for gaining one's end trumpety, n & adj [1 trumpety, 2 trāmpety] Fr trompette, 'deceit', fr tromper, 'to deceive', same word as that meaning 'to blow a trumpet' 1 n Showy, meretricious object or material, of small value, rubbishy, nonsense 2 adj Showy but worthless, rubbishy, weak and ineffective trumpety ornaments, trumpety arguments trumpet (I), n [1 trumpet, 2 trampit] M E trompeta, Fr trompette, dimin of trompe, see trump (I) 1 Musical wind instrument consisting of a long metal tube, usually bent several times upon itself, having a mouth piece, a wide end where the air passes out, and stops worked by the fingers which form the different notes Phr to blow one's own trumpet, praise oneself 2 Instrument shaped like a trumpet, esp an instrument for intensifying sounds, e.g. an ear trumpet, used for speaking to deaf persons, kind of horn for intensifying sounds produced by a phonograph, gramophone &c, or transmitted by wireless 3 Sound produced by a trumpet trumpet (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a To proclaim by, or as by, a trumpet, b (fig) to announce widely and loudly to trumpet a person's fame abroad 2 intrans (of elephant) To utter characteristic cry through the trunk trumpet-call, n a Call made by sounding a trumpet, b (fig) imperative call or summons to action trumpeter, n [1 trumpeter, 2 trāmpitē] trumpet (II) & -er 1 One who plays on a trumpet 2 One of several kinds of birds with long neck and large, found in S America trumpet-flower, n Name applied to various plants with trumpet shaped flowers, e.g. honeysuckle, datura &c trumpeting, n [1 trumpeting, 2 trāmpitē] trumpet (II) & -ing a Sound made by blowing a trumpet, b cry made by elephants trumpet-shaped, adj Shaped like a trumpet, i.e. hollow, and broadening gradually from a narrow end towards a broad bell, or cup-shaped mouth truncal, adj [1 trungk, 2 trāngk] trunk & -al Belonging to the trunk or to the body truncate, vb trans & adj [1 trungkāt, 2 trāngkāt] Lat truncatus, PP of truncare, 'to cut off' See trunk. 1 vb To cut off, shorten, lop 2 adj Shortened as by lopping, e.g. of spiral shells the point of which is broken or worn off truncated, adj [1 trungkātēd, 2 trāngkātēd] Prec & -ed a Shortened by, or as though by, lopping, maimed, b (of writings, speeches &c) abbreviated, drastically reduced in length, esp in such a way as to produce effect of incompleteness, mutilated truncation, n [1 trungkāshun, 2 trāngkātēshun] truncate & -ion. Act of truncating trunchon, n [1 trunshun, 2 trānshun] M E trunchoun, 'broken shaft', O Fr trunchon, variant of Fr tronçon, fr L. Lat formation fr Lat. truncus, 'stem, stool, trunk of a tree' &c, see trunk. A short thick staff or cudgel, esp one used by policeman, the baton of office of the Earl Marshal trundle, n & vb trans & intrans [1 trundl, 2 trāndl] O E tryndel, trendel, 'a ring, a circle, a wheel', cp trund(e), 'a round lump', & trundian, 'to make round', op trond (I) 1 n a small broad, strong wheel 2 vb a trans To cause to roll along, to bowl to trundle a hoop, a cask &c, b intrans, to roll, be capable of being rolled trundle-bed, n A low bed on wheels, capable of being easily wheeled about, a truckle bed.

trunk, n [1 trungk, 2 trāngk] Fr trono, Lat. truncus, (1) adj, 'maimed, mutilated', hence, (2) 'stem or bole of a tree', orig 'the stem with the boughs lopped off', etymol doubtful, possibly fr same base as O E trungan, 'to press, crowd', see through 1 The main stem of a tree 2 The body of a man or an animal, not including the head or limbs 3 The main body or line (of railways, telephones, also of an artery) as distinct from side lines and branches, op trunk call (on telephone) 4 Receptacle, with lid on hinges, made of hide, leather, or other materials, esp as used by travellers for transporting their clothes &c 5 (for trump (I), op Fr trompe) The proboscis, or long tube like prehensile organ, formed by extension of the nose of an elephant 6 (pl) Trunks, trunk hose trunk-hose, n Short full breeches covering the lower part of the trunk and part of the thighs, as worn in 18th and 17th cents trunk-line, n Main line of a railway, telegraph, or telephone system trunnel, n [1 trunl, 2 trānl] Corrupt variant of tree nail trunnon, n [1 trunium, 2 trānium], fr Fr trignon, 'core of a fruit', according to Meyer Lübke, formed fr Lat truncus, see trunk One of two parts, or gudgeons, projecting horizontally from either side of a cannon, or other heavy cylindrical apparatus, serving as pivots upon which it rests and by means of which its angle can be altered truss (I), n [1 trus, 2 tras] Fr trousse, 'bundle', O Fr trois, tourse, fr Lat thyrsus, 'stalk, stem', fr Gk thyrsos, see thyrsus 1 A bundle, package, esp a truss of hay, straw, oblong package of compressed hay or straw tightly tied with bands of coarse string which pass round it a short distance from either end, a truss of hay or straw is a specific measure, the former being 60 lb (new), the latter 36 lb 2 A cluster of blossom growing on a single stem 3 Combination of timbers or of iron rods forming a rigid framework, used in building and engineering 4 Apparatus used to give support by applying continuous pressure in cases of rupture truss (II), vb trans, see prec 1 To bind up into a truss or bundle 2 A To tie tightly and secure wings of (a fowl) close to the body before cooking, b truss up, to tie up limbs close to the body and hang up 3 To support (part of building) by a truss, framework, girder &c trust (I), n [1 trust, 2 trāst] M E trust, trist, prob Soand, op ON traust, 'confidence', bwd trōst, 'consolation', oogn w Goth. trawist, 'a covenant', & true (I) 1 Firm conviction in another's reliability, integrity, honour, implicit confidence, faith, reliance 'Put not your trust in princes' Phr to take something on trust, to believe that it is what it appears or is asserted to be, without looking closely into the evidence for oneself 2 Duty or task, responsibility, committed to, imposed upon one, which one is morally bound to undertake I regard it as a sacred trust to fulfil my father's last wishes 3 Something committed to one's charge and care, to be used for the benefit of another, specif (law) a the vesting of the legal ownership of property in a person or persons, trustees, for the benefit of another or others, the cestus qua trust, b property so vested. 4 A combination of several commercial firms or businesses, effected for the purpose of regulating conditions of business and the price of commodities, or, less justifiably, for the purpose of obtaining control of a particular branch of business activity, and a monopoly of certain articles of commerce trust (II), vb trans & intrans M E truster &c, see prec A trans 1 To place rehance, confidence, in, to rely upon, have faith in integrity of I trust him as I would myself, not a man to be trusted 2 To allow to do something, or go somewhere, with full assurance that one's confidence will not be abused he may be trusted to do the work well, I wouldn't trust that man round the corner 3 a To entrust (a person) with something I should not like to trust him with large sums of money, b to entrust (a thing) to the care of I wouldn't trust my watch to him 4 To have a confident expectation that something will happen, or does exist, or is in the condition that one desires, to hope I trust (that) nothing will prevent our meeting, I do trust you will be successful, I trust this is the book you wanted, also absol, you are feeling better, I trust 5 To have a firm conviction that, to believe 'The knight's bones are dust, And his good sword rust, His soul is with the saints, I trust' (Coleridge, 'Knight's Tomb') B intrans To perform the mental act of trusting it is hard to trust where respect is lacking trustee, n [1 trást, 2 trást] trust (I) & -ee 1 One to whom a trust is committed we are trustees of our country's honour 2 One holding property in trust for another trustful, adj [1 trástful, 2 trástful] trust (I) & -ful Disposed to trust, confiding trustfully, adv Free & -ly In a trustful manner trustiness, n [1 trástines, 2 trástines] trusty & -ness Quality of being trusty trustless, adj [1 trástles, 2 trástles] trust (I) & -less Not to be trusted, unreliable, disloyal trustworthiness, n [1 trástwérðnes, 2 trástwérðnes] See next word & -ness Reliability, dependability trustworthy, adj [1 trástwérðu, 2 trástwérðu] trust (I) & worthy (I) a (of persons) Worthy of trust, reliable, dependable, honourable; b (of statements) worthy of credence, consonant with fact, accurate trusty, adj [1 trástl, 2 trástl] trust (I) & -y a (of persons) Deserving to be trusted, faithful, loyal, staunch a trusty servant, b (archaic, of things) reliable, to be counted on to serve their purpose my trusty sword, steed truth, n [1 tróuth, 2 trúp] OE tréop, tréow, good faith, fidelity, M E treups, see true (I) & -th 1 Moral quality of being true and honest, sincerity, loyalty, trustiness to doubt a person's truth 2 Conformity to fact and reality to the utmost extent that these are discoverable by the human mind, verity 3 Conformity to fact in statement, veracity, the reverse of a lie to tell, speak, the truth, the truth is, you ought never to have come 4 A Ascertained fact in science, sound, reliable doctrine in religion, esp as known by revelation biological truth, Gospel, Christian truth, b an established principle or law the great truths of morals, science, philosophy &c 5 Accuracy, exactness, in formation and adjustment in mechanism, esp in Plur out of truth truthful, adj [1 tróuthful, 2 trúpful] Free & -ful a (of persons) Habitually speaking the truth, veracious, b (of statements) in accordance with the truth, true truthfully, adv Free & -ly In a truthful manner, in accordance with truth, with truth, veraciously truthfulness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being true, veracity try (I), vb trans & intrans [1 tri, 2 trás] M E trien, 'to select', op Fr trier, 'to set apart, select', fr L trihare, 'to rub down, separate the grain from the husk', formed fr trih, PP type of terere, 'to rub, grind, thresh', q v under trite A trans 1 (obs) To pick out (the best) from the rest, to separate one sort from another 2 Also try out, to separate the dross from the ore, impure matter from the pure substance, to refine, to assay, test purity of (metals), also of whale blubber, so as to extract the oil 3 a To test

(qualities), put to the test or proof to try one's skill, strength, b to put a strain upon, make demands upon his patience, courage, was severely tried, it tries the eyes to read in a bad light, c to afflict, cause suffering to he has been very sorely tried, rheumatism tries me a good deal 4 a To make use of in order to test properties of, to find out by using how far something will serve one's purpose, prove a remedy, he to one's taste &c I have tried all the makes of safety razor blades, try our pills for dyspepsia, have you tried tea with a slice of lemon in it?, b try on, (i) to test fit of (clothes) by putting them on to try a coat on, to try on a new coat, (u) to try it on, to do something audacious, to test how far one will be allowed to go 5 To make an effort to do, to attempt he tried an impossible feat, don't try more than you can do 6 To test by means of experiment, to carry out an experiment in order to discover try which is the highest note you can sing, try how far you can jump 7 a To conduct judicial inquiry into, hear arguments concerning, in a court of law to try a case, b to conduct trial of, inquire into innocence or guilt of to try a criminal B intrans To endeavour, exert oneself, make an attempt or effort (to do something) I doubt if I can do it, but I'll try, I have never tried to ski, he makes very little progress though he tries hard, try to please your employers, to do your duty, frequently try and (in colloq speech) try and be punctual, now try and repeat it correctly, do try and behave better, Phr to try one's best, one's hardest, do as well as one can, use one's utmost efforts

try (II), n See prec 1 (colloq) An attempt have a try at 2 (Rugby football) Touch down behind opponent's goal end within the touch-in goal, on which the ball is brought out and a place kick is taken aimed between the goal-posts, above the cross-bar, a try, if not thus converted, counts 3 points, as opposed to 5 for a goal trying, adj [1 trífing, 2 tránp], fr Free Part of try (I) 1 Tending to try, test, put a strain upon, (i) provoking, exasperating trying to 'he temper, a trying person to deal with, (u) exacting a trying bit of work 2 a Fatiguing, irksome, wearisome a trying journey, b afflicting, grievous, painful a trying time, situation, experience trypanosome, n [1 tripanosóm, 2 tripanosóm], fr Gk trípanon, 'horer, piercer', see trepan (I), & sóma, 'body', see somatic A minute whip-like parasite, belonging to the genus Trypanosoma, transmitted to the blood of man and animals by the bite of the tsetse-fly, q v, and causing disease (see below) trypanosomiasis, n [1 tripanosómiasis, 2 tripanosómiasis] Free & -iasis Disease caused by presence of a trypanosome in the blood, spiro, sleeping sickness in man, nagana in cattle trypsin, n [1 trípisin; 2 trípisin] Invented Germ word fr Gk trépsin, 'to rub, consume', cogn w Lat terere, see trite, & pepsin (physiol) A digestive ferment or enzyme formed in the pancreas juice trysail, n [1 trísil, 2 trásil] try (I) & sail (I) A small fore end aft sail attached to a gaff tryst, n & vb trans & intrans [1 tríst, tríst, 2 tráist, tráist] M E, fr O Fr triste, tristre, 'waiting or watching place', prob of Scand. origin, see trust (I) 1 n a Engagement to meet, b agreed upon, appointed, meeting-place 2 vb To promise to meet at agreed time and place tsar See czar

tsetse-fly, n [1 tsétst flí, 2 tsétst flá] Cope Du fr Native Afr An African fly, Glossina, which acts as intermediate host of the parasitic trypanosome, q v, and thus infects the blood of man and animals, one species being the carrier of sleeping sickness, to man, another of nagana, q v, or tsetse-fly disease, to cattle tuatara, n [1 tootátára, 2 twátára] Maori

A large lizard-like reptile, genus Sphenodon, once common in New Zealand tub, n & vb intrans [1 tub, 2 tah] M E tubbe, op Du tobbe, perh fr Lat tubus, see tube 1 n a Wooden vessel made in various shapes, often in form of a cask; used for various purposes, e g wash tub, water tub, rain water tub &c, b (colloq) a beth to take one's tub, a cold tub, every morning, c boat used in practising rowing, d a kind of hacket or box used for conveying coal or ore in mines from the workings to the shaft 2 vb (colloq) To take a beth tuba, n [1 túba, 2 túba] Lat, 'trumpet', see tube A type of brass wind musical instrument with deep tone, including the bombardon and euphonium, b a reed stop in an organ tubal, adj [1 túbl, 2 túhl] tube & -al Pertaining to, connected with, a tube tubby, adj [1 túbi, 2 túbi] tub & -y 1 Shaped like a tub, fat, squat, and round 2 (of musical instruments) Lacking resonance, giving out a dull sound tube, n [1 túb, 2 túh] Lat tubus, 'a pipe, tube', cogn w tuba, 'trumpet', etymol uncertain 1 a Long hollow cylinder, or pipe, of any size, of various materials, and used for many purposes glass tube, metal tube, a tube of paint, vacuum tube &c, b an organ of the body in form of a tube, esp bronchial tubes 2 Underground electric railway system in London, the lines of which are laid in enormous steel tubes tuber, n [1 túber, 2 túba] Lat, 'a bump, swelling, protuberance', contains the same base tu as tumid, tumour, w different formative elements Modified part of stem of certain plants, such as the potato and Jerusalem artichoke, containing buds whence new plants are formed tubercle, n [1 túberkl, 2 túbákl] Lat tuberculum, dimin. of tuber 1 Small rounded protuberance on part of an animal or plant 2 (pathol.) Small granular morbid growth in the substance of an organ of the body, such as the lungs, causing the disease known as tuberculosis tubercular, adj [1 túbérkúlar, 2 túbákljula] Free & -ar a Connected with, of the nature of, a tubercle, b affected by tuberculosis, tuberculous tubercularize, vb trans [1 túbérkúláriz, 2 túbákljularíz] Free & -ize To infect with tubercle or tuberculosis tuberculosis, n [1 túbérkúlósis, 2 túbákljulósis] Formed fr Lat tuberculi, see tubercle, & -osis Infectious disease of the tissues of an organ of the body caused by the tubercle bacillus, which produces disintegration of the organ or part affected, as pulmonary tuberculosis, phthisis &c tuberculous, adj [1 túbérkúlus, 2 túbákljulas] See prec, & -ous a Having tubercles, b affected by tuberculosis tuberosa, n [1 túberóz, 2 túbárouz] Orig, an adj, fr tuber & -osa See also tuberosus Bulbous plant, Polygonum tuberosum, resembling a lily, cultivated in gardens for its spikes of blossoms tuberosity, n [1 túberósta, 2 túbérósti] See prec, tuberosus, & -ity. Quality of being tuberosus tuberosus, adj [1 túberus, 2 túbérus] tuber & -ous a Producing, growing from, tubers, b covered with rounded excrescences, knobby tubing, n [1 túbing, 2 túbín] tube & -ing 1 A series, collection, system, of tubes 2 A length, portion, piece, of tube india rubber tubing tubular, adj [1 túbúlar, 2 túbúljal] Lat tubulus, dimin of tubus, 'tube', & -ar a Having the form of a tube or pipe, b provided with tubes tubule, n [1 túbál, 2 túbúl] Lat tubulus, see prec A small tube tuck (I), vb trans & intrans [1 tuk, 2 tak] M E tucken, 'to pull, draw', usually derived by dictionary makers fr Continental Gmo, but it is possibly fr OE tūcan, 'to afflict', the primary meaning of wh may well have been 'to pluck, tug, pull', op provine Engl. 'to tokk pers, beans, fruit &c', i.e. to pluck, gather. The word is prob an anct doublet fr base tug*, 'pull, draw' &c. See tow (I) & tug (I). A trans 1 To gather (loose folds of cloth or garments, loose ends of cord, line &c) together tightly, and push away out of sight behind other folds, or under something firmly fixed, also tuck v: tuck one's handkerchief into one's pocket, tuck up, to fold back and fasten firmly, as to tuck up one's shirt sleeves, to tuck a child up in bed, pull the sheets and blankets well over him and push the ends under mattress, tuck away, to place securely and neatly, also to hide away where discovery is difficult a great deal of learning is tucked away in the notes (of the book) 2 (new formation from n) To put a book or books in a sleeve &c) B intrans 1 To make tucks 2 (colloq) a Tuck in, to eat hungrily and copiously, b tuck into, trans tuck (II), n, fr preo 1 Permanent fold or hem, made and sewed, in a skirt, in the sleeve of a shirt &c 2 (schoolboy slang) Food, esp food of an attractive character, eaten rather from greed than hunger, sweetmeats, oakes, tasty meats, delicacies tuck (III), n Fr toquer, Nthn form of toucher, see touch (I), & op toquin. The sound, roll, of a drum tucker, n [1 tūker, 2 tūke] tuck (I) & -er 1 Piece of linen formerly worn by women, folded across the breast, now only in Phr one's best bib and tucker, best, smartest, clothes 2 Device for making tucks in clothes tucket, n [1 tūket, 2 tūket] Cp Ital toccata, 'a prelude', PP fem of toccare, see touch. A flourish of trumpets, a fanfare tuck-shop, n Shop at a school where 'tuck' is sold, a confectioner's, a sweet shop

-tude, suff Lat tūdō, genit tūdinis, suff used to form abstract ns, fr Lat adjs or PP's plentitudo, fr Lat plēnum, 'full', &c

Tudor, adj [1 tūdōr, 2 tūdōj] fr name of a family descended fr Owen Tudor, members of wh occupied the thrones of England & included all monarchs fr Henry VII to Elizabeth inclusive Pertaining to, made in, characteristic of, the age of the Tudors Tudor architecture, style &c, Tudor rose, one combining the red rose of Lancaster and the white rose of York, used as royal badge of England after marriage of Henry VII (of Lancaster) with Elizabeth, heiress of York.

Tuesday, n [1 tūdz, 2 tūdzd] OE Tīnesdæg, M E Tīnesday, fr Tīw, the name of an anct Gmo war god, the name is cogn w Gk Zeus, Lat Jūpter, see jovial & Jupiter & deity Third day of the week, between Monday and Wednesday tufa, n [1 tūfa, 2 tūfa] Cp Ital tufa, 'soft', fr Lat tūfus, tūphus, 'volcanic rock', Ocean Umbrian loan word, origin unknown Porous rock of volcanic origin, also called 'tuff' tufaceous, adj [1 tūfāsbus, 2 tūfāsise] Preo & -aceous Connected with, resembling, tufa tuff See tufa

tuft (I), n [1 tuft, 2 tuft] M E tuft, origin doubtful, perh connected w top (I) 1 A bunch, bundle, cluster, of anything resembling threads, fastened together at the base or growing thickly from a common point a tuft of feathers, grass, hair 2 (obs slang) A person of importance, a swell, from the tuft or gold tassel formerly worn in their college caps by noblemen at English universities tuft (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo a trans To furnish with tufts, b intrans, to form, grow, into tufts tufted, adj [1 tufted, 2 tufted] fr PP of preo a Having, provided with, a tuft or tufts b acrowns thickly in tufts tuft-hunter, n See tuft (I), 2, (archaic) One who seeks the acquaintance of, and behaves obsequiously to, persons of importance, wealth, or distinguished birth, formerly called 'tufts', a toady, a sycophant tufty, adj [1 tūfti, 2 tūfti] tuft (I) & -y Growing in, forming, tufts tug (I), vb trans & intrans [1 tug, 2 tag] M E tuggen, Scand, op ON toga, 'to pull', cogn w tow (I) 1 trans a To pull violently, to exert effort, to strain, in pulling, to haul, b to pull suddenly and jerkily 2 intrans To exert effort in pulling, often tug at tug (II), n, fr preo 1 The act of tugging, a sudden, violent pull 2 Small steamer with powerful engines, used to tow large vessels into, or out of, a harbour &c tug of war, n [1 tūg n v wā, 2 tūg əv wā] Contest of strength in which each of two parties, pulling in different directions on the same rope, attempts to pull the other across a line marked on the ground tuition, n [1 tūtiʃən, 2 tūtiʃən] Lat tutō (em), 'a looking after, guardianship, defence', fr tut (um), PP of tueri, 'to look after, guard, protect', acututor (I) 1 (archaic or obs) Guardianship, care, of a pupil or ward. 2 A act of teaching, b instruction given by a tutor or teacher tulip, n [1 tūlip, 2 tūlip] Fr tulipe, O Fr tulipan, op Ital tulipano, fr Turk tulband, 'turban', fr supposed resemblance of flower to this, see turban. Liliaceous plant with many species, genus Tulipa, growing from bulbs, and having bright coloured bell shaped flowers, supported on stiff stalks tulip root, n Disease in cats characterized by a swelling in the stem resembling the bulb of a tulip tulip tree, n N American tree, Liriodendron tulipifera, allied to the magnolia, with red or yellow flowers resembling those of the tulip tulip wood, n Wood of tulip tree, used in cabinet making tulle, n [1 tool, 2 tull] fr name of a town in France Soft, silky material, used for making women's garments tulwar, n [1 tulwar, 2 tūlwā] Hindi Kind of curved sabre used among N Indian tribes tumble (I), vb intrans & trans [1 tūmbəl, 2 tūmbəl] Apparently a freq form fr OE tumbian, 'to dance, tumble', op also Dn tumelen, 'to fall', & Swed tumla A intrans 1 a To fall heavily and clumsily, also tumble down, tumble over, (i) to fall down, be upset, (u) to stumble, trip np over (an obstacle) to tumble over a hassock, b to move forward in a disorderly, violent manner, to rush helter skelter to tumble into a room anyhow 2 To toss about, roll over, as with restlessness and discomfort often to tumble and toss 3 To turn somersaults, as an acrobat 4 (slang) Tumble to (a suggestion &c), to take in, grasp, understand B trans 1 To cause to tumble, to overturn, upset, throw down, frequently, tumble over (something) his horse tumbled him over a bank, also tumble out to tumble passengers out of a carriage 2 To put into confusion, disturb, rumple, ruffle to tumble a bed, one's clothes, hair &c tumble (II), n, fr preo Act of tumbling, a fall, a toss, b an acrobat's somersault &c tumble-down, adj [1 tūmbəl daʊn, 2 tūmbəl daʊn] Dilapidated, ruinous, shabby a tumble down house tumbler, n [1 tumbler, 2 tūmbəl] tumble (I) & -er 1 An acrobat who throws somersaults, 2 Kind of domestic pigeon which makes movements resembling somersaults while in flight 3 One of several movable portions of the internal mechanism of a lock, which has to be made to occupy a certain position by the working of the key before the bolt can be shot 4 Drinking glass without a foot, standing flat on its own bottom.

tumbrel, -il, n [1 tūmbri, 2 tūmbri] Connected w Fr tomber, 'to fall', of Gmo, origin, op OE tumbian, 'to dance, tumble', & see tumble (I) a A heavy cart, made to tip backwards from the shafts, for carting and shooting dung and refuse &c b, name given by historians to the carts, in which the victims of the French Revolution were taken to the guillotine, c light two wheeled military cart for carrying ammunition, tools &c tumefaction, adj [1 tūmefāscent, 2 tūmefāscent] Lat, Pres Part of tumefacere, 'to cause to swell, to inflate', see tumid & fact Causing swelling tumefaction, n [1 tūmefāsikan, 2 tūmefāsikan] Lat, fr tumefact (um), PP type of tumefacere, see preo, & -ion 1 The process of swelling 2 A swelling, a tumour tumefy, vb trans & intrans [1 tūmefi, 2 tūmefi] Fr tumefier, see under tumid & -fy a trans To cause to swell, b intrans, to swell np tumescent, adj [1 tūmésent, 2 tūmésent] Lat, Pres Part of tumescere, 'to begin to swell, swell np', inchoat of tumere, 'to swell', see tumid Inclined to swell np; slightly swollen tumid, adj [1 tūmid, 2 tūmid] Lat tumidus, 'swollen, protuberant', op Lat tumere, 'to swell', tumor, 'swelling, protuberance', see tumour, tumulus, 'raised heap of earth', w this base etymologists connect a large number of words, O E pīma, see thumb, OE peoh, see thigh, see further thousand & taurus Puffed up, swollen, inflated (in material and non-material senses) tumidity, n [1 tūmiditi, 2 tūmiditi] Preo & -ity State of being tumid.

tumour, n [1 tūmor, 2 tūma] Lat tumor, 'a swelling, protuberance', see under tumid A swelling in some part of the body; an abnormal growth and increase of size in some of the tissues, whether benign or malignant tumult, n [1 tūmult, 2 tūmalt] Lat tumulus, 'an uproar, violent commotion, disturbance', fr base tum*, 'to swell', see tumid 1 a Uproar, confused noise, as that made by the voices and movements of large crowds, hence, b the noise of a disturbance, a disturbance, commotion, turbulence 2 Profound and violent disturbance, agitation, commotion, a of the forces of nature, b of the mind, great mental excitement and confusion tumultuary, adj [1 tūmūltiari, 2 tūmūltiari] Lat tumultuarius, see preo & -ary Of the nature of a tumult, confused, agitated tumultuous, adj [1 tūmūltiūs, 2 tūmūltiūs] Lat tumultuosus, 'full of bustle and confusion, turbulent, restless'; see tumult & -ous 1 Characterized by tumult and disturbance, uproarious, noisy a tumultuous meeting, assembly 2 Greatly agitated, deeply stirred tumultuous passions tumultuously, adv Preo & -ly In a tumultuous manner tumultuousness, n See preo & -ness State, quality, of being tumultuous tumulus, n, pl tumuli [1 tūmūlus, 1, 2 tūmūlus, at] Lat, 'heap of earth, a mound', fr base tum*, 'to swell', as in tumid &c An artificially raised mound, esp an ancient burial mound or barrow tun, n. & vb trans [1 tun, 2 tan] OE tūnn, 'a cask', also in OHG &c fr origin doubtful 1 n A large cask or vat for storing, also for fermenting, beer and wine, formerly a specific measure of 252 gallons 2 vb To enclose and store in a tun tuna, n [1 tūna, 2 tūna] Span form of tunny The great tunny, esp of the Pacific, Californian, coast of N America tunable, adj [1 tūnabl, 2 tūnabl] tune (II) & -able a Capable of being tuned, b capable of yielding a tune, hence, melodious a tunable melody tunableness, n Prec & -ness Quality of being tunable tunably, adv See prec & -ly Harmoniously, melodiously tundra, n [1 tundra, 2 tándra] Russ Barren plain in N Russia or other arctic region, constituting a frozen, or partially frozen, desert, which produces only mosses and lichens in the way of vegetation tundun, n [1 tándun, 2 tándan] Native The bull roarer, q v, of Australian aborigines tune (I), n [1 tūn, 2 tūjn] M E, fr A-Fr tune, fr O Fr ton, variant of tone (I) 1 a Air, melody, with or without harmony a good, a poor, a catchy, popular, tune, a difficult tune to remember, b quality of having a well marked air the piece has very little tune about it 2 Harmony, agreement in tone, pitch &c, with a definite standard to sing in, out of, tune, your fiddle isn't in tune Phrs (fig) in tune, out of tune, with (one's surroundings &c), congenial, uncongenial, to be charged to the tune of (one's amount), implying extortionate charge, to sing another tune, change one's tune, change one's way of talking, as from respectful to insolent or vice versa &c tune (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 a To bring (musical instrument) into tune, adjust the pitch of the strings &c to the required degree, b tune up, to bring to a desired degree, or standard, of efficiency, excellence, health &c 2 To bring (wireless apparatus) into relation with waves of a certain length B intrans 1 Tune in, to tune wireless apparatus (see resonance) 2 Tune up, a (of instruments in orchestra) to start tuning, b to begin to play or to sing tuneful, adj [1 tūnfool, 2 tūnful] tune (I) & -ful a Exhibiting a well marked air, b melodious, harmonious, producing song and melody the tuneful choir of birds &c tunefully, adv, fr prec Prec & -ly In a tuneful manner tunefulness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being tuneful tuneless, adj [1 tūnles, 2 tūnles] tune (I) & -less a Lacking an air, harsh, unmelodious; b not producing melody, unmusical tuner, n [1 tūner, 2 tūnə] tune (II) & -er 1 One who tunes musical instruments piano tuner &c 2 a Device attached to pipe for tuning an organ, b device for tuning electrical current &c tungsten, n [1 tungsten, 2 tǎnstən] Swed, fr tung, 'heavy', & sten, 'stone' A rare metallic element, found in combination with other minerals, grey in colour and very hard, and only fusible at very high temperatures, used in an alloy of steel and for making the filaments of incandescent electric lamps tungstic, tungstous, adj [1 tungstik, tungstus, 2 tǎgstik, tǎgstas] fr prec & -ic, -ous (chem) Of, pertaining to, tungsten tunio, n [1 tūnik, 2 tūnik] Lat tunica, 'tun' undergarment with sleeves' (worn by both sexes), also 'coating, membrane, husk', fr early form ktun* ica, Heb loan-word, or also Gk kithōn, fr Heb kithonē, 'garment worn next skin', or chiton 1 Any of various loose garments, esp as worn by the ancients or modern Orientals 2 Regimental coat worn by British officers and private soldiers, the name is properly restricted to one particular kind of coat, namely, that worn for full dress, made of scarlet cloth 3 Natural covering, integument, husk

Tunicata, n pl [1 tūnikāta, 2 tūnikēta] Lat, 'covered by a tunic, coated', see prec Group of marine animals with thick outer covering, membrane, or tunic tunicate, adj & n [1 tūnikāt, 2 tūnikest] See prec 1 adj (bot and zool) Having several coats or layers of covering 2 n Member of the group of Tunicata tunicle, n [1 tūnikl, 2 tūnikl] Lat tunicula, dimin of tunica, see tunio 1 Close-fitting vestment, smaller than the dalmatic, worn by deacons at Eucharist, and by bishops under the dalmatic when pontificating 2 Thin, natural, outer covering tuning-fork, n [1 tūning fork, 2 tūnjɪŋ fɔ:k] Instrument of steel with two prongs, which, on being struck, gives out a particular note, used as a standard in tuning musical instruments tunnel, n & vb trans & intrans [1 tūnl, 2 tūnl] O Fr tonnel, dimin of tonne, see tun 1 n A passage, usually cylindrical in form, out underground, eg one cut through a hill or mountain for the laying of a railway line &c 2 vb a trans To cut a tunnel through to tunnel a hill &c, b intrans, to cut a tunnel tunny, n, also tanny fish [1 tūni (fish), 2 tāni (fish)] Ital tonno, Lat thunnus, fr Gk thunnos, also thūnos, origin obscure, prob, according to Boissacq, a pre-Hellenic loan word Large, edible fish of the mackerel family, with somewhat oily flesh, found in Mediterranean, also as the great tunny, Thunnus thynnus, in the Atlantic, where it is known as 'horse mackerel', and in the N Pacific, the tuna tup, n [1 tʌp, 2 tʌp] M E tuppe, origin doubtful A ram tu quoque, n [1 tūkwoke, 2 tūkwokwe] Lat, 'thou also' A retort of 'you are, or did, the same as I', so you can't blame me

Turaman, adj [1 tūraman, 2 tjurémən] Of race and language, Ural-Altaic, q v turban, n [1 tərbān, 2 tābən] Earlier turbān, turbān, op Ital turbānia, fr Turk turbān See also tulip 1 Head dress worn by men in the East consisting of a long strip of silk, or cotton cloth, wound round and round the head 2 Woman's head-dress, resembling the Oriental turban, worn at end of 18th and beginning of 19th cent turbary, n [1 tərbəri, 2 tābəri] Low Lat turbāria, 'place where peat is dug', fr turba, 'turf, peat', see turf a Right to dig turf or peat on the land of another, b place where peat is dug turbid, adj [1 tərbid, 2 tābid] Lat turbidus, 'confused, disordered, thick, muddy', op turbāre, 'to confuse, bewilder', also turba, 'uproar, confusion, tumult, a crowd' See turbinal, turbulent, & op thorp a (of liquids) Having the sediment disturbed, hence thick, muddy, b (fig) confused, disturbed, lacking clarity turbidity, n [1 tərbidity, 2 tābidity] Prec & -ity Condition, quality, of being turbid turbidly, adv [1 tərbidli, 2 tābidli] turbid & -ly In a turbid manner turbidness, n [1 tərbidnes, 2 tābidnes] See prec & -ness Turbidity turbinal, adj [1 tərbinal, 2 tābinal] Lat turbīn-, stem of turbō, 'violent, circular motion, something that spins, a top, something epiral and twisted, a whirl', & -al, perb fr same base as turba, 'uproar' &c See turbid (anat and zool) Having the form of a spiral or scroll turbinate, adj [1 tərbinat, 2 tābinest] turbīn, as in prec, & -ate 1 Whirling like a top 2 Shaped like a top or like an inverted cone 3 (anat) Of some bones, scroll-shaped turbation, n [1 tərbunāshn, 2 tābinē-jən] Prec & -ion 1 Act or movement of spinning like a top 2 Something turbinate in shape turbine, n [1 tərbīn, 2 tābīn] Lat turbīn, see turbinal Wheel, serving as a motor, which is rotated by means of a stream of water or steam, under pressure over rotating vanes on the shaft, and thus used to generate electric power or to drive a steamship &c turbit, n [1 tərbīt, 2 tābīt] Origin doubtful Kind of fancy pigeon with short head and beak and a frill turbot, n [1 tərbūt, 2 tābat] Fr, O Fr torbout, perb fr Lat turbō, 'top', see turbinal, fr shape of the fish, & obscure suff, op halibut Large flat sea-fish, with firm, white flesh much sought after as food turbulence, n [1 tərbūlens, 2 tābūlens] Lat turbulentia, see next word & -ce a Turbulent conduct, unruliness, commotion, b unsettled social or civic condition, lack of order, discipline, and quiet, disturbance, lawlessness turbulent, adj [1 tərbūlent, 2 tābūlent] Fr, fr Lat turbulentus, fr turba, 'disorder, confusion' &c, see turbinal & op turbid a In commotion, in violent movement, fiercely agitated turbulent waves, b unruly, vehement, boisterous, ill controlled a turbulent character, turbulent passions &c, c uproarious, insubordinate, disorderly a turbulent mob

Turcophil(e), adj & n [1 tərbkɔf, 2 tākɔuf] Turk & -phil(e) 1 adj Admiring the Turks and their political and social qualities 2 n A Turcophil person

Turcophobe, adj & n [1 tərbkɔf, 2 tākɔf] See prec & -phobe 1 adj Hating and fearing the Turks, their civilization, political influence &c 2 n A Turcophobe person turdine, adj [1 tərbīn, 2 tādin] Lat turdus, 'a thrush', for tyrōs*, op Lith strūdas, O N prōstr, O E proste, see throstile & thrush, & op struthious

Connected with the thrush genus, Turdus, or family, Turdidae, of birds including the thrush, ouzel, blackbird &c tureen, n [1 tərbēn, 2 tjurīn] Fr terrine, 'earthen vessel', fr Lat terra, 'earth', see terra Boat-shaped dish for holding soup turf, n [1 tɜ:f, 2 tɜ:f] O E & M E turf, op O N torf, cogn w Sert darbha, 'tuft of grass' 1 a Thin upper stratum of the earth covered with grass, lawn, sward, b a sod 2 Mass of compressed ancient vegetable fibre, dead grass &c, peat, esp as used for fuel 3 Horse racing on the turf, engaged in racing turfy, adj [1 tɜ:fi, 2 tɜ:fi] Prec & -y a Abounding in, covered with, turf, b having character or appearance of turf turgescence, n [1 tɜ:ʒens, 2 tɜ:ʒens] Next word & -ce a Process of swelling, b condition of being turgescence, c bombast turgescence, adj [1 tɜ:ʒesent, 2 tɜ:ʒesent] Lat turgescere (em), Pres Part of turgescere, inchoative of turgere, 'to swell', see turgid a Swelling, inflated, b (fig, of style &c) pompous, bombastic turgid, adj [1 tɜ:ʒid, 2 tɜ:ʒid] Lat turgidus, 'inflated, distended', op turgere, 'to swell', contains the base tu-*, 'to swell', see tumid 1 Swollen, puffed up 2 (of style &c) Inflated, bombastic, pompous turgidity, n [1 tɜ:ʒidity, 2 tɜ:ʒidity] Prec & -ity State, quality, of being turgid turgidly, adv [1 tɜ:ʒidli, 2 tɜ:ʒidli] See prec & -ly In a turgid manner turion, n [1 tūriən, 2 tjurien] Lat turiōn (em), 'shoot, sprout', connected w base tu-*, 'to swell' &c, see turgid & tumid (bot) Scaly shoot developed from a subterranean bud

Turk, n [1 tɜ:k, 2 tɜ:k] Fr Turc, Ital Turco, prob of Tatar origin 1 Member of the Turkish race, esp of Ottoman or Ottoman branch 2 (facet) An unruly, unmanageable, mischievous boy, esp a regular young Turk turkey (I), n [1 tɜ:kɪ, 2 tɜ:kɪ] So called fr belief that the birds came orig fr Turkey Large domestic gallinaceous bird introduced from America, whose flesh is prized as food, and largely eaten in England at Christmas time

Turkey (II), country of Ottoman Turks Used attributively in various combinations Turkey carpet, one made of wool, with a thick pile, usually with pattern of bold design in red, blue, and green, Turkey red, a scarlet pigment obtained from madder or synthetically from coal tar, Turkey towel, rough kind of bath towel turkey buzzard, n A kind of vulture, Cathartes aura, common in South and Central America turkey-cock, n a A male turkey, b (fig) a strutting, pompous person

Turk, adj & n [1 tɜːrk, 2 tʉrk] Pers, 'Turk' 1 adj Of, belonging to, a group of Ural-Altaic languages and races, which includes Turkish 2 n This language, group, or race

Turkish, adj & n [1 tɜːrkɪʃ, 2 tʉrkɪʃ] Turk & -ish 1 adj Belonging to, connected with, Turkey, the Turks, or their language, which is Turki much mixed with Arabic and Persian 2 n The language of the Turks

Turkish bath, n A hot air or steam bath, inducing extreme perspiration, followed by shampooing and massage &c

Turkish delight, n A sweetmeat made of gelatine flavoured and coated with powdered sugar

Turkish pound, n 100 piastres, value about 18s 2d, usually written £T

Turk's head, n A long handled broom or brush with head of feathers, used for dusting ceilings &c turmalin(e), n See tourmalin turmeric, n [1 tɜːmerɪk, 2 tʉmerɪk] Supposed to be fr Ter terre maris, itself perh a corrupt of Arab kurkum, 'ouruma', q v An aromatic plant of the ginger family, the root of which is ground to a powder, and used as a condiment, a medicine, and a dye turmeric paper, n Paper impregnated with turmeric, used as a test for alkali, in contact with which it turns brown, and for boric acid, which turns it reddish brown turmoil, n [1 tɜːmɔɪl, 2 tʉmɔɪl] Origin doubtful Perh fr intens tur for trā- & moil Agitation, uproar, unrest, confusion, tumult turn (I), vb trans & intrans [1 tɜːn, 2 tʉn] M E turnen, tournen &c, fr O E turnan, & turnan, 'to revolve', intrans, also combined w O Fr turner, tournier, O E & Fr both fr Lat turnāre, 'to polish, round off, fashion', fr turnus, 'a lathe, a graver's tool', borrowed fr Gk turnos, 'turner's wheel, graver's chisel', prob cogn w Lat terere, 'rubbed, rounded off, well turned, smooth', op terere, 'to rub, wear down' &c, & Gk telrein, 'to rub', fr terj*, see teredo, terebinte, trite, triturate A trans 1 a To shape, out, out, on a lathe to turn brass, to turn a candlestick out of brass, b (fig) to polish, shape, execute, in an elegant manner, give a graceful form to turn a compliment, an epigram, to turn a couplet &c 2 To give a circular motion to, cause to revolve, spin round, to wind to turn a handle, a wheel, also to turn the leaves of a book Phr to turn (a person) round one's little finger, to influence him as one chooses 3 a (of physical act or process) To cause to assume a particular, often a different, position, to move, cause to face, or be inclined in particular direction, to direct to turn one's head, turn your eyes this way, turn the camera more to the right, Phrs to turn one's back on (various fig senses) to refuse to recognize or to associate with, to have nothing more to do with, to express disapproval of, or contempt for &c, to turn a deaf ear to, to refuse to listen or to attend to, to turn one's steps, to go, turn back, to run away, not to turn a hair, to be quite unaffected, unperturbed, to turn the edge of (a knife &c), to blint, b (of intellectual action) in Phr turn one's thoughts, attention, efforts &c to direct, concentrate (thoughts &c) 4 a To guide, cause to go in particular direction, alter course of to turn one's horses to the hills, to turn a boat into a field, b to deflect, persuade to pursue different course of action when once he has made up his mind, nothing will turn him 5 a To reverse position, so that the upper surface lies underneath, and the lower surface upwards to turn things upside down, to turn a chap u a o provision, Phr to turn on honest penny, to earn a profit, b to cause outer surface of anything to be on the inside, and vice versa to turn something inside out, to have a suit turned Phr to turn one's coat, oblige one's opinions and principles, to give up one's old allegiance and accept a new one 6 a To bring, cause to pass, into a specified condition his behaviour turns me sick, the success of others turns him green with envy, thundery weather turns mill sour, b specif, to render (food) sourled, sour, tainted, corrupt &c the heat has turned the milk 7 a To change, transmute (things, feelings &c) into something different to turn water into wine, to turn love to hate, b to translate to turn a passage into Latin 8 To disturb, upset, derange the mere sight of food turns my stomach Phrs to turn a person's head, upset mental balance, render conceited flattery has turned his head, to turn (person's) brain, make him mad 9 a To reach, and pass, a certain point in time, period of life &c it has just turned four, he has not yet turned sixty, b to turn a (or the) corner, (i) to go up a street branching off that in which one is, (u) (fig) turn the corner, to reach and pass successfully, a crisis in illness, or in one's affairs 10 (mil) To turn on enemy's flank, pass round, take up position behind or across, to outflank 11 To use, employ, for particular purpose to turn one's hand to useful work, turn to account, make use of B intrans 1 a To use a lathe, b (of material) to be capable of being shaped or turned on a lathe 2 a To perform revolutions, to rotate, as on a pivot or axis, b (fig) to depend, hinge, upon, be involved in the whole dispute turns on a single point 3 a To direct one's course towards, pursue, a particular direction to turn to the right, to turn west, Phr not to know where, which way, to turn, to be at end of one's resources, be hard pressed, desperate &c, b to direct one's thought, attention, glance &c, towards to turn to the last page 4 a To reverse one's course or direction, and pursue an opposite one, to retrace one's steps he turned and went away in a rage, it is time to turn now if we wish to get home in time for dinner, b (fig) to reverse one's course of action 5 To alter one's position, move from the side on which one is lying, on to the other to turn in bed, in one's sleep Phrs enough to make (someone who is dead) turn in his grave, would shock and distress him, very much, the worm turns, even the patient and humblest show resentment after a certain point, to turn turtle, to capsize 6 (of tide) To change from ebb to flow, or vice versa, (also fig) the tide has turned, the course of affairs has altered, events are beginning to develop favourably or unfavourably 7 a To alter in specified way, in physical character, appearance, composition, general condition &c, to pass into a specified state, to become the weather is turning colder, the milk has turned sour, water turns to ice, he turned very red, to turn sick, b to change one's opinions, principles, profession &c to turn Tory, to turn soldier, cook, schoolmaster &c, to turn traitor, to turn Christian 8 Specif (of food &c) to pass into first stage of decay, sourness, acidity &c the milk has turned C Followed by adverbs or prepositions Turn aside, 1 trans, to divert, put on a different course, 2 intrans, to pursue a new course, deviate Turn away, 1 trans, to reject, refuse entrance to, dismiss to turn crowds away from the door &c, 2 intrans, to turn in different direction, direct one's attention, refuse to look, show contempt or disapproval Turn back, 1 trans, to refuse to allow to proceed, cause to return, 2 intrans, to return, retrace one's steps, (fig) to discontinue course of action Turn against, 1 trans, to make (person) hostile to, 2 intrans, to become hostile to, oppose Turn down, 1 trans, a to fold down to turn down one's collar, b to diminish intensity of by lowering to turn down the light, c (fig) to reject, refuse to consider to turn down a proposal &c, 2 intrans, a to be folded down, b to be capable of being lowered. Turn in, 1 trans, to cause to point or incline inwards to turn in one's toes, 2 intrans, a to be inclined inwards his toes turned in, b (colloq) to go to bed Turn off, 1 trans, a to check, shut off, supply or flow of, by turning a tap &c to turn off water, gas, b to dismiss from service to turn off workmen (from one's employ), 2 intrans, a (of persons &c) to leave road on which one is walking &c, and go up another leading from it, b (of roads &c) to branch off, bifurcate Turn out, 1 trans, a to dismiss, eject, expel to turn a person out of the room, of his office, situation, a club &c, b to put horses, cattle &c out to grass, as contrasted with keeping them in a stable, c to produce as result of labour and skill to turn out beautiful fabrics from the looms, d to furnish with equipment, clothing, &c, to fit out, dress an exquisitely turned out young woman, e to turn off, to extinguish to turn out the light, the gas, 2 intrans, a to point, be inclined, outwards his toes turn out too much, b to go out, esp as result of expulsion to turn out of one's house, c to get up from bed, d to come out in order to perform some duty the fire brigade turned out as soon as the alarm was given, e to prove, be shown to be he turned out an excellent administrator, the day is turning out fine, Phr to turn out well, to be satisfactory, a success &c, as it turned out, as it chanced, happened Turn over, 1 trans, a to reverse position of, cause to roll over to turn over the pages of a book, to look through while turning, Phr to turn over a new leaf, make amends for past, behave better, b to hand over, transfer, to turn one's business over to one's son, c to ponder, consider, dwell upon to turn (the matter) over in one's mind, d to handle, take in, in the course of business the business turns over several thousands a year, 2 intrans, to alter one's position by rolling over to turn over in bed Turn to, intrans, a to rely upon, trust to, apply to to turn to a friend for help, b (absol) to set to, set to work, set with vigour Turn up, 1 trans, to bend up, cause to incline upwards, bring lower side, or end, uppermost to turn up the ends of one's trousers, to turn up the soil, plough or dig it Various special uses a to turn a child up, put face downwards over one's knee to whip him, to turn up a deceiver, empty the last drops it contains into one's glass, to turn up one's nose at, to feel and show contempt for, to despise, to turn up one's toes, (colloq) to die, his conduct, the sight, turned me up, disgusted, nauseated me 2 intrans a To incline, be inclined, bend, slope, upwards the bough turns up at the end, her nose turns up, b (i) (of persons) to appear, come on the scene, visit one, esp casually and unexpectedly my brother has just turned up from India, he turned up in London the other day, i shouldn't think he'll turn up tonight, (ii) (of objects) to come to light, be found, esp by accident the book I lost hasn't turned up yet, I wouldn't waste time looking for your knife, it will turn up some day, Phr to wait for something to turn up, await the course of events passively, in the hope that some favourable opportunity, or some piece of good fortune, will come to one Turn upon, trans, a to attack, b to depend upon turn (II), n, fr O Fr turn, later tour, see preface 1 Act or process of turning, rotation, revolution the turn of a wheel, a turning movement a turn of the wrist, movement made in a particular direction a turn to the right 2 Something which turns or winds, a bend, curve a turn in a road, in a river 3 a Change in direction, reverse movement the turn of the tide, Phr the turn of the tide, (fig) reversal of fortune, b change, new departure, vicissitude, in affairs, fortune, health &c matters, affairs, have taken a bad turn, the patient has taken a turn for the better, for the worse 4 a A spell of action, bout of activity to take a turn at the oars, b a form of activity, an action, regarded as affecting another in some particular way to do one a good turn, render him a service, a bad turn, a disservice Phr one good turn deserves another 5 A short spell of exercise, a walk, ride &c let us take a turn along the sea front 6 Opportunity which recurs at regular intervals, right, or obligation to do, or enjoy something at certain recurring periods, which alternate with periods during which others are liable to the obligation or enjoy the right everyone must take his turn to keep watch, it is your turn to have dinner next, my turn will come Phrs by turns, turn and turn about, alternately 7 Special need, requirement, exigency this stick will serve my turn to beat him with 8 Special aptitude, bent, predisposition a distinct turn for music 9 A short performance on the stage, display of agility, skill &c lasting for a brief period, forming a definite part of an entertainment a variety entertainment with several good and some poor turns 10 Special form, shape, cast, characteristic style a peculiar turn of mind 11 (colloq) Physical or moral shock, a qualm, a jar, esp it gave me quite a turn 12 Phr (food) done to a turn, cooked with absolute perfection, neither underdone, nor over cooked turncoat, n [1 tɜːnkoʊt, 2 tɪnkəʊt] (contemptuous) Person who changes his political or religious opinions and principles, esp one who does so from interested motives turncock, n [1 tɜːnkɒk, 2 tɪnkɒk] Man employed by water company to regulate the water from the mains &c turned, adj [1 tɜːnd, 2 tɪnd] PP of turn (I) (print) A turned letter, one inverted or reversed turner, n [1 tɜːnər, 2 tɪnə] fr turn (I) & -er One who practises turning with a lathe as a skilled trade turnery, n [1 tɜːnəri, 2 tɪnəri] Fr tournerie 1 Art of turning with a lathe 2 a (coll) Objects turned with a lathe, b ornamentation wrought with a lathe turning, n [1 tɜːnɪŋ, 2 tɪnɪŋ] turn (I) & -ing 1 A winding, twisting, bend turnings and twistings of a road, river &c 2 Place where one road branches off from another first turning to the right 3 Act, art, of turning with a lathe, turnery turning-point, n Point or place of turning, (usually in non-material sense) point at which a new departure is made, crisis the turning-point of an illness, of a career turnip, n [1 tɜːnɪp, 2 tɪnɪp] First element of doubtful origin, the second is OE nāp, ME nēpe, 'turnip', early loan-word fr Lat nāpus, 'turnip', op Gk nāpu, later form of sināpis, 'mustard', prob of Egyptian origin See sinapism & op second element in paranip 1 a Plant, Brassica campestris, var rapa, with globular or long root, with a sweetish or, when old, hot taste, used as a vegetable and for feeding sheep and cattle, b speck, the edible root of this plant 2 (slang) A large, clumsy, common silver watch turnip fly, n a A hymenopterous insect, Athalia spumarium, whose larva feeds on turnip-leaves, b small beetle (also turnip-fly), Phyllotreta nemorum, which feeds on young turnip-leaves turnip-tops, n pl Leaves and stems of the turnip, esp the young sprouts from previous season's root, considered as a vegetable turnkey, n [1 tɜːnkɪ, 2 tɪnkɪ] Person who keeps the keys of the cells in a prison turn-out, n [1 tɜːn aʊt, 2 tɪn aʊt] 1 Gathering, assembly, of persons who have come together for a particular purpose quite a good turn out at the lecture 2 (colloq) A carriage, horses, and servants, considered as a whole or ensemble a smart turn out turnover, n [1 tɜːnəʊvər, 2 tɪnəʊvə] 1 Something bent or folded over, specif, a kind of pie made by doubling or folding over a piece of dough 2 Amount of money handled, taken in, and paid out in a business within a given time 3 Article in a newspaper extending from one page on to another turnpike, n [1 tɜːnpɪk, 2 tɪnpɪk] Gate kept closed across a road and not opened to passengers until they have paid toll, a toll-gate, originally a pointed bar turning on a pivot, worked by the keeper turnpike road, n One which has a turnpike across it turnsole, n [1 tɜːnsəl, 2 tɪnsəl] Fr tourne-sol, turn (I) & Lat sol, 'sun', see sol (I) Plant whose flowers are supposed always to face the sun, sundew turnspit, n [1 tɜːnspɪt, 2 tɪnspɪt] One of a small breed of dog used formerly for turning a spit upon which meat was cooked turnstile, n [1 tɜːnstɪl, 2 tɪnstɪl] Mechanical device consisting of a heavy revolving gate so constructed that only one person can pass at a time, used at the entrance of theatres, on piers &c, to regulate speed of entrance while tickets are collected turnstone, n [1 tɜːnstən, 2 tɪnstən] Popular name for a shore bird, allied to the plover, which turns over the pebbles on a beach in search of food turn-table, n Circular revolving platform upon which rails are laid corresponding with those of a railway line, used for reversing locomotives turn-up, n [1 tɜːn ʌp, 2 tɪn ʌp] 1 Something turned up, as the turn-up of one's trousers 2 (colloq) A commotion, a row, a fight or noisy wrangle turpentine, n [1 tɜːpɪntɪn, 2 tɪpɪntɪn] O Fr terbentine, Lat terebinthinus, 'turpentine tree', fr Gk terebinthos, see terebinth 1 Oily, fluid or semi-fluid, sticky substance secreted by pine trees 2 Popular name for spirits of turpentine, distilled from turpentine, used for mixing with paints and varnishes turpentine tree, n Terebinth tree turpeth, n [1 tɜːpɪθ, 2 tɪpɪθ] O Fr turbith, fr Pers turbid, 'a purge' The root of an Asiatc plant, used as a purgative turpitude, n [1 tɜːpɪtɪd, 2 tɪpɪtɪd] Fr, fr Lat turpitudō, 'ugliness, foulness', fr turpis, 'ugly, foul, filthy, shameful, base', cogn w O Lat trepit, 'turns away', see trepidation, fundamental sense of adj is 'revolting, causing one to turn away' Wickedness, depravity, infamy turps, n [1 tɜːps, 2 tɪps] Popular abbreviation of spirits of turpentine turquoise, n [1 tɜːkwɔɪz, tɜːkwɔɪs, 2 tɪkwɔɪz, tɪkwɔɪs] formerly [1 tɜːks, 2 tɪks] Fr fem adj, 'Turkish' a Semi-precious stone, opaque, and bright blue or greenish blue in colour, b bright blue or greenish colour, like that of the turquoise, (also attrib) turquoise blue, green turret, n [1 tɜːrɪt, 2 tɜːrt] Fr tourrette, 'little tower', see tower (I) & -et 1 A small tower, esp one built out and projecting from a larger building 2 (nav) Revolving tower like, armoured structure upon which a ship's guns are mounted turreted, adj [1 tɜːrɪtɪd, 2 tɜːrtɪd] Provided with a turret or turrets turret-gun, n Ship's gun mounted upon a turret turriculate(d), adj [1 tɜːrɪkɪlɪt(ɪd), 2 tɜːrɪkɪlɪt(ɪd)] Lat turricula, 'little tower', dimin of turris, 'tower', see tower (I), & -ate 1 Provided with small turrets, b (of shells) resembling a turret in shape turtle (I), n [1 tɜːtl, 2 tɜːtl] Lat turtur, 'dove', imitative of bird's note, usually turtle dove Any of various kinds of wild dove with soft cooing note, supposed to show great affection for, and fidelity to, its mate, hence (fig) a pair of turtle-doves, lovers turtle (II), n Form perh. suggested by prec, fr Span toruga, 'tortoise', see tortoise A marine tortoise, reptile of various species, having the body enclosed in a hard bony shell, several kinds have edible flesh, especially used for soup Phr to turn turtle, (obedience of a ship) to capsize Tuscan, adj & n [1 tʊˈskən, 2 tʊˈskən] Lat, Tuscanus 1 adj a Pertaining to Tuscany; b (archit) of, pertaining to, the Tuscan order, of late Roman origin, plain in style, with unfluted columns 2 n An inhabitant of Tuscany, b language of Tuscany tush (I), interj & vb intrans [1 tʊʃ, 2 tʌʃ] Imitative (archaic) a interj Exclamation expressive of contempt or impatience, b vb, to utter this exclamation tush (II), n O E tūsc, for earlier tunsk*, op Goth tunp us, 'tooth', gradational variant of Gmc tanp*, whence O E tōp, see tooth, the form presupposes an orig dan* to, the suff being adjectival Cp tusk One of the long prominent side teeth of a horse tushery, n [1 tʊʃəri, 2 tʌʃəri] tush (I) & -ery Term applied by R L Stevenson to affected literary archaisms tusk, n & vb trans [1 tʊsk, 2 tʌsk] In ME, fr O E tāx, metathesized form of O E tūsc, see *tush (II), tāx undergoes a later metathesis to tāsk 1 n An enormously long prominent tooth which always projects out side the mouth, found esp in the elephant, in the walrus, and similar marine animals, and on a smaller scale in the wild boar, b (facet) a human tooth, esp when exceptionally long and prominent 2 vb To strike at, wound, gore, with the tusks tusked, adj [1 tʊskt, 2 tʌskt] Proc & -ed Having tusks tusker, n [1 tʊsker, 2 tʌsker] An elephant or boar with large tusks tussal, adj [1 tʊsəl, 2 tʌsəl], fr Lat tussae, 'cough', orig doubtful, & -al (med) Pertaining to, connected with, a cough tussicular, adj [1 tʊskjʊlər, 2 tʌskjʊlə] Lat tussicula, 'slight cough', dimin of tussis, see prec, & -ar Having the character of a slight cough tussive, adj [1 tʊsɪv, 2 tʌsɪv] Lat tussis, 'cough', see tussal, & -ive Connected with, due to, a cough tussle, n & vb intrans [1 tʊsl, 2 tʌsl] Etymol doubtful, possibly connected w tousle 1 n A fight, a rough struggle, a strenuous effort 2 vb To engage in a rough, violent struggle tussock, n [1 tʊsək, 2 tʌsək] Etymol obscure A tuft, thick bunch, of grass &c tussock grass, n Grass which grows in tufts on damp, marshy soil, specif, species of tall tufted grass of the Falkland Islands and Patagonia tussock moth, n Kind of moth whose caterpillar has tufts of hair on its back tussocky, adj [1 tʊsʊki, 2 tʌsʊki] Proc & -y Full of tussocks, tufty tussore, n [1 tʊsɔːr, 2 tʌsɔːr], tussah, tussar, tusseh, tusser, tussur, fr Hind. tassar, 'shuttle' 1 Indian undomesticated silk worm that feeds on oak leaves 2 a Coarse, fawn-coloured fibre produced by these silk-worms, b fabric woven from this tut, interj & vb [1 tʌt, 2 tʌt] Conventionalized spelling attempting to express sound a interj Exclamation of impatience, annoyance &c, b vb, to give utterance to such an exclamation tutelage, n [1 tʊteli, 2 tʊtɪljɪdʒ] Lat tutela, 'charge, guardianship', fr tūtus, 'safe, secure', see tutition & tutor, & -age 1 Act of protecting, of acting as guardian 2 State of being under guardianship, in the protection of a tutor tutelar, tutelary, adj [1 tʊtɪlə(r), 2 tʊtɪlə(rɪ)] Lat tutela, see prec, & -ar (& -y) Having guardianship, acting as a guardian or protector, protective tutelary(y) power, duties tutor (I), n [1 tʊtʊr, 2 tʊtɔːr] Lat, 'protector, defender, legal guardian', fr tutor, PP typo of tutē, 'to guard, protect', cogn w Goth þiup, 'good', n, perh ultimately connected w base of tutere, 'to swell', see turnid, see further tutition, *tute- lage, tutelar Less probable is Brugmann's derivation of this group fr the base *tug^hh²-&c, seen in Gk. sophós, 'wise', see sophism 1 (Rom. law) One having charge of a person below the age of puberty, and of his property, a guardian. 2 A teacher, instructor, a college official, usually a specialist in some branch of learning, who directs the studies of undergraduates at Oxford and Cambridge, contrasted with a university professor, b a private instructor, often a person living with the family of his pupil, o a coach, a teacher who prepares young men for some particular examination tutor (II), vb trans & intrans, fr pree a trans. To act as tutor to, b intrans, to engage in tutorial work, perform the duties of a tutor tutress, n [1 tūtōres, 2 tūtōres] tutor (I) & -ess Woman tutor tutorial, adj & n [1 tūtōrial, 2 tūtōrial] tutor (I) & -ial 1 adj A pertaining to a tutor or to his duties, b pertaining to, of the nature of, tuition 2 n (Oxford slang) A spell of instruction given by a college tutor tutorially, adv Free & -ly After the manner of a tutor tutorship, n [1 tūtōrship, 2 tūtōrship] tutor (I) & -ship A Office, functions, of a tutor, b an engagement, appointment, as tutor tutsan, n [1 tūtān, 2 tūtān] Fr loute-saine, lit 'entirely wholesome or healthy' Cp total (I) & same The plant St John's wort, Hypericum Androsaemum, from which a healing ointment was formerly made tutti, adj [1 tūtōt, 2 tūtōt] Ital., 'all' (mus direction) All players, instruments, or voices tutti-frutti, n [1 tūtōt frūtōt, 2 tūtōt frūtōt] Ital., 'all fruits' Sweetmeat made of a mixture of various kinds of preserved fruits tutty, n [1 tūt, 2 tūt] Fr tute, fr Arab tūtiya, 'vitrol' Brown substance obtained from fumes of furnaces in which zinc is smelted, a crude oxide of zinc tuum, pron [1 tūum, 2 tūum] Lat nunt sing of possessive pron. of 2nd pers, cogn. w thou. Thine, in Phr meum and tuum, see meum tu-whitt, tu-whitt tu-whoo, n [1 tū wit tū wōt, 2 tū wit tū wōt] Imitative of the cry of the owl tuxedo, n [1 tūksēdō, 2 taksēdō], fr name of a country club, Tuxedo Park, New York (U.S.A.) Dinner jacket tuyère, n [1 tūyēr, 2 tūyēr] Fr, 'pipe', connected w tuyau, q v under towel. Pipe through which air is pumped into a furnace twaddell, n [1 twōdēl, 2 twōdēl] After name of inventor Kind of hydrometer twaddle, n & vb intrans [1 twōdēl, 2 twōdēl] Prob variant of tattle 1 n Empty, foolish, idle talk, nonsense to talk more twain, adj & n [1 twān, 2 twēn] OE twegen, masc, 'two', ME twēne, twēgen &c See two (archaic or poet) Two (to cut) in twain, sundry, in two parts, 'and never the twain shall meet' twang, n & vb trans & intrans [1 twang, 2 twang] Imitative 1 n A sharp sound, as of the string of a fiddle &c suddenly and sharply plucked, b nasalized speech utterances, effect produced by speaking through the nose an American twang 2 vb a To pluck the string of a musical instrument sharply so that it gives forth a twang, b (rarely) to speak with a nasal twang twayblade, n [1 twāblād, 2 twēblād], fr OE twaga(n), 'two', see twain, & blade A plant of the orchidaceous family, genus Isotria, with two broad leaves, opposite each other, on the stem, also N American species of the genus Liparis twæk, vb trans & n [1 twæk, 2 twik] Variant of twitch (I), the formal relation to ME twicken is not clear 1 vb To pluck, nip, or pinch with a sharp, sudden, jerky action. 2 n A sharp, sudden nip, pinch, or plucking twedd, n [1 twēd, 2 twid] Hardly fr twill, as sometimes suggested, as the two kinds of cloth have no resemblance, prob fr name of Scottish river A soft woollen cloth, usually woven from yarns of several colours or shades, but without a regular pattern, primarily used of cloth woven in Scotland tweddle-dum and tweddle-dee, ns [1 twēdl dūm an(d) twēdl dē, 2 twēdl dūm an twēdl dē] Imit of high pitched note, first quoted in O E D in Phr tweddle dum and tweddle dee of two musicians (1726) Designation of two persons who are considered very alike in appearance, character, opinion, or behaviour &c, more rarely of things, modes of conduct &c which are very much alike and differ chiefly in name twēen, prep [1 twān, 2 twēn] Abbr for between twēeny, n [1 twēni, 2 twēni] Free & -y (colloq) A young servant girl who helps two other maids with their work, also twēeny maid twēezers, n pl [1 twēzars, 2 twēzars], fr obs twēeze, 'a small pocket case', fr Fr étui, 'case', fr such a phr as a pair of twēez, 'a folding case', hence twēezers, primarily instrument carried in a case Small pair of pincers used for grasping a small blood vessel, plucking out thorns from the flesh &c twelfth, adj & n [1 twēlfth, 2 twēlfth] OE twelfta, ME twelfte, see twelve 1 adj Next in order after eleventh, ordinal adj of twelve. 2 n a The twelfth thing, b a twelfth part

Twelfth-night, n Evening of twelfth day after Christmas, that is, of the Feast of the Epiphany twelve, adj & n [1 twēlv, 2 twēlv] OE twelf, ME twelf, twelke, op OS twelfs, OHG swelfs, Goth twelfs The word is compounded of the elements in two & leave (II), op also eleven, & the primitive sense is 'two over' or 'two in addition' (to ten) 1 adj One more than eleven, two more than ten, a dozen. 2 n a The number one more than eleven, Phr the twelve, the twelve Apostles, b symbol for this put down a twelve, c colloquial abbreviation for 12 o'clock twelvemo, n [1 twēlvmo, 2 twēlvmo] A duodecimo, written 12mo twelvemonth, n [1 twēlvmonth, 2 twēlvmonth] A year this day twelvemonth, it will take a twelvemonth to finish twentieth, adj & n [1 twētieth, 2 twētieth] OE twēntigða, see twenty & -th 1 adj Ordinal of twenty. 2 n a Thing next in order after the nineteenth, b one of twenty equal parts twenty, adj & n [1 twēnti, 2 twēnti] OE twēntig, ME twēnti, OS twēntig, OHG zweinzig, op Goth twēntig, 'two tens', see twain & -ty & ten 1 adj One more than nineteen. 2 n a The number following nineteen, b symbol for this, c collection of twenty things, a score twi-, pref OE am, 'two, double', see twice, twain, & two twibill, n [1 twībil, 2 twābil] Free & bill (I) 1 (obs) Sword, battle axe, with two blades 2 Mattock with two cutting edges twice, adv [1 twīs, 2 twāns] ME twies, formed fr OE twiga, twiga, 'twice', w the addition of gent. suff es, used adverbially, op OHG twi ON twi, cogn. w Sort twi, Gk di, Lat bi for di-*, see bi- & two Two times to do something twice. Phr to think twice (before doing &c), to ponder well, hesitate, not to think twice about, (s) not to think of again, to forget, disregard, (n) to do (something) without hesitation, reluctance, or musing, I should'n't think twice about refusing his offer, twice as good as, twice as much, in double quantity, to a double degree twicer, n [1 twīcar, 2 twīcar] See pree & -er One who does something twice, specif a Presbyterian who goes to church twice a year, b printer who is both compositor and pressman twice-told, adj Told, narrated, constantly, hence, hackneyed, commonplace twiddle, vb trans & intrans & n [1 twīdl; 2 twīdl] ON twīla, 'to stir' 1 vb a trans To twist, twirl, Phr to twiddle one's thumbs, spend one's time idly, to have no serious occupation, b intrans, to shake, tremble, vibrate 2 n a The action or motion of twiddling, b a vibration, shake, flourish, of the voice or of a musical instrument, c a twisting, wavy line twig (I), vb intrans & trans [1 twīg, 2 twīg] Cp Ir tuigim, 'I understand' (slang) a intrans To have understanding of, follow, catch on to (a proposal, explanation &c) I don't quite twig, will you tell me again? b trans, to understand, apprehend shrewdly to twig a person's meaning twig (II), n OE twīg, 'branch, stalk' op OHG twīg, prob connected w twi- & two Thin slender branch, or end of branch, of a tree Phr (slang) to hop the twig, to die twiggy, adj [1 twīgi, 2 twīgi] Free & -y Covered with, abounding in, twigs twilight, n [1 twīlīt, 2 twīlīt] 15th cent, see twi- & light (I) 1 a Half light, subdued light just before and after sundown, b the time when such light prevails, period between late afternoon or evening and night Phr twilight of the gods (ancient Greek mythol), the great struggle in which the gods and giants will destroy each other, also (attrib) twilight sleep, condition of semi unconsciousness induced by narcotics for relieving the pains of childbirth 2 (fig) Obscurity of meaning, imperfect comprehension twill, n & vb trans [1 twīl, 2 twīl] Cp OE twīle, 'woven double', see twi-, op MHG zwīle, 'of two threads', perh. formed on anal. of Lat bi-, 'two threaded', fr bi-, 'double', & the base of licium, 'thread, something worn' The Mod Engl word is prob borrowed fr a LG dial, twillen, 'to make double' 1 n a Fine diagonal rib in fabric, formed by the mode of weaving, b cloth so woven 2 vb To weave (cloth) with a twill twinn, adj, n, & vb [1 twīn, 2 twīn] ON tvinn, 'double', OE getwinnas, 'twins', see twi- 1 adj Specif a being one of two children born at one birth twin brothers, sisters, b double, twofold twin blades in a knife, c closely connected or related, nearly resembling each other twin houses, projects &c, d closely connected in affection, mode of thought, having spiritual affinity twin souls 2 n a Either of two persons or animals born at one birth, b (pl) two persons, animals, things, which closely resemble each other in appearance, character, activities, function &c, specif, compound crystal, with pair of crystals in exactly reversed position on opposite side of axis, c (esp) the Twins, constellation and sign of the zodiac, also called Gemini, i.e. Castor and Pollux 3 vb To form (into) twin crystals twin-born, adj Born at one birth twine, n & vb trans & intrans [1 twīn; 2 twān] OE twīn, 'linen', implying fabric made of double or twisted thread later in present sense of n From base in twi- & two 1 n a Twisted threads of jute, hemp &c, formed into a strong line, used for tying parcels &c, string, b act or process of twining, c a twist, convolution 2 vb a trans To twist, wind, form into (wreaths) to twine garlands for the feast, to twine one's arms round, to embrace, b intrans, to twist, wreath, encircle, form into winding folds in the woodland the ivy twines, ivy twines round the trunks of trees twiner, n [1 twiner, 2 twains] Proc & -er That which twines, esp a rambling, twisting plant twinge, n & vb intrans [1 twing, 2 twins(d)z]

The n is fr the vb, but is now far more frequently used than the latter, OE tuengan, 'to press, pinch', ME tuengen, 'to afflict', origin doubtful 1 n a sudden, sharp, shooting pain, a pang, a qualm a twinge of toothache, of lumbago &c, b a sudden mental qualm, sharp stab of remorse a twinge of conscience, compunction 2 vb To throb, shoot, with sudden pain twinkle, vb intrans & n [1 twinkl, 2 twinkl] OE twincan, 'to twinkle', ME twincien, op MHG zwinken, zwungen, 'to blink, wink' 1 vb a (of lights, stars &c) To produce effect of twinkling, to flash, sparkle, intermittently, to scintillate, b (of the eyes) to wink, blink (rare), to light up with sudden gleam of mirth &c, c to move rapidly in different directions, to flash into sight and disappear by turns feet twinkling in the dance &c 2 n a (1) An intermittent gleam, flash, sparkle, a scintillation, (u) a fleeting expression of mirth or humour in the eye, b a rapid, flashing movement, a twinkling twinkling, n [1 twinkling, 2 twinkl] Proc & -ing 1 A rapid, flickering movement, a momentary glimpse caught of this the twinkling of a rabbit's tail Phr the twinkling of an eye, a brief instant of time 2 Intermittent flashing or sparkling of light the twinkling of the stars twinning, n [1 twining, 2 twining] twinn, vb, & -ing Formation of twin crystals twirl, vb trans & intrans & n [1 twirl, 2 twirl] Freq of OE twieran, 'to stir, churn', cogn w twirre, 'a churn', cogn w Lat trua, 'a ladle', & trulla, 'a dipper, scoop', q v under trowel 1 vb a trans To cause to revolve, whirl, or spin round twirl one's moustache, to twist so as to impart a rotatory movement to, to flourish to twirl a cane, b intrans, to whirl, spin round 2 n a Act of twirling, a whirling, a rotatory movement, b something twirled, a twist, coil, c a flourish, a twisting line, a twiddle twist (I), n [1 twist, 2 twist] OE twist in the compound maest twist, 'mast rope, stay', formed fr base in twi- & two 1 Mass, bundle, formed by winding, twining, plaiting, flexible strands or some soft substance, a a hank of thread or yarn, b particular kind of yarn, c kind of coarse tobacco twisted into a tight roll, d loaf made of dough twisted into spiral form 2 A spinning, twisting, motion imparted to an object in throwing or striking it, which causes it to deviate suddenly from the original direction it follows to give a twist to a ball 3 Act of twisting, bending, torsion, flexure to give a twist to a rope, to a person's arm 4 A bend, coil, link, turn, convolution a twist in a rope 5 A deviation, departure, from a straight line, curve, tortuosity a twist in a road, stream, b (fig, in moral sense) (1) departure from probity and uprightness in character or conduct, disingenuousness, lack of straightforwardness, candour, honesty a twist in one's nature, also (u) abnormality, peculiar warped tendency of mind twist (II), vb trans & intrans ME twisten, see proc A trans 1 To plait, twine, interweave to twist threads into yarn, strands of yule &c into a rope, to twist flowers into a wreath 2 To wreath, encircle with, wind round to twist wreaths round a column 3 To impart spiral form to by torsion, that is by holding ends of and turning hands in opposite directions, to wring to twist a stick, a cloth &c 4 (fig) To distort, wrest, interpret in a sense at variance with true meaning to twist what is said so as to give a wrong impression B intrans 1 A To assume spiral form, to wind, coil, to be distorted, to curve, b to writhes 2 To deviate suddenly from a straight line and move in different direction a cricket ball twists on the wicket 3 A To move forward in a curving, winding path, to pursue a tortuous course the road, stream, turns and twists a good deal, b (fig) to be guilty of duplicity, to pursue a disingenuous line of conduct with a view to deceive twister, n [1. twister, 2 twists] Proc & -er 1 Person who twists (in various senses), specif (fig) one who speaks or acts insincerely, an unreliable, dishonest person, a dodger 2 Thing that twists, a a ball which turns suddenly in different direction, which breaks or screws, b machine for twisting threads, c (1) a difficult task or problem, (u) word or combination of sounds difficult to pronounce, also tongue twister twisty, adj [1 twisty, 2 twisty] twist (I) & -y a Abounding in twists and turns, curving, winding, b (fig, of persons) fond of and practising deception and intrigues, disingenuous, tortuous, dishonest, unreliable twit, vb trans [1 twit, 2 twit] OE etwitan, 'to reproach, blame', w loss of the unstressed initial vowel, the first element is at, the second is the base wit, wit- &c, 'to see, to know', wh also expresses blame, hostility &c, op OE etwitan, 'to reproach with', wite, 'torture, misery', Goth fraewitan, 'to avenge', fraewit, 'punishment, vengeance', see under wit (I) & op vision (I), & idea, idol To reproach (a person) with (a fault, weakness, defect &c), to bring such up against him, to remind (person) of (fault &c) and taunt him with it to twit a person with, or (more rarely) about, his timidity, conceit, humble origin &c twitch (I), vb trans & intrans [1 twitch, 2 twit] ME twicchen, op OE twiccan, 'to pluck (fruit)', see tweak, connected w OE twican, 'pluck, oppress', see tuck (I) 1 trans a To pluck, pull, with a sudden, jerking movement to twitch a cloth off a table, his cup was suddenly twitched from his hand, b to move (something) with sudden jerky or tremulous motion a horse twitches his ears, tail &c, to twitch one's eyelids 2 intrans To be seized, agitated, by a spasmodic, convulsive (usually involuntary), muscular movement his face twitched with pain, emotion &c, a horse's ears twitch twitch (II), n See proc 1 Act of twitching, process of being twitched, a a sharp, sudden pull, tweak or jerk, b a convulsive movement of part of the body 2 Something used for twitching, specif, a device consisting of a short handle with a cord attached which is twisted tightly round the upper lip of a horse, and held, to make him stand still while being clipped, shod, or subjected to some operation twitter, vb intrans & n [1 twitter, 2 twits] ME twiteren, prob imitative 1 vb a (of birds) To utter a running series of shrill, intermittent notes, as at dawn or nightfall 'And gathering swallows twitter in the skies' (Keats, 'To Autumn'), b (of persons) to talk with a rapid, unresonant utterance, expressive of feebleness, timidity, and futility 2 n a Sound made by birds that twitter, b rapidly uttered, feeble, futile speech or chatter Phr in a twitter, in an excited, nervous condition which tends to evoke shrill, rapid chatter twittering, n [1 twittering, 2 twittering] Proc & -ing Sounds, collectively, as uttered by birds or persons that twitter twixt, prep [1 twixt, 2 twixt] Ahbr for betwixt two, adj & n [1 two, 2 two] OE twā (fem & neut), see also twain, ME two, OS twā (fem), OHG zwei, Goth twai, ON twair, cogn w Lat duo, Gk duo, see dual, Sart dwā(u), O Slav duwa, dva, see also bi-, dis- 1 adj One more than one, twice one Phrs to cut in two, divide into two parts, to put two and two together, to draw the obvious conclusion, one or two, a few 2 n a A pair, group of two persons or things, in two's and three's, in small groups or hatches, b symbol representing the number two—2, II, u two-edged, adj Having two cutting edges a two-edged sword, also fig, a two edged com- passant, one that is ambiguous, and may be interpreted as an insult two-faced, adj a Having two faces, b (fig) double-faced, false twofold, adj & adv [1 twofold, 2 twofold] a adj Double, b adv, doubly two-handed, adj 1 Having two hands. 2 Requiring two hands to lift, move, use &c a two handed sword 3 (of games) Played by two persons two-headed, adj Having two heads two-legged, adj Having two legs, contrasted with four-legged two-line, adj (typog, of a letter on page) Occupying the space, having the height, of two lines of specified type two line brevier twopence, n [1. tupens, 2 tápens] The sum, value, of two pennies considered as a unity, formerly a coin of this value twopenny, adj & u [1 tupeni, 2 tápensi] 1 adj Of the value or price of twopence a twopenny bun 2 n (slang) Head, in Phr, tuck in your twopenny twopenny-halfpenny, adj [1 tupeni hápeni, 2 tápensi hápens] Insignificant, contemptible, trivial twopenny-halfpenny squabbles two-ply, adj a Having double thickness, b woven double, c having two strands two-power standard, n Principle of naval construction based on having a navy equal to a combination of the navies of the two next strongest powers two-seater, n Motor-car designed to seat two people two-sided, adj Having two sides, having two aspects, having a double bearing twosome, n, orig adj [1 twósum, 2 twósum] Game played by two players only two-speed, adj Adaptable to two different speeds two speed gear two-step, n a A dance in polka time; b music composed for such a dance

-ty (I), suff forming abstract ns fr adj, fr Fr te, fr Lat -tāt-, piety, Fr piété, Lat pietāt (em), fr pius &c

-ty (II), suff OE tig, 'ten', op OE tiem, '10', Goth tigus, 'group of ten', ishun, '10'; see ten Suffix used to denote so many times ten twenty, thirty &c

Tyburn, n [1 thurn, 2 táiben] Former place of execution in London, close to present Marble Arch. Tyburn upper, halter for hanging a criminal, Tyburn tree, the gallows tycoon, n [1 tkōon, 2 taikōn] Jap taikun, 'great ruler' Title applied formerly to the hereditary commander-in-chief, the shōgun, in Japan, office and title now abolished tyke See tike

tyler See tiler

Tylopod, n [1 tlōpod, 2 tdilapod] fr Gk tylos, 'lump, knot', fr base tu, 'to swell', see tumid, tumour &c, & pod, stem of pous, 'foot', see pedal (I) Member of a division of ruminant mammals, including the camels, llamas &c tylosis, n [1 tlōsis, 2 taibōsis] Gk tylos, 'lump, knot', see proc & -osis 1 (med) A thickening, hardening, of tissue 2 (bot) Irregular mass of cells formed by growth of one plant cell into another tympan, n [1 timp, 2 timp] See next word Covering of opening in a blast furnace, through which molten metal and slag pass tympan, n [1 timpan, 2 timpan] Shortened form of tympanum Thin sheet of paper, parchment &c, in a printing press, placed between the platen and the upper surface of the paper which is being printed tympanic, adj [1 timpanik, 2 timpanik] tympanum & -ic 1 Pertaining to, resembling, a tympanum or drum 2 Specif, pertaining to the tympanum of the ear tympanites, n [1 timpanitēs, 2 timpanitēs] Gk, see tympanum & -itis Tightening, distension, of the abdomen, due to accumulation of gas in the intestines tympanitis, n [1 timpanitis, 2 timpanitis] tympanum & -itis Inflammation of the membrane of the middle ear tympano-, pref Form of tympanum used in compounds tympanum, n [1 timpanum, 2 timpanem]

Lat, fr Gk timpanon, 'a little drum', also tupanon, fr base tup, as in Gk tuplein, 'to strike', cogn. w Sert tumpati, tupati, 'he strikes', O Slav tupati, 'to palpitate', see also type (I) 1 (anat) The drum or membrane of the ear 2 (archit) Flat triangular space enclosed by the sides of a pediment or gable at the end of buildings, similar space over a door, between the lintel and the arch

Tynwald, n [1 tinwold, 2 tainwold] ON þing tollr, lit 'assembly field', the first element is cogn. w Engl thing, the second perh. w Engl weald The legislative assembly or parliament of the Isle of Man type (I), n [1 típ, 2 taip] Fr, fr Lat typus, 'figure, image', fr Gk typos, 'a blow, mark of a blow, impress of a seal, stamp on a coin, original pattern, model, mould', fr base tup, 'to strike', see tympanum. 1 (rare) Characteristic mark, sign, stamp, impress 2 Person, thing, action, event, which is a symbol, or prefiguration, of some other person, thing, action &c the king's sceptre is a type of royal authority, the slaying of the lamb at the Passover is a type of Christ's death 3 A mode of form or structure, combination of physical features, characteristic of all the members of a group each of the great races of mankind exhibits a definite type, b class or group, which is recognizable as such by the possession of certain characteristic features and peculiarities of structure &c Australia has many types of animal and plant life not found in other continents, it is now disputed whether there is such a thing as a criminal type, true to type, exhibiting the distinguishing features of a class 4 Class or group also a member or example of such, distinguished by having certain material or moral qualities common to the whole class this is just the type of house I require, men of his type are not to be trusted 5 A member of a class or group regarded as exhibiting the characteristics and qualities of the class in a very complete manner, and as constituting a standard, pattern, model a perfect type of English country gentleman 6 A block of metal, more rarely of wood, upon the upper surface of which a letter or other symbol is cast or cut, from which an impression is taken in printing, b (collectively) a set, collection of types books are stereotyped to avoid keeping large quantities of type lying idle, Phr in type, set up in the press all ready for printing, c style, shape, kind, of type the type of the book is admirable type (II) vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans (rarely) To typify, be a type of 2 a trans To print (words) with a typewriter, to type write, b intrans, to use a typewriter

-type, suff, fr type (I) 1 Representative, exemplar prototype 2 Print, mode of printing, of reproduction autotype, stereotype type-founder, n One who casts type for printing type-foundry, n Place where metal is cast into type type-setter, n Composer in printing works typewrite vb trans & intrans [1 típrít, 2 taipraít] a trans To print, copy, with a typewriter, b intrans, to make use of a typewriter typewriter n [1 típriter, 2 taiprítter]

Machine worked by the fingers, which transmits printed characters to paper, used instead of handwriting typewritten, adj [1 típrítá, 2 taiprítá] fr P.P. of typewrite Copied, written, on a typewriter typhilitis, n [1 tífítis, 2 tífítis] Coned fr Gk typhlós, 'blind, closed' (for cognates see deaf), on anal. of med. Lat caecum, & -itis Inflammation of the caecum typhoid, adj & n [1 tífoid, 2 taífoíd] See typhus & -oid. a adj Resembling, of the nature of, typhoid fever, an infectious fever, originally thought to be a form of typhus, but now known to be due to a bacillus, typhoid bacillus, conveyed by infected drinking water, milk, or food, the disease is now usually styled enteric fever, b n typhoid fever typhoidal, adj [1 tífóidil, 2 taífoídil] Prec & -al. Pertaining to, resembling, typhoid fever typhomania, n [1 tífómánia, 2 taífoúmánia] typhus & mania. Delirium characteristic of typhus fever typhonic, adj [1 tífónik, 2 taífoínik] See next word & -ic Pertaining to, of the nature of, a typhoon typhoon, n [1 tífóon, 2 taífoín] Earlier tyfoon, Port tyfón, prob fr Gk typhón, 'furious storm, hurricane', fr base dhā* &c, see typhus & words there referred to The Chinese tai feng, 'great wind', may possibly have been the starting point, but the above quite unrelated Gk word is responsible for the form of the word we use Violent whirlwind, a hurricane, specif, one occurring in China seas typhous, adj [1 tífús, 2 taífas] typhus & -ous Connected with, of the nature of, typhus typus, n [1 tífús, 2 taífas] fr Gk typhos, 'smoke, mist, cloud', op typhain, 'to smoke', for typh-*, cogn. w Sert dhūpa, 'smoke', fr base dhā* &c, q v under dust (I) & rum (I) Contagious fever due to a bacillus conveyed by lice, fleas, and other parasites, causing great weakness, and accompanied by red spots on the body, formerly called jail fever and prison fever

typic, adj [1 típiik, 2 taípiik] Fr typique, Lat typicus, fr Gk typhikós, type (I) & -ic Typical typical, adj [1 típiikl, 2 taípiikl] Prec & -al 1 Possessing, exhibiting, so fully the characteristics of a type as to serve as an example, specimen, or representative of this a typical Oxford don, a typical British officer &c 2 Symbolical, emblematic the Passover was typical of Christ's death typically, adv [1 típiik(a)l, 2 taípiik(a)l] Prec & -ly In a typical manner typify, vb trans [1 típiif, 2 taípiif] See type (I) & -fy 1 To be a type, symbol, of, to prefigure 2 To exhibit essential characteristic features of, to exemplify typist, n [1 típiist, 2 taípiist] type (II) & -ist Person who works a typewriting machine typo-, form of Gk typos used in compounds, see type (I) typographer, n [1 típoígráfer, 2 taípoígráfer] typo- & -graph & -er One who has to do with type and printing, a printer typographic(al), adj [1 típoígráfiik(l), 2 taípoígráfiik(l)] See prec & -ic & (-al) Connected with, pertaining to, the art of printing typographically, adv Prec & -ly As regards printing typography, n [1 típoígráfi, 2 taípoígráfi] typo- & -graphy a The art of printing from type, b style of printing, mode of arrangement of type typology, n [1 típoílogi, 2 taípoílógi] typo- & -logy a Doctrine that events &c recorded in the New Testament are prefigured in the Old, b treatise on the types of Scripture tyrannical, adj [1 tí-, tíranikl, 2 tí-, táiránikl] Lat tyrannicus, fr Gk tyrannikós, see tyrant & -ic & -al Characteristic of, natural to, befitting, resembling, a tyrant, hence, oppressive, arbitrarily harsh, despotic tyrannically, adv. Prec & -ly In a tyrannical, oppressive manner, harshly and unjustly tyrannicidal, adj [1 tíranísídl, 2 tíranísídl] Next word & -al. Pertaining to the killing of a tyrant, or of tyrants tyrannicide, n [1 tí-, tíranísídl, 2 tí-, táiránísídl] Lat (1) tyrannicidium, 'killing of a tyrant', (2) tyrannicida, 'killer of a tyrant', see tyrant & -icide 1 Act of killing a tyrant 2 One who kills a tyrant tyrannize, vb intrans [1 tíraníz, 2 tíraníz] Fr tyranniser, fr Gk tyrannizein, 'to play the part of a tyrant', see tyrant & -ize To play the tyrant, to rule, exert authority harshly, arbitrarily, and unjustly, tyrannize over tyrannous, adj [1 tíranús, 2 tíranús] O Fr tyran, see tyrant, & -ous Like a tyrant, tyrannical tyrannously, adv Prec & -ly In a tyrannous manner tyrannousness, n See prec & -ness a Quality of being tyrannous, b tyrannous conduct tyranny, n [1 tíraní, 2 tíraní] ME, fr O Fr tyrannie, fr Gk tyrannia, 'rule of a tyrant', see tyrant & -y 1 (Gk hist) Government, jurisdiction, of a tyrant in old sense (see tyrant, 1) 2 Harsh, arbitrary, unjust exercise of authority, despotism, oppressive rule 3 A tyrannical action, an example of the exercise of despotic power, or of an unduly rigorous discipline tyrant, n [1 tírant, 2 táirant] ME tyrant, fr O Fr tyrant, earlier tyran, fr Lat tyrannus, fr Gk tyrannos, 'an absolute prince or ruler, a cruel, unjust ruler' According to some authorities the word is of Phrygian origin, others connect w the base in Lith. terti, 'to seize', others again w Sert. tíranti, 'to subjugate' 1 (ancient Gk. hist) An absolute ruler, applied to one who had seized the supreme power, as contrasted with a hereditary king 2 a A despotic, harsh, unjust, arbitrary, ruler, one who oppresses his people, b any masterful person who exerts his authority in a cruel, oppressive manner tyre See tire (II), 3 tyro See tiro

tyro-, pref, fr Gk túrds, 'cheese', prob fr same base as Lat turgere, 'to swell', see turgid, & second element of butter (I) Occurs as prefix in a few scientific words, e.g. tyrotoxicom, poisonous substance occurring in putrid cheese, milk, or butter tzar, tsarina &c See czar & czarina tzetse-fly See tssetse-fly

Tzigany, adj & n [1 táigáni, 2 tsáigáni] Fr zigane, fr Magyar čigány a adj Pertaining to a (Hungarian) gipsy, b n, a Hungarian gipsy

U

U, n, [1 ú, 2 ü] The twenty first letter of the English alphabet for use in abbreviations &c see list at end of Dictionary uberous, adj [1 úberus, 2 júberus] Lat. uber, a test, breast, udder', also as adj, 'rich, full, fertile' for suff see -ous Uber is cogn. w Gk oúthar, Sert uhar, 'udder', also w OE úder, see udder (rare) Plentiful, copious fertile uberrima fides, n [1 úberíma fídéz, 2 júberí- ma fídéz] Lat superl. of uber, 'fruitful' &c, see prec, for fídéz, 'faith', see fidelity (law) The most complete good faith, esp applied to contracts entered into by parties standing in a particular relation of mutual trust, as guardian and ward, solicitor and client &c ubiety, n [1 ubiety, 2 júbáisti] Neo-Lat ubiety, stem of ubiety, 'wherever', formed fr Lat ubi, 'where', for ubi*, as in alibi, 'elsewhere'. Aryan k^u* &c (orig a pronominal stem) appears also in Sort ked, 'where, whither', Gk póteron, 'whether' &c, see also under how & where (I) (philos.) Whereness, quality or state of being in a place in relation to another thing, abstract, relative position

Ubiquitarian, n [1 úbikwítarian, 2 júbikwítarian] Formed fr ubiquity & -arian (theol.) One who believes in the ubiquity or omnipresence of the body of Christ in all things, not only in heaven and the Eucharist, a doctrine held by certain Lutheran theologians Ubiquitarianism, n [1 úbikwítarianizm, 2 júbikwítarianizm] Prec & -ism (theol.) Doctrine of the Ubiquitarians ubiquitous, adj [1 úbikwítus, 2 júbikwítus] ubiquity & -ous Being, existing, found, present, everywhere, omnipresent ubiquitously, adv Prec & -ly In a ubiquitous manner, as if present everywhere ubiquitousness, n See prec & -ness State of being ubiquitous or present everywhere ubiquity, n [1 úbikwít, 2 júbikwít], fr O Fr ubiquité, as if fr Lat ubiquitas*, fr ubique, 'everywhere', see ubiety, & -ity State, quality, of being ubiquitous, presence, existence, in every place or an indefinite number of places at the same time, omnipresence Phr the ubiquity of the King, (law) the assumed presence of the sovereign in all his courts of justice in the person of his judges ubi supra, adv [1 úbi súpra, 2 júbí súpra] Lat, 'where above' In the place above mentioned, as reference in book to a work, passage &c cited previously

U-boat, n [1 ú bót, 2 júbót] A German submarine, these in the German navy were lettered U followed by a numeral, as abbreviation of Untersee boot, lit 'under sea boat, submarine' udal, n [1 údal, 2 júdal], also odal, fr ON óðal, Dan odel, cogn. w OHG uodil, 'farm' (legal hist.) A form of land tenure, udal tenurs, existing in Scotland prior to the establishment of the feudal system, and still existing in Orkney and Shetland, in which land is held by right of uninterrupted possession and descends to all the children equally, udal man, woman, male, female, owner by udal, ndaller udaller, n [1 údaler, 2 júdaler] Prec & -er Owner of land by ndal tenure udder, n [1 nder, 2 áda] OE úder, ME údar &c, O.H.G. údar, Mod Germ utter, cogn w Lat úber, see uberous The large, pendulous external milk gland with more than one teat or nipple, esp of cows, sheep, goats &c

-uddered, adj [1 uderd, 2 ádad] Prec & -ed Having so many or such udders double-, two-uddered &c, large-, small-uddered udderless, adj [1 nderles, 2 ádalis] udder & -less Deprived of udders or nourishment from the mother, hence, motherless udderless lambs

-ude, suff [1 úd, 2 júd], fr Lat -udo, forming abstract ns fr adjs & PP's w stems ending in t, see -tude uđograh, n [1 úđograhf, 2 júđograhf] See first element of uđometer & -graph An automatic, self-registering rain gauge uđometer, n [1 úđometer, 2 júđomét], fr Lat úduis, 'wet', contracted fr uodius*, 'wet, damp, moist', cogn w Gk húgrós, 'wet, moist', further related to Sort ukšati, 'he sprinkles', prob also to Sort ulšan-, 'ox'; see also ox, for suff see -meter. A rain-gauge uđometric, adj [1 úđométrik, 2 júđométshik] Prec & -ic Pertaining to a rain-gauge or measurement of rainfall by such instrument uđometry, n [1 úđométri, 2 júđométtri] Measurement of rainfall by a uđometer or rain gauge ugh, interj [1 ugh, 2 ax] Imitative An expression of disgust, contempt, disapproval, and dislike ugly, vb trans [1 úghfi, 2 ághfai] ugly (I) & -fy To make ugly, to spoil the beauty or attractiveness of uglyly, adv [1 ághli, 2 ághli] ugly (I) & -ly In an ugly manner ugliness, n [1 uglins, 2 ághins] ugly (I) & -ness Condition, quality, of being ugly ugly (I), adj [1 úghl, 2 ághl] Soand, fr ON uggligr, 'fearful, horrible, awful', fr uggr, 'fear', cogn w awe (I), the suff is ON -igr, see -ly 1 Repulsive, unpleasant to the sight, hideous, unbecoming, the opposite of beautiful, handsome, or pleasing or becoming an ugly face, ugly building, ugly clothes, ugly way of doing the hair 2 Offensive to the moral sense, repulsive, vile, unpleasantly suggestive, disreputable ugly customs and habits, an ugly crime, there are ugly rumours about his past 3 Threatening, menacing, foreboding danger or unpleasantness ugly weather, the sky has an ugly look, the crowd made an ugly rush, the situation becomes more ugly every day, an ugly wound Phr an ugly customer (colloq.), a dangerous, rough, violent, person ugly (II), n, fr prec 1 (colloq.) An ugly person or thing 2 A shade attached to the front part of a bonnet, worn during the middle part of the 19th cent

Ugrian, adj & n [1 úgrán, 2 júgrán], fr Ugra, name of the country on both sides of the Ural Mountains & -ian 1 adj Of, belonging to, the Eastern division of the races and their languages, known as the Finno-Ugrian or Finnic peoples, including the Ostyaks and Voguls of Asiatic Russia, and people of the Hungarians and Magyars 2 n a member of these races, b one of the languages spoken by them

Ugrian, adj [1 úgrik, 2 júgrik] See prec & -ic Ugrian uhlan, n [1 úláhn, 2 úláhn] Germ, fr Pol ulan, 'lancer', fr Turk & Tatar öglán, 'son, child', also as title of a chief A light cavalry soldier, armed with a lance, of the pre-War German or Austrian armies ukase, n [1 úkáz, 2 júkáz] Fr, fr Russ ukaz, 'edict, order, decree', fr ukazat, 'to order' An edict or decree having the force of law on proclamation, as in Tsarist Russia ukulele, n [1 úkulál, 2 júkulál] Hawaiian, lit 'jumping insect, flea' A Hawaiian musical stringed instrument, shaped like a guitar or banjo and twanged with the fingers or plectrum ulcer, n [1 úlser, 2 álsa], fr Fr ulcère, fr Lat ulcer (em), stem of ulcus, 'a sore', cogn w Gk helkos, 'wound, abscess' [op Sort arçad, 'haemorrhoids'] See helcosis 1 An open sore, discharging pus, whether on the external surface of the skin or on an internal mucous membrane a varicose ulcer, gastric ulcer &c 2 (fig) A source of moral contagion, corruption, corrupting, festering influence, a moral sore the ulcer of discontent, envy &c ulcerate, vb trans & intrans [1 úlserát, 2 álsarát], fr Lat ulcerat (um), PP type of ulcerare, 'to make sore', see prec & -ate 1 trans a To cause the formation of an ulcer in, to infect with an ulcer or ulceration, rare except in PP as adj ulcerated sores throat, gums, leg &c, b to corrupt morally 2 intrans To become ulcerated, to form ulcers ulceration, n [1 úlseríshun, 2 álsaríshun] Prec & -ion A Ulcerated condition, b process of becoming ulcerated ulcerative, adj [1 úlseratív, 2 álsaratív] ulcerate & -ive 1 Tending to cause or produce ulcers, ulcerating 2 Infected with ulcers, ulcerous ulcered, adj [1 úlserd, 2 álsad] ulcer & -ed Affected by an ulcer, ulcerated, festered ulcerous, adj [1 úlserus, 2 álsarus], fr Lat ulcerōsus, ulcer & -ous 1 a Of the nature of an ulcer, sore and discharging pus an ulcerous wound, b (fig) corrupting, festering an ulcerous hatred 2 Affected by an ulcer or ulcers, ulcerated an ulcerous leg, gums &c ulcerously, adv Prec & -ly In an ulcerous manner ulcerousness, n See prec & -ness State of being ulcerous or ulcerated

-ule, dimin suff, fr Lat words ending in ulus, a, -um, as globule, or in mod formations on anal of Lat, as pillule

ulema, n [1 úolema, 2 úlímá], fr Arab ‘ulamá, 'learned man', pl. of ‘alim, 'wise, learned', fr ‘alama, 'to know, be wise' Men learned in Moslem theology and law, speof, the college of doctors of sacred law, presided over by the Sheikh-ul Islam of Turkey uliginose, uliginous, adj [1 úljúnós, -us, 2 júldžúnós, -us], fr Lat uliginōsus, 'damp, wet, marshy', fr uligin (em), stem of uligo, 'moisture, dampness, marshiness', for uligo*, w dial i for earlier u, op úvidus, 'úduis', 'moist, damp', see first element of uđometer 1 Oozy, mnddy, slimy 2 (bot) Growing in swampy, mnddy places ullage, n [1 ulj, 2 áldž], fr Provenc ullage, in O Fr oullage, ouillage, fr Provenc ulha, 'to fill up (cask) to the bung or eye', ultimately fr Lat oculus, 'eye', see ocular, & -age The amount by which a cask or hottle of liquor is short of being full ulmaceous, adj [1 úlmásens, 2 álmásias] Mod formation fr Lat ulmus, 'the elm', see elm, & -aceous (bot) Of, belonging to, the family of trees, Ulmaceae, which includes the elms ulmic, adj [1 úlmik, 2 álmik] ulmin & -ic (chem) Of, pertaining to, obtained from, ulmin ulmic acid, an acid found in humus ulmin, n [1 úlmin, 2 álmín] New formation, fr Lat ulmus, 'elm', see elm, & -in (chem) A brown, sticky substance found on elms and other trees, and also in decaying vegetable mould or humus, one of the chemical constituents of humus ulna, n, pl ulnae, [1 úlína, -nás, 2 álína, -ní] Lat, 'elbow', fr ólená*, fr Gk ólené, 'elbow', cogn w Goth aleina, OE eln, see ell & elbow (anat) The inner of the two bones of the forearm, or of the two similar bones of the fore limb of vertebrate animals ulnar, adj [1 úlnar, 2 álna] Prec & -ar (anat) Pertaining to, situated on, the same side as the ulna ulnar artery, nerve, vein ulno-, pref Form of ulna used in compounds, ulnocarpal, pertaining to the ulna and carpus ulotrichous, adj [1 úlotríkus, 2 júlotríkus], fr Gk oulotríx, genit oulotríkhos, 'woolly haired', fr oulos, 'curly, woolly', & tríx, 'trikhos', 'hair' The first element is for uolnos*, & is cogn w Lat lana, 'wool', fr ulāna*, see lanate, & OE uull, see wool, for second element see tricho- (ethnol.) Having woolly hair, esp of the woolly haired or negroid races ulster, n [1 úlster, 2 álsta], fr Ulster, the NE province of Ireland A long heavy loose overcoat, usually furnished with a belt, and sometimes with a small hood which hangs down the back when not used for protecting the head ulterior, adj [1 últéríor, 2 áltérá] Lat, 'farther, beyond', compar of an old adj ulter*, the base of wb is seen in ultrá & ultra, & in O Lat ula, ole, 'beyond' op also O Lat allus, 'that one', later ille 1 (of position) Lying on the farther side of or beyond a specified boundary line on the ulterior side of the river 2 (of time) Following, succeeding in the future, later in time, prospective ulterior steps will be taken to secure this object, the ulterior consequences of his act 3 (of motives, aims, intentions &c) More remote, not plainly avowed, undisclosed ulterior notions, ulterior objects, plans &c., for the sake of ulterior ends ulteriorly, adv. Preo & -ly In an ulterior manner, more remotely ultima, adj. & n. [1 ultima, 2 última] Lat, fem sing of ultimus, 'last, latest', superl of ulter, see ulterior 1 adj Last, final, in Phrs ultima ratio, the last, final reason or argument or sanction, force or violence, ultima ratio regum, 'the final argument of kings', war and its instruments, ultima Thule, furthest Thule, an island placed by ancient geographers north of the British Isles, hence, any far distant, unknown land. 2 n The final syllable of a word.

ultimate, adj. [1 últimat, 2 últimát] fr Lat últimát(-um), PP type of ultimare, 'to be at the last, to come to an end', fr ultimus, 'last', see preo word 1 (of place) Farthest, most distant, beyond which one cannot go to the ultimate ends of the earth, the ultimate regions of space 2 (of time) Last, latest, final man's ultimate end, destiny, to look forward to an ultimate peace 3 Last in a series, chain of succession, or consequences the ultimate results of one's action 4 Final, fundamental, beyond further analysis, primary ultimate causes, principles, the ultimate sources of belief ultimately, adv. Preo & -ly In an ultimate manner, finally, in the end, at last ultimateness, n. See preo & -ness State, quality, of being ultimate, finality ultimatum, n. [1 últimátum, 2 últiméstam] pl últimata, or últimatums Lat, neut sing of PP of ultimare, 'to come to an end' Formed fr ultimus, 'last', see ultimate The last word, final expression of intentions &c., specif, the final terms, admitting of no further discussion, proposed by a government or other administrative or executive body or by an individual, in negotiating with another, the rejection of an ultimatum by the party to whom it is presented implies the end of friendly negotiations and a resort to methods designed to compel compliance with the will of the party presenting it ultimo, adv, abbr ult [1 últimó, 2 últimou] fr Lat últimó, so mensis, 'in the last month', see ultima In the month preceding the present or current month in answer to your letter of the 16th ultimo, op instant and proximo ultrageniture, n. [1 últimójénshur, 2 últimoudzénstse] Preo & -geniture (law) A system of inheritance by which landed property descends to the youngest son, as in Borough English, contrasted with primogeniture ultra adj & n. [1 últra, 2 últró] Lat adv & prep, 'beyond, on the other, far side of', see ulterior 1 adj Extreme in views, opinions &c., favouring extreme principles on ultra Conservative, Protestant &c 2 n One who holds extreme opinions &c., an extremist a thorough paced ultra ultra- pref, fr preo quite freely used w adjs & derivative ns indicating, to an excessive degree or extent, beyond what is customary, ordinary, natural, proper or reasonable, ultra conservative ultra fashionable, an ultra-Protestant &c, only words with a special meaning are given separate entries ultraism, n. [1 últraizm, 2 últráizm] ultra- & -ism The holding of extreme, esp political, opinions ultraist n. [1 últraíst, 2 últráíst] As preo & -ist One who holds extreme opinions ultramarine (I) adj [1 últramárín, 2 últramérín] ultra- & marine (I) Situated beyond the sea or seas overseas ultramarine dominions ultramarine trade ultramarine (II), n. & adj, fr Ital ultramareno beyond the seas, w first syll. Latinized applied to lapis lazuli, wh had to be imported. 1 n A brilliant pure blue pigment, originally obtained from powdered lapis lazuli, now artificially produced from kaolin, silica, sulphate and carbonate of soda

&c 2 adj Of blue colour, as in this pigment ultra-microscopic, adj ultra- & microscopic Beyond the range of the microscope, too small to be visible under the microscope ultramontane, adj & n. [1 últramontán, 2 últramóntéin] See ultra- & montane, op Fr ultramontain, Ital ultramontano, fr L Lat ultramontānus, in Class Lat trā-montānus, see tramontane 1 adj a Beyond, on the other side of, the mountains, ie the Alps, applied to Italians by northern peoples as living on the south side, and vice versa, b specif, pertaining to, supporting, the extreme claims of the Papacy to absolute authority in all matters of faith and discipline, over riding general Councils, together with refusal to allow any independence to national Roman Catholic Churches outside Italy, a term used by opponents of the full enforcement of the decrees of the Vatican Council of 1870 2 n a One who lives beyond the Alps, b (cap) a supporter of the ultramontane policy in the Roman Catholic Church ultramontanism, n. [1 últramóntinizm, 2 últramóntinizm] Preo & -ism Principles, policy, of the ultramontanes ultramontanist, n. [1 últramóntinist, 2 últramóntinist] ultramontane & -ist An ultramontanist ultramundane, adj [1 últramundān, 2 últramándon] ultra- & mundane (rare) Beyond, outside, the world, or the limits of the solar system ultra-red, adj ultra- & red (phys) Of those rays of the spectrum which are below the red, the lowest visible rays, infra red ultra-violet, adj ultra- & violet (phys) Of those electro magnetic waves which in the spectrum fall between the visible violet and the X rays ultra vires, adv or adj [1 últra vírés, 2 últravíríz] Lat, 'beyond powers or strength', ultra & vires, pl of vis, force, strength, see virile (law) Beyond, transcending, power or authority, exceeding the powers granted by law, used esp of actions taken by the directors of a company or by municipal or local authorities in excess of their powers ululant, adj [1 úlulánt, 2 úluláot] fr Lat ululāt(-em), Preo Part of ululare, see next word Howling, hooting ululate, v. intrans [1 úlulát, 2 úlulést] fr Lat ululāt(-um), PP type of ululare 'to howl', imitative To howl, hoot, as wolves, owls &c ulation, n. [1 úlulášun, 2 úluléstun] Preo & -ion a The sound of lamentation, howling, wailing, b the act of howling &c, used of the cries of owls, wolves &c, also of human wailing umbel, n. [1 úmbel, 2 ámbl] fr Lat umbella, 'a little shade a sunshade, parasol, dimin. of umbro, 'shade, shadow', q v under umbra (bot) A type of flower cluster or inflorescence in which the stalks radiate from a single point forming a flat or convex head of flowers umbellal, adj [1 úmbesial, 2 ámbelel] umbel & -al (bot) Umbellate umbellar, adj [1 úmbelar, 2 ámbelel] As preo & -ar (bot) Umbellate umbellate, adj [1 úmbelat, 2 ámbelest] umbel & -ate (bot) Having umbels, arranged in umbels umbellet n. [1 úmbélet, 2 ámbelest] umbel & -et (bot) An umbelline umbelliferous, adj [1 úmbelíferus, 2 ámblíferus] umbel & -iferous (bot) a Bearing, having, umbels, b belonging to the Umbelliferae, a large order of plants chiefly characterized by the umbels of their inflorescence umbelliform, adj [1 úmbélifórm, 2 ámbléfórm] umbel & -form (bot) Having the form or shape of an umbel umbellule, n. [1 úmbelül, 2 ámbeljül] umbel & -ule (bot) One of the secondary umbels in a compound umbelliferous plant; umbellet umber (I), n. [1 úmbér, 2 ámbe] fr O Fr ombre, in this sense short for terre d'ombre, 'earth for giving shadow' to pictures, fr Lat umbra, 'shade, shadow', see umbra 1 An earthy, mineral pigment of a yellowish brown colour, in raw or natural state, and with a reddish tint when burnt or calcined. 2 a The grayling (fish), b umber bird or umbrette umber (II), adj, fr preo Of dark brown colour umber (III), v. trans To colour, paint, with umber umber-bird, n. An African wading-bird, Scopus umbretta allied to the herons, of dark-brown plumage, large bill and erected head, the umbrette umbilical, adj [1 úmbílikl, 2 ámblílikl] See umbilicus & -al 1 Of, pertaining to, situated in the region of, the umbilicus or navel umbilical cord, the navel cord, the rope like structure joining the foetus of a mammal to the placenta and containing the umbilical veins and arteries through which blood passes to and from the placenta, umbilical hernia, hernia of the bowels at or near the umbilicus 2 In the position of, shaped like, an umbilicus or navel an umbilical pillar of a dome or vault, umbilical opening, in a dome. 3 (rare) Descended from the mother's side umbilicate, adj [1 úmbílikát, 2 ámblíliket] umbilicus & -ate 1 a Having an umbilicus or navel, b having a depression in the centre like an umbilicus 2 Shaped like an umbilicus umbilication, n. [1 úmbílikášun, 2 ámblíkásjun] Preo & -ion A navel like depression umbilicular, adj [1 úmbílikúlar, 2 ámblílikúlar] umbilicus & -ule & -ar Of, pertaining to, the umbilicus, umbilical umbilicus, n. [1 úmbílikus, 2 ámblílikas] Lat umbilicus, cogn w Gk omphalos, & navel, op umbo 1 The anatomical name for the navel, q v 2 a A circular navel like central depression, as in certain shells, b the hilum or eye of beans and other seeds 3 (Rom aotiq) The boss at each end of the wooden staff on which manu scripts were rolled. 4 (geom) a (obs) Foss, b point on a surface through which all lines of curvature pass umbiliform, adj [1 úmbilifórm, 2 ámblifórm] Preo & -form Shaped like an umbilicus umblie pie, n. [1 úmbli pí, 2 ámblipí] See humble pie, & for etymol see next word umbles, n. [1 úmblez, 2 ámbliz] Also numbles, M E numbles, fr O Fr nomble, properly lombler, fr L Lat lumbulus, dimin of lumbus, 'loin', see lumber (obs) The entrails of a deer umbo, o. [1 úmbó, 2 ámboz] Lat, a convex elevation, the boss of a shield, cogn w umbilicus 1 The boss of a shield, usually in the centre and having a corresponding depression on the other or internal side 2 Any round elevated protuberance, usually with corresponding depression, a (anat) part of the drum of the ear where it joins the malleus, b (bot) protuberances on the top surface of various fungi, o (zool) similar protuberance forming the first stage in the development of a valve in the shells of various molluscs umbonal, adj [1 úmbonál, 2 ámbonél] fr Lat umbon (em) & -al Pertaining to, situated near, the umbo umbonate, adj [1 úmbonát, 2 ámbonést] As preo & -ate Shaped like an umbo or boss umbra, n, learned pl umbras [1 úmbra, 2 ámbrá, 3 ámbrn] Lat, 'shade, shadow', said by Walde to be fr unl's ra*, 'shadow, shade', & cogn w Lith ánks na, 'shade', & ukanas, 'cloudy' 1 (astron.) a The complete or perfect shadow thrown in an eclipse by the moon, earth &c, leaving none of the sun's light visible, opposed to penumbra, b the central, darkest part of a sun spot 2 (Rom antiq) An uninvited who comes as the shadow of an invited unaccountability, n. [1. ʊnəkəʊntəbɪlɪtɪ, 2. ʌnəkəʊntəbɪlɪtɪ] See next word & -ity unaccountable, adj. [1. ʊnəkəʊntəbəl, 2. ʌnəkəʊntəbəl] un- (I) & accountable 1 Not to be accounted for, inexplicable 2 Not responsible unaccountably, adv. Preo & -ly In an unaccountable manner, inexplicably, strangely unaccredited, adj. [1. ʊnəkredɪtɪd, 2. ʌnəkredɪtɪd] un- (I) & accredit(ed) Not accredited unaccustomed, adj. [1. ʊnəkʌstəmd, 2. ʌnəkʌstəmd] un- (I) & accustomed. 1 (with to) Not accustomed, unused, not habituated, unfamiliar with unaccustomed to hot climates, public speaking 2 Not customary, unusual, strange with unaccustomed rudeness, his unaccustomed absence unachievable, adj. [1. ʊnəʃeɪvəbəl, 2. ʌnəʃeɪvəbəl] un- (I) & achieve & -able Not to be achieved, incapable of achievement unachieved, adj. [1. ʊnəʃeɪvd, 2. ʌnəʃeɪvd] un- (I) & achieve(d) Not achieved unacknowledged, adj. [1. ʊnəkənləʊdɪd, 2. ʌnəkənləʊdɪd] un- (I) & acknowledge(d) Not acknowledged, a (i) not recognized, or admitted an unacknowledged branch of the family, (II) not returned an unacknowledged greeting, (un.) (of letters &c.) not answered, b not confessed, owned unacknowledged crimes, faults &c unacquainted, adj. [1. ʊnəkwaɪntɪd, 2. ʌnəkwaɪntɪd] un- (I) & acquaint(ed) Not acquainted, having no acquaintance with, or knowledge of unacquirable, adj. [1. ʊnəkwaɪrəbəl, 2. ʌnəkwaɪrəbəl] un- (I) & acquire & -able Not acquirable, not to be acquired, unprocureable unacquired, adj. [1. ʊnəkwaɪrd, 2. ʌnəkwaɪrd] un- (I) & acquire(d) Not acquired unactable, adj. [1. ʊnəkɪtəbəl, 2. ʌnəkɪtəbəl] un- (I) & act & -able Notactable, not fit or suitable for acting unacted, adj. [1. ʊnəkɪktɪd, 2. ʌnəkɪktɪd] un- (I) & act(ed) 1 Not acted, not done, accomplished, or performed. 2 Not produced, performed, on the stage unadaptable, adj. [1. ʊnədəptəbəl, 2. ʌnədəptəbəl] un- (I) & adaptable Not adaptable unadapted, adj. [1. ʊnədəptɪd, 2. ʌnədəptɪd] un- (I) & adapt(ed) Not adapted, unsuitable for specified purpose unaddicted, adj. [1. ʊnədəktɪd, 2. ʌnədəktɪd] un- (I) & addict(ed) Not addicted (to) unaddressed, adj. [1. ʊnədresɪd, 2. ʌnədresɪd] un- (I) & address(ed) Not addressed, (of letter &c.) having no address written upon it unadjusted, adj. [1. ʊnədʒʊstɪd, 2. ʌnədʒʊstɪd] un- (I) & adjust(ed) Not adjusted, not settled, unregulated unadministered, adj. [1. ʊnədminɪstəd, 2. ʌnədminɪstəd] un- (I) & administer(ed) Not administered unadmired, adj. [1. ʊnədmaɪrd, 2. ʌnədmaɪrd] un- (I) & admire(d) Not admired unadmitted, adj. [1. ʊnədmtɪd, 2. ʌnədmtɪd] un- (I) & admit(ted) Not admitted unadmonished, adj. [1. ʊnədmonɪʃtɪd, 2. ʌnədmonɪʃtɪd] un- (I) & admonish(ed) Not admonished, uncorrected, not warned or cautioned unadorned, adj. [1. ʊnədɔːnd, 2. ʌnədɔːnd] un- (I) & adorn(ed) Not adorned, without adornment simple, plain unadulterated, adj. [1. ʊnədʌltəreɪtɪd, 2. ʌnədʌltəreɪtɪd] un- (I) & adulterate(d) 1 Not adulterated, free from adulteration. 2 Free from sophistication, genuine, pure, unmixed unadulterated praise, nonsense unadventurous, adj. [1. ʊnədvenʃərəs, 2. ʌnədvenʃərəs] un- (I) & adventurous 1 Lacking a spirit of adventure, not venturesome or enterprising 2 Not attended by adventures, safe, uneventful an unadventurous journey unadvisability, n. [1. ʊnədvaɪzəbɪlɪtɪ, 2. ʌnədvaɪzəbɪlɪtɪ] un- (I) & advisability unadvisable, adj. [1. ʊnədvaɪzəbəl, 2. ʌnədvaɪzəbəl] un- (I) & advisable Not advisable, not to be recommended, inexpedient unadvised, adj. [1. ʊnədvaɪzd, 2. ʌnədvaɪzd] un- (I) & advise(d) Not advised, a not having received advice, b imprudent, rash unadvisedly, adv. [1. ʊnədvaɪzɪdli, 2. ʌnədvaɪzɪdli] Preo & -ly Without proper advice, without due consideration, imprudently, rashly unaffected, adj. [1. ʊnəfektɪd, 2. ʌnəfektɪd] un- (I) & affected Not affected. 1 Unaffected by, a not moved, changed, or altered the ground was unaffected by the recent wet weather, b unmoved, uninfluenced he was quite unaffected by the appeal 2 Free from affectation, a not marked by affectation or mannerisms, plain, simple unaffected manners, an unaffected, direct style, b not assumed out of affectation, genuine, sincere, not pretended, not put on or hypocritical unaffected grief, he expressed unaffected delight, unaffected kindness of heart unaffectedly, adv. Preo & -ly In an unaffected manner unaffiliated, adj. [1. ʊnəfɪlɪətɪd, 2. ʌnəfɪlɪətɪd] un- (I) & affiliate(d) Not affiliated (to) unafflicted, adj. [1. ʊnəfɪktɪd, 2. ʌnəfɪktɪd] un- (I) & afflict(ed) Not afflicted unafraid, adj. [1. ʊnəfraɪd, 2. ʌnəfraɪd] un- (I) & fraid Not afraid, undismayed unaggressive, adj. [1. ʊnəɡresɪv, 2. ʌnəɡresɪv] un- (I) & aggressive Not aggressive, pacific unaided, adj. [1. ʊnədeɪd, 2. ʌnədeɪd] un- (I) & aid(ed) Not aided, unassisted, without aid, help, or assistance he did it unaided, by his unaided efforts unaired, adj. [1. ʊnəaɪrd, 2. ʌnəaɪrd] un- (I) & air(ed) Not aired, a not ventilated, deprived of air an unaired room, b not dried by airing, damp unaired bed, sheets unalarmed, adj. [1. ʊnəlɑːmd, 2. ʌnəlɑːmd] un- (I) & alarm(ed) Not alarmed, undismayed not startled unalariming, adj. [1. ʊnəlɑːmɪŋ, 2. ʌnəlɑːmɪŋ] un- (I) & alarim Not alarming, not causing or tending to cause alarm unalleviated, adj. [1. ʊnələvɪətɪd, 2. ʌnələvɪətɪd] un- (I) & alleviate(d) Not alleviated, not lessened, mitigated, or relieved unallied, adj. [1. ʊnəlaɪd, 2. ʌnəlaɪd] un- (I) & allied Not allied, having no relation or connexion unallied species, genera &c unallotted, adj. [1. ʊnəlɒtɪd, 2. ʌnəlɒtɪd] un- (I) & allot(ted) Not allotted unallowable, adj. [1. ʊnəlaʊəbəl, 2. ʌnəlaʊəbəl] un- (I) & allowable Not allowable, not permissible unallowed, adj. [1. ʊnəlaʊd, 2. ʌnəlaʊd] un- (I) & allow(ed) Not allowed, not permitted, forbidden unalloyed, adj. [1. ʊnəlaɪd, 2. ʌnəlaɪd] un- (I) & alloy(ed) Not alloyed. 1 (of metals) Free from alloy, pure 2 (of feelings &c.) Unmixed, unqualified unalloyed happiness unalluring, adj. [1. ʊnəlaɪərɪŋ, 2. ʌnəlaɪərɪŋ] un- (I) & allure Not alluring unalterability, n. [1. ʊnəɪltərəbɪlɪtɪ, 2. ʌnəɪltərəbɪlɪtɪ] un- (I) & alterability Condition, quality, of being unalterable, unalterableness unalterable, adj. [1. ʊnəɪltərəbəl, 2. ʌnəɪltərəbəl] un- (I) & alterable Not alterable, incapable of being altered, fixed, unchangeable unalterableness, n. Preo & -ness Unalterability unalterably, adv. See preo & -ly In an unalterable manner unaltered, adj. [1. ʊnəɪltəd, 2. ʌnəɪltəd] un- (I) & alter(ed) Not altered unchanged unaltering, adj. [1. ʊnəɪltərɪŋ, 2. ʌnəɪltərɪŋ] un- (I) & alter & -ing Not altering, constant, unchanging unamazed, adj. [1. ʊnəmeɪzd, 2. ʌnəmeɪzd] un- (I) & amaze(d) Not amazed unambiguous, adj. [1. ʊnəmbɪɡjuːs, 2. ʌnəmbɪɡjuːs] un- (I) & ambiguous Not ambiguous, clear, plain, not having a doubtful meaning, leaving no room for doubt unambiguously, adv. Preo & -ly Not ambiguously, plainly, clearly unambiguouslyness, n. See preo & -ness unambitious, adj. [1. ʊnəmbɪʃjuːs, 2. ʌnəmbɪʃjuːs] un- (I) & ambitious Not ambitious, modest, unpretentious unambitiously, adv. Preo & -ly In an unambitious manner, modestly, unpretendingly unambitiousness, n. See preo & -ness unamenable, adj. [1. ʊnəmeɪnəbəl, 2. ʌnəmeɪnəbəl] un- (I) & amenable Not amenable unamenable to treatment, discipline &c unamendable, adj. [1. ʊnəmeɪndəbəl, 2. ʌnəmeɪndəbəl] un- (I) & amend & -able Not amendable, incapable of being amended unamended, adj. [1. ʊnəmeɪndɪd, 2. ʌnəmeɪndɪd] un- (I) & amend(ed) Not amended un-American, adj. [1. ʊnəmerɪkən, 2. ʌnəmerɪkən] un- (I) & American Not American, not in accordance with American (United States) customs, principles &c unamiability, n. [1. ʊnəmiəbɪlɪtɪ, 2. ʌnəmiəbɪlɪtɪ] un- (I) & amiability Condition, quality, of being unamiable, moroseness, surliness, disoblighness unamiable, adj. [1. ʊnəmiəbəl, 2. ʌnəmiəbəl] un- (I) & amiable Not amiable, disagreeable, disoblighing unamiably, adv. Preo & -ly In an unamiable manner unamusing, adj. [1. ʊnəməʊzɪŋ, 2. ʌnəməʊzɪŋ] un- (I) & amusing Not amusing unanalysable, adj. [1. ʊnənaɪzəbəl, 2. ʌnənaɪzəbəl] un- (I) & analyse & -able Not analysable, not capable of analysis or being analysed unanalysed, adj. [1. ʊnənaɪzɪd, 2. ʌnənaɪzɪd] un- (I) & analyse(d) Not analysed unanchor, vb trans & intrans. [1. ʊnəŋkər, 2. ʌnəŋkər] un- (I) & anchor 1 trans. To loosen, set free (ship), from an anchor or anchorage 2 intrans. To be set free from an anchor &c., to weigh anchor unaneled, adj. [1. ʊnəneɪld, 2. ʌnəneɪld] un- (I) & anele(d) (archaic) Not aneled, unanointed, without having the sacrament of extreme unction administered 'unhouse'd, disappointed, unaneled' (Shakespeare, 'Hamlet') unanimated, adj. [1. ʊnənaɪmətɪd, 2. ʌnənaɪmətɪd] un- (I) & animate(d) Not animated unannimater, adv. [1. ʊnənaɪmɪtər, 2. ʌnənaɪmɪtər] Lat, see next word. (law) Unanimously unanimity, n. [1. ʊnənaɪmɪtɪ, 2. ʌnənaɪmɪtɪ] fr Fr unanimité, fr Lat unanimitas(em), see unanimous & -ity unanimous, adj. [1. ʊnənaɪmɪs, 2. ʌnənaɪmɪs] fr Lat unanimitas, 'or one mind', fr unus, 'one', & animus 'mind', see unity, one, & animus 1 (of persons) Being of one mind, agreeing in opinion and decision the Cabinet was unanimous, the meeting was unanimous in refusing to listen to the speaker 2 Held, formed, passed, given with the agreement of all a unanimous vote of thanks, greeted with unanimous applause unanimously, adv. Preo & -ly In a unanimous manner, with unanimity unannealed, adj. [1. ʊnəneɪld, 2. ʌnəneɪld] un- (I) & anneal(ed) (of glass, metals) Not annealed, not heated first and then cooled slowly unannounced, adj. [1. ʊnənaʊnst, 2. ʌnənaʊnst] un- (I) & announce(d) Not announced, without previous announcement

UNANNOUNCED

[illegible]

unauthenticated, adj [1 unawthéntikátéd, 2 húspéntikátéd] un- (I) & authenticat- (a) Not authenticated, not shown or proved to be true unauthorized, adj [1 unáwthoríz, 2 andjoríz] un- (I) & authoriz- (a) Not authorized, having no proper authority or sanction unavailable, adj [1 unavábl, 2 ánavábl] un- (I) & available Not available, not within one's reach, not at one's disposal unavailing, adj [1 unaváling, 2 ánaváling] un- (I) & avail & -ing Not availing, not effectual or effective, fruitless, vain unavailingly, adv Preo & -ly In an unavailing manner, without avail, fruitlessly unavenged, adj [1 unavéngd, 2 ánavéngd] un- (II) & nvengo (d) Not avenged unavoidable, adj [1 unavóidabl, 2 ánavóidabl] un- (I) & avoidable 1 Not avoidable, incapable of being avoided, not to be prevented or escaped, inevitable 2 Not voidable, incapable of being rendered null and void unavoidably, adv Preo & -ly In an unavoidable manner, in a way that cannot be avoided unavowed, adj [1 unavónd, 2 ánavónd] un- (I) & avow (ed) Not avowed, not acknowledged, unconfessed unawakened, adj [1 unawákwnd, 2 ánawákwnd] un- (I) & awaken (ed) 1 Not awakened, not roused from sleep 2 Not yet aroused, dormant, quiescent unawakened passions, ambition &c unaware, adj [1 unawár, 2 ánawár] un- (I) & aware (only used prod) Not aware, not knowing or not knowing, ignorant, not aware to or conscious of unaware of their danger, they remained unaware that war was near unawares, adv [1 unawáraz, 2 ánawáraz] Preo & advbl suff e 1 Without knowing or noticing, unintentionally, undesignedly to do something unawares, he slew his father unawares 2 Without warning, unexpectedly, by surprise to be taken unawares, to take a person unawares, to be surprised, to surprise Plur at unawares, by surprise unbacked, adj [1 unbákt, 2 ánbákt] un- (I) & back (ed) Not backed 1 (of horse) Not ridden before, not broken in 2 a With out supporters or backers, unsupported, unaided, b (of horse in a race &c) having no bets made upon it unbag, vb trans [1 unbág, 2 ánbág] un- (II) & bag (II) To take out, let go, from a bag to unbag a ferret unbagged, adj [1 unbágd, 2 ánbágd] fr PP of preo 1 Let loose, taken out of a bag 2 Not placed or kept in a bag unbaked, adj [1 unbákt, 2 ánbákt] un- (I) & bake (d) A Not baked, b (fig) immature, crude unbalance, vb trans [1 unbálans, 2 ánbálans] un- (II) & balance (II) To upset, destroy, the balance of, to throw off or out of balance or equipoise, physical or mental the water jump will unbalance several of the riders, his financial anxieties went far to unbalance him (his mind) unbalanced (I), adj [1 unbálanst, 2 ánbálanst] fr PP of preo Thrown out of balance or equipoise, thrown, put, off one's balance, upset, unsteady (of physical or mental states) an unbalanced rider, sent on a horse, an unbalanced mind unbalanced (II), adj un- (I) & balance (d) Not balanced 1 a Not fitted with a balance or counterweight, not counterpoised rightly a pair of unbalanced scales, b (i) lacking balance or equipoise, unsteady an unbalanced type of character, (u) lacking restraint or poise an unbalanced style of writing 2 (commere) Not brought to a balance, not equal on debit and creditsides unbalanced books, accounts &c unballast, vb trans [1 unbálast, 2 ánbálast] un- (II) & ballast (II) To discharge, remove, the ballast from to unballast a ship, balloon &c unballasted (I), adj [1 unbálasted, 2 ánbálasted] PP of preo Freed from, discharged of, ballast, having discharged its ballast the ship, balloon, was by this time unballasted unballasted (II), adj un- (I) & ballast (od) Not ballasted, a not provided with ballast - as unballasted ship &c, an unballasted railway track, b unsteady, lacking ballast or a steadying influence an unballasted character, type of mind &c unbank, vb trans [1 unbángk, 2 ánbángk] un- (II) & bank (II) 1 (of fires, furnaces &c) To loosen, take away, the ashes banked on the top of a fire, so as to cause it to burn brightly again unbanked fire, furnace 2 (of rivers &c) To remove or damage the banks so as to cause an overflow unbanked, adj [1 unbángkt, 2 ánbángkt] un- (I) & bank (od) Not banked a having no banks or sides, b not placed in a bank unbanked cheques, money &c unbaptized, adj [1 unbáptízd, 2 ánbáptízd] un- (I) & baptize (d) Not baptized, not having received the sacrament of baptism unbar, vb trans [1 unbár, 2 ánbár] un- (II) & bar (II) To remove, take away, a bar or bars from, to unfasten, unbolt, to throw open to unbar a gate, door, unbar the prison, (also fig) get rid of tariffs and unbar the channels of trade, the path to knowledge is now unbarred unbarbed, adj [1 unbárbd, 2 ánbárbd] un- (I) & barb (ed) Not barbed, not furnished with barbs or reversed points unbarbered, adj [1 unbárbér, 2 ánbárbér] un- (I) & barber (ed) Not barbered, unshaven, unkempt unbark, vb trans [1 unbárk, 2 ánbárk] un- (II) & bark (I) To strip the bark from, to deprive of bark unbated, adj [1 unbátéd, 2 ánbátéd] un- (I) & bate (d) (rare or poet) Unbated, a not bated or abated, not diminished 'unbated fire' (Shakespeare, 'Merchant of Venice'), b (of weapon) not blunted, without a button on the point 'You may choose a sword unbated' (Shakespeare, 'Hamlet') unbathed, adj [1 unbádd, 2 ánbádd] un- (I) & bath (d) A Not bathed, unwashed, b not wetted, dry.

unbear, vb trans [1 unbár, 2 ánbár] un- (II) & bear (I) To remove or unloose the bearing run of a horse unbearable, adj [1 unbárábl, 2 ánbárábl] un- (I) & bearable Not bearable, not to be borne, intolerable, insupportable unbearably, adv Preo & -ly In an unbearable manner, to an unbearable extent unbearded, adj [1 unbéréd, 2 ánbéréd] un- (I) & beard (ed) Not bearded, a having no beard, beardless an unbearded face, youth, b not having beards or awns unbearded wheat, barley &c unbeaten, adj [1 unbét, 2 ánbét] un- (I) & beaten 1 Not fogged 2 Not beaten by the feet, untrodden Plur unbeaten track (i) an unexplored region of the earth, (u) (fig) unexplored region of thought, scientific investigation &c 3 a Unconquered an unbeaten army, b not surpassed or excelled in competition of any kind unbeaten as a tennis player, an unbeaten steeple-chaser, an unbeaten record unbeautiful, adj [1 unbáutíf, 2 ánbáutíf] un- (I) & beautiful Not beautiful, ngly, plain unbecoming, adj [1 unbekumung, 2 ánbekumung] un- (I) & becoming Not becoming, not suitable, unsuitable 1 Not befitting, unbecoming, not appropriate to, not suited for conduct unbecoming to a gentleman, expenditure, house &c unbecoming in a person of his class 2 Improper, unseemly, indecent unbecoming conduct, language 3 Not suiting, not suited to, detracting from the attractiveness of unbecoming style of dress, fashions &c, a pretty face spoiled by an unbecoming hat unbecomingly, adv Preo & -ly In an unbecoming manner, unsuitably, improperly unbecomingly, n See Preo & -ness unbed, vb trans [1 unbéd, 2 ánbéd] un- (II) & bed (II) To lift (plant), move from a bed unbedded, adj [1 unbédéd, 2 ánbédéd] un- (I) & bed (ded) Not bedded, a not placed or planted in a bed, b (archaeo) not brought to bed, unvadded, virgin, c (of stone) not firmly fixed on its bed, loosened from, not laid upon, its bed.

unbefitting, adj [1 unbéffítung, 2 ánbéffítung] un- (I) & befitting Not befitting, unbecoming unbefriended, adj [1 unbéfrénded, 2 ánbéfrénded] un- (I) & befriend (ed) Not befriended, not aided or helped by friends; friendless unbegotten, adj [1 unbégótn, 2 ánbégótn] un- (I) & begotten Not begotten, not generated, specif (of God) self-existent, eternal unbeguiled, adj [1 unbéglí, 2 ánbéglí] un- (I) & beguile (d) Not beguiled, not deceived unbeknown, unbeknownst, adj & adv [1 unbéknón (et), 2 ánbéknón (et)] un- (I), be-, & know & -n (slut or colloq, with to) 1 adj Unknown, not known 2 adv Without the knowledge of he did it unbeknownst to me unbelief, n [1 unbélf, 2 ánbélf] un- (I) & believe, ep OE ungelífa Withholding of belief or faith, refusal to believe, want of faith, disbelief, scepticism, esp in matters of religion or divine revelation 'He upbraided them with their unbelief' (Mark xvi 14) unbelievability, n [1 unbélfábílít, 2 ánbélfábílít] un- (I) & believable & -ity Condition of being unbelievable unbelievable, adj [1 unbélfábl, 2 ánbélfábl] un- (I) & believable Not believable, not to be believed, incredible unbelievably, adv Preo & -ly In an unbelievable manner, to an unbelievable degree or extent, incredibly unbeliever, n [1 unbélféver, 2 ánbélféver] un- (I) & believer One who does not or who refuses to believe, esp in religion or in a divine revelation, an infidel, pagan, a sceptic unbelieving, adj [1 unbélféving, 2 ánbélféving] un- (I) & believing Refusing to believe, not believing, incredulous, sceptical unbelievingly, adv Preo & -ly In an unbelieving manner unbeloved, adj [1 unbéluvd, 2 ánbéluvd] un- (I) & beloved Not beloved unbelt, vb trans [1 unbél, 2 ánbél] un- (II) & belt (II) 1 To remove, loosen, the belt of, to ungrd 2 To take off by loosening or removing a belt to unbelt a sword unbend, vb trans & intrans [1 unbénd, 2 ánbénd] un- (II) & bend (I) A trans.

1 a (in physical senses) To free, change, release, from a bent position, to straighten, flatten out to unbend a bow, by unstringing it, to unbend a link, staple &c, by hammering it flat, b (in non physical senses) to relax, relieve from effort, strain, or constraint to unbend the mind, to unbend oneself in congenial company 2 (nant) a To unfasten from yards and stays to unbend the sails, b to ease off or loose to unbend a cable, from the anchor, c to untie to unbend a rope B intrans 1 To become unbent, to cease to be bent, to become straight or flat the bow unbends when the string is loosened 2 To relax one's rigidity of being, to abandon coldness and constraint, to get rid of, behave without, stiffness of manner, to be affable he only unbends in the family circle unbending, adj [1 unbénding, 2 ánbénding] Preo Part of preo 1 A Not pliant or easily bent, stiff, rigid, b (fig, of character &c) not easily moved from one's intentions, unmovable, line of conduct &c, inflexible resolute, determined, unyielding, obstinate 'the stern unbending Tories' 2 Becoming relaxed from effort or constraint, becoming free from constraint or stiffness in manner, given, yielding, to relaxation or amusement a few unbending hours of ease, found him in a gay, unbending mood unbendingly, adv Preo & -ly In an unbending manner unbeneficed, adj [1 unbenéfíst, 2 anbenéfíst] un- (I) & benefice(d) Not beneficed, not holding an ecclesiastical benefice or incumbency the unbeneficed clergy unberufen, adj [1 ünberúfen, 2 unbrúfen] Mod Germ, 'not called, summoned' Phrase used to depreciate the intervention of fate, after boasting, making a too confident statement as to the future &c., a form of verbal warding off the unluck, corresponding to touching wood in the same circumstances unbeseeem, vb trans [1 ünbesém, 2 anbisém] un- (II) & beseeem (rare) To do anything unbecoming or unworthy of, to be unbecoming or unworthy of unbeseeeming, adj [1 ünbesémig, 2 anbisémig] un- (I) & beseeem & -ing Not beseeeming, unbefitting, unbecoming unbeseeemingly, adv Preo & -ly In an unbeseeeming manner unbesought, adj [1 ünbesáwt, 2 anbsáwt] un- (I) & besought, see beseech Not besought, not entreated, not asked for unbespoken, adj [1 ünbespóken, 2 anbispóken] un- (I) & bespoken See bespeak Not bespoken, not ordered or reserved in advance unbestowed, adj [1 ünbestód, 2 anbstód] un- (I) & bestow(ed) Not bestowed, not given unbias, vb trans [1 unbías, 2 anbiás] un- (II) & bias (rare) To free from, get rid of, bias or prejudice unbiased, unbiassed, adj [1 unbíast, 2 anbiást] un- (I) & bias & -ed Not biased, without preconceived notions, unprejudiced unbiblical, adj [1 unbíblík, 2 anbíblík] un- (I) & biblical Not biblical, not contained in the Bible, not authorized by the Bible unbidden, adj [1 unbídn, 2 anbídn] un- (I) & bid(dén) Not bidden, a not commanded, not ordered, freely given, spontaneous, b not invited, uninvited unbigoted, adj [1 unbígíted, 2 anbigéted] un- (I) & bigoted Not bigoted unbind, vb trans [1 unbínd, 2 anbáund] un- (II) & bind 1 a To unfasten, untie what was bound or fastened, to loose to unbind the ropes, b to release, free from bonds to unbind a prisoner, to unfasten she unbound her hair 2 To remove the binding from to unbind a book unbishop, vb trans [1 unbíshop, 2 anbíshop] un- (II) & bishop 1 To deprive of, degrade from, the rank and dignity of a bishop, to take away a bishopric the Queen threatened to unbishop him 2 To deprive of the rank of an episcopal see or bishopric to unbishop a diocese, cathedral town unbitt, vb trans [1 unbít, 2 anbít] See un- (II) & bitts To uncoil, unfasten, as the turns of rope or cable, from a bitt unbitted, adj [1 unbítet, 2 anbítet] un- (I) & bitt(ed) Not bitted, not restrained by a bit or bridle unbitten, adj [1 unbíten, 2 anbítan] un- (I) & bitten Not bitten unblamable, adj [1 unblámábl, 2 anblémábl] un- (I) & blame & -able Not blamable, blameless, innocent unbleached, adj [1 unblécht, 2 anbléft] un- (I) & bleach(ed) Not bleached, left in its natural colour unbleached calico unblemished, adj [1 unblómíht, 2 anblémíht] un- (I) & blemish(ed) Not blemished, a not marked with physical blemishes or stains, b morally pure, without fault, spotless an unblemished reputation, character &c unblended, adj [1 unblénded, 2 anblénded] un- (I) & blend(ed) Not blended, not mixed with other kinds, pure, unmixed unblessed, unblest, adj [1 unblést, 2 anblést] un- (I) & blessed, blest Not blessed or blest, accursed, unhappy unblock, vb trans [1 unblók, 2 anblók] un- (II) & block (II) To remove a block from, to clear away an obstacle or that which blocks unblooded, adj [1 unblúded, 2 anbláded] un- (I) & blood(ed) Not blooded, not having pure blood or descent, not thoroughbred an unblooded horse unbloody, adj [1 unblúdi, 2 anbládi] un- (I) & bloody Not bloody, a not stained or marked with blood, b not accompanied by bloodshed, specif, the unbloody sacrifice of the Eucharist, c not bloodthirsty unblotted, adj [1 unblótet, 2 anblótet] un- (I) & blot(ted) Not blotted, a not marked with blots or stains, b not blotted out, not erased or deleted unblown, adj [1 unblón, 2 anblóun] un- (I) & blow(n) Not blown, a not sounded, as of trumpet, signal by trumpet &c., b not in full bloom, not in flower, still in bud, c not exhausted by running, still having wind unblushing, adj [1 unblúshing, 2 anbláshing] un- (I) & blushing Not blushing, without a blush of shame, unashamed, shameless, barefaced unblushingly, adv Preo & -ly In an unblushing manner, shamelessly unblushingly, n See preo & -ness State, quality, of being unblushing, shamelessness unbodied, adj [1 unbodid, 2 anbdíed] un- (I) & (II) & -bodied Freed from the body, disembodied, incorporeal, spiritual unboiled, adj [1 unboíld, 2 anbdíld] un- (I) & boil(ed) Not boiled, not brought to the boiling-point unbolt, vb trans [1 unbólt, 2 anbdólt] un- (II) & bolt (II) To draw back the bolt or bolts of, to unfasten, open (a door &c.), by drawing back the bolt unbolted (I), adj [1 unbdólted, 2 anbdólted] un- (I) & bolted (I) Not bolted, not fastened by bolting unbolted (II), adj un- (I) & bolted (II) (of flour &c.) Not bolted, not sifted or strained, not having the bran removed unbone, vb trans [1 unbón, 2 anbdoun] un- (II) & bone (I) To rid of bone, to remove the bones from (meat) unbonnet, vb intrans & trans [1 unbónet, 2 anbdónet] un- (II) & bonnet (II) 1 intrans To remove one's bonnet or cap, to take off the hat as a salutation to unbonnet to a person 2 trans To remove the bonnet or hat from, esp by knocking it off unbonneted, adj [1 unbóneted, 2 anbdóneted] fr PP of preo Not bonneted, without a bonnet or cap on, bareheaded, uncovered unbookish, adj [1 unbookísh, 2 anbukísh] un- (I) & bookish Not bookish, a not devoted to books or reading, b not gaining knowledge from books alone, not depending merely on books unboot, vb trans & intrans [1 unbóot, 2 anbdót] un- (II) & boot (II) 1 trans To remove, take off the boots of, esp riding boots 2 intrans To take off one's boots unborn, adj [1 unborn, 2 anbón] un- (I) & born Not yet born, still to be born, future unborn generations unborrowed, adj [1 unbóréd, 2 anbdóred] un- (I) & borrow(ed) Not borrowed, not copied or plagiarized, original unbosom, vb trans [1 unbóozum, 2 anbudzum] un- (II) & bosom 1 To disclose, display, confess to unbosom one's feelings, thoughts, secrets &c 2 (reflex) To unbosom oneself, to open one's heart, to reveal one's intimate feelings, hopes, plans, to confess unbought, adj [1 unbáwt, 2 anbdót] un- (I) & bought Not bought, a not acquired by payment, given freely and without price, b not sold, left unsold, c not bought over or gained by money or bribes unbound (I), adj [1 unbdóund, 2 anbdáund] PP of unbind Freed from bonds or shackles the prisoner was left unbound unbound (II), adj un- (I) & bound (VI) Not bound, not in binding, loose (of books, papers &c) unbounded, adj [1 unbdóunded, 2 anbdáunded] un- (I) & bound (II) & -ed Not bounded, a not bounded by material confines or limits, limitless unbounded space, b unrestricted, unlimited, boundless unbounded pride, ambition, joy &c unboundedly, adv Preo & -ly In an unbounded manner unboundedness, n See preo & -ness State, quality, of being unbounded unbowed, adj [1 unbdóud, 2 anbdáud] un- (I) & bow(ed) 1 Not bowed, not bent or curved 2 Not conquered, undefeated, unbowed unbox, vb trans [1 unbdóks, 2 anbdáks] un- (II) & box (III) To take out of, remove from, a box unbrace, vb trans [1 unbrás, 2 anbrás] un- (II) & brace (II) 1 To free from a brace or braces, to loosen to unbrace the yards of a ship, a drum &c 2 To relax, to free from tension to unbrace the muscles, nerves &c, to unbrace the mind unbraced (I), adj [1 unbrást, 2 anbréíst] PP of preo Freed from a brace or braces unbraced (II), adj un- (I) & brace(d) a Not braced, without braces, b relaxed unbraid, vb trans [1 unbrád, 2 anbréid] un- (II) & braid (I) To separate the braids or strands of, to unfasten, unweave, the braids of, as of hair &c unbred, adj [1 unbréd, 2 anbréd] un- (I) & bred Not bred, a not begotten, not reared, unborn, b without breeding, ill-bred, c not bred up to, not trained or taught unbreech, vb trans [1 unbréech, 2 anbréech] un- (II) & breech A To remove the breeches of b to free the breech of a cannon from fastenings unbreeched, adj [1 unbréicht, 2 anbréíht] un- (I) & breech(ed) Not breeched, (of boy) not yet put into breeches or trousers, still in short clothes unbriable, adj [1 unbríabál, 2 anbráíabál] un- (I) & briable Not briable, not open to bribes, incorruptable unbridle, vb trans [1 unbrídl, 2 anbrádl] un- (II) & bridle (II) 1 To take off, loosen, the bridle of to unbridle a horse 2 (fig) To free from constraint or restraint to unbridle the tongue &c unbridled, adj [1 unbrídléd, 2 anbrádléd] un- (I) & bridle(d) Not bridled, not controlled, free from all restraint, esp (fig) violent unbridled passions, language &c unbroken, adj [1 unbróken, 2 anbróukan] un- (I) & broken Not broken 1 Not broken in two or up, not shattered, whole, intact an unbroken window, mast &c 2 Not subdued, not crushed or weakened unbroken spirit, morale 3 Not interrupted, continuous unbroken fine weather, sleep, peace 4 Not broken in, not trained to saddle or bridle an unbroken colt 5 (also unbroke) Not opened up by the plough, untilled, virgin unbroken soil, land 6 Not violated, kept unbroken promises, word, faith &c 7 Not surpassed, not beaten an unbroken record unbrotherliness, n [1 unbrúderlínes, 2 anbrádlínes] See next word & -ness State, quality, of being unbrotherly unbrotherly, adj [1 unbrúderlí, 2 anbrádlí] un- (I) & brotherly Not brotherly, not showing normal feelings of, or acting as, one brother to another, unfriendly unbuckle, vb trans [1 unbúkl, 2 anbdákl] un- (II) & buckle To unfasten the back of, to release from a buckle to unbuckle a strap, belt, shoe &c., to unbuckle a sword from its belt unburden, vb trans [1 unbúrdn, 2 anbúdn] un- (II) & burden (II) 1 To take away, remove, relieve of, e burden or load 2 (fig) To throw off, as e load, from the mind, by confession, disclosure to unburden one's heart, mind, conscience, to unburden one's heart to another unburdened, adj [1 unbúrdnd, 2 anbúdn] un- (I) & burden(ed) Not burdened, not weighed down, loaded, with cares, sins, secrets &c unburied (I), adj [1 unberíd, 2 anberíd] PP of unbury Disinterred, exhumed, dug up from the grave unburied (II), adj un- (I) & buried Not buried, not interred unburned, unburnt, adj [1 unbúrd, t, 2 anbúrd, -t] un- (I) & burn(ed), burn(t) Not burned, not burned up unbury, vb trans [1 unbéri, 2 anberí] un- (II) & bury To disinter, exhume unbusinesslike, adj [1 unbíznaulik, 2 anbíznaulik] un- (I) & business-like Not businesslike, lacking, not evincing, business capacity unbutton, vb trans [1 unbutn, 2 anbutn] un- (II) & button a To undo, unfasten, the buttons of, to open by disengaging the buttons from the buttonholes, b (fig) to unbind uncage, vb trans [1 unká, 2 ankáidz] un- (II) & cage (II) To release, set free, from a cage uncalled, adj [1 unkáwd, 2 ankáld] un- (I) & call(ed) Not called, not summoned, not invited uncalled-for, adj [1 unkáwd for, 2 ankáld fə] Not demanded or required by the situation and circumstances, gratuitous, impertinent, brought forward without excuse or reason, obtruded an uncalled for rebuke, insult, remark &c., his exhibition of temper was quite uncalled for uncandid, adj [1 unkándíd, 2 ankándíd] un- (I) & candid Not candid, not frank, open, or sincere, disingenuous uncandidly, adv Prec & -ly In an uncandid manner, not candidly uncannily, adv [1 unkanih, 2 ankanih] uncanny & -ly In an uncanny manner, weirdly, mysteriously uncanniness, n [1 unkánnis, 2 ankánnis] Next word & -ness State, quality, of being uncanny uncanny, adj [1 unkáni, 2 ankáni] un- (I) & canny Producing a sense of awe, mystery, dread, weird uncanonical, adj [1 únkánóníkl, 2 ankánóníkl] un- (I) & canonical Not canonical, a not according to the canon law, uncanonical hours, hours during which it is not allowed to hold a marriage service, b not contained in the canon of the Bible uncanonical books, the Apocrypha uncanonically, adv Prec & -ly In an uncanonical manner uncanonized (I), adj [1 unkáunóizd, 2 ankáunóizd] un- (I) & as next word Not canonized as e saint uncanonized (II), adj un- (II) & canonize(d) Deprived of the status of a canonized saint uncap, vb trans & intrans [1 unkáp, 2 ankap] un- (II) & cap 1 trans To take off the cap or cover from 2 intrans To take one's cap or hat off in salutation uncared-for, adj [1 unkárd for, 2 ankárd fə] un- (I) & care(d) (II) Not cared for, neglected uncart, vb trans [1 unkárt, 2 ankárt] un- (II) & cart 1 To discharge, unload, from a cart 2 (stag hunting) To set (deer) loose or free from the cart in which it is carried to the meet uncase, vb trans [1 unkás, 2 ankás] un- (II) & case To remove from a case or covering, epaol, to remove from the case and display (the colours of a regiment) uncatalogued, edj [1 unkátálgd, 2 ankátálgd] un- (I) & catalogue(d) Not catalogued, not appearing or found in any catalogue uncate, edj [1 únkát, 2 ánkést], fr Lat uncus, 'hook', & -ate, see uncinate

Hooked, uncinate

uncatched, adj [1 unkáwt, 2 ankót] un- (I) & caught Not caught, not captured or taken prisoner uncaused, edj [1 unkáwd, 2 enháwd] un- (I) & cause(d) Not caused, existing without an antecedent cause, self-existent, uncreated, eternal unceasing, adj [1 unséisng, 2 anseisng] un- (I) & cease & -ing Not ceasing, without ceasing or stopping, incessant, continual unceasingly, adv Prec & -ly In an unceasing manner, without ceasing, continually uncelabrated, adj [1 unsélebrétd, 2 anselebrétd] un- (I) & celebrate(d) a Not celebrated, not famous; b not observed or kept by celebrations uncensored, adj [1 unsénsurd, 2 ansénsurd] un- (I) & censor(ed) Not censored, published, printed &c without a censor's examination or permission uncensured, adj [1 unsénsurd, 2 ansénsurd] un- (I) & censure(d) Not censured, not blamed, exempt from censure or blame unceremonious, adj [1 unsérémóius, 2 anseimóius] un- (I) & ceremonious Not ceremonious, a without ceremony or formality, informal, easy, familiar an unceremonious gathering, entertainment, an unceremonious farewell, talked to me in a quite unceremonious way, b not expressing, observing, or practicing ceremony, hence also abrupt, discourteous, in manner he is rather too unceremonious for my taste, unceremonious treatment, a sharp, unceremonious dismissal unceremoniously, adv Prec & -ly In an unceremonious manner, without ceremony, familiarly, abruptly, rudely unceremoniousness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being unceremonious uncertain, adj [1 unsértin, 2 ansértin] un- (I) & certain Not certain 1 a Not certainly known, doubtful, problematical the date of their arrival is uncertain, the danger is plain, success is uncertain, Phr a lady of uncertain age, no longer young, yet not old, middle aged, b not having certain knowledge, not assured or sure of I am quite uncertain as to my movements, as to when I shall leave &c., he is uncertain of success 2 a Not certain or sure in action or purpose, undecided, vacillating, unsteady a person of uncertain character, his aim was somewhat uncertain, b liable to change, variable, not to be depended on, relied on, capricious, unreliable an uncertain temper, uncertain weather, he is a good golfer, but very uncertain uncertainly, adv Prec & -ly In an uncertain manner, not certainly, without certainty uncertainty, n [1 unsértinti, 2 ansértinti] un- (I) & certainty Condition, quality, of being uncertain, absence, lack, of certainty, a want of certain knowledge, state of not being sure or assured of to be in a state of uncertainty, uncertainty as to one's fate, as to results &c., legal Phr void for uncertainty, of bequests, documents &c, in which the intention is stated in terms too vague to be carried out with certainty, b state of not being certainly known or predictable, doubtful the uncertainty of life, c undependable ness, tendency to vary, esp uncertainty of temper uncertificated, adj [1 únsértifikátd, 2 anseitifikátd] un- (I) & certificate(d) Not certificated, not having obtained e certificate uncertified, adj [1 unsértifid, 2 ansértifid] un- (I) & certify & -ed. Not certified, not guaranteed unchain, vb trans [1 unchán, 2 antféin] un- (II) & chain To free, loose, from e chain, to unfasten the chain of unchallengeable, adj [1 unchálénjebl, 2 antshándzabl] un- (I) & challengeable Not challengeable, not to be challenged, called to account or question unchallenged, adj [1 unchálénjd, 2 antshándzjd] un- (I) & challenge(d) Not challenged, unquestioned, not disputed unchangeability, n [1 unchánjabilít, 2 antshéndzábilit] un- (I) & changeability State, quality, of being unchangeable, unchangeableness unchangeable, adj [1 unchánjebl, 2 antshéndzabl] un- (I) & changeable Not changeable, not liable to change, immutable unchangeableness, n Prec & -ness Unchangeability unchangeably, adv See prec & -ly In an unchangeable manner unchanged, edj [1 unchánjd, 2 antshéndzjd] un- (I) & changed(d) Not changed, unaltered, remaining the same unchanging, adj [1 unchánjng, 2 antshéndzjng] un- (I) & change & -ing Not changing, not varying, not liable to undergo change, invariable unchangingly, adv Prec & -ly In an unchanging manner, without changing uncharged, adj [1 unchárd, 2 antshéndzjd] un- (I) & charge(d) Not charged 1 Not loaded, not fitted with a charge 2 Not charged with a crime, not accused uncharitable, adj [1 unchárítábl, 2 antshérítábl] un- (I) & charitable Not charitable 1 (rare) Not disposed to alms giving, not giving generously to charitable objects 2 Not ruled by, or acting in accordance with, the virtue of charity, censorious, unforgiving, judging harshly of others uncharitableness, n Prec & -ness Quality of being uncharitable uncharitably, adv See prec & -ly In an uncharitable manner uncharted, adj [1 unchárted, 2 antshárted] un- (I) & chart(ed) a Not marked on a chart or map, b not mapped, not described or delineated on a chart or map unchartered, adj [1 unchárted, 2 antshárted] un- (I) & chartered Not chartered, not having a charter of incorporation, unlicensed unchary, adj [1 unchári, 2 antshári] un- (I) & chary Not chary, a not frugal or sparing, b not cautious, rash unchaste, adj [1 unchást, 2 antshást] un- (I) & chaste Not chaste, incontinent unchastely, adv Prec & -ly In an unchaste manner unchastened, adj [1 unchásend, 2 antshásend] un- (I) & chasten(ed) Not chastened unchastised, edj [1 unchestízd, 2 antshéstízd] un- (I) & chastise(d) Not chastised, unpunished unchastity, n [1 unchástita, 2 antshástiti] unchaste & -ity Want of chastity, incontinence, state, quality, of being unchaste unchecked, adj [1 unchekt, 2 antjekt] un- (I) & check(ed) Not checked 1 a Not stopped or reduced (in motion), b not disciplined, restrained, or controlled 2 Not examined or tested unchivalrous, adj [1 unshívlrus, 2 anshívlres] un- (I) & chivalrous Not chivalrous, wanting in chivalry unchristian, adj [1 unkríshan, 2 ankrístíjan] un- (I) & Christian Not Christian, a (rare) not belonging to the Christian religion, heathen, b not in accordance with the spirit of Christianity, unchristian, unbecoming a Christian unchristianize, vb trans [1 unkríshaníz, 2 ankrístíjaníz] un- (II) & christianize To cause to abandon Christianity unchristianly, adj & adv [1 unkríshanh, 2 ankrístíjanh] unchristian & -ly a adj Unchristian, b adv, in an unchristian way.

unchurch, vb trans [1 unchéròh, 2 ant[át]] un- (II) & church To deprive of the rights and privileges of the Church, to expel from the Church, to excommunicate uncia, n, pl unciæ [1 únsia, -s, 2 ánsia, -i] Lat, for uncia*, 'unity', fr únus, O Lat unus, 'one', see un-, & op inch (I) & ounce (I) (Rom antiq) One twelfth part, a of the libra or pound, an ounce, esp as coin, one twelfth of the as, b of the pes, or foot, an inch uncial, adj & n [1 unshal, unsiál, 2 ánjál, ánsiál], fr Lat uncialis, 'pertaining to an ounce or inch', preo & -al The term litterae unciales, 'letters an inch high', was used by St Jerome of very large letters, not necessarily an inch in height 1 adj Designating, pertaining to, consisting of, written in, a type of large MS letter, used from the 4th to the 9th centuries A D, differing from the capital 'majuscules' and the later cursive 'minuscules' 2 n a An uncial letter, b a MS written in uncial letters unciferous, adj [1 unsiíferus, 2 ánsiíferus], fr Lat uncus (us), 'hook', see uncus, & -ferous (zool) Bearing a hook or hook like structure unciform, adj [1 unsiíform, 2 ánsiíform] See preo & -form (anat and zool) Shaped like a hook, hook shaped uncinal, adj [1 unsiál, 2 ánsiál], fr L Lat uncin (us), variant of Lat uncus, 'hook', see uncus, & -al Hook like, uncinate uncinate, adj [1 unsiínat, 2 ánsiínat], fr Lat uncinát (us), fr uncinus, see preo (anat, bot, and zool) Hooked, bent like a hook, uncinate, bearing hooked spines or prickles uncircumcised, adj [1 unsiíkumsáizd, 2 ánsiíkumsáizd] un- (I) & circumcise(d) a Not having undergone the rite of circumcision, hence, non Jewish or Hebraic, Gentile, b (fig) unregenerate, heathen, pagan uncircumcision, n [1 unsiírkumsáizhun, 2 ánsiíkumsáizhun] un- (I) & circumcise(d) a Non circumcision, state of being uncircumcised, b (Bib) the uncircumcision, the Gentiles uncircumstantial, adj [1 unsiírkumstánsiál, 2 ánsiíkumstánsiál] un- (I) & circumstantial Not circumstantial, not given in detail, not examined in detail or going into details uncivil, adj [1 unsiívil, 2 ánsiívil] un- (I) & civil 1 Not civil or courteous, rude, impolite, ill-mannered uncivil language, manners, treatment &c 2 (rare) Not civilized, barbarian an uncivil state of society uncivilized, adj [1 unsiíviláizd, 2 ánsiíviláizd] un- (I) & civilize(d) Not civilized, barbarous, savage uncivily, adv [1 unsiívilí, 2 ánsiívilí] un- (I) & civil & -ly In an uncivil manner, rudely unclad, adj [1 unklád, 2 ánklád] un- (I) & clad, P P of clothe Not clad, unclothed unclaimed, adj [1 unkláimd, 2 ánkláimd] un- (I) & claim(ed) Not claimed unclasp, vb trans [1 unkláshp, 2 ánkláshp] un- (II) & clasp (I) To loose, unfasten, the clasp of, to open something fastened by a clasp, to open something clasped to unclasp a brooch, to unclasp a box, case &c, to unclasp one's hands unclassified, adj [1 unkláshst, 2 ánkláshst] un- (I) & class(ed) 1 Not classed, not placed in a class 2 Not placed first, second, or third in a competition unclassified, adj [1 unkláshst, 2 ánkláshst] un- (I) & classify & -ed Not classified, not arranged according to a classification uncle, n [1 unglí, 2 ánglí] A -Fr, Mod Fr oncle, fr Lat avunculus, 'one's mother's brother', lit 'a little grandfather', fr avus, 'grandfather', & suff -unculus, see atavis & op avuncular 1 a The brother of one's father or mother, b the husband of one's aunt Phr Uncle Sam, the United States of America, as personified in its government or a typical citizen 2 (Southern USA) A term of friendly or familiar address to an old negro Uncle Tom's Cabin. Uncle Remus

&c 3 (slang) The pawnbroker he has left his watch with his uncle, cp French slang, ma tante
uncle, suff, fr Lat -unculus, a variant of suff -culus, op carbuncle, furuncle &c, also uncule, as in homuncule, or as Lat, ranunculus unclean, adj [1 unklén, 2 ánklin] un- (I) & clean Not clean, a dirty, filthy, unwashed, b not ceremonially or ritually clean, c impure, unhaste, obscene uncleanliness, n [1 unklénlines, 2 ánklinlines] See next word & -ness State, quality, of being uncleanly uncleanly, adj [1 unklénli, -klénli, 2 ánklinli, -klínli] un- (I) & cleanly Not cleanly, having dirty habits, not attentive to cleanliness uncleaness, n [1 unklénnes, 2 ánklinnes] unclean & -ness State, quality, of being unclean, esp in a moral sense, impurity, unhastiness uncleared, adj [1 unklérd, 2 ánkliád] un- (I) & clear(ed) Not cleared 1 Not removed, not taken away, not freed from what should be cleared or removed this table is still uncleared, land uncleared of weeds, timber &c 2 Not acquitted, not freed from a charge or accusation his character remains uncleared of a terrible suspicion uncle, vb trans [1 unklénch, 2 ánklinch, 2 ánklin(t)], -kin(t)] un- (II) & clench, clinch To open, force open, what is clenched to uncle one's fist, teeth unclerical, adj [1 unkléríkl, 2 ánkliéríkl] un- (I) & clerical Not clerical, a not characteristic of the clergy, lay unclerical dress, b not fitting, unbecoming in, clerical very unclerical language uncleship, n [1 úngklship, 2 ángklíjp] uncles & -ship (rare) Condition, relationship, of an uncle uncle, See uncle uncloak, vb trans & intrans [1 unklók, 2 ánklok] un- (II) & cloak 1 trans To remove the cloak from, to uncover 2 intrans To take off one's cloak unclog, vb trans [1 unklóg, 2 ánklog] un- (II) & clog To free from a clog or obstruction, to remove that which clogs unclose, vb trans & intrans [1 unklóz, 2 ánkloz] un- (II) & close To open, unfasten unclosed, adj [1 unklózd, 2 ánkloz] un- (I) & close & -ed Not closed or shut, an open unclosed door, b not enclosed or shut in an unclosed view, a not finished or concluded an unclosed controversy, argument unclosed, adj [1 unklózhurd, 2 ánkloz] un- (I) & closure(d) Not closed, not ended by the use of the parliamentary closure unclothe, vb trans [1 unklódh, 2 ánklovd] un- (II) & clothe To remove, strip off, the clothes of, to divest of clothing unclothed, adj [1 unklódhd, 2 ánklovd] un- (I) & clothe(d) Not clothed, naked uncloved, adj [1 unklóvd, 2 ánklovd] un- (I) & cloud(ed) Not clouded, not obscured by mist or cloud, clear, bright uncloved skies, (also fig) bright, serene a life of uncloved happiness unclo, vb trans [1 unkluch, 2 ánkltf] un- (II) & clutch To disengage a clutch, to free from a clutch uncoc', adj, adv, & n [1 únkó, 2 ánkou] Scots variant of uncouth 1 adj Strange, wonderful, weird an uncoc' nichi 2 adv Very, exceedingly, remarkably, excessively uncoc' guid, exceedingly good, the uncoc' guid, excessively good people, usually with suggestion of hypocrisy 3 n An extraordinary, strange, remarkable person or thing uncock, vb trans [1 unkok, 2 ánk] un- (II) & cock (II) To lower the hammer of a cocked gun without discharging it uncoffined, adj [1 unkofind, 2 ánkófind] un- (I) & coffin(ed) Not enclosed in a coffin uncoil, vb trans & intrans [1 unkóil, 2 ánkóil] un- (II) & coil 1 trans To unwind, to unfasten the coils of to uncoil a rope 2 intrans To unwind, to come out of coils the snake slowly uncoiled uncoined, adj [1 unkóind, 2 ánkóind] un- (I) & coin(ed) Not coined, a not minted into coins uncoined silver, b (fig) not counterfeit, genuine, unfoined fellow of plain, uncoined constancy (Shakespeare, 'Henry V') uncollected, adj [1 ánkólkétd, 2 ánkélektí] un- (I) & collect(ed) Not collected, a not collected or gathered together, not brought to one place or point, scattered uncollected rays of light, b not gathered in, not demanded and received uncollected taxes, c not brought under control, disordered uncollected wits uncoloured, adj [1 unkulurd, 2 ánkáléd] un- (I) & colour(ed) Not coloured, a not painted in colours, left in natural colours, drawn in black and white, b (fig) not exaggerated, not heightened by imagination, related with simplicity and truth, plain, unvarnished a plain uncoloured tale uncombed, adj [1 unkómd, 2 ánkómd] un- (I) & comb(ed) Not combed, tangled, unkempt uncombined, adj [1 unkombind, 2 ánkómbóind] un- (I) & combine(d) Not combined, not formed into a combination or compound un-come-at-able, adj [1 ánkóm átabl, 2 ánkóm átabl] (colloq) Not to be come at, not attainable, inaccessible uncomeliness, n [1 unklumlines, 2 ánkamlínes] uncomely & -ness State, quality, of being uncomely, a want of beauty, plainness, ugliness, b lack of decency or seemliness, uncomeliness uncomely, adj [1 unklumli, 2 ánkámli] un- (I) & comely Not comely, a not beautiful or graceful, plain, ugly, b not seemly or becoming, indecent uncomfortable, adj [1 unklumfórtabl, 2 ánkámfórtabl] un- (I) & comfortable Not comfortable, physically or mentally, a feeling, experiencing, discomfort, disagreeably placed or situated, uneasy to be uncomfortable in tight boots, to feel uncomfortable with strangers, about the political situation &c, b causing discomfort or uneasiness, awkward an uncomfortable hat, seat, the country is in an uncomfortable predicament, an uncomfortable prospect of increased taxation uncomfortableness, n See preo & -ness State, quality, of being uncomfortable, discomfort uncomfortably, adv See preo & -ly In an uncomfortable manner uncomforted, adj [1 unklumfórted, 2 ánkámfórted] un- (I) & comfort(ed) Not comforted, unconsolated uncommendable, adj [1 ánkóméndabl, 2 ánkáméndébl] un- (I) & commendable Not commendable, not to be commended, not worthy of commendation uncommercial, adj [1 unklómérshl, 2 ánkómérshl] un- (I) & commercial Not commercial, a not engaged in, not pertaining to, commerce or trade an uncommercial nation, uncommercial interests, underling &c, b not in accordance with commercial principles or usage an uncommercial system of taxation, c not actuated by desire of financial profit very uncommercial in his aims uncommissioned, adj [1 ánkómíshnd, 2 ánkámíshnd] un- (I) & commission(ed) Not commissioned, not entrusted with a commission or duty, not authorized uncommitted, adj [1 unklómít, 2 ánkómít] un- (I) & commit(ed) Not committed 1 Not done, not effected scarcely a crime left uncommitted 2 Not pledged or bound (to) he is still uncommitted to any definite course of action 3 Not referred to a parliamentary committee, not yet in the committee stage the bill remains uncommitted uncommon, adj & adv [1 unkómun, 2 ankómén] un-(I) & common (I) 1 adj Not common, a not commonly found, or occurring, infrequent, rare an uncommon bird, b not usual, strange, extraordinary, remarkable an uncommon act of courage, charity &c 2 adv (colloq, illit) Uncommonly, remarkably I feel uncommon queer, uncommon good beer in this pub uncommonly, adv Preo & -ly 1 In an uncommon manner, not commonly, in frequently, rarely a bird uncommonly found in England 2 To an uncommon degree, remarkable, very it is uncommonly cold for the time of year, an uncommonly tall man uncommonness, n State, quality, of being uncommon, infrequency, rarity, strangeness uncommunicable, adj [1 unkómúnikabl, 2 ankámjúnikabl] un-(I) & communicable Not communicable, not to be communicated, incapable of being imparted or shared uncommunicated, adj [1 unkómúnikáted, 2 ankámjúnikáted] un-(I) & communicate(d) Not communicated, a not disclosed or made known to others, b not imparted to, not shared with, others uncommunicative, adj [1 unkómúnikativ, 2 ankámjúnikativ] un-(I) & communicative Not communicative, not disposed to communicate information, reserved, taciturn uncommunicativeness, n Preo & -ness State, quality, of being uncommunicative uncompanionable, adj [1 unkompánjúbl, 2 ankampénjúbl] un-(I) & companionable Not companionable, unsociable uncomplaining, adj [1 unkompáiníng, 2 ankámpléiníng] un-(I) & complain & -ing Not complaining, making no complaints, patient long suffering uncomplainingly, adv Preo & -ly In an uncomplaining manner, without complaint, resignedly uncomplaisant, adj [1 unkomp lásánt, 2 ankámplásánt] un-(I) & complaisant Not complaisant, not obliging or courteous uncomplaisantly, adv Preo & -ly In an uncomplaisant manner uncompleted, adj [1 unkompiléted, 2 ankámpléted] un-(I) & complete(d) Not completed, not finished, incomplete uncomplicated, adj [1 unkompplikáted, 2 ankámplikéted] un-(I) & complicate Not complicated, not involved or intricate, simple uncomplimentary, adj [1 unkompplémentari, 2 ankámplémentari] un-(I) & complimentary Not complimentary, rude, discourteous uncompounded, adj [1 unkompóundéd, 2 ankámpróundéd] un-(I) & compound(ed) Not compounded, not formed into a compound unmixed, simple uncomprehensive, adj. [1 unkomprihénsiv, 2 ankámpríhénsiv] un-(I) & comprehensive Not comprehensive 1 Not inclusive of a large number or quantity 2 (rare) Not able to comprehend or understand uncompromising, adj [1 unkómpromízing, 2 ankámprómáizíng] un-(I) & compromise & -ing Not compromising, a not given to making compromises, admitting of no compromise, b inflexible, determined, decided, unyielding, strict uncompromisingly, adv Preo & -ly In an uncompromising manner, without compromise unconcealed, adj [1 unkónséléd, 2 ankónséléd] un-(I) & conceal(ed) Not concealed, shown, displayed, openly unconcern, n [1 unkónsérn, 2 ankónsáin] un-(I) & concern. Absence of, freedom from, concern, anxiety, care, indifference, apathy he regards such matters with complete unconcern unconcerned, adj [1 unkónsérnd, 2 ankónsáin] un-(I) & concern(od) Not concerned 1 a Unconcerned in, not implicated, uninvolved, not taking part in he was unconcerned in the conspiracy, b unconcerned with, not interested in, not affected by to be unconcerned with politics 2 Unconcerned about, free from concern or anxiety, easy in mind to be unconcerned about the future 3 (absol) Unperturbed, unmoved, apathetic unconcernedly, adv [1 unkónsérnedli, 2 ankónsáinli] Preo & -ly In an unconcerned manner, indifferently, without concern uncondemned, adj [1 unkondémnd, 2 ankondémnd] un-(I) & condemn(od) Not condemned, a not found guilty or sentenced to punishment, b not blamed or disapproved of uncondensed, adj [1 unkondénsat, 2 ankondént] un-(I) & condense(d), Not condensed unconditional, adj [1 unkondíshnnal, 2 ankondíshnnal] un-(I) & conditional Not conditional, not subject to or limited by conditions or reservations, absolute, not dependent on terms demanded an unconditional surrender, gave an unconditional refusal, made an unconditional offer to purchase unconditionality, n [1 unkondíshnnálítá, 2 ankondíshnnálítá] Preo & -ity State, quality, of being unconditional unconditionally, adv [1 unkondíshnnali, 2 ankondíshnnali] See preo & -ly Without conditions or terms, absolutely to surrender, accept, unconditionally unconditioned, adj [1 unkondíshund, 2 ankondíshund] un-(I) & condition(ed) Not conditioned, not subject to conditions, unconditional, specif (philos) not subject to limitations or relations, absolute, infinite unconfessed, adj [1 unkónfést, 2 ankónfíst] un-(I) & confesse(ed) Not confessed, a not acknowledged or admitted an unconfessed crime, b not having confessed one's sins and received absolution to die unconfessed unconfined, adj [1 unkónfínd, 2 ankónfáind] un-(I) & confine(d) Not confined, a not fastened up, loose, free with trees unconfined, b unrestricted, not subject to restrictions and limitations, free, unchecked thoughts and speculations unconfined by prejudice or fear unconfirmed, adj [1 unkónfírméd, 2 ankónfáiméd] un-(I) & confirm(ed) Not confirmed 1 Not corroborated, not established by authoritative statement unconfirmed rumours 2 Not having received the rite of confirmation unconformability, n [1 unkónfórmáblítá, 2 ankónfórmáblítá] See next word & -ity State, quality, of being unconformable unconformable, adj [1 unkónfórmabl, 2 ankónfórmabl] un-(I) & conformable Not conformable, not conforming, not consistent, specif (geol) exhibiting unconformity unconformable strata unconformably, adv Preo & -ly In an unconformable manner, without conformity unconformity, n [1 unkónfórmítá, 2 ankónfórmítá] un-(I) & conformity Want, absence, of conformity, specif (geol) break in continuity in series of strata, due to interruption of the process of formation unconfused, adj [1 unkónfúzd, 2 ankónfúzd] un-(I) & confuse(d) Not confused, a free from confusion or disorder, b not embarrassed unconfusedly, adv [1 unkónfúzdli, 2 ankónfúzdli] Preo & -ly Not in a confused manner, without confusion or embarrassment uncongenial, adj [1 unkónjénial, 2 ankónjénial] un-(I) & congenial Not congenial, a not sympathetic, not agreeing with one's character, temperament &c in uncon- genial company, b distasteful, repugnant an uncongenial task uncongeniality, n [1 unkónjénialítá, 2 ankónjénialítá] Preo & -ity State, quality, of being uncongenial uncongenially, adv [1 unkónjéniali, 2 ankónjéniali] See preo & -ly In an uncongenial manner unconnected, adj [1 unkónéktéd, 2 unkónéktéd] un-(I) & connect(ed) Not connected, a not joined or linked physically together, separated unconnected lines of railway, b not joined by a chain of causation events seemingly unconnected, c not allied by ties of relationship families bearing the same name but unconnected, d not logically connected, incoherent, disconnected, disjointed, rambling an unconnected narrative, loose, unconnected arguments unconnectedly, adv Preo & -ly In an unconnected manner, without connexion unconquerable, adj [1 unkóngkórabl, 2 ankóngkórabl] un-(I) & conquerable Not conquerable, incapable of being conquered or subdued, indomitable, invincible unconquerably, adv Preo & -ly So as to be unconquerable, invincibly unconquered, adj [1 unkóngkéréd, 2 ankóngkéréd] un-(I) & conquer(ed) Not conquered, unsubdued, undefeated unconscientious, adj [1 unkónsbiénshns, 2 ankónjénjénjé] un-(I) & conscientious Not conscientious, unscrupulous unconscientiously, adv Preo & -ly In an unconscientious manner, unscrupulously unconscientiousness, n See preo & -ness State, quality, of being unconscientious unconscionable, adj [1 unkónshunabl, 2 ankónshunabl] un-(I) & conscionable, 'governed by conscience, scrupulous, reasonable', formed irregularly fr conscience 1 a Not governed or restrained by conscience, unscrupulous unconscionable usurers, unconscionable subterfuges, b (law) unfair, exceeding the limits of conscientious dealing an unconscionable bargain 2 Not reasonable, excessive, inordinate 'an unconscionable time a dying' (Charles II) unconscionably, adv Preo & -ly In an unconscionable manner, to an unconscionable degree unconscious, adj [1 unkónshns, 2 ankónfjé] un-(I) & conscious Not conscious 1 (with of) Not knowing, not alive to, unaware they were unconscious of any danger, unconscious of one's mistake, of one's absurd appearance &c 2 Deprived of consciousness, in a state when all power of perception is lost after the accident he was unconscious for several days, he still remains in an unconscious condition 3 Not apprehended or realized by the consciousness, not the result of will, not deliberately intended unconscious humour 4 Taking place, carried out, without the participation of conscious will, involuntary unconscious movements, unconscious cerebration, working of the mind without conscious effort the unconscious, as n, in psychology and psycho analysis, the unconscious elements and working of the mind, as distinct from and in contrast with the conscious 5 Non conscious, not possessed of self consciousness or of perception unconscious nature unconsciously, adv Preo & -ly Not consciously, in an unconscious manner, without consciousness unconsciousness, n See preo & -ness Condition of being unconscious, absence, lack, of consciousness unconsecrated, adj [1 unkónsékretéd, 2 ankónsékretéd] un-(I) & consecrate(d) Not consecrated unconsenting, adj [1 unkónséntíng, 2 ankónséntíng] un-(I) & consent & -ing Not consenting, withholding consent, non acquiescent unconsidered, adj [1 unkónsídéréd, 2 ankónsídéd] un-(I) & consider(ed) Not considered, disregarded, not taken into consideration, negligible unconstitutional, adj [1 unkonstitushunal, 2 anknstitushunal] un- (I) & constitutional Not constitutional, not in accordance with, opposed to, the principles of the constitution of a state unconstitutionality, n [1 unkonstitushunali, 2 anknstitushunali] Preo & -ity Quality of being unconstitutional unconstitutionally, adv [1 unkonstitushunali, 2 anknstitushunali] See preo & -ly In an unconstitutional manner, in breach of the constitution unconstrained, adj [1 unkonstrand, 2 ankonstrand] un- (I) & constrain(ed) Not constrained 1 Free from restraint or compulsion, free to act or not 2 Not done under compulsion, done voluntarily 3 Free from constraint of manner, unembarrassed, not self-conscious, easy unconstrainedly, adv [1 unkonstrandli, 2 ankonstrandli] Preo & -ly In an unconstrained manner unconsumed, adj [1 unkonsumd, 2 ankansumd] un- (I) & consume(d) Not consumed unconsummated, adj [1 unkonsumatd, 2 anknsumatd] un- (I) & consummate(d) Specif (of marriage) not consummated uncontainable, adj [1 unkontanabl, 2 ankontanabl] un- (I) & contain & -able Not containable, not to be contained or held in, irrepressible uncontaminated, adj [1 unkontaminatd, 2 ankontaminatd] un- (I) & contaminate(d) Not contaminated, pure, unsullied (in material and spiritual sense) uncontemplated, adj [1 unkontemplatd, 2 ankontemplatd] un- (I) & contemplate(d) Not contemplated, not expected uncontested, adj [1 unkontestd, 2 ankontestd] un- (I) & contest(ed) Not contested, specif, an uncontested election, one without a rival candidate uncontracted, adj [1 unkontraktetd, 2 ankontraktetd] un- (I) & contract(ed) Not contracted, not shrunk or made smaller uncontradicted, adj [1 unkontradiktetd, 2 ankontradiktetd] un- (I) & contradict(ed) Not contradicted, not denied, undisputed uncontrollability, n [1 unkontrolabli, 2 ankontrolabli] See next word & -ity State of being uncontrollable uncontrollable, adj [1 unkontrolabl, 2 ankontrolabl] un- (I) & controllable Not controllable, incapable of being controlled or restrained, ungovernable, unmanageable an uncontrollable temper, uncontrollable children &c uncontrollably, adv Preo & -ly In an uncontrollable manner, beyond control uncontrolled, adj [1 unkontrolid, 2 ankontrolid] un- (I) & control(ed) Not controlled, free from control, unrestrained uncontrolledly, adv [1 unkontrolidli, 2 ankontrolidli] Preo & -ly In an uncontrolled manner, without control or restraint, freely uncontroversial, adj [1 unkontrovserahl, 2 ankontrovserahl] un- (I) & controversial Not controversial, not a subject of, or giving rise to, controversy uncontroverted, adj [1 unkontrovvertetd, 2 ankontrovvertetd] un- (I) & controvert(ed) Not controverted, undisputed, indisputable unconventional, adj [1 unkonvensionunal, 2 ankonvensionunal] un- (I) & conventional Not conventional, a not in strict accordance with established custom and usage, b free and easy in manner, not strictly observant of the accepted rules and customs in manners, dress &c unconventionality, n [1 unkonvensionunali, 2 ankonvensionunali] Preo & -ity Condition of being unconventional, freedom from established custom or usage unconventionally, adv [1 unkonvensionunali, 2 ankonvensionunali] See preo & -ly In an unconventional manner unconversable, adj [1 unkonversabl, 2 ankonversabl] un- (I) & conversable Not conversable, not free or easy in conversation, not easy to get on with, unsociable unconversant, adj [1 unkonversent, 2 ankonversent] un- (I) & conversant Not conversant, not familiarly acquainted with unconverted, adj [1 unkonvertetd, 2 ankonvertetd] un- (I) & convert(ed) Not converted 1 Not changed into or exchanged for another substance or body, not changed in substance or form 2 Not changed or converted in mind or heart, a not brought into acquaintance with Christianity or other specified religion, still in a state of heathendom, specif b not having undergone conversion in special sense, not having felt the workings of faith and religion in the heart, or realized the inward truth of these 3 Not persuaded of, brought round to, some specified body of opinion unconvertible, adj [1 unkonvertibl, 2 ankonvertibl] un- (I) & convertible Not capable of being converted or changed into something else, specif uses a (of any form of money) not convertible into another form, b unconvertible terms, not capable of being used one for the other, not synonymous unconvinced, adj [1 unkonvinst, 2 ankonvinst] un- (I) & convince(d) Not convinced, unpersuaded unconvincing, adj [1 unkonvinsng, 2 ankonvinsng] un- (I) & convincing Not convincing, not bringing conviction unconvincingly, adv Preo & -ly In an unconvincing manner uncooked, adj [1 unkookt, 2 ankukt] un- (I) & cook(ed) Not cooked, raw uncord, vb trans [1 unkord, 2 ankord] un- (II) & cord To unfasten, undo knots, and remove cords from (a box, trunk &c) uncork, vb trans [1 unkork, 2 ankork] un- (II) & cork a To draw the cork from, take the cork out of to uncork a bottle of wine, b (colloq) to set loose what is bottled up, to give vent to to uncork one's feelings uncorrected, adj [1 unkorrektd, 2 ankorrektd] un- (I) & correct(ed) Not corrected, not revised, not rebuked uncorroborated, adj [1 unkorboratd, 2 ankorboratd] un- (I) & corroborate(d) Not corroborated, unconfirmed uncorroded, adj [1 unkorodetd, 2 ankorodetd] un- (I) & corrode(d) Not corroded, not impaired by rust, not acted on by acid uncorrupted, adj [1 unkoruptetd, 2 ankoruptetd] un- (I) & corrupt(ed) Not corrupted, a not putrefied, b not morally corrupted, not bought with bribes uncorruptible, adj [1 unkoruptibl, 2 ankoruptibl] un- (I) & corruptible Not corruptible, not liable to moral corruption, incorruptible uncountable, adj [1 unkountabl, 2 ankountabl] un- (I) & count & -able Not countable, not to be counted, unnumerable, countless uncounted, adj [1 unkountetd, 2 ankountetd] un- (I) & count(ed) Not counted, unnumbered uncountenanced, adj [1 unkountenanst, 2 ankountenanst] un- (I) & countenance(d) Not countenanced, unsupported by others, not sanctioned uncouple, vb trans [1 unkupl, 2 ankupl] un- (II) & couple (II) a To loose from a couple or leash to uncouple greyhounds, b to disconnect from couplings, to separate to uncouple railway trucks uncoupled, adj [1 unkupld, 2 ankupld] un- (I) & couple(d) Not coupled, not joined together, disconnected uncourteous, adj [1 unkorteus, 2 ankorteus,

2 ankorteus, 2 ankorteus] un- (I) & courteous Not courteous, discourteous, rude uncourteously, adv Preo & -ly In an uncourteous manner, discourteously, rudely uncourteousness, n See preo & -ness Want of courtesy, discourtesy uncourtliness, n [1 unkortlines, 2 ankortlines] See next word & -ness State of being uncourtly, want, absence, of courtliness uncourtly, adj [1 unkorth, 2 ankorth] un- (I) & courtly Not courtly, not trained in, or used to, the manners of a court, unpolished, unrefined uncouth, adj [1 unkoeth, 2 ankup] O E uncūth, 'unknown, strange', un- (I) & cūþ, 'known', cp O S cūð, O H G chund, Goth lunþs, fr base seen in cunning, can (I), cp also know 1 (archaic and obs) Unknown, strange, unfamiliar, mysterious Find out His uncouth way (Milton, 'P L' II 407) 2 Awkward, unrefined, clumsy, boorish as uncouth rustic, of uncouth manners, appearance &c uncouthly, adv Preo & -ly In an uncouth manner uncouthness, n See preo & -ness State, quality, of being uncouth uncovenanted, adj [1 unkovenantetd, 2 ankovenantetd] un- (I) & covenant(ed) Not covenanted, 1 Not founded on, not promised by, a covenant, specif (theol) uncovenanted mercies of God, mercies of salvation extended by God to those outside the Covenant of Grace and Redemption through Christ 2 Not bound by a covenant or agreement, specif, Uncovenanted Civil Service, a branch of the Indian Civil Service, members of which are appointed without examination, have no right to a pension, and may retire at will uncover, vb trans & intrans [1 unkuver, 2 ankave] un- (II) & cover (I) A trans. 1 a To remove a cover or covering from: to uncover a dish of food, to uncover a protected cricket pitch &c, b to remove the covering from (any part of the body) to uncover the face, feet &c, esp to uncover the head, uncover oneself, to take off the hat or other head covering as a sign of salutation or respect 2 a (by trans or fig) To lay open to view, to disclose, lay bare to uncover one's position, to uncover one's heart to, specif b (mil) to disclose position of troops by deploying to right and left the leading lines which cover them 3 To remove cover or protection from, to leave unguarded, unprotected. B intrans To take off the hat or other head covering as a salutation or in token of respect everyone uncovered when the signal sounded uncovered, adj [1 unkuverd, 2 ankaved] un- (I) & cover(ed) Not covered, a devoid of cover, bare, unprotected the position lies quite uncovered and open to attack, b with the hat off to stand uncovered uncoveted, adj [1 unkuvetd, 2 ankavetd] un- (I) & covet(ed) Not coveted uncowl, vb trans [1 unkowl, 2 ankawl] un- (II) & cowl a To remove the cowl from to uncowl one's face, head, b to take the cowl away from, to deprive of right to wear the cowl to uncowl a monk uncreate (I), vb trans [1 unkreat, 2 ankreat] un- (II) & create (rare) To reverse the process of creation in respect of, wipe out of existence, annihilate 'Who do n uncreate thee thou shalt know' (Milton, 'P L' v 895) uncreate (II), adj un- (I) & (archaic) create(d) Not created, uncreated 'The Father uncreate, the Son uncreate' (St Athanasian Creed) uncreated, adj [1 unkreatetd, 2 ankreatetd] un- (I) & create(d) 1 Not yet created, not existing, non-existent 2 Self-existing, existing eternally, existing, having its origin, independently of creation, uncreated uncredited, adj [1 unkreditd, 2 ankreditd] un- (I) & credit(ed) Not credited, not believed.

uncrippled, adj [1 unkripld, 2 ankripld] un-(I) & cripple(d) Not crippled, a not lamed, not injured in the limbs hands, feet, uncrippled by gout, b not damaged or injured, not prevented by injury or loss from movement or activity the ships remained uncrippled by the heavy fire, the business is uncrippled in spite of the heavy loss incurred uncritical, adj [1 unkritikl, 2 unkritikl] un-(I) & critical Not critical, a not disposed, unwilling, to criticize an enthusiastic and uncritical audience, b not capable of criticism, wanting in powers of critical judgment, unable to criticize the uncritical applause of the uneducated, c not according to the rules or principles of criticism an uncritical appreciation, estimate, review &c uncritically, adv Proo & -ly In an uncritical manner uncriticized, adj [1 unkritisizd, 2 ankritisizd] un-(I) & criticize(d) Not criticized, not subjected to criticism uncropped, adj [1 unkropt, 2 ankropt] un-(I) & crop(ped) Not cropped 1 (of land) Not sown, planted, with crops 2 (of crops) Not reaped, gathered in, or harvested 3 (of hair, ears) Not trimmed, not lopped or cut short uncross, vb trans [1 unkruws, 2 ankruws] un-(II) & cross To change from a crossed position, to put straight what is crossed to uncross one's legs uncrossed, adj [1 unkruwt, 2 ankruwt] un-(I) & cross(ed) Not crossed 1 Not placed across one another knives must lie uncrossed on the table 2 (of cheque) Not crossed so as to indicate that it must be paid through an account at a bank 3 Not thwarted, not opposed a rapid rise to power uncrossed by any rivals uncrown, vb trans [1 unkroun, 2 ankroun] un-(II) & crown To deprive of a crown, to dethrone, depose from position as king (lit and fig) uncrowned, adj [1 unkround, 2 ankround] un-(I) & crown(ed) Not crowned, a not yet crowned, not having gone through the ceremony of coronation, b having the power but not the title of king some called Parnell the uncrowned king of Ireland unction, n [1 ینگکھن, 2 ینگکھن] O Fr, Mod Fr onction, fr Lat unction (sm), 'anointing', fr unct (un), P P type of ungere, 'to anoint', see unguent, & -ion 1 Act of anointing with oil as a ceremony or rite or symbol of consecration, a in the sacrament given to the dying in the Roman Catholic and Orthodox Churches, the blessed oil being applied to the head, hands, feet, and chest Extreme Unction, b in the coronation of the king 2 Act of applying, by rubbing or smearing, oil, ointment, or unguent for medical purposes 3 A that which is used in anointing, an oil, ointment, or unguent, b (fig) anything which soothes or assuages 'Lay not that flattering unction to your soul' (Shakespeare, 'Hamlet')

4 A quality in language, voice, manner, or style which expresses or evokes deep feeling or fervour, esp religious fervour unction is no longer admired in a preacher, the sermons of today lack unction, b exaggerated, affected, fervour, insincere emotion, sympathy or suavity, gush, unctuousness the unction of a Peck'suff, o relish, gusto, enjoyment an onusung story told with unction unctuous, adj [1 ینگکھس, 2 ینگکھس] fr O Ir unctuus, Mod Fr unctueux, fr L unctuosus, fr Lat unctus, 'anointing, unguent', see prec & -ous 1 Of the nature of an unguent or ointment, a greasy, oily, b having a capy, greasy feeling or touch, as some minerals, eg fuller's earth soptose &c 2 Full of unction, esp of simulated, exaggerated fervour or emotion, insincerely suave or gushing an unctuous person, a unctuous voice manner &c unctionally, adv Proo & -ly In an unctious manner, with affected, exaggerated, unction.

unctuousness, n See prec & -ness Condition, quality, of being unctuous (lit and fig) unculled, adj [1 unkuld, 2 ankuld] un-(I) & cull(ed) Not culled, ungathered, not separated uncultivable, adj [1 unkultivabl, 2 ankultivabl] un-(I) & cultivable Not cultivable, not capable of cultivation or tillage uncultivated, adj [1 unkultivatd, 2 ankultivatd] un-(I) & cultivate(d) Not cultivated 1 Not tilled, not employed for agricultural purposes, production of food &c uncultivated land 2 (fig) a Not practised, not promoted, neglected uncultivated art, talents &c, b not improved or fostered by study, care &c an uncultivated genius 3 Not civilized, barbarous, rude, uncultured uncultivated, n uncultivated races, not refined by instruction and education uncultured, adj [1 unkulchurd, 2 ankultjad] un-(I) & culture(d) Not cultured, uneducated, uncultivated uncurb, vb trans [1 unkurb, 2 ankurb] un-(II) & curb To free from a curb, to loosen the curb of, to ride on the snaffle only to uncure a horse, (also fig) to unloose, let loose from control to uncure one's passions uncurbed, adj [1 unkurbd, 2 ankurbd] un-(I) & curb(ed) Not curbed, a not provided with a curb an uncurbed bridle, b (fig) not checked or controlled, unrestrained uncurbed passions, ambitions &c uncurl, vb trans & intrans [1 unkurl, 2 ankurl] un-(II) & curl 1 trans To put, take, out of curl, to straighten out from curl 2 intrans A To come out of curl, come uncurled, to become straight, b to unroll, come out of a curled up posture uncoursed, adj [1 unkurst, 2 ankurst] un-(I) & course(d) Not coursed, free from a course uncurtailed, adj [1 unkertald, 2 ankertald] un-(I) & curtail(ed) Not curtailed, not cut short, unabbreviated, existing, given, in full uncertain, vb trans [1 unkertain, 2 ankertain] un-(II) & certain To remove a curtain from, to draw aside the curtains of, to disclose, reveal uncurtained, adj [1 unkertaind, 2 ankertaind] un-(I) & curtain(ed) Not curtained, a having no curtains, b having the curtains drawn aside or back uncus, n, pl unci [1 ینگکھس, 2 ینگکھس, 3 ینگکھس] Lat, 'hook', fr Gk όγκος, see also under angle (I) (anat, zool) A hook, barb, a hook like appendage or process uncushioned, adj [1 unkushund, 2 ankushund] un-(I) & cushion(ed) Not cushioned, not provided with, not resting on, cushions, not padded uncustomary, adj [1 unkustumari, 2 ankustumari] un-(I) & customary Not customary, not according to the usual custom uncustomed, adj [1 ankustumd, 2 ankustumd] un-(I) & custom(od) 1 Not habit to, or charged with, customs duty 2 Not having paid customs duty uncut, adj [1 unkut, 2 ankut] un-(I) & cut (I) Not cut, open, of books, with margins of the pages not trimmed or cut down from the original width, as for binding undam, vb trans [1 undam, 2 undam] un-(II) & dam (II) To remove a dam from, clear obstruction from to undam a river, reservoir &c undamaged, adj [1 undamjyd, 2 undamjyd] un-(I) & damage(od) Not damaged, having suffered no damage, uninjured, unspoilt, sound whole undammed, adj [1 undamd, 2 undamd] un-(I) & dam(mod) (III) Not dammed, not blocked, obstructed, or held back by a dam undamned, adj [1 undamd, 2 undamd] un-(I) & damned Not damned, unconundamped, adj [1 undampt, 2 andampt] un-(I) & damp(ed) Not damped, a not disheartened, b spec (elect) of oscillations, maintained with increasing amplitude undate, adj [1 undat, 2 andat] fr Lat unda, 'a wave', & -ate, cogn w Sort undata, 'it springs, it moistens', & udan, 'water', Gk hidor, 'water', see hydro-, O E water, see water (I) Wavy, undated undated (I), adj [1 undatod, 2 andatod] Proo & -ed (hot) Wavy, undulate undated (II), adj [1 undatod, 2 andatod] un-(I) & date(d) a Not dated, bearing no date, as a document, cheque &c, b not having the time fixed or agreed upon undaunted, adj [1 undawnted, 2 andawnted] un-(I) & daunt(ed) Not daunted, not dismayed or cowed by fear, fearless, courageous undauntedly, adv Proo & -ly In an undaunted manner, fearlessly undauntedness, n See prec & -ness Condition, quality, of being undaunted undazzled, adj [1 undazld, 2 andazld] un-(I) & dazzle(d) Not dazzled, not blinded, as by too much brightness undé, adj [1 undi, 2 andi] fr Fr ondé, see undate (hor) Wavy undebated, adj [1 undebated, 2 andebated] un-(I) & debate(d) Not debated, undisputed undebauched, adj [1 undebawcht, 2 undebawcht] un-(I) & debauch(ed) Not debauched, a not corrupted in morals, b not dissolute in behaviour undecagon, n [1 undekagon, 2 andekagon] fr Lat undec (im), 'eleven', gon, 'one', & decem, 'ten', & -gon (geom) A plane figure, having eleven angles and eleven sides undecieve, vb trans [1 undesey, 2 undesey] un-(II) & deceive To cause to be no longer deceived, to disillusion; to open the eyes of, to cause to see things as they really are he believes that he is certain to win, and I have not the heart to undeceive him undecieved, adj [1 undeseyd, 2 andeseyd] un-(I) & deceive(d) Not deceived, not under the influence of illusion or self deception undecieved by false hopes and promises, he prepared for the worst undecennial, adj [1 undesennal, 2 andesennal] Lat undecim, 'eleven', see first element of undecagon, & for suff see that of decennial Occurring, observed, every eleventh year undecided, adj [1 undesided, 2 andesided] un-(I) & decide(d) Not decided 1 a Not yet settled or determined an undecided question, b (of weather) unsettled, c not having made up one's mind I'm undecided whether to go or stay 2 Lacking decision of character, irresolute, incapable of coming to a decision an undecided character 3 Not clearly marked, not definite in form or outline vague, unpronounced a person of undecided features undecidedly, adv Proo & -ly In an undecided manner, irresolutely, waveringly undecidedness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being undecided undecipherable, adj [1 undesiferabl, 2 undesiferabl] un-(I) & decipherable Not decipherable, incapable of being deciphered, illegible undeck, vb trans [1 undek, 2 andek] un-(II) & deck (I) (poet) To deprive, divest, of adornments 'Undeck the pompous body of a king' (Shakespeare, 'Richard II') undeked (I), adj [1 undekt, 2 andekt] un-(I) & deck(od) Not decked out or adorned undeked (II), adj un-(I) & deck (II), & -ed (of boats) Not furnished with a deck undeclared, adj [1 undeclared, 2 undeclared] un-(I) & declare(od) 1 Not declared, not made known, not disclosed Specif 2 (of goods subject to customs duty) Not exhibited to officials of the customs for assessment of duty undicated, adj [1 undikáit, 2 andikáit] un- (I) & dedicate(d) Not dedicated 1 a (of church) Not consecrated, not dedicated to a patron saint, b (of book) not dedicated to a patron, without a dedication 2 (of a road) Not handed over to a public authority but maintained at private expense by the makers or the owners of property along it undeeded, adj [1 undédéd, 2 andídíd] un- (I) & deed(ed) (law) Not transferred by deed undefended, adj [1 undéfendéd, 2 andí-fendíd] un- (I) & defend(ed) Not defended 1 a Not defended, unprotected, without defence or protection, defenceless an undefended town, b not supported or maintained by argument, excuse &c an undefended act, measure &c 2 a Not defended by counsel an undefended prisoner, b without a defence being entered or put forward on undefended charge, action at law &c undefiled, adj [1 undéfild, 2 andí-fáild] un- (I) & defile(d) (I) Not defiled, unpolluted, pure, unmixed with baser elements undefined, adj [1 undéfind, 2 andí-fáind] un- (I) & define(d) Not defined 1 Not clearly marked, indefinite, vague 2 Not explained or described by a definition undefy, vb trans [1 undéfí, 2 andí-fáí] un- (II) & defy To degrade from the position of a deity or god, to deprive of the sanctity of, rites and worship due to, a god undelayed, adj [1 undeláid, 2 andí-léid] un- (I) & delay(ed) Not delayed, not held back by delays undelagated, adj [1 undelagáted, 2 andé-lagístíd] un- (I) & delegate(d) Not delegated, not transferred or committed to another undelagated powers or authority undelivered, adj [1 undelívered, 2 andí-líveréd] un- (I) & deliver(ed) Not delivered, a not set free, released, liberated an undelivered prisoner, b not handed over, not distributed undelivered message, letters, parcels &c, c not pronounced, uttered, recited an undelivered speech, address undemanded, adj [1 undemáhdéd, 2 andímándíd] un- (I) & demand(ed) Not demanded, not claimed or asked for undemonstrable, adj [1 undemónstrábl, 2 andímónstrábl] un- (I) & demonstrate Not demonstrable, incapable of being demonstrated undemonstrated, adj [1 undemonstráted, 2 andémónstrétíd] un- (I) & demonstrate(d) Not demonstrated, not proved by demonstration undemonstrative, adj [1 undemónstratív, 2 andímónstratív] un- (I) & demonstrative Not demonstrative, not effusive, not addicted to strong expression of feeling opinion &c, reserved undemonstratively, adv Free & -ly In an undemonstrative manner undeniable, adj [1 undenáhl, 2 andénáhl] un- (I) & deniable Not deniable, a not capable of being denied or refuted, indisputable undeniable truth, evidence &c, b decidedly excellent of undeniable antecedents, c unmistakable an undeniable Jew undeniably, adv Free & -ly In an undeniable manner, indisputably, unmistakably undenominational, adj [1 undenómínáshunál, 2 andénómínéshunál] un- (I) & denominational Not denominational, specific, not restricted to, not in accordance with the characteristic tenets of any particular religious denomination undenominational education undenounced, adj [1 undenounst, 2 andénounst] un- (I) & denounce(d) Not denounced 1 a Not openly charged with, not informed against the conspirators remain undenounced, b not inveighed against, not repudiated 2 Not formally terminated the treaty is still undenounced though obsolete undependable, adj [1 undépéndábl, 2 andípéndábl] un- (I) & dependable. Not dependable, not to be depended on, untrustworthy undeplored, adj [1 undéplord, 2 andí-plórd] un- (I) & deplore(d) Not deplored, unlamented undeposed, adj [1 undépózd, 2 andí-pouzíd] un- (I) & depose(d) Not deposed undeprieved, adj [1 undéprívd, 2 andí-prívd] un- (I) & deprive(d) Not deprived, not corrupted in morals undepreciated, adj [1 undéprésháted, 2 andípríshétíd] un- (I) & depreciate(d) Not depreciated, a not disparaged, not belittled an undepreciated reputation, b not lowered or reduced in value undepreciated currency undepressed, adj [1 undéprést, 2 andíprést] un- (I) & depress(ed) Not depressed, esp in mind, spirits, not dejected, not cast down undepressed by their losses undeprieved, adj [1 undéprívd, 2 andí-prívd] un- (I) & deprive(d) Not deprived, not dispossessed of

under (I), prep [1 únder, 2 ándá] OE & ME under, OS undar, OHG untar, Du onder, Germ unter, ON undr &c, cogn w Lat infra, 'below' See infra, & cp Sort adhas, 'below' 1 In, at, to a lower place or position than, below, the opposite of over, cp beneath and above to lie down under a tree, you will find it under the seat, river flowing under a bridge, a with sense of submerged in, covered by under the water, under the ground, hid his face under the bedclothes, b inside, within under the skin, under the sea of, to leeward of, sheltered from the wind by, c at the foot of villages nestling under a hill, stand under the wall, in various Phrs under foot, beneath one's feet, trodden, under one's nose, right in front of one, close to, so that one cannot help seeing it or noticing it, under one's eye, in sight, under hatches, with hatches closed down, safely secured, under cover, sheltered 2 With sense of sustaining, being loaded with or oppressed by (lit and fig) cannot march under such a load, broke down under the burden of sorrow, care, debts &c Phr under arms, armed 3 In sense of being in certain conditions or states (lit and fig) analogous to that of position under or beneath a as subjected to, undergoing died under an operation, under the surgeon's knife, to be brave under trials and adversities, confessed under torture, the rack, Phrs to be under a cloud, be in disgrace, suspected, out of favour, under fire, fired upon, under sail, driven by wind, under sentence of death, ten years' penal servitude &c, sentenced to, b as in course of road under repair, bill now under discussion, c as controlled or governed by England under the Stuarts, under the authority of the law, d implying obligation, liability the terms under a contract, under a vow of secrecy, to give evidence under oath, e as included in, in the same division or class as spiders, mites, ticks &c are dealt with under (the head of) Arachnida, f as indicating shelter, cover, or disguise &c went under a false name, under the pretence of collecting for charity, g as indicating a general state under such conditions, under the circumstances, h during, in the time of under the later Roman Empire, under the Third French Republic 4 Less than, inferior to a (of position) no one under (rank of) a colonel, b (of age) all children under 10 years old, Phr under age, not 21 years old, c in less time than cannot reach the place under two hours, run a hundred yards under ten seconds, d (of price, value &c) won't sell under £1000, e (of number, quantity &c) under 50 people were there, under 100 acres in area under (II), adj, fr prec Lower, subordinate, inferior, usually compounded, with or without hyphen, as under tenant, an underlease &c, see under- under (III), adv, see prec. In a lower, inferior position, usually in various verbal Phrs to bring, go, keep, under, bring to, descend to, keep in, a lower condition, to knuckle under, to submit to slavishly under-, pref, fr prec, w force of prep, adv, or adj 1 Below, beneath underclothes, underfoot &c, to underbid, to underline 2 From beneath undermine, underprop 3 Not completely, insufficient understaff, understatement 4 Inferior, subordinate underling &c underact, vb trans & intrans [1 únderákt, 2 ándarákt] under- & act 1 trans To act (stage play) without sufficient passion, vigour, spirit, to act in such a manner that a character or part is insufficiently emphasized to underact the character of Macbeth, the play was underacted throughout 2 intrans To act in the above way underaction, n [1 únderáksun, 2 ándaráksun] under- & action Subordinate action, action not essential to the main action, an episode under-agent, n [1 únder ájnt, 2 ándarájnt] under- & agent A subordinate agent underarm, adj & adv [1 únderarm, 2 ándárm] under- & arm (I) (cricket, tennis) Bowled, served, with the fore arm and hand, the elbow held downwards, underhand an underarm delivery, service, he bowls underarm underbid, vb trans [1 underbíd, 2 ándáshíd] under- & bid To bid or offer less than, to offer a less price for a service or contract, to offer to sell goods, contract to perform some service, at a lower price than our commercial rivals can underbid us in foreign markets underbidder, n [1 underbíder, 2 ándáshíder] Pre & -er One who underbids, a one who has successfully offered a lower price for supply of goods, for contract of service &c our underbidders for coal in Europe, b one who has failed to buy an object &c at an auction, usually the person who has bid next highest price to the successful bidder the picture fell at £10,000 to Messrs A, the underbidders were Messrs B underbitten, adj [1 underbltn, 2 ándáshítn] under- & bitten (etching) Not bitten in on the copper sufficiently deep for printing underbrace, vb trans [1 underbrás, 2 ándábrás] under- & brace (II) To brace, tie, fasten, together below or underneath to underbrace rafters, girders &c underbraced, adj [1 underbrást, 2 ándábrást] under- & brace(d) Insufficiently braced or supported underbred, adj [1 underbréd, 2 ándáhréd] under- & bred Not well bred, not thoroughbred, showing ignorance of the standards of manners, and the customs of polite society, not animated by the ideals and traditions of manners and conduct current among well bred persons, ill bred underbrush, n [1 únderbrúsh, 2 ándáhrúsh] under- & brush (I) Undergrowth, underwood underbuy, vb trans [1 únderbúí, 2 ándábasí] under- & buy To buy at a lower price than its real value or than the price at which it is offered, to buy cheaper than another undercharge (I), vb trans [1 underchárj, 2 ándét[á]ddj] under- & charge (I) 1 To charge less than the true or fair price for, to charge too little for this account is undercharged, you have undercharged me for, on, this bill, for the books sent &c 2 To load with an insufficient charge to undercharge a gun undercharge (II), n [1 únderchárj, 2 ándét[á]ddj] An insufficient charge under-clay, n [1 únder kláí, 2 ándá kléí] under- & clay A bed, stratum, of clay beneath a coal seam under-clerk, n [1 únder klárk, 2 ándá klárk] under- & clerk. A subordinate clerk under-clerkship, n [1 únder klárkshíp, 2 ándá klárkshíp] Pre & -ship Position, office, of an under clerk undercliff, n [1 únderklíf, 2 ándáklíf] under- & cliff A raised terrace or secondary cliff beneath a main or upper cliff, formed by fallen rock &c from above underclothed, adj [1 nderklóðhd, 2 ánda-klóðd] under- & clothe(d) Insufficiently clothed underclothes, n pl [1 nderkló(d)h, 2 ánda-kló(d)h] under- & clothes Clothes worn under the outer clothes, esp those worn next the skin, undergarments, underclothing underclothing, n [1 nderklóðhng, 2 ánda-klóðhng] under- & clothing Underclothes undercoat, n [1 nderkót, 2 ándakót] under- & coat A coat worn under another, b the growth of short hair beneath the longer, outer hair of an animal's coat undercroft, n [1 nderkráwt, 2 ándakróft] under- & obs croft, 'vault', op Dnt lroch, O H G chruf, ad fr Lat crypta, crypta, see crypt A vaulted chamber beneath a church or other building, a crypt undercurrent, n [1 nderkúrent, 2 ándakúrent] under- & current (II) 1 A current of water, as in a river, sea &c, flowing beneath the surface and in a contrary direction to that of the main or upper current 2 (fig) A tendency; influence, as of opinion, feeling &c, not definitely expressed or apparent on the surface, sometimes running contrary to, or different from, the general or more obvious tendency amid the general acclamation an undercurrent of doubt and suspicion may be traced 3 Specif (gold min) a large shallow box at the side of a main sluice with a steeper fall undercut (I), vb trans [1 nderkút, 2 ándakút] under- & cut 1 To cut away a lower part of anything so as to leave a projecting edge, to cut away from underneath (a raised, curved, or sculptured design), so that it should stand out in high relief moulding deeply undercut 2 To cut, reduce, prices of goods, so as to sell cheaper than another to undercut prices, to undercut a commercial rival 3 (golf) To hit a ball so that it rises sharply and falls dead without much run undercut (II), n [1 nderkút, 2 ándakút] a The tender meat on the lower or under side of the bone of a sirloin of beef, b (boxing) a blow delivered with an upward swing or punch of the arm under-develop, vb trans [1 nder dévlop, 2 ánda dévlop] under- & develop (photog, of plate or film) To develop in sufficiently under-developed, adj [1 nder dévlopt, 2 ánda dévlopt] Not sufficiently developed, a not developed physically or mentally an underdeveloped child, mind, b (photog, of plate or film) insufficiently developed underditch, vb trans [1 nderdích, 2 ánda díst] under- & ditch To dig an under ground or deep ditch to drain heavy soil to underditch a field underdo, vb trans [1 nderdó, 2 ándadó] under- & do To cook, as meat, insufficiently, usually in P P pass, underdone underdog, n [1 nderdog, 2 ánderdóg, 2 ánda dóg, 2 ánda dóg] under- & dog (I) Also the under dog, a the dog which gets the worst of it in a fight with another dog b (fig) one who comes off badly in the struggle of life we naturally tend to sympathize with the underdogs underdone, adj [1 nderdun, 2 ándadán] P P of underdo a Insufficiently cooked, too raw the mutton's underdone again, b not cooked too thoroughly left slightly red or raw I like beef rather underdone underdose (I), vb trans [1 nderdós, 2 ánda dós] under- & dose (II) a To administer an insufficient dose to underdose a patient, b (reflex) to take an insufficient dose to underdose oneself underdose (II), n [1 nderdós, 2 ánda dós] An insufficient dose underdrain (I), vb trans [1 nderdrán, 2 ánderdrán] under- & drain To drain, as land, by cutting drains or trenches below the surface.

underdrain (II), n. [1 nderdrán, 2 ánderdrán] A drain or trench cut below the surface or the ground underdraw, vb trans [1 nderdráv, 2 ánderdró] under- & draw To draw without enough definiteness or spirit underdress, vb trans & intrans [1 nderdrás, 2 ánderdrás] under- & dress a To dress inadequately or too scantily, to wear insufficient clothes, b to dress more simply and plainly than the occasion demands underestimate (I), vb trans [1 nderéstímát, 2 ánderéstímét] under- & estimate To estimate at below the true figure, to undervalue, underrate, miscalculate to underestimate the cost of a holiday, to underestimate a person's abilities &c, to underestimate a distance underestimate (II), n [1 nderéstímat, 2 ánderéstímét] An estimate below the true value or cost, an inadequate estimate underestimation, n [1 nderéstímáshun, 2 ánderéstímás[un] underestimates (I) & -ion An underestimate under-expose, vb trans [1 nderékspóz, 2 ánderékspóz] under- & expose (photog) To expose a plate or film for too short a time under-exposure, n [1 nder ékspózshur, 2 ánder ékspózshur] (photog) Exposure of plate &c for too short a time underfeed, vb trans & intrans [1 nderféd, 2 ánderfid] under- & feed a trans To feed with too little or inadequate food, to supply with too little food never underfeed children, b intrans, to eat less than normal amount of food the doctor advises me to underfeed for a bit under-fired, adj [1 nderfírd, 2 ánda fírd] under- & fire(d) (of pottery &c) Not sufficiently fired or baked underflow, n [1 nderfló, 2 ándafló] under- & flow (II) An undercurrent underfoot, adv [1 nderfót, 2 ánda fót] under- & foot (I) Under, beneath, one's feet, underneath, a is very damp under foot, b (fig) in subordinate position, in subjection he kept his subjects underfoot underframe, n [1 nderfrám, 2 ánderfrám] under- & frame (II) A frame below another frame, a supporting frame for an upper part or body, as of the chassis of a motor car &c underfur, n [1 nderfúr, 2 ánda fúr] under- & fur (I) The short, thick, soft fur beneath the coarser and long hair of certain furbearing animals, as seals, beavers &c undergarment, n [1 ndergármant, 2 ánda gármant] under- & garment A garment worn under outer garments, usually one worn next the skin, (pl.) underclothes undergird, vb trans [1 ndergýrd, 2 ánda gád] under- & gird (I) a To gird below or round the bottom of 'to undergird the ship' (Acts xxvii 17), b to place girders beneath or below to undergird a roof undergo, vb trans [1 ndergó, 2 ánda gó] O E undergan, under- & go To experience, endure, suffer, to be subjected to to undergo fatigue, a long journey &c, he has undergone an operation undergraduate, n [1 ndergráddút, 2 ánda grádjút] under- & graduate (I) 1 A member of a university who has not taken his or her first or bachelor's degree 2 (attrib) Of, pertaining to, an undergraduate or undergraduates undergraduateship, n [1 ndergráddútshíp, 2 ánda grádjútshíp] Prec & -ship Status, position, of an undergraduate underground (I), adv [1 ndergrúnd, 2 ándergrúnd] under- & ground (I) a (in physical sense) Under, beneath, the ground, below the surface of the earth miners who work underground, b (fig) secretly, surreptitiously, in an obscure, hidden manner schemes are being concocted underground underground (II), adj & n. [1 ndergrúnd, 2 ándergrúnd] 1 adj a (in physical sense) Situated, moving, beneath the surface of the ground an underground cellar, basement, an underground railway &c, b (fig) secret, surreptitious, obscure underground intrigues, influence &c 2 n An underground railway to travel by the Underground undergrown, adj [1 ndergrú, 2 ánda grú] under- & grown Not sufficiently or fully grown or developed, under developed undergrowth, n [1 ndergróth, 2 ánda gróth] under- & growth That which grows below something else, small trees, bushes, shrubs, growing beneath the larger trees in a wood, underbrush underhand (I), adv [1 nderhánd, 2 ánda hánd] under- & hand 1 (croquet, tennis &c) With the hand and arm below the elbow or shoulder, contrasted with overarm or overhand to bowl, serve, underhand 2 (fig) Secretly, clandestinely, not openly, contrasted with above board he worked underhand to discredit his political rivals underhand (II), adj [1 nderhánd, 2 ánda hánd] 1 (croquet &c) Delivered, served, with the hand and arm below the elbow or shoulder underhand bowling, service 2 (fig) Secret, clandestine, not open and above board underhand intrigues underhanded, adj [1 nderhánded, 2 ánda hánded] Prec & -ed A Underhand, clandestine, secret, b insufficiently supplied with hands or assistants, short handed.

underhandedly, adv Prec & -ly In an underhanded manner, underhand underhew, vb trans [1 nderhíd, 2 ánda híd] under- & hew To hew a log of timber by cutting away a portion below the surface so that it appears of larger cubic content than it really is underhung, adj [1 nderhung, 2 ánda hang] under- & P P of hang a (of lower jaw) Projecting beyond the upper jaw, b having the lower jaw so projecting an underhung face, she is slightly underhung underived, adj [1 nderírd, 2 ánda írd] un- (I) & derive(d) Not derived 1 Original, not dependent on anything else absolute, underived power or authority 2 Not traced to its original source, without derivation under-king, n [1 nder kíng, 2 ánda kíng] under- & king A subordinate, inferior, vassal king underlaid, adj [1 nderléd, 2 ánda léd] P P of underlay Laid, placed, under neath, specif (print) having something laid underneath to raise the type or impression an underlaid plate underlap, vb trans & intrans [1 nderláp, 2 ánda láp] under- & lap (II) To extend, project, to be folded under, the edge of something above, contrasted with overlap one plank slightly underlaps the other, an underlapping plank underlay (I), vb trans & intrans [1 nderléd, 2 ánda léd] O E underleggan, under- & lay (III) 1 trans To lay, place, something under or beneath something, specif (print) to support, raise, type &c by laying something, as a sheet of paper or cardboard, beneath it, so as to throw the impression up to underlay a plate, block &c 2 intrans (min, of veins, lodes &c) To incline from a perpendicular direction, to have underlay (II), n [1 nderléd, 2 ánda léd] a Paper, cardboard placed beneath type, block &c, to raise the impression, b (min) dip, inclination, of a vein or lode, from the perpendicular, have

underlay (III), Pret of underlie underlease, n [1 nderléd, 2 ánda léd] under- & lease The lease by a tenant or lessee of part of the term of his lease to another, a sublease underlet, vb trans [1 nderlet, 2 ánda lét] under- & let (II) a To let at a lower rent than its real or full value, b to sublet underletting, n [1 nderletíng, 2 ánda létíng] under- & let(tíng) The letting of a house, land &c, at a below its full value, b to a subtenant, enletting underlie, vb trans [1 ʊndərli, 2 ʌndəldɪ] Pret underlay, PP underlain, OE underlīgan, under- & lie (III) 1 To lie, be placed, under or beneath, (also absol, esp in Pres Part) the coal measures which underlie the English Channel, gravel underlain by clay, the underlying strata 2 (in non-physical sense) To form the basis or foundation of the principles which underlie our foreign policy underline (I), vb trans [1 ʊndərli:n, 2 ʌndəli:n] under- & line (III) 1 To mark with a line underneath, as a sign of emphasis or to indicate to the printer that the words are to be printed in italics 2 To emphasise, lay stress upon the sudden summoning of the Cabinet underlines the seriousness of the situation underline (II), n [1 ʊndərli:n, 2 ʌndəli:n] under- & line (II) a A line drawn under a word, phrase &c, as a sign of emphasis, b (theatr) an announcement of a forthcoming play, printed at the foot of the announcement, bill &c, of a current play underlunen, n [1 ʊndərli:n, 2 ʌndəli:n] under- & lunen Underclothing of linen or other material, body-linen underling, n [1 ʊndərliŋ, 2 ʌndəliŋ] ME, under- & -ling (contemptuous) Person in a subordinate position, one occupying a humble office without authority or responsibility underlooker, n [1 ʊndərli:kə, 2 ʌndəli:kə] under- & look & -er (coal min) An official who inspects the condition of a mine below the surface, an underviewer underman, vb trans [1 ʊndərmən, 2 ʌndərmən] under- & man (II) To supply, furnish, with too few men, esp too small a crew for a ship to underman a ship, they set sail much undermanned, 1 e short handed undermasted, adj [1 ʊndərməstəd, 2 ʌndərməstəd] under- & mast & -ed (of ship) Having too few or too small masts for the necessary or full spread of sail under-master, n [1 ʊndər mɑ:stə, 2 ʌndə mɑ:stə] under- & master A subordinate master at a school, any master other than the headmaster undermentioned, adj [1 ʊndərmənʃund, 2 ʌndərmənʃund] under- & mention(ed) Mentioned, alluded to, below or later undermine, vb trans [1 ʊndərmi:n, 2 ʌndəmi:n] under- & mine (III) 1 a To dig a mine, excavate ground under something in order to cause its fall or destruction by an explosion or collapse to undermine a fortress, line of trenches, wall &c, b to wear away the base or foundations of, by erosion the sea is undermining the cliffs of the south coast 2 (fig) a To weaken, to sap, by secret, underhand means, to injure by insidious attacks to undermine a person's influence, reputation &c, b to wear away, impair dissipation has undermined his health underminer, n [1 ʊndərmɪnə, 2 ʌndərmɪnə] Prec & -er One who undermines undermost, adj [1 ʊndərməst, 2 ʌndərməst] under (I) & -most Lowest in position, rank &c underneath, adv & prep [1 ʊndərneθ, 2 ʌndərneθ] ME undr̄neþe, see under- & (he)neath 1 adv In, at, to a lower place, beneath, below the river flowing underneath 2 prep Under, below the river flowing underneath the bridge underogatory, adj [1 ʊndəroɡətəri, 2 ʌndəroɡətəri] un- (I) & derogatory Not derogatory, not disparaging or detracting underpay, vb trans [1 ʊndəpeɪ, 2 ʌndəpeɪ] under- & pay (I) To pay inadequately or insufficiently underpaid workmen underpayment, n [1 ʊndərpəmənt, 2 ʌndərpəmənt] Prec & -ment Inadequate, insufficient, pay underpin, vb trans [1 ʊndərpɪn, 2 ʌndərpɪn] under- & pin (II) To support (wall, bank &c) by additional props of stone, brick, timber &c introduced below, or so as to take the place of, existing foundations.

underpinning, n [1 ʊndərpɪnɪŋ, 2 ʌndərpɪnɪŋ] Prec & -ing, a Act of supporting by props of stone &c below foundations, b the props or other material used for this purpose underplay (I), vb intrans & trans [1 ʊndəpləɪ, 2 ʌndəpləɪ] under- & play (I) 1 intrans (cards) To lose a trick intentionally by playing a low card instead of a higher one in the hand, in view of later advantages, to finesse 2 trans To play a part inadequately, to underact underplay (II), n [1 ʊndərpłəɪ, 2 ʌndərpłəɪ] Act of underplaying underplot, n [1 ʊndərpłɒt, 2 ʌndərpłɒt] under- & plot (III) A subordinate, secondary, plot in a novel or play under-populated, adj [1 ʊndər pɒpələtəd, 2 ʌndə pɒpələtəd] under- & populate(d) Insufficiently populated in relation to the extent and fruitfulness &c (of an area) underpraise, vb trans [1 ʊndəpraɪz, 2 ʌndəpraɪz] under- & praise To praise less than is deserved under-produce, vb intrans [1 ʊndəprɒdʌs, 2 ʌndəprɒdʌs] under- & produce To produce commodities below the general demand for such commodities, with the object of forcing up prices under-production, n [1 ʊndəprɒdʌkʃən, 2 ʌndəprɒdʌkʃən] under- & production Production of commodities below the demand, or below normal rate of production under-proof, adj [1 ʊndəpru:f, 2 ʌndəpru:f] under- & proof (II) Containing less alcohol than proof spirit underprop, vb trans [1 ʊndəprɒp, 2 ʌndəprɒp] under- & prop (II) To place a prop under, to support from below by props underquote, vb trans [1 ʊndəkwɒt, 2 ʌndəkwɒt] under- & quote To quote, or offer goods for sale, at a lower price than others, to offer a lower price than underrate, vb trans [1 ʊndəreɪt, 2 ʌndəreɪt] under- & rate (II) To rate, value, too low, to place too low an estimate on, to underestimate one should not underrate the abilities of one's enemies under-reckon, vb trans [1 ʊndərekən, 2 ʌndərekən] under- & reckon To reckon too low, to underestimate under-ripe, adj [1 ʊndəri:p, 2 ʌndəri:p] under- & ripe Not fully ripe underrun, vb trans [1 ʊndərʌn, 2 ʌndərʌn] under- & run 1 (rare) To run, pass, under the boat underran the bridge 2 (specific) To examine a cable, hose &c, by lifting it and passing it through the hands underscore, vb trans [1 ʊndəskɔ:, 2 ʌndəskɔ:] under- & score (II) To underline under-secretary, n [1 ʊndər sɛkrətəri, 2 ʌndə sɛkrətəri] under- & secretary An assistant, subordinate secretary, esp of Government departments, Parliamentary Under-Secretary, a member of the Ministry, vacating office at change of Government, Permanent Under Secretary, member of the Civil Service, the official head of a department under-secretaryship, n [1 ʊndər sɛkrətəriʃɪp, 2 ʌndə sɛkrətəriʃɪp] Prec & -ship Position, status, of an under secretary undersell, vb trans [1 ʊndəsɛl, 2 ʌndəsɛl] under- & sell To sell commodities at a lower price than to undersell one's rivals in trade underseller, n [1 ʊndəsɛlə, 2 ʌndəsɛlə] Prec & -er One who undersells under-servant, n [1 ʊndərsəvənt, 2 ʌndərsəvənt] under- & servant A subordinate, inferior, servant underset (I), vb trans [1 ʊndəsɛt, 2 ʌndəsɛt] under- & set (I) To support, prop (a wall, roof &c) by masonry, brickwork &c underset (II), n [1 ʊndəsɛt, 2 ʌndəsɛt] under- & set (II) (nant) A set, current, beneath the surface of water, contrary to the general set of the water or to the wind under-sheriff, n [1 ʊndər ʃerɪf, 2 ʌndər ʃerɪf] under- & sheriff A deputy sheriff under-shirt, n [1 ʊndər ʃə:t, 2 ʌndər ʃə:t] under- & shirt A shirt worn next the skin, a vest undershot, adj under- & shot (II) 1 [1 ʊndəʃɒt, 2 ʌndəʃɒt] (of water wheel) Moved, driven, by water flowing under it, contrasted with overshot 2 [1 ʊndəʃɒt, 2 ʌndəʃɒt] (of jaw) Underbong undershrub, n [1 ʊndəʃrʌb, 2 ʌndəʃrʌb] under- & shrub (I) A small shrubby plant undersign, vb trans [1 ʊndəsaɪn, 2 ʌndəsaɪn] under- & sign (II) To sign a document &c at the foot, to write one's name at the end of a letter or document undersigned, adj [1 ʊndəsaɪnd, 2 ʌndəsaɪnd] In the undersigned members, those members whose names are signed below (at end of a document), we the undersigned, we who have signed our names below undersized, adj [1 ʊndəsaɪzd, 2 ʌndəsaɪzd] under- & -sized Of less than the normal or average size, dwarfish, stunted undershirt, n [1 ʊndəʃkɜ:t, 2 ʌndəʃkɜ:t] under- & skirt A skirt worn under another or outer skirt, petticoat undersleeve, n [1 ʊndəslɛv, 2 ʌndəslɛv] under- & sleeve A sleeve worn under an outer sleeve undersoil, n [1 ʊndəsbɔɪl, 2 ʌndəsbɔɪl] under- & soil Subsoil undersong, n [1 ʊndəsbɒŋ, 2 ʌndəsbɒŋ] under- & song The burden, refrain, of a song understand, vb trans & intrans [1 ʊndəstænd, 2 ʌndəstænd] OE understandan, lit 'to stand under, beneath', the sense developed is not clear, Skeat, giving under here the sense of 'among', compares Lat intelligere, fr inter, 'between', cp intelligence, OE bas undergetan, lit 'to under get', in same sense, op also ON undrstanda A trans 1 To comprehend, perceive, the meaning of, to grasp the meaning, purport, of, to hear, read, and interpret to oneself I can hear your voice but cannot understand you, can you understand German? please understand me, I absolutely refuse Phr to make oneself understood, to make one's language, meaning, clear 2 To apprehend by the mind, to grasp, take in the idea of, to perceive the full significance or force of we do not yet understand the nature of electricity, does the child understand the meaning of an oath? try and understand my difficulties Phr to understand one another, (1) to come to an understanding or agreement with another, (2) to be clearly aware of, though not necessarily sharing, each other's opinions, intentions &c, (3) to be on good terms through comprehending and sympathizing each with the other's aims &c 3 To learn, be informed of we understand from an unofficial source that the measure is to be dropped Phr to give to understand, to tell, inform 4 a To assume, infer, to take as meant or implied, often indicating surprise, warning &c *I understood him to say that, what are we to understand from such contradictory statements? b to supply mentally though not expressed when we say X is a millionaire, are we to understand pounds or dollars? B intrans 1 To have understanding, to have the powers, faculties, of mental comprehension, to be an intelligent being do animals understand? the people listen but will not understand 2 To be informed, to learn, hear, he told the news is better, so I understand* understandable, adj [1 ʊndəstændəbəl, 2 ʌndəstændəbəl] Prec & -able Able to be understood, intelligible understanded, adj [1 ʊndəstændəd, 2 ʌndəstændəd] PP of understand, used in 16th cent (archaic) Understood 'language understood of the people', plain, ordinary language or words (Art of Relig xxiv) understanding (I), n [1 ʊndə'stændɪŋ, 2 ʌndə'stændɪŋ] understand & abstract sniff-ing 1 Act of one who understands, mental grasp, comprehension, knowledge, discernment he tried to get some understanding of the question 2 Intelligence, power, faculty, of comprehension or thought, sense a person of understanding, God give us understanding 3 Agreement, unity of thought, feeling &c, that which is mutually agreed upon or understood to have an understanding with another, to come to a definite understanding about Phr on the understanding that, on such terms or conditions as are stated 4 (pl, colloq, facet) Legs he has a sound pair of understandings understanding (II), adj, fr Pres Part of understand Intelligent, discerning, sensible an understanding man understandingly, adv [1 ʊndə'stændɪŋli, 2 ʌndə'stændɪŋli] Pres & -ly (rare or archaic) In an understanding manner, with understanding, intelligence, discernment understate, vb trans [1 ʊndə'stæt, 2 ʌndə'stæt] under- & state (III) Not to state fully or adequately, not to bring out all the points of, to minimize in statement, put forward with studied moderation, reverse of exaggerate to understate one's abilities, claims, case &c understatement, n [1 ʊndə'stætɪmənt, 2 ʌndə'stætɪmənt] Pres & -ment 1 Act of understating 2 A statement which errs on the side of moderation, which does not represent with completeness all the aspects of a case, reverse of exaggeration understock, vb trans [1 ʊndə'stɒk, 2 ʌndə'stɒk] under- & stock 1 To put less stock on (land) than it will properly carry 2 To furnish (shop, store &c) with smaller supply of commodities or stock than the demand and requirements warrant understood, vb [1 ʊndə'stʊd, 2 ʌndə'stʊd] Pres & PP of understand understrapper, n [1 ʊndə'stræpər, 2 ʌndə'stræpər] under- & strap & -er (colloq) An underling, a subordinate, an inferior agent, official or employee under-stratum, n [1 ʊndə'strætəm, 2 ʌndə'strætəm] under- & stratum A sub stratum, a layer or stratum of earth on which the soil rests understudy, n & vb trans [1 ʊndə'stʊdi, 2 ʌndə'stʊdi] under- & study 1 n One who studies or learns the part of the regular actor in order to be able to play it in his absence 2 vb a To study a theatrical part for this purpose to understudy Hamlet, b to act as understudy to understudy Irving in 'Hamlet' undertake, vb trans & intrans [1 ʊndə'teɪk, 2 ʌndə'teɪk] ME under-taken under- & take A trans 1 To take upon oneself, to lay oneself under an obligation to do to undertake a responsible post, to undertake a task, responsibility &c, he has undertaken too much, to undertake to do anything, to undertake that it is so 2 To engage in, take steps to perform, embark upon to undertake a journey 3 (archaic) To challenge, engage with another in a contest, an argument. B intrans 1 (archaic) To be guarantee for, to take on oneself a duty for another to undertake for another 2 (colloq) To carry on the business of, to be, an undertaker undertaker, n [1 ʊndə'teɪkər, 2 ʌndə'teɪkər] Pres & -er One who undertakes or engages to perform some task &c, a contractor 1 Specif, one whose business and trade it is to undertake all duties connected with the burial of the dead, one who manages funerals 2 (hist, usually cap and in pl, the Undertakers) A the settlers on the forfeited lands of the Earl of Desmond in Ireland, at the end of the 16th century, b a party of members of the Parliament of 1814 who undertook to manage elections, secure supplies and passage of bills &c in the interest of James I undertaking, n [1 ʊndə'teɪkɪŋ, 2 ʌndə'teɪkɪŋ] undertake & -ing 1 That which is undertaken, an enterprise, task a difficult, dangerous, undertaking 2 Promise, guarantee, obligation an undertaking to pay the debt within six months 3 The professional activities, the trade, of an undertaker under-tenancy, n [1 ʊndə'tenənsi, 2 ʌndə'tenənsi] under- & tenancy A tenancy, lease, held from or under another tenant or lessee, and not directly from the landlord, a subtenancy under-tenant, n [1 ʊndə'tenənt, 2 ʌndə'tenənt] under- & tenant A tenant under another tenant, a subtenant under-timed, adj [1 ʊndə'taɪmd, 2 ʌndə'taɪmd] under- & time(d) (photog) Under exposed undertint, n [1 ʊndə'tɪnt, 2 ʌndə'tɪnt] under- & tint (I) A subdued, faint, tint or colour, undertone undertone, n [1 ʊndə'təʊn, 2 ʌndə'təʊn] under- & tone (I) 1 A subdued tone or note, low, subdued voice to speak in undertones 2 A subdued, faint, colour, an undertint undertook, vb [1 ʊndə'tʊk, 2 ʌndə'tʊk] Pres of undertake undertow, n [1 ʊndə'təʊ, 2 ʌndə'təʊ] under- & tow (I) The backward flow, drag, or pull of a wave or the sea after it breaks on the shore, underset undervaluation, n [1 ʊndə'vælju'eɪʃən, 2 ʌndə'vælju'eɪʃən] under- & valuation Act of undervaluing, a valuation, estimate, of anything which is below its real value or worth undervalue, vb trans [1 ʊndə'veɪlu, 2 ʌndə'veɪlu] under- & value To value at less than the real worth, to set too low a value upon underwear, n [1 ʊndə'weə, 2 ʌndə'weə] under- & wear (II) (shop term) Clothes worn below others, underclothing, undergarments underwent, vb [1 ʊndə'weɪnt, 2 ʌndə'weɪnt] Pres of undergo underwing, n [1 ʊndə'wɪŋ, 2 ʌndə'wɪŋ] under- & wing Any kind of various nocturnal moths with conspicuous, banded markings on the under or posterior wings underwood, n [1 ʊndə'wʊd, 2 ʌndə'wʊd] under- & wood Undergrowth, underbrush underwork (I), vb trans & intrans [1 ʊndə'wɜ:k, 2 ʌndə'wɜ:k] under- & work 1 trans a To exact too little work from, to put to work for too short a time to underwork a machine, horses &c, b to work for a lower price than one trader tries to underwork another 2 intrans To work inadequately, to do less work than one should or is capable of a modern tendency to underwork underwork (II), n [1 ʊndə'wɜ:k, 2 ʌndə'wɜ:k] inferior, subordinate, work, slack, inadequate, work underworld, n [1 ʊndə'wɜ:ld, 2 ʌndə'wɜ:ld] under- & world 1 The lower, nether, world, the infernal regions, place of departed spirits, hell spirits from the underworld 2 (post and rare) The world on the other side of the globe, the antipodes 'the first light glimmering on a sail That brings our friends up from the underworld' (Tennyson, 'Process', iv 45)

3 That part of a community who live entirely by vice and crime gangster leaders or the kings of the underworld underwrite, vb trans & intrans [1 ʊndə'raɪt, 2 ʌndə'raɪt] under- & write A trans 1 To write below or underneath, to subscribe (rare, except in PP) the underwritten signatures, names, the undersigned 2 Specif a to execute, by the signature of one's name to the document, and deliver a policy of insurance, esp of marine insurance, guaranteeing, on payment of a premium, to make good loss or damage to the property insured, to take a risk on a policy of (marine) insurance to underwrite a ship, cargo &c, to underwrite any kind of risk, b to undertake, guarantee, to buy such of the stock or shares to be issued by a company as are not subscribed for by the public, for a named consideration or commission of so much per cent B intrans To be in business as an underwriter underwriter, n [1 ʊndə'raɪtər, 2 ʌndə'raɪtər] Pres & -er A one whose business it is to underwrite policies, esp of marine insurance an underwriter at Lloyd's, b one who underwrites the shares newly issued by a company underwriting, n [1 ʊndə'raɪtɪŋ, 2 ʌndə'raɪtɪŋ] underwrite & -ing The business of an underwriter undescribed, adj [1 ʊndə'skraɪbd, 2 ʌndə'skraɪbd] un- (I) & describe(d) Not described undescribed, adj [1 ʊndə'skraɪd, 2 ʌndə'skraɪd] un- (I) & descried, PP of descrie Not descried, undiscovered, unseen undeserved, adj [1 ʊndə'sɜ:vd, 2 ʌndə'sɜ:vd] un- (I) & deserve(d) Not deserved, unmerited undeservedly, adv [1 ʊndə'sɜ:vdli, 2 ʌndə'sɜ:vdli] Pres & -ly In an undeserved manner, without deserving praise or blame undeserving, adj [1 ʊndə'sɜ:vɪŋ, 2 ʌndə'sɜ:vɪŋ] un- (I) & deserving Not deserving, a not meritorious, having earned no claim (to help &c) by personal virtue the undeserving poor, b undeserving of, not meriting, unworthy of undeserving of pity undesignated, adj [1 ʊndə'zɪɡneɪtɪd, 2 ʌndə'zɪɡneɪtɪd] un- (I) & designate(d) Not designated, unspecified, undescribed, unappointed undesignated, adj [1 ʊndə'zɪɡnɪd, 2 ʌndə'zɪɡnɪd] un- (I) & design(ed) Not designed, not intended, unintentional undesignedly, adv [1 ʊndə'zɪɡnedli, 2 ʌndə'zɪɡnedli] Pres & -ly In an undesigned manner, unintentionally undesigning, adj [1 ʊndə'zɪŋɪŋ, 2 ʌndə'zɪŋɪŋ] un- (I) & designing Not designing, not engaged in crafty schemes, not baying ulterior motives, ingenuous undesirability, n [1 ʊndə'zɪərəblɪtɪ, 2 ʌndə'zɪərəblɪtɪ] See next word & -ity Condition, quality, of being undesirable, undesirableness undesirable, adj & n [1 ʊndə'zɪərəbl, 2 ʌndə'zɪərəbl] un- (I) & desirable 1 adj Not desirable, not to be desired, having no qualities to recommend (him, it) an undesirable alien, B undesirable manners, language &c, n he called at a most undesirable moment 2 n An undesirable person undesirableness, n Pres & -ness Undesirability undesirably, adv See pres & -ly In an undesirable manner undesured, adj [1 ʊndə'sɜ:rd, 2 ʌndə'sɜ:rd] un- (I) & desire(d) Not desired, a unwished for, unwanted, b not asked for, unsolicited undesirous, adj [1 ʊndə'sɜ:rus, 2 ʌndə'sɜ:rus] un- (I) & desirous Not desirous of, not desiring undesirous of distinctions, rank &c undestroyable, adj [1 ʊndə'strɔɪəbl, 2 ʌndə'strɔɪəbl] un- (I) & destroyable Not destroyable, indestructible undetected, adj [1 ʊndə'tektɪd, 2 ʌndə'tektɪd] un- (I) & detect(ed) Not detected, undiscovered undetermined, adj [1 ʊndə'tɜ:mɪnd, 2 ʌndə'tɜ:mɪnd] un- (I) & determine(d) 1 Not determined, not settled, fixed, or decided one question still remained undetermined 2 Irresolute, vacillating, vague an undetermined character undeterréd, adj [1 ʊndə'tɜ:rd, 2 ʌndə'tɜ:rd] un- (I) & deter(red) Not deterred undveloped, adj [1 ʊndə'veləpt, 2 ʌndə'veləpt] un- (I) & develop(ed) Not developed 1 (of persons &c) a (in physical sense) Not fully grown, not grown to normal size for its age an undeveloped child, muscles, body &c, b an undeveloped mind, character

2 (of land) Not put to its fullest use, whether for cultivation or building undeviating, adj [1 undeviating, 2 undeviating] un- (I) & Pres Part of deviate Not deviating; a not departing from a straight course, not wandering into by-paths, b not turning aside from a fixed line in conduct, purpose, principle undeviatingly, adv Prec & -ly In an undeviating manner undevout, adj [1 undevout, 2 undevout] un- (I) & devout Not devout undevoutly, adv Prec & -ly In an undevout manner undies, n [1 undies, 2 undies] Abbr of underclothes, w dimin ending (colloq) Women's underclothes undifferentiated, adj [1 undifferentiated, 2 undifferentiated] un- (I) & differentiate(d) Not differentiated, homogeneous undiffused, adj [1 undiffused, 2 undiffused] un- (I) & diffuse(d) Not diffused undigested, adj [1 undigested, 2 undigested] un- (I) & digest(ed) Not digested, a not yet assimilated by the organs of digestion, not absorbed into the system, b not fully assimilated by the mind, not analysed, arranged, correlated undigested facts, theories &c undignified, adj [1 undignified, 2 undignified] un- (I) & dignified Not dignified, inconsistent with, wanting in, dignity undiluted, adj [1 undiluted, 2 undiluted] un- (I) & dilute(d) Not diluted, not mixed with extraneous matter, at full strength, unweakened by admixture of other elements undiminished, adj [1 undiminished, 2 undiminished] un- (I) & diminish(ed) Not diminished, not lessened, retaining full force, quality &c undimmed, adj [1 undimmed, 2 undimmed] un- (I) & dimmed Not dimmed undine, n [1 undine, 2 undine] fr Mod Germ, taken fr Fr undine, fr Lat unda, 'wave', see undulate (I) A female water-sprite, or elemental spirit, who, according to the system of Paracelsus, obtained a human soul by marrying, and bearing a child to, a mortal, cp salamander, gnome, and sylph, whence (esp) the name of the principal character in La Motte Fouquet's romance 'Undine' undiplomatic, adj [1 undiplomatic, 2 undiplomatic] un- (I) & diplomatic Not diplomatic, blunt, tactless undiplomatically, adv [1 undiplomatically, 2 undiplomatically] Prec & -al & -ly Not diplomatically undirected, adj [1 undirected, 2 undirected] un- (I) & direct(ed) Not directed 1 Left without direction or guidance undirected zeal 2 Not addressed, having no address affixed undirected letters undiscovered, adj [1 undiscovered, 2 undiscovered] un- (I) & discover Not discovered, unperceived, not perceived clearly in the mind undiscernible, adj [1 undiscernible, 2 undiscernible] un- (I) & discernible (rare) Not discernible undiscerning, adj [1 undiscerning, 2 undiscerning] un- (I) & discerning Not discerning, deficient in mental or moral discernment, dull of perception, obtuse undiscerningly, adv Prec & -ly In an undiscerning manner, without discernment undischarged, adj [1 undischarged, 2 undischarged] un- (I) & discharge(d) Not discharged 1 Not fulfilled or carried out an undischarged duty 2 Not freed from obligation, not having received a discharge undischarged bankrupt 3 Not fired an undischarged gun undisciplined, adj [1 undisciplined, 2 undisciplined] un- (I) & discipline(d) Not disciplined, a not subject, or having been subjected, to mental or moral training and control as undisciplined mind, character &c, b specif, not properly exercised in military discipline, not trained to obey orders, not observing due order and discipline not an army but an undisciplined mob undisclosed, adj [1 undisclosed, 2 undisclosed] un- (I) & disclose(d) Not disclosed, kept secret, undivulged undiscovered, adj [1 undiscovered, 2 undiscovered] un- (I) & discover Not discovered, not found out, unknown undiscriminated, adj [1 undiscriminated, 2 undiscriminated] un- (I) & discriminate(d) Not discriminated, not separated or distinguished, indiscriminate undiscriminating, adj [1 undiscriminating, 2 undiscriminating] un- (I) & discriminate Not discriminating, not exhibiting discrimination, unorthodox undiscriminatingly, adv Prec & -ly In an indiscriminating manner, without discrimination undiscussed, adj [1 undiscussed, 2 undiscussed] un- (I) & discuss(ed) Not discussed, undebated, not argued undisfigured, adj [1 undisfigured, 2 undisfigured] un- (I) & disfigure(d) Not disfigured undisguised, adj [1 undisguised, 2 undisguised] un- (I) & disguise(d) Not disguised 1 Not covered or veiled under a disguise, mask &c 2 Open, plain, avowed, un concealed undisguised pleasure, hatred, he made an undisguised attack undisguisedly, adv [1 undisguisedly, 2 undisguisedly] Prec & -ly In an undisguised manner, without disguise, frankly undismayed, adj [1 undismayed, 2 undismayed] un- (I) & dismay(ed) Not dismayed, not terrified, not disheartened undisparaged, adj [1 undisparaged, 2 undisparaged] un- (I) & disparage(d) Not disparaged undispatched, adj [1 undispatched, 2 undispatched] un- (I) & dispatch(ed) Not dispatched, not sent undispelled, adj [1 undispelled, 2 undispelled] un- (I) & dispel(ed) Not dispelled undispersed, adj [1 undispersed, 2 undispersed] un- (I) & disperse(d) Not dispersed, kept together undisplayed, adj [1 undisplayed, 2 undisplayed] un- (I) & display(ed) Not displayed undisposed, adj [1 undisposed, 2 undisposed] un- (I) & dispose(d) Not disposed, a not inclined, unwilling, indisposed undisposed to do &c, b not disposed of, not set apart, not allocated to a specific use, not distributed undisposed property, c (rare, archaic) unwell, indisposed undisputed, adj [1 undisputed, 2 undisputed] un- (I) & dispute(d) Not disputed, unquestioned undissected, adj [1 undissected, 2 undissected] un- (I) & dissect(ed) Not dissected undissembled, adj [1 undissembled, 2 undissembled] un- (I) & disassemble(d) Not disassembled, undisgussied, open, unfeigned undissembling, adj [1 undissembling, 2 undissembling] un- (I) & Pres Part of dissemble Not dissembling, free from dissimulation, frank, honest undissolved, adj [1 undissolved, 2 undissolved] un- (I) & dissolve(d) Not dissolved undistinguishable, adj [1 undistinguishable, 2 undistinguishable] un- (I) & distinguishable Not distinguishable, not to be known apart, not clearly separable.

undistinguishably, adv Prec & -ly In an undistinguishable manner undistinguished, adj [1 undistinguished, 2 undistinguished] un- (I) & distinguish Not distinguished 1 Not regarded as distinct or separate 2 Having no distinction, commonplace, ordinary, mediocre undistressed, adj [1 undistressed, 2 undistressed] un- (I) & distress(ed) Not distressed, not troubled, physically or mentally undistributed, adj [1 undistributed, 2 undistributed] un- (I) & distribute(d) Not distributed, specif (log) of a middle term used with different quantity in the major and minor premise, thus concealing a fallacy in the conclusion undisturbed, adj [1 undisturbed, 2 undisturbed] un- (I) & disturb(od) Not disturbed, a not moved or placed in another position, b not worried or distressed in mind undiversified, adj [1 undiversified, 2 undiversified] un- (I) & diversify & -ed Not diversified, uniform undivided, adj [1 undivided, 2 undivided] un- (I) & divide(d) Not divided, a not separated or broken into two or more parts, whole, continuous an undivided line, property &c, b not distracted, not directed or concentrated upon more than one object undivided attention undivulged, adj [1 undivulged, 2 undivulged] un- (I) & divulge(d) Not divulged undo, vb trans [1 undo, 2 undo] un- (II) & do 1 To reverse what has been done, to annul what's done cannot be undone, attempt to undo the past, the mischief, an injury to others &c 2 a To unfasten, unloose, unloose to undo a button, one's clothes, collar &c, b to free from what encloses, fastens, to unbutton, unfasten, (person's clothes &c) and free him &c he is choking, undo him, undo a parcel 3 (archaic) To bring to ruin, poverty &c, to ruin, damage, the character, fortunes, of, his extravagance will undo him some day undoock, vb trans [1 undoock, 2 undoock] un- (II) & dock (II) To take (vessel) out of a dock undoer, n [1 undoer, 2 undoer] undo- & -er One who undoes, specif, one who brings another to ruin &c this faithless friend was his undoer undoing, n [1 undoing, 2 undoing] undo & -ing 1 Act of reversing what has been done, reversal, annulment of the past there can be no undoing of the injury done to him 2 Act of untying, unfastening the undoing of a parcel &c 3 a Act or process of bringing to ruin it is melancholy to see the gradual undoing of a great man, b cause, source, of ruin, destruction, misfortune &c his over-weening self confidence proved his undoing in the end undomesticated, adj [1 undomesticated, 2 undomesticated] un- (I) & domesticate(d) 1 (of animals) Not tamed, unaccustomed to live in contact with, or under care of man, wild. 2 (of human beings) Not fond of home, unsuited for family life in the domestic circle undone (I), adj [1 undone, 2 undone] fr PP of undo 1 Unfastened, unloosed, untied 2 Ruined, brought to misery undone (II), adj un- (I) & PP of do Not done, not carried out, uncompleted 'left undone those things which we ought to have done', half his work is undone undoubted, adj [1 undoubted, 2 undoubted] un- (I) & doubt(ed) Not doubted or called in question, indisputable, genuine, indisputable undoubted evidence, an undoubted masterpiece, an undoubted Rembrandt undoubtedly, adv Prec & -ly Without doubt or question, undoubtedly undoubting, adj [1 undoubting, 2 undoubting] un- (I) & doubting Not doubting, not suspecting undoubtedly, adv Prec & -ly In an undoubting manner, unsuspectingly undrape, vb trans [1 undráp, 2 andrésp] un- (II) & drapé To remove drapery, covering, or clothing from, to uncover, unclothe undraped, adj [1 undrápt, 2 andrésp] un- (I & II) & drapé(d) Not draped, unclothed, with drapery removed undreamed, -dreamt, adj [1 undrémd; -drém(p)t, 2 andrémd, drém(p)t] un- (I) & dream(ed) (chiefly undreamed, undreamt) Not dreamed or dreamt of, not conceived or thought of, unimagined, unexpected, unsuspected an undreamt of success, wonders still undreamt of undress (I), vb trans & intrans [1 undres, 2 andrés] un- (II) & dress 1 trans To take clothes off, strip, divest of clothing 2 intrans To take one's clothes off undress (II), u [1 undres, 2 andrés] undress (II), u [1 undres, 2 andrés] An Ordinary dress, as distinguished from 'full or parade dress', as of military and naval or other uniform, b loose, informal dress, déshabille undressed (I), adj [1 undrést, 2 andrésst] PP of undress (I) Having the clothing removed, without clothing, nude, speul, having one's day clothing removed, and in night attire undressed (II), adj un- (I) & dress(ed) (of wounds, leather &c) Not dressed undrilled, adj [1 undrild, 2 andrild] un- (I) & drill(ed) Not drilled undrinkable, adj [1 undringkabl, 2 andringkabl] un- (I) & drinkable Not drinkable undue, adj un- (I) & due (I) 1 [1 undú, 2 andú] Not according to what is right or proper, a excessive, immoderate 'readed the matter with undue haste, had an undus fondness for whisky, b improper undue influence, influence improperly exercised over another, so as to induce him to do what he otherwise would not have done, as in making a will &c, undue influence is sufficient to invalidate a will if established, a unbecoming, unsuitable, to the occasion undus lewly 2 [1 undú, 2 andú] Not yet due or owing (rare, except of a bill of exchange or other negotiable instrument) undulate (I), adj [1 undúllát, 2 andjúlát], *fr Lat undulatus, 'wavy, undulated', rare & post class, fr undula, dimin of Lat unda, 'wave, water', op Lat idus, 'wet', cogn w Gk hudór, 'water', see hydro-, & Engl water & wet, the Lat und is seen also in abound, redundant, surround &c (rare, except bet., of leaves &c) Wavy, having a wavy or undulating margin undulate (II), vb intrans See prec 1 (of a moving surface) To rise and fall in a regular series of alternate ridges and furrows (of the surface of the sea, or other large sheet of water, of standing corn swept by the wind &c) 2 (of a firm surface) To be diversified by a series of gently rising and falling curved slopes the land undulates as far as the eye can see 3 (of an edge) To be out or shaped into a series of alternately concave and convex curves undulating, adj [1 undúllátng, 2 andjúlátng] Pres Part of prec Undulated, wavy, having undulation, esp of surface of ground undulatingly, adv Pres & -ly In an undulating manner undulation, n [1 undúllátshun, 2 andjúlátshun] undulate (II) & -ion 1 A Undulating motion, like that of waves on surface of water, standing corn &c, b a wavy, undulating contour; a gentle sloping rise or hollow on the surface of the ground. 2 (phys) Vibratory movement in the ether or other liquid or elastic substance, esp of a wave of light or sound.

undulatory, adj [1 undúllátur, 2 andjúlátur] undulate (II) & -ory Pertaining to, caused by, of the nature of, undulations, on water, the surface of the ground, or in the ether, a undulatory theory (of light &c), wave theory unduly, adv [1 undúli, 2 andjúli] undue & -ly In an undue manner, a to an undue extent, immoderately, excessively unduly heated by the arguments, b improperly unduly influenced by another undutiful, adj [1 undútfi, 2 andjútfi] un- (I) & dutiful Not dutiful, rebellious undutifully, adv Pres & -ly In an undutiful manner undutifulness, n See prec & -ness State of being undutiful undying, adj [1 unding, 2 andai ng] un- (I) & Pres Part of die a Immortal, everlasting undying glory, fame, b unceasing, never ending with undying hatred unearned, adj [1 unernd, 2 anínd] un- (I) & earn(ed) Not earned, not gained by personal services or work, specif, unearned income, income derived from investments, as distinguished from salary, wages, fees for work done, and subject to a higher rate of income tax, unearned increment, increase in value of landed property due to causes other than expenditures of the owner in developing it, such as increased demand from growth of population, expenditure of public money &c unearth, vb trans [1 unérth, 2 aníp] un- (II) & earth 1 a To dig out of, up from, the earth to unearth a buried treasure, b to drive (fox &c) from its earth or burrow, with a tanner &c 2 (fig) To discover, bring to light, by diligent search to unearth hitherto unknown documents, a secret, a mystery &c unearthliness, n [1 unérthlness, 2 aníplnás] See next word & -ness State, quality, of being unearthly unearthly, adj [1 unérthli, 2 anípli] un- (I) & earthly A Not earthly, not of this world, supernatural unearthly light, appearance, beauty, b mysterious, weird, ghostly an unearthly scream uneasily, adv [1 unézi, 2 anízli] uneasy & -ly In an uneasy manner uneasiness, n [1 unéziens, 2 anízens] See next word & -ness State of being uneasy uneasy, adj [1 unézi, 2 anízli] un- (I) & easy 1 a Not enjoying bodily ease, un comfortable, restless uneasy in tight clothes, b not firmly settled uneasy in the saddle, (fig) uneasy on the throne 2 a Disturbed in mind, anxious, perturbed to feel uneasy about the future, the weather &c, b arising from, causing, anxiety or uneasiness of mind, disturbing uneasy dreams, fears &c 3 (of manner &c) Evincing lack of ease, constrained, awkward, embarrassed, self-conscious uneatable, adj [1 unéstahl, 2 anístahl] un- (I) & eatable Not eatable uneaten, adj [1 unétn, 2 aníta] un- (I) & eat(en) Not eaten uneconomic(al), adj [1 unékənomík(l), 2 an-ékənomík(l)] un- (I) & economic(al) Not economic, a not in accordance with the principles of economics uneconomic expenditure, prices, wages &c, b not economical, extravagant, wasteful on uneconomic manager unedifying, adj [1 unédifing, 2 anédifid ng] un- (I) & edifying Not edifying, not tending to moral edification, degrading an unedifying spectacle unedited, adj [1 unédited, 2 aedítid] un- (I) & edit(ed) Not edited, specif, not published before of literary and other works uneducated, adj [1 unédúkáted, 2 anédjú kátid] un- (I) & educate(d) Not educated illiterate unembarrassed, adj [1 unembárást, 2 an-imbárást] un- (I) & embarrass(ed) Not embarrassed, a free from mental or money troubles, b free from awkwardness of manner, easy unemotional, adj [1 unemóshuni, 2 an-émóshuni] un- (I) & emotional Not emotional, not readily feeling or showing strong emotion, not liable to having the emotions strongly roused unemployable, adj [1 unemplóabl, 2 anim plóabl] un- (I) & employable Not employable, a not usable, b not capable of being employed for labour unemployed, adj & n [1 unemplóid, 2 an-emplóid] un- (I) & employ(ed) 1 adj Not employed, a not used or put to use or profit unemployed talents, energies, capital &c, b not occupied to have a few hours a day unemployed, c not employed or engaged in regular labour, out of work an unemployed labourer, craftsman 2 n (coll) The unemployed, body of workmen out of work at a specified time or in a specified district unemployment, n [1 unemplóiment, 2 an-emplóiment] un- (I) & employment a State of being unemployed or out of work, b the fluctuating number of workers out of work at any specific moment or in any specific district statistics of unemployment, what is the unemployment of this area?, also (attrib) as unemployment benefit, payment made to unemployed workers under various insurance acts, unemployment insurance, insurance against unemployment by means of contributions from workers, employers, and the State, in a specific industry unencumbered, adj [1 unenkúmbəd, 2 an-inkámbəd] un- (I) & encumber(ed) Not encumbered, without encumbrances, specif, of landed estates, not burdened with mortgages or other charges, such as life interests, annuities &c unending, adj [1 unénding, 2 anéndng] un- (I) & end(ing) Not ending, a eternal, everlasting an unending bliss, b never ceasing, ceaseless, continuous unending toil, unending chatter unendingly, adv Pres & -ly In an unending manner, a eternally, b ceaselessly unendowed, adj [1 unendond, 2 unéndnd] un- (I) & endow(ed) Not endowed, without endowments unendurable, adj [1 unéndúrahil, 2 an-ndúrahil] un- (I) & endurable Not endurable, not to be endured, intolerable un-English, adj [1 uningglis, 2 aningglis] un- (I) & English Not English, not like, not characteristic of, Englishmen or their ways &c unenlightened, adj [1 unenlind, 2 an-enlind] un- (I) & enlightened Not enlightened, in state of intellectual darkness, benighted unenterprising, adj [1 unénterpáizng, 2 an-énterpáizng] un- (I) & enterprising Not enterprising, unwilling to embark on new enterprises, unadventurous unenvious, adj [1 unénviabl, 2 anénviabl] un- (I) & envious Not envious, not to be envied unequable, adj [1 unékwabl, 2 anékwabl] un- (I) & equable Not equable, a not even or uniform, b easily put out or troubled, uncertain in temper unequal, adj [1 unékwál, 2 anékwál] un- (I) & equal Not equal, a not of the same size, weight, length &c, b not equally matched, uneven, ill matched, c not of the same merit or quality throughout, d followed by to, not sufficient for, not up to unequal to the task unequaled, adj [1 unékwáld, 2 anékwáld] un- (I) & equal(led) Not equalled or to be equalled, unrivalled, unmatched, unparalleled unequally, adv [1 unékwah, 2 anékwah] unequal & -ly In an unequal manner unequivocal, adj [1 unekvívokl, 2 anékwívokl] un- (I) & equivocal Not equivocal, without equivocation, not ambiguous, clear, plain, straightforward unequivocally, adv Pres & -ly In an unequivocal manner unerring, adj [1 unéring, 2 aníring] un- (I) & err(ing) Not erring, not making, incapable of making, any mistake, not missing, not failing, sure, certain unerring aim unerring judgement, insight &c unerringly, adv Pres & -ly In an unerring manner unesential, adj [1 ʊnesənʃl, 2 ʌnsənʃəl] un- (I) & essential Not essential, not belonging to the essence, not indispensable, not necessary, unimportant uneven, adj [1 ʊnēvən, 2 anɪvən] un- (I) & even (II) Not even, a not level or smooth, rough uneven surfaces, road, b not uniform, unequal, not equable of uneven temper, c not of uniform or equal quality throughout an uneven performance, d not divisible by two without remainder, odd uneven numbers unevenly, adv Prec & -ly In an uneven manner uneventful, adj [1 ʊnevəntfəl, 2 ʌnvəntfəl] un- (I) & eventful Not eventful, not characterized by numerous noteworthy or important events an uneventful life, year &c uneventfully, adv Prec & -ly In an uneventful manner unexamined, adj [1 ʊnɛgzəbɪnd, 2 ʌnzɛzɪnd] un- (I) & examined Without example, unprecedented, unparalleled, exceptional unexceptionable, adj [1 ʊnɛksepʃənbəl, 2 ʌnksepʃənbəl] un- (I) & exceptionable Not oexceptionable, not subject or liable to exceptions, unobjectionable, irreproachable, perfect, excellent unexceptionably, adv Prec & -ly In an unexceptionable manner unexecuted, adj [1 ʊnɛksekjʊtəd, 2 ʌnkɛskjʊtəd] un- (I) & executed Not executed, esp of legal document, not finally signed and witnessed unexhausted, adj [1 ʊnɛgzəwɔstəd, 2 ʌnzɔstəd] un- (I) & exhausted Not exhausted, esp not consumed, not entirely used up, still producing something, unexhausted improvements, such as manure put on agricultural land of which the benefit has not ceased unexpected, adj [1 ʊnɛkspektəd, 2 ʌnkɛkspektəd] un- (I) & expect(ed) Not expected, not provided for, coming without warning, unforeseen, sudden unexpectedly, adv Prec & -ly In an unexpected manner unexpired, adj [1 ʊnɛkspraɪd, 2 ʌnkɛkspraɪd] un- (I) & expire(d) Not expired, esp of lease or tenancy, of which a portion of the term has still to run unexpressive, adj [1 ʊnɛksprɛsɪv, 2 ʌnkɛksprɛsɪv] un- (I) & expressive 1 Inexpressive 2 (obs) Inexpressible, ineffable he hears the unexpressive nuptial song, In the blast kingdoms meek of joy and love (Milton, 'Lycidas', 176-7) unexpurgated, adj [1 ʊnɛkspɜrgətəd, 2 ʌnkɛkspɜrgətəd] un- (I) & expurgated Not expurgated, of book &c, with no passages suppressed, published in full with no omissions unfading, adj [1 ʊnfædɪŋ, 2 ʌnfædɪŋ] un- (I) & Pres Part of fade Not fading, not liable to fade or pass away, imperishable esp unfading glory, (in material sense chiefly poet) unfading flowers unfailing, adj [1 ʊnfæɪlɪŋ, 2 ʌnfæɪlɪŋ] un- (I) & fail(ing) Not failing, not liable to fail, a not running or falling short, inexhaustible an unfailing supply of water, source of amusement, unfailing courage, b not likely to mislead or disappoint, staunch an unfailing champion, friend, defender &c unfailingly, adv Prec & -ly In an unfailing manner, without failing unfair, adj [1 ʊnfæɪr, 2 ʌnfæɪr] un- (I) & fair (II) Not fair, a unjust, inequitable, showing, resulting from, a lack of impartiality an unfair judge, judgement &c, b having recourse to tricks and shifts and mean devices, dishonest an unfair player, opponent, c based on, derived from, tricky, mean, dishonest methods an unfair advantage, unfair means &c unfairly, adv Prec & -ly In an unfair manner unfairness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being unfair unfaith, n [1 ʌnfæθ, 2 ʌnfæɪp] un- (I)

& faith (rare and poet) Want of faith, lack of honour, untrustworthiness, distrust 'Faith and unfaith can ne'er be equal powers' (Tennyson, 'Merlin and Vivien', 388) unfaithful, adj [1 ʊnfæθfəl, 2 ʌnfæθfəl] un- (I) & faithful Not faithful 1 a not observing vows, obligations, duty &c an unfaithful servant, b disloyal an unfaithful friend, subject 2 Specific, not true to marriage vows, guilty of adultery an unfaithful wife, husband 3 Not true to fact, inaccurate an unfaithful version, transcript unfaithfully, adv Prec & -ly In an unfaithful manner unfaithfulness, n See prec & -ness State of being unfaithful unfaltering, adj [1 ʊnfɔlterɪŋ, 2 ʌnfɔlterɪŋ] un- (I) & falter(ing) Not faltering 1 a Steady, not stumbling with unfaltering steps, b not trembling unfaltering voice, tone, c not shifting, intent unfaltering gaze 2 (fig) Unhesitating, resolute, undeviating, inflexible unfaltering courage, determination unfamiliar, adj [1 ʊnfəməljər, 2 ʌnfəməljər] un- (I) & familiar Not familiar 1 a Not well known, not recognized as being known before, strange unfamiliar faces, an unfamiliar landscape, b unaccustomed, unknown an unfamiliar language 2 Unfamiliar with, unacquainted with, not accustomed to, inexperienced in quite unfamiliar with the habits of refined society unfamiliarity, n [1 ʊnfəməljərɪti, 2 ʌnfəməljərɪti] Prec & -ty Want of familiarity unfamiliarly, adv [1 ʊnfəməljərli, 2 ʌnfəməljərli] See prec & -ly In an unfamiliar manner unfashionable, adj [1 ʊnfəʃənəbl, 2 ʌnfəʃənəbl] un- (I) & fashionable Not fashionable, behind, not in accordance with, the fashion unfashionably, adv Prec & -ly In an unfashionable manner unfashionableness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being unfashionable unfashioned, adj [1 ʊnfəʃənəd, 2 ʌnfəʃənəd] un- (I) & fashioned Not fashioned, unshaped, shapeless unfasten, vb trans [1 ʊnfæʃən, 2 ʌnfæʃən] un- (II) & fasten To loose, free from, a fastening, to unbind, untie, unfix, undo unfastened (I), adj [1 ʌnfæʃənəd, 2 ʌnfæʃənəd] PP of prec Loosed, freed, from a fastening unfastened (II), adj un- (I) & fasten(ed) Not fastened unfathered, adj [1 ʊnfæðəd, 2 ʌnfæðəd] un- (I) & father(ed) a Having no father, fatherless, b not acknowledged by his, its, father, begetter, or author unfatherly, adj [1 ʊnfæðədli, 2 ʌnfæðədli] un- (I) & fatherly Not fatherly, unbecoming a father, harsh, cruel unfathomable, adj [1 ʊnfæðməbl, 2 ʌnfæðməbl] un- (I) & fathom & -able Not fathomable, a not to be fathomed or plumbed, bottomless unfathomable sea, lake, b not to be fully grasped by the mind, inexplicable, insoluble an unfathomable mystery unfathomed, adj [1 ʊnfæðəmd, 2 ʌnfæðəmd] un- (I) & fathom(ed) Not fathomed, unplumbed (lit and fig) unfavourable, adj [1 ʊnfəvərəbl, 2 ʌnfəvərəbl] un- (I) & favourable Not favourable, unpromising, adverse unfavourableness, n Prec & -ness State of being unfavourable unfavourably, adv See prec & -ly In an unfavourable manner unfeasible, adj [1 ʊnfɛzəbl, 2 ʌnfɛzəbl] un- (I) & feasible Not feasible, not to be done impracticable unfeathered, adj [1 ʊnfedəd, 2 ʌnfedəd] un- (I) & feather(ed) Not feathered, having no feathers, unfeathered unfed, adj [1 ʊnfəd, 2 ʌnfəd] un- (I) & fed Not fed unfeeling, adj [1 ʊnfɛɪlɪŋ, 2 ʌnfɛɪlɪŋ] un-

(I) & feeling Not feeling, lacking feeling(s), callous, hard hearted unfeelingly, adv Prec & -ly In an unfeeling manner unfeigned, adj [1 ʊnfɛnd, 2 ʌnfɛnd] un- (I) & feign(ed) Not feigned, real, sincere, genuine unfeignedly, adv [1 ʊnfɛndli, 2 ʌnfɛndli] Prec & -ly In an unfeigned manner, sincerely unfelt, adj [1 ʊnfelt, 2 ʌnfelt] un- (I) & felt (II) Not felt unfeminine, adj [1 ʊnfemɪnɪn, 2 ʌnfemɪnɪn] un- (I) & feminine Not feminine, unwomanly unfermented, adj [1 ʊnfəmentəd, 2 ʌnfəmentəd] un- (I) & ferment(ed) Not fermented unfertil, adj [1 ʊnfərtɪl, 2 ʌnfərtɪl] un- (I) & fertile Not fertile, infertile (perhaps the more usual form) unfertilized, adj [1 ʊnfərtɪlaɪzd, 2 ʌnfərtɪlaɪzd] un- (I) & fertilize(d) Not fertilized unfetter, vb trans [1 ʊnfɛtər, 2 ʌnfɛtər] un- (II) & fetter (II) To free, loose, from fetters or chains, to set at liberty (lit and fig) unfettered (I), adj [1 ʊnfɛtəd, 2 ʌnfɛtəd], fr PP of prec Freed from fetters unfettered (II), adj un- (I) & fetter(ed) Not hampered or restrained in thought or action, independent, free unfigured, adj [1 ʊnfɪɡəd, 2 ʌnfɪɡəd] un- (I) & figure(d) Not figured, not decorated or marked with figures unfilial, adj [1 ʊnfɪljəl, 2 ʌnfɪljəl] un- (I) & filial Not filial, not becoming a son or obid, undutiful unfilially, adv Prec & -ly In an unfilial manner unfilterable, adj [1 ʊnfɪltərəbl, 2 ʌnfɪltərəbl] un- (I) & filterable Not filterable, specific (biol) of certain micro organisms that pass through all filtering media unfinished, adj [1 ʊnfɪnɪʃt, 2 ʌnfɪnɪʃt] un- (I) & finish(ed) Not finished, a not completed, not brought to completion an unfinished house, story, b not highly wrought, rough, unpolished an unfinished style unfirm, adj [1 ʊnfɜrm, 2 ʌnfɜrm] un- (I) & firm Not firm, shaky, likely to fall down or apart, of structures &c, cp different use of firm unfit (I), adj [1 ʊnfɪt, 2 ʌnfɪt] un- (I) & fit (IV) Not fit 1 Not sound, diseased, defective, in body or mind unfit to plead &c, the unfit (coll pl), those who are unfit in any sense 2 Unsited, unsuitable for, not adapted to, some specified purpose unfit for such a profession, mind unfit for a philosopher, unfit to conduct such delicate inquiries, unfit for work, houses unfit for human habitation unfit (II), vb trans un- (II) & fit (III) To deprive of fitness, physical or mental, to make unsuitable, disqualify drink unfits a man for work, his age unfits him for such a position unfitly, adv [1 ʊnfɪtli, 2 ʌnfɪtli] unfit (I) & -ly In an unfit manner or condition unfitness, n [1 ʊnfɪtnəs, 2 ʌnfɪtnəs] See prec & -ness Condition of being unfit unfitted (I), adj [1 ʊnfɪtəd, 2 ʌnfɪtəd] PP of unfit (II) Rendered unfit or unsuitable, deprived of fitness, disqualified unfitted for such a position &c unfitted (II), adj un- (I) & fit(ted) Not fitted, furnished, or supplied with houses unfitted with baths unfitting, adj [1 ʊnfɪtɪŋ, 2 ʌnfɪtɪŋ] un- (I) & fitting (I) Not fitting, unbecoming, unsuitable unfittingly, adv Prec & -ly In an unfitting manner unfix, vb trans [1 ʊnfɪks, 2 ʌnfɪks] un- (II) & fix To make not fixed, to remove from a fixed position unfix bayonets unfixed (I), adj [1 ʊnfɪkst, 2 ʌnfɪkst] PP of prec Removed from a fixed position.

unfixed (II), adj un- (I) & fix(ed) Not fixed unflagging, adj [1 unfláging, 2 anfláging] un- (I) & flag(ging) Not flagging, not drooping, unremitting unflagging spirits, zeal, energy &c unflaggingly, adv Free & -ly In an unflagging manner unflattering, adj [1 unflátering, 2 anfláter] un- (I) & flattering Not flattering unflatteringly, adv Free & -ly In an unflattering manner unfledged, adj [1 unfléjd, 2 anfléjd] un- (I) & fledgo(d) Not yet fully fledged or feathered, (fig) Not fully developed, immature unfleshed, adj [1 unflésh, 2 anflésh] un- (I) & flesh(ed) Not fleshed, not yet dipped in blood, not yet used in fighting an unfleshed sword unfleshly, adj [1 unfléshh, 2 anfléshh] un- (I) & fleshly Not fleshly, not worldly, spiritual unflinching, adj [1 unflínshing, 2 anflínshing] un- (I) & flinch(ing) Not flinching, not shrinking, steadfast, unyielding, resolute unflinchingly, adv Free & -ly In an unflinching manner unfold, vb trans & intrans [1 unfóld, 2 anfóld] un- (II) & fold A trans 1 a To open the folds of, to unwrap and spread out what is folded to unfold a news paper, a tablecloth &c, b to expand, spread open plant unfolds its leaves, flower its buds 2 (by trans & fig) To open, reveal, disclose, display to unfold one's plans, 'I could a tale unfold' B intrans (of leaves, buds &c) To become open or expanded buds unfold in the sunshine unforeseen, adj [1 unfóresén, 2 anfóresén] un- (I) & foresee(n) Not foreseen, unexpected unforgettable, adj [1 unfórgétabl, 2 anfórgétabl] un- (I) & forgettable Not forgettable, not to be forgotten, ever memorable unforgivable, adj [1 unfórgívaibl, 2 anfórgívaibl] un- (I) & forgivable Not forgivable, not to be forgiven, unpardonable unforgiven, adj [1 unfórgívn, 2 anfórgívn] un- (I) & forgive(n) Not forgiven, not pardoned unforgiving, adj [1 unfórgíving, 2 anfórgíving] un- (I) & forgiving Not forgiving unforgotten, adj [1 unfórgótn, 2 anfórgótn] un- (I) & forgot(ten) Not forgotten, remembered unformed, adj [1 unfórm, 2 anfórm] un- (I) & form(ed) Not yet formed, not fully developed, untrained unfortunate, adj & n [1 unfórtún, 2 anfórtún] un- (I) & fortunate 1 adj a Not fortunate, unlucky, unhappy, unsuccessful, b not accompanied by good fortune an unfortunate day 2 n An unfortunate person, esp. a prostitute unfortunately, adv Free & -ly In an unfortunate manner unfounded, adj [1 unfóund, 2 anfóund] un- (I) & found(ed) Not founded on fact, without foundation, baseless unfounded accusations, reports, hopes &c unframed, adj [1 unfrámd, 2 anfrámd] un- (I) & frame(d) Not framed, not furnished with a frame, as a picture, drawing &c unfree, adj [1 unfré, 2 anfré] un- (I) & free (rare) Not free, not enjoying liberty, in a state of slavery or subjection, specif (legal hist) of tenure of land in which the service to be performed was uncertain and fixed more or less at the will of the feudal lord unfrequented, adj [1 unfrékventétd, 2 anfrékventétd] un- (I) & frequent(ed) Not frequented, seldom or rarely visited or used by people an unfrequented valley, road &c unfriendly, adj [1 unfréndl, 2 anfréndl] un- (I) & friend & -ad Having no friends, not befriend unfriendliness, n [1 unfréndhnes, 2 anfréndhnes] See next word & -ness unfriendly, adj & adv [1 unfréndli, 2 anfréndli] un- (I) & friendly 1 adj Not friendly, unkind, hostile an unfriendly act 2 adv (rare and archaic) In an unfriendly manner I do not mean it unfriendly unfrock, vb trans [1 unfrók, 2 anfrók] un- (II) & frock To remove the frock from, specif, to deprive of the status of a priest, degrade from the priesthood, (in PP as adj) an unfrocked priest unfruitful, adj [1 unfrútfúld, 2 anfrútfúld] un- (I) & fruitful Not fruitful, a (rare or archaic) not yielding fruit, barren, unproductive an unfruitful vine, tree, land, b not yielding results, vain, fruitless our efforts at reform were at first unfruitful unfruitfully, adv Free & -ly In an unfruitful manner, without result unfruitfulness, n See free & -ness Condition of being unfruitful unfulfilled, adj [1 unfúlfúld, 2 anfúlfúld] un- (I) & fulfil(led) Not fulfilled, not achieved, unrealized, unaccomplished 'In heroes of unfulfilled renown' (Shelley, 'Adonais'), our hopes remain unfulfilled unfunded, adj [1 unfúnd, 2 anfúnd] un- (I) & fund & -ed (of debt) Not funded, floating unfurl, vb trans & intrans [1 unfúrl, 2 anfúrl] un- (II) & furl 1 trans To unroll, spread out to unfurl sails, a flag &c 2 intrans To become unfurled unfurnished, adj [1 unfúrnésh, 2 anfúrnésh] un- (I) & furnish(ed) Not furnished, esp of rooms &c without furniture unfurliness, n [1 unfúrnéshnes, 2 anfúrnéshnes] See next word & -ness Condition of being unfurnish ungainly, adj [1 unghánh, 2 anghánh] ME ungenliche, as adv, w suff liche, see -ly, added to ungen, 'awkward, inconvenient', fr un- (I) & ON gegn, 'ready, convenient, serviceable', cogn w gegna, 'to meet', gegna, 'against', see further again & against

Awkward, clumsy

ungallant, adj un- (I) & gallant 1 [1 unghálánt, 2 anghálánt] Not gallant, not evincing gallantry 2 [1 unghálánt, 2 anghálánt] Not polite, esp not showing due deference and courtesy to women ungallantly, adv Free & -ly In an ungallant manner ungarbled, adj [1 unghárbld, 2 anghárbl] un- (I) & garble(d) Not garbled, not mutilated or falsified for the purpose of misleading, accurate, plain, straightforward ungarbled report, statement, version &c ungenerous, adj [1 unghénérus, 2 anghénérus] un- (I) & generous Not generous, a not lavish or liberal, b mean, unfair ungenerously, adv Free & -ly In an ungenerous manner ungemal, adj [1 unghémál, 2 anghémál] un- (I) & genial (I) Not genial, not kindly, unsociable ungentle, adj [1 unghéntl, 2 anghéntl] un- (I) & gentle Not gentle, a not of gentle birth, b rude, rough ungentlemanlike, adj [1 unghéntlmanlik, 2 anghéntlmanlik] un- (I) & gentlemanlike Unbefitting, unlike, a gentleman, unlike the manners or conduct of a gentleman, ill bred vulgar, cadish ungentlemanliness, n [1 unghéntlmanliness, 2 anghéntlmanliness] See next word & -ness State of being ungentlemanly ungentlemanly, adj [1 unghéntlmanli, 2 anghéntlmanli] un- (I) & gentlemanly Often used now for ungentlemanlike un-get-at-able, adj [1 unghetátábl, 2 anghetátábl] un- (I) & get-at-able Not get-at-able, not easily reached, inaccessible he lives in a remote, unget-at-able village ungird, vb trans [1 unghérd, 2 anghéd] un- (II) & gird To remove the girdle from, to unloose one's girdle ungirt (I), adj [1 unghért, 2 anghéd] PP of gird With girdle loosed or removed ungirt (II), adj un- (I) & PP of gird Having no girdle on unglazed, adj [1 unghláz, 2 anghláz] un- (I) & glaze(d) a Not glazed, b not covered by or fitted with glass ungodliness, n [1 unghódlínes, 2 anghódlínes] See next word & -ness State of being ungodly ungodly, adj [1 unghódlh, 2 anghódlh] un- (I) & godly Not godly, neglectful of God, not fearing or worshipping God, impious wicked, the ungodly, wicked people ungovernable, adj [1 unghúvernábl, 2 anghúvernábl] un- (I) & governable Not governable, incapable of restraint, wild, unruly ungovernable rage, passions &c ungraceful, adj [1 unghrásh, 2 anghrásh] un- (I) & graceful Not graceful, awkward, clumsy ungracefully, adv Free & -ly In an ungraceful manner ungracious, adj [1 unghráshus, 2 anghráshus] un- (I) & gracious Not gracious, not courteous, generous-minded, or kindly, churchy ungraciously, adv Free & -ly In an ungracious manner ungrammatical, adj [1 unghramátshkl, 2 anghrámátshkl] un- (I) & grammatical Not grammatical, not according to the rules of grammar ungrammatically, adv Free & -ly In an ungrammatical manner ungrateful, adj [1 unghrátá, 2 anghrátá] un- (I) & grateful Not grateful 1 Not feeling or expressing gratitude 2 Not repaying one's labour, irksome, disagreeable, unpleasing an ungrateful task ungratefully, adv Free & -ly In an ungrateful manner ungratefulness, n See free & -ness State of being ungrateful, ingratitude ungratified, adj [1 unghrátífúld, 2 anghrátífúld] un- (I) & PP of gratify Not gratified, unsatisfied ungrounded, adj [1 unghróund, 2 anghróund] un- (I) & ground(ed) Not well grounded, lacking grounds or reasons, unfounded ungrudging, adj [1 unghrójng, 2 anghrádjng] un- (I) & grudging Not grudging, unstinted, unsparring ungrudging attention, praise &c ungrudgingly, adv Free & -ly In an ungrudging manner, freely, generously ungu, adj [1 unghwál, 2 anghwál] fr Lat unguis, 'nail, hoof, claw', cogn w Gk ónux, 'nail', see onyx, OE nægel, 'nail', see nail (I), & -al Pertaining to, having, a nail, claw, talon, hoof &c unguarded, adj [1 unghárd, 2 anghárd] un- (I) & guard(ed) Not guarded, showing a lack of circumspection or caution, careless, thoughtless, incautious an unguarded remark, expression &c, in an unguarded moment, when off one's guard unguardedly, adv Free & -ly In an unguarded manner unguent, n [1 unghwént, 2 anghwént] fr Lat unguentum, 'ointment', fr ungere, ungere, 'to anoint', see unctuous & unction, & op ointment & ointment An ointment unguided, adj [1 unghúgd, 2 anghúgd] un- (I) & guide(d) Not guided, lacking a guide or guidance unguiform, adj [1 unghgwíform, 2 anghwíform] fr Lat unguis, see ungual, & -form Shaped like, in the form of, a nail, claw, or hoof ungulate, adj & n [1 unghúllát, 2 anghúllát] fr Lat ungula, 'hoof', also 'claw, talon', dimin form, without force, of unguis, 'nail, claw', see ungual, & -ate 1 adj (zool) a Having hoofs, b belonging to the order or group, Ungulata, hoofed mammals, including the ruminants, swine, horses &c 2 n A hoofed mammal

UNELACRENYED

[illegible]

UNIFORM (II.)

members of the Diplomatic body &c, when on duty, and on ceremonial occasions uniformed, adj [1 úni'fórməd, 2 júni'fórməd] Prec & -ed a Furnished with, habitually wearing, a uniform uniformed constabulary, b actually wearing a uniform a uniformed constable guarded the door uniformity, n [1 úni'fórməti, 2 júni'fórməti], fr L Lat úniformitas (em), see uniform (I) & -ity Quality, state, of being uniform, sameness, consistency, homogeneity, conformity to one pattern, standard, or rule uniformly, adv [1 úni'fórmli, 2 júni'fórmli] uniform (I) & -ly In a uniform manner, without change or variation unify, vb trans [1 úni'fai, 2 júni'fai], fr L or Med Lat únificare, op Fr unifier, see uni- & -ly To cause to be one, to reduce to unity or uniformity Unigenitus, a [1 úni'jénitus, 2 júni'd(énit)es] Med Lat, 'only begotten' The name of a Papal Bull, issued in 1713, by Clement XI against Jansenism, from the word with which it begins unilateral, adj [1 úni'látəral, 2 júni'látəral] uni- & lateral a Having, arranged on, affecting, one side only, one sided, specif b (law) binding, obligatory, for one party only, as by a deed poll unilateral contract unilaterally, adv Prec & -ly In a unilateral manner unilateral, adj [1 úni'látəral, 2 júni'látəral] uni- & lateral Having, consisting of, one letter only unilluminated, adj [1 úni'lúmináted, 2 án iljumináted] un- (I) & illuminate(d) Not illuminated (lit and fig) unillustrated, adj [1 unilústráted, 2 án ilústráted] un- (I) & illustrate(d) Not illustrated, without illustrations unilocular, adj [1 úni'lókulə, 2 júni'ló'kylə] uni- & locular (bot and zool) Having one cell or cavity unimaginable, adj [1 úni'májinəbl, 2 án imájinəbl] un- (I) & imaginable That cannot be imagined, mooncivable unimaginative, adj [1 úni'májinatív, 2 án mádjínatív] un- (I) & imaginative Not imaginative, without imagination unimpaired, adj [1 úni'impáird, 2 án impéárd] un- (I) & impaired(ed) Not impaired, not weakened diminished, or damaged unimpeachability, n [1 úni'mpéachəbiliti, 2 án imptjəbiliti] See next word & -ity State of being unimpeachable, exemption from being called in question or doubted, freedom from fault or blame unimpeachable, adj [1 úni'mpéachəbl, 2 án imptjəbl] un- (I) & impeachable Not impeachable, not liable to be called in question or doubted, irreproachable, blameless unimpeachably, adv Prec & -ly In an unimpeachable manner unimpeded, adj [1 úni'mpédəd, 2 án imptjəd] un- (I) & impede(d) Not impeded, unhindered unimportance, n [1 úni'mpórtəns, 2 án imptjəns] uni- (I) & importance State of being unimportant, want, lack, of importance, insignificance, triviality unimportant, adj [1 úni'mpórtənt, 2 án imptjənt] un- (I) & important Not important, of no weight or value, insignificant, trivial unimposing, adj [1 úni'mpózing, 2 án imptjəzing] un- (I) & imposing Not imposing, unimpressive, in appearance unimpressional, adj [1 úni'mpré'shuəbl, 2 án impré'shuəbl] un- (I) & impressional Not impressionable unimpressive, adj [1 úni'mpré'siv, 2 án impré'siv] un- (I) & impressive Not impressive unimproved, adj [1 úni'mpróvd, 2 án impróvd] un- (I) & improve(d) Not improved, esp of land, not cultivated, not developed for building &c unimproved site value, land value as divested of all improvements unincumbered See unencumbered uninflammable, adj [1 úni'infáməbl, 2 án infáməbl] un- (I) & inflammable Not inflammable uninflected, adj [1 úni'inflektəd, 2 án inflektəd] un- (I) & inflect(d) Not inflected uninflected, adj [1 úni'inflektəd, 2 án inflektəd] un- (I) & inflect(ed) Not inflected, esp of a language or a word, having no inflections uninfluenced, adj [1 úni'inflooənsəd, 2 án inflooənsəd] un- (I) & influence(d) Not influenced uninfluential, adj [1 úni'inflooəntshl, 2 án inflooəntshl] un- (I) & influential Not influential, having no influence uninformed, adj [1 úni'infórməd, 2 án infórməd] un- (I) & informed Not informed, a having no information concerning, not told of, b lacking information or knowledge, untought, ignorant uninhabitable, adj [1 úni'inhəbitəbl, 2 án inhəbitəbl] un- (I) & inhabitable Not inhabitable, not fit to be lived in uninhabited, adj [1 úni'inhəbitəd, 2 án inhəbitəd] un- (I) & inhabited Not inhabited, deserted, empty uninitiated, adj [1 úni'initsháted, 2 án initsháted] un- (I) & initiate(d) Not initiated uninjured, adj [1 uninjurəd, 2 án indžəd] un- (I) & injure(d) Not injured uninspired, adj [1 úninspáird, 2 án inspáird] un- (I) & inspire(d) Not inspired, without, lacking, inspiration uninstructed, adj [1 úninstrúktəd, 2 án instrúktəd] un- (I) & instruct(ed) Not instructed, untought uninstructive, adj [1 úninstrúktív, 2 án instrúktív] un- (I) & instructive Not instructive unintelligent, adj [1 únintéljənt, 2 án intéljənt] un- (I) & intelligent Not intelligent, stupid unintelligently, adv Prec & -ly In an unintelligent manner, stupidly unintelligibility, n [1 únintéljəbiliti, 2 án intéljəbiliti] un- (I) & intelligibility State of being unintelligible, lack of intelligibility unintelligible, adj [1 únintéljəbl, 2 án intéljəbl] un- (I) & intelligible Not intelligible unintelligibly, adv Prec & -ly In an unintelligible manner unintentional, adj [1 úninténshənl, 2 án inténshənl] un- (I) & intentional Not intentional, not deliberate, involuntary unintentionally, adv Prec & -ly In an unintentional manner, involuntarily uninterested, adj [1 únintérestəd, 2 án intérestəd] un- (I) & interested(ed) Not interested uninteresting, adj [1 únintéresting, 2 án intéresting] un- (I) & interesting Not interesting, dull uninterestingly, adv Prec & -ly In an uninteresting manner uninterrupted, adj [1 únintérmittəd, 2 án intérmittəd] un- (I) & interrupt(ed) Not interrupted, uninterrupted uninterrupting, adj [1 únintérmítting, 2 án intérmítting] un- (I) & interrupt(ing) Not interrupting, ceaseless, continuous uninterruptingly, adv Prec & -ly Without intermission, ceaselessly, continuously uninterrupted, adj [1 únintérmittəd, 2 án intérmittəd] un- (I) & interrupt(ed) Not interrupted uninterruptedly, adv Prec & -ly Without interruption uninventive, adj [1 úninvéntiv, 2 án invéntiv] un- (I) & inventive Not inventive, without the faculty of invention uninvited, adj [1 úninvítəd, 2 án invítəd] un- (I) & invite(d) Not invited, having received no invitation uninviting, adj [1 úninvítting, 2 án invítting] un- (I) & inviting Not inviting, unattractive, repellent uninvolved, adj [1 úninvólvd, 2 án invólvd] un- (I) & involve(d) Not involved, simple, direct Union, n [1 úni'ón, 2 júni'ón] Lat, 'union, unity, a single large pearl', see next word & op union (zool) A genus of freshwater mussels, having a pearly shell, and producing pearls union, n [1 úni'un, 2 júni'un] Fr, fr Lat únio (em), 'unity, union', fr únus, 'one', see uni- 1 a Act of uniting or joining two or more things into one to promote, accomplish, the union between two families, states &c, b state of being united in marriage, a marriage 2 State of being united a lasting union, specif, a political combination or fusion of two countries under a single sovereign or government, as the Union of England and Scotland, 1707, of Great Britain and Ireland, 1801 &c 3 A combination of various political or administrative bodies for a specific common purpose the Latin monetary union, the postal union 4 Specif a combination of parishes for administration of the Poor Law under a Public Assistance Authority, b the workhouse administered by each body to go into the union, tramping from one union to another 5 That part of a national flag which symbolizes the political union of two or more states, occupying usually the upper canton next the staff to fly a flag union down, as signal of distress, hence a union flag or jack (see below) 6 A trade union Union flag, n [1 úni'un flág, 2 júni'un flág] The national flag of Great Britain, signifying the union of England, Scotland, and Ireland, being a combination of the crosses of St George, St Andrew, and St Patrick, commonly known as the Union Jack, whether flown as a jack or not unionism, n [1 únionizəm, 2 júni'onizəm] union & -ism Specif 1 a the political principle of uniting under a central government the various kingdoms, states, provinces, dominions, forming the British Empire, the principle of maintaining the unity of the Empire, as distinct from establishing 'Home Rule' or independent governments in each portion or province, b specif, these principles as applied to Ireland 2 Principles of trade-unionism unionist, n [1 únionist, 2 júni'onist] union & -ist 1 a One who advocates the political principles of unionism within the Empire, specif b a member of the party which, basing itself on these principles, opposed Home Rule for Ireland, c name often applied latterly, until the establishment of the Irish Free State, to the Conservative party in Great Britain 2 A member of a trade union, supporter of trade union principles Union Jack, n [1 úni'no ják, 2 júni'un dják] The Union flag of Great Britain when flown as a jack, q v, (in common usage) the Union flag uniparous, adj [1 únipərəs, 2 júni'pərəs] uni- & parous, fr Lat parere, to bring forth, beget, & -ous, op parent a (of animals) Producing, normally, only one at a birth, b (of plants) having a single axis or stem unipartite, adj [1 únipártit, 2 júni'pártit] uni- & part & -ite 1 Not divided into parts 2 a (math) Characterizing a single set of objects of the same kind, b (of curves) having all its real points comprised in one series through infinity or finity unipersonal, adj [1 únipə'sənl, 2 júni'pə'sənl] uni- & personal (theol, of the Godhead) Consisting of, existing as, a single person unipolar, adj [1 únipólar, 2 júni'pólar] uni- & polar Having only one pole or kind of polarity unique, adj [1 úník, 2 júnik] Fr, fr Lat únicus, 'one and no more, only, single' fr únus, 'one' Single in kind or excellence, having no like or equal, unmatched, unequaled, unparalleled a unique event, perhaps a unique survival, this picture is thought to be unique, (in illit usage) remarkable, wonderful, singular, and hence used wrongly with comparatives we had rather a unique experience, she dresses in a most unique fashion uniquely, adv Proo & -ly In a unique manner uniqueness, n See proo & -ness State, quality, of being unique uniradial, unirate, adj [1 únirádial, 1st, 2 júnirádial, 1st] un- & radial, -ate Having one radius, ray, or arm unirrigated, adj [1 unirígated, 2 anirígated] un- (I) & irrigate(d) Not irrigated, not under irrigation unisexal, adj [1 úniseksheal, 2 júniseksheal] un- & sexual (bot) Having one sex only, male or female, with etamen or pistil, not hermaphrodite unisolated, adj [1 únisoláted, 2 anisoláted] un- (I) & isolate(d) Not isolated unison, n [1 únizun, 2 júnizan] fr ME únise(s)on, Lat únisonus, adj, 'having one sound', fr un- & sonus, 'sound', see sound (I) A Harmony, concord, agreement, in sound, specif b (mus) identity of pitch to sing in unison, to sing so that all the voices sing the same note, without producing harmony unisonance, n [1 únisonans, 2 júnisonans] Next word & -ce Accordance, agreement, of sounds unisonant, adj [1 únisonant, 2 júnisonant] See proo & -ant Sounding together, agreeing in sound unissued, adj [1 únisebúd, 2 anisebúd] un- (I) & issue(d) Not issued, esp of shares of a company authorized but held in reserve and not issued to the public for subscription unit, n [1 únit, 2 júnit] A shortened form of unity 1 A single individual object or person, a group of objects or persons regarded as forming a unity or whole complete in itself, or b as forming that into which a whole may be divided most conveniently for a specific purpose a division is now regarded as the unit of an army, the parish, we may say, has almost ceased to be the unit of local government 2 (math) The least whole number, one 3 (phys) Any determinate single quantity used as a standard by which other quantities are measured or expressed international electrical units, as the volt, ohm &c, units of mass, energy &c

Unitarian, n & adj [1 únitárian, 2 júniteárian] fr unity & -arian, on anal of Trinitarian 1 n Member of a religious body which rejects the doctrine of the Trinity and the Divinity of Christ, and asserts that God is impersonal 2 adj Pertaining to this body and their beliefs, pertaining to any set of religious doctrines which deny the Divinity of Christ and the existence of the Trinity

Unitarianism, n [1 únitárianizm, 2 júniteárianizm] Proo & -ism Religious doctrines and philosophy of Unitarians unitary, adj [1 únitari, 2 júnitári] unit & -ary 1 Pertaining to a unit or units unitary system, method &c 2 Single, not double or divided unitary government, a unitary state unite, vb trans & intrans [1 únit, 2 júnit] fr Lat (rare or post class) únit (um), PP type of únire, 'to make one, join', fr únus, 'one', see un- A trans 1 To join several things, objects, together, into one, bring into close contiguity, and form into a single whole, to combine, amalgamate to unite pieces of metal with solder, to unite two neighbouring portions of land 2 To join, bring, together into close social or family relationship to unite two families by marriage, to unite one's son to a suitable wife 3 To possess, exhibit, equally, as elements of character, mind, habit &c, several qualities, traits, accomplishments &c he unites the best qualities of the gentleman and the Christian B intrans 1 (of physical process) To become joined together, become one or a whole, to combine, coalesce oil and water will not unite 2 To become associated, to join, become one, in opinions, principles &c all parties can unite in patriotic sentiment in a national crisis 3 To become associated, join together, in action, to act as one let us unite in singing 'God save the King', in resisting foreign aggression &c united, adj [1 únited, 2 júnitad] fr PP of proo 1 Joined together, a joined politically, as United Kingdom of Great Britain and (Northern) Ireland, the United States of America &c, b joined in spirit, sympathy, affection, not divided by disagreements and quarrels a united family 2 A Associated together for purposes of common action the united forces of Christendom resisted Moham-medan aggression, b arising from, based on, association for a common purpose united action unitedly, adv Proo & -ly In a united manner, harmoniously unitive, adj [1 únitiv, 2 júnitiv] fr L Lat únitivus, see unity & -ive Having the power of uniting, tending to unite unity, n [1 únita, 2 júniti] fr O Fr únite, fr Lat únitát (em), fr únus, 'one', see un- 1 State of being one, single, individual, grouping, arrangement, of component elements or parts so as to form or produce the sense of a single coherent whole to find unity in diversity, the plan and underlying idea which give unity to a work of art, the dramatic unities, those of time, place, and action which the perfect classical drama was supposed to observe 2 Oneness of spirit, harmony, agreement, of aims, interests, feeling, thought &c, amity, concord national unity, family unity, to live in unity with all men, 'Give to all nations unity, peace, and concord' (The Litany) 3 Specif a (math) any definite quantity taken as one, the number one, b (law) joint tenancy of a property by two or more persons univalence, -cy, n [1 úniválens(i), 2 júniválens(i)] un- & valence, -cy (chem) State, quality, of being univalent univalent, adj [1 úniválent, 2 júniválent] un- & -valent (chem) Having a valency or combining power of one univalve, adj & n [1 úniválv, 2 júniválv] un- & valve a adj (of molluscs) Having only one valve or shell, not bivalve, b n, mollusc with only one valve or shell universal (I), adj [1 únivérsl, 2 júnivísl] universe & -al 1 A Pertaining to the universe, referring to, embracing the whole world or the whole of created things the universal Church, b involving the whole world or universe, complete, absolute 'Universal ruin' (Milton, 'P L' vi 797), a affecting, held, done, used, by everybody, widespread the almost universal belief is that vaccination has nearly stamped out smallpox, superstition is universal among savages, a universal practice, a universal language, one artificially and deliberately compiled with a view to its being learnt and spoken by people of all races, a real language that actually is spoken in all parts of the world English is fast becoming a universal language 2 A Applicable to every member of a genus, general, contrasted with particular, (esp log) affirmed or denied of a whole class a universal proposition, a universal negative, e.g no man is infallible, b true of, applying to, all cases universal rules 3 (mechan) Capable of being used for objects of all shapes and sizes, adaptable for all purposes, moving in all directions a universal spanner, bevel, joint &c 4 (law) Pertaining to, applying to, including, the whole of a person's rights, advantages, duties, arising from a specified position, capacity, relation a universal successor, legacy, partnership, trustee &c universal (II), n Med Lat universale, see proo 1 (log) a A universal proposition, b that which may be predicated of anything, any one of the five predicables 2 (philos) A general concept, an abstract, general term universalism, n [1 únivérslizm, 2 júnivíslizm] universal (I) & -ism The theological belief that ultimately all mankind will be saved universalist, n [1 únivérslíst, 2 júnivíslíst] See proo & -ist Believer in universalism universalistic, adj [1 únivérslístik, 2 júnivíslístik] Proo & -ic Pertaining to universalism universalize, vb trans [1 únivérslíz, 2 júnivíslíz] universal (I) & -ize To make, treat as, universal universe, n [1 únivér, 2 júnivísl] fr Fr únivers, fr Lat úniversum, 'the whole world, the universe', neut sing as n, of úniversus, adj, 'turned, combined into one, all collectively, whole, general, universal', fr un-, 'one', & vers (um), PP of vertere, 'to turn', see version 1 The whole system of suns, planets &c existing in space, the cosmos. 2 The whole system of created things viewed as a whole Phr to behave as though one owned the universe, to give oneself airs of inordinate importance and authority 3 The world university, n [1 únivérstiti, 2 júnivísliti] ME úniversita, fr Fr úniversité, fr Lat úniversitat (em), úniversitas, 'the whole; whole number of things, the universe, the world, (as a term of law) number of persons associated together as one body, community; a corporation' The use of the term in Med. Lat for a university in the present sense is prob due to snob a body being a universitas facultatum, or combination of all the Faculties, but there was also possibly an idea of the whole of learning being taught See universe & -ity 1 An institution for the purpose of educating students in the arts and sciences and all the higher branches of learning, with a body of professors and other teachers conducting examinations and conferring degrees In the cases of Oxford, Cambridge, and London, the university consists of and includes a number of different individual colleges, separate foundations, having a very large degree of independence and each providing courses of instruction in addition to those provided by the university in the narrower sense 2 The members of a university collectively, the governing body or bodies of a university the opinion of the university is &c, the university has elected X their Chancellor 3 Team, crew, athletes &c representing a university the university was beaten by an innings universology, n [1 únivérsloloji, 2 júnivíslolodži] See universal & -logy Science which deals with everything pertaining to the universe or to the whole range of human activities univocal, adj & n [1 únivókl, 2 júnivóukl] un- & vocal 1 adj A Speaking with a single voice, having only one meaning, not equivocal, b (mus) having unison, played, sung, in unison 2 n a A word having only one meaning, b (log) a generic term applied in one sense only to all the species it includes univocally, adv Proo & -ly In a univocal manner unjaundiced, adj [1 únjándhist, -jándhist, 2 andžándhist, džándhist] un- (I) & jaundice(d) Not jaundiced, not affected by feelings of envy or jealousy, unprejudiced unjoin, vb trans [1 únjoin, 2 andžoin] un- (II) & join To separate that which is joined, to disjoin unjoint, vb trans [1 únjoint, 2 andžoint] un- (II) & joint (III) To separate the joints, to unfasten what is jointed, to disjoin unjust, adj [1 únjúst, 2 andžast] un- (I) & just Not just, a not animated by justice, acting contrary to just principles an unjust judge, the unjust, unjust persons, in Phr on the just and the unjust, everybody, b contrary to justice, not conformable with just principles an unjust sentence unjustifiable, adj [1 unjustifabl, 2 andzastufabl] un-(I) & justifiable Not justifiable, without justification unjustifiably, adv Preo & -ly In an unjustifiable manner, to an unjustifiable extent unjustly, adv [1 unjustl, 2 andzastl] un-(I) & justly In an unjust manner unkempt, adj [1 unkem(p)t, 2 ankem(p)t] un-(I) & ME lemp, kemb, PP of obe OE cemban, 'to comb', see comb a (obs) Not combed, b untidy, shaggy, badly dressed, neglected unkempt appearance unkennel, vb trans [1 unkenl, 2 ankenl] un-(II) & kennel (II) To loose, drive (dogs &c) from a kennel unkind, adj [1 unkind, 2 ankand] un-(I) & kind (II) Not kind, harsh, cruel, inconsiderate unkindliness, n [1 unkindlins, 2 ankandhlins] unkindly (I) & -ness State of being unkindly, an unkindly action unkindly (I), adj [1 unkindl, 2 ankandhl] un-(I) & kindly (I) Not kindly, ungracious, unfriendly, harsh unkindly (II), adv un-(I) & kindly (II) In an unkind manner unkindness, n [1 unkindns, 2 ankandns] unkind & -ness State of being unkind, an unkind action unking, vb trans [1 unking, 2 ankng] un-(II) & king (rare) To deprive of rank and status of king, to depose unkingly, -like, adj [1 unkingl, lk, 2 ankngl, lk] un-(I) & kingly, -like Not kingly or kinglylike, not royal, unworthy of a king unknightly, adj [1 unknhtl, 2 annakhtl] un-(I) & knightly Not knightly or chivalrous, unworthy of a knight unknit, vb trans [1 unknt, 2 anknt] un-(II) & knit (esp fig) To undo what has been knitted or fastened together unknot, vb trans [1 unknt, 2 anknt] un-(II) & knit (II) To untie that which is knotted, to unloose the knots from unknowable, adj [1 unkndabl, 2 annuwabl] un-(I) & knowable Not knowable, not capable of being known, (esp philos) beyond the powers or limits of man's intelligence, also as noun the unknowable, that which cannot be known, the absolute, the first cause, the ultimate reality of things unknowing, adj [1 unknng, 2 annuwng] un-(I) & Pres Part of know Not knowingly, ignorant, unwitting unknowingly, adv Preo & -ly Not knowingly, ignorantly unknown, adj & n [1 unkndn, 2 annuwun] un-(I) & know(n) 1 adj Not known, a not within one's knowledge, unascertained address unknown, an unknown country, b not within one's experience, not to be described or told, incalculable to experience unknown delights, c (math) to be ascertained or found out, as of quantities in equations, usually denoted by the later letters of alphabet x, y, z are the unknown quantities, Phr an unknown quantity, person, thing, whose in finance, power &c is not yet known or calculable 2 n The unknown, that which is unknown, an unknown quantity to venture into the unknown, into an unexplored, unknown region, country, or domain of thought or experience the unknown is always mysterious and attractive the Great Unknown, name given to the author of the Waverley Novels (Sir Walter Scott) before his identity had been revealed unlabelled, adj [1 unlabld, 2 anlabld] un-(I) & labelled Not labelled unlaboured, adj [1 unlaburd, 2 anlaburd] un-(I) & laboured Not laboured, done without great effort, (esp of style) easy, spontaneous unlace, vb trans [1 unlacs, 2 anlacs] un-(II) & lace (II) 1 To undo the laces of, to unfasten that which is laced, to free from laces or being laced to unlace one's boots, stays &c, unlace a woman, unlace her stays

2 Old phr of the chase, to unlase a deer, to ont it up when killed unlade, vb trans [1 unlad, 2 anlaid] un-(II) & lade To unload, a to take out the cargo or load from to unlade a ship, b to take out, remove from to unlade the cargo from a ship, to unlade hay from cart &c, c to discharge ship will unlade cargo today unladen, adj [1 unladn, 2 anlaidn] un-(I) & lode(n) Not laden, not burdened (esp fig) unladen with sorrow, anxieties &c unladylike, adj [1 unladlylk, 2 anladlylk] un-(I) & ladylike Not ladylike, not worthy of a lady, vulgar, common unlaid, adj [1 unlad, 2 anlaid] un-(I) & PP of lay Not laid, a not placed, fixed, or arranged the table is still unlaid, b not put at rest, not allayed an unlaid, restless spirit, specif c (of paper) without parallel watermark lines unlamented, adj [1 unlamentd, 2 anlamentd] un-(I) & lament(ed) Not lamented, not mourned, unregretted unlash, vb trans [1 unlash, 2 anlsh] un-(II) & lash To unfasten that which is lashed, to loose the lashings of unlatch, vb trans [1 unlsh, 2 anlsh] un-(II) & latch To undo, release, the latch of (as of a door) unlawful, adj [1 unlawfl, 2 anlawfl] un-(I) & lawful Not lawful, forbidden or not permitted by the law, illegal unlawful assembly, a meeting of three or more persons for purposes forbidden by law or in such a manner as to endanger or be likely to endanger the public peace unlawfully, adv Preo & -ly In an unlawful manner unlawfulness, n See preo & -ness State of being unlawful unlay, vb trans [1 unlay, 2 anlay] un-(II) & lay (III) (naut) To untwist the strands of (a rope &c) unlearn, vb trans [1 unlern, 2 anlarn] un-(II) & learn To forget what one has learnt, to lose the memory of, to learn the opposite of what one has been taught, esp of erroneous teaching or methods unlearned (I), adj [1 unlerned, lerned, 2 anlerned, lerned] un-(I) & learned Not learned, ignorant, illiterate, also with definite article, as collective plural noun the unlearned, the ignorant mob unlearned (II), unlearn, adj [1 unlerned, lerned, 2 anlerned, lerned] un-(I) & learn(ed) Not learnt unlearned lessons unlearnedly, adv [1 unlernedl, 2 anlernedl] unlearned (I) & -ly In an unlearned manner, illiterately, ignorantly unleash, vb trans [1 unlsh, 2 anlsh] un-(II) & leash. To free from, let go from, a leash unleavened, adj [1 unlwnd, 2 anlwnd] un-(I) & leaven(ed) Not leavened, made without leaven (of bread, also fig) unled, adj [1 unld, 2 anld] un-(I) & PP of lead (IV) Not led, not guided, without guidance or leaders unleisured, adj [1 unlshurd, 2 anlshurd] un-(I) & leisured Not leisured, having little or no leisure, hard worked, busy unleisurely, adj [1 unlshurhl, 2 anlshurhl] un-(I) & leisurely Not leisurely, hurried unless, conj [1 unles, 2 anles] Earlier unless(e), followed by a that clause, on less(e) that ye wait &c, the orig sense being, 'on the less supposition than, in a less case than', fr on, in earlier sense of 'in', & less If not, supposing that not, except that I shall not go unless the weather is fine, unless you work harder you will never pass your examination, unless you are a perfect fool you will behave properly to your uncle unlettered, adj [1 unlterd, 2 anlterd] un-(I) & letter(ed) Illiterate, uneducated, without knowledge or love of literature unlicensed, adj [1 unlisenst, 2 anlisenst] un-(I) & license(d) Not licensed.

unlicked, adj [1 unlik, 2 anlik] un-(I) & lick(ed) Phr lick into shape, q v under lick (obsedly attrib) Not licked into shape, in Phr an unlicked cub, a crude, conceited, impudent, underbred young fool unlighted, adj [1 unlhtd, 2 anlhtd] un-(I) & light(ed) Not lighted, unlit unlike, adj & prep [1 unlik, 2 anlik] un-(I) & like 1 adj Not like, dissimilar, different, having little or no resemblance the two cases are quite unlike, no two people could be more unlike in appearance or character 2 prep Not like, having no resemblance to, different from, in appearance, character &c the picture is quite unlike him, how unlike you to forget your dinner, unlike his predecessor, he was more concerned with his own future than his duty unlikelyhood, n [1 unlikhood, 2 anlikhood] unlikely & -hood State, fact, of being unlikely, improbability, unlikelyness the unlikelyhood of the fine weather continuing, unlikelyhood of success unlikelyness, n [1 unliklins, 2 anliklins] See next word & -ness State of being unlikely, unlikelyhood unlikely, adj [1 unlikl, 2 anlikl] un-(I) & likely Not likely, a improbable in the unlikely event of &c, a victory is unlikely but not impossible, b not likely to succeed, unpromising engaged on an unlikely adventure unlumber, vb trans [1 unlumber, 2 anlumber] un-(II) & lumber (I) To detach and take away the lumber from (gun) so as to prepare for action unlimited, adj [1 unlmted, 2 anlmted] un-(I) & limited Not limited, a having no limits, boundless the unlimited expanse of the sky, of ocean, b unrestricted, not confined and narrow an unlimited field for talents, enterprise &c, c not restricted in amount or extent, unconditional unlimited liability, unlimited discretion, authority, d unbounded, very great, excessive he has unlimited assurance, impudence unlimitedly, adv Preo & -ly In an unlimited manner unlimitedness, n See preo & -ness State of being unlimited unline, vb trans [1 unlin, 2 anlin] un-(II) & line (IV) To remove the lining from, take lining out of unlink, vb trans [1 unlingk, 2 anlingk] un-(II) & link (II) To undo, separate, unfasten the links of, separate that which is linked together unliquidated, adj [1 unlikwidatd, 2 anlikwidatd] un-(I) & liquidate(d) Not liquidated, (esp law) of damages, not fixed or determined unlit, adj [1 unlht, 2 anht] un-(I) & lit, PP of light Not lit, unlighted, dark unload, vb trans & intrans [1 unlod, 2 anlod] un-(II) & load A 1 trans a To remove the load, cargo &c from to unload a ship, truck, cart &c, b also, to unload cargo from a ship, goods from a truck &c 2 To remove the charge from unload a gun 3 (of stocks and shares) To get rid of one's holding, sell out B intrans To discharge cargo, load the ships will unload tomorrow unlocated, adj [1 unlokated, 2 anlokated] un-(I) & locate(d) Not located, unplaced, (USA) not surveyed unlock, vb trans [1 unlok, 2 anlok] un-(II) & lock To undo, open, lock of (a locked door, box &c), (fig) to unlock one's heart, reveal one's feelings unlooked-for, adj [1 unlokt fr, 2 anlokt fr] un-(I) & look(ed) & for Not looked-for, unexpected unloose, unloosen, vb trans [1 unloosn, 2 anloosn] un-(II) & loose(n) To make loose, to loose, to set free unlovable, adj [1 unluvabl, 2 anluvabl] un-(I) & lovable Not lovable, not likely or worthy to be loved, not exciting love, disagreeable, repellent.

unloved, adj [1 unlúvd, 2 anlávd] un- (I) & love(d) Not loved unloveliness, n [1 unlúvnes, 2 anlávnes] unlovely & -ness Ugliness unlovely, adj [1 unlúvli, 2 anlávli] un- (I) & lovely Not lovely, ngly, unpleasing, unattractive, in physical and moral senses unloverlike, adj [1 unlúverlik, 2 anlávélisk] un- (I) & loverlike Not loverlike, not characteristic of, or like, (that of) a lover unloving, adj [1 unlúvng, 2 anlávng] un- (I) & loving Not loving, not affectionate, cold, harsh unlovingly, adv Preo & -ly In an unloving manner unluckily, adv [1 unlúklík, 2 anláklik] unlucky & -ly In an unlucky manner, unfortunately unluckiness, n [1 unlúknes, 2 anláknes] Next word & -ness State of being unlucky unlucky, adj [1 unlúki, 2 anlákli] un- (I) & lucky Not lucky, a unfortunate, unsuccessful, always meeting with bad luck an unlucky gambler, lucky at cards, unlucky in love, b ill omened, inauspicious, not bringing good luck, Friday is an unlucky day, green is thought an unlucky colour, c not happily chosen, ill timed, inopportune an unlucky moment for their meeting, a most unlucky speech unmade, adj [1 unméð, 2 anméð] un- (I) & made, P P of make Not made unmaidenly, adj [1 unmánlik, 2 anméðlik] un- (I) & maidenly Not maidenly, unbecoming a maiden, immodest unmaintainable, adj [1 unmánáiknabl, 2 anméntéinabl] un- (I) & maintainable Not maintainable unmake, vb trans [1 unmák, 2 anméik] un- (II) & make To destroy what has been made, to change the form or qualities of, to annul unman, vb trans [1 unmán, 2 anmán] un- (II) & man 1 To deprive of manly spirit, courage, fortitude &c quite unmanned by the terrible news, by the sight &c 2 (rare) To deprive (a ship) of its crew unmanageable, adj [1 unmánýabl, 2 anménáðabl] un- (I) & manageable Not manageable, not easily controlled or regulated unmanlike, adj [1 unmánlik, 2 anménálik] un- (I) & manlike Not manlike, unlike mankind, not human unmanliness, n [1 unmánlines, 2 anménálines] unmanly & -ness State of being unmanly unmanly, adj [1 unmánli, 2 anménli] un- (I) & manly Not manly, cowardly, effeminate, womanly unmannerliness, n [1 unmánérlines, 2 anménálines] See next word & -ness State of being unmannerly unmannerly, adj [1 unmánérli, 2 anménáli] un- (I) & mannerly Not mannerly, rude, ill mannered, ill bred unmarked, adj [1 unmárkt, 2 anmákt] un- (I) & mark(ed) Not marked, a having no marks, b not noticed the mistake passed unmarked unmarketable, adj [1 unmárketabl, 2 anmáktabl] un- (I) & marketable Not marketable, not fit or suitable for market, unsaleable unmarriageable, adj [1 unmárijabl, 2 anmárdéabl] un- (I) & marriageable Not marriageable, not fit or old enough for marriage unmarried, adj [1 unmarid, 2 anmárid] un- (I) & married, P P of marry Not married, single unmask, vb trans & intrans [1 unmahsk, 2 anmásk] un- (II) & mask 1 trans a To remove the mask from, to take a mask off, b to reveal true character or, to expose to unmask a traitor, his treachery 2 intrans a To take off one's mask, b to reveal one's true character unmasked, adj [1 unmahskt, 2 anmáskt]

P P of prec a With mask removed, b revealed, exposed unmatchable, adj [1 unmáohabl, 2 anmátf-ahl] un- (I) & match (II) & -able Not matchable, not to be matched unmatched, adj [1 unmáht, 2 anmátf] un- (I) & match(ed) Not matched, matchless, without an equal unmated, adj [1 unmáted, 2 anmátfed] un- (I) & mate(d) Not mated, having no mate unmaterial, adj [1 unmatérial; 2 anmetárial] un- (I) & material Not material, not composed of material, op immaterial unmaterialized, adj [1 unmatérializd, 2 anmetárializd] un- (I) & materialize(d) Not materialized, not in bodily shape or form, not fully developed unmatured, adj [1 unmatúrd, 2 anmátfúrd] un- (I) & mature(d) (esp of wine) Not matured, op immature unmeaning, adj [1 unménng, 2 anmánvng] un- (I) & mean(ing) Empty of meaning or significance, senseless, meaningless unmeaningly, adv Preo & -ly In an unmeaning manner unmeant, adj [1 unmént, 2 anmént] un- (I) & mean(t) Not meant, unintended, unintentional unmeasured, adj [1 unmézhurd, 2 anmežed] un- (I) & measure(d) 1 Not measured 2 a Boundless, limitless unmeasured tracts of desert, b abundant, untented unmeasured liberality 3 Without due limits, immoderate, excessive unmeasured abuse, in unmeasured terms unmechanical, adj [1 unmekánikl, 2 anmáknáhl] un- (I) & mechanical Not mechanical unmeet, adj [1 unméet, 2 anmátf] un- (I) & meet (III) Not meet or fit, unsuitable unmelodious, adj [1 unmelódios, 2 anmélódios] un- (I) & melodious Not melodious, discordant, unmusical unmelodiously, adv Preo & -ly In an unmelodious manner unmelodiousness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being unmelodious unmentionable, adj [1 unménshunabl, 2 anménjanáhl] un- (I) & mentionable Not mentionable, not fit to be mentioned, as n, (obs or rare) unmentionables, facetious euphemism for 'trousers' unmerchantable, adj [1 unmérchantabl, 2 anmátféntabl] un- (I) & merchantable Not merchantable, not fit for sale, through defect of quality, quantity &c, unsaleable, unmarketable unmerciful, adj [1 unmérsáf, 2 anmátsáf] un- (I) & merciful Not merciful, showing no mercy, pitiless, cruel unmercifully, adv Preo & -ly In an unmerciful manner, mercilessly unmerited, adj [1 unmérted, 2 anmátfed] un- (I) & merit(ed) Not merited, undeserved unmethodical, adj [1 unmethódikl, 2 anmáphókikl] un- (I) & methodical Not methodical, lacking method, confused, muddled unmetrical, adj [1 unmétrikl, 2 anmátrikl] un- (I) & metrical Not metrical, not according to the rules of metre, not metrically arranged unmetrically, adv Preo & -ly In an unmetrical manner unmilitary, adj [1 unmáitar, 2 anmáistéri] un- (I) & military Not military, not like or worthy of a soldier, unsoldierly unmindful, adj [1 unmádfid, 2 anmáwdfid] un- (I) & mindful Not mindful, forgetful, regardless unmindfully, adv Preo & -ly In an unmindful manner unmistakable, adj [1 unmístákabl, 2 anmístákabl] un- (I) & mistakable Not mistakable; not to be mistaken, leaving no room for error or misunderstanding, clearly recognizable unmistakably, adv Preo & -ly In an unmistakable manner unmitigated, adj [1 unmitigáted, 2 anmitigáted] un- (I) & mitigate(d) Not mitigated, unqualified, absolute an unmitigated nuisance, an unmitigated liar, blackguard &c unmixed, adj [1 unmíksst, 2 anmíksst] un- (I) & mix(ed) Not mixed, uniform in character throughout, pure, unqualified not an unmixed blessing, a condition, situation, not entirely satisfactory unmodernized, adj [1 unmodernizd, 2 anmódenáizd] un- (I) & modernize(d) Not modernized, not brought up to date, old fashioned unmodified, adj [1 unmódifid, 2 anmódifid] un- (I) & modify, P P of modify Not modified, without modification unmolested, adj [1 unmólésted, 2 anmóléstid] un- (I) & molest(ed) Not molested, left in peace unmoor, vb trans [1 unmóor, móor, 2 anmó, -mús] un- (I) & moor (III) To free (ship &c) from moorings, to loose the moorings of, to weigh one of several anchors by which ship is moored unmoral, adj [1 unmóral, 2 anmórel] un- (I) & moral Not moral, not concerned with, or related to, morals or morality, non-moral, contrasted with immoral unmounted, adj [1 unmóunted, 2 anmóuntid] un- (I) & mount & -ed Not mounted 1 Not on horseback, standing, going, on foot 2 Not having a mount or setting, as a picture, jewellery &c unmourned, adj [1 unmórnrd, 2 anmórnrd] un- (I) & mourn(ed) Not mourned, unregretted unmoved, adj [1 unmóvrd, 2 anmóvrd] un- (I) & move(d) Not moved (chiefly in moral sense), a not having feelings and emotions stirred, b not to be deflected or dissuaded from a purpose or determination unmoving, adj [1 unmóvng, 2 anmótvng] un- (I) & moving Not moving, a fixed, stationary, motionless, b not affecting, not arousing, feeling or emotion unmuffle, vb trans [1 unmúff, 2 anmáfi] un- (II) & muffle a To remove muffler, scarf, or other covering from the face, throat &c, b to remove the muffling from a drum, bell, ears &c unmurmuring, adj [1 unmúrmuring, 2 anmármuring] un- (I) & Preo Part of murmur Not murmuring, uncomplaining unmurmuringly, adv Preo & -ly Without a murmur or complaint unmusical, adj [1 unmúzikl, 2 anmáyzikl] un- (I) & musical Not musical, a not pleasing, as music, to the ear, discordant (of sound, voice &c), b not skilled or versed in, not caring for, indifferent to, music unmusically, adv Preo & -ly In an unmusical manner unmutilated, adj [1 unmútiláted, 2 anmúthléstid] un- (I) & mutilate(d) Not mutilated unmuzzle, vb trans [1 unmúzl, 2 anmázl] un- (II) & muzzle a To remove the muzzle from, to free (dog &c) from a muzzle, b (fig) to allow to speak freely, to remove restrictions on utterance or expression of opinions &c the Press is unmuzzled at last unnailed, vb trans [1 unnáil, 2 annáil] un- (II) & nail To remove the nails from, to unfasten that which is nailed unnamable, adj [1 unnnámabl, 2 annnésmébl] un- (I) & namable Not namable, not to be named or described unnamed, adj [1 unnnámd, 2 annnéwmd] un- (I) & name(d) Not named, having no name, not mentioned unnatural, adj [1 unnnáshural, 2 annnátférel] un- (I) & natural 1 Not natural, a contrary to, violating, the laws or common order of nature, monstrous unnatural crimes &c, b not in accordance with what usually happens, not to be expected, out of the ordinary course it is unnatural not to love one's children 2 Not exhibiting normal, natural feelings an unnatural parent, child &c unnaturalized, adj [1 unnatʃərəlaɪzd] un- (I) & naturalize(d) Not naturalized unnaturally, adv [1 unnatʃərəli, 2 annætʃərəli] unnatural & -ly In an unnatural manner unnaturalness, n [1 unnatʃərəlnes, 2 annætʃərəlnes] See prec & -ness State of being unnatural unnavigable, adj [1 unnəvɪgəbl̩, 2 annəvɪgəbl̩] un- (I) & navigable Not navigable unnecessarily, adv [1 unnəsəsarɪli, 2 annəsəsarɪli] unnecessary & -ly In an unnecessary manner unnecessariness, n [1 unnəsəsarɪnes, 2 annəsəsarɪnes] See prec & -ness State of being unnecessary unnecessary, adj & n [1 unnəsəsəri, 2 annəsəsəri] un- (I) & necessary 1 adj Not necessary, superfluous, not required by the circumstances of the case, needless, useless 2 n (rare, usually pl) Things which are unnecessary unneded, adj [1 unnɛdɪd, 2 annɛdɪd] un- (I) & need(ed) Not needed, needless, unwanted unnedful, adj [1 unnɛdfl̩, 2 annɛdfl̩] un- (I) & needful Not needful, not requisite, not indispensable unnecessarily, adv prec & -ly In an unnecessary manner unnegotiable, adj [1 unnəɡəʃəbəl, 2 annəɡəʃəbəl] un- (I) & negotiable Not negotiable, not to be negotiated, esp. of bills of exchange &c unneighbourliness, n [1 unnəbʊrlnes, 2 annəbʊrlnes] See next word & -ness Quality of being unneighbourly unneighbourly, adj [1 unnəbʊrli, 2 annəbʊrli] un- (I) & neighbourly Not neighbourly, unfriendly, unsociable unnerved, vb trans [1 unnɜrv, 2 annɜrv] un- (I) & nerve To deprive of, cause to lose, nerve, to unman. unnerved, adj [1 unnɜrvd, 2 annɜrvd] PP of prec Deprived of nerve, having lost one's courage unnóted, adj [1 unnótɪd, 2 annótɪd] un- (I) & note(d) Not noted, unheeded, unmarked unnóted, adj [1 unnótɪst, 2 annótɪst] un- (I) & notice(d) Not noticed, unobserved unnourished, adj [1 unnʊrɪʃt, 2 annʊrɪʃt] un- (I) & nourish(ad) Not nourished, insufficiently nourished. unnumbered, adj [1 unnʊmbəd, 2 annʊmbəd] un- (I) & number(ed) Not numbered, uncounted, unnumerable, countless unobjectionable, adj [1 unəbɪkʃənəbəl, 2 ənəbɪkʃənəbəl] un- (I) & objectionable Not objectionable, not open to objection, inoffensive unobliging, adj [1 ənəblɪɡɪŋ, 2 ənəblɪkɪŋ] un- (I) & obliging Not obliging, disobliging unobliterated, adj [1 ənəblɪtɪreɪtɪd, 2 ənəblɪtɪreɪtɪd] un- (I) & obliterate(d) Not obliterated. unobscured, adj [1 ənəbɪkʊəd, 2 ənəbɪkʊəd] un- (I) & obscure(d) Not obscured unobservant, adj [1 ənəbɪzəvnt, 2 ənəbɪzəvnt] un- (I) & observant Not observant, lacking powers of observation. unobtainable, adj [1 ənəbɪtənbəl, 2 ənəbɪtənbəl] un- (I) & obtainable Not obtainable, out of one's reach unobtrusive, adj [1 unəbɪtrʊsɪv, 2 unəbɪtrʊsɪv] un- (I) & obtrusive Not obtrusive, modest, retiring unobtrusively, adv prec & -ly In an unobtrusive manner unobtrusiveness, n See prec & -ness Same quality, of being unobtrusive.

unoccupied, adj [1 unəkʊpɪd, 2 anskʊpɪd] un- (I) & occupy, PP of occupy Not occupied, a (of house, seat &c) untenanted, b (of persons) disengaged unoffending, adj [1 unɒfɛndɪŋ, 2 ənɒfɛndɪŋ] un- (I) & offending Not offending, harmless, inoffensive unofficial, adj [1 unɒfɪʃl̩, 2 ənɒfɪʃl̩] un- (I) & official Not official, not announced through official channels unofficially, adv prec & -ly In an unofficial manner, not officially unopened, adj [1 unɒpənd, 2 anɒpənd] un- (I) & open(ed) Not opened, closed, shut unoperated, adj [1 unɒpəreɪtɪd, 2 anɒpəreɪtɪd] un- (I) & operate(d) Not operated, not worked, not in operation or at work unopposed, adj [1 unɒpəzɪd, 2 anɒpəzɪd] un- (I) & oppose(d) Not opposed unorganized, adj [1 unɒrgənəɪzd, 2 anɒrgənəɪzd] un- (I) & organize(d). Not organized, specif (biol.) lacking organic structure unoriginal, adj [1 unɒrɪʃnəl, 2 ənɒrɪʃnəl] un- (I) & original Not original, having no originality, derived from other sources, derivative, imitative unornamental, adj [1 ənɒrnəməntl̩, 2 ənɒrnəməntl̩] un- (I) & ornamental Not ornamental, plain, ugly, unsightly unorthodox, adj [1 unɒrθədɒks, 2 ənɒrθədɒks] un- (I) & orthodox Not orthodox unostentatious, adj [1 ənɒstentəʃəs, 2 ənɒstentəʃəs] un- (I) & ostentatious Not ostentatious, unassuming, not boastful, not showy or glaring unostentatiously, adv prec & -ly In an unostentatious manner unostentatiousness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being unostentatious unowed, adj [1 unɒd, 2 anɒd] un- (I) & owe(d) Not owed, not due unowned, adj [1 unɒnd, 2 anɒnd] un- (I) & own(ed) Not owned, without a master, unacknowledged unpacified, adj [1 unpəsɪfɪd, 2 anpəsɪfɪd] un- (I) & pacify, PP of pacify Not pacified, not subdued or at peace unpack, vb trans & intrans [1 unpæk, 2 anpæk] un- (II) & pack 1 trans a To open and take out the contents of to unpack a trunk, box, packages &c, b to take out from trunk or package to unpack one's clothes, the wedding presents &c 2 intrans To carry out the process of unpacking trunks &c I shan't unpack until tomorrow morning unpacked, adj [1 unpækt, 2 anpækt] PP of prec Removed from trunk &c, emptied of contents unpaged, adj [1 unpəɪd, 2 anpəɪd] un- (I) & page(d) Not paged, not having the pages numbered unpaid, adj [1 unpəɪd, 2 anpəɪd] un- (I) & PP of pay Not paid 1 (of bills, debt &c) Not discharged, not cancelled by payment 2 (of persons, office &c) a Not receiving payment, without salary or wages, honorary an unpaid secretary, b not paid for, performed gratuitously unpaid work &c unpaired, adj [1 unpəɪrd, 2 anpəɪrd] un- (I) & pair(ed) Not paired, specif, not having arranged for a parliamentary 'pair', or member voting in the opposite sense to oneself, in an approaching division unpalatable, adj [1 unpələtəbəl, 2 anpələtəbəl] un- (I) & palatable Not palatable, disagreeable, unpleasant, to the taste, nasty unpalatable medicine &c, b displeasing to the mind, offensive to the susceptibilities they must be told the truth, however unpalatable it may be unpalatably, adv prec & -ly In an unpalatable manner unparalleled, adj [1 onpəraɪld, 2 anpəraɪld] un- (I) & parallel(ed) Not to be paralleled, incomparable, unprecedented unpardonable, adj [1 unpərdənəbəl, 2 anpərdənəbəl] un- (I) & pardonable (of conduct, actions) Not pardonable, not deserving pardon, inexcusable unpardonably, adv prec & -ly In an unpardonable manner unparental, adj [1 ɪnpərəntl̩, 2 ɪnpərəntl̩] un- (I) & parental Not parental, unlike, unworthy of, a father or mother unparented, adj [1 ɪnpərəntɪd, 2 anpərəntɪd] un- (I) & (II) & parent(ed) Without a parent, orphaned, deserted by the parents unparliamentary, adj [1 ɪnpərləməntəri, 2 ɪnpərləməntəri] un- (I) & parliamentary Not parliamentary, not permissible in parliament; contrary to the usage, rules &c of parliament, esp unparliamentary language, abuse, strong language in general unpatriotic, adj [1 ɪnpətɪrɪtɪk, 2 ɪnpətɪrɪtɪk] un- (I) & patriotic Not patriotic. unpatriotically, adv [1 ɪnpətɪrɪtɪkəlɪ, 2 ɪnpətɪrɪtɪkəlɪ] prec & -al & -ly In an unpatriotic manner unpatronized, adj [1 unpətrɒnɪzd, 2 anpətrɒnɪzd] un- (I) & patronize(d) Not patronized unpaved, adj [1 unpəvd, 2 anpəvd] un- (I) & pave(d) Not paved, without paving or pavement unpeaceful, adj [1 unpɛəʃl̩, 2 anpɛəʃl̩] un- (I) & peaceful Not peaceful, not at peace or at rest, restless, unquiet unpedantic, adj [1 unpədəntɪk, 2 ɪnpədəntɪk] un- (I) & pedantic Not pedantic unpedigreed, adj [1 unpɛdɪɡreɪd, 2 anpɛdɪɡreɪd] un- (I) & pedigree(d) Having no pedigree unpeg, vb trans [1 unpɛɡ, 2 anpɛɡ] un- (II) & peg (II) To remove the pegs from, to unfasten what is pegged down or pegged together, specif (of prices, currency &c) to remove regulations fixing or pegging prices &c unpen, vb trans [1 unpen, 2 anpen] un- (II) & pen (I) To release, as sheep &c, from a pen unpensioned, adj [1 unpənʃənd, 2 anpənʃənd] un- (I) & pension(ed) Not pensioned, not eligible for a pension, not receiving a pension unpeople, vb trans [1 unpɛpl̩, 2 anpɛpl̩] un- (II) & people (II) To remove the population from, to depopulate unpeopled, adj [1 unpɛpl̩d, 2 anpɛpl̩d] un- (I) & people(d) Not populated unperceived, adj [1 unpɜrsɪvd, 2 anpɜrsɪvd] un- (I) & perceive(d) Not perceived; unnoticed unperforated, adj [1 unpɜfɔreɪtɪd, 2 anpɜfɔreɪtɪd] un- (I) & perforate(d) Not perforated, specif, of older issues of postage stamps, having no perforations to enable one stamp to be torn from those next to it in the sheet unperformed, adj [1 ɪnpɜfɔrmɪd, 2 ɪnpɜfɔrmɪd] un- (I) & perform(ed) Not performed, not done or carried out unperjured, adj [1 unpɜjʊrd, 2 anpɜjʊrd] un- (I) & perjure(d) Not perjured unpersuadable, adj [1 ɪnpɜrsʊdəbəl, 2 ɪnpɜrsʊdəbəl] un- (I) & persuade(d) Not persuadable, not to be persuaded, not open to persuasion unpersuaded, adj [1 ɪnpɜrsʊdeɪd, 2 ɪnpɜrsʊdeɪd] un- (I) & persuade(d) Not persuaded unpersuasive, adj [1 ɪnpɜrsʊsɪv, 2 ɪnpɜrsʊsɪv] un- (I) & persuade(d) Not persuasive unperturbed, adj [1 ɪnpɜtɜrbɪd, 2 ɪnpɜtɜrbɪd] un- (I) & perturb(od) Not perturbed, untroubled, calm, undisturbed, not alarmed unperused, adj [1 ɪnpɜrʊzd, 2 ɪnpɜrʊzd] un- (I) & peruse(d) Not perused, unread, not read through unphilosophical, adj [1 ɪnɪləsɒfɪkəl, 2 ɪnɪləsɒfɪkəl] un- (I) & philosophical Not philosophical, wanting in philosophy, contrary to philosophical principles unphilosophically, adv Preo & -ly In an unphilosophical manner unphilosophicalness, n See preo & -ness State of being unphilosophical unpick, vb trans [1 unpik, 2 anpik] un- (I) & pick (II) To undo, loosen, unfasten, remove (stitches &c) by picking unpicked (I), adj [1 unpikt, 2 anpikt] PP of preo Picked loose, unfastened by picking unpicked (II), adj un- (I) & pick (ed) a Not picked out, not selected or chosen, b (of flowers) not picked, plucked, or gathered unpiloted, adj [1 unpilotet, 2 anpilotet] un- (I) & pilot (ad) Not piloted, not guided by a pilot, (also fig) undirected, unguided unpin, vb trans [1 unpín, 2 anpín] un- (II) & pin (II) To unfasten what is pinned together, to remove pins from unpitied, adj [1 unpítet, 2 anpítet] un- (I) & PP of pity Not pitied, having received no pity 'Thy fate unpitied, and thy rites unpaid' (Pope, 'Unfortunate Lady', 48) unpitying, adj [1 unpítíng, 2 anpítíng] un- (I) & Preo Part of pity Feeling no pity, callous, remorseless unpityingly, adv Preo & -ly In an unpitying manner unplaced, adj [1 unplást, 2 anplést] un- (I) & place (d) Not placed, (esp of horses) not placed among the first three in a race unplait, vb trans [1 unplát, 2 anplát] un- (II) & plait (II) To unfasten the plaits of, as hair &c unplanned, adj [1 unplánd, 2 anplánd] un- (I) & plan (nad) Not planned, not provided for in plans, not properly thought out unplanted, adj [1 unplántet, 2 anplántet] un- (I) & plant (ed) Not planted unplausible, adj [1 unpláwzibl, 2 anplázibl] un- (I) & plausible Not plausible unplausibly, adv Preo & -ly In an unplausible manner unplayable, adj [1 unplábl, 2 anpléabl] un- (I) & playable Not playable, a of a ball at cricket or tennis, that cannot be played or effectively taken and dealt with by the player receiving it, b (of ground) not fit to play on unpleasant, adj [1 unplezant, 2 anplézant] un- (I) & pleasant Not pleasant, a disagreeable, offensive, causing disgust, discomfort, or repulsion to any of the senses an unpleasant sight, smell, voice &c, b provoking moral disapproval or dislike, shocking the taste, the sense of propriety an unpleasant person, unpleasant manners, an unpleasant subject unpleasantly, adv Preo & -ly In an unpleasant manner unpleasantness, n See preo & -ness State or quality of being unpleasant 1 A lack of positive or good qualities, sense of want of external beauty, comfort, charm &c the unpleasantness of a neighbourhood, landscape, b presence of repellent and disgusting physical qualities or properties the unpleasantness of a smell, sight &c 2 Qualities or conditions which shock, repel, disgust the mind, something which offends the taste, sense of propriety &c the unpleasantness of a person's manners 3 Lack of agreement between persons, disagreement, misunderstanding, friction, quarrel we have had a slight unpleasantness with our landlord unpleasing, adj [1 unplézing, 2 anplízing] un- (I) & pleasing Not pleasing, not giving pleasure, disagreeable, unattractive unpledged, adj [1 unpléđ, 2 anpléđ] un- (I) & pledge (d) a Not pledged, not promised, b not pawned unpliable, adj [1 unplíabl, 2 anpléabl] un- (I) & pliable Not pliable (in lit and fig senses) unpliant, adj [1 unplíant, 2 anpléant] un- (I) & pliant Not pliant, stiff, stubborn.

unploughed, adj [1 unplóud, 2 anpláud] un- (I) & plough (ed) Not ploughed, not tilled or cultivated unplug, vb trans [1 unplug, 2 anplug] un- (II) & plug (II) To remove the plug from unplugged, adj [1 unplúđ, 2 anpláđ] un- (I) & plug (ged) Not plugged unplumbed, adj [1 unplumd, 2 anplamd] un- (I) & plumb (ed) Not plumbed, unfathomed (lit and fig) unplumbed depths of ignorance unpoetical, adj [1 únpoetíkl, 2 ánpoetíkl] un- (I) & poetical Not poetical, prosaic unpoetically, adv Preo & -ly In an unpoetical manner unpointed, adj [1 unpóintet, 2 anpóintet] un- (I) & point (ad) Not pointed 1 Without a point, blunt 2 Without vowel points or diacritical marks 3 (of joints between the stones or bricks in masonry) Not pointed by an external streak of mortar or cement unpolished, adj [1 unpólíshet, 2 anpólíshet] un- (I) & polish (ad) Not polished, (in lit and fig senses) unpolished stone, style, manners &c unpolitical, adj [1 únpolítíkl, 2 ánpolítíkl] un- (I) & political Not political, not interested in or concerned with politics, op impolitical unpolled, adj [1 unpóld, 2 anpóuld] un- (I) & poll (ad) Not polled, specif (of voters) not having cast a vote, (of votes) not cast or registered at the polling station unpolluted, adj [1 unpólútet, 2 anpólútet] un- (I) & pollute (d) Free from pollution, pure unpopular, adj [1 unpópúlar, 2 anpópúle] un- (I) & popular Not popular, not a general favourite, out of popular favour or fashion unpopularity, n [1 únpopúlarítí, 2 ánpopúlarítí] Preo & -ity State of being unpopular, popular disfavour unpopularly, adv [1 unpópúlarí, 2 anpópúlarí] See preo & -ly In an unpopular manner unpossessed, adj [1 unpozést, 2 anpozést] un- (I) & possess (ed) a Not possessed, not owned, not held in possession, b unpossessed of, not in possession (of) unposted, adj [1 unpóstet, 2 anpóstet] un- (I) & post (ad) Not posted 1 Not placed in or delivered to the post 2 Not posted on, not in possession of information, uninformd unpractical, adj [1 unpráktíkl, 2 anpráktíkl] un- (I) & practical Not practical, op impracticable unpracticality, n [1 únpráktíkalítí, 2 ánpráktíkalítí] Preo & -ity State of being unpractical unpractically, adv [1 unpráktíkalí, 2 anpráktíkalí] See preo & -ly In an unpractical manner unpractised, adj [1 unpráktíst, 2 anpráktíst] un- (I) & practise (d) Not practised, a not put into practice, b unskilled, inexperienced unprecedented, adj [1 únpreśsédentet, 2 ánpreśsédentet] un- (I) & precedent (ad) Without a precedent, for which there is no prior example, unparalleled, novel unprecedentedly, adv Preo & -ly In an unprecedented manner unpredicted, adj [1 únpredíktet, 2 ánpredíktet] un- (I) & predict & -ad Not predicted unprefaced, adj [1 unpréfást, 2 anpréfíst] un- (I) & preface (d) Not prefaced, a without a preface, b without warning or introduction unprejudiced, adj [1 unpréjúdíst, 2 anpréjúdíst] un- (I) & prejudice & -ed Not prejudiced, free from, without, prejudice, or bias, impartial, fair unpremeditated, adj [1 únpremedítet, 2 ánpremedítet] un- (I) & premeditate (d) Not premeditated, done &c without premeditation, not deliberately planned or thought out previously, unprepared unprepared, adj [1 únprepárd, 2 ánprepárd] un- (I) & prepare (d) Not prepared, a done without preparation, unprompted an unprepared report, reception, b not ready you caught me unprepared unpreparedness, n [1 únprepár(a)dnes, 2 ánprepár(a)dnes] Preo & -ness State of being unprepared unprepossessing, adj [1 únprepozézing, 2 ánprepozézing] un- (I) & prepossessing Not prepossessing, unattractive, unpleasing unpresentable, adj [1 únprezentábl, 2 ánprezentábl] un- (I) & presentable Not presentable, specif a not suitable to present in refined and highly civilized society, ill-mannered, ill bred, ungentelemanlike, b unattractive in appearance, plain, ill favoured unpresuming, adj [1 unpresúming, 2 ánprízjúmíng] un- (I) & presuming Not presuming, without presumption, unassuming, modest unpresumptuous, adj [1 únprezúmpúšus, 2 ánprízjámptúšus] un- (I) & presumptuous Not presumptuous unpretending, adj [1 únpreténdíng, 2 ánpreténdíng] un- (I) & pretend & -ing Not making pretences, not pretending to be what one is not, unassuming, modest, humble unpretendingly, adv Preo & -ly In an unpretending manner unpretentious, adj [1 únpreténášus, 2 ánprítenjás] un- (I) & pretentious Not pretentious unpretentiously, adv Preo & -ly In an unpretentious manner unpreventable, adj [1 únpreventábl, 2 ánpreventábl] un- (I) & preventable Not preventable, not to be prevented, inevitable unpriced, adj [1 unpríst, 2 anprúst] un- (I) & price (d) Having no fixed price, without prices stated or marked unpriestly, adj [1 unpriéstli, 2 anpriéstli] un- (I) & priestly Not priestly, a not like a priest, b not characteristic of, not befitting, a priest unprincely, adj [1 unprínásh, 2 anprínásh] un- (I) & princely Not princely, not worthy of, not befitting, a prince unprincipled, adj [1 únprínáspld, 2 ánprínáspld] un- (I) & principle (d) a Having no fixed moral principles, unscrupulous, dishonest an unprincipled rogue, b not based on, governed, or dictated by, not in accordance with, moral principles unprincipled conduct unprintable, adj [1 unprintábl, 2 anprintábl] un- (I) & printable Not printable, too indecent or profane to be printed unprinted, adj [1 unprintet, 2 anprintet] un- (I) & print & -ad Not printed, existing only in MS form unprivileged, adj [1 únprivíleđ, 2 ánprivíleđ] un- (I) & privilege (d) Not privileged, without special privileges unprized, adj [1 unprízđ, 2 anprízđ] un- (I) & prize (d) Not prized, not valued highly unprobed, adj [1 unpróbd, 2 anpróbd] un- (I) & probe (d) Not probed, (chiefly fig) not looked into, not examined, thoroughly unproclaimed, adj [1 únproklámd, 2 ánproklámd] un- (I) & proclaim (ad) Not proclaimed, unannounced unprocurable, adj [1 únprokrábl, 2 ánprokrábl] un- (I) & procurable Not procurable, not to be procured unproductive, adj [1 únproduktív, 2 ánproduktív] un- (I) & productive Not productive, barren, unprofitable, ineffective unproductively, adv Preo & -ly In an unproductive manner unproductiveness, n See preo & -ness State of being unproductive unprofaned, adj [1 únprofánd, 2 ánprofánd] un- (I) & profane (d) Not profaned 'thy cheek unprofaned by a tear' (I Moore) unprofessional, adj [1 ʌnpəfəʃənəl, 2 ʌnpəfəʃənəl] un-(I) & professional Not professional 1 Not having a profession, not belonging to a specified, or to any, profession unprofessional people, the unprofessional mind 2 Contrary to the rules, etiquette &c of a profession unprofessional conduct unprofessionally, adv Prec & -ly From an unprofessional point of view, in an unprofessional manner unprofitable, adj [1 ʌnpəfɪtəbl, 2 ʌnpəfɪtəbl] un-(I) & profitable Not profitable, a yielding no profit, entailing loss, b yielding no advantage or favourable results unprofitably, adv Prec & -ly In an unprofitable manner unprogressive, adj [1 ʌnpəgrɛsɪv, 2 ʌnpəgrɛsɪv] un-(I) & progressive Not progressive, not in favour of social or political progress, reactionary unprolific, adj [1 ʌnpəʊlɪfɪk, 2 ʌnpəʊlɪfɪk] un-(I) & prolific Not prolific, infertile unpromising, adj [1 ʌnpəʊmɪsɪŋ, 2 ʌnpəʊmɪsɪŋ] un-(I) & promising Not promising, not likely to be successful, not holding out good prospects unprompted, adj [1 ʌnpəʊmptəd, 2 ʌnpəʊmptəd] un-(I) & prompted Not prompted, without prompting, spontaneous, on one's own initiative unpronounceable, adj [1 ʌnpəʊnaʊnsəbl, 2 ʌnpəʊnaʊnsəbl] un-(I) & pronounceable Not pronounceable, difficult, or impossible, to pronounce unprop, vb trans [1 ʌnpəʊp, 2 ʌnpəʊp] un-(II) & prop To remove the props, or support, from, to deprive of support unprophetic, adj [1 ʌnpəʊfɛtɪk, 2 ʌnpəʊfɛtɪk] un-(I) & prophetic Not prophetic unpropitious, adj [1 ʌnpəʊpɪʃɪəs, 2 ʌnpəʊpɪʃɪəs] un-(I) & propitious Not propitious, inauspicious, ill-omened, unlucky unpropitiously, adv Prec & -ly In an unpropitious manner unpropitiousness, n See prec & -ness State of being unpropitious unproportional, adj [1 ʌnpəʊpɔːʃənəl, 2 ʌnpəʊpɔːʃənəl] un-(I) & proportional Not proportional unprosperous, adj [1 ʌnpəʊspɛrəs, 2 ʌnpəʊspɛrəs] un-(I) & prosperous Not prosperous unprotected, adj [1 ʌnpəʊtɛktəd, 2 ʌnpəʊtɛktəd] un-(I) & protect(ed) 1 Lacking protection or a protector, liable to attack or molestation an unprotected female 2 Not fortified, or armoured an unprotected town, cruiser 3 Specif, not protected by a tariff unprotected industries unprotected, adj [1 ʌnpəʊtɛktəd, 2 ʌnpəʊtɛktəd] un-(I) & protect(ed), Not protected, esp of bills of exchange unprovable, adj [1 ʌnpəʊvəbl, 2 ʌnpəʊvəbl] un-(I) & provable Not provable, incapable of proof unproved, adj [1 ʌnpəʊvɪd, 2 ʌnpəʊvɪd] un-(I) & prove(d) Not proved unprovided, adj [1 ʌnpəʊvɪdɪd, 2 ʌnpəʊvɪdɪd] un-(I) & provide(d) Not provided, a not supplied, or furnished with, b not ready, not prepared for unprovoked, adj [1 ʌnpəʊvəʊkt, 2 ʌnpəʊvəʊkt] un-(I) & provoke(d) Not provoked, done without provocation an unprovoked assault &c unpublished, adj [1 ʌnpəʊblɪʃt, 2 ʌnpəʊblɪʃt] un-(I) & publish(ed) Not published, a not made public or generally known, b not printed and published unpucker, vb trans [1 ʌnpəʊkə, 2 ʌnpəʊkə] un-(II) & pucker To remove, get rid of, puckers or wrinkles from unpunctual, adj [1 ʌnpəʊŋktʃuəl, 2 ʌnpəʊŋktʃuəl] un-(I) & punctual Not punctual, not up to time for appointments &c, arriving, doing something, happening, after the hour fixed unpunctuality, n [1 ʌnpəʊŋktʃuəli, 2 ʌnpəʊŋktʃuəli] Prec & -ity State, quality, of being unpunctual unpunctually, adv [1 ʌnpəʊŋktʃuəli, 2 ʌnpəʊŋktʃuəli] See prec & -ly So as to be unpunctual unpunctuated, adj [1 ʌnpəʊŋktʃuəd, 2 ʌnpəʊŋktʃuəd] un-(I) & punctuate & -ed Not punctuated, without stops or marks of punctuation unpunishable, adj [1 ʌnpəʊnɪʃəbl, 2 ʌnpəʊnɪʃəbl] un-(I) & punishable Not punishable, not entailing punishment unpunished, adj [1 ʌnpəʊnɪʃt, 2 ʌnpəʊnɪʃt] un-(I) & punish(ed) Not punished, having escaped punishment unpurchasable, adj [1 ʌnpəʊtʃəsaɪl, 2 ʌnpəʊtʃəsaɪl] un-(I) & purchasable Not purchasable, not to be bought at any price unpurged, adj [1 ʌnpəʊrɪd, 2 ʌnpəʊrɪd] un-(I) & purge(d) Not purged, esp, of crimes or offences &c, not cleared or atoned for by confession, and submission to a sentence by a court of law unpurified, adj [1 ʌnpəʊrɪfɪd, 2 ʌnpəʊrɪfɪd] un-(I) & PP of purify Not purified unpuzzle, vb trans [1 ʌnpəʊzəl, 2 ʌnpəʊzəl] un-(II) & puzzle (I) To puzzle out, decipher, solve (a puzzle, problem &c) unquailing, adj [1 ʌnkwəɪlɪŋ, 2 ʌnkwəɪlɪŋ] un-(I) & quail(ing) Not quailing, not shrinking from or before unqualified, adj [1 ʌnkwəɪlɪfɪd, 2 ʌnkwəɪlɪfɪd] un-(I) & PP of qualify Not qualified 1 Without the necessary legal, or natural, qualifications for a unqualified medical practitioner, to be unqualified to teach, preach, advise others 2 Not modified, not restricted by qualifications, exceptions &c, absolute an unqualified assertion, denial, statement, (also colloq) downright he is an unqualified liar unquelled, adj [1 ʌnkwəɪld, 2 ʌnkwəɪld] un-(I) & quell(ed) Not quelled, not put down unquenchable, adj [1 ʌnkwəɪnəbl, 2 ʌnkwəɪnəbl] un-(I) & quenchable Not quenchable, not to be quenched an unquenchable thirst, enthusiasm &c unquenchably, adv Prec & -ly In an unquenchable manner unquestionable, adj [1 ʌnkwɛstʃənəbl, 2 ʌnkwɛstʃənəbl] un-(I) & questionable Not questionable, not to be questioned or doubted, undisputable, certain unquestionably, adv Prec & -ly In an unquestionable manner, undoubtedly, to a degree, in a manner, beyond all question unquestioned, adj [1 ʌnkwɛstʃənd, 2 ʌnkwɛstʃənd] un-(I) & question(ed) Not questioned, not called in question, undoubted, not examined or disputed unquestioning, adj [1 ʌnkwɛstʃənɪŋ, 2 ʌnkwɛstʃənɪŋ] un-(I) & question(ing) Not questioning, asking no questions, unhesitating, without questions asked his unquestioning supporters, their unquestioning loyalty unquestioningly, adv Prec & -ly In an unquestioning manner, without question or hesitation unquiet, adj [1 ʌnkwɪet, 2 ʌnkwɪet] un-(II) & quiet Not quiet, restless, disturbed, uneasy unquiet minds, an unquiet age unquietly, adv Prec & -ly In an unquiet manner unquietness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being unquiet unquotable, adj [1 ʌnkwəʊtəbl, 2 ʌnkwəʊtəbl] un-(I) & quotable Not quotable, not suitable for quotation, unfit to be quoted or repeated unquoted, adj [1 ʌnkwəʊtɪd, 2 ʌnkwəʊtɪd] un-(I) & quote(d) Not quoted unransomed, adj [1 ʌnrænəʊmd, 2 ʌnrænəʊmd] un-(I) & ransom(ed) Not ransomed unrated, adj [1 ʌnrəʊtɪd, 2 ʌnrəʊtɪd] un-(I) & rate(d) Not rated 1 Not subject to a local or other rate 2 Not included in a rate or class unravelled, adj [1 ʌnrəʊvɪld, 2 ʌnrəʊvɪld] un-(I) & ravage(d) Not unravelled, not plundered or devastated unravel, vb trans [1 ʌnrəʊv, 2 ʌnrəʊv] un-(II) & ravel 1 To disentangle, separate (what is unravelled or tangled together) to unravel a skein of wool, the threads of a tangled skein &c 2 (fig) To clear up, to solve (a mystery &c) to unravel a plot (of story &c) unreachable, adj [1 ʌnrɪtʃəbl, 2 ʌnrɪtʃəbl] un-(I) & reachable Not reachable, not to be reached, unattainable unread, adj [1 ʌnrɪd, 2 ʌnrɪd] un-(I) & PP of read Not read, a (of books) not perused, b (of persons) not well read, not scholarly, unlearned, illiterate unreadable, adj [1 ʌnrɪdəbl, 2 ʌnrɪdəbl] un-(I) & readable Not readable 1 Illegible unreadable handwriting 2 (of book, style &c) Not attractive to read, impossible, difficult, to read without boredom, dull, uninteresting 3 Not fit to be read unreadily, adv [1 ʌnrɪdli, 2 ʌnrɪdli] unready & -ly In an unready manner, with out readiness or promptitude unreal, adj [1 ʌnrɪəl, 2 ʌnrɪəl] un-(I) & real Not real, not based on reality, imagined, visionary, unsubstantial unrealism, n [1 ʌnrɪəlɪzəm, 2 ʌnrɪəlɪzəm] Prec & -ity State of being unreal, want of reality unrealizable, adj [1 ʌnrɪəlaɪzəbl, 2 ʌnrɪəlaɪzəbl] un-(I) & realizeable Incapable of being realized, illusory unrealized, adj [1 ʌnrɪəlaɪzd, 2 ʌnrɪəlaɪzd] un-(I) & realize(d) Not realized, unfulfilled unreal, adv [1 ʌnrɪəl, 2 ʌnrɪəl] unreal & -ly In an unreal manner unreason, n [1 ʌnrɪzn, 2 ʌnrɪzn] un-(I) & reason Lack of reason, stupidity, folly, absurdity unreasonable, adj [1 ʌnrɪznəbl, 2 ʌnrɪznəbl] un-(I) & reasonable Not reasonable 1 Not animated by, amenable to, reason, acting on impulse, without taking full account of circumstances and conditions, making extravagant claims, capricious, expecting more than can reasonably be looked for an unreasonable person 2 Not governed by reason unreasonable conduct 3 Beyond, overstepping the bounds of, what is reasonable, immoderate an unreasonable claim, demand, specif (of price, charge &c) too high, exorbitant unreasonableness, n Prec & -ness Quality of being unreasonable unreasonably, adv See prec & -ly In an unreasonable manner, to an unreasonable extent unreasoning, adj [1 ʌnrɪznɪŋ, 2 ʌnrɪznɪŋ] un-(I) & reasoning Not reasoning, not using reason, not guided by reason, irrational, unreasonable the unreasoning multitude, an unreasoning hatred unreasoningly, adv Prec & -ly In an unreasoning manner unrebuked, adj [1 ʌnrɪbʊkt, 2 ʌnrɪbʊkt] un-(I) & rebuke(d) Not rebuked, with out incurring, or receiving, rebuke, unchecked by rebuke unrecalled, adj [1 ʌnrɪkəwɪld, 2 ʌnrɪkəwɪld] un-(I) & recall(ed) Not recalled.

unrecepted, adj [1 unrecepted, 2 unrecepted] un- (I) & receipt(ed) Not receipted unreceivable, adj [1 unreceivable, 2 unreceivable] un- (I) & receivable Not receivable unreceived, adj [1 unreceived, 2 unreceived] un- (I) & receive(d) Not received unreciprocated, adj [1 unreciprocated, 2 unreciprocated] un- (I) & reciprocate(d) Not reciprocated unreckoned, adj [1 unreckoned, 2 unreckoned] un- (I) & reckon(ed) Not reckoned, not included in a reckoning or estimate unreclaimed, adj [1 unreclaimed, 2 unreclaimed] un- (I) & reclaim(ed) Not reclaimed (in material and moral senses), op irreclaimable unrecognizable, adj [1 unrecognizable, 2 unrecognizable] un- (I) & recognizable Not recognizable unrecognized, adj [1 unrecognized, 2 unrecognized] un- (I) & recognize(d) Not recognized, not having received due recognition or reward humile, unrecognized merit unrecompensed, adj [1 unrecompensed, 2 unrecompensed] un- (I) & recompense(d) Not recompensed, without reward or recompense unreconciled, adj [1 unreconciled, 2 unreconciled] un- (I) & reconcile(d) Not reconciled, not reunited to friendship, not made to agree unrecorded, adj [1 unrecorded, 2 unrecorded] un- (I) & record(ed) Not recorded, not placed on record, not found in records unrectified, adj [1 unrectified, 2 unrectified] un- (I) & P.P of rectify Not rectified 1 Not put right or corrected 2 (chem) Not purified or refined unredeemable, adj [1 unredeemable, 2 unredeemable] un- (I) & redeemable Not redeemable, cp irredeemable unredeemed, adj [1 unredeemed, 2 unredeemed] un- (I) & redeem(ed) Not redeemed 1 Not fulfilled or carried out unredeemed promises 2 Not taken out of pawn, by payment of sum advanced, with interest sale of unredeemed pledges 3 Having no redeeming quality; unmitigated a stupid, pretentious play unredeemed by the saving quality of humour 4 Not recovered, of areas of country lost to a foreign State unredeemed Italy, cp irredentist 5 Not recalled by payment of value an unredeemed bill of exchange unredressed, adj [1 unredressed, 2 unredressed] un- (I) & redress(ed) Not redressed unreel, vb trans & intrans [1 unreel, 2 unreel] un- (II) & reel (II) To unwind, become unwound, from a reel unrefined, adj [1 unrefined, 2 unrefined] un- (I) & refine(d) Not refined 1 Not purified or clarified unrefined sugar &c 2 Having no refinement, unpolished, coarse, vulgar unrefined manners, society unreflecting, adj [1 unreflecting, 2 unreflecting] un- (I) & reflect(ing) 1 Not reflecting light 2 Not using the mind in reflection, unthinking, thoughtless unreflectingly, adv Preo & -ly In an unreflecting manner, without reflection unreformable, adj [1 unreformable, 2 unreformable] un- (I) & reform(able) Not reformable unreformed, adj [1 unreformed, 2 unreformed] un- (I) & reform(ed) Not reformed unrefuted, adj [1 unrefuted, 2 unrefuted] un- (I) & refute(d) Not refuted, not disproved unregarded, adj [1 unregarded, 2 unregarded] un- (I) & regard(ed) Not regarded, disregarded, neglected unregenerate, n [1 unregenerate, 2 unregenerate] un- (I) & regenerate State of being unregenerate unregenerate, adj [1 unregenerate, 2 unregenerate] un- (I) & regenerate Not regenerate, esp (theol) not reconciled to God through regeneration.

unregistered, adj [1 unregistered, 2 unregistered] un- (I) & register(ed) Not registered unregretted, adj [1 unregretted, 2 unregretted] un- (I) & regret(ted) Not regretted, unlamented unregulate(d), adj [1 unregulate(d), 2 unregulate(d)] un- (I) & regulate(d) Not regulated, undisciplined unrehearsed, adj [1 unrehearsed, 2 unrehearsed] un- (I) & rehearse(d) Not rehearsed, occurring spontaneously, and without design, unprompted an unrehearsed effect unrein, vb trans [1 unrein, 2 unrein] un- (II) & rein To unloose the reins of, to give the rein to, release (esp fig) unreined, adj [1 unreined, 2 unreined] un- (I) & rein(ed) Not reined in, unrestrained, unbridled unreined passions unrelated, adj [1 unrelated, 2 unrelated] un- (I) & relate(d) Not related unrelenting, adj [1 unrelenting, 2 unrelenting] un- (I) & relent & -ing Not relenting, relentless; inflexible, merciless unrelentingly, adv Preo & -ly In an unrelenting manner unreliability, n [1 unreliability, 2 unreliability] un- (I) & reliability. State of being unreliable unreliable, adj [1 unreliable, 2 unreliable] un- (I) & reliable Not reliable, not to be relied on, untrustworthy unreliably, adv Preo & -ly In an unreliable manner unrelieved, adj [1 unrelieved, 2 unrelieved] un- (I) & relieve(d) Not relieved unreligious, adj [1 unreligious, 2 unreligious] un- (I) & religious Not concerned or connected with religion, not involving, or involved in, religious ideas or questions, non-religious, cp irreligious unremembered, adj [1 unremembered, 2 unremembered] un- (I) & remember(ed) Not remembered, forgotten unremitting, adj [1 unremitting, 2 unremitting] un- (I) & remit(ing) Without remission, unceasing, incessant, not relaxing effort, persistent, persevering unremitting toil, energy unremittingly, adv Preo & -ly In an unremitting manner, unceasingly unremunerative, adj [1 unremunerative, 2 unremunerative] un- (I) & remunerative Not remunerative, unprofitable unrenowned, adj [1 unrenowned, 2 unrenowned] un- (I) & renew(ed) Not renewed unrenounced, adj [1 unrenounced, 2 unrenounced] un- (I) & renounce(d) Not renounced unrenovated, adj [1 unrenovated, 2 unrenovated] un- (I) & renovate(d) Not renovated unrepair, n [1 unrepair, 2 unrepair] un- (I) & repair State of disrepair, dilapidation unrepealed, adj [1 unrepealed, 2 unrepealed] un- (I) & repeal(ed) Not repealed unrepentance, n [1 unrepentance, 2 unrepentance] un- (I) & repentance Lack of repentance, state of being unrepentant, impenitence unrepentant, adj [1 unrepentant, 2 unrepentant] un- (I) & repentant Not repentant, showing no repentance, impenitent unrepentantly, adv Preo & -ly Without repentance, impenitently unrepeating, adj [1 unrepeating, 2 unrepeating] un- (I) & repeat & -ing Not repeating, uncomplaining unrepeatingly, adv Preo & -ly In an unrepeating manner, without complaint unreported, adj [1 unreported, 2 unreported] un- (I) & report(ed) Not reported, specif, not to be found in the legal or parliamentary reports unrepresentative, adj [1 unrepresentative, 2 unrepresentative] un- (I) & representative Not representative unrepresented, adj [1 unrepresented, 2 unrepresented] un- (I) & represent(ed) Not represented unrepresented, adj [1 unrepresented, 2 unrepresented] un- (I) & represent(ed) Not represented unreproved, adj [1 unreproved, 2 unreproved] un- (I) & reprove(d) Not reprovied unreproachful, adj [1 unreproachful, 2 unreproachful] un- (I) & reproachful Not reproachful unreproved, adj [1 unreproved, 2 unreproved] un- (I) & reprove(d) Not reprovied, without incurring, unchecked by, reproof unrequisite, adj [1 unrequisite, 2 unrequisite] un- (I) & requisite Not requisite, unnecessary unrequited, adj [1 unrequited, 2 unrequited] un- (I) & requite(d) Not requited, a not returned or reciprocated unrequited affections, b not recompensed unrequited labours, c unavenged wickedness does not go altogether unrequited unrescinded, adj [1 unrescinded, 2 unrescinded] un- (I) & rescind(ed) Not rescinded, not revoked or cancelled unresented, adj [1 unresented, 2 unresented] un- (I) & resent(ed) Not resented unresenting, adj [1 unresenting, 2 unresenting] un- (I) & resenting Not resenting, not feeling or showing resentment unresentingly, adv Preo & -ly In an unresenting manner, without resentment unreserve, n [1 unreserve, 2 unreserve] un- (I) & reserve (II) Want of reserve in speech or behaviour unreserved, adj [1 unreserved, 2 unreserved] un- (I) & reserve(d) Not reserved 1 Free from reserve in speech, manner, character, a frank, open, b not possessing or showing proper restraint and decorum 2 Free from reservations, restrictions, or qualifications, unrestricted, unqualified an unreserved agreement 3 Not allotted or booked in advance, not kept for specific persons or purposes unreserved seats, at theatre &c unreservedly, adv [1 unreservedly, 2 unreservedly] Preo & -ly In an unreserved manner, without reserve or reservations unreservedness, n [1 unreservedness, 2 unreservedness] See preo & -ness State, quality, of being unreserved in speech, manner &c unresisted, adj [1 unresisted, 2 unresisted] un- (I) & resist(ed) Not resisted, unopposed unresisting, adj [1 unresisting, 2 unresisting] un- (I) & resist(ing) Not resisting, not offering resistance, yielding unresistingly, adv Preo & -ly Without resistance unresolved, adj [1 unresolved, 2 unresolved] un- (I) & resolve(d) Not resolved 1 Lacking resolution, irresolute, undecided, b not having made a decision, uncertain 2 a Not separated or analysed into its component (material) parts or elements, b not analysed, disentangled, or made clear in, or to, the mind, unsolved, not cleared up an unresolved mystery, my doubts are still unresolved unrespected, adj [1 unrespected, 2 unrespected] un- (I) & respect(ed) Not respected, despised an unrespected old age unresponsive, adj [1 unresponsive, 2 unresponsive] un- (I) & responsive Not responsive, not reacting easily or readily to a physical, intellectual, or emotional stimulus, not impressionable, not readily accessible to an emotional or intellectual appeal unresponsively, adv Preo & -ly In an unresponsive manner unresponsiveness, n See preo & -ness State of being unresponsive unrest, n [1 unrest, 2 unrest] un- (I) & rest (I) Restlessness, disquiet, a state of disturbance or agitation, esp political, industrial, unrest, b anxious, disturbed state of mind unrestful, adj [1 unrestful, 2 unrestful] un- (I) & restful Not restful, a not conducive to peace of mind, b restless, fidgety unrestfully, adv Proo & -ly In an unrestful manner unrestfulness, n See proo & -ness State of being unrestful unresting, adj [1 unrēsting, 2 anrēsting] un- (I) & rest(ing) Not resting, taking no rest, untiring unresting activity, energy unrestingly, adv Proo & -ly In an unresting manner unrestrained, adj [1 unrestrānd, 2 anrestrānd] un- (I) & restrain(ed) Not restrained, without restraint or control, uncontrolled, unreserved unrestrainedly, adv [1 unrestrāndli, 2 anrestrāndli] Proo & -ly In an unrestrained manner unrestrained, n [1 unrestrānt, 2 anrestrānt] un- (I) & restraint Lack of restraint, lack of self control unrestricted, adj [1 unrestrīkted, 2 anrestrīkted] un- (I) & restrict(ed) Not restricted, free from restrictions, limitations &c unretarded, adj [1 unretārded, 2 anretārded] un- (I) & retard(ed) Not retarded, unhampered, undelayed unrevealed, adj [1 unrevēld, 2 anrevēld] un- (I) & reveal(ed) Not revealed, hidden, secret, not divulged unrevenged, adj [1 unrevēngd, 2 anrevēngd] un- (I) & revenge(d) Not revenged, unavenged unrevised, adj [1 unrevīzd, 2 anrevīzd] un- (I) & revise(d) Not revised unrevoked, adj [1 unrevōkt, 2 anrevōkt] un- (I) & revoke(d) Not revoked unrewarded, adj [1 unrēwarded, 2 anrēwarded] un- (I) & reward(ed) Not rewarded unrhetorical, adj [1 unrhetōrīkl, 2 anrhetōrīkl] un- (I) & rhetorical Not rhetorical, free from false rhetoric, simple, straightforward, in style and expression unrhymed, adj, pred [1 unrīmd, 2 anrīmd] un- (I) & rhyme(d) Not rhymed, written without rhymes unrhythmical, adj [1 unrīthmīkl, 2 anrīthmīkl] un- (I) & rhythmical Not rhythmical unrhythmically, adv Proo & -ly Without rhythm unridable, adj [1 unrīdabl, 2 anrīdabl] un- (I) & rideable Not rideable, incapable of being ridden unridden, adj [1 unrīdn, 2 anrīdn] un- (I) & ridden Not ridden unriddle, vb trans [1 unrīdl, 2 anrīdl] un- (II) & riddle (II) To solve the riddle of, to explain, interpret unriddle this mystery unrified, adj [1 unrīfd, 2 anrīfd] un- (I) & rifle(d) Not rifled, not plundered or robbed unrig, vb trans [1 unrīg, 2 anrīg] un- (II) & rig (I) To strip (ship &c) of rig or rigging unrigged, adj [1 unrīgd, 2 anrīgd] un- (I) & rigged (of ship) Not rigged, without rigging unrighteous, adj [1 unrīchtus, 2 anrīchtus] un- (I) & righteous Reverse of righteous 1 Not pious, wicked, ungodly, Phr the unrighteous, wicked people 2 Unjust, not in accordance with justice and equity an unrighteous judgement unrighteously, adv Proo & -ly In an unrighteous manner unrighteousness, n See proo & -ness Wickedness, ungodliness unrip, vb trans [1 unrīp, 2 anrīp] un- (II) & rip (I) To rip open, to rip out stitches from unripe, adj [1 unrīp, 2 anrīp] un- (I) & rip Not yet ripe, immature (lit and fig) unripe fruit, an unripe mind, land unripe for development unripeness, n Proo & -ness State of being unripe, immaturity unrisen, adj [1 unrīzn, 2 anrīzn] un- (I) & rise(n) Not yet risen unrivalled, adj [1 unrīvld, 2 anrīvld] un- (I) & rival(led) Having no rival, unsurpassed, unequalled unrivet, vb trans [1 unrīvet, 2 anrīvet] un- (II) & rivet To remove rivets from, to unfasten what is riveted unrobe, vb trans & intrans [1 unrōb, 2 anrōb] un- (II) & robe a trans To take off (tho), esp official, robe(s) of, to disrobe, undress, b intrans, to take off one's own robes unroll, vb trans & intrans [1 unrōl, 2 anrōl] un- (II) & roll a trans To roll back, open, what is rolled up, b intrans, to become unrolled, to unfold unromantic, adj [1 unrōmāntīk, 2 anrōmāntīk] un- (I) & romantic Not romantic, lacking in romance, commonplace, matter of fact unromantically, adv [1 unrōmāntīkly, 2 anrōmāntīkly] Proo & -ly In an unromantic manner unroof, vb trans [1 unrōof, 2 anrōof] un- (II) & roof (II) To take off, carry away, the roof of (house), to destroy the roof of unroofed, adj [1 unrōoft, 2 anrōoft] un- (I) & roof(ed) Not roofed, having lost its roof unroot, vb trans [1 unrōot, 2 anrōot] un- (II) & root (II) To pull, tear, up by the root, to uproot, to eradicate unround, vb trans [1 unrōund, 2 anrōund] un- (II) & round, vb (phon) To pronounce (vowel) with lips drawn back to natural position, instead of being protruded the sound [y] when unrounded becomes [i] unroyal, adj [1 unrōyal, 2 anrōyal] un- (I) & royal Not royal, not like or not worthy of, not befitting, a king unroyally, adv Proo & -ly In an unroyal manner unruffled, adj [1 unrūfd, 2 anrūfd] un- (I) & ruffle(d) Not ruffled, not agitated or disturbed, calm, serene (lit and fig) unruled, adj [1 unrūld, 2 anrūld] un- (I) & rule(d) Not ruled 1 Not marked with lines or rulings 2 Not governed, uncontrolled unruliness, n [1 unrūlnes, 2 anrūlnes] See next word & -ness State of being unruly unruly, adj [1 unrūli, 2 anrūli] fr 15th cent, fr un- (I), rule (I), & -ly Not obedient, or subservient, to rule or restraint, disorderly, ungovernable, disobedient, refractory unsaddle, vb trans & intrans [1 unsād, 2 ansād] un- (II) & saddle (II) a trans To take the saddle off (horse &c), b intrans, to unsaddle one's horse unsafe, adj [1 unsāf, 2 ansāf] un- (I) & safe (I) Not safe, dangerous unsafely, adv Proo & -ly In an unsafe manner unsafeness, n See proo & -ness State of being unsafe unsaid, adj [1 unsēd, 2 ansēd] un- (I) & said Not said, unspoken things better left unsaid unsaintly, adj [1 unsānth, 2 ansānth] un- (I) & saintly Not saintly unsalability, n [1 unsālābīlt, 2 ansālābīlt] See next word & -ity State of being unsalable unsalable, adj [1 unsālābl, 2 ansālābl] un- (I) & salable Not salable, that cannot be sold, unmarketable unsalaried, adj [1 unsālārd, 2 ansālārd] un- (I) & salaried Not salaried, not receiving a salary, unpaid, honorary unsanctified, adj [1 unsāngktīfd, 2 ansāngktīfd] un- (I) & sanctified Not sanctified, unholy unsanctioned, adj [1 unsāngkthund, 2 ansāngkthund] un- (I) & sanction(ed) Not sanctioned, unauthorized unsanitary, adj [1 unsāntārī, 2 ansāntārī t(ə)r] un- (I) & sanitary Not sanitary, unhealthy, insanitary unsated, adj [1 unsātd, 2 ansātd] un- (I) & sate(d) Not sated, unsatisfied unsatisfactorily, adv [1 unsātīfāktōrīl, 2 ansātīfāktōrīl] unsatisfactory & -ly In an unsatisfactory manner unsatisfactoriness, n [1 unsātīfāktōrīnes, 2 ansātīfāktōrīnes] See proo & -ness State of being unsatisfactory unsatisfactory, adj [1 unsātīfāktōrī, 2 ansātīfāktōrī] un- (I) & satisfactory Not satisfactory, giving no satisfaction unsatisfied, adj [1 unsātīfd, 2 ansātīfd] un- (I) & satisfy & -ed Not satisfied; unappeased unsatisfying, adj [1 unsātīflīng, 2 ansātīflīng] un- (I) & satisfying Not satisfying unsatisfyingly, adv Proo & -ly In an unsatisfying manner unsaturated, adj [1 unsātūrētd, 2 ansātūrētd] un- (I) & saturate(d) Not saturated unsavourily, adv [1 unsāvūrīl, 2 ansāvūrīl] unsavoury & -ly In an unsavoury manner unsavouriness, n [1 unsāvūrīnes, 2 ansāvūrīnes] See next word & -ness State of being unsavoury unsavory, adj [1 unsāvūrī, 2 ansāvūrī] un- (I) & savoury Not savoury, uninviting, unattractive, unpleasant, disgusting unsay, vb trans [1 unsā, 2 ansā] un- (II) & say To recall, retract (what has been said) unscalable, adj [1 unskālābl, 2 anskālābl] un- (I) & scalable Not scalable, not to be scaled, unclimbable unscale, vb trans [1 unskāl, 2 anskāl] un- (II) & scale To remove scales from (boilers &c) unscannable, adj [1 unskānābl, 2 anskānābl] un- (I) & scannable (of verse) Not scannable, impossible to scan unscarred, adj [1 unskārd, 2 anskārd] un- (I) & scare(d) Not scarred, not frightened unscarred, adj [1 unskārd, 2 anskārd] un- (I) & scar(red) Not scarred, without a scar or wound unscathed, adj [1 unskādh, 2 anskādh] un- (I) & scathe(d) Not scathed; physically or morally unharmed unscented, adj [1 unsēnted, 2 ansēnted] un- (I) & scent(ed) Not scented, having, yielding, no perfume an unscented rose unscholarly, adj [1 unskōlārī, 2 anskōlārī] un- (I) & scholarly Not scholarly, a devoid of scholarship, b not done after the manner of a scholar unschooled, adj [1 unskōld, 2 anskōld] un- (I) & school(ed) Not schooled, not taught, not trained or disciplined, not experienced unschooled in decent, in vice unscientific, adj [1 unskēntīfīk, 2 anskēntīfīk] un- (I) & scientific Not scientific, not in accordance with scientific principles or methods unscientifically, adv [1 unskēntīfīkly, 2 anskēntīfīkly] Proo & -ly In an unscientific manner unscreened, adj [1 unskrēnd, 2 anskrēnd] un- (I) & screen(ed) Not screened unscreened, adj [1 unskrēnd, 2 anskrēnd] 1 Not sheltered by a screen 2 Not passed through a screen or riddle, unsifted unscrew, vb trans & intrans [1 unskrō, 2 anskrō] un- (II) & screw 1 trans a To remove, draw out screw(s) from to unscrew the lid of a coffin, b to loosen and withdraw (screw) by turning it reverse way 2 intrans a To become unscrewed, b to permit of being unscrewed the nut won't unscrew unscriptural, adj [1 unskriptūrāl, 2 anskriptūrāl] un- (I) & scriptural Not scriptural, not in conformity with or according to the Bible unscripturally, adv Proo & -ly In an unscriptural manner unscrupulous, adj [1 unskrupjulus, 2 an-ekrupjulus] un- (I) & ecrupulous Not scrupulous, without scruple or moral principles, unprincipled unscrupulously, adv Pre & -ly In an unscrupulous manner unscrupulousness, n See pre & -ness State of being unscrupulous unseal, vb trans [1 unseil, 2 ansel] un- (II) & eal (IV) To break or remove the seal of, to open that which is sealed, as a letter &c unsealed, adj [1 unseild, 2 anseld] a un- (I), b un- (II), & see pre a Not sealed up, not under seal, b having the seal broken or removed unseam, vb trans [1 unsem, 2 ansin] un- (II) & seam To cut, rip open, the seams of unsearchable, adj [1 unserchabl, 2 ansifahl] un- (I) & searchable Not to be discovered or found out by searching, mysterious, inscrutable unseasonable, adj [1 unsezonabl, 2 ansazonabl] un- (I) & seasonable Not seasonable, a occurring out of its proper or normal season of the year, unseasonal for the season unseasonable weather, heat &c, b done, said, at the wrong time, ill timed, untimely, inopportune unseasonable humour unseasonableness, n See pre & -ness State of being unseasonable unseasonably, adv Pre & -ly In an unseasonable manner unseasoned, adj [1 unseznd, 2 ansznd] un- (I) & season(ed) Not seasoned 1 Without seasoning or flavouring 2 Not matured or ripened unseat, vb trans [1 unset, 2 ansit] un- (II) & seat 1 To displace (rider) from his seat on horseback, to throw 2 To remove from, dispossess of, a seat in Parliament, either by votes at an election, or by a decision in court that election was invalid unseated, adj [1 unsoited, 2 ansoid] un- (I) & seated Not provided or furnished with a seat or seats unseaworthiness, n [1 unsewerdhines, 2 answerdhines] See next word & -ness State of being unseaworthy unseaworthy, adj [1 unsewerdhu, 2 answerdhu] un- (I) & seaworthy Not seaworthy, not in fit condition to undertake a sea voyage unseconded, adj [1 unsekonded, 2 ansekondid] un- (I) & second(ed) 1 Not seconded, helped, assisted 2 (of a motion) Not seconded when proposed 3 Not provided with, supported by, a second at a duel unsectarian, adj [1 unsektarian, 2 ansektarian] un- (I) & sectarian Not sectarian, a free from the prejudices and narrowness of religious sects, b not in accordance with the tenets of any specific sect unsectarianism, n [1 unsektarianizm, 2 ansektarianizm] Pre & -ism Freedom from sectarian prejudices unsecured, adj [1 unsekurd, 2 ansikurd] un- (I) & secure(d) Not secured, (esp of debts and creditors) not covered by assets &c unseductive, adj [1 unseduktiv, 2 anseduktiv] un- (I) & seductive Not seductive unseeing, adj [1 unseing, 2 ansifing] un- (I) & seeing Not seeing, unobservant, blind, unsuspecting unseemliness, n [1 unseemliness, 2 ansunseemliness] See next word & -ness State of being unseemly unseemly, adj [1 unseemli, 2 ansimli] un- (I) & seemly Not seemly, not becoming or befitting, improper, indecent unseen, adj & n [1 unsen, 2 ansin] un- (I) & seen, see see (I) 1 Not seen, not visible unseen dangers, the unseen, what is unseen, the invisible, spiritual world 2 a Only in unseen translation, passage, translation of unprepared passages in a foreign tongue, ancient or modern, b an unseen, a passage set for translation in an examination, without previous preparation, an unseen passage unseizable, adj [1 unsezabl, 2 ansizabl] un- (I) & seizable Not to be seized unselldom, adv [1 unselldom, 2 anseldom] un- (I) & selldom (rare) Not seldom, often unselected, adj [1 unseléktd, 2 anseléktd] un- (I) & select(ed) Not selected unselfish, adj [1 unselfish, 2 anselfish] un- (I) & selfish Not selfish, thinking of others rather than of oneself, altruistic unselfishly, adv Pre & -ly In an unselfish manner unselfishness, n See pre & -ness a State, quality, of being unselfish, b unselfish actions unsensational, adj [1 unsensashunal, 2 ansensashunal] un- (I) & sensational Not sensational, not causing or likely to cause a sensation unsensationally, adv Pre & -ly In an unsensational manner unsent, adj [1 unsent, 2 ansent] un- (I) & sent Not sent unsentimental, adj [1 unsentimental, 2 ansentimental] un- (I) & sentimental Not sentimental unseparated, adj [1 unseparitd, 2 anseparitd] un- (I) & separate(d) Not separated, undivided unserviceable, adj [1 unserwisahl, 2 anserwisahl] un- (I) & serviceable Not serviceable, unfit for use unserviceably, adv Pre & -ly In an unserviceable manner unset (I), vb trans [1 unset, 2 anset] un- (II) & set (I) To undo the setting of, to remove (jewel &c) from its setting unset (II), adj, attrib [1 unset, 2 anset] un- (I) & P of set (I) Not set (in various senses of the verb) unset limb, jewel &c unsettle, vb trans [1 unsetl, 2 ansetl] un- (II) & settle (II) 1 To change from a fixed or settled position or state 2 To disturb in mind, feelings &c, to disarrange, to throw into a state of unrest, agitation &c, to render unsettled to unsettle a person's opinions, affections &c, to unsettle a boy at school unsettled, adj [1 unsetld, 2 ansetld] un- (I) & settle(d) Not settled (in various senses), a changeable, unstable unsettled weather, b unpaid unsettled claims, debts, c unallocated, not allotted, not subject to a deed of settlement an unsettled estate, unsettled lands &c unsettling, adj [1 unsetling, 2 ansetling] unsettle & -ing Disturbing unsettling news unsevered, adj [1 unseverd, 2 anseverd] un- (I) & sever(ed) Not severed unsex, vb trans [1 unseks, 2 anseks] un- (II) & sex To deprive of sex, esp to deprive (woman) of her feminine qualities, commonly in P.P. as adj unsexed unshackle, vb trans [1 unshakl, 2 anshakl] un- (II) & shackle To loose, unfasten, the shackles of, to free from shackles unshackled, adj [1 unshakld, 2 anshakld] un- (I) & shackle(d) Not shackled (esp in fig sense), unrestrained unshackled by conventions, conscientious scruples &c unshaded, adj [1 unshaded, 2 anshaded] un- (I) & shade(d) Not shaded, free from shade, not showing differences of light and shade, esp of a drawing &c unshadowed, adj [1 unshadod, 2 anshadod] un- (I) & shadow(ed) Not shadowed, not overcast by shadow, (esp fig) not darkened, not rendered sad and gloomy a life unshadowed by any calamity unshakable, adj [1 unshakahl, 2 anshakahl] un- (I) & shakable (esp fig) Not shakable, not to be shaken or upset, firmly established unshakable loyalty unshaken, adj [1 unshaken, 2 anshaken] un- (I) & shake(n) Not shaken, (esp fig) firm, steady, unwavering unshaken courage, resolution &c unshapeliness, n [1 unshapeliness, 2 anshapeliness] See next word & -ness State of being unshapely unshapely, adj [1 unshapli, 2 anshapli] un- (I) & shapely Not shapely, ill-formed, ill-proportioned, misshapen unshaven, adj [1 unshaven, 2 anshaven] un- (I) & shave(n) Not shaven, a not newly shaven, b wearing a beard unsheathe, vb trans [1 unshédh, 2 ansfédh] un- (II) & sheathe To take out, draw (sword &c), (fig) to unsheathe the sword, to declare or begin war unshed, adj [1 unshed, 2 anshed] un- (I) & shed (I) Not shed, esp unshed tears unsheltered, adj [1 unsheltid, 2 anseltid] un- (I) & shelter(ed) Not sheltered, exposed, unprotected, specif unsheltered industries, those which are subject to competition by imports of the same kind from foreign countries unship, vb trans [1 unship, 2 ansip] un- (II) & ship (II) a To discharge, unload (cargo &c), from a ship, b to disembark (passengers) from a ship, c to remove (oar) from rowlock, or (killer) from place in a boat &c where it is fixed or fitted unshod, adj [1 unshod, 2 ansod] un- (I) & shod Not shod, barefoot unshoe, vb trans [1 unshod, 2 ansod] un- (II) & shoe (I) To remove shoes from (horse &c) unshorn, adj [1 unshorn, 2 ansorn] un- (I) & shorn Not shorn, having the hair long and needing to be cut unshrinkable, adj [1 unshrinkabl, 2 anshinkabl] un- (I) & shrink & -able Not shrinkable, made so as not to shrink from wet (of flannel, cloth) unshrinking, adj [1 unshrinkng, 2 anshinkng] un- (I) & shrinking Not shrinking, undaunted, unhesitating, unflinching unshriven, adj [1 unshrivn, 2 anshrivn] un- (I) & shrive(n) Not shriven, not having confessed, done penance, and received absolution from a priest unshut, adj [1 unshut, 2 anshut] un- (I) & P of shut Not shut, wide open, not capable of shutting 'great whales with unshut eye' (M Arnold) unshutter, vb trans [1 unshüter, 2 anshtë] un- (II) & shutter To remove, open, the shutters from windows of unsifted, adj [1 unsifted, 2 ansifted] un- (I) & sift(ed) Not sifted (lit and fig) unsighted, adj [1 unsighted, 2 ansighted] un- (I) & sight(ed) Not sighted 1 Not seen, not brought within view 2 a (of gun &c) Not provided with sights, b (of shot) aimed without use of sights unsightliness, n See next word & -ness State, quality, of being unsightly unsightly, adj [1 unsightli, 2 ansightli] un- (I) & sightly Not sightly, displeasing to the sight, ugly unsigned, adj [1 unsind, 2 ansind] un- (I) & sign(ed) Not signed, not identified by the signature of author &c unsinged, adj [1 unsind, 2 ansind] un- (I) & singe(d) Not singed unsisterly, adj [1 unsisterli, 2 ansisterli] un- (I) & sisterly Not sisterly, not behaving like a sister, unbecoming in, unworthy of, a sister unkilful, adj [1 unkilful, 2 anskilful] un- (I) & skilful Not skilful, wanting skill or dexterity, clumsy, awkward unkilfully, adv Pre & -ly In an unskilful manner unkilfulness, n See pre & -ness State of being unskilful unskilled, adj [1 unskild, 2 anskild] un- (I) & skil(ed) Not skilled, not possessing or requiring special skill or training, specif unskilled labour, manual labour which it requires little or no special skill or training to perform unslaked, adj [1 unslákt, 2 anslákt] un-(I) & slake(d) Not slaked 1 (of thirst) Not satisfied, unassuaged 2 (of lime) Not mixed with water unsleeping, adj [1 unsláping, 2 ansláping] un-(I) & elsep(ing) Not sleeping, (usually fig) tireless, alert, constantly watchful un sleeping vigilance unsling, vb trans [1 unsling, 2 ansling] un-(II) & sling (I) a To remove (an object, a rifle &c) from the place where it has been slung, b (naut) to release from slings, remove the slings from (cargo, yards &c) unsociability, n [1 unsóshabíltá, 2 an-sóshabíltá] See next word & -ity State, quality, of being unsociable unsociable, adj [1 unsóshabl, 2 an-sóshabl] un-(I) & sociable Not sociable, disinclined, unsuited, to mix in society, reserved unsociably, adv Prec & -ly In an unsociable manner unsocial, adj [1 unsóshl, 2 an-sóshl] un-(I) & eocial Not social, not promoting, antagonistic to, the social relations of individuals or nations unsouled, adj [1 unsóuld, 2 an-sóuld] un-(I) & eoul(ed) Not souled, clean unsolaced, adj [1 unsólast, 2 an-sólast] un-(I) & eolace(d) Not solaced, not comforted or relieved unsold, adj [1 unsóld, 2 an-sóld] un-(I) & eold Not sold, still on the market and open for sale unsolder, vb trans [1 unsóder, sódor, 2 an-sóder, sódor] un-(II) & solder To remove solder from, to divide, separate (what has been soldered) unsoldierly, adj [1 unsólderl, 2 an-sólderl] un-(I) & soldierly Not soldierly, not like, not worthy of, unbecoming in, a soldier unsolicited, adj [1 unsólsted, 2 an-sólsted] un-(I) & solict(ed) Not solicited, not asked or requested, gratuitous unsolvable, adj [1 unsólvabl, 2 an-sólvabl] un-(I) & eolvable Not solvable, not to be solved, cp insoluble unsolved, adj [1 unsólvd, 2 an-sólvd] un-(I) & solve(d) Not solved unsophisticated, adj [1 unsóshístáted, 2 an-sóshístáted] un-(I) & eophísticate(d) Not sophisticated, a simple minded, in gonnous, inexperienced, innocent, b not adulterated, pure, genuine unsophisticatedly, adv Prec & -ly In an unsophisticated manner unsophisticatedness, n See prec & -ness State of being unsophisticated unsought, adj [1 unsáwt, 2 an-sáwt] un-(I) & P of seek Not sought, not looked for, unasked, unsolicited unsound, adj [1 unsóund, 2 an-sóund] un-(I) & sound (III) Not sound (in various senses of the word), as a not in sound or healthy condition an unsound horse, to have an unsound heart, Phr of unsound mind, insane, b decayed, rotten unsound fruit, fish, timber, o not based on sound reasoning, ill founded, fallacious unsound arguments, a thoroughly unsound scheme &c unsounded, adj [1 unsóunded, 2 an-sóunded] un-(I) & sound(ed) Not sounded, unfathomed, unplumbed unsoundly, adv [1 unsóundl, 2 an-sóundl] unsound & -ly In an unsound manner unsoundness, n [1 unsóundnes, 2 an-sóundnes] See prec & -ness State of being unsound unsown adj [1 unsón, 2 an-soun] un-(I) & sow(n) Not sown unsparing, adj [1 unsparíng, 2 an-sparíng] un-(I) & sparing Not sparing 1 Not showing mercy or forgiveness, hard, severe an unsparing taskmaster 2 Not parsimonious, liberal, profuse, lavish unsparing kindness, generosity, unsparing in his offers of help &c unsparingly, adv Prec & -ly In an unsparing manner unsparingness, n See prec & -ness State of being unsparing unspeakable, adj [1 unspéakabl, 2 anspéakabl] un-(I) & speak & -able Not capable of being uttered, expressed in words, indescribable, ineffable, a (in good sense) unspeakable blessing, delight &c, b (in bad sense) too bad, horrible &c, to mention or describe unspeakable torments, misery, (colloq) his manners are unspeakable unspeakableness, n Prec & -ness State of being unspeakable (chiefly in bad sense) unspeakably, adv See prec & -ly In an unspeakable manner, to an unspeakable degree unspecialized, adj [1 unspeshalízd, 2 an-speshalízd] un-(I) & specialíze(d) Not specialized, specif (biol, of organism, organ &c) not specially modified or adapted for particular functions unspecified, adj [1 unspésifd, 2 anspésifd] un-(I) & P of specify Not specified, not particularly indicated or stated unspeculative, adj [1 unspékúlatív, 2 anspékúlatív] un-(I) & speculativ Not speculative, not given to (mental) speculation unspent, adj [1 unspént, 2 anspént] un-(I) & spent Not spent, not tired, unexhausted unspilt, adj [1 unspílt, 2 anspílt] un-(I) & P of spill (I) Not spilt unspiritual, adj [1 unspíríthool, 2 anspíríthool] un-(I) & epiritual Not spiritual, wanting in spirituality, worldly, material unspirituality, n [1 unspíríthoolíltá, 2 anspíríthoolíltá] Prec & -ity State, quality, of being unspiritual unspiritually, adv [1 unspíríthool, 2 anspíríthool] See prec & -ly In an unspiritual manner unspoiled, unspoilt, adj [1 unspóild, spóilt, 2 anspóild, spóilt] un-(I) & P of spoil Not spoiled, undamaged unspoken, adj [1 unspóken, 2 anspouken] un-(I) & P of speak Not spoken, unuttered unspontaneous, adj [1 unspontáneus, 2 anspontáneus] un-(I) & spontaneous Not spontaneous, produced, or appearing to be produced, by deliberate effort, laboured, forced unspontaneously, adv Prec & -ly In an unspontaneous manner unsporting, adj [1 unsportíng, 2 anspóting] un-(I) & sportíng (colloq) Not sportíng, unsportsmanlike unsportsmanlike, adj [1 unsportsmanlík, 2 anspótsmanlík] un-(I) & sportsmanlike Not sportsmanlike, not behaving according to, done in defiance of, the rules and principles of sportsmanship, unchivalrous unspotted, adj [1 unspóted, 2 anspótd] un-(I) & spot(ted) Not spotted, (esp fig) untainted with guilt, uncontaminated unspotted from the world, immaculate unspotted honour unstable, adj [1 unstábl, 2 anstéíbl] un-(I) & stable (I) Not stable, a unsteady, easily upset, liable to shift, or be shifted, in position or direction, changeable, not firmly fixed, b (in moral sense) wavering, unreliable, inconstant, unbalanced unstained, adj [1 unstáind, 2 anstéínd] un-(I) & stain(ed) Not stained, (esp fig) unblemished, untarnished, in character, reputation &c unstamped, adj [1 unstámpd, 2 anstámpd] un-(I) & stamp(ed) Not stamped, (of letters, documents &c) without a stamp affixed unstarched, adj [1 unstárecht, 2 anstéíft] un-(I) & etarch(od) Not starched, a not stiffened with starch, limp, b not stiff in manner and bearing &c, easy, natural unstated, adj [1 unstáted, 2 anstéítd] un-(I) & etate(d) Not stated, not expressed in definite terms unstatesmanlike, adj [1 unstátsmanlík, 2 anstétsmanlík] un-(I) & statsmanlike Not statesmanlike unstatutable, adj [1 unstátútábl, 2 anstátútábl] un-(I) & statutable Not statutable, not warranted by statute unsteadfast, adj [1 unstédfast, 2 anstédfast] un-(I) & steadfast Not steadfast, wavering in courage &c, irresolute unsteadfastly, adv Prec & -ly In an unsteadfast manner unsteadfastness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being unsteadfast unsteadily, adv [1 unstédíh, 2 anstédíh] unsteady & -ly In an unsteady manner unsteadiness, n [1 unstédínes, 2 anstédínes] See prec & -ness State of being unsteady unsteady, adj [1 unstédi, 2 anstédi] un-(I) & steady Not steady 1 Shaky, unstable, not firm, easily upset or thrown down unsteady on one's feet, an unsteady poet 2 (in moral sense) a Variable, changeable, wavering, unreliable, not constant in character unsteady of purpose, b not irreproachable in conduct, dissipated, profligate unstep, vb trans [1 unstép, 2 anstép] un-(II) & step (naut) To remove (mast) from step or socket unstick, vb trans [1 unstítk, 2 anstítk] un-(II) & stick (I) To separate what is stuck together unstimulated, adj [1 unstimúlatéd, 2 anstimúlatéd] un-(I) & stimulate(d) Not stimulated unstinted, adj [1 unstínted, 2 anstínted] un-(I) & stint(ed) Not stinted, lavish unstipulated, adj [1 unstípúlatéd, 2 anstípúlatéd] un-(I) & etipulate(d) Not stipulated unstretch, vb trans [1 unstítkh, 2 anstítkh] un-(II) & stretch (II) To undo what is stitched together, to remove stitches from unstocked, adj [1 unstókt, 2 anstíkt] un-(I) & etock(ed) Not stocked, not provided with supplies an unstocked larder unstop, vb trans [1 unstóp, 2 anstóp] un-(II) & stop a To remove, take out, a stopper from, b to clear away a stoppage unstopped, adj [1 unstópt, 2 anstípt] un-(I) & stop(ped) Not stopped, specif (phon) a (of air passage) not closed, partially open, b (of consonants) formed with the air passage partially open unstrained, adj [1 unstránd, 2 anstréínd] un-(I) & etrain(ed) Not strained 1 Not passed through a strainer or filter 2 Not subjected to strain, unforced, easy, natural unstrap, vb trans [1 unstráp, 2 anstráp] un-(II) & etrap (II) To loosen, undo, the straps of, to remove straps from unstratified, adj [1 unstrátfínd, 2 anstrétsínd] un-(I) & P of etratify (geol) Not stratified unstressed, adj [1 unstréat, 2 anstréat] un-(I) & etrees(ed) Not stressed, a not emphasized, b (of syllables or words in a sentence) not uttered with force or stress, not bearing the chief or any stress or accent unstring, vb trans [1 unstring, 2 anstríng] un-(II) & string (II) 1 To loosen or remove the string or strings from (any stringed instrument) 2 To remove from a string, to unthread to unstring a necklace of pearls unstring, adj [1 unstring, 2 anstránp] P of prec Relaxed, out of control, no longer subject to the will his nerves are all unstring unstudied, adj [1 unstúdd, 2 anstádíd] un-(I) & P of study (II) Not studied, attained without conscious art or effort unstudiedly, adv See prec & -ly In an unstudied manner unsubdued, adj [1 unsubdd, 2 ansubdd] un-(I) & subdue(d) Not subdued, unconquered, unrepressed unsubmissive, adj [1 unsubmísv, 2 ansubmísv] un-(I) & submissive Not submissive, not readily yielding obedience, not subservient unsubmissively, adv Prec & -ly In an unsubmissive manner unsubmissiveness, n See prec & -ness State of being unsubmissive unsubstantial, adj [1 ʊnsʊbstənsiəl, 2 ʌnsəbətənʃl] un- (I) & substantial Not substantial 1 (in physical sense) Lacking substance or solidity, not solid or heavy, light, flimsy an unsubstantial protection against the weather, an unsubstantial meal &c 2 (in non physical sense) Lacking reality or substance, unreal, visionary unsubstantial hopes, dreams, arguments &c unsubstantiated, n [1 ʊnsʊbstənsiətiəti, 2 ʌnsəbətənʃiəli] Prec & -ity State of being unsubstantial unsubstantially, adv [1 ʊnsʊbstənsiəli] See prec & -ly In an unsubstantial manner unsubstantiated, adj [1 ʊnsʊbstənsiətiəd, 2 ʌnsəbətənʃiətiəd] un- (I) & substantiated Not substantiated, confirmed, or proved unsubstantiated evidence, report &c unsuccess, n [1 ʊnsʊksəs, 2 ʌnsəkseɪs] un- (I) & success Want of success, failure unsuccessful, adj [1 ʊnsʊksɛsəl, 2 ʌnsəkseɪsəl] un- (I) & successful Not successful, a meeting with failure, disappointment, or misfortune, missing success an unsuccessful man, business &c, b not producing the desired results unsuccessful efforts &c unsuccessfully, adv Prec & -ly In an unsuccessful manner, without success unsuitability, n [1 ʊnsʊtəbiliti, 2 ʌnsjʊtəbiliti] See next word & -ity State of being unsuitable, unsuitableness unsuitable, adj [1 ʊnsʊtəbl, 2 ʌnsjʊtəbl] un- (I) & suitable Not suitable, not fitting or adapted for, not fulfilling requirements, unbecoming unsuitableness, n Prec & -ness Unsuitability unsuitably, adv See prec & -ly In an unsuitable manner unsuited, adj [1 ʊnsʊtəd, 2 ʌnsjʊtəd] un- (I) & suited Not suited, not fit or adapted for, ill-matched, incompatible unsullied, adj [1 ʊnsʊld, 2 ʌnsʌld] un- (I) & PP of sully Not sullied, unblemished, untarnished unsullied glory, reputation &c unsunned, adj [1 ʊnsʊnd, 2 ʌnsʌnd] un- (I) & sunned Not sunned or counted unsunmanned, adj [1 ʊnsʊmnd, 2 ʌnsʌmnd] un- (I) & sunmanned Not summoned, not called upon to appear, uninvited unsung, adj [1 ʊnsʊŋ, 2 ʌnsʌŋ] un- (I) & sung Not sung, not celebrated in poetry 'Unsung, unhonoured, and unsung' (Scott, 'Last Minstrel', vi 1) unsunned, adj [1 ʊnsʊnd, 2 ʌnsʌnd] un- (I) & sunned Not warmed or lighted by the sun unsunny, adj [1 ʊnsʊni, 2 ʌnsʌni] un- (I) & sunny Not sunny, dark, gloomy unsupplied, adj [1 ʊnsʊplid, 2 ʌnsʌplid] un- (I) & PP of supply Not supplied, not furnished (with) unsupported, adj [1 ʊnsʊpɔrtəd, 2 ʌnsəptəd] un- (I) & supported Not supported unsuppressed, adj [1 ʊnsʊprɛst, 2 ʌnsəprɛst] un- (I) & suppressed Not suppressed unsure, adj [1 ʊnsʊə, 2 ʌnsʌ] un- (I) & sure Not sure, a unsafe, insecure, b uncertain unsurmountable, adj [1 ʊnsʊrməntəbl, 2 ʌnsəməntəbl] un- (I) & surmountable Not surmountable, not to be surmounted or overcome, insuperable unsurmounted, adj [1 ʊnsʊrməntəd, 2 ʌnsəməntəd] un- (I) & surmounted Not surmounted unsurpassable, adj [1 ʊnsʊrpʌsəbl, 2 ʌnsəpəsəbl] un- (I) & surpassable Not surpassable, not to be surpassed unsurpassably, adv Prec & -ly In an unsurpassable manner unsurpassed, adj [1 ʊnsʊrpʌst, 2 ʌnsəpɛst] un- (I) & surpasses Not surpassed unsusceptible, adj [1 ʊnsʊsɛptəbl, 2 ʌnsəsɛptəbl] un- (I) & susceptible Not susceptible, insusceptible unsuspected, adj [1 ʊnsʊsɛktəd, 2 ʌnsəpɛktəd] un- (I) & suspected Not suspected, not supposed or known to exist unsuspectedly, adv Prec & -ly In an unsuspected manner unsuspecting, adj [1 ʊnsʊsɛpɛktɪŋ, 2 ʌnsəpɛktɪŋ] un- (I) & suspect & -ing Not suspecting, having no suspicion unsuspectingly, adv Prec & -ly In an unsuspecting manner unsuspicious, adj [1 ʊnsʊspɪʃəs, 2 ʌnsəspɪʃəs] un- (I) & suspicious Not suspicious, a without suspicion, b not arousing suspicion unsuspiciously, adv Prec & -ly In an unsuspicious manner unsuspiciousness, n See prec & -ness State of being unsuspicious unsustainable, adj [1 ʊnsʊstəneɪbl, 2 ʌnsəsteɪneɪbl] un- (I) & sustainable Not sustainable, not to be sustained, not to be encouraged or upheld an unsustainable position, opinion &c unsustained, adj [1 ʊnsʊstænd, 2 ʌnsəsteɪnd] un- (I) & sustained Not sustained, not upheld, unsupported unswathe, vb trans [1 ʊnswəð, 2 ʌnsweɪð] un- (II) & swathe To remove the swathings or bandages of unswayed, adj [1 ʊnsweɪd, 2 ʌnsweɪd] un- (I) & sway(od) Not swayed or influenced (by), unbiased, unprejudiced unswear, vb trans [1 ʊnsweə, 2 ʌnsweɪə] un- (II) & swear To recant, recall, on oath (that which has been sworn), to abjure unsweetened, adj [1 ʊnsweɪtnd, 2 ʌnsweɪtnd] un- (I) & sweetened Not sweetened unswerving, adj [1 ʊnsweɪvɪŋ, 2 ʌnsweɪvɪŋ] un- (I) & swerve & -ing Not swerving, (esp fig) firm, constant, undeviating unswerving loyalty unswervingly, adv Prec & -ly In an unswerving manner, undeviatingly unsworn, adj [1 ʊnswoɪn, 2 ʌnswoɪn] un- (I) & sworn Not sworn, not put on oath unsymbolical, adj [1 ʊnsɪmbəlikl, 2 ʌnsɪmbəlikl] un- (I) & symbolical Not symbolical unsymmetrical, adj [1 ʊnsɪmətriəl, 2 ʌnsɪmətriəl] un- (I) & symmetrical Not symmetrical unsymmetrically, adv Prec & -ly Without symmetry unsympathetic, adj [1 ʊnsɪmpəθetɪk, 2 ʌnsɪmpəθetɪk] un- (I) & sympathetic Not sympathetic, a not showing sympathy with or to, b cold, callous, b antipathetic unsympathetically, adv [1 ʊnsɪmpəθetɪkəl, 2 ʌnsɪmpəθetɪkəl] Prec & -al & -ly In an unsympathetic manner unsystematic, adj [1 ʊnsɪstəmətɪk, 2 ʌnsɪstəmətɪk] un- (I) & systematic Not systematic unsystematically, adv [1 ʊnsɪstəmətɪkəl, 2 ʌnsɪstəmətɪkəl] Prec & -al & -ly In an unsystematic manner, without system untack, vb trans [1 ʊntæk, 2 ʌntæk] un- (II) & tack (II) To undo, unfasten (what is tacked together), to remove tacks from untactful, adj [1 ʊntækfəl, 2 ʌntækfəl] un- (I) & tactful Not tactful, lacking tact, tactless untactfully, adv Prec & -ly In an untactful manner untactfulness, n See prec & -ness State of being untactful, want of tact untainted, adj [1 ʊntetnd, 2 ʌntetnd] un- (I) & tainted Not tainted, (esp m fig sense) without blemish or taint of guilt, shame &c untalented, adj [1 ʊntələntəd, 2 ʌntələntəd] un- (I) & talent(ed) Not talented, without talents or talent untamable, adj [1 ʊntəmeɪbl, 2 ʌntəmeɪbl] un- (I) & tameable Not tameable untamableness, n Prec & -ness State of being untamable untamably, adv See prec & -ly In an untamable manner untamed, adj [1 ʊntəmd, 2 ʌntəmd] un- (I) & tame(d) Not tamed, a wild, undomesticated, b not subdued, controlled, disciplined untamed passions untangle, vb trans [1 ʊntæŋgl, 2 ʌntæŋgl] un- (II) & tangle (II) To loose, free from a tangle, to unravel, disentangle untanned, adj [1 ʊntænd, 2 ʌntænd] un- (I) & tan(nod) Not tanned, a (of hides) not dressed, b (of human skin) not sunburnt untarnished, adj [1 ʊntənsht, 2 ʌntənsht] un- (I) & tarnish(ed) Not tarnished (lit and fig) untasted, adj [1 ʊntəstəd, 2 ʌntəstəd] un- (I) & taste(d) Not tasted, not yet enjoyed untaught, adj [1 ʊntəwt, 2 ʌntəwt] un- (I) & taught 1 Not taught, uneducated, illiterate, ignorant 2 Acquired without teaching those untaught graces of style untaxed, adj [1 ʊntæks, 2 ʌntæks] un- (I) & tax(ed) Not taxed, free from, not liable to, taxation unteach, vb trans [1 ʊnti:tʃ, 2 ʌnti:tʃ] un- (II) & teach To cause to forget what has been taught, to teach the contrary of what has been learnt or a different method of learning unteachable, adj [1 ʊnti:tʃəbl, 2 ʌnti:tʃəbl] un- (I) & teachable Not teachable, incapable of being taught unteachableness, n Prec & -ness State of being unteachable untearable, adj [1 ʊntiərəbl, 2 ʌntiərəbl] un- (I) & tear & -able Not tearable, incapable of being torn untechnical, adj [1 ʊnteknikl, 2 ʌnteknikl] un- (I) & technical Not technical unterper, vb trans [1 ʊntempeɪ, 2 ʌntempeɪ] un- (II) & temper (I) To take away, remove, the temper of (metal) untempered, adj [1 ʊntempeɪd, 2 ʌntempeɪd] un- (I) & temper(ed) Not tempered, (esp fig) not modified or qualified untempered abuse, harshness, justice untempered with mercy untenable, n [1 ʊntənəbiliti, 2 ʌntənəbiliti] See next word & -ity State, quality, of being untenable untenable, adj [1 ʊntənəbl, 2 ʌntənəbl] un- (I) & tenable Not tenable, not to be defended or maintained an untenable position (lit and fig) untenably, adv Prec & -ly In an untenable state untenantable, adj [1 ʊntənəntəbl, 2 ʌntənəntəbl] un- (I) & tenantable Not tenantable, not fit to be let to or occupied by a tenant untenanted, adj [1 ʊntənəntəd, 2 ʌntənəntəd] un- (I) & tenant(ed) Not tenanted, unoccupied by a tenant, vacant untended, adj [1 ʊntendəd, 2 ʌntendəd] un- (I) & tend(ad) Not tended, neglected, uncared for unterrified, adj [1 ʊnterɪfɪd, 2 ʌnterɪfɪd] un- (I) & PP of terrify Not terrified untested, adj [1 ʊntestəd, 2 ʌntestəd] un- (I) & test(ed) Not tested, untried untether, vb trans [1 ʊntetə, 2 ʌntetə] un- (II) & tether To loose from a tether, to set free (what has been tethered) unthanked, adj [1 ʊnthæŋkt, 2 ʌnthæŋkt] un- (I) & thank(ed) Not thanked unthankful, adj [1 ʊnthæŋkfəl, 2 ʌnthæŋkfəl] un- (I) & thankful Not thankful, ungrateful unthankfully, adv Prec & -ly Without thanks or gratitude unthankfulness, n See prec & -ness State of being unthankful, ingratitude unthink, vb trans [1 unthínk, 2 anpínk] un- (I) & think (rare) To dismiss from the thoughts, to change one's thoughts or mind about unthinkable, adj [1 unthínkabl, 2 anpínkabl] un- (I) & thinkable Not thinkable; not to be thought of, (colloq) extremely improbable or unlikely unthinking, adj [1 unthínking, 2 anpínking] un- (I) & Pres Part of think Not thinking; thoughtless, heedless inconsiderate unthinkingly, adv Pres & -ly In an unthinking manner, thoughtlessly unthought (of), adj [1 untháwt (ov), 2 anpót (ov)] un- (I) & thought (II) Not thought of, having never entered one's thoughts unimaginable, highly improbable, quite unexpected unthoughtful, adj [1 untháwtf, 2 anpótft] un- (I) & thoughtful Not thoughtful, inconsiderate, heedless unthoughtfully, adv Pres & -ly In an unthoughtful manner unthoughtfulness n See pres & -ness Lack of thoughtfulness, thoughtlessness, inconsiderateness unthread, vb trans [1 unthréd, 2 anpred] un- (II) & thread (II) To remove, take out, the thread or threads from, (also fig) to find one's way through, or out of, to disen- tangle (a mystery &c) unthrift, n [1 unthrít, 2 anpríft] un- (I) & thrift (arabais) Want, lack, of thrift, thriftlessness unthrifly, adv [1 unthrítli, 2 anpríftli] unthrifly & -ly In an unthrifly manner unthriftness, n [1 unthrítines, 2 anpríftines] See pres & -ness State of being unthrifly, lack of thrift, extravagance, wastefulness unthrifty, adj [1 unthrítft, 2 anpríftft] un- (I) & thrifty Not thrifty, thriftless, ex- travagant, wasteful unthrone, vb trans [1 unthrón, 2 anprón] un- (II) & throne To remove from a throne, to dethrone, to depose (a king) unthwarted, adj [1 unthwórted, 2 anpwrót] un- (I) & thwart(ed) Not thwarted, not frustrated or crossed in pur- pose untidily, adv [1 untídli, 2 antáidli] untidily & -ly In an untidy manner untidiness, n [1 untídines, 2 antáidines] See pres & -ness State of being untidy untidy, adj [1 untídi, 2 antáidi] un- (I) & tidy Not tidy lacking neatness and order, disarranged in confusion untie, vb trans [1 untí, 2 antái] un- (II) & tie (II) To undo unfasten, what is tied, as a package &c. to undo knot in untied, adj [1 untíed, 2 antáid] a fr un- (I), b fr un- (II) & tied(a) Not tied, b unfastened, loosed from tie until, prep & conj [1 untíl, 2 antíl] In M E, variant of unto see un- (II) & till (I) (of time) 1 prep Till so far as, as late as, up to until his death, wait until four o'clock 2 conj Up to the time when wait here until I come, until he returns, nothing can be done untiled, adj [1 untíld, 2 antáild] un- (I) & tile(d) Not tiled 1 (of roofs &c) Not covered with tiles 2 (freemasonry, of lodge) Not closed or guarded by the tiler untilled, adj [1 untíld, 2 antáild] un- (I) & till(ed) Not tilled, uncultivated untimeliness n [1 untímlines, 2 antáimlins] Next word & -ness State of being untimely untimely (I), adj [1 untímlí, 2 antáimlí] un- (I) & timely 1 Not occurring, at the normal time unus. possible specif, occurring, done before its time too early premature an untimely death 2 Done said occurring, at an unsuitable time, inopportune an un- timely remark untimely (II), adv a Prematurely, b in opportunely untintured, adj [1 untíntúrd, 2 antíntfúrd] un- (I) & tincture(d) Not tintured, (usually fig) unmixed with, un- affected by (some quality), without a flavour or taste of cruelly untintured by remorse untinted, adj [1 untíntd, 2 antíntzd] un- (I) & tinge(d) Not tinted, not coloured or modified with (some quality) untiring, adj [1 untíring, 2 antáiríng] un- (I) & tiring Not tiring, unwearying, un- flagging with untiring energy untiringly, adv Pres & -ly In an untiring manner untitled, adj [1 untítd, 2 antáitld] un- (I) & title(d) Not titled, having no title unto, prep [1 untúo, 2 ántú] In M E, fr *und to, und, un, 'as far as', as in until, op O Frs & OS und, 'until', & to (arabais, Bib, and formal) To untold, adj [1 untíld, 2 antáitld] un- (I) & P P of tell Not told 1 Not recounted or related, not revealed or communicated left the story, secret, untold 2 Not counted, beyond counting untold wealth untormented, adj [1 untórménted, 2 antárméntid] un- (I) & torment(ed) Not tormented untouchable, adj [1 untúchabl, 2 antát- ábl] un- (I) & touchable Not touch- able, not to be touched, specif, of the pariah or non caste peoples of India, also as noun an untouchable, a non caste person untouched, adj [1 untúcht, 2 antátft] un- (I) & touch(ed) Not touched untoward, adj [1 untúwórd, 2 antáwórd] un- (I) & toward (I) (arabais) a Perverse, froward this untoward generation (Acts 11. 40), b unlucky, inconvenient, awkward a most untoward event untowardly, adv -Pres & -ly In an unto- ward manner untraceable, adj [1 untrásabl, 2 antréisabl] un- (I) & traceable Not traceable, not to be traced, not to be found untrained, adj [1 untránd, 2 antréánd] un- (I) & train(ed) Not trained 1 Not disciplined in mind, not having received a training in the methods of some particular kind of intellectual work 2 Not trained or exercised in some form of physical activity, specif a not trained for some form of athletic exercise, b not trained as a soldier in military exercises untramelled, adj [1 untráml, 2 antráml] un- (I) & trammel(ed) Not trammel- led, free from impediments or re- strictions unhampered untransferable, adj [1 untránshérábl, 2 antransférábl] un- (I) & transferable Not trans- férable not to be transferred untranslatable, n [1 untránsháitáblí, 2 antransháitáblí] See next word & -ity State quality of being untranslatable untranslatable, n [1 untránsháitábl, 2 antransháitábl] un- (I) & translatable Not translatable, unadapted to, incapable of, translation untranslated, adj [1 untránsháitéd, 2 antransháitéd] un- (I) & translate(d) Not translated untravalled, adj [1 untrávl, 2 antrávl] un- (I) & travel(l)ed Not travelled, a not having travelled, without experience of travel in foreign countries, b not tra- versed untrodden by travellers untraversed, adj [1 untrávrst, 2 antrávrst] un- (I) & traverse(d) Not tra- versed 1 Not passed over or crossed, 2 Not denied or controverted untried, adj [1 untríed, 2 antríed] un- (I) & P P of try Not tried not yet expe- rienced not having passed a preliminary trial untrodden, adj [1 untródn, 2 antródn] un- (I) & P P of tread Not trodden on, unfrequented untroubled, adj [1 untrúbl, 2 antríbl] un- (I) & trouble & -ed. Not troubled, a undisturbed in mind, unperturbed, unper- plexed, b (in material sense) calm, un- ruffled, not stirred into movement the un- troubled surface of a lake untrue, adj [1 untrúo, 2 antrú] un- (I) & true Not true 1 a False, not in accord- ance with the truth or with facts, b un- faithful, disloyal 2 Not exactly conform- ing or corresponding to, not in agreement with, a particular standard, pattern, or measure untrue to type, the angles are un- true and out of the square untruely, adv [1 untrúoli, 2 antrúli] Pres & -ly In an untrue manner untrustworthiness, n [1 untrústwérthines, 2 antrástwérthines] Next word & -ness State, quality, of being untrustworthy untrustworthy, adj [1 untrústwérthi, 2 antrástwérthi] un- (I) & trustworthy Not trustworthy, not to be relied and depended on, shifty, undependable untruth, n [1 untrúth, 2 antrú] un- (I) & truth A quality of being untrue, falsity, lack of veracity marked by dissimulation and untruth, quick to discern the untruth in such rumours, b an untrue statement, a false- hood, a lie never told an untruth in his life untruthful, adj [1 untrúthf, 2 antrúpf] un- (I) & truthful Not truthful, a given to saying what is untrue, not adhering to the truth in one's statements, apt to tell lies, b not in accordance with the truth, untrue, untruthful, lying an untruthful account, description untruthfully, adv Pres & -ly In an un- truthful manner untruthfulness, n See pres & -ness Quality of being untruthful, a habit, practice, of lying, b falsehood, absence of veracity (in a statement &c) untuck, vb trans [1 unták, 2 anták] un- (II) & tuck To undo, unfold what is tucked up, to free, unfasten, tucks in untune, vb trans [1 untún, 2 antjún] un- (II) & tune (II) To put out of tune, to make untuneful or discordant untuned, adj [1 untúnd, 2 antjúnd] un- (I) & tune(d) Not tuned, not in tune untuneful, adj [1 untúnfi, 2 antjúnfi] un- (I) & tuneful Not tuneful, discordant untunefully, adv Pres & -ly In an un- tuneful manner unturf, vb trans [1 untér, 2 antáf] un- (II) & turf To remove the turf from unturnd, adj [1 antérnd, 2 antíríff] un- (I) & turn(od) Not turned (over), esp in Phr leave no stone unturnd, use every effort leave nothing undone or noticed untutored, adj [1 untútd, 2 antjútd] un- (I) & tut-(od) Not tutored, not taught, untaught, hence, rude, barbarous, uneducated untwine, vb trans & intrans [1 untwín, 2 antwán] un- (II) & twine, vb 1 trans To unwind, loosen undo what is twined to untwist 2 intrans To become untwined untwist vb trans & intrans [1 untwíst, 2 antwíst] un- (II) & twist (II) 1 trans To undo, loosen, what is twisted, to unravel, disentangle 2 intrans To become un- twisted unurged, adj [1 unúrgd, 2 antáid] un- (I) & urge(d) Not urged unused, adj un- (I) & use(d) 1 [1 un- úzd, 2 antjúzd] Not used, not made use of, not in use an unused room 2 [1 unúst, 2 antjúst] Unaccustomed to unfamiliar with, inexperienced in not habituated to unused to society for foreign travel, quite unused to public speaking unusual, adj [1 unúzhool, 2 antjúzá] un- (I) & usual Not usual, uncommon, rare unfamiliar, strange, exceptional, odd unusually, adv Pres & -ly In an unusual manner (colloq) to a high degree, extremely an unusually nice person unutilized, adj [1 unútíld, 2 antjútíld] un- (I) & utilize(d) Not utilized, not made use of, not turned to account unutterable, adj [1 unútorabl, 2 anútorabl] un- (I) & utterable Not to be uttered, a unspeakable, inexpressible, indescribable unutterable despair, in unutterable confusion, b so bad as to be beyond description, indescribable, hence out and out, thoroughgoing an unutterable scoundrel unutterably, adv Prec & -ly In an unutterable manner unuttered, adj [1 unúterd, 2 anúterd] un- (I) & utter(ed) Not uttered, existing in the mind but unspoken unuttered prayers unvaccinated, adj [1 unváksinatéd, 2 anváksinatéd] un- (I) & vaccinate(d) Not vaccinated unvalued, adj [1 unváluéd, 2 anváluéd] un- (I) & value(d) Not valued, a not prized or esteemed, b not held in esteem, not considered valuable unvanquished, adj [1 unvángkwisht, 2 anvángkwisht] un- (I) & vanquish(ed) Not vanquished, a not conquered unvaried, adj [1 unváriéd, 2 anváriéd] un- (I) & P P of vary Not varied, a not varying, always the same, constant, enduring unvaried kindness, unvaried hostility, b showing no variety, monotonous, tedious the unvaried routine of daily duties unvarnished, adj [1 unvárnisht, 2 anvárnisht] un- (I) & varnish(ed) Not varnished, a not covered with a coat of varnish, b (fig) not embellished or tricked out, plain, simple an unvarnished tale unvarying, adj [1 unváriyng, 2 anváriyng] un- (I) & vary(ing) Not varying, not altering or changeable, constant, invariable unvaryingly, adv Prec & -ly In an unvarying manner unveil, vb trans & intrans [1 unvéil, 2 anvéil] un- (II) & veil (II) 1 trans a To remove the veil or covering from to unveil one's face, oneself, to unveil a statue, to perform the public ceremony of disclosing to view a newly erected statue, b (fig) to disclose, reveal, make plain (what is secret) to unveil a secret plan, one's purpose 2 intrans a To take the veil off one's face or person, b to reveal oneself, to show one's true character unventilated, adj [1 unvéntilátéd, 2 anvéntilátéd] un- (I) & ventilate(d) Not ventilated, a (of rooms &c) not adequately supplied with fresh air, hence stuffy, airless, b not submitted to discussion unventilated grievances unveracious, adj [1 únveráshus, 2 únveráshus] un- (I) & veracious Not veracious, (chiefly applied to statements &c) lacking veracity, untruthful unverifiable, adj [1 unvérifíabl, 2 anvérifíabl] un- (I) & verifiable Not verifiable, not capable of being verified unverified, adj [1 unvérífíed, 2 anvérífíed] un- (I) & P P of verify Not verified, not proved or established as true unversed, adj [1 unvérst, 2 anvérst] un- (I) & versed Not versed or skilled in unvexed, adj [1 unvékst, 2 anvékst] un- (I) & vex(ed) Not vexed unvindicated, adj [1 unvindikátéd, 2 anvindikátéd] un- (I) & vindicate(d) Not vindicated unviolated, adj [1 unvíolatéd, 2 anvíolatéd] un- (I) & violate(d) Not violated, (lit and fig) kept inviolate unvisited, adj [1 unvízítéd, 2 anvízítéd] un- (I) & visit(ed) Not visited, unrequented unvisited, adj [1 unvízítéd, 2 anvízítéd] un- (I) & visitate(d) Not visitated, unspoiled, pure, not corrupted unvoiced, adj [1 unvóist, 2 anvóist] un- (I) & voice(d) a Not expressed or uttered, b (phon) not voiced, uttered without vibration of the vocal chords unvouched, adj [1 unvóuchét, 2 anvóuchét] un- (I) & vouch(ed) Not vouched (for), not attested unwaked, -wakened, adj [1 unwákt, -wáktend, 2 anwákt, -wáktend] un- (I) & wake(ne)d Not waked or awakened unwalled, adj [1 unwáld, 2 anwáld] un- (I) & wall(ed) Not walled, without walls or fortifications unwanted, adj [1 unwántéd, 2 anwántéd] un- (I) & want(ed) Not wanted unwarily, adv [1 unwárlí, 2 anwárlí] unwary & -ly In an unwary manner, uncautiously unwariness, n [1 unwárinés, 2 anwárinés] See prec & -ness State of being unwary unwarlike, adj [1 unwórlík, 2 anwórlík] un- (I) & warlike Not warlike, unmilitary, pacific unwarned, adj [1 unwórnéd, 2 anwórnéd] un- (I) & warn(ed) Not warned unwarped, adj [1 unwórpét, 2 anwórpét] un- (I) & warp(ed) Not warped, not biased, unprejudiced unwarrantable, adj [1 unwórantabl, 2 anwórantabl] un- (I) & warrantable Not warrantable, unjustifiable, indefensible, improper unwarrantably, adv Prec & -ly In an unwarrantable manner unwarranted, adj [1 unwórantéd, 2 anwórantéd] un- (I) & warrant(ed) Not warranted, a without a warrant or guarantee, b unauthorized unwary, adj [1 unwárl, 2 anwárl] un- (I) & wary Not wary, incautious, unguarded, rash unwashed, adj [1 unwóshét, 2 anwóshét] un- (I) & wash(ed) Not washed, a dirty Phr the great unwashed, the mob, b not touched or reached by the sea, river &c unwasted, adj [1 unwástéd, 2 anwástéd] un- (I) & waste(d) Not wasted unwatched, adj [1 unwócht, 2 anwócht] un- (I) & watch(ed) Not watched, unguarded unwatchful, adj [1 unwóchtí, 2 anwóchtí] un- (I) & watchful Not watchful, careless unwatchfully, adv Prec & -ly In an unwatchful manner unwatchfulness, n See prec & -ness Quality, state, of being unwatchful, lack of vigilance unwatered, adj [1 unwáwtéréd, 2 anwówtéréd] un- (I) & water(ed) Not watered, a not diluted, b not supplied with water, c not sprinkled, moistened, irrigated, with water unwavering, adj [1 unwéveríng, 2 anwéveríng] un- (I) & wavering Not wavering, steadfast, firm unwaveringly, adv Prec & -ly In an unwavering manner unweaned, adj [1 unwéand, 2 anwéand] un- (I) & wean(ed) Not yet weaned, still at the breast unwearable, adj [1 unwárabl, 2 anwéarabl] un- (I) & wearable Not wearable, a not fit to be put on and worn, b not to be worn out unwearied, adj [1 unwéaríed, 2 anwéaríed] un- (I) & wearied Not wearied, not tired, unfatigued, indefatigable unweary, adj [1 unwéarí, 2 anwéarí] un- (I) & weary Not weary unwearying, adj [1 unwéaríng, 2 anwéaríng] Prec & -ing Not wearying, showing no weariness, untiring, indefatigable, persistent unwearyingly, adv Prec & -ly In an unwearying manner unweave, vb trans [1 unwév, 2 anwév] un- (II) & weave To undo what is woven, to separate the threads of unwed, -wedded, adj [1 unwédéd, 2 anwédéd] un- (I) & wed(ded) Not wedded, unmarried, single unweighed, adj [1 unwéíed, 2 anwéíed] un- (I) & weigh(ed) Not weighed, not duly pondered or considered unwelcome, adj [1 unwélkém, 2 anwélkém] un- (I) & welcome Not welcome unwell, adj [1 unwél, 2 anwél] un- (I) & well (IV) Not well in health, ailing, indisposed, specif, sick, suffering from nausea unwept, adj [1 unwépt, 2 anwépt] un- (I) & P P of weep Not wopt for, unmourned, unlamented unwhipped, adj [1 unwípt, 2 anwípt] un- (I) & P P of whip Not whipped, esp of one needing a whipping an unwhipped cub unwholesome, adj [1 unhólsóm, 2 anhólsóm] un- (I) & wholesome Not wholesome 1 a Bad for the health, likely to cause disease, b suffering from bad health, unhealthy 2 Morally unhealthy, tending to promote immorality an unwholesome book unwholesomeness, n Prec & -ness State, quality, of being unwholesome unwieldiness, n [1 unwéldínés, 2 anwéldínés] See next word & -ness State of being unwieldy unwieldy, adj [1 unwéldí, 2 anwéldí] un- (I) & bea wieldy, 'easy to wield or handle', see wield & -y Not easy to handle or move, bulky, unmanageable, ponderous, clumsy unwifely, adj [1 unwíflí, 2 anwáwíflí] un- (I) & wifely Not wifely, unlike a wife, not befitting or worthy of a wife unwill, vb trans [1 unwíl, 2 anwíl] un- (II) & will To will the exact reverse of what one has willed, or has been willed to do unwilling, adj [1 unwíllíng, 2 anwíllíng] un- (I) & willing Not willing, reluctant, disinclined unwillingly, adv Prec & -ly In an unwilling manner, against one's will unwillingness, n See prec & -ness State of being unwilling unwind, vb trans & intrans [1 unwínd, 2 anwínd] un- (II) & wind (IV) 1 trans To wind off what has been wound, to loose, separate, what has been wound. 2 intrans 'To become unwound' unwinking, adj [1 unwíngkíng, 2 anwíngkíng] un- (I) & wink(ing) Preserving a steady gaze without a tremor of an eyelid, open-eyed, wide awake, (fig, rare) vigilant unwisdom, n [1 unwízdóm, 2 anwízdóm] un- (I) & wisdom Reverse of wisdom, folly, unwise conduct unwise, adj [1 unwísz, 2 anwáwísz] un- (I) & wise Not wise, foolish, imprudent unwisely, adv [1 unwíszí, 2 anwáwíszí] Prec & -ly In an unwise manner, foolishly unwished, adj [1 unwíshét, 2 anwíshét] un- (I) & wish(ed) Not wished (for), not desired unwitnessed, adj [1 unwítnést, 2 anwítnést] un- (I) & witness(ed) Not witnessed, a not seen, b uncorroborated by a witness, c not signed by a witness unwitting, adj [1 unwítíng, 2 anwítíng] un- (I) & Pres Part of wit (II) Not witting, unknowing, unconscious, unintentional unwittingly, adv Prec & -ly In an unwitting manner, unconsciously, inadvertently unwomanly, adj [1 unwóómanlí, 2 anwámanlí] un- (I) & womanly Not womanly, not characteristic of, unbecoming, a (good) woman unwon, adj [1 unwún, 2 anwán] un- (I) & won Not won, not gained unwonted, adj [1 unwóntéd, 2 anwóntéd] un- (I) & wonted Not wonted, unaccustomed, unusual, infrequent, rare unwontedly, adv Prec & -ly In an unwonted manner unwontedness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being unwonted unwooded, adj [1 unwóóded, 2 anwíwdéd] un- (I) & wood(ed) Not wooded, not covered with woods or forests unwooded, adj [1 unwóóded, 2 anwíwdéd] un- (I) & woo(ed) Not wooed, uncourted unwork, vb trans [1 unwérk, 2 anwérk] un- (II) & work (II) To undo, destroy, what has been worked or done unworkable, adj [1 unwérkabl, 2 anwíkabl] un- (I) & workable Not workable, difficult or impossible to work, manage, or carry out an unworkable machine, plan &c unworked, adj [1 unworkt, 2 anwíkt] un- (I) & work(ed) Not worked unworkmanlike, adj [1 unwérkmanlik, 2 anwíkmanlik] un- (I) & workmanlike Not workmanlike, not like the work of a good and skilled craftsman, badly, unsuitably, done unworldliness, n [1 unwérldlínos, 2 anwíldlínos] See next word & -ness An unworldly habit of mind, unworldly conduct unworldly, adj [1 unwérldl, 2 anwíldl] un- (I) & worldly Not worldly, a not of this world, spiritual, b spiritually minded, not concerned with material or worldly things, specif, not seeking worldly advantage and gain unworn, adj [1 unwórñ, 2 anwón] un- (I) & worn Not worn, a not showing signs of wear, b (of clothes) having never been worn, c not usually worn unworthily, adv [1 unwérðhul, 2 anwíðlís] unworthy & -ly In an unworthy manner unworthiness, n [1 unwérðhúnes, 2 anwíðlínis] See next word & -ness State, quality, of being unworthy unworthy, adj [1 unwérðh, 2 anwíðl] un- (I) & worthy 1 Not worthy, lacking moral worth, not having or deserving respect, worthless an unworthy person 2 Not deserving some specified position, reward &c, not possessing the moral or intellectual requirements for a specified position, rank, status an unworthy member of the Church, a humble, but, I fear, an unworthy pupil of a great teacher 3 Unworthy of, a not deserving unworthy of respect, of promotion, reports unworthy of credence, b below the dignity of, unbecoming in conduct unworthy of a gentleman unwound, adj [1 unwóund, 2 anwóund] a un- (II), b un- (I) & wound (III) A wound off, freed from windings, unwrapped, untwisted, disentangled, b not wound unwounded, adj [1 unwóundéd, 2 anwóundéd] un- (I) & wound(ed) Not wounded, without not having received, a wound unwoven, adj [1 unwóvén, 2 anwóuvén] un- (I) & woven Not woven unwrap, vb trans [1 unráp, 2 anráp] un- (II) & wrap (I) To undo, unfold, or open what is wrapped, to take off the wrappings from (parcel &c) unwrapped, adj [1 unráp, 2 anráp] a un- (II), b un- (I) & PP of wrap (II) A unfolded, freed from wrappings, b not wrapped (up) unwritten, adj [1 unrít, 2 anrít] un- (I) & PP of write Not written Not embodied in or reduced to writing unwritten law, a customary or common law, as opposed to statute, b an assumed rule or custom by which a verdict or acquittal is given in cases of crime committed in defence of, or in revenge for seduction or attempt on the virtue of, a wife, daughter &c unwrought, adj [1 unráwt, 2 anrít] un- (I) & wrought Not wrought, not worked or manufactured, not elaborated or worked up unwrung, adj [1 unrúng, 2 anrúng] un- (I) & wrung Not wrung, esp in Phr my his, others are unwrung, not touched by charge accusation &c unyielding, adj [1 unyélđng, 2 anyélđng] un- (I) & yield(ing) Not yielding, a incapable of being bent or moved, rigid, b refusing to alter a decision, opinion &c, inflexible obstinate, determined unyieldingly, adv Free & -ly In an unyielding manner unyoked, vb trans [1 unyók, 2 anyók] un- (II) & yoke (II) To loose, free from, the yoke, to disconnect, separate unyoked, adj [1 unyókt, 2 anyókt] a un-(II), b un- (I) & yoke(d) a Freed, loosed, from the yoke, b not yoked.

unzealous, adj [1 unzélus, 2 anzéles] un- (I) & zealous Not zealous up (I), adv [1 up, 2 ap] OE upp, 'up', uppe, 'on high, up', ME up, op OS uppa, uppe, OHG uf, úfe, Goth up, 'up, upwards', the orig Gmc form was upp*, fr Aryan upna*, the Gmc type fr Aryan up* has f as in Goth ufar, OE ofer, see over The following are a few cognates Scrt upa, 'towards, on, upon', & upa maś, 'uppermost', Gk huper, 'over', see hyper-, & in spite of the difference of meaning, also hupó, 'under', see hypo-, further Lat sub, 'under', orig 'from below towards, from below upwards', see also etymol of sub- & discussion there of changes in meaning Above, aloft, on high, reverse of down

1 a Expressing (i) movement from a lower to a higher position to go up to the top of a hill, come up here and look at the view, Phr to get up, rise from bed, to go up to the University, up to Oxford, Cambridge, (ii) movement from South to North to run up North, up to Scotland, b expressing (i) rest at, or in, a higher place or position to stay up in the hills, to sleep up at the top of the house, to live several storeys up, Phrs to be up, stay up (all night), not to be in bed, not to go to bed, to be up and doing, alert and active, up at Oxford, up at the University, in residence at Oxford &c, shall you be up during the Vac?, residing in Oxford, (ii) rest at or in, being at or in, a northerly part of the country to live up in Scotland, (iii) motion to, rest at, the metropolis or nearest important centre, up to, up in, London, in town, up in Glasgow (from country), up from the country 2 After various verbs expressing movement, fly up, pull up, throw up, jump up, stand up &c, and others expressing continuance in same position or state lie up, sit up &c See under the verbs severally

3 Expressing change, development, from an inferior or simpler, to a superior or more complex state to bring, train, up a child, a plant grows up from a seed, many large cities have sprung up from very humble beginnings 4 Expressing the passage from an inferior to a superior social grade, official or other worldly position &c to come up from poverty to affluence, up from the ranks, Phr to come, move, up in the world, rise in social scale

5 Expressing the coming into importance, under notice, consideration &c the question came up for discussion, came up in conversation &c, the case is up before the High Court, up before the local Bench &c Phrs is anything up?, anything happening, what's up (with you)?, what's the matter?, what do you oom plain off, &c, it's up to me, you &c, to do &c, it is my business, is incumbent on me &c

6 Up to, up with, a abreast of, alongside of, at the same distance from the starting point, or from the objective I could not get, catch, up to him, slow down a bit and let me come up with you, b (fig) expressing equality, or approximation to, in merit, success, attainments &c he is not up to his father as a scholar, Phr net up to his job &c, incompetent to carry it out

7 Expressing completeness, finality &c, after various verbs to eat up everything on the table, to finish up, work up, to tear up a letter, to dry up, burn up to a cinder, shrewd up, to boil up, heat up &c Phrs it's all up, there is no more hope, it's all up with him, he is dying, is ruined, is done for &c, the game is up, the thing is at an end, there's nothing more to be done, it's all over

8 Expressing a (physical) an increase in intensity, loudness, activity &c to speak up, sing up, keep the voice up, to play up, buck up, to light up, blow the fire up, to flare up, the hunt is up, the temperature has gone up, the cider is very much up, highly charged with gas, effervescent, b increased intensity in mental activity, feeling, passion &c his temper is up, to fire up (fig), become suddenly angry, his spirits went up, o expressing various conceptions of increase, enhancement &c, (i) (of price, value &c) console are up this morning, prices have gone up; (ii) (of moral estimate) he has gone up considerably in my opinion, d (rise in musical pitch) I can't get up to that note, the piano is up a tone 9 Expressing condition of inactivity, being out of use, put by, or aside: laid up with gout, put up your words into their sheaths, to lay up treasure 10 Up to, (colloq) occupied with, engaged in what have you been up to?, he's up to no good, engaged in some wickedness, mischief &c 11 Up against, (colloq) faced, confronted with (difficulty &c) 12 Up and down, (i) rising and falling to bob up and down, (ii) backwards and forwards, to and fro to walk up and down (NB—For various idiomatic uses of up after vbs, other than those mentioned, see under the various vbs themselves) up (II), prep See prec 1 a From a lower to, or at, a higher position, place, spot to walk, live, up a mountain, to go up a ladder, to climb up a tree, b to a position of greater importance, superiority &c to work one's way up a form, a school &c, he went steadily up the social scale 2 From the direction of a river's mouth towards its source, in the contrary direction to the current to row up the stream, to walk up the river bank, also to live, camp, further up the stream, nearer the source than a spot specified or understood 3 Along a road, away from speaker, or farther in a given direction from a specified spot to walk up the road, street, lane 4 Away from the sea towards the interior of a country: to travel up (the) country

up (III), adj, fr up (I) Tending towards, in direction of, a higher position, only in a few expressions on the up grade, tending to rise, the up train, that which goes towards a big city, esp to London, up line, railway line on which the up trains run, the up side, that side of a railway station on which is the up line, up platform, that on the up line up (IV), n, fr prec Only in Phr ups and downs, rise and fall, fluctuation (in various senses) ups and downs of fortune, of health; also a house full of ups and downs, numerous small staircases, landings &c up (V), vb intrans OE has uppan, 'to rise', fr uppan, see up (I), but ME uppen, 'to bring up, disclose', is fr OE uppan, fr uppan* The present word is almost certainly a new formation (colloq and vulg or facet) To rise, get up, to start into activity, only in such Phrs as he ups and says &c, he up (Past) and struck me &c up-, pref, fr up (I), (II), or (III), used in compounds in the varying senses of these See the following words.

up-and-down, adj [1 up an(d) doun, 2 ap an doun] Fluctuating, varying, alternately rising and falling (in material and non-material senses) an up and down motion, an up and down road, country &c, an up and down life, one distinguished by variations of fortune &c

Upnishad, n [1 upnśhahad, 2 upnśhad] Scrt Lat 'a sitting down' (at another's feet to be taught by him) A class of metaphysical treatises, one of the divisions of the Vedas upas (tree), n [1 úpas (trē), 2 júpas (trē)] Malay (Jav), 'poison', esp pālu upas, 'the poison tree' a The antur, a large tree, Anturus tomentosa, of Java and the adjacent islands, allied to the fig, which yields a very poisonous milky sap, from an unfounded traveller's tale, it was believed to destroy every living thing within a radius of many miles, whence upas tree is used of anything of poisonous or corrupting influence, b the poisonous juice, antur, derived from this tree upbear, vb trans [1 upbár, 2 apbár] up- & bear (I) To hold up, to sustain, support; usually poet & in PP 'Upborne with indefatigable wings' (Milton, 'P L', II, 408) upbraid, vb trans [1 upbráid, 2 apbréid] M E upbraid, 'to reproach', fr up- & OE bregdan, 'to throw, brandish, to pluck', op also the OE n bregd, bregd, gebregd &c., 'skill, cunning, trick, deceit'. For etymbl see braid. To censure, reproach, scold, chide he upbraided her fiercely, also upbraid with, to charge, reproach with upbraiding, adj & n [1 upbráiding, 2 apbréidig] Prec & -ing a adj (fr Pres Part) Reproachful upbraiding looks &c., b n, reproach, reproof upbraidingly, adv Prec & -ly In an upbraiding manner, reproachfully upbringing, n [1 upbrínging, nprínging, 2 apbríngig, apbríngig] up- & bring, as vbl n of 'to bring up' children &c. A bringing up, education, mode of training, nurture the result of his good, bad, upbringing upcast, adj & n [1 upkást, 2 áphást] up- & cast (I) 1 adj Cast, directed, upwards with upcast looks, op downcast 2 n. a That which is cast or thrown up, b a casting or throwing upwards, specif, a shaft in a mine through which air passes up after ventilation upcountry, n & adj [1 upkúntri, 2 ápkúntri], adv [1 upkúntri, 2 ápkúntri] up- & country (a colonial usage) a n The interior, part of country, area, away from the coast, or up a river the upcountry is barren, b adj, pertaining to the interior, away from the coast an upcountry farm, o adv, (colloq) in a direction towards the interior, away from the coast travelled upcountry for a hundred miles upgrowth, n [1 úpróth, 2 áppróup] up- & growth a Process of growing up, b that which grows up upheaval, n [1 uphévl, 2 ap hívl] upheave & -al a Dot, process, of heaving or lifting up, as by a natural cataclysm, b sudden change, disturbance, upset, in ideas, habits, social conditions, circumstances of life &c. upheave, vb trans [1 uphév, 2 ap hív] up- & beave To heave, or lift, up, to raise said especially of a great cataclysm of nature such as volcanic action, earthquake &c.

uphill, attrib adj [1 uphíl, 2 áphíl], pred adj & adv [1 uphíl, 2 áphíl] up- & hill 1 adj a Going sloping, up, ascending, passing towards higher ground an uphill climb, road &c., the road is uphill all the way, b difficult, laborious an uphill task 2 adv Towards the top, or higher areas, of a hill, slope, or incline to go, run, uphill uphold, vb trans [1 uphóld, 2 áphóuld] up- & hold 1 To hold up, support, keep from falling slender columns uphold the great dome, strong arms upheld him while he hung in mid air 2 a To give moral support and encouragement to your praise and sympathy have upheld me greatly, b to approve, give countenance to I cannot uphold such unscrupulous conduct, c to confirm, maintain the Court of Appeal upheld Mr Justice X's ruling upholder, n [1 uphólder, 2 áphóulds] Prec. & -er One who upholds, enporter, defender upholster, vb trans [1 uphólster, 2 áphóulste] Back formation fr next word. 1 To provide, furnish, with carpets, curtains, furniture &c. to upholster a house, room &c. 2 a To provide with stuffing, springs, coverings to upholster a sofa or chair, b to cover (chair &c.) with some material upholsterer, n [1 uphólsterer, 2 áphóulsterer] Earlier upholster, also upholder, orig an auctioneer or broker, one who 'holds up' goods for inspection and sale. The suffix -ster is substituted on the anal of malster, & perh influenced by association w holster, the final (redundant) er may be compared w that in frutierer, poulterier &c. a One who supplies upholstered furniture, carpets, curtains &c. for a house or room, b one who repairs and covers chairs, sofas &c. with upholstery upholstery, n [1 uphólsteri, 2 áphóulsteri] Prec & -y 1 The work and trade of an upholsterer to learn upholstery 2 a Such goods, articles of household furniture, as are supplied by an upholsterer, including chairs, sofas, carpets, hangings, specif b stuffing and coverings of chairs and sofas, o the way in which this work is carried out highly skilled upholstery uphros, n [1 úfró, 2 júfrou] Corrupt of Du juffrouw, 'young woman, pulley', fr jung, 'young', & frouw, 'woman' (naut) A block of wood pierced with holes through which cords for an awning are passed upkeep, n [1 upkēp, 2 ákip] up- & keep (II) a Dot of keeping up or maintaining, specif, maintenance of land, houses &c. in good condition and repair, b money spent on, the cost of, such maintenance upland, n & adj [1 upland, 2 ap land] up- & land 1 n High land or ground, upper level of ground by a river, in a valley, or on foothills of a mountain, also in pl, uplands, upland country 2 adj Pertaining to, situated in, the uplands, high in situation an upland road, farm, upland country &c.

uplift (I), vb trans [1 oplift, 2 aplift] up- & lift (II) (archaic) To lift up, raise, elevate with uplifted hands, eyes, also in moral sense spirits uplifted by the news uplift (II), n [1 uplift, 2 áplift], fr prec a Uplifting, upheaval an uplift of strata, b (an Americanism) moral, spiritual elevation, emotional fervour preacher celebrated for his uplift upmost, adj & adv [1 úpmóst, 2 ápmoust] Archaic, for uppermost upon, prep [1 upón, 2 apón] O E uppen, M E & Early Mod uppen, up (I) & on (I) The distinction in usage between on and upon is very slight. It may be said that the two are almost always interchangeable, but that generally speaking, upon is less colloquial than on. Upon is often preferred when it follows a verb, esp at end of a sentence nothing to go upon, not a chair to sit upon, very little to sit upon. On the other hand, while we could say either her picture still hangs on, or upon, the wall, we should probably not say which wall did you hang it upon?, but rather on. Upon is preferred in some Phr, such as upon my word. See idiomatic uses of upon after verbs under these upper (I), adj [1 úper, 2 ápe] Compar of up 1 Higher in physical position, placed, situated above upper seats, the upper circle, in theatre &c., shave the upper lip. Phrs to have the upper hand of, to be superior to, have authority or power over, to get the upper hand of, obtain advantage or power over, upper storey, (colloq) the head, brains, specif, upper case, that holding capital letters & in printing, hence capital letters 2 Higher in rank, dignity &c. the Upper House, House of Lords, Senate &c., upper servants, butler, housekeeper &c. Phr the upper ten (thousand), the highest ranks in society, the aristocracy upper (II), n (usually pl. uppers) Part of a shoe or boot above the sole esp in Phr down on one's uppers, out at heel, with boots worn out, hence, desperately poor, in low water financially upper-cut, n upper (I) & out (boxing) A short-arm blow, delivered upwards at opponent's chin or jaw uppermost, adj & adv [1 úpermóst, 2 ápmoust] upper & -most 1 adj Highest in position, rank, influence, predominant 2 adv In the highest position, at the top upish, adj [1 úpish, 2 ápif] up (III) & -ish Inclined to be presuming, impudent, cheeky upishly, adv Prec & -ly In an upish manner upishness, n. See prec & -ness State, quality, of being upish, presumption, impudence upraise, vb trans [1 upráiz, 2 apréiz] up- & raise (archaic) To raise, to lift up (usually in P P) with hands upraised to heaven, with voices upraised in anger upright (I), adj & n [1 uprit, 2 aprait] O E uprīht, up- & right A adj 1 Erect, pointing directly upwards, vertical, perpendicular an upright tree, pillar, pattern with upright lines, take an upright position, has an upright, athletic figure, specif, upright piano, one in which the strings are laid vertically, distinct from a grand piano 2 Possessing, showing, moral rectitude and integrity, honourable B n Upright post, beam &c., esp one used to support a structure upright (II), adv [1 uprit, 2 aprait] In an upright position to stand, walk, upright uprightly, adv [1 uprīht, 2 apraitif] upright (I) & -ly In an upright manner, chiefly in moral sense uprightness, n [1 upritnes, 2 apraitnis] See prec & -ness State of being morally upright, integrity uprise, vb intrans [1 upriz, 2 apráiz] up- & rise (poet) To rise, stand, get up uprising, n [1 uprizing, 2 apráizig] Prec & -ing a Dot of rising, esp from bed 'New every morning is the loves Our awakening and uprising proud' (Ken's Morning Hymn), b an insurrection, revolt, a rising the uprising was suppressed with great difficulty uproar, n [1 uprór, 2 ápró] Earlier uprore, borrowed fr Du oproer, 'commotion, tumult, sedition', fr op, 'up' & roeren, 'to stir, move', cogn w OE hrēran, 'to stir, agitate', OS hrērian, OHG rueren, 'to move', op Mod Germ aufzuhr, 'tumult'. Present spelling is due to association w roar. Violent, excited, noisy tumult, clamour, rowdy disturbance the town, meeting, was in an uproar uproarious, adj [1 uprórius, 2 áprórius] Prec & -ous a Making an uproar, distinguished by disturbance and noise, violently rowdy an uproarious meeting, uproarious revellers, b boisterous, noisy, tumultuous uproarious applause, laughter uproariously, adv Prec & -ly In an uproarious manner uproariousness, n. See prec & -ness State of uproar, noisy disturbance, noisy hilarity uproot, vb trans [1 upróot, 2 upróit] up- & root (II) 1 a To root up, tear up by the roots to uproot a tree &c., b (fig) to remove from established or natural abode or residence pathetic exiles uprooted from their homelands. 2 (in fig sense) To destroy as from the root, to eradicate, extirpate long established customs and habits are hard to uproot uprouse, vb trans [1 uprouz, 2 aprauz] up- & rouse To rouse, stir up upset (I), vb trans & intrans [1 upséit, 2 apséit] up- & set 1 trans a To turn upside down, throw down; to overset, overturn, to capsize to upset a boat, motor-car &c., b to defeat, overthrow to upset a government &c., o to disturb, to put out of gear, frustrate you have upset all my plans, also d (i) to disturb mind of, distress the bad news completely upset him, much upset by his friend's coldness, (u) to injure the health of, render ill I think it must have been the lobster last night that upset me. 2 intrans To be overturned the car upset after a violent slide, if you don't sit still, the boat will upset upset (II), n [1 úpsét, 2 ápsét], fr prec a A fall, overturning, tumble a bad upset from a dog-cart, b disturbance of normal, quiet, orderly conditions, state of disorder and confusion the sudden departure of all our servants caused rather an upset, o a disagreement, quarrel a bit of an upset with his father upset (III), adj [1 úpsét, 2 ápsét] Set up, fixed, only in Phr upset price, the lowest price at which property or an article will be sold, as at an auction, reserve price upshot, n [1 upshot, 2 áp[st] up- & shot (IV), in sense of share, reckoning. The final issue of anything, conclusion, end, general result or effect the upshot of the whole trouble upside, also up side, n [1 úpsid, 2 ápsaid] up- & side a The top or upper side, b the side, as of a railway line or platform, on which an up train travels, as to London or nearest principal town or terminus upside-down, adv [1 úpsid doun, 2 ápsaid doun] Changed for ME up so down, 'up and so down', associated w upside a With the top or upper part or side underneath or inverted turn the box upside down, b in confusion or disorder, higgledy piggledy, topsy turvy towered the room upside down to hunt for a lost collar stud upside(s), adv [1 úpsidz, 2 ápsaidz] up- & side(s) (provide in Phr) To be upside(s) with, to be equal to, get the better of person, thing upstair(s), adj [1 úpstár(z), 2 ápstéa(z)] up- & stair Belonging to, situated on, an upper storey, above stairs an upstair(s) room upstairs, adv [1 úpstárz, 2 ápstéaz] up- & stair(s) Towards, in, an upper storey, at the top of a staircase, above stairs, to, in, a higher storey than that in which speaker is, or to which reference is made go upstairs and look at the view, upstairs in bed, my room is upstairs again after the third flight upstanding, adj [1 úpstánding, 2 ápstánding] up- & stand(ing) Standing upright, well set-up in figure a fine, upstanding young fellow upstart, n [1 úpstárt, 2 ápstárt] up- & start a Person who has started or sprung up suddenly from a low position to wealth or importance, a parvenu the crowd of upstarts who pushed themselves into prominence after the war, b an insolent and arrogant nobody he could snub an upstart with a look, (also attrib) these upstart pushers into society upstream, adv & adj [1 úpstrem, 2 ápstrem] up- & stream adv Against the stream or current, adv, moving against the stream or current upstroke, n [1 úpstrok, 2 ápstrok] up- & stroke An upward line or stroke, as in writing &c uptake, n [1 úpták, 2 ápteik] up- & take a (rare) Act of taking or lifting up, b (a Scots Phr) understanding, power of apprehension, intellectual grasp quick, slow, in the uptake upthrow, n [1 úpthró, 2 ápprou] up- & throw A throwing up, upheaval, spout (geol) displacement upwards on one side of a fault upthrust, n [1 úpthrust, 2 ápprust] up- & thrust A thrusting upwards, specif (geol) elevation of part of the crust of the earth, upheaval upturn, vb trans [1 úpturn, 2 áptín] up- & turn To turn up, to throw up upward, adj [1 úpwárd, 2 ápwárd] up- & ward Directed, turned, moving, to a higher place or in a higher direction, ascending (lit and fig) an upward course, glance, the constant upward move of prices, taxation &c, an upward trend in social customs and manners upwardly, adv Preo & -ly In an upward direction, upwards upwards (also post or liter) upward, adv [1 úpwárd(z), 2 ápwárd(z)] In an upward direction, towards a higher position to move, look, upwards Phrs and upwards, and more soldiers of ten years' service and upwards, upwards of, more than upwards of a million unemployed uræmia, n [1 úrémia, 2 úrimia] Neo Lat, fr Gk ouranos, see urine & aima, 'blood', see hæmo- A morbid condition of the blood, due to the failure of the kidneys and bladder to carry away by natural secretion various toxic substances uræmic, adj [1 úrémik, 2 úrimik] Preo & -ic Affected by, characteristic of, uræmia uræus, n [1 úréus, 2 úrimus] Neo Lat, fr Gk ouranos 'pertaining to a tail tailed', fr ouron, 'tail', see ur- (II) A figure of the second or king cobra with head erect and hood expanded, worn, as a symbol of kingship, by the kings of Ancient Egypt Ural-Altaic, adj & n [1 úralaltáik, 2 újuralaltéik] fr the Ural & Altaic Mountains of Asia 1 adj Pertaining to, a racial group of people lying between these ranges, b a group of agglutinative languages spoken in Eastern Europe and Central Asia, including Finnish, Turkic, Mongol &c 2 n Ural Altaic languages uralite, n [1 úralit, 2 újuralit] As found first in the Ural Mountains A kind of hornblende Urania, n [1 úrámia, 2 ju(ə)réiníə] Lat, fr Gk ourania, fem of ouranos, 'heavenly', fr ouranos, 'heaven', fr ouranos*, cogn w Sort varanad, 'the god of the evening sky' (class mythol) a The Muse of Astronomy, b epithet of Aphrodite (Venus), spiritual love, as opposed to pasandinos, sexual love uranic, adj [1 úránik, 2 júránik] uranium & -ic (chem) Pertaining to, containing, uranium, as uranic acid uranium, n [1 úránium, 2 ju(ə)reiniəm] fr name of the planet Uranus, discovered by Herschel a few years before (chem) A white, malleable, metallic, radioactive element, found in pitchblende, used as an alloy in steel manufacture urano-, pref Form used in compounds, fr Gk ouranos, 'heaven', see Urania, as uranography, description of the heavens and heavenly bodies; uranometry, measurement of stellar distances uranous, adj [1 úránus, 2 ju(ə)réiníə] uranium & -ous (chem) Pertaining to, containing, uranium, esp of compounds of lower valency than uranic compounds Uranus, n [1 úránus, 2 ju(ə)réiníə] Lat, fr Gk ouranos, 'heaven', see Urania a (Gk mythol) The husband of Gaia, the Earth, and father of Cronos (Saturn) and the Titans, b (astron) the seventh of the major planets, farthest from the sun, except Neptune and Pluto, discovered 1781 by Sir W Herschel urban, adj [1 érbán, 2 íben] fr Lat urbanus, 'of the city', fr urbs, 'a city', prob fr urbhis*, 'place surrounded by a hedge'; op Lith urbis, 'a twig, a rod', fr the same base w a different gradational form comes the first syll of verberna Pertaining to, situated, living in, a city or town, as distinguished fr rural urban population &c, urban district council, an administrative district and its council, for local government purposes urbane, adj [1 érbán, 2 íben] fr Lat urbanus, see preo, in sense of 'polished, refined, well bred'. Polished, refined, affable, courteous urbanely, adv Preo & -ly In an urbane manner, courteously urbanity, n [1 érbániti, 2 íbeniti] fr Lat urbanitas (em), see urbane & -ity Grace and affability of manner, bearing, character, gracious and polished courtesy urbanization, n [1 érbánizeshun, 2 íbenizeshun] See next word & -ation a Act, process, of urbanizing, b state of being urbanized urbanize, vb trans [1 érboniz, 2 íbonnaz] urban & -ize To make urban, to change from a rural to an urban condition or character urecolate, adj [1 érasolát, 2 ísóléit] fr Lat ureculus, dimin of urecus, 'an urn, pitcher', cogn w Gk urikos, 'an earthen vessel for salted fish', further Lith urikas, 'basket used for catching fish' The original urecus was perhaps a rude wicker work frame plastered w clay See also urn (bot) shaped like a pitcher or urn, as the flower of various plants urchin, n [1 úrlin, 2 árlin] M.E urche, also urcho, fr O Fr hercion, variant of urion, whence Mod Fr herisson, formed w dimin on fr Lat ur- (I), expanded form of ur for ur*, 'hedgehog', cogn w Gk úrē, lit 'the bristly, prickly creature', fr base g her*, g hers*, 'to become stiff, to bristle', op Sort harkatē, 'becomes stiff, bristles, rises, shudders', see further cogn under horror, hirsute, gorse 1 (provine) A hedgehog 2 Sea-urchin, the echinns 3 a (archaic) Goblin, an imp, who was employed to take the form of a hedgehog, b a mischievous, roguish boy Urdu, n [1 úrdú, 2 úrdú] Hind, 'camp', esp in urdu zabán, 'camp language', op hordo A form of Hindustani, spoken chiefly by the Moslem races in India, it has a large admixture of Persian and Arabic words

-ure, suff Fr, fr Lat ura, suff used to form ns for P P type of vbs Many words thus formed in Fr are derived direct fr Lat, e.g. nature, literature &c, others are formed in Fr itself, as tourure, bordure, &c The force of the suff, is, a an act, process, existence, as culture &c, b result of an act, picture &c, c collective body of official persons, legislature, judicature urea, n [1 úréa, 2 júaríə] Neo Lat, formed fr urine A crystalline, soluble compound found in the urine of mammals, birds and some reptiles, also obtained synthetically from ammonium cyanate ureal, adj, [1 úréal, 2 júaríə] Preo & -al Pertaining to, containing, urea uredo, n [1 úrédo, 2 júarídou] Lat, 'a burning, a blight', fr urere, P P us tum, 'to burn, scorch', see second element of combustion a A kind of rust fungus, affecting plants, b a burning, itching sensation, as in nettle rash &c ureter, n [1 úréter, 2 júarítí] fr Gk ourēter, fr ourin, 'to pass urine', see urine An excretory duct of the kidney conveying urine to the bladder ureteritis, n [1 úréteritis, 2 júarítístitis] Preo & -itis Inflammation of the ureter urethra, n [1 úréthra, 2 júaríprá] Lat, fr Gk ourēthra, see ureter The canal or passage through which urine is discharged from the bladder urethral, adj [1 úréthral, 2 júaríprál] Preo & -al Pertaining to the urethra urethritis, n [1 úréthritís, 2 júaríprástitis] urethra & -itis Inflammation of the urethra urethroscope, n [1 úréthroskóp, 2 júarípraskóp] See preo & -scopo Instrument for the examination of the interior of the urethra uretic, adj [1 úrétik, 2 jú(ə)rétik] fr Gk ourētikos, see ureter & -ic Pertaining to the urine, diuretic urge (I), vb trans [1 érg, 2 ádi] A late word, fr 18th cent, fr Lat urgere, fr urg*, 'to drive, urge', cogn w Gk surgen, fr urg*, 'to repress, constrain', further Goth urikan, 'to persecute', OE urcan, 'to drive, expel, to avenge', see wreak 1 To drive, press, impel, push forward, whether by blows, threats, or by persuasive words &c to urge a horse on, he urged (on) the crew to greater efforts 2 To press, persuade, encourage, exhort, insistently and vigorously to urge a person to do something, we are urged to economize in every way 3 To bring forward, bring to notice, or to the attention pressingly and insistently, to press, insist upon to urge the necessity for immediate action, let me urge upon you the importance of this measure urge (II), n, fr preo (mod Americanism, to be avoided) Powerful, spiritual impulse, sense of being compelled to do something, strong impelling motive, incentive an urge to go and correct the heathen, to feel the urge of ambition urgency, n [1 érgensi, 2 ádonsi] fr Fr urgence. Next word & -cy Quality of being urgent 1 Stress, exigency, pinch the urgency of poverty 2 The need for haste, necessity for immediate action, pressing character a matter of great urgency 3 Insistence, importunity the urgency of a claimant urgent, adj [1 ɛrjənt, 2 ɪdʒənt] Fr, fr Lat urgent-(em), Pres Part of urgere, 'to press, force, impel'. See urges (I) 1 (of circumstances) Extremely pressing, demanding immediate attention or action, gravely important urgent necessity, in urgent need of help 2 a (of persons) Using great insistence in demanding, pressing, plying, with persistence and importunity an urgent suitor, b (of pleas, demands &c) made, pressed, with insistence and importunity urgently, adv Free & -ly In an urgent manner, insistently, to an urgent degree

-uria, form used as suff in compounds, fr Gk suff ouria, fr ouron, see urine, as dysuria, difficulty in passing urine, pyuria, urine containing pus &c uric, adj [1 ʊrɪk, 2 ʒʊrɪk, ʒrɪk], fr urine & -ic Pertaining to, found in, urine, esp uric acid, a white, almost insoluble acid, forming the chief constituent of the urine of birds and reptiles, and existing also, in small quantities, in normal mammalian urine, but in morbid conditions deposited as calculi or stone in the kidney and bladder, or as concretions in the joints of gony subjects &c urim and thummim, ns [1 ʊrɪm ən(d) θʊmɪm, 2 ʒʊrɪm ən(d) θʊmɪm] Heb pls, lit 'light' & 'perfection'. Two objects, mentioned in the Bible, first in connection with the casting of lots, secondly as kept in the breastplate of the High Priest urinal, n [1 ʊrɪnəl, 2 ʒʊrɪnəl] O Fr, fr L Med Lat urināle, 'a urinal', neut sing of Lat urinālis, adj, 'pertaining to urine', see urine & -al 1 Vessel into which urine may be discharged, esp one of a special shape, easy of use by sick persons in bed 2 A fixed receptacle, or series of receptacles for urine, in a covered place, esp one for the use of the public, a lavatory urinary, adj [1 ʊrɪnəri, 2 ʒʊrɪnəri] See urine & -ary, op Med Lat urinārium Pertaining to urine urinary diseases, organs &c urinate, vb intrans [1 ʊrɪnət, 2 ʒʊrɪnət], fr Med Lat urināre (um), P P type of urināre, see urine & -ate To pass urine, micturate urine, n [1 ʊrɪn, 2 ʒʊrɪn, ʒrɪn] O Fr, fr Lat urina, cogn w Gk ouron, 'urine', & Sort vārɪ A yellow coloured fluid secreted by the kidneys, passed by the ureter into the bladder and thence discharged from the body through the urethra urino-, pref Form used in compounds, fr prec, as urinogenital, pertaining to the urinary and reproductive organs, urinometer, instrument for measuring the specific gravity of urine urn (I), n [1 ɜrn, 2 ʌn], fr Fr urne, fr Lat urna for 'urina', cogn w urceus, 'pitcher', see urceolate 1 A vase shaped vessel, of pottery or metal, usually with a foot or pedestal and rounded in the centre with narrow neck, used to contain the ashes of the dead, a cinerary, funeral, urn, also, a sculptured representation of such on a tomb 'stirred urn or animated bust' (Gray's 'Elegy') 2 A large metal vessel with tap, heated by a spirit lamp or other method, in which tea, coffee &c can be kept hot and served to a large number of people urn (II), vb trans, fr prec (very rare) To please, preserve (as ashes of the dead), man urn urnful, n [1 ɜrnfʊl, 2 ʌnfʊl] urn (I) & -ful As much as an urn will hold uro- (I), pref Form used in compounds, fr Gk ouron, see urine, w same force as urino-, as urology, science dealing with the urinary organs, their diseases &c, urosepsis, septic condition due to disease of these organs uro- (II), pref Form used esp in anatomical terminology, fr Gk oura, 'tail', allied to orras, 'rump, base of the spine', fr orras*, cogn w O H G are, O E ars, as urodaecum (Neo Lat w second element fr Gk hōdōs, 'way, passage'), the cloacal cavity of birds and reptiles

Ursa n [1 ɜrsə, 2 ʌsə] Lat, 'she bear', fem of ursus, 'bear', fr urcos*, cogn w Gk arktos, see arctic Name of two northern constellations, U Major, the Great Bear, Charles's Wain, the Plough, U Minor, the Little Bear, which contains the Pole Star ursine, adj [1 ɜrsɪn, 2 ʌsɪn], fr Lat ursinus, fr ursus, 'bear', see prec, & -ine Pertaining to, like, a bear urticaceous, adj [1 ɜrtɪkəʃəs, 2 ʌrtɪkəʃəs], fr Lat urtica, 'nettle', origin very doubtful, & -aceous (bot) Pertaining to the nettle family, Urticaceae, of plants and shrubs urticaria, n [1 ɜrtɪkəriə, 2 ʌrtɪkəriə] Neo-Lat, see prec (med) [Nettle rash urticate, vb trans [1 ɜrtɪkət, 2 ʌrtɪkət], fr Med Lat urticāre (um), urticare, fr Lat urtica, 'nettle', see urticaceous To sting, as a nettle, to whip with nettles, in order to restore circulation &c urtication, n [1 ɜrtɪkəʃən, 2 ʌrtɪkəʃən] See next word & -ion Itching, tingling, burning, sensation on the skin, as from nettle stings, or in nettle rash urubu, n [1 ʊrʊbʊ, 2 ʌrʊbʊ] Native name The black culture of the Amazon districts &c of S America urus, n [1 ʊrʊs, 2 ʒʊrʊs] Lat, fr Gmc, op O H G ŭr, O E ŭr, cogn w Sert ursa, 'ox'. See also aurochs The wild ox of Europe, the aurochs us, pron pl [1 ʊs, 2 ʌs] Objective case of we, O E us, dat, fr uma*, M E ous, ūs, O H G uns, Goth uns, Aryan type na*, cogn w Lat nōs, Gk dual nō, pl nēmās, Sert nās, O Slav nasī usable, adj [1 ʊzəbl, 2 ʒʊzəbl] use (I) & -able Capable of being, fit to be, used usage, n [1 ʊzɪ, 2 ʒʊzɪdʒ] M E, fr O Fr, fr L Med Lat usagium, usaticum, see use (I) & -age 1 A way, manner, of using, treating, handling, treatment such delicate instruments will not stand rough usage, good usage has preserved them, b way of using a word to express a particular sense, shade of meaning &c 2 Habitual practice, long established use or custom, esp as establishing a legal right, an acknowledged standard &c to keep an old usage alive, some modern usages could be dispensed with, common usage has accustomed us to this usance, n [1 ʊzəns, 2 ʒʊzəns] O Fr, see use & -ance (commerce) Time allowed by custom for the payment of foreign bills of exchange

use (I), n [1 ʊs, 2 ʒʊs] M E ūs, O Fr ūs, fr Lat ūs us, n, 'usage, custom, use', also P P of ūt, 'to use', the older Lat form is ousus, ous. Further connexions highly uncertain In the legal sense (see 6 below), the word is strictly fr O Fr oes, ues, 'profit, benefit', fr Lat opus, 'work, need, employment', see opus, but was levelled in pronunciation w O Fr us, 'use' 1 Act of employing, or using anything, employment, application to, some purpose or service to teach, learn, the use of tools, implements &c, the proper use of one's faculties, limbs, the use of the telephone is growing very rapidly, the use of coal for domestic fires ought to be diminished Phrs to be in use, be used, employed, to be, fall, out of use, cease to be used, with use, by using constantly, to make use of, put to use 2 A Capacity, power, of using to lose the use of one's legs, eyes &c, b liberty, right to use he put the use of his house, purse &c, at my disposal, c need, opportunity, occasion, for using will there be any further use for big battleships in war? 3 A Usefulness, utility, advantage, purpose served to be of use, of no use, what's the use of so many officials?, is there any use in discussing the matter further?, b purpose, end, object, for which something is used to find a use for old scrap iron, to have no further use for anything, (colloq) to have no use for, to dislike, see no merits in. 4 Custom, usage, habit, continued practice, wont (slightly archaic) it was his use to walk ten miles every day, according to an ancient use.

Specif 5 (eccles) a special ritual or liturgy as observed by a church or diocese the Roman, Orthodox, Anglican use, the use of Sarum, Bangor &c 6 (law) The profit or benefit from lands or tenements held in trust for another, the beneficial or equitable as contrasted with the legal ownership, profit or benefit from a trust use (II), vb trans [1 ʊz, 2 ʒʊz], fr O Fr user, fr L Lat ūsare, 'to use', formed fr Lat ūs (um), P P type of ūt, 'to use', see prec word A trans 1 To employ, to apply to a purpose, to put to a useful service, to handle usefully or properly, a in physical sense, of implements &c to learn to use a saw, b of mental action to use information to serve one's ends, to know how to use books 2 (of one's faculties, body &c) To exercise, employ actively, to put to use (in physical and mental sense) to use one's legs, to walk, one's eyes, to look, one's ears, to hear, to use one's brains, wit, to think 3 To consume, exhaust, expend to use a ton of coal in a month, how many eggs has the cook used for this omelette?, too little paint has been used on the gate, use up, to consume completely, exhaust altogether the coal is all used up, to use up one's energy in fruitless efforts, to feel used up, feel quite exhausted 4 To bring to bear, put into operation to use care, diligence, to use all one's skill 5 To behave toward, treat, in some specified way to use a person well or ill, to ill-use, (archaic, ending of letters) yours as you shall use me 6 To have the use of, avail oneself of use my house as if it were your own, may I use your telephone? B intrans a (1) (archaic except in prat) To be accustomed, make a practice, have the habit, be wont 'Were it not better done, as others use, To sport with Amaryllis in the shade?' (Milton, 'Lycidas', 67-8), (u), pret [ʒʊst] I used to see him often, I used to smoke pipes when I was young, (u) in neg sentences, use(dn't) (to), (illit or vulg) didn't use (to), [ʒʊst, dɪdnt ʒʊst(tu)], b impersonal constructions it used to be said, there used to be a house here used, adj [1 ʊst, 2 ʒʊst], fr P P of use (II) Accustomed, habituated, inured to, experienced in you'll soon get used to our ways, quite used to one's new surroundings, I'm not used to being spoken to like that, used to hardship, to hard work, used to every comfort and luxury, he is not used to good society yet useful, adj [1 ʊsɪl, 2 ʒʊsɪl] use (I) & -ful Of use, serviceable, advantageous, productive of good results, helpful (in material and non-material senses) a stout stick is useful in emergencies as a weapon, a useful remedy to have by one, to give useful advice, a useful book for young students usefully, adv Free & -ly In a useful manner, so as to serve a useful purpose I can't usefully intervene at this point usefulness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being useful useless, adj [1 ʊsles, 2 ʒʊsles] use (I) & -less Of no use, unserviceable, not producing or productive of good results, serving no useful purpose, ineffectual a well advertised but quite useless remedy, material aid is now useless, good advice is useless for some people uselessly, adv Prec & -ly In a useless manner uselessness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being useless user (I), n [1 ʊzər, 2 ʒʊzər] use (I) & -ar One who uses or employs anything users of this remedy will probably be disappointed user (II), n, fr O Fr, usur as n, see use (I) (law) Use or enjoyment of property, presumptive right to such by prescription ushabti, n [1 ʊʃəbʌti, 2 ʌʃəbʌti] Egyptian, lit 'answerer'. A small figure, in the form of a mummy, made of stone or wood, and later, of glazed faience, representing a servant &c, and deposited in an ancient Egyptian tomb with the body in order to accompany and serve the dead person in the other world.

usher (I), n [1 úsher, 2 ášə] ME uschere, huusher, fr A-Lt usher, O Fr usser, (hu)usser, fr Lat ostarius, 'door keeper, porter', fr ostium, 'door, entrance', fr os, 'mouth', see oral 1 a Official in charge of the door or entrance to a court, hall &c, who admits or keeps out the public, shows people to their seats, keeps order and silence &c an usher of the High Court of Justice &c, b one of several officials, gentlemen ushers, of the Royal Household, who precede ceremonial processions &c, specif, a high official of the principal orders of knighthood, as Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, 1 e of the Garter &c 2 (obsolete, except as term of contempt) An under master at a school for boys usher (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To act as usher or introducer, to walk before and conduct, to show in, introduce, announce a footman ushered me to the drawing room, I was ushered in with great ceremony 2 (fig or poet) Usher in, to precede, to herald, to be the harbinger of the song of birds that ushers in the dawn, the passing of the first Reform Bill ushered in a new era in English politics ushership, n [1 úshershíp, 2 ášəp] usher (I) & -ship Post, situation, of an usher, esp in a school, an under mastership usquebaugh, n [1 úskwíhəw, 2 áskwíhə] fr Ir usquebaugh, lit 'water of life, whisky', The first element is fr O Ir usce, usce, 'water', fr usud* &c, cogn w Scrt udán, 'water', Gk hudōr, see hydro-, Lat unda, 'wave', see undulate, O Slav voda, 'water', see vodka, OE water, 'water', & wet, see water & wet The second element is fr O Ir bethu, 'life', cogn w Gk bios, see bio-, Lat vita, 'life', see vital, OE cwicu, 'living', see quick (archaic) Whisky ustulation, n [1 ústúlishən, 2 ástúlishən] fr obs ustulate, 'to burn, scorch', &-ion, fr Lat ustulā (um), ustulare, in some sense, fr urere, ut (um), 'to burn', see second element in combustion (rare and obs) Scorching, burning, (esp chem) the drying by heat of moist substances as a preparatory stage of reducing them to powder usual, adj [1 úžuhoal, 2 jūžual] fr Fr usuel, fr Lat usualis, fr usus, stem of usare, 'use', see use (I), &-al In accordance with ordinary use, practice, custom, habit, such as is commonly met with in ordinary experience, such as is to be expected under given circumstances, habitual, commonplace, ordinary, familiar, the reverse of strange, exceptional, extraordinary the wedding was celebrated with the usual rites, the usual tale which such people tell, he said all the usual things, the usual people were there, it is usual for the king to open Parliament in person, it is not usual for shops to open on Sundays Phrs as usual, in accordance with what is usual, in the ordinary way, the usual (thing), that which is usually done, said, received &c usually, adv Prec &-ly As a matter of habit, custom &c, generally, in the ordinary way one usually takes one's hat off in the house, he usually spent the morning at work, in bed usualness, n. See prec &-ness (rare) State, quality, of being usual, commonplace usuception, also usucapion, n [1 úžukáp-shən, kápshən, 2 jūžukápshən, kápshən] fr Lat usucapion (em), 'prescription', fr usucept, PP type of usuceptere, 'to obtain, possess, by long use or prescription', fr usus, 'use', see use, user, & captive (Rom and civil law) Acquisition of right or title to property by uninterrupted use or possession for specified period of time, prescription.

usufruct, n [1 úžufrakt, 2 jūžufrakt] fr Lat usufructus, in same sense, fr usus, 'use', see prec & fructus, 'fruit', see fruit (Rom and civil law) Right to the use and profits of property belonging to another without damage to it or waste usufructuary, n [1 úžufuktári, 2 jūžufuktári] fr L Lat usufructuarius, see prec &-ary One having the usufruct of property usurer, n [1 úžurer, 2 jūžer] In ME, fr O Fr usurier, fr L Lat usurarius, see usury &-er a (archaic and Bib) One who lends money at interest, b one who lends money at exorbitant or illegal rates of interest, an extortionate money lender usurious, adj [1 úžúrúšas, 2 jūžúrúšas] usury &-ous a Of the nature of usury, involving usury a usurious rate of interest, loan, bond &c, b practising usury, extortionate usuriously, adv Prec &-ly In a usurious manner, with usury usuriousness, n. See prec &-ness State, quality, of being usurious usurp, vb trans & intrans [1 úžerp, 2 jūžáp] ME, fr Fr usurper, fr Lat usurpare, 'to gain, acquire', in bad sense, 'to seize, usurp', for usu rapere, fr usu, see use (I), & rapere, 'to seize'. See rapid & rapt 1 trans To seize, take, assume, possession of, without right or by force to usurp the throne, office, power, the functions of a dictator &c 2 intrans (rare or archaic) Usurp (upon), to encroach upon usurpation, n [1 úžerpáshən, 2 jūžerpáshən] fr Lat usurpation (em), fr usurpā (um), PP type of usurpare, see prec, &-ion Act of usurping, wrongful or violent seizure of power, authority &c the usurpation of a throne, a flagrant usurpation on the prerogatives of others

usurper, n [1 úžérper, 2 jūžápə] usurp &-er One who usurps, esp one who wrongfully takes, accepts, holds, kingly status and authority in place of the rightful heir usurpingly, adv [1 úžerpíngli, 2 jūžápíngli] Prec Part of usurp &-ly By usurpation usury, n [1 úžuri, 2 jūžeri] ME usure, usurie, usurie, fr Fr usure, fr Lat usura, 'use, enjoyment', also 'interest, usury', fr usus, see use (I), &-ure &-y 1 a (archaic and Bib) Practice of lending money at interest, b the lending of money at illegal or exorbitant rates of interest various statutes have been passed to check or limit usury 2 Interest charged or recovered (often fig) she returned his love and devotion with usury ut (I), conj [1 ut, 2 at] Lat, 'as', fr same base (w different formative suff) as ubi, 'where', see ubiety Chiefly in phr ut supra, infra, as shown above, below ut (II), n [1 uut, 2 ut] See gamut The first or key note in the musical scale of Guido d' Arezzo, now, in solmization, replaced by Do utias, n [1 útiás, 2 jútiás] ME, fr A-Lt utaves, fr O Fr octave, fr Lat octava (diés), 'eighth day', see octave (ecoles, rare or archaic) The octave or eight days of a feast utensil, n [1 útənsil, 2 jútənsil] fr M Fr utensile, Mod Fr utensile, fr Lat utensilis, 'fit for use', esp in neut pl utensilia, 'things for use', for utensilis*, fr utent, Pres Part stem of uti, 'to use', see use (II) a Any object or implement, a tool, usually one of moderate size, used for a specified purpose writing utensils, farming utensils, b specul, a vessel of any kind used in the household or the dairy uterine, adj [1 útérin, 2 jútérin] Fr, fr L Lat uterinus, see next word &-ine 1 (med) Pertaining to the uterus or womb uterine artery, disease &c 2 Born of the same mother but by a different father uterine brother(s), so also uterine descent &c uterus, n, pl. uteri [1 útérus, 2 jútérus, ai] Lat, 'womb', cogn w Scrt udara, 'belly' The womb utilitarian (I), adj [1 útilitárian, 2 jútíli téarían] A mod word coined fr utility &-arian by Bentham 1 Conducing to, aiming at, utility, materially or practically useful, serving material or practical ends (often in derogatory sense) from the merely utilitarian point of view, true education cannot be purely utilitarian or professional 2 Pertaining to the Utilitarians, or to their school of thought

Utilitarian (II), n, fr prec A follower of the political philosophy of Jeremy Bentham and John Stuart Mill, which makes utility, in the widest sense, the test of the rightness of political and moral action, and virtue to consist in promoting the happiness of the greatest number

Utilitarianism, n [1 útilitárianizm, 2 jútíli téaríanizm] Prec &-ism (philos) The political and ethical theory of the Utilitarians, namely, that the end and criterion of all individual and political action should be the greatest happiness of the greatest number utility, n [1 útiliti, 2 jútíli] fr Fr utilité, fr Lat utilitāt (em), fr utilis, 'useful', fr uti, a form of the base seen in usus, see use (I), ep also infin uti, Prec utor &c 1 State, property, quality, of being useful, usefulness, advantageousness, the being profitable Phr of no utility, useless 2 Usually utilities, useful things, (theatrical slang) utility man, man capable of playing various kinds of minor parts, general handy-man.

utilizable, adj [1 útilizábl, 2 jútílizábl] utilize &-able Capable of being utilized or used utilization, n [1 útilizáshən, 2 jútílizáshən] utilize &-ation a Act of utilizing, b state of being utilized utilize, vb trans [1 útilíz, 2 jútíliz] Fr, fr utiliser, a mod word fr Lat utilis, 'useful', see utility, &-ize To put to use, make use of, to turn to profitable use or account utmost (I), adj [1 útmost, 2 átmost] OE utmost, ME utmost &c, superl of út(e), 'out', see out, the OE ending is an old double superl suff, this was later influenced in form by most, see -most 1 Outermost, situated at farthest extreme or limit, farthest, most extreme to the utmost ends of the earth, utmost limits, filled to its utmost capacity 2 To, of, the greatest, highest, degree in the utmost danger and misery, ready to help with the utmost pleasure utmost (II), n, fr prec The most that can be done, the most possible, the greatest possible effort that is the utmost that I can do, try your utmost to succeed, to the utmost of one's power &c

Utopia, n [1 útópia, 2 jútópia] lit 'no-where', coined by Sir Thomas More, fr Gk ou, 'not' (etymol unknown), & topos, 'place', see topic 1 (cap) The name of the imaginary island governed on a perfect political and social system, giving the title to More's book, 'Utopia', published 1516 2 Any ideal community or state, an ideally perfect social and political system, usually with the implication that such is impossible of realization the foundation of Utopias in imagination will never cease, the new Utopia has failed 3 Any literary work describing such an ideal state or system Samuel Butler's Utopia is styled 'Erewhon'

Utopian, adj & n [1 útópian, 2 jútópian] Prec &-an 1 adj a Pertaining to, characteristic of, a Utopia, ideally perfect but impracticable, chimerical, visionary Utopian schemes, b apt to form or imagine Utopias a Utopian dreamer 2 n Inhabitant of a Utopia utricle, n [1 útríkl, 2 jútítríkl] Fr, fr Lat utrículus, 'a little bag', dimin of uter, 'leather sack or bag', a collateral form of uterus (physiol) A cell or see in an animal or plant, esp an air sac or vesicle in certain aquatic plants, as the bladderworts (Utricularia) &c, b a cavity in the labyrinth of the inner ear utricular, adj [1 útríkúlar, 2 jútítríkúlar] fr Lat utriculus, see prec &-ar Pertaining to, resembling, a utricle utter (I), adj [1 úter, 2 áte] OE átera, utter, 'onter', ME ūt(here, an old compar adj formed fr OE ūt, see out, shortening of the old long vowel takes place in ME in the first syll of a three syllabled word 1 Onter, uttered on the outside, now obs except in the rarely used utter bar, barrister, for those members of the bar who have not been called within the bar, the junior bar, those who are not King's Counsel or, formerly, sergeants-at-law 2 a Complete, total utter darkness, misery, ruin &c, b unconditional, final, peremptory an utter refusal, denial &c, c unqualified, absolute an utter scoundrel, the utter folly of such a policy utter (II), vb trans ME fr ultren, formed fr ultere, see prec, or formed again later fr the adv or adj 1 (orig meaning) To put out, or forth, now only a to utter a libel, publish it, b to utter false coin, notes &c, to produce and put these into circulation, charged with forging and uttering cheques &c 2 a (1) To produce audibly by means of the vocal organs, to pronounce to utter a vowel sound, not a sound was uttered, the last words to be uttered, also (u) to breathe out, to emit through the mouth to utter a groan, a sigh, b to express, make known, by word of mouth or in writing to utter one's thoughts, feelings &c utterable, adj [1 uttabil, 2 atarab] Prec & -able (rare) Capable of being uttered utterance (I), n [1 utrans, 2 āt(ā)rans] utter (II) & -ance 1 Act of uttering or expressing in words &c to give utterance to one's feelings 2 Mode, style, manner, of speaking, pronunciation, delivery a thick, clear, slovenly, utterance &c 3 That which is uttered, spoken or written expression of thoughts, opinions &c, pronounce-ment the pompous utterances of the platform, the press &c 4 (rare) Act of uttering or circulating, putting, passing, into circulation utterance of false coin utterance (II), n ME, fr Fr oultance, see oultance, & ultra, influenced in form by association w utter, adj (archaic, poet) Extremity, the uttermost to the utterance, (Shakespeare, 'Macbeth') utterer, n [1 nterer, 2 atarā] utter (II) & -er One who utters (in various senses) an utterer of slander, of false coins &c uttering, n [1 ūtering, 2 ātaring] utter (II) & -ing a Act of expressing in words &c, b act of circulating the forging and uttering of a cheque utterly, adv [1 ūterh, 2 ātali] utter (I) & -ly To the fullest extent, completely, totally utterly exhausted, ruined &c uttermost, adj & n [1 ūtermōst, 2 ātamōst] utter (I) & -most 1 adj A farthest away, farthest out to the uttermost ends of the earth, b extreme, utmost, being of the highest, greatest, degree the uttermost limit of forbearance. 2 n. The utmost, highest degree or extremity to the uttermost of one's power, capacity &c utterness, n [1 uternes, 2 atanis] utter (I) & -ness. Quality of being extreme, completeness the utterness of his folly and wickedness uvula, n, pl uvulae [1 ūvula, -is, 2 ūvjula, -li], fr Fr uvula, fr L or Med Lat ūvula, dimin of Lat ūva, 'a grape, bunch of grapes, uvula', fr ouwā*, cogn w Gk dā, lomo dē, oīō for ouwā*, 'service tree, a berry' (snat) a A fleshy, banging protuberance in the centre of the posterior part of the soft palate, b similar protuberance in the cerebellum and the bladder uvular, adj [1 ūvūlar, 2 ūvjūlar] Prec & -ar Pertaining to the uvula, specif (phon) velar uvulitis, n [1 ūvūlitās, 2 ūvjūlitās] See prec & -itis Inflammation of the uvula uxorious, adj [1 ukzōrius, 2 akzōrius] fr Lat uxōrius, 'pertaining to, excessively fond of, a wife', fr uxor, 'wife', perb orig 'she who is led home', fr base seen in Lat vehere, 'to draw' &c, see vehicle, cp Lith vedu, 'I lead, conduct', & Sort vadhd, 'bride' Excessively fond of or devoted to one's wife, too submissive to the will of one's wife uxoriously, adv Prec, & -ly In an uxorious manner uxoriousness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being uxorious.

V

V, v [1 vā, 2 vī] a The twenty-second letter of the alphabet, for use in abbreviations &c see end of Dictionary, b the Roman symbol for the numeral 5, c a V shaped object vac, n [1 vak, 2 vāk] Colloq abbr of vacation vacancy, n [1 vākansi, 2 vēkansi] Through Fr vacance, or directly fr L or Med Lat vacantia, fr Lat vacant (em), see vacant, & -ancy 1 (in physical senses) a Condition, estate, of being vacant, unoccupied, or empty, emptiness to gaze on the vacancy of the polar ice fields; look down from the precipice into vacancy, b an empty, unoccupied, unfilled, space, a vacant space there is still a vacancy for another villa in the new road 2 a State of being mentally vacant, absent mindedness, lack of interest, listlessness, inactivity, vacuity an expression of vacancy on his face, sudden periods of vacancy preceded his breakdown, b state of being unoccupied or freed from work or business, inactivity, want of occupation an active, busy man dreads the vacancy of retirement, c a gap, blank, deficiency it will fill a vacancy in our knowledge 3 A vacant, unfilled, unoccupied, post, situation, or office, form of employment waiting to be filled there are still a few vacancies on the staff to be filled, his death has caused a vacancy in the Cabinet vacant, adj [1 vākant, 2 vēkant] Through O Fr or directly fr Lat vacant (em), Prec Part type of vacare, 'to be empty, to be unoccupied or without an owner, to lack or be without, to be free from toil, to be at leisure' The base is seen also in Lat vacuus, 'void, vacant, fruitless', see vain, cp also vacuous 1 Empty, void, not filled by anything, having no material contents look down into vacant space, the vast and vacant regions of infinite space 2 a Not occupied by man, uninhabited, not populated or developed the vacant regions of the North-West, vacant prairies clamouring for colonists, b Not held or occupied by owner or tenant, untenanted many vacant farms, increase of vacant houses in a town, Phr vacant possession, legal or auctioneer's term implying that immediate occupation and possession of house, farm &c is offered, c not engaged or let, not already booked not a room vacant in the hotel, many vacant seats in the theatre, d no longer occupied the vacant chair 3 (of office, benefice &c) Not held, filled, or occupied by anyone, left unoccupied by death, resignation &c, waiting to be filled situations vacant, the resignation of Lord X leaves an important Cabinet post vacant 4 (of periods of time) Not occupied by work or business, not engaged, leisured some occupation to fill the vacant hours; keep a day next week vacant if you can 5 (of mental state, character &c) a Not active or occupied with serious work or thought, empty, idle, vacuous 'the loud laugh that spoils the vacant mind' (Goldsmith, 'Deserted Village', 122), to lead a silly, vacant life, b characteristic of, expressing, such an unoccupied, empty mind a vacant stare, look &c vacantly, adv Prec & -ly In a vacant manner to stare, laugh, vacantly vacate, vb trans [1 vakāt, vākāt, 2 vākēt, voikēt], fr Lat vacāt (um), PP type of vacāre, 'to be empty, to be free from' &c, see vacant 1 To make, leave, vacant, to go away, depart from and leave unoccupied to vacate a house, rooms &c; the enemy vacated the town as we advanced 2 To give up, to resign from, to leave unfilled or unoccupied to vacate the throne, one bishopric vacated by death and two by translation, to vacate a seat in parliament 3 (mil) To remove, order to leave position, camp &c all troops must be vacated from the town before noon 4 (law) To render void, to annul, cancel, invalidate to vacate a contract, deed, registration &c vacation, n [1 vakāshun, 2 vākēshun] Lat vacation (em), fr vacāre, see prec, & -ion. 1 Act of vacating or leaving vacant, unfilled or unoccupied his sudden vacation of office is unexplained 2 Period during which an office, benefice &c is left vacant the vacation of the benefice was prolonged 3 A fixed, stated, interval in a year during which the ordinary business, work, study &c is suspended, used esp of courts of law and of a university, period when the courts are 'up' or not sitting, or when the university is 'down' or not in residence the Christmas, Easter, vacation, the long vacation, that which occupies the summer months vacinal, adj [1 vākinal, 2 vākšinal] Fr, see vaccine & -al. Pertaining to vaccine or vaccination vaccinate, vb trans [1 vākamāt, 2 vākšinēt], fr vaccine & -ate, it was ad. fr Fr vacciner, c 1803, in place of the earlier inoculate 1 To inoculate (child, person) with the vaccine, i.e the virus, of cowpox, in the form of calf-lymph, as a protection against smallpox 2 To inoculate with other kinds of vaccine vaccination, n [1 vākšanāshun, 2 vākšinėi-jun] Prec & -ion Inoculation with a vaccine, esp that of cowpox or vaccinia, as a protection against smallpox vaccinationist, n [1 vākšanāshunist, 2 vākšinėi-jonist] Prec & -ist. One who advocates vaccination, esp compulsory vaccination as protection against smallpox.

vaccinator, n [1 vākšanāter, 2 vākšinėitē] vaccinate & -or. 1 Person, esp public (medical) official, who performs compulsory vaccination on children and others 2 Instrument, scarifier, used in vaccination.

vaccine, n [1 vākšēn, 2 vākšēn], fr Fr vaccin, fr Lat vaccinus, 'pertaining to cows', fr vacca, 'cow', cogn w Sort vacā, 'cow', prob connected w Sort vātati, 'cries, lows', & cogn w Lat vā, see vocal 1 n a The virus of cowpox, 'vaccine', obtained now from calves specially inoculated with the disease, in the form of lymph and used in vaccination for protection against smallpox, b the virus of other diseases, culture of the bacteria of such diseases as plague &c, used as inoculation against such diseases, cp serum 2 (attrib) Pertaining to a vaccine vaccine therapy, treatment, prevention, of diseases by means of inoculation with a vaccine vaccinia, n [1 vākšīna, 2 vākšīnē] Neo-Lat, fr prec Cowpox, a disease cognate with smallpox, now especially inoculated into calves for the purpose of obtaining a vaccine in form of lymph, used in vaccination against smallpox vaccinic, adj [1 vākšīnik; 2 vākšīnik] vaccine & -ic Pertaining to a vaccine or vaccines, vaccinal.

vacillate, vb intrans [1 vásilát, 2 vásileit], fr Lat vacillat (um), P P type of vacillare, 'to sway, waver, vacillate', formed as if fr an adj, vacillus*, fr base wal-*, q v under vehicle 1 (somewhat rare) To sway, oscillate, to stagger 2 To waver in mind, intentions &c, to hesitate, to oblige from one opinion to another, to alternate between two opinions or courses of action vacillating, adj [1 vásilátig, 2 vásileitig], fr Pres Part of prec Hesitating, wavering, in opinion or action.

vacillatingly, adv Prec & -ly In a vacillating manner vacillation, n [1 vásilášun, 2 vásileit[en]], fr Lat vacillation-(em), see vacillato & -ion Act of vacillating, wavering, or hesitating in opinions, intentions, action, hesitation, unsteadiness of opinion or character vacuity, n [1 vakúiti, 2 vakúiti], fr Lat vacuitas (em), vacuitas, fr vacuus, 'empty', see vacuous & -ity 1 (rare or obs) Emptiness, empty space 2 Emptiness of mind, lack of ideas, interest &c vacuity of mind, vacuity of expression vacuolar, vacuolate, adjs [1 vákúolar, át, 2 vakú(ə)la, eit] See next word & -ar & -ate (biol) Pertaining to, containing, a vacuola or vacuoles vacuola, n [1 vákúol, 2 vakúuol] Fr, a dimin formed fr Lat vacuum (biol) A small vesicle or cavity, as in plant tissues, protoplasm &c, containing fluid or air vacuous, adj [1 vákúus, 2 vakúus], fr Lat vacuus, 'empty, void, free from toil, care &c', cogn w vacare, see vacant, & -ous 1 Empty (archoic or obs in physical sense) 2 A Vacant in mind, empty headed, stupid, unintelligent, meaningless an idle and vacuous young fellow, a vacuous stare, b unoccupied, purposeless, idle, not profitably or usefully employed a selfish, vacuous life vacuously, adv Prec & -ly In a vacuous manner, vacantly, idly vacuousness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being vacuous vacuum, n [1 vákúum, 2 vakúuam], pl vacuums, learned pl vacua Lat, neut sing of vacuus, 'empty', see vacuous 1 Space empty or devoid of all matter or content nature abhors a vacuum 2 Specif, space or vessel from which the air has by various means been wholly or partially exhausted the vacuum of a barometer, in the atmosphere &c 3 (lit or fig) Any space unoccupied or unfilled, a void, blank to leave a vacuum difficult to fill, (also facetiously) feel a vacuum in the lower regions, be hungry vacuum brake, n A continuous brake, used on railway trains, worked by the action of compressed air on a vacuum vacuum cleaner, n An apparatus used for removing dust and dirt from carpets, curtains, upholstery &c by means of suction vacuum flask, n A double walled vessel, with the air exhausted in the space between the walls, thus forming a vacuum, flask in which liquids may be kept either hot or cold for a considerable period, op thermos flask vacuum gauge, n Gauge for measuring pressure in a vacuum vacuum pump, n A Pump for exhausting air from an enclosed space and creating a vacuum, air pump, b pump by which water is raised by pressure of air and steam on a vacuum vacuum tube, n A sealed glass tube or vessel containing exhausted or highly rarefied air or gas with electrodes at each end through which a current of electricity is passed exhibiting various electrical, radio active, and other phenomena, a special type called 'thermionic valve' is used in wireless telephony vade-mecum, n [1 váde mékum, 2 véidi mlkam] Lat, 'go with me', Lat vadere, 'to go', is related by gradation to cadum, 'ford', & cogn w O L vadān, 'to go, wade', see vado, O H G watan, O N utā &c A handbook or manual that one carries about with one for quick reference, often used as title for such a book vagabond (I), adj [1 vágabond, 2 vágabond, bond] O Fr, fr Lat vagabundus, 'wandering', formed w gerundive suff bundus, fr vagāre, 'to wander, roam, about', see vagary 1 A Wandering, roaming from place to place without a fixed abode or settled mode of life vagabond family of beggars, the vagabond classes, a vagabond singer &c, b inclined to live a wandering life, not steady or settled in character, worthless a vagabond kind of fellow 2 Characteristic of wanderers, wandering, roving, irregular lead a vagabond life, vagabond habits vagabond (II) n, fr prec a One who wanders about without a fixed abode or regular means of livelihood, a tramp, vagrant actors were once classed with rogues and vagabonds, (legal) an idle, disorderly person, as included under various Vagrancy Acts &c, b (as term of abuse or reproach) an idle, worthless fellow she called her husband a lazy old vagabond vagabond (III), vb intrans, fr prec (rare) To wander, roam, about, like a vagabond to go vagabonding all the world over vagabondage, n [1 vágabondig, 2 væge bándige] Fr, see prec words & -age a State, character, of a vagabond, vagabond life or habits the charm of vagabondage which some people feel, to take to vagabondage, b people living a vagabond life, the vagabond class, vagabonds collectively all the vagabonds of the countryside were there vagabondism, n [1 vágabondizm, 2 væge bándizam, -bond] vagabond & -izm Habit of living a vagabond life, vagabondage vagabondize, vb intrans [1 vágabondiz, 2 vægabondáiz] See prec & -ize To live as a vagabond, to wander about vagal, adj [1 vágal, 2 véig(ə)l] See vagus & -al (anat) Pertaining to, affecting, the vagus or pneumogastric nerve vagarious, adj [1 vágáriu, 2 vægárieis] See vagary & -ous Full of, characterized by, vagaries, errata, capricious vagary, n [1 vágári, 2 vægári], fr 17th cent, usually in verbal plrs, 'to make, lead &c a vagary', also in form segary, figary, apparently borrowed as a n, fr Lat vagari, 'to wander, roam about', fr vagus, 'wandering', the base is prob a variant form of that seen in vacillate, op vagus & distinguish vagrant (1) (orig meaning, now obs) A wandering, ramble, an aimless excursion they led us a pretty vagary, (also fig) the vagaries of the mind 2 A prank, freak, whimsical, erratic, eccentric, fancy, act, conduct, caprice, whim the vagaries of a pampered film star, the usual vagaries of fashion, 'straight they changed their minds, and into strange vagaries fell' (Milton, 'P L', v 613 14) vagina, n [1 vájina, 2 védžin] Lat vagina, 'sheath, scabbard', fr vāgina*, cogn w vās, 'vessel', see vase & op vast (I) A sheath or sheath like covering, specif a (anat) the canal leading from the female external organ of generation to the uterus, b (bot) the sheath formed by a leaf round a stem, as in grasses vaginal, adj [1 vájinal, 2 védžin] Prec & -al 1 Pertaining to, connected with, the vagina 2 Sheath like, serving as a sheath vaginal process, of the temporal bone vaginate(d), adj [1 vájinat(ed), 2 védžinest(id)] See vagina & -ate (bot) Sheathed, closed in a vagina, as the leaf stalk of grasses &c vaginitis, n [1 vájinitis, 2 védžinastis] vagina & -itis (med) Inflammation of the vagina vago-, pref Form, fr vagus, used in anatomy & physiology, in compounds denoting connexion w that nerve vago-accessory, sympathetic &c vagrancy, n [1 vágáran, 2 véigrans] See vagrant & -ancy State of being vagrant, habit, act, of wandering from place to place without settled abode or means of livelihood, vagrants or tramps collectively vagrancy has increased since the war, statistics, suppression, of vagrancy, Vagrancy Acts, various statutes, of wide application, dealing with rogues, vagabonds, idle and disorderly persons &c vagrant (I), adj [1 vágránt, 2 véigránt] M E vagaraunt, vagraunt, fr A Fr vaquerant, O Fr uan(der)ant, Free Part of vaaler, 'to walk, wander about', also wai, vaucrant, of Gmc origin, see walk, but confused w & assimilated to Lat vagari, 'to wander', op vagabond & vagary 1 Wandering, roaming, from place to place, nomadic, itinerant, living the life of a vagabond or tramp a band of vagrant minstrels, beggars &c, the vagrant tribes of the desert 2 Characteristic of a wanderer or vagabond devoted to wandering or vagrancy a vagrant life, vagrant habits 3 (fig) Flitting hither and thither, wayward, roving vagrant thoughts, fancies &c vagrant (II), n, see prec One who wanders from place to place, a vagabond, a tramp, person with no settled abode or livelihood, an idle and disorderly person vagrantly, adv [1 vágrántli, 2 véigrántli] vagrant (I) & -ly In a vagrant, wandering manner, as a vagrant or tramp vagrom, adj [1 vágrom, 2 veigrom] Dogberry's corruption of vagrant in 'Much Ado about Nothing' vague, adj [1 vág, 2 veig] Fr, 'wandering', fr vaguer, 'to wander', fr Lat, vagari, see vagary, or fr vagus, 'wandering' 1 Perceived indistinctly by the senses, not clearly defined, blurred, indeterminate, shadowy, undefinable, difficult to recognize with certainty a vague and shadowy outline, a vague, subtle odour, a vague taste of bitter almonds, the rather vague quality of unstressed vowels in English 2 Not clearly perceived, grasped, conceived by the mind, indefinite, lacking precision vague hopes, ideas, his knowledge is rather vague, I haven't the vaguest notion what to do, where I left my umbrella 3 Not expressed or defined with clearness and precision, ambiguous, equivocal, conveying an uncertain meaning, loosely phrased vague answers, statements, promises, the powers of the Board are purposely left vague & (of persons) a absent minded, distraught appearing not to be fully alive to what is taking place or being said, not having clear ideas &c she is so vague that I never feel sure whether she realizes who one is, b expressing oneself without precision, not given to clear cut statements not making wishes, opinions intentions &c absolutely clear and unambiguous he is very vague as to what he really wants vaguely adv Prec & -ly In a vague way vagueness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being vague vagus, n [1 vágus, 2 véigae] fr Lat, 'wandering', see vagary (anat) The pneumogastric nerve vail (I), n [1 vál, 2 veil] Shortened form of avail, in sense of 'profit, aid' (archoic) A gratuity, tip, servant's perquisites vail (II), vb trans & intrans, shortened form fr avale, fr Fr avalier, 'to cast down, let fall', fr à val, 'to the valley, downwards', op avalanche (obs, except as liter or poet archaism) a trans (1) To take off, doff (hat &c) 'vailed was her lofty crest' (Spenser, 'F Q', III 9, 20), 'The bonnets were now at once vailed in honour of the royal warrant' (Scott) (2) To lower, allow to fall, He looked but once, and vail'd his eyes again' (Tennyson) &c, b intrans or absol, to take off hat &c, lower one's head &c as sign of greeting or respect vain, adj [1 ván, 2 vein] M E vayn, veyn, vayn &c, fr O Fr vain, vain, fr Lat vanus, 'empty, vain', cogn w Goth wana, 'lacking', O H G, O S, O E wan, 'lacking, deficient', O N vann, see want, further Gk. éina, 'deficient', Sort únd, 'm-complete' 1 a Without result, useless, idle, fruitless, futile, unavailing all our efforts were vain, in the vain hope of success, it is vain to try to escape, Phr in vain (adv), (i) to no end or purpose, uselessly, fruitlessly to try in vain to succeed, all our efforts were in vain, in vain did I point out how time was getting on, these men have laboured and died in vain, (ii) (fr Low Lat) in vanum nomen Dei assumere, 'take the name of God in vain', to use it lightly, heedlessly, or profanely, also take a person's name in vain, speak of him slightly, without due respect, b trivial, concerned with trifles, slight, petty, unsubstantial the vain day dreams of youth, to waste one's life in vain pleasures, vain delights &c 2 Having no real significance or foundation, unreal, baseless, empty vain threats, boasting, protestations of affection &c 3 Ostentatious, concerned with outward show only, lacking real worth, hollow the vain pomps of a court, how vain are earthly splendours 4 Having an exaggerated sense or opinion of one's own importance, personal appearance, one's possessions, talents, abilities &c, conceited, self satisfied, self complacent a very vain man, adulation is apt to make men vain, vain of, proud of, feeling self-satisfaction at little boys are naturally vain of their first long trousers vainglorious, adj [1 vānglōrius, 2 vānglōrius], fr vainglory & -ous Med Lat has vānglōrius a Given to, filled with, vainglory, inordinately, ostentatiously, vain or proud of one's actions, abilities &c, boastful the defeat of these vainglorious athletes was popular, b characteristic of, arising out of, exhibiting, vainglory vainglorious confidence vaingloriously, adv Preo & -ly In a vainglorious manner vaingloriousness, n See preo & -ness Quality, condition, character, of being vainglorious vainglory, n [1 vānglōri, 2 vānglōri] M E vainglorie, fr O Fr vaingloire, Med Lat vāna glōria, see vain & glory Inordinate, ostentatious pride or vanity, boastfulness vainly, adv [1 vānli, 2 vānli] vain & -ly 1 Uselessly, in vain, futilely vainly tried to speak 2 Conceitedly vainly proud of his appearance vainness, n [1 vānnes, 2 vānnis] vain & -ness Quality, state, of being vain, useless, or futile vair, n [1 vār, 2 vār] In M E & O Fr, fr Lat varius, 'varied, parti coloured', see various & op mamever 1 (hist and archaic) A parti coloured fur, bluish grey and white, esp that of a kind of squirrel, used as a trimming or lining for robes of knights 2 (her) One of the heraldic furs, represented by rows of small shields or bells, alternately azure and argent unless otherwise mentioned.

Vaisya, n [1 vishu, 2 vashu] Sort vashya, 'settler, peasant', fr base viś-, 'to dwell', cogn w Lat vicus, 'village', see vicinity The third of the great Hindu castes, including agriculturists and merchants vairode See voivode vakeel, vakil, vakul, n [1 vakēl, 2 vakēl] Hind, fr Arab wakīl a A deputy, representative, minister, ambassador, b a native attorney or pleader in the law courts valance, n [1 vālans, 2 vālens] Of uncertain origin, fr 15th cent, usually supposed to be the name of a maternal made at Valence, in France, used for curtains, possibly fr a hypothetical A-Fr valance*, fr valer*, Fr avalier, 'to let down, fall', see avalanche & veil (II) A hanging border of drapery for a window, shelf &c, esp one that hangs from the framework of a bed to the floor vale (I), n [1 vāl, 2 veil] fr O Fr val, fr Lat vallis, 'valley', cogn w Gh helos, 'low, marshy ground by a river' Valley, esp a low-lying wide tract of land between hills, a dale, now chiefly poet, but surviving in such Place-Names as Vale of Evesham, of Aylesbury, of the White Horse Phr this vale of tears, woe, misery, earthly vale &c, the world, this mortal life vale (II), interj. & n [1 vāl, 2 vēil] Lat, 2nd pers sing imperat. of valēre, 'to be well, strong', see valiant a interj Farewell, good-bye, b n, a farewell, a farewell greeting, letter &c to say, take, write, one's vale valédiction, n [1 vāledikshun, 2 vāledikshun] Formed fr Lat valedict-(um), PP type of valédicere, 'to say farewell', & -ion, see vale (II) & diction a Act of saying farewell, bidding good-bye to, a farewell, b word(s) of farewell valédictory, adj & n [1 vāledikturi, 2 vāledikturi] Lat valedict, see preo, & -ory 1 adj Spoken, uttered, in saying farewell, of the nature of a valédiction valédictory speech, letter &c 2 n (chiefly USA) A valédictory speech, address &c.

valence See valency

Valencia, n [1 valénsia, 2 valénsia] Name of town and province in Spain (usually in pl) A kind of cloth, of wool, with silk or cotton warp, usually with a fine stripe

Valenciennes, n [1 valénsenz, 2 valénsenz], or as Fr [1 valónsien, 2 valónsien] Name of town in France, celebrated for its lace A variety of hohlin lace made here or in Belgium valency, valence, n [1 vālens(i), 2 vēlens(i)], fr L Lat valentia, 'power, strength', fr valent (em), Pres Part type of valēre, 'to be well, strong', see valiant (chem) Term used in defining the combining powers of atoms in molecular compounds, hydrogen, as univalent and unvarying in its valency, being the standard of comparison

-valent, suff, fr Lat valent-(em), see preo Having a specified valency or combining power, e.g. univalent valentine, n [1 valéntin, 2 valéntin] fr O Fr Valentin, fr Lat Valentinus, name of two early saints, whose feast day was Feb 14th, Valentine's day, when birds were supposed to begin mating, hence the day when sweethearts were chosen 1 A sweetheart, lover will you be my valentine? 2 A card decorated with emblems and messages of love, and formerly sent to persons of the opposite sex on Valentine's day, also mock-valentine, a scurrilous, satirical picture sent to make fun of person of opposite sex on this day valerian, n [1 valériān, 2 valériān], fr O Fr valeriane, Med Lat valeriana, fr valerianus, adj, formed fr Lat proper name Valerius, or fr Valeria, a province in Pannonia a A genus of perennial herbs, wild or cultivated, with small red or white flowers in clusters, b the root of Valeriana officinale, which has a nauseous smell and is used medicinally in nervous diseases or hysteria valerianic, adj [1 valériānik, 2 valériānik] Preo & -ic (chem) Obtained, derived, from the root of valerian valeric, adj [1 valérik, 2 valérik] See valerian & -ic (chem) Valerianic valet, n & vb trans [1 vālet, 2 vēlit], vulg [1 vālā, 2 vālā], fr O Fr valet, earlier vaslet See varlet & op vassal 1 n A gentleman's personal servant, who looks after his clothes, helps him in dressing &c 2 vb To act as valet to, to attend, wait, on as personal servant the butler valets me very well valet de pied, n [1 vālā de pyā, 2 vēlē de pyā] Fr A footman valetudinarian, adj & n [1 vāletudinārian, 2 vāletudinārian] See valetudinarian & -an 1 adj Having constant poor health, perpetually ailing b engrossed in the state of one's health, and apprehensive of illness, often without cause, valetudinarian 2 n One who is in constant poor health, a chronic invalid, person unduly preoccupied with the state of his health valetudinarianism, n [1 vāletudinārianizm;

2 vāletudinārianizm] See preo & -ism. The state of mind or body of a valetudinarian valetudinarian, adj & n [1 vāletudinārian, 2 vāletudinārian], fr Fr valetudinnaire, fr Lat vāletudinārius, 'weakly, infirm', also as n 'an invalid', formed w adj suff & -arius, see -ary, fr vāletudin (em), vāletūdo, 'state of health, whether good or bad', fr valēre, 'to be well, strong', see valiant Valétudinarian, now the more usual word

Valhalla, n [1 vālhāla, 2 vālhāla] Cp. Mod Germ & Fr Walhalla Ad fr O.N. Valhöll, 'the hall of the slain in battle', fr vāl, 'the slain' (cogn w OE wæl, 'slaughter, the slain, a dead body', & prob. OE wōl, 'pestilence'), & hall, 'a royal hall', cogn w hall 1 (Scand mythol) The hall of Odin in Asgard, where the souls of heroes slain in battle feast, attended by the Valkyries 2 A hall or other building in which a nation's illustrious dead are buried or commemorated, and where their statues or monuments are placed, a Pantheon vah, n [1 valé, 2 vēil] Turk & Arab vah The civil governor of a Turkish vilayet or province valiance, n [1 vāhans, 2 vēhans], fr O Fr vaillance See valiant & -ance (obs or archaic) Bravery, courage, a brave, valiant deed valiant, adj [1 vāhant, 2 vēhant] In M E in various forms, 'strong, brave, courageous', fr O Fr valant, vaillant, vaillant, Pres Part of valoir, 'to be worth, to be good for, to serve', fr Lat valēre, 'to be strong and vigorous, to be healthy, to be strong enough to do some specific thing, to be able, to be powerful, have influence, to have a specific value, to be worth' The base is cogn w that in OE (ge)weald, 'power, strength', & wealdan, 'to have control over, to rule, to wield (weapon)' See wield 1 (provino) Strong, sturdy, of body, stalwart 2 Courageous, brave, heroic (of persons and acts) our valiant soldiers, their valiant deeds &c valiantly, adv Preo & -ly In a valiant manner, with valour, bravely valid, adj [1 vālid, 2 vēlid], fr Fr valide, fr Lat validus, 'strong', fr valēre, 'to be strong &c', see under valiant 1 (rare or archaic) Sound, strong, in body or health, op invalid, n 2 Having legal force and authority, properly and formally executed, sound in law a valid contract, marriage &c 3 Well founded, soundly based, capable of being supported and defended, not open to objection valid arguments, have you any valid reason against the proposal?, there is no valid objection to &c validate, vb trans [1 vāldāt, 2 vēldēt], fr Med Lat validāt (um), PP type of validare, 'to make valid', see preo, & -ate To render, declare to be, valid to validate a treaty, election &c, but op the negative invalidate validity, n [1 vālidāta, 2 vēlidētā], fr L or Med Lat validitāt (em), validitas, see valid & -ity State, quality, of being valid, a legal force or authority, quality of being legally binding and enforceable the validity of a marriage, of a contract &c, b soundness, strength, force, cogency (of an argument, objection &c) validly, adv [1 vālidh, 2 vēlidh] valid & -ly In a valid manner, with validity valise, n [1 valéz, 2 valéz] Fr, fr Ital. valigia, op Med Lat valensia, valisna, valisna, Span baliza, etymol unknown, possibly of Arab origin. A small portmanteau or travelling bag, formerly one carried strapped to a horse's saddle, now obsolescent, except as official term for a soldier's kitbag

Valkyr, Valkyria, n [1 vālkēr, vālkīra, 2 vālkīra, vālkīra] Valkyrie Valkyrie, n [1 vālkīra, 2 vālkīra] See Valkyr, more rarely [1 vālkūri, 2 vālkūri] O N Valkyria, lit 'chooser of the slain', the exact equivalent vælcyrige is found in OE, for the first element see Valhalla, the second is formed fr leu*, a form of the ON kyða, OE cēosan, 'to choose', see choose, & op kur* in Germ kurfürst (Scand mythol) One of the twelve war goddesses, handmaids of Odin, who ride through the air over a battlefield, choose those who are to be slain, and guide them to, and serve them in, Valhalla vallation, n [1 valāshun, 2 valē[ə]ʃən], fr L Lat vallatō (em), fr vallāt (um), PP type of vallare, 'to build a vallum or wall' See vallum A rampart, earthwork, more commonly circumvallation valleculla, n, pl valleconlas [1 valēkula, 2 valēkula, h] L Lat dimin. of vallis, see valley (anat and bot) A groove, channel, fossa, furrow, cleft valley, n, pl valleys [1 vāl, 2 vāl], fr O Fr vallee (Mod Fr vallee), earlier form vallée, op Ital vallata, fr Lat vallis, 'valley', see vale (I) 1 A tract of land lying between mountains or hills, generally traversed by a stream or river, or containing a lake, usually narrower than a vale and lying between steeper slopes Phr the valley of the shadow of death, the dread hour of impending death, from Psalm xxii 2 (geog) A large river basin or flat country drained by a river system the Thames valley, valley of the Euphrates and Tigris 3 (building and archit) The internal angle formed by two sloping roofs or by a roof and a wall

vallonia See Valonia

vallum, n [1 vālum, 2 vāləm] Lat, 'a wall', orig 'a stockade, defence of stakes', a coll neut, fr vallus, 'stake', prob cogn w Gk halos, 'nail or stud' See also wall (I) (Roman antiq) A defensive rampart set with stakes, a palisaded earthwork, formed of earth cast up from the ditch, also built of and strengthened with stone, sods of turf &c valonia, valonia, n [1 valōnia, 2 valōnia] Ital valonia, fr Mod Gk balania, 'evergreen oak, ilex', fr balani, anot Gk bolanos, 'scoen', see halaniferous The dried scoen of a species of ilex, or evergreen oak, Quercus Aegilops, or valonia oak, used in tanning, dyeing, and ink making valorous, adj [1 vālōrus, 2 vālōrus] O Fr valereux, Mod Lat valōrius, see valour & -ous a (of persons) Possessing, exhibiting, valour, brave, intrepid, courageous, b (of actions) requiring valour from those who perform them, displaying, performed with, valour valourously, adv Prec & -ly In a valourous manner, with valour valour, n [1 vālur, 2 vālō], fr O Fr valour, Mod Fr valour, 'valour, bravery', fr L Lat valor (em), stem of valere, 'to be strong, worth' &c, see valiant Courage of a noble and lofty quality, continuous active, bravery exhibited in actions performed in the face of personal danger valse, n & vb [1 vāls, 2 vāls] Fr form of waltz valuable (I), adj [1 vālūabl, 2 vālūəbl], fr value (II) & -able 1 (rare) Capable of being valued or estimated rareties once in a public museum or library cease to be valuable in terms of money (op the more common negative form, invaluable) 2 a Having monetary or exchange value, worth something which can be expressed in terms of money, exchange, or benefit in legal Phr valuable consideration, b having considerable or great value, worth a good deal of money or exchange value precious, costly collection of valuable pictures, a valuable property for sale, catalogue of the valuable kinds of wood of the Empire 3 Having a use or value capable of serving a useful and important purpose possessing and exhibiting qualities which are prized and esteemed as necessary for the performance of specific duties and functions a valuable public servant, gave me valuable service, information, a book which will be very valuable for teachers valuable (II), n See prec (usually in pl) Objects of value, valuable goods or possessions ions plate, jewels, and other valuables, lost all their valuables in the fire valuableness, n [1 vālūəblnes, 2 vālūəblnis] valuable (I) & -ness Condition, quality of being valuable valuably, adv [1 vālūəbl, 2 vālūəbl] See valuable (I) & -ly In a valuable manner, usefully his support has helped the cause most valuably valuation, n [1 vālūāshun, 2 vālūē[ə]ʃən], fr value (II) & -ation 1 A act of valuing, of settling, or estimating, the value, or proper price, of anything engaged in the valuation of property for probate, the quinquennial valuation of rateable buildings, b value or price so estimated and arrived at I was offered the fixtures at a moderate valuation 2 Estimation, degree of appreciation, in which a person, or his moral or intellectual qualities, are held to take a man at (on) his own valuation, they put his services at the highest valuation value (I), n [1 vālū, 2 vālū] O Fr, fem sing of valu, PP of valoir, 'to be worth', fr Lat valēre, see valiant 1 a Worth, that quality or property of anything which renders it desirable or useful the value of sunlight, fresh air, exercise, for health, the value of good books, education, b (1) worth of anything as compared with that of other things, degree of such worth to be of great, little, no value, your help was of value to me, (u) estimation, valuation to set a high value on one's abilities 2 Worth of anything as estimated in terms of something else for which it can be exchanged, either in other goods, labour, services, or, esp, in money or other standard medium of exchange, purchasing power, monetary price economic exchange, value, to pay, give, get full value for something, the value of this kind of picture has fallen greatly Phr for value received, form used in promissory notes for stating valuable consideration 3 (In various specific uses) a Precise import, meaning, bearing, force, the value of a word in a given phrase &c, b relative proportion of light and shade in a picture or drawing, as distinct from that of colour, c length or duration of a note of music, d quantity denoted by an algebraic symbol or expression, e (pl) relative ethical standards value (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To estimate the value or worth of, to assign a price or value to, to put a price on, fix a price for, to appraise I value the house and contents at £10,000, to value an estate for probate 2 (in moral sense) a To rate at a specified degree of worth, to hold in specified degree of esteem to value one's life highly, not at all, b (absol) to attach a high degree of value to, rate highly I shall always value your friendship, we do not always value advice from others valued, adj [1 vālūd, 2 vālūd] PP of prec Highly esteemed, greatly regarded, considered as being of great value to some specified person, precious one's most valued possession, a valued friend of the late king valueless, adj [1 vālūles, 2 vālūləs] value (I) & -less Of no value or use, worthless, destitute of value (in material or non material sense) valueless pictures, stocks and shares, a book valueless for its purpose, valueless advice valuelessness, n [1 vālūlesnes, 2 vālūləsnis] valueless & -ness State, quality, of being valueless valner, n [1 vālēr, 2 vālēr] value (II) & -or One who fixes or assesses the monetary or material value of anything, specif, person who estimates values and prices professionally as a matter of business a surveyor and valuer, valuer for probate &c valuta, n [1 vālūta, 2 vālūta] Ital, 'value', qv The value of a national currency as fixed in terms of a foreign currency, exchange value of a currency in relation to a specified foreign currency in distinction from its internal value, also attributively valval, valvar, adj [1 vālval, -ar, 2 vālval, -ar] valve & -al, -ar Valvular, chiefly in botanical terminology valvate, adj [1 vālvt, 2 vālvt] valve & -ate (bot) Meeting at the edges without overlapping (of leaves and sepals) valve, n [1 vāl, 2 vāl] Fr, fr Lat valva, 'leaf of a folding door', usually in pl valvae, 'a folding door', cogn w volvere, 'to roll', see volute 1 One of the leaves of a folding door, now rare except as applied to look-gates, sluices &c 2 Any of various devices which open and shut, like the leaves of a folding door, thus regulating the passage of air, liquid, gas &c through an opening, tube, pipe &c, often acting automatically, as the safety valve of a steam engine, the slide or key valves of musical wind instruments &c 3 (in various specific uses) a (anat) A membrane in a vein, artery or lymphatic which allows the passage one way only of the blood or lymph, b (hot) one of the separable parts of a pod, pericarp, or capsule, c (zool) one of the two shells of molluscs such as the oyster, or of the several parts of the shell of compound molluscs 4 (wireless) A special form of vacuum tube used for the reception of messages, as thermionic valves &c, (also attrib) valve set, one fitted with such valves, distinct from crystal set valved, adj [1 vālvd, 2 vālvd] valve & -ed Furnished, fitted, with valves, also in compounds, having so many valves three-valved &c valveless, adj [1 vālvlēs, 2 vālvlēs] valve & -less Having no valves, not provided with a valve or valves valvular, adj [1 vālvdār, 2 vālvdār], fr Lat, valvulae, dimin of valvae, see valve, & -ar 1 Pertaining to, affecting, a valve or valves, esp those of the heart valvular disease 2 Consisting, made up, of valves or segments, esp of plant formations valvultis, n [1 vālvdltis, 2 vālvdltis] See prec & -itis (med) Inflammation of the valves of the heart vambrace, n [1 vāmbrās, 2 vāmbrēs] Earlier vambrace (op Milton, 'Samson', 1151), fr A Fr vambras for avant bras, fr avant, 'before, in front', see advance, & bras, 'arm', see brace (I) A piece of armour for the forearm vamoose, vamose, vb intrans [1 vāmōoz, vāmōz, 2 vāmōz, vāmōz], fr Span vamos, 'let us go' (slang, USA, often as imperat) To go away, decamp, get off vamp (I), n [1 vāmp, 2 vāmp] ME vampe, fr O Fr avampit, later avant pied, 'forepart of the foot', fr avant, 'before', see advance (I), & pied, 'foot', see pedal (I) 1 a That part of a boot or shoe which covers the front part of the foot, b a piece of leather used in repairing the front part of a boot or shoe, a patch to a boot or shoe 2 (a back formation from vb) Something vamped or patched up, a patchwork, esp a sample, improvised musical accompaniment to a song &c vamp (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a To repair (boot &c) by putting a new vamp on it, to repair, mend (worn boots and shoes), b vamp up, to patch up, renew, furbish up, (anything) so as to look like new to vamp up some old furniture &c, c (by trans) to patch together, make something out of old or used material, to make a patchwork of to vamp up a farce, new business for a play &c, d specif (mus) to improvise (an accompaniment) in a simple, crude way, to a song, dance &c 2 intrans To improvise a simple accompaniment to a song &c, on the piano &c vamp (III), n & vb trans & intrans, abbr of vampire (slang) 1 n An adventuress, a woman who uses her physical charms to extort or extract money from her victims, a female blood sucker 2 vb To fascinate (men) and extract money from them vampire, n [1 vāmpīr, 2 vāmpīr] Fr, fr Magyar or Serbian vampir, also found in Russ, Bulgarian, Pol & other Slav languages in various forms as vepr, upyr &c, prob fr a Turk uber, 'witch', the word has been borrowed fr Slav sources in other European languages, as Germ vampir 1 An evil, malignant spirit with the power of entering and reviving a corpse, person whose dead body is thus revived, and renews its life at night by visiting and sucking the blood of sleepers 2 (hy transf) An unscrupulous, malignant extortioner, male or female, a blood sucker, a ruthless blackmailer or money lender 3 A vampire bat 4 (in a theatre) A kind of trap in the floor of the stage working by springs, allowing a demon &c to appear or disappear suddenly vampire bat, n Either of two small blood-sucking bats, Desmodus and Diphylla, of tropical S America, which suck the blood of animals, esp horses, and are said to attack human beings in their sleep vampirism, n [1 vampirizm, 2 v&par-izm] vampirism & -ism a Habits, practices, of a vampire, b superstitious belief in vampires vampire, n [1 v&pl&at, 2 v&pleit], fr Fr avant-plat, cp vambrace & plate (I) (hist) An iron guard plate for the hand, fixed on a lance van (I), n & vb trans [1 'van, 2 v&an] Shortened form of caravan 1 n a A large covered vehicle for the conveyance of goods by road furniture van &c, b a covered truck or closed carriage on a railway guard's van, luggage, goods, van, c closed vehicle for conveying prisoners by road 'Black Maria', d a caravan, in sense 2, (also attr) van boy, van dwellers &c 2 vb To place (goods) in, convey (goods) by, a van van (II), n Shortened form of vanguard 1 The front of an army or fleet, when in battle formation or moving to battle, the leading division of an army or fleet 2 The leading part of any troop or concourse of people moving forward the van of a procession &c 3 (fig) Those who lead and are in the front of any forward intellectual, social, or political movement Phrs in the van of, leading, to lead the van of &c van (III), n, fr Lat vannus, see fan (I) (archaeo or dial) a A winnowing fan or machine, b (poet) the wing of a hurd, c a shovel used for washing ore vanadate, n [1 v&an&at, 2 v&an&at] vanadium & -ate (chem) A salt of vanadic acid vanadic, adj [1 v&an&ik, &dik, 2 v&an&ed&ik, -&dik] See prec & -ic (chem) Pertaining to, containing, vanadium vanadic acid, esp of compounds in which vanadium has a higher valence than in vanadious compounds vanadinus, adj [1 v&an&id&us, 2 v&an&ed&id&us] See prec & -ous (chem) Of compounds of vanadium with lower valence than vanadic compounds vanadium, n [1 v&an&id&um, 2 v&an&ed&id&um] Invented word, fr vanadis, an Old Norse title for the Scand goddess Freyja (chem) A rare metallic element, found in certain iron, lead, and uranium ores, used esp in making alloys of steel

Vandal (I), n [1 vandl, 2 v&andl] L Lat Vandalus, usually in pl Vandali, also Vandili, in OE Wendlas, pl of Wendil, ON Vendill 1 One of the Germanic races, closely related to the Goths, which invaded Western Europe in 5th century a n, sacking Rome under their leader Genseric in 455, settling in Gaul and Spain and finally in N Africa, traditionally regarded as the great destroyers of Roman civilization, art, and literature 2 (hy transf, with or without cap) One who through ignorance and lack of taste and sensibility sweeps away or spoils beautiful things in art or nature the vandals who cover the countryside with cigarette tins and chocolate boxes, 19th century vandals often pulled down mediaeval buildings to make room for new ones of churchwarden's Gothic vandal (II), adj, fr prec 1 (hist, cap) Pertaining to the Vandals the Vandal invasions, invaders &c 2 a Barbarous, ruthlessly, ignorantly, destructively of beauty and culture the vandal despoilers of our churches, b characterized by such destruction the vandal defacement of the countryside

Vandalic, adj & n [1 vandalik, 2 v&andalik] Prec & -ic a adj Of, characteristic of, the Vandals or a vandal, b n, the language of the Vandals vandalism, n [1 vandalizm, 2 v&andaliz&em] Vandal (I) & -ism a (cap) The characteristic spirit or conduct of the Vandals, b (usually without cap) hostility to things of art, beauty &c, vandalization vandalization, n [1 vand&aliz&shun, 2 v&and&aliz&shun] vandalize & -ation a Act of vandalizing, ignorant, tasteless, ruthless destruction of beautiful things, b state of being vandalized, barbarous destruction vandalize, vb trans [1 v&and&aliz, 2 v&and&aliz] Vandal (I) & -ize To treat (objects of art, or the face of the countryside) like a vandal, to destroy, or make hideous, things of beauty in art or nature wilfully and ignorantly

Vandyke (I), n [1 vand&ik, 2 v&and&ik], fr Engl spelling of A Van Dyck, Flemish painter, 1599-1641, the Court painter of Charles I 1 (cap) A portrait or painting by Vandyke 2 Specif (with or without cap) a a deep lace falling collar with deeply indented edge, as frequently seen in portraits of and by Vandyke, b any deeply indented or zigzag edge or border, one of the points or indentations of such an edge or border

Vandyke (II), adj, fr prec 1 (cap) a Of, by, Vandyke, the painter a Vandyke portrait, b resembling a picture by, or in the style of, Vandyke a Vandyke beard, a close cut, pointed one, Vandyke brown, a deep brown 2 (usually cap) Deeply indented, bordered with vandykes, zigzagged Vandyke collar &c vandykes (III), vb trans, fr Vandyke (I) To indent edge, border with vandykes vane, n [1 v&an, 2 v&ein] OE fana, 'flag', cogn w Lat pannus, see pane (I). The v- in present day form is a survival of ME Southern dialect See gonfalon 1 A weathercock 2 a The sail of a windmill, b the blade of a ship's or aeroplane's propeller, c movable sight of a surveyor's leveling staff, quadrant &c, d the web of a feather

Vanessa, n [1 van&es&ia, 2 van&es&ia] Origin of name uncertain (entom) A genus of butterflies, including the peacock and red admiral &c vang, n [1 vang, 2 v&ang] Dn, 'a catch', fr tangen, 'to seize, catch', see tang (I) (naut) One of two guys from the peak of a gaff to deck used to keep it steady vanguard, n [1 v&ang&ard, 2 v&ang&ard], fr Fr avant garde, fr avant, 'before', see advance, & garde, guard 1 Advanced troops of an army or military force, the van, also the leading squadron of a fleet in battle formation. 2 (fig) The leaders of an intellectual, social, or political movement vanilla, n [1 van&ila, 2 van&ila] Ad fr Span vainilla, dimin of vainia, 'sheath, pod', see vagina, fr the shape of the fruit of the plant a A climbing orchidaceous plant, of genus Vanilla, esp Vanilla planifolia of tropical America, with scented flowers and pods or beans which yield an aromatic substance used for flavouring ices, confectionery &c, b the extract obtained from vanilla pods vanish, vb intrans [1 van&ish, 2 v&an&ish] ME vanissen, fr O Fr esvaniss, Pres Part stem of esvanir, fr Lat evanescere, 'to fade, vanish away', fr e- for ex- & vanescere, 'to fade, vanish, become empty', fr vanus, 'empty', see vain & op. evanescent. 1. To disappear, pass out of sight, to become invisible shadows vanish with the dawn, as we entered the figure vanished 2 To fade away, to decay and disappear all the colour has vanished from the picture 3 To cease to exist, to come to an end all our hopes of a speedy success vanished at the news, the fears of overnight vanish with the morning 4 (math) To become zero vanishing point, n [1 v&an&ishing point, 2 v&an&ish point] a The converging point in a perspective drawing &c at which receding parallel lines appear to meet, b (colloq) point at which anything comes to an end, or tends to disappear our money, strength, has reached the vanishing point vanity, n [1 van&ti, 2 v&an&ti] ME vanite, fr Fr vanité, fr Lat v&an&it&at (em), 'emptiness, worthlessness', fr v&an&us, 'empty' &c, see vain, & -ity 1 Quality of being vain, empty or worthless, futility, unsubstantiality, worthlessness, emptiness the vanity of human wishes, of earthly greatness 2 That which is vain, worthless, an unprofitable, futile thing, act &c 'to renounce the pomps and vanity of this wicked world' (Catechism), 'all is vanity, saith the Preacher' 3 Quality of being personally vain, exaggeratedly high opinion of, and pride in, one's own appearance, physical or mental capacities &c, conceit a man's vanity is his tenderest spot, an injury to vanity will never be forgiven vanity bag, n A small ornamental hand-bag which women carry to hold a mirror, powder puff, and cosmetics with which to make up their complexion

Vanity Fair, n The world of idle amusements and luxury, the fashionable world of society, fr Bunyan's 'Pilgrim's Progress' vanquish, vb trans & intrans [1 v&ang&wish, 2 v&ang&wish] ME venken, venken, ven quashen &c, fr A-Fr venquise, O Fr venquiesce, Pres Part stem of venquir, venquir, Mod Fr vaincre, 'to conquer', fr Lat vincere, vici (um), 'to conquer', see vincible 1 trans To conquer, defeat, overcome, reduce to subjection, to subdue, in physical and non physical senses to vanquish the enemy in battle, one's opponents in argument, the temptations of the flesh &c 2 intrans To be victorious vanquishable, adj [1 v&ang&wish&ahl, 2 v&ang&wish&ahl] Prec & -able Capable of being vanquished, overcome, or subdued, cp invincible vanquished, adj & n [1 v&ang&wish&it, 2 v&ang&wish&it], fr PP of vanquish a adj Conquered, defeated, subdued our vanquished enemy, vanquished temptations, b n, the vanquished, defeated person or persons vanquisher, n [1 v&ang&wish&er, 2 v&ang&wish&er] See prec & -er Conqueror, victor vantage, n [1 v&an&ti, 2 v&an&ti] Variant of advantage Advantage, gain, profit, now archaic or obs except as, a commonly used in sailing score in lawn-tennis, and b Phrs vantage ground, point of vantage, superior, commanding position, favourable position (lit and fig) from which to attack an opponent or ward off his attack vanward, adj & adv [1 v&an&ward, 2 v&an&ward] van (II) & -ward a adj Placed, coming, in the van or front 'The vanward clouds of evil days' (Keats), b adv, towards the van, forward vapid, adj [1 v&apid, 2 v&apid], fr Lat v&apidus, 'that has lost its vapour or life, flavourless, insipid', op vappa, 'flat, stale wine', see vapour (I) 1 (in material sense, rare) Tasteless, flavourless, insipid, flat 2 (in non material sense) Lifeless, uninteresting, lacking point, pungency, salt, insipid, dull vapid platitudes, the dialogue was vapid and commonplace, vapid compliments vapidity, n [1 v&apid&iti, 2 v&apid&iti] Prec & -ity Quality, state, fact, of being vapid, insipidity, vapidity vapidly, adv [1 v&apid&li, 2 v&apid&li] See prec & -ly. In a vapid manner vapidness, n. [1 vāpidnēs, 2 vāpidnēs] See prec & -ness Vapidity vaporability, n. [1 vāporābilitā, 2 vāparābilitā] vaporable & -ity State, quality, of being vaporable vaporable, adj. [1 vāporābl, 2 vāporābl] See vapour & -able Capable of being vaporized or converted into vapour vaporific, adj. [1 vāporifik, 2 vāparifik] See vapour & -fic Producing vaporization vaporimeter, n. [1 vāporimēter, 2 vāparimēter] See prec & -meter Instrument for measuring the volume or pressure of vapour vaporization, n. [1 vāporizāshun, 2 vāparizāshun] vaporize & -ation Act, or process of vaporizing, of converting into vapour, process of becoming vapour vaporize, v. trans & intrans [1 vāporiz, 2 vāpariz] vapor & -ize 1 trans To convert into vapour 2 intrans To be converted into, to pass off as, vapour vaporizer, n. [1 vāporizer, 2 vāparizer] prec & -er Apparatus for converting substances, such as oils, into vapour vaporous, adj. [1 vāporus, 2 vāparus], fr. Lat vaporosus or vaporosus, see vapour & -ous A Resembling, having the character or consistency of, vapour, b filled with vapour, foggy, steamy, o (archaic) having the vapours, fanciful vapour (I), n. [1 vāper, 2 vāpa] Through A Fr vapour, O Fr vapeur, or direct fr Lat vapor, 'steam, vapour', cogn. w Gk kapnōs, 'smoke', kapnēin, 'to breathe forth', Sort kapnē, 'incense', Lith kuāpas, 'breath, fragrance', all fr base kʷep-*, related also to Goth (af) hwappjan, 'to choke', fr Aryao variant kʷab* Op cupid 1 a A viable diffusion, exhalation, of moisture floating in the air, as fog, mist, steam &c, arising from the action of heat oo water, damp ground &c, b specif (phys) the gaseous state or form to which a solid or liquid may be reduced by the action of heat, a liquid or solid substance reduced by heat to a gaseous, elastic condition 2 (fig) a Something unsubstantial, transitory, or fleeting, an idle fancy, freak of imagination his brain clouded by vapours and dreams, all his schemes were but the vapour of an excited imagination, b (archaic) futile, empty boasting, vapouring 3 (in pl) a (ancient med) Morbid condition of body and mind due to encephalic exhalations from the stomach, such exhalations, b the vapours, hysteria, mental depression, hypochondria a fit of the vapours once fashionable among young ladies vapour (II), v. intrans, fr prec 1 (rare) To pass off as vapour, to evaporate, be exhaled 2 To boast, brag, indulge in empty high flown chatter vapour-bath, n. a A Bath in hot vapour or steam, b closed place, apparatus, for such a bath Phr (of a place, part of the country) like a vapour bath, very hot, steamy, relaxing vapourer, o. [1 vāperer, 2 vāparer] vapour (II) & -ar 1 One who vapours or boasts, a flatulent, pretentious chatterer 2 (entom) Moth of genus Orygia, with wingless female, very destructive to vegetation vapouring (I), n. [1 vāpering, 2 vāparing] vapour (II) & -ing Often vapourings Empty high flown talk vapouring (II), adj. fr prec Part of vapour (II) a Empty and pretentious, b full of vapours, hysterical, hypochondriacal vapoury, adj. [1 vāperi, 2 vāpari] vapour (I) & -y Full of vapour, misty, clouded with mist or vapour vapulation, n. [1 vāpūlāshun, 2 vāpūlāshun], fr Lat vapulation (um), vapularis, 'to be flogged, whipped', etymol uncertain (rare or facetiously archaic) A beating, flogging vapulatory, adj. [1 vāpūlatur, 2 vāpūlatur] See prec & -ory Pertaining to flogging or beating vapourer n. [1 vāpūr, 2 vāpūr] Span, 'cowherd', fr vaca, 'cow', fr Lat vacca, see vaccine (in Spanish America, Mexico &c)

A drover, a man in charge of cattle, horses, or mules, a herdsman, cowboy Varangian, o & adj. [1 varānjian, 2 varānjian], fr Med Lat Varangus, fr Med Gk Baran(g)gos, through Slav, fr ON Varangi, pl Varangjar, 'confederate, ally', fr varar, 'pledges, oaths' 1 n a One of the Northman rovers who barred the Baltic and founded a dynasty in Russia in 8th and 10th centuries, b one of the 'Varangian Guard' 2 adj a Pertaining to the Varangians, b composed of Varangians, esp Varangian Guard, a bodyguard of the Byzantine emperors, recruited from Varangians and other Northern peoples of Europe varec, n. [1 vārek, 2 varēk] Fr, also varēch, of Gmc origin, see wreck (I) Calcined ash of seaweed used in manufacture of iodine &c, kelp variability, n. [1 vārābilitā, 2 varābilitā] See variable & -ity Quality, condition, of being variable, liability, tendency, to variation variable (I), adj. [1 vārābl, 2 varābl] Fr, fr L Lat variabilis, see vary & -able 1 Liable to vary, tending to vary, changeable, fluctuating, not constant or steady variable weather, temperature, wind &c, a man of variable character, temper &c 2 Capable of being varied or changed, admitting of variation in degree &c prices are variable according to the exchanges 3 Specif uses a (astron) periodically changing in apparent magnitude or brightness variable stars, b (biol) liable to variation, tending to deviate from type, aberrant variable species, o (math) increasing or decreasing, indeterminate variable quantities variable (II), o, fr prec a A variable quantity, an indeterminate quantity, one subject to increase or decrease, b a variable star variableness, o. [1 vārāblnes, 2 varāblnes] variable (I) & -ness State, quality, of being variable, liability to change or vary variably, adv. [1 vārābl, 2 varābl] See prec & -ly In a variable manner variance, o. [1 vārāns, 2 varāns] O Fr, fr Lat variantia, variant & -ce 1 Act or fact of varying, variation, a change, alteration some variance of temperature is to be expected, such sudden variance of public taste is remarkable 2 Active disagreement between persons in opinions, tastes, ideals &c, strife, dissension, antagonism, esp in Phr at variance (with), differing, in a state of estrangement (from), holding dissentient views (from), opposed to &c old friends now at variance, he was at variance with his colleagues on one subject only, such opinions are quite at variance with those he formerly held 3 (law) Discrepancy between two portions in legal proceedings, as between a statement in pleadings and evidence in proof of it variant, adj & n. [1 vārānt, 2 varānt] O Fr, fr Lat variant (em), Pres Part of variare, see vary & -ant 1 adj a Differing, varying from one another or from some standard which is accepted as normal, esp variant reading (Lat varia lectio), a reading, as in a MS &c, different from the accepted reading, or from that in another text, b varying, showing variation, varied to obtain variant results from what is apparently the same process 2 n A variant form, reading, version &c, something which is appreciably different from something else with which it has a common origin or close connexion home and home are dialectal variants of the same word, different MSS of the same work often contain variants introduced by copyists variation n. [1 vārāshun, 2 varāshun] O Fr, fr Lat variatio (em), fr vari (um), PP type of variare, see vary & -ation 1 a Act, process, or fact of varying in form, state, degree, quality &c, from type, standard, the normal &c, alteration, modification variation of temperature, colour, tone &c, a principle without variation, subject, liable, to, capable of, variation, b amount, extent, rate, of change slight, marked, great, variations in temperature, price &c 2 Specif a (astron) deviation or change in the mean motion or orbit of a heavenly body, b (biol) deviation or divergence of an organism in structure, or of a function in mode of operation, from that which is typical or usual in the group or species to which it belongs, o (magnetism) deviation of the magnetic needle from true North and South, declination, d (math) relation between oblique angles of quantities which vary as each other, permutation, e (mus) repetition of a theme or melody with various, usually progressive, developments, any elaboration of a simple theme variational, adj. [1 vārāshunal, 2 varāshunal] prec & -al Pertaining to, marked by, characteristic of, arising from, variation varicated, adj. [1 varikāted, 2 varikāted] See varix & -ate & -ed (of shells) Having varices or ridges varicella, n. [1 vārīśala, 2 varīśala] An irregular, mod. dimin of variola (med.) Chicken pox varicocoele, n. [1 varikōśēl, 2 varikōśēl] See varicose & -coele A varicose condition or enlargement of the veins of the spermatic cord or of the scrotum varicoloured, adj. [1 vārīkblurd, 2 varīkblurd] See various & colour(ed) Of various colours, variegated, parti coloured varicose, adj. [1 vārīkōs, 2 varīkōs], fr Lat varicosus, fr varic (em), varix, see varix, & -ose a Suffering from, affected by, a varix or varices, or abnormally dilated veins a varicose leg, patient, symptom &c, b abnormally dilated, of veins, esp those of the leg, hence varicose ulcer, such a vein when ulcerated, c designed for varicose veins varicose bandage &c varicosis, n. [1 vārīkōsis, 2 varīkōsis] See prec & -osis (med) State of having varicose veins or of being varicose, varicosity varicosity, n. [1 vārīkōsiti, 2 varīkōsiti] See prec & -ity Varicosis varied, adj. [1 vārīd, 2 varīd], fr PP of vary 1 Exhibiting variety, various varied scenes, birds of the most varied kinds, indulge in varied pleasures, ideas 2 Changing, differing, from time to time, characterized by variety, live a varied life, delightfully varied scenery variously, adv. prec & -ly In a varied manner, with many or constant changes variegate, v. trans [1 vārgāt, 2 vārgēt], fr L Lat variegat (um), PP type of variegare, 'to make of various colours', fr varius, see various, & ag, stem of agere, 'to drive, do' &c see agant 'To diversify the colour of, to mark with different colours' variegated, adj. [1 vārgāted, 2 vārgāted], fr PP of prec 1 Diversified in colour, parti coloured, streaked with various colours 2 (fig) a Diversified by change, variety of experience &c a variegated career, b exhibiting different qualities intermingled a character strangely variegated with good and evil variegation, n. [1 vārgāshun, 2 vārgāshun] See prec & -on Diversified colouration, intermingled streaks or patches of colour variety, n. [1 varīet, 2 varīet], fr O Fr varieta, fr Lat varietas (em), fr varius, see various, & -ty 1 Quality of being various, diversity in external objects or conditions, or of qualities &c the variety of town life, the extraordinary variety of his character, variety is what the public wants 2 A number or collection, group, of various or different things to have a great variety to choose from, a variety of excellent dishes, owing to a variety of causes 3 a Something varying from others of the same kind, a different kind or form of something, a kind, sort a rare variety of old English glass, a collection of stamps with many varieties, distinguish the varieties of strata, of Gothic architecture &c., specif b (biol) a group or member of a group of animals or plants, differing from related groups, but not so far as to allow them to be classified as a separate species or subspecies, esp the various kinds or breeds of domesticated animals or cultivated plants, o any one of the types of speech, or dialects, into which one original dialect or language has been differentiated 4 That form of entertainment which is given at a variety theatre or music-hall, a mixed entertainment of individual singers, acrobats, comedians, dancers &c., each giving a separate, distinct turn, known in U S A as vaudeville variety seemed to have been killed by the films and by revues, also attrib variety show, artist &c variform, adj [1 vāriform, 2 vērāfōrm] fr various & -form Varied in form, having various forms variola, n [1 variola, vārīōla, 2 varīōla, varīōlula] Med Lat, fr Lat varius, see various (med) Smallpox variolar, adj [1 variolar, vārīōlar, 2 varīōla, varīōlular] Prec & -ar (med) Pertaining to variola or smallpox, pitted like those attacked by smallpox variolite, n [1 vārīōlīt, 2 vērīōlīt] See prec & -ite A kind of diorite in which whitish spherules of other rock are embedded, giving a pitted appearance like that of smallpox varioloīd, adj & n [1 vārīōlōīd, 2 vērīōlōīd] fr variola & -oid a adj Resembling smallpox, b n, a mild form of smallpox, as modified by previous vaccination varioloīdous, adj [1 varīōlōīdus, 2 varīōlōīdus, varīōlōīdulus] variola & -ous Variolar variometer, n [1 vārīōmēter, 2 vērīōmēter] fr various & -meter (elect) a An instrument for the comparison of magnetic forces, b device for varying the magnetic inductance in a circuit, used in wireless receiving sets for adjustment of wave lengths &c variorum, adj [1 vārīōrum, 2 vērīōrum] Lat, gent pl of varius, various, lit 'of various persons' Variorum edition, Lat editio cum notis variorum, with notes of various commentators &c various, adj [1 vārīus, 2 vērīus] fr Lat varius, 'changing, varying, varied', etymol dubious 1 Different, diverse, having, showing, many different characteristics, varied the effects of this disease are various in different cases, 'Party leaders maintaining their various opinions' ('The Gondoliers', Gilbert) 2 A Possessing and exhibiting a variety of qualities, talents &c, many sided, versatile, rare or archaic, but familiar from Dryden's 'A man so various, that he seemed to be Not one, but all mankind's epitome' ('Absalom and Achitophel', 645 ff), b diversified by many and different experiences, adventures, occupations, reverse of monotonous (The Muse) 'Eyes the calm sunset of thy various day' (Pope, 'To Earl of Oxford', 38) 3 A Several, many, also, of several different sorts or kinds various people declared they had seen the man, there are various reasons for believing, b (colloq and vulg as pron or elliptically as n) various of the speakers were inaudible, we were assured by various that variously, adv Prec & -ly In a various manner, in various ways variousness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being various or diversified, variety varix, n, pl varices [1 vārīks, vārīksē, 2 varīks, varīksē] Lat, 'dilated vein', etymol doubtful, connected w varus, 'a blotch, pimple', Walde connects this word w the base of Lat vermis, 'worm', see vermin 1 (med) A Varicose vein 2 (zool) A projecting ridge or rib on surface of certain shells varlet, n [1 vārlet, 2 vālet] O Fr, 'groom, a youth', earlier valet, whence valet, valet is for vasalet*, dimm of vas(al), see vassal

1 (hist) A groom, attendant, personal servant of a knight or squire, a manservant 2 (archaic) A low fellow, rogue, rascal varmint, n [1 vārīmt, 2 vāīmt] Variant of vermin, a pronunciation current in 17th and 18th cents, even among speakers of the higher class (colloq, slang, or dial) Rascal, mischievous boy, scamp, esp a young varmint varnish (I), n [1 vārīnīsh, 2 vāīnīsh] ME vernisse &c, fr O Fr vernis, op Ital vernice, Span barraz, Med Lat has verniscum & Med Gk bernikē, etymol unknown 1 A gum or resin dissolved in oil or spirit and forming a solution which after application to the surface of wood, leather, metal &c, dries and hardens into a glossy, translucent coating 2 (by transf) A 'natural glossy surface, as on the leaves of holly, ivy &c; artificial glaze on pottery 3 (fig) Outward superficial brilliance or polish, gloss, specious appearance or show, serving as a covering for some deficiency &c his occasional association with good society had imparted a certain varnish to his manners, even the apologists of the Borgias find it difficult to put a varnish on their characters varnish (II), vb trans, fr O Fr verniser, fr vernis, see prec, later form vernir 1 To cover, paint over, with varnish, give a coat of varnish to (a picture, piece of furniture &c) 2 (fig) To cover over with a superficial attractiveness, to gloss over, to hide with a fair, outward appearance a hard, merciless character varnished with an attractive air of geniality, they hope to varnish their unpopular policy with some vague promises of social reform varnishing day, n [1 vārīnīshīng dā, 2 vāīnīshīng dēi] Day before the public opening of an exhibition of pictures, on which the artists are able to put the finishing touches to their exhibits

'Varsity, adj & n [1 varsiti, 2 vāstī] Colloq form of university at the 'Varsity, 'Varsity match, team &c varsovienne, n [1 vārśōvīen, 2 vāśōuvīen] Fr, fr Varsovie, 'Warsaw' A kind of dance, based, in rhythm &c, on Polish national dances varus, n [1 vārūs, 2 vērūs] fr Lat varus, adj, 'bent, crooked', prob for idkros*, fr same base as in vacillare, see vacillate (med) A form of clubfoot, in full, talipes varus vary, vb intrans & trans [1 vārī, 2 vērī] fr Fr varier, fr Lat variare, 'to change, vary', fr varius, see various 1 intrans To change, become different, to undergo a change from one condition to a different one colours varying with every change of light, the weather varies from hour to hour, his principles have never varied 2 trans To cause to change in form, substance, character &c, to alter, to make different, to modify to vary one's plans, to vary a patient's treatment, to vary the rules, procedure of a court &c, to vary one's meals, method of work &c vas, n, pl vasa [1 vas, vāsa, 2 vas, vēsa] Lat īās, 'vessel, vaso', etymol uncertain (anat) A vessel or duct, as vas deferens, excretory, spermatic duct vasal, adj [1 vāsal, 2 vēsal] Prec & -al Pertaining to a vas vascular, adj [1 vāskūlar, 2 vēskūlar] fr Lat vasculum, dimm of vas, see vas, & -ar (physiol) Of plants and animals, pertaining to, containing, consisting of, the vessels, ducts &c vascular system, the circulatory system of blood-vessels, lymphatics, ducts &c vascular issue, containing, full of, blood and other vessels &c vascularity, n [1 vāskūlaritā, 2 vēskūlaritā] Prec & -ity State of being vascular, vascular form vascularization, n [1 vāskūlarīzāshun, 2 vēskūlarīzāshun] See next word & -ation a Act, process of vascularizing, b state of being vascularized.

vascularize, vb trans [1 vāskūlarīz, 2 vēskūlarīz] vascular & -ize To render, cause to become, vascular vasculum, n, pl vascula [1 vāskūlum, -a, 2 vēskūla(m)] Lat dimm of vas, op vascular 1 A small vessel or vase shaped organism, an ascidian. 2 A small cylindrical metal case with opening on one side, used by collectors for carrying botanical specimens vase, n [1 vāz, 2 vāz] archoia [1 vāvz, 2 vōz], spelling pronunciation [1 vāz, 2 veiz] Fr, fr Lat īās, 'vessel', see vas 1. a A general term for a vessel, usually of a decorative kind, of many shapes and sizes, made of glass, pottery, porcelain, or metal, used chiefly as an ornament, b a vessel usually more or less tall and slender, but variously shaped, used to contain out flowers

2 Specif, Greek, formerly Etruscan, vase, type of vessel of baked earthenware, made in many varying sizes and forms, and diversely decorated, used as cinerary urns, and for many other purposes, ceremonial and domestic, e g for holding wine, water &c as drinking vessels black, red-figured vases &c, so vase painting 3 A sculptured representation of such a vessel in marble or other stone, used as an architectural feature or as a decorative object vaseline, n [1 vāselēn, 2 vēselīn] Modern concoction fr Germ wasser, 'water', & Gk elaimon, 'oil', & -ino A trade and proprietary name of a soft petroleum jelly, without small or taste, and usually of a yellow colour, used as the basis of ointments, as a lubricant &c vasi-, pref Form fr Lat īās, 'vessel', see vas & vascular, used in compounds vasiform, adj, a of the shape of a vas or blood-vessel, tubular, b shaped like a vase vaso-, pref Form fr same source as above, used in physiol & anatomy, in sense of pertaining to, affecting, vascular system, esp of nerves, drugs &c, vaso constrictor, constricting, dilator, dilating, or motor, controlling, the blood and other vessels vassal, n [1 vāsal, 2 vāsal] O Fr, represented in Low & Med Lat by vassallus, or in the more orig form vassus, 'servant, retainer', a Celt word, op Bret goaz, fr W guas, 'youth, servant', op valet & varlet 1 (Med hist, feudalism) One who has vowed fealty and done homage to a superior lord, and holds land from him by so doing, a fief tenant, feudatory 2 (by transf or fig) One who is in a subordinate position to another, a dependant, devoted subject, bondman 3 (attrib) Pertaining to, like, a vassal, subject, servile vassal homage, fealty, a vassal kingdom &c vassalage, n [1 vāssālī, 2 vāssālīdī] O Fr, Mod Fr vasselage, Med Lat vassallagium, see vassal & -age a State of being a vassal, allegiance, fealty due from a vassal to his superior, b dependence, subordinate position, servitude vast, adj [1 vāst, 2 vāst] fr Fr vaste Walde distinguishes two Lat words, vastus, 'huge, immense, shapeless', & vastus, 'barren, void, waste, empty', Lewis & Short, who give only one word, include under it all the above meanings The type vast- is cogn w OHG iuosti, 'barren, empty', OS uđati, & OE wēste, w same meaning, O Ir fās, 'empty' See also wasto (I) The form vast- is fr vazdhos*, & cogn w O Ir foi, 'length' 1 Of great size, breadth &c, very extensive, huge, enormous, immense a (in physical sense) vast expanse of desert, ocean &c, the vast mountains of the Andes, buildings become ever vaster in London, b (in non-physical sense) vast plans of development, a scheme of vast scope 2 Very great in number, amount, or quantity vast sums of money, drank vast quantities of beer, a vast crowd of people 3 A Very great there is a vast difference between &c, of vast importance, a vast improvement, b (archaistic, as a colourless intens) it gives me vast pleasure 4 (as n, with art) A vast, the vast, of ocean, water &c, immense tract.

vastly, adv Preo & -ly 1 To a vast, enormous, extent the Empire that was so vastly enlarged in the 19th century, this book adds vastly to our knowledge 2 Greatly, as mere intensive, very, to a very large extent vastly superior to, (also archaic) am vastly pleased, obliged &c vastly pleasant, extremely amusing vastness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being vast, immensity, hugeness, vast size vasty, adj [1 vāstā, 2 vāstā] vast & -y

Vast, immense Shakespeare, '1 Henry IV', III i 62, 'I can call spirits from the vasty deep', 'The vasty hall of death' (M Arnold, 'Requiescat') vat, n & vb trans [1 vat, 2 vāt] Southern dial variant of OE fat, ME vat, fat, 'a vessel' (op vane, vixen), ON fat, Du vat, Germ fass, 'cask, tub', cogn w OHG fazzōn, 'to hold, to catch, seize, contain', the orig meaning of word being 'container'. Op vine fat in NT, wh shows the usual Midl form of OE f 1 n A large vessel for containing liquids, esp in process of fermentation, maturing, manufacture &c, as in brewing, tanning, dyeing &c 2 vb To place, store, mature, in a vat old tatted whiskies &c

Vatican, n [1 vātikan, 2 vātikan] Fr, fr Lat Vaticanus, eo mons, one of the hills of ancient Rome 1 A The palace, with its library, museum, chapels &c of the Pope in Rome, built on the Vatican hill, the official residence of the Pope and centre of Papal government, hence b the Papacy, Papal authority and government, Phr thunders of the Vatican, excommunication, anathemas, of the Roman Church 2 (attrib) Vatican library, gallery &c, Vatican Council, that of 1869-70, which established the doctrine of Papal infallibility &c

Vaticanism, n [1 vātikanizm, 2 vātikanizm] Preo & -ism The principle, system, of Papal supremacy and infallibility, ultra montanism vaticinal, adj [1 vātinal, 2 vātinal] fr Lat vaticinus, see vaticinate & -al (rare) Pertaining to, of the nature of, vaticination or prophecy, prophetic vaticinate, vb trans & intrans [1 vātīnāt, 2 vātīnāt] fr Lat vaticināre (um), PP type of vaticināre, 'to prophesy, foretell', fr vātes, 'prophet, seer', cogn w Goth wōps, 'possessed, mad', OE wōd, 'frenzied, mad', OHG wuot, 'mad, madness', also OE wop, 'voice, melody, song', ON ǫdr, 'song, poetry', fr wōd See also Edda & op Wednesday a trans To prophesy, foretell, b intrans, to utter prophecies vaticination, n [1 vātīnāshun, 2 vātīnēshun] fr Lat vaticinatio (em), see preo & -ion a Aot of prophesying or foretelling, b a prophecy vaticinator, n [1 vātīnāter, 2 vātīnēter] Lat, see preo & -or Prophet, seer vaudeville, n [1 vōdvīl, 2 vōdvīl] Fr, corrupt of earlier (chanson de) Vau de Vire, ie of the valley, or gorge, of the Vire, in Normandy, where Bassein, the best known composer of such songs, lived 1 (Fr liter hist) a A light, convivial song such as those of Bassein, c 1400-50 b a form of light, satirical, topical verse, often accompanied by songs, dances, and pantomime, popular in the 17th cent, written in couplets 2 a (Engl usage) A form of light, musical comedy, b (U S A) a variety or music hall entertainment vault (I), n [1 vawit, 2 vōit] ME voute, voute, fr O Fr voute, voute, voute &c, Mod Fr voute, fr Low Lat voluta, fr PP of Lat volvere, 'to roll', op voluta & see volume 1 An arched roof or ceiling, the covering of an open space by stone or brick supported on a continuous series of arches, as in the 'barrel' vault, or on connected arched ribs meeting in a central point and depending on thrust and counter thrust for stability the interesting or 'groined' vault 2 A vaulted chamber or space, specif a an underground cellar or chamber with arched roof wine vaults, b a strong room in which safes are kept safely vault, c an underground brook or stone chamber in which coffins are laid in a cemetery and, formerly, beneath the flooring of a church, in a crypt &c family vault 3 a Any naturally formed subterranean cavern with arched roof, b an arched cavity in the body of an animal &c 4 (fig) The arched canopy of the sky the blue vault of heaven vault (II), vb trans, fr preo A To cover, roof over with a vault, to build a vault over, b (fig) to cover as with a vault vault (III), vb intrans & trans, fr M Fr voltier, 'to leap, gambol', op Ital volla, 'the turn, swerve, bound, of a horse', op vnuilt (I), wh is the same word w differentiation of meaning 1 intrans To leap, spring, with a single movement, esp with the support of the hand or hands or of a leaping pole to vault over a gate, ditch, to vault on to a horse, into the saddle 2 trans To leap over, with support of the hand to vault a gate vault (IV), n, fr preo Leap, jump, with single movement with support of hand &c vaulted, adj [1 vāwlted, 2 vōlted] PP of vault (II) a Built with vaults, or as a vault, arched a vaulted roof, b covered by a vault vaulted aisle, chamber &c vaulter, n [1 vawiter, 2 vōita] vault (III) & -er One who vaults or leaps vaulting (I), n [1 vāwltng, 2 vōltng] fr vault (II) & -ing a The construction, building, of a vault or vaults, b a vaulted building, c the vaults, collectively, of a roof &c vaulting (II), n & adj, fr vault (III) & -ing, 2 is fr Preo Part of same 1 n Aot of leaping with support of the hand &c 2 adj Leaping with a vault, (also fig) fr vaulting ambition (Shakespeare, 'Macbeth'), that vaults over, surmounts, all obstacles vault (I), vb intrans & trans [1 vawnt, 2 vōnt] ME avaunten (op avaunt), also later without the intens a, fr O Fr (se) vanier, 'to boast', fr Low Lat vanitare, 'to flatter', fr Lat vānitas, see vanity & vain 1 intrans a Vaunt of, to boast about, proclaim in boastful terms to vaunt of one's skill, b vaunt over, to triumph over malvolently and boastfully to vaunt over another's failure 2 trans a To boast, brag about to vaunt one's skill, (also as adj fr PP) his vaunted courage, b to proclaim the merits of, to praise highly, celebrate to vaunt the beauties of the Scottish lochs vaunt (II), n, fr preo Boasting, boastful language, a boast vaunter, n [1 vāwnter, 2 vōnter] vaunt (I) & -er One who vaunts, a boaster, braggart vavasour, n [1 vāvasōr, 2 vavēsō] O Fr, in Mod Lat cavassor, vahassor, vavassor, apparently a corrupt of vassus vassorum, 'vassal of vassals', see vassal (Med hist) A term, of varying applications, for a subordinate or mediate vassal, a person holding a fief from one who was himself the vassal to another, also a vassal who had subordinate vassals himself veal, n [1 vēl, 2 vīl] ME veel, 'calf, veal', fr O Fr veiz, later as in Mod Fr, veau, fr Lat vitellus, dimin of vitulus, 'calf', cogn w Gk stailōs, fr vitailos, Sort vatsa, 'calf', the orig meaning is 'yearling', op Gk eios for velos*, 'year', wh base is seen also in Lat vetus, 'old', see veteran, further in OE weper, see weather The flesh of a calf, as used for food, the word was used occasionally for the living animal as late as 18th cent vector, n [1 vēkter, 2 vēktr] Lat, 'carrier, bearer, conveyer', fr vec (um), PP type of vehere, 'to convey', see vehicle, & -or, see also weight (I) (math) A quantity in volving direction as well as magnitude vectorial, adj [1 vāktōriāl, 2 vēktōriāl] Preo & -al (math) Pertaining to vectors

Veda, n [1 vāda, 2 vēda] Sort veda,

'knowledge, sacred book of wisdom', fr base ved*, word*, wid*, q v also under idol, idea, -oid, vision (I), wit (I) One of the four ancient sacred books of the Hindus

Vedanta, n [1 vādānta, 2 veidānta] Sort, fr Veda & anta, 'end' The system of Hindu pantheistic philosophy

Veddah, n [1 vēda, 2 vēda] Cingalese, 'hunter' Member of the primitive, aboriginal race inhabiting the jungles of Ceylon vedette, n [1 vedēt, 2 vedet] Fr, fr Ital vedetta, fr vedere, 'to see', fr Lat vidēre, see vision A mounted sentry, placed in advance of an outpost

Vedic, adj [1 vādik, 2 vēdik] Veda & -ic Pertaining to the Vedas Vedic literature &c veer, vb intrans & trans [1 vēr, 2 vīe] fr Fr virer, 'to turn round, change direction', op Span virar, virar, Ital virare, of doubtful etymol, L Lat has virare, wh has been referred to stem seen in Lat viras, pl, 'bracelets', dimin form virula, & second element in enviro, the orig meaning being 'to twist, wind round', this base is also seen in wire (I) & withy 1 intrans a To shift, change, turn, in position or direction the wind, the name, has veered round to the south, speak (of a ship) to change course as preparation for tacking, Phrs veer and haul, to pay out and haul in (rope) alternately, veer out, pay out, b (fig) to change about, shift, from one opinion, belief, set of feelings, intentions &c, to another, to veer round to the opposite party &c 2 trans To alter, change, the course of, as a ship &c veeringly, adv [1 vērighl, 2 vīerighl] fr Preo Part of preo & -ly In a veering, shifting manner, with change of direction, esp of mind or opinion

Vega (I), n [1 vēga, 2 vīga] Med Lat, fr Arab wāḡis, adj, 'falling' The brightest star in the constellation Lyra vega (II), n [1 vēga, 2 vīga] Span A low lying damp or grassy tract of ground, esp in South America, also tobacco field, in Cuba vegetable (I), adj [1 vōjetabl, 2 vēdzitabl] Fr, fr L Lat vegetabilis, 'enlivening, animating', w suff bilis, fr Lat vegetāre, 'to arouse, animate, invigorate', fr vegetus, 'vigorous, active, lively', fr vegēre, 'to be active, lively, to quicken, arouse', the base is seen in the Lat derivatives vigil & vigour, also in OE wacor, 'watchful, vigilant', op wacan, 'to awake, be born', see wake (I) A fuller form of this base, aveg*, is seen in Lat augere for avegere*, 'to cause to grow, to increase', see augment (I) & eke (II), & op hygiene Pertaining to, belonging to, composed of, comprising, including, affecting, of the nature of, plants, or plant life the vegetable kingdom, vegetable life &c, vegetable issue, vegetable as distinct from mineral drugs, vegetable diseases &c vegetable (II), n, fr preo 1 Anything that grows in the ground, any form of plant life Phr to become a mere vegetable, said of a person who is thoroughly inactive in mind and body 2 Specif, the edible leaves, stalks, flowers, seeds, pods, or roots of certain plants especially cultivated for human food, greens, greenstuff, in common colloquial usage a distinction is made between potatoes and vegetables, the latter including peas, beans, cabbages of all kinds, asparagus, turnips, carrots &c, green vegetables, (1) those whose leaves &c are eaten, as distinct from the roots, (2) vegetables cooked green and fresh, as distinct from dried peas &c, vegetable dish, one in which vegetables are brought to table vegetable ivory, n A hard white seed or nut of a South American palm, which is used as a substitute for ivory in manufacture of buttons &c vegetable marrow, n A kind of edible gourd, Cucurbita Pepo ovifera vegetal, adj [1 vējetāl, 2 vēdzitāl] Fr, fr Lat vegetus, see vegetable, & -al 1 Pertaining to, of the nature of, a plant or vegetable, vegetable 'vegetal life, structure &c 2 (physiol) Pertaining to growth or the functions, especially concerned with growth or maintenance of life in living organisms, both animals and plants, vegetative vegetarian, n & adj [1 vejetárian, 2 vedžitéarion] A modern, coined word, fr veget, see vegetable (II), & -arian 1 n One whose food consists solely or mainly of vegetables, fruit, nuts &c, one who, on principle, abstains from all forms of animal food, esp from such as involves the taking of animal life 2 adj a Pertaining to vegetarians, their principles &c vegetarian society, system, principles &c, b consisting solely of vegetables, providing vegetables only as food vegetarian diet, dishes, restaurant &c vegetarianism, n [1 vejetárianizm, 2 vedžitéarionizm] See prec & -ism Principles, practice, of vegetarians, abstention from all animal foods vegetate, vb intrans [1 vejetát, 2 vedžítet], fr Lat vegetát (um), P P type of vegetare, 'to give life and vigour to, to animate', fr vegetus, see vegetable (I) a To grow, pass one's life, like a plant, live a purely physical life, devoid of all intellectual and spiritual activities, b to live a dull, monotonous, unvaried life with few social or other distractions vegetation, n [1 vejetášun, 2 vedžítášun] fr L Lat vegetation (em), see prec & -ion 1 Act, process, of growing or vegetating, plant growth and development vegetation as at its height in spring 2 Plants collectively a tropical, luxuriant, vegetation, the vegetation is sparse vegetative, adj [1 vejetatív, 2 vedžítatív], fr Med Lat vegetátivus, see vegetate & -ive 1 Having the capacity of growth, growing the vegetative as opposed to the reproductive system of plants 2 Pertaining to, connected with, growth vegetative functions, during the vegetative stage 3 Productive of growth or vegetation vegetative soils 4 (fig) Living an inactive life, vegetating, passive, passed in mere sloth or idleness a placid, vegetative sort of character, existence vegetatively, adv Prec & -ly In a vegetative manner vegetativeness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being vegetative vehement, rarely vehemency, n [1 vémenš(i), 2 viamenš(i)], fr L Lat vehementia, see vehement & -ency State, quality, of being vehement, violence, intensity, impetuosity, force, eagerness, in material and non material sense the vehemence of the storm, attack &c, carried away by the vehemence of his own eloquence, passions &c vehement, adj. [1 vémenš, 2 viamenš] O Fr, fr Lat vehement (em), vehemens, 'eager, violent, furious, vehement, forcible, vigorous', the first element is fr the base vehere, 'to carry, convey', see under vehicle Orig sense, 'transported (as with strong emotion), carried out of oneself' The form vehemens was probably orig participial vehemens* 1 Acting with great material force, strength or violence, furious vehement heat, wind, a vehement current &c 2 (in non material sense) Passionate, a (of actions, emotions &c) impetuous, eager, ardent vehement opposition, strife, vehement desire, hatred &c, b (of persons) exhibiting vehemence of character, passion &c a vehement partisan, opponent &c vehemently, adv Prec & -ly In a vehement manner, with vehemence, ardently, passionately vehicle, n [1 vékl, 2 víkl, viokl], fr Lat vehiculum, 'carriage, conveyance', formed w dimin, see -cule, fr base of vehere, 'to bear, carry, convey', thus base wegh-, wogh-, is seen in Sort vahati, 'he carries, conveys', Gk (Pamphylian) ekhos for wekhos*, 'wagon', (wajekhétá, let him bring, ekhos for wekhos*, 'wagon', Goth (gajungan, 'to shake, to move', O E wegan, 'to carry', see weigh (I), also way 1 That in which anything can be carried, esp a wheeled carriage, cart, oar, or other conveyance by which persons or goods may be transported by land 2 A means of transmission, a medium, in various senses the ether is the vehicle of light and electric waves, a sweet syrup is a good vehicle for the administration of nauseous drugs, milk is often a vehicle of infection 3 A means of communicating ideas English is a noble vehicle of human thought vehicular, adj [1 véhikúlar, 2. vihikula], fr L Lat vehicularis, see prec & -nr Pertaining to, concerned with, consisting of, carried by, vehicles vehicular transport, vehicular traffic vehingericht, n [1 vám-, fámgericht, 2 vém-, fémgericht] Germ, also fehmgerecht, fr vehme, fahme, 'judgement, punishment', origin donhtful, & gericht, 'jurisdiction, court, tribunal', op right (I) a A special form of criminal jurisdiction, prevalent in Germany, esp in Westphalia, during the Middle Ages until the 16th cent, exercised by judges chosen from those pledged by oaths to secrecy, trying serious crimes with power of life and death, and usually though not necessarily sitting in secret, b a court of this kind vehmic, also fehmic, adj [1 vámik, fámik, 2 vémik, fémik] See prec & -ic Pertaining to the vehmgerecht vehmic courts veil (I), n [1 vál, 2 veil], fr O Fr veile, Mod Fr voile, fr Lat velum, 'sail, piece of cloth, curtain, veil', see velum 1 A covering for the face or head, esp as worn by women, either (i) as by Moslem women, nuns &c, to conceal their features, or (ii) as a protection against sun, wind &c, or (iii) at the dictates of fashion, Phr to take the veil, to become a nun 2 (ecclcs) a A curtain or cloth hanging, esp that dividing the Sanctuary from the main body of the Jewish Temple, b a piece of drapery of silk &c, used to cover a chalice, crucifix &c, esp during Lent 3 a Something which covers and hides (an object) from the sight a veil of mist over the landscape, b something which obscures the mental vision, something which renders complete and clear mental perception difficult the facts are hidden in a veil of mystery 4 (hot and cool) Velum veil (II), vb trans, fr O Fr veiler, fr Lat velare, 'to veil, conceal', see prec 1 To cover with, or as with, a veil, to throw a veil over to veil one's face, head &c 2 a To conceal, hide from sight clouds veiled the sun, b to conceal from another's mental perception, to render unperceptible to mental observation, to disguise, dissimulate to veil one's dislike, suspicion, his malevolence was veiled by an urbane manner veiled, adj [1 váld, 2 veld], fr P P of prec 1 Wearing a veil, with head and face &c covered by a veil the veiled Twaregs, veiled nun, with veiled eyes 2 Concealed, disguised, masked veiled hatred &c veiling, n [1 váling, 2 véling] veil (II) & -ing Soft, thin material suitable for veils &c veinless, adj [1 váles, 2 vélis] veil (I) & -less Without a veil, unveiled vein (I), n [1 ván, 2 vein] M E & Fr veine, fr Lat vēna, possibly for veinn*, & connected w base seen in vehere, 'to carry, convey', see vehicle 1 One of the tubular vessels which convey the blood returned from the capillaries to the heart, op artery, (loosely) any blood-vessel 2 Something resembling a vein in appearance, as a one of the fine ribs or branches of the framework of a leaf, insect's wing &c, b a coloured streak or mark, natural or artificial, in stone, wood &c 3 A fissure, cleft, in rock, earth &c, filled with a different rock, or mineral ore, a seam, lode 4 A distinctive strain or tendency or characteristic quality which runs through a man's nature as a vein of ore &c through rock &c, a streak he had a strong vein of humour, of cruelty, his characteristic vein of sarcasm, b mood, disposition to be in the vein for composing, writing &c vein (II), vb trans, fr prec To mark, cover, with veins, usually in P P veined veininess, n [1 vánnis, 2 vénnis] veiny & -ness State, quality, of being veiny veinless, adj [1 vánles, 2 vélis] vein (I) & -less Lacking veins, unveined veiny, adj [1 váni, 2 veini] vein (I) & -y Covered with, full of, veins, showing the veins prominently, on face, hand &c velamen, n, pl velamina [1 vélámen, -ina, 2 vélemen, -ina] Lat, 'covering', fr velare, see velum (anat) A membrane, velum velar, adj & n. [1 vélár, 2 vilar] fr Lat véláris, see velum & -ar 1 adj Connected with, related to, arising from, the velum or soft palate, velar consonants, those formed by the back of the tongue in proximity to the velum 2 n A velar consonant, ie a back consonant velarium, n [1 vélárium, 2 véléríum] Lat See prec a (Rom antiq) The large awning which could be stretched over the auditorium of an amphitheatre or theatre as protection against the sun, b (zool) a membranous rim, in certain jelly fish veld(t), n [1 velt, felt, 2 velt, felt] 8 Afr Dn, fr Dn veld, oogu w field (I) The open grass country, mostly treeless, of S Africa veld(t)-schoen, n [1 vélt, félt, shóon, 2 velt, félt, fún] 8 Afr Dn See prec & shoe (I) Shoes made of untanned hide, as used in S. Africa by natives and Boer farmers &c velite, n [1 vélít, 2 vílast], fr Lat vélit, stem of vélēs, cogn w vélaz, 'swift', see velocity (Rom antiq) Light-armed soldier, skirmisher vellicity, n [1 vélšit, 2 velitš], fr Med Lat vellicitat (em), vellicitas, fr Lat velle, 'to will, wish', see voluntary (I), op also will (I) (philos) Imperfect volition, the weakest form of desire vellicate, vb trans & intrans [1 vélíkat; 2 vélíkat], fr Lat vellicat (um), P P type of vellicare, freq of velle, 'to pluck, twitch, to tear, pull off', earlier vél-, fr base vel-, vol-* &c, 'to tear, break', seen also in vulture, vulnerable, & in Lat vellus, 'sheepskin with wool left on', see villus From another grade of the same base is Lat lana for volana*, 'wool', see laniferous, & further, O E wull, see wool (I) (rare) To twitch, to contract, move, convulsively or spasmodically vellication, n [1 vélíkáshun, 2 vélíkošun] Prec & -ion, (med) A spasmodic, convulsive local twitching of muscular tissue, esp of the face vellum, n [1 vélum, 2 vélém] Earlier velym, velim, fr O Fr velin, w change of final n to m, as in venom, Mod Fr velin, fr vel, 'veal', or fr Lat vitulinus, 'belonging to a calf', vitulus, see veal, the L Lat name for 'vellum' was pellis vitulina A fine calf-skin parchment, used for MSS or for binding velocipede, n [1 vélómpéd, 2 véláspíd] Fr, modern concoction fr Lat vélōci-, vélōx, 'swift', see velocity, & ped (em), pēs, 'foot', see pedal (I) Name formerly given to, a kind of hobby horse on wheels propelled by the rider's feet touching, and pushing off from, the ground, b the earliest form of bicycle, a bone shaker velocity, n [1 vélóšit, 2 vílasti], fr Fr velocité, fr Lat vélōcitāt (em), vélōcitās, 'swiftness', fr vélōci, vélōx, 'swift', for wegelo*, fr the base of vehere, 'to carry', &c, see vehicle 1 A swiftness, speed, rapidity of motion darted off with the velocity of a bird, what limit is there to an aeroplane's velocity?, b quickness, rapidity of action or of events the world was rushed into war with startling velocity 2 Rate of motion, rapidity relative to time at a velocity of 100 miles per hour, muzzle velocity, that of projectile on leaving the gun or rifle velours, n [1 vélór, 2 vélús] Fr, O Fr velours, velous, fr Lat villōsus, 'shaggy', see velvet a A material with a soft pile like that of velvet, b hat of this material velum, n, pl vela [1 vēlum, a, 2 vila(m)] Lat, 'sail, piece of cloth, curtain, veil', etymol disputed, prob for velclom*, fr base weg*, 'to weave', op Ir figim, 'I weave', O H G wickhan, 'woollen yarn for spinning', see further under wick (of candle) 1 (anat) The soft palate 2 a (bot) A membranous covering seen in certain fungi, b (zool) a membranous organ in jelly fish, molluscs & velure, n [1 vēlūr, 2 vēljūs], fr O Fr See velours A variant of velours, q v velvet (I), n [1 vēlvēt, 2 vēlvēt] A Fr, fr L or Med Lat vel(e)lūm, apparently for veluētum*, a variant form of vellūm, whence Ital velluto, fr Lat villus, 'shaggy, rough hair', cogn w vellus, 'fleece of wool', op Lat vellere, 'to pluck', see vellicate The Lat adj villōsus, 'shaggy', gave O Fr velours, later velours, 'velvet', see velours 1 A textile, properly of silk or of silk on a cotton or linen backing, with a thick, close, soft pile or nap on one side 2 The soft, velvety covering of newly grown antlers of deer 3 Any soft surface resembling velvet in touch or appearance, as on a peach, cheek &c, or of mossy stone, tree trunk &c, Phr to be on velvet, to be in a safe or advantageous position, esp in money matters, speak in betting or speculation, so that whatever happens one may win but cannot lose velvet (II), adj, fr prec 1 Made of velvet, Phr iron hand in the velvet glove, sternness, force, ruthlessness, concealed by a suave, courteous manner 2 Like, resembling, velvet, to the touch or in appearance, soft, velvety, often in names of plants, animals &c velvet ant, moss, sponge &c velveteen, n [1 vēlvētēn, 2 vēlvētīn], fr Fr velveteine velvet & -een, variant of -ine, indicating an imitation or derivative An imitation velvet made of cotton, velveteene, breeches made of this, often worn by gamekeepers, hence, a gamekeeper velvety, edj [1 vēlvētī, 2 vēlvētī] velvet (I) & -y Like velvet, having the texture of velvet to the touch, smooth and non-astringent to the taste a velvety wine

venal, adj [1 vēnāl, 2 vīnāl] Through O Fr or directly fr Lat vēnālis, 'for sale, purchasable, that can be bought or bribed', fr vēnūm, also vēnus, for venn*, 'sale', op Sort cogn venal, 'purchase price', venam, 'reward', further Gk ōnos for ōdenos*, 'price' 1 (of persons) Capable of being bought or bribed, influenced by hope of reward, mercenary, corrupt a venal judge, politician, a venal police force, the venal races of the Levant &c 2 (of actions and motives) Controlled, influenced, by hope of gain or reward, springing from, instigated by, corrupt, mercenary, motives venality, n [1 vēnālītī, 2 vīnālītī], fr Fr venalité, fr L Lat vēnālitas (em), see venal & -ity Quality of being venal, mercenary behaviour venally, adv [1 vēnālī, 2 vīnālī] venal & -ly In a venal manner, corruptly venatio, adj [1 vēnātīk, 2 vīnātīk], fr Lat venaticus, fr venari, 'to hunt', see venery (I) & venison (rare, archaic) Pertaining to the chase or hunting venation, n [1 vēnāshun, 2 vīnāshun], fr Lat vēna, see vein & -ation The arrangement or system of veins in a leaf or insect's wing vend vb trans [1 vēnd, 2 vēnd], fr O Fr vendre, fr Lat vendere, 'to sell', fr vēnum dare, 'to offer for sale', fr venum, 'price, sale', see venal & dare, 'to give, offer', see date (I), donation To sell or offer for sale, chiefly a legal term, or used in sense of to peddle (small wares) vendace, n [1 vēndās, 2 vēndēs] Apparently fr O Fr vendace, Mod Fr vandoise, 'dace', etymol doubtful A small freshwater fish, genus Coregonus, of some Scottish and English lakes

Vendean, adj & n [1 vēndēan, 2 vēndēan], fr Fr Vendéen, fr Vendée, department in N W

France 1 adj Of La Vendée, esp in connexion with the struggle there against the Revolution in 1793 2 n An inhabitant of La Vendée, participant in the struggle against the Revolution vendee, n [1 vēndē, 2 vēndī] vond & -ee (legal) Person to whom anything is sold, purchaser

Vendémiaire, n [1 vāhndēmīār, 2 vādemīār] Fr, fr Lat vindemia, 'vintage', see vintage The first month, Sept 22nd to Oct 21st, of the French Revolutionary calendar vender, n [1 vēndēr, 2 vēnds] vend & -er One who vends, sells, or offers to sell, op vendor vendetta, n [1 vēndēta, 2 vēndēta] Ital, 'revenge', fr Lat vindicta, see vindictive A blood feud, family vengeance, esp as practised through generations, as in Corsica vendibility, n [1 vēndībilitī, 2 vēndībilitī] See next word & -ity Quality of being vendible or salable vendible, adj [1 vēndībīl, 2 vēndībīl], fr Lat vendibilis, see vend & -ible Salable vendar, n [1 vēndēr, 2 vēnds] vond & -or One who sells or offers for sale, vender, esp (legal) the seller of real property the law of vendar and purchase, contrasted with vendee veneer (I), vb trans [1 vēnēr, 2 vēr] Earlier faneer, fineer, fr Germ furniren, 'to unlay, veneer', lit 'to furnish with pieces of unlay', fr Fr fournir, 'to furnish', itself fr O H G, see furnish 1 To cover, overlay, (object of common wood) with a thin sheet of fine wood, or (a piece of fine wood) with a thin sheet of wood of same kind, but of better grain and texture, also, similarly, to overlay (wood, stone &c) with a thin plate of ivory, marble, mother of pearl &c 2 (fig) 'to attempt to conceal beneath a specious appearance of refinement and polish something which is essentially unreined and coarse his innate vulgarity was veneered with an affectation of ease and gentility veneer (II), n, fr prec 1 (cabinet making) A thin plate or layer of wood of fine grain and texture, laid and glued over wood of inferior quality and appearance, so as to produce the impression that the wood so treated is of fine quality throughout 2 (fig) A superficial appearance of some quality, mode of behaviour &c, assumed as being superior to that which it is designed to hide, a specious gloss a thin veneer of education, good breeding, respectability &c, a Scotch accent with a veneer of cockney veneerer, n [1 vēnērīng, 2 vērārīng] veneer (I) & -ing 1 Process of applying veneer to wood 2 Material used as veneer venenate, vb trans [1 vēnēnat, 2 vēnēnat], fr Lat venenat (um), P P type of venenare, 'to infect with poison', fr venenum, 'poison', see venom (rare, med) To poison, infect with poisonous substance venenation, n [1 vēnēnāshun, 2 vēnēnāshun] Prec & -ion Poisoning venorability, n [1 vēnērābilitī, 2 vērārābilitī], fr L Med. Lat venerabilitas (em), see next word & -ity Quality of being venerable venerable, adj [1 vēnērābl, 2 vērārābl], fr O Fr, fr Lat venerabilis, fr venerari, see venerate, & -able 1 a (of persons) Worthy of being venerated, deserving honour and respect, esp b (of persons and things) deserving respect and veneration as having lived long and honourably, or having lasted for a very long time the venerable commander, prelate &c, also a venerable building, a venerable oak &c Thus venerable comes to mean 'old', but usually always with the implication of 'deserving respect' venerable age, antiquity 2 Specif, an ecclesiastical title, a in the Anglican Church, for an archdeacon the Venble Archdeacon Brown &c, b in Roman Catholic Church, for one who has passed the first stage of canonization, prior to beatification, the Venerable Bede (traditional title) 3 (of things) Held in great honour and esteem for historical, religious associations &c venerable ruins &c venerableness, n Prec & -ness Venerability venerably, adv See prec & -ly In a venerable manner venerate, vb trans [1 vēnērāt, 2 vērārēt], fr Lat venerāt (um), P P type of venerari, 'to reverence, worship, venerate', fr vener, stem of venus, 'love, desire', see Venus 1 To reverence, revere, to regard with feelings of profound respect 2 To worship, adore veneration, n [1 vēnērāshun, 2 vērārēshun], fr Lat venerāshōn (em), see prec & -ion Act of venerating, deep respect and reverence accorded to persons, objects, qualities, or actions venerator, n [1 vēnērāter, 2 vērārēter] Lat, see venerate & -or One who venerates or reverences venerual, adj [1 vēnērēal, 2 vērārēal], fr Lat venereus, fr vener, stem of venus, 'sexual love, desire', see Venus, & -al Pertaining, due, to sexual intercourse, esp venerual diseases, as syphilis, gonorrhoea &c venery (I), n [1 vēnērī, 2 vērārī], fr O Fr venerie, fr vener, 'to hunt', fr Lat vēnārī, 'to hunt, to seek after, pursue', cogn w Sort vet, 'follows after', more remotely w O H G wenda, 'fodder, pasture, pasture-ground, the chase', fr base wēt*, wa*, & -ery (archaic) Hunting, the chase learned in all the arts of venery, 'a book of venery' venery (II), n, fr Lat vener, stem of venus, 'sexual love, desire', see Venus (archaic) Sexual love, indulgence in sexual gratification venesection, n [1 vēnēsēkshun, 2 vīnēsēkshun], fr Med Lat venae sectio, 'cutting of a vein', see vein (I) & section (I) (med) The opening of a vein to let blood, blood letting, as formerly practised as a remedy, phlebotomy

Venetian, adj & n [1 vēnēshān, 2 vīnēshān], fr Med Lat Venetianus, fr Venetia, Venice, 1 adj Pertaining to, made in, used in, Venice Venetian glass, from Murano; Venetian blind, one made of movable slats of wood, Venetian mast, spirally painted pole used in street decorations 2 n Inhabitant, native, of Venice vengeance, n [1 vēnjans, 2 vēndžans] M E, fr O Fr, fr venge, 'to avenge', & -ance, fr Lat vindicare, see vindicate 1 The infliction of punishment or execution of retribution for wrong done or received, often with sense of vindictive punishment 'Vengeance is mine, I will repay' (Rom xii 19) Phr to take vengeance upon, exact retribution from 2 An instance of this a fearful vengeance Phr (colloq) with a vengeance, to a high degree, to an extreme extent, very thoroughly he laid about him with a vengeance vengeful, adj [1 vēnjīf, 2 vēndžīf], fr obs venge, 'to avenge', see prec, & -ful Vindictive, revengful vengefully, adv Prec & -ly Revengfully, vindictively vengefulness, n See prec & -ness Revengefulness, vindictiveness venial, edj [1 vēnīal, 2 vīnīal] O Fr, fr L Lat venialis, 'gracious, pardonable, venial', fr Lat venia, 'grace, kindness, pardon, mercy', fr base seen in venerato & Venus a Pardonable, excusable, trivial, unimportant a venial error, such childish, venial faults, b (theol) entitled to remission of punishment and to forgiveness venial sin, contrasted with mortal sin veniality, n [1 vēnīalitī, 2 vīnīalitī] See prec & -ity Quality of being venial, pardonable, or excusable venially, adv [1 vēnīālī, 2 vīnīālī] venial & -ly In a venial manner venure facias, n [1 vēnūrē fāshās, 2 vīnūrē fāshās] Lat, 'cause, make, to come' (legal hist) Name of a judicial writ, now obsolete, issued to a sheriff ordering him to summon certain persons as jurors venison, n [1 vénzun, 2 vénz(ə)n], vulgarly [venizan], fr O Fr veneson, venesson, Mod Fr venaison, fr Lat venātiō(-em), 'hunting, the chase', fr venārī, 'to hunt', see venery (I) The flesh of deer, as food, formerly applied to the flesh of various other animals, such as the hoar &c, killed in the chase

Venite, n [1 venitā, 2 vinatī] Lat, 'come ye', 2nd pers pl imperat of venire, 'to come', see venue, & cp event & come a Name of the ninety-fifth psalm, 'O come, let us sing unto the Lord', in Lat 'Venite, exultemus Domino', esp as the Canticle sung at Morning Prayer before the Psalms for the day, b a musical setting for this venom, n [1 vénun, 2 vénam] ME venym, venum, fr O Fr venim, venim, fr Lat venēnum, 'a drug, potion, a poisonous drug &c, poison', the suggestion that this is for venenom*, & orig meant 'a love potion', fr Venus, is now considered improbable No convincing etymol is offered 1 a The poisonous fluid secreted from glands in certain reptiles, such as snakes, scorpions, and some insects, such as wasps, bees &c, injected by bite or sting, b (now rare) any poison or poisonous thing 2 (fig) Malignity, spite, malice, venomous conduct, language &c the venom of malignant tongues, she cast a look of venom at him &c venomed, adj [1 vénmd, 2 vénamd] Prec & -ed Poisoned, charged with, full of, venom, often in fig sense a venomed tongue &c, more usually evenomed venomous, adj [1 vénunus, 2 vénaməs] ME venimous, fr O Fr venimeus, fr Lat venēdus, see venom & -ous 1 Secreting poison, infecting with poison venomous snakes &c 2 (fig) Full of venom or malice, malignant, spiteful, maleficent a venomous opponent, she had a venomous tongue, these venomous attacks on his character venomously, adv Prec & -ly In a venomous manner, malignantly venomousness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being venomous venose, adj [1 vénōs, 2 vínōs], fr Lat venēdus, 'full of veins', fr vēna, see vein, & -ose, -ous (bot) Full of veins, veined, veiny, op venous venosity, n [1 vénōsiti, 2 vínōsiti] Prec & -ity 1 Quality, state, of being venose or veined 2 Quality of being venous, a (of organs &c) presence, excess, of venous, as opposed to arterial, blood, b (of arterial blood) admixture of venous blood venous, adj [1 vénus, 2 vínas], fr Lat venēdus, see venose 1 (physiol) Pertaining to, contained in, the veins, distinguished from arterial venous blood 2 (bot) Venose, full of veins, veiny vent (I), n [1 vent, 2 vent] ME vent, fr O Fr fontē, 'clef, slit, oranny', fr fendere, 'to cleave, split', fr Lat findere, fiss (um), see fissile, to this word many of the meanings of vent (II) are often referred, the O E D keeps them entirely separate 1 A slit or opening in a garment, common in the slashed garments of the 15th and 16th cents, now only as a tailor's term for the slit at the back of a coat 2 (obs or hist) Opening or oriel in a battlemented wall vent (II), n, fr O Fr vent, fr Lat ventus, 'wind', see ventilate & wind (I), or fr or influenced by O Fr event, Fr event, 'a breaking, hursting forth', fr (s)venter, 'to break forth', fr es-, e-, ex-, & vent, 'wind', as above 1 Aperture, hole, outlet, passage, in anything, which allows air, liquid &c to escape, or admits air, as the vent of a cask, of a fire arm &c, a vent in the crater of volcano &c, specif, the anal or cloacal opening of birds, reptiles, and fishes 2 Means of exit, outlet, power, opportunity to escape, esp in Phr a to find (a) vent for (in material or non-material senses) the enclosed steam must find a vent or burst the boiler, he found some vent for his emotion in violent exercise, bad language &c, b to give vent to, to give means of escape to, provide outlet for (usually in non material sense), to express, give utterance to to give vent to one's anger &c 3 Act of an otter in coming to the surface to breathe vent (III), vb trans & intrans In sense 1, fr O Fr venter, other senses fr n, see vent (II) A trans 1 To provide a vent for, to make a vent in, specif, to vent a cask, to bore through the wooden bung in the top so as to allow gas to escape 2 To give vent to, to discharge, allow to escape the chimneys vented their smoke in great clouds, to vent one's wrath, indignation, high spirits B intrans Specif (of a hunted otter), to come to surface of water in order to breathe vent (IV), n, fr Fr vente, 'sale', fr vendre, 'to sell', see vend (archaic or obs) Market, opening, for sale of goods, in such Phr as to find a vent for &c, it is difficult to distinguish from same phrase in vent (II) ventage, n [1 véntū, 2 véntidž] vent (II) & -age 1 A means of escape for air, gas, liquid &c, b means of relief to the emotions Phr to give ventage to anger, indignation, rage &c 2 A finger-hole in a musical wind instrument ventail, n [1 véntāl, 2 véntel] O Fr ventale, fr vent, 'wind', see ventilate (hist) The lower movable part of the visor of a helmet venter, n [1 vénter, 2 véntə] Lat, 'belly, womb', for vent lro*, fr base wened-*, wh is explained by some as a nasalized form of that seen in Scit utaram, 'belly', & Lat uterus, see uterus 1 (anat) The abdominal cavity in insects and other invertebrate animals 2 (law, O Fr in origin) Womb, hence (by transf) mother, as in such Phr as born of a second venter &c vent-hole, n vent (II) & hole Hole, aperture, for passage of air, light, smoke, gas &c ventiduct, n [1 véntidukt, 2 véntidakt], fr Lat venti, ventus, 'wind', see ventilate & duct (archit) A pipe or other passage used for passage of air in ventilating a building, room &c ventilate, vb trans [1 véntilāt, 2 véntilēt], fr Lat ventilāt (um), PP type of ventilāre, 'to brandish in the air, to fan, winnow, to set in motion, to agitate', fr ventus, 'wind', op W guynē, Bret guent, Aryan type awe*, 'to blow', op Gk aēmō for awēmō*, 'I blow', & see air & wind (I) 1 To cause fresh air to circulate in (a room, building, mine &c), to render (the air of a room &c) fresh and cool by adopting various means for the withdrawal or escape of vitiated, and the continual supply of fresh air 2 To expose (blood) to, and purify by, the free action of oxygen, to aerate 3 (fig) To allow, cause, to become known, and to be freely and widely discussed, to submit for investigation to ventilate a grievance, the new policy has now been freely ventilated ventilation, n [1 véntilāshun, 2 véntilēishun], fr Lat ventilātiō(-em), see prec & -ion 1 A Admission, free circulation, of fresh air into an enclosed space or chamber, b state of room &c in relation to the free circulation of fresh air the ventilation of the crowded room was appalling, c means of ventilating, apparatus adopted for ventilating the ventilation of the mine broke down 2 Free discussion of a subject, public examination and debate a full ventilation of grievances ventilative, adj [1 véntilativ, 2 véntilativ] ventilate & -ive Pertaining to, tending to produce or facilitate, ventilation ventilator, n [1 véntilātor, 2 véntilētor] ventilate & -or, Lat ventilātor only in sense of 'one who winnows grain' 1 Apparatus used in drawing out exhausted or stagnant, and admitting fresh, cool, air to room, building, mine &c 2 One who ventilates or submits a subject &c for examination and discussion he was a great ventilator of grievances by letters to the daily press ventless, adj [1 véntiles, 2 véntilis] vent (II) & -less Having no vent or outlet

Ventōse, n [1 vahntōz, 2 vātōuz], fr Lat ventōsus, 'windy', fr ventus, 'wind', see ventilate Sixth month of the French Revolutionary calendar, from Feb 19th to Mar 20th vent-peg, n vent (II) & peg A small peg of wood driven into the vent-hole of a cask or barrel, used to allow escape of excess of gas from the liquor, and to permit enough air to enter for the liquor to be drawn off through the tap ventral, adj [1 véntral, 2 véntral], Fr, fr Lat ventralis, fr venter, 'belly', see venter, & -al Pertaining to the belly or abdominal region, esp situated on the under side or that opposite the back, op dorsal, ventral fin, of fish, one situated on the under side of the body behind the pectoral fins ventrally, adv Prec & -ly In a ventral position or direction ventri-, pref Form of Lat venter, 'belly', used in compounds, see venter ventricle, n [1 véntrikul, 2 véntrikul], fr Fr ventricule, or directly fr Lat ventriculus, dimin of venter A cavity in an organ of the body, as in the brain or larynx, specif, one of the two chambers of the heart, receiving the blood from the auricles and discharging it into the arteries ventricular, adj [1 véntrikulār, 2 véntrikulār] Prec & -ar Pertaining to, affecting, a ventricle, as of the brain or heart ventriloquial, adj [1 véntrikwial, 2 véntrikwial], fr Lat ventriloquus, lit 'one who speaks from his belly, ventriloquist', ventriloquy & -al Pertaining to, produced by, ventriloquism the ventriloquial art, ventriloquial effects ventriloquially, adv Prec & -ly By means of ventriloquism ventriloquism, n [1 véntrikwizim, 2 véntrikwizim] ventriloquy & -ism Art of, skill in, so modifying the voice in speaking, or producing sounds with the vocal organs, that the voice, or the sound made, appears to come from a place remote from, or a person other than, the actual speaker ventriloquist, n [1 véntrikwist, 2 véntrikwist] ventriloquy & -ist One who is skilled in ventriloquism, esp a professional entertainer in this art ventriloquize, vb intrans & trans [1 véntrikwiz, 2 véntrikwiz] ventriloquy & -ize a intrans. To practise ventriloquy, b trans, to utter, speak, ventriloqually ventriloquy, n [1 véntrikw, 2 véntrikw], fr Fr ventriloque, fr Med Lat ventriloquium, see ventri-, & base loqu, 'to speak', see loquacious, & -y Ventriloquism ventripotent, adj [1 véntripotent, 2 véntripotent] Fr See ventri- & potent a Big-bellied, b having a large capacity or appetite for food ventro-, pref Form of venter, 'belly', in compounds, as ventro dorsal, pertaining to, extending from, the ventral and dorsal parts of the body, ventro lateral, pertaining to the ventral and lateral parts of the body venture (I), n [1 vénchur, 2 véntə] Aphetic form of earlier ME aventure, fr O Fr, fr L Lat adventūra, 'adventure', q v, formed as if fem of adventurus, Fut Part of Lat advenire, 'to come to, happen', fr ad- & venire, 'to come', see venue 1 Chance, fortune, luck, event, not to be calculated, contingency, rare or archaic, except in Phr at a venture, at random, without foreseeing or calculating the results 2 A Enterprize, undertaking, of a hazardous nature, some course of action attended by risk or danger of loss, b specif, a financial or commercial speculation a bold venture is often successful, a lucky, profitable, disastrous, venture venture (II), vb trans & intrans See prec A trans 1 To expose to risk or danger, to run the chance of losing, to risk, hazard, to venture one's life, happiness, on a doubtful enterprise, (also reflex) venture oneself 2 To stake, risk, for monetary or other gain to venture £1000, all one's wealth &c, to venture a fortune on a single chance. Proverbial Phr nothing venture, nothing have, no gain without some risk 3 To undertake the risk of, dare to go &c will you venture a flight in an aeroplane, a climb down these rocks?; I won't venture a step further 4 To put forward, advance, express, in a tentative, diffident, undogmatic manner to venture an opinion, criticism &c B intrans 1 Also ventures on, upon, a to dare, be bold enough, to go; to risk oneself by going I should not venture too near the edge if I were you, to venture on a stormy sea, b to take the risk of (doing something) I will you venture on another glass of wine? 2 To presume, to make so bold as, go so far as I venture to assert that &c, I should not venture to offer an opinion, in polite formulae expressing diffidence if I might venture to make a remark, may I venture to ask your opinion?

venturer, n [1 vénohureur, 2 véntjara] Preo & -er One who ventures, an adventurer, used esp of the old 16th and 17th trading companies the Merchant Venturers of Bristol venturesome, adj [1 vénohureum, 2 véntjaraum] venture (I) & -some a (of persons) Daring, foolhardy, rash, b (of actions &c) involving risk or danger, rash, hazardous, dangerous venturesomely, adv Preo & -ly In a venturesome manner venturesomeness, n See preo & -ness State, quality, of being venturesome venue, n [1 vénu, 2 vénuj] Fr, 'arrival, coming', fem of venu, PP of venir, 'to come', fr Lat venire, 'to come', fr gwenire*, earlier gwenira*, Aryan base g^wem*, on Sert gam, 'to come, go', Gk baínein, see basin, Goth giman, O E cuman, earlier cūman*, see come a (law) The locality or place to which a jury is summoned for the trial of a case, originally in the neighbourhood where the cause of action has arisen or a crime been committed Phr to change the venue, to alter the place of trial, remove it to another county, to Central Criminal Court &c, b (popular) meeting place

Venus, n [1 vénu, 2 véna] Lat venus, veners, desire, sexual love, beauty', (asp) 'the goddess of beauty and love', the same base is seen in venerate, also in O E wynn, 'joy, delight', see winnome, in O E wygan, 'to desire, wish', see wish (I) 1 (mythol) The Roman, Latin, goddess of beauty and growth, later identified with the Greek Aphrodite, goddess of sexual love, Mount of Venus (palmystry), protuberance on the palm, at base of the thumb 2 (astron) The second of the major planets in order from the sun, appearing as the evening and morning star, Hesperus and Lucifer 3 a A statue, picture of the goddess the Venus de Milo, b a beautiful woman Phr poet's Venus, a beautiful, petite woman, of exquisite form and features

Venus's comb, n a A kind of marine shell fish with spiny edges, b a plant, akin to the parsley, with fruit toothed like a comb

Venus's flower-basket, n A kind of sponge, shaped like a tube of delicate network, found in East Indian waters

Venus's fly-trap, n An insectivorous plant, Dionaea muscipula, of the Carolina coast, N America cultivated as a curiosity

Venus's slipper, n Lady's slipper, the wild orchid, Cypripedium, also the garden calceolaria veracious, adj [1 verášus, 2 verášes] fr Lat verax, stem of verax, 'truthful, speaking the truth', fr verus, 'true', fr veros*, 'that which is', fr the Aryan base wes*, 'to be', see wae, cogn w O H G wā, 'true', for wēs*, see also verity & very (I) For similar development of meaning of sooth. 1 (of person &c) Truthful, observant of the truth, habitually speaking the truth, trustworthy a veracious witness &c 2 (of statement &c) Founded on the truth or on fact, true, to be believed a veracious narrative, veracious evidence veraciously, adv Preo & -ly In a veracious manner veraciousness, n See preo & -ness Veracity veracity, n [1 verášiti, 2 verášiti] fr Fr vérité See veracious & -ity a Quality of habitually speaking the truth, truthfulness his veracity is unquestioned, b agreement with the facts or the truth, truth one doubts the veracity of such statements veranda(h), n [1 verándá, 2 verándá] Introduced in 18th cent fr India & taken to be a native word, it represents Port & Span varanda, 'railing, balustrade, balcony', prob fr vara, 'rod, pole', fr Lat vāra, 'forked pole on which fishing nets are spread' Covered space with a roof and pavement, in immediate proximity to the wall of a house, some windows of which open on to it, the front and sides are open or partially glazed, and the roof is supported at the back by the house wall and in front by pillars veratrum, veratrine, n [1 veráštria, -trín, 2 veráštria, -trín] fr Lat veratrum, 'hellebore' A bitter, poisonous alkaloid obtained from the root of various kinds of hellebore, used externally in medicine, in an ointment for the relief of neuralgia and rheumatism verb, n [1 vérb, 2 vāb] fr Fr verbe, fr Lat verbum, 'word', cogn w O E word, see word, fr base werē*, 'to speak', whence also Gk éirō, 'I say', fr werō*, & rhēlōr, 'orator', for werlōr*, see rhetoric & word; Sert iralam, 'order, command, law' (gram) The part of speech which expresses existence or action and affirms or predicates that a person or thing is, does, or suffers something verbal, adj [1 vérl; 2 vābl] Fr, fr L Lat verbalis, see preo & -al 1 Pertaining to, concerned with, words, expressed in, or composed of, words verbal felicities, mistakes, verbal wit, a good verbal memory, one retentive of the exact words, or wording of something heard or read, verbal inspiration, the direct influence of God assumed to have inspired every actual word of the Holy Scriptures 2 Dealing, concerned, with the words only, not with the substance a purely verbal criticism, a verbal pedantry, the difference between the two accounts is merely verbal 3 Literal, word for word a verbal translation 4 Oral, by word of mouth, spoken, not embodied in a written document a verbal contract, a verbal message will suffice 5 (gram) Pertaining to, derived from, a verb verbal inflections, verbal nouns and adjectives verbalism, n [1 vérbalizm, 2 vābelizm] Preo & -ism 1 Expression in words, that which is expressed in words, use, choice, of words 2 Undue attention to the mere words, verbal criticism and pedantry verbalist, n [1 verbalist, 2 vābelist] verbal & -ist One given too much to verbalism, a verbal critic verbalization, n [1 vérbalizášun, 2 vābalizášun] See next word & -ation a Act of verbalizing, b state of being verbalized verbalize, v trans [1 vérbaliz, 2 vābaliz] verbal & -ize a To convert into a verb, b to put into words verbally, adv [1 vérbali, 2 vābali] verbal & -ly By word of mouth, by means of, in, uttered words, contrasted with in writing verbascum, n [1 vérbaskum, 2 vābaskum] Lat, 'mullein' (bot) A genus of herbaceous plants, the mulleins, with tall spikes of clustered yellow, white, or purple flowers verbatim, adv, adj, & n [1 verášim, 2 vābášim] Lat, fr verbum, 'word', see verb 1 adv Word for word, in exactly the same words, literally to report a speech, translate a book, verbatim 2 adj Following words exactly, reporting word for word a verbatim report, translation 3 n. A verbatim report verberna, n [1 verbéna, 2 vóbina] Lat, usually in pl verbénæ, 'leaves and branches of laurel, myrtle, olive' &c, used in sacred ceremonies', allied to verber, usually in pl verbera, 'rods', op reverberate, cogn w Gk rhábdos, 'rod', for urabdos*, & hraplein, 'to sew, clutch', op also warp (I), & see vervain (bot) A genus of herbaceous plants, the vervains, esp several cultivated species with blue, white, crimson, purple, or striped flowers, lemon scented verbena with fragrant leaves is not a true verbena but belongs to the genus Lippia verbiage, n [1 vérhuj, 2 vābúž] Fr, fr verbe, see verb, & -age a The use of too many, of unnecessary, words, verbosity, prolixity, circumlocution, b (deprecatory) actual words used, choice of words verbose, adj [1 vérbés, 2 vābés] fr Lat verbosus, fr verbum, 'word', see verb & -ose a (of speakers, writers) Using a large, unnecessary, number of words, prolix, long-winded, b (of style, verbal expression) characterized by too many words, overloaded with words, wordy verbosely, adv Preo & -ly In a verbose manner verboseness, n See preo & -ness Verbosity verbosity, n [1 vérbómta, 2 vābésiti] fr Fr verbosité, see verbose & -ity Quality of being verbose, prolixity, wordiness, verbose ness verb sap, Phr [1 vérb sáp, 2 vāb sáp], abbr fr Lat phr verbum sat est sapientis 'A word is enough for the wise' verdancy, n [1 vérdana, 2 vādena] See verdant & -ancy Quality, state, of being verdant, greenness, a (lit) the verdancy of the fields and woods, b (fig) greenness, rawness, crudity, immaturity of knowledge, character, judgement, innocence, simplicity, arising from inexperience with the rashness typical of his youthful verdancy verdant, adj [1 vérdant, 2 vādent] Not till 16th cent, formed w adjectival suff -ant, fr O Fr verd, Mod Fr vert, 'green', op verdure, used much earlier, O Fr had verdisant, verdeant, verdoyant, Pres Part, fr verdis, 'to become green', ultimately fr Lat viridis, 'green, fresh, young', see vert (I) 1 Green, of the colour of fresh, young grass or foliage, covered with green, growing herbage the verdant grass, trees, leaves, verdant lawns, a smiling, verdant landscape 2 Youthful, inexperienced, unsophisticated, simply innocent in his verdant youth verd-antique, n [1 vārd anték, 2 vārd ántík] Fr, fr earlier verd, now vert, 'green', see preo, & antique a A kind of serpentine marble mottled or veined with green, also a green variety of porphyry, b the green incrustation or patina, the result of long exposure to the air, seen on ancient bronzes &c verdantly, adv [1 vérdanth, 2 vādentli] verdant & -ly In a verdant green, freshly, youthfully verderer, n [1 vérderer, 2 vādere] A-Fr, also verder, fr Fr verd, vert, 'green', see vert (I), the Med Lat word was viridarius, fr Lat viridis, 'green' (legal hist) An official of the king's forests who sees to the maintenance of the vert, i.e the green wood, the protection of the venison or deer therein and punishment of all trespassers &c verdict, n [1 vérdikt, 2 vādikt] M E verdit, fr A Fr verdit, O Fr voirdit, fr Lat verē dictum, 'truly said', in Med Lat verēdictum, 'verdict', fr verē, 'truly', fr verus, 'true', see veracious, very (I), & dictum, PP of dicere, 'to say', see dictation 1 The finding or decision of a jury given to a judge on an issue of fact in any cause, civil or criminal, submitted to them a verdict for the plaintiff, defendant, of guilty or not guilty, open verdict &c 2 A decision, judgement, opinion, pronounced on anything a popular verdict is favour of the government, my verdict differs from yours in this matter verdigris, n [1 vèrdigrès, 2 vâdigris] M E verdegree, fr O Fr vert de Grece, later vert de gris, lit 'green of Greece', in Med. Lat viride grecum, 'Greek green', fr vert 'green', see vert (1) The second element is popularly associated w the word grease a The green or greenish-blue deposit or incrustation, forming on copper or brass vessels &c as a rust, b (chem) a poisonous blue or green acetate of copper, obtained by the action of acetic acid on copper, employed as a pigment and mordant in dyeing &c verdigrised, adj [1 vèrdigrèst, 2 vâdigris] Prece & -ed Coated, covered, with verdigris verdure, n [1 vèrjûr, 2 vâdjûr; 2 vâdjû, vâdjû] Fr, fr O Fr vert, later vert, 'green', see vert (1), fr Lat viridis, see viridity, & -ure 1 A green vegetation, grass, herbage, b the fresh, green colour of growing herbage &c 2 (fig) Freshness, vigour, as of youth verdured, adj [1 vèrjûrd, 2 vâdjûrd] Prece & -ed Covered with verdure verdureless, adj [1 vèrjûrless, 2 vâdjûrless] See prece & -less Desolate, deprived, of verdure, barren, bare of grass &c verdurous, adj [1 vèrjûrûs, 2 vâdjûrûs] Prece & -ous Abounding in, covered with, verdure, green and fresh verge (1), n [1 vèrj, 2 vâdj] O Fr, 'wand, rod', fr Lat virga, 'twig, rod, wand', see virgate (1) 1 A wand or staff of office, now only used of such as are borne before ecclesiastical dignitaries in processions &c 2 (hist) a Rod or stick placed by the lord of the manor in the hand of a tenant on admission to his land, esp in copyholds, whence Phr tenant by the verge; b the jurisdiction of the Lord Steward of the Household and the area of this jurisdiction, within a certain distance of the royal palace as within the verge, coroner of the verge, the King's Coroner, whose jurisdiction lies within the palace precincts 3 A small rod or spindle as in a watch or linotype machine 4 (now the chief usage) Border, edge, brink, margin, the horizon, a (in phye sense) (1) grass edge of road, garden bed or border, (u) (poet) 'a sail that sails with all we love below the verge' (Tennyson, 'Princess', iv 47), b (fig) a state bordering on one which is specified on the verge of tears, of a collapse, on the verge of war 5 The projecting edge or border of tiles or slates on a roof, hence, verge board, now barge-board, q v verge (II), vb intrans, fr Lat vergere, 'to bend, turn, incline', the meaning has prob been influenced by prece word. The base is vereg-* &c, 'to bend, turn, twist', & appears also in Sort vargati, 'turns', vyrnad, 'crooked', Lith verziù, 'to snare', & further in many Gmc words, esp wrench, wrinkle, wrong Another form of the base uer-*, 'to twist', appears in vermin-, & worm 1 To bend, incline, descend, towards or in a certain direction the sun now verging toward the horizon, we were gradually verging nearer the cliff 2 (fig) To be on the verge of, to tend towards, approach, border on, some specified state or condition, chiefly verge on such a remark verges on impertinence, he appears to be verging on insanity, delirium, also verge towards we seem to be verging towards a quarrel verge-board. See barge-board.

verger, n [1 vèrjer, 2 vâdjû] O Fr, fr verge, 'rod, wand', see verge (I), & -er, the Med Lat. word was vargarius a One who bears a verge, or wand or staff of office, as before ecclesiastical dignitaries, b specif, an official attached to a church, who shows worshippers to their seats &c veridical, adj [1. veridiki, 2. veridiki], fr Lat.

veridicus, fr verus, 'true', see veracious & very (I), & dic, stem of dicere, 'to speak, say', see diction Veracious, truthful, corresponding with the facts or real things, esp of various psychical phenomena, as dreams, hallucinations, mediumistic messages &c veridically, adv Prece & -ly. In a veridical manner, veraciously verifiability, n [1 vèrifiabilti, 2 vâdifiabilti] See next word & -ity State, fact, of being verifiable verifiable, adj [1 vèrifiaabl; 2 vâdifiaabl] See verity & -able Capable of being verified, or proved to be true verification, n [1 vèrifikašun, 2 vâdifikašun], fr O Fr verificacion, fr Med. Lat verificatio (um), verificare, see verify, & -fication a Act of verifying, b state of being verified, confirmation of the truth of anything by examination of and comparison with the real facts verify, vb trans [1 vèrfi, 2 vèrfai], fr O Fr verifier, fr Med Lat verificare, fr Lat verus, 'true', see veracious, & -fy 1 To prove, confirm the truth of, to check, ascertain, make sure of, by examination of and comparison with facts to verify one's references, statements, details &c 2 To confirm, fulfil, to bear out, to prove to be true by result events have verified the prophecy, his suspicion was speedily verified 3 (law) To authenticate, prove the authenticity of, by proofs, affidavits &c to verify documents, claims, pleadings &c verily, adv [1 vèrh, 2 vèrh], fr very (I), in orig sense of 'true', & -ly. In very truth, truly, really, without doubt, certainly (now archaic or liter) Verily I say unto you, principally used as a mere emphatic verily this is a strange saying verisimilar, adj [1 vèrismilâr; 2 vèrismilâ] fr Lat. verisimilis & -ar See next word (rare) Having the appearance of truth, likely, probable verisimilitude, n [1 vèrismilitûd, 2 vârismilitûd] fr Lat verisimilitudo (em), fr verus, 'true', see veracious, & similitudo, 'likeness, similitude', see similitude The appearance of truth, apparent probability, likelihood veritable, adj [1 vèntabl; 2 vèntabl] O Fr See verity & -able. True, real, genuine, actual veritably, adv Prece & -ly. In a veritable manner verity, n [1 vènti, 2 vènti], fr O Fr veritas, Mod Fr vérité, fr Lat veritas (em), fr verus, 'true', see veracious, & -ity 1 Quality of being true, truth, truthfulness - a man of unquestioned verity, to doubt the verity of a statement 2 Something which is stated, and is to be accepted as true, a fundamental and essential truth the verities of the Christian religion Phr of a verity, as a truth verjuice, n [1 vèrjûs, 2 vâdjûs], fr O Fr verjus, verjus, fr vert, 'green', see vert (I), & jus, see julce The acid, sour juice of green, unripe grapes or apples, often fig, of sour looks, temper &c vermali, n. & adj [1 vèrmâl; 2 vâmeil] O Fr, see vermillion. 1 n a (pect and liter) Vermilion colour, bright red, of lips &c 'What need a vermilion-tinctured lip for that?' (Milton, 'Comus', 751), b silver gilt, gilded bronze 2 adj Bright, vermillion red in colour vermi-, pref Form used in compounds, fr Lat vermis, 'worm', orig 'that which twists, writhes, turns', fr base uer-*, 'twist, turn', whence a number of words w this sense, esp the nearest cogn worm, also wrench & wring, & perh also work vermicelli, n [1 vèrmisêl, 2 vâmisêl] Ital, pl of vermicello, 'little worm', fr Lat vermiculus, dimin of vermis, 'worm', see prece A paste of wheat-flour &c, of the same kind as macaroni, made into very slender, worm like threads vermicide, n [1 vèrmisid; 2 vâmisid] See vermi- & -cide a A drug, used medicinally, for killing intestinal, parasitic worms, an anthelmintic, b a chemical substance used for killing earth-worms vermicular, adj [1 vèrmikûlar, 2 vâmsikûlar], fr L Lat vermicularis, fr Lat vermiculus, dimin of vermis, see vermi- 1 Shaped like a worm, vermiform, having convolutions or wavy markings, as of a collection of worms

2 Moving like a worm, with sinuous, wavy motion, peristaltic vermiculated, adj [1 vèrmikûlâtéd; 2 vâmsikûlâtéd], fr Lat vermiculatus (um), P.P. of vermiculari, 'to be full of worms; worm eaten', See prece a Worm eaten, b (archit) decorated with deeply set convolutions, of stonework &c, c decorated with, having a wavy pattern of, sinuous lines vermication, n [1 vèrmikûlâšun, 2 vâmsikûlâšun] See prece & -ion 1 A wavy, sinuous, peristaltic movement in the intestines 2 (archit) Vermiculated work vermiform, adj [1 vèrmifôrm, 2 vâmsifôrm] vermi- & -form Having the shape of a worm, specif (anat) vermiform appendix, a small blind tube issuing from the large intestine, the seat of appendicitis, vermiform process, a part of the median lobe of the cerebellum vermifuge, n. [1 vèrmifûj, 2 vâmsifûdj] vermi- & -fuge A medicinal drug which expels intestinal parasitic worms, an anthelmintic vermilion, n, adj, & vb trans [1 vèrmilhon, 2 vâmsilhon], fr O Fr vermilion, vermillion, fr vermeil, 'vermilion', fr Lat vermiculus, dimin of vermis, 'worm', ie 'the cochineal insect', see vermi- & sp crimson 1 n a A brilliant scarlet pigment, obtained from sulphide of mercury in its natural form (annabar) or artificially, (also loosely) less oxide, minium or red lead, b the colour of this pigment, a brilliant scarlet 2 adj Having the colour of vermilion 3 vb. To colour, dye, vermilion (chiefly poet) vermin, n [1 vèrmûn, 2 vâmsûn], fr O Fr vermine, fr Low Lat. vermina*, fr Lat. vermis, 'worm', see vermi- A collective name for, 1 Animals, including some birds, usually small, which are noxious or harmful, esp (1) those which prey upon game, poultry &c, as weasels, hawks, owls &c, also (u) applied to those which are generally destructive, as rats and mice &c 2 Insects, usually wingless or creeping, of disgusting look or habit, esp those which infest dirty houses, clothes &c, or are parasites upon the person, as lice, bugs, fleas &c 3 Pestilent human beings, the criminal and predatory classes of society, low riff raff, the scum or dregs of the population verminate, vb intrans [1 vèrmînât, 2 vâmînât], fr Lat verminatus (um), P.P. type of verminare, fr vermis, see vermi- 1 To be infested with parasitic worms 2 To breed parasitic vermin, such as lice verminous, adj [1 vèrmînûs, 2 vâmînûs], fr vermin & -ous, sp Fr vermineux, Lat verminosus, means 'full of worms, wormy' 1 Infested with insect vermin, eg bugs, fleas, lice &c 2 verminous persons 3 Caused by such parasitic vermin verminous diseases &c 3 (as term of contempt &c) Resembling vermin in character, base, degraded, noxious verminously, adv Prece & -ly In a verminous state or manner vermivorous, n [1 vèrmivôv, 2 vâmvivôv], fr Fr. vermivore, fr Germ vermivôr, O HG vermivôr, 'wormwood' of wh the exact equiv vermivôr occurs in OE The etymol is quite obscure See also wormwood An alcoholic beverage made of white wine fortified with spirit and flavoured with various bitter tonic substances such as wormwood, used, often with gun added, as an aperitif, also as a basis for cocktails, it may be sweet, 'Italian', or dry, 'French vermivôr' vernacular, adj & n. [1 vèrnakûlar, 2 vârnakûlar] Formed w suff -ar, fr Lat. vernaculus culus, 'born in one's house, of slaves, native', fr verna, 'slave born in his master's house', the etymol of this word is much disputed Walde says the connexion w the idea of a 'slave' is secondary, the essential idea being 'common life, community', thus verna was 'one born within the community, or the house, within doors', it derives fr hase 'wer-', 'to shut', see vestibulo, Lat vestibulum, for 'versothibulum', see also aperient 1 adj Pertaining to the country in which one was born, native, indigenous, now only used of language, in following senses, a commonly spoken or used by the people of a country, district &c the vernacular languages of India, a vernacular idiom, b written in such language the vernacular poems of Burns, new papers in vernacular Greek, c using such language Barnes, the vernacular poet of Dorset &c 2 n A vernacular language, or dialect, specif (i) a regional, provincial dialect, as distinguished from the standard, literary language, (ii) (facet) type of language supposed to be popularly current, is strong language, profanity he addressed me jocosely in the vernacular, i.e. swore at me vernacularism, n [1 vernákulárizm, 2 vernákulárizem] See prec & -izm A vernacular usage or idiom vernacularization, n [1 vernákulárizálás, 2 vernákulárizálás] See next word & -ation Act of vernacularizing or making vernacular vernacularize, v trans [1 vernákuláriz, 2 vernákuláriz] vernacular & -ize To make vernacular, adapt to the usage of a vernacular language vernacularly, adv [1 vernákuláril, 2 vernákuláril] vernacular & -ly In a vernacular manner, according to vernacular usage &c, in popular language, profanely vernal, adj [1 vérnál, 2 vernal] fr Lat vernalis, fr vernus, 'pertaining to spring', for vérnus*, formed fr vér, 'spring', fr vēr*, ver, cogn w Gk tar for weas*, 'spring', carvós, 'springlike', for weasarnos*, op Sert vas ardas, O Slav vesna, 'early part of the year, spring', Lith vasar, 'summer', ON var Further attempted identifications of this base are very doubtful 1. Belonging to, occurring, coming, in the spring 'Or night of vernal bloom, or summer's rose' (Milton, 'P L' iii 43), the vernal equinox, the vernal migration of birds 2 Like, appropriate to, suggestive of, the spring vernal weather, the vernal aspect of the woods and fields 3 (fig) Having the freshness and strength natural and suited to the spring time of life the vernal spirits of youth vernant, adj [1 vérnant, 2 vernal] fr Lat vernans, Pres Part of vernare, 'to appear like spring', to flourish, see prec Springlike, coming in spring 'else had the spring Perpetual smiled on earth with vernal flowers' (Milton, 'P L') vernation, n [1 vérnashnn, 2 vernalshnn] fr Lat vernatio (em), 'a snake's sloughing of skin in spring', fr vernal (um), PP type of vernare, 'to be like the spring, to be verdant, to bloom, to grow young', fr vér, 'spring', see prec (bot) The arrangement of the growing leaves within the bud

Verner's Law, n [1 vérnérz lów, 2 vānérz ló] Statement by Karl Verner in 1877 of the precise conditions under which the Aryan consonants p, t, k, appear in Gmc as the voiced sounds b, d, g, instead of as the voiceless f, p, x, as is more common The law may be briefly stated thus When, in Aryan, the accent fell on any other syllable of the word than that immediately preceding the p, t, k, these sounds appear in Gmc as voiced open consonants, usually written b, d, g, in the old languages. The law explains a large number of forms previously regarded as 'exceptions' to Grimm's Law, and may be considered as supplemental to this vernicle, n [1 verníkl, 2 vānīkl] O Fr, for vernicole, veronique, fr Med. Lat veronica, fr

St. Veronica, & -ia, in Gk Bereniké, a popular derivation of the name was fr the hybrid form vera ikonica, fr Gk ikon, 'true image' a The handkerchief or napkin, Lat sudarium, of St. Veronica with which Christ wiped His face as He carried the Cross, and which was miraculously imprinted with His portrait, b a reproduction of the face of Christ, in various forms, esp such as were carried as badges or signs by pilgrims in the Middle Ages vernier, n [1 vérnier, 2 vānér], fr the inventor, P Vernier, a French mathematician (1580-1637) A small, movable, graduated slip of wood, ivory &c, fixed to scale of surveying instrument &c, and used to subdivide divisions of this vernish, n [1 vārnē mártan, 2 verní mártē] Fr vernis, see varnish A fine green varnish with powdered gold, used in the reign of Louis XV by the Martin family of cabinet makers veronal, n [1 véronal, 2 véronál] Germ, invented as a trade-name A powerful soporific drug, in the form of a white, slightly bitter powder

Veronica, n [1 verónika; 2 verónika] Named after St. Veronica, in Gk Bereniké, op vernicle (hot) Genus of herbs or plants with spikes of blue, pink, or white flowers verrucle, n [1 vérnkul, 2 vérnkul] fr Lat verrucula, 'net', fr verrere, 'to sweep', & -cule, cogn w Gk érheín, 'to move with difficulty', OS weran, 'to confuse', & perh w Goth wasraza, OE wyma, 'worse', see worse (entom) Tuft of hairs verruca, n [1 verúka; 2 verúka] Lat verruca, 'excrecence, swelling, wart', for verruca*, cogn w Sert wardman, 'hohlt, point', O Slav vrúhd, 'point, peak', OE weaht, weart, 'wart' (fr weas(u)h*) a (med) A wart on the hand or face, b (zool) wart-like excrecences on the skin of animals verruceous, adj [1 verúkós, 2 verúkous] fr Lat verrucosus, see prec & -ose Warty, covered with warts or wart-like excrecences versatile, adj [1 vérsatíl, 2 vérsatíl] fr Lat versatilis, 'turning round, revolving, versatile', fr vers (um), PP type of vertere, 'to turn', see version 1 (in physical sense, rare, except in bot and zool) Capable of revolving, swinging, or turning freely in different directions, as an anther, joint, musole &c 2 (of character, mental characteristics) a Changeable, inconstant, fickle, capricious versatile affection, disposition &c, b readily and easily applied, adaptable, to different subjects in turn, many-sided a versatile genius, a versatile but erratic mind, (also of persons) having a versatile mind, talented in various ways a versatile worker, actor &c versatily, adv Free & -ly In a versatile manner versatility, n [1 vérsatílité, 2 vérsatílité] Fr versatilité, see versatile & -ity Quality, character, of being versatile, capacity for doing many different things, varied ability, many-sidedness of character, interests, or abilities vers de société, n [1 vár de soniétá, 2 ver de sosiété] Fr Society verse, poetry of a light, easy, witty kind, dealing with familiar social events, habits &c verse (I), n [1 vers, 2 vā] ME, fr O Fr vers, 'division of a poem, stanza', fr Lat versus, 'a furrow, a line, row; a line of poetry, verso', fr vers (um), PP type of vertere, 'to turn', see version 1 a A metrical line containing a certain number of feet or accented syllables, arranged according to a definite metrical rule, a line of poetry as metrically arranged a hexameter, iambic, Alexandrine &c verses, b (pl) a set of such, as translated into Greek or Latin to set Latin, Greek, verses 2 Metrical composition or structure Latin verses, his prose lapses into verse at moments of emotion, free verse, such composition of an irregular nature, untrammelled by rules of prosody &c 3 A division of a poem consisting of several lines, forming in itself a unity, and having a definite structure as regards number of lines and rhymes and the arrangement of the latter 4 Poetry English lyrical verse 5 One of the sections or short divisions into which a chapter of the Bible is divided Phr to give chapter and verses for, give the exact reference, authority &c, for any statement verse (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To express in verse, to make verses about to verse one's emotions, he versed the praises of the conqueror 2 intrans To compose, make, verses laught to verses versed, adj [1 versat, 2 víst], fr Lat versatus, PP of versari, 'to turn, move about in a place, to be circumstanced, situated, in, to be engaged, occupied, in', freq form of vertere, 'to turn', formed fr vers (um), PP, type See version Skilled, practised, experienced, in some subject, art &c versed sine, n, fr Mod Lat versus sinus, PP of vertere, 'to turn', see version, & sino (math) Reversed sine verset, n [1 vérsét, 2 vísat] verse & -et. Short musical prelude, played on an organ before a church service versicle, n [1 véríkl, 2 vísíkl] fr Lat versiculus, 'a little verse', dimin of versus, see verse A short verse, specif, one of the short, liturgical verses, often taken from the Psalms, intoned or read by the officiating minister and answered by the responses of the choir and congregation versicoloured, adj, [1 vérsíklur, 2 vísíklur] fr Lat versicolor, fr vers (um), vertere, 'to turn, change', see version, & color, colour, & -ed Changing, varying, in colour, indistent versification, n [1 vérsífikashnn, 2 vísífikashnn] fr Lat versification (em), see versify & -ation A Art, practice, of versifying or of making verse, b mode, style, of metrical composition, metre, prosody versifier, n [1 vérsífiér, 2 vísífiér] Next word & -er One who versifies, usually in deprecatory sense, verse monger, poetaster versify, vb trans & intrans [1 versífi, 2 vísífi] fr Fr versifier, fr Lat versificare, see verse & -ify 1 trans A To turn into verse from a prose form, to translate into verse, b to tell, recount, in verse 2 intrans To compose verses versifying, n [1 vérsífiing, 2 vísífiing] See prec & -ing The making, composing, of verses, versification version, n [1 vérshnn, 2 vísnn] Fr, fr Lat versio (em), fr vers (um), fr verti* om, PP of vertere, 'to turn', & -ion The base vert* is found in Sert variat, 'he turns, rolls', Gk rhálané for varat*, fr vrt*, 'a sturor, ladle', O Slav vrútila, 'to turn, twist', the base exists in all Gmc languages, eg OHG werdan, OE weorpan, 'to become, turn out, happen', see worth (III) & weird (I), op also vert in convert &c, also vertex & vortex 1 A translation or rendering of a book, passage &c, from one language into another the Authorized, Revised, Versions of the Bible, a neat version of some of Horace's Odes, a comparison of the French and English versions of the document shows some divergencies 2 An account, statement, of something from a personal or particular point of view the police gave a different version of the incident from that of the prisoner vers libre, n [1 vár lēbr, 2 vér lēbr] Fr Free verse, verse with no regular metrical system but arranged in lines of irregular length and with certain rhythms or rhythmic structure vers librist(e), n [1 vár lēbríst, 2 vér lēbríst] Fr Pres & -ist(e) Writer of free verse verso, n [1 vérsó, 2 vísou] Lat, & folio, 'leaf', ebl sing of versus, 'turned', see version A The left hand or reverse of a page of a book, used esp of a folded sheet of vellum or paper, op recto, b the reverse of a coin, medal &c, op obverse verst, n [1 vəst, 2 vɪst], fr Russ versia for 'vert', fr vertet, 'to turn', fr base discussed under version. A Russian measure of length, 3500 Engl ft, about $\frac{2}{3}$ of a mile versus, prep [1 vərsus, 2 vɪsəs] Lat, see version. Against (abbr v or vs), esp in describing a case at law Re v Jones, Smith v Robinson &c, also in matches, Lancashire v Yorkshire vert (I), n [1 vɜrt, 2 vɪt] O Fr, Fr, earlier form verd, fr Lat viridis, 'green', see viridity 1 (forest law) a The green growth of a forest, esp as cover for deer vert and venison, b right to ont the greenwood in a forest, op verderer 2 (her) The colour or tincture green vert (II), v intrans & n, abbr of convert or pervert (colloq) 1 v To change one's religious faith, esp to abandon Protestantism for Roman Catholicism, or vice versa 2 n A convert or pervert to or from Roman Catholicism vertebra, n, pl vertebrae [1 vɜrtəbrə, -s, 2 vɪtəbrə, -i] Lat, fr base of vertere, 'to turn', see version. (anat) One of the joints of the backbone or spinal column in vertebrate animals, (pl) the vertebrae, the backbone or spinal column in vertebrate animals vertebral, adj [1 vɜrtəbrəl, 2 vɪtəbrəl] Prec & -al a Pertaining to, situated near, the vertebrae or joints of the spine, b composed of vertebrae vertebral column, the spine vertebrally, adv Prec & -ly By means of vertebrae vertebrate, adj & n [1 vɜrtəbrət, -t, 2 vɪtəbrət, -t] fr Lat vertebrātus, 'jointed, articulated', fr vertebra, see vertebra, & -ate 1 adj Having a spinal column or vertebrae, belonging to the Vertebrata or group of animals which have a spinal column, including mammals, birds, reptiles, fish, and batrachians 2 n A vertebrate animal, member of the Vertebrata vertebration, n [1 vɜrtəbrəʃən, 2 vɪtəbrəʃən] See prec & -ion. Arrangement, division, into vertebrae vertex, n, pl vertices [1 vɜrteks, -es, 2 vɪteks, -is] Lat, variant of vertex, q v for differentiation of meaning, 'the top, crown, of the head, highest point, top, summit, the pole, zenith', fr base of vertere, 'to turn', the orig sense being that wh turns about itself, see version &c The highest or principal point, top, summit, specif a (anat) crown of the head, b (astron) the zenith, c (geom) the point or angle of a figure opposite to the base vertical, adj [1 vɜrtikəl, 2 vɪtikəl] Fr, fr Lat vertic (em), vertex, see prec, & -al 1 Situated at the vertex or highest point, directly overhead, at the zenith the vertical point of the heavens 2 Perpendicular, at right angles to the plane of the horizon, upright, opposed to horizontal a vertical line &c 3 Directed downwards or upwards at right angles to the plane of the ground a vertical wall, fall &c 4 (elliptically as n) The vertical, vertical line, position, the perpendicular verticality, n [1 vɜrtikəlɪti, 2 vɪtikəlɪti] Prec & -ity Quality, condition, of being vertical vertically, adv [1 vɜrtikəlɪ, 2 vɪtikəlɪ] See prec & -ly In a vertical manner, position, direction, directly overhead or hslow vertical, verticel, n [1 vɜrtiʃəl, 2 vɪtiʃəl] fr Lat verticillus, dimin of vertex, 'whorl of a spindle', see vertex (bot) A circle of leaves, florets &c, round a central axis, a whorl verticillate, adj [1 vɜrtɪsɪlət, 2 vɪtɪsɪlət] Prec & -ate (bot, of leaves &c) Arranged in verticils or whorls vertiginous, adj [1 vɜrtɪdʒɪnəs, 2 vɪtɪdʒɪnəs] fr Lat vertiginosus, fr vertigin (em), vertigo, see vertigo, & -ous 1 Turning, whirling, round and round vertiginous current, wind &c 2 Dizzy, giddy, suffering from vertigo to feel, grow, vertiginous at great heights. 3 Causing, inducing, vertigo or giddiness a vertiginous height, precipice &c vertiginously, adv Prec & -ly In a vertiginous manner, dizzily, giddily vertigo, n [1 vɜrtɪɡə, 2 vɪtɪɡə] Lat vertigo, 'giddiness', fr base in vertere, 'to turn', see version The medical term for the sensation of giddiness, dizziness, or swimming in the head, often accompanied by faintness, experienced after turning rapidly round and round, or during an attack of sea sickness, or when at a great height vertu See virtu

vervain, n [1 vɜrvɪn, 2 vɪveɪn] fr O Fr verveine, fr Lat verbena Popular name of various species of Verbena, esp the common wild verbena, V officinalis verve, n [1 vɜrv, 2 vɪv] Fr, etymol. obscure, in O Fr it meant 'an odd humour, fancy', perh fr a Low Lat veria*, fr Lat verba, 'words, talk', see verb Display of vigour and liveliness of spirit and imagination, gusto, in the work of a poet, painter, or other artist vervet, n [1 vɜrvət, 2 vɪvət] Fr, etymol. doubtful, usually supposed to be fr a combination of vert, 'green', & grivet, a name of a small grey monkey, fr gris, 'gray' A small Central and S African monkey, Cercopithecus pygerythrus, with grayish-green fur and black extremities and red patch at base of tail very (I), adj [1 vɛri, 2 vɛri] M E veras, verray &c, in O Fr veras, later & Mod Fr vera, fr Low Lat veracus*, fr Lat verāc 'true', stem of verax, see veracious 1 a Having the true, proper character of a person or thing, truly and really that which the word implies, genuine, actual, real 'Very God of very God' (Nicene Creed), this is my very son, also in such Phrs as in very truth, deed &c, b exactly that which is implied by the noun qualified, just the same as, neither more nor less than for very shame they must confess, for very pity's sake have mercy 2 Used intensively or emphatically a the very, actual, same, identical, caught in the very act, the very fact of your hesitating proves &c, the very question I wanted to ask, the very thing I was looking for, b (with this, that &c) this very day, at that very moment, o (with possessive) did it under your very eyes, his very look betrayed him 3 With a and comparative, or the and superlative a verier humbug would be hard to meet, the veriest scoundrel unhung very (II), adv, fr prec 1 In a high degree, to a great extent, exceedingly, extremely, a (with adjs) very large, small, very hot, cold, very dangerous &c, Phrs very good, as form of assent or agreement, also very well, often with sense of reluctance or compulsion *oh, very well! if you must, b (with vbl adjs) a very dazzling light, a very puzzling question, a very interesting book, substance very resistant to cold, o (with P Ps) (i) when used as adjs a very valued friend, a very over weighted car, a very harassed mind, wots a very worried look, (n) otherwise, very much was very much pleased, annoyed, this road is very much used by travellers, d (with neg) usually in sense of moderately, rather not a very good bit of work, rather bad, I don't sing very well, i e I sing pretty badly, I am not very keen on going there, I don't want to go 2 Before superlative, used intensively or emphatically the very last thing I should have expected, he came the very next day, the very best thing you can do 3 Emphasising complete identity or difference he used the very same words as I had, and the very opposite of what I expected Phrs *my, your, his &c very own, mine &c absolutely, beyond dispute, with possession not shared by another the property is my very own, if you make good use of the book you shall have it for your very own

Very light, n [1 vɛri lɪt, 2 vɛri laɪt] fr S W Very, of USA navy, inventor, 1877 A form of signal in which coloured lights or flares are fired from a large-bore pistol, used with a code for signalling at night vesica, n [1 vɛsɪkə, 2 vɛsɪkə] Lat vesica, 'bladder, blister', cogn w Scrt vesti, 'bladder' a (anat) Bladder, esp the urinary bladder in animals or the swim-bladder of fish, whence vesica piscis, term used in Gothic architecture and painting, as design for seals &c, for a pointed oval, often forming an aureole or glory for a sacred figure, b (hot) a small sac or oyst, vesicle vesical, adj [1 vɛsɪkəl, 2 vɛsɪkəl] Prec & -al Pertaining to a vesicle or bladder vesicant, adj & n [1 vɛsɪkənt, 2 vɛsɪkənt] See next word & -ant a adj Causing, raising, blisters, blistering, b n, a blistering substance vesicate, v trans & intrans [1 vɛsɪkət, 2 vɛsɪkət] fr Lat vesica, in sense of 'blister', & -ate (med) a trans To raise a blister on, to blister, b intrans, to become blistered vesicle, n [1 vɛsɪkəl, 2 vɛsɪkəl] fr Lat vesicula, 'a small blister, sac' &c, dimin. of vesio A small membranous cavity or sac, esp one filled with air or fluid, as in the animal body, on a leaf &c vesico-, pref Form fr vesica, used to form compounds denoting connexion or relationship with the bladder vesicular, adj [1 vɛsɪkjələr, 2 vɛsɪkjələ] fr Lat vesicula, see vesicle, & -ar a Shaped like a vesicle or small oyst or sac, b having, composed of, vesicles vesiculate, adj [1 vɛsɪkjulət, 2 vɛsɪkjulət] See prec & -ate Vesicular vesper, n [1 vɛspər, 2 vɛspə] Lat, also vespera, 'evening, the even-tide, the evening star', cogn w Gk hēspērōs, fr vesperōs*, adj & n, 'svening, evening star', hēspērā, 'evening'; O Slav večerā, 'evening' The specif ecclies use is derived fr O Fr vespres, Mod Fr vespres, fr Lat vesperae, pl, op matins 1 (cap) The evening star, Hesperus, the planet Venus appearing as the evening star in the west 2 (pl) Evening-song, the evening service, the sixth of the canonical hours of the Roman Catholic and Orthodox Greek Churches Stilian Vespers, (hist) the massacre of the French in Sicily, which began at Palermo, at the hour of Vespers on Easter Monday, 1282

vesperthionid, adj & n [1 vɛspɜrθiənɪd, 2 vɛspɜrθiənɪd] Mod Lat Vesperthionidae, fr Lat vesperthio, 'a bat', fr vesper, 'evening', see prec (zool) a adj Belonging to the large group, Vesperthionidae, of insectivorous bats, which includes the common European bats, b n, one of this group of bats vespertine, adj [1 vɛspɜrtɪn, 2 vɛspɜrtɪn] fr Lat vesperinus, 'belonging to the evening; western', see vesper a Pertaining to, done, occurring, in the evening, b (of animals &c) appearing in the evening, o (astron) setting at evening or just after sunset vespiary, n [1 vɛspɪəri, 2 vɛspɪəri] On anal of apiary, fr Lat vespa, 'wasp', fr vopas*, fr Aryan base webh-*, 'to weave, spin', op O Prussian wobes, 'gadfly', see wasp & weave A wasp's nest

Vespidae, n pl [1 vɛspɪdə, 2 vɛspɪdɪ] Med. Lat, fr Lat vespa, 'wasp', see prec & -idae (zool) One of the families of wasps, including the social wasps and hornets vespiform, adj [1 vɛspɪfɔrm, 2 vɛspɪfɔrm] fr Lat vesp (a), 'wasp', see prec, & -form. Formed like, resembling, a wasp, wasp like vespine, adj [1 vɛspɪn, 2 vɛspɪn] See prec & -ine Pertaining to wasps vessel, n [1 vɛəl, 2 vɛəl] O Fr, also vaisseau, Mod. Fr vaisseau, esp in sense of 'ship', fr Lat vascellum, rare variant of vacuum, dimin. of vās, see vase, & op vascular 1 a A general term for any hollow article or utensil serving as a receptacle for liquids, food, or other substance, usually round in shape, as a jug, pot, pan, dish &c, esp as designed for domestic use, b (fig, from Bib usage) person regarded as that which contains or receives some mental or spiritual quality a vessel of wrath; a chosen vessel, woman the weaker vessel &c 2 A ship, usually of a larger kind than one styled 'boat' 3 a (anat) Any one of the tracheae, canals, or ducts which contain and circulate the blood or other fluid contents or secretions of the animal body blood vessel, the lymphatic vessels &c, b (bot) a cellular tube or duct containing and circulating the sap in plants vest (I), n [1 vest, 2 vest], fr Lat vestis, 'garment', covering for the body, clothes', fr Aryan base *wes-, 'to put on, clothe', cogn w Sort was-, 'to put on', vestra, 'garment', Gk esthes, 'clothing', hēnēnūm, fut hēd, for wēnēnūm*, 'I clothe, put on', Goth (gajwasjan, 'to clothe', O E wesian, 'to wear (clothes)', see wear (I) 1 (archaic or obs) Robe, vestment, clothing 2 Under garment of wool, silk &c worn on the upper part of the body next the skin 3 (shop term) A waistcoat gent's black coat and vest with striped trousers vest (II), vb trans & intrans, fr O Fr vestir, Mod Fr vestir, fr Lat vestire, 'to clothe', fr vestis, see prec A trans 1 To clothe with, put on, a robe or garment, (chiefly in eccles usage of liturgical vestments) a priest vested with chasuble, alb, and stole, the celebrant vests himself in the sanctuary 2 To invest, endow with, to put in possession of, secure possession to to vest a person with rights in an estate, property &c, b to confer an immediate fixed right of present or future possession of to vest property, rights, authority, in a person B intrans 1 (of rights, property &c) To become fixed or vested in a person 2 To array oneself, esp put on vestments of ceremony a chaplain assists the bishop to vest

Vesta, n [1 vēsta, 2 vēsta] Lat, cogn w Gk hestia for hestia*, 'hearth, home', also (cap) 'the goddess of the home', etymol doubtful, but cp combustion 1 (Roman mythol) The goddess of flocks and herds and of the household, homestead, also goddess of fire and the household hearth, for whom a sacred communal fire was kept always burning in her temple 2 (astron) The name of one of the earlier discovered minor planets or asteroids 3 (without cap) A wax match vestal, adj & n [1 vēsti, 2 vēsti], fr Lat Vestālis, see prec & -al 1 adj a (Roman mythol) Belonging to, dedicated to, the goddess Vesta, esp vestal virgin, one of the virgins, vowed to perpetual chastity, whose duties included keeping the sacred vestal fire safe and perpetually burning in the temple at Rome, b (by transf) chaste, pure, virgin 2 n A vestal virgin, a virgin, a pure, chaste woman, a nun.

vested, adj [1 vēstēd, 2 vēstēd], fr PP of vest (II) Fixed, settled, secured in the possession of a person, specif (law) not contingent or in state of suspension vested rights, interests &c vestibular, adj [1 vēstibylār, 2 vēstibylār] See next word & -ar Pertaining to, serving as, a vestibule vestibule, n [1 vēstibyl, 2 vēstibyl], fr Lat vestibulum, 'entrance or fore court to a house', various explanations have been proposed, of wh Walde favours the derivation fr ver(o)stabilum*, 'place before the door', fr vero*, 'door', lit 'means of closure', q v under vernacular & apertent, & stabilum, 'standing place, habitation, stable', see stable (II) 1 A covered entrance to a house, ante chamber, entrance hall, lobby, b (USA) enclosed platform at end of a railway train 2 (anat) A communicating channel or chamber, esp the central cavity in the ear vestige, n [1 vēstij, 2 vēstidj] Fr, fr Lat vestigium, 'footprint, step, track', prob for vestigium*, derived fr vertere, 'to sweep, brush along', w encl on anal. of vestigium, 'gahlo', for vestigium*, op Sort bhṛṣṭi, 'point, prong', & see bristle (I) 1 (rare or poet) The mark of a foot left on the ground, footprint, track, spoor, of man or animal 2 a A visible trace, material sign, or mark left behind by something destroyed or vanished, any material evidence of something no longer existing only a few vestiges of the great building remain, the last vestiges of prehistoric life and culture, b (biol) a rudimentary, degenerate survival of a former organ or structure the vestige of a tail in the human body, the pineal gland may be the vestige of a third eye 3 (in non-material sense) A perceptible trace, slight survival, or indication not a vestige left of former hatred or jealousy, soon there will hardly be left a vestige of our former rights and liberty vestigial, adj [1 vēstijāl, 2 vēstidjāl] See prec & -al Surviving as a vestige or indication of something which has passed away, disappeared, (esp biol) rudimentary, atrophied, degenerate vestigial organs, structure &c vesting, n [1 vēsting, 2 vēsting] vest (II) & -ing 1 The act of putting on robes or vestments the vesting of a priest &c 2 Act of confirming, settling, the legal possession vesting of property in trustees &c vestment, n [1 vēstment, 2 vēstment], fr O Fr vestement, Mod Fr vestement, fr Lat vestimentum, 'clothing', fr vestis, 'a garment', see vest (I), & -ment A robe, dress, esp one of the liturgical articles of dress worn by the officiating clergy during divine service, as Mass vestments, those ordered to be worn by priests and deacons at the celebration of the Eucharist, the essential or principal Mass vestment being the chasuble, q v, in general, the dress worn by the clergy and choir during divine service, as cassock, stole, and surplice, b specif, the vestment, the chasuble, used already in the 15th cent in this special sense vestry, n [1 vēstri, 2 vēstri], fr O Fr vestiare, vestiare, fr Lat vestiarium, 'chest, cupboard for clothes, wardrobe', fr vestis, 'garment', see vest (I), & -ry 1 Building or chamber attached to a church in which the vestments, surplice, cassocks &c of the clergy and choir, or the liturgical vestments, if any, are kept and put on before a service, and where the Communion vessels are stored when not in use, also used for such church business as signing of registers and other parochial matters, when attached to a cathedral or other large church it is usually styled sacristy 2 A similar building or chamber in a nonconformist chapel where chapel business is carried on, prayer meetings are held &c 3 Body of ratepayers of parish which elects churchwarden and manages the business of the church, presided over by the rector or vicar, and meeting usually in the vestry, formerly having general administrative secular powers in the parish, but now superseded by the parish council when not embodied in a large local administrative unit such as a rural or urban district council &c vestry clerk, n The clerk to a vestry, parish clerk vestrydom, n [1 vēstridum, 2 vēstridom] See vestry & -dom Government by a parish vestry, esp referring to the formerly often inefficient and corrupt administration by the old vestries, cp bumbledom vestryman, n [1 vēstriman, 2 vēstrimen] Member of a parish vestry vesture, n [1 vēschur, 2 vēstjə] O Fr, Mod Fr vesture, fr Lat vestis, see vest (I), & -ure A Garment, clothing, raiment, a garment, robe &c, now chiefly poetical or reminiscent of Biblical usage in 'They cast lots upon my vesture', 'the Queen in a vesture of gold' (Pe 45), b (poet) covering in nature a vesture of mist, of verdure &c vestured, adj [1 vēschurd, 2 vēstjəd] Prec & -ed A dressed, robed, b covered as with a vesture vesturer, n [1 vēschurer, 2 vēstjərə] vesture & -er An official of a cathedral or collegiate church in charge of ecclesiastical vestments

Vesuvian, adj & n [1 vēsviān, 2 vēsviān], fr Vesuvius & -an 1 adj Of, pertaining to, resembling, the volcano Vesuvius, near Naples 2 n (obsolesc, without cap) A kind of fume vet (I), n [1 vet, 2 vet] Colloq abbr of veterinary (surgeon) vet (II), vb trans, fr prec a (colloq) To examine, treat (animal, human being) medically or surgically, b (colloq) to examine (manuscripts &c) critically, he got a publisher's reader to vet his first novel vetch, n [1 vech, 2 vetj], fr O Fr vesche, fr Lat vicia, 'vetch', cp Germ wicke, 'prob for the base *wes-, 'to bind', seen in Lat vire, 'the vine', viere, 'to twine' &c, see vine A climbing or trailing leguminous plant of many varieties, esp Vicia sativa or tare, used as green fodder vetchy, adj [1 vēchu, 2 vētjə] Prec & -y Made of, full of, vetches veteran, n & adj [1 vēterān, 2 vēterān], fr Lat veterānus, 'old, veteran', adj & n, fr veter (se), vetus, 'old', cp also Lat vetulus, 'yearling, calf', see vial, cogn w Sort vaiad, 'year', Gk etos for utōs*, 'a year', O Slav vetuxŭ, 'old', cp also O E wæper, 'sheep' &c, see wether 1 n One old and experienced in service, esp an old tried soldier or sailor 2 adj Old and experienced, tried in service a veteran soldier, member of Parliament &c veterinarian, adj & n [1 vēterinārian, 2 vēterinārian] See next word & -an a adj Veterinary, b n, a veterinary surgeon veterinary, adj & n [1 vēterinari, 2 vēterinari], fr Lat veterinarius, fr veterinus, 'belonging to beasts of burden, draught animals', esp veterina, sc bestia, 'a draught animal', fr vetus, veteris, 'old', draught animals being those too old for other purposes, see veteran 1 adj Pertaining to, concerned with, affecting, the diseases of animals, esp cattle and other domestic animals veterinary science, surgeon &c 2 n A veterinary surgeon veto (I), n [1 vētō, 2 vētōw] Lat velo, 'I forbid', vēlāre, 'to oppose, forbid', appears first in the form volāre, the etymol of wh is very doubtful, the Roman tribunes of the people used the word in the exercise of their power of blocking measures of the Senate or acts of other magistrates 1 a The constitutional right or power residing in various persons or bodies, as a sovereign, a legislative assembly &c, of forbidding or preventing the carrying out of an enactment or act of administration the veto of the Crown has not been exercised since the reign of Queen Anne, b an exercise of this power or right the veto of the Lords has fortunately hung the bill up for the present, specif, local veto, right of a locality by vote to prohibit the sale of alcoholic liquor within the area as a measure of temperance reform 2 (in gen sense) Prohibition, refusal to allow anything to be done, said &c to put, set, a veto on a proposal; a public veto on such performances was only to be expected veto (II), vb trans, fr prec a Specif, disallow, prevent enactment of (a measure, proposal, bill), by exercising the veto the Crown may, but never does, veto a bill that has passed both Houses, b to refuse to allow, prohibit absolutely (an action, conduct &c) the public schools smoking by the boys is vetoed veturino, n [1 vētoorēnō, 2 vēturino] Ital, fr vettura, 'carriage', fr L Lat vetūra, fr veci (um), PP type of vehere, 'to draw, carry', see vehicle Driver of a hackney or hired carriage in Italy vex, vb trans [1 vēks, 2 vēks], M E vezen, fr O Fr vezer, fr Lat veāre, 'to agitate, shake, toss, to harass, trouble, vex', prob fr vec-, variant form of PP of vehere, 'to draw, carry', cp convex & see vehicle a To irritate, disturb, distress, cause worry to, by petty annoyances, esp in mind, to cause grief to, b to render mildly angry, excite mild wrath of, esp in P P as adjective I shall be seriously vexed if you speak to me like that, also vexed with (a person), angry with vexation, n [1 veksa'shun, 2 vekse'shun], fr Lat vexatō (em), fr vexā (um), P P type of vexāre, see vex, & -ation 1 State of being vexed, esp mental distress, irritation, feeling of annoyance or worry 'vanity and vexation of spirit', much to my vexation I just missed a chance of a good profit 2 Cause of distress or annoyance, worry all the trifling vexations one has to put up with vexatious, adj [1 veksa'shəs, 2 vekse'shəs] See prec & -ous 1 Causing vexation, troublesome, irritating, annoying moving houses is a vexatious business, how vexatious to miss one's train! 2 (law) Undertaken for trivial reasons, done for purpose of annoyance or irritation a vexatious suit or action vexatiously, adv Prec & -ly In a vexatious manner vexatiousness, n See prec & -ness State of being vexatious vexillum, n, pl vexilla [1 veksiləm, -ə, 2 veksiləm, -ə] Lat, 'military ensign, standard', for vexillum, variant of vellum, 'veil' & so, see vellum & veil 1 a The military standard of a company of the Roman legion, being a small square cloth hung from a cross bar borne on a pole, b a company of soldiers under such a standard 2 (ecclies) A scarf wrapped round a bishop's pastoral staff 3 a (zool) The web of the feather of a bird, b (bot) the larger upper petal in flowers such as the sweet-pea vexing, adj [1 veks'ing, 2 veks'ing], fr Pres Part of vex Causing vexation, annoying, irritating, troublesome vexingly, adv Prec & -ly In a vexing manner, so as to cause vexation.

via (I), n [1 viə, 2 vaɪə] Lat via, 'path, street, highway, passage, channel, pipe', fr vēja*, whence also Lat venor, 'to hunt, follow after', see venery (I), Scrt vēti, 'he follows, pursues, strives after', of thi, 'row, street, way', perh also Gk oi-mos, 'way, road', for wei-* Only in via media [1 viə mēdiə, 2 vɪə mɪdiə] Lat, 'middle path', (fig) a moderate course between two extremes, esp of Church of England as lying between the extremes of Roman Catholicism and Protestantism, Via Lactea, n [1 viə lakteɪ, 2 vɪə lækteɪ] Lat, 'Milky Way' via (II), prep Abl of Lat via, see prec By way of, passing through, calling at to travel via London, as indication on luggage Tunbridge Wells via Reading and Redhill & so viability, n [1 viəbiliti, 2 vɪəbiliti] Next word & -ity Condition of being viable, capacity for living viable, adj [1 viəbəl, 2 vɪəbəl] Fr, fr vie, 'life', Lat vita, see vital, & -able Capable of living, a having all the organs & so at such a state of development as to enable life to be carried on, said esp of a newly born infant, b able to live in a particular climate and environment viableness, n [1 viəblines, 2 vɪəblines] Prec & -ness Viability viaduct, n [1 viədʌkt, 2 vaɪədʌkt] Lat via, see via (I), ducta, 'conducted', see duct A long bridge, supported upon a series of arches and pillars, which carries a road or railway line across a valley or gorge vial, n [1 viəl, 2 vaɪəl] M E viola, fr variant of fr fiale, fr Lat phiala, fr Gk phialē, 'cup, bowl, drinking-bowl', etymol doubtful A small glass bottle for medicine & so Phr (Bib) (to pour out) the vials of one's wrath viameter, n [1 viāmēter, 2 vaɪēmēter] via (I) & -meter Instrument for measuring distances on roads, a, odometer viant, n [1 viənd, 2 vaɪənd] Fr vande, 'food, meat', fr L Lat vivanda, Lat vivenda, nent pl gerundive, fr vivere, 'to live', see vidid & vital, op vivandière Article of food, more often collectively vivande vistic, adj [1 viatik, 2 vaistik] Lat viaticus, 'pertaining to a road or to a journey', see via (I) & -atio Connected with a journey, with travels viaticum, n [1 viatikəm, 2 vaistikəm] Lat, neut sing of viaticus as n, see prec, 'provision for a journey, allowance of soldiers on service' 1 (zoo) Provisions for a journey 2 The consecrated wafer, the Host, as administered to the dying vibraculum, adj [1 vibrakulər, 2 vaibrakulər] See next word & -ar Pertaining to, caused by, of the nature of, vibraula vibraculum, n, pl vibracula [1 vibrakuləm, -ə, 2 vaibrakuləm, -ə] Lat, formed fr vibra, see vibrate, w dimin suff, see -cule Filamentous spine like organ of certain polyzoons, by means of the vibratory movements of which food is brought within reach vibrancy, n [1 vibrans, 2 vaibrans] vibrant & -cy State or property of being vibrant, resonance vibrant, adj [1 vibrant, 2 vaibrant] Fr, fr Lat vibrant (em), Pres Part of vibrare, see vibrate a Vibrating, tremulous, b (of sound, the voice) setting up vibrations, resonant vibrate, v*i* intrans & trans [1 vibrat, vibrat, 2 vaibrat, vaibrat], fr Lat vibrat (um), P P type of vibrare, 'to set in tremulous motion, cause to move rapidly to and fro, to shake, to agitate', expanded fr base wei-*, 'to tremble' & so, also fr this base are O H G wipf, 'swing, impetus', wipfil, 'top of a tree', wimpal, 'veil, headgear', see wimple The base in its simpler form is seen in Lat viere, 'to twist, bond', vitis, 'grape vine', see further under viti-, vine, & withy A intrans 1 a To move rapidly to and fro, to oscillate, esp to quiver, thrill, with incessant, tremulous, rapid movement, as of a thin, or tightly stretched, flexible or elastic body a fiddle string vibrates when touched with the bow, the atmosphere vibrates in response to the oscillations of a fiddle string, b (fig) to be deeply stirred emotionally, have the feelings profoundly moved, to thrill to vibrate with passion, at a person's touch & so 2 a To move, swing, steadily backwards and forwards between two points, eg of a pendulum, b (rare, fig) to hesitate between two opinions, courses of action & so B trans To cause to vibrate vibratile, adj [1 vibratil, 2 vaibratil] vibrate & -ile Capable of vibrating, tending to vibrate vibratility, n [1 vibratiliti, 2 vaibratiliti] Prec & -ity Property of being vibratile vibration, n [1 vibrashun, 2 vaibrashun] vibrate & -ion. 1 a Rapid, tremulous, oscillating movement to and fro, as of a tense elastic, or fluid body, b (fig) tremulous stirring, or thrilling, of the emotions 2 (more rarely) Steady swinging movement to and fro 3 Act or process of causing (a body) to vibrate vibrational, adj [1 vibrashunal, 2 vaibrashunal] Prec & -al Pertaining to, connected with, of the nature of, vibration vibrative, adj [1 vibrativ, 2 vaibrativ] vibrate & -ive Of the nature of, causing, vibration vibrato, n [1 vibratō, 2 vibratou] Ital, P P of vibrare, see vibrata Tremulous effect produced by variation of emphasis or loudness in the same note vibrator, n [1 vibratōr, 2 vaibratōr] vibrate & -or That which vibrates vibratory, adj [1 vibratōr, 2 vaibratōr] vibrate & -ory Vibrative vibrio, n [1 vibnō, 2 vibriou] Neo Lat, formed fr vibrare, see vibrate Kind of bacteria which are endowed with the power of vibratory or undulatory movement vibrioid, adj & n [1 vibrioid, 2 vibrioid] Prec & -oid 1 adj Like a vibrio. 2 n A vibrioid body, or vibrio vibrissa, n, pl vibrissae [1 vibrissə, -s, 2 vaibrissə, -i] Lat, fr base of vibrato Stiff hair in the human nostril, hair round the muzzle of mammals, the whiskers of the cat & so vibrograph, n [1 vibrografi, 2 vaibragrafi] Base of vibrate & -graph Device for recording vibrations vibroscope, n [1 vibroskōp, 2 vaibraskōp] Base of vibrate & -scope Instrument for observing and recording vibrations vibrosopic, adj [1 vibroskōpik, 2 vaibraskōpik] Prec & -ic Pertaining to, observed by, the vibroscope viburnum, n [1 vihurnəm, 2 vaiburnəm] Lat, translated as 'the wayfaring tree' The element vi- is fr base in Lat viere, 'to twine' & so, see under viti- & vibrate, & refers to the habit of the tree, the second element is like that in laburnum & is unexplained A genus of shrubs and trees, the guelder rose, wild and cultivated in gardens for their flowers and foliage vicar, n [1 vikar, 2 vika] M E vicar, vicar & so, fr O Fr vicare, in eccles sense, fr Lat vicarius, 'a deputy, substitute, proxy', see vicarious 1 Deputy, rare except in Phr the Vicar of Christ, title claimed by, and accorded to, the Pope, Vicar general, deputy of the Pope or of an Archbishop 2 The incumbent of an English parish who is not a rector, i.e. one who does not receive the great tithes, but is paid a stipend from other sources, formerly called a perpetual curate The parish of a vicar is either a new one carved out of a larger, older parish, the rector retaining the old parish church and the great tithes, or one in which those tithes belong to a layman or a corporation vicarage, n [1 vikari, 2 vikaɪdʒ] vicar & -age 1 The residence of a vicar 2 (more rarely) The office of a vicar vicar-apostolic, n (R C Ch) 1 Archbishop or bishop to whom the Pope delegated his authority 2 An ecclesiastic exercising episcopal jurisdiction in a diocese during a vacancy, or on account of the illness of the bishop 3 A titular bishop exercising his functions in a country where there are no episcopal sees vicar-capitular, n (R C Ch) Person elected by the Chapter (in England) to rule the diocese, after the death of a bishop, until the new bishop is appointed vicar-choral, n Clergyman or layman whose duty it is to sing part of the service in a cathedral vicar-forane, n [1 vikar fōrn, 2 vika fōrn] Lat forāneus, see foreign. (R C Ch) Priest appointed by the bishop to exercise certain limited jurisdiction in a particular town & so within the diocese vicarial, adj [1 vikarial, 2 vikaɪarial] vicar & -al 1 Pertaining to, acting as, a vicar 2 (rare) Vicarious vicariate, n [1 vikariat, 2 vikaɪariat] vicar & -ate Office of a vicar, period of tenure of this vicarious, adj [1 vikarius, 2 vaikaɪarial] Lat vicarius, 'substituted, delegated', fr vici, 'change, interchange, alternation', see vici (IV), & -ary, & -ous 1 Connected with, pertaining to, a vicar or deputy, deputed vicarious authority 2 Performing duties as the substitute or deputy of another a vicarious ruler, agent 3 Performed, undergone, by one person & so, on behalf of, in the place of, another the vicarious sufferings, sacrifice, of Christ 4 (med) Vicarious haemorrhage, one taking place from an organ other than the normal one, the usual flow from the latter being suppressed.

vicariously, adv Prec & -ly In a vicarious manner, as a deputy, by deputy vicariousness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being vicarious vice (I), n [1 vis, 2 vaɪə] In M E, fr O Fr fr Lat vitium, 'fault, defect, blemish, moral fault, crime', perh cogn w OE widl, 'defilement, impurity', the etymol. is disputed, perh fr the base in Lat viere, 'to bend, twine' & so, see viti- in the sense of 'bending aside, departure, from the normal' or healthy condition' 1 A grave moral fault, ingrained defect in the character avarice and cruelty are among the most detestable vices 2 a Immoral, degrading, conduct or habit, gross wickedness, depravity, lewdness vice of all kinds exists, unfortunately, in all big cities, b the Vice, a character in English Morality plays, usually a buffoon, who represented some particular vice 3 Spoof, vice in a horse, bad, incorrigible tricks and habits, such as bolting, obeying, rearing &c., which make the animal difficult to ride or drive with comfort 4 a Physical defect or disability, diseased taint he has certain vices of constitution which render his life precarious, b defect, blemish, imperfection in organization, social structure &c. the vices of our social system, c a fault in, a bad form of, expression, esp a vice of literary style, oratory, drawing &c vice (II), n & vb trans ME, fr O Fr vis, 'a crew, a winding stair', fr Lat visus, 'a vine', fr base vis* in visere, 'to twist together, to weave', see viti- 1 n A device, usually of iron, and screwed to a bench, consisting of two parts worked by a screw so as to be brought together and held immovably at the desired distance apart, used by smiths, and workers in wood or metal, for gripping, holding, an object in a given position while being carved, chiselled, hammered or other wise worked on, Phrs as firm as a vice, a grasp like a vice &c 2 vb (rare) To grip, hold firm, in a vice vice (III), n Colloq abbr for vice-chancellor, vice president &c

vice (IV), prep [1 visi, 2 vaisi] Lat, abl of vicis, 'change, interchange, alternation, reciprocal succession', cogn w Gk eikō for eikō*, 'I yield, draw back, give way' &c, Sort visi, 'changeable', further (Gmc k fr Aryan kn), OS wikan, OE wican, 'to give way, collapse', OHG wihhan, OE wac, 'weak', ON veikr, fr wisk*, see weak, & prob OE wicu, see week. Instead of, in the place of an examiner in Greek will be appointed vice Mr Jones, who retires, to be Brigade Major vice Captain X vice-, pref [1 vis, 2 vais] Fr, for etymol see vice Prefix placed before the names of offices and ranks to express a person entitled, qualified, appointed, to hold such offices as deputies for others and to perform certain delegated functions vice agent, vice sheriff, vice warden &c, b expressing a rank next in order below that to which the prefix is attached vice admiral vice-admiral, n Officer in the navy next in rank below an admiral vice-admiralty, n Rank, office, of a vice-admiral, term of this office vice-chairman, n Permanent officer of a company, corporation, deliberative body &c, who presides at the meetings in the absence of the chairman vice-chairmanship, n Office of a vice chairman, term of this vice-chamberlain, n Deputy of a chamberlain or lord chamberlain vice-chancellor, n 1 Formerly (down to 1878) a judge appointed to the Chancery Court of England. 2 The chief executive officer of a University acting also as deputy of the Chancellor vice-consul, n The deputy of a consul, official appointed by a government to watch commercial interests of its subjects in a foreign country, in a town, when these subjects are not sufficiently numerous or the business sufficiently important for a consul vice-consulate, n Residence, office, term of office of a vice consul vice-consulship, n Status, office, of a vice-consul, term of this office vicegerent, n [1 visgerent, 2 vaisgerent] vice & gerent. One who rules as the deputy of another, God's vicegerent, the Pope vice-governor, n Deputy governor vice-governorship, n Office, term of office, of vice-governor vicennial, adj [1 visēnial, 2 vaisēnial] Lat vicennium, 'period of 20 years', vicēn, '20', & annus, 'year', see annual, & -al The first element is cogn w Lat viginti, fr viktōs*, Sort vijati, Gk eikō, O W ucent, 'twenty'. The meaning is 'two tens', fr base wi*, wei*, &c, 'two', see divide, & kmt*, earlier d/mt*, 'ten', a decade, see hundred, deca- Lasting for, recurring every, twenty years vice-presidency, n Office, term of office, of vice president vice-president, n Deputy of a president viceregal, adj [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & regal (I) Pertaining to, connected with, a viceroy or vicereine the viceregal palace, ball &c vicereine, n [1 visrēn, 2 vaisrēn] vice- & Fr reine, 'queen', fr Lat, see regina vicereine, n [1 visrēn, 2 vaisrēn] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign viceregal, adj [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr regis, 'queen', fr Lat, see regina

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

viceregal, n [1 visrēgi, 2 vaisrēgi] vice- & Fr rei, 'king', fr Lat, see rex. One who rules a country, province, colony, in the name and with the authority of, and as representing, the sovereign

detrimentally upon each other, so that one condition or circumstance leads to another, which in turn intensifies and aggravates the former, and so on, (u) (in reasoning) a conclusion based upon an unsound premise, and serving as the basis for establishing the former 4 (of a horse) Showing vice, having certain bad tricks and habits, badly trained, hard to manage viciously, adv Prece & -ly In a vicious manner viciousness, n See vice & -ness 1 Quality of being vicious, a gross wickedness, immorality, vice, b malignity, ill nature, spite 2 Faultiness, defectiveness vicissitude, n [1 visistūd, 2 vaisistūd] Fr, fr Lat vicissitudo, 'change, interchange, alternation', formed fr Lat vicis, 'change', see vice (IV) & -tude 1 Irregular alternation, change, mutation, esp of circumstances, experience, worldly condition, ups and downs of life the vicissitudes of fate. 2 (obe or post) Regular change and succession, orderly alternation 'Whers light and darkness Lodge and dislodge by turns, which makes Grateful vicissitude, like day and night' (Milton, 'P L' vi 68) vicissitudinal, adj [1 visistūdinan, 2 vaisistūdinan] Lat vicissitudin, stem of vicissitudo, see vice, & -ary Characterized by, liable to, vicissitude vicissitudinous, adj [1 visistūdinus, 2 vaisistūdinus] Same stem as vice & -ous Vicissitudinal victim, n [1 viktīm, 2 viktīm] Fr victime, fr Lat victima, 'beast of sacrifice, victim'; formed fr vict*, 'something consecrated', fr base wik*, 'sacred', cogn w Goth weihan (= wihan), 'holy', weihan, 'to make holy, consecrate', weihan, 'priest', OHG wihan, Mod Germ weihen, 'to consecrate, devote' &c The orig meaning seems to be 'to set apart', op Sort viktir, 'separated off, set apart' 1 Human being or animal devoted, consecrated, to a god, or to God, slain, and offered as a sacrifice 2 A Person or living creature that is the object of, and that suffers from, another's anger, ill will, persecution, evil passions &c the victim of malice, dislike, hatred &c, the victim of another's greed &c, b one who suffers through, is a prey to, some bad qualities, or defects, in his own character or behaviour the victim of his own folly, cowardice, extravagance &c, c one who suffers through the operation of external circumstances and conditions which he cannot control a victim of poverty, of the war, of disease &c, Phr the victim of circumstances, a wrongdoer who sins owing to the stress of forces and conditions which overmaster him, so that he is not wholly responsible 3 A person who is brought under the sinister influence of another, and is deceived and injured by him the victim of a swindler, (facet) fell a victim to the lady's charms, was captivated by these victimizable, adj [1 viktīmizəbl, 2 viktīmizəbl] victimize & -able Capable of being, liable to be, victimized victimization, n [1 viktīmizəshən, 2 viktīmizəshən] See vice & -ation Condition of being victimized, act, process, of victimizing victimize, vb trans [1 viktīmiz, 2 viktīmiz] victimize & -ize To make a, or the, victim of, to cause to suffer, a to deceive, cheat victimized by rogues, b to cause to suffer, or endure I was victimized the whole evening by the worst bore in the room victor, n [1 viktōr, 2 viktōr] Lat, 'conqueror', formed fr vici (um), P P type of vincere, 'to vanquish', see vincible, & -or One who is successful in battle or in a contest, a conqueror, vanquisher, winner, (also attrib) 'See where the victor victim bleeds' (Shirley) victoria, n [1 viktōria, 2 viktōria] Lat, 'victory', fr vict- as in victor, & see -ory, used as proper name Name of a light, low, four-wheeled carriage, drawn by one or two horses, having two seats looking towards the driver's back, a movable hood, and a box for the coachman, named after Queen Victoria Victoria Cross, n Abbr VC, commonly called [1 vɪk tɔːs, 2 vɪ sɪ] Decoration, founded by Queen Victoria in 1856, awarded to soldiers and sailors for an act of remarkable bravery in the presence of the enemy, it consists of a bronze Maltese cross, suspended from a crimson ribbon, for the Army, or from a dark blue one for the Navy VC is also applied to a holder of the decoration he is a VC and a DSO

Victoria Lily, n Gigantic S American water-lily, Victoria regia

Victorian, adj & n [1 vɪk tɔːriən, 2 vɪk tɔːriən] Victorian & -an. 1 adj Pertaining to, characteristic of, living, made, in the reign of Queen Victoria Victorian habits, dress, furniture, Victorian statesmen, writers &c 2 n A person, esp a writer or other public character, living during the reign of Queen Victoria

Victorian Order, n Order founded in 1896 by Queen Victoria, and awarded for personal service to the sovereign victorine, n [1 vɪk tɔːrɪn, 2 vɪk tɔːriən], fr woman's name 1 Fur tippet with long narrow ends, formerly worn by women 2 A kind of peach victorious, adj [1 vɪk tɔːriəs, 2 vɪk tɔːriəs] Lat victōrius, see victory & -ous Having the victory in a battle, in war, or in a contest of any kind victorious troops, the victorious football team victoriously, adv Pre & -ly In a victorious manner, with victory, so as to win victoriousness, n See pre & -ness (rare) Condition, quality, of being victorious victory, n [1 vɪk tɔːri, 2 vɪk tɔːri] M.E., fr O Fr victoria, fr Lat victōria, see victoria 1 A success in battle or in a contest of any kind, act or fact of defeating an enemy in the field, or an opponent in a dispute, competition, game &c; conquest, act of winning, b success in any kind of effort or struggle a victory over every difficulty, over one's lower self &c 2 (asp) Roman goddess of victory victress, n [1 vɪk tɔːrɪs, 2 vɪk tɔːrɪs], fr victor & -ess Female victor victual, n & vb trans & intrans [1 vɪ tʃl, 2 vɪ tʃl] M.E., fr O Fr vitailla, fr Lat victualia, neut pl, 'provisions', formed fr victus, 'nourishment, fr vict (um), P.P type of victare, 'to live', see vital 1 n Generally victuals, food, provisions 2 vb a trans To supply, provide with, food or stores, b intrans, (i) to procure, take in, stores (of a ship &c), (ii) to consume food victualler, n [1 vɪ tʃlɪə, 2 vɪ tʃlɪə] Pre & -er 1 One who provides victuals, (now chiefly) licensed victualler, one licensed to sell alcoholic liquor, an innkeeper, a publican 2 A ship carrying provisions and stores for other ships, or supplying military forces, also victualling ship

victualling, n [1 vɪ tʃlɪŋ, 2 vɪ tʃlɪŋ] See victual & -ing Victualling bill, list of stores to be used on a voyage, and held in bond, furnished to Customs authorities, victualling house, eating-house, victualling note, one issued by Naval Paymaster, authorizing a ship's steward to supply food to a seaman, victualling office, one supplying naval stores &c, victualling ship, victualler, victualling yard, one in which naval supplies are stored vicuña, vicuña, n [1 vɪ kʊːnə, 2 vɪ kʊːnə] 2 vai kʊːnə, vai kʊːnə] Span vicuña, fr Peruv 1 Ruminant animal of Peru, Bolivia, and Ecuador, closely related to the llama, hunted for its fine wool 2 Fine, woolly cloth made from the wool of the vicuña, or from some wool resembling this, also vicuña cloth vide, vb [1 vɪ dɪ, 2 vɪ dɪ] Imperat sing of Lat videre, 'to see', cogn w a series of Gk words, meaning 'see' and 'know', q v under -oid, idea, idol, fr Gmo cognates see wit (I), op also vision. See, used in referring to a passage &c, quoted in a book

&c vide (or v) p 30 &c, q v, quod vide, which see

videlicet, adv [1 vɪ-, vɪ dɛlɪsɪt, 2 vɪ-, vɪ dɛlɪsɪt] Lat, fr videre hæc, 'it is permitted to see', abbr viz, wh is commonly rendered namely Generally used to introduce a fuller explanation, or expansion, of what has been stated so briefly as to demand a further elaboration the animal kingdom may be divided into three great groups, viz the vertebrates, invertebrates, and protozoa vidette See vedette vidimus, n [1 vɪ dɪmʊs, 2 vɪ dɪmʊs] Lat vidimus, 'we have seen', perf pl of videre, see vide A formal inspection of documents vidual, adj [1 vɪ dʒʊəl, 2 vɪ dʒʊəl] Lat vidua, 'widow' & -al, see divide & widow Pertaining to, connected with, a widow, or widows viduate, n [1 vɪ dʒʊət, 2 vɪ dʒʊət] Lat vidua, see pre & -ate Position or status of a widow, condition of being a widow vie, vb intrans [1 vɪ-, 2 vɪ] M.E. vien, fr envier, see envy Vie with, to strive with for superiority in any form, to contest place of superiority with, to rival to vie with another for power &c, various kinds of vegetation vying with each other for supremacy, in my opinion few fruits can vie with the apple

Viennese, adj & n [1 vɪ ənɪz, 2 vɪ ənɪz] Vienna & -ese a adj Belonging to, coming from, Vienna, b n, (sing & pl) inhabitant of Vienna

vi et armis, adv [1 vɪ et ʔrma, 2 vɪ et ʔrma] Lat, 'by force and arms', see vis (law) By force and with arms, as showing how damage to person or property was caused view (I), n [1 vɪ-, 2 vɪ] M.E. veue, 'the sense of sight', fr O Fr, P.P veoir, 'to see', fr Lat videre, see vide & vision 1 Act of seeing, inspection, examination, by eye, sight this ruin is well worth our view, the jury had a view of the body, a private view (of pictures on exhibition) Phr to keep, have, something in view, under observation, within range of vision, under one's eye, also (fig) in one's mind or memory, on view, on exhibition, in full view of, so as to be visible to, or from 2 A Something that is seen, impression presented to the eye, a prospect, a sight, a scene a fine view of the surrounding country, of the proceedings, of the Lord Mayor's show, specif b a prospect of nature, of a tract of country or natural scenery I want a house with a view 3 A representation in art, photography &c, of a scene, esp of a landscape, a building &c to do, take, some views of the Lakes, of a cathedral &c 4 A mental impression, a critical survey based on a mental examination of anything, an estimate, sizing up I have not yet formed a clear view of the situation, he presented quite a new view of the affair, I take a grave view of his conduct, b an intellectual judgement, an opinion to hold extreme views, what are your views on Protection?, in my view it would be unwise to proceed further with the matter, Phr in view of, considering, seeing, having regard to 5 Design, plan, intention, expectation I will try to meet your views in every way, I have quite other views for my son's future, I have views on a meal at the next town Phrs with a view to, with the view of, with the intention of view (II), vb trans, fr pre 1 To inspect, look at to view the pictures, a house and grounds &c, specif to view the body (of jury at an inquest) Phr an order to view, authoritative permission to inspect (house, estate &c) 2 (poet, obsolete) To see, look upon 'that dear home she ne'er might view again' (T Haynes Bayly) 3 To contemplate, look forward to I can only view the future with misgiving 4 To take a specified view of, hold specified opinion concerning, to estimate I view his conduct in the gravest light viewable, adj [1 vɪ dʒəbəl, 2 vɪ dʒəbəl] Pre & -able Capable of being viewed visible view-finder, n view (I) & finder The small aperture in a camera with a mirror in which is shown the view of that which is to be photographed view-hallo(o), n [1 vɪ hælə, 2 vɪ hæləu] The hallo(o) or call of buntman when the fox is viewed on breaking cover viewless, adj [1 vɪ dɪs, 2 vɪ dɪs] view (I) & -less (poet) a Invisible 'Each stair drawn up to heaven sometimes Viewless' (Milton, 'P L' III 516-18), b unseeing, blind viewy, adj [1 vɪ-, 2 vɪ] view (I) & -y Full of views and opinions, esp of fantastic views, visionary, cranky.

vigil, n [1 vɪ jɪl, 2 vɪ dʒɪl] Lat vigilia, 'wakefulness, sleeplessness', fr vigil, 'awake, wakeful, alert', fr the base in vigere, 'to be lively, to flourish'; this base is cogn w that in Lat vegere, 'to move, to excite' &c, see vegetable, op also wake (I) 1 The act of being awake, the act of watching, e.g. in a sick-room, or over the dead. 2 A Devotional waking and watching, vigils, nocturnal devotions, b specif, the night spent in prayer before a feast of the Church, the eve of a feast day vigilance, n [1 vɪ jɪləns, 2 vɪ dʒɪləns] Lat vigilantia, see vigilant & -ce 1 Watchfulness, alertness 2 (med) Insomnia, sleeplessness vigilance committee, n 1 (chiefly U.S.A.) Voluntary, self chosen body of citizens who assume responsibility for the preservation of order, and the summary punishment of crime in a community which has no regular government, or in one in which the government is temporarily inadequate 2 More usually watch committee, a similar voluntary local body in a town looking for breaches of morals, infringement of licensing laws &c and reporting to the police, instigating prosecutions &c vigilant, adj [1 vɪ jɪlənt, 2 vɪ dʒɪlənt], fr Lat vigilant (em), Pre Part of vigilans, 'to watch, be wakeful', formed fr vigil, 'wakeful' &c, see vigil Watchful, alert, keenly alive to possible danger, and to the necessity of securing safety, attentive, wary vigilantly, adv Pre & -ly In a vigilant manner, with vigilance vigilantness, n See pre & -ness State, quality, of being vigilant, vigilance vignette (I), n [1 vɪ nɪjɛt, 2 vɪ nɪjɛt] Fr, dimin. fr vigne, 'vine', see vine, & -ette 1 (obs) Originally, a decoration consisting of conventionalized representation of vine leaves, tendrils, and bunches of grapes 2 A small ornamental design placed at the beginning or end of chapters or of books, b a picture or photograph which merges gradually in the surrounding background, without a definite boundary line 3 A small delicate illustration on the page of a book, b a short highly-wrought picture in words vignette (II), vb trans, fr pre To depict in the form of a vignette vignettist, n [1 vɪ nɪjɛtɪst, 2 vɪ nɪjɛtɪst] vignette (I) & -ist A maker of vignettes.

vigorous, adv [1 vɪ gɔːrɪəs, 2 vɪ gɔːrɪəs] Ital, fr L Lat vigorosus, see vigorous (musical direction) With vigour vigorous, adj [1 vɪ gɔːrɪəs, 2 vɪ gɔːrɪəs] L Lat. vigorosus, see vigour & -ous 1 Abounding in bodily or mental vigour, vitality, strong, potent, virile 2 A Exhibiting vigour in bodily growth, activity, action, active, lively a vigorous plant, a vigorous player, a vigorous attack, b showing, acting with, intellectual vigour and strength of character, forcible, forceful, animated a vigorous thinker, a vigorous writer, style &c, a vigorous commander vigorously, adv Pre & -ly In a vigorous manner vigorousness, n See pre & -ness Condition, quality, of being vigorous, vigour vigour, n [1 vɪ gɔː, 2 vɪ gɔː] M.E., fr O Fr vigour, Lat vigor, 'liveliness, activity, force', fr base in vigere, 'to be lively', q v under vigil, & op vegetable 1 A Animal strength, force, potency, vitality, b powers of intellect, mental strength 2 A Strength, force, as exhibited in power of growth or of movement or action, activity, strength of bodily constitution, b force of character, c forceful, powerful action viking, n [1 viking, 2 viking] Affectedly & erroneously [viking] ON vikingr, prob fr vig, 'a fight, battle', op OE wig, 'war', cogn w Lat vic, form of vincere, 'to conquer', see victor & vincible, popularly confused w sea king, as though the second element in both words were the same, although there is in reality no connexion An ancient Scandinavian pirate, one of the northern adventurers who from the 8th to the 10th century ravaged and plundered nearly every coast in Europe vilyayet, n [1 vilyayet, vilyayet, 2 vilyayet, vilyet] Turk vilyayet, see Blighty One of the chief provinces of the old Ottoman Empire vile, adj [1 vil, 2 vail] ME, fr O Fr vil, fr Lat vilis, 'of small price or value, trifling, paltry, common', etymol unexplained, objections have been taken to each of the attempted solutions 1 (rare, archaic) Of no account, common, mean silver was held a vile thing in the days of Solomon, 'our vile body' (Phil in 21) 2 Morally degraded and debased, depraved, sinful 3 (colloq, as term of disapprobation) Highly objectionable, of bad, inferior, quality, atrocious, shocking a perfectly vile hat, a very vile phrase vilely, adv Prec & -ly In a vile manner, (colloq) very badly the dinner is vilely cooked, a vilely written letter vileness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being vile villify, vb trans [1 vilify, 2 vilify] Lat vilificare, 'to esteem of small value', see vile & -ify 1 To speak ill of, to defame, traduce 2 (rare and archaic) To render vile, to degrade villpend, vb trans [1 vilpend, 2 vilpend] Lat vilipendere, 'to hold in light esteem, to despise', fr vilis, see vile, & pendere, 'to weigh, estimate', see pendant To speak slightly of, to disparage villa, n [1 vila, 2 vilis] Lat villa, 'a country house, seat, farm, villa', for vicala*, fr vicius, 'hamlet, village', see vicinage a A house of some pretensions, or pretentiousness, de taobed, and with some ground round it, usually in a suburban area, also used b of a house, sometimes of considerable size in fairly large grounds, with a few acres of vine yard, olive trees &c, used as a residence for part of the year, in Italy or the south of France a villa on the Riviera villedom, n [1 villedom, 2 villedom] Prec & -dom Suburban society village, n [1 vilij, 2 vilidz] ME, fr O Fr, fr Lat villaticus, 'connected with a villa, or country house', see villa A collection of houses, larger than a hamlet, in a country district, usually an ancient settlement, containing a church and forming the residential nucleus of a parish village community, n Term used by 19th century writers on early society, to designate a primitive organized agricultural community, concerning the prestructure of which some difference of opinion exists villager, n [1 vilijer, 2 vilidza] village & -er One who lives in a village, a countryman, specif, one of the poorer, labouring inhabitants of a village villain, n [1 vilan, 2 vilan-en] ME villain, villain, fr O Fr, fr L Lat villanus, 'pertaining to a villa, or farm', see villa 1 (hist) Now usually spelt villain, a originally, a free born peasant, one of an inferior class of landholders, b later (13th cent) the term was applied to a class of serfs, adscript to the soil, and with no rights except to some degree of protection from their lord, by whom they could, however, be removed at will from such lands as they enjoyed. Later still the position of this class improved, so that they became free, and gradually, as regards tenure, developed into the class of copyholders 2 (obs or archaic) A low-born person, a churl, a rustic boor 3 a A scoundrel, one likely to commit, or who has committed, grave crimes, an infamous knave, b used playfully and affectionately, as the young villain has finished the jam, op similar use of rascal and rogue villainage, n See villeinage villainous, adj [1 villainus, 2 vilenes] villain & -ous 1 Characteristic of a villain, 3 a, infamous, exhibiting wickedness and rascality a villainous countenance, villainous conduct 2 (colloq) As general expression of disapproval, thoroughly bad in quality, badly done or made, ugly, nasty &c a villainous piece of mutton, suit of clothes, dinner &c villainously, adv Prec & -ly a In a villainous manner, after the manner of a villain, b very badly a villainously delivered sermon &c villainousness, n See prec & -ness a State or quality of being villainous, b villainous conduct villainy, n [1 vilani, 2 vilani] ME, fr O Fr vilei[n]ie, see villain & -y 1 (obs) Boorishness, rudeness, discourtesy 2 Villainous conduct, great wickedness, rascality, blackguardism villanella, n [1 vilanella, 2 vilanella] Ital, see villa, -an, & -elle Old Italian rustic dance accompanied by singing villanelle, n [1 vilanel, 2 vilanel] Fr form of prec A poem, esp in French, usually of 19 lines, and with only two rhymes villatio, adj [1 vilatik, 2 vilatik] Lat villaticus, 'pertaining to a farm', see village a Pertaining to a country house, b pertaining to a farm, rustic, c domestic 'the perched roosts and nests in order rang'd Of tame villatic fowl' (Milton, 'Samson', 1696, contrasted with the eagle) villagiatúra, n [1 vilajatúra, 2 vilidzátúra] Ital villagio, see village & -túra a Stay in the country, rustication, b A villa, house, in the country villain, n [1 vilin, 2 vilin] Spelling variant of villain, 1, with differentiation of meaning fr villain, 2, 3 villeinage, n [1 vilinj, 2 vilinidz] Prec & -age (feud law) a Status of a villan, see villain, 1, b tenure by which a villan or villan held his land, copyhold villiform, adj [1 viliform, 2 vilifom] See villus & -form Resembling vill in form and appearance, resembling pile of velvet villosity, n [1 vilosti, 2 vilosti] villous & -ity Condition or quality of being villous villous, adj [1 vilus, 2 vilis] Lat villösus, 'hairy, shaggy', see villus & -ous Covered with fine, woolly hairs, having a nap like velvet villus, n, pl villi [1 vilus, i, 2 vilis, oi] Lat, 'shaggy hair, tuft of hair', a dialectal variant of Lat vellus, 'fleece, pelt with wool left on it', see vellate 1 One of the minute processes resembling hairs which cover the mucous membrane of the intestines, giving a velvety appearance 2 One of the soft, woolly hairs found on some fruits and flowers vim, n [1 vim, 2 vim] Lat, acc of vis, 'force', see vis (colloq) Energy, vigour, spirit, abandon, go vimen, n [1 vimen, 2 vaimen] Lat, 'a plant twig, a switch, an osier', fr the base of viere, 'to band, twist, twine', see vine & viti- A long, slender, plant shoot or branch viminal, adj [1 viminal, 2 vaiminal] Stem of prec & -al 1 Pertaining to, of the nature of, resembling, a shoot or osier, b tending to produce long slender shoots vimineous, adj [1 vimineus, 2 vaimineus] Stem of vimen & -eous Viminal, consisting, made, of plant stems vinaceous, adj [1 vindshus, 2 vaiméshus]

See vine & -aceous a Pertaining to, resembling, the vine, or grapes, b having the colour of red wine vinagrette, n [1 vinagret, 2 vinsigret] Fr, fr vinagre, see vinegar & -ette a A small gold or silver box with a perforated inner lid, for carrying on the person, containing a small portion of sponge soaked in aromatic vinegar, b a smelling bottle vincibility, n [1 vinsibiliti, 2 vinsibiliti] Next word & -ity Quality of being vincible vincible, adj [1 vinsibl, 2 vinsibl] Lat vincibilis, 'that can be easily gained', fr vincere, 'to conquer, defeat, to gain', nasalized form of base vifc*, as in perf vifc, 'I have conquered', cogn w Goth weihan, OE & OHG wigan, 'to fight', see further victor (rare) Conquerable, not invincible vincibleness, n [1 vinsibleness, 2 vinsibleness] See prec & -ness Vincibility viniculum, n [1 vinkikulum, 2 vinkikulam] Lat, 'that with which anything is bound, a bond, a fetter', fr base of vincire, 'to bind, fetter', an expansion of base vi*, 'to bend, twist', as in viere, op viburnum & vimen & see vine & viti- 1 A bond, a tie 2 (math) A straight, horizontal line placed over two or more numbers of a compound quantity vindicability, n [1 vindikabiliti, 2 vindikabiliti] Next word & -ity Quality of being vindicable vindicable, adj [1 vindikabl, 2 vindikabl] See next word & -able Capable of being vindicated or justified vindicate, vb trans [1 vindikat, 2 vindikeit], fr Lat vindicat (um), P P of vindicare, 'to lay legal claim to anything, to revenge, avenge, take vengeance on', formed fr vindic, stem of vindex, 'one who lays legal claim to anything, a claimant, a protector, deliverer, an avenger', the origin of vin is disputed, the second element is the base deik*, dik*, 'to show, point out' &c, q v under diction 1 To establish the justice and validity of, to make good, to prove, obtain recognition of to vindicate one's claim, rights 2 To disprove, dispose of, aspersions, accusations, imputations against, to establish integrity or soundness of to vindicate one's honour, character, honesty &c, to vindicate one's judgement, also, to defend (person) from imputations &c vindication, n [1 vindikashun, 2 vindikashun] Prec & -ion Act of vindicating, state of being vindicated, a establishment of claims &c, b justification, defence, exculpation, from or against accusations, imputations &c vindicative, adj [1 vindikativ, 2 vindikativ] vindicate & -ive Tending to vindicate, of the nature of vindication vindicatively, adv Prec & -ly So as to vindicate vindicativeness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being vindicative vindicatory, adj [1 vindikatur, 2 vindikatur] vindicate & -ory Vindicative vindictive, adj [1 vindiktiv, 2 vindiktiv] Lat vindict, 'punishment, vengeance, revenge', see vindicate, & -ive a Animated by, arising from, characterized by, a desire for revenge, bearing a grudge, revengeful a vindictive character, spirit, action, b punitive vindictive damages, heavy damages awarded against a defendant with the intention of punishing him vindicatively, adv Prec & -ly In a vindictive manner vindictiveness, n See prec & -ness a Quality of being vindictive, b a vindictive action or spirit vine, n [1 vin, 2 van] ME, fr O Fr vine, fr Lat vinea, 'a plantation of grapes, a vineyard', fr vinum, 'wine', for uonum*, cogn w Gk oiné, 'the vine', oinos, 'wine', for uoin*, cp further Lat vinis, 'grape vine, vine branch', wh together w vinum, goes back to the base vi* &c, 'to bend, to twist, to twine, ramble', as in Lat viere, 'to bend, twist' &c, see further under viti-, & op vimen O E win, see wine, is borrowed direct fr Lat vinum 1 The plant, Vitis, esp species V. vinifera, which bears grapes 2 Any plant with long, slender, plant stems and tendrils, which twists and climbs or rambles, esp the trailing shoots and stems of such a plant a hop vine, the vines of a melon, of a pea &c vine-beetle, n Kind of beetle that destroys the shoots and leaves of the vine vine-borer, n Reddish-brown weevil which bores into the stems of the vine vine-dresser, n One who tends and prunes grape vines vinegar, n [1 vinegar, 2 vinige] M E vinegre, Fr vinaigre, lit 'sour wine', see vine & eager A liquid of extreme acidity, used as a preservative and a condiment, made by the fermentation of diluted wine, beer, or cider vinegar eel, n Minute worm found in vinegar and in sour or fermenting vegetable substances vinegar plant, n Microscopic fungus which produces vinegar by causing fermentation of wine &c vinegar tree, n Kind of sumach the acid berries of which are sometimes used to flavour vinegar vinegary, adj [1 vinegari, 2 vinigari] vinegar & -y 1 A saturated with, tasting of, vinegar, b very sour, or acid 2 (fig) Expressing ill temper, bitterness, malignity &c a vinegary smile vine maple, n Kind of American maple with recumbent stems which strike root and form a dense thicket vinery, n [1 vineri, 2 vinari] vine & -ry Heated glass house in which grapes are grown vineyard, n [1 vinyard, 2 vinjed] vine & yard An enclosed piece of ground in which grape vines are grown vingt-et-un, n [1 vánt a s, 2 vásteó] Fr, 'twenty one' Card game in which each player attempts to obtain from the dealer cards showing a total of 21 pips and no more vinic, adj [1 vinik, 2 vinik] Lat vinum, 'wine', see vine, & -ic Pertaining to, occurring in, wine vinicultural, adj [1 vinikulohural, 2 vinikált[ar]] viniculture & -al Pertaining to viniculture viniculturalist, n [1 vinikulohuralist, 2 vinikált[ar]ist] Prec & -ist Person who engages in viniculture viniculture, n [1 vinikulohur, 2 vinikált[a]] vine-, fr Lat vinum, see vine, & culture The cultivation of the vine, viticulture viniferous, adj [1 viniferus, 2 viniferas] Lat vinum, 'wine', see vine, & -ferous Producing wine vinification, n [1 vinifikáshun, 2 vinifikét[on]] vin- as in prec words, & -fication Process whereby grape or other fruit juice becomes alcoholic by fermentation vinifloator, n [1 vinifikátor, 2 vinifikéte] See prec & -or Apparatus for collecting alcoholic vapours in wine making vin ordinaire, n [1 ván ordinár, 2 ván ódnée] Fr, 'common wine' The cheap wine most abundantly produced in a given district in France, commonly mixed with water vinosity, n [1 vinósita, 2 vinóséti] Lat vinosus (em), see vinous & -ity Quality of being vinous vinous, adj [1 vinus, 2 vinas] Lat vinosus, 'full of, drunk with, wine, tasting of wine', fr vinum, 'wine', see vine, & -ous 1 Connected with wine, a having the properties, taste, smell, of wine, b wine-coloured 2 A inspired by wine vinous mirth, b affected by wine in a somewhat vinous condition vintage, n [1 vintrj, 2 vintridz] M E vindage, vendage, fr O Fr vendenge, op Mod Fr vendange, 'the gathering of grapes', fr Lat vindemia, 'grape gathering', fr vinum, 'wine', see vine, & an abstract suif formed fr démere, 'to take away', formed fr dē, 'away, from', see de-, & emere, 'to take, receive', later, 'to purchase', see second element in exempt, redeem, & pre-emption, the Mod Engl word has been influenced in form by association w vintrier 1 A Act of gathering and collecting grapes from the vines for wine making, b the period in a season during which this takes place 2 The yield of wine grapes in a given year a poor, an abundant, vintage this year, the great vintages of the seventies 3 Vintage wine he brought out his rare old vintages vintager, n [1 vintrjer, 2 vintridze] Prec & -er Grape gatherer vintage wine, n That made from the vintage of a specially good year, carefully set apart as the wine of that particular year vintrier, n [1 vintrier, 2 vintrje] M E vintrier, vintrier, fr O Fr vinetier, fr vinet, dimin of vin, 'wine', fr Lat vinum, see vine, & -er 1 A wholesale seller of wine, a wine merchant 2 The Vintners' Vintners' Company, one of the great, ancient City livery companies of London vinum, n [1 vinum, 2 vinam] Lat, 'wine', see vine (pharm) Medicated wine, medicinal enstance dissolved in wine vinyl, adj [1 vinil, 2 vinil] vine & -y Pertaining to, resembling, abounding in, vinee viol, n [1 viol, 2 vasil] M E, fr Fr viola, fr Ital or Span viola, or Provenç viola Origin uncertain, the Provenç may be fr an earlier vudla*, w metathesis, fr vidula*, fr L Lat vitula, 'a viol', see fiddle, but this is very doubtful Musical instrument of the fiddle family, the size and the number of strings vary, varieties are bass viol, or double bass, viol da braccio, see also next word viola (I), n [1 viola, viola, 2 vasola, viola] Ital. See prec Specific, the viol(a) da braccio, or tenor violin, larger than the ordinary violin, and smaller than the 'cello, played held in the left hand, its strings are tuned c g d a, the strings are thicker than those of a violin, and the tone deeper, viola da gamba, a larger type, held between the legs, resembling the 'cello viola (II), n [1 viola, 2 vasila] Lat, according to Walde, a dimin of via-*, borrowed fr Gk ion, earlier wion-*, perh related to the base in Gk thus, 'edge or rim', wh is prob cogn w Lat vitæ, 'to bend, twist', see viti- & vine, the viola or violet being used in weaving wreaths and crowns Genus of flowering plants, of the family Violaceae, including the pansy, the flowers are pre dominantly blue, purple, white, and yellow, in various shades violable, adj [1 violabl, 2 vasiabl] See violate & -able Capable of being violated

Violaceae, n pl [1 violásis, 2 vasiolésis] See viola (II) & -aceae (bot) Large family of flowering plants including violet and viola violaceous, adj [1 violáshus, 2 vasiolés[us]] See prec & -aceous a (bot) Belonging to the family Violaceae, b having the colour of violets, of a blue purple violate, vt trans [1 violát, 2 vasiolt] fr Lat violat (um), PP type of violare, 'to treat with violence, to injure, dishonour', formed fr viol, as in Lat violens (em), see violent, wh is an expansion of vte, 'strength, force', see vis 1 (obs or archaic) To treat with violence, mishandle, abuse 2 To desecrate, profane, treat with indignity (that which is sacred) to violate a tomb, a shrine, a church &c 3 A To infringe, break, disregard, act in contradiction to (a promise, oath, treaty &c), b to touch, seize, possess, wrongfully 'to violate The sacred fruit forbidden' (Milton, 'P L', ix 903-4) 4 To have carnal knowledge of, possess, (a woman) by force; to rape, to ravish violation, n [1 violáshun, 2 vasiolt[shun]] Lat violat[us] (em), see prec & -ion. Act of violating, state of being violated (in various senses), a desecration, b infringement, breaking (of an oath &c), c Interruption of, breaking into (a sleep, privacy &c), d rape violence, n [1 violens, 2 vasilans] Fr, fr Lat violencia, see violent & -oe 1 A Energetic, forcible action, effort vigorously exerted, impetuosity, vehemence to attack an enemy with violence, b powerful, impetuous, tumultuous movement the violence of the wind and waves, also c of non material effort or vigour violence of invective, of a person's passions, emotions &c 2 Force, strength, effort, exerted with undue, unnecessary, or unlawful vehemence and rigour, roughness, turbulence, (in material and non material sense) to handle a prisoner, a patient, with violence, the mob behaved with great violence, crimes of violence, the speech was uncompromising, but free from violence 3 Injury, insult, profanation offered to what is sacred you have done violence to my deepest convictions, to do violence to the holy things of God 4 Specific, rape violent, adj [1 violens, 2 vasilans] Fr, fr Lat violens (em), see violate 1 Characterized by very forcible, vehement, rapid, often sudden, movement, boisterous, tumultuous, impetuous a violent storm, wind, earthquake 2 A Requiring, exhibiting, a powerful voluntary exertion of muscular strength violent efforts, exertion, struggle to escape, a violent blow, b showing results of, caused by, some powerful stimulus independent of the will, severe, intense a violent cough, spasm &c 3 Due to a powerful external physical cause, caused by violence, unnatural a violent death 4 Characterized by, arising from, violence of the emotions and passions a violent rage, a violent speech &c 5 (as intens) a Very great, of intense severity a violent toothache, a violent attack of the gout, b exaggerated, extreme a violent contrast of colour Phr (law) a violent presumption, one based on evidence that is practically conclusive violéscent, adj [1 violésent, 2 vasiolsent] viola & -escent Tending towards the colour of violets viola (I), n [1 viola, 2 vasil] Fr viollette, see viola (I) & -ette 1 Flower or plant of the viola species, specif, a common sort, wild or cultivated, with strongly scented flowers, purple, mauve, or white, also a rather similar flower found in woods &c without a scent 2 The colour resembling that of violets, a bluish-purple, found at the higher end of the spectrum violet (II), adj, fr prec Having the colour of violets, bluish-purple violet-powder, n Toilet-powder scented with the perfume of violets violet-root, n Trade name for ornus root violin, n [1 violin, 2 vasilín] Ital violino, dimin of viola (I) A fiddle, smaller instrument of the viola family, having a treble tone and four strings, g, d, a, e, held in left hand and supported under the chin, the notes being formed by the fingers of left hand upon the strings, which are set in vibration with a bow violinist, n [1 violínist, 2 vasilínist] Prec & -ist A player of the violin violist, n [1 violist, 2 vasilist] viol or viola (I) & -ist Player of the viol or viola violoncellist, n [1 violonchélust, 2 violantjé-lust] Next word & -ist Player of the violoncello violoncello, n [1 violonchéló, 2 violantjélou] Ital, dimin of violone, 'a large viola', see viola (I) A bass viol, stringed instrument similar in shape to a viola and a violin, but much larger than the former, played by being held between the knees and fingered like a violin The strings are very thick and have a bass tone violone, n [1 violóná, 2 violounes] Ital, see violoncello 1 The largest instrument of the viola family, the contra-bass, or double bass 2 An organ stop with similar quality of tone viper, n [1 viper, 2 vaipe] Fr vipère, fr Lat vipera, fr base wei p*, wei b*, 'to move rapidly, twist, coil', see discussion under vibrate & vina, the type woop* occurs in Goth (b) wasþjan, 'to weave round, wind about'. 1 Any of several venomous snakes, of which the adder is the only one found in Britain. Phr to cherish a viper in one's bosom, to show kindness to one who proves an unworthy and ungrateful traitor. 2 A malignant, ungrateful, treacherous person.

viperiform, adj [1 viperiform, 2 vaipefɔrm] Preo & -form Shaped like, resembling, a viper.

viperine, adj [1 viperin, 2 vaipeɪn] viper & -ine Pertaining to, resembling, of the nature of, a viper.

viperish, adj [1 viperish, 2 vaipeɪʃ] viper & -ish Like a viper in character, malignant, treacherous.

viperous, adj [1 viperus, 2 vaipeɪəs] viper & -ous Viperish.

viperously, adv Preo & -ly In a viperous way.

viperousness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being viperous, malignity, spite, treachery.

virago, n [1 virāgō, 2 viréigou] Lat, 'a man like, vigorous maiden, a female warrior', fr vir, 'a man', see virile. A violent, brawling female, a loud voiced, ill tempered, scolding woman, a vixen, termagant, shrew.

viréla, n [1 viréla, 2 viréla] O Fr viréla, perh orig a meaningless refrain, later Jai, through association w lay (I). One of several kinds of Old French poems having two rhymes and a refrain, or in stanza form, the stanzas being interlocked by recurrent rhymes.

viréscence, n [1 viréscence, 2 viréscens] viréscence & -ce A process of becoming, state of being, green greenness, b specif (bot) abnormal greenness in petals of flowers usually white or coloured.

viréscant, adj [1 viréscant, 2 viréscant] Lat viréscant (em), Preo Part of viréscere, 'to grow green', freq of virere, 'to be green, to be fresh and vigorous', 'to flourish', op viridis, 'green', prob related to vivere, 'to live', see viridity & words there referred to. Becoming, turning, green, greenish.

virgate (I), adj [1 virgāt, 2 vāgāt] Lat virgatus, 'made of twigs or osiers', fr virga, 'twig, sprout, switch, rod', this is for earlier virgā*, the basal meaning of wh seems to be 'a plant shoot or twig', cogn. w Sort vēršā, 'a noose', O H G wak, 'a whisk, switch', see whist (II), w wh op O E wascan, fr wascan*, 'to clean (a house &c)', lit 'to sweep it with a whisk or basket of twigs', for suff see -ate (bot) Rod or wand shaped.

virgate (II), n L Lat virgata, virgata terras, a land measure, op rod in sense of a measure. Same word as preo Old English measure of land equal to a quarter of an acre.

Virgilian, adj [1 virgilian, 2 vādjilian] fr name of Virgil, Latin poet, & -an. Connected with, in the style of, Virgil.

virgin (I), n [1 virgin, 2 vādjān] M E, fr O Fr virgine, fr Lat virgin (em), 'a virgin', stem of Virgo. 1 A woman who has had no carnal knowledge of a man, b a member of a female religious or other order bound by vows of chastity. 2 The Virgin, the Mother of Christ, the Virgin Mary, b a Virgin, picture or statue of the Virgin Mary. 3 (more rarely) A man who has had no carnal knowledge of women. 4 Female insect that produces eggs without impregnation. 5 The sign of the zodiac, Virgo.

virgin (II), adj, fr preo 1 Being a virgin, chaste. For I was ever virgin save for thee (Tennyson). Phr the Virgin Queen, Queen Elizabeth. 2 Characteristic of, befitting, a virgin, chaste, modest virgin blushes, virgin fancies. 3 Untouched, untrampled, undefiled, unalloyed virgin snow. 4 Undisturbed, unapproached, unmixed, never yet used, never before cultivated, in various Phrs. virgin forest, from which no timber has been cut, virgin gold, pure, unalloyed, virgin honey, that which flows from an unopened comb, without pressure, virgin oil, that produced from the first, light pressure of olives, virgin parchment, that made from the skins of new born lambs, a virgin peach, one which has never yet been scolded, virgin soil, (1) land which has never before been cultivated, (u) (fig) said of a mind which is unsophisticated and untouched by prejudice, or which is new to a particular range of ideas.

virginal (I), adj [1 virginal, 2 vādjinal] Fr virginal, fr Lat virginālis, see virgin (I) & -al Belonging to, befitting, becoming in, a virgin, unalloyed, pure, innocent virgin bloom, modesty &c; virginal generation, parthenogenesis, virginal membrane, the hymen.

virginal (II), n, fr preo, prob so called fr being commonly played by young men & girls. A kind of spinet, with one string to a note, square and without legs, popular in the 18th and 17th centuries, (also in pl) the virginals.

virginhood, n [1 virginhood, 2 vādjinhud] virgin & -hood State of being a virgin.

Virginia, n [1 virginia, 2 vādjina] One of the States of N America, named after the Virgin Queen (Elizabeth). Virginia creeper, Ampelopsis, ornamental climbing and climbing plant with large leaves, which turn red in autumn, grown on the walls of buildings, Virginia tobacco, also called simply Virginia, tobacco grown in Virginia and other Southern States of U.S.A.

Virginian, adj & n [1 virginian, 2 vādjinian] Preo & -an adj Belonging to, coming from, the State of Virginia, b n, a native of Virginia.

virginity, n [1 virginity, 2 vādjinitē] M E, fr Fr virginité, fr Lat virginitas (em), see virgin & -ity State, quality, of being a virgin.

virgo, n [1 virgō, 2 vāgou] Lat, 'virgin', etymol doubtful, but most prob connected w Lat virga, 'young, plant shoot, twig', see virgate (I), op young spring, for a youth. 1 (cap) The constellation, known also as the Virgin, the sixth sign of the zodiac. 2 Virgo inlata, Lat, 'intact virgin', a woman or girl who is a complete virgin, never approached by a man.

virgulate, adj [1 virgūlāt, 2 vāgūlāt] Lat virgula, dimin. of virga, 'a rod' &c, see virgate & -ate Rod shaped.

virgule, n [1 virgūl, 2 vāgūl] Fr, fr Lat virgula, see preo. A comma in punctuation.

viridescence, n [1 viridescence, 2 viridescens] Next word & -ce 1 Greenness, verdancy, verdure, colour of grass or of young foliage. 2 Freshness, vigour, youthful vitality.

viridescent, adj [1 viridescant, 2 viridescant] Lat viridescant (em), Preo Part of viridescere, 'to grow green', formed fr viridis, 'green', see viridity, & freq suff See -esc Greenish, verging on green in colour.

viridity, n [1 viriditē, 2 viriditē] Lat viriditē (em), fr viridis, 'green', & -ity, viridis for g-w* is connected w Lat virere, 'to be green, to bloom, to flourish', see viréscant, op the cognates, Gk dierds, fr g-w*, 'moist, fresh, juicy, fresh, active', Sort virat, 'lively, active, stirring', also for g-w*, & O Slav žiti, fr g-w*, 'pasture'. The underlying base is g-w*, 'to live, be lively' &c, whence Lat vivere, 'to live', see vivacious, & via, 'life', see vital, op also verdant, verdure, vert (I). A Greenness, esp of grass or young foliage, b mental or bodily freshness, liveliness, springiness to show a healthy viridity in old age.

virile, adj [1 viril, 2 virail], more rarely [1 viril, 2 vādjail] Lat virilis, 'belonging to a man, male, masculine, manly, firm, vigorous, spirited', fr vir, 'a male person, a man', cogn. w Goth var, 'man', O H G, O S, & O E wer, see first element in werewolf, Sort viril, 'man, hero', Lith vyras, 'man'. The word is ultimately fr the base in Lat vis, 'strength, vigour', for vir, see vis, op also virtue. 1 Having the physical attributes and qualities of fully grown, mature man, specif, capable of procreation, not impotent. 2 Having the characteristics of a man in habits, mind, character, male, masculine, manly, contrasted with womanly, feminine. virile strength, courage, voice, glance, a virile intelligence. 3 Hence, strong, vigorous, forceful, forcible, spirited, sturdy, robust. a virile government, a virile mind, a virile literary style.

virilésence, n [1 virilésence, 2 virilésens] Next word & -ce The acquiring of male characters by a female animal when old or sterile.

viriléscent, adj [1 viriléscent, 2 virilésant] Lat viril, see virile, & inchoative suff, see -esc Tending to acquire male characters, of female animals in old age and sterility.

virility, n [1 virilitē, 2 virilitē] Lat virilitas (em) See virile & -ity Quality of being virile, a potency, power of procreation, b masculinity of character &c, manliness, o vigour, force, robustness. virility of style.

virosé, adj [1 virōs, 2 vāros] Lat virōsus, 'poisonous', fr virus, 'poison', see virus, & -ous Poisonous, having a bad smell, fetid.

virous, adj [1 virus, 2 vāros] Preo w suff -ous Virosé.

virtu, n [1 virtū, 2 vādjū] Ital virtù, 'excellence', see virtue. 1 Esp in Phr, object, article, of virtu, object &c possessing qualities of artistic merit, and value, of rarity and exquisite workmanship. 2 Love for, knowledge of, fine art and craftsmanship; fondness for antiquities and curios.

virtual, adj [1 virchūal, virtūal, 2 vādjūal, vādjūal] Fr virtuel, see virtue & -al Being in effect and essence, though not in name, that specified, being for all practical purposes though not defined as such. the Prime Minister is the virtual ruler of the country.

virtuality, n [1 virchūaliti, virtūaliti, 2 vādjūaliti, vādjūaliti] Preo & -ity State, quality, of being virtual.

virtually, adv [1 virchūal, 2 vādjūal] virtual & -ly In point of fact, to all intents and purposes. the dialect of the City of London in the 12th and 13th centuries was virtually the same as that of Essex.

virtue, n [1 virchū, 2 vādjū, ū] M E, fr O Fr vertu, Lat virtus (em), stem of virtus, 'manliness, manhood, excellence, virtue, merit, moral perfection, virtue, courage, valour, value', fr vir, 'a man', see virile. 1 Positive, active, quality or property, capacity to effect a definite, specific result, potency. 'When that Aprille with his showers sole had bathed every veyne in swich licour, Of which vertu engendred is the flour' (Chaucer, Prologue of 'O T', 1-4), Jesus perceived that virtue had gone out of Him when a woman touched Him in the crowd, every quack extols the virtue of the nostrums which he sells. Phrs by virtue of, by means of, through the instrumentality of, in virtue of, on the strength of, on the ground of, promoted in virtue of his high descent, rather than of his abilities. 2 Good quality, merit, value, a place which lacks the virtue of beauty, but has at least that of being bracing. 3 A moral excellence, the practice of goodness, integrity, uprightness of character, honourable conduct, rectitude. we have all been taught to love virtue, but we too often forget it in our conduct, b some specific moral excellence. humility is a virtue difficult to attain to. Phrs the cardinal virtues, prudence, fortitude, temperance, justice, theological, Christian, virtues, faith, hope, charity, to make a virtue of necessity, affect to do from a sense of duty that which one is compelled to do. 4 Chastity, esp in a woman. it is hard for a poor, unprotected girl to preserve her virtue in a dissolute city. Phr a lady of easy virtue, one who is unchaste. 5 One of the orders of celestial beings. Thrones, dominations, principdoms, virtues, powers (Milton, 'P L', v. 601).

virtuosity, n [1 vɜrtʃuəsi, 2 vɜrtʃuəsi] virtuoso & -ity 1 Quality, state, of being a virtuoso 2 High degree of technical skill and dexterity in one of the fine arts, esp in music 3 Fondness for, knowledge of, articles of art virtuoso, n [1 vɜrtʃuəso, 2 vɜrtʃuəso, 3 vɜrtʃuəso] virtuosos, virtuosi [1 vɜrtʃuəso, 2 vɜrtʃuəsi] Ital, fr Lat virtuosus, see virtuous 1 A person with a high degree of technical skill as a performer in one of the fine arts, esp in music 2 Person with an intimate knowledge of curios, antiques &c virtuous, adj [1 vɜroʊəs, 2 vɜrtʃuəs] Lat virtuosus, see virtus & -ous 1 Having, practising, moral virtue, morally good, honourable 2 Specif (of women) chaste virtuously, adv Preo & -ly In a virtuous manner virtuousness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being virtuous, the practice of virtue virulence, -cy, n [1 vɪrələns(i), 2 vɪrələns(i)] Next word & -ce or -cy Quality, state, of being virulent (in material and non-material senses) virulent, adj [1 vɪrələnt, 2 vɪrələnt] Fr, fr Lat virulentus, 'poisonous', see virus 1 Poisonous, venomous, deadly, noxious, extremely severe a virulent disease, measles of the most virulent kind 2 Malignant, bitter, spiteful virulent animosity, abuse &c virulently, adv Preo & -ly In a virulent manner, to a virulent degree, with virulence virus, n [1 vɪrəs, 2 vɪərəs] Lat, 'a slimy liquid, slime, a poisonous liquid, poison, pungency', for *vizus, cogn w Gk idos, 'poison', fr *visos, Sort visum, 'poison', connected w Sort visum, 'melts, liquefies', also w Lat viscum, 'mistletoe', lit 'the sticky berry', see viscum 1 (med) The active organic element or poison which infects with and produces contagious disease the virus of scarlet fever, of rabies, anthrax &c 2 Any influence which causes moral corruption, which affects adversely the mind or the spirit the virus of revolution, of sedition, heresy &c vis, n [1 vɪz, 2 vɪz] Lat vis, pl vires, 'physical or mental strength, force, vigour, power, energy, hostile force, strength, violence', cogn w Gk is for *vis, 'strength, force, nerve, thew, sinew', Sort vayad, 'vital force', connected w Lat vis, 'man', see virile Used in various Phrs vis animi, 'force of soul', courage, vis inertiae, 'force of inertia', tendency of bodies to remain at rest if resting, or to move uniformly in a straight line if moving, vis medicatrix naturae, 'healing power of nature', natural power of recovery, tendency to throw off disease, vis mortua, 'dead force', tendency towards motion, vis motiva, power of producing mechanical effect, vis viva, 'living force', measure of a body's mass multiplied by the measure of its velocity In plural, see ultra vires visa, n & vb [1 vɪzə, 2 vɪzə] See visé visage, n [1 vɪʒ, 2 vɪʒɪdʒ] Fr, fr O Fr vis, 'face', op vis-à-vis, fr Lat visus, 'sight, faculty of seeing, a look, a glance', see vision (I), & -age The face, countenance, of a human being, rarely applied to the face of an animal visaged, adj [1 vɪʒɪd, 2 vɪʒɪdʒd] Preo & -ed Having a specified kind of visage, esp in compounds dark visaged, long-visaged &c visard See visor vis-à-vis, adv & n [1 vɪz ə vɪ, 2 vɪz ə vɪ] Fr, 'face to face', fr vis, 'face', see visage 1 adv Opposite he and I sat vis-à-vis at meals during the voyage. 2 n A person placed, sitting, opposite to another I haven't yet spoken to my vis-à-vis, b a conveyance in which passengers sit facing one another, o S shaped couch or seat in which persons sitting at the ends face each other viscacha, n [1 vɪskəʃə, 2 vɪskətʃə] Span, fr S American S American burrowing rodent, resembling, but larger than, a chinchilla, with valuable soft grey fur viscaria, n [1 vɪskəriə, 2 vɪskeəriə] fr Lat viscum, 'mistletoe, birdlime', see viscum & viscosus Alpine plant with upright visuous stems viscera, n pl [1 vɪsərə, 2 vɪsərə] Lat, pl of viscus, 'internal organs of an animal', according to Walde, most prob fr base *wer- &c, 'to twist, wind round', as in Lat viere, 'to twist, twine' &c, see vine & viti- The internal organs of the animal body, esp the heart, lungs, bowels, liver &c visceral, adj [1 vɪsərəl, 2 vɪsərəl] Preo & -al Pertaining to, connected with, of the nature of, viscera viscerate, vb trans [1 vɪsərət, 2 vɪsərət] viscera & -ate (rare) To viscerate, remove the viscera from visceri-, viscero-, pref Forms of viscera used in compounds visceri pericardial, of the body cavity of molluscs, which is divided into two parts, the upper containing the heart, the lower the other viscera, viscero motor, conducting motor impulses to the viscera viscid, adj [1 vɪsɪd, 2 vɪsɪd] Lat viscidus, 'sticky', fr viscum, 'mistletoe, birdlime', see viscum Glutinous, sticky, having a syrupy consistency viscidify, n [1 vɪsɪdɪ, 2 vɪsɪdɪtɪ] Preo & -ity Stickiness, adhesiveness viscin, n [1 vɪsɪn, 2 vɪsɪn] See viscum & -in Sticky substance occurring in the berries of the mistletoe viscous, n [1 vɪskəs, 2 vɪskəs] See preo & -ose Form of cellulose used in artificial silk manufacture viscosity, n [1 vɪskəsɪti, 2 vɪskəsɪti] viscous & -ity Stickiness, property in viscous fluids whereby resistance is offered to rearrangement of the molecules viscount, n [1 vɪkaʊnt, 2 vɪkaʊnt] O Fr viscomite, see vice (IV) & count (III) Male person holding the rank of nobility immediately below that of earl, often as second title of an earl, and used as courtesy title by his eldest son before he succeeds viscountess, n [1 vɪkaʊntes, 2 vɪkaʊntes] Preo & -ess Wife of a viscount, courtesy title often borne by wife of an earl's eldest son, lady holding this rank in her own right viscountship, n [1 vɪkaʊntʃɪp, 2 vɪkaʊntʃɪp] See preo & -ship Viscounty viscountcy, n [1 vɪkaʊnt(sɪ), 2 vɪkaʊnt(sɪ)] viscount & -y Rank, status, of a viscount viscous, adj [1 vɪskəs, 2 vɪskəs] Lat viscidus, 'sticky', fr viscum, 'birdlime', see viscum, & -ous Sticky, glutinous, adhesive, possessing viscosity viscum, n [1 vɪskəm, 2 vɪskəm] Lat, 'mistletoe, birdlime', cogn w Gk iske for *viskos, 'mistletoe, birdlime', O H G w dimun suff vischela, Mod Germ weischel, 'wild cherry', fr the Gmc word, w different suff, comes O Fr guigne for *visen, Mod Fr guigne, 'wild cherry', the -n suff occurs also in the O Slav cogn visna, op also O Fr guis, Mod Fr gui, 'mistletoe', fr a Gmc *visk- Walde suggests that the base is ultimately connected w virus 1 The mistletoe, a parasitic plant bearing greenish-white berries filled with a sticky glutinous substance 2 Birdlime, often made from the berries of the mistletoe visé, n & vb trans [1 vɪzə, 2 vɪzeɪ] Fr, P P of viser, 'to inspect', formed fr vis, 'a look, glance', see vis-à-vis 1 n Also visé, official endorsement on a passport showing that it has been examined and authenticated 2 vb To put a visé upon (a passport) visibility, n [1 vɪzɪbɪlɪti, 2 vɪzɪbɪlɪti] visible & -ity State, quality, of being visible, specif, state of the atmosphere and light in reference to the distance at which objects can be clearly seen visible, adj [1 vɪzɪbl, 2 vɪzɪbl] Fr, fr Lat visibilis, fr vis, a form of base *vid- &c, 'to see', see vision (I), & -ible 1 To be seen, perceptible, apparent, to the eye, discoverable by the eye lights no longer visible, many stars are visible by the help of a telescope, but not to the naked eye, without visible means of support, the visible church, the whole body of the faithful throughout the world, visible horizon, farthest distance that can be seen from a given spot, visible speech, a system of phonetic notation invented by Melville Bell (1819-1905), later known as the Organic Alphabet, by means of which each speech sound is represented by a symbol indicating the actual positions of the vocal organs 2 (as n) The visible, the material, visible world, contrasted with the invisible or spiritual world visibleness, n Preo & -ness Visibilty visibly, adv See preo & -ly In a visible manner, to a visible extent, so as to be visible, perceptibly, appreciably visibly excited, moved, not visibly larger than it was an hour ago vision (I), n [1 vɪʒən, 2 vɪʒən] Lat visio-(em), 'act or sense of seeing, sight, apparition, appearance, a notion', fr vis, type scan in P P of videre, 'to see', see also vide, *vis arises fr *vid to, whence *visio, whence *vis, w amplification of -ss after a long vowel The Aryan base is *ueid-, *uoid-, *uid-, 'to know, to see', for other cognates see -oid, idea, idol (Gk), & wit (I), wise (I) (Gmc) 1 a The sense by which light, colour, form, are perceived by the eye, power, faculty, of seeing, sight, b the act of sight, actual seeing 2 a Faculty of forming mental images, pictures of objects and conditions, esp the power of seeing things in the mind as they really are, imagination, insight, intuition vision is as indispensable to a statesman as to a poet, b specific mental picture evoked by the power of the prophetic imagination, a poet's dream 'Saw the vision of the world, and all the wonder that would be' (Tennyson, 'Locksley Hall'), 'The poet's vision of eternal fame' (Pope, 'Dunciad', n 12) 3 a Something seen, a sight, a spectacle, a view the bride was a lovely vision, I had only a momentary vision of the sea, b something seen or believed to be seen under conditions which are abnormal, a sight prophetically revealed to the bodily eyes by supernatural means, an appearance, supposed to be more substantial than a dream, of objects, scenes, or events which, though real, are not actually present in a material state to the eye of the beholder, an apparition, a phantasm vision (II), vb trans, fr preo (very rare) To perceive in the form of a vision visional, adj [1 vɪʒənəl, 2 vɪʒənəl] vision (I) & -al Pertaining to, of the nature of, a vision visionary (I), adj [1 vɪʒənəri, 2 vɪʒənəri] vision (I) & -ary 1 Pertaining to, of the nature of, a vision, seen in a vision a visionary form beckoned me to follow 2 Existing only in visions, having no reality or substance, unsubstantial, imaginary, unreal, chimerical, impossible of realization, impracticable madmen often live amid visionary splendours, visionary schemes, projects &c 3 (of persons) Given to seeing visions, a dreamy, imaginative, idealistic, b given to forming impracticable, unworkable schemes, impractical, flighty, vewy visionary (II), n, fr preo 1 One who sees visions, a dreamer, an idealist, one having prophetic vision, a mystic 2 One who dreams of, hopes for, impossible things, one who lives in an unreal world of his own and forms impracticable, unsubstantial projects, and plans that are impossible to carry out visit (I), vb trans & intrans [1 vɪzɪt, 2 vɪzɪt] Fr visiter, fr Lat visitare, 'to see frequently, to go to see', freq of visare, 'to look at often or attentively, to behold, survey, to go to see, visit', formed fr vis, as in visum, P P of videre, 'to see', see vide, & vision (I) A trans 1 To go to see, call upon, (a person) as a social duty, out of friendliness, friendship, or as an act of kindness to visit a new neighbour, an old friend, a sick person 2 To go to see, examine, inspect, as a matter of professional duty, or as an official a doctor visits his patients, a bishop cannot visit every parish in his diocese every year 3 a To go to (a place) to visit foreign countries, a pictures gallery &c, b to be habitually or constantly at, to frequent to visit public houses and low haunts 4 To come to or upon with some definite object, or with some definite result, a (archaic) to come upon with blessing 'He hath visited and redeemed his people', b to attack plague and famine often visit India B intrans To make, pay, visits to visit in the country, to visit at strange houses visit (II), n Fr visite, fr prec 1 Act of visiting, a journey to the house of another in order to see and converse with him, a friendly call, b a call made for professional, business, or official reasons my doctor charges half a guinea for each visit, a visit from a tax-collector, an inspector of drama, a policeman, a journey to a specific object or place for the purpose of inspecting or becoming acquainted with it a visit to the Tower, to London &c 2 A temporary abode or stay in a house, at a place, other than one's habitual place of residence I don't live here, I'm only on a visit, a brief visit to Ireland, to pay a round of visits in country houses visitable, adj [1 vizitabl, 2 vizitabl] visit (I) & -able 1 To which a visit may be made, worth visiting hardly anything visitable in the place 2 Desirable to visit, of such social standing as to warrant a visit a few visitable neighbours visitant, adj & n [1 vizitant, 2 vizitant] Lat visitant (em), Pres Part of visitare, see visit (I) 1 adj (rare) Visiting 2 n a (post or rhet) A passing visitor, a temporary guest, esp an important, august, visitor a glorious visitant from some brighter sphere, b specif, a migratory bird, c (cap) a nun of the Order of Visitation in R.C. Church visitation, n [1 vizitashun, 2 vizitashun] Lat visitation (em), see visit (II) & -ation 1 Act of visiting, state of being visited, a visit 2 Specif, an official, ceremonial, visit of a high official or dignitary for purposes of inspection, conference, giving of admonition and instruction &c archdeacons hold periodical visitations in their archdeaconries, visitation of the sick, (i) visit of a clergyman to sick parishioners, (ii) office for such occasions in Prayer Book 3 A visit of a herald to inquire into the right to bear arms, or to hear claims for grants of arms, to persons within his province, b official document recording results of a herald's visitation 4 (colloq) A protracted visit I fear we have paid you a regular visitation 5 Special act (i) of divine favour, or, (ii) more commonly, of wrath, a calamity, an awe-inspiring event, thought of as directly retributive plague was formerly regarded as a visitation of God for the people's sins, the late gale was a disastrous visitation 6 (zool) An unusually large migration of birds or animals, or one taking place at an unusual season 7 (cap) Festival com memorating the visit of St Elizabeth to the B.V.M.

visitation, adj [1 vizitashun, 2 vizitashun] LL visitation, 'visitor', & -ial Pertaining to, connected with, an official visitor, superintendent &c, or his visitations visitatorial powers, functions &c, Visitation Board, (Oxford University) a permanent body having powers of supervision and control over the teachers and other officers of the University in the performance of their duties visiting, adj [1 viziting, 2 viziting] Pres Part of visit (I) Visiting card, small strip of cardboard with name and address of caller engraved upon it, left at houses on the occasion of a visit Phr on visiting terms, having social relations sufficiently intimate for the exchange of visits visitor, n [1 vizitor, 2 vizite] visit (I) & -or, cp Fr visiteur 1 One who visits, a caller we had quite a number of visitors this afternoon 2 Person making a temporary stay at a place, in a house other than his own place of abode we had a succession of visitors all the summer, visitors' book, one kept, according to law, in an hotel, in which the names and addresses of visitors are written, book kept in private house, in which guests inscribe their names and the dates of their arrival and departure 3 (usually cap) Official specially appointed to make visits of inspection to a corporate body, institution &c to hear statements of grievances, to give a ruling on the interpretation of statutes, and generally to act as superintendent and adviser visor, vizor, visard, vizard, n [1 vizor(d), 2 vavz(d)] M.E. fr A-Fr visere, O Fr visiers, fr O Fr vis, 'face', see vis-à-vis 1 Part of a helmet which could be raised or lowered to cover and protect the face 2 The peak of a cap vista, n [1 vista, 2 vista] Ital, 'sight, view', fem of viso, P.P. of vedere, Lat vidēre, see view, vision (I), vide 1 A view, prospect, esp one seen through a long narrow space enclosed on either side, as by rows of trees, sides of a mountain &c, also the narrow space itself before it opens out 2 Mental view or prospect, long series of memories of past events and experiences &c called up before the mind's eye, also a series of such mental pictures representing hopes and anticipations for the future to look back through the vistas of the past, I seem to see long vistas of future happiness visual, adj [1 vizhual, vizual, 2 vizjuel, vizjuel] O Fr, fr Lat visuālis, fr visus, 'sight', see vision (I), & -al 1 Connected, concerned, with the sense of sight visual images, sensations, used in sight the visual nerve 2 Perceived by the eye, visible the apparition was visual, not a product of the imagination visuality, n [1 vizhualiti, vizualiti, 2 vizjueliti, vizjueliti] Pres & -ity Condition, quality, of being visual, visibility visualization, n [1 vizhū, vizualizashun, 2 vizju, vizualizashun] visualize & -ation 1 Act, process, power, of visualizing 2 Mental image created by visualizing, that which is visualized 3 Faculty of producing vivid mental images in others by artistic description visualize, vb trans & intrans [1 vizhū, vizualiz, 2 vizju, vizjueliz] visual & -ize 1 trans To render visual, specif, to call up a clear image of in the mind, to see with the eye of the mind I find it difficult to visualize the garden as it will be after the alterations, if I shut my eyes I can visualize the scene and the colors, as I actually saw them 2 intrans To carry out the process, perform the act, of visualizing some people can recall a sound or a tune mentally, but are quite unable to visualize visualizer, n [1 vizhū vizualizer, 2 vizju, vizjueliz] Pres & -er Person who visualizes, one who is able to visualize, specif, one whose mental images are mainly visual visually, adv [1 vizhual, vizual, 2 vizjuel, vizjuel] visual & -ly In a visual manner, so as to become visual vita glass, n [1 vita glahs, 2 vavtē glās] Trade and proprietary name, fr Lat vita, 'life', see next word A special kind of glass, for windows &c, which does not exclude the health giving ultra-violet rays of the sunlight vital, adj [1 vīd, 2 vavtē] Lat vitalis, 'belonging to life', fr vita, 'life', & -al, vita, 'life, livelihood, way of life', is for 'vivat', fr Lat base in vivere, 'to live, be alive, to lead a specified kind of life, to remain, endure', the Aryan base is *g^uew, *g^uew (to) &c, wh has many derivatives in most Aryan languages, close cognates w Lat vita, fr *g^uewita, are Gk bios, 'life, means of life', bioeia, 'way of life, livelihood', for *g^uewit, cp bios, 'course of life', see bio-, O Ir buid, 'means of life', beithu, 'life', fr *g^uewot, Goth gwa, 'living', see quick (I), further cognates under this word & bio-, see also zoo- 1 Connected with, pertaining to, having to do with, essential to, arising from, animal life vital functions, power, vital part (of the body), vital movements, vital warmth, vital wound, one in a vital part, mortal, vital statistics, those dealing with the duration of life, and conditions affecting this, in a given area 2 a Having life, living (rare or archaic in physical sense), b full of life, vitality, and spirit, lively, animated his style was always vital and interesting 3 Essential to the existence of something, necessary, essential to some object or purpose, important, momentous vital to one's purpose, to a scheme, this paragraph is vital, of vital importance vitalism, n [1 vitalizm, 2 vavtēlizm] Pres & -ism Doctrine that organic life is the result of a principle outside of, and distinct from, the operation of physical forces, contrasted with mechanism vitalist, n [1 vitalist, 2 vavtēlist] vital & -ist Adherent of vitalism vitalistic, adj [1 vitalistik, 2 vavtēlistik] Pres & -ic Pertaining to vitalism or to vitalists, of the nature of vitalism vitality, n [1 vītālitē, 2 vavtēlitē] Lat vitalitas (em) See vital & -ity 1 Vital force, animal life, strength, bodily vigour, capacity to live vitality is greatly reduced in old age 2 Vigour, liveliness, elasticity, of mind, spirit, animation, expression of this in literature and art 3 Capacity to last, quality of permanence, durability much of the poetry of every age is of merely transitory value and lacks vitality vitalization, n [1 vitalizashun, 2 vavtēl-ashun] See next word & -ation Act, process, of vitalizing, state of being vitalized vitalize, vb trans [1 vitaliz, 2 vavtēl-iz] vital & -ize a To give, impart, vitality to, to make alive, endow with life good food vitalizes the blood, b (more frequent in non-material sense) (i) to give spirit, animation, to, make living to vitalize a dull subject of study, (ii) to revive, render active and vital to vitalize one's religion, the patriotic spirit &c vitalizer, n [1 vitalizer, 2 vavtēl-iz] Pres & -er He who, that which, vitalizes vitals, n'pl [1 vītē, 2 vavtē] vital, as n a The vital organs, the parts of the body necessary to life and health, esp the heart, lungs, liver, bowels &c, b (fig) that which is of the essence of anything, the inner kernel to tear the vitals out of a subject, get at the real gist vitamin, n [1 vitamin, 2 vavtēmin] Word coined fr Lat vita, 'life' See vital & amine Any one of various substances, the chemical nature of which is imperfectly known, present in the food, in its natural state, of man and animals, derived originally from plants, and essential to health and life, deficiency or lack of which causes such diseases as beriberi, rickets, scurvy &c, vitamins are classified as being soluble in fat or in water, and are divided into classes A, B, C &c, they are found in butter fat, cod liver oil, green leaves, yeast, some fresh fruits &c vitel- See vitellovitellarian, adj [1 vitellarian, 2 vavtēlarian] vitellarium & -an Connected with the vitellarium vitellarium, n [1 vitellarium, 2 vavtēlarium] See vitellus & -ary Part of the ovary in certain lowly organisms producing yolk-filled cells, distinct from the true eggs vitelligenous, adj [1 vitelligenus, 2 vavtēl-izinus] See vitellus & -genous Yolk-producing, of certain cells in the ovaries of insects vitellin, n [1 vitellin, 2 vavtēlin] vitellus & -in A protein found in the yolk of an egg vitelline, adj [1 vitellin, 2 vavtēlin] vitellus & -ine (embryology) Pertaining to the yolk of an egg vitello-, vital-, pref Forms of vitellus used in compounds vitellus, n [1 vitélus, 2 vitéles] Lat, 'a little calf, the yolk of an egg', dimin of vitulus, 'a calf', see vitular Yolk of an egg, (archaic) entire contents of an egg-shell viti-, pref denoting connexion w the vine, or w vines, fr Lat vitis, 'grape vine, vine branch', cogn w O Slav vitъ, 'something twisted', O HG wida, 'willow', & OE wiðig, 'a willow, a band', see withy, fr base seen in Lat vitēre, 'to twist, twine' See vine vitiate, vb trans [1 vishiāt, 2 vīstīst], fr Lat vitiat (um), PP of vitare, 'to make faulty, to mar, to taint, corrupt' &c, fr vitium, 'defect, blemish, vice' See vice (I) 1 To render faulty, to detract from, destroy force or merit of to vitiate an argument by exaggeration of statement 2 To sully, make impure, to taint, contaminate, pollute gas may vitiate the air of a room 3 To destroy validity of, render ineffective, to deprive of force as a legal instrument to vitiate a will, a contract &c vitiated, adj [1 vishiātad, 2 vīstīstīd], fr PP of vitare Made defective, contaminated, impure vitiation, n [1 vishiāshun, 2 vīstīstīshun] vitiate & -ion Act or process of vitiating, state of being vitiated, a contamination, pollution, b invalidation viticultural, adj [1 vīta-, vitikulehural, 2 vāstī-, vitikāltīshural] Next word & -al Pertaining to the culture of the vine or to grape growing viticulture, n [1 vīta-, vitikulehural, 2 vāstī-, vitikāltīshural] viticulture Cultivation of the vine, grape growing viticulturist, n [1 vīta-, vitikulehuralist, 2 vāstī-, vitikāltīshuralist] Prec & -ist A grapes grower viciousness, n [1 vishuositā, 2 vīstīstīstī] Lat viciousitas (em), 'faultiness, corruption', fr viciousus, see vicious, & -ity Corruption, viciousness vitreo-, pref Form of Lat vitreus, 'glass, glassy', fr vitrum, 'glass', used in compounds The origin of this rather late word is doubtful, Walde suggests that it may be either a loan fr Gmc representing some such type as wittra*, comparative meaning 'whitish', see white, or may be orig identical w vitium, 'wood', on account of the blue colour of much early glass See wood vitreous, adj [1 vitreus, 2 vitres] Lat vitreus See prec & -ous 1 Resembling glass, transparent, glassy vitreous rocks, vitreous humour, transparent, jelly like substance which fills the hinder portion of the eye ball 2 Pertaining to, made of, glass vitrescence, n [1 vitrescens, 2 vitrescens] Next word & -ce Tendency to become glass vitrescent, adj [1 vitrescent, 2 vitrescent] Lat vitrum, 'glass' See vitreo- & -escent Tending to become glass vitrescible, adj [1 vitrescibil, 2 vitrescibil] Fr, vitresc, as in prec, & -ible Capable of becoming glass or glassy vitri-, pref Form of Lat vitrum, 'glass', used in compounds See vitreo- vitrio, adj [1 vitrik, 2 vitrik] Lat vitrum, 'glass' See vitreo- & -io Having the character of glass, glass like vitrics, n pl [1 vitrika, 2 vitrika] See prec Art of glass working and manufacture, study of this

vitri-fication, n [1 vitrifikāshun, 2 vitrifikāshun] vitri- & -fication Act, process, of vitrifying, state of being vitrified vitri-facture, n [1 vitrifakchur, 2 vitrifakt] vitri- & -facture Glassmaking, manufacture of glassware vitri-fiability, n [1 vitrifabiilitā, 2 vitrifabiilitā] Next word & -ity Capacity of being, liability to be, vitrified vitri-fiable, adj [1 vitrifabi, 2 vitrifabi] vitri-fy & -able Capable of being vitrified

vitri-fication, n [1 vitrifikāshun, 2 vitrifikāshun] vitri- & -fication Act, process, of vitrifying, state of being vitrified

vitri-form, adj [1 vitri-form, 2 vitri-form] vitri- & -form Having the appearance and consistency of glass, glass like vitri-fy, vb trans & intrans [1 vitrifī, 2 vitrifai] vitri- & -fy 1 trans To convert into glass, to cause to become vitri-form, esp by heat 2 intrans To become converted into glass, to become vitri-form vitriol, n [1 vitriol, 2 vitriol] In ME, fr Fr, fr Lat vitriolus, 'made of, resembling, glass', dimin form of vitreus See vitreo- The name is due to the glassy lustre exhibited by some of the sulphuric acid salts 1 (chem) A sulphate of any of various metals—copper, iron, zinc, known respectively as blue, green, and white vitriol, oil of vitriol, also merely vitriol, an oily, highly corrosive liquid distilled from blue vitriol, this substance is sometimes used by criminals, esp women, to blind and disfigure the faces of those against whom they have a grudge to throw vitriol over, at 2 Corrosive, biting, caustic mode of expression to put plenty of vitriol in a speech, a review vitriolate, vb trans [1 vitriolāt, 2 vitriolēt] Prec & -ate a To convert into vitriol, to subject to the effects of vitriol, b to throw vitriol at or over vitriolization, n [1 vitriolizāshun, 2 vitriolizāshun] Prec & -ion Act, process, of vitriolating vitriolize, adj [1 vitriolīk, 2 vitriolīk] vitriol & -ic 1 Connected with, consisting of, resembling, vitriol 2 (fig) Biting, corrosive, heated, fiery, vehement vitriolic temper, vitriolic invective, eloquence &c vitriolizable, adj [1 vitriolizabl, 2 vitriolizabl] vitriolize & -able Capable of being converted into vitriol vitriolization, n [1 vitriolizāshun, 2 vitriolizāshun] vitriolize & -ation Act, process, of vitriolizing, state of being vitriolized vitriolize, vb trans [1 vitrioliz, 2 vitrioliz] vitriol & -ize a To attack, injure (a person), by throwing vitriol at or over, also b to convert into vitriol

Vitruvian, adj [1 vitrōvian, 2 vitrōvian], fr name of Vitruvius Pollio, a Roman architect in the age of Augustus Pertaining to, connected with, Vitruvius or his work Vitruvian scroll, undulating decoration used in friezes vitta, n, pl vittae [1 vīta-, -ā, 2 vīte-, -ī] Lat, 'a band, fillet, chaplet, a sacerdotal fillet', perh fr vitua*, fr base of vita, 'life', see vital, w -wz suff, doubling of t before -w, & shortening of preceding vowel (bot) Old bearing tube in the fruit of certain umbelliferous plants vittate, adj [1 vītāt, 2 vītēt] Prec & -ate Having vittas vitular, adj [1 vīcholar, 2 vītula], fr Lat vitulus, 'calf', & -ar Orig meaning of vitulus is 'a yearling animal', sp Lat vetus, 'old, having lived, or lasted, many years', see veteran, cogn w Gk elos, 'year', for velos*, whence Gk eleion, 'yearling animal', cp w different derivative suff Scrt vitāśā, 'yearling calf, lamb', Goth vitpruz, 'a lamb', OE weper, see wether, cp further veal, veterinary Pertaining to, connected with, a calf or calves, vitular apoplexy, that to which cows are liable when calving vitulary, adj [1 vīcholar, 2 vītular] Prec & -y Vitular vituline, adj [1 vīcholin, 2 vītulin] Lat vitulinus, fr vitulus, 'calf', see vitular, & -ine Pertaining to a calf, or to veal vituperable, adj [1 vitūperabl, 2 vaitjūperabl] Lat vituperabilis, 'blameworthy' See next word & able Deserving vituperation vituperate, vb trans [1 vitūperāt, 2 vaitjūperāt] Lat vituperāt (um), PP of vituperare, 'to censure, blame, disparage', fr Lat vitium, 'fault, defect', see vice (I), & parare, 'to prepare, provide' See parade, pare To rate, scold, soundly, to abuse loudly and forcibly, to dress down, trounce vituperation, n [1 vitūperāshun, 2 vaitjūperāshun] Prec & -ion Act of vituperating, loud, vehement, abuse, verbal castigation vituperative, adj [1 vitūperatīv, 2 vaitjūperatīv] See prec & -ive a Uttering an abuse, given to rating and scolding, b abusive, denunciatory a vituperative speech viva (I), interj & n [1 vēva, 2 vīva] Ital, 'let him live, long live' 1 interj Long (may he) live, uttered as a greeting, welcome &c 2 n The cry viva, hence (vivas), shouts of greeting, applause &c the hall resounded with the vivas of the crowd viva (II), n. & vb trans & intrans [1 vīva, 2 vāva] Lat, fr viva voce 1 n Examination conducted viva voce 2 vb a trans To submit (person) to a viva, to examine (person) orally, b intrans, to conduct a viva voce examination vivace, adv [1 vivāchā, 2 vīvātī] Ital, 'vivaionally' See vivacious (musical direction) Vivaionally, with spirit and liveliness vivacious, adj [1 vīvāshus, 2 vāvāshīsh] Lat vivaci-, stem of vivax, 'tenacious of life, lively, vigorous', fr vivere, 'to live' See vital & vivid & -ous Full of life and spirit, lively, sprightly, animated, gay vivaciously, adv Prec & -ly In a vivacious manner vivaciousness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being vivacious vivacity, n [1 vīvāsitā, 2 vāvāstīshī] Lat vivacitas (em), 'tenacity of life' See vivacious & -ity Liveliness, sprightliness, gaiety, playfulness vivandière, n [1 vīvandīar, 2 vīvādīar] L Lat vivanda, 'provisions', see viant, & -iere, Fr fem of -ior Female who formerly accompanied a French army and sold provisions and liquor to the troops vivarium, n [1 vīvārium, 2 vāvāriūm] Lat, 'enclosure in which game and fish are kept alive, a preserve', fr base viv, as in vivere, 'to live', see vital, for suff see -ary An enclosure or preserve in which (terrestrial) animals live, as far as possible, under natural conditions viva voce, adv, adj, & n [1 vīva vōi, 2 vāvāvōi] Lat, 'with the living voice', abl fem of vivus, 'living', see vivacious & vital, & abl of vox, 'voice', see vox, vocal, & voice 1 adv a Out loud to speak viva voce, b by means of the voice, by word of mouth, orally, contrasted with in writing 2 adj Uttered with the voice, oral, viva voce examination, one conducted by word of mouth, instead of by written questions and answers 3 n A viva voce examination vive, interj [1 vēv, 2 vīv] Fr, 'let him live, long live', 3rd pers pres subj of vivre, 'to live', fr Lat vivere, see vivacious & vital Vive le roi, la reine, le Président, la France &c, long live the King, Queen, President, France &c See also qui vive vives, n [1 vīvz, 2 vāvz] O Fr aves, fr Span adivas, fr Arab al-dhība Diseases of the ear in young horses vivi-, pref Form of Lat vivus, 'living', used in compounds, the etymological relations of this base are discussed under vital vivid, adj [1 vīvid, 2 vīvid] Lat vīvidus, 'full of life, living, animated, full of vigour', fr base viv, 'life, live', see prec & vital Full of life, vigour, liveliness &c (in various senses) 1 Vigorous, abounding in force, animated, lively a vivid imagination, a vivid personality 2 a (of colour and visual images) Clear, bright, intense, brilliant, reverse of dull, subdued, indistinct vivid colouring, the vivid green of leaves in spring, a vivid reflection in water, a vivid flash of lightning, b bringing a clear and life like image before the mind a vivid description, a vivid picture of life in the fields.

vividly, adv. Preco & -ly In a vivid manner, with vividness vividness, n See preco & -ness Quality of being vivid vivificate, vb trans [1 vī, vivifikāt, 2 vas, vivifiket] vivi- & -fic & -ate (rare) To put life into, to vivify, to revive vivification, n [1 vivifikāshun, 2 vivifikēshun] Preco & -ion Act, process, of vivifying, condition of being vivified vivify, vb trans [1 vivūt, 2 vivifas] vivi- & -fy To give life or liveliness to, to animate, quicken, revive viviparity, n [1 vivipāriti, 2 vivipariti] See viviparous & -ity State, quality, of being viviparous viviparous, adj [1 viviparus, 2 viviparus] vivi- & -par, fr base in Lat parare, 'to bear, bring forth (young)' see parent, & -ous Bringing forth young alive and fully formed and immediately capable of independent life, contrasted with oviparous viviparously, adv Preco & -ly In a viviparous manner viviparousness, n See preco & -ness Quality of being viviparous vivisection, vb trans & intrans [1 vivisekt, 2 vivisekt] vivi- & base see*, 'to out', see secant & seot 1 trans To dissect (animal) while alive, to practise vivisection upon 2 intrans To practise vivisection vivisection, n [1 vivisekshun, 2 vivisekshun] Preco & -ion The practice of performing operations upon living animals, of inoculating them with the germs of disease &c, in order to observe their behaviour and symptoms, to test remedies and, generally, to enlarge medical pathological or biological knowledge vivisectional, adj [1 vivisekshunal, 2 vivisekshunal] Preco & -al Connected with, arising from, of the nature of, vivisection vivisectionist, n [1 vivisekshunist, 2 vivisekshunist] vivisection & -ist 1 One who practises vivisection 2 One who approves of and advocates the practice of vivisection vivisector, n [1 vivisektor, 2 vivisektor] vivisect & -or One who practises vivisection vixen, n [1 vīken, 2 vīkan] OE fycen, 'female fox', fr fukn* in see fox 1 A female fox 2 An ill tempered, vinegary, shrewish spiteful woman vixenish, adj [1 vīksenish, 2 vīksenish] Preco & -ish Like a vixen in character, spiteful, malicious viz See videlicet

vizier, n [1 vīzēr, 2 vīzēr] Turk vezir, 'counsellor', fr Arab wezir, wezir, lit 'one who bears burdens' High State official in Mohammedan countries esp in the old Ottoman Empire Grand Vizier, chief minister of state vizierato vizirate, n [1 vīzērīt, 2 vīzērīt] Preco & -ate The office, status, of a vizier, term of this

Vlach See Wallach

vocal, n [1 vōkabl, 2 vōukabl] Fr, fr Lat vocābulum that by which anything is called, designation, name', fr base vōc*, as in vōc rm fr vox, 'voice', & vocare, 'to call', also vocation & vox A word esp one regarded as composed of certain sounds without reference to meaning vocabulary, n [1 vōkablārī, 2 vōukablārī] Lat. vocābulum see preco & -ary 1 The stock of words employed by an individual speaker author, class of persons &c, range scope of language on ordinary language is said to have a vocabulary of only a few hundred words, while poets a rich vocabulary 2 Alphabetical list of the principal words as found in a particular work or language or used in some special branch of study, together with a translation of each into another language or explanations in elucidation of the meaning vocal, adj [1 vōkāl, 2 vōukāl] fr Lat vocālis, 'uttering a voice or sound, sounding, resonant, vocal', fr voc- (um), vox, 'voice', &

-al, for an account of the base vōc & see vox 1 Pertaining to the voice or to voice production the vocal organs, vocal chords, vibrating membranes in the glottis which produce voice 2 Uttered, produced, by the voice, spoken or sung vocal music, that intended for singing, contrasted with instrumental 3 Filled with the sound of voices, endowed with a voice 'hall or valley, fountain, or fresh shade, Made vocal by my song' (Milton, 'P L', v 203 4) 4 Expressing oneself or itself in words, giving vent in speech or language public opinion has at last become vocal, this class may be very vocal and noisy, but carries little weight vocalio, adj [1 vōkālīk, 2 vōukālīk] Preco & -io Pertaining to, consisting of, of the nature of, a vowel sound or sounds vocalism, n [1 vōkālizm, 2 vōukālizm] vocal & -ism A use of the voice and vocal organs in speech, song &c, b (rare) system of vowel sounds used in a given language vocalist, n [1 vōkālīst, 2 vōukālīst] vocal & -ist A singer vocality, n [1 vōkālītī, 2 vōukālītī] vocal & -ity Quality of being vocal, resonance vocalization, n [1 vōkālīzāshun, 2 vōukālīzāshun] vocalize & -ation A act of vocalizing, method of utterance, esp of the singing voice, b the use of vowel signs in writing certain languages, where they are usually omitted, as in Hebrew, Arabic &c vocalize, vb trans & intrans [1 vōkālīz, 2 vōukālīz] See vocal & -ize A trans 1 (phon) a To make vocal, to utter with voice, b to make vocalic or syllabic 2 To point or supply vowel signs to (written form of a language such as Hebrew which commonly omits these) B intrans To use the voice, to sing vocally, adv [1 vōkālī, 2 vōukālī] vocal & -ly In a vocal manner, by voice or speech, in words vocation, n [1 vōkālshun, 2 vōukālshun] Fr, fr Lat vocātiō (em), 'a summons, invitation', fr vocā (um), P P type of vocare, 'to call' See vocal & vox & -ion 1 (theol) a God's calling or invitation to an individual or nation to a life of salvation by grace, specif, a call to a religious life as to the ministry the divine guidance towards a spiritual or religious life b that form of spiritual life to which one has been called by God 2 A special fitness, aptitude, talent, for a particular occupation or profession, a calling to have little or no vocation for business life, to find one's vocation in life 3 Habitual occupation, followed as a means of livelihood, profession, business, walk in life, calling vocational, adj [1 vōkālshunal, 2 vōukālshunal] Preco & -al Relating, adapted preparatory, to a vocation, profession, or occupation vocational education, school &c vocationally, adv Preco & -ly In a vocational manner, from the point of view of a vocation vocative, adj & n [1 vōkātīv, 2 vōukātīv] fr O Fr vocātīv, see fr Lat vocātivus, so casus, fr vocat (um), P P type of vocare, 'to call', see vocation & vox & -ivo 1 adj Used in addressing or calling a person or object vocative case 2 n The vocative case vociferance, n [1 vōsīferāns, 2 vōusīferāns] See next word & -ce Shouting, noise, clamour vociferant, adj [1 vōsīferant, 2 vōusīferant] fr Lat vōsīferant (em), P P Part of vōsīferant see next word Vociferating, shouting, clamorous vociferate, vb trans & intrans [1 vōsīferīt, 2 vōusīferīt] fr Lat vōsīferāt (um), P P type of vociferant, 'to cry, call out, to shout', fr vōc stem of vox, & fer resemble -ferous, & -ate 1 trans To shout utter with a loud voice, to hail out to vociferate oaths, the crowd vociferated 'sit down!' 2 intrans To bawl, shout, utter loud cries vociferation, n [1 vōsīferāshun, 2 vōusīferāshun]

[shun, fr Lat vōsīferatō (em), see preco & -ion Shouting, bawling, clamour vociferator, n [1 vōsīferatōr, 2 vōusīferatōr] Lat, see vociferate & -or One who vociferates, shouter, bawler vociferous, adj [1 vōsīferus, 2 vōusīferus] Lat vōc, stem of vox, 'voice', see vox, & -ferous 1 Having plenty of voice, using the voice with energy, making a loud outcry, clamorous a vociferous mob, birds were so vociferous that I woke up 2 Uttered with a loud voice, noisy, loud vociferous cheers vociferously, adv Preco & -ly In a vociferous manner, noisily vociferousness, n See preco & -ness Quality of being vociferous vodka, n [1 vōdka, 2 vōdkā] Russ, dimin of O Slav & Russ voda, 'water', cogn w Gk. hudōr, 'water', Goth wait, O E water, see water, wash, & wet, Lat unda, 'wave', see undulate A Russian spirituous drink, distilled formerly from rye, maize, or potatoes vog, n [1 vō, 2 vou] fr O N vagr, Mod Icel vagr A creek, inlet, or small bay in the Orkney and Shetland Islands vogue, n [1 vōg, 2 voug] Fr, 'awaying motion, as of boat, away, drift, course', fr voguer, 'to away, set sail', as in Phr vogue la gaité, lit 'let the galley set sail', hence 'let things take their course whatever happens', the word is found in Ital as vogare, & in Span as begare, 'to row', & is of Gmc origin, op O H G wag, later wog, 'wava', O E wæg, 'wave', a form of the Gmc base weǵ*, 'to carry, bear', see weigh 1 The prevailing fashion, popular mode, custom, practice at the time the vogue of very short skirts &c, a mere passing vogue, what will the next vogue be? 2 Popularity, popular acceptance or favour to have a short vogue Phr in vogue, in fashion, fashionable, all the vogue, the latest thing, the dapper one voice (I), n [1 vōis, 2 vōis] ME & O Fr vōis &c, fr Lat vōc, stem of voc, 'voice', see vox 1 Sound produced, uttered, through the mouth by the human organs of speech, in speaking, singing, laughing, also used of the vocal sounds produced by birds, and more rarely, of those made by other animals 2 Specif (phon) that kind of sound produced by the organs of speech when the air stream sets up vibrations in the vocal chords, contrasted with breath 3 The sound or sounds produced by the human organs of speech considered in relation to their quality, individual character, peculiar characteristic timbre and so on his master's voice, a good, poor, strong, loud, sweet, harsh, voice, Phr to lift up one's voice, to speak 4 Faculty, power, of using the voice, desire and capacity to speak indignation gave me voice 5 A any sound regarded as resembling, or as comparable to that of the human voice 'Earth with her thousand voices praises God' (Coleridge, 'Vale of Chamouni'), the voice of the stream, of the waves &c, b anything regarded as resembling the human voice as a means of expression, as delivering a message &c 'E'en from the tomb the voice of Nature cries' (Gray's 'Elegy'), the voice of the law, the voice of conscience. 6 Wish, desire, opinion, choice, esp as expressed in a vote or less formally indicated to give one's voice for war Phr to have a voice in, have a choice, have the right to express an opinion or wish, to have some influence in a decision 7 (gram) Form of a verb which shows the relation of the subject to the action See active, passive voice (II), vb trans, fr preco 1 To give utterance to, to express to voice the feelings of a nation 2. (phon) To utter (a speech, sound) with voice that is, pronounce it with vibration of the vocal chords voiced, adj [1 vōist, 2 vōist] P P of preco (phon) Uttered with voice, i.e. with vibration of the vocal chords voiced sounds, consonants &c, with less

-voiced, adj Having a specified kind of voice sweet-voiced, loud voiced &c voiceful, adj [1 voisfi, 2 voisfi] voice (I) & -ful Having a voice, sonorous, sounding voiceless, adj [1 voisles, 2 voisles] voice & -less 1 a Having no voice, b having lost (temporarily) the power of speech 2 (phon) Uttered without voice, uttered with breath alone, unvoiced voicelessly, adv Pre & -ly In a voiceless manner, without voice voicelessness, n See pre & -ness The quality of being voiceless voicing, n [1 voising, 2 voising] voice (II) & -ing (phon) Act or process of producing voice, act of uttering speech sounds with vibration of the vocal chords void (I), adj [1 void, 2 void] In ME, fr O Fr vuide, vuide, voide, fr L Lat vacuum, 'empty', dialectal for Lat vacat (um), PP of vacare, 'to be empty, to be void of, free from', see vacate & vacant 1 Empty, vacant 'without form, and void' (Gen 1:2) 2 Having no occupant, holder, or tenant a void benefice, farm, dwelling-house &c 3 Lacking, wanting, deficient in, devoid of a landscape void of all beauty, a person quite void of common honesty 4 Legally invalid, of no effect the contract was declared void on account of the insanity of one of the parties, also null and void void (II), n, fr pre 1 a An empty space, a vacuum, the void, space, infinity, b an unoccupied house, esp rated as such 2 (fig) A sense of emptiness, vacancy, loss his death has left a void in our lives which can never be filled, (commonly) an aching void (in one's heart), deep sense of irreparable loss void (III), vb trans, fr void (I) 1 To discharge, evacuate to void excrement, a stone from the bladder 2 To make null and void, to make invalid, of no effect, to nullify voidable, adj [1 voidabl, 2 voidabl] void (III) & -able Capable of being made, or judged, as of no effect, capable of being nullified voidance, n [1 voidans, 2 voidans] void (III) & -ance 1 Act of voiding, evacuation, casting away, removal 2 (eccles) a Act of ejecting from a benefice, b state of being void, vacancy (of a benefice) voided, adj [1 voided, 2 voided], fr PP of void (III) (her, of an ordinary) Having central part removed or cut away, and showing the tincture of the field in the vacant space voider, n [1 voider, 2 voider] void (III) & -er (her) An ordinary, consisting of a figure with two concave sides, occupying the greater part of the field voile, n [1 vwahl, 2 vwahl] Fr, 'a veil', fr Lat velum, see velum & cp veil A thin cotton, woollen, or silken material used for women's dresses voivode, n [1 voivod, 2 voivod] Russ voevoda, 'leader in war' Title formerly borne by the reigning princes of Moldavia and Wallachia volant, adj [1 volant, 2 volant] Fr, fr Lat volant (em), Pre Part of volare, for gol*-, 'to fly', cogn w Scrt garu, 'wing', fr gol*-, further relations doubtful, but perh fr same base as Lat volvare, 'to roll, turn, tumble', see volute & second element in devolve, revolve 1 a (zool) Flying, capable of flying, b (her) represented as flying 2 Passing rapidly through the air as though flying on wings

Volapük, n [1 volapük, -pook, 2 völapük, -puk] 'World's speech' Artificial language invented by J M Schleyer in 1879 with the object of providing a means of intercourse between all nations of the world, superseded long since in public estimation by Esperanto, Ido, and similar inventions volar, adj [1 volar, 2 volar] Lat vola, 'palm of hand, sole of foot', for guela* or guola*, conn w base geu*(l), cogn w Gk gelaion, 'a hollow, cave', Scrt gela,

'ball', O N kyölr, O E cēol, 'keel, ship', see keel (I) Pertaining to the palm or the sole volatile, adj [1 volatil, 2 volatil] Fr, fr Lat volatilis, 'flying, winged, rapid, fleeting, transitory', fr volū (um), PP type of volare, 'to fly', see volant 1 Tending to waste, to be carried off by evaporation, vaporization &c, easily vaporizable (of spirituous liquids) 2 (fig) Tossed hither and thither by the caprice of the moment, lacking concentration of purpose, changeable, wayward, fickle volatileness, n Pre & -ness Volatility volatility, n [1 volatilita, 2 volatilita] See pre & -ity Quality, mental characteristic, of being volatile volatilizable, adj [1 volatilizabl, 2 volatilizabl] volatilize & -able Capable of being volatilized volatilization, n [1 volatilizashun, 2 volatilizashun] volatilize & -ation Process of volatilizing, state of being volatilized volatilize, v trans & intrans [1 volatiliz, 2 volatiliz] volatile & -ize 1 trans To render volatile, cause to evaporate 2 intrans To evaporate, pass off in vapour vol-au-vent, n [1 völ 3 vān, 2 völ ou vā] Fr Kind of raised pie made of puff paste, filled with chicken, game, fish &c volcanic, adj [1 volkanik, 2 volkanik] volcano & -ic 1 Pertaining to, of the nature of, produced by, due to action of, a volcano or of volcanoes volcanic activity, volcanic eruption &c, volcanic bomb, a round, hollow mass of lava, volcanic glass, glass like substance formed by the rapid cooling of lava, obsidian 2 (fig) Resembling a volcano in violence, ebullient, violent, intense a volcanic character, volcanic energy volcanicity, n [1 volkanicity, 2 volkanicity] Pre & -ity State, quality, of being volcanic volcanism, n [1 volkanizm, 2 volkanizm] volcano & -ism a Volcanic action, b combination of natural forces which produces volcanic action volcanist, n [1 volkanist, 2 volkanist] volcano & -ist Student of volcanoes and volcanic action volcanization, n [1 volkanizashun, 2 volkanizashun] Next word & -ation Process of subjecting or of being subjected to volcanic heat volcanize, vb trans [1 volkaniz, 2 volkaniz] volcano & -ize To subject to the action of volcanic heat volcano, n [1 volkānō, 2 volkānou] Ital, fr Lat Vulcanus, see Vulcan Hill or mountain having a deep vent in the summit from which lava, ashes, gases &c, coming from the interior of the earth, are ejected continuously or periodically Phr extinct volcano, (i) one which has ceased to be active, (ii) a person who is no longer productive, one who has lost his vigour, spirit, enthusiasm, creative energy, and capacity for thought and action volcanological, adj [1 volkanologikl, 2 volkanologikl] volcano & -logy & -ic & -al Pertaining to volcanology or volcanologists volcanologist, n [1 volkanologist, 2 volkanologist] volcano & -ist Student of volcanology volcanology, n [1 volkanologi, 2 volkanologi] volcano & -logy The science which deals with volcanoes, their causes, and attendant phenomena vole (I), n & vb intrans [1 völ, 2 voul], fr Fr vole, 'to fly', fr Lat volare, see volant a n The winning of all the tricks in a deal in certain card games, b vb, to make a vole vole (II), n For vole mouse, fr O N vollr, 'field', cogn w O E uēald, uēald, see wold. One of various kinds of rat-like rodent mammals, genus Microtus, with blunt noses, short tails, and thickish bodies field vole, field mouse, water-vole, water rat violet, n [1 völā, 2 völā] Fr, 'shutter' vole (I) & -et. One of the panels of a tripych volitant, adj [1 volitant, 2 volitant] Lat volitare, 'to fly', freq of volare, see volant (zool) Flying volitation, n [1 volitashun, 2 volitashun] Lat volitū (um), PP type of volitare, 'to fly', see pre, & -ion Act of flying, capacity to fly volition, n [1 völshunn, 2 völshun] Med Lat volition (em), formed fr base vol*-, 'to wish, will', cp Lat volo, 'I wish' &c, infin velle, cogn w Scrt vrñā &c, 'he chooses, desires, prefers', for il*-, varanam for val*-, 'act of choosing, wishing', Goth vilgan, 'to will', O E willan, see will (II), O Slav voliti, 'to will, desire', vola, 'the will, desire' &c, Gk elpeis, 'hope', for vel*- 1 Act of willing or choosing, exercise of the will 2 Power of exercising a choice, of forming an intention or a determination, will volitional, adj [1 völshunnal, 2 völshunnal] Pre & -al Connected, having to do, with volition or the will, of the nature of volition, arising from, due to, volition volitionally, adv Pre & -ly By volition.

volitionary, adj [1 völshunnari, 2 völshunnari] volition & -ary Volitional volitionless, adj [1 völshunnles, 2 völshunnles] volition & -less Lacking volition, having no power of will volitive, adj [1 völshiv, 2 völshiv] See volition & -ive Pertaining to, arising from, the will

Völkshed, n [1 völksled, 2 völksled] Mod Germ Folk song, national song or air

Völkssraad, n [1 völksraad, 2 völksraad] Dn, see folk, & raad, 'counsel' &c, cogn w O E rād, 'advice, counsel', see under read National legislative body in the old Orange Free State volley (I), n [1 völ, 2 völ], fr Fr volée, 'a flight, discharge of a number of guns', fr Lat volūtum, PP of volare, 'to fly', see volant 1 A number of missiles discharged at the same time against a common objective a volley of arrows, of stones, if not specified, a volley implies at the present time, a number of shots fired simultaneously from fire arms or from cannon 2 (fig) a rapid, continuous, noisy utterance, a torrent of oaths, imprecations, abuse &c, esp when directed against a particular person, party, set of circumstances &c 3 In various ball games, as tennis &c, the striking and return of the ball before it touches the ground, b as cricket &c, the delivery of ball full pitch at batsman or wicket, half volley, ball pitched and struck just after it touches the ground volley (II), vb trans & intrans, fr pre 1 trans a (i) (rare) To direct, fire, (missiles) in a volley, (ii) in ball games, to deliver or strike by a volley, b to utter (abuse &c) in a volley 2 intrans a To fire a volley, b to deliver or hit a volley volplane, vb intrans & n [1 völplān, 2 völplān], fr Fr vol planer, see volant & plane (V) a vb (of aeroplane or pilot) To descend by a long and somewhat steep glide after shutting off the engine, b n, such a descent volt (I), n [1 völt, 2 völt] Fr, see vault (I) 1 (fencing) Rapid step to escape a thrust 2 Pace of a horse in which it steps with high springy movements of the legs volt (II), n, fr name of the Italian, A Volta, d 1827 Unit of electromotive force or potential difference, defined as the electromotive force which, steadily applied to a resistance of 1 ohm, will produce a current of 1 ampere volta, n, pl volte [1 völta, &, 2 völta, -e] Ital, 'time' (mus) Una volta, 'once', due volte, 'twice' voltage, n [1 völtj, 2 völtidž] volt (II) & -age Amount of electromotive current measured in volts voltaic, adj [1 völtäik, 2 völtäik] Volta, see volt (II), & -ic Designating electricity produced by, apparatus producing electricity by, ohemical action

Voltairean, adj & n [1 voltárian, 2 voltéar ien], fr name of French philosopher Voltaire & -ian. 1 adj Pertaining to Voltaire and his mode of thought. 2 n Adherent of the doctrines and principles of Voltaire.

Voltaire(ian)ism, n [1 voltárianizm, 2 voltéar(ien)izm] See prec & -ism Philo sophical doctrines of Voltaire, specif, religious scepticism.

voltammeter, n [1 voltámeter, 2 voltámíte], fr Volta, see volt (II), & -meter (obs) Instrument for measuring electrical force.

volta-face, n [1 vólt fáhs, 2 vólt íds] Fr. A complete turn round, so as to face the opposite way, a reversal of physical, bodily, position, b a change of front, complete reversal of opinions, mental attitude &c.

voltate, n [1 vóltít, 2 vóltít] fr volt (II) & -ite A kind of insulating material for covering electric wires.

voltmeter, n [1 voltméter, 2 vóltmíte] volt (II) & -meter (elect) Instrument for measuring potential difference in volts.

volubility, n [1 vólbilitá, 2 vólbilité] See next word & -ity Habit, quality, of being voluble, extreme fullness, fluency, of utterance and expression, talkativeness.

voluble, adj [1 vólbíl, 2 vólbíl] Lat volubilis, fr base of volvère, 'to roll', see volute. Having, speaking with, a great flow of words; fluent in speech, talkative.

volume, n [1 vólúm, 2 vólúm, -jum] Fr, fr Lat volūmen, 'a roll', book written on parchment and rolled up', fr base of volvère, 'to turn, roll', see volute. 1 A book, a tome, collection of printed or written sheets bound up together and forming a unity, whether forming a complete literary work or a portion of one. 2 A library of many thousand volumes, a work in its volumes, Volume I has just appeared (abbr as vol). Phr to speak volumes for, to afford strong, favourable, or confirmatory testimony.

2 A considerable mass, body, amount a great volume of water, volume of smoke, vapour, large, dense cloud, (fig) a great volume of sound, a powerful great blast. 3 A solid content, bulk, mass, amount the total volume of masonry, debris, earth, covering the ruins is enormous, b space occupied by a liquid, gas &c measured in cubic units, as feet, inches &c, o (special use) a voice of great, little, volume, resonant quality, capacity for filling a large space.

-volumed, adj [1 vólúmd, 2 vólúmd, -jumd] Consisting of so many volumes many volumed, three volumed.

volumenometer, n [1 vólúmenómeter, 2 vólúmenómíte] Lat, see volume & -meter Instrument for measuring the volume of a solid body.

volumetric(al), adj [1 vólúmetrík(l), 2 vólúmetrík(al)] volume & -metric (& -al) Pertaining to the measurement of volume.

voluminal, adj [1 vóldmínal, 2 vólúdmínal] Lat volumin, stem of volumen, see volume, & -al Pertaining to volume.

voluminosity, n [1 vólúminósité, 2 vólúdmínósité] Lat voluminōsus, see voluminous, & -ity Quality, condition, of being voluminous.

voluminous, adj [1 vólúminus, 2 vólúdmínus] fr Lat volumin, stem of volumen, see volume, & -ous Having considerable volume, occupying much space, bulky, abundant, extensive voluminous robes, voluminous correspondence.

voluminously, adv Prec & -ly To a voluminous extent or degree.

voluminousness, n. See prec & -ness Quality condition, of being voluminous.

voluntarily, adv [1 vóluntárlí, 2 vóluntárlí] See voluntary & -ly In a voluntary manner, freely, of one's own accord, without compulsion.

voluntariness, n [1 vóluntárlíness, 2 vóluntárlíness] voluntary & -ness Quality of being voluntary.

voluntarism, n [1 vóluntárlíz, 2 vóluntárlíz] voluntary & -ism. System, as of religious education, military enlistment &c, which depends entirely on voluntary action.

voluntary (I), adj [1 vóluntárlí, 2 vóluntárlí] Lat voluntarius, op voluntas (sm), 'free will', fr base in volo, 'I wish, desire' &c, see volition, & -ary. 1 Acting of one's own free will, by one's own desire, without compulsion, constraint, or necessity.

2 Done, performed, rendered, freely and at one's own choice, not compulsory, unconstrained.

3 Brought about, earned on, supported, by voluntary effort, expenditure &c.

4 Deliberate voluntary waste (of owner's property by tenant's act or order).

5 Specif (physiol) affected by, depending on, the action of the will.

6 Deliberate voluntary waste (of owner's property by tenant's act or order).

7 Specif (physiol) affected by, depending on, the action of the will.

8 Deliberate voluntary waste (of owner's property by tenant's act or order).

9 Specif (physiol) affected by, depending on, the action of the will.

10 Deliberate voluntary waste (of owner's property by tenant's act or order).

11 Specif (physiol) affected by, depending on, the action of the will.

12 Deliberate voluntary waste (of owner's property by tenant's act or order).

13 Specif (physiol) affected by, depending on, the action of the will.

14 Deliberate voluntary waste (of owner's property by tenant's act or order).

15 Specif (physiol) affected by, depending on, the action of the will.

16 Deliberate voluntary waste (of owner's property by tenant's act or order).

17 Specif (physiol) affected by, depending on, the action of the will.

18 Deliberate voluntary waste (of owner's property by tenant's act or order).

19 Specif (physiol) affected by, depending on, the action of the will.

20 Deliberate voluntary waste (of owner's property by tenant's act or order).

21 Specif (physiol) affected by, depending on, the action of the will.

22 Deliberate voluntary waste (of owner's property by tenant's act or order).

23 Specif (physiol) affected by, depending on, the action of the will.

24 Deliberate voluntary waste (of owner's property by tenant's act or order).

25 Specif (physiol) affected by, depending on, the action of the will.

26 Deliberate voluntary waste (of owner's property by tenant's act or order).

27 Specif (physiol) affected by, depending on, the action of the will.

28 Deliberate voluntary waste (of owner's property by tenant's act or order).

29 Specif (physiol) affected by, depending on, the action of the will.

30 Deliberate voluntary waste (of owner's property by tenant's act or order).

31 Specif (physiol) affected by, depending on, the action of the will.

32 Deliberate voluntary waste (of owner's property by tenant's act or order).

of various kinds of tropical snail (gasteropod) with beautiful shells.

volute, adj [1 vóltétd, 2 vóltétd] Prec & -ed (archit) Decorated with volutes.

volution, n [1 vóldshun, 2 vólyúshun] volute & -ion A spiral, whorls, of a shell, b (anat) a convolution.

volutoid, adj & n [1 vóltútd, 2 vólyútd] volute & -oid a adj Shaped like a volute, b n, volutoid shell &c. vomit (I), vb intrans & trans [1 vómit, 2 vómit], fr Lat vomit (um), PP type of vomere, 'to vomit', cogn w Gk emein, 'to vomit', emetikos, 'provoking sickness', for eem*, see emetico.

A intrans 1 To discharge the contents of the stomach through the mouth, to be sick. 2 (of volcano) To discharge lava, ashes &c through the crater.

3 Trans 1 A To discharge from the stomach through the mouth to vomit one's dinner, b (fr n, archaic) to cause to vomit by administering an emetic.

in the 17th and 18th centuries people were periodically vomited, purged, and bled. 2 (fig) To pour forth vehemently in speech, to utter with violence.

and volubility to vomit insults, abuse, curses &c, also to give forth in printed or written form.

the reptile Press vomited its labels, every scribbler vomited filthy lampoons. 3 To emit, pour out, heave forth suddenly or impetuously, copiously, and more or less continuously.

a chimney vomits forth smoke, the guns vomited fire, shells, dragons were said to vomit fire and smoke, excursion trains hourly vomited crowds of trippers into quiet country districts.

vomit (II), n M E vomite, fr Lat vomit, 'a vomiting', see prec. 1 A Matter vomited from the stomach, b (fig) something of an abusive or disreputable character, uttered by word of mouth or written &c.

the foul vomit of lampoonists. 2 Act of vomiting. 3 Drug which causes vomiting, an emetic.

vomiting, n [1 vómiting, 2 vómiting] vomit & -ing (II) Act of one who vomits, retching, sickness.

vomitive, adj & n [1 vómitiv, 2 vómitiv] vomit (I) & -ive a adj Tending to cause vomiting, b n, drug which causes vomiting, an emetic.

vomitory, adj & n [1 vómitári, 2 vómitári] vomit (I) & -ory a adj Causing vomiting, vomitive, b n, drug which does this, an emetic.

vomiturition, n [1 vómitúritshun, 2 vómitúritshun] fr Lat vomit, 'act of vomiting', see vomit (II) A Strong but abortive desire to vomit, violent retching, b frequent vomiting.

voodoo, n & v trans [1 vóddó, 2 vóddó] Creole Fr, not fr Fr Vaudou, Waldensian, but fr a native Dahomey word, vodu. 1 n Witchcraft, kind of black magic, practised among negroes in W Indies and United States.

2 v trans To bewitch, affect, with voodoo.

voodooism, n [1 vóddóizm, 2 vóddóizm] Prec & -ism Practice of, belief in, voodoo.

voodooist, n [1 vóddóíst, 2 vóddúíst] voodoo & -ist Believer in, practitioner of, voodoo.

-vora suff fr neut pl of Lat vorus, 'eating', used to form ns designating animals classed according to the kind of food they eat.

carnivora, 'flesh eating animals', see -vorous, & etymol under voracious.

voracious, adj [1 vórshus, 2 vórshus] Lat vorax, stem of vorax, 'hungry, greedy', fr base ger*, gor*, seen in vore, 'to devour', & also in Gk bord, 'food', broma, 'food', Sert garaf, 'drink', gargaraf, 'gulf'.

Lager to consume food, at once greedy and hungry, voracious, urgently requiring food, (fig) a voracious reader.

voraciously, adv Prec & -ly In a voracious manner.

voraciousness, n. See prec & -ness State, quality, of being voracious, voracity.

voracity, n [1 vórasité, 2 vórasité] Fr voracité, 'greed' &c, fr Lat vorax, see voracious, & -ity State, quality, of being voracious, eagerness, capacity, to devour, greed springing from hunger, also figurative -vorous, enft Fr, fr Lat -vorus, see -vorous & voracious Suffix forming name of an animal designated from the character of its food carnivore, a flesh eating animal -vorous, suff fr Lat -vorus, see prec & voracious & -ous, forming adjectives meaning 'eating enoh and such food' carnivorous, flesh eating &c vortex, n [1 vórtéks, 2 vórtéks], pl vortexes, vortices [1 vórtíseks, 2 vórtíseks] Lat, 'whirlpool, eddy', gradational variant fr base *vert, 'to turn', see version 1 A fluid in rotational motion, a whirlpool, powerful eddy, b whirling motion or mass 2 (fig) Any social or intellectual movement, system &c, a set of social or other conditions possessing such liveliness and intensity that they are considered as absorbing and engulfing completely those who approach them the vortex of war, revolution, religious controversy &c vortical, adj [1 vórtíkl, 2 vórtíkl], fr Lat vortic, stem of vortex, & -al Resembling, of the nature of, a vortex vortically, adv Prec & -ly So as to form a vortex vorticism, n [1 vórtísim, 2 vórtísim], fr vortex & -ism An artistic movement on futurist lines, in which nature is imaginatively reconstructed in formal designs, its practitioners using vortices much as the cubists use onhes vorticist, n [1 vórtísist, 2 vórtísist] See prec & -ist One who practises or advocates vorticism vorticose, adj [1 vórtíkós, 2 vórtíkós] vortic, as in vortical, & -ose Having a vortex, abounding in vortices vortiginous, adj [1 vórtíjínus, 2 vórtíjínus] Cp vortex & vortiginous Whirling, eddying, resembling a vortex, vortical votable, adj [1 vóttáhl, 2 vóttáhl] vote (II) & -able A entitled, competent, to vote, b able to be voted for votaress, n [1 vóttáres, 2 vóttáres] See votary & -ess A female votary votary, n [1 vóttári, 2 vóttári], fr Lat votum, 'a vow, a wish, see next word, & -ary 1 Person vowed, devoted, to the service of a god the ancient gods sometimes destroyed their votaries 2 An ardent adherent, supporter, advocate of a cause, ideal, system &c a votary of celibacy, of total abstinence, of vegetarianism &c, b one who is much addicted to a certain pursuit a votary of pleasure, a votary of athletic sports, of hunting &c vote (I), n [1 vót, 2 vóut] Fr, fr Lat votum, 'wish, vow', for votum*, fr PP of vovere, 'to vow, to wish for', cogn w Scrt vāghat, 'one who offers a sacrifice', Aryan base *(e)wǵh-, *(e)wǵh-, 'to offer sacrifice, pray, vow', whence also Gk eukhōmai 'to pray', eukhē, 'vow, wish' 1 Formal expression, by ballot or show of hands &c, of one's wish, choice, opinion, esp in regard (i) to the election of a candidate for a post, or as a member of Parliament or other legislative or administrative body, or (ii) to the passing of a resolution, law, measure, sanctioning or prohibiting some specific form of action Phr to cast a vote, express one's opinion by voting 2 The choice, will, opinion of an individual, or of a party, thus formally expressed I gave my vote to X, voted for him, the Conservative vote was unanimously given against the measure, one man one vote 3 The right to vote, at parliamentary elections, or on other occasions when matters are decided by votes at what age should women have a vote?, he was present at the committee, but without a vote vote (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec A intrans To exercise the right to express one's wishes, opinion &c by casting a vote, to give a vote you may attend the meeting but you may not vote, shall you vote for or against the resolution?, vote for Brown and cheap bread, my mind is not made up, so I would rather not vote

B trans 1 In such Phrs as to vote a measure through, get it passed by voting, to vote a person into Parliament, elect him by vote, to vote down a measure, defeat it by voting 2 To assign, allot, bestow, by vote Parliament often votes considerable sums of money to successful generals 3 To regard as, feel to be and designate as he was generally voted a public nuisance, the public voted the new play a distinct success 4 (colloq) I vote (that) we go to the theatre to-night &c, I suggest, propose that &c, let us (go &c) voteless, adj [1 vóttles, 2 vóttlís] vote (I) & -less Lacking a vote or the right to vote voter, n [1 vóttér, 2 vóttér] vote (II) & -er One who votes; esp a one entitled to vote at parliamentary elections, b person actually casting a vote on a specific occasion voting, n [1 vóttíng, 2 vóttíng] vote (II) & -ing Act of one who votes, the exercise of the right to vote voting paper, official form on which votes are recorded at a ballot votive, adj [1 vóttív, 2 vóttív] Lat vóttívus, 'belonging to a vow, given in consequence of a vow', see vote (I) & -ive Dedicated, devoted, consecrated, to a particular purpose, in fulfilment of a vow a votive offering, sacrifice vouch, vb intrans & trans [1 vóuch, 2 vóut] fr O Fr voucher, 'to cite, or call in aid, in a suit', fr Lat vocāre, 'to call', see vocal & vox 1 intrans Chiefly vouch for, to guarantee, answer for (a person's honesty &c), assert, confirm (statement or assertion), undertake he is a perfectly honest man for whom I can vouch, I can't vouch for it that the house is not already sold, (also more rarely) vouch that &c 2 trans (very rare) To declare, guarantee to be will you vouch him honest?

voucher, n [1 vóuchér, 2 vóut] Prec & -er He who, that which, vouches for something, specif, a document which establishes some fact or the authenticity of something, esp that money has been paid vouchsafe, vb trans [1 vóuchsaf, 2 vóut] M E vouchen saífe, 'to undertake that it is safe', see vouch & safe To condescend to grant, to give as an act of grace can you vouchsafe me a few minutes' conversation, I think he might at least have vouchsafed an answer voussour, n, [1 vóúseur, 2 vúsú] Fr, cogn. w voute, vault Any of the wedge-shaped stones forming an arch, as of a bridge or vault vow (I), n [1 vou, 2 vau] O Fr vou, ven, fr Lat votum, see vote (I) 1 A solemn and, under ordinary circumstances, an inviolable promise, pledge, or undertaking, made under an oath, to God, or taking God to witness, to do, or to abstain from doing, something a vow of celibacy, marriage vows, to be under a vow, to be bound by a vow, to take, make a vow, to bind oneself by vow 2 Content, implication, of a vow, action &c to which one is pledged by a vow vow (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To make a solemn promise or vow, to promise faithfully to vow that one will be loyal to the king 2 To make vow, promise under oath, to do or make to vow a pilgrimage to the Holy Land 3 To promise solemnly to give the king vowed an abbey to God for his victory 4 To devote, dedicate, consecrate, esp under a vow to vow oneself to a life of self-sacrifice, vowed to poverty and obedience 5 Archaic, in colloquial Phr to vow and declare, often merely emphatic for to assert, archaic and colloquial as in I vow you are in a pretty mess, I must say 6 To state emphatically, to assert as an intention, resolution &c he vowed he would never return to such an unpleasant place vowel, n [1 vóul, el, 2 vau], -el, -al, fr O Fr vouel, op Mod Fr voyelle, fr Lat vocālis (littera), 'vocal letter', see vocal. 1 (phon) A speech sound, usually voiced, formed by the tongue, and sometimes with the participation of the lips, in the utterance of which the air-passage in the mouth is never sufficiently con-stricted to produce audible friction, contrasted with consonant Vowel gradation, see gradation, vowel mutation, see mutation 2 Graphic symbol representing a vowel sound vowel harmony, n Phonological principle observable in the Finno-Ugric languages, whereby the vowel sounds in the second and subsequent syllables of words are assimilated in phonetic character to that in the first syllable—a front vowel being followed by front vowels, back by back vowelize, vb trans [1 vóulíz, 2 vauiláz] vowel & -ize (rare) 1 To change a consonantal sound into a vowel sound final -y in Gothic is vowelized to i 2 To add the vowel symbols or points in a Hebrew or Arabic text vowelless, adj [1 vóuilles, 2 vauilles] vowel & -less Lacking vowels, pronounced without a vowel or vowels vowel-like, adj vowel & -like Resembling a vowel in phonetic or acoustic properties, esp having the power of forming a syllable, syllabic, e.g. the l in bottle [hótl] vox, n [1 vóks, 2 vóks] Lat, 'voice, sound, tone, cry, call', genit vocis, fr same base as Lat vocāre, 'to call' &c, see vocal & vocation, & the ending in -vocal This base, wh appears in Lat as voc-, voc-, represents Aryan wok-*, wól-, weh-, & occurs in Scrt vacáti, 'he speaks', vakati, 'sound', & in Gk epos, 'word, song, narrative', see epic Cp also voice Vox barbara, a linguistic barbarism, i.e. a hybrid formation or concoction, vox humana, one of the stops in an organ, the quality and tone of which resemble those of the human voice, vox populi, the voice of the people, public opinion voyage (I), n [1 vó-i-j, 2 vó-i-dž, vó-i-dž], fr O Fr viage, viage, 'journey', fr Lat viaticum A journey by sea or on another large sheet of water, used especially of a long sea journey a voyage to Australia, round the world, but also, occasionally, of short journeys by sea one has a brief but often a rough voyage from Dover to Calais, crossing would be the more usual word here voyage (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans To make a voyage, to travel by sea, to undertake a long sea journey 2 trans (very rare and poet.) To journey upon, or through, to traverse 'Long were to tell what I have done, what suffered, with what pain Voyaged the unreal, vast, unbounded deep' (Milton, 'P L', x 489-71) voyager, n [1 vó-i-jér, 2 vó-i-džér] Prec & -er A traveller by water, specif, an adventurous explorer of the ocean vraisemblable, adj [1 vrasémbláhl, 2 vrasémbláhl] Fr, 'having the appearance of truth' Seeming true, having plausibility, within the bounds of probability vraisemblance, n [1 vrasémbláns, 2 vrasémbláns] Fr, 'verisimilitude' The quality of being vraisemblable, verisimilitude

Vulcan, n [1 vúlkan, 2 vúlkan] Lat Vul-, Vulcanus, name of the Roman god of fire & metal-working, cogn w Scrt ulka, 'a fire-brand', for ulka* Vulcan powder, a high explosive

Vulcanist, n [1 vúlkaníst, 2 vúlkaníst] Prec & -ist (geol) One who held the Plutonic theory, namely, that most geological phenomena have been caused by the action of fire in the interior of the earth vulcanite, n [1 vúlkanít, 2 vúlkanít] vulcan & -ite Form of india-rubber produced by an admixture of sulphur, ebonite vulcanization, n [1 vúlkanizáshun, 2 vúlkanizáshun] Next word & -ation. Process of vulcanizing rubber vulcanize, vb trans [1 vúlkaníz, 2 vúlkaníz] vulcan & -ize To treat (rubber) by mixing with sulphur to increase its elasticity vulgar, adj [1 vulgár, 2 vúlgo] Lat vulgāris, 'belonging to the multitude, general, usual, common, commonplace, vulgar', fr vulgus, 'the multitude', see vulgus, & -ar.

1 Pertaining to the multitude, hence common, in common or ordinary use, having currency among the mass of the people, usual, obs except in Phr the vulgar tongue, the vernacular. 2 Pertaining to the common people as contrasted with the upper and more civilized classes vulgar life, circles &c 3 A characteristic of the people, as contrasted with the upper and more refined or polite classes of society, not current in refined circles, low, base, unrefined, indecorate, ill bred vulgar manners, language, a vulgar accent, way of speaking, b not conforming to, unfamiliar with, the manners and customs of good society, lacking delicacy of feeling, bad, coarse, indecorous a vulgar fellow, as n, the vulgar, vulgar people vulgarian, n [1 vulgárian, 2 valgárian] Lat vulgari, stem of vulgare, see prec, & -an A vulgar, flamboyant, person, esp a pretentious person, often one newly enriched, without good breeding, decent manners, or delicacy of feeling, a boondler vulgarism, n [1 vulgárizm, 2 valgárizm] vulgar & -ism. 1 Vulgar behaviour, vulgarity 2 A vulgar, unrefined mode of speech, a mode of pronunciation, choice of words, grammatical form, not current among the well bred and refined classes of society, a solecism vulgarity, n [1 vulgáriti, 2 valgáriti] See vulgar & -ity Quality of being vulgar, vulgar behaviour, coarseness, commonness of moral fibre, lack of refinement and delicacy in feeling, rudeness, ill breeding, pretentious, offensive arrogance and display, coupled with bad taste and bad manners, indecorum vulgarization, n [1 vulgárizshun, 2 valgárizshun] vulgarize & -ation 1 Act, process, of rendering vulgar, state of having become vulgar 2 (rare) Act of rendering more widely known and current, popularization vulgarize, vb trans [1 vulgáriz, 2 valgáriz] vulgar & -ize 1 To make vulgar, common, unrefined, commonplace the tripper has vulgarized many of the loveliest spots in England 2 (rare) To render better known, to popularize vulgarly, adv [1 vulgárlí, 2 valgárlí] vulgar & -ly 1 Commonly, generally, popularly vulgarly supposed to be a cure &c 2 In a vulgar manner, with vulgarity to behave, speak, vulgarly

Vulgata, n [1 vulgát, 2 válgt] Lat vulgata editio, lit 'popular edition', fr fem of vulgatus, PP of vulgare, 'to make general, common, or universal', formed fr vulgus, 'the multitude' &c, see vulgus & vulgar Latin translation of the Scriptures made towards the end of the 4th cent, recognized by the Roman Church as authentic and authoritative vulgus, n [1 vulgus, 2 vǔlgas] Lat, 'the great mass of the people, the masses, the multitude, the people, the common run', cogn w Sort vargat, 'division, section, group', not connected with folk 1 The common people, the multitude 2 (archaic or obs) A collection of exercises in Latin or Greek verse used in schools vulnerability, n [1 vǔlnérabiliti, 2 vǔlnérabiliti] Next word & -ity Quality, condition, of being vulnerable vulnerable, adj [1 vǔlnérabl, 2 vǔlnérabl] Lat vulnerabilis, fr vulner, stem of vulnus, earlier vohnus, 'wound', cogn w Gk oúle, fr uolná*, 'a scar', prob fr same base as that in Lat vellere, 'to pluck, pull, tear', see villus, velloute Capable of being, liable to be, wounded, open to, susceptible of, not protected against, attack, injury, criticism vulnerably, adv prec & -ly So as to be vulnerable vulnerary, adj & n [1 vǔlnérari, 2 vǔlnérari] Lat vulner, see vulnerable, & -ary 1 adj Used, useful, for healing wounds 2 n A remedy for wounds vulpicide, n [1 vǔlpsíad, 2 vǔlpsíad] Lat vulpi, stem of vulpes, 'fox', see vulpine, & -cide 1 Person who shoots or traps foxes

2 The killing of foxes otherwise than by the normal method of hunting them vulpine, adj [1 vǔlpín, 2 vǔlpám] fr Lat vulpinus, 'pertaining to, like, a fox, crafty', fr vulpes, 'a fox', earlier vulp, & -ine The Lat name for fox may either be fr Aryan base welpi*, wolpi*, whence also, fr variant welp*, O E hwelp, 'young dog', see whelp (I), or, as seems more probable, fr Aryan wulka*, wulpi*, fr a different grade of wh comes Lith vulpisius, 'wild cat', fr another variant, wulka*, comes Lat lupus, 'wolf', see lupine & op wolf (I) Pertaining to, resembling, a fox, a having the appearance of a fox vulpine countenance, b like a fox in character, sly, crafty vulpinism, n [1 vǔlpínizm, 2 vǔlpínizm] prec & -ism (rare) Guile, craftiness, slyness vulture, n [1 vǔlchur, 2 vǔlt[s]] M E vultur, fr O Fr vultur, fr Lat vultur, vultur, name of the bird, connected w vellere, 'to pluck', see vellitate & words there referred to 1 Large bird of prey, allied to the hawks and eagles, which lives chiefly on carrion 2 (fig) An unscrupulous, rapacious rogue and extortioner who preys upon his fellow-creatures vulturine, adj [1 vǔlchurin, 2 vǔlt[s]arin] prec & -ine Pertaining to, resembling, a vulture in appearance or habits vulturine eagle vulturous, adj [1 vǔlchurus, 2 vǔlt[s]aras] vulture & -ous Having the characteristics of the vulture, rapacious vulva, n [1 vǔlva, 2 vǔlve] Lat, also volva, 'wrapper, covering, the womb', connected w volvere, 'to turn, roll, fold' &c, see volute External orifice of female genital organs vulvar, adj [1 vǔlvar, 2 vǔlve] prec & -ar Pertaining to the vulva vulvitis, n [1 vǔlvitis, 2 vǔlvastis] vulva & -itis Inflammation of the vulva vulvo-, pref Form of vulva used in compounds vulvo-uterine, pertaining to, affecting, the vulva and the uterus

W

W, w [1 dúbl ú, 2 díbl yu] The twenty-third letter of the alphabet For abbreviations &c see list at end of Dictionary wabble See wooble wacke, n [1 wáke, 2 wáke] fr Mod Germ wacke, M H G wacke, O H G wacko, 'gravel' Soft, greyish or brownish rock developed from decomposed trap rock wad (I), n [1 wód, 2 wód] Prob fr Swed. vadd, 'wadding', cp Mod Germ. watte, fr Dn waite According to Kluge, the word first appears in 1380, as Med Lat vadda 1 A small mass or lump of soft fibrous material packed round or between objects to prevent shifting and rattling, concussion &c, or used to stop up an opening, specif b disk of leather, felt &c to hold charge in position in gun &c 2 Collection of sheets, esp of bank notes, pressed or folded together so as to form a compact bundle wad (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To pack, press (soft material), into a wad 2 A To pack, pad, stuff, with a wad, b to stop up (opening) with a wad 3 To line (garment &c) with wadding, to give warmth, softness &c wadable, adj [1 wǔdabl, 2 wéidabl] wade (I) & -able Capable of being waded wadding, n [1 wǔding, 2 wéidng] wad & -ing 1 Soft, fluffy material used for stuffing, packing, lining garments &c, esp cotton wool in sheets 2 Felt or other material used for gun wads waddle, vb intrans & n [1 wǔdl, 2 wéidl] wade & -le 1 vb To walk with short steps and a rolling gait, as of a stout, short-legged person, or a heavy short legged bird, esp a duck &c 2 n Act of waddling, a heavy, ungainful gait accompanied by a roll from side to side as each foot is placed on the ground waddling, adj [1 wǔdng, 2 wéidng] fr prec Part of prec Inclined to waddle, characterized by a waddle waddlingly, adv prec & -ly In a waddling manner waddy, n [1 wǔdi, 2 wéidi] Australian Wooden war club of Australian aborigines wade (I), vb intrans & trans [1 wǔd, 2 wéid] O E wadan, M E waden, 'to go', cp O Frs wada, O H G wakan, O N ada, 'to go, walk', cogn w Lat vadere, 'to go', seen in wade-mecum, vadum, 'ford', vadare, 'to wade' A intrans 1 a To walk through water, liquid mud, wet snow &c, or other penetrable substance to wade across a stream, to wade through the mud, also b (fig) 'to wade through slaughter to a throne' (Gray's 'Elegy') 2 Specif, to walk in the water of a river while fly fishing 3 (fig) To persevere, go through laboriously, with effort to wade through a book & Wade in, a to enter, advance into shallow water, on foot, not swimming he waded in and rescued the drowning child, b (fig) to enter, take part in, intervene, in a fight, piece of business, discussion &c he must needs wade in and delay the business with petty objections B trans To cross, traverse (piece of water) by wading, ford to wade a stream

wade (II), n, fr prec Act, spell, of wading wader, n [1 wǔder, 2 wéide] prec & -er

1 One who, that which, wades, specif, a wading bird 2 (pl) Waders, long waterproof garments covering feet and legs and coming up above the waist, worn by fly-fishermen &c wadi, wady, n [1 wǔdi, 2 wéidi] Arab wādi (in Arabia &c) a Watercourse, river bed, which is dry except in rainy season, b an oasis wading, adj [1 wǔding, 2 wéidng] prec Part of wade (I) Wading bird, one which has long legs enabling it to walk in shallow water to obtain food, such as a crane, a heron &c

Wafd, n [1 wahft, wait, 2 waft, waft] Arab Name of the extreme Nationalist party in Egypt wafer (I), n [1 wǔfer, 2 wéife] M E wafre, 'thin cake', fr O Fr waufre, of Gmc origin, cp O H G waba, 'honeycomb', cogn w weave (I), web 1 A very thin sheet or disk of flour, used for various purposes a small disk formerly used for sealing letters &c, b small disk used in Holy Communion 2 A small disk of red paper affixed to a document in place of a seal 3 A thin sweet, cake, or biscuit, esp one eaten with ices Phr as thin as a wafer, very thin wafer (II), vb trans, fr prec To fasten with a wafer wafery, adj [1 wǔfari, 2 wéifari] wafer & -y Resembling a wafer in thinness and consistency waffle, n [1 wǔfl, 2 wéfl] fr Dn wafel, cogn. w wafer Thin, crisp cake of batter cooked over the fire in a waffle iron.

waffle-iron, n Iron cooking utensil, consisting of two shallow pans hinged together and reversible waft (I), vb trans [1 wəft, 2 wɔft] Prob a variant of wave, or possibly a back-formation fr obs wafter, 'conveying ship', the latter perh fr Du wachter, 'guard', cogn w watch (I) & wake (I) To carry lightly and buoyantly through the air or water, to bear smoothly along the leaves were wafted along by the breeze, a distant song was wafted to our ears waft (II), n, fr preo 1 Smooth movement, sweep, of flying or floating body 2 Hint of fragrance, faint odour, whiff wag (I), vb trans & intrans [1 wæg, 2 wæg] ME waggen, prob fr M Sued wagga, 'to oscillate, fluctuate', cogn w OE wagan, ME wāwien, 'to move', OHG wagōn, Goth wagan, 'to move', cogn w OE wegan, 'to carry', see weigh (I), & op also wag(g)on, waim A trans 1 To cause to oscillate, shake (object fastened at one end) lightly up and down or from side to side to wag one's forefinger 2 Specif (of a dog) to wag the tail, to move it rapidly to and fro as expression of pleasure &c B intrans (of object fastened at one end) To move quickly and lightly up and down or from side to side the dog's tail wags when his master appears, their heads wagged in time to the music Phrs to set tongues, chins, wagging, cause people to talk, esp to provoke mild scandal, so the world wags, thus human affairs go on wag (II), n, fr preo Motion of wagging, angle movement forming part of oscillation the dog replied with a wag of its tail wag (III), n Earlier wag halter, a person likely to swing at the end of a rope, i.e. to be hanged, hence a rascal, commonly used playfully A jester, a merry, roguish person, one fond of quips and jokes, a humorous person, one full of comical, laughable sayings wage (I), n [1 wā, 2 weɪdʒ] ME wāge, fr O Fr wage, fr Low Lat wadium, 'a pledge', of Gmc origin, op Goth wads, 'a pledge', & (g)wādōn, 'to pledge', op OE wædd, 'pledge, agreement', see wed gag (I) is fr a Fr variant 1 (archaic) Recompense, reward, often in plural treated as singular 'the wages of sin is death', 'Thou thy worldly task hast done, Home art gone, and to'en thy wages' (Shakespeare, 'Cymbeline', iv, song) 2 a Payment made at regular intervals in return for services, now chiefly used of payment made for manual labour, the contract between the parties being terminable at short notice, contrasted with stipend and salary I pay my man a good weekly wage, Phr a living wage, one adequate for the support of recipient, b more usually in plural, wages, the periodical payment earned by, and made to, domestic servants and manual labourers generally a reliable workman can earn good wages, take your month's wages and go at once, when wages are high, prices are high wage (II), vb trans ME wāgen, O Fr wāger, 'to pledge, promise, engage', fr wage, 'a pledge', see preo To carry on, conduct, prosecute (war, a campaign) wage-earner, n [1 wāj ɛnər, 2 weɪdʒ ɪnə] Person working for wages wageless, adj [1 wāləs, 2 weɪdlɪs] wage (I) & -less Receiving no wages wager (I), n [1 wājər, 2 weɪdʒə] ME wageour, fr O Fr wagurs, fr L Lat wadiōtura, fr wadiōre, 'to pledge', fr wadium, 'a pledge', see wage (I) 1 Engagement between two persons to risk money on the outcome of an event, bet 2 (hist) Wager of battle, mode of trial by personal combat, wager of law, mode of defence in which defendant, together with a number of witnesses, swears to his innocence, absence of liability &c wager (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 A To bet, risk, offer as stake to wager half a crown on a race, b to pledge to wager one's reputation on 2 To bet (that) I would not wager that I shall succeed wage(s)-fund, n [1 wəʒ(ɪz) fʌnd, 2 weɪdʒ(ɪz) fʌnd] (polit econ) That part of the capital of a community which is to be expended on wages and salaries waggery, n [1 wægəri, 2 wægəri] wag (III) & -ery Waggish behaviour or sayings, drollery, oomicality waggish, adj [1 wágɪʃ, 2 wægɪʃ] wag (III) & -ish Inclined to, of the nature of, waggery, comical, droll a waggish fellow, a waggish look, speech &c waggishly, adv Preo & -ly In a waggish manner waggishness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being waggish, waggery waggle (I), vb intrans & trans [1 wágl, 2 wægl] Freq of wag (I), eee-le (colloq) To move slightly backwards and forwards, to oscillate waggle (II), n, fr preo (colloq) A slight backward and forward movement wag(g)on, n [1 wágun, 2 wágun], fr Dn wagen, cogn w waim 1 Strong, four-wheeled vehicle used for carrying heavy loads, often drawn by two or more horses, and sometimes with removable top or cover 2 Railway truck wag(g)on-boiler, n Steam-boiler of semi-cylindrical shape, like that of cover of wagon wag(g)oner, n [1 wáguner, 2 wágunə] wag(g)on & -er Driver of wagon, man in charge of wagon(s) and horses &c wag(g)on-roof, n Roof of semi-cylindrical shape wag(g)on-vault, n Semicircular vault wagonette, n [1 wágunet, 2 wágunét] wag(g)on & -ette Four-wheeled open carriage, with two seats facing each other behind the coachman's box wagon-lit, n [1 wágun lɪt, 2 wágun lɪt] Fr Railway carriage fitted with beds wagtail, n [1 wágtəl, 2 wágtel] wag (I) & tail One of a genus, Motacilla, of small birds with long wings, and tail feathers which move constantly up and down as the bird runs along the ground

Wahabi, -ee, n [1 wəhábɪ, 2 wəhábɪ] Member of Puritanical Mohammedan sect founded in the 18th cent in Central Arabia by Abd el-Wahhab, who died about 1792 wail, n [1 wáɪ, 2 weɪ] In ME, fr ON veif, 'something flapping or waving', meaning influenced by O Fr wāf, fr L Lat wavum, 'goods thrown away by a thief in flight', also fr ON Seewaive 1 a Homeless, straying, wandering person or animal, Phr ways and strays, homeless, abandoned children, b a person or animal of miserable, poverty stricken, neglected appearance 2 Object without an owner, esp something which drifts in water or is blown by the wind, or brought by unknown agency wail (I), vb intrans & trans [1 wáɪ, 2 weɪ] ME wailen, fr ON vāla, 'to lament', fr vā, 'woe', cogn w woe A intrans 1 (of living creatures and of the wind) To utter or produce a long, shrill, lugubrious or plaintive cry or sound, to shriek, howl 2 To express sorrow or regret, to lament to wail over one's misfortunes B trans To bewail, to lament, grieve over to wail one's sorrows wail (II), n See preo A Wailing sound, prolonged, plaintive sound produced by a living creature or by the wind &c, b a complaint, expression of regret, grief, annoyance &c wailful, adj [1 wáɪfʊl, 2 weɪfʊl] Preo & -ful In the nature of a wail, plaintive a wailful cry wailing (I), adj [1 wáɪɪŋ, 2 weɪɪŋ] Preo Part of wail (I) Of the nature of, resembling, a wail wailing (II), vbl n wail & -ing The sound of a wail wailingly, adv wailing (I) & -ly In a wailing manner wain, n [1 wān, 2 weɪn] OE wægn, ME wain, 'wagon', op O Frs wain, ON wagn, O HG wagan, in gradational relation to OE wegan, 'to carry', see weigh (I), op also vehicle (chiefly poet) A wagon, Charles's Wain, the constellation also called the Plough, the Great Bear, and Ursa Major wainscot, n & vb trans [1 wénskɪt, wénskót, 2 wénsket, wénskout, -ket], fr Du wagenscot, the first element is doubtful, perh cogn w OE wāg, 'wall', bnt by some referred to Du wage, 'a wave', in reference to the grain of wood, the second element means 'board', etymol doubtful, op camp-shot 1 n A Originally applied to a fine oak used for panelling imported from Holland, now, any wooden panelling on a wall, bnt esp the wooden panel at the base of, and running round, the wall of a room just above the floor, b name of various moths of the sub-family Orthosuidae, with streaked wing markings 2 vb To affix wainscot to (wall) wainscoting, n [1 wénskɪtɪŋ, 2 wénskɪtɪŋ] Preo & -ing A Material for wainscot, b wooden panelling on a wall waist, n [1 wáɪst, 2 weɪst] ME wáist, 'etature', waist, op OHG wahst, Goth wahstus, 'growth', cogn w OE wæstm, 'growth', fr base of weahan, weaxan, 'to grow', see wax (III) 1 A Narrowest part of human trunk, between ribs and hip bones to have a such round one's waist, a large, small, waist, one of large, small, circumference, b well-marked narrowing and slinness of the figure at the waist waists have gone out of fashion 2 Part of woman's garment corresponding to the waist Specif USA, a woman's blouse or bodice, also shirt-waist 3 Part of an object resembling the human waist in shape and position, central, narrowed portion, e.g. of a violin 4 (nant) Middle part of ship, between quarter-deck and fore-castle waist-band, n Band, part of garment, fitting round the waist waist-belt, n Belt worn round the waist waist-cloth, n Loin-cloth waistcoat, n [1 wéskut, wésk(t)kót, 2 wéskat, wésk(t)kout] Close fitting, usually sleeveless garment worn under a coat and reaching to the waist waist-deep, adj & adv 1 adj A Reaching up to the waist the water was waist deep, b covered up to the waist to be waist deep in bracken 2 adv So as to reach the waist waisted, adj [1 wáɪstəd, 2 wéɪstɪd] waist & -ed Having a waist, shaped to form a waist, also in compounds long, short, small waisted &c waist-high, adj & adv High enough to reach to the waist wait (I), vb intrans & trans [1 wáɪt, 2 weɪt] ME waiten, fr O Fr waiter (also gaiter), 'to watch, wait', fr waiter, 'watcher', fr OHG wahita, 'watcher', fr wahhēn, 'to be awake', see further under wake (I) A intrans 1 To remain in expectation of something happening, to delay action &c, until a particular time, until an event has taken place the train is due, so we shall not have long to wait, don't wait if I am late, let us wait in the shade, you mustn't keep him waiting, wait until you are asked, please wait a minute, we have waited for hours 2 To act as waiter, serve and hand round dishes at table &c to wait at table, she will never learn to wait B trans To await, wait for, remain in expectation of, on the watch for to wait one's chance, to wait a person's return, to wait one's convenience, pleasure &c Phr to wait dinner, tea, luncheon &c (a person), to put off having (dinner &c) until he arrives C Followed by adverbs and prepositions with special meanings Wait for, intrans, to remain in expectation of, await, delay action, resumption of action, departure &c, until specified time, person's arrival &c I will wait for you at the gate, we have been waiting for the clock to strike, to wait for a person's reply, to wait for a signal Wait (upon), 1 (archaic) to call upon, pay one's respects to, 2 (archaic) to escort, b (fig) to accompany, attend may good luck wait upon you, 3 to serve, attend upon, act as attendant on, fetch and carry for to be waited on hand and foot, 4 to follow as result, be a consequence of 'Now good digestion wait on appetite' (Shakespeare, 'Moabeth', iii 4) wait (II), n., fr prec a lot of waiting, Phrs to be in wait (for), remain hidden and waiting to waylay or attack, to lay wait for, prepare an ambush for, b time during which one waits a long, tedious wait wait (III), n., fr O Fr waiter, 'watcher', see wait (I) (chiefly in pl) The waits, a band of persons who go from house to house and sing Christmas carols waiter, n [1 wáiter, 2 wéiter] wait (I) & -er 1 A male servant who serves guests at meals in public restaurants and hotels 2 Tray, salver, for handing dishes &c waiting, n [1 wáiting, 2 wéiting] wait & -ing Act or occupation of one who waits Phr in waiting, in attendance, esp on royalty lady in waiting, lords, grooms, in waiting waiting-maid, n Female personal attendant waiting-room, n Room at railway station for the use of persons waiting for trains, sitting room in a house for person awaiting an interview with a medical man &c waitress, n [1 wáitres, 2 wéitres] waiter & -ess Female waiter at a hotel or restaurant waive, vb trans [1 wáiv, 2 wéiv] ME waiven, fr A-Fr wayver, of Gmc origin, op ON veifa, 'to fluctuate, vibrate', cogn w OE wafian, 'to be astonished at, to hesitate', OHG wēbōn, 'to be unsteady', cogn w Lat vibrare See vibrate & op wait To relinquish, esp temporarily, refrain from insisting on or pressing to waive one's rights, a claim &c waiver, n [1 wáiver, 2 wéiver] A Fr wayner, mfn as n, see prec Legal renunciation, relinquishing of claim &c wake (I), vb intrans & trans [1 wák, 2 wéik] There are two closely related vbs in OE, wacian, 'to be awake, watch', & wakan, 'to originate, rise, be born', ME waken, 'to be awake, watch, keep vigil', OHG wahhen, ON waka, 'to be awake', Goth walan, op further OE wacor, 'wakeful', OHG wahhar, 'lively', ON wakr, 'vigilant', cogn w Lat vegere, 'to be active, to arouse', see vegetable, op watch (I) A intrans 1 To be, remain, awake 'He wakes or sleeps with the enduring dead' (Shelley, 'Adonais', xxxviii, 3) Phr in our waking hours, those during which we are awake 2 A Also wake up, to return to consciousness from sleep I wake (up) early, to wake up with a start, b to return to consciousness from a state resembling sleep to wake from a stupor, hypnotic trance &c, c to become mentally alert following condition of dullness and torpor it is time for you to wake up and attend to your business Phr to wake to (a realization of danger &c), become conscious of, realize 3 To come to life, become active, to emerge from a state of inactivity and quiescence his conscience woks and smote him, many fierce and angry passions wake during controversy B trans Also wake up, 1 To cause to wake, rouse the noise woke me (up), wake me at seven Phr to wake the echoes, make a loud noise 2 To rouse, provoke mental alertness in, to stimulate into activity of mind the shock seemed to wake him up and make him less lethargic 3 To excite, rouse, recall to activity, render lively, to stir to wake memories of the past, to wake passions wake (II), n., fr prec 1 (hist) a Festival of dedication of church, preceded by all night vigil, b festivity, merrymaking, in celebration of this 2 A Vigil beside a corpse, kept up throughout the night preceding the funeral, b festivities accompanying a wake, (frequent among the poorer classes in Ireland) 3 Annual holiday taken by workers in the industrial towns of Lancashire, Yorkshire &c wake (III), vb trans, fr prec To hold a wake over (dead person) wake (IV), n., fr ON wak, 'hole in ice', ep ON wákr, 'damp', cogn w Gk hugrós, 'moist', Sort ukktá, 'sprinkles', Lat uidus, 'wet', (h)umor, 'moisture', see humour (I) Long streak of smooth water behind moving vessel Phr in the wake of, (i) (of vessel) following in the track of, (u) (fig) following as consequence of, wars bring misery in their wake wakeful, adj [1 wákfool, 2 wéikfúl] wake (I) & -ful 1 Watchful, vigilant, alert 2 a Remaining awake, unable to sleep, b a wakeful night, one passed with little or no sleep wakefully, adv Prec & -ly In a wakeful manner wakefulness, n See prec & -ness State of being wakeful waken, vb intrans & trans [1 wákon, 2 wéikan] OE wæcan, 'to be born, have origin', ME waknen, 'to be awakened', fr wacan, 'to have origin, arise', see wake (I) 1 intrans a To wake up, be awakened, b to recover consciousness, be roused 2 trans a To cause to wake, rouse up, b to rouse to activity, stir up wake-robin, n Wild arum

Walach(ian) See Wallach, Wallachian Waldenses, n pl [1 wöldénséz, 2 wöldénsaiz], fr Peter Waldo, of Lyons, founder of the sect of Puritan reformers in Western Church, still persisting in the region of the Cottian Alps, founded about 1170, and much persecuted in 16th and 17th cents

Waldensian, adj [1 wöldénsmán, 2 wöldén-sian] Prec & -ian Pertaining to the Waldenses wald-horn, n [1 wáhlit horn, 2 wált hön], fr Germ wald, 'forest', see under wold, & horn Hunting horn wale, n & vb trans [1 wál, 2 wéil] OE walu, 'weal, stripe, bar, gunwale', ME wale, op ON wolr, O Frs walu, Goth walus, 'rod', cogn w Lith (ap) valus, 'round', Lat vallus, 'pillar', vallée, 'valley', see vallum, valley, wall weal (II) is a variant 1 n Raised streak formed on the flesh by a blow from a whip, stick &c 2 vb To raise wales on, mark with wales wale-knot, n Also wall knot, mode of inter weaving strands at end of rope to prevent unravelling

Waler, n [1 wáler, 2 wéila], fr New South Wales One of a breed of horses imported into India from Australia

Walhallia See Vathallia

walk (I), vb intrans & trans [1 wawk, 2 wák] OE walcian, 'to roll, fluctuate, whirl, twist', ME walken, 'to move, go, roll, walk', OHG walkan, 'to strike, beat', op ON walka, 'to roll', Du walken, 'to press', Mod Germ walken, 'to full (cloth)', cogn w Sort walgat, '(he) hops' A intrans 1 a To move along by putting alternately each foot in front of the other, and advancing at a moderate pace, contrasted with sit, or stand still, to pace along to walk slowly, steadily, up and down, children learn to walk at 13 months or so, it is too cold to stand about, you had better walk a bit, Phr walking lady, gentleman, actor who appears on the stage, but has no spoken part, b spoof (of a ghost) to be seen moving, stirring, in a specific place, to be visible, to haunt a place the ghost walks at midnight 2 a (of persons) To move along at a comparatively slow or walking pace, contrasted with to run I'm quite out of breath with running, I must walk for a bit, b (of a horse &c) to move along at the slowest pace, contrasted with to trot, canter, gallop 3 To go on foot, as opposed to riding, or being conveyed in a vehicle let us stop the carriage and get down and walk, shall we go by car or walk? 4 (archaic) To conduct oneself, to behave, order one's conduct, modo of life &c 'to walk humbly with one's God' B trans 1 a To cause to go at a walk to walk one's horse down hill, b to lead, accompany, at a walk to walk a horse up and down, to walk a man all over the town, Phr to walk a person off his legs, tire him out by making him walk too far, c spoof, to walk a puppy, to train and exercise him 2 To traverse on foot I have walked this country for miles round Phrs (archaic) to walk the hospitals, attend cases, watch operations, in hospital, as part of practical training for medical profession, to walk the boards, to act on the stage, to walk the plank, be murdered by pirates by being compelled to walk up a plank which tips up and precipitates one into the sea, to walk the chalk, to demonstrate that one is sober by walking along a narrow chalk line 3 To traverse a specified distance on foot to walk a mile 4 To contend with, pit oneself against, in walking I'll walk you ten miles any day you like C Followed by adverbs and prepositions with special meanings Walk about, intrans, to walk here and there, stroll up and down &c Walk away, 1 intrans, to depart at a walk, 2 trans, to lead away at a walk Walk away from, intrans, (lit and fig) to outstrip with ease in a contest Walk away with, intrans, to carry off Walk in, intrans, to enter, come, go in Walk into, intrans, (slang) a to eat heartily of, devour, b to abuse, rail at, pitch into Walk off, 1 intrans, to depart at a walk, 2 trans, to cause to walk off Walk off with, intrans, to carry off, to steal the page boy has walked off with the spoons Walk out with, intrans, (of lower classes) to be in initial stages of courtship with, prior to formal engagement Walk over, trans, (in contest, race &c) a to pass over (course) at walking pace in absence of other competitors, b to have an easy victory over walk (II), n., fr prec 1 Action of walking, a (of person) pace in which the feet are moved forward successively, without taking both off the ground simultaneously, b (of quadruped) slowest pace, two feet at least being always on the ground to go at a walk, to drop into a walk 2 Manner of walking, characteristic gait, carriage one can often recognize a person by his walk, a dignified, a shambling, walk 3 Spell of walking, journey, excursion, on foot, esp for exercise or recreation to go for a walk, to take a walk, we had a long, tiring walk 4 a Route traversed on foot this is my favourite walk, b spoof, regular route, beat, of hawker &c Phr walk off, or in, life, (i) station, position, rank in society persons in the humbler walks of life, (u) habitual occupation, profession he chose the Bar as his walk in life 5 (archaic) Mode of ordering one's life and behaviour, general conduct 6 Place, strip of ground, set apart for walking, path, promenade a grass, gravel, walk, a walk bordered with a yew hedge 7 District, enclosure, piece of ground, for exercising animals, pasturing sheep &c, also in compounds, sheep walk &c walkable, adj [1 wákwahl, 2 wókwahl] walk (I) & -able Capable of being walked a walkable distance walker, n [1 wáwker, 2 wóks] walk (I) & -er 1 a One who walks, a pedestrian, b person who habitually practises and enjoys walking as an exercise not much of a walker 2 Bird which moves along the ground by successive steps instead of hopping walking, vbl n [1 wáwking, 2 wóksing] walk (I) & -ing The act or motion of one who walks to be fond of, to dislike walking walking-dress, n Dress suitable for wearing out of doors walking-fern, n North American evergreen fern whose fronds bend backwards and take root at the tip walking-gentleman, -lady, n Actor, actress, who takes a part needing little skill but a good appearance walking-leaf, n Leaf-insect walking-papers, n (slang) Dismissal from employment walking-stick, n 1 Stick carried in the hand while walking 2 Insect with long, slender body and legs, stick insect walking-ticket, n Walking-papers walking-tour, n Extended excursion, journey for pleasure, on foot walk-over, n [1 wɔ:k óvə, 2 wɔ:k óuvə] (sporting) Easy or unopposed victory

Walkyrie See Valkyrie

wall (I), n [1 wɔ:l, 2 wɔ:l] OE, ME wall, op O Fris, OS wail, MHG wail, early loan word fr Lat vallum, 'wall, rampart', fr vallus, 'stake, palisade, pillar', see vallum 1 a Solid structure of stones, bricks, timbers, sods &c, usually relatively thin in proportion to its height and length, and erected as barrier, partition, means of defence, enclosure &c to build the walls of a house, the garden is surrounded by a wall, Phrs wall of partition, party wall, wall dividing rooms, gardens &c, retaining wall, one supporting bank of earth &c, blank wall, unbroken by doors, windows &c, walls have ears, one is liable to be overheard, to be able to see through a brick wall, have remarkable perceptive power, to run one's head against a wall, attempt obvious impossibilities, with one's back to the wall, at bay, wooden walls, the old wooden men-of-war, considered as the true protection of England against her enemies, b specif, defensive wall of town &c 2 Extended, densely packed group of objects resembling a wall in appearance or function a wall of bayonets 3 Side of, partition in, a cavity, organ, vessel &c of animals or plants the walls of the heart &c 4 (mun) One of the rock surfaces enclosing the lode 5 That side of the pavement in a street nearest to the walls of the houses &c, and therefore farthest from the gutter or kennel, hence various Phrs to give a person the wall, allow him to pass on the inside, to take the wall of, refuse to yield the inner side of the pavement and cause another pedestrian to pass on the outside near the edge of the pavement, to push, drive, thrust (a person) to the wall, thrust him aside, treat with contempt, to go to the wall, to be thrust aside as useless and ineffective wall (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To surround, protect, defend, with a wall, often PP, walled towns 2 Usually wall up, to block up (space, opening &c) with a wall walla(h), n [1 wɔ:lə, 2 wɔ:lə] fr Hind, agent-suff wālā (Anglo Indian) Person engaged in specified occupation or employed in specific business, equivalent to man, fellow punkah walla(h), the servant whose job it is to keep the punkah going Phr competition walla(h), term applied in contempt by the now extinct generation of British military officers, or civilian officials, in India, who owed their entry into the East India Company's service to interest and nomination, to those who passed in by examination wallaby, n [1 wɔ:ləbi, 2 wɔ:ləbi] Native Australian Species of small kangaroo

Wallach, n [1 wɔ:lək, 2 wɔ:lək] Slav, ultimately fr OHG wali, 'foreigner', q v under Welsh Member of one of the Romance speaking peoples of Roumania

Wallachian, adj & n [1 wɔ:ləkiən, 2 wɔ:ləkiən] Prec & -ian 1 adj Pertaining to the Wallachs or their language 2 n a A Wallach, b language of the Wallachs wallaroo, n [1 wɔ:ləroo, 2 wɔ:ləroo] Native Australian One of the larger varieties of kangaroo wall-creeper, n Small insectivorous bird wall-cross, n Kind of arachn wallet, n [1 wɔ:lət, 2 wɔ:lət] Etymol doubtful, possibly a variant of ME uete, 'hurdle, basket, bag', see wattle 1 (archaic) Bag or sump carried by traveller, pilgrim &c and containing food and other necessities 2 Flat leather case or pocket-book for carrying bank-notes, papers &c 3 Small leather bag or case for tools &c wall-eye, n Back formation fr next word 1 A Opacity of the cornea of the eye, b white appearance of eye affected in this way 2 Eye showing large proportion of cornea on account of squint &c wall-eyed, adj ME wawl ēged, fr ON vagl eygðr, fr vagl, 'beam in the eye', eygðr, 'eyed, having eyes', fr auga, 'eye', q v under eye The etymol of the first element is unknown Affected with wall-eye wall-fern, n Small evergreen fern; polypody wallflower, n [1 wɔ:lflaʊə, 2 wɔ:lflaʊə] 1 Garden perennial of the mustard family, genus Cheiranthus, with clusters of fragrant, yellow, red, or brown flowers 2 Woman at a ball who, from lack of partners, cannot dance and occupies a seat against the wall of the ball room wall-fruit, n Fruit produced by trees trained on a garden wall wall-game, n A variety of football played at Eton wall-knot, n Variant of wale-knot wall-less, adj [1 wɔ:lles, 2 wɔ:lles] wall (I) & -less Having no wall wall-moss, n Stonewort

Walloon, n & adj [1 wɔ:lɔ:n, 2 wɔ:lɔ:n] fr O Fr Wallon, fr Gmc wailh*, OHG wailh, 'foreigner', see Welsh 1 n a One of a people of mixed descent living in Belgium and the adjoining part of France, b French dialect spoken by Walloons 2 adj Of, pertaining to, the Walloons or their dialect wallopp, vb intrans & trans [1 wɔ:lɔ:p, 2 wɔ:lɔ:p] Origin somewhat obscure, certainly of Gmc origin, but perh derived through O Fr, a variant of gallop, & formerly used in English in that sense, possibly connected w OE weallan, 'to boil, to be agitated' See wall (I) & op potwalloper 1 intrans (archaic or provincial) To move along rapidly but heavily, esp to wallop along 2 trans To beat severely, to thrash walloping, adj [1 wɔ:lɔ:pɪŋ, 2 wɔ:lɔ:pɪŋ] Pres Part of prec (slang) Of large size, big, strapping, whacking a walloping great hare wallow (I), vb intrans [1 wɔ:lə, 2 wɔ:lə] OE wealwian, ME walwen, 'to turn, roll', cp Goth wailujan, 'to roll', wailan, 'to turn round', oogn w Lat volvere, 'to turn, roll', see volute, Gk eluein, 'to wind', elutron, 'sheath', see elytron, Sort varur-tram, 'outer garment', ulūta, 'python', O Slav walki, 'to revolve', cp also waltz & welter (I) 1 To roll about, flounder, in liquid or semi liquid substance to wallow in the mire, mud, water &c Phr wallowing in money, very rich 2 (fig) To indulge in to excess, plunge into, revel in to wallow in sensuality &c wallow (II), n, fr prec Hollow, pool, mud-hole, in which an animal habitually wallows wallowing, n [1 wɔ:lɔ:ŋ, 2 wɔ:lɔ:ŋ] wallow & -ing The floundering, rolling, movement of an animal that wallows wall-painting, n Decorative painting, picture, on the wall of room &c wall-paper, n Paper, often highly decorated in colours, used for covering interior walls and ceilings of rooms wall-pepper, n Stonewort wall-plate, n Timber in or on top of a wall to take the pressure of beam, girder &c wall-rue, n Small evergreen fern, Asplenium Ruta muraria, growing on cliffs &c Wallsend, n [1 wɔ:lzɛnd, 2 wɔ:lzɛnd] fr Wallsend in Northumberland. Fine grade of household coal

Wall Street, n Street in New York City American money market walnut, n [1 wɔ:lnʌt, 2 wɔ:lnʌt] OE w(e)alhnutu, fr w(e)alh, 'foreign', see Welsh, & nut 1 Edible nut of oily constancy, and rough irregular surface, contained between two very hard, easily separable shells, outside which is a thick pulpy husk 2 a The tree (Juglans) producing these nuts, b hard, finely grained timber of this tree, used in cabinet-making and for gunstocks walnut-tree, n Same as walnut, 2, a Walpurgis-night, n, semi Germ [1 vɔ:l-pɜ:rgɪs nɪt, 2 vɔ:l-pɜ:rgɪs nɪt], fr Germ. Walpurgis (nacht), fr St. Walpurga, abbess of Heidenheim, died c 779 Witches' festival on the Brocken, on the eve of May let walrus, n [1 wɔ:l, wɔ:lʊs, 2 wɔ:l, wɔ:lʊs], fr Du, fr Swed wallroos, transposed fr Icel hrosswalr, fr hross, 'horse', & walr, 'whale', op OE horahwæl, 'walrus', see whale & horse Large, amphibious, seal like mammal with long, drooping tusks, found in Arctic seas waltz (I), n [1 wɔ:lts, 2 wɔ:lts] Mod Germ fr walzen, 'to revolve', op OE walkan, 'to turn round' See welter (I) 1 Dance for couples, with smooth, even step, to music in 3 or 2 time 2 Musical composition to which this is danced waltz (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans a To dance a waltz, b to dance, twirl, skip about rapidly, with joy, exultation &c 2 trans To cause to waltz, to lay hold of (person) and dance about with (him or her) waltz me round again wampee, n [1 wɔ:mpeɪ, 2 wɔ:mpeɪ], fr Chinese, fr huang, 'yellow', & pi, 'skin' 1 Berry with tough, yellow rind and edible pulp 2 Tropical tree, growing in China, East Indies &c, producing this fruit wampum, n [1 wɔ:m-pum, 2 wɔ:m-pum], fr N American Ind wampum (peag), fr wompi, 'white', & ompumpeag, 'string of beads or money'. Beads made of shells, worn in strings by N American Indians as money or ornament wan, adj [1 wɔ:n, 2 wɔ:n] OE wann, 'livid, dark', ME wan, 'faint, pale', perh connected w wane Pallid, pale, colourless (esp through illness, anxiety &c), sickly, (also poet of sky, atmosphere &c) neither dark nor light, livid; palish, colourless wand, n [1 wɔ:nd, 2 wɔ:nd] ME wand, fr ON vpndr, 'rod', cp Goth wandus, 'rod', Goth wandjan, 'to turn round', OE wundan, 'to wind', see wind (IV) The primitive meaning seems to be 'some thing phable'. Long, slender rod, esp a one carried in the hand as symbol of office &c, b conductor's baton; c conjuror's light rod the wand of the magician wander, vb intrans & trans [1 wɔ:ndə, 2 wɔ:ndə] OE wandrian, ME wandren, 'to wander', cp M Du wandren, MHG wandern, 'to wander', fr same base, w wandakon, OE wenden, 'to turn', see wend (I), wundan, 'to wind', see wind (IV) A intrans 1 a To move from place to place, or from one object to another, without a specific route or purpose, to roam, ramble, rove to wander through the woods, to wander from flower to flower, to wander about the world, b (of the eyes, glance &c) to shift from point to point, stray 2 a To deviate from the proper course, go out of one's way, to stray, go astray to wander out of one's way, to wander off the track, b to depart from a clear and logical line of thought, to go aside from a subject of thought or discussion, become diffuse or confused to wander from the point 3 a To become incoherent in thought and expression, to ramble in one's mind, be delirious, and unconscious of what one is saying he is wandering, is wandering in his mind, as the result of high fever, b (of the mind, thoughts, attention) to lack concentration, go wool gathering, to be preoccupied, distract, absent-minded B trans To traverse, roam over, journey through at random, without settled course wanderer, n [1 wɒndərə, 2 wɒndərə] Preo & -er One who wanders, person given to wandering wandering (I), n [1 wɒndərɪŋ, 2 wɒndərɪŋ] wandor & -ing 1 (gen in pl) a Aimless ramble, b widely extended journeyings, travels from place to place to return from one's wanderings 2 (gen in pl) Incoherent or delirious speech the rapid wanderings of insanity wandering (II), adj fr Pres Part of wander 1 Moving about in a rambling, purposeless manner, roving, strolling Phr wandering Jew, (i) legendary character condemned to perpetual wandering on account of an insult offered to Christ on the road to the Crucifixion, (ii) person addicted to wandering from country to country, (iii) kind of trailing plant 2 Moving about within the body, not attached, floating wandering cell &c wanderingly, adv Preo & -ly In a wandering manner wanderoo, n [1 wɒndərəʊ, 2 wɒndərəʊ], fr Cingalese wandaru a Large, black, langur monkey of Ceylon and Malabar, with light-coloured or grey mane and ruffs, b the lion-tailed Indian macaque wane (I), vb intrans. [1 wān, 2 weɪn] O E wanian, 'to diminish, decline, fade, wano', ME wanien & wānen, 'to lessen, wane, grow pale', op OHG wandn, ON wana, O Fris wania, 'to decline', op further O E, OHG wan, Goth wans, ON wanr, 'wanting', cogn w Lat vānus, 'empty, useless', see vain, Gk εἰναι, 'bereaved of', for wōnais*, see also want 1 To grow less, to diminish, to become less in amount, intensity, power &c a our supply of ammunition steadily wanes, b obliquely used of non material things and of qualities waning influences, popularity, his strength is slowly waning 2 Speed (of the moon and certain other heavenly bodies) to expose an ever smaller part of the illuminated surface to the earth, contrasted with wax wane (II), n fr preo Aot or process of waning, decline, esp in Phr. on the wane wanghee See wahanghee wangle, vb trans [1 wɒŋɡl, 2 wɒŋɡl] Weekley derives tentatively fr provinio wangle, 'to shake, totter', & compares ME wankel, 'unstable', O E wancol, this is cogn w OHG wānlon, 'to totter', Mod Germ wanken winks is perh in gradational relation to these On the other hand, the word is quite recent, though since the War in wide spread use, so that an obscure provinio origin seems improbable Further, the present usage is very remote fr the idea of 'tottering' May the word not rather be a humorous confection fr a combination of 'wily' & 'to angle' in fig sense, or something of the kind? (recent slang) To obtain by diplomacy or artifice to wangle a few days' extra leave, to wangle five pounds out of a person wanion, n [1 wɒnjən, 2 wɒnjən], fr waniand, ME Nthn Pres Part of wane, w reference to waning moon as unpropitious Archaic Phr with a wanion on, to, ill luck to (as imprecation) wanly, adv [1 wɒnli, 2 wɒnli] wan & -ly With a wan appearance, (also fig) dismally, bleakly to smile wanly wanness, n [1 wɒnəs, 2 wɒnəs] See preo & -ness State or quality of being wan want (I), n [1 wɒnt, 2 wɒnt] ME want, fr ON want, 'deficiency', fr neut form of wanr, 'lacking', see want, for another example of this neut suff. i see want 1 State of being absent, lack, deficiency to suffer from want of food, air, want of common sense, lack &c 2 State of being without a need, absence of something felt to be necessary to be in want of food, the building seems to be in want of repair, I feel the want of a real friend, b specif, destitution, indigence, penny insufficiency, lack, of means of livelihood to live in want, to know the bitterness of want 3 (chiefly pl) Thing or things desired and felt to be necessary, requirements my wants are few, you should try to reduce your wants I will supply all your essential wants Phr a long felt want, some thing for which the necessity has long been felt, but which is not available want (II), vb trans & intrans ME wanten, fr ON wanta, 'to be lacking', fr want, 'deficiency', see preo A trans 1 To lack, be deficient in, to fall, or be, short of, to require addition of in order to reach specified or desired standard or quality the house only wants a few more rooms to be perfect, the book wants a page at the end, he certainly does not want intelligence, or as not wanting in &c, your coat wants an inch or so of the proper length, is an inch or so short of 2 a To need, have need of, to require, feel the necessity for children want plenty of sleep, we shan't want a fire today, I shall want dinner for four, you badly want a new hat = you ought to have, what do you want, shall you want anything more tonight, sir? (colloq) what you want is a good thrashing, i.e. what would do you good is &c, b to desire to obtain, procure, get hold of, buy &c I want some evening ties, please, I want some hot water at once 3 To desire to have, wish for, have a longing for a I want many things that I can't have, he wants everything he sees, b (followed by infin) (i) I want to see what is going on, I want you to be happy, (ii) (with neg) I don't want you to be hurt = want you to avoid being, he doesn't want to go = wants not to go 4 (i) To be so circumstanced that it is desirable to do (something specified), to be obliged to do, ought, must you want to have your teeth seen to, one wants to be very careful in handling persons; (ii) (with neg) you don't want to be rude = you needn't, oughtn't, to be, you don't want to overdo it for a bit = mustn't overdo it, he doesn't want to be treated too severely = does not require &c 5 Specif a to desire to see or to speak to, to require presence of tell the boy I want him, you won't be wanted this afternoon, I want you for a minute or two, b PPP in special Phr wanted by the police, wanted for (murder &c), being sought for as a suspicious person, as being suspected to be guilty of (murder) B intrans 1 a To lack, be lacking or absent, (impers) it wanted only this last outrage, that alone was lacking, it wants but one word more and I shall turn you out, if you utter one more word &c, it wants half an hour to the appointed time, it wants just a minute to the hour, b (in Pres Part) nothing is wanting to make the party a success, style and dignity are quite wanting from the play, c specif (colloq) lacking normal intelligence, defective in mind such a strange boy, he seemed to me to be slightly wanting (see also wanting (I)) 2 a To be destitute, to lack the necessities of life he must not be allowed to want in his old age, b want for, to be without, be unable to obtain he shall want for nothing that care and affection can bestow wanting (I), adj [1 wɒntɪŋ, 2 wɒntɪŋ], fr Pres Part of want (II) (pred) 1 a Deficient, defective, lacking some essential and necessary quality wanting in some respects, in initiative &c, weighed and found wanting, b specif, (absol) deficient in intelligence, partly imbecile (see preo, B 1, c) 2 Lacking, absent, missing there is a volume wanting to complete the set wanting (II), Pres Part as prep Without, less, in the absence of wanting a leader, nothing could be done wantless, adj [1 wɒntləs, 2 wɒntləs] want (I) & -less Without a want wanton (I), adj [1 wɒntən, 2 wɒntən] ME wantouen, wantoun, fr pref wan, 'without, lacking', cogn w want, & ME touen, O E togen, PP of tōan, 'to draw, pull, to bring up, educate', q v under tow (I) 1 Unrestrained, not under control, specif a frolicsome, capricious, irresponsible a wanton kid, child, wanton play tricks &c, b wild, wayward in growth or arrangement, luxuriant, unchecked or uncontrolled 'golden tresses Dishevelled, but in wanton ringlets waved' (Milton, 'P L', iv 306-8), c without motive, purposeless, irresponsible, arbitrary wanton destruction 2 Unchaste, loose, licentious wanton (II), n, fr preo Wanton person, esp an unchaste woman wanton (III), vb intrans a To frolic, sport, without restraint 'The birds that wanton in the air' (Lovelace, 'To Althea'), b to luxuriate, flourish, run riot, produce, in limitless abundance and prodigality 'Nature here Wantoned as in her prime' (Milton, 'P L', v 394-5) wantonly, adv [1 wɒntənli, 2 wɒntənli] wanton (I) & -ly In a wanton manner, esp without motive, unnecessarily, gratuitously wantonly cruel wantonness, n [1 wɒntənəs, 2 wɒntənəs] See preo & -ness State or quality of being wanton, a light-heartedness, irresponsibility, b dissolute conduct, unobastity wapentake, n [1 wəpəntək, 2 wəpəntək] L O E wāpenīce, 'expression of consent or loyalty by touching weapon, district governed by leader thus appointed', fr ON wapntak, fr wagn, 'weapon', q v under weapon, & taka, 'to touch', see take An old division of one of the counties of Yorks, Lancs, Derby, Leics, Rutland, Notts, corresponding to a hundred elsewhere wapiti, n [1 wɒpɪti, 2 wɒpɪti], fr N Am. Ind wapitih Large N American antlered deer, Cervus canadensis, related to red deer, called 'elk' in popular usage war (I), n [1 wɔː, 2 wɔː] ME, fr O Fr werre, of Gmc origin, cp OHG & OS werren, 'to confuse, hinder, injure', cp ON verr, 'stroke of oar', cogn w Lat verrere, 'to sweep, to draggle, trail', see verriouche, Gk ερεῖν for 'war' to move painfully', O Slav vrěti, 'to thresh' 1 a Open conflict between nations, active international hostility carried on by force of arms, civil war, between two parties in the same nation, holy war, in support or defence of religious cause, private war, between individuals or families Phrs to make, wage, war (on), to declare war (on), make formal announcement (to government of another nation) of intention to make war, hence (fig) proclaim one's hostility to, to go to the wars, see active service in army, to have been in the wars, show signs of physical injuries &c, at war, engaged in war, on a war footing, (of army &c) at full strength, prepared for war, war to the knife, irreconcilable hostility, war of elements, storm, tempest, art of war, strategy, council of war, declaration of war, formal announcement of intention to make war, seat of war, district in which war is being carried on, scene of campaign, sieves of war, (fig) money necessary for carrying on war, to carry the war into the enemy's camp, (fig) to attack, or make complaint against, a hostile person or body alleging the same grounds as those alleged against oneself, b armaments, instruments, engines, of war 'bring forth all my war, My bow and thunder' (Milton, 'P L', vi 712-13) 2 Hostility, bitterness of spirit to have war in one's heart war (II), vb intrans, fr preo To contend, strive, compete war with, against Phr warring elements, opposed, irreconcilable waratah, n [1 wə'rətəh, 2 wə'rətə] Native Australian shrub bearing clusters of crimson or scarlet flowers warble (I), vb intrans & trans [1 wɔːbl, 2 wɔːbl] ME werblen, 'to blow' (of the wind), 'to sound', fr O Fr werbler, of Gmc origin, cp OHG wirbel, 'whirl', Mod Germ wirbeln, to whirl, cogn w whirl 1 intrans a (of bird) To sing with trills and vibrations, b (of person) (i) to sing with trills and tremolo effect suggestive of birds' song, (ii) to sing generally 2 trans a (of bird or person) To utter, produce (a song, notes) with a series of roulades and trills, cp Milton's 'the warbled string' ('Arcades', 87), one made vibrant, trilled, b to sing (a song) (N B The earlier usage seems always to imply 'trilling' and the like, and not merely 'singing' in a general sense, Milton has 'Warble his native wood notes wild' (of Shakespeare, 'L'Allegro', 134), of the notes of Orpheus which were 'warbled to the string' ('Il Peneseo', 106), and 'Fountains, and ye that warble as ye flow, Melodious murmurs' ('P L', v 195)) warble (II) n, fr prec Aot, sound, of warbling warble (III) n Etymol doubtful, op M Swed varbilde, 'boil' a larva of the bot-fly, b small hard tumour on horses or cattle caused by this warbler n [1 worbler, 2 wɔblɜ] warble (I) & -er Person who, bird which, warbles, specif, the popular name of a genus Sylvia and sub family Sylvinae of singing birds, usually small, including the edge- and reed-warbler, the white throat, willow-wrens &c warbling n [1 wɔrblɪŋ, 2 wɔblɪŋ] warble (I) & -ing a a trill, a roulade, b (poet) a song plaintive warblings of the birds war-bonnet n Feather-trimmed, ceremonial head-dress of N American Indian war-cloud n Signs, circumstances, indicating imminence of war war-cry n Word, name &c shouted as a signal or rallying cry in battle ward (I) n [1 wɔrd, 2 wɔd] (1) O E weard, maso, 'watchman, guardian', (2) O E weard, fem, 'guard, protection', M E ward, cp O H G wart, O N wǫrd, 'warden, keeper', O H G warta, 'guardianship', Goth wardja, 'guard', see ware (II), & cp guard 1 Now only in Phr watch and ward, act of guarding, protection 2 State of being under control, esp a (of minor) control of guardian, esp in Phr in ward, b (archaic) custody, confinement to put a person in ward, c (archaic) warden, guard, now esp in compounds hayward &c 3 A minor under control of guardian, ward in Chancery, under guardianship of Court of Chancery 4 Division of a city, or (archaic) of a forest, for administrative purposes 5 Section, specific room, of building, specif a (of hospital) fever, isolation, ward, b (of prison) condemned ward &c, o (of workhouse) casual ward &c 6 Protection, ridge, notch, in a lock, or in a key, intended to prevent insertion and turning of any but a particular key in a given lock 7 (fencing) a Guard, b parry ward (II) vb trans O E weardan, 'to guard', fr weard, 'guard', see prec 1 (archaic) To defend, protect, act as guardian to 2 Ward off, to avert, turn aside, repel, to take measures to guard oneself against to ward off a blow, an attack, to ward off sleep, a cold &c

-ward(s), suff O E -weard, M E -ward(s), op O H G -wart, Goth warþa, 'having specified direction', oogn w O E weorðan, 'to become', see worth (III), Lat vertere, 'to turn', see version, vertex With meaning, 'in specified direction', & forming a -ward, adj, e.g. forward, inward &c, b -ward(s), adv, e.g. backwards, afterwards, westwards, homeward(s), c ward(s), prep, e.g. toward(s) Also as living suff, esp in facetious compounds, bedward &c 'When the young Augustus Edward Most reluctantly goes bedward' (Calverley) war-dance n 'Savage' ceremonial dance before battle, or to celebrate a victory warden (I) n [1 wɔrdn, 2 wɔdn] M E, fr O Fr warden, fr Gmc ward*, 'guard', see ward (I), & -ian, & op guardian 1 (archaic) Watchman, guard 2 (in official titles) a Person having control, jurisdiction, authority, over specific district &c, governor Warden of the Marches, of the Cinque Ports &c, b the title of the head of five colleges in Oxford University, and of some schools, one of two principal officers in Freemasons' lodge, Senior and Junior Wardens 3 Church-warden Vicar's warden, people's warden warden (II) also wardon, n Weekly suggests connexion w. ward (I) & interprets as 'keeping peace', he cites Cotgrave, who gives poire de garde, 'a warden, or winter peace, a peace which may be kept verse long' Variety of cooking pear wardenship n [1 wɔrdnʃɪp, 2 wɔdnʃɪp] warden (I) & -ship Office or jurisdiction of warden warder n [1 wɔrdɜ, 2 wɔdə] ward (II) & -er 1 (archaic) Watchman, guard, still surviving in the name Tower Warders, of the guards of the Tower of London, wrongly called Yeomen of the Guard 2 Prison guard, gaoler 3 Staff emblem of authority carried by sovereign, commander &c ward-mote, n ward (I) & moot (I) Meeting of inhabitants of city ward Wardour Street, n [1 wɔrdɜ stɪt, 2 wɔdə stɪt] London street formerly containing many antique furniture shops &c Wardour-street English, a style pervaded with bogus archaism wardress n [1 wɔrdres, 2 wɔdrɪs] warder & -ess Female gaoler wardrobe n [1 wɔdrɒb, 2 wɔdrɒbz] M E, cp O Fr garderobe, see ward (I) & robe 1 A large piece of furniture including divisions for hanging clothes, and often also with drawers 2 Person's stock of clothes to renew one's wardrobe ward-room, n Common room on warship for commissioned naval officers below the rank of commanding officer and above that of sub-lieutenant wardship n [1 wɔrdʃɪp, 2 wɔdʃɪp] ward (I) & -ship State of being a guardian, office of guardian, tutelage to be under the wardship of ware (I) n [1 wɛə, 2 weɪ] O E waru, M E wäre, 'goods, wares', cp Mod Germ ware, M Du ware, 'goods', O N varð, 'skin, fleece, merchandise', oogn w Sert úrð, Gk arndō, 'lamb' (gemt), fr arēn* for war-*, Lat verve, 'wether' 1 a (in compounds) Manufactured articles of commerce ironware, hardware &c, b specif, pottery, often preceded by qualifying word stoneware, Staffordshire wares 2 (pl) Wares, things offered for sale, goods, merchandise ware (II), adj O E war, 'cautious, aware', M E war, 'wary', op O S war, O H G (gs) war, O N war, Goth vars, 'watchful', O E bevarian, O H G bevarōn, 'to guard, defend', cogn w Lat verēre, 'to observe anxiously, reverse, fear', see reverse, Gk oúros for wor was*, 'watchman', horosm for wor-*, 'to see', op w extensional suff, Goth wardja, O H G warto, O E weard, 'watchman', op ward (poet) Alert, vigilant 'You'll find me ware and waking, As you found me long ago' (Newbolt, 'Drake's Drum') ware (III), vb trans [1 wɛə, wɔr, 2 weɪ, wɔ] O E warian, 'to guard, guard against', fr war, 'heedful', see prec 1 (esp hunting, imperat) Beware, look out for ware hounds!, ware wire! 2 (colloq) To guard against, avoid warehouse (I) n [1 wárhəʊs, 2 wéhəʊs] ware (I) & house (I) 1 Storehouse for goods before distribution to retailers &c, store for furniture &c temporarily unwanted, repository 2 Large retail shop, store warehouse (II), vb trans [1 wárhəʊz, 2 wéhəʊz] ware (I) & house (II) To store (esp furniture) temporarily in a warehouse warehouseman n [1 wárhəʊsmən, 2 wéhəʊsmən] 1 Man employed in warehouse 2 Keeper, owner, of a warehouse, specif, one who keeps or owns a wholesale establishment, for Manchester or cotton goods or for woollen and other textiles &c warfare n [1 wɔfɪə, 2 wɔfɪs] war (I) & fare (III) a Act or process of waging war the science of warfare, b state of being at war, active hostility, strife war-game, n Kriegspiel war-god, n Duty presiding over, and invoked in, war war-head, n Explosive cap on torpedo as used in time of war war-horse, n a (archaic) A horse used in battle, a charger, b a seasoned old war-horse, a person with long experience in political struggle, and affairs generally, a veteran warily, adv [1 wárlɪ, 2 wéarlɪ] wary & -ly In a wary manner wariness n [1 wárnɪs, 2 wéarnɪs] See prec & -ness State or quality of being wary warlike, adj [1 wɔrlɪk, 2 wɔlɪk] war (I) & -like 1 Of, pertaining to, characterisation of, war, martial 2 Inclined for, tending to, war, bellicose warlock n [1 wɔrlɒk, 2 wɔlɒk] O E wearlaga, 'traitor', M E warloghe, 'traitor, sorcerer', fr O E wær, 'truth', cogn w Lat verax, 'truthful', q v under veracious, & O E loga, 'har', fr base seen in O E (gs) logen, P P of lōgan, 'to lie', see lie (I) (archaic) A sorcerer, wizard, magician.

war-lord, n Military leader, general, chiefly as translating German Kriegsherr, in reference to the Kaiser, as such warm (I), adj [1 wɔrm, 2 wɔm] O E wearm, M E warm, 'warm', OS, O H G warm, O N varmr, 'warm', fr base gʰor m*, gʰer m* &c, 'warm', whence also Lat formus, 'warm', Gk. thermós, 'warm', see thermo-, Sert gharmas, 'glow', O Prussian gorme, 'heat' 1 a Giving sensation of mild, pleasant heat, implying lower temperature than hot warm water, this water is barely warm, a warm iron, b often used as equivalent of hot, and to imply a considerable degree of temperature I find the day, the room, rather warm The context must determine whether a or b is intended, then to get warm may mean either (i) an agreeable, comfortable, temperature, as come and get warm by the fire, or (ii) to put oneself in a state of excessive heat! I got warm playing in the sun, warm weather, climate, a warm room, specif, warm blood, that of mammals and birds, having a normal temperature ranging between 98° and 112°, imparting or promoting heat a warm fire; warm clothes Phrs warm work, (i) work which makes one hot, (ii) a strenuous, arduous, dangerous occupation, a warm corner, to make things warm for a person, harass him by attacks or annoyances 2 Ardent, enthusiastic, devoted warm support(er), a warm welcome 3 Affectionate, sympathetic, responsive a warm heart 4 (fig) Heated, excited, vehement the disputants grew warm Phr in warm blood, in passion 5 (of colour) Deep, intense, in shade, giving suggestion of warmth, esp having red or yellow as basis 6 a (hunting, of scent) Fresh, recently made, strongly marked, b (of seeker in children's hiding games) close to the object sought Phr you are getting warm, you are on the right track of what you are seeking, you are getting near the truth 7 (colloq) Well-to-do, comfortably off warm (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To make warm, raise temperature of to warm one's hands, oneself, at the fire, the sun has warmed the air, also warm up kindly warm up the mutton, make it hot again 2 To animate, excite, cause to glow with feeling or enthusiasm to warm one's heart B intrans To become warm or warmer the pudding is warming in the oven, also warm up the room will soon warm up Phr to warm to one's work, become keenly interested in it, intent upon it warm (III), n, fr prec Act or process of warming, process of being warmed to have a warm by the fire warm-blooded, adj [1 wɔrm blɪdɪd, 2 wɔm blɪdɪd] 1 Having warm blood, specif (of mammals and birds) having a normal temperature above that of the surrounding medium, contrasted with cold blooded 2 Having an ardent temperament, having the passions and emotions easily roused.

warmen, n [1 wɔrmən, 2 wɔmə] warm (I) & -er. That which warms, device for warming, esp in compounds foot-warmer &c warm-hearted, adj Having a warm heart, kind, sympathetic warm-heartedly, adv Free & -ly In a warm-hearted manner warm-heartedness, n. See free & -ness warming, n [1 wɔrmɪŋ, 2 wɔmɪŋ] warm (II) & -ing a Act of warming, process of being warmed, b (slang) n thrashing to give a boy's jacket a good warming warming-pan, n Round, flat, covered metal vessel with long handle, formerly filled with live coals and used for warming or heating a bed warmish, adj [1 wɔrməʃ, 2 wɔmɪʃ] warm (I) & -ish Fairly warm warmly, adv [1 wɔrmli, 2 wɔmli] warm (I) & -ly In a warm manner warmth, n [1 wɔrmθ, 2 wɔmpθ] warm (I) & -th 1 A moderately high temperature, contrasted with cold 2 Enthusiasm, ardour, cordiality the warmth of one's welcome 3 Emotional excitement, vigour, vehemence, anger to reply with some warmth warn, vb trans [1 wɔrn, 2 wɔn] OE warnian, wer(e)nan, 'to beware of', ME warnen, 'to warn, admonish', influenced by ON varna, 'to warn', cp OHG warnen, fr stem warn-*, 'heedful', see ware (II) 1 To advise (a person) to be careful, put on his guard against possible risk, danger &c, to admonish to warn a person of danger, of the consequences of an action &c, to warn a person against another, I warn you that you will be punished 2 To intimate, to be a signal to the going forward so that it was time to dress for dinner warning (I), n [1 wɔrnɪŋ, 2 wɔmɪŋ] Free & -ing 1 Act of one who, that which, warns, notice, hint, of caution against, possible danger, consequences of action &c, 2 admonition the General received a warning of the coming attack, to take warning by another's example 3 Something which warns, indication of something about to happen, premonition the branch fell without the slightest warning 3 Specially, notice given by employer to servant, or by servant to employer, of intention to terminate engagement I have given the cook warning, a month's warning, notice to quit situation, or of intention to leave, at the end of a month warning (II), adj, fr Free Part of warn. Serving, intended, to warn, admonitory, cautionary a warning signal, look &c Phr warning colour, (zoöl, entom &c) conspicuous marks or colourings on poisonous insects &c supposed to give warning to other creatures warningly, adv Free & -ly In a warning manner, so as to convey a warning War Office, n Government department controlling the army and all matters connected with war, under the Secretary of State for War war (I), vb trans & intrans [1 wɔrp, 2 wɔp] ME warpen, fr ON varpa, 'to throw, bend', cp OE weorpan, 'to throw', weorpan, 'warp', OHG werfen, Goth weorpan, 'to throw' A trans 1 a To alter shape of, bend, twist, distort the head has warped the timber, b (in moral sense) to bias, distort, pervert to warp the mind, judgement, his whole character was warped 2 (naut) To bring (vessel) into specific place or position by hauling on ropes attached to fixed object to warp boat out into the channel 3 To incline (land) by spreading it with alluvial deposit B intrans 4 To become distorted, bent, twisted, by shrinkage, contraction &c the table top has warped 2 (naut, of ship) To be moved, change position, by means of warps war (II), n; fr OE weary, ME weary, see pre 1 Threads running lengthwise in a fabric and crossed by wool 2 Rope, fastened to a fixed point, as buoy, anchor &c, used in warping vessel 3 Distortion in timber, wooden object &c, caused by contraction &c 4 Alluvial deposit, silt war-paint, n A paint applied to the face and other exposed parts of the body by savages before battle, b (fig) full dress, complete ceremonial uniform &c war-path, n Route of Red Indians on military expedition Phr on the war path, (also fig) planning an attack, preparing to launch an attack, to embark on hostile action of any kind, in fighting mood warplane, n Military aeroplane warrant (I), n [1 wɔrənt, 2 wɔrənt] ME warant, fr OE warant, warant, 'safeguard, guarantee', of Gmc origin, cp OHG werfite, 'guarantee', fr weran, 'to guarantee, vouch', cp OE wer, 'to vouch for' Cp warant guarantee 1 Justification, authority, reasonable grounds you have no warrant for such a statement 2 That which authorizes, gives sanction for, an action, esp n document authorizing a specified course of action, (in various special senses), a a writ issued by a competent legal authority, authorizing an arrest, a search &c, b document authorizing payment of money a dividend warrant, a certificate of appointment of a naval or military officer below commissioned rank (see warrant officer), d similar certificate issued to certain tradesmen supplying the Royal household, styled royal warrant-holders warrant (II), vb trans, fr pre 1 To justify, constitute sufficient ground for nothing can warrant this intrusion 2 To vouch for, guarantee, certify as I'll warrant him for, guarantee, certify as I'll warrant a perfectly honest man, trade Phr warranted real silk To declare, assert confidently he never was so handsomely treated before, I'll warrant, is I would wager that my statement is true warrantable, adj [1 wɔrəntəbl, 2 wɔrəntəbl] Free & -able 1 Capable of being justified 2 (of deer) In sixth year, old enough to be hunted warrantee, n [1 wɔrənti, 2 wɔrənti] warrant & -ee Person to whom warrant is given warranter, n [1 wɔrənter, 2 wɔrənter] warrant & -er Warrantor warrant officer, n Highest rank of non commissioned officer warrantor, n [1 wɔrənter, 2 wɔrənter] warrant & -or One who gives a warranty to another warranty, n [1 wɔrənti, 2 wɔrənti] ME, OE warantia, fr warant PP of warant, 'to warrant', fr warant, n, see warrant (I) 1 Sufficient reason, justification, or authority you have no warranty for that statement 2 (law) Assurance, undertaking, expressed or implied on part of vendor that property sold is such that it fulfils the requirements specified, and is in accordance with his description of it warren, n [1 wɔrən, 2 wɔrən] ME, fr OE warren, fr warra, 'to preserve', of Gmc origin, cp OS & OHG warren, 'to take care of', cogn w ware (III) 1 (law) a A tract of ground the right to enclose which, for the purpose of keeping or preserving hares, rabbits, partridges, pheasants, has been granted by the king b also free warren, the right or privilege to keep a warren rights of warren, a warren ranks next in dignity to a park 2 Tract of land, usually hony combed with burrows, in which rabbits breed and abound Phr packed like, as thick as, rabbits in a warren, of a densely crowded population warugal, s [1 wɔrgəl, 2 wɔrgəl] Native Australian dingo warrior, n [1 wɔriə, 2 wɔriə] ME werreour, fr OE wer, see war & -our, -ior (now chiefly poetical) Soldier, fighter, esp an experienced fighting man, veteran warship, n. Man of war, battleship war-song, n. Song sung before, or in celebration of, a battle wart, n [1 wɔrt, 2 wɔrt] OE wearte, ME wart, cp OHG warra, ME Da warre, ON varra, 'wart', cp further OE weary, 'wart', cogn w Lat verruca, 'wart', see verruca, Serb varfman, 'height, point', Lith varzus, 'the upper' 1 Small, hard growth on surface of skin 2 Small, hard excrescence on bark of tree &c wart disease, n Fungoid growth to which potatoes are liable warted, adj [1 wɔrtəd, 2 wɔrtəd] wart & -ed Having warts on the surface, skin &c wart-grass, -weed, n Kind of spurge the juice of which is used to remove warts wart-hog, n African wild hog, Phacochoerus, with hard excrescences on either side of face, and tusks curving upwards warty, adj [1 wɔrti, 2 wɔrti] wart & -y Resembling, of the nature of, covered with, warts war-wounded, adj [1 wɔrwʊnd, 2 wɔrwʊnd] (War worn) war-whoop, n Red Indians' war cry war-worn, adj Injured in, wearied by, war ware, adj [1 wɛə, 2 wɛə] ware (II) & -y Cautious, on the look out for danger &c, circumspicious was, vb [1 wɔz, 2 wɔz] OE was, 1st & 3rd pers sing Pret of wesen, 'to be', cp OS & Goth was, cp OS & OHG infin wasen, Goth wasan, cp further Goth wasan, 'to have', Serb wasati, '(he) dwells, remains, stays', & wasu, 'each place', Gk deinai for wasai, 'a city', cp also were Past tense sing 1st and 2nd pers of be wash (I), vb trans & intrans [1 wɔʃ, 2 wɔʃ] OE wasian, ME waschen, 'to wash', cp OS, OHG wascan, prob fr earlier was sk-, fr base was-, 'water', see water, & cp wot A trans 1 a To cleanse by application of, immersion in, water or other liquid to wash one's hands, oneself, one's clothes, the dishes &c, Phr to wash one's hands of, disclaim further responsibility for, b (in moral sense) to purify, render guiltless 2 Usually wash away, off, out &c, a (in physical sense) to remove by application of water &c to wash the dust off, to wash a stain out, also b (in moral sense) to purge, do away to wash away one's guilt, sin 3 To serve as a cleansing agent for the soap that won't wash clothes 4 (of water of the sea, a lake, river) To come into contact with, to flow past, lap, bathe, lave the sea washes the cliffs, the castle walls are washed by the waters of the river 5 To hollow out, produce, by flowing over and removing substance the rain washes channels in the ground 6 To carry along, transport, by the movement or drift of water washed ashore by the tide, waves 7 To separate, sift, heavier parts of (ore &c) by eluting in water 8 To cover with a thin coat of metal or of paint &c B intrans 1 To wash oneself, one's hands &c, perform one's ablutions unpleasant to wash in cold water 2 To wash clothes, household linen &c to wash once a week 3 (of fabric, colour, paint &c) To be able to stand washing without deterioration will this material wash? Phr that theory doesn't wash, will not bear investigation, won't go down, is unconvincing, cannot be accepted 4 To reach and splash or lap against or over the waters of the lake wash upon the shore C Followed by adverb or preposition with special meanings. Wash against, intrans, to come up to and splash or lap against the waves wash against the houses at high tide Wash down, trans, 1 to cleanse by washing, apply n stream of water to to wash down the walls, 2 a to drive down by flow or rush of water, It may be that the guile will wash us down' (Tennyson, 'Ulysses', 68), b in such Phr as a meal washed down by a draught of ale, accompanied by, taken immediately before Wash out, 1 trans, to remove by washing to wash out a blood-stain, also fig colloid, to give up, abandon as futile, as a plan, suggestion, &c, cp washout, below, 2 intrans, to be removed by washing the stain won't wash out, Phr (colloq) to be, look, feel, washed out, be, look, pale and worn, to feel exhausted Wash up, trans, & intrans (absol), to wash (dishes, cutlery &c) after use at meals &c wash (II), n, fr prec -x A lot of washing to have a wash, to give a thing a wash, b process of being washed Phrs to send clothes to the wash, send them to the laundry to be washed, at the wash, at the laundry, in process of being washed 2 (familiar) Clothes, household linen &c, ready to be sent to the laundry, in the process of being washed, or just returned from the laundry the wash goes on Monday and comes back on Saturday, to hang out the wash to dry 3 A Movement to and fro, onward flow, of water the wash of the waves, b sound produced by this, c backward movement or current in water caused by steamer's screw or by oars 4 A Liquid or semi liquid refuse from kitchen &c, esp as food for pigs, b weak, thin liquid intended for consumption I don't like tea, soup &c that is only wash, o the fermented wort in the distillation of spirits 5 Medicinal lotion a wash for the eyes, hair &c, also in compounds mouth-wash, hair wash &c 6 A Thin, flat application of water colour, distemper &c put on in liquid state, b thin coating of metal 7 Alluvial deposit, sediment, silt washable, adj [1 woshabl, 2 woshbl] wash (I) & -able Capable of being washed without deterioration wash-basin, n Basin for washing in wash-board, n Corrugated board on which clothes &c may be scrubbed wash-boiler, n Vessel for boiling clothes &c after washing wash-bottle, n Apparatus for purifying gases &c wash-bowl, n [1 wosh bōl, 2 wōf bowl] Large basin for washing dishes &c wash-cloth, n Piece of material used in washing dishes &c wash-day, n Washing day washer, n [1 wōsher, 2 wōfə] wash (I) & -er 1 n Person who, that which, washes, specif b washing machine 2 Small perforated disk of metal, rubber &c used to tighten joint, nut &c washerwoman, n [1 wōsherwōdman, 2 wōfəwōmən] Woman employed to do household washing &c wash-hand-basin, n [1 wōsh (h)and bāsn, 2 wōf (h)and bēsn] Wash basin wash-hand-stand, n [1 wōsh (h)and stānd, 2 wōf (h)and stānd] Wash stand wash-house, n Room or building in which clothes &c are washed washily, adv [1 woshil; 2 wōfili] washy & -ly In a washy manner washiness, n [1 woshines, 2 wōfinis] See prec & -ness State or quality of being washy washing, n [1 wōshing, 2 wōfing] wash (I) & -ing 1 A lot of one who washes, process of cleansing engaged in washing, b process of being washed children sometimes dislike, though they frequently need, washing 2 A Collection of articles ready to be sent to, or just returned from, the laundry, b clothes and other articles in process of being washed to hang out the washing to dry 3 Liquid, substance, washed off in process of cleaning anything the washings of plates and dishes washing-day, n Day on which household washing is done, or clothes &c are sent to the laundry washing-machine, n Mechanical apparatus for washing clothes &c washing-stand, n Wash stand

Washington, n [1 wōshington, 2 wōfington] Town in N America, seat of government of USA. Government of USA washingtonia, n [1 wōshingtōnia, 2 wōfingtōnia] Named after George Washington. Genus of palms of Southern California, with white flowers and fan-shaped leaves.

washing-up, n Process of washing dishes &c used at meals wash-leather, n Chamois leather, or substitute for this wash-out, n [1 wosh ont, 2 wōf aut] 1 Erosion of earth by flood &c 2 (slang) Ineffective, disappointing, unsuccessful, person or enterprise &c, a failure he was a wash out as a lecturer, the attempt was a complete wash out wash-pot, n A Vessel containing liquid tin for coating tin-plate, b (archaic, Bih) any vessel in which something is washed 'Moab is my wash pot' wash-stand, n Flat topped piece of furniture for holding basin and other requisites for personal ablutions wash-tub, n Large wooden tub in which clothes &c are washed washy, adj [1 wōshi, 2 wōfi] wash (II) & -y 1 (of drink or liquid food) Thin, weak, highly diluted 2 (of colour) Pale, without intensity or depth 3 (fig, of style &c) Feeble, insipid, lacking in force or character wasp, n [1 wōsp, 2 wōsp] OE waspe, waspa, wasp, ME waspe, op OHG waspa, wespa, oogn w Lat vespa, O Prussian wobse, O Slav was, 'wasp', Lith vapsa, 'horsefly', fr stem webh*, wobh-* &c, 'to weave', w reference to appearance of nest See weave A Family of hymenopterous insects with slender waist and powerful sting, specif b the common variety, Vespa vulgaris, with alternate yellow and black stripes wasp-bee, n Bee with colouring like that of wasp wasp-fly, n Fly with black and yellow stripes waspish, adj [1 wōspish, 2 wōspis] waep & -ish Ill tempered, spiteful, sour, shrewish a waspish person, expressing ill temper and malignity, biting a waspish nature, speech &c waspishly, adv Prec & -ly In a waspish manner waspishness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being waspish wasp-waisted, adj Having a very slender or much-compressed waist wassail (I), n [1 wōsəl, wāsl, wāsl, 2 wōsl, wāsl, wāsl &c] ME wesael, for wes, 'be', & ON heil, 'whole', the OE formula of greeting, wes þū hēl, 'be thou whole, or sound', see was & whole (obs or lit) 1 Carousal, merry drinking bout, feasting 2 Ale &c drunk at such festivity wassail (II), v, intrans ME wessenlen, fr prec To take part in a wassail, drink healths, to carouse wassail-bowl, -cup, -horn, n Drinking vessel used at a wassail, festive potations, jinketing wast, vb [1 wōst, 2 wōst] 2nd person Pret sing of be See was wastage, n [1 wāstī, 2 wōstidz] waste (II) & -age A Process of wasting, b a wasteful loss, c amount wasted waste (I), adj [1 wāst, 2 wōst] ME wast, fr O Fr wast, fr MHG wast, fr Lat vacuus, 'empty, waste, desert' See vast 1 Not cultivated or occupied by man, desolate, unproductive, either from natural causes or through destructive effect of war &c waste land, a waste space Phrs to be waste, remain uncultivated, to lay waste, destroy, ravage 2 Not wanted, useless, superfluous, thrown aside as worthless, left over after an action or process waste matter, scraps, waste effort, waste products waste (II), vb trans & intrans, fr O Fr waster, fr Lat vacāre, 'to lay waste, devastate', fr vacuus, 'empty, waste' See vast A trans 1 To expend or use extravagantly or uselessly, squander, he prodigal of to waste one's time, money, energy &c 2 To lay waste, devastate 3 To cause to shrink and diminish, cause to lose vigour, strength, substance &c, to sap, blight a frame wasted by disease. Phr a wasting disease, causing emaciation and lack of strength 4 (law) To allow (property &c) to be impaired through neglect &c B intrans 1 a Also waste away, to lose substance or strength, become emaciated, b (of time) to pass gradually, be consumed. 2 To be wasted, run to waste waste (III), n, fr waste (I) 1 Desolate expanse of land or water, desert, uncultivated region, barren or devastated tract 2 Gradual diminution, reduction, in amount, substance, vigour &c 3 A lot of wasting, state of being wasted, extravagant, unprofitable, or ineffective use or expenditure 4 Something wasted, waste material, useless, superfluous, or rejected matter, refuse 5 (law) Damage, impairment, of property &c through neglect &c waste-basket, n Waste-paper-basket waste-book, n Book in which commercial transactions are entered temporarily wasteful, adj [1 wāstfūl, 2 wōstfūl] waste (III) & -ful 1 A Extravagant, given to unprofitable, reckless, expenditure a wasteful man, b tending to consume, involving, waste and extravagance a wasteful process, wasteful habits &c, c liable to waste or to be wasted a wasteful substance 2 (poet.) Resembling, having the character of, a desolate waste (op waste (III)), 1) 'the vast immeasurable abysses, Outragious as a sea, dark, wasteful, wild' (Milton, 'P L' vii 211-12) wastefully, adv Prec & -ly In a wasteful manner wastefulness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being wasteful wasteless, adj [1 wāstles, 2 wōstles] waste (III) & -less Not liable to waste waste-paper-basket, n Basket kept in a room, for holding waste scraps of paper, old letters and envelopes waste-pipe, n Pipe for carrying off waste or surplus water waster, n [1 wāster, 2 wōster] waste (II) & -er 1 A wasteful, extravagant, useless person 2 Thing spoilt in manufacture wastrel, n [1 wāstrel, 2 wōstrel] waste (II) & dimin suff rel Idle, extravagant, good-for nothing fellow, a waster watch (I), n [1 wōch, 2 wōt] OE weccan, ME wacche, 'vigil, watch', op OHG wacha, fr stem seen in OE wacian, 'to be awake', see wake (I) 1 (archaic) Vigil, wakefulness, forbearance, abstinence, from sleep in the night watches, passed like a watch in the night 2 Act of watching, alertness, vigilance, constant observation, look out to keep watch, to be on the watch for a person or expected event &c, to keep watch and word 3 (archaic) A Person employed to watch or guard, a watchman, b party of persons employed for this purpose 4 One of the periods of three or four hours into which the night was formerly divided the evening, morning, watch &c 5 (naut) A Spell of duty on board ship, four hours except in the case of the dog watch, q v, b one of the two divisions of a ship's crew taking alternate watches starboard, port, watch 6 Small timepiece worked by a coiled spring, usually enclosed in a flat, round case suitable for carrying on the person, op clock watch (II), vb intrans & trans OE wæccan, formed fr base of wacian, 'to be awake, to keep watch', see prec. A intrans 1 a To remain awake and alert, to be vigilant 'watch and pray', b to keep vigil to watch beside a sick bed 2 a To play the part of a spectator, to observe, look on at events he remained silent during the whole scene and merely watched, b watch for, to be on the look-out for, await with vigilance the arrival or occurrence of something to watch for the procession to go by, to watch for an opportunity to speak, for a chance to pounce 3 a To be on guard, act as sentinel or look-out, b watch over, to guard, protect, have in one's care, keep an observant eye on to watch over flocks, to watch over the destinies of a nation B trans 1 A To look at, observe, as a spectator, to direct the attention upon, esp to consider attentively a series of actions or of moving objects to watch a procession pass, to watch the crowd from a window, to watch a person's face, b to direct the mind upon, keep oneself acquainted with (a series of events) to watch the development of affairs 2 To keep under observation spies and suspicious persons are carefully watched, a good nurse watches her patient continuously 3 A To guard, to observe for the purpose of protecting David as a boy watched his father's sheep, b (spec of a barrister) to watch a case for an interested party, to be present in court during the hearing, and ensure as far as possible that nothing is said or done to the prejudice of his client 4 To be on the lookout for to watch a favourable opportunity watch-box, n Sentry box watch-case, n Metal outer case containing mechanism of watch watch-chain, n Chain for securing watch to clothing &c watch-dog, n A Dog guarding property &c, giving warning of approach of strangers &c, b person who keeps a vigilant look out against possible infringement of, or injury attempted to, some particular group of interests, rights &c watcher, n [1 wócher, 2 wótja] watch (II) &-er One who watches watch-fire, n Fire kept burning at night by camp guards, or as signal &c watchful, adj [1 wóchfool, 2 wótful] watch (I) &-ful Vigilant, on the watch, alert, observant watchfully, adv Prec &-ly In a watchful manner watchfulness, n See prec &-ness State or quality of being watchful watch-glass, n Thin, round piece of glass fixed over the face of a watch watch-guard, n Chain, strap, cord &c for fastening watch to clothing &c watch-gun, n Gun fired at changing of watch watch-house, n Building occupied by guard watch-key, n Key for winding up a watch watchmaker, n [1 wóchmáker, 2 wótj máker], Person whose trade is to make and repair watches watchman, n [1 wóchman, 2 wótjman] 1 (hist) Member of guard formerly patrolling streets at night 2 Man employed to guard buildings & at night watch-night, n New Year's Eve, esp as celebrated by religious services watch-oil, n Fine oil for lubricating mechanism of watch watch-pocket, n Small pocket, usually in a waistcoat, for holding a watch watch-spring, n Spring which actuates the movement in mechanism of a watch watch-stand, n Small stand which supports a watch in such a way that its face can be seen watch-tower, n lofty tower from which a wide view can be obtained of the surrounding country, upon which sentinels were placed formerly to give warning of approach of an enemy watchword, n [1. wóchwórd, 2 wótjwórd] 1 Password, countersign 2 Word or phrase intended to embody the principles of a party, cause &c water (I) n [1 wáwter, 2 wótja] OE water, ME water, op OHG wassar, OS watar, ON watr, water, oogn w Gk hudor, 'water', see hydro-, Sort udan, 'wave', O Slav voda, see vodka, Lith vandùs, O Prussian uodas, 'water', the base is *uod-, *wod-, *ud-, 'water', cp also wash, wot. 1 A widely distributed, nearly colourless, transparent, liquid, composed of hydrogen and oxygen, either pure or containing mineral or other matter in solution fresh, salt, hot, cold water &c., hard, soft water (see hard, soft), sometimes in compounds, indicating source &c., rain, spring, river, sea, ground water

&c, mineral waters, characterized by specific mineral ingredient, strong waters, (arohaio) spirits, table waters, bottled for use at meals, holy water, water which has been blessed and is used for various religious purposes, Phrs water bewitched, (colloq) very weak tea &c, water of life (Bib), spiritual refreshment, waters of forgetfulness, oblivion, death, in deep water(s), in difficulties, tribulation, struggling, in smooth water(s), prosperous, having an easy progress, (like) a fish out of water, out of one's element, in unaccustomed and uncongenial surroundings, written in water (of name, fame &c), soon forgotten, transient, to back water, to go backwards in rowing boat by reversing motion of oars, to fish in troubled waters, endeavour to profit by disorders &c, to get into hot water, get into trouble, to drink the waters, take prescribed quantity of medicine water treatment at a spa, to go through fire and water, undergo great hardships, to hold water, (of theory, statement &c) admit of proof, investigation &c, to keep one's head above water, contrive to avoid encumbering to financial embarrassments, manage to hold one's own, in various senses, to pour oil on the waters, to induce calm, serenity, (to spend money &c) like water, extravagantly, lavishly, to throw cold water on (a plan &c), discourage 2 (often pl) Body of water the waters of the lake, the head waters of the Amazon 3 Tide, state of tide, at specific moment high, low, water, Phr in low water, in want of money &c 4 (in compounds) Solution of vegetable or mineral substance in water rose water, soda-water &c 5 Liquid secretion of animal body, eg tears, perspiration, urine &c water on the brain, knee, accumulation of serous fluid Phr to make, pass, water, discharge urine 6 Quality, lustre, brilliance, of precious stone, esp diamond, Phrs of the first water, of the finest quality, (also fig) embodying in a high degree the characteristic qualities of a type or class water (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To sprinkle with water, moisten, irrigate to water the garden, plants &c Phr to water one's pillow with tears 2 To provide (animals &c) with water for drinking 3 To supply with moisture, streams &c the country is watered by large rivers 4 To dilute with water to water the whisky, milk &c, also water down, (i) to dilute (milk &c) with water, (ii) to weaken force, pungency, cogency, expressiveness, of (a statement &c) by alterations and omissions, in order to make it more generally acceptable to the timid or half-hearted 5 (chiefly in PP) To give a wavy pattern to surface of (textile fabric) watered silk. 6 (finance) To increase number of shares in (stock &c) without increasing actual capital B intrans 1 a (of animal &c) To drink water, go to watering-place, b (of engine, ship &c) to take in a supply of water 2 To have increased secretion, become filled with water the light makes one's eyes water, one's mouth waters, through anticipation of food &c Phr to make one's mouth water, to fill one with longing to possess or enjoy water-anchor, n Floating, wooden framework used to check leeway of ship water-bailiff, n Custom house official inspecting ships entering port water-bed, n Rubber mattress filled with water water-beetle, n General name for various aquatic beetles (Dytiscus) which live habitually under the surface of water water-bellows, n Apparatus by means of which air for a forge is forced into, and expelled from, a wooden tube through sloping holes by the pressure of falling water, also called a trompe water-bird, n Bird frequenting water, aquatic bird water-biscuit, n Thin, hard biscuit made of flour and water water-blank, n In arctic regions, cloud like appearance on the horizon indicating the presence of open water water-blister, n Blister on the skin, containing serous fluid water-boatman, n Aquatic insect, Notonecta, with boat shaped body and long legs water-borne, adj (of mail, goods &c) Trane ported by water water-bottle, n 1 Glass bottle holding drinking water for table or bedroom use 2 Metal flask for water, as part of military equipment &c water-brash, n Form of indigestion with vomiting of bitter, watery liquid water-buck, n Large S African antelope, with white stripes on buttocks, genus Cobus water-buffalo, n Indian buffalo water-butt, n Large cask for collecting rain water water-carriage, n Transportation of goods by water water-carrier, n a Person employed to carry water, b (asp) the constellation of Aquarius water-cart, n Cart for carrying water, esp one with device for watering roads water-chute, n Boarded slope down which toboggans rush into a pool of water, as a form of amusement water-clock, n Clock regulated by flow of water water-closet, n Privy with pan flushed out by water water-colour, n 1 Pigment diluted with water instead of oil 2 Picture painted with such pigments 3 (also pl) Art of painting with such pigments water-colourist, n [1 wáwter kólurist, 2 wótja kólurist] Painter in water colour water-cooled, adj [1 wáwter kóold, 2 wót-kóold] Water cooled engine, one in which the cylinders are kept from overheating by the circulation of water round them, contrasted with air cooled.

watercourse, n [1 wáwterkórs, 2 wótakórs] 1 Body of running water, stream 2 Channel for stream &c watercress, n [1 wáwterkres, 2 wótakres] Creeping herb Nasturtium officinale, growing in water and used in salads water-cure, n Medical treatment by application of water, hydrotherapy water-drinker, n One who drinks water, specif, one who abstains from alcohol water-dropwort, n [1 wáwter dropwört, 2 wótja drópwört] Poisonous plant, genus Oenanthe, resembling celery watered adj [1 wáwterd, 2 wótad], fr PP of water (II) 1 Supplied with streams &c, irriguous 'a quiet water'd land, a land of roses' (Rollston, 'Clonmacnois') 2 (of silk &c) Having a pattern of wavy lines waterfall, n [1 wáwterfáwl, 2 wótáfál] Body of water descending perpendicularly or nearly so, cascade water-finder, n Person who is able to find a spring of water in the ground by means of divining rod, a dowser water-flag, n Yellow iris water-flea, n Small fresh water crustacean waterfowl, n [1 wáwterfóul, 2 wótáfául] (usually coll) Aquatic birds water-gas, n Illuminating or power gas derived, produced, by passing steam through red hot coke or anthracite and decomposing it.

water-gate, n 1 Gate for checking or releasing flow of water 2 Gate opening from building on to river, lake &c water-gauge, n Gauge indicating level of water in tank, boiler &c water-glass, n 1 Tube with glass bottom for observing objects under water 2 Trans parent solution of silica &c sprayed over fresco painting to preserve it, also used for preserving eggs water-hammer, n Concussion of water when its flow through pipe &c is suddenly checked.

water-hen, n Moorhen water-hyacinth, n Tropical plant with spikes of blue flowers and thick, tangled leaf stalks water-ice, n Confection of frozen water, fruit juice, and sugar &c water-inch, n Amount of water flowing in twenty-four hours through a hole one inch in diameter wateriness, n [1 wátērines, 2 wótāras] watery & -ness Quality of being watery watering-can, n [1 wátwering kán, 2 wótē-sj kán] Vessel with long spout, often fitted with perforated nozzle, for watering plants watering-cart, n Cart carrying a supply of water and fitted with a device for watering roads watering-place, n 1 Pool to which animals resort to drink 2 A Health resort with medicinal springs, b seaside resort watering-pot, n Watering can water-jacket, n Casing containing water and surrounding cylinder &c for cooling purposes water-joint, n Water-tight joint water-junket, n Sandpiper water-lens, n Magnifying lens consisting of water enclosed in a brass cell with a glass bottom waterless, adj [1 wátwterles, 2 wótālis] water & -less Without water water-level, n 1 Surface of body of water, esp as datum for measurement 2 (geol) Irregular upper surface of ground-water, upward limit of saturation 3 Levelling instrument in which the position of a drop of water indicates horizontality water-lily, n Plant, Nymphaea, with flat, heart shaped leaves, and large, white, yellow, pink, or blue flowers, which float on the surface of water

water-line, n 1 Line along ship's side corresponding to water-level, load, light water-line, level reached by water when ship is loaded, empty 2 Line forming part of watermark

water-logged, adj a (of wood or wooden objects) Saturated or filled with water and having lost buoyancy, b (of the ground) soaked with water beyond saturation-point, so that it remains swampy, c (of a ship) rendered almost unmanageable, through water leaking excessively into hold water-main, n Chief pipe in system of water-supply waterman, n [1 wátwterman, 2 wótēman] 1 Boatman, ferryman &c plying for hire 2 Oarsman a good, bad, waterman &c watermanship, n [1 wátwtermanship, 2 wótēman[sp]] Prec & -ship Skill in management of oars watermark, n & vb trans [1 wátwtermark, 2 wótēmark] 1 n a Design imprinted on surface of paper, showing quality, date or place of manufacture &c, and faintly visible when the paper is held against the light, b (1) mark or line showing the height to which water has risen, as high-watermark, on a beach &c, (2) fig high watermark, the highest attainable point or degree of excellence, low watermark, lowest attainable degree of demerit 2 vb To imprint a watermark on (paper) in process of manufacture water-meadow, n Low lying meadow periodically inundated by river &c water-melon, n Large, edible, sweet, pulpy fruit of a trailing plant of the gourd family water-mill, n Mill worked by water power water-moccasin, n Poisonous N American snake water-monkey, n Long necked, earthenware water jar of eastern countries water-motor, n Motor driven by water pressure water-nymph, n Spirit haunting river, lake &c, naiad water-pillar, n Pillar with swinging spout for supplying steam engines with water water-pipe, n Pipe for conveying water water-plane, n 1 Plane in which water-line lies, level with surface of water 2 Sea-plane water-plate, n Plate with double bottom enclosing space for hot water water-platter, n Variety of water-lily water-polo, n Ball game played by swimmers, the object being to throw the ball into the goal of the opposing side water-power, n Power generated by pressure, fall &c of water waterproof, adj, n, & vb trans [1 wátwter-próof, 2 wótēprúf] 1 adj Proof against water, capable of excluding or resisting water, not permitting water to pass through 2 n Waterproof coat &c 3 vb To make waterproof by coating with rubber &c water-rail, n Long-legged, short-winged wading bird, the common rail water-ram, n Hydraulic ram water-rat, n Popular name for the water-vole water-rate, n Official charge made for public water supply water-sail, n (naut) Sail below lower studding sail water-seal, n Body of water held in a trap &c to prevent passage of gas &c watershed, n [1 wátwtershéd, 2 wótē[séd], fr water (I) & shed (I)], in earlier sense to divide, separate a Elevation dividing two river valleys or basins, line of division between two river systems, b (a loose incorrect usage) river-basin, catchment area water-shoot, n Pipe, trough, gutter, for discharging water from roof &c water-side, n Edge, margin, of body of water water-skin, n Bag of skin for carrying water water-soldier, n Water plant, Siratoites, rooted at bottom of water and having sword-like leaves and flowers above the surface water-spider, n Kind of spider which lives in a bell shaped nest under water waterspout, n [1 wátwterspout, 2 wótē-spút] Pillar of water drawn upward by a funnel shaped mass of whirling cloud which descends vertically to meet it

water-sprite, n Supernatural being haunting river, lake &c water-supply, n 1 System of procuring and storing water to supply house, town &c 2 Water used or supplied by such a system water-table, n 1 Water level 2 (archit) Moulding, projecting ledge &c designed to throw off water from building water-tiger, n Destructive larva of a kind of water-beetle watertight, adj [1 wátwtertit, 2 wótētdit] a Capable of resisting passage of water, fixed or fitted tightly enough to prevent water passing through, b (fig, of argument &c) perfectly sound, unassailable water-tower, n Structure containing raised tank designed to furnish pressure necessary to system of water supply water-vole, n Kind of aquatic rodent, Microtus amphibius, often called the water-rat water-wagtail, n Wagtail water-way, n 1 Navigable channel 2 Channel round edge of ship's deck to carry off water water-wheel, n Wheel turned by flow of water water-witch, n 1 Water-finder 2 Any one of several kinds of diving bird water-withe, n West Indian vine with branches full of watery juice waterworks, n [1 wátwterwérks, 2 wótē-wérks] a System of buildings, machinery, reservoirs, pipes &c for supplying water to town &c Slang Phr to turn on the water-works, shed tears, b (colloq) the bladder and urinary organs generally water-worn, adj (of rock, pebble &c) Rounded, smoothed, polished, by action of water watery, adj [1 wátwteri, 2 wótēri] water (I) & -y 1 Consisting of water, esp such Phr as watery waste, wilderness, the sea, 'He must not float upon his watery bier Unwept', the sea, in which Lycidas had perished (Milton) 2 Containing, full of, saturated with, water, specif a (of eyes) having a weak, moist appearance, as though they were watering, b (of boiled food) containing too much water, sodden 3 a (of liquid) Over diluted with water, thin, weak, insipid watery tea, soup &c, b hence, (fig) insipid, without force or character 4 (of moon or sky) Indicating approach of rain

watt, n [1 wot, 2 wot], fr James Watt, inventor, d 1819 Unit of electrical power, the equivalent to work at the rate of one joule per second, 746 watts = 1 b p

Watteau, n [1 wótō, 2 wítou], fr name of Antoine Watteau, French painter (1684-1721), with reference to costumes &c shown in his paintings Watteau back, back of woman's dress, arranged to form a long pleat from neck to hem, Watteau bodice, with square neck opening wattle (I), n [1 wótl, 2 wótl] OE wato, 'burdle', ME watē, 'hurdle', basket, bag' Origin uncertain, op OE wella, 'bandage' 1 Structure of wickerwork on a framework of stiffer rods, used in form of hurdles 2 Fleishy excrescence hanging from neck of bird, esp turkey 3 Barbel of fish 4 Kind of acacia of Australia and S Africa wattle (II), vb trans To make of, construct with, wattle-work wattle-and-daub, n [1 wótl an(d) dáwb, 2 wótl an(d) dób] Wattle-work daubed with clay, mud &c, used for the walls of rough huts wattle-bird, n Australian bird with wattle below each ear wattled, adj [1 wótléd, 2 wótléd] wattle (I) & -ed 1 Made of, covered with, wattle-work 2 (of birds and fish) Having wattles wattle-work, n Hurdle &c made of wattles watting, n [1 wótlng, 2 wótlng] wattle (II) & -ing Wattle work watt-meter, n watt & -meter Instrument measuring electrical power in terms of watts wawl, vb intrans [1 wawl, 2 wól] Imitative To cry, howl, squall, like a cat wave (I), vb intrans & trans [1 wāv, 2 weiv] OE waftan, 'to wave, brandish', ME wāten, cp ON vafa, MHG waben, 'to wave, fluctuate', op waver A intrans 1 (of flexible object) To move to and fro in air or water with curving, sinuous, motion, to sway, sweep to and fro, to stream, fluctuate flags, branches, wave in the breeze waving corn, seaweed waves below the surface of the water 2 (of line or surface) To be arranged, lie, in a series of curves, to have alternate curving elevations and depressions, undulate one's hair waves 3 To signal by waving hand &c to wave in farewell &c

B trans 1 To cause to move to and fro with a sweeping motion, to brandish, flourish: to wave one's hand, to wave a wand, also (of flags) to allow to stream in the wind, to flaunt 'Wave, Alunch, althy banners wave' (Campbell, 'Hohenlinden')

2 To signal to by waving the leader waved his men on with his sword, to wave a person away, to wave away a proposal &c, signify disapproval of by a waving gesture, to brush it aside

3 To express by a wave of the hand &c to wave a farewell 4 To give an undulating surface, edge, appearance, to to wave one's hair wave (II), n, prob fr or due to association w prec Tho OE word was wæg, ME waue, wh was ousted by wave in 16th cent

1 A swelling, curving ridge on the surface of the sea or other large sheet of water in motion, a billow, b specif (poet) the waves, the sea 2 An undulation, or undulating movement, in any surface, resembling in appearance that caused by wind on the surface of water 'Waves of shadow went over the wheat' (Tennyson, 'Poet's Song')

3 (phys) Any disturbance which is periodic in both space and time The interval between its repetition in space is its wave length the interval of time is its period, and the reciprocal of its period is its frequency 4 An undulating mark or streak on a surface, e.g. in a silk fabric, reflecting light differently from the rest of the surface 5 One of a series of wide curves or curls in a substance such as the hair 6 A waving movement, a shaking to and fro a wave of the hand 7 An emotional or intellectual impulse, movement, tendency, a gust of feeling &c a wave of religious passion, of enthusiasm, of indignation, &c wave-length, n a The distance between the crests of two adjacent waves in water, b (phys) regular interval of space between each recurrence of a periodic disturbance waveless, adj [1 wávlis, 2 wévlis] wave (II) & -less Without waves wavet, n [1 wávlit, 2 wévlit] wave (II) & -let A small wave, a ripple waver, vb intrans [1 wáver, 2 wéver] ME wáveren, 'to waver', op MHG wáberen, ON wáfra, 'to waver', wave (I) & -er 1 To move unsteadily, to shift with irregular movements from place to place, or to und fro, to fluctuate, to tremble, to flicker, to come and go a wavering shadow, mist, light, cloud of smoke 2 To totter, vacillate and show signs of breaking or giving way the line wavered and finally broke before the shock of the cavalry 3 To halt between two opinions, to vacillate, to shilly shally, b to remain undecided between two courses of action, to be irresolute, to lack fixity of purpose, to yield, give way inflexible in his resolve, he never wavered in spite of abuse and denunciation waverer, n [1 wáwerer, 2 wéwerer] Proe & -er One who wavers, an irresolute, vacillating person wavering, adj [1 wáwering, 2 wéwering] fr Proe Part of waver a flickering, quivering, b hesitating, vacillating waveringly, adv Proe & -ly In a wavering manner wavily, adv [1 wávil, 2 wévil] wavy & -ly In a wavy manner, with undulations waviness, n [1 wávinis, 2 wévinis] Next word & -ness State or quality of being wavy wavy (I), adj [1 wávi, 2 wévi] wave (II) & -y 1 Inclined to wave, waving, e.g. as grass, plumes &c in the wind 2 (of surface or line) Having, showing, undulating curves, alternately convex and concave a wavy line, wavy hair wavy (II), wavy, n, fr Am Ind wawa North American Arctic goose, snow goose wawl Variant of waul

wax (I), n [1 waks, 2 waks] OE weaz, ME waz, op O Fris waz, OHG waha, ON waz, 'wax', prob cogn w OHG waba, 'honeycomb', b w weave, web, wrick (I) 1 A plastic, yellow, fatty substance secreted by bees and used by them in construction of cells, b prepared wax, bleached and purified, used for manufacture of candles, for modelling &c Phr like wax (in one's hands &c), easily influenced 2 Substance resembling wax in appearance, consistency &c, specif a also vegetable wax, waxy substance exuded by some plants, b also ear wax, substance secreted by ear, cerumen, c also mineral wax, ozocerite, d cobbler's wax, kind of resin used by shoemakers to coat thread wax (II), vb trans, fr proe To cover, coat, impregnate, treat, with wax wax (III), vb intrans OE weazan, ME weazan, 'to grow', op OHG wahan, O Fris waza, ON waza, 'to grow', Goth wahanjan, 'to grow', cogn w Sort val áqam, 'growth, increase', ukšati, 'he strengthens', Gk ázein, 'to increase', earlier awez, op also Lat augere, 'to cause to grow', see augment, auotion 1 To increase, grow larger, now used chiefly of the moon, to present the appearance of growing in size in passing towards the phase of full moon, contrasted with wane 2 To pass into a specified state, to become to wax merry, their mirth waxed loud, (archaic) to wax old and feeble wax (IV), n Etymol unknown (school slang) Bit of anger, rage, esp in Phr to be in, get into, a wax wax-berry, n The candle berry, waxbill, n [1 wáksbil, 2 wáksbíl] Small kind of weaver bird with beak having appearance of sealing wax wax candle, n Candle made of wax wax-chandler, n Maker of, dealer in, wax candles wax-cloth, n Cloth coated or treated with wax for polishing floor, furniture &c wax doll, n Doll with head and extremities made of prepared beeswax &c waxen, adj [1 wáksen, 2 wáksan] wax (I) & -en 1 a (archaic) Made of wax, b resembling wax in appearance, esp (i) smooth, unwrinkled, also (ii) colourless a waxen complexion 2 (archaic) Impressionable, easily melted or influenced, yielding 'the waxen hearts of men' (Tennyson, 'In Memoriam' xxi 8) wax-end, n Shoemaker's waxed thread wax-flower, n Tropical Asiatic plant with thick, glossy leaves and waxy flowers, Hoya carnosa waxiness, n [1 wáksnis, 2 wáksnis] waxy & -ness State or quality of being waxy wax-insect, n Insect secreting wax.

wax-light, n Wax candle, taper &c wax-moth, n Moth habit to infest bee hives and lay its eggs on the combs wax-myrtle, n American shrub producing nuts coated with white wax from which candles are made, the candle berry wax-painting, n Encaustic painting wax-palm, n South American palm producing vegetable wax wax-paper, n Paper made waterproof by coating with wax wax-plant, n Plant producing waxy flowers, the wax flower wax-pocket, n One of the cavities of the under side of bee's abdomen in which wax is secreted wax tree, n Tree yielding vegetable wax waxwing, n [1 wákswing, 2 wákswíng] Small bird, Amphispiza, with feathers tipped with red, horny appendages waxwork, n [1 wákswerk, 2 wákswérk] Figure modelled in wax, esp wax effigy of the human figure dressed for exhibition &c, waxworks, an exhibition of such figures waxy (I), adj [1 wáksi, 2 wáksi] wax (I) & -y 1 Pertaining to, resembling, treated with, having the consistency of, wax 2 (specif of complexion, skin &c) Having a pallid, translucent appearance 3 (of organ of body, tissue &c) Affected by a morbid change towards a structure of waxy appearance waxy (II), adj wax (IV) & -y (school slang) Angry, annoyed way, n [1 wá, 2 wé] OE weg, ME wey, 'way', cp OS OHG weg, O Fris wey, ON wegr, Goth wegs, 'way', op also OE wegan, 'to carry, move', see weigh, wegon, 'cart', see wagon, cogn w Lat vehere, 'to drive, carry', see vehicle, Gk ókhos for 'wokhos', 'waggon', Lith vezimas, 'cart' 1 A road, track, path, trail, leading from one place to another a rough, winding way, Phrs covered way, rooted in passage, path &c, Appian, Icknield, Fosse, Way &c, names of Roman roads, permanent way, railway track, six foot way, space between two sets of rails on railway track, Milky Way, see milky, the Way of the Cross, (i) series of representations of the stages on the road to Calvary, (ii) set of devotions referring to these stages, Phr to pave the way for, prepare for, facilitate approach or introduction of to pave the way for reform &c, b also in compounds, highway, byway &c 2 Route followed, or to be followed, in going from place to place do you know the way?, this is the way home, to find, lose, one's way, to ask, point out, the way, which is the way out? Phrs the longest way round is the shortest way home, short cuts are often not reliable (lit and fig), to take one's way, go, to go one's way, depart, to lead the way, (lit and fig) go in front, act as leader, to see one's way to, feel that one is able to (do something), to go out of one's way to, make special effort to, to put oneself out of the way, take trouble, to go the way of all flesh, of all the earth, die, the parting of the ways, (fig) moment for decisive action along one of two opposed lines, by way of, by a route passing through, by the way, (i) during journey, (ii) (fig, introducing an irrelevancy) in passing, incidentally, on the way, travelling, passing from one place to another, going or approaching, out of the way, unusual, unfamiliar he has done nothing out of the way, out of the way (attrib adj), remote, inaccessible an out of the way place 3 Direction, point towards which motion takes place he went that way, which way were you looking? 4 Distance traversed, or to be traversed, distance between two points it is only a little way to the town, we have still some way to go, England is a long way from Australia, the roots go a long way down 5 a Passage from point to point, progress, advance to make one's way, to make the best of one's way, go as fast as possible, b (lit and fig) forward movement, tendency or power to advance, momentum to make, gather, lose, way Phrs to be under way, to have way on, (esp of ship) be moving forward, (also fig) preparations are now under way &c 6 (lit and fig) Freedom to advance, opportunity for progress, space for unimpeded forward movement to make way (for), to be in one's way, to get out of one's way, to clear the way Phrs to put (person) out of the way, kill him &c, to put one in the way of, give an opportunity to, to give way, yield, cease to resist 7 Method, mode of procedure, manner of achieving an object or performing an action, course of action the right or wrong way of doing something, to try new ways of working, to speak in a careless way, do it your own way Phrs to have one's own way, get what one wants, to my &c way of thinking, in my opinion, by way of, (i) with intention of, with a view to, (ii) as substitute for to say a few words by way of introduction, in the way of (business &c), in the ordinary course of 8 a Characteristic method, customary procedure, habit it's not his way to be generous, the way of the world, b specific manner of life, habits to like old-fashioned ways, to live &c in a small way, unpretentiously, on a small scale 9 Scope, sphere of attention, occupation, action &c such things have never come (in) my way Phr to be in the drapery &c way, trade as draper &c 10 a State, condition, (colloq) to be in a bad way, Phr in the family way, pregnant, b specif (slang) state of agitation she is in a terrible way 11 Respect, regard, particular they are in no way similar, it is good in some ways, bad in every way 12 (pl) Lines of framework of timber down which ship slides when launched way-bill, n List of passengers or goods carried by public conveyance way-board, n Thin seam of rock lying between two thicker strata wayfarer, n [1 wáfrer, 2 wéfrer] way & fare (III) & -er Person passing from one place to another, traveller wayfaring, adj [1 wáfríng, 2 wéfríng] way & fare (III) & -ing Passing from place to place, travelling, itinerant wayfaring tree, n European shrub with white flowers and black berries, common in hedgerows, viburnum waylay, vb trans [1 wálay, 2 wélay] way & lay (III) To lie in wait for in order to attack &c, to ambush way-leave, n Right of way, specif, right to carry minerals, goods &c over another's property

water-hyacinth, n Tropical plant with spikes of blue flowers and thick, tangled leaf stalks
water-ice, n Confection of frozen water, fruit-juice, and sugar &c

water-inch, n Amount of water flowing in twenty-four hours through a hole one inch in diameter

wateriness, n [1 wáwterínes, 2 wóterínes] watery & -ness Quality of being watery watering-can, n [1 wáwtering kán, 2 wótar-sp kán] Vessel with long spout, often fitted with perforated nozzle, for watering plants

watering-cart, n Cart carrying a supply of water and fitted with a device for watering roads

watering-place, n 1 Pool to which animals resort to drink 2 a Health resort with medicinal springs, b seaside resort

watering-pot, n Watering can

water-jacket, n Casing containing water and surrounding cylinder &c for cooling purposes
water-joint, n Water-tight joint

water-junket, n Sandpiper

water-lens, n Magnifying lens consisting of water enclosed in a brass cell with a glass bottom waterless, adj [1 wáwterles, 2 wótarles] water & -less Without water

water-level, n 1 Surface of body of water, esp as datum for measurement 2 (geol) Irregular upper surface of ground-water, upward limit of saturation 3 Levelling instrument in which the position of a drop of water indicates horizontality

water-lily, n Plant, Nymphaea, with flat, heart shaped leaves, and large, white, yellow, pink, or blue flowers, which float on the surface of water

water-line, n 1 Line along ship's side corresponding to water level, load, light water-line, level reached by water when ship is loaded, empty 2 Line forming part of watermark

water-logged, adj a (of wood or wooden objects) Saturated or filled with water and having lost buoyancy, b (of the ground) soaked with water beyond saturation-point, so that it remains swampy, c (of a ship) rendered almost unmanageable, through water leaking excessively into hold

water-main, n Chief pipe in system of water-supply waterman, n [1 wáwtermán, 2 wótarmán] 1 Boatman, ferryman &c plying for hire 2 Oarsman a good, bad, waterman &c watermanship, n [1 wáwtermánshíp, 2 wótar-mánshíp] Prec & -ship Skill in management of oars watermark, n & vb trans [1 wáwtermárk, 2 wótarámárk] 1 n a Design imprinted on surface of paper, showing quality, date or place of manufacture &c, and faintly visible when the paper is held against the light, b (1) mark or line showing the height to which water has risen, as high-watermark, on a beach &c, (2) fig high watermark, the highest attainable point or degree of excellence, low watermark, lowest attainable degree of dement 2 vb To imprint a watermark on (paper) in process of manufacture

water-meadow, n Low lying meadow periodically inundated by river &c

water-melon, n Large, edible, sweet, pulpy fruit of a trailing plant of the gourd family

water-mill, n Mill worked by water power

water-moccasin, n Poisonous N American snake

water-monkey, n Long necked, earthenware water-jar of eastern countries

water-motor, n Motor driven by water pressure

water-nymph, n Spirit haunting river, lake &c, naiad

water-pillar, n Pillar with swinging spout for supplying steam engines with water

water-pipe, n Pipe for conveying water

water-plane, n 1 Plane in which water-line lies, level with surface of water 2 Sea-plane

water-plate, n Plate with double bottom enclosing space for hot water water-platter, n Variety of water-hily water-polo, n Ball game played by swimmers, the object being to throw the ball into the goal of the opposing side

water-power, n Power generated by pressure, fall &c of water waterproof, adj, n, & vb trans [1 wáwter--prúf, 2 wótarprúf] 1 adj Proof against water, capable of excluding or resisting water, not permitting water to pass through 2 n Waterproof coat &c 3 vb To make waterproof by coating with rubber &c

water-rail, n Long-legged, short-winged wading bird, the common rail

water-ram, n Hydraulic ram

water-rat, n Popular name for the water-vole

water-rate, n Official charge made for public water supply water-sail, n (naut) Sail below lower studging sail

water-seal, n Body of water held in a trap &c to prevent passage of gas &c watershed, n [1 wáwtershéd, 2 wótarshéd], fr water (I) & shed (I), in earlier sense to divide, separate a Elevation dividing two river valleys or basins, line of division between two river-systems, b (a loose incorrect usage) river-basin, catchment area

water-shoot, n Pipe, trough, gutter, for discharging water from roof &c

water-side, n Edge, margin, of body of water

water-skin, n Bag of skin for carrying water

water-soldier, n Water plant, Stratiotes, rooted at bottom of water and having sword-like leaves and flowers above the surface water-spider, n Kind of spider which lives in a ball-shaped nest under water waterspout, n [1 wáwterspút, 2 wótar--spút] Pillar of water drawn upward by a funnel shaped mass of whirling cloud which descends vertically to meet it

water-sprite, n Supernatural being haunting river, lake &c

water-supply, n 1 System of procuring and storing water to supply house, town &c 2 Water used or supplied by such a system

water-table, n 1 Water level 2 (archit) Moulding, projecting ledge &c designed to throw off water from building

water-tiger, n Destructive larva of a kind of water-beetle watertight, adj [1 wáwtertít, 2 wótar--tít] a Capable of resisting passage of water, fixed or fitted tightly enough to prevent water passing through, b (fig, of argument &c) perfectly sound, unassailable

water-tower, n Structure containing raised tank designed to furnish pressure necessary to system of water-supply

water-vole, n Kind of aquatic rodent, Microtus amphibius, often called the water-rat

water-wagtail, n Wagtail

water-way, n 1 Navigable channel 2 Channel round edge of ship's deck to carry off water

water-wheel, n Wheel turned by flow of water

water-witch, n 1 Water-finder 2 Any one of several kinds of diving bird

water-withe, n West Indian vine with branches full of watery juice waterworks, n [1 wáwterwérks, 2 wótar-wérks] a System of buildings, machinery, reservoirs, pipes &c for supplying water to town &c Slang Phr to turn on the water-works, shed tears, b (colloq) the bladder and urinary organs generally

water-worn, adj (of rock, pebble &c) Rounded, smoothed, polished, by action of water

watery, adj [1 wáwteri, 2 wótarí] water (I) & -y 1 Consisting of water, op such poet Phr as watery waste, wilderness, the sea, 'He must not float upon his watery bier Unwept', the sea, in which Eurydice had perished (Milton) 2 Containing, full of, saturated with, water, espec a (of eyes) having a weak, moist appearance, as though they were watering, b (of boiled food) containing too much water, sodden 3 a (of liquid) Over diluted with water, thin, weak, insipid watery tea, soup &c, b hence, (fig) insipid, without force or character 4 (of moon or sky) Indicating approach of rain

watt, n [1 wot, 2 wot], fr James Watt, inventor, d 1810 Unit of electrical power, the equivalent to work at the rate of one joule per second, 746 watts = 1 h p

Watteau, n [1 wótó, 2 wótou], fr name of Antoine Watteau, French painter (1684-1721), with reference to costumes &c shown in his paintings Watteau back, back of woman's dress, arranged to form a long pleat from neck to hem, Watteau bodice, with square neck-opening wattle (I), n [1 wótl, 2 wótl] OE waetan, 'hurdle', ME watell, 'hurdle, basket, bag' Origin uncertain, op OE waella, 'bandage' 1 Structure of wickerwork on a framework of stiffer rods, used in form of hurdles 2 Fleeshy excrescence hanging from neck of bird, esp turkey 3 Barbel of fish 4 Kind of acacia of Australia and S Africa

wattle (II), vb trans To make of, construct with, wattle-work wattle-and-daub, n [1 wótl an(d) dáwh, 2 wótl an(d) dób] Wattle-work daubed with clay, mud &c, used for the walls of rough huts

wattle-bird, n Australian bird with wattle below each ear

wattled, adj [1 wótléd, 2 wótléd] wattle (I) & -ed 1 Made of, covered with, wattle-work 2 (of birds and fish) Having wattles

wattle-work, n Hurdle &c made of wattles watting, n [1 wótlíng, 2 wótlíng] wattle (II) & -ing Wattle-work watt-meter, n watt & -meter Instrument measuring electrical power in terms of watts wawl, vb intrans [1 wawl, 2 wól] Imitative To cry, howl, squall, like a cat wave (I), vb intrans & trans [1 wáw; 2 weiv] OE waefian, 'to wave, brandish', ME wáven, op ON vafr, MHG waben, 'to wave, fluctuate', op waver A intrans 1 (of flexible object) To move to and fro in air or water with curving, sinuous, motion, to sway, sweep to and fro, to stream, fluctuate flags, branches, wave in the breeze waving corn, seaweed waves below the surface of the water 2 (of line or surface) To be arranged, lie, in a series of curves, to have alternate curving elevations and depressions, undulate one's hair waves 3 To signal by waving hand &c to wave in farewell &c B trans 1 To cause to move to and fro with a sweeping motion, to brandish, flourish, to wave one's hand, to wave a wand, also (of flags) to allow to stream in the wind, to flaunt 'Wave, Munich, all thy banners wave!' (Campbell, 'Hohenlinden') 2 To signal to by waving the leader waved his men on with his sword, to wave a person away, to wave away a proposal &c, signify disapproval of by a waving gesture, to brush it aside 3 To express by a wave of the hand &c to wave a farewell 4 To give an undulating surface, sdge, appearance, to wave one's hair wave (II), n, proh fr or dae to association w proh Tho OE word was wæg, ME waue, wh was ousted by wave in 16th cent 1 a a swelling, curving ridge on the surface of the sea or other large sheet of water in motion, a billow, b poof (poet) the waves, the sea 2 An undulation, or undulating movement, in any surface, resembling in appearance that caused by wind on the surface of water 'Waves of shadow went over the wheat' (Tennyson, 'Poet's Song') 3 (phys) Any disturbance which is periodic in both space and time The interval between its repetition in space is its wave length the interval of time is its period, and the reciprocal of its period is its frequency 4 An

undulating mark or streak on a surface, e.g. in a silk fabric, reflecting light differently from the rest of the surface 5 One of a series of wide curves or curls in a substance such as the hair 6 A waving movement, a shaking to and fro a wave of the hand 7 An emotional or intellectual impulse, movement, tendency, a gust of feeling &c a wave of religious passion, of enthusiasm, of indignation, &c

wave-length, n a The distance between the crests of two adjacent waves in water, b (phys) regular interval of space between each recurrence of a periodic disturbance waveless, adj [1 wávləs, 2 wévləs] wave (II) & -less Without waves wavellat, n [1 wávlət, 2 wévlət] wave (II) & -let A small wave, a ripple waver, vb intrans [1 wávr, 2 wévr] M E wāveren, 'to waver', op M H G wāveren, ON vafra, 'to waver', wave (I) & -er 1 To move unsteadily, to shift with irregular movements from place to place, or to and fro, to fluctuate, to tremble, to flicker, to come and go a wavering shadow, mist, light, cloud of smoke 2 To totter, recede and show signs of breaking or giving way the line wavered and finally broke before the shock of the cavalry 3 A To halt between two opinions, to vacillate, to shilly shally, b to remain undecided between two courses of action, to be irresolute, to lack fixity of purpose, to yield, give way inflexible in his resolve, he never wavered in spite of abuse and denunciation waverer, n [1 wávrer, 2 wévrer] Prec & -er One who wavers, an irresolute, vacillating person wavering, adj [1 wávrɪŋ, 2 wévrɪŋ], fr Prec Part of waver *a flickering, quivering, b hesitating, vacillating* waveringly, adv Prec & -ly In a wavering manner wavily, adv [1 wávlɪ, 2 wévlɪ] wavy & -ly In a wavy manner, with undulations waviness, n [1 wávrɪnəs, 2 wévrɪnəs] Next word & -ness State or quality of being wavy wavy (I), adj [1 wávi, 2 wévi] wave (II) & -y 1 Inclined to wave, waving, e.g. as grass, plumes &c in the wind 2 (of surface or line) Having, showing, undulating curves, alternately convex and concave a wavy line, wavy hair wavy (II), wavey, n, fr Am Ind wawa North American Arctic goose, snow goose

wawl Variant of waul

wax (I), n [1 waks, 2 weks] OE weax, M E wax, op O Frs wax, OHG waha, ON wax, 'wax', prob cogn w OHG waba, 'honeycomb', & w weave, web, wick (I) 1 A Plastic, yellow, fatty substance secreted by bees and used by them in construction of cells, b prepared wax, bleached and purified, used for manufacture of candles, for modelling &c Phr his wax (in one's hands &c), easily influenced 2 Substance resembling wax in appearance, consistency &c, specif a also vegetable wax, waxy substance exuded by some plants, b also ear-wax, substance secreted by ear, cerumen, c also mineral wax, ozocerite, d cobbler's wax, kind of resin used by shoemakers to coat thread wax (II), vb trans, fr Prec To cover, coat, impregnate, treat, with wax wax (III), vb intrans OE weazan, M E weazan, 'to grow', op OHG wahan, O Frs waza, ON waza, 'to grow', Goth wahjan, 'to grow', oogn w Sert alahjan, 'growth increases', u.ahai, 'to strengthen', Gk aitzein, 'to increase', earlier awez, op also Lat augere, 'to cause to grow', see augment, augment. 1 To increase, grow larger, now used chiefly of the moon, to present the appearance of growing in size in passing towards the phase of full moon, contrasted with wane. 2 To pass into a specified state, to become to wax

merry, their mirth waxed loud, (archaic) to wax old and feeble

wax (IV), n Etymol unknown (school slang) Fit of anger, rage, esp in Phr to be in, get into, a wax wax-berry, n The candle berry, waxbill, n [1 wáksbɪl, 2 weksbɪl] Small kind of weaver-bird with beak having appearance of sealing wax

wax candle, n Candle made of wax

wax-chandler, n Maker of, dealer in, wax candles

wax-cloth, n Cloth coated or treated with wax for polishing floor, furniture &c

wax doll, n Doll with head and extremities made of prepared beeswax &c

waxen, adj [1 wáksən, 2 weksən] wax (I) & -en 1 a (archaic) Made of wax, b resembling wax in appearance, esp (i) smooth, unwrinkled, also (ii) colourless a waxen complexion 2 (archaic) Impressionable, easily melted or influenced, yielding 'the waxen hearts of men' (Tennyson, 'In Memoriam' xxi 8)

wax-end, n Shoemaker's waxed thread

wax-flower, n Tropical Asiatic plant with thick, glossy leaves and waxy flowers, Hoya carnosa

waxiness, n [1 wáksnəs, 2 weksnəs]

waxy & -ness State or quality of being waxy

wax-insect, n Insect secreting wax

wax-light, n Wax candle, taper &c

wax-moth, n Moth liable to infest bee hives and lay its eggs on the combs wax-myrtle, n American shrub producing nuts coated with white wax from which candles are made, the candle berry

wax-painting, n Encaustic painting

wax-palm, n South American palm producing vegetable wax

wax-paper, n Paper made waterproof by coating with wax

wax-plant, n Plant producing waxy flowers, the wax flower

wax-pocket, n One of the cavities of the under side of bee's abdomen in which wax is secreted

wax tree, n Tree yielding vegetable wax

waxwing, n [1 wákswɪŋ, 2 wekswɪŋ] Small bird, Ampelis, with feathers tipped with red, horny appendages waxwork, n [1 wákswɜrk, 2 wekswɜrk] Figure modelled in wax, esp wax effigy of the human figure dressed for exhibition &c, waxworks, an exhibition of such figures waxy (I), adj [1 wáksi, 2 weksi] wax (I) & -y 1 Pertaining to, resembling, treated with, having the consistency of, wax 2 (specif of complexion, skin &c) Having a pallid, translucent appearance 3 (of organ of body, tissue &c) Affected by a morbid change towards a structure of waxy appearance

waxy (II), adj wax (IV) & -y (school slang) Angry, annoyed

way, n [1 wá, 2 weɪ] OE weg, M E wei, 'way', op OS, OHG weg, O Frs wei, ON vegr, Goth wiga, 'way', op also OE wegan, 'to carry, move', see weigh, wagon, 'cart', see warm, oogn w Lat vehere, 'to drive, carry', see vehicle, Gk ókhos for wokhos, 'waggon', Lith veimas, 'cart' 1 A Road, track, path, trail, leading from one place to another a rough, winding way, Phrs covered way, roofed in passage, path &c, Appian, Icknield, Fosse, Way &c, names of Roman roads, permanent way, railway track, cut foot way, space between two sets of rails on railway track, Milky Way, see milky, the Way of the Cross, (i) series of representations of the stages on the road to Calvary, (ii) set of devotions referring to these stages, Phr to pave the way for, prepare for, facilitate approach or introduction of to pave the way for reform &c, b also in compounds, highway, byway &c. 2 Route followed, or to be followed, in going from place to place do you know the way?, this is the way home, to find, lose, one's way, to ask, point out, the way, which is the way out? Phrs the longest way round is the shortest way home, short cuts are often not reliable (lit and fig), to take one's way, go, to go one's way, depart, to lead the way, (lit and fig) go in front, act as leader, to see one's way to, feel that one is able to (do something), to go out of one's way to, make special effort to, to put oneself out of the way, take trouble, to go the way of all flesh, of all the earth, die, the parting of the ways, (fig) moment for decisive action along one of two opposed lines, by way of, by a route passing through, by the way, (i) during journey, (ii) (fig, introducing an irrelevancy) in passing, incidentally, on the way, travelling, passing from one place to another, going or approaching, out of the way, unusual, unfamiliar he has done nothing out of the way, out of the way (attrib adj), remote, inaccessible an out of the way place 3 Direction, point towards which motion takes place he went that way, which way were you looking? 4 Distance traversed, or to be traversed, distance between two points it is only a little way to the town, we have still some way to go, England is a long way from Australia, the roots go a long way down 5 A Passage from point to point, progress, advance to make one's way, to make the best of one's way, go as fast as possible, b (lit and fig) forward movement, tendency or power to advance, momentum to make, gather, lose, way Phrs to be under way, to have way on, (esp of ship) be moving forward, (also fig) preparations are now under way &c 6 (lit and fig) Freedom to advance, opportunity for progress, space for unimpeded forward movement to make way (for), to be in one's way, to get out of one's way, to clear the way Phrs to put (person) out of the way, kill him &c, to put one in the way of, give an opportunity to, to give way, yield, cease to resist 7 Method, mode of procedure, manner of achieving an object or performing an action, course of action the right or wrong way of doing something, to try new ways of working, to speak in a careless way, do it your own way Phrs to have one's own way, get what one wants, to my &c way of thinking, in my opinion, by way of, (i) with intention of, with a view to, (ii) as substitute for to say a few words by way of introduction, in the way of (business &c), in the ordinary course of 8 A Characteristic method, customary procedure, habit it's not his way to be generous, the way of the world, b specific manner of life, habits to like old-fashioned ways, to live &c in a small way, unpretentiously, on a small scale 9 Scope, sphere of attention, occupation, action &c such things have never come (in) my way Phr to be in the drapery &c way, trade as draper &c 10 A State, condition, (colloq) to be in a bad way, Phr in the family way, pregnant, b specif (slang) state of agitation she is in a terrible way 11 Respect, regard, particular they are in no way similar, it is good in some ways, bad in every way 12 (pl) Lines of framework of timber down which ship slides when launched

way-bill, n List of passengers or goods carried by public conveyance

way-board, n Thin seam of rock lying between two thicker strata wayfarer, n [1 wáifær, 2 wéifær] way & fare (III) & -er Person passing from one place to another, traveller wayfaring, adj [1 wáifærɪŋ, 2 wéifærɪŋ] way & fare (III) & -ing Passing from place to place, travelling, itinerant

wayfaring tree, n European shrub with white flowers and black berries, common in hedgerows, viburnum waylay, vb trans [1 wéilá, 2 wéilá] way & lay (III) To lie in wait for in order to attack &c, to ambush way-leave, n Right of way, specif, right to carry minerals, goods &c over another's property

way-mark, n Milestone or other indication on public way way-post, n Sign-post -ways, adv suff representing OE weġas, genit of weġ, 'way', way & -es Used to form *adv*s indicating position, direction & side-ways, aloof, lengthways &c way-shaft, n For weigh- Rocking shaft in steam engine wayside, n & adj 1 n Side, margin, of path or road 2 adj Found, situated, at the side of the road wayside flowers wayward, adj [1 wāward, 2 wēward] Earlier awayward, away & -ward Not yielding to control, perverse, capricious, wilful waywardly, adv Preo & -ly In a wayward manner waywardness, n See preo & -ness State or quality of being wayward way-worn, adj Worn by travel, esp on foot wayzgoose, n [1 wāzgoos, 2 wēzgoos] 17th cent waygoose, etymol unknown Annual entertainment held by printing-house employees we, pron, let pers pl [1 wē, 2 wī] OE we, ME wē, OS wī, Du wij, OHG wir, Goth weis, cogn w Sort wayman, 'we' weak, adj [1 wēk, 2 wīk] ME wēke, fr ON veikr, wh is cogn w OE wāc, 'weak', slender, ME wōk, now obs, op OS wēc, OHG wēch, 'weak', op w Gk astēn, 'to yield, draw back', Lat vicis, 'change', vicissim, 'in turn', see vice (IV) & vicissitude 1 a Not strong, lacking in vigour, strength, firmness, solidity, durability &c, easily disturbed, shaken, broken down &c, not able to resist force, pressure &c weak supports, foundations, weak wrists, weak defences, b (of person or group of persons &c) easily overcome, unable to attack or resist a weak side, team &c, Phr the weaker sex, women, o liable to attack, offering little resistance the weak points, spots, of a fortification &c Phr the weak point (of a person, soborn, argument &c), quality &c most open to attack 2 a Enfeebled by illness, injury, age &c, frail, lacking in strength and vigour to be too weak to walk, b of delicate constitution, not robust, o (of organ of body) not functioning with normal force or efficiency a weak heart 3 (of senses or organs of sense) Lacking in perceptive power, not normal in action weak hearing, weak eyes, eight &c, a weak voice, one that is feeble and lacking in resonance 4 (of mind &c) Not reaching normal standard of intelligence, lacking in mental power, feeble, deficient 5 (of person or character) Lacking in moral force, tending to irresolution, wanting in decision, stability &c, vacillating 6 (of action) Not forcible, decisive, firm, showing lack of firmness, resolution, courage &c weak refusal, argument, resistance, defence &c 7 Inadequately supplied with something necessary for particular purpose a weak hand at cards 8 (of statement, argument &c) Insufficiently supported by facts &c, lacking cogency, unconvincing, illogical 9 Not efficient in, not good at, below required standard weak in spelling, in Latin 10 Much diluted, watery, insipid weak tea 11 (of style) Lacking in force, vigour, conciseness &c 12 (commerce, of trade &c) Not active, lacking in briskness 13 (gram) a Weak verb, in English and other Germanic languages, one forming past tense & past participle by addition of d or t, b weak declension (of nouns and adjectives), belonging originally to the so called -n- stems, that is, having stems ending in -n- to which the case-endings are added, in Old English, except in genitive plural, the case suffixes are lost, leaving only a, which takes the place of these, the dative plural of weak declensions is identical with that of the strong weaken, vb trans & intrans [1 wēkan, 2 wīkan] Preo & -en 1 trans a (of material action) (i) To render bodily weak or weaker, to reduce power of resistance, cause to lose strength and vigour, intensity his illness has permanently weakened him, (ii) to reduce stability of, diminish capacity of bearing strains, weights, pressure &c you will weaken the bridge if you reduce the number of arches, the sea-wall has been weakened by the force of the storm, b (of non-material action) to reduce, detract from, intellectual force, cogency, convincingness of to weaken an argument by exaggerated statement, one's case by claiming too much &c 2 intrans a (rare, in material sense) To become bodily weaker, lose force and vigour he seems to be weakening daily, b (in non-material sense) to become less assured and determined, to be shaken in one's opinion, to offer less resistance, he inclined to give way I was afraid he would weaken when he heard the plausible arguments on the other side, he still makes a show of opposition, but he is obviously weakening weak-eyed, adj Having weak eyes weak-headed, adj Weak minded weakish, adj [1 wēkish, 2 wīkish] weak & -ish Somewhat weak weak-kneed, adj [1 wēk nēd, 2 wīk nēd] (chiefly fig) Weak in resolution, lacking determination and firmness of character weaking, n [1 wēking, 2 wīking] weak & -ing Person &c lacking in physical or moral strength weakly (I), adj [1 wēkli, 2 wīkli] weak & -ly Not robust, feeble, sickly weakly (II), adv weak & -ly In a weak manner weak-minded, adj Lacking in intelligence, feeble minded weakness, n [1 wēknes, 2 wīknes] weak & -ness 1 State or quality of being weak, specif a bodily infirmity, debility, feebleness the weakness and helplessness of old age, b intellectual feebleness, imbecility weakness of mind, brain-power, o feebleness of character, irresolution, instability of will, d (rare) lack of strength in material objects, insecurity, liability to be upset, broken down &c the weakness of a lock, of a hedge, a wall &c 2 Characteristic defect, failing, weak point in character &c his chief weakness is being too easily amenable to flattery, a fondness for the bottle 3 (colloq) a Predilection, particular taste, fondness a weakness for apple-dumplings, b thing for which one has a weakness detective novels are a weakness of many hard working students 4 Lack of cogency, unconvincingness, illogicality, absence of ground the weakness of an argument, of a case &c 5 Imperfection, defectiveness, inadequacy the weakness of a man's classical knowledge, weakness in scholarship 6 Feebleness in action, effort &c the weakness in resistance shown by the enemy weak-sighted, adj Lacking in strength of vision weal (I), n [1 wēl, 2 wīl] OE wela, 'prosperity', ME wēle, op OE wel, 'well', see well (III) Prosperity, welfare, state of well-being, now only in Phr in weal and woe, the public weal &c weal (II), n See wale A mark or ridge on living flesh, raised by a blow from a rod or lash weald, n [1 wāld; 2 wīld] OE (Saxon) wāld, ME wēld, 'forest, wold', op OE wald, see wold, wh is an Anglian variant The Weald, district of southern England comprising parts of Kent, Sussex, Surrey, Hampshire weald-clay, n (geol) Clay, limestone, and sandstone beds forming part of the Wealden series Wealden, adj & n [1 wēldn, 2 wīldn] weald & -en 1 adj Pertaining to, resembling, the Weald, esp in its characteristic geological formation. 2 n (geol) Series of sandstone and clay strata forming the lower part of the Lower Cretaceous system wealth, n [1 wēlth, 2 wīlþ] ME wēlþe,

'pleasure, happiness, wealth', weal (I) & -th 1 Plentiful supply, abundance, profusion a wealth of flowers, words, affection &c 2 Abundance of material resources, riches, accumulation of property a man of considerable wealth, to possess wealth is not always to be happy 3 (archaic) Well being, prosperity 'Grant him in health and wealth long to live' (Prayer for King's Majesty) wealthily, adv [1 wēlthli, 2 wīlþli] wealthy & -ly In a wealthy manner wealthiness, n [1 wēlthines, 2 wīlþines] Next word & -ness State of being wealthy wealthy, adj [1 wēlthi, 2 wīlþi] wealth & -y Possessing, characterized by, wealth wean (I), vb trans [1 wōn, 2 wīn] OE wēanian, 'to accustom, train, make familiar, to wean', ME wēnen, 'to wean', op OHG wennan, M. Du wennēn, ON wennja, 'to accustom', op ON vannr, op further, with different vowel grade, OHG (g) wōn, OE wuna, 'accustomed', see wont (I), OE wunian, 'to dwell', ultimately all fr base wen-* &c, 'to love', see also wish, Venus 1 To accustom (child or other young mammal) to food other than its mother's milk 2 (also wean away) To withdraw (person &c) gradually from former habit, occupation, object of affection &c, to estrange, distract, draw away, alienate, esp by substitution of fresh interests, associations &c wean (II), n Apparently fr Scots wee ane, 'little one' (Scots) Child weanling, n [1 wēnling, 2 wīnling] wean (I) & -ling Newly weaned child or other mammal weapon, n [1 wēpan, 2 wēpan] OE wēpan, ME wēpen, 'weapon', op OHG wāfen, O Frs wēpen, ON vāpn, 'weapon', Goth wēpan, pl The short vowel in present form is due to ME shortening before two consonants in inflected forms wēpnes &c 1 a Material object, instrument, tool, designed, or used, as means of attack or defence, b organ of animal or plant used for similar purpose 2 Intellectual or moral means of attack or defence the strike as a political weapon, tariffs as a weapon for bargaining weaponless, adj [1 wēpanles, 2 wēpanles] Preo & -less Without a weapon wear (I), vb trans & intrans [1 wā, 2 wē] OE wērian, 'to wear (clothes)', to clothe', ME wēri(en), 'to wear (clothes)', apparently a specialized use of wērian, 'to protect, defend', op OE wār, 'defence', op, however, in special sense Goth wārian, 'to clothe', & wāri, 'garment', cogn w Lat vestis, 'garment', see vest (I) & cognates there given It looks as if some of the present meanings, such as 'to fatigue, exhaust, wear out' &c, were due to association w an entirely different word—OE wōrian, 'to crumble, wear away', wh is connected w OE wērig, 'weary', & wēriġean, 'to weary, exhaust', see weary A trans 1 a To be covered, clothed, with, have upon the person as a garment, or as an ornament to wear a frock coat, a white waistcoat, wool next the skin, a pair of top boots, a clean collar &c, to wear mourning, to wear a wreath of flowers, to wear diamonds, Phr to wear one's heart on one's sleeve, to show one's feelings readily, b to have emotions which are easily roused, b to have as a characteristic of one's personal appearance, to have as an appendage to one's person to wear one's hair waved, parted in the middle, to wear side-whiskers 2 a To hear, exhibit, as a characteristic expression of face, cast of features &c to wear a troubled look, a harassed expression, her features wore a pleasant smile, b (of external nature or other objects) to give an impression of, to exhibit, to be clad in 'This city now doth like a garment wear The beauty of the morning' (Wordsworth, 'On Westminster Bridge') 3 To sustain, carry, bear, as closely associated with one, to wear one's honours with modesty and grace 4 To remove part of, cause wastage of substance from, as by attrition, to produce a furrow, depression, in surface of by frequent passage, friction &c the constant flow of water has worn the stone, steps worn by the feet of thousands, to wear one's shoes into holes 5 To produce injury to, diminution of substance, attrition in, to beat, smooth, down, as by constant use, frequent passage over, rough handling and usage, friction &c to wear ruts on a road, to wear a track across a field, a rope at last wears a groove in a stout stanchion 6 To cause bodily or mental fatigue to, to exhaust, waste sorrow and anxiety wear one more than hard work, a constitution worn by years of hardship, also wear out B intrans 1 To last, remain unimpaired, withstand the stress of hard usage this material will wear for ever, you will find that this colour won't wear 2 To offer specified kind or amount of resistance to usage, severe treatment &c shoddy clothes never wear well, these clothes have worn splendidly Phr (of persons) to wear well, bear one's years lightly, show few signs of age 3 To pass, traverse a period of time, advance the day, one's life, wear towards its close, 'never morning wore To evening, but some heart did break' (Tennyson, 'In Mem' vi) C Followed by adverbs with special meanings Wear away, 1 trans, to remove, efface, as by friction, to rub out time has worn away the inscription, the feet of many generations have worn away the steps 2 intrans, (of time) to pass, esp tediously, to drag out the long day wore away Wear down, trans, a to reduce, lessen height of, by friction to wear one's heels down, the steps have been worn down, b (fig) to break down, reduce, as by constant attack or opportunity to wear down opposition Wear off, 1 trans, to rub off, remove, reduce, by constant friction, 2 intrans, a to be removed, lessened, by friction the nap will wear off, b (fig) to pass away, become less the strangeness, the roughness &c, will wear off in time Wear out, 1 trans, a to render shabby, threadbare, dilapidated, to reduce value or usefulness of by usage to wear out one's clothes, a machine &c, b to exhaust his temper, patience &c, as worn out, c to exhaust in body or mind, to tire out by excessive bodily or mental strain hardship and penury wore him out before his time, 2 intrans, to become worn out the clothes will soon wear out wear (II), n, fr prec 1 a Wearing of, act of wearing (clothes &c) a suit for Sunday wear, b act of using usage a carpet which has been many years in wear, it shows signs of wear, c of having been used 2 Amount of diminution in usefulness, effectiveness, value, which an article undergoes in the process of normal use in fixing the rent of a furnished house one must allow for wear Phrs wear and tear, natural dilapidation caused by time and usage, specul, fair wear and tear, such as is considered permissible for a person hiring an article to cause by normal usage, without being called upon to compensate owner wear (III), vb trans & intrans Variant of wear (naut) 1 trans To bring (ship) about by putting the helm up 2 intrans (of ship) To go about before the wind wear (IV), n [1 wɪr, 2 wɪə] See wear wearable, adj [1 wɪərəbl, 2 wɪərəbl] wearable (I) & -able Capable of being worn, fit to be worn weariless, adj [1 wɪrɪləs, 2 wɪrɪləs] weary (I) & -less (rare) Incapable of being wearied wearily, adv [1 wɪrɪli, 2 wɪrɪli] wearily (I) & -ly In a weary manner weariness, n [1 wɪnəs, 2 wɪnəs] See prec & -ness State or quality of being weary, fatigued, tiredness wearing, adj [1 wɪərɪŋ, 2 wɪərɪŋ], fr Prec Part of wear (I) Exhausting, tending to fatigue body or mind a wearing task, children are often very wearing wearing-apparel, n Clothes, garments wearing-iron, n Wearing plate wearing-plate, n Plate designed to guard part of a machine &c from friction wearisome, adj [1 wɛərɪsəm, 2 wɛərɪsəm] weary (I) & -some Tending to cause weariness, tiresome, tiring, tedious wearisomely, adv Prec & -ly In a wearisome manner wearisomeness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being wearisome weary (I), adj [1 wɛəri, 2 wɛəri] OE wērig, ME wēri, 'weary', fr *wōrɪʃ, op OE wōrian, 'to crumble', & OS wōrig, ag, 'weary', OHG wōrig, 'drunk', cogn w Gk hōrākūn, 'to be dizzy, faint', op further ON drar, 'fits of madness', Gk dros for 'tired', 'sleep' 1 Tired, fatigued, exhausted, by effort 2 Weary of, tired of, bored by, impatient of to be weary of life, to be weary of a person's chatter, nonsense &c 3 Causing weariness, tedious, irksome a weary world, life weary (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To make weary, to tire, fatigue, exhaust 2 To bore, wear out patience of, harass to weary a person with idle talk B intrans 1 To grow weary, become fatigued 2 Weary of, to become bored by, lose patience with to weary of too much gossip 3 Weary for, to long for, yearn after, to miss greatly, long for presence of she wearies for her absent children weasand, n [1 wɛzənd, 2 wɛzənd, 3 wɛzənd, 4 wɛzənd] OE wēsand, wēsand, ME wēsand, op OHG wēsant, O Frs wāsande (archaic) Trachea, windpipe, esp in Phr to cut, slit, his weasand weasel, o [1 wɛzəl, 2 wɛzəl] OE weasle, ME wēsele, op OHG wīsel, 'weasel', Du wezel, Dan væsel Small, carnivorous, reddish brown quadruped, Putorius nivalis, of the polecat family, with long body and short legs, related to stoat, ferret &c Phr to catch a weasel asleep, catch an habitually alert person off his guard weasel-faced, adj [1 wɛzəl fɛst, 2 wɛzəl fɛst] Having a thin, sharp featured, mean face weather (I), n [1 wððər, 2 wððə] OE, ME weder, 'storm', op OS weder, OHG wetar, ON veðr, 'storm', cogn w O Slav vedro, 'good weather', op also O Slav větr, 'storm', vějat, 'to blow', Lith vėtra, 'storm', O Prussian wetro, 'wind', connected w Lat ventus, Sort vataš, OE wind, 'wind', see wind (I) General atmospheric conditions prevailing at a specific time and place, as regards temperature, amount of moisture in the air, direction &c of wind, clouds &c bad, good, fine, wet, hot, windy, weather &c Phrs (naut) to make good, bad, weather, experience such weather, April weather, sunshine and showers alternately, under the weather, depressed, indisposed, not up to the mark, under stress of weather, affected by, under compulsion of, bad weather weather (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 (esp geol) To affect surface of, to disintegrate (rock &c), by action of rain, wind &c 2 To expose to action of weather, to season 3 To slope (roof slates, boards &c) downwards, in order that rain may drain off 4 (naut) To pass, sail, to windward of to weather a point 5 To come through successfully, survive to weather a storm, also to weather a financial crisis &c B intrans To be affected, disintegrated, by atmospheric action, as stones &c weather (III), adj, fr weather (I) (naut.) Windward, facing, turned towards, direction of wind the weather bow, beam &c Phrs to have the weather gauge of, to be to windward of, (fig) to gain an advantage over, to keep one's weather eye open, be on the alert weather-beaten, adj Showing effects of exposure to sun, wind, rain, bones, having a rough, hearty, sunburnt, reddened complexion.

weather-board, vb trans To supply with weather boarding weather-boarding, -boards, n Series of overlapping boards designed to throw off rain from house &c weather-bound, adj Detained by bad weather weather-bureau, n Meteorological office weather-chart, n Map showing distribution of atmospheric characteristics weather-cloth, n Canvas screen fixed to ship's bridge to give protection from rain, wind &c weathercock, n [1 wððerkòk, 2 wððèkòk] 1 Revolving plate or bar, often in shape of a cock, fixed on vertical rod and indicating direction of wind 2 (fig) Fickle, capricious person, a flibbertigibbet weather-contact, n Leakage of electricity from one telegraph wire to another caused by damp weather-cross, n Weather contact weather-forecast, n Forecast of weather to be expected during an ensuing period of 12, 24 hours &c weather gauge See weather (III) weather-glass, n Barometer weathering, n [1 wððərɪŋ, 2 wððərɪŋ] weather (II) & -ing 1 (archit) Slight slope given to surface in order that rain &c may drain off 2 Atmospheric action on rock &c weatherliness, n [1 wððərɪnəs, 2 wððərɪnəs] Next word & -ness State or quality of being weatherly weatherly, adj [1 wððərɪ, 2 wððəl] weather & -ly (naut) Capable of sailing close to the wind without making much lee way weather-map, n Weather chart weathermost, adj [1 wððərmòst, 2 wððərmòst] Farthest to windward weather-moulding, n Projecting moulding on wall &c designed to throw off rain.

weather-proof, adj Capable of resisting rough weather weather-prophet, n Person making forecast of weather weather-service, n Institution for collecting and distributing meteorological information.

weather-stain, n Discolouration through exposure weather-station, n Meteorological observation post weather-strip, n Strip of leather, wood &c for keeping out draughts, rain &c weather-tiles, n pl Overlapping tiles as substitute for weather-boarding weather-vane, n Weathercock weather-wise, adj Able to foretell the weather weather-worn, adj Affected by exposure to rough weather weave (I), vb trans & intrans [1 wɛv, 2 wɪv] OE wefan, ME wēten, op OHG weban, ON wefa, 'to weave', M Du weven, 'to move to and fro, to weave', M HG webelen, 'to fluctuate', ON wefa, 'to move to and fro', (longur) vafa, 'spider', cogn w Sort (úrpa)ndhús, 'spider', lit 'wool-weaver', fr base *wēbā &c, 'to weave', see also web A trans 1 a To form (threads) into a web, tissue, fabric, by inter-twining on a loom, b to make (fabric &c) out of threads, on a loom. 2 a To form (a wreath, garland) by twisting and intertwining stalks of leaves and flowers &c, b to twist (leaves, flowers &c) into a wreath 3 To pass, twist, in and out among to weave ribbons through one's hair 4 (fig) a To construct by an act of the mind and imagination to weave a romance, story, round a person or incident, b to weave facts, incidents &c into a continuous narrative, to arrange, treat, display (facts &c) so as to form (them) into a narrative &c B intrans To practise weaving weave (II), n, fr prec Style of weaving, manner in which threads &c are interlaced to form a fabric weaver, n [1 wēvər, 2 wivə] weave (I) & -or 1 Person habitually engaged in weaving on a loom 2 Member of an ancient Company of the City of London—the Weavers—founded 1130 3 Weaver-bird weaver-bird, n Small finch-like bird constructing a pouch-shaped woven nest weasand See weasand weazen(ed) See wizen(ed) web, n [1 web, 2 web] O.E., M.E. webb, fr wōþja*, gradational variant of base of weave, op O.H.G. weppi, Du web, O.N. wefr, 'web' 1 A Woven fabric, textile formed by interlacing threads on a loom, Phr (fig) a web of intrigue &c, an intricate system, 2 piece of fabric woven in a single length 2 Network of threads spun by spider &c, cobweb 3 Membrane between the digits of aquatic bird, flying animal &c 4 Set of bars on either side of the shaft of a feather, vane 5 Roll of printing paper 6 Thin plate of metal, sometimes perforated, connecting heavier parts of machinery &c webbed, adj [1 webd, 2 webd] Prec & -ed United, having the digits united, by a web water-birds have webbed feet webbing, n [1 webbɪŋ, 2 wébɪŋ] web & -ing 1 A Narrow strip of strong, woven material used in upholstery, saddlery &c, 2 edging of a fine fabric made in stronger material 2 Tapes used to guide web in printing-machine web-eye, n Ophthalmic disease in which the eye becomes covered with a film web-eyed, adj Prec & -ed Affected with web eye web-fingered, adj Having the fingers connected by membranes web-foot, n Foot the toes of which are joined together by membranes, as those of aquatic birds web-footed, adj Prec & -ed Having web-feet web-toed, adj Having the toes joined by membranes web-wheel, n Wheel with disk or plate instead of spokes web-worm, n Larva which spins itself a web as shelter wed, vb trans & intrans [1 wed, 2 wed] O.E. weddian, 'to promise, pledge', M.E. wedden, 'to pledge, to wed', fr O.E. wedd, 'pledge, agreement', op M.H.G. welten, O.N. veþja, Goth. -wadjōn, 'to pledge', O.Fris. wed, O.H.G. weth, Goth. wadi, 'pledge, compact', cogn w. Lat. was, stem wad-, 'pledge', Lith. wadūti, 'to redeem a pledge', op gaga (I) & wagar (I) A trans 1 To take as husband or wife, to marry 2 To join in marriage, perform marriage ceremony over, or for 3 To give in marriage, cause to marry to wed one's daughter to a soldier In senses 1, 2, 3 the word is archaic or rhetorical, though the P.P. as adjective is in common use, see wedded 4 (fig) To unite, join, combine to wed simplicity with art B intrans To take a husband or wife, to be married wedded, adj [1 wédéd, 2 wedíd], fr P.P. of prec 1 A Married, in the state of matrimony the wedded pair, 2 pertaining to, derived from, matrimony wedded bliss 2 (fig) Devoted, firmly attached (to) wedded to one's profession, I am not wedded to that particular plan &c, am not committed to it, do not insist on it wedding, n [1 wédɪŋ, 2 wídɪŋ] wed & -ing A Marriage ceremony, 2 this together with the festivities connected with it, silver wedding, 25th, golden wedding, 50th, diamond wedding, 60th, anniversary of a marriage wedding-breakfast, n Festivity accompanied by a banquet, attended by the principal parties and the guests after a wedding wedding-cake, n Rich cake covered with almond paste and highly ornamented with white sugar and silver decorations, usually cut by the bride at a wedding breakfast, and afterwards distributed in small pieces to friends wedding-day, n A Day upon which a particular wedding is celebrated, 2 anniversary of this wedding-favour, n White rosette worn in honour of wedding wedding-ring, n Ring placed by the bridegroom upon the bride's finger at the time of marriage, and ever afterwards worn by her wedge (I), n [1 wɛdʒ, 2 wɛdʒ] O.E. wecg, M.E. wegge, op O.H.G. weggi, M. Du. wegghe, O.N. vegg, 'wedge', cp further O.H.G. waganso, O.N. wagnsi, 'ploughshare', cogn w. Lat. vomer, O. Prussian wagnis, 'ploughshare', Lith. wagnis, 'wedge' 1 A piece of wood or metal relatively thick at one end, and gradually tapering to a thin edge at the other, used for splitting wood, or for rendering immovable separate parts or objects between which there is too much space, &c, one of the elementary mechanical powers Phr the thin end of the wedge, a slight, unimportant action or event which may have considerable results later, esp an insipient attempt to achieve important results by means which at first are hardly noticeable 2 A wedge-shaped object, e.g. a hunch of cheese, bread &c in this form, 3 a wedge of troops, population &c, body of troops &c disposed in such a form wedge (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To fix, make firm, compress, with a wedge to wedge a door to keep it open (or shut), a window to prevent it from rattling 2 To split, cleave, by means of a wedge 3 Usually wedge oneself in, to squeeze oneself in forcibly through or into narrow space wedge-shaped, adj Having the shape of a wedge wedge-tailed, adj (of bird &c) Having the tail in the shape of a wedge wedgewise, adv [1 wɛdʒɪz, 2 wɛdʒɪz] wedge (I) & -wise In the manner of a wedge Wedgwood, n [1 wɛdʒwud, 2 wɛdʒwud], fr name of inventor, Josiah Wedgwood (1730-1795) Fine earthenware made at the Wedgwood works in Staffordshire

Wedgwood-blue, n Shade of blue typical of some varieties of Wedgwood ware wedlock, n [1 wɛdlɒk, 2 wɛdlɒk] O.E. wedluc, 'wedlock', M.E. wedluc, fr O.E. wedd, 'pledge', see wed, & luc, 'sport, game, movement, gift (to bride &c)', cp O.N. leikr, O.H.G. leich, Goth. laika, 'sport', Goth. laikan, 'to spring, hop, fly', cogn w. Gk. eleizein, 'to shake', Lith. lavgyti, 'to run about wildly', the form of second element may be due to association w. O.E. loc, 'enclosure, settlement' &c The married state, matrimony Phr born in wedlock, of legally married parents

Wednesday, n [1 wɛnzdi, 2 wɛnzdi] O.E. Wōdnesdæg, M.E. Wodenes, Wednesdæg, fr O.E. Wōden, Gmc. god, & day, op O.H.G. Wuotan, O.S. Wōden, O.N. Óðinn, the name is connected w. Goth. wōds, O.E. wōd, 'raging, possessed', op O.E. wōþ, 'voice, song', O.N. ōðr, 'poetry, song', cogn w. Lat. vates, 'prophet, seer', see vaticinate Fourth day of the week Phr Ash Wednesday, first day of Lent wee, adj [1 wɛ, 2 wɛ], fr M.E. wei, M. Scots wē, 'hut', fr O.E. wēga, 'weight, balance', see wey (Scots and province) Very small, tiny, in England chiefly in a wee bit (as adv) a wee bit tedious, i.e. rather, slightly weed (I), n [1 wɛd, 2 wɛd] O.E. wēod, M.E. wēd, 'weed', op O.S. uioð Etymol. unknown 1 A Any plant which grows where it is not wanted, in a garden among cultivated plants, or in a field among crops, esp applied to hardy, rank growing plants which tend to choke those which it is desired to cultivate, Phrs to grow like a weed, to grow rampantly; the soothing weed, tobacco, 2 (slang) a cigar 2 A thin, lanky, badly grown person or animal, one in poor condition.

weed (II), vb trans & intrans O.E. wēodian, 'to weed', see prec A trans 1 To clear (ground) of weeds, to remove weeds from (ground) 2 Weed out, to remove, eliminate (esp weak, undesirable, elements &c) by selective process to weed out useless books from one's library, undesirable persons from a community &c B intrans To perform the act of weeding weeder, n [1 wɛdər, 2 wɛdər] Prec & -ar A person employed to pull up weeds, 2 mechanical device for removing weeds weed-grown, adj Overgrown with weeds weediness, n [1 wɛdɪnəs, 2 wɛdɪnəs] weedy & -ness State of being weedy weeding-fork, n [1 wɛdɪŋ fɔrk, 2 wɛdɪŋ fɔrk] Fork used in removing weeds weedless, adj [1 wɛdləs, 2 wɛdləs] weed (I) & -less Without, free from, weeds weeds, n [1 wɛdz, 2 wɛdz] Pl form, fr O.E. (ge)wæde, M.E. wæde, 'garment', op O.S. wadi, O.H.G. wat, O.N. vād, 'garment', cogn w. Gk. othónē (fr wothónē*), 'linen, fine cloth', Lith. audm, 'to weave' Only in Phr widow's weeds, widow's mourning dress weedy, adj [1 wɛdi, 2 wɛdi] weed (I) & -y 1 Containing, overgrown with, weeds 2 (of persons and animals) Thin, lanky, and weak, badly grown, in poor condition, weakly week, n [1 wɛk, 2 wɛk] O.E. wicce, M.E. wike, 'week', O.H.G. wēcha, O.N. vika, Goth. wikō, 'week', connected w. the base in O.H.G. wēhsal, 'exchange, change', O.N. vizla, 'to exchange', O.E. wice, 'exchange', cogn w. Lat. vicis, 'change, alternation, turn', vicissim, 'in turn', see vicissitude, & op further weak 1 A A period of any seven successive days he came for a week and stayed a month, Phr today week, a week counting backwards or forwards from today, Saturday &c week, a week backwards or forwards from Saturday, 2 specif, a period extending from any Sunday to the following Saturday inclusive this week, next week, Easter Week, that beginning on Easter Sunday, Holy Week, the one immediately preceding Easter 2 (colloq) Period embracing all the working days of the week, that is, the whole week with the exception of Sunday he spends the week in town, but is at home on Sundays week-day, n 1 Any day of the week with the exception of Sunday 2 (attrib) Occurring on, pertaining to, a week-day week day services week-end, n & vb intrans 1 n Period usually from part of Friday, or from Saturday, to Monday morning to have one's week-ends free 2 vb To spend a week end (usually in specified place) weekly (I), adj & n [1 wɛkli, 2 wɛkli] week & -ly 1 adj A Performed, due, occurring, appearing, regularly every week weekly wages, weekly publication, 2 performed during the week weekly work 2 n Weekly newspaper or other periodical weekly (II), adv week & -ly Once a week, every week wages paid, a room cleaned weekly ween, vb trans [1 wɛn, 2 wɛn] O.E. wēnan, 'to hope, expect, to think, have an opinion', M.E. wēnen, 'to hope, suppose', op O.Fris. wēna, op O.H.G. wānan, O.S. wānan, O.N. wēna, Goth. wēnan, 'to expect, suppose', cp also the ns O.E. wēn, 'hope, expectation, belief', Goth. wēns, O.H.G. wān, cogn w. Lat. venus, 'charm, love', see Venus, Sert. ianis, 'deare, wish', cp also winsome, wish (archaic) A To think, behave, be of opinion, to trow 'they weerd she was escaped away' (Spenser, 'F. Q.' v 2 25), 2 to hope, expect 'by force or fraud Weening to prosper' (Milton, 'P. L.' vi 794-5) weep, vb intrans & trans [1 wɛp, 2 wɛp] O.E. wēpan, M.E. wēpen, 'to weep, bewail', O.H.G. wuofan, O.Fris. wēpa, O.N. ēpa, Goth. wēpan, 'to weep, cry out', fr wōþ-* jan, op OE, OS wēp, ON ǣp, 'lamentation', cogn w O Slav vabiti, 'to admonish, call up', op, w different formative suff, Lat vāgare, 'to wander', Gk akkhē, 'a cry', for waugh-*, ēkhēin, 'sound, echo', for weh-*, see echo A intrans 1 a To shed tears, cry, b weep for, to lament, bewail to weep for one's sins 2 To exude moisture &c, to be covered with condensed moisture 3 (of trees) To droop gracefully, to have pendant boughs B trans 1 To shed to weep bitter tears 2 To show, exude, drip (moisture), give out (moisture) in drops 3 To shed tears for, to lament, bewail to weep one's sad fate weeper, n [1 wēpər, 2 wipə] weep & -er 1 One who weeps or mourns, esp a hired mourner, or undertaker's assistant, at a funeral 2 Garment &c as symbol of mourning, specif a hat band or scarf of black crape, b widow's crape veil, c (pl) widow's white onffs weeping (I), adj [1 wēping, 2 wipɪŋ] fr Pres Part of weep 1 Dripping, exuding, or giving off moisture, weeping eczema, characterized by moist exudation, weeping pipe, designed to drip slowly 2 (of trees) Having the branches bent downwards, curving, drooping towards the ground weeping ash, willow &c weeping (II), vbl n, fr weep & -ing Act of one who weeps, lamentation, wailing weeping-gas, n Tear gas weepingly, adv [1 wēpingli, 2 wipɪŋli] weeping (I) & -ly Tearfully weet, vb trans & intrans [1 wēt, 2 wit] ME wēten, 'to know', variant of wit (I) (archaic) 'To know, perceive, recognize' he had her weat's feet, And hild her lily hands with fawning long, As he her wronged innocence did weet (Spenser, 'F Q' 1 3 6) weever, n [1 wēvər, 2 wivə] O Fr wivre, 'wyvern, weever', see wivern Genus of fishes with very sharp, poisonous dorsal spines weevil, n [1 wēv(ə)l, 2 wiv(ə)l] OE wēfol, -al, ME wēvel, weevil, op OS wīwī, OHG wībī, 'weevil', fr base of weave One of various small beetles with elongated snouts which feed upon plants, grain, fruit, cork &c, often in compounds, boll, corn, rice weevil &c weevilled, adj [1 wēv(ə)ld, 2 wiv(ə)ld] Prec & -ed Damaged, infested, by weevils weevil(ly), adj [1 wēv(ə)l, 2 wiv(ə)l] weevil & -y Infested by weevils weft, n [1 wēft, 2 wɛft] OE wēft, fr base of wefan, 'to weave', see weave, & n enff 1 a Threads interwoven with warp, q v, b (loosely) thing woven web weigh (I), vb trans & intrans [1 wā, 2 wēi] OE wegan, 'to carry, move', ME wēien, 'to bear, to weigh', op OHG wegan, ON vega, Goth (ga)wigan, 'to move, carry', cogn w Lat vehere, 'to carry, bring, drive', see vehicle, Gk ōkhos, 'cart', Sort vahati, 'drives, carries', op also wāin, way A trans 1 To test, ascertain, weight of by means of scales or balances 2 To turn over in the mind, to ponder, consider critically, to form an estimate of, to compare and contrast so as to ascertain relative value of to weigh a proposal, to weigh the advantages and disadvantages Phr to weigh one's words, choose them carefully 3 Weigh anchor, (u) raise it from water, hence, (u) to start on a voyage B intrans 1 To have a specified weight it weighs little, heavily &c, how much do you weigh?, it weighs a ton 2 To have moral or logical weight and importance, to count for something, to exert moral or intellectual influence personal considerations ought not to weigh at all in the matter C Followed by adverb or preposition with special meanings Weigh down, trans, a to press down, bend down the fruit is so thick that it weighs down the branches, b to cause depression of mind, to oppress weighed down by grief Weigh in, intrans, (specif of jockey) to be weighed, in order to prove that weight is up to stipulated amount, Phr to weigh in with, to bring (fact, argument &c) to bear on discussion Weigh out, 1 trans, to measure out, divide, take portions of, by weight to weigh out rations, materials for a cake &c, 2 intrans, (of jockey) to be weighed after a race Weigh upon, trans, to be burdensome to, to afflict, be oppressive the matter weighed upon his conscience Weigh with, trans, to affect the judgement of, have moral or intellectual influence upon what weighs with me most in deciding to oppose the measure is the impossibility of carrying out its provisions, selfish interests don't weigh with him at all weigh (II), n, fr prec Act or process of weighing Phr under weigh, variant of under way, see way weighable, adj [1 wānəbəl, 2 wēiəbəl] weigh (I) & -able Capable of being weighed weighage n [1 wāɪ, 2 wēɪdʒ] weigh (I) & -age fee paid for weighing of goods weigh-beam, n Steelyard hung in a frame weigh-bridge, n Instrument for weighing carts &c and their loads weigh-house, n Building for official weighing of goods weighing-machine, n [1 wāɪŋ məʃɪn, 2 wēɪŋ məʃɪn] Instrument for determining weight of person, heavy objects &c weigh-lock, n Canal lock with apparatus for weighing vessels weight (I), n [1 wāɪt, 2 wēɪt] ME weht, new formation fr weigh The OE form was (ge)wīht, ME wiht 1 The property which makes bodies tend to move towards the centre of the earth by virtue of gravity, the degree of this tendency being in proportion to the mass of the body, the property of being heavy vapours and gases appear to have hardly any weight 2 A specific amount of heaviness, actual relative amount which body weighs as shown by a balance a full grown man has a weight of ten stone upwards, b weight considered as a burden, an oppressive degree of heaviness in ancient times horses often sank beneath the weight of a rider in full armour

3 Event, circumstances, material or non-material conditions which are burdensome and oppressive, something which weighs upon and oppresses the mind, or cripples action &c, a burden the weight of public responsibility, a weight of care, sorrow &c Phr that is a great weight off my mind, a relief from anxiety, responsibility, and the like 4 A intellectual or moral influence and importance, value, significance a man of weight in council, an argument of great weight, b preponderating fact, circumstance, argument, which exerts influence, supplies a motive for action, determines a decision, and so forth considerations of self interest had no weight with him 5 Mode of weighing, particular system or standard by which weight is ascertained avoids upon, apothecary's, weight 6 A heavy mass, name of various objects, a one of a series of lumps or disks of metal used as standards in ascertaining the weight of a body on a balance, b (i) mass of metal, or other heavy substance, used to press down, and keep in place, light objects, esp paper weight, (u) heavy mass of metal suspended from a wheel in a large clock, which serves gradually to unwind a spring and keep the machinery in motion weight (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 a To add weight to, make heavy, to load a stick weighted with lead, weight down, to fasten down with a weight, b to burden, overload, oppress weighted with a rifle and heavy uniform 2 To adulterate, load (fabric &c), with a foreign, esp a mineral, substance weightily, adv [1 wāɪtli, 2 wēɪtli] weighty & -ly In a weighty manner, (esp hg) with moral weight and importance weightiness, n [1 wāɪtnəs, 2 wēɪtnəs] See prec & -ness Quality of being weighty (in material and non material senses) weightless, adj [1 wāɪtləs, 2 wēɪtləs] weight (I) & -less With little or no weight, light weighty, adj [1 wāɪt, 2 wēɪt] weight (I)

& -y 1 Heavy, of considerable weight a package too weighty for the post 2 a (of persons) Exhibiting moral or intellectual power, wielding influence a weighty speaker, b cogent, convincing a weighty argument, utterance, reason 3 Important, full of significance, momentous weighty matters of state weir, wear, n [1 wēr, 2 wɪə] OE wer, ME wēre, 'weir, dam, pond', op OE werian, 'to defend, to dam up (a pool)', op Mod Germ wehr, 'defence', Goth warjan, 'to defend', cogn w Sort varilar, 'protector', Gk erusthas for wet*, 'to save, preserve'

1 Dam constructed to raise level of part of stream or to hinder or divert flow of water

2 Structure of stakes or wattles erected in a stream as fish trap weird (I), n [1 wērd, 2 wɪəd] OE werd, ME werd, werd, 'fate', op OHG w(u)rt, OS ward, 'fate', fr stem seen in OE weorðan, 'to become', see worth (III) (archaic or provincial) Fate, destiny, op Scots Phr to draw one's weird, work out, undergo, one's destiny weird (II), adj, fr prec 1 Connected with, pertaining to, fate, esp the weird sisters, the Fates 2 Supernatural, uncanny, eerie

3 (slang) Strange, odd, queer ultra fashionable dress sometimes gives people rather a weird appearance weirdly, adv Prec & -ly In a weird manner weirdness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being weird Weismannism, n [1 wāsmənɪzəm, 2 wāsmənɪzəm] fr its proponent, August Weismann (1834-1914) A theory of heredity in which the germ-plasm is regarded as the basis, the possibility of the transmission of acquired characters being denied

Welch (I), adj & n [1 welsh, 2 welʃ] Variant of Welsh (I), used in name of the Welch Regiment, and the Royal Welch Fusiliers welch (II), vb Variant of welsh (II) welcome (I), adj [1 wélkəm, 2 wélkəm] fr ON welkum, 'welcome', see well (III) The OE is wilcuma, 'welcome guest', lit 'one who comes in accordance with one's will or desire', see will (I), ME has both the Engl wilcums & the Scand welcume 1 (of person) Received with pleasure into one's presence, society &c, giving pleasure by one's presence, visit, companionship &c a welcome guest &c Phr to make (a person) welcome, exhibit, express, satisfaction at his arrival, presence &c 2 Welcome to, a free, having full permission, to the use or enjoyment of you are welcome to any book in my library, also b (followed by infin) free, having permission to do something, go somewhere &c you are quite welcome to come and go as you please, o (iron) you are welcome to your own opinion, to any opinion you like, to go to the devil your own way—it is a matter of indifference to me 3 (of events, circumstances &c) Affording pleasure by occurrence, greeted with satisfaction, opportune a welcome relief from pain, a holiday is very welcome after a long spell of work, financial help would be very welcome 4 In elliptical construction welcome, little stranger!, welcome home again!, o you are welcome welcome (II), n, fr prec Act of welcoming, expression, by word or deed, of satisfaction and pleasure at a person's arrival, presence, companionship &c to receive a hearty, a cold, welcome welcome (III), vb trans, fr welcome (I) 1 To give a welcome to, to express gratification at arrival or presence of I welcome you to my house, the king was enthusiastically welcomed by the large crowds 2 a To feel and express satisfaction at an action, utterance, event &c I shall welcome the coming of warm weather, we welcome the Prime Minister's assurances, b to accept, receive, with satisfaction I welcome your help, your criticism, the suggestion &c welcomeness, n [1 wélkumnes, 2 wélkumnis] welcome (I) & -ness (rare) Quality of being welcome weld (I), n [1 weld, 2 weld] M E welde, perh. connected w O E wald, 'forest', see wold, & op lutecus Annual herb yielding a yellow dye, dyer's weed weld (II), vb trans & intrans, fr M E wellen, 'to boil, bubble up, to melt, weld', see well (II) A trans 1 To unite (pieces or masses of metal heated to a plastic condition) by hammering or pressure 2 (of non-material action) To unite, to join into a compact whole the incidents are welded into an interesting narrative, to weld the different elements of a party together B intrans (of metal) To undergo, be in a suitable condition for, welding different metals weld at different temperatures weld (III), n, fr preo Joint formed by welding weldability, n [1 wéldabilitá, 2 wéldabiliti] See next word & -ity State or quality of being weldable weldable, adj [1 wéldabl, 2 wéldabl] weld (I) & -able Capable of being welded welfare, n [1 wélfár, 2 wélfes] well (III) & fare (III) Well-being, prosperity, state of bodily or spiritual health, of satisfactory progress &c Phr welfare work, organized effort to improve or preserve the physical and general well-being of shop employees, factory workers &c welk, vb trans & intrans [1 welk, 2 welk] M E welken, op M Du welken, OH G welchen, 'to fade, decay, rot', OH G welch(h), 'moist', cogn w O Slav vlaga, 'moisture', vlagiku, 'moist', Lett welgana, 'damp', op gauche (archaic) To wither, fade, shrivel, shrink Used by Spenser both trans 'But now and Winter welked hath the day' ('Shep Cal', Nov), and intrans 'By that, this welked Phoebeus gan awake, His weary wains' ('Shep Cal', Jan) welkan, n [1 wélkan, 2 wélkan] O E wolcen, M E wolken, welken, 'cloud', op OS, OH G wolcan, 'cloud', perh fr the same base as walk. (poet) Sky, vault of heaven, otherwise now current chiefly in Phr to make the welkin ring (with shouting &c) well (I), n [1 wel; 2 well] O E, M E wella, 'spring, fountain', op OH G wella, 'wave', ON wella, 'torrent', op further OE wellen, 'to boil, bubble up, well up, flow', wellan, 'to boil', O Frs walla, OH G uallan, 'to holl', cogn w Goth wahyan, walgan, OH G walzan, 'to revolve', Lat volvere, 'to turn, roll, revolve', see volute & words there referred to 1 A shaft, usually cylindrical and lined with brick, stone &c, sunk in the ground to collect water from a subterranean source, b a boring from which oil gushes 2 Natural spring, (in Place-Names &c) e.g. Chadwell (Essex), i.e. OE ceald well 3 (fig) Source of supply, fount 'that renowned Poet'. Dan Chaucer, well of English undefyled, On Fames eternall beadrill worthie to be fyled (Spenser, 'F Q' iv 2 32) 4 Any of various enclosed spaces, more or less deep, and supposed to resemble a well, a relatively narrow shaft in a building formed by enclosing an area or court by the walls of surrounding buildings, b open space from ground-floor to the top of a house in which a staircase is placed, c enclosed chamber in the hold of a ship or fishing-boat, d hollowed-out depression in a desk made to contain an ink pot 5 Speelf, the well of the court, space in front of the judge's seat in law court, usually occupied by solicitors well (II), vb intrans O E wellan, 'to holl, bubble up', see prec To spring, gush, start, from, or as from, a spring or well streams well from the ground, blood wells from a wound, tears well from the eyes &c, also well up, forth well (III), adv O E & M E wel, 'well, in a great degree, very, fully', OS wel, OH G wela, Goth wala, ON vel, fr same base as will (II), orig sense being 'according to one's desire' 1 In a pleasing, desirable, satisfactory manner to dine well, to sleep well Phr to live well, to oneself well, to fare sumptuously, to stand well with, be in good graces of 2 Skilfully, in a proper manner to play and sing well, to speak well, to do a thing well 3 In a becoming, seemly manner, suitably, with propriety to behave well, to treat a person well, his modesty became him well, b in a manner suitable to the occasion, in a way suitable under the circumstances you may quite well plead illness as an excuse, you can't very well pretend you didn't hear 4 a (1) To the full extent, fully, thoroughly a stone well and truly laid, he had to abandon his journey before it was well begun, he ought to be well beaten, shake the bottle well, (u) (archaic, before numbers) fully, quite 'At night was come into that hostelrys Wel nyne and twenty in a company' (Chaucer, Prolog 'C T' 24), b to a considerable degree, extent well on in years, lean well back, I am well forward with my work, I should like very well to come 5 As well, in addition, besides I'll have some meat and some pudding as well 6 In various idiomatic Phrs, sometimes with force of an interjection a it's all very well, expressing ironic disagreement with, protest against, doubt concerning, something which has been said or done it's all very well to say that you are sorry, but, b expressing expectation well, what next? tell me all about it, c expressing acquiescence, submission to the inevitable well, well, I suppose there's nothing more to be said, d (just) as well, with equal advantage, reason, justification &c, without prejudice or injury, harm &c you might just as well make a clean breast of it, one might as well throw money away as expend it in betting, as well be hung for a sheep as a lamb, e in beginning or resuming a narrative well, it was like this, well, as I was saying &c, f expressing comprehension of, or agreement with, what has been, and indicating that a stage or phase has been disposed of, and that it is time for the next very well (then), now go on, very well, in that case I shall refuse absolutely

well (IV), adj, fr preo (only in pred use) 1 In good health, physically strong, contrasted with ill to be, to look, to feel, well, I hope you are pretty well, I'm not very well today, you can't work when you are not well 2 Suitable, advisable, satisfactory it were, would have been, well for him if &c, it would be as well to ask permission 3 In a satisfactory state, favourable, propitious, comfortable all is not well with him, we are very well where we are, past midnight and all well Phr well enough, tolerable, fairly good or satisfactory the rooms are well enough, but we don't like the landlady well (V), n, fr preo That which is good, satisfactory, or to be desired let well alone, don't interfere with a satisfactory state of affairs welladay, interj [1 wéládá, 2 wéládér] Variant of wellaway well-advised, adj Prudent, judicious, considered a well-advised step, action &c well-appointed, adj [1 wél apóinted, 2 wél apóintid] Having good, adequate, well-chosen appointments, equipment &c a well-appointed house, expedition &c wellaway, interj [1 wéláwé, 2 wéláwéi] O E wáls wá, see woe, lo (archaic) Exclamation of grief, lamentation, equivalent to alack a day

well-balanced, adj [1 wél bálanst, 2 wél bálenst] (chiefly used of the mind) Same, steady, judicious well-behaved, adj [1 wél behávd, 2 wél bihévd] Having good manners, behaving well

well-being, n. a Bodily comfort a sense of physical well-being, b prosperity, progress, sound moral or social conditions the well-being of the community at large well-born, adj Of good, noble, or distinguished family well-bred, adj Having, exhibiting, good breeding, of good family and polite manners well-chosen, adj Chosen with judgement; apt, suitable to the occasion, appropriate; well chosen words &c well-conditioned, adj a In sound bodily condition, b having good manners and behaviour

well-conducted, adj [1 wél kunduktet, 2 wél kendaktid] Of good, orderly, behaviour, behaving in a moral manner well-connected, adj [1 wél kunéktet, 2 wél kanéktid] Having high family connexions, related to people of distinction and good standing

well-cooked, adj [1 wél kookt, 2 wél kukt] a Skilfully cooked and served, b thoroughly cooked, well done well-deck, n Space on deck surrounded by upper decks

well-directed, adj [1 wél diréktet, 2 wél diréktid] Accurately or skilfully placed or aimed a well-directed blow, carefully prepared, and applied in a suitable direction well directed effort well-dish, n Meat dish with depression at one end to catch gravy well-disposed, adj [1 wél dispózd, 2 wél dispózd] a Having friendly and kindly disposition and feelings towards one's fellow-men, b favourably inclined towards specific persons, ideas, schemes &c well-doer, n Person who performs moral obligations well-doing, n. Virtuous conduct; good actions well-done, adj Thoroughly cooked, contrasted with underdone well-favoured, adj Having a good, pre-possessing appearance, comely, handsome well-found, adj Adequately and suitably equipped well-founded, adj [1 wél foundet, 2 wél faundet] Based on facts well founded suspicions &c

well-graced, adj [1 wél grást, 2 wél gréist] Attractive, having many good qualities well-grounded, adj 1 Adequately trained in the elements of a subject 2 Well-founded well-head, n. a Source of a spring or fountain, b a coping of stone, lead &c, sometimes of ornamental form, surrounding the head of a well

well-hole, n. Central, well like shaft in building, surrounded by walls, stairs &c well-informed, adj Having extensive knowledge

Wellingtonia, n [1 wélíngtónia, 2 wélíng-tónias] Named after 1st Duke of Wellington & -ia Genus of large Californian pines, sequoia

Wellingtons, n pl [1 wélíngtúnz, 2 wélíngtúnz], fr 1st Duke of Wellington Also Wellington boots, boots reaching up to the knees well-intentioned, adj Well-meaning, desiring to do the right thing, well meant, springing from good motives well-judged, adj [1 wél júd, 2 wél džádzid] Judicious, appropriate, timely a well-judged reply, action, blow &c well-knit, adj Firmly jointed, compact, powerful, sinewy a well knit frame, figure &c well-liking, adj In good condition, having prosperous appearance well-looking, adj Handsome, comely well-made, adj a Speelf (of body &c) well-proportioned, strongly knit, b (of handiwork) skilfully shaped, fitted, put together well-mannered, adj Possessing good manners, polite, well bred well-marked, adj Possessing characteristic features, distinct, definite, unmistakable well-marked differences well-meaning, adj Having good intentions.

well-meant, adj [1 wél mént, 2 wél mént] Done, said &c with good intention well-nigh, adv [1 wél nī, 2 wél nī] Very nearly well-off, adj [1 wél ɔf, 2 wél ɔf] (chiefly pred) a Possessing ample financial resources, wealthy, well to do, b fortunate, advantageously situated, c well off for, well supplied with, possessing abundance of well-oiled, adj [1 wél ɔild, 2 wél ɔild] (fig) a Flattering, intended to cajole, b (slang) having drunk quite as much as is good for one, mellow, slightly tipsy well-ordered, adj [1 wél ɔrdəd, 2 wél ɔrdəd] Well arranged or organized well-padded, adj a (of furniture &c) Thoroughly provided with padding, cushioned &c, b (of persons, facet) plump, stoutish, cushiony well-pleasing, adj (archaic) Highly agreeable well-proportioned, adj Exhibiting due, symmetrical proportions well-read, adj a Possessing extensive reading and information, well acquainted with literature a well read person, b well read in, possessing deep knowledge of, well trained and instructed in (some specific branch of learning) well-reputed, adj Of good repute well-room, n Building where water from mineral spring is served out well-rounded, adj [1 wél raundəd, 2 wél raundəd] a (of the person) Plump, portly, chubby, b (of style, sentence &c) well and elegantly proportioned, gracefully balanced and finished off well-seeming, adj Apparently satisfactory well-seen, adj (slightly archaic) Versed, accomplished, in some specified branch of learning well-set, adj (esp of body) Firmly knit, strong, and alsewy well-sinker, n Person employed in making wells well-spoken, adj Having a pleasing address and manner of speech, specif a having a cultivated pronunciation; speaking like an educated person, b speaking with courtesy and urbanity well-spring, n Source of a spring, well-head well-timed, adj [1 wél tīmd, 2 wél tīmd] Performed, executed, said &c at an appropriate or opportune moment well-to-do, adj [1 wél tədɔ, 2 wél tədɔ] In prosperous financial circumstances, wealthy, well off, also as collective n, the well to do, the richer classes, contrasted with the poor, the needy well-trodden, adj a Often traversed, beaten down by the foot of many passers by, b (fig) often explored, worked at, elaborated, before, therefore hackneyed, lacking freshness well-turned, adj (of compliment, phrase &c) Turned, expressed, with grace well-wisher, n [1 wél wīʃər, 2 wél wīʃər] Person who is kindly disposed to another or to a cause &c well-worn, adj (fig) Hackneyed, common place, stale

Welsh (I), adj & n [1 welʃ, 2 welʃ] OE welsc, 'foreign', ME wel(s)ch, fr u(s)alh, 'foreigner', esp applied to a Celt inhabitant of Britain, &-ish, op ON Folker, OHG Walha 1 adj Of, pertaining to, Wales, its people or its language, Welsh mutton, meat of small, Welsh breed of sheep 2 n a The Welsh, the people of Wales, b Welsh, language of Wales

Welsh, welch (II), vb intrans & trans Etymol. unknown 1 intrans (of book-maker &c) To abscond with stake money without paying winners of bets 2 trans To cheat (winner of bet) by absconding with money staked

Welshman, Welshwoman, ns [1 wélʃmən, wómən, 2 wélʃmən, wómən] Welsh (I) & man, woman Male, female, native of Wales welsh rabbit, incorrectly rarebit, n. Toasted cheese welt (I), n [1 welt, 2 welt] ME welte, op OE u(s)eltan, wailan, 'to roll', see wolter (I) 1 Leather strip stitched into shoe to strengthen join between sole and upper 2 Piece of ribbed knitting finishing top of sock &c 3 Inflamed stripe raised on skin by blow, welt, weal welt (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To furnish (shoe &c) with a welt 2 a To raise welts on (skin), b (colloq) to strike, thrash wolter (I), vb intrans & n [1 wólter, 2 wólter], fr OE u(s)eltan, 'to roll, turn, overturn', ME welten, 'to overturn', &-er Cp ON telja, MHG welken, 'to turn, revolve', see waltz, Goth waltjan, 'to roll'; cogn. w Lat tolter, 'to turn, roll', see volute, op also woll (I), wallow (I) 1 vb To wallow, roll, tumble, about, be rolled in wallowing in gore. 2 n Surging, tumult, confusion, disorderly mass (in material and non material senses) the welter of the waves, of a crowd, a welter of confused ideas wolter (II), n. Etymol. doubtful, perh fr welt (II), 2, &-er (boxing, racing &c) Heavy weight, chiefly in compounds welter-race, welter weight &c wen (I), n [1 wen, 2 wen] OE, ME wenn, op Du wen, MLG wenn, 'stymol doubtful. Indolent tumour on surface of body, esp one on the scalp or neck Phr The Great Wen, London, so called by Cobbett wen (II), n OE wenna, SE variant of wynna, 'joy', see winsome, used on account of its initial letter, this letter was also called wén, 'hope, expectation', op thorn The old English letter þ = w wench, n [1 wench, 2 wench] ME wenche (I), 'child'; fr OE wenche, n 'child', adj 'weak'; op OE wancol, 'feeble', OHG wanchal, 'tottering', wanklōn, 'to totter', ON wakla, 'to be unsteady', cogn w Sert waggat, 'limps', Lat wagari, 'to wander', see vagary Prob cogn w wince 1 (archaic or facetious) A girl, young woman, esp servant, country girl 2 (archaic) Prostitute wend (I), vb trans & intrans [1 wend, 2 wend] OE wendan, ME wenden, 'to turn, go', fr gradational type wand-*, as seen in Pret of OE wendan, see wind (IV), & went 1 trans To turn, direct, proceed on, only in Phr to wend one's way 2 intrans. (archaic) To go, betake oneself

Wend (II), n, fr Germ Wende Member of a Slavonic race living in parts of Northern and Eastern Germany

Wendic, adj [1 wéndik, 2 wéndik] Prec &-ic Of, pertaining to, the Wends or their language

Wendish, adj & n [1 wéndish, 2 wéndish] See prec &-ish 1 adj Of, pertaining to, the Wends 2 n The language of the Wends

Wenlock, adj [1 wénlɔk, 2 wénlɔk] Shropshire Place Name (geol) Pertaining to the middle division of the Silurian system of rock

Wensleydale, n [1 wénzldəl, 2 wénzldəl] Yorkshire Place Name Kind of cheese went, vb [1 went, 2 went] Pret of wend (I), now used as Pret of go wentletrap, n [1 wéntlɔp, 2 wéntlɔp], fr Dn wenteltrap, earlier 'spiral staircase', fr wentel, 'turning', fr stem of wenden, 'to turn', q v under wind (III), & trap, 'stair, step' Univale shellfish with spiral shell wept, vb [1 wept, 2 wept] Pret & PP of weep were, vb [1 wár, wer, 2 waz, wə] Pret pl of be OE wæron, ME wēren, op OHG warun, fr earlier waz*, fr a gradational variant of the base wer*, seen in was werewolf, werwolf, n [1 wérwoolf, 2 wérwoolf] OE werewulf, fr wer, 'man', op Goth walr, OHG wer, ON verr, 'man', cogn. w Lat vir, 'man', see virile, & wulf, see wolf (folklore) Person who assumed voluntarily or involuntarily the shape of a wolf, either permanently or periodically wert, vb [1 wért, 2 wít] (archaic) 2nd pers. sing. Pret of be, cp were & was

Wertherism, n [1 wérterizm, 2 wérterizm], fr Werther, hero of Goethe's novel, 'Das Leiden des jungen Werthers', 1774 Extravagant, morbid, and slokly sentimentality

Wesleyan, adj & n [1 wézlən, wézlən, 2 wézlən, wézlən] (pronounced [1 wís, 2 wís] by members of the body), fr name of founder, John Wesley, d 1791 1 adj Of, pertaining to, John Wesley, or the body of Methodist dissenters named after him 2 n Member of this body

Wesleyanism, n [1 wézlənizm, 2 wézlənizm] Prec &-ism Method, doctrine, of the Wesleyans, or of their founder, John Wesley west (I), adv [1 west, 2 west] OE, ME west, op Dn, Germ west, 'west', prob orig. of the setting sun, & fr stem ue-*, 'down', op Srt awad, 'down', awadil, 'below', op also Lat vesper, 'evening', see typer, Gk hesperos, 'evening', see Hesperian Towards, in the direction of, the setting sun, in or towards the region faced by person observing the setting sun at the equinox from the line of the equator to look face, go, sail, west, Phr to go west, to die, to sail due west, exactly towards W point of compass. Phr west of, farther west than.

west (II), adj, fr prec 1 Of, pertaining to, situated in, facing, the west a west window, room, &c, west end (of church), end, part, opposite to the altar, west country, southwestern and south west midland part of England 2 (of wind) Blowing from the west west (III), n, fr prec 1 a One of the cardinal points of the compass, opposite to east, b region of earth, sky &c lying in this direction 2 Western part of continent, country, county &c, specif a Western Europe, Occident, Phr the Empire of the West, Western Empire (see western), b West of England, c Western United States, west of Alleghany mountains, or including prairie and Pacific states west-country, n & adj 1 n South-western and south west midland England 2 adj Of, pertaining to, the west-country west-countryman, -woman, n Native of west country

West End, n A somewhat loose term applied to the district of London in which are the residences of fashionable society, higher class shops, hotels, theatres &c, roughly including the area from Trafalgar Square to Hyde Park, also, by transf, the society living in this district

West-end, adj Of, pertaining to, the West End of London westering, adj [1 wéstering, 2 wéstering], fr obs wester, fr ME westeren, 'to go west', fr west (I) Turning, tending, towards the west westerly, adj & adv [1 wéstərli, 2 wéstəlɪ], fr west on anal of easterly 1 adj a Of, pertaining to, the west, western, b directed, proceeding, towards the west a westerly course, c (of wind) coming from the west 2 adv Towards the west western (I), adj [1 wéstərən, 2 wéstən] west &-ern 1 Of, pertaining to, situated in, coming from, characteristic of, the west Phrs Western Church, Papal branch of the Catholic Church, Western Empire, western part, including Rome, of the Roman Empire as divided by Theodosius in 395 2 (of wind) Blowing from the west, westerly western (II), n, fr prec Native of the west, westerner westerner, n [1 wéstərən, 2 wéstən] western (I) &-er Native of the west, esp of the Western United States westernize, vb trans [1 wéstərniz, 2 wéstənaiz] western (I) &-ize To introduce western civilization into (esp Oriental countries, races &c) westernmost, adj [1 wésternmōst, 2 wésternmōst] western (I) & -most Farthest towards the west

West Indian, adj West Indies & -ian Of, pertaining to, coming from, the West Indies westing, n [1 wésting, 2 wésting] west (I) & -ing Distance traversed by, movement of, ship in westerly direction

Westminster, n [1 wéstminster, 2 wéstminster] 1 District of London 2 Westminster Abbey 3 The Houses of Parliament, (also fig) parliamentary politics &c 4 a Westminster School, a member of this school, old Westminster, former pupil of the school west-north-west, adj, adv, & n [1 wést nór(th) wést, 2 wést nór(th) wést] (In or towards) direction or point midway between W & N W west-south-west, adj, adv, & n [1 wést sòu(th) wést, 2 wést sòu(th) wést] (In or towards) direction or point midway between W & S W westward, adj, adv, & n [1 wéstward, 2 wéstward] west (I) & -ward 1. ly Tending towards, lying towards, the west 2 adv Towards the west 3 n Westward region or direction westwards, adv [1 wéstwardz, 2 wéstwardz] west (I) & -wards Towards the west wet (I), adj [1 wét, 2 wét] OE wēte, ME wēte, 'wet', op O Frs wet, ON vetr, 'wet', cogn w water 1 Covered, saturated, dripping, or moistened with liquid wet clothes, cheeks, umbrellas, wood, leaves &c, the grass is wet with dew Phrs a wet bargain, one obtained and celebrated by drinks, wet blanket, see blanket, wet bob (Etymology), see bob (VI), wet pack, medical treatment of patient by wrapping him in wet sheets covered with dry blankets, wet through, wet to the skin, with one's clothes soaked 2 Characterized by constant or abundant rain a wet day, season, month, wet weather 3 (Am slang) Not prohibiting the sale of alcoholic liquor a wet skate, one in which such liquor is obtainable, contrasted with dry wet (II), n, fr preo 1 Liquid, wet substance, moisture 2 (vulg slang) A drink 3 (USA) An anti Prohibitionist wet (III), vb trans OE wētan, ME wēten, 'to wet, moisten', fr wet (I) To apply liquid to, sprinkle, cover, saturate, with liquid Phr to wet one's whistle, drink wet-bulb thermometer, n Thermometer with bulb kept moist and used in conjunction with a dry-bulb thermometer in a hygrometer wet dock, n Dock filled with water wether, n [1 wédher, 2 wéde] OE, ME wēder, 'sheep, lamb', op Germ widder, ON veðr, Goth wiprus, 'lamb', cogn w Sort vatsa 'calf, yearling', vatsara, 'year', Lth vetus, 'old', Lat vitulus, 'calf', org, 'yearling', vetus, 'old', see veteran, vitular Castrated ram wetness, n [1 wétnes, 2 wétne] wet (I) & -ness State or condition of being wet wet-nurse, n & vh trans 1 n Woman who suckles another's child 2 vh To act as wet nurse to wet-plate, n Photographic plate treated with collodion and exposed while still wet from sensitizing bath wetting, n [1 wétung, 2 wétung] wet (III) & -ing State of being, process of becoming or being made, wet wettish, adj [1 wétish, 2 wétish] wet (I) & -ish Fairly wet wey, n [1 wē, 2 wē] OE wēge, ME wēge, 'weight, weighing-machine, wey', op ON væg, OHG wāga, 'scales', op further OE wegan, 'to carry, move', & see weigh Unit of weight varying in amount with different substances, usually 182 lb (of wool) whack (I), vb trans & intrans [1 wak, 2 wak] Imitative 1 trans To strike, slap, sharply and with audible sound 2 intrans To give sharp, resounding blows whack (II), n, fr preo 1 Sharp, audible blow with stick &c 2 (slang) Allotted, antable, or adequate portion, due share whacker, n [1 wāker, 2 wāke] whack (I) & -er (slang) A Unusually large person or thing, a hale whacking (I), n [1 wāking, 2 wāking] whack (I) & -ing Act of striking with stick &c, a beating whacking (II), adj, fr Pres Part of whack (I) (slang) Tremendous, thundering a whacking lie, as adv, a whacking big horse whale (I), n [1 wāl, 2 wēl] OE hwal, ME whal, whāle, op ON hvalr, OHG wal, 'whale', cogn w Lat squalus, 'large fish', perh cogn w Gk aspalos, 'fish', Gk skutlon, 'dog fish' Large, fish-like, warm-blooded aquatic mammal, order Cetacea, with short, broad, flattened fore limbs, hunted for its oil, whalebone, spermaceti &c Phrs (colloq) very like a whale, expressing ironical agreement with an incredible statement or promise, he's a regular whale for work &c, a very diligent, laborious worker, a whale at tennis, very good at it whale (II), vb intrans To engage in whaling whale-back, n Type of boat with rounded covering on deck, for use in rough seas whale-boat, n A Boat employed in whaling, b ship's boat resembling this whalebone, n [1 wālbōn, 2 wēlbōn] Thin, horny, flexible substance found in a series of plates in the upper jaw of some varieties of whale, used for light framework, for stiffening fabric &c whale-calf, n Young whale whale-fin, n (commerce) Whalebone whale-fishery, n 1 Business of catching whales, whaling 2 Part of sea or coast where whaling is carried on whale-head, n Central African bird of heron family with broad, hooked beak whale-line, n Stout rope used for harpoons in whaling whaleman, n [1 wāلمان, 2 wēلمان] Man employed in whaling whale-oil, n Oil obtained from whale's blubber whaler, n [1 wāler, 2 wēler] whale (II) & -er 1 Ship engaged in whale fishery 2 Man employed in whaling whaling, n [1 wāling, 2 wēling] whale (II) & -ing The pursuit and killing of whales whaling-gun, n Apparatus for discharging harpoon &c at whale whaling-master, n Captain of whaler whang (I), vb trans & intrans [1 wang, 2 wəŋ] Imitative 1 trans To strike with a clanging, resounding blow 2 intrans To clang, resound as result of a blow whang (II), n See preo Clanging, resounding blow, hang whanghee, wangee, n [1 wanggē, 2 wəŋgē], fr Chinese hwang A Chinese variety of ham-hoo, used for walking-sticks wharf (I), n [1 wɔrf, 2 wɔf] OE hwærf, 'dam', ME wherfe, 'wharf', op MLG, M Du werf, 'wharf', op further ON hwærfan, 'act of turning', fr the base in OE hwærfan, 'to turn', ON hverfa, OHG hwærfan, 'to turn round', Goth hwarban, 'to go round', cogn w Gk karpós, 'wrist', see carpus Structure of timber or stone, alongside which ships may be moored for receiving and discharging goods &c wharf (II), vh trans, fr preo 1 To moor (vessel) to a wharf 2 To unload, store (goods), on a wharf wharfage, n [1 wɔrfj, 2 wɔfdj] Preo & -age Dues paid for use of a wharf for mooring, loading, or unloading a ship wharfinger, n [1 wɔrfɪŋer, 2 wɔfɪndz] Earlier wharfager, see wharfage & -er Owner of wharf where vessels are unloaded, cargoes shipped and unshipped &c what (I), adj [1 wɔt, 2 wɔt] OE hwæt, ME w(h)at, neut form of interrog pron hwā, 'who', OHG hwaz, cogn. w Lat quod, 'that, in that', see who 1 (interrog.) Asking for specification of quality, kind, amount, identity &c of person or thing referred to what kind of food do they eat? what supplies have they? what places did you go to? what weather did you have? what man are you speaking of? what ship is that? (also in indirect questions) do you know what ship that is? 2 (rel.) That, those, which, as much, as many as, of the kind that &c bring what parcels you can carry, wear what clothes you please Phr what time, see turns (I) 3 (exclamatory) How great &c, implying surprise, disapproval &c of the quality, amount &c of something what fools they are! what waste! what a miserable day! what strange people!

what (II), pron, fr preo 1 (interrog.) Asking for specification of identity, quality, quantity, amount, &c, what thing what did he do, say &c? what do you know about it? what has happened? what is his name? Phrs (often elliptical) what about it? what do you know, shall we do &c about? what next? what will happen &c next? expressing surprise at event, conduct &c, what though the skies may fall &c = what does it matter? what if we should fail &c? what will be the result? what? = what did you say &c? what for? for what reason? what is he? what is his occupation? what of it? what does it matter? what d'you call him, it &c, used as substitute for forgotten name &c 2 (rel.) The thing(s) which, that which what I say is true, he told me what to say, I will do what I can, what happened was quite an accident, that is what I heard, what I always say &c Phrs I know what = I know what we will, or ought to, do &c, introducing new plan &c, to know what's what, know the real, proper, or genuine thing &c 3 (exclamatory) What a large amount, how much &c, what things &c what these ancient walls could tell us!

whate'er, adj & pron [1 wɔtər, 2 wɔtə] Contracted fr next word (poet) Whatever whatever (I), adj [1 wɔtəvər, 2 wɔtəvə] what (I) & ever 1 What (with additional emphasis), of any kind, degree &c whatever orders he gives are obeyed, whatever excuses he may make, we will not believe him 2 (in negative clause, emphasizing negation) Of any kind, at all I can see nothing whatever, no motive whatever can excuse his conduct whatever (II), pron what (II) & ever (rel, emphatic form of what (II)) Anything, everything that, all that, no matter what whatever happens, he is safe, I am right, whatever you may think, take whatever you like; whatever I do I'm always wrong, whatever you do, don't drink too much = on no account are you to what-not, n [1 wɔt not, 2 wɔt not] Piece of furniture usually consisting of slender uprights supporting a set of shelves for holding odds & ends, ornaments, books &c what's-his-name, pron. [1 wɔtsɪznəm, 2 wɔtsɪzneɪm] Discourteous, contemptuous mode of referring to a person whose name one cannot, or which one affects not to, remember not a soul there except old what's his name whatso, adj & pron [1 wɔtsə, 2 wɔtsəu] what & eo (archaic) Same as whatsoever whatso'er, adj & pron [1 wɔtsəɪr, 2 wɔtsəu] Contracted from next word (poet) Whatsoever whatsoever, adj & pron [1 wɔtsəvər, 2 wɔtsəvə] what & eo & ever Emphatic and rhetorical form of whatever whaup, n [1 wɔwp, 2 wɔp] Imitative (chiefly Scots) Curlew wheel (I), n [1 wēl, 2 wēl] ME whele, 'pustule', op OE hwēlan, 'to suppurate', hwyle, 'boil, tumour', perh cogn w Lth kwēle, 'inflammation of a wound' Small, inflamed tumour, a pustule wheel (II), n, fr Corn hwel Mine, specul, tin-mine wheat, n [1 wēt, 2 wɪt] OE hwæte, ME whēte, op OS hwēti, OHG hwēti, ON hwēti, Goth hwaiter, 'wheat', cogn w white (I) 1 Annual, or biennial, cereal plant, Triticum, esp T. aestivum, bearing a spike of edible seeds 2 Edible grain produced by this plant, usually ground and made into bread &c, and forming a staple food wheat-ear, n [1 wēðr, 2 wɪtɪs] Earlier white ears (op Fr cul blanc), white (I) & arse Small, gray and white, thrush like migratory bird, Saxicola oenanthe wheaten, adj [1 wētn, 2 wɪtn] wheat & -en Of, composed of, containing, of the colour of, wheat wheat-fly, n Insect whose larvae are injurious to wheat wheat-grass, n Couch grass Wheatstone bridge, n [1 wētstun brɪdʒ, 2 wɪstɒn brɪdʒ] An electrical device for measuring an unknown by a known resistance. It was invented by S H Christie (d 1866), but was named after Sir C Wheatstone (d 1875) wheel, vb trans [1 wēdl, 2 wɪdl] Prob fr OE wādlian, ME wēdlian, 'to beg', fr OE wādli, 'poverty', the latter is perhaps connected w OHG wessan, Mod Germ weisen, 'an orphan', cp also OE (wudu) wasen, 'faun, satyr', lit 'wait of the woods' 1 A To influence by crafty flattery, bring artful persuasion to bear upon, to coax, cajole to wheedle a person into doing something, b to beguile, deceive (person) by flattery and cajolery 2 To obtain (thing from person &c) by coaxing or flattery to wheedle something out of a person wheeling, adj [1 wēdlɪŋ, 2 wɪdlɪŋ], fr Pres Part of prec Inasmuch as persuasive, using, characterized by, seductive flattery and blandishments wheelingly, adv Prec & -ly In a wheeling manner wheel (I), n [1 wēl, 2 wɪl] OE hwēol, hwægel, ME whēle, op M Dn weel, wiel, Dan hjul, ON hjóll, 'wheel', all fr reduplicated type hwehulo* &c, cogn w Gk kúōlos, 'ouros, wheel', fr kweklo*, see cycle, Scrt śakra, 'wheel', Lith kūlas, 'wheel', 'spoke', op further, without reduplication, ON hvel, 'wheel', O Prussian kēlan, O Slav kola, 'wheel', Gk pelein, 'to turn', pōlos, 'pivot, axis', see pole (III), Lat colere, 'to engage in, occupy oneself with, cultivate, inhabit', see colony 1 Disk, or circular rim and concentric disk connected by radiating bars (spokes), having, or capable of, rotatory motion, and used to facilitate movement of body, esp vehicle, or to transmit or modify motion in machines &c, (often in compounds) Caterpillar wheel, q wheel, spinning wheel, steering wheel &c, q v Phrs Fortune's wheel, symbolic representation of vicissitudes of life, to break (person) on the wheel, kill or injure by binding on revolving wheel and striking with iron bar, as mediæval form of torture to put a spoke in one's wheel, hinder, prevent progress, to put one's shoulder to the wheel, make an effort to assist progress of undertaking, cause &c, wheels within wheels, referring to a complicated and involved combination of motives or influences, acting and reacting on each other 2 Specif a a bicycle, b steering wheel, c spinning wheel, d round, horizontal disk revolving on a spindle, on which a potter shapes his clay potter's wheel 3 a Wheeling, sweeping or revolving motion the wheel of birds &c, b specif, movement of line of troops &c as on a pivot wheel (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 n To cause (wheeled vehicle &c) to move, to propel, pull, on wheels to wheel a truck, barrow &c, b to propel (person, load &c) in a wheeled vehicle or barrow 2 To cause (line of men &c) to turn as on a pivot B intrans 1 a Often wheel round, to move, swing, round so as to face another direction, b (of line of troops &c) to swing round as on a pivot Phr right, left, wheel, words of command to carry out this movement 2 (of bird &c) To move in a sweeping, circular course 3 To ride a bicycle &c wheel-and-axle, n A wheel fixed to and revolving on an axle, one of the elementary mechanical powers wheelbarrow, n [1 wēlbərd, 2 wɪlbərou] Strong, usually oblong, receptacle of wood or thin iron sheets, having a single low wheel in front, and short stout legs, with shafts or handles for pushing, set at right angles to the legs behind, used for transporting small loads by hand wheel-chair, n Chair mounted, and moving, on wheels wheeled, adj [1 wēld, 2 wɪld] wheel (I) & -ed Provided with a wheel or wheels, often in compounds, two, four wheeled &c wheeler, n [1 wēlɪr, 2 wɪlɔ] wheel (II) & -er 1 One who, that which, wheels 2 Wheel horse 3 In compounds, four-wheeler &c, vehicle with specified number of wheels 4 Wheelwright wheel-horse, n Horse, or one of two horses, harnessed to the pole or shafts of a vehicle and preceded by leader(s) wheel-house, n Shelter erected round ship's helm, pilot house wheelless, adj [1 wēlɪs, 2 wɪlɪs] wheel (I) & -less Without wheels wheel-lock, n 1 Ancient form of gun lock, with steel wheel whirling round and striking flint when released by trigger 2 Obsolete typo of pistol &c, with wheel lock.

wheelman, n [1 wɪlman, 2 wɪlman] Cyclist wheel-seat, n End of axle, fitting on to hub wheel-tread, n Part of tire or rim that touches road &c wheel-window, n Circular window with tracery radiating from centre wheelwright, n [1 wēlɪt, 2 wɪlɪt] wheel (I) & wright Person engaged in making or repairing wheels or wheeled vehicles weeze (I), vb intrans & trans [1 wēz, 2 wɪz] OE hwæzan, ME whēsen, fr hwæzan*, op OE hwæsta, 'a cough', OHG huoso, cogn w Lith koseti, 'to cough' 1 intrans To breathe with a rattling, grating, rasping, whistling sound due to phlegm in the throat or bronchial tubes 2 trans To utter with a wheezing sound weeze (II), n, fr prec 1 Wheezing sound, noisy breathing 2 (slang) Actor's interpolated remark, joke &c, gag, a joke in general a good weeze, an amusing anecdote wheelzily, adv [1 wēzlɪ, 2 wɪzlɪ] See wheezy & -ly In a wheezy manner wheeziness, n [1 wēzɪnəs, 2 wɪzɪnəs] See next word & -ness State or quality of being wheezy wheezy, adj [1 wēzi, 2 wɪzi] wheeze (I) & -y a Speaking, breathing, with a wheeze, b performed, uttered, with wheezing wheezy breathing, a wheezy laugh whelek (I), n [1 wɛlk, 3 wɛlk] OE wihuc, ME wihc, wihc, prob cogn w Gk hēlix, 'spiral', hēlēx, 'spiral shell' &c, see helix, fr stem wel*, wol* &c, 'to turn, revolve', seen in volute, wallow, well (I) &c Marine, edible, gastropod mollusc with univalve spiral shell having few whorls whelek (II), n ME wheleke, op whsal (I) & dimin suff -ock Purple, small inflamed swelling wheleked, adj [1 wɛlkt, 2 wɛlkt] Prec & -ed Marked or covered with pustules, pimple wheelm, vb trans [1 wɛlm, 2 wɛlm] ME whelmen, 'to turn over', the word seems, in form & later meaning, to be the result of association between OE helman, 'to cover over', see helmet (et), & (ā) hwelfan, 'to cover, to overwhelm', the latter is cogn w OS hahwelfian, 'to cover over, to arch over', OHG welben, Mod Germ wölbe, further cognates are Gk hēlyōn, 'bosom, gulf', Lat culicita, 'pillow' It is possible that the OE poetical word welman, welman, 'to boil, surge, rage' &c, used of the sea, wh survives in its old sense in ME welmen, may also have influenced the form (poet) To flow over, overwhelm, engulf, submerge &c (in material and non material senses) 'Where thou perhaps, under the whelming tide, Visit'st the bottom of the monstrous world' (Milton, 'Lyonesse', 1578), whelmed in ruin, in sorrow &c whelp (I), n [1 wɛlp, 2 wɛlp] OE hwelp, ME whelp, 'puppy', cp OS hwelp, OHG welf, ON hwelp, connexion w. Lat vulpes, 'fox', see vulpine, is doubtful 1 a Puppy, b cub of lion, tiger, seal &c 2 Ill bred, mannerless boy or youth whelp (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans (of animal) To bring forth young 'sea monsters whelped And stabled' (Milton, 'P L', xi 751 2), (also contemptuously of woman) 2 trans To bring forth (whelps) when (I), adv [1 wɛn, 2 wɛn] OE hwanne, ME whan(ne), 'when', cp OS, Goth hwan, 'when', OHG wanne, fr pronominal base seen in who 1 (interrog) At what time or period, on what occasion when will you come?, when did it begin to rain?, when did you see him last? 2 a At the moment, during the time that it was raining when we started, when we were out, I will see you when I return, in elliptical Phr a dog wags his tail when pleased, say when = tell me when you have enough, used when pouring drink into another's glass, b on any occasion that, whenever it is cold when it snows, c after this time that he will go when he has had his dinner, d just then, at that moment we were about to start when it began to rain, e in spite of the fact that, although he keeps on talking when he knows it annoys us, f considering the fact that how can I explain when you won't listen? 3 (as n, rare) The time at which the when and the where when (II), pron, fr prec 1 (rel) At or during which during the time when you were away, at a moment when we were busy 2 (interrog or rel after prep) What or which time or moment till when shall you be here?, since when have you been here?, we came a week ago, since when the weather has been bad whence, adv & rel pron [1 wɛns, 2 wɛns], fr ME whennes, formed fr when & adhl suff es (archaic) 1 (interrog) From what place, from what source whence did you come?, whence comes this great river, all this uproar? The usual construction would be, where did you come from? &c Phr whence comes it that? 2 a The place or source from which tell me whence you come, also from whence, b to the place from which go back whence you came whencesoever, adv [1 wɛnsəʊvɜr, 2 wɛnsəʊvɜr] Prec & so & ever From whatever place, source &c whence'er, adv [1 wɛnɜr, 2 wɛnɜr] Contracted fr next word (post) Whenever whenever, adv [1 wɛnɜvɜr, 2 wɛnɜvɜr] 1 At whatever time, as soon as, at the moment that, no matter when I'll see him whenever he likes to come 2 On whatever occasion, as often as I hope you'll come and play whenever you feel inclined whencesoever, adv [1 wɛnsəʊvɜr, 2 wɛnsəʊvɜr] when & so & ever Whenever (emphatic) where (I), adv [1 wɛr, 2 wɛr] OE hwær, ME where, op OS hwær, OHG wār, ON hvar, Goth hwar, orig locative of pronominal base seen in who, when &c, op Lat cūr, 'why', fr kwo*, old locative of pron kwo*, Lat quī, 'who', Scrt kar h, 'when', Lith kur, 'where' 1 (interrog) a (implying motion) To or towards what place, in what direction, whither where are you going?, b (implying rest) at or in what place, situation, position, or part where are you going to stay?, where is my hat?, where does the river rise?, where did you hear that tale?, c in what respect or condition where does it concern us? where will you be if you offend him?, where is the use of being obstinate? 2 (introducing dependent clause) a (implying motion) To what place, in what direction let him go where he likes, b (implying rest) in or at what place or part we must camp where we can get water, he knows where they are, things are never where one wants them, c in what respect, at what point, in which circumstances one never knows where to have him, at what point he is vulnerable where (II), pron, fr prec 1 (interrog) a (followed by from) From what place &c where have you come from? (followed by to) to what place where are you going to? 2 (rel) a At, to, or in which that is the place where he lives, this is the point where we stuck, also b this is where I live, the place in or at which, this is where we get out, o from where, from the place which, to where, to the place which, d the respect, the circumstances, conditions in which that's just where you're wrong where-, pref, compounded with preps, a denoting in what place, part, respect &c, e.g. whereas, wherever &c, b see whereby, wherein, wherewith whereabouts, adv & n [1 wə'raʊənts, 2 weə'raʊnts] 1 adv a (interrog) In what place, where approximately whereabouts did you put it?, b (rel) the place where &c I like to know whereabouts you are 2 n Approximate place or position, locality, situation his present whereabouts is unknown whereas, conj [1 wə'ra:z, 2 weə'rez] 1 Formula in opening legal documents, in consideration of the fact that, since, in view of specified circumstances whereas it hath seemed good to the King's Majesty 2 When on the other hand, while, used in contrasting two statements whereas in her youth she was slim and beautiful, in later years she became fat and hideously ugly whereat, adv [1 wə'ret; 2 weə'ret] 1 (interrog, archaic and rare) At, about, what whereat was he annoyed? 2 (rel) a At, about, which the things whereat you are displeased, b upon which 'They vote whereat his speech he thus renews' (Milton, 'P L' n 389) whereby, adv [1 wə'bi, 2 weə'bi] 1 (interrog) By what, by what means, how whereby may we be eased? 2 (rel) By means of which a plan whereby we may escape where'er, adv [1 wə're, 2 weə're] Contracted fr wherever (poet) Where'er wherefore, adv & n [1 wə'fɔ:, 2 weə'fɔ:] 1 adv a (interrog) For what reason, why wherefore do you weep?, b (rel) for which reason he was angry, wherefore I was afraid 2 n Reason, cause, in Phr, the why and the wherefore wherefrom, adv [1 wə'frɒm, 2 weə'frɒm] (rare) From which, whence wherein, adv [1 wə'ɪn, 2 weə'ɪn] 1 (interrog) In what point, respect, particular wherein do they differ? 2 (rel) In which, in which place, respect, circumstance points wherein we differ whereinsoever, adv [1 wə'ɪnsəʊvə, 2 weə'ɪnsəʊvə] Prec & so & ever In whatever respect, part &c whereunto, adv [1 wə'ɪntu:, 2 weə'ɪntu:] 1 (interrog) Into what 2 (rel) Into which the shelter whereunto he crept whereof, adv [1 wə'ɒf, 2 weə'ɒf] Of which, of what the matter whereof we spoke whereon, adv [1 wə'rɒn, 2 weə'rɒn] 1 (interrog) Upon what whereon is your trust? 2 (rel) On, upon, which the rock whereon the house is built whereout, adv [1 wə'rɒut, 2 weə'rɒut] (rare) Out of which wheresoever, adv [1 wə'rsəʊvə, 2 weə'rsəʊvə] where & so & ever. Emphatic for wherever wherethrough, adv [1 wə'θru:, 2 weə'θru:] Through which whereto, adv [1 wə'tu:, 2 weə'tu:] 1 (interrog) For what, for what purpose? 2 (rel) a To which (place &c) the point whereto they hasten, b to which (question, remark &c) he asked them their business, whereto they replied &c whereunder, adv [1 wə'rʌndə, 2 weə'rʌndə] (rare) Under which the trees whereunder they rested whereunto, adv [1 wə'rʌntu:, 2 weə'rʌntu:] Whereto whereupon, adv [1 wə'rʌpʌn, 2 weə'rʌpʌn] 1 (interrog) Whereon, on what 2 (rel) Upon which, after, in consequence of, following upon which they showed signs of yielding, whereupon we renewed the attack wherever, adv [1 wə'revə, 2 weə'revə] In, to, at, whatever place, in any place at wherever you like, he will get lost wherever he goes wherewith, adv [1 wə'rɪð, 2 weə'rɪð] 1 (interrog, archaic) With what wherewith shall they be fed? 2 (rel, archaic) With which we have nothing wherewith to feed them wherewithal, adv & n [1 wə'rɪðhɔ:l, 2 wə'rɪðhɔ:l] 1 adv (archaic) Wherewith 2 n Resources, esp necessary money he lacked the wherewithal to bring up and educate his family wherry, n [1 wəri, 2 wəri] Etymol unknown 1 Light row boat used for passengers on river, lake &c. 2 Broad, heavy barge used on Norfolk Broads wherryman, n [1 wə'rɪmən, 2 wə'rɪmən] Man in charge of a wherry.

whet (I), v, trans [1 wet, 2 wet] OE hwettan, 'to sharpen, make keen', ME whetten, op OHG wetzan, Goth (ga) hwatan, 'to sharpen', ON hweta, fr hwatan*, op OE hwet, 'sharp, keen, active, brave', OS hwat, OHG hwaz, oogn w Lat (tri)guetrus, 'three cornered' 1. To sharpen, put an edge on (a knife, saythe &c), esp with a hone 2 To stimulate, excite (appetite, curiosity) whet (II), n, fr prec Act of whetting, a a knife &c, b appetite &c whether (I), pron [1 wððə, 2 wððə] OE hwæðer, ME wððer, 'which of two', op OS hwæthar, OHG hwædar, ON hvárr, Goth hwapar, fr pronominal base seen in who, & -ther Op Gk hōteros, gōteros, 'which of two', Sort kataráð, Lith kairás, O Slav kotorá, 'which' (archaic or obs.) Whn of the two whether (II), conj, fr prec Expresses doubt, alternative possibility, correlative or, or whether, in various constructions I don't know whether to go away or stay where I am, I wonder whether he will go himself or whether he will send you, I don't know whether it is raining or not, he asked whether he could help, whether we help or not, the enterprise will fail Phr whether or no, in either case whetstone, n [1 wɛtstɒn, 2 wɛtstəʊn] OE hwetsstān, whet & stone a Stone used for whetting, and putting sharp edge to knives, saythes &c, b person who, problem, subject &c which provokes and stimulates mental action whew, n [1 wə, 2 wə] OE hwæp, ME whew Clear watery liquid left when the curd is separated from milk, as by the action of rennet whew-faced, adj [1 wə'fæst, 2 wə'fæst] Of sallow or pallid complexion through ill-health, fear &c which (I), adj [1 wɪç, 2 wɪʃ] OE hwælc &c, 'which? of what sort? what kind of?' fr hwælc, 'what like', op OS hwælic, OHG hwelīc, Goth hwelīks, see who & like (I) 1 (interrog) What individual person or thing?, what group of persons or things?, used to demand selection, specification, identification, of one or more things from a number, class &c which book did you choose?, which piece of cake will you have?, which teacher of all those you were under did you like best? 2 (rel, rare) The specific thing referred to he told me all he had suffered, which things were well-nigh incredible which (II), pron, fr prec 1 (interrog) In demanding selection, identification, specification, choice between two or more alternative persons, things &c which of the members were present?, which is the right road?; which would you like? Phr which is which?, asking for more explicit distinction between two persons or things 2 (rel) a (not used now in reference to persons) The thing, circumstance &c, referred to in an antecedent sentence or clause, that individual thing or group of things all the documents which I have examined are forgeries, this is the book which I chose, this fact, which I think you have forgotten, proves the contrary; I lost my way, which delayed me considerably, Phr (archaic) the which, which, b (archaic) referring to person(s), (chiefly Bib and liturgical) our Father, which art in heaven whichever, adj & pron [1 wɪtʃevə, 2 wɪtʃ-ɛvə] which & ever (indef rel) Any individual from several persons or things specified I will take whichever piece you reject, pray take whichever suits you best whichever, adj & pron [1 wɪtʃsəʊvə, 2 wɪtʃsəʊvə] which & so & ever (rare) Whoever (emphatic) whidah-bird, n [1 wɪdə bɜ:d, 2 wɪdə bɪd] Apparently orig widow bird, later influenced by Place Name Whidah, on W African coast West African weaver bird, with black plumage, the male of which has tail feathers twice its own length whiff (I), n [1 wɪf, 2 wɪf] Imitative of sound of snuffing, inhaling, or the like 1 a A puff, a breath, a slight gust a whiff of air, of sea air, b a light puff or breath of air having a characteristic odour, a slight odour I got a whiff of a good cigar as he passed, I thought I noticed a slight whiff of the stable about him Phr to take a whiff or two (of a pipe &c), to have a brief smoke 2 (colloq) A small cigar whiff (II), vb intrans, fr prec To emit a slight, light, odour whiff (III), n Etymol unknown Light, out-riggered sculling boat whiff (IV), n Etymol unknown A flat fish, esp a dahi whiff (V), vb intrans Etymol unknown To fish with hand line from a moving boat, drawing the bait along near surface of water whiffle, vb intrans & trans [1 wɪf, 2 wɪf] whiff (I) & -le intrans (of wind &c) To veer, blow lightly, b trans, to disperse, scatter, as with a puff of wind whiffy, adj [1 wɪfɪ, 2 wɪfɪ] whiff (I) & -y Smelling a slight, fitful, but unpleasant odour, smelly

Whig, n [1 wɪg, 2 wɪg] fr obs Whiggamora, nickname of Presbyterians in Scotland in 17th cent, etymol doubtful, possibly fr Scot whig, 'drive', & mare (II) 1 Member of the party, earlier called Roundheads, which during the 17th and early 18th cents opposed the Royal prerogative and Episcopacy, upheld the supremacy of Parliament, and favoured toleration for Dissenters, later in the 18th cent the Whigs were the party who opposed the Stuarts and supported the Hanoverian and Protestant succession The Whigs developed in the 18th cent into the Liberal party The word expresses the antithesis of everything expressed by Tory 2 (chiefly derisive) A straight laced, narrow minded person who is, or is believed to be, a prey to trifling moral scruples, to be opposed to mirth and conviviality

Whiggery, n [1 wɪgəri, 2 wɪgəri] Prec & -ery (contemptuous) The political principles, moral attitude, of Whigs

Whiggish, adj [1 wɪgɪʃ, 2 wɪgɪʃ] Whig & -ish Pertaining to, characteristic of, a Whig, savouring of Whiggery Whiggishly, adv Prec & -ly After the manner of a Whig Whiggishness, n. See prec & -ness Whig- gish state of mind, principles, practice.

Whiggism, n [1 wɪɡɪzəm, 2 wɪɡɪzəm] Whig & -ism. Doctrine, principles, of the Whigs while (I), n [1 wɪl, 2 wəɪl] O E hwīl, 'space of time', M E whīl, O H G hwīla, Goth hwēla, O N hwīla, 'space of time', cogn w Lat quies, 'rest', see quiet, (tran)quillus, 'quiet', see tranquil Space of time, period to stay for a while, to rest a while, it took a long while to do, a while ago, in a little while, soon, once in a while, occasionally Phrs the while, during that time, at the same time he went about his work and sang the while, worth one's while, repaying one for time and trouble bestowed, it makes it worth one's while, to reward, pay one adequately, (also in pejorative sense) to bribe while (II), vb trans, fr prec, hnt prob con- fused or associated w wilo While away (time), to spend, cause to pass in such a way as to reduce the tedium while (III), conj, fr while (I) 1 During the time that, as long as sat down while you are waiting, it was raining while we were out, the lark sings while on the wing, at a moment in the space of time that he had an accident while on the way here 2 Though, at the same time (implying a contrast) he became an earl, while his brother was only made a knights whiles, con [1 wɪlz, 2 wəɪlz] O E hwīles, genit of hwīl, see while (archaic) While whilom, adv & adj [1 wɪlɒm, 2 wəɪlɒm] O E hwīlūm, 'in the times, at times', dat pl of hwīl, 'times', used as adv, see while (I) (archaic) 1 adv At one time, for- merly 2 attrib adj Former, quondam whilst, con [1 wɪlst, 2 wəɪlst] Earlier whiles, adv genit of while (I), & t, for addition of wh up amongst While whim, n [1 wɪm, 2 wɪm], fr O N hwīma, 'to let the eyes wander', connected w Norw hwima, 'to flutter', op whimsey 1 A pes- sing fancy, a trifling desire, an irresponsible caprice, a fad, a crochets 2 Winch for use in a vertical mine shaft whimble, n [1 wɪmbəl, 2 wɪmbəl] Earlier whimrel, fr imbration of bird's cry, & dimin. suff rel Species of small curlew, the jack curlew whimper (I), vb intrans & trans [1 wɪmpər, 2 wɪmpə] Prob imitative, op Mod Germ wimmern, 'to whimper' 1 intrans To cry weakly, fretfully, plaintively, to utter feeble cries; as of a frightened child or young animal 2 trans (rare) To utter in a whimpering voice whimper (II), n, fr prec Feeble, fretful cry, wail, whine whimpering, adj [1 wɪmpərɪŋ, 2 wɪmpərɪŋ] whimper (I) & -ing Inclined to whim- per, resembling, of the nature of, a whimper whimperingly, adv Free & -ly With, in, a whimper whimsical, adj [1 wɪmzɪkəl, 2 wɪmzɪkəl] whimsy & -io & -al 1 Given to whimsies, capricious, fanciful 2 Quaint, fantastic whimsicality, n [1 wɪmzɪkəlɪti, 2 wɪmzɪkəl ɪti] Free & -ity 1 Quality of being whim- sical (in both senses of adj) 2 a Caprice, fad, crochets, b a quaint, original fancy whimsically, adv [1 wɪmzɪkəlɪ, 2 wɪmzɪ-kəlɪ] whimsical & -ly In a whimsical manner whimsy, n [1 wɪzɪ, 2 wɪmzɪ] Connected w Norw hwimsa, 'to skip', fr hwima, 'to flutter', op also whim Capricious ideas, freak, whim whimwham, n [1 wɪmwəm, 2 wɪmwəm] Redupl. form of whim (archaic) 1 Whim- sical ideas, a whimsy, a fad, a crochets 2 Toy, trifle, plaything whin (I), n [1 wɪn, 2 wɪn] Cp Norw hwīn, a kind of grass Gorse, gorse bushes whin (II), n Etymol. unknown. One of several varieties of hard basaltic rock, also called greenstone, trap, &c., diabase, used for roadmaking whinberry, n [1 wɪnbəri, 2 wɪnbəri], fr O E winberig, 'grape' wine & berry, influenced by whin (I) Whortleberry whin-chat, whinchat, n [1 wɪnʃat, 2 wɪn ʃæt] Small brown and reddish bird, allied to the wheatear whine (I), vb intrans & trans [1 wɪn, 2 wɪn] O E hwīnan, 'to shriek', esp of an arrow &c flying through the air, M E whīnen, op O N hwīna, 'to whirl', Dan hwīne, 'to shriek' 1 intrans n (of animal, esp dog, or of child) To utter prolonged wail- ing cry; b (of person) to complain, esp about trifles, to utter constant, fretful, childish complaints 2 trans To utter in whining tone whine (II), n, fr prec 1 Prolonged, wailing, plaintive cry of dog, child &c 2 Fretful, childish complaint whinger, n [1 wɪŋɡər, 2 wɪŋɡər] Origin doubtful, prob connected w whine, & imitative of sound of stroke Dagger or short sword whining, adj [1 wɪnɪŋ, 2 wɪnɪŋ], fr Pres Part of whine Habitually complaining, enivelling a whining rascal, uttered with or in a whine whiningly, adv Free & -ly In a whining manner

whinny, vb intrans & n [1 wɪni, 2 wɪni], fr whine (I) 1 vb (of horse) To neigh gently and playfully. 2 n A gentle neigh of a horse, expressive of pleasure, friendly greeting &c whinsill, n [1 wɪnsəl, 2 wɪnsəl] whin (II) & sill (geol) Sheet of intrusive basalt whinstone, n [1 wɪnstɒn, 2 wɪnstɒn] Same as whin (II) whinyard, n [1 wɪnjəd, 2 wɪnjəd] (obs) Variant of whinger, with ending suggested by pondard whip (I), vb trans & intrans [1 wɪp, 2 wɪp] M E whippen, op M Du wippe, 'to skip', Mod Germ wippen, fr L G source, 'to move up & down', O H G wipf, 'awing', M H G wifen, 'to swing', cogn w Lith wybur sw, 'to oscillate', Lat vibrare, 'to swing, shake', see vibrate, see also wrangle A trans 1 a To apply a whip to, to strike with a lash to whip a horse, Phr to whip up one's horse, cause to start or to increase pace by whipping, b to strike with a pliable stick, to flog in any way, as incitement or punishment &c to whip a naughty child &c, Phr to whip eggs, whisk them into a froth, to whip a stream, to fish with a fly, continually throwing the line over a place of water, c to effect, remove &c by whipping, to whip oneself into, the nonsense out of, a child &c, d (hunting) to control (hounds) by means of whip &c, esp in Phr to whip in, off &c, hence transferred to control of members of political party in House of Commons &c 2 (colloq) To defeat, overcome, heat 3 To bind, lash (rope, rope end &c), by wrapping in repeated coils of twine &c 4 To join, fasten (seam, frill &c) by oversewing rolled edges B intrans 1 To use a whip &c for heating, flogging &c 2 To move with great rapidity and suddenness; he whipped upstairs in a flash C Followed by preposition or adverb Whip out, 1 trans, a to draw, pull, snatch, out with a sudden swift action to whip out a knife, b to utter suddenly and violently, rap out to whip out an oath, a reply &c, 2 intrans, to make a hasty exit to whip out of a door Whip off, 1 trans, a to snatch suddenly away to whip a cloth off the table, b to carry away, cause to ac- company one in a sudden swift departure he whipped me off to play bridge, c to drive away by whipping, 2 intrans, to depart hastily, or with sudden, rapid motion to whip off to the continent Whip round, intrans, to turn round suddenly and swiftly he had his back to me but whipped round in a second when I shouted Whip up, trans, a to make (horse) start, or increase speed, by whipping, b to seize with a sudden grab, to snatch up to whip up a pistol and shoot an intruder; c to gather, collect to whip up an audience, subscriptions whip (II), n, fr prec 1 Object consisting of lash attached either to a long, plant, or to a short, stiff, handle, for delivering blows as punishment or to incite (animal &c) to increased effort 2 Driver (of horses), esp in Phr a good, an accomplished, whip 3 Hunt servant controlling hounds in hunting field.

4 (Parliament) a Person appointed by a party to enforce discipline among, ensure attendance of, members at voting time, meetings of committees &c, the chief whip of the Government is the Patronage Secretary of the Treasury, b message, appeal, issued by a party whip to members to attend sessions, divisions &c of Parliament a three line whip, underlined three times, as sign of urgency, also any urgent appeal to action to supporters of a cause &c 5 Whip and derry whip-and-derry, n [1 wɪp ʌn(d) dərɪ, 2 wɪp ʌn(d) dərɪ] See derrick Hoisting apparatus consisting of rope end pulley whip-cord, n 1 Hard, tightly twisted cord made of hemp and used for whip lashes 2 A strong, tough woven fabric with ribs resembling whip cord whip-fish, n Fish having a dorsal spine elongated into a long filament whip-gun, n Block for use in whip and derry apparatus whip-hand, n Hand used to hold whip Phr.
to have the whip hand of, have control of, mastery over, the upper hand of whipper-in, n [1 wɪpərɪn, 2 wɪpərɪn] Hunt official managing hounds, whip. whipper-snapper, n [1 wɪpər ɪnəpər, 2 wɪpə ɪnəpər] Small, insignificant but uphish person, one who is negligible in mind, person, and standing, but yet is inclined to be impudent and presuming whippet, n [1 wɪpət, 2 wɪpɪt] Etymol. doubtful 1 Small, cross bred, greyhound- like dog used for racing 2 Light, small, armoured army tank capable of rapid movement whipping, n [1 wɪpɪŋ, 2 wɪpɪŋ] whip (I) & -ing 1. A punishment inflicted with a whip or stick, a thrashing, b a defeat in- flicted in a contest or match of any kind, a beating 2 Lashing of twine securing end of rope &c whipping-boy, n (hist) Boy formerly edu- cated with, and taking chastisement in place of, a prince or child of exalted birth whipping-post, n Stake &c to which a malefactor is bound to receive a flogging. whipping-top, n Child's top kept spinning by lashing with whip whipple-tree, n [1 wɪpl træ, 2 wɪpl træ], fr.
whip (I), 'to move up and down, to and fro'.
The movable bar of a cart, plough &c; to which the traces of a horse are hitched; swingle tree whip-poor-will, n [1 wɪpɔrwɪl, 2 wɪpɔrwɪl].
Imitative of bird's cry Small, American nocturnal bird allied to goatsucker or nightjar whippy, adj [1 wɪpi, 2 wɪpi] whip (II) &
-y Resembling a long-handled whip in slenderness and pliancy, hence, slender, inclined to bend along the whole length, reverse of stiff or stocky whipster, n [1 wɪpstər, 2 wɪpstər] whip &
-ster Insignificant person whirl (I), vb intrans & trans [1 wɜrl, 2 wɜrl] Prob. imitative, but op Dan hwirra, 'to whirl', cogn w whirl 1 vb a To re- volve, vibrate, move, with great rapidity, b to produce a huzzing sound by such move- ment 2 n a Rapid rotating or vibratory motion, b sound produced by this whirl (II), vb intrans & trans [1 wɜrl, 2 wɜrl] M E whirlen, fr O N hwirra, 'to whirl', op M Du werwelen, M H G wirbelen, 'to whirl, rotate', O N hwirfil, 'circles', O H G wirbel, 'whirlwind', op further O E hwirforjan, 'to turn', see wharf, op also, w different formative element, Lat.

vertire, 'to turn', see version & words there referred to. A intrans 1 To rotate, spin, gyrate, rapidly, on an axis a whirling top, the sails of the windmill whirl round and round 2 To pass quickly along a circular course, move swiftly in an orbit the horses whirled round the circus-ring, dancers whirl round a ballroom 3 (of vehicle or person in vehicle) To move swiftly, spin, dash the carriage whirled out of sight 4 a (of brain) To be giddy, confused, bewildered, to reel, b (of thoughts &c) to be in confusion, throng swiftly and disconnectedly B trans 1 To cause to revolve, rotate, move swiftly about a centre or point, or in a more or less circular course he whirled his stick about his head, he whirled his partner off round the room, the wind whirled the snowflakes in eddies 2 To convey rapidly (implying revolving or eddying motion, of wheeled vehicle &c) the cart whirled him down the hill whirl (II), n, fr prec a Whirling motion, rapid revolution, b (fig) confusion of mind, bewilderment my thoughts are, brain is, in a whirl whirl-bone, n Ball-and-socket joint whirlingig, n [1 wɜrlɪŋg, 2 wɜrlɪŋg] whirl (I) & gig 1 a Mechanical device, toy &c designed to rotate rapidly on an axis, specif b a merry go round 2 (fig) That which passes with rapid changes or revolutions the whirling of time &c 3 Water-beetle, of bright, metallic appearances, moving in swift circles to catch its prey whirling-table, n [1 wɜrlɪŋg tæbl, 2 wɜrlɪŋg tɛbl] Apparatus for demonstrating effects of centrifugal force whirlpool, n [1 wɜrlpʊl, 2 wɜrlpʊl] Violent, rapid, movement of water in a circular sweep, rapid, circular eddy whirlwind, n [1 wɜrlwɪnd, 2 wɜrlwɪnd] Swift, circular movement of cylindrical or funnel shaped column of air whirr See whirr(r)

whisk (I), n [1 wɪsk, 2 wɪsk] Cp Dan wiske, op Mod Germ wischen, 'to wipe', OHG wisk, 'wisp', & further, OE wescian, 'to wipe down a horse', cogn w Lat virga, 'rod', see virgate 1 Small bunch of light twigs, bristles, straw, feathers &c for use as brush, sometimes in compound fly whisk &c 2 Light, metal instrument for beating eggs, cream &c to a froth whisk (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 Usually whisk off, away, a to remove, flick off, with light, brushing movement, sweep lightly and briskly to whisk flies away, whisk crumbs off one's coat, b to carry off, cause to accompany one, with impetuous, rapid action they whisked him off to see the sights 2 To wave, sweep, twitch lightly and quickly through the air the cow whisked her tail 3 To beat, agitate, lightly, whip to whisk eggs, cream &c B intrans To move, esp depart, disappear, with rapid, abrupt, motion to whisk round, out of sight, out of the room &c whisk (III), n, fr prec Sudden, light, sweeping movement with a whisk of the tail whisker, n [1 wɪskə, 2 wɪskə] whisk (I) & -er 1 Usually pl, whiskers, hair growing on the sides of a man's face 2 (usually pl) The long bristles growing at side of mouth of cat, tiger &c whiskered, adj [1 wɪskəd, 2 wɪskəd] Prec & -ed Having, wearing, whiskers whiskey, n See whisky whiskified, adj [1 wɪskɪfɪd, 2 wɪskɪfɪd] Next word & -ty & -ed (colloq) Under the influence of, affected by, whisky whisky (I), also whiskey, n [1 wɪskɪ, 2 wɪskɪ], fr Gael uisge beatha, see usquebaugh Alcoholio liquor obtained by the distillation of malted grain, esp barley whisky (II), n, fr whisk (I) Light, two-wheeled vehicle, gig whisky-jack, n Canadian jay.

whisky-liver, n Alcoholio disease of liver, curioas whisky-toddy, n Hot whisky and water, usually flavoured with lemon and sugar whisper (I), vb intrans & trans [1 wɪspər, 2 wɪspə] OE hwaspran, ME whisperen, op M Du wisperen, op Mod Germ wispern, OHG wispalon, 'to whisper', also w different formative element, ON hvisla, 'to whisper', hvissa, 'to buzz', cogn w O Slav svistati, 'to whisper' A intrans 1 a To speak in a low voice, without the resonance produced by vibration of the vocal chords, b (specif phon) to utter speech-sounds with a definite contraction of the glottis, differing from the condition in voice on the one hand, and in breath on the other 2 (poet, of breeze, leaves &c) To make a faint sound, suggestive of whispering, by gentle motion, to murmur, rustle B trans 1 a To utter (words, sounds) in a whisper, b (fig) to tell as a secret, or as something not to be revealed 2 To put about furtively, circulate as a rumour the strangest things were whispered concerning him whisper (II), n, fr prec 1 A Act of whispering, subdued speech, uttered without vibration of vocal chords to speak in a whisper, b (specif phon) articulation produced with a slight but definite contraction of the glottis 2 a That which is whispered, remark &c made in a whisper, b rumour, secret communication 3 Gentle rustling, murmuring sound, of leaves, wind &c whisperer, n [1 wɪspərər, 2 wɪspərər] whisper (I) & -er a One who whispers, b a tale bearer, a privy gossip whispering (I), n [1 wɪspərɪŋg, 2 wɪspərɪŋg] whisper (I) & -ing Whispered speech whispering (II), adj, fr Pres Part of whisper (I) Speaking in, producing, a whisper whispering-gallery, n Gallery, usually in a dome, where, owing to the construction, a sound uttered without any great resonance travels a considerable distance, there is a well known example of this in the dome of St Paul's Cathedral whisperingly, adv [1 wɪspərɪŋli, 2 wɪspərɪŋli] whispering (II) & -ly In a whisper, in a manner resembling a whisper whist, whisht (I), intj & vb intrans [1 wɪst, wɪst, 2 wɪst, wɪst] Conventionalized imitation of natural sound 1 intj Exclamation of warning, to demand silence 2 vb To be silent, to cease speaking whist (II), n [1 wɪst, 2 wɪst] Earlier whisk, fr quick movements of players in taking cards fr table Game of cards played by two pairs of players with pack of 52 cards, in which ten, five, points are required for game, progressive whist, a number of games of whist played simultaneously at different tables, one or more players from each passing at intervals to the next whist-drive, n Social function at which progressive whist is played whistle (I), vb intrans & trans [1 wɪsl, 2 wɪsl] OE hwistlian, ME whistlen, 'to whistle', imitative, op ON hvisla, hvisla, 'to whisper', perh connected w whisper A intrans 1 To produce a shrill, clear, piping note, or sound, or a series of such notes, a (of human beings) by pursing up the lips and forcing the air through them, altering the note by changing position of the tongue, b (of birds) by forcing air through the beak, c (of mechanical device) by forcing air or steam through a narrow aperture 2 Specif (of human beings) to produce a series of characteristic musical notes, or a tune, by whistling 3 (of moving body) To produce a clear, shrill sound by rapid passage through the air the bullets whistled round our ears 4 (of wind) To produce a shrill, clear, continuous sound by blowing through a narrow chuck or aperture B trans 1 To utter, produce (an air), by whistling to whistle a tune 2 To summon by whistling to whistle a dog back whistle (II), n, fr prec 1 Shrill, clear, piping sound produced by whistling 2 Device, instrument, for producing such a sound penny whistle, small tin whistle, steam whistle, with sound produced by jet of steam Phr to pay for one's whistle, pay dearly for insignificant action or object 3 Throat, esp in slang Phr to wet one's whistle, to drink whistler, n [1 wɪslər, 2 wɪslər] whistle (I) & -er One who, that which, whistles, specif a broken-winded horse, producing a whistling sound in breathing, b one of several species of birds whistling, adj & vhl n [1 wɪslɪŋg, 2 wɪslɪŋg], fr Pres Part of whistle (I) 1 adj Producing a sound resembling a whistle, esp as descriptive epithet for bird or animal, e.g. whistling duck, eagle, marmot, thrush &c 2 n, fr whistle (I) & -ing The sound produced by person who, or thing which, whistles the whistling of the wind whit (I), n [1 wɪt, 2 wɪt] OE whit, 'thing, creature', ME whit, op OS, OHG whit, Goth waits, ON veit, 'thing', cogn w O Slav vesti, 'thing', op wight Smallest amount, minute particle, jot, chiefly in Phrs not a whit, no whit

Whit (II), Whitsun, adj [1 wɪt(sun), 2 wɪt(sun)], fr ME hwite (sunnede), lit 'white Sunday', fr the white robes worn by persons to be baptized, christenings being most numerous on this day Of, pertaining to, following, Whitsunday, only in Phrs Whit Monday, Tuesday, Whit week, Whitsun week white (I), adj [1 wɪt, 2 waɪt] OE hwit, ME whit, op OS hwit, OHG hwiz, ON hvitr, Goth hwets, 'white', cogn w Scrt chaitra, chaitra, 'white, light', O Slav svet, 'light', Lith szaitis, 'to brighten' 1 Having the colour of unstained snow, or the luminous appearance of sunlight reflected from a surface without the absorption of any of the visible rays of the spectrum, colourless, opposed to black, largely, partly, or nearly white as white as snow, white clouds, white hair, having lost its colour and become silvery, esp through age, white meat, poultry, rabbit, veal 2 (of animal, bird, plant &c) Entirely or partly white, or with characteristic white markings white crab, goat, poplar, owl, wag-tail &c Phr a white crow, a rarity 3 a Of fair complexion, of the colouring of the Caucasian race as distinct from the yellow, brown, red, and black races the white races, a white man, (also fig, colloq) honourable, sincere, man, b pale, pallid, through illness, fatigue, fear &c 4 (of wine) Of clear, amber or golden colour, contrasted with red 5 Benevolent, working or used for good purpose white magic, a white witch, contrasted with black white (II), n, fr prec 1 White or whitish colour 2 White pigment, often with qualifying epithet, flake-, zinc white, Chinese, Dutch, white &c 3 White object, substance, matter, specif a white fabric to dress in white, b also white of egg, colourless, albuminous liquid surrounding yolk of egg, c white part of cornea surrounding iris of eye, d white butterfly, esp the cabbage butterfly 4 Member of fair skinned, Caucasian race, white man 5 (pl) Whites, leucorrhoea white (III), vb trans, fr white (I) (arohan) To whiten, make white white-, pref representing white (I), forming adjectival compounds descriptive of bird, animal, insect &c, e.g. white crested, necked, tailed &c, having a white crest, neck, tail &c white alloy, n White metal white ant, n Termite white bait, n [1 wɪtbæt, 2 waɪtbæt] Fry of several varieties of edible fish, sprat, herring &c, eaten as a delicacy whitebeam, n [1 wɪtbɛm, 2 waɪtbɛm] Flowering shrub or small tree, Sorbus arva, with whitish down on lower surface of leaves white bear, n Polar bear whiteboy, n [1 wɪtboɪ, 2 waɪtboɪ] Member of white-robed gang of Irish agricultural agitators of 18th cent white-cap, n The restart white-caps, n pl Foam crested waves Whitechapel cart, n [1 wɪtʃəpəl kɑːt, 2 wɪtʃəpəl kɑːt], fr Whitechapel in East End of London Tradesman's light, two wheeled cart white corpuscle, n Leucocyte white currant, n Variety of Ribes, with glaucous, whitish berries white elephant, n a Light gray variety of elephant venerated in Burma and Siam, b unwanted, burdensome possession white ensign, n St George's red cross on a white ground, the flag of Royal Navy, cp red ensign white feather, n Symbol of cowardice white fish, n Fish which have white flesh and are not oily, i.e. excluding salmon, mackerel &c white flag, n Symbol of surrender or truce White Friar, n Carmelite white-gum, n Infant's white rash Whitehall, n [1 wɪt hɔːl, 2 wɪt hɔːl] Street in London where many Government offices are situated a British Government, b (fig) departmental government white-handed, adj Having white hands, (fig) innocent, unspotted, blameless white-heart (-cherry), n Large yellowish white variety of cherry white heat, n Temperature at which metals become white, also fig of passion, enthusiasm &c white-horses, n pl Foam crested waves, white caps white-hot, adj (of metal &c) Raised to white heat, also fig of enthusiasm &c White House, n Official residence of President of USA at Washington white-iron, n 1 Thin sheets of iron coated with tin 2 A brittle variety of cast iron white-land, n Soil consisting of whitish clay white lead, n Pigment made of lead carbonate and hydrated lead oxide white light, n Natural, colourless sunlight white-lipped, adj Having palid lips, through fear, illness &c white-livered, adj [1 wɪt lɪvəd, 2 wɪt lɪvəd] Cowardly whitely, adv [1 wɪtli, 2 wɪtli] white (I) & -ly With a white appearance white metal, n Pewter, or any other alloy of silvery appearance whiton, vb trans & intrans [1 wɪtə, 2 wɪtə] white (I) & -en 1 trans To make, cause to grow, white, give white colour to 2 intrans To become, grow, turn, white, assume white appearance whiteness, n [1 wɪtnəs, 2 wɪtnəs] white (I) & -ness State or quality of being white whitening, n [1 wɪtnɪŋ, 2 wɪtnɪŋ] white (I) & -ing Dried and prepared chalk for use in whitewash, for polishing &c, also whiting white paper, n Government report giving information on specific subject white rent, n Annual tax on tanneries in Devon and Cornwall, payable to the Prince of Wales as lord of the Duchy of Cornwall white sheet, n Garb of penitent, esp in Phr to stand in a white sheet, make confession white slave, n Girl entrapped, and usually exported, as prostitute, also attrit, white-slave traffic whitesmith, n [1 wɪtsmɪθ, 2 wɪtsmɪθ] Tradesman working in tin, silver &c white squall, n Sudden squall at sea, arising in fine weather, without clouds white-thorn, n Hawthorn white-throat, n Small European warbler whitewash (I), n [1 wɪtwɔːʃ, 2 wɪtwɔːʃ] 1 Solution of lime, white when dry, used to coat walls &c of rooms, outhouses &c 2 (fig) Mode of description, report &c designed to clear, justify, person's name, actions &c whitewash (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To coat, daub, with whitewash 2 (fig) To attempt to rehabilitate (person or his character) by explaining away, or putting favourable interpretation upon, bad notions, concealing defects, setting good qualities in high relief &c 3 To free from debt by passing through bankruptcy court whither (I), adv [1 wɪðə, 2 wɪðə] OE hwider, ME whider, fr pronominal base seen in who, & -ther, cp whether 1 (in interrog) To or towards what place, in what direction whither did they go? 2 (introducing dependent clause) To the place which, to any place that let him go whither he will whither (II), pron, fr preo (rel) To or towards which the place whither they went whither (III), n, fr preo Place to which one goes, is going, destination we know not the whence nor the whither of our destinies whithersoever, adv [1 wɪðərsəʊvə, 2 wɪðərsəʊvə] whither & so & ever (archaic) To whatever place, in any direction whichever whithward, adv [1 wɪðəwəd, 2 wɪðəwəd] whither & -ward (archaic) In which or what direction, towards what point whiting (I), n [1 wɪtɪŋ, 2 wɪtɪŋ] white (III) & -ing Dried, purified, and powdered chalk for polishing, marking colour wash &c whiting (II), n white (I) & -ing Small, odible, European sea fish, Gadus merlangus, of the cod family whiting-pout, n Fish with inflatable membrane over the eyes whitish, adj [1 wɪtɪʃ, 2 wɪtɪʃ] white (I) & -ish Fairly white whitethair, n [1 wɪtəðə, 2 wɪtəðə] white (I) & leather Leather whitened by dressing with alum whitlow, n [1 wɪtləʊ, 2 wɪtləʊ] ME whitflawe, influenced by white, ON kvikka, 'quick below the nail', see quick (III), & flaw (I) Earlier quick (flaw) Small, inflamed tumour, usually below the skin, on the end joint of a finger whitlow-grass, n Small, white flowered cruciferous plant Whit Monday, n Day after Whitsunday, an English Bank Holiday Whitsun See Whit (II)

Whitsunday, n [1 wɪtsʌndɪ, 2 wɪtsʌndɪ] OE on hwitan Sunnan dæg, ME hwite sunnedes, see Whit (II) & Sunday Seventh Sunday after Easter, commemorating the descent of the Holy Spirit on the Day of Pentecost Whitsuntide, n [1 wɪtsʌntɪd, 2 wɪtsʌntɪd] Whitsun & tide Week end or week including Whitsunday Whitsun week, n Week beginning with Whitsunday whittle (I), n [1 wɪtl, 2 wɪtl] ME puetel, whittle, jack knife, fr OE puetel, to cut up, & -le Cp ON puetir, 'an closed piece of land', see thwaite Large sheath knife or butcher's knife whittle (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 To pare, slice thin shavings off (piece of wood), with a knife 2 To construct (object) by carving and trimming piece of wood &c 3 (fig) To reduce gradually in amount to whittle down a person's salary, to whittle down a statement, to weaken, destroy force of, also whittle away (a doctrine), to minimize its significance, explain it away B intrans To shape, trim, carve, a piece of wood into desired shape by slicing shavings with a knife whuty, whutey, adj [1 wɪtə, 2 wɪtə] white (I) & -y Fairly white, whitish, sometimes in compounds whity brown &c, whity tiaged with brown whizz(z), n & vb intrans [1 wɪz, 2 wɪz] Imitative 1 n Humming and hissing sound produced by body flying rapidly through the air 2 vb To rush through the air at great speed, producing a hissing or buzzing sound in the passing whizzbang, n [1 wɪzɪŋ, 2 wɪzɪŋ] Preo & bang (I), imitative (mil slang) A light, high velocity shell, the sound of approach and explosion being almost simultaneous who, pron [1 hʊə, 2 hʊ] OE hwā, ME hwa, hā, cp Goth hwa, O Swed hwa, able interpretation upon, bad notions, concealing defects, setting good qualities in high relief &c 3 To free from debt by passing through bankruptcy court

O HG hwer, 'who', fr Aryan kwō* &c, & cogn w Gk pōs, 'how', pōthi, 'where', fr kwō*, Sert kwā, 'who', O Slav kwō, Lith kū, 'who', Lat quod, 'that', cp also Lat quis, 'who', Sert kwā, O Slav kwō, 'what', Gk ti, 'who?', all fr stem kwō*, kwī*, kwōi* &c, 'who? what', in many pronominal & advbl forms, see what, when, whether, where, why 1 (interrog) What or which person who is there?, who(m) did you see?, who do you think you are?, who was he speaking to?, whose ugly face is that?, whose is it? 2 (rel) a That person, the one mentioned in preceding clause or sentence the man who was here is an artist, I don't know the people who live next door, is there anyone who can be trusted?, I know the man whom you mean, that is the boy whose head was punched, he struck his opponent, who promptly returned the blow, b (in elliptical constructions) the person(s) that, any person(s) that, he that who delays, pays, whom the gods would destroy, they first make mad whoa See wo who'er, pron [1 hʊə, 2 hʊə] Contracted form of next word (poet) Whoever whoever, pron [1 hʊəvə, 2 hʊəvə] who & ever (rel, indef, without antecedent expressed) Who, the person, any person, any body, be he who he may, that whoever comes first may have it, give it to whomsoever you like, whose ever it is, you must return it whole (I), adj [1 hɔːl, 2 hɔːl] OE hāl, ME hol, cp OS, O Fris hāl, O HG heil, O N heil, Goth hails, 'complete, whole, sound', cogn w O Prussian kailstikan, 'health', O Slav celi, 'complete' The spelling wh, wh is fairly common in scattered examples in the 16th cent, seems to express a variant dialectal pronunciation long since extinct except in certain province forms See also hale (I), heal, health, holy 1 In a sound condition of health, intact, not injured or diseased 'the multitude wondered, when they saw the maimed to be whole' (Matt xv 31), lucky to get off with a whole skin 2 Complete in all its parts, unbroken, unimpaired, intact, entire not a single whole cup or saucer in the house 3 All of anything, including every part, complete, undivided, without subtraction of any element or aspect whole cities were destroyed, the whole country was swept by a violent storm, I can't deal now with the whole question, but must select one or two points, one's whole mind, energies &c, to eat a whole sheep at a sitting, to roast an ox whole, without cutting it up Phr to go the whole hog, to do a thing thoroughly, hold an opinion with complete conviction, to be whole hearted, go all lengths whole (II), n, fr preo 1 All there is, every part, member, aspect, the complete sum, amount, quantity, of anything the entirety the whole is greater than its parts, the whole of one's property, family &c, the whole of the affairs of state devolve upon him, the whole of the Christian religion 2 A unity, an undivided, unbroken individual entity with all parts duly proportioned, adjusted, and interrelated, a complete system the Catholic faith is a whole, and cannot be divided into a number of separate and distinct tenets Phr on the whole, all things considered whole-bound, adj (of book) Bound entirely in leather whole-coloured, adj Entirely of one colour whole-hearted, adj Acting, done, felt, with the whole heart, devoted, sincere, single minded whole hearted enthusiasm, support &c whole-heartedly, adv Preo & -ly In a whole hearted manner whole-heartedness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being whole hearted whole-hogger, n [1 hɔːl hɔːg, 2 hɔːl hɔːg] One who does a thing, supports a cause &c to the utmost limit, and without reservations or misgivings, see Phr to go the whole hog, under whole (I), 3 whole-hoofed, adj Not having cloven hoofs whole-length, adj & n 1 adj Whole length portrait &c, one representing person's whole figure 2 n A whole-length portrait &c wholemeal, n & adj [1 hólmeál, 2 hóul-miál] 1 n Flour containing all the constituents of the grain 2 adj Made of wholemeal wholemeal bread &c wholeness, n [1 hólnes, 2 hóulnie] whole (I) & -ness State of being whole, completeness whole number, n Number involving no fractions, integer wholesale, n, adj, & adv [1 hólsál, 2 hóul-seil] 1 n Sale of goods in bulk or quantity, contrasted with retail, chiefly in Phr by wholesale 2 adj A pertaining to, carried on by, sale of goods in bulk wholesale prices, wholesale trade, b selling by wholesale wholesale trader, c (fig) involving large amounts, on a large scale wholesale destruction, a wholesale liar 3 adv a By wholesale, in bulk or quantity to buy goods wholesale, b hence (fig) on a large scale, indiscriminately to incur debts, waste one's money, wholesale wholesaler, n [1 hólsáler, 2 hóulseiler] A wholesale trader wholesome, adj [1 hólsóm, 2 hóulsem] whole (I) & -some 1 Favourable to, promoting, health, salubrious, good for one, healthful wholesome food, surroundings &c 2 Conducive to moral well-being, salutary a little wholesome punishment, a clean, wholesome story wholesomely, adv Preco & -ly In a wholesome manner wholesomeness, n See preco & -ness State or quality of being wholesome whole-souled, adj Acting, feeling, experienced, with one's whole soul, wholehearted, a whole-souled supporter, whole-souled devotion wholly, adv [1 hólli, hóli, 2 hóulla, hóuli] whole (I) & -ly 1 Completely, in all parts or respects, entirely few men are wholly bad 2 Altogether, without qualification I don't wholly agree whom, pron [1 hóóm, 2 hóm] Objective case of who, OE hwám (dat.), ME whóm, now often replaced colloquially by who I don't know who(m) you mean whoop, vb intrans & n [1 hóóp, 2 húp], fr Fr houper, imitative 1 vb To utter a whoop, esp that heard in whooping cough 2 n Loud cry or shout whoops of joy whooper swan, n [1 hóóper swón, 2 húpse swón] Whooping swan whooping-cough, n [1 hóóping káf, 2 húpín, kúpín, káf, káf] Also hooping-cough, infectious disease of children, characterized by paroxysms of coughing which end in loud whoops, Pertussis whooping swan, n The wild swan, Cygnus muscivorus whop, vb trans [1 wóp, 2 wóp] Etymol donhtful 1 To heat, thrash 2 (fig) To overcome, vanquish, defeat whopper, n [1 wóper, 2 wópe] Preco & -er (slang) Anything especially large or fine, specif, a lie of remarkable magnitude and shamelessness whopping (I), n [1 wóping, 2 wópiŋ] whop & -ing 1 Thrashing, heating 2 Defeat whopping (II), adj & adv, fr Pres Part of whop (slang) a adj Especially large or fine of its kind, b adv, vary, extremely, chiefly whopping great (fish &c) whore, n & vb intrans [1 hór, 2 h5] OE, ME hōra, op OHG huora, ON hōrr, M Du hoere, 'formentor', Goth hōra, 'adulterous', cogn w Lat cārus, 'dear', see caress, Lett kāra, 'overtious', Sort cārus, 'beloved' 1 n A woman who is guilty of sexual immorality, b a prostitute 2 vb To indulge in fornication whoredom, n [1 hórdóm, 2 hódám] Preco & -dom (obs) Fornication whoremonger, n [1 hórmingger, 2 hóm-mänge] (archaic) A fornicator whorl, n [1 wéril, 2 wál] ME whorvil, fr stem of OE hworfan, 'to turn', see wharf, & -le, op M Du worvel, 'spindle whorl' 1 Disk used to balance or steady a spindle 2 (bot) Group of petals, leaves, etamens &c arranged in a circle about a point 3 (esp zool) Single turn of spiral (in shell &c) whorled, adj [1 wérild, 2 wáld] Preco & -ed Having, arranged in, whorls whortleberry, n [1 wérthberi, 2 wáithari] Earlier hurtleberry, possibly connected w OE hortla, 'hiberry' Bilberry, whinberry whose, pron [1 hóöz, 2 hüz] Possessive case of who whoso, pron [1 hóöed, 2 húsou] who & so (archaic) The person(s) that, whoever whosoever, pron [1 hóúsóever, 2 húsouéva] who & so & ever (archaic) Whoso why (I), adv [1 wi, 2 wai] OE hwit, hwit, instrumental case of hwa, hwet, 'who, what', see who 1 (interrog) For what reason?, with what intent?, on what grounds?, wherefore? why are you here? why do you think so? do you know why he was late? you say you are unhappy, why? Phr why so?, for what reason, on what grounds? 2 (introducing dependent clause, with or without antecedent expressed) Because of which, by reason of which, the reason for which tell us the reason why you came, this is why I came why (II), n, fr preco The reason, cause, purpose, ground, esp in Phr the why and wherefore (of an action, situation &c) why (III), interj, fr why (I) Expressing surprise, protestation &c, or merely introducing a new idea what, going out? why, it's quite dark, why, he told me he was only fifty, why, it's nearly five o'clock whydah See whidah-bird wick (I), n [1 wík, 2 wík] OE wic, 'wick of lamp' &c, ME wicke, &c, op OHG wieche, M Du wicke, 'wick', cogn w OE wicga, 'net, enare', & w wax (I) A Twisted strands of thread forming the centre of a wax candle or taper, and projecting beyond one end, which when lighted burn with a small flame until the wax is consumed, b piece of woven material, flat, or in form of a tube, having one end immersed in the oil of a lamp, and the other end left in suitable position for lighting, the meandroscent and illuminating properties of such a wick are derived from the oil which it sucks up wick (II), n Prob fr ON vik, 'creek, bay', w sense fr OE wic, 'dwelling, village' The word is prob an early loan fr Lat vicus, 'village, hamlet', wh is cogn w Gk oikos, 'house', see under economy Village, place &c Now obsolete except in compounds such as hailwick, and in Place-Names, -wick, in Greenwich &c, is from the OE word wicked, adj [1 wíkid, 2 wíkid] ME wikked, fr wikke, 'evil', & -ed Cp OE wicce, 'witch', see witch, cogn w OE wican, 'to fall, grow feeble', wíc, 'weak, phant', see weak 1 Evil, morally reprehensible, sinful, reverse of good, virtuous, pious, a (of persons) deliberately thinking or practising what is evil, habitually opposed to virtue, piety, justice, vicious, depraved, b (of thoughts and actions) springing from, inspired by, of the nature of, sin, depravity, vice 2 Mischievous, playfully naughty, roguish wickedly, adv Preco & -ly In a wicked manner wickedness, n See preco & -ness 1 State of being wicked the wickedness of our hearts 2 A Wicked thought or action to practise wickedness, b specific wicked act wicker, n & adj [1 wíker, 2 wíke] Orig sense, 'plant rod, osier', fr Scand, op Swed dial wíker, 'willow', M Swed wíka, 'to bend', cogn w OE wican, 'to grow feeble, fall', wíc, 'weak, phant', see wicked, weak 1 n Fabric made of interwoven osiers, or other plant stems, used for baskets, light furniture &c 2 adj Made of wicker; wicker tables &c wickered, adj [1 wíkerd, 2 wíked] Preco & -ed Made of or covered with wicker-work wicker-work, n & adj 1 n A Wickers wrought into a fabric, b things made of this, c act, art, of making such objects 2 adj Made of wicker wicket, n [1 wíkit, 2 wíkit] ME wíket, fr A-Fr wíket, of Gmo origin, & prob connected w ON vikja, 'to move, turn' 1 Small door or gate, esp one at side, or forming part of, larger one 2 Small opening, hatch, in wall, door &c closed by sliding panel, grating &c 3 Half door, harring lower half of doorway, as in stable &c 4 (cricket) A Group of three upright stumps with two bails, defended by batsman, Phr to take a wicket, (of howler) get batsman out, to keep wicket, act as wicket-keeper, q v, two &c wickets down, two &c batsmen out, to win by two &c wickets, with three batsmen still to be got out, b state of pitch, chiefly in Phr a good, hard, dry, wicket &c wicket-door, -gate, n Same as wicket, 1 wicket-keeper, n Fieldman standing immediately behind wicket for catching, stumping, and saving lyes widdershins Variant of withershins wide (I), adj [1 wíd, 2 wáid] OE wid, ME wide, OS wid, OHG wit, ON wíðr, prob cogn w Lat (dí) videre, 'to separate', see divide 1 Of great or comparatively great extent from side to side, broad a wide road, river, ribbon, ditch, skirt &c, wide margins, a wide forehead, the gate is not wide enough Phr to give a wide berth to, avoid, keep out of the way of 2 Having specified measurement from side to side how wide is it? a foot wide 3 a Of great extent, spacious, vast a wide expanse of desert, the wide sea, wide dominions, the wide world, whole world, wide intervals, b (i) covering, occurring over, a wide area a wide distribution, (u) affecting a large circle of persons a wide appeal 4 Striking, falling, being, at some distance from a specific point or object the bullet was wide of the mark, target &c, a wide ball, at cricket, (also fig) a remark, reply &c wide of the mark, irrelevant, not to the point, wide of the truth, deviating from it 5 (in non material sense) a Of extensive scope, range, and grasp wide knowledge, scholarship, b (i) not narrow or restricted, catholic, liberal, comprehending many and different objects a man of wide interests, sympathies &c, (u) far seeing, taking large views wide vision, (u) broad, general, reverse of minute and specialized education at the school stage should be wide and humane wide (II), adv, fr preco 1 Widely, to a considerable extent, to a distance, esp in Phr (to search &c) far and wide 2 Extensively, to full extent with eyes wide open, open your mouth wide Phr to have one's eyes wide open, (i) to be alert, abreast, (u) to be fully alive to what is happening, to open one's mouth too wide, (i) to be greedy and grasping, (u) to be too ambitious, undertake more than one can perform 3 Remotely, to a considerable distance from specific point to fall, shoot, wide of the mark, also, to speak wide of the mark, not to the point wide (III), n, fr wide (I) (cricket) Also wide ball, one howled so as to pass wicket out of reach of batsman, adding one run to score of latter's side wide-awake (I), adj [1 wíd awák, 2 wáid awák] A Thoroughly awake, b alert, vigilant, wary wide-awake (II), n [1 wíd awák, 2 wáid awák] A soft felt hat with a broad, floppy brim and a low crown, the name is now as obsolete as the hat to which it was applied widely, adv [1 wídlí, 2 wáidlí] wide (I) & -ly 1 (referring to spatial conditions) a At wide intervals, so as to occur over a wide area widely scattered, distributed, over Europe, widely separated, b so as to affect persons in different parts of a wide area to appeal widely for support, widely known 2 (referring to degree, extent, of diversity &c) widely unlike, different, to differ widely, (1) to have little or no resemblance, (u) to disagree considerably, hold quite different opinions widen, vb trans & intrans [1 wɪdn, 2 waɪdn] wide (I) & -en 1 trans To make wider, increase width, extent, scope, of, to broaden a (in material sense) to widen a ditch, b (in non-material sense) to widen one's outlook, one's intellectual horizon 2 intrans (in material and non material senses) To become, grow, wider, to extend, expand widespread, adj [1 wɪdsprɛd, 2 waɪdsprɛd] Having a wide distribution, extending over large area a widespread tendency, superstition &c, to become less widespread widgeon, n [1 wɪʒn, 2 wɪʒən], fr O Fr viçion, fr Lat visiōnem, nom. visio, 'kind of small crane', according to Pliny a Balearic word A short billed, short legged migratory wild duck, Mareca penelope, the drake having a chequered head and neck and light patch on forehead widish, adj [1 wɪdɪʃ, 2 waɪdɪʃ] wide (I) & -ish Somewhat wide widow (I), n [1 wɪd, 2 wɪd] OE widow, ME widewe, cp Mod Germ witwe, OS widowa, Goth widuwō, cogn w Lat vidua, Sert viduā, O Slav vidova, O Prussian widewū, 'widow', cp further Gk (d) utheo, 'unmarried', Lat (d) videre, see divide & words there referred to Woman whose husband has died, and who remains unmarried. Phrs grass widow, woman temporarily separated from her husband, widow's peak, hair growing downwards in a point, at centre of forehead, widow's weeds, see weeds, widow's curse, mite, see cruse, mite (I), widow's cap, one made of lawn and with long streamers behind widow (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To make a widow or widower, bereave of husband or wife, esp in PP widowed by war, thrice-widowed 2 (fig, chiefly poet) To deprive, bereave, esp by death or disaster 'a dying king, Laid widow'd of the power in his eye' (Tennyson, 'Passing of Arthur') widow-bird See whidah-bird widower, n [1 wɪdər, 2 wɪdəw] widow (I) & -er Man whose wife has died, and who has remained unmarried widowhood, n [1 wɪdohʊd, 2 wɪdohʊd] widow (I) & -hood Condition of being a widow widow woman, n (Bib, colloq and facet) A widow width, n [1 wɪdθ, 2 wɪdθ] wide (I) & -th, not in OE, new formation on anal of length 1 (material and non material senses) State or quality of being wide a river of considerable width, width of mind 2 Measurement from side to side to have a width of four feet 3 Piece of material of full width as manufactured to join two widths wield, vb trans [1 wɪld, 2 wɪld] Formally, most prob fr OE (ge) wieldan, 'to enslave, dominate', but the meaning is derived fr the cogn OE wealdan, 'to have control over, to wield (a weapon), to rule, govern', (the Mod form can be explained, however, as derived either fr a Stm variant of this, or on the anal of the mutated 3rd pers sing pres) Both vbs. are formed fr OE weald, 'power', cp OS waldan, OHG waltan, 'to govern', Goth waldan, cogn. w Lat valere, 'to be strong' &c, q v under valiant 1 a To have control or power over, chiefly in Phr to wield the sceptre, to rule as king, b to have at one's command to wield influence 2 To handle, make use of (some implement or weapon grasped by the hands) to wield a sword, a war axe, a javelin &c, Phr to wield the pen, to write wife, n [1 wɪf, 2 waɪf] OE, ME wyf, woman, wifo, cp OS wif, OHG wib, O.S. wif Etymol. unknown 1 Married woman, spouse husband and wife, a man and his wife, his lawful, wedded, wife, she has been a good wife to him Phrs to have a wife, he married, to take (a woman) to wife, to marry her 2 (archaic) A woman, esp an old wife, a feeble old woman of humble rank Phr old wives' tale, a foolish, fantastic story, told and belied by the credulous wifehood, n [1 wɪfhoʊd, 2 waɪfhoʊd] Prec & -hood Condition of being a wife wifeless, adj [1 wɪfləs, 2 waɪfləs] wife & -less Without a wife wifelike, adj [1 wɪflɪk, 2 waɪflɪk] wife & -like a Like a wife, b suitable, appropriate, for a wife, c appertaining to a wife wifely, adj [1 wɪfli, 2 waɪfli] wife & -ly Wifelike wig (I), n [1 wɪɡ, 2 wɪɡ] Abbr fr periwig 1 A covering for the head, made of hair, a head dress of human hair, worn by the bald, or by actors &c, made to imitate naturally growing hair, b head dress of horse hair, made in various forms, worn in 17th and 18th cents as a fashionable ornament, similar head dress still worn in court &c by judges and counsel Phr wigs on the green, (1) a rough, hand to hand fight, (u) a heated public altercation or dispute 2 (facet and colloq) A natural head of hair you had better brush your windy wig wig (II), vb trans Perh orig in physical sense, fr idea of striking person on the head, knocking his wig off &c, cp somewhat similar transference of meaning in such vbs as to jacket, dress down, & Phrs comb his hair, dust his jacket for him &c (slang) To blame severely, take to task, to rate, scold wigan, n [1 wɪɡən, 2 wɪɡən], fr name of town in S Lancashire Kind of stiff canvas used for stiffening hems of garments, collars &c wig-block, n Round block, shaped more or less like a human head, used to hold wigs while being combed &c wigged, adj [1 wɪɡd, 2 wɪɡd] wig (I) & -ed Having, wearing, a wig wigging, n [1 wɪɡɪŋ, 2 wɪɡɪŋ] wig (II) & -ing (slang) A severe scolding, a rating, a dressing down wiggle, vb trans & intrans [1 wɪɡl, 2 wɪɡl] Variant of waggle, or blend of this & wriggle (colloq) 1 trans To cause to move with a slight but rapid movement to wiggle one's little finger 2 intrans To make slight, jerky, nervous movements, to wriggle wight, n [1 wɪt, 2 waɪt] OE wiht, 'creature, thing', see whit (I) (archaic or facet) Creature, person, human being a luckless wight wigless, adj [1 wɪɡləs, 2 wɪɡləs] wig (I) & -less Without a wig wig-maker, n Tradesman who makes and sells wigs and deals in human hair wigwam, n [1 wɪɡwəm, -wəm, 2 wɪɡwəm, -wəm] fr N Am Indian wigwam N American Indian's roughly made, conical tent of poles hung with bark, hides &c wild (I), adj [1 wɪld, 2 waɪld] OE wilde, ME wilde, 'wild, savage, uncultivated', cp OS wilde, OHG wild, O.N. villr, Goth wilpaw, 'wild' Further etymol. doubtful 1 a (of birds, beasts &c) Lying in original, natural state, not domesticated, not in subjection to man, contrasted with tame wild animals, Phr to be drawn by wild horses, form of torture, b easily startled, why the deer are very wild 2 (of plants &c) Uncultivated, not planted or tended by man, growing naturally wild roses, cherries &c Phrs to run wild, (1) grow without training or cultivation, (u) (fig of persons) to grow up without due control, to own one's wild oats, to indulge in those follies and dissipations supposed to be natural to youth 3 (of man) Uncivilized, savage, in a primitive state of culture 3 (of land) Left in, or having reverted to, natural, uncultivated, and uninhabited state wild mountain regions, a wild and desolate country 5 Disarranged, disturbed, disordered wild hair, affairs &c, is a skate of wild confusion 6 Dissipated, fond of riotous, extravagant, wanton pleasure and excitement, reverse of steady, sedate rather wild as a young man 7 Disturbed, violently agitated, tumultuous, turbulent, stormy, boisterous a wild sea, a wild night, wild cheers 8 In a condition of mental excitement or disturbance, roused to a state of enthusiasm or frenzy, distracted, a exited by joy, desire &c they are wild to go, wild with delight; wild excitement, Phr to be wild about (person, cause &c), intensely devoted to, b mentally deranged, crazy, frantic he has a wild look, wild laughter, Phr to drive wild, to render, distracted, o (colloq) very angry it made me wild to listen to such nonsense 9 Rash, ill-advised, reckless, ill aimed, done or said at random wild talk, accusation, choking, wild schemes wild (II), adv, fr prec Wildly, esp without care, consideration, or proper aim to shoot wild wild (III), n, fr wild (I) A Land in natural, uncultivated state, wilderness 'Till from the garden and the wild A fresh association blow' (Tennyson, 'In Mem' m 6), b remote, savage, uninhabited country the wilds of Africa, the call of the wild wild-boar, n Kind of pig, Sus scrofa, still found wild in parts of Europe, from which domesticated swine have descended wild-cat, n 1 Large, very fierce, undomesticated cat found in N Scotland and other parts of Europe &c 2 (attrib) In Phr wild-cat schemes, fantastic, visionary, unpracticable schemes wild-duck, n One of various kinds of wild, freshwater ducks wildebeest, n [1 wɪldəbɛst, 2 wɪldəbɛst] S Afr Du, see wild (I) & beast Variety of large antelope, gnu wilder, vb trans [1 wɪldər, 2 wɪldə] Prob abbr fr bewilder (poet) To mislead, bewilder, perplex wilderness, n [1 wɪldənəs, 2 wɪldənəs], fr ME wildern, 'desert', fr OE wildor, wilder, 'wild heath', fr wilde, 'wild', see wild (I), & dor, 'animal', see deer, & -ness 1 Uncultivated, sometimes barren, region, wholly or for the most part uninhabited, desert, specif, that region in which the children of Israel wandered forty years before reaching the Promised Land 2 Vast, desolate expanse of land or water a wilderness of waters Phr a wilderness of streets, houses, long, monotonous series of dull, squalid streets or houses 3 Part of garden allowed to grow naturally, without cultivation wildfire, n [1 wɪldfɪr, 2 wɪldfɪdɪz] 1 Combustible, highly inflammable compound, formerly used to set fire to hostile ships &c, Greek fire Chiefly in Phr to spread like wildfire, very rapidly 2 Phosphorescent light, eg St Elmo's fire wild-fowl, n Wild birds hunted as game wild-geese, n Undomesticated goose Phr a wild goose chase, a futile enterprise, search for something which can never be found, or which has no existence wilding, n [1 wɪldɪŋ, 2 wɪldɪŋ] wild (I) & -ing 1 Uncultivated plant, esp among cultivated plants, or one that has sprung naturally from originally cultivated stock 2 Fruit of such a plant wildish, adj [1 wɪldɪʃ, 2 wɪldɪʃ] wild (I) & -ish Somewhat, inclined to be, wild wildly, adv [1 wɪldli, 2 wɪldli] wild (I) & -ly In a wild manner wildness, n [1 wɪldnəs, 2 wɪldnəs] wild (I) & -ness A state or quality of being wild (in various senses of adj), b wild, dissipated conduct or habits wildnesses of youth wild-wood, n Natural forest-land wile, n & vb trans [1 wɪl, 2 waɪl] OE wif, ME wile, 'trick', etymol. doubtful 1 n (usually pl.) Means of enticing, persuading, or cajoling, cunning stratagem, ruse, craft to defeat the wiles of the devil 2 vb a To entice, lure, mislead, b in Phr to wile away the time, to spend it pleasantly, confused with while (II) wilful, adj [1 wilfool, 2 wilful] will (I) & -ful 1 (of person or character) Obstinate and perversely determined to have one's own way, headstrong, stubborn, wayward, capricious 2 (of action) Springing from deliberate intention, premeditated, not the result of sudden passion or of accident wilful waste, destruction, epicif, wilful murder wilfully, adv Preo & -ly In a wilful manner wilfulness, n See preo & -ness a Quality of being wilful, b wilful conduct wilily, adv [1 wilily, 2 wailily] wily & -ly In a wily manner wiliness, n [1 wiliness, 2 wailiness] wily & -ness State or quality of being wily, craft, cunning will (I), n [1 wil, 2 wil] OE willan, 'will', see will (II) 1 Faculty of controlling one's thoughts and actions, of determining and directing the activities of mind or body, op. volition freedom of the will 2 Power of imposing one's influence and controlling force on oneself or others, strength of will a strong will, he has no will of his own 3 Energy directed to a particular end, enthusiasm in action to work with a will 4 Definite intention, determined course of action where there's a will there's a way, against one's will, to take the will for the deed 5 Disposition, feelings towards others, now chiefly in compounds. good-, ill will 6 That which one wills, purpose, intention God's will be done, to work one's will, have one's will 7 Personal right of action, discretion, esp in Phr at will, when and how one please, tenant at will, liable to be dispossessed without notice 8 Legal document by which a person makes disposition of his property, taking effect after his death one's last will and testament, to make, draw up, a will will (II), vb trans & intrans OE willan, ME willen, 'to desire, wish', cp OS willan, OHG willan, ON vilja, Goth willan, 'will', cogn w Goth willan, OHG willan, 'to choose', Goth willja, OE willan, 'will', n, OHG willa, 'choice', cogn w Lat velle, 'to wish', voluptas, 'pleasure', see voluptuous & volition, Gk elpe, 'hope', Sort varanum, 'choice', urnit, 'chooses, prefers', Lth vellyu, 'to wish', velis, 'hope', O Slav volja, 'will', vb A trans 1 To be desirous of, wish, be anxious or eager for (archaic) what would you?, let him do what he will, would that he were come, I would to heaven I had stayed 2 To resolve, decide, upon (action &c) by exercise of the will, make choice of whatever he wills he may accomplish 3 To control (person &c) by means of the will, exercise power over to will oneself to fall asleep, to will a person to look at one B intrans To be desirous, anxious, or eager, to exercise the will it must be as God wills, they had to obey, whether they would or not will (III), auxil vb, fr preo The auxil is usually unstressed & is then, in ordinary speech, reduced to [l], written 'll' When it follows a personal pronoun will ceases to be syllabic, & is attached as a final consonant to the preceding syll, s e the pron I'll, he'll, she'll, we'll, you'll, they'll = [aɪl, hɪl, ʃɪl, ðeɪl] &c After words ending in voiceless consonants [l] has force of a syll the'll, what'll &c After words ending in voiced consonants 'll is sounded [əɪl] Jones'll come = [dʒəʊnzəl kəm], the king'll be pleased = [ðə kɪŋəl bi plɪzd] Will only retains its full form in natural, rapid speech (1) when strongly stressed, & this only happens when the idea, or function, expressed by the will is emphasized if he says that he'll come, he will = [ɪf (h) ɪz sɛz ðæt hɪl kəm, hɪ wɪl], boys will be boys = [bɔɪz wɪl bi bɔɪz], & so on, (2) initially, in interrogative sentences, even when the stress is weak will he come, do you think? 1 (expressing future pure and simple) You never know what he'll do next, we'll be there in good time, you'll hurt yourself if you're not careful, what'll be the end of it all? 2 (1) (expressing a certain degree of purpose and intention alongside of futurity) I'll certainly go and see him if you like, I'll be a good boy for the future, (u) (expressing firm resolution, strongly stressed) I will be obeyed, he will have his joke 3 (expressing habitual or repeated action) There he'll sit hour after hour without saying a word 4 (expressing natural process or action, inevitability) Boys will be boys, accidents will happen 5 (expressing inference, expectation that the facts will turn out to be as stated) This'll be our train, I fancy, I suppose she would be about 40 when she died (For negative constructions with will, see won't) will (IV), vb trans, fr will (I), 8 A To devise, bequeath, by means of a will, leave as legacy to will one's property away from one's natural heirs, b to bequeath property &c to

-willed, adj [1 willed, 2 willed] will (I) & -ed Having a will of specific quality strong, weak willed &c willet, n [1 willet, 2 willet] Imitative Large N American sandpiper willing, adj [1 willing, 2 willing] will (II) & -ing 1 Favourably disposed, inclined (for action), desirous, eager (to do something) 'Willing to wound, and yet afraid to strike' (Pope, 'Epist to Arbutnot', 203), if you would like me to intervene, I'm quite willing 2 a (of living beings) Ready and eager to help, or to perform tasks proposed or allotted, serviceable a willing guide, heart, a willing horse, he doesn't know his job very well, but he's willing and obliging, b (of services, actions) rendered, performed, offered, willingly willingly, adv Preo & -ly In a willing manner, gladly, readily willingness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being willing will-less, adj [1 willess, 2 willess] will (I) & -less Without will power, wanting in volition will-o'-the-wisp, n [1 wil o the wisp, 2 wil a ðə wɪsp], fr personal name Will, & wisp in sense of 'bundle of tow, straw &c, used as torch' Ignis fatuus willow (I), n [1 wilə, 2 willow] OE willow, willig, ME willige, willue, cp M Du willighe, cogn w Gk helikē, 'willow', for welk-*, Sort valkad, 'shoot, plant twig', fr base wel*, wol*, 'to turn', see well (I), willow, volute &c 1 Any tree or shrub of the genus Salix, many species of which are found in the Northern hemisphere, esp in watery ground, most species have slender, plant branches, and some yield strong timber, used for cricket-hats &c, weeping willow, kind with long, drooping branches Phr to wear the willow, as symbol of mourning 2 A cricket-hat, as made of willow wood to wield the willow, to hat willow (II), vb trans & n, fr preo, fr use of willow branches for beating fibre 1 vb To clean (fibres) by heating in a machine 2 n Also willowing machine, machine with revolving spikes for cleaning fibre willow-herb, n Any of many species of herb, Epilobium, some tall, with pale, pinkish-purple flowers and long leaves like those of willow willow-pattern, n A Chinese design for china, with pagodas, a river, willow trees, a bridge upon which are three persons, and two birds flying overhead, usually printed or painted in blue on white ground, b china bearing this design willow-warbler, n Bird resembling chiff chaff willow-wren, n Small bird belonging to the warblers willowy, adj [1 wiləi, 2 willouzi] willow (I) & -y 1 Abounding in willows 2 Slender, supple, and graceful a willowy figure will-power, n Strength of will, ability to control, endure, determine course of events &c will-worship, n (archaic) Self invented, arbitrary, form of religion willy nilly, adv [1 wɪlɪ nɪli, 2 wɪlɪ nɪli] Variant of will I or he, will I or he, see will (II) & nil Whether one will or not, inevitably, of necessity wilt (I), vb [1 wilt, 2 wilt] 2nd pers sing pres of will (II) wilt (II), vb intrans & trans Etymol. doubtful, possibly connected w welk 1 intrans (of plant &c) To lose freshness and strength, to fade, droop 2 trans To cause to fade, droop, to wither

Wilton, n [1 wiltun, 2 wiltan], fr town in Wiltshire Also Wilton carpet, kind of Brussels carpet with out pile, made at, or similar to those made at, Wilton, formerly made at Axminster wily, adj [1 wɪli, 2 waili] wile & -y Full of, characterized by, wiles, artful, crafty, cunning wimple, n [1 wɪmpl, 2 wɪmpl] OE, ME wimpel, 'neck covering, cloak', cp M Du wimpel, 'streamer', ON wimpill, OHG wimpel, 'veil', cp further M HG wisen, 'to swing', OHG wipf, 'swing', cogn w Lat vibrare, 'to swing, vibrate', Lth wijburu, 'to wave', see vibrate, op whip (II) Cloth of linen, silk &c folded about head so as to expose the face, now worn in W Europe only by nuns wimpled, adj [1 wɪmpld, 2 wɪmpld] Preo & -ed Wearing a wimple win (I), vb trans & intrans [1 win, 2 win] OE winnan, 'to toil, suffer, fight', gewinnan, 'to gain, conquer', ME winnen, 'to strive, to win', cp OS, OHG winnan, ON vinna, OHG gunnann, 'to strive after', cogn w Sort vanat, 'wishes, desires, fights for, wins', vanaf, 'desire', Lat venus, 'love', see Venus, fr base wen-*, 'to wish', see also wont, winsome, wish A trans 1 A To gain, obtain, acquire, by effort, esp in competition, against opposition &c to win a prize, the victory, a laurel wreath, honour, a lady's hand, golden opinions &c, Phrs to win one's spurs, (1) (hist) achieve knighthood by valiant service, hence (u) to do something which proves one's real value, to win ore, extract it from mine, b to reach, arrive at, with effort to win the shore, the mountain-top &c Phr to win one's way, (obscure fig) to succeed in life, a career &c by dint of effort 2 To achieve victory in to win a race, battle, game &c Phr to win the day, field, he victorious 3 To gain to win all hearts, he won the jury over to his side B intrans 1 To win a contest, fight, game, race &c, he victorious, prevail he is sure to win, may the best man win, to win by a length, a head, a neck Phrs to win hands down, (colloq) to be easily successful 2 Win clear, win out, win through, to come, get, through or out, to escape, with difficulty win (II), n, fr preo Act of winning, victory, success in a contest to celebrate a win, another win for Lancashire wince, vb intrans & n [1 wins, 2 wins] ME winc(h)en, 'to kick out, to start, to draw back', cp O Fr guenchir, guenir, fr OS wenken, cogn w OHG wanchōn, 'to draw back', OHG wanchal, OE wancel, 'unstable', see wench, OHG wanlan, 'to move sideways, start, wink', OE winesan, 'to wink, nod', see wink, cogn w Lat vagari, 'to wander', see vagary 1 vb To start or draw back suddenly, to shrink away, to show sensitiveness to sudden bodily or moral pain or shock, to flinch to wince under the blows, to bear pain without wincing, brutal, vulgar jests make her wince Phr let the galled jade wince, let him who considers that an insult &c is levelled at him resent it 2 n Involuntary movement, recoil, shrinking, caused by mental or physical pain wincey, n [1 winsi, 2 winsi] Perh coined fr woolsey and linsey Strong cotton and wool fabric winch, n [1 winch, 2 wint] O E wince, 'pulley', M E wincbe, 'winch, windlass', cogn w Lith vingis, 'bow, curve', Sert vaggar, 'limps', Lat vagari, 'to wander', see vagary, op further O E wincan, 'to nod, wink', see wink, wancel, 'unstable', see wench 1 Windlass, esp with revolving drum worked by a crank 2 Crank for use as a handle

Winchester, n [1 winchester, 2 wint[ist]], fr place name in USA Kind of repeating rifle wind (I), n [1 wind, 2 wind] Pronounced [wind, waɪnd] to end of 18th cent., & still often so rhymed by poets Cp wind (III) O E, M E wind, op Goth winda, O S wind, O H G wint, O N windr, 'wind', cogn w Lat ventus, see ventilate, W gwyni, op further O E wedar, see weather, O Prussian wetro, 'wind', O Slav vedro, 'good weather', Sert zdi, 'blows', idys, 'wind, air', O Slav vějat, O H G wajan, O E wāwan, 'to blow', Gk oēus, 'I blow', adēs, 'wind', adē, 'air', fr aud, see air 1 Air set in motion by natural causes, esp when moving rapidly enough to be perceptible a gentle, strong, hot, cold, wind, favourable, variable, winds, a wet wind, one hanging rain, contrary, fair, winds, unfavourable, favourable, to navigation & constant winds, blowing always in same direction over specific areas, periodical winds, those changing their direction at specific periods, north, west, S E, wind & blowing from specified direction, the wind rises, falls, becomes stronger, weaker, (to) the four winds, to all points of the compass, broadest, a capful of wind, small gust, against the wind, in the wind's eye, in the teeth of the wind, towards the direction from which the wind is blowing, between wind and water, (i) line where surface of water meets vessel's hull, (u) (fig) part of human body between the thorax and the abdomen hit between wind and water, by the wind, (naut) close hauled, down wind, before the wind, in the direction of, carried along by, the wind, (to know, find out, see) how the wind blows, see, what direction affairs are taking, tendency of public opinion & in the wind, in process of development, discussion & esp secretly what's in the wind, there's something in the wind, to cast (prudence, one's reputation & so) to the winds, act without consideration for it, to get, hate, the wind of, have advantage over, be in more favourable position, to go, run & c like the wind, very fast, to raise the wind (slang), raise funds, to sail close to the wind, (fig) to verge on dishonesty, illegality, impropriety & so, to take the wind out of one's sails, render action of abortive by anticipating and counteracting it Phrs To put the wind up (person), to frighten, get the wind up, be frightened (army slang) 2 Air set in motion by artificial, mechanical, means & so the wind from the bellows, the wind of the passing train 3 A scent borne by the wind, (hence fig) b rumour, hunt to get wind of, hear as rumour & c 4 Gas produced in stomach or bowels by acidity, indigestion & so, flatulence 5 A breath, regularity or force of breathing, lung power to lose, get, one's wind, sound in wind and limb, broken wind, unpaired breath (esp of horse), second wind, regularity of breathing regained during violent exercise after first breathlessness, b part of body below diaphragm, blow on which temporarily checks breathing to hit one in the wind 6 Empty talk, purposeless or extravagant use of words 7 (mus) Wind instruments in an orchestra, contrasted with strings, brass wind, trumpets & c, wood wind, flutes & c wind (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To scent, detect by scent the hounds winded the quarry 2 To exhaust the breath of, cause to breathe with an effort to be winded by running 3 To recover the wind of, give opportunity of getting breath to to stop in order to wind the horse wind (III), vb trans [1 wind, 2 wound], fr wind (I) 1 To sound a call or signal on (horn, bugle & c) 2 To sound, produce, on wind instrument to wind a call & c wind (IV), vb intrans & trans [1 wind, 2 wound] O E windan, M E winden, 'to wind, to go, circle round', op O S windan, O H G winkan, O N winda, Goth windon, 'to wind, turn, twist', op further Goth wandjan, O E wenden, 'to turn', see wand (I), Goth wandus, O N wandr, 'supple rod', see wand A intrans 1 a (of series or line of moving beings) To go, pass along 'The lowing herd winds slowly o'er the lea' (Gray's 'Elegy'), b to pass by a curving, tortuous course 'And as the boat head wound along The willowy hills and fields among' (Tennyson, 'Lady of Shalott') 2 a (of road, stream, course) To run, flow, lead, in bends and twistings, b (of stairway) to pass upwards or downwards in spirals round a central structure 3 Wind round, (of a serpent, climbing plant & c) to coil, twine, round B trans 1 a (i) To turn, cause to revolve to wind a handle, (u) to raise, draw up, by winding to wind a bucket, water, from a well, b to start mechanism of by winding, (i) to tighten spring of (watch or clock) by turning a key, (u) to raise weights of (certain kinds of clock) by turning a handle 2 To form into a ball by a series of circular movements, by coiling up evenly on itself, or round something as a basis to wind wool, to wind thread on to a reel, a line on to a stick & c Phr to (be able to) wind a person round one's little finger, bend him to one's will, make him do what one pleases 3 To enfold with, wrap round, twine round to wind one's arms round a person's neck, wind a shawl round a baby, a baby in a shawl & c 4 To wind one's way, to pursue one's course, esp deliberately, cautiously C Followed by adverbs & preps Wind off, trans, to remove by unwinding, uncoiling to wind cotton off a reel Wind up, 1 trans, a to coil round and round, form into a ball to wind up wool, string & c, b to recoil, or increase tightness of spring to fullest extent, in order to set, or keep, going to wind up a watch, c to increase intensity of feeling of wound up to a high pitch of excitement, d to bring to an end, terminate, conclude to wind up a speech by a quotation, the Chancellor wound up the debate, to wind up a company, dissolve it, 2 intrans, (of person) to stop, conclude I hope this tedious speaker will soon wind up, (of trading company) to go into liquidation wind (V), n, fr prec 1 Act of winding, turn of handle, crank & c, angle turn in winding wool & c 2 Bend, curve, turn, twist, winding the winds of a path, stream & c windage, n [1 windy, 2 windage] wind (I) & -age 1 A amount of deviation of projectile from its normal course owing to wind, b allowance for such deflection made in aiming 2 Difference between diameter of projectile and that of bore of gun from which it is discharged windbag, n [1 windbag, 2 windbag] (slang) A person who talks much but says little, one who utters platitudes in a high flown, verbose style wind-bound, adj Delayed by contrary winds wind-break, n Fence, hedge & c breaking force of wind wind-chest, n Box in organ from which compressed air is supplied to the pipes wind-colic, n Pain due to flatulence wind-cutter, n Upper lip of month of organ pipe wind-egg, n a Imperfect egg with very thin shell, b unfertilized egg winder, n [1 winder, 2 winder] wind (II) & -er One who, that which, winds, esp a mechanical apparatus for winding thread & c windfall, n [1 windfall, 2 windfall] 1 Fruit blown down by wind 2 Unexpected piece of good luck, specul, unanticipated legacy or sum of money received wind-fanner, n Windhover windflower, n [1 windflower, 2 windflower] Wood anemone wind-gall, n Soft swelling on horse's fetlock wind-gauge, n 1 Instrument for measuring force of wind 2 Indicator showing amount of air in wind chest of organ 3 Device fixed on gun indicating force of wind and allowance to be made for windage windhover, n [1 wind hover, 2 windhöve] Kestrel windily, adv [1 windily, 2 windily] windy & -ly In a windy manner windiness, n [1 windiness, 2 windiness] windy & -ness State or quality of being windy winding (I), adj [1 winding, 2 winding], fr Pres Part of wind (IV) Tending to wind, having numerous turns and twists, constantly curving in a different direction a winding stream, path, passage & c, a winding staircase, one built in a spiral winding (II), n wind (IV) & -ing a Twist, turn, curve, bend, of winding course, coil, spiral, of coiled object, esp b (pl) windings, series of bends or curves of stream, road & c windingly, adv [1 windingly, 2 windingly] winding (I) & -ly With many windings winding-sheet, n Sheet used to wrap a corpse, a shroud winding-up, n A Act or process of concluding, state of being concluded, termination, specif b liquidation of a company wind-instrument, n Musical instrument, the notes of which are produced by air, esp by breath wind-jammer, n [1 wind jammer, 2 wind jammer] Large, swift sailing ship windlass, n & vb trans [1 windlass, 2 windlass] M E windelas, prob fr A Fr windas, fr O N windas, fr winda, 'to wind', fr base in wind (IV), & ass, 'beam, pillar', cp Goth ana, 'beam', cogn w Gk onios, 'burdensome', anā, 'trouble', & prob w Lat onus, 'burden', see onus 1 n Apparatus for hoisting or hauling by means of a rope or wire wound on to a horizontal drum & c 2 vb To hoist by means of a windlass windless, adj [1 windless, 2 windless] wind (I) & -less Without wind, still, calm a windless day windlestraw, n [1 windlestraw, 2 windlestraw] O E windlestraw, fr windel, 'twisting', fr wind (IV) & straw (I) Dry, withered grass stalk windmill, n [1 windmill, 2 windmill] 1 Mill for grinding corn turned by the pressure of the wind upon the sails 2 Any apparatus resembling the sails of a windmill which, when made to revolve by wind pressure, performs certain work, esp that of pumping water window, n [1 window, 2 window] M E windahe, windowe, fr O N windauga, see wind (I) & eye Opening in the wall or roof of a building to admit light, usually filled with panes of glass fixed in a movable frame, similar glazed opening in a closed vehicle, to break a window, break one or more panes of glass in a window window-box, n 1 Hollow recess in a window-frame in which the sash weight moves 2 Box on window sill for growing plants window-dressing, n Art of arranging goods in shop window windowed, adj [1 windowed, 2 windowed] window & -ed Having, furnished with, windows windowless, adj [1 windowless, 2 windowless] window & -less Without windows window-pane, n Pane of glass in a window window-seat, n Broad seat fitted below a window, so adapted that a person using it can see out windpipe, n [1 windpipe, 2 windpipe] Air passage between mouth and lungs, trachea windrow, n [1 windrow, 2 windrow] Line of hay raked into a low ridge after cutting, and left to dry before putting into cocks wind-sail, n Canvas funnel or tube for ventilation ship's hold & c wind-screen, n Transparent plate of glass &c to shelter driver of motor &c from wind Windsor, n [1 windzer, 2 windzə], fr Windsor in Berkshire, where is the royal palace of Windsor Castle The House and Family of Windsor, the style, adopted 1917, of the reigning dynasty of Great Britain and Ireland, Windsor chair, wooden chair with curving back and sides, Windsor soap, also brown Windsor, kind of cheap brown, scented toilet soap, Windsor uniform, uniform worn, at Windsor Castle only, by members of the royal family and certain officers of the Household, consisting of a dark blue evening-dress coat with scarlet collar, facings, and cuffs, white waistcoat, and black breeches or trousers wind-spout, n Revolving column of air, tornado, whirlwind wind-stick, n (slang) Propeller of aeroplane wind-swept, adj Exposed to winds wind-tight, adj Not permitting the passage of, impervious to, wind windward, adj & n [1 windward, 2 wind-wad] wind(I) & -ward 1 adj Facing, exposed to, the direction from which the wind is blowing the windward side 2 n Windward side or region the boat passed to windward Phr to get to windward of, to get an advantage over windy, adj [1 windy, 2 winds] wind(I) & -y 1 Abounding in, exposed to, wind a windy day, windy weather, a windy spot, the windy side of the house 2 Addicted to, characterized by, empty verbosity a windy speaker, windy rhetoric 3 (slang) Having the wind up, nervous, frightened wine (I), n [1 win, 2 wain] OE, ME win, OHG win, ON vin, Goth wein, very ancient loan word fr Lat vinum, 'wine', see vine 1 Fermented grape juice Phr Adam's wine, water, in wine, intoxicated, to take wine with (a person), to raise one's glass ceremoniously, bow to the person, and drink to his health 2 Fermented juice of other fruit or flowers, the kind being usually specified currant, coushup, elderberry, dandelion, wine &c 3 (univ) A friendly evening party, usually of limited size, at which wine is drunk to have a wine in one's rooms 4 (med) Medicinal solution of drug in wine 5 Also wine colour, colour of red wine wine (II), vb intrans, fr preo To drink wine, &c to indulge to excess in wine-drinking winebag, n [1 winbag, 2 wainbag] 1 Wine-skin 2 (slang) Winebibber winebibber, n [1 winbiber, 2 wainbibe] Person given to excessive drinking of wine winebibbing, n [1 winbibing, 2 wainbibing] Excessive indulgence in wine winebottle, n [1 winbòtl, 2 wainbòtl] 1 Glass bottle for wine 2 Wineskin winebowl, n [1 winbòl, 2 wainbòul] Bowl used for drinking wine wine-carriage, n Wheeled vessel for passing a decanter or bottle of wine round table wine-cellar, n Cellar in which wine is stored wine-cooler, n Vessel for holding ice in which bottle of wine is placed to cool winecup, n [1 winkup, 2 wainkap] Cup from which wine is drunk winefat, n [1 winfat, 2 wainfat] The second element in an old, Nthn or Midland, form of vat (Bib and archaic) Wine press, cp Is Is Is 2 wineglass, n [1 winglahs, 2 wainglahs] 1 Drinking glass, varying in size and shape, used for wine 2 (as measure) Usually, sherry glass wineglassful, n [1 winglahsfùl, 2 wainglahsfùl] Preo & -ful Amount contained in a wineglass, about two fluid ounces wineless, adj [1 winles, 2 wainles] wine & -less Without wine wine-marc, n Refuse left after juice has been crushed from grapes wine-palm, n Variety from which palm wine is made wine-press, n Apparatus for pressing juice from grapes for making wine winery, n [1 wineri, 2 waineri] wine & -ry Establishment where wine is made wineskin, n [1 winskin, 2 wainskin] Animal's skin made into a bag for holding wine wine-stone, n Tartar deposited by wine wine-vault, n 1 Cellar for storing wine 2 Cellar, shop, bar, where wine is sold and consumed wine-whey, n Drink made of wine, whey, and sugar wing (I), n [1 wing, 2 wɪŋ] ME weng, wing, fr ON vanga, 'wing', op change (in pronunciation) of e to i before -ng in England &c, cogn w Swed vinge 'wing', further etymol doubtful 1 One of the fore-limbs, including bones, feathers &c, by means of which a bird flies Phrs grey goose wing, arrow, on the wings of the wind, very swiftly, fear d.c. lent him wings, made him go extra fast, to clip the wings of, limit activities of, to take to itself wings, depart, vanish, quickly, under the wing of, under the protection of, on the wing, (i) in flight, (u) (fig) in the act or process of departing, to take wing, to fly away, to depart 2 Organ, usually membranous, by means of which an insect, bat, flying-fish &c propels itself through the air 3 One of the broad, flat surfaces by means of which an aeroplane is supported in the air & a structure resembling a wing in position, appearance &c, specif b projection at side or end of building, at right angles to main part, c (pl) sides of stage, scenery placed in this position 5 Appendage resembling a wing in shape or position, specif a thin, flat membrane attached to some kinds of seed, by means of which it is carried through the air, b one of the two side petals of a flower of the bean family 6 A Division of army, member of team &c working on one side of main body right, left, wing, b a division, consisting of three squadrons, of the Royal Air Force wing (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 To give wings to, furnish (arrow &c) with wings 2 (lit and fig) To set in motion, start in flight, impel rapidly, increase speed of to wing an arrow at its mark, horror winged his steps, jealousy winged his shafts 3 (of birds) To fly over, traverse on the wing 'Part loosely wing the region' (Milton, 'P L' vi 425), also to wing the air, wing its way through the air, wings its flight, flies 4 To wound (bird) in the wing, or (person) in the arm B intrans To fly through the air on wings the angel wings heavenwards wing-beat, n Single complete movement of bird's wing in flying wing-case, n Thickened horny development of fore wing of some insects, forming a protective cover for posterior wing wing-commander, n Officer in Royal Air Force corresponding in rank to a commander in navy, or a lieutenant colonel in the army wing-covert, n One of the small feathers at joint of wing, covering base of flying feathers winged, adj [1 wingd, 2 wɪŋd] wing (I) & -ed. Having, furnished with, wings, the winged god, Mercury, the winged horse, Pegasus wing-footed, adj (poet) Flying as on wings, swift wingless, adj [1 wingles, 2 wɪŋles] wing (I) & -less Without wings winglet, n [1 winglet, 2 wɪŋlet] wing (I) & -let Small wing wing-sheath, n Wing case wing-spread, n Width across extended wings from tip to tip wing-stroke, n Wing beat wink (I), vb intrans & trans [1 wɪŋk, 2 wɪŋk] OE wincan, 'to nod, wink', ME winken, op MHG winken, see wince A intrans 1 (of person) A To open and close eyelids quickly, blink, b to lower and raise one eyelid, esp as signal or hint to another person, see wink at 2 (of eye) To close and open rapidly Phr (slang) like winking, very swiftly 3 (of light, star &c) To shine, flash, intermittently or fitfully, twinkle B trans To close and open (eye) rapidly C Followed by preposition Wink at, 1 to give a hint or signal to a person by lowering and raising one eyelid quickly, 2 to connive at, ignore deliberately (misconduct, an abuse &c) wink (II), n, fr preo Act of winking, a momentary closing of eyes I have not slept a wink, did not get a wink of sleep, Phr forly winks, short nap, b rapid closing and opening of one eye to convey a signal, hint &c Phr (slang) to tip (a person) the wink, give him a hint winkle, n [1 wɪŋkl, 2 wɪŋkl] OE -wincle, 'shell-fish' (with spiral shell), cogn w OE wincan, 'to nod, wink', see wink, OHG wanchōn, 'to draw back, start, move sideways', Lat vagari, 'to wander', see vagary & words there referred to Edible shell-fish, sea-snail, periwinkle winner, n [1 winer, 2 wɪnə] win (I) & -er 1 One who, that which, wins, specif, a horse that wins a race the evening papers will give all the winners 2 -winner, earner, see broad-winner winning, adj [1 wining, 2 wɪnɪŋ] fr Preo Part of win (I) 1 Victorious in contest &c the winning horse, team, side &c 2 Giving, leading to, victory in contest, game &c the winning hit, stroke, shot, move &c 3 Charming, attractive, engaging winning manners, smile, personality &c winningly, adv Preo & -ly In a winning manner, engagingly winning-post, n Post marking end of race-course winnings, n [1 winingz, 2 wɪnɪŋz] win (I) & -ing Amount won, esp money won in betting winnow, vb trans [1 wɪnə, 2 wɪnə] OE wundanan, ME wind(e)wen, wunewen, 'to winnow', op Goth (dis)winjan, 'to throw apart', OHG wintōn, 'to winnow', cogn w Lat cannus, 'winnowing fan', see van (III) & fan (I), ventilate, 'to blow, winnow', see ventilate, Gk anēan (fr 'wanj-'), 'to separate grain from chaff', Lith šėlū, 'to winnow', cogn also w wind (I) 1 A To separate (grain &c) from husks, chaff &c by allowing a current of air to play upon it, b to separate, remove, clear off (chaff &c) from grain by means of a current of air 2 (fig) A To separate, sort out, discern, sift, what is good, true, reliable &c, from what is bad, worthless, doubtful &c to winnow the facts from a mass of words, b to separate (what is false, inferior &c) from what is good or reliable 3 (poet) A To beat with or as with wings, to agitate, stir, (of Satan) 'with quick fan Winnows the buzzon air' (Milton, 'P L' v 269-70), b (of air) to pass through and stir winsome, adj [1 winsum, 2 wɪnsəm] OE wynsum, 'pleasant', ME winsome, fr wynn, 'joy, pleasure', q v under wish, & -some Engaging, attractive, sweet and charming a winsome maiden, smile, face &c, winsome manners winsomely, adv Preo & -ly In a winsome manner winsomeness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being winsome winter (I), n [1 winter, 2 wɪntə] OE, ME winter, op OS, OHG winter, Goth wintrus, 'winter', prob orig, 'the white or snowy season', op O Gaul uindo, 'white', W guynn 1 Coldest season of the year, between autumn and spring, usually considered to include, in Northern hemisphere, the months of December, January, February, (astron) from autumn solstice (Dec 22nd) to vernal equinox (Mar 20th) Phr hard winter, a very cold one 2 (poet) Year, esp in reckoning age of old person a man of eighty winters winter (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans To spend, live during, the winter to winter in Italy, on the Riviera &c 2 trans To keep, graze (cattle &c) during the winter

winter (III), adj, fr winter (I) Occurring in, characteristic of, used or occupied in, carried on during, the winter winter frosts, clothes, quarters, sports, apples &c, winter sleep, hibernation winter-apple, n One which ripens during the winter

winterberry, n [1 winterberi, 2 wintabəri] Red berried N American shrub, black alder winter garden, n Large conservatory, warmed, stocked with semi tropical trees and shrubs, and used as a smoking and sitting room winter-green, n Genus of low growing, ever green plants, Gaultheria, the leaves of which yield an aromatic oil, used for flavouring and scenting winterless, adj [1 winterles, 2 wintales] winter (I) & -less Without cold season winter-lodge, n (bot) Bulb &c enclosing embryo during winter wintery, adj [1 winterli, 2 wintali] winter & -ly Wintery winter sports, n Open air sports, sking, skating &c indulged in, esp in Switzerland, Norway &c, in winter winterude, n [1 winterid, 2 wintatid] Season of winter winterness, n [1 wintines, 2 wintines] Next word & -ness Quality of being wintry winty, adj [1 wintn, 2 wintn] winter & -y 1 Characteristic of winter, cold, stormy, snowy &c 2 (fig) Cold, unfriendly, frigid, in manner, expression &c a winty smile,

greeting &c

winy, adj [1 wini, 2 waini] wine & -y Resembling, having colour or taste of, wine naze, n [1 winz, 2 winz] Perk connected w wind (I) Small mine shaft for ventilation or communication between two levels wipe (I), vb trans [1 wip, 2 waiip] O E wifian, M E wipen, 'to wipe', cp O H G wipf, 'impulse, movement', wipfil, 'the top of a tree', lit 'the swaying part', also O H G wepf, 'a band', Goth waipe, 'a crown', waipean, 'to crown', O N veipr, 'cloth for binding the head' cogn w Lat vibrare, 'to move rapidly, brandish, shake' &c, see vibrate A trans 1 To pass a cloth or other material over surface of, in order to clean or dry, rub gently, esp with absorbent material to wipe the dishes after they have been washed, wipe the floor with a damp cloth, Phr to wipe the floor with (person), (slang) to defeat utterly in debate or controversy, to wipe one's eyes, dry tears, Phr to wipe a person's eye (for him), (slang) to rebuff, humiliate, check by harsh action or speech 2 To remove, clean off, by rubbing with cloth or other absorbent material to wipe the mud off with a handful of grass, to wipe one's tears away B Followed by adverb Wipe off, trans, a to remove by wiping, rub off erase. Wipe out, trans, 1 to clean (vessel &c) by rubbing round interior, 2 a to remove, erase, by wiping, to wipe out a mark, stain &c, b (fig) to erase, obliterate, cancel effects of to wipe out an enemy, debt &c, a to destroy utterly, exterminate (a military force, a race, family &c) Wipe up, trans, to take up by mopping or rubbing with a cloth &c to wipe up spilled milk wipe (II), n, fr prec 1 Ant of wiping, state of being wiped to give the floor a wipe

2 (slang) A blow, a clip a biff Phr a wipe in the eye (also fig) a rebuff, snub 3 (vulg slang) Handkerchief wiper n [1 wiper, 2 waipe] wipe (I) & -er One who, that which, wipes, device, material for wiping, esp in compounds, eg pen-wiper, q.v.

wire (I), n [1 wir, 2 wais] O E; M E wir, cp O H G wirar, 'wire', O N wir, 'spiral', Swed. wirs, 'to twist', cogn w Lat. wirare,
'twist', of Celt origin, cp O Ir fiar, 'bent', fr base wis*, wis*, 'to bend', seen also in Lat wire, 'to twist, weave', Sort vayati, 'winds', Gk utis, 'rim of shield', O E wirig, 'band, willow', see wit withy

1 Fino drawn, slender, flexible thread, rod &c of metal copper, iron, steel, wire &c, telegraph, telephone, wires, barbed wire, see barb (I) Phr to pull the wires, (i) to move puppets by means of wires &c, hence, (u) to control affairs through secret influence, a lives wire, (i) one charged with electricity, hence (u) a vigorous, pushing, vital person

2 a Telegraphy as means of communication to send a message by wire, b (colloq) a telegram to send, receive, a wire wire (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 a To secure, fasten, stiffen, connect &c with wire to wire the stems of flowers, to wire beads together, b to snare, catch (birds, rabbits &c), with wires 2 To provide with wire, to lay wire or wires in, for any purpose to wire a house for electric light 3 To communicate by telegraph to wire the news to a person B intrans To send a telegram please wire as soon as you hear C Followed by adverb Wires in, in-trans, (slang) to engage energetically in some enterprise, to set to work vigorously you had better wire in and finish the job wire-cloth, n Fabric woven of wire wire-cutter(s), n Instrument for cutting wire wire-dancer, n Acrobat who performs on a taut wire wiredraw, vb trans [1 wĩrdrĩw, 2 wĩdrĩw] 1 To draw out (metal) into wire by passing it through holes of required diameter 2 To treat (argument &c) with excessive subtlety or over refinement wire-edge, n Very thin edge formed on a cutting instrument by over grinding or honing, which turns over or peels off when the instrument is used wire-entanglement, n Form of military defence consisting of barbed wire stretched and twisted in and out between and round stout stakes firmly planted in the ground wire-gauge, n Gauge for measuring size of round wire wire-gauze, n Thin fabric woven of wire wire-gun, n Cannon made of an iron tube with wire wound round it wire-haired, adj Having short, rough, stiff hair, esp describing a breed of fox terrier wire-heel, n Disease affecting horse's foot wireless, adj & n [1 wirles, 2 woiwles] wire & -less 1 adj Without wire(s), specif a connected with, pertaining to, a system of telegraphy or telephony in which sounds or signals are conveyed from a transmitting station to various receiving stations, through the ether direct, by means of radiating electric waves, b (of message &c) transmitted by wireless 2 n a Wireless telegraphy or telephony, b a message sent by this means wireless-cabin, n Wireless room wireless operator, n Ship's wireless tele-grapher

wireless-room, n Room on a ship containing wireless installation wireless station, n Place equipped for transmitting and receiving wireless messages &c wire-netting, n Network of thin wire, made with various sizes of mesh, used for fencing &c wire-puller, n Person who pulls the wires, specif, one who brings secret influence to bear, to effect a purpose wire-rope n Rope of twisted wire wire-worm n Soft, worm-like larva which attacks the roots of plants wire-wove, adj (of paper) Smooth and unlined, made in a frame of wire gauze wirily, adv [1 wirli, 2 waiwli] wiry & -ly In a wiry manner

wiriness, n [1 wirnes, 2 woiwines] wiry & -ness Quality of being wiry wiring, n [1 wiring, 2 waiwiri] wire & -ing System of wires for conveying electric current &c wiry, adj [1 wiri, 2 waiwiri] wire (I) & -y 1 Resembling wire in being thin, stiffish, but flexible 2 (of persons &c) Strong and tough, capable of physical endurance, sinewy without being especially large or muscular wis, vb [1 wis, 2 wai] Bogus vb used in sham arabism (used by Spenser) in I was, supposed to mean 'I know, ween', due to misunderstanding of M E y was, was, 'certainly', fr O E gewis This sham Pres was no doubt partly a back formation fr the genuine Pret wiste, 'knew', see wist Browning actually has you was!

wisdom, n [1 wĩzdom, 2 wĩzdam] O E. wisdom, M E wisdom, wise & -dom

1 The quality of being wise, sound judgement, sagacity 2 (archaic) Learning, knowledge, science the wisdom of the ancients

3 (cap) Name of two books of the Apocrypha, Wisdom (of Solomon), and Wisdom of Jesus, the son of Sirach, usually known as Ecclesiasticus wisdom-tooth, n Third molar of human being, usually out about the twentieth year Phr. to cut one's wisdom teeth, acquire a mature judgement by age and experience wise (I), adj [1 wĩz, 2 waiw] O E, M E. wis, cp O S, O H G wis, O N wise, Goth. weis, 'wise', fr earlier wies*, fr Aryan wid & fr base wid*, wied*, 'to see, to know', see further under wit (I), vide, idea

1 a (of persons) Having sound judgement, sagacious, prudent, shrewd, b (of thought or action) informed with, springing from, based on, wisdom, sagacity, prudence, c (of interference, sayings, writings) embodying, expressing, wisdom 2 Having knowledge of, information upon, some subject I was none the wiser for his explanation Phr (Am) to put a person wise to, on [a matter, a situation &c], give him full information, explanation &c concerning it, wise woman, (archaic) one supposed to be versed in some branch of occult science, having mysterious powers, (i) a wit, (ii) a midwife wise (II), n O E, M E wise, 'way, manner', cp O S, O H G wisar, 'manner', O E wisman, 'to show, guide', lit 'to put wise', cogn w wise (I), & cp guess (archaic)

Way, manner, fashion in any wise, in no wise, on this wise, in stately wise

-wise, suff representing prec, used w ns & adv to form advs of manner, eg lengthwise, likewise, crosswise &c wiseacre, n [1 wĩzaker, 2 waiwizaks], fr M Dn wise, egger, fr Germ weisager, 'wh was formed by popular etymol, as though weis, 'wise', see wise, & ager, 'sayer', see say, really fr M H G wizago, O H G wizajago, 'sage, prophet', cp O E witiga, O N wit, 'sage', fr base of wise & wit

(Person) who assumes an air of wisdom wish (I), vb trans & intrans [1 wĩsh, 2 wĩ] O E wiſcan, M E wischen, 'to wish', cp O H G wunskan, M Dn wunskan, to wish, O H G wunso, cogn w O E wynn, 'joy', see winsome, winion, 'to remain, live', see wont, O E (g) winnan, 'to obtain', see win, cogn w Lat venus, 'love, charm', see Venus, Sort wana, 'desire' A trans 1 To desire, crave, want, feel a longing for I will do what you wish, you may have which, ever you wish 2 A To feel and express a desire that oneself or another should have something, obtain a benefit be in a specified condition &c, to invoke (good or evil) upon to wish oneself at home, anywhere but where one is, won't you wish me good luck?, I wish you a happy life, a good journey, good health &c, I don't wish you any harm, Phr (colloq) to wish a person further, to feel annoyance or boredom at his presence and wish he were gone, b (in weakened sense) to bid I wish you good bye, good morning, farewell &c.

Phr I'll wish you good morning, formula for abrupt dismissal, or of sudden, happy departure 3 (followed by that and dependent clause, often with that suppressed) To desire, be anxious and desirous that I wish (that) you wouldn't make such a noise, don't you wish (that) we were at home? , I wish I could see him now B intrans Wish for, to desire, to desire to possess, long for, to desire coming of &c We are apt to wish for what we can't have, it is no good wishing for rain with the glass so high wish (II), n, fr prec 1 Desire, longing, craving a wish for better times, he has no wish to live 2 Expression of desire, specif a request, order to obey one's slightest wish, b expressed hope for another's success &c you have our good wishes, with every good wish 3 That which one wishes, object of desire you shall have your wish, you must carry out your father's last wish(es), my dearest wish is to see you prosperous and happy

-wisher, n [1 wisher, 2 wiʃ] wish (I) &
-er One who wishes, as in well wisher wishful, adj [1 wishfool, 2 wifful] wish (II) & -ful (followed by infin) Having a specified wish, desirous, anxious, willing wishful to depart wishful to please wishing-bone, n [1 wishing bòn, 2 wísh bòn] Forked bone in front of breast of bird, when this is pulled apart by two persons, the one subsequently holding the longer part is supposed to be entitled to the fulfilment of a wish. also wish bone wishing-cap, n Fabulous magic cap, supposed to accomplish the wishes of the wearer wish-wash, n [1 wish wosh, 2 wiʃ wəʃ] Redupl form of wash (colloq) Insipid, watery drink. wasb wishy-washy, adj [1 wiʃu wəʃu, 2 wɪʃ wɪʃ] Redupl form of washy (colloq) a Thin, tasteless, weak, sloppy wishy washy tea &c, b (fig) insipid, without force, sloppy wishy washy talk, sentiment &c wisp, n [1 wisp, 2 wisp] ME wisp, wips, cp LG wisp, Swed dial wipp, ON wippa, 'wisp', perh coga w wipe Small bunch, tuft, handful of straw, hay &c, thin, straggly lock of hair

wispy, adj [1 wispɪ, 2 wɪspɪ] Prec & -y Like, forming, a wisp: wispy hair, thin and straggly

wist, vb [1 wist, 2 wist] OE & ME wiste, Pret of witan, 'to know', a Pret Pres vb, see wit (I) OE wiste was itself a new formation, the orig form, also preserved in OE, being wisse. Thus being an isolated type of Pret in OE, a form w the normal suffix -te was made on the anal of gese, 'kissed' (<w, 'archaic, Bib) Knew wist ðæt ðæt ge secgað þat ic eowurde ðæt ic eowurde wistaria, n, [wɪˈstɪəriə, wɪˈstɛəriə], fr name of: Caspar Wistar, American professor of Anatomy, d 1918. // Genus of climbing plants of the bean family, with long clusters of pale purplish flowers wistful, adj. [1 wɪstfʊl, 2 wɪstfʊl] aoProb [fr. wistful, w (differentiation of meaning) imposed, obs; obtusely fr. wistful prodently; fr. OE wistlice 'wagely', &c., fr. ME shortening of long vowel before sc. Wistful

'doleful, wistfulness, wistfully do longing, 'pathetically do, esp (for something unob- tainable) do unobtainable, yearning do wistful eyes, look, once, &c. 2 cherished, missing do the past, lost, gone, &c.

wisfully ready, Prec. & fully idn. as watful manner bis bet of n l. How may you wisfulness, and Seaprecifk-ness and State or Equality of being watful a mudo yndimoda wld High transut untransf. I think so [with wadā, riva transitive; wadāwā, wadāwāwā Q B wadāwā, s'ton kənwōlō (Pret.) 'Preserve'; wabē, wadēn, also wadon, cp. west, i opm Q S Gothic wadan, O.H.G. wazan p Q.N. wātun to ob-nōw, cogn. v. Lat. wado, 'tousse', see -yda-, Gk. wada, I know; wadon, 'sawd, idea, 'appearance', seed idea, Sort rēda, I know;

see Vada, C.O. Slav. udditi, 'torsea', odditi, I know; cp. further Q E wit, wise; see wise; (I-) , also other forms of the vb1 under wiset, wist, w (archaic and defective) / This 'type' only survives now in Ehr to wit, namely, that the -g- occurs before n.

wit (II.), nl O.E; M.E. witt, witund, intelligence; sp. lo. O. Fris wit, lo. S. (gr) wit.

M Du wite, OHG wizzen, ON vit, Goth -wit, 'wit', cogn w prec 1 (sing or pl) Mind, understanding, mental power or perception, activity, alertness, of mind to exercise one's wit, a man of quick, little, wit &c., to depend on one's mother wit, natural intelligence Phrs the five wits, (archaic) (1) the senses, (2) the mind, mental faculties, out of one's wits, insane, demented, to have, keep, one's wits about one, be alert and resourceful, to be at one's wits' end, (1) not know what to do or say, (2) be without financial resources to live by one's wits, earn one's living by haphazard, unscrupulous methods, without settled occupation or work 2 A Defined by Dryden in relation to poetry as being in the wider sense 'propriety of language', and in narrower sense 'sharpness of conceit', b in present-day usage the word means, (1) a faculty or quality of mind which perceives unexpected relations between ideas not usually associated, and the power of clothing such perceptions in a happy, neat, epigrammatic form, (2) the expression of such perception of relations between ideas in a felicitous, striking way nt (III), n, fr prec Person possessing wit in sense 2 witch (I), n [1 wích, 2 wít] OE wicca, '(female) witch', op OE wicca, 'wizard'.

(female) witch, 'op OE wiccan, 'wicked, wizard', fr OE wiccan, 'to bewitch', op MLG wicken, connected w wicked 1 Woman in league with, or under the influence of, evil spirits and in possession of occult powers, female follower of the black art, female evildoer Phrs white witch, one using her powers for beneficent purposes, witches' Sabbath, see Sabbath 2 Ugly, malevolent old woman, a hag, a crone 3 Fascinating, bewitching woman, who uses her beauty and charm to influence people witch (II), vb trans, fr preo To bewitch, enchant, cast a magic spell over witch-, pref See wych-witchcraft, n [1 wíchkraft, 2 wít[kräft] Power and practices of a witch. sorcery witch-doctor, n. Magician, medicine man among savage tribes.

witchery, n [1 wícheri, 2 wítjəri] witch &
-ery 1 Powers of a witch, witchcraft

2 (fig) Bewitching effect, fascination, magic witch-hazel, wych-hazel. n [1 w(oh) bāzl].

2 wŭtʰ heizl] See wŭch-, the twigs were, & are, used as divining rods, to wh cause the more usual spelling is due a AN American shrub, Hamelis virginica, with yellow late-flowering blossoms, also formerly in England name of the hornbeam and the wyoh elm, b astrigent medicinal substance extracted from Hamelis witching; adj. [1 wíching, 2 wítʃɪŋ] witch (II) & -ing; Capable of bewitching, captivating, fascinating, a witchingly, adven & only, In a witching manner witch-knots, n. Small tangled clumps of twigs on branch of oak &c, caused by drought &c.

witch-meal, n The pollen of the club moss. wytenagemot, n a no longer used word nounced [1 witenægimōt, 2 w: tægimōt], now/more correctly [1⁶ witenægimōt, 2 w: tægimōt] ena, jemout); O. Ennitenā (gemōh) nfr enitena, (gemt. pl. of enita) 'wise man, counsellor', sear waþ, 𐌿(ȝ)moþ; 'meeting', see moot; (hist.) Public national assembly of the Anglo-Saxons.

with prep. [1] with, [2] against. O.E. wip expresses opposition, hostility, protection against, rest near, or opposite to; separation from, association with, in later M.E.-the word has the sense of "together with."

word has the senses of 'together with',
-among, 'by means of', replacing O. English these senses are O. S. O. E. and O. N.

these senses; cp. O N. und: Fris. und, (O N. und, cogn. w. O E -unden; O H G. undar; Goth. unþra 'against', fr. base un-* 'twofold'.

1. Against conjunctions only after verbs

1 Against, in opposition to; only adjectives and nouns expressing struggle, hostility &c. - lot of fight, struggle, war and war's; also a fight - battle

2 Expressing association, a in action in the company of to ride, wall, dine, shoot, drink, &c with one's friends, b association by physical propinquity along side of to lue, sleep, sit, stay &c with, c expressing community and reciprocity of action to play cricket with, to discuss politics with 3 Expressing association in aims and interests, assistance, alliance, on the side of, side by side with in the Great War we fought with the French against the Germans 4 Expressing agreement in, harmony of, opinions, ideals &c 'Burns, Shelley, were with us' (Browning, 'Lost Leader'), 'I am entirely with you in this,' 'he that is not with me is against me' (Matt xii 30) 5 a Indicating the object of thought, attention, preoccupation the lecture was concerned with early English poetry, b denoting the object of an action to deal with each piece of business as it arises 6 Indicating contrast and comparison compare Pope's treatment of Nature with that of Wordsworth 7 a Expressing an attribute or possession a lady with golden hair, a man with ten thousand a year, b expressing temporary association or possession 'Alfred thinks I see her now, With the wreath of orange blossoms, Upon her snowy brow' (T. Haynes Bayly), the man with the frock coat and bowler hat, c expressing manner in adverbial phrases standing with his hands in his pockets, with an ugly smile on his face, he came home with a black eye 8 a Expressing a cause, on account of I am dying with hunger, roses wet with dew, eyes dim with tears, b indicating the instrument, by means of he struck me with a stick, to light a house with electricity, to amuse oneself with a book, c indicating material or content stuffed with straw, a hole filled with rubbish 9 Expressing coincidence in time, simultaneity of two actions or occurrences, at the same time as to rise with the lark, to come home with the milk, with the death of Queen Victoria a great epoch ended 10 Expressing correspondence, a in proportion to, in the same degree as to move with the age, it grew colder with the approach of sunset, b in the same direction as the shadow moves with the sun 11 After certain verbs expressing a physical separation I parted with him at the door, b separation, division, in opinion, disagreement to quarrel with, differ with (a person) &c 12 Notwithstanding, in spite of with all his wealth he is unhappy 13 To the accompaniment of, indicating manner he greeted me with smiles, 'come before his presence with a song' (Ps o 1) 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47 48 49 50 51 52 53 54 55 56 57 58 59 60 61 62 63 64 65 66 67 68 69 70 71 72 73 74 75 76 77 78 79 80 81 82 83 84 85 86 87 88 89 90 91 92 93 94 95 96 97 98 99 100 101 102 103 104 105 106 107 108 109 110 111 112 113 114 115 116 117 118 119 120 121 122 123 124 125 126 127 128 129 130 131 132 133 134 135 136 137 138 139 140 141 142 143 144 145 146 147 148 149 150 151 152 153 154 155 156 157 158 159 160 161 162 163 164 165 166 167 168 169 170 171 172 173 174 175 176 177 178 179 180 181 182 183 184 185 186 187 188 189 190 191 192 193 194 195 196 197 198 199 200 201 202 203 204 205 206 207 208 209 210 211 212 213 214 215 216 217 218 219 220 221 222 223 224 225 226 227 228 229 230 231 232 233 234 235 236 237 238 239 240 241 242 243 244 245 246 247 248 249 250 251 252 253 254 255 256 257 258 259 260 261 262 263 264 265 266 267 268 269 270 271 272 273 274 275 276 277 278 279 280 281 282 283 284 285 286 287 288 289 290 291 292 293 294 295 296 297 298 299 300 301 302 303 304 305 306 307 308 309 310 311 312 313 314 315 316 317 318 319 320 321 322 323 324 325 326 327 328 329 330 331 332 333 334 335 336 337 338 339 340 341 342 343 344 345 346 347 348 349 350 351 352 353 354 355 356 357 358 359 360 361 362 363 364 365 366 367 368 369 370 371 372 373 374 375 376 377 378 379 380 381 382 383 384 385 386 387 388 389 390 391 392 393 394 395 396 397 398 399 400 401 402 403 404 405 406 407 408 409 410 411 412 413 414 415 416 417 418 419 420 421 422 423 424 425 426 427 428 429 430 431 432 433 434 435 436 437 438 439 440 441 442 443 444 445 446 447 448 449 450 451 452 453 454 455 456 457 458 459 460 461 462 463 464 465 466 467 468 469 470 471 472 473 474 475 476 477 478 479 480 481 482 483 484 485 486 487 488 489 490 491 492 493 494 495 496 497 498 499 500 501 502 503 504 505 506 507 508 509 510 511 512 513 514 515 516 517 518 519 520 521 522 523 524 525 526 527 528 529 530 531 532 533 534 535 536 537 538 539 540 541 542 543 544 545 546 547 548 549 550 551 552 553 554 555 556 557 558 559 560 561 562 563 564 565 566 567 568 569 570 571 572 573 574 575 576 577 578 579 580 581 582 583 584 585 586 587 588 589 590 591 592 593 594 595 596 597 598 599 600 601 602 603 604 605 606 607 608 609 610 611 612 613 614 615 616 617 618 619 620 621 622 623 624 625 626 627 628 629 630 631 632 633 634 635 636 637 638 639 640 641 642 643 644 645 646 647 648 649 650 651 652 653 654 655 656 657 658 659 660 661 662 663 664 665 666 667 668 669 670 671 672 673 674 675 676 677 678 679 680 681 682 683 684 685 686 687 688 689 690 691 692 693 694 695 696 697 698 699 700 701 702 703 704 705 706 707 708 709 710 711 712 713 714 715 716 717 718 719 720 721 722 723 724 725 726 727 728 729 730 731 732 733 734 735 736 737 738 739 740 741 742 743 744 745 746 747 748 749 750 751 752 753 754 755 756 757 758 759 760 761 762 763 764 765 766 767 768 769 770 771 772 773 774 775 776 777 778 779 780 781 782 783 784 785 786 787 788 789 790 791 792 793 794 795 796 797 798 799 800 801 802 803 804 805 806 807 808 809 810 811 812 813 814 815 816 817 818 819 820 821 822 823 824 825 826 827 828 829 830 831 832 833 834 835 836 837 838 839 840 841 842 843 844 845 846 847 848 849 850 851 852 853 854 855 856 857 858 859 860 861 862 863 864 865 866 867 868 869 870 871 872 873 874 875 876 877 878 879 880 881 882 883 884 885 886 887 888 889 890 891 892 893 894 895 896 897 898 899 900 901 902 903 904 905 906 907 908 909 910 911 912 913 914 cogn w Gk stas, 'willow', Sort vilas, 'twisted', vijlā, 'band', Lith vyše, 'willow branch', Lett viols, Lat viere, 'to bind, twist', vinum, 'vine', see vitid & vine, & op witthy Flexible band of twisted osier or other tough plant shoots, used for tying up faggots &c wither, vb intrans & trans [1 widhor, 2 wids] Proh fr ON vidra, 'to wither', op ME underen, wedurn, 'to expose to the weather', fr OE weder, see woathor A intrans 1 (of plants and flowers) To dry up, shrivel, shrink, wilt, fade, whether as a natural process or as result of exposure to excessive heat or drought 2 (of affections, hopes &c) To grow weaker, die away, be blighted. B trans 1 To cause (flowers &c) to wither 2 To blight (affections, hopes &c), cause to die down and diminish in intensity 3 To disconcert, rebuff, snub, reduce to confusion and silence she withered him with a scornful glance withered, adj [1 widherd, 2 widrd], fr PP of prec 1 (of plants &c) a Faded, shrivelled, paroled from lack of water, b having attained maturity and died down 2 (of persons) Having a dried up, faded, wrinkled appearance 3 (of hopes &c) Diminished, blighted withering, adj [1 widhering, 2 widring], fr Pres Part of prec Tending to, having power to, wither, a (lit) a withering drought, sun, b (fig) a withering glance, sarcasm &c witheringly, adv Pres & -ly In a withering manner withers, n [1 widherz, 2 widrz], fr OE, ME uider, 'against', see with, as part on wh collar presses Part of a horse's shoulder at the base of the neck Phr my, his &c withers are unring, that does not affect me, him &c withershins, adv [1 widershinz, 2 wids] [inz] Scots, fr MLG weddersins, fr wider, 'against', op prec, & sin, 'way, direction' In a direction contrary to the apparent course of the sun, counter clockwise withhold, vb trans [1 with, withhold, 2 wip, withold] OE withhaldan, with- & hold 1 To hold, keep back, refrain from using or allowing to act, restrain from action to withhold one's hand, the sun withheld his light 2 To refrain from granting, refuse to bestow to withhold one's consent, help, favour &c within (I), adv [1 widhin, 2 wibin] OE winnan, ME winnen, 'on the inside', with- & in (archaic) On the inside, in the interior, internally the banana is yellow out side and cream coloured within, speak a in the house, indoors to stay within, is Mrs Smith within?, 'the king's daughter is all glorious within' (Ps xlv 14), b in the heart or mind, inwardly to be pure within within (II), n, fr prec The interior, inner part, inside seen from within, the cave looks larger within (III), prep See within (I) 1 a In side, in the interior of, in the inner part of within the building, to call from within the house, within doors, indoors, Phr wheels within wheels, secret agencies at work, b in the inward, mental part of hope sprang up within him 2 a Inside the limit, scope, range, compass, power, of within hearing, earshot, within call, within sight of home, within one's powers, within the meaning of the Act, within the law, not transgressing it, Phr (of athletes &c) to be running, fighting &c well within himself, keeping a reserve of effort, b so as to be limited by, and not to exceed, amount of to live within one's income 3 Inside of, not exceeding the limits of a specified time or distance to return within two hours (of one's departure &c), within a few miles of London, within an easy walk of, at a distance easily covered in a walk, within an ace of death, barely escaping without (I), adv [1 widout, 2 widaut] OE wiþutan, ME wiþuten, 'without, beyond', with- & out a On the exterior, outside, externally fair without and foul within, speak b outside the house, building &c the messenger stands without without (II), n, fr prec The exterior, outside to look at a thing from without without (III), prep See without (I)

1 (archaic) On the outside of, external to without the gate, house &c, 'a green hill Without a city wall' (Mrs Alexander), without doors, out of doors 2 Not having, using, unaccompanied by, destitute, in want, of, free from, lacking without money, home, or friends, he cannot walk without a stick, to be without servants, the child came without its nurse, without hope of reward, without stint, without ceremony, all without exception, without rhyme or reason, without fear and without reproach, without doubt, doubtless, certainly, without fail, for certain, without end, interminable, everlasting, without number, innumerable, without prejudice (see prejudice), without regard for, having no consideration for Phr that goes without saying, is too obvious to be mentioned. 3 (before Pres Part or vbl n in ing) Having neglected to, in such a way as to avoid to travel without taking a ticket, go in without waking him, without shedding of blood without (IV), conj, fr prec (archaic or vulg) Unless, except, but you will never succeed without you work hard, he never goes out without he loses his umbrella withstand, vb trans & intrans [1 widstānd, 2 widstānd] OE withstandan, 'to resist', with- & stand 1 trans To oppose, resist, endure force or attack of, esp resist successfully to withstand the enemy, temptation &c 2 intrans (chiefly poet) To offer resistance, endure withy, n [1 widu, 2 widi] OE widig, variant of wilde, 'with', see with A young willow or osier plant withy-bed, n Plantation of osiers or willows witless, adj [1 witles, 2 witlis] wit (II) & -less Lacking in, destitute of, wit, dull, foolish witlessly, adv Pres & -ly In a witless way witlessness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being witless witling, n [1 witling, 2 witling] wit (II) & -ling Person of little intelligence witness (I), n [1 witnes, 2 witnis] OE, ME wiernes, op OHG (g) wiuness, wit (I) & -ness 1 Evidence in support of theory, statement &c, testimony, corroboration to give witness on behalf of, bear witness to, of, to support another's witness 2 Person who is able to give a first hand account of an incident, state of affairs &c, one who has personal knowledge of an event, eye witness 3 Person or thing furnishing proof the empty cupboard was a witness of his poverty, he is a living witness to the success of the scheme 4 (law) A Person giving evidence under oath in a court of law, b person who appends his signature by the side of that of the person who executes a document &c, in testimony of having seen the latter sign witness (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 a (archaic) To give or furnish evidence of, testify to none could witness that he was present, b to show, give, evidence of his expression witnessed his discomfiture 2 To be present as an eye-witness of, to see personally many people witnessed the incident 3 Specif, to witness a person's signature, to write one's own signature by the side of his, in testimony of having seen him sign, also to witness a document, act as witness to the signing of it B intrans To give evidence, bear witness, testify to witness against one, to witness to a person's conduct, witness Heaven!

witness-box, n Enclosure in law court in which a witness stands to give evidence

-witted, adj [1 witid, 2 witid] wit (II) & -ed Having wits of specified quality witicism, n [1 witisizm, 2 witisizm], fr quick, slow witted &c, half witted, unbecomwitty, on anal of solecism &c Witty remark, phrase &c wittily, adv [1 witli, 2 witli] witty & -ly In a witty manner wittness, n [1 witnes, 2 witnis] witty & -ness Quality of being witty wittingly, adv [1 witling, 2 witling] Pres Part of wit (I) & -ly Consciously, intentionally, by design witrol, n [1 witol, 2 witol], fr ME wode-wale, 'green woodpecker', op MHG wit-wol, M Du wedewal (archaic) Husband who condones his wife's unfaithfulness, a compliant, accommodating cuckold witty, adj [1 wita, 2 witi] OE witig; ME wit, 'witty, skilful', wit (II) & -y Possessed of, displaying, wit a witty speaker, speech &c wive, vb trans & intrans [1 wiv, 2 wav] OE wifian, ME wiven, 'to marry', fr wif, 'woman, wife', see wife (archaic) 1 trans To take as wife, marry 2 intrans To take a wife, get married wivern, wyvern, n [1 wivern, 2 waivern] ME wivere, 'serpent', fr O Fr wivre, fr Lat vipera, 'viper', see viper (her) Fabulous monster, depicted with the head and tail of a dragon, wings, and two legs wizard, n [1 wizard, 2 wized] ME wisard, prob fr wis, 'wise', & -ard 1 Magician, sorcerer 2 Person possessing apparently magical powers, one who works wonders, a fascinating, charming person, able to influence others wizardry, n [1 wizardri, 2 wizedri] Pres & -ry a Powers or practices of a wizard; sorcery, b charm, fascination wizen (ed), weazen (ed), adj [1 wizen (d), wézon (d), 2 wizen (d), wizán (d)] OE wisnian, ME wisnen, 'to dry up', op OHG wesenēn, ON wisa, 'to shrivel', cogn w Lat viscere, 'to fade, shrivel', Lith vystu, 'wither', perh cogn w Lat visus, 'moisture, alme, sap, poison', see virus Dried up, shrivelled, shrunken a wizen (ed) old man, a wizen (ed) complexion; wizened apples wizier See vizier

wo, whoa, interj [1 wō, 2 wou] Cry uttered to a horse, stop!

woad, n [1 wōd, 2 woud] OE wōd, ME wōd, op OHG waiz, O Frs, M Du weed, Goth wizila, 'woad', cogn w Lat vitrum, 'woad', perh also w Gk walis, 'woad' (fr wis*) 1 Herbaceous plant, Isatis tinctoria, of the mustard family, with clusters of yellow flowers and leaves yielding a blue dye 2 Blue dye obtained from this plant wobble, wabble (I), vb intrans [1 wōbl, 2 wōbl], fr ME wuppen, 'to beat', & -le 1 a To sway unsteadily from side to side, to oscillate, be shaky and unsteady the bridge does not feel safe, it wobbles, the jelly wobbles, b spout (of wheels) to rock while rotating, revolve unsteadily 2 (fig) To waver in purpose, to vacillate, hesitate, be inconsistent in principles and opinions wobble (II), n, fr prec 1 Unsteady, rocking, swaying, motion, oscillation. 2 (fig) Vacillation in principles, instability in opinions, weakness of purpose woe, n [1 wō, 2 wou] OE wā, ME wā, 'salamity, sorrow'; op OS, OHG wā, O Fr wā, wa, Gth wā, 'sorrow', cogn w Lat vae, 'cry of pain', Lett wa, 'alas', waid, 'lament, need' 1 (archaic and poet.) Sorrow, grief, trouble, misery Phrs weal and woe (see weal (I)), wee is me!, alast!, wee be to, wee be to, a curse be upon, a face of wee, a lugubrious countenance, a tale of wee, recitation of sorrows and grievances 2 Cause of sorrow, affliction, calamity to tell all one's woes woebegone, adj [1 wōbegāwn, gōn, 2 wau-bighn, gūn] woe & OE begān, ME begoon, PP of OE began, 'to possess, occupy, surround', by & go Of sorrowful appearance, doleful, mournful woeful, adj [1 wófol, 2 wóful] woe & -ful Causing, characterized by, expressive of, woe, mournful a woeful day, spectacle, cry &c woefully, adv Preo & -ly In a woeful manner wake, vb [1 wák, 2 wouk] O.E. wāc, M.E. wok, Pret. of wake (I) The Mod. Engl. pronunciation, where one wd have expected [1 wook, 2 wuk], op took, has been explained by Zachrisson as due to the influence of spoke, spoken, the infins. wake (I) & speak were pronounced w the same vowel [1 ā, 2 ē] by many speakers in the 17th & 18th cents waken, vb [1 wóken, 2 wouken] P.P. of wake (I) The vowel is perh due to the influence of that of spoken, see preo Cp O.E. (ge)wacen, M.E. wāken wold, n [1 wóld, 2 would] O.E. wöld, 'forest, woodland', M.E. wöld, op O.S. O.H.G. wald, Du. woud, 'forest', O.N. vollr, 'uncultivated land', prob cogn w Gk laxios, 'tufted, wooded', earlier wlat-jo-*, Russ wóloti, 'fibre', Lith valius, 'ear of corn' Cp variant wesald Tract of elevated, uncultivated, open country wolf (I), n [1 wólf, 2 wulf] O.E. wulf, M.E. wulf, wolf, op O.H.G. wolf, Goth. wulfs, O.N. (fem) ylgr, cogn. w Sert vflaš, Gk luloe, see Lycanthropy, Lat lupus, see lupine, O. Prussian wilks, Lett wilks, O. Slav wilki, 'wolf', fr base wulf*-os, 'wolf' Cp vulpine 1 One of several species of savage, carnivorous, gregarious quadrupeds of the dog family, esp Canis lupus of northern latitudes, often preying on sheep and cattle Phrs a wolf in sheep's clothing, person of mild appearance and manners, but of a sinister and malevolent nature, to cry wolf, raise a false alarm, to keep the wolf from the door, stave off want or destitution; to have a wolf by the ears, be in a dangerous dilemma 2 Ravenous, greedy, person 3 (mus) Discords heard from keyboard instrument when tuned according to a system of unequal temperament wolf (II), vb trans, fr preo To devour ravenously and rapidly, as from hunger or greed to wolf one's dinner, also wolf down, gulp down, swallow hungrily wolf-cub, n 1 Young wolf 2 Member of the junior branch of the Boy Scouts wolf-dog, n 1 Dog for hunting or guarding sheep &c against wolves. 2 Hybrid between dog and wolf wolf-fish, n Large voracious fish of Atlantic coasts wolf-hound, n Irish, Russian, wolf hound, breeds of large dogs originally kept for hunting wolves wolfish, adj [1 wóolfish, 2 wulfis] wolf (I) & -ish Resembling a wolf, esp in nature, cruel, fierce, rapacious wolfishly, adv Preo & -ly In a wolfish manner wolfishness, n. See preo & -ness Quality of being wolfish wolf-ram, n. [1 wóolf-ram, 2 wulf-ram] Mod. Germ. fr wolf, see wolf, rahn, 'cream', for the second element, op Q.E. rēam, Du. room, O.N. ryom, 'cream' 1. Mineral ore yielding tungsten 2 (now rare) Tungsten wolf-ramite, n. [1 wóolf-ramit, 2 wulf-ramit] Preo & -ite. Wolf-ram wolf's-bane, n Aconite, esp species found in the Alps &c, with yellowish flowers wolf's-claws, n. Also wolf's foot, club-moss wolf's-foot, n Puff ball wolf's-foot, n Wolf's claws wolfskin, n [1 wóolfskin, 2 wulfskin] a Skin of wolf, b rug, cloak &c made of this wolf's-milk, n. Kind of spurge, with sticky, milky sap wolf-spider, n a Tarantula, b spider that chases its prey instead of entrapping it in a web wolf-tooth, n. Small extra tooth sometimes developing in horse in front of molar.

wolverene, -ine, n [1 wóolveren, 2 wulverin] Formed as dimin of wolf (I) 1 Carnivorous mammal, Gulo luscus, of N American forests, with strong limbs and bushy tail, skunk bear or glutton 2 The skin of this animal as fur woman (I), n [1 wóoman, 2 wuman] O.E. wifman, M.E. wimman, wumman, wife & man. 1 Human being of female sex, as contrasted with man, Phrs woman of the world, one who is sophisticated, accustomed to society &c, single woman, spinster, to play the woman, give way to unmanly weakness, weep &c, women's rights, legal equality with men, my good woman, patronizing mode of address, b adult human female, as contrasted with child, girl my daughter will soon be a woman 2. Women in general, female part of human race, womankind woman is weaker than man Phr born of woman, mortal 3 Lady-in-waiting one of the queen's women 4 Feminine character, emotions, qualities &c there is little of the woman in her 5 Man with feminine or effeminate qualities the governors are a set of old women 6. (attrib) Female woman-doctor &c woman (II), vb trans, fr preo. (rare) 1 To cause to act like a woman, make effeminate or weak 2 To address as, refer to as a 'woman', instead of using the supposedly more dignified term 'lady'

-woman, as suff, denoting woman connected with, occupied with, some specified object or profession &c, or of specified nationality &c, e.g. churchwoman, daivrywoman, Englishwoman, horsewoman, needlewoman &c woman-hater, n [1 wóoman-hâter, 2 wuman-heite] Man with habitual aversion to women, a misogynist womanhood, n [1. wóomanhood, 2 wuman-hud]. woman (I) & -hood Condition of being a woman; character or qualities of women in general womanish, adj [1 wóomanish, 2 wumanis] woman (I) & -ish. (usually in disparaging sense) Characteristic of or resembling a woman, weak, effeminate womanish sentiment womanishly, adv Preo & -ly In a womanish manner womanishness, n. See preo & -ness State or quality of being womanish womanize, vb trans & intrans [1 wóomaniz, 2 wumaniz] woman (I) & -ize 1 trans To make womanish, effeminate 2 intrans (colloq) To practise sexual intercourse with women outside wedlock womankind, n [1 wóomankind, 2 wumen-kind] woman (I) & -kind Women collectively Phr one's womankind, women of one's family or household womanless, adj [1 wóomanless, 2 wumenless] woman (I) & -less Without women womanlike, adj [1 wóomanlik, 2 wumen-lak] woman (I) & -like Resembling or characteristic of a woman womanliness, n [1. wóomanliness, 2 wumen-lins] Next word & -ness Quality of being womanly womanly, adj [1 wóomanli, 2 wumenli] woman (I) & -ly. a Having the good qualities of a woman, tender, sympathetic, kind &c, b suited, natural to, a woman womanly feelings, intuition, modesty &c. amb womb, n [1 wóm, 2 wúm] O.E. wumb, M.E. womb, 'belly, womb', cp O.H.G. Goth wamba, O.N. womb, Dan tom Organ in female mammal in which the offspring are developed until the time of birth, qterly Phrs falling of the womb, downward displacement, prolapsus uteri, fruit of the womb, children (Isaiah xiii. 18), in the womb of time, in the unknown future wombat, n [1 wómbat, 2 wómbat], fr. Australian native wombach, wombar Marsupial, nocturnal, herbivorous mammal of Australia and Tasmania, genus Phascogale, of several species womenfolk, n. [1 wóminfólk, 2 wuminfólk] a Women in general, womankind, b the, one's, womenfolk, women of a family or household &c won (n) (I), vb trans [1 wun, 2 wan] O.E. wunan, 'be accustomed, to dwell, inhabit', M.E. wun(n)en, wonen, op O.H.G. wonēn, 'to inhabit', gewonēn, 'to be accustomed', oogn w Goth wunan, 'to take pleasure', op further O.E. wynn, 'joy', see wish, winsome, Lat venus, 'love', see Venus, Sort vanas, 'desire' See also winn See wont (I) & (II) Obs. vb still used by Spenser 'the noblest knight alive Prince Arthur is, that wonnes in Faerie lond' ('F Q' ii. 3. 18) won (II), vb [1 wun, 2 wan] O.E. (ge)wunnen, M.E. wunne(n), wonne(n), P.P. of winn, now used also as Preo, cp O.E., M.E. Preo sing wann wonder (I), n. [1. wunder, 2 wánde] O.E. wundor, M.E. wonder, op O.H.G. wundar, M. Du. wonder, O.N. wundr, 'miracle, wonder', perh. cogn w O.E. wandian, 'to flee from, to fear, to revere', O.E. wenden, 'to turn, go', see wend, windan, 'to turn, twist', see wind (IV) 1 Object, person, incident &c that excites a feeling of surprised admiration, a prodigy, miracle, marvel the seven wonders of the world, it is a wonder that he is still alive Phrs to do, work, wonders, work with marvellous results, signs and wonders, miracles, portents, a nine days' wonder, event creating temporary sensation, (it is) no wonder (that), it is not surprising that no wonder you are late after such a night, for a wonder, it is a surprising thing he is punctual today for a wonder, he's a perfect wonder, a remarkable person. 2 Feeling, emotion, of awe, astonishment, surprise, and admiration, excited by marvellous object, person, incident &c, feeling of awe aroused by something unexpected, apparently impossible &c to be filled with wonder, to stare in wonder, their wonder increased wonder (II), vb intrans & trans O.E. wundrian, M.E. wundrien, 'to wonder', fr. O.E. wundor, 'miracle', see preo. a Intrans To experience wonder, feel amazement, to marvel I wondered to see you there, I don't wonder at his anxiety, I wonder at you, expressing disapproval B trans 1 Wonder that, to be amazed, marvel, feel astonishment at I wonder (that) you were able to escape, can you wonder that he refused? 2. To be desirous of knowing, feel curiosity about, be anxious to learn. I wonder who he is, I can't help wondering if we were wise to do it Also as polite formula introducing a request I wonder whether I might ask you &c, whether I might trouble you to wonderberry, n. [1. wunderberi, 2 wánderberi] A cross between the raspberry and the dewberry.

wonderful, adj. [1 wúnderfool, 2 wándeiful] wonder (I) & -ful 1 Surpassing what was known or expected, arousing wonder, amazing, marvellous wonderful courage, a wonderful wealth of flowers, a wonderful sight, wonderful scenery; a wonderful escape 2 (slang, often used as more or less meaningless intens) Very good, splendid. a wonderful dinner, sermon, frock &c wonderfully, adv Preo & -ly. In a wonderful manner.

wondering, adj [1 wúndering, 2 wándering] Preo Part of wonder (II) Feeling or expressing wonder, marvelling, amazed wonderingly, adv Preo & -ly. In a wondering manner wonderland, n [1. wúnderlánd, 2 wánde-lánd] Real or imaginary country of marvels, surpassing beauty or fertility &c, fairyland.

wonderment, n [1 wúnderment, 2 wánderment] wonder & -ment Wonder, astonishment, amazement wonder-struck, adj Deeply affected by some marvellous sight or event &c., overcome with wonder wonder-worker, n. Person who works miracles excited and angry 6 Fibrous substance resembling wool in appearance, texture &c, often in compound cotton, wool, wool

Phr to pull the wool over a person's eyes, deceive, hoodwink, him, mineral wool, mass of fine thread like substance obtained by exposing molten slag to a strong blast 7 As adj wool merchant, wool sales &c wool (II), vb trans, fr prec To pull tufts or wisps of wool out of a sheep's fleece, said of a dog which chases and snaps at sheep wool-ball, n Ball of matted wool sometimes found in sheep's stomach wool-carding, n [1 wól káhrdng, 2 wul kádrng] Preparation of wool fibres by carding wool-combing, n Method of preparing wool for spinning by combing and straightening fibres wool-dyed, adj [1 wool did, 2 wul daid] Dyed in the wool before spinning

-wooled, adj [1 woold, 2 wuld] wool (I) & -ed Having wool of specified kind long-wooled &c wool-fat, n Natural oil found in sheep's wool, lanolin wool-fell, n Sheep's skin and fleeces wool-gathering, n & adj 1 n Absent-mindedness, preoccupation of mind, state of inattention to what goes on around one 2 adj In a condition of absent-mindedness Phr one's wits have gone wool gathering wool-grower, n Person raising sheep for the wool wool-hall, n Wool merchant's place of business woollen, adj & n [1 woollen, 2 wuln] wool (I) & -en 1 adj Made of wool woollen cloth, stockings &c 2 n Woollen fabric or garment dressed in woollen, (also in pl) woollens must be washed carefully woollen-draper, n Retail dealer in woollen garments and fabrics woollenette, n [1 woólenet, 2 wulanét] woollen & -ette Light woollen fabric woolliness, n [1 woólines, 2 wulnás] Next word & -ness State or quality of being woolly woolly, adj & n [1 woóli, 2 wuli] wool (I) & -y 1 adj a Pertaining to, resembling, of the nature of, made of, covered with, wool or wool like down woolly sheep, a woolly fibre, woolly hair, woolly clothes, b (fig) indistinct, vague, blurred, lacking clearness, definiteness, precision, reverse of clear out, precise &c, with various applications woolly painting, thinking, a woolly mind, a woolly voice &c 2 n Sweater or other woollen garment woolly-bear, n Caterpillar of the tiger moth wool-oil, n Wool fat wool-pack, n Bale of wool containing 240 lb woolsack, n [1 woólsak, 2 wulsák] 1 Wool-stuffed cushion on which the Lord Chancellor sits as presiding officer of House of Lords 2 (fig) Office of Lord Chancellor many a young lawyer has dreams of the woolsack woolsey, n [1 woólm, 2 wulzi], fr linsey-woolsey Linsey woolsey wool-staple, n Quality of wool, considered specially as regards the length of the fibre wool-stapler, n (archaic) Wool merchant wool-work, n Embroidery in wool woorah, woorara, n [1 wóórahli, wóórahra, 2 wúrdli, wúrdra], fr S Am Indian wurali South American poisonous herb, ourare, q v wootz, u [1 woots, 2 wúts], fr native word A variety of steel made in India wop (I) See whop

Wop (II), n Origin doubtful (Am slang) Name given to any immigrant into the United States from the south of Europe, esp from Italy word (I), n [1 wórd, 2 wád] O E word, 'word', what is said, speech, sentence', M E uord, O H G uort, O S word, Goth uaird, cogn w Lat verbum, O Prussian uirda, 'word', Lith taidas, 'name', fr base uer dh-, 'word', expanded fr wer- &c, 'to speak', seen in Gk eíraín, 'to say' (fr werj-*), rhéssa, 'speech', rhétor, 'orator', see verb & op rhetor, Sort uvalam, 'order', O Slav roia, 'oath', possibly also, w -l-extension, Goth wrōhs, 'accusation', O E wrēgan, 'to accuse' 1 The simplest element of speech, a group of speech sounds, or even a single sound, serving as the name of an object, representing an idea, or indicating the relation between ideas words are classified as parts of speech, a word of two syllables, an English word, to use long words, I can't hear a word (of what) you say, to say a few words, make a few remarks, a short speech, words without actions are of little use, to put one's thoughts into words Phrs (a man) of few words, habitually taciturn, in a word, in short, to sum up, to have no words for, be unable to describe, play upon words, pun, a word and a blow, impetuous action, the last word, (1) latest authoritative pronouncement, (u) last word in, of something embodying the most recent discoveries and improvements the last word in wireless, in comfort &c, to have the last word, make a crushing, unanswerable, final remark in a dispute, the last word has not yet been said on (a subject), there are further arguments to be considered, fresh facts still to be discovered, word for word, literally, verbatim, word of command, direction indicating specific movement to soldiers drilling &c 2 Written or printed word, group of graphic symbols representing a word to write a few words, to cross out a word 3 (often pl) Thing said, speech, remark to listen to one's concluding words Phrs warm, hot, words, angry speech, fair words, flattering, conciliatory, speech, big words, boasting, by word of mouth, orally, on, with, the word, immediately after specific word has been uttered, a word in, out of, season, advice offered seasonably, inopportunist, a word in one's ear, confidential remark, hint &c, to have words (with), quarrel (with), can I have a word with you, a private conversation with, to suit the action to the word, carry out an action mentioned, to eat one's words, to retract what one has said, apologize for insult &c, to bandy words with, argue, dispute, with, to put in a word for, speak in defence or recommendation of, to waste one's words, speak in vain, no good washing words on, (1) useless to argue with (a person), (u) useless to discuss (a subject), to hang on one's words, listen eagerly to 4 Command, order, direction, spoken signal his word is law, to give the word to fire Phrs mum's the word, the matter is not to be mentioned, sharp's the word, hurry up 5 Password to give the word 6 Message, communication, tidings to send word to a person, to receive word of one's coming, I have had no word from him since he left 7 Promise, assurance to give, pledge, keep, break, one's word, a man of his word, to be as good as one's word, live up to one's promises, word of honour, statement made, promise given, upon one's honour, upon, or 'pon, my word!, exclamation of surprise, upon my word (I don't know what to make of it &c), I assure you that I really don't &c 8 (theol) a The Word, translating Gk Lógos, the second person of the Trinity before the Incarnation, b (1) the Holy Scriptures, (u) specif, the Gospel message to preach the Word to the heathen, also God's Word, Word of God, ministers of the Word, the clergy word (II), vb trans, fr prec To put into, express in, words, to phrase, turn I should word it rather differently, a beautifully worded address &c word-blind, adj Unable, through mental defect, to understand written or printed words word-book, n A recent Germanizing affectation based on Mod Germ uörterbuch, op also Du woordenboek & Swed ordbok Lexicon, dictionary word-deaf, adj Unable, through mental defect, to understand spoken words word-formation, n Mode of forming words by inflexion, or by other suffixes, or by composition.

wordily, adv [1 wórdli, 2 wádlí] wordy & -ly In a wordy manner, verbosely wordiness, n [1 wórdines, 2 wádlíns] wordy & -ness Quality of being wordy wording, n [1 wórdng; 2 wádlng] word (II) & -ing The way in which anything is said, choice and arrangement of words in expressing specific ideas, esp in writing, phrasing wordless, adj [1 wórdles, 2 wádlas] word (I) & -less Without words, incapable of speech word-painter, n Person skilled in word-painting word-painting, n The act of calling up an image, a scene, an action, or an event before the mind by verbal description, vivid description of actions, events &c word-perfect, adj Knowing, and able to repeat, a passage, a part in play &c, word for word, by heart word-picture, n A description of an object, scene, event &c which is so vivid as to call up before the mind that which is described word-play, n 1 Subtle discussion or exchange of repartee, verbal fencing 2 Play on words word-splitting, n [1 wórd splítng, 2 wádsplítng] Over-subtle argument, sophistry word-square, n Arrangement, one below another, of a set of selected words of equal length so that each may be read from top to bottom or from side to side wordy, adj [1 wórdi, 2 wádl] word (I) & -y 1 Consisting of, expressed in, words wordy warfare 2 a Given to using too many words, prolix, verbose a wordy speaker, b expressed in an unnecessary number of words, verbose, diffus his style is too wordy work, vb [1 wór, 2 w5] Pret of wear work (I), n [1 wórk, 2 wák] O E weorc, 'work (act and result)', action, a building, a fortification', M E werk, work, O S werk, O H G werach, cogn w Gk ergon, 'action, work', for uergon*, see erg, also Gk órganon, 'instrument', for uorg-* see organ. Generally, any form of physical or intellectual activity engaged in for the purpose of accomplishing a desired end 1 Bodily or intellectual labour deliberately performed and directed to some specific object, purposeful activity he does the work of two men, the work of building a house, of writing a dictionary, is straining, many men, rich and poor, appear to do no work Phrs to set to work, start doing something, at work upon, engaged in, occupied with 2 Labour of specific kind performed as a person's regular occupation and employment, esp a as a means of livelihood, handicraft, trade, profession &c the work of a stone mason, of a miner, an agricultural labourer &c, a clerk does his work at a desk, a surgeon does his at an operating table, the man had been out of work for many weeks, father has gone to (his) work, Phr at work, specif, engaged in one's regular business, b special study, scientific investigation, research &c 3 Particular task, duty, undertaking, which one is morally or legally bound to perform, or which one has set oneself to accomplish I have a lot of work I must do tonight Phr to have one's work cut out (for one), to have a difficult task before one 4 Object, stuff, materials, instruments, of any kind at, or with which, one is working bring your work out into the garden, specif, embroidery, needlework 5 Something produced by manual or intellectual work, a artistic creations of the craftsman the work of silversmiths, sculptors, and other artificers, b creations of imagination, writings, paintings, musical compositions &c a work, the works, of Scott, Keats, Beethoven, Velasquez, specif, the works of —, usually the complete set of works, musical compositions, pictures, of a writer, composer, painter &c, c (sing) the product of the intellectual or imaginative activity of the artist, craftsman, author &c, considered from the point of view of form, structure, style one can hardly fail to recognize the work of Milton, of Velazquez, of Grinling Gibbons, when one sees it 6 (in pl.) Various kinds of engineering structures, such as bridges, docks, embankments &c 7 Any of various structures wrought by hand or by machinery, usually preceded by a qualifying word, or as the second element of a compound iron work, basket work, earthwork &c (See each word) 8 (in pl., often with sing construction) Establishment where industry or manufacturing is carried on brick works, iron works &c, many owners of factories spend most of their lives at the works 9 a Those essential parts of a machine which move, and either themselves perform the functions for which the machine was designed, or set up the necessary movements in other parts the works of a watch, a piano, b (colloq, facet) the internal organs of the body, esp of the thorax and abdomen 10 a Activity, or action generally, the devil and all his works, it was the work of a moment to cut off the light, b the result of some specific process, operation, action this is the work of an enemy 11 (theol.) Good deeds performed by religious persons, which if springing from a true and lively faith are pleasing to God and an element, through the merits of Christ, in effecting the salvation of the soul, contrasted from the latter point of view with Faith, works of supererogation, such works performed over and above what is necessary for the individual's salvation 12 (phys.) The result of a transference of one kind of energy into another work (II), vb intrans & trans OE wyrcan, ME wirchen wd have become Mod Eng [wɜ:k], the present vb is a new formation fr the n, qv See also wrought A intrans 1 a To expend effort, engage in mental or physical activity, to some specific end, to toil, labour, exert oneself to work hard, to work with a will, to work for a good master, to work for the public good, you have worked too long, Phrs to work against, to oppose, use one's influence &c against, to work against time, strive to finish a task within limited time, b specific, to do needlework &c, sew, embroider 2 a (of mechanism, an organ of the body &c) To perform its normal function, operate, have some form of activity, be in action his heart is working badly, the saw mill is not working, the electric bell won't work, the door works on a spring, to work smoothly, freely, stiffly, b (fig.) to be successful, effective, achieve desired result the charm worked, failed to work, the plan worked well 3 a (usually followed by adv.) To make, wear, a way, a passage, to pass in a specific direction, esp gradually, encountering opposition his elbow has worked through the sleeve, the root worked down between the stones, we worked south through the forest, also to work through a list, to work round to the point from which the discussion started, b (followed by adv.) to come gradually, as result of repeated movement, into a specified condition to work loose, free &c 4 To be employed, have regular occupation he is not working just now, he works in a jam factory, for a farmer 5 (lit and fig.) To be in a state of agitated activity, to twitch his features worked with excitement 6 a To ferment, b (fig.) to permeate by slow degrees and produce results just drop a judicious hint and leave it to work in his mind 7 (hort, of dormant bod) To become active, to shoot B trans 1 a To control or supply motion of, operate, cause to function to work a machine, to work a treadle with one's foot, the mill wheel is worked by the stream, b to compel to work to work one's servants unmercifully, o to move, bring into action to work one's jaws 2 a To expend effort upon, labour in, do or direct work of, operate in to work a farm, the silver mines are no longer worked, to work a house with one servant, the fisherman works the stream, b to solve (a sum, problem &c) 3 a To prepare, treat, by applying intermittent pressure, kneading, hammering &c to work dough to the right consistency, to work iron (see wrought), b to prepare, cultivate (soil &c) by digging, ploughing &c 4 To bring about, effect, accomplish to work a miracle, time works many changes, to work one's will, to work wonders 5 a To achieve a passage, penetrate, by exertion to work one's way upwards, through the jungle &c, b to obtain by labour to work one's passage (on a ship), pay for it in work 6 a (reflex) To pass into specified condition, as result of repeated movements the rope has worked itself loose, b to bring oneself into specified frame of mind, or bodily condition to work oneself into a temper, a fever &c 7 a To embroider, produce (design &c), in needlework to work a design on a banner, b to make a design on, in needlework &c to work a robe with lilies in silver thread C Followed by adverb or preposition Work at, intrans, to elaborate, apply oneself to he is working at a new invention, to study, apply one's energies to learning to work at history and literature Work for, intrans, to strive, work, with specified object in view to work for peace, for a prize &c Work in, 1 trans, to introduce, put in, mingle the lecture would be improved if you could work in a few jokes, 2 intrans, to combine well, fit in his plans will not work in with ours Work off, trans, 1 to dispose of, get rid of, palm off he worked off all his oldest goods, to work off a stale joke on a victim, 2 to get rid of by expending to work off superfluous energy Work on, upon, intrans, to influence, have an effect on, act upon Work out, 1 trans, a to discover by study and application, to reckon, calculate, compute (amount, solution &c) b to exhaust the mine was worked out long ago, the subject was soon worked out as a topic of conversation, o to develop, elaborate, amplify, plan out (a scheme &c), 2 intrans, a (of problem &c) to admit of solution, b (of amount) to be calculated, appear as result of reckoning it works out at £5 each Work up, trans, 1 to build up gradually, by effort, industry &c to work up one's custom, reputation &c, 2 a to promote, instigate, foment to work up a rebellion, a friendly feeling &c, b to arouse, excite, strong emotion in to work up an audience to a state of frenzy, also to work up the feelings &c of an audience, 3 a to combine and manipulate (raw materials) into a finished work to work up a lump of clay into a bust, b to elaborate and develop (a piece of work) into something more highly wrought to work up a sketch into a picture &c workability, n [1 wɜ:kəbəlɪtɪ, 2 wɜ:kəbəlɪtɪ] See next word & -ity State of being workable workable, adj [1 wɜ:kəbəl, 2 wɜ:kəbəl] work (II) & -able a Capable of being worked, cultivated, worked upon the ground is too wet to be workable, b capable of being executed, carried out, practicable a workable plan workableness, n Prec & -ness State or quality of being workable, practicability workably, adv See prec & -ly In a workable manner workaday, adj [1 wɜ:kədə, 2 wɜ:kədə] Characteristic of, suitable for, ordinary working days, hence ordinary, dull, common place this workaday world, life &c work-bag, n Bag for holding materials for needlework &c work-basket, n Basket for holding materials necessary for needlework &c work-box, n Box for holding materials for sewing &c workday, n [1 wɜ:kdeɪ, 2 wɜ:kdeɪ] Day on which ordinary work is carried on, contrasted with Sunday, or holiday worker, n [1 wɜ:kər, 2 wɜ:kə] work (II) & -er a One who, that which, works, specific b worker ant, bee &c worker-ant, n One of the main body of ants (undeveloped females) which carry on the work of the community worker-bee, n One of the main body of bees in a hive (contrasted with drones, or queens) which collect honey workhouse, n [1 wɜ:khaʊs, 2 wɜ:khaʊs] Institution, supported by public funds, in which the paupers of a parish or larger area are maintained working (I), adj [1 wɜ:kɪŋ, 2 wɜ:kɪŋ], fr Pres Part of work (II) 1 Occupied by, spent in, work working hours 2 Required for actual financial needs of commercial enterprise, firm &c working capital, expenses 3 Adapted to requirements of constructor or person elaborating a scheme, theory &c a working drawing, plan &c, a working hypothesis 4 Engaged actively in work, not merely supervising a working builder working (II), n work (II) & -ing 1 Act, operation, activity, process the working of conscience, the workings of nature 2 Mode, manner, according to which an action or process takes place the exact working of wireless telephony cannot be understood without a training in physics 3 (usually pl.) That part of a mine or quarry which is being worked working-class, n Manual workers collectively working-day, n 1 [1 wɜ:kɪŋ dɛɪ, 2 wɜ:kɪŋ dɛɪ] One on which ordinary work is carried on, workday, contrasted with a holiday 2 [1 wɜ:kɪŋ dɛɪ, 2 wɜ:kɪŋ dɛɪ] Number of hours recognized as normal day's work working-man, n Member of working class, man employed in manual work working-out, n Development of detail, elaboration of drafted scheme &c workless, adj [1 wɜ:kles, 2 wɜ:kles] work (I) & -less Having no work, without employment workman, n [1 wɜ:kman, 2 wɜ:kmen] 1 Man employed in manual work, labourer, artisan, mechanic &c 2 One who does, or makes, something, considered from the point of view of the quality of his work, a craftsman a very decent fellow but a poor workman. Phr a bad workman finds fault with his tools, inefficient people always find excuses for their failures workmanlike, adj [1 wɜ:kmanlɪk, 2 wɜ:kmanlɪk] Prec & -like Like, suitable for, characteristic of, a skilled workman workmanship, n [1 wɜ:kmanʃɪp, 2 wɜ:kmanʃɪp] workman & -ship 1 a The special skill of a craftsman, b this thought of in relation to its quality the exquisite workmanship of Cellini 2 Something produced as the result of work, skill &c this box is my workmanship work-people, n Manual workers collectively, persons employed by a master to do manual labour work-room, n Room in which work is done workshop, n [1 wɜ:kʃəp, 2 wɜ:kʃəp] Room or building in which work, esp a handicraft, is carried on work-shy, adj Unwilling to work work-table, n Table with furnished fittings and accessories for needlework workwoman, n [1 wɜ:kwʊmən, 2 wɜ:kwʊmən] Woman employed in manual work, specific, one employed in needlework world, n [1 wɜ:ld, 2 wɜ:ld] OE weorold, ME wer(e)ld, wor(e)ld, op OS werold, OHG weralt, 'world', a very old compound fr stem *wer-, 'man', see first element of werewolf, & *ald, 'age, generation of man', see old, old 1 The earth and the heavens, the universe Phrs not for the world, not on any account, for all the world like, exactly like to be all the world to, be everything to 2 The earth and its inhabitants, the human race, mankind as a whole great reformer generally have the world against them at first, Athenians against the world, the whole world suffered in the Great War 3 Moslems, form, of life or existence this world and the next, too good for this world, the world to come, the future state, 'He Allur'd to brighter worlds, and led the way' (Goldsmith, 'Deserted Village', 170); the other world, existence after this present life, heaven 4 Human life on earth, specif a individual life and experience in the world how is the world using you?, the world goes very well with me, b individual outlook on life, range of thought, and emotional experience &c his world was a very narrow one, c habits, customs, way of life, mode of thought &c, of mankind in general to see much of the world in every part of the globe 5 a The purely material concerns of human life as contrasted with the spiritual the world, the flesh, and the devil, he forsook the world and turned his thoughts to heaven, b the part of mankind chiefly occupied with material concerns, worldly persons 6 a Humanity considered in its social aspect, organized society he retired to the country and shut out the world, 'The world forgetting, by the world forgot' (Pope, 'Eloisa to Abolard', 208), b some particular phase or section of society the ancient world, the fashionable world, I do not move in his world Phr man of the world, one versed and experienced in life and society 7 A particular sphere, or range, of organized activities, occupations, interests, persons identified with any of these the world of commerce, the dog world, the sporting, racing, world, the scientific world 8 One of the great primary divisions of natural objects, kingdom the animal, vegetable, mineral, world 9 One of the hemispheres of the globe and its inhabitants, the New World, America, the Old World, Europe, Asia, Africa, as known before the discovery of America 10 One of the heavenly bodies thought of as having inhabitants and as constituted like our earth we are surrounded in space by innumerable worlds which may resemble our own 11 As a symbol of vast size, amount, number, a host, a sea a world of troubles, of sin &c world - language, n a Language used throughout the world, b an artificial language intended for universal use worldliness, n [1 wɜ:ldlɪnəs, 2 wɜ:ldlɪnəs] worldly & -ness State or quality of being worldly worldling, n [1 wɜ:ldlɪŋ, 2 wɜ:ldlɪŋ] world & -ling Worldly person worldly, adj [1 wɜ:ldli, 2 wɜ:ldli] world & -ly 1 Pertaining to the present world, earthly, mundane worldly interests, pleasures, ambitions, affairs, worldly goods, property, possessions, worldly wisdom, experience in the ways of men, shrewdness in dealing with human affairs, esp in advancing one's own interests 2 Devoted to, concerned chiefly with, the material affairs of life, having the mind mainly bent on success in life, material riches, glory, prosperity &c worldly-minded, adj Concerned mainly with, interested in, mundane matters worldly-mindedness, n State of being worldly-minded worldly-wise, adj Possessed of worldly wisdom world-old, adj. As old as the world, hence, of extreme antiquity world-power, n Political state whose policy affects the world. world-weary, adj Generally discontented with life and earthly conditions world-wide, adj Extending over the whole world world-wide fame worm (I), n [1 wɜ:m, 2 wɜ:m] OE wyrm, ME wurm, 'serpent, worm, dragon', op OHG wurm, M Du worm, ON ormr, Goth waurms, 'worm, serpent', cogn. w Lat vermis, earlier wormis*, 'worm', see vermin- 1 a One of several varieties of legless, invertebrate animals, including earthworms, tapeworms &c Phrs food for worms, of dead person; even a worm will turn, the most oppressed, humblest or meekest person will retaliate under sufficient pressure, the worm of conscience, remorse, b a mean spirited, abject, contemptible person 2 Spiral grooving on a screw 3 Spiral arrangement of pipes in a still 4 Worm-like organ in human or animal body, specif, membrane under tongue of dog worm (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 a Worm one's way, to make one's way along cautiously and gradually, in spite of obstacles and difficulties, also (fig) to worm one's way into society, into a person's confidence &c, to wriggle in, insinuate oneself by stealth, cunning, and persistence, b also worm oneself in, same as a. 2 To remove worms from, esp. to worm a dog, purge him of intestinal worms 3 To extract (information &c) by cajolery, insistent questioning &c to worm secrets out of a person B intrans. (rare) To crawl, wriggle, along like a worm.

worm-cast, n. Cylindrical mass of earth excreted by earth-worm, left on surface of the ground worm-eaten, adj [1 wɜ:m 'etn, 2 wɜ:m 'itn] 1 Gnawed, bored into, perforated, by weevils &c. worm-eaten wood &c 2 (fig) Old, worn, out-of-date worm-eaten regulations, customs &c worm-fishing, n. Angling with worm as bait worm-gear, n Gear-wheel with teeth arranged to engage with a worm of a screw.

worm-hole, n Hole bored by worm in earth, or by a weevil in wood &c worm-holed, adj [1 wɜ:m 'hɔld, 2 wɜ:m 'hɔld] Riddled with worm holes worminess, n [1 wɜ:mɪnəs, 2 wɜ:mɪnəs] wormy & -ness State of being wormy worm-seed, n. A seed of certain plants used as a vermifuge, b plant yielding this seed, esp a herb of the Levant worm-wheel, n Wheel in worm gear.

wormwood, n [1 wɜ:mwud; 2 wɜ:mwud] Not connected w worm (I) OE, ME wermōd, op OHG wermuot, etymol doubtful, cp vermouth, Du wormel Aromatic, bitter perennial herb, Artemisia absinthium, wild and cultivated, with downy, segmented leaves and yellow flowers, used in the manufacture of absinth, vermouth &c Phr (fig) gall and wormwood, bitter humiliation and mortification, circumstance causing these wormy, adj [1 wɜ:m; 2 wɜ:m] worm (I) & -y Infested with, abounding in, bored through by, worms worn, adj [1 wɜ:n, 2 wɜ:n] PP of wear OE (ge)woren ME wor(e)n 1 Injured, impaired, made thin &c by use, wear &c worn garments 2 Pinched, showing signs of exhausting toil, care &c a worn and haggard face woriless, adj [1 wɜ:rləs, 2 wɜ:rləs] worry (II) & -less Without worries woriment, n. [1 wɜ:rimənt, 2 wɜ:rimənt] worry (I) & -ment 1 Vexation, anxiety, worry 2 Cause of uneasiness, anxiety, or vexation.

worry (II), vb trans & intrans [1 wɜ:ri, 2 wɜ:ri] OE wyrigan, ME wurzen, 'to choke, strangle, tear, worry', op OHG wurgan, O Fris werga, M Du worghen, 'to choke', op further OS wurgil, 'band, cord', cogn. w Lith verzu, 'to bind, compress', Lett weret, 'to turn, twist', O Slav vrěti, 'to bind', Gk erhataem, 'to hedge in', Lat vergere, 'to bend, bow', see verge (II), fr base wer(e)g*, wrg* &c, 'to bend, curve, turn', cp further forms w nasal under wring, wrong A trans 1 (of dog &c) To seize (quarry), shake and lacerate with the teeth the dog worried the rat Phr to worry the sword, to make a quick succession of feints in fencing, in an attempt to distract opponent 2 a To cause annoyance to, to pester, harass, by constant importunity &c to worry a person with perpetual questions, demands, b to annoy with persistent, importunate demands he was always worrying her to marry him 3 a To cause uneasiness and anxiety to his prolonged absence worries me, don't let that worry you, b to cause wearing bodily pain or discomfort to his old wound, toothache &c worries him a good deal B intrans To be anxious, troubled, uneasy - don't worry if you are late Phr to worry along, manage to get on in spite of difficulties worry (II), n, fr prec 1 (of dog &c) Act of worrying 2 Feeling of wearing anxiety and uneasiness to show signs of worry 3 That which worries, cause of anxiety or annoyance. to have many worries worrying, adj [1 wɜ:riŋ, 2 wɜ:riŋ], fr. Pres Part of worry (I.) Causing worry, anxiety, irritation, annoying, vexatious - to have a worrying time worryingly, adv. Prec & -ly. So as to cause worry worse (I), compar adj [1 wɜ:s; 2 wɜ:s] OE wyras, ME wurs, op OS wirs(a), OHG wirs, Goth. wairs, 'worse', cogn. w OS, OHG werran, 'to confuse, mix up', further w Lat. vertere, 'to sweep, brush', see vermicule. 1. Bad in a higher degree; there could be no worse misfortune; this road is even worse than the other; the worse for wear 2 (pred.) a In a less satisfactory physical condition, more ill. the patient is worse this morning, he grew rapidly worse, he is none the worse for the accident, b more badly situated, in less satisfactory condition or circumstances he will not be the worse for this change worse (II), compar adv OE wyrs, see prec. 1. a In a worse manner, to a worse extent he sings worse than ever, b none the worse, no less, all the better to live (a person) none the worse for being outspoken &c, to think none the worse of, to esteem more highly 2 To a greater degree, with more severity it is blowing worse than before worse (III), n, fr worse (I) Worse thing, something more unsatisfactory or evil: worse remains to tell Phr to go from bad to worse, deteriorate steadily worsen, vb trans & intrans [1 wɜ:sən, 2 wɜ:sən] worse (I) & -en. 1 trans. To make worse 2 intrans. To become worse worship (I), n [1 wɜ:ʃɪp, 2 wɜ:ʃɪp] OE weorðscipe, ME wurðshipe, 'dignity, honour, worship', worth (I) & -ship 1 (archaic and obs.) Honour, dignity, status, character, which commands the highest respect a man of great worship 2 Your, his, Worship, conventional formula of respect used in addressing, or referring to, a magistrate on the bench, also as title of a mayor his Worship the Mayor of B 3 a The highest form of veneration and adoration, accorded only to a deity, b religious observances divine worship, public worship 4 Intense love and admiration, respect, veneration, felt for anything the worship of beauty, money, intellect, success &c worship (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To accord worship to, to revere and adore as God 2 a To regard with great or excessive admiration or reverence, idolize, adore to worship one's wife, money, b to honour, show respect for with my body I thee worship (Marriage Service) Phr to worship the ground a person treads on, entertain the intensest affection for him (har) B intrans 1 To take part in religious observances many people have worshipped in this church 2 To feel deep reverence, adoration to worship at the shrine of beauty worshipful, adj [1 wɜ:ʃɪpfʊl, 2 wɜ:ʃɪpfʊl] worship (I) & -ful (archaic, except in titles of respect) Worthy of honour, respected the Worshipful Company of Fishmongers, the Worshipful the Master (mason)

worshipfully, adv Prec & -ly In a worshipful manner worshipfulness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being worshipful worshipper, n [1 wɜ:ʃɪpər, 2 wɜ:ʃɪp] worship (II) & -er One who worships.

worst (I), adj [1 wɜːst, 2 wɜːst]. OE wyrsta, ME wurst, worse (I) & -est a Bad, severe, harmful to the highest possible degree, exhibiting bad qualities to a more intense degree than any other or others of the same kind the worst dinner I ever ate, b most intense - the worst frost for a hundred years worst (II), adv OE wyrst, see prec In the worst manner, most badly there were many who played badly, but he played worst worst (III), n, fr worst (I) That which is worst, worst person or thing, worst part, circumstance, event, result &c of all bad things, John was probably the worst, to prepare for the worst, to keep the worst for the last, tell me the worst, the worst of the winter must be past, the storms are at their worst in February, he always makes the worst of his troubles. Phrs at worst, under the most unfavourable circumstances, to see somebody, something, at his, its, worst, under the worst aspects, do your worst, let him do his worst, formula of defiance, to get the worst of it, be defeated, if the worst comes to the worst, if the most disastrous thing should happen, should it turn out as badly as possible, the worst of it is that, the most unfortunate, unfavourable, circumstance is, it happens most unfortunately that worst (IV), vb trans, fr prec To defeat, gain a victory over, vanquish in a contest, overthrow. worsted n & adj [1 wɒstəd, 2 wɒstəd], fr Worste (adj, in Norfolk, orig place of manufacture 1. n Twisted woollen yarn of long staple 2. adj Made of worsted worsted socks &c wort (I), n [1 wɜːt, 2 wɜːt] OE wyrt, ME wurt, 'root, herb'; cp OS wurt, O.H.G. wurt; O.N. wrt, Goth wauris, 'root, plant, herb', cogn. w Lat. radix, 'root', see radix, Gk. rhōdiz, 'branch, rod', rhiza, 'root', see rhiza - op further ON rot, 'root', see rot (chiefly in compounds) Herb, plant, e.g. milkwort, ragwort.

wort (II), n. ME wurta, OE -wyrta, cp M.H.G. würze, M.Dn worte, wort in brewing', prob fr same stem as prec. In fusion of malt before fermentation.

worth (I), adj [1 wɜːθ, 2 wɜːθ] OE wyrðe, ME wurpe, 'worthy', op OS werth, O.H.G. wert, O.N. verðr, Goth warþa, 'worthy' (pred.) 1 Having a specified value you can have it for experience, but it is worth more, it is worth little, much, it is not worth a penny, (poet) it is little, nothing, worth 2 Deserving of, meriting, giving adequate return for it is worth seeing, worth the trouble. Phrs the game isn't worth the candle, see candle, to be worth one's salt see salt, worth while, (colloq) worth it, worth the time, trouble, spent on it, worth the difficulty, danger &c mourned, not worth a damn, quite worthless 3. Having property to the value of, possessions amounting to what is he worth? he is worth several millions. Phr run a/c for all you are, one is worth, exerting the utmost strength, making every effort worth (II), n. OE weorð, wurð, wyrð, 'worth, price, ransom, honour, dignity', see prec 1 a Material value or price of anything a jewel of great worth, b spiritual qualities of mind and character, moral excellence few knew his true worth 2 Amount of anything purchasable for a given sum, number of specified coins equivalent to one of higher value half a crown's worth of oranges a shilling's worth of bird-seed, two shillings' worth of copper, also in the compounds, pennyworth, halfpennyworth worth (III), vb intrans OE weorðan, M.E. worthen 'to become'; cp OS werthan, O.H.G. werdan, O.N. verða, Goth warpan, 'to become', op Goth -warþa, OE -weorð, 'in specified direction', see -ward, cogn. w Lat. vertere, 'to turn', see version, Sort variant, 'turns, rolls, goes.' To betide, befall, poet, in Phr we worth, ill betide, op. M.E. we mote worpen 'Woe worth the chase, we worth the day!' (Scott, 'Lady of the Lake', r ix) worthily, adv, [1 wɜːðli, 2 wɜːðli] worthy & -ly In a worthy manner worthiness, n. [1 wɜːðlɪnəs, 2 wɜːðlɪnəs] See prec & -ness Quality of being worthy worthless, adj [1 wɜːθlɪs, 2 wɜːθlɪs] worth (II) & -less a Of no worth, valueless useless, b (specif of persons) unprincipled, unreliable, of no character worthlessly, adv Prec & -ly. In a worthless manner worthlessness n See prec & -ness Quality of being worthless worthy (I), adj [1 wɜːði, 2 wɜːði] worth (II) & -y 1 a Meriting honour or respect, virtuous, estimable, of good character a worthy man, b deserving approval and support a worthy cause 2 Fitted by character or quality for, entitled to, deserving, courage worthy of a better cause, a worthy adversary, worthy to be considered, worthy of death, reward &c worthy (II), n, fr prec a Person of importance and of estimable character, eminent person, a notable, the Worthies of England, the Nine Worthies, b (ironic) equivalent to person, merchant who is the worthy with the bald head and a beard?

wot, vb. [1 wɒt, 2 wɒt], fr OE wōt, 'I know', ME wot, a Pret. Pres fr OE witan, 'to know', see wit (I) (archaic) I know, the 3rd sing now usually wote, on anal. of other vbs, but note archaic form in Phr God wot, in M.E. Godde, 'God knows' would, vb [1 wuːd, 2 wuːd] OE, M.E. walde, Pret. of will (III) would-be, adj & adv [1 wuːd bi, 2 wuːd bi] (attrib) Expressing a quality or state desired or intended a would-be poet, would-be poetical phrases wound (I), n [1 wuːnd, 2 wuːnd] OE, M.E. wund, 'wound', op OE wund, 'wounded', O.S. wunda, O.H.G. wunda, Du wond, 'wound', prob cogn w OE winnan, 'to fight' &c, see win 1 a Injury to any part of the body in which the skin, and often the muscular tissue, is penetrated, cut, torn &c wounds received in battle, a fatal, mortal, wound, an open, contused, wound, b in obs Phr God's wounds, as oath, see zounds, c injury to plant &c, involving cutting or tearing of bark &c 2 Injury to the feelings, self respect, honour, affections &c, an insult, affront wound (II), vb, trans, fr prec To inflict a wound upon, to hurt, injure, the body or the feelings the shell wounded him in the head, he was profoundly wounded in his deepest affections wound (III), vb [1 wuːnd, 2 wuːnd] OE (ge)wunden, ME wunde(n), PP of wind (IV), now used also as Pret., op OE Pret wand woundily, adv Obs, fr woundy, q.v.

woundless, adj [1 wuːndləs, 2 wuːndləs] wound (I) & -less Free from wounds, uninjured wound-wort, n Plant formerly used as remedy for wounds.

woundy, adj [1 wuːndi, 2 wuːndi] wound (I), 1 b & -y. Profane but rather mild and meaningless epithet, used colloquially as intensive in 17th or first half of 18th cent, apparently more or less equivalent to confounded, cp 'There was a neighbour's daughter I had a woundy kindness for' (Farquhar, 'Twin Rivals', 1702) wourals. See woorals wove(n), adj [1 wɒv(ən), 2 wɒv(ən)] fr R.P. of weave, M.E. (shwōne(n)), on the anal. of stolen &c, op OE PP (ge)wafen Made by weaving. woven fabrics, wove paper, smooth paper made on wire-gauze frame.

wow, n. [1 wɒw, 2 wɒw] (slang, U.S.A.) A great success, something wonderful, extraordinary.

wrack, n [1 rak, 2 rak] M.E. wrac, 'wreck', prob fr ON wrak, 'a wreck, refuse, trash', op the OE cogn wracu, 'vengeance, misery', also the cognates wrecca, wrecca, 'an exile', lit 'one driven out', see wretch, & cp wrecca, 'to drive, expel', see wreak & wreak (I) The fundamental meaning is 'what is driven about, or away'. 1 (archaic or poet) Run, destruction everything is gone to wrack, cp Phr wrack, now usually rack, and ruin, see rack (III) 2 Marine vegetation cast up on the shore wraith, n [1 raɪθ, 2 raɪθ] Etymol. doubtful, perh a variant of wreath. A Apparition of a living person, or of one who has recently died, foretelling or announcing his death, b a spectre, ghost, disembodied spirit generally wrangle, vb intrans & n [1 ræŋgl, 2 ræŋgl] M.E. wrangeln, 'to wrangle', prob. a gradational variant of wring (I) & -le 1 vb To take part in a heated or noisy discussion or quarrel, dispute angrily, brawl. 2 n Noisy altercation, quarrel wrangler, n [1 ræŋglər, 2 ræŋglər] Prec & -or 1 Person who wrangles, brawler 2 (Cambridge University) Person placed in first class of mathematical tripos, (the name has reference to the public disputation in which candidates formerly took part), senior wrangler, person heading the list of wranglers in any year when the order of merit was published now obsolete wranglership, n [1 ræŋglərʃɪp, 2 ræŋglərʃɪp] Prec & -ship Position of wrangler wrap (I), vb trans & intrans. [1 rap, 2 rap] M.E. wrappen, etymol doubtful Cp obs. wlappen, 'to wrap', & see lap (II) 1 Trans 1 To fold round, enfold, cover, roll up, envelop (a person or thing) in (a) folding material (or garment) to wrap a parcel in paper, to wrap a child in a shawl, also wrap up (a parcel in paper) or wrap a parcel up in paper, to wrap oneself, or another, up in a cloak, speck, to wrap oneself up (well), put on warm clothes 2 (in non material sense) a To enshroud in, surround with, envelop (oneself) he wraps himself in an impenetrable reserve, Phr wrapped up in, devoted to, entirely absorbed by, preoccupied with wrapped up in his children, in his work, b to disguise, conceal he wraps up a sensitive diffidence of nature in a rather boisterous manner, to wrap up a censure in a polite formula 3. To place, arrange, fold (of flexible material) so as to cover wrap paper round it, to wrap one's cloak round one

B intrans 1 Usually wrap up, to cover, enfold oneself, in wraps, specif, to put on a number of warm clothes mind you wrap up well 2 Wrap over, to overlap wrap (II), n, fr prec 1 Material used for wrapping to take a mummy out of its wraps

2 Specif, a garment, cloak &c, or a rug or other piece of fabric used for wrapping up and protecting the person from cold take plenty of wraps with you in the car wrappage, n [1 rapɪʒ, 2 rapɪʒ] wrap (I) & -age Material used for wrapping wrapper, n. [1 ræpər, 2 rapər] wrap (I) & -er One who, that which, wraps, material used for wrapping, specif. a slip of paper used to wrap up a newspaper &c for posting, a loose paper cover for book, c light dressing-gown, d tobacco leaf of good quality used for outer layer of cigar.

wrapping, n [1 ræpɪŋ, 2 rapɪŋ] wrap (I) & -ing Material, piece(s) of fabric &c, in which a thing is wrapped and plenty of wrapping round it, a mummy is enclosed in many wrappings wrapt. See rapt.

wrasse, n. [1 ras, 2 res] fr W gurrahen Family of brightly coloured, European sea-fish, often with very thick lips, found inshore near rocky coasts wrath, n [1 rawθ, 2 rɒθ] The O.E. wræþa, wræþu, 'anger', form wrap c meaning 'angry' & so, op OS wrēð, OHG (w)reidi, ON reidr, 'angry'. Perh cogn w Lat irritāre, 'to provoke, enrage', if this is fr in wrīt āre*, seo irritate, op writhe & wroth Deep, intense, anger and indignation wrathful, adj [1 rawthfool, 2 rōpful] Prec & -ful a Feeling or expressing wrath, angry, deeply indignant, incensed, b animated by wrath wrathful indignation wrathfully, adv Prec & -ly In a wrathful manner wreak, vb trans [1 rēk, 2 rik] OE wreacan, 'to drive, push, to avenge', ME wrekan, 'to avenge', cp OS wrekan, OHG rahan, 'to punish, avenge', ON reca, O Frie wreka, 'to drive, oppress, revenge', Goth wrikan, 'to pursue', cogn w Lat urgāre, 'to push, force, drive', see uge, O Slav wragh, 'enemy', Lath vaigas, 'oppression'. See wrack & wreck 1 (archaic) To avenge 2 To carry out, inflict, put into operation to wreak vengeance, one's wrath, malice &c, upon a person wreath, n [1 rēth, 2 rīp] OE wrēap, 'hand, wreath', fr wrēpi-*, cp OE wriðan, 'to twist', Pret sing wrāp, see writhe & wraith 1 a A circle made of twisted in anoles, sprays &c, often adorned with leaves and flowers, used as decoration for tombs and other monuments, in commemorations and celebrations, as a crown for a poet, a garland, b (fig) as symbol of the honour and veneration paid to a poet or conqueror, c carved or other representation of a wreath 2 A curling, eddying, drifting spiral, streak, wisp &c, esp of smoke, vapour, mist &c, also a light, drifting mass of sand, snow &c wreaths, vh trans & intrans [1 rēdh, 2 rīð] formed fr prec The final consonant of the vb is voiced because org followed by a suff, cp breathe, contrasted w breath A trans 1 To twist, wind, weave, into a wreath 'From his slack hand the garland wreathed for Eve Down dropt' (Milton, 'P L' ix 892 3) 2 To adorn, hang, encircle, with, or as with, a wreath the bays that wreath the poet's brow Phr wreathed in smiles, smiling 3 To wind round, clasps, entwine to wreath one's arms about a person B intrans (of smoke, mist, plants, &c) To move, coil, in, or as in, wreaths wreck (I), n [1 rek, 2 rek] Variant of wrack, OE wreac, 'exile, misery', ME wrac, wrac, op OE wreac, 'to drive, expel', see wreak 1 Destruction, esp a snok disablement of a ship by winds and waves that she has to be abandoned, b destruction of other objects, esp the demolition of houses and buildings generally, by fire, storm &c 2 Ruin, the bringing to nought, upsetting, annihilation (of one's fortunes, plans, hopes &c) 3 A ship that has been wrecked and abandoned at sea, a ship cast on a reef, or the shore, and broken up by the force of the waves &c, b a ruined building demolished by fire, storm &c, Phr a (man's) wreck of his former self, said of a person who is emaciated and weakened by ill health or the ravages of some disease, c ruined hopes, plans &c wreck (II), vh trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To cause wreck, a to a ship, b to a train, building &c 2 To ruin, destroy, bring to nought (plans, hopes &c) B intrans 1 (rare, chiefly fig) To be destroyed, come to grief our plans will wreck, if at all, on our own lack of conviction 2 To be concerned with a wreck, either as a rescuer or as a plunderer wreckage, n [1 rēkj, 2 rēldʒ] wreck & -ago 1 Material from a ship, building &c that has been wrecked, remnants, dilapidated fragments left from a wreck 2 (fig) Act or process of wrecking to witness the wreckage of one's hopes wrecked, adj [1 rekt, 3 rekt], fr PP of wreck. Involved in a wreck, having suffered from, having been damaged by, wrecked ship, sailors wrecker, n [1 rēker, 2 rēkə] wreck & -er

1 a One who, that which, wrecks, specif b person who attempts to lead ship to destruction on a coast in order that he may plunder the wreckage 2 Person employed in recovering cargo &c from wrecked ship wrecking, adj, fr Pres Part of wreck (II) Causing ruin, tending to destroy, esp a wrecking amendment, motion, one designed to frustrate a previous motion, or a bill wreck-master, n Official appointed to take charge of cargo &c from wrecked vessel wren, n [1 ren, 2 ren] OE wrænna, name of the bird, ME wrenne, prob fr OE wræne, 'lecherous', etymol unknown Name of a genus, Troglodytes, of small passerine song birds with rounded wings and short, erect tail, also name of certain warblers, esp the willow wren, and of the kinglet or golden-crested wren wrench (I), n [1 rench, 2 rentʃ] OE wrenc, 'trick, artifice', ME wrench, 'gule', op MHG ranc, 'deceit', op further OE urincle, see wrinkle, wringan, 'to twist', also wring, wri ong & words there referred to 1 A sudden violent twist, jerk, pull, strain to pull out a tooth with one wrench, b injury inflicted on a joint, tendon, muscle by a wrench to give one's knee a wrench 2 (fig) Painful emotion comparable to a physical wrench in its intensity, esp such an emotion felt at separation, abrupt discontinuance of old habits and occupations &c it was a terrible wrench to leave the old home, the wrench of parting with one's children 3 Tool for grasping and turning nuts &c wrench (II), vb trans OE wranscan, 'to twist, turn', fr prec 1 To pull with a sudden, sharp, violent, jerk to wrench a plant out of the ground, to wrench a box open, cows wrench the grass 2 a To twist, jerk, and tear from normal position (a tendon, ligament &c of the body), b (fig) to distort, pervert, give a twist to (meaning of what is said, facts, words) wrest (I), vb trans [1 rest, 2 rest] OE wræstian, ME wrasien, wresten, 'to twist, wrest', op Du wiste, ON reista, 'to twist', fr stem wre-, wri- &c, 'to turn, twist', see writhe 1 a To pull away forcibly, tear, wrench away to wrest a weapon from one's grasp, b (also fig) to extract by toil and pains, to extort to wrest a living from the barren ground, to wrest her secrets from Nature 2 To distort, pervert, turn away from its true meaning, intent &c you must not wrest my words from their obvious meaning in that way wrest (II), n, fr prec Key for tuning a stringed instrument, esp a harp wrest-block, n Part of piano frame to which wrest-pins are fastened wrestle (I), vh intrans & trans [1 rēsl, 2 resl] OE wræstlian, ME wrestlen, op M Du wrastelen wrest (I) & -le 1 To struggle with opponent by grappling with and endeavouring to throw him, by lifting and lowering, esp in a contest of strength and skill, constructions (i) (absol) I saw the champions wrestle, (u) to wrestle with, (u) (trans use) to wrestle a man for a prize, I'll wrestle you for it 2 (fig) Wrestle with, to strive, contend with, struggle against, make an effort to deal with or overcome to wrestle with a task, difficulty, temptation &c Phr to wrestle with God, pray with great earnestness wrestle (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of wrestling, specif, wrestling bout 2 (fig) A struggle, tussle, strenuous effort to deal with a difficult task wrestler, n [1 resler, 2 reslə] wrestle (I) & -er One who wrestles, specif, a trained person who regularly engages in wrestling matches wrestling, n [1 rēslɪŋ, 2 reslɪŋ] wrestle (I) & -ing Act of person who wrestles, specif, the art of overpowering and throwing, pulling down an opponent by various grapples, locks, modes of lifting and tripping &c wrest-pin, n Steel pin in a piano to which one end of each string is fixed, by turning which the instrument is tuned wretch, n [1 rech, 2 retʃ] OE wræcca, 'exile, wretch', ME wrecche, fr stem seen in OE wreccan, 'to drive, to expel', see wreak, cp OHG recco, OS wrekkæ, 'exile, wretch' 1 Person involved in utter distress, miserable, thoroughly unhappy or unfortunate person, poor wretch, often pityingly contemptuous 2 a Base, contemptible scoundrel, an abandoned ruffian the servants of a revolution are often wretches devoid of mercy or conscience, b (i) (playful and affectionate) as in the little wretch did all she could to tease him = little rogue, (u) (archaic) the pretty witch wretched, adj [1 rēched, 2 rēʃɪd] Prec & -ed 1 a (i) Miserable, unhappy, deeply depressed in mind boys are often wretched when they first go to school, (u) (implying some degree of censure) unfortunate the wretched man had lost all his money, b suffering extreme bodily discomfort to feel thoroughly wretched with influenza, c causing wretchedness and discomfort of mind or body a wretched business, state of things &c, a wretched cold, toothache, pain in the side 2 (of external surroundings) squalid, mean, poverty-stricken, full of discomfort, dismal, depressing a wretched hotel, what a wretched place to live in 3 Of poor quality, inferior, thoroughly bad the play was wretched stuff, the food at this hotel is wretched, wretched accommodation, his voice and delivery are wretched wretchedly, adv Prec & -ly In a wretched manner wretchedness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being wretched wretchlessness, n, variant of recklessness The w- is due to association with wretch 'the Devil doth thrust them' (ie 'curious and carnal persons') 'either into desperation, or into wretchlessness of most unclean living' (No xvii, Articles of Religion, Prayer Book) wrick, rick, vb trans & n [1 rik, 2 rik] ME wricen, 'to move, jerk, twist', op Dan wrikke, Swed wricka, Du wrikken, 'to move to and fro', cogn w wring (I) 1 vh To twist, sprain slightly to wrick one's neck, back &c 2 n Slight sprain, twist, of a joint wriggle (I), vh intrans & trans [1 rɪgl, 2 rɪgl] Freq of wrig-*, fr same base as wry, op LG wriggen A intrans 1 a To twist and turn (the body) thus way and that, with rapid, jerky motions, to squirm, to fidget about keep still, and don't wriggle, to wriggle about, b wriggle along, move along, proceed, with wriggling motions, c wriggle out (of a hole, tight place &c), (i) manage to escape by wriggling, also (u) (fig) to escape from an awkward situation by cunning, to wriggle out of a bargain, undertaking, find a pretext for not sticking to it 2 (fig) To give evasive answers to questions, to dodge, to equivocate 3 To betray uneasiness of mind, to show embarrassment the implied criticism made him wriggle B trans a (reflex) To wriggle oneself along, into, free &c, move along, penetrate, extricate oneself by means of wriggling, (also fig), b wriggle one's way, to make one's way by wriggling wriggle (II), n, fr prec Wiggling motion, twist, squirm wriggler, n [1 rɪglər, 2 rɪglə] wriggle (I) & -er 1 Person or animal that wriggles, specif, a worm or wriggling insect, red wriggler, worm used for fishing 2 One who equivocates, one who evades his promises wright, n [1 rɪt, 2 raɪt] OE wyrhta, ME wrikte, wrikte, 'carpenter, workman, wright', fr base wour-, gradational variant of werk- &c, 'work', seen in OE uorc, 'work', see work, OE wyrcean, 'to work' a (archaic) A worker, a constructive workman, artificer, b now chiefly in compounds, ship-, wheelwright &c., also playwright wring (I), vb trans [1 rɪŋ, 2 rɪŋ] OE wringan, ME wringen, 'to wring, twist', op M Du wringing, O HG ringan, 'to twist', Goth wruggō, 'noose, snare', ON rangr, Swed wrang, 'twisted, wrong', see wrong, & wrangle 1 To twist and press, twist strongly, to strain, squeeze, compress by twisting to wring clothes (out), squeeze and twist them to remove moisture Phrs to wring the neck of (chicken &c), kill by twisting neck of, wringing wet, wet enough to wring water out of, to wring one's hands, (fig) to feel and express sorrow and despair, to wring the hand of (another person), to clasp it warmly, expressing cordiality, it wrings my heart, causes anguish, pity, sorrow &c 2 A To extract, press out by wringing to wring moisture out of clothes, b (fig) to extort by persistent persuasion, by compulsion &c to wring money out of a stingy person, to wring a reluctant promise, answer &c, from a person wring (II), n, fr prec Action of wringing, equese wringer, n [1 ringer, 2 rɪŋə] wring (I) & -er One who, that which, wrings, specif, machine with rollers for pressing water out of clothes wrinkle (I), n [1 rɪŋkl, 2 rɪŋkl] OE wrincle, ME wrinkel, op M Du wrinkel, cogn w OE wrencan, 'to twist', see wrench a Small depression, furrow, or ridge caused by crumpling or puckering a flexible surface, specif b crease or pucker produced by contraction of skin through old age &c 'Time wears no wrinkle on thine azure brow' (Byron, 'Child Harold', iv 182) wrinkle (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To form wrinkles in, to pucker, crease to wrinkle (up) one's forehead, as in perplexity 2 intrans To become wrinkled, to pucker wrinkle (III), n OE wrenc, 'an artifice, a trick', w dunn suff, op OE wrencan, 'to twist', & see wrench Ingenious hint, suggestion or device, dodge, useful piece of advice wrinkly, adj [1 rɪŋkli, 2 rɪŋkli] wrinkle (I) & -y Full of wrinkles wrist, n [1 rɪst, 2 rɪst] OE, ME wrist, op ON, M HG rist, 'instep', O Fris (hond) wrist, 'wrist', fr base seen in OE wriston, 'to turn', see writhes, ultimate meaning, 'the turning joint' 1 Joint between fore arm and hand, the carpus 2 Method of using, skill in using, wrist in art, craft sport &c 3 Wrist pin wristband, n [1 rɪzbænd, 2 rɪzbænd] (archaic) The band at the lower part of a shirt sleeve wrist-drop, n Paralysis of the muscles controlling the hand, which prevents the straightening of the hand and interferes with its active use wristlet, n [1 rɪstlɪt, 2 rɪstlɪt] wrist & -let Band worn round the wrist for support, warmth, ornament, for holding a watch &c, also attrib a wristlet watch wrist-pin, n (mooban) Pin, peg, shaft, on which a connecting rod turns writ, n [1 rɪt, 2 rɪt] OE (ge)writ, 'something written', ME writ, see write 1 (archaic) That which is written document, writing, now only in holy, sacred, writ, the Bible 2 (law) An instrument or document issued in the king's name to a particular person enjoining specific action or instructing him to abstain from action write vb, intrans & trans [1 rɪt, 2 rɪt] OE wrican, 'to engrave, draw, write', ME wrican, 'to write', op OS wrian 'to learn, scratch, to write', O HG rican, Mod Germ reissen 'to tear', ON rita, 'to write', OE gewrit, 'writing', Goth writs, 'stroke, line, point' No cognates known outside German 1 Intrans 1 To trace on a surface symbols, representing letters (s) or, word(s), esp on paper, parchment &c, to learn to write 2 To write well, elegantly &c 2 To compose, to write in writing, words, letters, or written words &c 3 To present, to write, to write, every week to my family when absent 3 To engage in literary composition, compose book(s), article(s) &c, to practise the trade of author to write for a living, to write amusingly, well &c Phr to write oneself out, write so much that one's vein is exhausted B trans 1 To put down, trace (symbols representing letters, words), on paper, parchment, or other surface to write one's name, to write notes in the margin, to write shorthand, to write Chinese characters Phrs to write a good, legible, hand, produce good, legible writing, write in water, leaving no permanent mark or record, writ large, widely proclaimed, clearly visible and recognizable the character and spiritual outlook of Milton ars writ large in every page of 'Paradise Lost' 2 A To express, state, put down, in writing (as an opinion or fact) it is written that, a great scholar has written that, b to communicate in writing, tell by means of a letter be sure to write me all your news 3 A Specif, to produce, create, as a literary or artistic composition to write a book, article, poem, review &c, b to draw up, put down, in writing to write a letter 4 A To fill up, cover, with writing to write several pages, b to fill in, insert necessary writing in to write a cheque, certificate &c 5 To designate, describe as, in writing he writes himself 'Colonel' 6 (fig) To show clearly, give clear signs of, impart indelibly his selfishness, fear &c is written on, on over, his face, the tendencies of the times are written in current events C Followed by adverb Write down, trans, 1 To put down, record, in writing to write down an address, write it down before you forget it, 2 to depreciate in writing, 3 to describe as, put down for I should write him down a fool Write off, trans, 1 to compose quickly and easily, 2 a to cancel, write a statement annulling (debt &c), b to regard as cancelled Write out, trans, to write in full, put whole of into writing, Phr to write out fair, make fair copy of Write up, trans, 1 to praise in writing, 'compose a eulogy of, 2 to elaborate, exaggerate, details of (event), in writing, 3 to fill up, complete, bring up to date &c, in writing to write up a report, one's diary writer, n [1 rɪtə, 2 rɪtə] write & -er 1 One who writes, specif a person who practises literary composition, an author, b a clerk, esp in a government office, c writer to the signet, Scottish solicitor 2 Book giving instructions for writing, esp foreign language writer's cramp, n Muscular affection of the hand and fingers, due to excessive and prolonged use of the pen writership, n [1 rɪtəʃɪp, 2 rɪtəʃɪp] writer & -ship Position, rank, of writer in an office &c writhe (I), vb intrans & trans [1 rɪð, 2 rɪð] OE writhan, ME writhen, 'to twist, turn, writhe', op O HG ridan, ON rida, 'to turn', O HG (w)read, 'crinkled', cogn w OE wrāð, 'angry', see wrath & wronth, & op wrist A intrans 1 To twist, contort, the body about, to squirm to writhe in agony 2 (fig) To undergo acute mental discomfort, to wince in spirit to writhe under a person's taunts B trans (rare) To cause to writhe, to twist, (chiefly reflex) to writhe oneself writhe (II), n, fr prec Act, motion, of writhing written, adj [1 rɪtən, 2 rɪtən] OE wriden, PP of writhan, see writhe (I) (archaic or poet) Twisted, distorted writing, n [1 rɪtɪŋ, 2 rɪtɪŋ] write & -ing 1 Act of one who writes Phr to put a thing in writing, record it in written form 2 Lettering, an inscription, written by hand, written document, contrasted with something printed or engraved 3 A Act of literary composition fond of, busy with one's, writing, b (pl) the literary works of an author the writings of Pope, hitherto unpublished writings of X 4 Method, style, of writing, handwriting, penmanship writing-case, n Case for holding writing-materials writing-desk, n 1 Folding case or box containing writing materials, with hinged cover, part of which when opened forms a sloping slab on which paper can be placed for writing 2 Piece of furniture in various forms, having a receptacle for papers &c, and a table convenient for writing writing-ink, n Ink prepared for writing, contrasted with printer's ink writing-paper, n Paper prepared for writing, esp for letters &c writing-table, n Table used, or specially made, for writing at written, adj [1 rɪtən, 2 rɪtən], fr PP of write, OE (ge)writen, ME writen A Expressed, set down, in writing, specif, written language, that type used in writing and literature, distinguished from the colloquial by certain features of dialect, construction, and vocabulary, contrasted with spoken language, b in writing, inscribed, contrasted with verbal written orders &c wrong (I), adj [1 rɒŋ, 2 rɒŋ], fr OE wrang, n, fr Scand, op ON rangr, Swed wrang, 'crooked, wrong', cogn w Goth wruggō, 'snare, noose', O HG ringan, 'to twist', OE wringon, 'to turn, twist', Pret wrang, see wring, also w different final consonant, OE wrenc, 'trick, guile', see wrench, O HG renfen, 'to twist', cogn w Lat vertere, 'to bend, be inclined, turn, lean', see verge (II), Sort vrymas, 'crooked, false', Lith veru, 'to snare', Lett werst, 'to turn', Gk erkhalas, 'to hedge in' Orig sense 'twisted, morally distorted' 1 Not in accordance with what is morally right or just, reprehensible, wicked, sinful it is wrong to tell lies, how very wrong of him to mislead you in this way 2 A (of statements, opinions, calculations, beliefs) Not in accordance with ascertained fact, with the truth, or with reason, erroneous, based on ignorance, misleading, inaccurate, incorrect we know now that many of the old scientific teachings were wrong, certain doctrines have been ruled out by the Church as definitely wrong and heretical, you have got all your sums wrong, b (i) not in accordance with what has been fixed or decided the wrong day, the wrong station, (u) not what is asked for or desired you've brought the wrong book 3 (of persons) Mistaken in opinions, having been misled, having misunderstood, been ignorant of, or mistaken facts you were quite wrong in what you said, the ancients thought the sun went round the earth, but they were wrong 4 Unsuitable for particular purpose, not adapted to produce desired result the wrong way to do it, to set about it 5 Unsuitable to a particular time, unseasonable, inopportune, unsuitable for particular circumstances, or for a given company quite the wrong clothes for the evening, for the hot weather, he always says and does the wrong thing in society, just the wrong story to tell a bishop Phrs to go wrong, (of persons) (i) to lapse from the strict path of rectitude, (u) to come to grief, go to the bad, (u) (of actions, plans, affairs) to fail, and disastrously in the wrong box, in an awkward or disconcerting position, to get hold of the wrong end of the stick, to mis conceive, have mistaken impression of, a fact, statement, intention &c, wrong found (usually abbr, w f) direction to printer that type is from a different font from that required, wrong side out, inside out, on the wrong side of (30 &c), older than wrong (II), adv, fr prec In a wrong manner, a incorrectly, erroneously, inaccurately, mistakenly you have done it wrong to guess, answer, wrong, Phr to get it wrong, (i) to miscalculate, reckon (a sum) incorrectly, (u) to misunderstand, misconceive, b unsuitably, in a manner not adapted to secure desired result you are treating him all wrong wrong (III), n OE wrang, 'wrong', see wrong (I) 1 a Wrongful act, action at variance with what is right, with justice, duty &c., an, wickedness, evil doing to distinguish between right and wrong, to do wrong, b injustice, injury to suffer wrong, you do him wrong, have an unjust, or too low an, opinion of him 2 (law, pl) a Infringement of the rights of persons, a private wrong, privation of the private or civil rights of an individual as such, also termed civil injuries, b public wrongs, a breach or violation of public rights and duties, which affect the whole community considered as such, these are distinguished as crimes and misdeemeanours 3 State in which responsibility attaches for wrongful action, mistake &c. to be in the wrong Phr to put one in the wrong, make him appear responsible for mistake &c.

wrong (IV), vb trans, fr preo 1 To do wrong to, injure, treat wrongfully, unjustly an honest man will not knowingly wrong another 2 To have an unjust opinion of, impute evil to undeservedly I wronged you in believing you unfaithful wrongdoer, n [1 róngdōer, 2 róngdā] Person who does wrong, sinner, evil-doer wrongdoing, n [1 róngdōung, 2 róngdūng] Commission of a wrongful act, evil doing, offence, crime, sin wrongful, adj [1 róngfool, 2 róngful] wrong (III) & -ful Wrong, unjust, criminal wrongfully, adv Preo & -ly In a wrongful manner, unjustly, illegally wrongfulness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being wrongful wrong-headed, adj Persevering in a wrong course, perverses, stubbornly mistaken wrongly, adv [1 róngh, 2 róngl] wrong (I) & -ly In a wrong manner, erroneously, wickedly wrongous, adj [1 rónggus, 2 róngges] wrong (I) & -ous (Scots law) Illegal, unjust, inequitable wrote, vb [1 rót, 2 rou] OE wrāt, ME urot, Pret of write wroth, adj [1 rōth, roth, 2 roup, rop] OE urap, ME wrōp, 'angry', op OS wrēp, ON reibr, 'angry, hostile', OHG (wrēd, 'crooked, crumpled', see wrath & writhe (archaic, Bib, and poet) Angry, incensed wrought (I), vb intrans & trans Pret & PP [1 rawt, 2 rāt] OE workte, 'worked', Pret of wyrcan, 'to work', ME wrohte, PP OE (ge)worht, ME worht, wroht Now replaced by new Pret worked in ordinary English A intrans (archaic, poet, or provincial) Worked, laboured, toiled he wrought very hard at his task Phr he wrought upon me to , persuaded me B trans 1 a Effected, produced, brought about, (1) Pret he wrought a great change in the spirit of his age, (2) PP what evil he has wrought, b (Pret & PP) made, constructed 2 Used as Pret of work in sense of to treat metal by hammering &c.

wrought (II), adj OE (ge)worht, ME wroht, wrouht, PP of OE wyrcan, 'to work', q v under work Specif, wrought iron, worked by hammering, contrasted with cast iron wrung, vb [1 rung, 2 raj] Pret & PP of wring, OE (ge)wrunge, PP, ME wrung(en), now used also as Pret Cp OE Pret wrang wry, adj [1 ri, 2 rai] ME wrie, 'twisted', fr wrien, 'to turn, twist', op OE wrigian, 'to turn, go forward' Cp wriggle Crooked, distorted, pulled or bent aside, twisted, rare except in to make a wry face, to pull a grimace expressing disgust wrybill, n [1 ri bil, 2 ra bil] Species of plover wryly, adv [1 ri li, 2 rai li] wry & -ly In a wry manner wrymouth, n [1 rimonth, 2 rasmaup] Sea-fish with vertical mouth opening wry-mouthed, adj Having a crooked mouth wryneck, n [1 ri nek, 2 rai nek] Bird related to woodpecker, able to twist its neck to a considerable angle wryness, n [1 ri nes, 2 rai nes] wry & -ness State of being wry, distortion, crookedness

Wyandotte, n [1 wiandot, 2 wiandot] fr name of tribe of N American Indians Breed of domestic fowls wych-, wich-, witch-, pref [1 wicb, 2 wit] OE wicc, ME wiche, 'wych elm', cogn w wicker (in names of trees) Wych-elm, Ulmus montana, with drooping branches and pointed leaves, wych hazel, see witch-hazel wye, n [1 wi, 2 wai] a Letter Y, b Y-shaped object Wykehamist, n [1 wikamst, 2 wikamst] fr William of Wykeham, d 1404, founder of school, & -ist Member of Winchester College, Old Wykehamist, former member wynd, n [1 wind, 2 wund] Spelling variant of wind (IV) (Scots) Alley, narrow lane between walls &c.

wyvern See wivern

X

X, x [1 eks, 2 eks] a Twenty-fourth letter of alphabet, for use in abbreviations &c. see end of Dictionary, b the Roman symbol for the numeral 10, c (alg) principal unknown quantity, hence d an unknown or mysterious factor or influence, e double, triple 2, also of specific strength, marked xx or xxx on cash xanth(o)-, pref, fr Gk xanthos, 'fair, yellow', for k(e)sun-*, cogn w Lat caesus, 'hoary, old', cānus, 'grey, ashen', fr earlier kasno-*, cogn w OE hasu, ON has, 'greyish brown', OE harn, 'harn', see hare, O Prussian sasins, 'hairs' Yellow xanthem(e), n [1 zánthun, 2 zənpūn] Preo & -in Soluble yellow colouring matter in flowers

Xanthian, adj [1 zánthian, 2 zənpian] fr Xanthus, in Lycia, Asia Minor, & -ian Pertaining to Xanthus, Xanthian marbles, sculptures discovered on this site and now in the British Museum xanthio, adj [1 zánthik, 2 zənpik] xanth(o)- & -ic Yellow, yellowish, xanthic flowers, having yellow as typical colour and varying to white or red xanthin, n [1 zánthin, 2 zənpin] xanth(o)- & -in 1 Insoluble yellow colouring matter in flowers 2 Crystalline compound contained in animal secretions

Xanthippe, n [1 zantipi, -thipi, 2 zəntipi, -pipi] Gk, name of the wife of Socrates An ill tempered, shrewish woman or wife xanthite, n [1 zánthit, 2 zənpait] xanth(o)- & -ite Kind of yellowish-brown rock xantho-, pref See xanth(o)- xanthochroi, n pl [1 zánthokrói, 2 zənpókroui] xanth(o)- & Gk khros, 'skin, complexion', op Gk khroma, 'skin, colour', see chromo- Blond, blue eyed races xanthomelanous, adj [1 zánthomēlanus, 2 zənpomēlanus] xanth(o)- & Gk melan, stem of melas, 'black', see melanism, & -ous Black-haired and dark- or olive-skinned xanthophyll, n [1 zánthofil, 2 zənpofil] xanth(o)- & Gk phylon, 'leaf', see phyllo- Yellow pigment colouring autumn leaves xanthous, adj [1 zántus, 2 zənpas] xanth(o)- & -ous Of yellow or Mongolian type xebec, xebec(k), n [1 zəbok, 2 zəbek] Cp Ital scabecco, Fr cabec, prob of Eastern origin Small three masted vessel used on the Mediterranean xenelasia, n [1 g(z)enēlāsia, 2 g(z)enēlāsia] Gk xenelasia, 'expulsion of foreigners', fr xenos, 'stranger, guest', fr ghesmo-*, cogn w Lat hostis, 'stranger, enemy', see host (I), & elasia, 'a driving away', fr elaisma, 'to drive, drive out', cogn w Lat alacer, 'quick, active', see alacrity, Goth aljan, 'zeal', OE ellen, 'courage' Constitutional custom in ancient Sparta of preventing aliens from settling in the country xen(o)-, pref, fr Gk xenos, 'stranger, guest', see preo a Relating to hospitality b external xenial, adj [1 g(z)enial, 2 g(z)enial] Preo & -ial Of, pertaining to, denoting, relations between guest and host xenogamy, n [1 zənogami, 2 zənogami] xen(o)- & -gamy Cross fertilization xenogenous, adj [1 zənogēnus, 2 zənogēnus] xen(o)- & -genous Produced by external agency xenon, n [1 zénon, 2 zənon] Gk, neut form of xenos, 'strange', see xen(o)- Heavy, inert gas present in the air, first isolated in 1898 xer(o)-, pref Representing Gk xēros, 'dry', cogn w Sert šēraš, 'burning', Lat serēnus, 'dry, clear, calm', see serene Dry, dryness xeransis, n [1 zēransis, 2 zēransis] Gk xēransis, 'drying up', fr xēranēin, 'to dry', fr xēros, 'dry', see preo Drying up, desiccation xeranthemum, n [1 zēránthemum, 2 zēránthemum] fr xer(o)- & Gk anthemon, 'flower', q v under anther, anthology

The everlasting flower xerasia, n [1 zērāsia, 2 zērāsia] Gk xērāsia, 'dryness', fr xēranēin, 'to dry', fr xēros, 'dry', see xer(o)- Morbid dryness of the hair xerophilous, adj [1 zērōfilus, 2 zērōfilus] xer(o)- & -philous (of plant) Drought-loving, living in dry climate xerophthalmia, n [1 zērōftalmia, 2 zērōftalmia] xer(o)- & ophthalmia Variety of conjunctivitis xerophyte, n [1 zērōfit, 2 zērōfit] xer(o)- & -phyte Xerophilous plant xiph(o)-, pref Representing Gk xiphos, 'sword', etymol doubtful Sword-shaped, e.g. Xiphidae, swordfishes, xiphisternum, xiphoid appendage xiphoid, adj [1 zifoid, 2 zifoid] Preo & -oid Sword shaped, xiphoid appendage, process, sword shaped, cartilaginous process at the lower extremity of the sternum xoanon, n [1 g(z)ōnōn, 2 g(z)ōnōn] Gk zōnan, 'piece of sculpture in wood', statue of a deity, ep Gk zōnē, 'to scrape, scratch, polish', zōstōn, 'polished spear-shaft', zōstēr, 'graving-tool', zōstēs, 'to shave', cogn w Sert šēraš, 'razor', op also, w infixed nasal, Sert šēraš, 'be rubs, whets', ON snýgr, 'shorn' Primitive wooden statue of a deity x-rays, n pl [1 ēks rāz, 2 ēks rāz] Pref implies that their precise nature was unknown Röntgen rays xyl(o)-, pref Representing Gk xulon, 'wood, timber', fr k(s)ulom*, cogn w ON silá, Goth saule, OHG sil, 'column', see also sail Wood xylem, n [1 zilem, 2 zailam] See preo & -m Woody tissue forming part of a vegetable body xylobalsamum, n [1 zifōbālsamum, 2 zifōbālsamum] xyl(o)- & see balsam Dried twigs of the balm-of-Gilead tree xylocarp, n. [1 xlókarp, 2 zailókarp] xylo- & Gk. karpós, 'fruit', see carpel a Hard woody fruit, b tree bearing such fruit xylograph, n. [1 xlógráht, 2 zailógráf] xylo- & -graph a Wood engraving, esp of early type, b representation of, or impression from, grain of wood as decoration xylographer, n. [1 xlógráfer, 2 zailógráfer] Preo & -er Wood engraver xylographic, adj. [1 xlógráfik, 2 zailógráfik] xylo- & -graphic Pertaining to, produced by means of, xylography xylography, n. [1 xlógráf, 2 zailógráf] xylo- & -graphy The art of wood-engraving xyloite, n. [1 xlóit, 2 zailóit], fr Gk xlón, 'wood', see xylo- & -ite Celluloid xylophagous, adj. [1 xlófag, 2 zailófag] xylo- & -phagous (of insect) Feeding on, boring into, wood xylophone, n. [1 xlófon, 2 zailófon] xylo- & -phone Musical instrument of percussion, consisting of a series of wooden bars, graduated in length.

xyster, n. [1 xlster, 2 zístē] Gk. xystrē, 'graving tool', fr base of xystron, 'to scratch, scrape', for xlstrō*, op Sort Lxurid, 'razor'. See also xeanon Instrument for scraping membranes from bones xystrus, n. [1 (g) xlstrus, 2 (g) zístas] Lat xystrus, fr Gk xystrós, 'covered colonnade, with polished floor, in gymnasium', fr xystrós, 'polished', as proo 1 (class antq) Covered portico used for athletic exercises 2 Garden walk

Y

Y, y [1 wi, 2 wai] a Twenty fifth letter of alphabet, for use in abbreviations see end of Dictionary, b (alg) second unknown quantity, c Y shaped object, arrangement &c

Y- (I), pref [1 wi, 2 wai] Representing preo Y-shaped, e.g. Y cartilage, Y ligament &c, Y branch, forked pipe &c, Y level, spirit-level with Y shaped supports, Y moth, with Y shaped mark on upper wings, Y track, short, Y shaped railway track at right angles from a main line, used to enable engine to reverse direction

y- (II), pref [1 i, 2 i] OE ge-, ME y-, y-, pref used in OE to form trans fr in trans vbs, also, gen, before PP's of vbs, to form ocl. ns &c, op OHG y-, Goth ga- Now used only in archaic PP yclopt. Mus taken for pers pron in was, written I was, see was

-y (I), suff representing a Fr -é, Lat -ius, -ia, -um, in abstract ns & adjs, e.g. augury, century, family, fury, necessary, contrary, or b Fr -é, Lat -ia, fr Gk -ia, e.g. history, logy, homily

-y (II), suff representing O Fr n. suff -é, -ee, fr Lat PP's in atus, a, um, e.g. army, city, entry, treaty The suff is also used to form ns fr vbs on anal. of these, e.g. expiry

-y (III), suff forming ns, w dimin sense, a fr other ns, e.g. baby, dolly, pussy, b fr adjs, e.g. darky Sometimes appears as ie, e.g. ludde, lassie

-y (IV), suff forming adjs, a fr OE -ig, ME y (cogn Lat -ic), e.g. many, holy, & by anal, fr mod ns, lumpy, honey, stony, shiny &c, b fr adjs of colour, e.g. yellowy, esp in compounds, bluish grey &c, c chiefly poet, fr other adjs, e.g. shilly

-y (V), n. suff representing OE -ig, ME -ie, e.g. body, lady yacht (I), n. [1 yot, 2 jot], fr Du yacht, fr stem of jagen, 'to hunt', w reference to speed of vessel, op OHG yagōn, 'to hunt', etymol doubtful. A vessel, whether propelled by sails or by mechanical power, designed for pleasure cruising, specif b small, light sailing vessel used for racing &c yacht (II), vb intrans, fr preo To sail, race &c in a yacht yacht-club, n Club for yachtsmen, esp for yacht racing yachting, n. [1 yótung, 2 jótung] yacht (II) & -ing Art or practice of sailing in, or managing, a yacht yachtsman, n. [1 yótaman, 2 jótaman] One who habitually sails a yacht yaffle, yaffil, n. [1 yáf, 2 jáf] Imitative of cry (provinc) The green woodpecker yager, n. [1 yáger, 2 jáger], fr Germ jäger, 'hunter', fr jagen, OHG yagōn, 'to hunt', q v under yacht Member of one of various German infantry or cavalry corps, usually mislmen.

Yahoe, n. [1 yáhhō, 2 jáhhō] Coined by Swift in Gulliver's Travels (Voyage to the Houyhnhnms) 1 One of a fictitious race of loathsome and vicious creatures, described by Swift, having the forms of men but the habits of lower animals, intended as a satire on the human race 2 An ungainly, coarse, rude, mannerless person

Yahveh, n. [1 yahvé, 2 jávē], fr Heb yahveh, see Jehovah Jehovah

Yahvist, n. [1 yáhivist, 2 jávivist], fr preo & -ist Jehovist

Yahvistic, adj. [1 yáhivistik, 2 jávivistik] Preo & -ist Jehovistic yak, n. [1 yak, 2 jak] Tibetan gyak Wild and domesticated, long haired, bovine quadruped of Central Asiatic mountains, used as a beast of burden yam, n. [1 yam, 2 jám], fr Port inhame, fr African 1 Klasy, edible root of a tropical, climbing plant, Dioscorea Batatas 2 Any plant of the Dioscorea family, producing edible tubers Yama, n. [1 yáhma, 2 jáme] Sort Yama Hindu god and judge of the dead.

yamen, -un, n. [1 yáhmen, 2 jámen] Chinese Mandarin's official residence, office of public department yank (I), vb trans & n. [1 yangk, 2 jank] Etymol unknown a vb (slang) To pull sharply, with a jerk, b n, a sudden hard pull

Yank (II), n Abbr fr next word (slang) Yankee

Yankee, n. [1 yángki, 2 jéngki, i] Possibly fr Jan-kin, dimin of Jan=John, applied by Dutch settlers of New York to the English colonists of Connecticut 1 Specif, an inhabitant of New England, USA, esp a descendant of the original settlers 2 (colloq in England) Any inhabitant of the United States, esp one of British descent, an American

Yankeeedom, n. [1 yángkedom, 2 jéngkedom] Preo & -dom Yankees collectively yankeefied, adj. [1 yángkifid, 2 jéngkifid] Yankee & -fy Imbued with, exhibiting, Yankee characteristics or ideas, Americanized.

Yankeeism, n. [1 yángkuzm, 2 jéngkuzm] Yankee & -ism Yankee characteristics(s) yap, vb intrans & n. [1 yap, 2 jap] Imutative 1 vb (of a dog) To utter a sharp, shrill bark or series of barks, to yelp 2 n Sharp, excited yelp or bark yapon, n. [1 yapon, 2 japon] Prob Am Indian An evergreen shrub of the southern United States of America yapp, n. [1 yap, 2 jap] Name of inventor Style of bookbinding, with hump cover projecting beyond the edges

Yarborough, n. [1 yárburo, 2 járburo], fr an Earl of Yarborough who battled against the possibility of such a hand A hand at bridge or whist containing no card higher than a nine yard (I), n. [1 yárd, 2 jád] OE gerd, ME zerde, yard, 'rod, staff, yard', OS gerda, OHG gerda, Du. garde, ON gaddr, 'rod', Goth gazzá, 'point, stang', cogn w Lat hasta, 'staff, spear', see haetate 1 A unit of length, 36 inches, 3 feet, b piece of material a yard in length 2 (naut) Long, nearly cylindrical spar, tapering towards the ends, fastened to mast and used to support sails, square, lateen, yard, forming a right, oblique, angle with the mast, (in compounds, indicating mast or sail to which the yards attached) lower, topmast yard &c Phr to man the yards, to station sailors, be stationed, on the yards, esp as form of salute 3 (archaic) Male organ of generation yard (II), n & vb trans OE geard, ME gard, 'piece of land, garden, yard', op OS gard, 'enclosure, dwelling', OHG gart, 'enclosure', ON garðr, 'hedge, enclosure', Goth gards, 'house', cogn w Lat hortus, 'garden', (co) hore, 'yard, enclosure, company, cohort, crowd', see cohort, court (I), garden, & garth, op further Goth garvān, OS gyrdan, 'to gird', see gird (I) 1 n a Enclosed, or partially enclosed, space, often paved, used for various purposes, near or adjoining a house, stable, or other building, often particularized in compounds farm yard, rick-yard, stable yard &c, b piece of open ground fenced off, in which some particular occupation is carried on a builder's, stone mason's yard, railway yard, open space near a station where trucks &c are kept, specif, the Yard, Scotland Yard, as headquarters of the Criminal Investigation Department 2 vb To put (cattle) into stock-yard yardage, n. [1 yárdy, 2 jáddi] Preo & -age 1 Right of enclosing cattle &c in stock yard. 2 Sum payable for this right yard-arm, n (naut) Either half of yard.

yard-man, n Man employed in railway yard yard-master, n Manager of railway yard.

yard-measure, n Tape, wooden or steel rod, measuring one yard and marked in feet, inches &c yard-stick, n Wooden or metal yard measure yard-wand, n Yard stick zare, adj. [1 yár, 2 jár] OE gearu, 'ready, prepared', ME zare, zare Cogn w OS garu, OHG garo, op also gear (I) (archaic) A Ready, prepared, b moving quickly, active yarn (I), n. [1 yarn, 2 ján] OE gearn, ME zarn, 'yarn', ON garnr, 'entrails', Gk khord, 'intestines, catgut, cord', see cord, Sort hird, 'vein', Lat haru (spec), 'diviner inspecting entrails', op hermia 1 A Fibrous material spun for weaving, knitting &c, b specif, thread composed of two or more twisted strands of yarn, c twisted fibres prepared for rope making 2 (colloq, orig naut) a A tale, narrative, Phr spin a yarn, tell a story, also to exaggerate, tell a traveller's tale, b a false, exaggerated report or statement, an ill founded rumour, c a friendly conversation, a chat yarn (II), vb intrans, fr preo (colloq, orig naut) a To tell a yarn, b to talk at length, to chatter, to hold a long conversation yarn-beam, n Roller on which warp threads are wound in a loom yarrow, n. [1 yáro, 2 jorow] OE gearwe, ME zarow, 'yarrow', op OHG gar (a) gar, Du geru, 'yarrow' Highly straggling perennial herb, Achillea millefolium, with clusters of small white flowers, milfoil.

yashmak, n. [1 yáshmak, 2 jáshmak], fr Arab Veil worn by Mohammedan women yataghan, n [1 yátagan, 2 yátgàgàn] Turkish Turkish sword with double curved blade and no cross piece yaw, vb intrans & n [1 yaw, 2 jā], fr ON yaga, 'to curva back', orig 'to hunt', op OHG yagōn, 'to hunt', see yager, yacht (nant) 1 vb (of ship or aircraft) To fall away from the course, move or steer unsteadily 2 n Act of yawing, unsteady motion in, falling away from, ship's or aircraft's course yawl (I), vb intrans & n [1 yawl, 2 jāl] Variant of yowl Perh influenced by bawl yawl (II), n, fr Du jel, op Dan jolle 1 Small, outter-rigged sailing vessel 2 Small ship's boat, jolly boat yawn (I), vb intrans & trans [1 yawn, 2 jōn] OE forms are gāman & gīnan, 'to yawn', also gīman, gēman, ME gōnen, yōnen, geonen &c Cogn w Lat hiare, see hiatus The Mod form owes its initial to OE geonian &c, & the vowel is perh imitative A intrans 1 To open the mouth owing to an involuntary muscular contraction, the tendency to which often arises from drowsiness Phr to make a person yawn, cause him to become sleepy, hence, to bore him 2 To open wide, be wide open, to gape a gulf, abyss, chasm &c, yawned in front of us B trans To utter with a yawn yawn (II), n, fr prec The act of yawning, involuntary opening of the mouth yawning, adj [1 yawning, 2 jānŋ], fr Pres Part of yawn (I) Wide open, gaping a yawning pit, cavern &c yawningly, adv Prec & -ly With a yawn yaws, n [1 yaws, 2 jāz] Prob fr African Skin disease prevalent among negroes in the tropics, characterized by blains on various parts of the body, called also framboesia

yclept, adj [1 iklept, 2 iklepti] OE decleptod, ME icleped, PP of clepian, cleopian, 'to call' Used by Spenser, & op Milton 'Come thou Goddess fair and free, In heaven yclept Euphrosyne' ('L'Allegro', 11-12) (archaic or facet) Called, having the name of, known as ye (I), pron [1 yē, 2 jī], unstressed [1 (y), 2 (j)] OE gē, ME gē, op Du gy, Mod Germ uhr, Goth gus Cogn w Lith jūs, Sort gilyam, 'you' (archaic and poet) Old nom pl of pron of 2nd pers Ye began to be superseded by you in nom by the middle of 16th cent, but many writers keep the forms distinct much later The Authorized Version always does so As nom the form survives in how d'ye do? [= haudiddō], in the now obs or provino hark ye, look ye [hāki, luki] On the other hand, ye is used not infrequently instead of you, in the acc & dat, in colloq style in 16th & 17th cents, & still survives in the old-fashioned thank ye [þæŋkja] This usage is prob due orig to the anal of these See also you ye (II), def art [1 dhē, 2 dhī], archaic method of printing the, due to 16th cent confusion of p (see thorn) & y, sometimes ignorantly pronounced [1 yē, 2 jī], as a pseudo archaism ye olde shoppe &c yea, interj & n [1 yā, 2 jē] OE gēa, gē, ME gē, gā, 'yes', op OS, OHG, ON gā, O Fris gē, Goth gā, 'yes', 'certainly', fr the pronominal stem i*, es*, wh occurs also in it (archaic) 1 interj a Yes, expressing affirmation, b moreover, not only that but 'Nature's whole wealth, yea, more, A Heaven on Earth, (Milton, 'P L', iv 407-8) 2 n Affirmative statement, expression of affirmation or agreement, Phr 'Let your yea be yea' yea, vb trans & intrans [1 yēn, 2 jīn] OE ēman, ME ēnen, 'to yeon', op Du oenen, 'to yeon', prob formed fr Gmc base ag-nā*, 'lamb', cogn w Lat agnus, 'lamb', Gk amnos, earlier ambos, O Slav (agne, 'lamb' 1 trans To bring forth (lamb or kid) 2 intrans (of sheep or goat) To bring forth a lamb or kid yealing, n [1 yēnlŋ, 2 jīnlŋ] Prec & -ing Young lamb or kid year, n [1 yēr, yēr, 2 jā, jā] OE gēr, ME gēr, op OS & OHG gār, ON ār, Goth jár, 'year', cogn w Gk horā, 'period, season', horos, 'year', see hour, O Slav jara, 'spring', prob also Lat hormus, 'of this year', earlier hōrōinos, fr Instrumental hō jōro*, 'in this year' 1 a Period of time taken by the earth to revolve once round the sun, called specifically astronomical, natural, equinoctial, solar, tropical year, common year, this period reckoned as 365 days, leap year, lustral year, of 366 days, b time taken by the sun to return to the same apparent position among the fixed stars, also called astral, sidereal year, c lunar year, period of twelve lunar months 2 Unit of time, period of 365 days (in leap year, 366 days) reckoned from Jan 1st to Dec 31st next following, also calendar, civil, legal year this year, next year &c, new, old, year, year just beginning, ending, this year of grace, year of our Lord, of the Christian era Phrs year in, year out, continuously through the years, from year to year, every year, in the year one, very long ago 3 Period of 365 days reckoned from any or from a specific date it is just a year since I saw him, just a year ago, in a year's time; academia, school, year, one reckoned from beginning of session in the autumn, Christian, Church, year, from Advent, a year and a day, period designated to ensure lapse of full year & (pl) Age young, old, for one's years, a man of his years, to reach years of discretion year-book, n 1 Annual publication giving statistics, reports &c, up to date 2 (hist) One of a series of annual reports of courts of justice from Edward III to Henry VIII yearling, n & adj [1 yēr, yērŋ, 2 jā, jāŋ] year & -ling 1 n a Animal in its second year, b (racing) colt one year old from January 1st of year of foaling 2 adj A year old year-long, adj Lasting, persisting, throughout the year, for a whole year yearly, adj & adv [1 yēr, yērŋ, 2 jā, jāŋ] year & -ly 1 adj Occurring a once a year, b every year 2 adv Every year, annually yearn, vb intrans [1 yēm, 2 jīn] OE german, ME germen, op OS gernean, OHG germen, ON girma, Goth gairman, 'desire, long', OHG garn, 'eager, desirous', cogn w Lat heri, hortari, 'to incite, exhort', see hortation, Sort haryat, 'desires', Gk khairēm, 'to rejoice', khārs, 'grace, joy, favour', op eucharist a (followed by for or after) To desire earnestly and tenderly, to feel a tender longing towards to yearn for home, to yearn after one's absent friends, b to desire, long I am yearning to make myself useful yearning (I), adj [1 yērning, 2 jānŋ], fr Pres Part of prec Animated by, expressing, desire, longing a yearning look yearning (II), n yearn & -ing Strong desire for something, wantful longing yearningly, adv [1 yērningh, 2 jānŋli] yearning (I) & -ly In a yearning manner yeast, n [1 yēst, 2 jēt] OE gēst, ME zēte, 'yeast', op ME gēst, 'foam', OHG iesan, 'to ferment', cogn w Gk zēen, 'to boil', zēē, 'foam', see second element of eczema, Sort yasati, 'to boil', op also enzyma & zymosis 1 Fungoid growth consisting of a yellowish, frothy substance, with cells germinating in contact with saccharine liquid and producing alcoholic fermentation, used in brewing, distilling, bread-making &c 2 Mass of dried yeast compressed into a cake for keeping &c yeastiness, n [1 yēstnes, 2 jāstnes] yeasty & -ness State or quality of being yeasty yeast-powder, n Baking-powder used as substitute for yeast yeasty, adj [1 yēsti, 2 jīsti] yeast & -y 1 Consisting of, or covered with, froth 2 (fig) a In a state of ferment, restless, unsettled yeasty thoughts &c, b unsubstantial, trifling, frivolous yeasty words &c yelk, n [1 yelk, 2 jelk] See yolk yell (I), vb intrans & trans [1 yel, 2 jāl] OE gellan, ME gellen, 'to yell, shout', op OHG gellan, 'to yell, shriek', galm, 'sound', prob cogn w Gk khelidōn, 'swallow' Cp also OE galan, 'to sing, scream', see last syll of nightingale 1 intrans a To utter a yell, cry loudly and sharply to yell with pain &c, b specif, to laugh loudly and suddenly, indulge in a prolonged burst of laughter 2 trans To utter, express, with a yell to yell an order yell (II), n, fr prec 1 Loud, sharp outcry, scream, vocal expression, often involuntary, of sudden strong emotion, pain &c a yell of pain, fear, defiance &c 2 (USA) Specific cry, phrase, series of vocal sounds, used by college students as an organized cheer of encouragement, salute &c yellow (I), adj [1 yélō, 2 jélō] OE geolo, ME zelowe, op OHG gelo, 'yellow', cogn w Lat helvus, 'tawny', Lith felvas, 'greenish', op further Sort hārs, 'yellow, greenish', O Slav zelenu, 'green', Gk khloros, 'green', see also ochloral, & gold 1 Of the colour found between green and orange in the spectrum, similar to the colour of gold, daffodils, buttercups &c, Phr yellow boy, (slang) gold coin, yellow looks, sour, suspicious glances 2 (of race or person) Yellow skinned, Mongolian, Phr yellow peril, supposed danger of the yellow races obtaining world power 3 (low slang) Cowardly, lacking spirit and pluck yellow (II), n, fr prec 1 a Yellow colour, b yellow pigment 2 (archaic) Yellow, jaundice yellow (III), vb trans & intrans, fr yellow (I) 1 trans To give a yellow colour to, turn yellow 2 intrans To grow yellow yellow-, pref representing yellow (I) 1 (in names of animals, insects, plants &c) Of a yellow colour 2 (with name of part of body, forming names of plants, animals &c) Of a yellow colour in specified part, e.g. yellow-bill, yellow tail, yellow jacket &c 3 (in names of animals, plants &c, compounded w adjs formed fr parts of body) e.g. yellow-backed, yellow legged &c yellowback, n [1 yélōbāk, 2 jélōubāk] (archaic) A cheap novel, esp of an exciting, sensational character, formerly issued bound in boards covered with shiny yellow paper, with a picture on the front yellow-bird, n N American goldfinch yellow-book, n Official report of French or Chinese government, issued with a yellow paper cover yellow box, n Australian box-tree yellow cartilage, n Elastic wall of artery yellow earth, n Yellow ochre yellow fever, n Acute, infectious, malignant, tropical fever, marked by jaundice, black vomit, and bleeding &c, caused by a micro-organism conveyed by the bite of a mosquito yellow-gum, n Infants' black jaundice yellow-hammer, n Earlier yellow ammer, fr yellow (I) & OE amora, a kind of bird, op OHG amer, 'yellow hammer' Small, European bunting, Emberiza caesia, with yellow head, neck, and breast yellowish, adj [1 yélōsh, 2 jélōush] yellow (I) & -ish Somewhat yellow yellow jack, n Yellow fever yellowly, adv [1 yélōli, 2 jélōuli] yellow (I) & -ly In a yellow manner, so as to give an impression of yellowness yellow metal, n Alloy of 60 parts copper and 40 parts zinc yellowness, n [1 yélōnes, 2 jélōunes] yellow (I) & -ness Quality of being yellow yellow ochra, n Kind of clay coloured with oxide of iron, used as pigment yellow press, n Sensational newspapers yellow-rattle, n Yellow flowered herb yellow spot, n Point of most acute vision in the retina yellow wood, n Tree yielding yellow timber yellow wort, n. A plant of the gentian family, the flowers of which are used medicinally yellowy, adj [1 yélôl, 2 yélou] yellow (I) & -y. Yellow, yellowish yelp, vb intrans & n [1 yelp, 2 yelp] O E gelpan, 'to boast', M E zelpen, cp M H G grifen, O N gjalpa, 'to yelp' 1 vb To utter a yelp, to yap 2 n Short, sharp cry or bark, a yap, of rage or pain, esp of a dog yen, n [1 yen; 2 jen] Jap, fr Chinese yüan, 'round, a dollar' Unit of Japanese coinage, worth about 2s 1d yeoman, n [1 yóman, 2 jóman] M E jóman, jóman, 'manservant, steward', cp O Frs guman, 'villager' The origin of the first element is rather doubtful, & it is uncertain fr what source the word got into M E O E jád* is not found, but it has been suspected to lurk in the Pl N Ely, O E Eh ge, ga The meaning was presumably 'village, district', & its cognates must be sought in O Frs gá, gó, 'village', O H G Lawi, gouf & gou, Mod Germ gau, 'village, township' & Goth gawi On the other hand, O E D suggests not entirely without some plausibility that the word stands for yongman, w the sense of 'page, retainer' & o, & adduces early forms yeorman, yeorman 1 (hist) Owner of free land to the value of forty shillings yearly, thereby entitled to certain rights Phr yeoman's service, effective assistance 2 Farmer cultivating his own land, a small landowner 3 Member of yeomanry force of cavalry 4 Yeoman of the Guard, in full, His Majesty's Body Guard of the Yeoman of the Guard, member of a royal bodyguard founded in 1486, and now employed solely in ceremonial duties yeomanly, adj [1 yómanli, 2 jómanli] Prec & -ly Of, resembling, characteristic of, a yeoman yeomanry, n [1 yómanri, 2 jómanri] yeoman & -ry 1 Yeoman collectively 2 Territorial, formerly volunteer, cavalry force recruited chiefly from country districts -yer, suff expressing an agent Now used only in a few words—lawyer, bowler, sawyer From earlier -ier, cp -eer, or formed as fr ten ybs, & -er, cp M E luven, 'to love', whence earlier luver, lover instead of lover, cp wonyer yerba, n [1 yérba, 2 jába] Span yerba (maté), 'the herb maté' Paraguay tea, maté yerum, n [1 yárum, 2 járum] fr Tamil erukku Fibre of an E Indian plant called murdar, which resembles flax yes, interj or advl particle [1 yes, 2 jes] O E gese, gese, fr gēa swā, yea & so 1 Expressing affirmation, consent, a esp in answer to a question are you ready? yes, b expressing acquiescence in what has been said this is an excellent book, yes, it is 2 (uttered with rising tone) a Expressing interrogation, is it so? & o in reply to another's statement he is a very unscrupulous fellow Yes? b also following a statement of one's own, with sense do you understand?, do you agree?, is that clear? & o we first go two miles west, then bear to the north and continue in a straight line for several miles—yes? 3 As emphasizing or amplifying a statement, moreover, in addition he will insult you, yes, and cheat you as well yester-, pref representing O E geastran, M E zestren, 'yester-', cp O H G gestern, 'yesterday', Goth gestrádagis, 'tomorrow', cogn w Lat hies, earlier hes*, 'yesterday', fr ghes*, hesternus, 'of yesterday', Scrt hyas, Gk lithes, 'yesterday' (chiefly poet) Forming nouns and adverbs, a with the sense 'of yesterday', e g yester night, -eve & o, b with the sense 'last, preceding', e g yester year, (poet) past times yesterday, n & adv [1 yésterdi, 2 jéstadi] O E geastran dag, 'yesterday', see prec & day 1 n a The day before today, the day just past Phr a (thing) of yesterday, something of but recent growth, appearance & o, b (pl) past times, former days 'A man of cheerful yesterdays' (Wordsworth, 'Excursion', vv 536), o (attrib) yesterday morning, evening, night 2 adv On the day before today he went away yesterday

yestreen, n & adv [1 yestrūn, 2 yestrin] Contracted fr yester-even, see yester- (Soots) a n Yester even, the evening of yesterday, b adv, on the evening of yesterday yet (I), adv [1 yet, 2 jet] O E jet, M E jet, cp O Frs (j)et, M H G ietze, 'yet, now' 1 (usually with neg) a Up to this time, until now, heretofore he has not come yet, I know nothing yet, b up to a specified point of time in the past when dawn broke the reinforcements had not yet arrived 2 At this present time, now need you go yet?, I can't come just yet 3 Still, up to and including the present time, even now he is yet alive, while there is yet time, he loves her yet, the work is yet unfinished Phr as yet, up to now, so far 4 In addition, besides he has yet much to say, there is work yet to be done, we have yet more to ask 5 Before a future time, some day he will yet be victorious, he may surprise you yet 6 Even, as much as he will not accept help nor yet advice 7 (with compar) Still, even, additionally, even more travelling is yet more rapid today than it was ten years ago 8 Nevertheless, in spite of that the house was humble, yet clean, poor, yet honest yet (II), con, fr prec Nevertheless, but still appearances are against him, yet I cannot think him guilty yew, n [1 ā, 2 jū] O E zow, iw, M E eu, 'yew', cp O H G fuca, Mod Germ eibe, Du yf, O N yr, cp also O E coh, O H G iche, 'yew' 1 Evergreen coniferous tree, Taxus baccata, with small, slender, densely growing, dark green leaves and rough bark 2 Close grained, durable wood obtained from the yew, used formerly for making bows yew tree, n Same as yew, 1 Yg(g)drasil, n [1 igdrasil, 2 igdrasil] O N (askr) Yggdrasil, perh 'ash of the horse of Ygg' or Odin (Norse mythol) Great tree of the universe, whose roots and branches bind together heaven, earth, and hell

Yiddish, n & adj [1 yidish, 2 jidish] fr Jewish pronunciation of Germ jüdisch, 'Jewish', fr Jude, 'Jew', O H G judeo, fr Lat judeus, 'Jew', see Judaeo 1 n Mixed dialect with German, Hebrew, and Slavonic elements, used by German Jews, largely spoken in the East End of London 2 adj Spoken, written & o, in Yiddish yield (I), vb trans & intrans [1 yēld, 2 jēld] O E gelden, M E zeiden, 'to pay', cp O H G gelan, 'to pay, to be worth', O N gjalda, 'to pay', Goth gildan, 'to requite', Du gelden, 'to cost' A trans 1 a To produce, give, as result of a natural process the land yields heavy crops, cows yield milk, b to produce in return for effort, trouble & o my labours, researches, yielded but a poor result, c to produce as financial return investments yield a profit 2 To give up, relinquish under pressure, compulsion & o, surrender to yield a fortress to the enemy 3 To concede, grant to yield precedence to another, to yield a point in argument B intrans 1 To produce, give a return for effort & o the land yields abundantly 2 (often with to) a To give way, submit, cease resistance he will never yield, to yield to pressure, to force Phr I yield to none (in my admiration for him & o), I do not admit that anyone (admire him & o) more than I do, b (of material object) to give way to, or before, physical pressure the door yielded to a strong push, 'Off did the harvest to their sickle yield' (Gray's 'Elegy'), c (of diseases) to yield to treatment, be amenable to, become less acute, be cured, as result of yield (II), n, fr prec Amount produced, result, profit, return yielding, adj [1 yēlding, 2 jēlding] fr Prec Part of yield (I) a Tending to bend, capable of being bent or altered in shape, flexible, not rigid, b easily influenced, liable to yield to persuasion, compliant, reverse of stubborn yieldingly, adv Prec & -ly In a yielding manner

-yl, suff representing Gk ailē, 'wood, forest, timber, maternal, matter', etymol doubtful Used to form chemical terms denoting a radical, q v, o g methyl ylang-ylang, n [1 ilang ilang, 2 ilang ilang] Philippine Malayan tree with fragrant flowers yodel, vb intrans & trans, & n [1 yōdl, 2 jōdl] fr Germ jodeln, prob imitative 1 vb a intrans To produce a yodel, b trans, to sing (a song) by yodelling 2 n Series of musical notes uttered by the voice, in form of a kind of warble or run, passing alternatively from chest voice to falsetto, and vice versa yoga, n [1 yōga, 2 jōga] Hind System of philosophy and practice of ascetic meditation, having as object the union of the individual human spirit with that of the universe yogh, n [1 yogh, 2 jy] Prob fr M E zoc, 'yoke', see yoke, wh begins w thus letter The Middle English letter z yogi, n [1 yōgi, 2 jōgi] Hind Devotee of yogam yogism, n [1 yōgizm, 2 jōgizm] Prec & -ism Doctrines of the yoga yo-heave-ho, interj [1 yō hēv hō, 2 jōv hīv hōv] (naut) Cry used in heaving the anchor & o yoho, interj [1 yōhō, 2 jōhōu] Yo heave ho yock, vb intrans & trans [1 yōk, 2 jōk] fr next word. 1 intrans To cry yooks 2 trans To encourage, urge on (hounds), with the cry of 'Yooks' yooks, interj [1 yōks, 2 jōks] Etymol, unknown Huntsman's cry to hounds yoke (I), n [1 yōk, 2 jōk] O E geoc; M E zoc, zōle, cp O H G joh, Goth juk, cogn w Lat jugum, 'yoke', see jugate, Gk zugon, 'yoke', see zyg(o)-, Sort yugam, 'yoke, pair', conn w Lat jungere, 'to join', see join 1 Cross piece forming part of harness of, and shaped to fit necks of, draught animals, oxen & o Phr to pass, come, under the yoke, to submit to defeat, from ancient Roman custom of vanquished enemy to pass beneath an uplified yoke, or an arch of spears, as a symbol of servitude 2 Object resembling a yoke in shape, specif a wooden bar or frame shaped to fit person's shoulders and used for carrying milkpails & o, b cross bar from which a bell is hung, c cross bar on rudder, to which steering lines are fastened, d coupling for pipes, e part of garment cut or designed to fit shoulders 3 a Pair of oxen, for ploughing & o, b yokes of land, amount of land ploughed by a pair of oxen in a day & (fig) Sway, domination, authority the yoke of an oppressor 5 (rare) Moral or legal bond yoke (II), vb trans & intrans, see prec A trans 1 To put a yoke upon, harness with a yoke 2 To join together, to unite (chiefly fig) yoked in marriage B intrans (rare) Yokes together, to be joined yoke-bone, n Cheek-bone, malar, joining bones of head and face yoke-fellow, n Person joined or associated with one in work & o in marriage yokel, n [1 yōkl, 2 jōkl] Prob yoke & -el Countryman, rustic yoke-lines, n Pair of lines attached to yoke of rudder for steering small boat yokemate, n [1 yōkmāt, 2 jōkumest] Yoke-fellow yolk, n [1 yōk, 2 jōk] O E geolca, 'yolk', M E zōke, connected w O E geolc, 'yellow', see yellow 1 Yellow central mass of egg 2 Fatty secretion in sheep's wool yolk-bag, n Yolk sac yolked, adj [1 yōkt, 2 jōkt] yolk & -ad Having a yolk, sometimes in compounds, e g double yolked, with two yolks.

yolk-sac, n Membranous sac attached to an embryo from which nutrition is derived yolky, adj [1 yókli, 2 jóuki] yolk & -y Containing or resembling yolk yon, adv, & pron [1 yon, 2 jon] O.E. geon, M.E. yon, 'yon', op O.Fris. gene, O.H.G. gener, O.N. enn, Goth. jains, 'that', cogn. w. Sort yaš, 'which, who', Gk. hds, 'that', fr. pronominal stem *-s- & so, seen in it & so (archaic or provincial) 1 adj That one yonder 2 adv Yonder, over there 3 pron Yonder person or thing did you ever see the like of you?
yonder, adv & adj [1 yónder, 2 jónda] M.E. sonder, yon & -ther 1 adj In that (more or less remote) place, over there 2 adv Over there yonder stands an oak yore, n [1 yór, 2 jór] O.E. gēara, (g)ēara, M.E. gōre, 'formerly', adv fr. n. gēar, 'year', see year Only in of yore, formerly, long ago, days of yore, in ancient times York (I), n [1 yórk, 2 jók], fr. Place-Name York, O.E. Eoforwic, adaptation of Brito-Lat. Eboracum York and Lancaster rose, red-and-white variety, named from respective badges of Lancastrians and Yorkists in Wars of the Roses York (II), vb trans, fr. next word To bowl (person) out with a yorker yorker, n [1 yórkər, 2 jókə] Prob. fr. York, Pl-N (cricket) Ball which pitches immediately in front of batsman's block Yorkist, adj & n [1 yórkɪst, 2 jókɪst] York & -ist 1 adj Of, pertaining to, the house of York, family descended from Edmund, son of Edward III 2 n Adherent of House of York in Wars of the Roses Yorkshire, adj [1 yórkʃər, 2 jókʃə], fr. name of county Of, pertaining to, originating in Yorkshire, Yorkshire flannel, made of undyed wool, Yorkshire grit, grit used for polishing, Yorkshire pudding, baked batter eaten with meat, Yorkshire terrier, small, long-haired variety you, pron [1 ŋ, 2 jū], unstressed [ju] O.E. zou, dat. of zē, pl. pron. of 2nd pers., see ye, M.E. you, which was already used in respectful address to a single person 1 Used as nominative and objective case of pronoun of 2nd person, singular and plural By the middle of 16th cent., while you is still often kept distinct from nominative ye, the two forms are used indifferently by many, and some writers (e.g. Queen Elizabeth) appear to use you only, as at present 2 indef pron. One, anyone you never can tell, you often find that just when you want something you haven't got it by you 3 (reflex, archaic) Yourself slay and rest you on this bank young (I), adj [1 yung, 2 jan] O.E. geong, M.E. yung, op O.S. O.Fris. O.H.G. jung, Goth. juggs, 'young', cogn. w. Lat. juvenis, 'young', see juvenile, juvencus, 'hullock', Sort yuvāśas, 'youthful', yuvā, 'young', Lith. jaunas, O.Slav. juna, 'young' 1 (of men and other living creatures) In the early stages of life, in a period of life not long after birth, contrasted with old or middle-aged a young man, animal, plant & so, a young tree, one planted only a short time, not fully grown, Phrs. a young family, one consisting of small children; the young person, inexperienced, unsophisticated youth collectively, (look here), young man, familiar, slightly condescending form of address, b. applied to the younger of two persons of same name or family, to distinguish a son from his father, or a man from his elder brother & so young Jones, the young Mrs. Brown & so, younger branch of family, descended from a younger son 2 Characteristic of youth, a having the appearance, habits & so of youth, fresh, vigorous, not decrepit a man is as young as his arteries, young for his age, years, b. enjoyed, possessed, by young persons young love, young ambitions, Phr. young blood, fresh, vigorous, triumphant youth, c. embodying new ideas, tendencies & so, esp. in names of progressive political parties, movements & so Young England, Young Turks 3 Having had a comparatively short historical existence 4 (of periods of time, seasons & so) Not far advanced, having begun but a short time before the night, the century, is still young 5 Inexperienced, not inured young in crime young (II), n, fr. prec (coll.) The offspring of animals: every animal will defend its young to the utmost of its powers Phr. (of female animals) with young, pregnant youngish, adj [1 yúngɪʃ, 2 jápɪʃ] young & -ish Fairly young, barely middle aged youngling, n [1 yúnglɪŋ, 2 jápɪlɪŋ] young & -ling (poet.) Young child, animal & so youngster, n [1 yúngstər, 2 jápɪstə] young & -ster A young man, a child, esp. a boy younker, n [1 yúngkər, 2 jápɪkə], fr. Du. jonker, fr. jong, 'young', cogn. w. young, & heer, 'sir', op Germ. Herr, O.H.G. hērro, hērro, 'lord, master', fr. compar. of hēr, 'distinguished, respected', orig. 'old' (Mod. Germ. hehr), op O.E. hār, 'grey, hoary', see hoar (archaic) Young man, youngster your, adj [1 yór, fr. 2 jór, juə] O.E. zower, genit. pl. of gē, 'you', see ye, M.E. our, over, & your, your, w. y- on anal. of nom., op O.S. uwar, O.H.G. uwer, Goth. uwarā, 'of you' 1 Pertaining or belonging to you 2 (archaic and colloq.) Used to give indefinite, general sense to following noun your true savage can never be thoroughly civilized yours, pron & predic adj [1 yorz, ūrz, 2 jór, juəz] M.E. yours your & -es 1 pron Possessive of you, a the thing or things belonging to you, used absolutely this seat is yours, b. also preceded by of a little whim of yours, I saw a friend of yours 2 adj A Belonging to you the credit is much more yours than mine, b. at your service, devoted to you in formulae at close of letters yours truly, faithfully, affectionately, yours to command 3 As n Those (persons) belonging to you, your nearest and dearest all good wishes to you and yours yourself, pron [1 yor-, ūrself, 2 j-, juəsɪf] your & -self 1 Emphatic form of you you told me so yourself, do it yourself, implying you rather than someone else, (all) by yourself, (i) alone, without company, (u) by your own efforts, without help from others 2 (reflex.) Don't hurt yourself, you will wear yourself out z, n [1 zed, 2 zed] a The twenty-sixth letter of the alphabet, for use in abbreviations & so see list at end of Dictionary, b (alg.) third unknown quantity zaffre, zaffer, n [1 záfer, 2 záfə], fr. Fr. zafre, perh. fr. Arab. Blue pigment made from cobalt ore and silica, used in enamelling, glass-painting & so zamindar, n [1 zámindər, 2 zamíndə] See zamindar zany, n, [1 záni, 2 zéni], fr. Fr. zani, fr. Ital. zanni, abbr. fr. Giovanni, John 1 (hist.) Buffoon who mimics the chief clown and other actors in a theatrical performance 2 A fantastic, foolish person, a buffoon, a merry andrew Zanzibari, n & adj [1 zánzibári, 2 zánzibári], fr. Place-Name Zanzibar 1 n Native of Zanzibar 2 adj Of, coming from, Zanzibar zaptieh, n [1 záptiə, 2 záptiə] Turkish Turkish policeman youth, n [1 yóoth, 2 júp] O.E. gedgub, fr. jugunp*, M.E. zuwepe, youlps & so, O.S. juguth, O.H.G. jugund, 'youth', cogn. w. Lat. juventa, -tus, 'youth', see young, -th. 1 Early life, a space, period of life between childhood and physical maturity, adolescence, contrasted with childhood on one hand and manhood on the other, b. young manhood or young womanhood, period of life before middle age, contrasted with middle age or old age the wife of his youth, after thirty we feel that youth is slipping away, (fig.) the youth of nations, early period in their history or development 2 Physical and mental characteristics of youth, buoyancy, vigour the way to keep one's youth is to exercise both mind and body regularly 3 A young man a most agreeable youth; a bawdy of youths and maidens 4 Young persons of both sexes collectively the youth of the place youthful, adj [1. yóothfúl, 2 júpɪfəl] Preo. & -ful 1 Possessing youth, young, not old a youthful bride, mother 2 Pertaining to, characteristic of, suitable for, youth youthful ambitions & so, a youthful appearance, smile, her clothes were too youthful for her face and figure youthfully, adv Preo. & -ly In a youthful manner youthfulness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being youthful yowl, vb intrans & n [1 youl, 2 jaul] Cp. Du. jolen, O.N. gaula, 'to yell' Imitative a vb To howl dismally, b n, a dismal howl ytterbium, adj [1 yítəbík, 2 yítəbík] See next word & -ic Connected with, pertaining to, ytterbium ytterbium, n [1 yítəbium, 2 yítəbium], fr. Place-Name Ytterby, in Sweden, place of discovery Rare element, forming colourless salts yttrium, adj [1 yítɪk, 2 yítɪk] See yttrium & -ic Pertaining to yttrium yttriferous, adj [1 yítɪfərəs, 2 yítɪfərəs] yttrio- & -ferous Containing yttrium. yttrious, adj [1 yítɪus, 2 yítɪus] See yttrium & -ous Derived from yttrium yttrium, n [1 yítɪum, 2 yítɪum], fr. Place-Name Ytterby, in Sweden, place of discovery Rare metal, found as a greyish powder yttrio-, pref representing prec, Forming names of minerals containing yttrium, e.g. yttriochrome, a violet coloured mineral sometimes found in quartz yucca, n [1 yúka, yooka, 2 jáka, juke] Span, fr. Am. Indian Genus of plants of the lily family, indigenous to Central America, Mexico & so, having a dense crown of stiff, thick, sword shaped leaves and large white flowers yuga, n [1 yúga, 2 júga] Hind, fr. Sort yugá, 'era, age' Any one of the four cycles into which the duration of the world is divided in the Hind religious writings yule, n [1 yool, 2 júl] O.E. geol, M.E. jól, op O.N. jól Etymol. unknown. Christmas season or festival yule-log, n Log burnt as part of Christmas celebrations yule-tide, n Christmas.

Z

z, n [1 zed, 2 zed] a The twenty-sixth letter of the alphabet, for use in abbreviations & so see list at end of Dictionary, b (alg.) third unknown quantity zaffre, zaffer, n [1 záfer, 2 záfə], fr. Fr. zafre, perh. fr. Arab. Blue pigment made from cobalt ore and silica, used in enamelling, glass-painting & so zamindar, n [1 zámindər, 2 zamíndə] See zamindar zany, n, [1 záni, 2 zéni], fr. Fr. zani, fr. Ital.

zanni, abbr. fr. Giovanni, John 1 (hist.) Buffoon who mimics the chief clown and other actors in a theatrical performance 2 A fantastic, foolish person, a buffoon, a merry andrew Zanzibari, n & adj [1 zánzibári, 2 zánzibári], fr. Place-Name Zanzibar 1 n Native of Zanzibar 2 adj Of, coming from, Zanzibar
zaptieh, n [1 záptiə, 2 záptiə] Turkish Turkish policeman

Zarathustrian See Zoroastrian. zareba, zariba, n [1 zaréba, 2 zaríba], fr. Arab. zariba, 'pen, enclosure' (in the Sudan & so) Camp or village enclosed for protection by hedge or stockade zeal, n [1 zél, 2 zíal], fr. O. Fr. zelo, fr. L. Lat. zelus, 'zeal', fr. Gk. zēlos, 'emulation, zeal', possibly cogn. w. Slovene jal, 'envy'; O. Slav. jaru, 'furious', Sort ydván, 'persecutor' Intense enthusiasm for person, cause, enterprise & so, ardour, fervour zealot, n. [1 zélot, 2 zélot], fr O Fr zelote, fr Lat zelotes, fr Gk. zēlōtēs, 'zealous follower', fr zēlos, 'emulation', see prec, & -ot Person with excessive enthusiasm for an object, cause &c., a fanatic zealotry, n. [1 zélotri, 2 zélotri] Prec & -ry Practice or feeling of a zealot zealous, adj. [1 zélus, 2 zélus] zeal & -ous Acting with, characterized by, expressing, zeal zealously, adv. Prec & -ly In a zealous manner, with zeal zebec(k), n. See zabeo zebra, n. [1 zēbra, 2 zēbra] Port, (fr Afr Genus of African quadrupeds related to the horse and ass, with light coloured body, marked with dark brown or black stripes zebra-, pref. implying stripiness zebra ante-lope, fish &c zebra-wood n. Striped wood obtained from a tree found in Guana zebrina, adj. [1 zēbrin, 2 zēbrin] zebra & -ins Resembling, allied to, the zebra zebu, n. [1 zēbū, 2 zēbū], fr Fr zebu, fr Tibetan mdzapo Large animal of the bovine family, with a hump, domesticated in India and China zed, n. [1 zed, 2 zed], fr Fr zède, fr Lat, fr Gk zēta, sixth letter of alphabet, according to Boissac, prob. formed fr Heb zayin, on anal of ēta, thēta Name of the letter z zedoary, n. [1 zēdōari, 2 zēdōari], fr O Fr zedoaire, fr Med Lat, fr Pers zadwar Cp setwall An aromatic drug used in India as a medicine and stimulant zeitgeist, n. [1 zäitgäst, 2 tsäitgäst] Germ, fr zeit, 'time', q v under tide, & geist, 'spirit', q v under ghost Spirit of the times, general body of opinions and intellectual tendencies prevalent at a particular period

Zelamian, adj. [1 zēlānian, 2 zēlānian], fr Latinized form (Nova) Zelania, 'New Zealand', & -an Connected with, belonging to, New Zealand zeloso, adv. [1 zelōsō, 2 zelōsōu] Ital, fr Lat zelosus, 'emulous', see jealous (direction in mus) Fervently, energetically zemindār, n. [1 zēmindār, 2 zēmindār], fr Pers zemindār, 'landholder', zamin, 'land', & dar, suff. indicating the agent (in India, esp. Bengal) A person holding land for which he pays revenue to the Government, b a landholder generally zemstvo, n. [1 zēmsťvō, 2 zēmsťvōu] Russ, fr zemlya, 'land', cogn w Lith žemė, Serb žemlja, Lat humus, 'earth', see humus Provincial, elective, economic assembly in the old Russian Empire zenana, n. [1 zēnāna, 2 zānāna] Pers zenana, 'of women', fr zan, 'woman', op Serb žena, 'woman', cogn w Gk gynē, 'woman', see gyno-, O E cwen, 'woman', see quean, cwen, 'wife, queen', see queen Apartments in an Indian native house in which the women are secluded, zenana mission, one for religious, medical, and educational reform among Indian women

Zend, n. [1 zēnd, 2 zēnd], fr O Pers zend, 'commentary', named fr that upon the Parsee scriptures Ancient form of Old Persian, called also Old Bactrian, in which the Avesta is written, a language belonging, together with Sanscrit and the modern Indian languages, to the Aryan branch of Aryan speech

Zend-Avesta, n. [1 zēnd avēsta, 2 zēnd avēsta], fr Pers Avistak w Zend, 'text and commentary' The sacred writings of the Zoroastrians, also applied to the interpretation of these in Pehlevi zenith, n. [1 zēmth, 2 zēnīp], fr O Fr zenith, fr O Span zenit, fr Arab zenit, 'way, path', abbr fr zenit er ras, 'way of the head' 1 Point of the heavens directly above the observer 2 (fig) Culminating point, highest degree of intensity, strength, success &c at the zenith of one's fame, powers &c zenithal, adj. [1 zēmthal, 2 zēnīpal] Prec & -al Of, pertaining to, the zenith zenith-distance, n. Angular distance of a heavenly body from the zenith zeolite, n. [1 zēolit, 2 zēlōst], fr Gk zē (em), 'to boil', see second element of eczema, & -lito Hydrous silicate found in the cavities of lava zephyr, n. [1 zēfer, 2 zēfa], fr Fr zéphire, fr Lat zephyrus, fr Gk zephuros, 'west wind', perh cogn w zēphos, 'darkness' 1 a (cap) West wind, b (poet) soft wind, gentle breeze 2 A fine, very thin, woollen material, b under garment made from such material

Zeppelin, n. [1 zēpēlin, 2 zēpēlin], fr name of inventor, Count von Zeppelin, d 1917 Large dirigible airship zero, n. [1 zēro, 2 zērou], fr Fr, fr Ital, contracted fr zefiro, fr Arab qifr, see cipher 1 Arabic numeral 0, a cipher, a nought, symbol of nothingness 2 A central point in a scale from which positive and negative quantities are reckoned, specif b central point of scale of temperature, in centigrade thermometer, freezing point of water, 0 zero hour, (mil) prearranged time from which the times of the various operations in an offensive are calculated 3 (fig) Lowest point in scale of comparison or reckoning, nothingness our hopes were reduced to zero zest, n. [1 zōst, 2 zēst], fr O Fr zeste, 'lemon peel used for flavouring, skin of walnut kernel', fr Lat schistos, 'split', fr Gk skhistōs, 'divided', fr skhistēin, 'to cleave', see schism 1 Piquant addition, flavouring, relish, (chiefly fig) piquancy, stimulating quality, esp in Fr to give a zest to (pleasure &c) 2 Keenness, enjoyment, gusto, ardour to enter into a game, a piece of work &c with zest zeta, n. [1 zēta, 2 zēfa] Gk name of symbol ζ, the sixth letter in Greek alphabet, which expressed either [dz] or [z] See zed zetetic, adj. [1 zētētik, 2 zētētik], fr Gk zētētikos, 'searching, inquiring', fr zētēte, 'seeker', fr zētēin, 'to search after, inquire into', fr earlier zētein*, fr stem zē-, zē-, 'to hasten towards, strive after', op Gk (di)zēma, 'strive to reach', zēle, 'storm at sea' (rare) Proceeding by inquiry zetetic method zeugma, n. [1 zūgma, 2 zūgma] Gk zeugma, 'band, bond, yoke', fr zeugnūmi, 'I yoke, bind', op Gk zeugos, 'harness', zugōn, 'yoke', see zyg(o)- & yoke Figure of grammar in which a verb or adjective is applied to two nouns, to only one of which it is strictly applicable either grammatically or logically, see also symplois zeugmatic, adj. [1 zūgmātik, 2 zūgmātik], fr Gk zeugmātikos, genit of zeugma, 'yoke', see prec, & -ic Characterized by zeugma

Zeus, n. [1 zūs, 2 zūs] Gk Zeus, ep Serb dyāus, 'heaven', Lat deus, 'god', see deity, & words there referred to Supreme Olympian deity of ancient Greeks zeugite, n. [1 zūkist, 2 zūkist], fr Gk zēkiste, 'joining', fr zeugnūmi, 'I join, yoke, bind', see zeugma, & -ite Kind of pale brown tourmaline zibet, n. [1 zibet, 2 zibet], fr Ital zibetto, fr Arab zabad Asiatic or Indian civet cat zigzag, n, adj, adv, & v. intrans [1 zigzag, 2 zigzag], fr Fr, fr Germ zickzack, redupl fr zacke, 'tooth', cogn w tack 1 n A line having a series of short angular deviations from the straight, turning or winding now in one direction, now in another, anything having such a form or course 2 adj Having, forming, describing, a zigzag 3 adv So as to follow or describe a zigzag line the road ran zigzag across the hills 4 v. b To move in, follow, a zigzag course he zigzagged slowly homewards after dinner, b (of road, river) to run, be shaped, in zigzags zillah, n. [1 zila, 2 zila], fr Hind zilah District in British India under the control of a deputy commissioner or collector zinc, n. & v. trans [1 zing, 2 zing] Germ.

zink, etymol doubtful 1 n Bluish white metallic element, used in the industrial arts, zinc oxide, white pigment used as substitute for oxide of lead 2 v. b To treat coat, with zinc zincic, adj. [1 zingik, 2 zipik] Prec & -ic Of, pertaining to, derived from, zinc zinciferous, adj. [1 zingikferus, 2 zipikiferus] zinc & -ferous Yielding, producing, zinc zincification, n. [1 zingifikashun, 2 zipikifikashun] See zincify & -fication Act of zincifying, state of being zincified zincify, v. trans [1 zingikfi, 2 zipikifi] zinc & -fy To coat or impregnate with zinc zinc, n. [1 zingik, 2 zipikow] Abbr fr zincograph Zincograph zinc-, pref. representing zinc & -o- Zinc, e.g. zincograph, zincotype &c zincograph (I), n. [1 zingikogrāf, 2 zipikogrāf] zinc- & -graph A design in relief on zinc plate, b picture produced by printing from such a plate zincograph (II), v. intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans To produce pictures by zincography process 2 trans To print, produce (design, picture), from a zincograph zincographer, n. [1 zingikografor, 2 zipikografor] Prec & -ar Person employed or skilled in zincographing zincographic, adj. [1 zingikografik, 2 zipikografik] zincograph (I) & -ic Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, a zincograph zincography, n. [1 zingikografi, 2 zipikografi] zinc- & -graphy Process of producing design in relief on zinc plates for printing zincoid, adj. [1 zingikoid, 2 zipikoid] zinc- & -oid Resembling zinc zincotype, n. [1 zingikotip, 2 zipikotip] zinc- & type Zincograph zincous, adj. [1 zingikus, 2 zipikus] zinc & -ous Of, pertaining to, derived from, zinc zingaro, n, pl zingari [1 zingārō, 1, 2 zipgarō, 1] Ital Ultimately fr Pers for Indian word meaning 'blacksmith', op Pehlevi asnkār, 'blacksmith' Gypsy zinke, n. [1 zāngke, 2 zāngke] Mod Germ. Old form of musical wind instrument with leather cover, slightly tapering tube zinky, adj. [1 zingki, 2 zipiki] zinc & -y Made of, containing, or resembling, zinc zinna, n. [1 zīna, 2 zīna], fr J G Zinn, German botanist, d 1769 Genus of annual herbs of the aster family, with bright-coloured, composite flowers

Zion, n. [1 zion, 2 zān] Eccles Lat Sion, fr Heb Tsiyōn, 'hill' 1 a Hill in Jerusalem, b the city of Jerusalem 2 (fig) a Ancient Hebrew theocracy, b the Christian Church, c heaven, the Heavenly Jerusalem

Zionism, n. [1 zionizm, 2 zānānzēm] Prec & -ism Movement with the object of re-settlement of the Jews in Palestine and the establishment of a national home there

Zionist, n. [1 zionist, 2 zānānist] Zion & -ist Adherent of Zionism Zionwards, adv. [1 zionwards, 2 zānānwōds] Zion & -wards Heavenwards zip, n. [1 zip, 2 zip] Imitative Light, whizzing sound, as of bullet passing through the air zircon, n. [1 zērkon, 2 zākon], fr Arab zarkun, 'cinnabar', fr Pers zargūn, 'gold-coloured' Silicate of zirconium, variously coloured, varieties are the hyacinth and the jergoon zirconate, n. [1 zērkonāt, 2 zākōnēt] Prec & -ate Salt of zirconic acid zirconic, adj. [1 zērkonik, 2 zākōnik] zircon & -ic Of, derived from, zirconium zirconium, n. [1 zērkonūm, 2 zākōnūm] zircon & -um Blackish or greyish metallic element found in combination with silica zither, n. [1 zither, 2 zipa] Germ, fr Lat cithara, see cither(n) Musical instrument with flat sounding-board and strings plucked with a plectrum zitherist, n [1 zitherist, 2 zīperist] Preo & -ist Player on the zithar zloty, n [1 zlōti, 2 zlōti] Pol Polish coin = 10d -zoa suff [1 zōa, 2 zōua] representing pl of Gk zōon, 'animal', see zoo-Zoar, n [1 zōar, 2 zōua] With reference to story of Lot, Genesis xix 22 Place of refuge zodiac, n [1 zōdiak, 2 zōudiak] fr Fr zodiaque, fr Lat zōdiacus, fr Gk zōdiakos, 'containing animals', fr zōdion, 'small figure', pl, 'signs of zodiac', dimin of zōon, 'animal, living creature', fr zōos, 'living', see zoo- 1 a An imaginary belt in the heavens, having the ecliptic in the centre, within which the moon and all the principal planets have their paths, divided into twelve sections or signs, b the region in the heavens enclosed by the zodiac 2 A figure representing the zodiac and its divisions, each with its appropriate symbol zodiacal, adj [1 zōdiakl, 2 zōudakl] Preo & -al Of, pertaining to, situated within, the zodiac zodiacal light, faintly luminous, apparently triangular tract of sky sometimes seen in the west after dusk or in the east before dawn, chiefly in the tropics zootrope, n [1 zōetrop, 2 zōutrop] fr Gk zōē, 'life', fr zōōs, 'living', see zoo-, & tropos, 'a turn', see -tropo-, & trepidation Toy with revolving cylinder showing series of pictures in apparent motion, wheel of life zōic, adj [1 zōik, 2 zōuik] fr Gk zōikos, fr zōon, 'animal', see zoo-, & -io a Of, pertaining to, characterized by, animal life, specif b (geol, of rock) containing fossils of plants or animals Zolaesque, adj [1 zōlaesk, 2 zōulaesk] fr Zola, see next word, & -esque Resembling, characteristic of, the style and manner of Zola Zolaism, n [1 zōlaizm, 2 zōulaizm] fr Emile Zola, French novelist, d 1902, & -ism Literary style and method characteristic of Zola, vigorous but coarse naturalism Zolaist, n [1 zōlaist, 2 zōulaist] fr Zola, see preo Writer in the style of Zola Zolaistic, adj [1 zōlaistik, 2 zōulaistik] Preo & -io Of, resembling, the style of Zola zollverein, n [1 tsol, 2 zōlferin, 2 tsJ, zōlfardin] Germ, fr zoll, 'tax', see toll (III), & verein, 'union', fr pref ver-, oogn w for-, & ein, 'one', see one Union of states having a common tariff of duties on imports from other countries, and free trade among themselves zonal, adj [1 zōnal, 2 zounal] zone & -al Of, pertaining to, arranged or marked out in, zones zonally, adv Preo & -ly In a zonal manner zonary, adj [1 zōnar, 2 zōunar] zone & -ary Resembling a belt in form or appearance zonate, adj [1 zōnat, 2 zounest] zone & -ate (hot, zool) Marked with hands zone (I), n [1 zōn, 2 zoun] fr Fr, fr Lat zōna, fr Gk zōnē, 'belt, girdle', cp Gk zōnūm, 'I gird', zōstōs, 'girdled', cpn Zend yāsta, 'girded', Lith jūsta, 'belt', O Slav (po) jasa, 'girdle' 1 (archaeo or poet) Girdle, belt 'that milky way, which nightly, as a circling zone, thou seest Powdered with stars' (Milton, 'P L', vi 679-81) 2 Belt, band, stripe, area, distinguished from surface & on either side by appearance, colour, characteristics, formation & 3 (geog) One of the five regions into which the surface of the earth is divided by imaginary lines parallel to the equator, frigid zones, within Arctic and Antarctic circles, tropical zone, between tropics of Cancer and Capricorn, temperate zones, between torrid and frigid zones 4 (math) Portion at surface of sphere, cone, cylinder, &c enclosed between two parallel planes at right angles to its axis zone (II), vb trans, fr preo To mark, encircle, with a zone zonular, adj [1 zōnular, 2 zōunula] zone & -ule & -ar Of, pertaining to, in the shape of, a small belt or band Zoo, n [1 zōo, 2 zū] Abbr fr zoological Zoological garden, esp the Zoological Gardens in London zoo-, pref representing Gk zōōs, 'living', zōon, 'animal', cp Gk zōē, zēn, 'to live', earlier g'zōō*- & zō, cp Gk bios, 'life', fr stem g'zōō*- & zō, 'to live', see bio- & words there referred to Of animals or animal life zooblast, n [1 zōoblast, 2 zōoublast] zoo- & Gk blastē, 'sprout', see blasto- derm Animal cell zoochemistry, n [1 zōokēmistr, 2 zōukēmistr] Chemistry of solid and fluid constituents of animal body zoodynamics, n [1 zōodināmiks, 2 zōoudināmiks] Animal physiology zoogamy, n [1 zōogami, 2 zōuigami] zoo- & -gamy Sexual reproduction zoogeny, n [1 zōogami, 2 zōuigami] zoo- & -geny Doctrine of the origin of living beings zoogeography, n [1 zōogeogrāfi, 2 zōoudzēgrāfi] Science of geographical distribution of animals zoography, n [1 zōogeogrāfi, 2 zōoudzēgrāfi] zoo- & -graphy Description zoology zooid (I), adj [1 zōoid, 2 zōuoid] zoo- & -oid Resembling, but not completely being, an animal organism zooid (II), n, fr preo 1 An organic body or cell possessing independent locomotion 2 An animal organism produced by fission, or some similar process, and not by direct sexual reproduction, and having an imperfect individuality zoolatrous, adj [1 zōolatrus, 2 zōoudlatrus] See next word & -ous Pertaining to, characterized by, zoolatry zoolatry, n [1 zōolatrit, 2 zōoudlatrit] zoo- & -latry Worship of animals zoolite, n [1 zōolit, 2 zōoulit] zoo- & -lite Fossil animal zoological, adj [1 zōologikl, 2 zōoulōdžikl] zoo- & -logy & -ic & -al a Connected with, pertaining to, zoology, b connected with animal life and structure zoological garden(s), n Large garden or park in which wild animals of all kinds are kept for exhibition zoology, n [1 zōōlogi, 2 zōōlōdžikl] zoo- & -logy Branch of biology dealing with the structure, physiology, classification of animals zoom, vb intrans [1 zōōm, 2 zūm] Etymol doubtful (aeron) To compel an aeroplane to ascend rapidly and at a steep angle zoomagnetism, n [1 zōomagnēzizm, 2 zōoumagnētizizm] Animal magnetism zoomancy, n [1 zōomansi, 2 zōoumans] zoo- & -manoy Divination by observing the behaviour of animals zoomorphic, adj [1 zōomorfik, 2 zōoumōfik] zoo- & Gk morphē, 'form, shape', see morphology, & -ic Pertaining to, represented by, animal forms, having the forms of animals zoomorphism, n [1 zōomarfizim, 2 zōoumōfizim] See preo & -ism The conception and representation of gods in the form of animals zoophysics, n [1 zōōfiziks, 2 zōoufiziks] Science of the physical structure of animal bodies zoophyte, n [1 zōōfit, 2 zōoufist] zoo- & -phyte Invertebrate animal as plant-like form, including sea anemones, sponges &c zoophytic, adj [1 zōōfitik, 2 zōoufitik] Preo & -ic Pertaining to, of the nature of, zoophytes zoophytology, n [1 zōōfitōlogi, 2 zōoufistōlōdžikl] See preo & -logy The study of zoophytes zooplastic, adj [1 zōoplāstik, 2 zōouplāstik] Pertaining to that form of surgery in which living tissue from an animal is grafted on to a human body zoopsychology, n [1 zōōsikologi, 2 zōousaikōlōdžikl] Psychology of animals other than man zoosperm, n [1 zōōspērm, 2 zōouspām] 1 Spermatozoon 2 Zoosperm zoospore, n [1 zōōspōr, 2 zōouspōr] Spore capable of independent motion zootaxy, n [1 zōōtāksi, 2 zōoutāksi] fr zoo- & Gk taxis, 'arrangement', see taxis, & -y The classification of animals zootheism, n [1 zōōthēizm, 2 zōouphēizm] Religious system based on the worship of animals zootomy, n [1 zōōtōmi, 2 zōūdōtami] zoo- & -tomy 1 Dissection of animals 2 Animal anatomy zoril, n [1 zōril, 2 zōril] fr Fr zorille, fr Span zorilla, dimin of zorra, 'fox' Small African carnivorous quadruped resembling skunk Zoroastrian, Zarathustrian, adj & n [1 zōroāstrian, zārothōstrian, 2 zōroāstrian, zārothōstrian] fr Lat Zoroāstres, 'Zarathustra', fr O Pers Zarathustra, founder of Pers religion 1 adj Pertaining to Zoroaster and his religion 2 n An adherent, worshipper, of Zoroaster Zoroastrianism, n [1 zōroāstrianizm, 2 zōroāstrianizm] Preo & -ism Religious system of ancient Persia and of the Parsses, based on the recognition of the dual principle of good and evil or light and darkness zouave, n [1 zōāhv, 2 zōāhv] Fr, fr name of Kabyle tribe Member of French, light-armed corps of infantry, originally recruited from Algerians and wearing Eastern uniform zounds, interj [1 zoundz, 2 zauudz] Contracted fr God's wounds Archaic exclamatory expression zucchetta, zuchetto, n [1 tankēta, -ētō, 2 tukēta, -etōu] Ital, dimin of zucca, 'gourd' Skull cap worn by ecclesiastics zuffolo, n [1 tsufōlō, 2 tsufōlōu] Ital zufolo, 'whistle' A small flageolet Zulu, n [1 zōlōō, 2 zūlō] Native 1 Member of a people of the Bantu or Kafir family of S Africa 2 Language of this people zwieback, n, Anglicized to [1 zwiōbak, 2 zwiōbak] Germ zwe, 'twice', & backen, 'bake' cp etymol of biscuit Kind of thin rusk, consisting of a slice cut from a lightly baked loaf, baked again till crisp Zwinglian, adj & n [1 zwiŋglian, 2 zwiŋglian] fr name of Zwingli, Swiss Protestant reformer, d 1531, & -an 1 adj Pertaining to the doctrines of Zwingli 2 n Follower of Zwingli, one of whose characteristic doctrines was that in the Eucharist the presence of Christ in the elements is not an objective fact, but depends upon the faith of the recipient, and that the service is merely commemorative and has no sacrificial character zyg(o)-, pref representing Gk zygōn, 'yoke', cogn w Sert yugam, Lat yugum, see yugato, Goth juk, O E geac, 'yoke', see yoke, cp also Gk zeugos, 'harness', zeugma, 'bond, yoke', see zeugma Existing in pairs, shaped like a yoke zygal, adj [1 zīgal, 2 zangal] zyg(o)- & -al Having the shape of a yoke, H-shaped, esp of brain fissures zygapophysis, n [1 zīgāpōfizis, 2 zīgāpōfizis] zyg(o)- & Gk apōphysis, 'offshoot; process of a bone', see apo- & physio Articulating portion of vertebra zygodactyl, n [1 zīgōdaktl, 2 zīgōdaktl] See zyg(o)- & dactyl Bird with toes arranged in pairs, two pointing forward and two backward zygodactylous, adj [1 zīgōdaktilus, 2 zīgōdaktilus] Preo & -ous Of the nature of a zygodactyl zygoma, n [1 zī, zīgōma, 2 zāi, zīgōuma] fr Gk zygōma, 'yoke', fr zygōmēn, 'to yoke together', fr zygōn, 'yoke', see zyg(o)-, & -ma The cheek bone zygomatic, adj [1 zī, zīgōmatik, 2 zāi, zīgōmatik] fr Gk zygōmatos, genit of zygōma, see preo, & -io Pertaining to, situated near, the zygoma, zygomatic arch, hony ridge forming part of the framework of the face, and consisting of the union of the upper jaw bone and the cheek bone zygophyte, n [1 zīgōfīt, 2 zīgōfādt] zyg(o)- & -phyte Plant in which reproduction is effected by means of zygospores zygosis, n [1 zī-, zīgōsis, 2 zā-, zīgōsis], fr Gk zygōsis, 'joining', see zyg(o)- & -osis (biol.) Coalescence of two cells, conjugation zygospore, n [1 zīgōspōr, 2 zīgōspō] zyg(o)- & spore Zygote zygote, n [1 zīgōt, 2 zīgōut], fr Gk zygōtos, 'yoked', fr zygōm, 'to yoke together', see zygoma Prodnot of coalescence of two sexual cells or gametes, a zygospore zymosis, n [1 zī-, zīmōsis, 2 zā-, zīmōsis], fr Gk zīmōsis, 'fermentation', fr zīmoun, 'to ferment', fr zīmē, 'leaven', fr zeim, 'to boil', op Gk zōē, 'foam', cogn w Scrt yasat, 'to boil', OHG zean, 'to ferment', OE gest, 'yeast', see yeest, & eczema, & op enzyme 1 Fermentation 2 Zymotic disease zymotic, adj [1 zī-, zīmōtik, 2 zā-, zīmōtik], fr Gk zīmōsis, 'fermentation', see preo, & -otic Pertaining to, produced by, fermentation, zymotic diseases, epidemic, endemic or sporadic diseases produced by propagation of living germs introduced from without zymurgy, n [1 zīmōrj, 2 zāmāddī], fr Gk zīmē, 'leaven', see zymosis, & ourg (os), fr erg (on), 'work', see ergon Branch of applied chemistry dealing with the science of wine making, brewing, and distilling.

Addenda and Corrigenda

HERE are printed corrections of a few errors in the text which came to the Editor's notice while the Dictionary was passing through the press, together with definitions of certain words inadvertently omitted from their alphabetical positions in the body of the work

P 5 abstention, n [1 abstēnshun, 2 abstrakshun] Fr, fr Lat abstention (em), fr abstēn (um), P P type of abstēnere, see abstain The act of abstaining from any action, specif a act of abstaining from any form of enjoyment, e g from food &c, abstinence, b refusal to record one's vote

P 5 abstraction, n [1 abstrakshun, 2 abstrakshun] Fr, fr Lat, see abstract (I) & -ion 1 a (i) Act of abstracting, (u) condition of being abstracted, withdrawal, removal, b (enphemistic) unlawful removal, theft, stealing 2 a Mental act of regarding things from an abstract point of view, b something so considered 3 Preoccupied state of mind, absent mindedness, abstractedness

P 15 adscriptious, adj [1 adskritshus, 2 adskritshun], fr Lat adsci (um), P P type of adsci (um), 'to approve, adopt, to receive, admit (person)', inceptive fr adsci (um), 'to take, associate with oneself', fr ad- & sci (um), 'to know', see science, & ititious Additional, supplemental, adventitious

P 34 anaglyph After 'cameo', add 'Picture obtained by printing a pair of prints one above the other in red and green inks, producing a stereoscopic effect when viewed through spectacles having one green and one red lens'

P 77 bank (IV), vb 2 After Barclay's, add '3 Bank on, to depend with confidence upon, rely, count on, make arrangements on the assumption that this or that will happen, or he done I'm banking on the fine weather lasting till I get my hay in, I shouldn't bank on his sticking to his promise if I were you'

P 84 bat (IV), vb, op Fr battre, 'to beat' &c Only in Phr he didn't bat an eyelid, eyelash, didn't blink, never turned a hair

P 85 batty, adj [batī], fr bat (III) & -y a Infested by bats, b (slang) having strange ideas, cracked, dotty (op bats in the belfry, under belfry, b)

P 90 Bedfordshire, n [hedfədʃə], fr name of county with punning ref to bed (colloq and facetious) Bed, in Phr to go to Bedfordshire

P 94 belfry, b After words 'where bells hang', add 'Phr (slang) to have bats in the belfry, to have strange notions, be queer in the head, to be cracked &c'

P 108 blimy, interjec [blaimī] for (God) blind me, see gorblimy (vulg) Mild expletive expressing surprise or annoyance

P 108 blind (III) After Asylum, at end of entry, add '4 (slang, op blind (I) 3) a A rollicking, noisy party, esp one at which a large amount of liquor is consumed, b (by extension) a merry social gathering generally, with out implication of excessive drinking, a jolly party, a beano'

P 108 blind (IV), vb intrans, fr blind (I) (slang) generally blind along To run, ride or drive along recklessly, and heedlessly, at excessive speed

P 110 blow-out, n [hloʊaut] (colloq) A copious or elaborate meal, a feast, a hearty feed Used already by Scott, 'St Ronan's Well', Ch 33, at end

P 115 Under hook (I) 1 a after words 'or paper &c', add 'or in paper alone'

P 143 enlabin bean For 'by oolists for diluting', read 'for contracting the pupil of'

P 154 carline (III), n, also carling [1 kār-lin, 2 kdlin] Etymol doubtful, op Fr carlingue A wooden beam, generally fitted at right angles to and below the main deck timbers of a wooden ship, to strengthen the deck in way of openings

P 161 cathode For 'Negative electrode current leaves', read 'Negative pole of a cell, Crookes tube, or other current passing apparatus'

P 200 cock-and-bull story, n [kōkənbul stōri] A fantastic, inaccurate account of what has happened, a rambling, inconsequent, confused tale, containing untrue and unconvincing statements

P 256 cup-o'-tea, n [kʌptē] (facet and rather vulgar) To and of a person, in such Phrs as you're a nice cup o' tea, a funny old cup-o' tea &c

P 280 debag, vb trans [dibæg], fr de- & see bag (I 1 b) To remove (person's) trousers and inflict corporal punishment

P 297 derruik For 'early 18th', read '17th or even (1) late 18th'

P 301 devastating, adj, fr Pres Part of preo [1 dēvastātīng, 2 dēvastētīng] 1 Causing devastation 2 (colloq) expressing dislike, disgust, disapproval &c, very bad, insufferable a devastating bore

P 308 diehard, n [daɪhəd] Person of brave and resolute character who fights to the death for a cause or a principle, specif 1 the Die hard, name given to Middlesex Regiment after battle of Alhura 2 Member of the extreme Right of the Conservative party which adheres consistently to Tory principles, and refuses to compromise on these

P 311 dippy, adj [dɪpɪ] (slang) Queer in the head, cracked, dotty, harpy

P 323 dither vb intrans [dɪðə] Provino origin a To talk in an excited, rapid, inconsequent manner, to talk nonsense, b to be temporarily in an excited, unbalanced state of mind

P 324 dives, n [daɪvɪz], fr Lat dives, 'rich, splendid', name popularly given to the former in the parable of the rich man and the haggard Lazarus in Lk xvi: A callous, selfish rich man, who lives in great luxury while showing indifference to the sufferings of the poor

P 328 dohchocephalic Indication of pronunciation—Add after 1, dōhkoséfahk—and after 2 dōhkoséfahk

P 329 Under dope (I) At end, after 'consciousness', add 'c the dope, the facts of the case, give me the dope, tell me the full facts, put me au courant' dope (II) At end, after 'hoodwink', add 'c dope (d) out, puzzle out, find explanation of'

P 340 drunk (II), n 2 read 'a drinking party, a social gathering, b by extension, a meeting for any purpose a political drunk, a bible drunk, pi drunk, prayer meeting'

P 345 After Dutch, add—(I)

P 345 2 a—after the Dutch, add 'Phr that beats the Dutch, beats everything'

P 345 Dutch (II), n, a, abbrev of duchess, in Phr my, his, old dutch, wife, missus Fr name of Albert Chevalier's song

P 345 Dutch comfort, n Strong drink, grog

P 345 Dutch uncle, n A stern, strict guardian, or mentor, he talked to me like a Dutch uncle

P 345 Dutchman After 'Phr' and before 'Flying Dutchman', insert—(if that isn't so) I'm a Dutchman, emphasizing a statement

P 348 east-north-east, n, adj, & adv (In or towards) direction or point midway between east and north east

P 348 east-south-east, n, adj, & adv (In or towards) direction or point midway between east and south east

P 350 economist, n [1 ēkōnōmst, 2 ikōnōmst] See economy & -ist 1 (rare) One who manages domestic or other affairs 2 One given to economizing, a thrifty person 3 A student of, authority on, the science of political economy

P 362 emulsion For 'An only liquid consistency', read 'A mixture of two liquids, one in the form of minute globules produced by a third substance, often in the form of a white liquid' For 'curative purposes', read 'for preventative and curative purposes'

P 380 etymology After -logy, line 1 of entry, insert—1 (older use) Milton says 'Etymology, or right-wording, teacheth what belongs to every single word or part of speech' Re number sections so that the present 1 becomes 2, and present 2—3

P 418 figwort, n Any one of a large and widely spread genus of herbs, natural order Scrophulariaceae, with greenish-purple or yellow flowers, and usually an unpleasant smell

P 455 Free Church For 'part of the Presbyterian Church 1929', read 'Part of the Presbyterian Church, the minority of the former Free Church which failed to enter the Union with the United Presbyterian Church in 1900'

P 464 funny-bone Delete 'sensitive' Add 'The sensitiveness of this part of the arm is due to the ulnar nerve which passes between the end of the bone of the upper arm (humerus) and that of the larger bone (ulna) of the forearm. The name funny-bone is a popular joke based on the anatomical term humerus (q v)'

P 467 gaga, adj [gaga] Imitative of stammering (slang) a Reduced to state of gibbering bewilderment and incapacity, as by fright, nervous shock &c, b affected by permanent weakening of the mind, cracked, dotty. Phr to go gaga

P 474 Under gay After 1 a insert '(1)' After words 'laugh &c' in this section insert '(in spite of ill health he is always gay, Phr the gayest of the gay, (u) (of persons and their social life) enjoying, filled with, frequent social gatherings, engagements and amusements we were very gay in town this season'

P 483 Under girl indication of pronunciation should read—[1 garl, gēl] (this is now rather old-fashioned, the more usual pronunciation, even among good speakers, is now—[1 gērl, 2 gāl]) After 3 a add 'Phr one's best girl, she who for the moment is the object of special admiration and devotion'

P 494 goof, n [guf] origin unknown A silly fellow, a clumsy, awkward, oafish person

P 494 gorblimy, interj & n [góbli:mɪ], fr Gaud (= God) blam me a interj Low expletive of surprise or annoyance, b n military hat with the round flat crown unstiffened by a wire frame, so that it flops rather like that of a tam-o'-shanter

P 528 hare, vb intrans (slang) To run like a hare, run very fast, hurry you had better hare down to the post, also hars away, to run away, esp to fly in order to escape pursuit

P 531 hat (I) Last line bnt one, just before 'my hat!' insert 'to keep something under one's hat, keep it to oneself, not divulge it, a good deal under his hat, a powerful mind, learning &c, lame under the hat, of weak mind, foolish, lacking intelligence'

P 536 hearing, n Add '3 Something heard, news, esp in Phr that's a good hearing, something that it is pleasing to hear'

P 584 hot (III) vb trans & n, fr hot (I) (colloq) 1 vb a Also hot up, to warm up food already cooked which has become cold, b (fig) to revive, put new life into, stimulate (a cause, business, enterprise &c) which is declining 2 n A stimulus, re animation, re-vivification

P 573 After hydro, n, insert—[1 hídɹō, 2 haídɹou]

P 631 jim-jams, n pl [dʒɪmˈdʒəmz] (slang) The jim-jams, a delirium tremens, b a highly nervous, over wrought state of mind, jumpiness, fussy excitability, the wilkes

P 660 lewdshy, n [ljúdzbi], facet formation fr lewd w by, Pl N ending A lewd, loose, immoral person

P 686 loony bin, n (slang) Lunatic asylum, madhouse

P 686 loopy, adj [lúpi] (slang) Weak in the intellect, slightly mad, dippy, batty

P 687 Lord-Lieutenant For 'Governor-General of the Free State of N Ireland' read 'Governor of Northern Ireland'

P 799 Under omnibus 2—after words 'number of persons', add 'omnibus volume, one containing several complete novels, or short stories by the same author, or by several authors'

P 800 After oneyer—add (L)

P 800 oneyer (II), n See wonyer.

P 861 pi (II) For '(school slang)' read '(school and Univ slang)' Definition should read—a Pious, religious, b connected w, expressing, setting forth, religious or moral ideas and principles

P 864 pi-jaw, n [1 piˈjau, 2 piˈdʒɔ], See pi (II) & jaw (I) 5 b (school slang) Religious or moral address, a sermon

P 1017 ride (II) After 1 b carriage, add 'Phr (Amer gangster slang) to take (person) for a ride, take him out into the country in a motor car and murder him'

P 1126 Under sixpence, in b Phrs after words 'of no consequence' add 'the same old sixpence, of person, implying that he is unchanged either for better or for worse'

P 1185 Under step (II), in A 2 after word 'intervene', insert 'step on the gas, step on it, to accelerate in a motor car, hence to drive at high speed, to hurry'

P 1232 For 'tab' read 'tab (I)'

P 1232 tab (II), n abbrev of Cantab, q v Same sense as Cantab, but not a polite mode of reference,

P 1387 wench, at end, after 'Prostitute', add '3 vb To frequent company of prostitutes'

P 1387 wenching, vbl n, tr pres (archaic) Practice of sexual intercourse outside wedlock

P 1396 wilkes, n pl [wɪlɪz] adapted fr bewilder? (slang) the wilkes State of nervous excitement caused by fear or shock, temporary mental incapacity, jumpiness, and so on a fit of the wilkes, it gave me the wilkes

P 1399 w(e)isenheim, n Facet use of Germ-Jewish name (American slang) A knowing, sharp witted person, applied ironically to one who prides himself on possessing the latest information, and an infallible judgment, and on being cleverer than other people

P 1401 wobbler, n, fr wobble (I) & -er One who wobbles, specif one who is unstable and vacillating in opinions, principles &c.

Familiar Abbreviations

In these pages we give a reasonably full list of the abbreviations commonly used in speech and in writing. We have included also a number which, though no longer current, are still to be met with in standard works of reference.

A, argon (chem)
 a, aged (of racehorse over six years old) A1, at Lloyd's, first class ship on the register, also first-class in physique, health &c A A, Automobile Association, Associate in Arts A A A, Amateur Athletic Association A A C, Lat anno ante Christum, in the year before Christ A A G, Assistant Adjutant General A A I, Associate of the Auctioneers' Institute A and M, Ancient and Modern (hymn book) A A of A, Automobile Association of America A A Q M G, Acting Assistant Quartermaster General A A U, Amateur Athletic Union (of U.S.A.) A B, able bodied seaman, Lat Artium Baccalaureus, Bachelor of Arts, usually B A A B A, Amateur Boxing Association abbr, abbrev, abbreviation, abbreviated ABC, the alphabet, alphabetical railway guide A B C, Aerated Bread Co abd, abdicated ab init, Lat ab initio, from the beginning abl, ablative abp, archbishop
 A B S, American Bible Society abs, absolute, abstract absol, absolute(ly) abt, about A C, Appeal Court, Appeal Cases in this court (in law reports), Alpina Club, Aero Club, Athletic Club, Lat anno Christi, in the year of Christ, a v, Lat ante Christum, before Christ, B C a/c, account
 A C A, Associate of the Institute of Chartered Accountants acc, account, accusative accel, acelerando (mus) acct, account, accountant accus, accusative
 A C G I, Associate of the City & Guilds of London Institute A C I S, Associate of the Chartered Institute of Secretaries A C P, Associate of the College of Preceptors A C S, Additional Curates Society A C U, Antiochian Union A D, Lat anno Domini, in the year of our Lord a d, after date ad, adapted, advertisement adag, adagio (mus)
 A D C, Aide de camp, Amateur Dramatic Club (esp of Cambridge University) ad eund, Lat ad eundem (gradum), admitted to the same degree (at another university) ad fin, Lat ad finem, et, to, the end ad inf, Lat ad infinitum, to infinity ad int, Lat ad interim, meanwhile Adj, Adjutant
 adj, adjective
 Adj, Adjutant
 ad lib, Lat ad libitum, at pleasure ad loc, Lat ad locum, at the place Adm, Admiral, Admiralty, Administrator Adml, Admiral
 admor, administrator
 A D O S, Assistant Director of Ordnance Stores Adv, Advent, Advocate
 adv, adverb adv, Lat adversus, against ad val, Lat ad valorem, according to the value advl, adverbial
 advt, advertisement

Æ, third class ship at Lloyd's æg, Lat oeger, ill ægrot, Lat ægrotat, he is ill, in Engl univrs, certificate that student is too ill to take examination A E L T C, All England Lawn Tennis Club aeron, aeronautics æt, ætat, Lat ætatis, aged (so many years) A E U, Amalgamated Engineering Union A F, Admiral of the Fleet A F A, Amateur Football Association A F B S, American & Foreign Bible Society A F C, Air Force Cross
 A F M, Air Force Medal
 A -Fr, Anglo French (Anglo-Norman) Afr, African
 A F R A S, Associate Fellow of the Royal Aeronautical Society A G, Adjutant General, Attorney General, Accountant General, Agent General, German, Aktiengesellschaft, joint-stock company Ag, Lat argentum, silver (chem) agric, agriculture
 A G S M, Associate of the Guildhall School of Music Agt, Agent
 Agt -Gen, Agent General
 A H, Lat anno Hegiræ, in the year of the Hegira A H S, Lat anno humanæ salutis, in the year of human salvation A I, American Institute A I A, Associate of the Institute of Actuaries A I C, Associate of the Institute of Chemistry A I C E, Associate of the Institution of Civil Engineers A I D, Army Intelligence Department A I F, Australian Imperial Force A I Mech E, Associate of the Institution of Mechanical Engineers A I S A, Associate of the Incorporated Secretaries' Association A K C, Associate of King's College, London Al, aluminium (chem) Ala, Alabama (U.S.A.)
 Alas, Alaska
 Alban, St Albans, in signature of Bishop A L C M, Associate of the London College of Music Ald, Alderman, Aldine Alex, Alexander
 alg, algebra
 A L S, Associate of the Linnean Society alt, alternate, altitude Alta, Alberta, Canada
 A M, Lat Artium Magister, Master of Arts, usually M A, Albert Medal, Lat anno mundi, in the year of the world a m, Lat ante meridiem, before noon Am, American
 A M C, Army Medical Corps (since 1898, R A M C) A M D G, Lat ad majorem Dei gloriam, to the greater glory of God A M I C E, Associate Member of the Institution of Civil Engineers A M I E E, Associate Member of the Institution of Electrical Engineers A M I Mech E, Associate Member of the Institution of Mechanical Engineers amp, ampere
 A M S, Army Medical Staff amt, amount anal, analogy, analysis anat, anatomy anct, ancient Angl, Lat Anglice, in English Angl, Anglican

 anon, anonymous anr, another anthropol, anthropology antiq, antiquity
 A N Z A C (Anzac), Australian and New Zealand Army Corps, in Great War A O, Army Order
 a/o, account of A O C, Army Ordnance Corps (since 1918, R A O C) A O D, Ancient Order of Druids, Army Ordnance Department A O F, Ancient Order of Foresters A O H, Ancient Order of Hibernians aor, aorist ap, Lat apud, according to, in the works of, in literary references A P D, Army Pay Department Apl, April
 A P M, Assistant Provost Marshal Apoc, Apocalypse, Apocrypha app, appendix, appointed, apprentice appro, approval, approbation approx, approximate(ly) Apr, April
 A P S, Aborigines Protection Society A Q M G, Assistant Quartermaster General A R, Lat anno regni, in the year of the reign, annual return A R A, Associate of the Royal Academy Arab, Arabic
 A R A M, Associate of the Royal Academy of Music A R B A, Associate of the Royal Society of British Artists arbor, arboriculture A R C, Automobile Racing Club A R C A, Associate of the Royal College of Art, Associate of the Royal Cambrian Academy archaeol, archaeology archit, architecture
 A R C I, Associate of the Royal Colonial Institute A R C M, Associate of the Royal College of Music A R C O, Associate of the Royal College of Organists A R C S, Associate of the Royal College of Science A R E, Associate of the Royal Society of Painter-Engravers and Engravers Argyll, Argyllshire
 A R H A, Associate of the Royal Hibernian Academy A R I B A, Associate of the Royal Institute of British Architects arith, arithmetic Ariz, Arizona (U.S.A.)
 Ark, Arkansas (U.S.A.)
 A R M S, Associate of the Royal Society of Miniature Painters A R P S, Associate of the Royal Photographic Society A R R, Lat anno regni regis (reginae), in the year of the king's (queen's) reign arr, arrives (of train &c) A R S A, Associate of the Royal Scottish Academy, Associate of the Royal Society of Arts A R S L, Associate of the Royal Society of Literature A R S M, Associate of the Royal School of Mines (now Royal College of Science)

A R S W, Associate of the Royal Scottish Society of Painters in Water Colours art, article
A R W A, Associate of the Royal West of England Academy A R W S, Associate of the Royal Society of Painters in Water Colours A -S, Anglo Saxon
As, arsenic (chem)
A S A, Amateur Swimming Association
A S A A, Associate of the Society of Incorporated Accountants and Auditors Asaph, St Asaph, in signature of Bishop A S C, Army Service Corps (since 1918, R A S C) A S c, Associate in Science A S E, Amalgamated Society of Engineers A S L E & F, Associated Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen A S R S, Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants Assn, association Assoc, associate, association Asst, assistant astrol, astrology astron, astronomy
A T C L, Associate of Trinity College (of Music), London At(t) -Gen, Attorney-General attrib, attributive(ly) at wt, atomic weight A U, Ångström unit (physics) Au, Lat aurum, gold (chem)
A U C, Lat anno urbis conditae or ab urbe condita, in the year of, or from the foundation of the city (Rome)
Aug, August Aus, Austria, Austrian
auxil, auxiliary
A V, Authorized Version. av, average avdp, avoidupous

B, boron (chem), black (of pencil lead) B, Bay
b, born, (cricket) bowled, bye B A, Lat Baccalaureus Artium, Bachelor of Arts, British Academy, British Association Ba, barium (chem) bacter, bacteriology B Agr(ic), Bachelor of Agriculture Balto-Slav, Balto Slavic B & S, brandy and soda
B & W, Bath and Wells, in signature of Bishop Bart, Baronet Bart's, St Bartholomew's Hospital Bath & Well, Bath and Wells, in signature of Bishop Batt, Battery, Battalion Battn, Battalion
BB, double black (of pencil lead) B B, Blue Book
BBB, treble black (of pencil lead) B B C, British Broadcasting Corporation B C, Before Christ, British Columbia B Ch, Lat Baccalaureus Chirurgiae, Bachelor of Surgery B Ch D, Bachelor of Dental Surgery B C L, Bachelor of Civil Law B Com, Bachelor of Commerce B C S, Bengal Civil Service B D, Bachelor of Divinity Bde, Brigade
Bde May, Brigade Major
B D S, Bachelor of Dental Surgery B E, Bachelor of Engineering, (Order of the) British Empire, Board of Education b e, bill of exchange Be, beryllium (chem)
B E A, British East Africa Beds, Bedfordshire
B E F, British Expeditionary Force, in Great War Belg, Belgium, Belgian
B Eng, Bachelor of Engineering Berks, Berkshire
B E S A, British Engineering Standards Association

B ès L, Fr Bachelier ès Lettres, Bachelor of Letters B ès S, Fr Bachelier ès Sciences, Bachelor of Sciences B F B S, British and Foreign Biblio Society B G G S, Brigadier General, General Staff B'ham, Birmingham B'head, Birkenhead
b h p, brake horse-power B I, British India
Bi, bismuth (chem) Bib, Biblical bibliog, bibliography, bibliographical biog, biography, biographical biol, biology, biological bk, book, bank hkg, banking bkrpt, bankrupt bkt, basket
B L, Bachelor of Law, black letter, breech-loading b l, bill of lading bl, barrel, bale
B Litt, Bachelor of Letters (Literature)
B LL, Bachelor of Laws, more commonly LL B B M, Bachelor of Medicine, more commonly M B, Lat Beata Maria, Blessed Mary, the Virgin, more commonly B V M, Lat beatae memoriae, of blessed memory, Brigade Major, British Museum
B M A, British Medical Association B M E, Bachelor of Mining Engineering B M J, British Medical Journal
B Mus, Bachelor of Music, more commonly Mus Bac, British Museum B N C, Brasenose College, Oxford B N O C, British National Opera Company b o, branch office, buyer's option B O A, British Olympic Association, British Optical Association B O A F G, British Order of Ancient Free Gardeners B of E, Bank of England, Board of Education B of H, Band of Hope, Board of Health B of T, Board of Trade bomb, bombardier Bom C S, Bombay Civil Service Bom S C, Bombay Staff Corps B O P, Boy's Own Paper bor, borough bo's'n, boatswain bot, botany, botanical B P, British Pharmacopoeia, the British public (humorous) b p, below proof (of spirits), bills payable, birthplace, boiling-point B -P, Baden-Powell
bp, bishop
B P B, bank post bills
Bp Suff, Bishop Suffragan
B Q, Lat bene quiescat, may he (she) rest well Br, bromine (chem)
Br, Brother, Brigade, Brig, Bombardier, Bugler b r, bills receivable Brazil, Brazilian
B R C S, British Red Cross Society. b rec, bills receivable Brecon, Brecknockshire Bret, Breton
brev, brevet, brevier Brig, Brigade, Brigadier Brig -Gen, Brigadier-General Brit, Britain, British, Britannia Brit Mus, British Museum Brit Pharm, British Pharmacopoeia Britt, Lat Brit(jan(n)arum, of (all) the Britains, on coins. bro, brother Bros, Brothers (commercial) bryol, bryology B S, Bachelor of Surgery, Bachelor of Science (U.S.A.) b s, balance sheet, bill of sale B S A, British South Africa, Birmingham Small Arms Co, British School at Athens B S C, Bengal Staff Corps

B Sc, Bachelor of Science
B S L, Botanical Society of London.
B S R, British School at Rome Bt, Baronet
bt, bought
B Th, Bachelor of Theology
B Th U, British thermal unit B T U, (elect) Board of Trade unit.
Bty, Battery
bu, bushel
Bucks, Buckinghamshire Bulg, Bulgaria, Bulgarian B.V, Bible Version (of the Psalms) B V M, Lat Beata Virgo Maria, the Blessed Virgin Mary B W, Board of Works, bonded warehouse, Black Watch B W G, Birmingham wire gauge B W I, British West Indies
B W T A, British Women's Temperance Association

C, Roman numeral, centum, 100, carbon (chem) C, Cape, Catholic, Centigrade, Conservative c, Lat circa, circum, circular, about, cent, centime, chapter, child, (cricket) caught C3, lowest in physique, state of health, efficiency, &c C A, Chartered Accountant, Chief Accountant, Commercial Agent, County Alderman, Court of Appeal, Church Association, Church Army Ca, calcium (chem)
ca, cathode (elect) ca, Lat circa, about cad, cadenza (mus) caet par, see cet par C A F, Curates' Augmentation Fund Cal, California (U.S.A.) C Am, Central America(n) Cambs, Cambridgeshire Can, Canada, Canon, Canto, Cantoris (of choir) c & b, caught and bowled (cricket) Cant, Canticles (O.T.), Canterbury Cantab, Cambridge University, member of Cambridge University cantab, cantabile (music) Cantuar, Lat Canthuariensis, of Canterbury, in signature of Archbishop cap, Lat capitulum, chapter, capital letter, number of statute in year of reign of sovereign, captain caps, capital letters Capt, Captain
Car, Lat Carolus, Charles Card, Cardinal
Cardig, Cardiganshire
Carib, Caribbean
Carhol, Carisle, in signature of Bishop Carmarths, Carmarthenshire cat, catalogue, catechism Cath, Catholic, Cathedral cath, cathode (elect) Cathol, Catholic, Catholicos cav, cavalry, caveat (law) C B, Companion of the Bath (civil or military); confined to barracks, as punishment in army; Cape Breton (Canada), County Borough Ch, columbium (chem)
C B E, Commander of the British Empire
C B S, Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament, Church Building Society C C, Caus College (Cambridge), Cape Colony, Chamber of Commerce, Circuit Court, Common Council(man), City of London, County Council(lor), County Court, Cricket Club, Cycling Club c c, on the centimetre C C C, Corpus Christi College, Oxford and Cambridge, Central Criminal Court C C P, Court of Common Pleas, Code of Civil Procedure C C S, Ceylon Civil Service, Casualty Clearing Station C D, Chancery Division
Cd, cadmium (chem)
Cd, Command Paper, up to 1918 (see Ccmd).

cd, could

CD (Acts), Contagious Diseases (Acts)

c d v, carte de visite (photograph)

CE, Civil Engineer, Chief Engineer, Church of England

Ce, cerium (chem)

Cels, Celsius (thermometer)

Celt, Celtic

CEMS, Church of England Men's Society

Cent, Centigrade

cent, Lat centum, 100, central, century

Cent Am, Central America(n) cert, certifi, certificate, certified

CESSI, Church of England Sunday School Institution

Cestr, Chester, in signature of Bishop cet par, Lat ceteris paribus, other things being equal

CETS, Church of England Temperance Society

CEU, Christian Endeavour Union

CEWMS, Church of England Working Men's Society

CF, Chaplain to the Forces cf, Lat confer, compareCFG, Fr Confederation Generale de Travail, General Confederation of Labour cfi, cost, freight, and insurance

CG, Captain General, Captain of the Guard, Coast Guard, Coldstream Guards, Commissary General, Consul General

cg, centigramme

CGH, Cape of Good Hope

CGM, Conspicuous Gallantry Medal

CGS, Chief of the General Staff, centumgramme second system of scientific measurement

CH, Companion of Honour, Custom House, Court House

Ch, Church, Chancery

Chap, Chaplain, Chapter

Chap-Gen, Chaplain General

Chas, Charles

ChB, Lat Chirurgiae Baccalaureus, Bachelor of Surgery

ChCh, Christ Church, Oxford University chem, chemistry, chemical

Chas, Cheshire

Chev, Fr Chevalier, knight

Chin, China, Chinese

ChJ, Chief Justice

ChM, Lat Chirurgiae Magister, Master of Surgery

Chmn, Chairman

chg, cheques

Chron, Chronicles (OT)

chron, chronology, chronological chrs, chambers

CI, (Imperial Order of the) Crown of India (for ladies), Channel Islands

Cicestr, Chichester, in signature of Bishop

CID, Criminal Investigation Department, Scotland Yard

CIE, Companion of the Indian Empire cifo, cost, insurance, freight, and commission

CIGS, Chief of the Imperial General Staff

CIMechE, Companion of the Institution of Mechanical Engineers

C-in-C, Commander in Chief circ, Lat circa, ciriter, circum, about cit, citation, cited

CIV, City Imperial Volunteers

CJ, Chief Justice

CL, Commander of the Order of Leopold (Belgium)

Cl, chlorine (chem)

cl, centilitre

Clar, Clarendon (printing type) class, classics, classical, classification

CLB, Church Lads' Brigade

cid, cleared (goods, shipping) coloured

CM, Lat Chirurgiae Magister, Master of Surgery, Church Missionary, Certificated Master, Corresponding Member, common metre (of hymns)cm, Lat causa mortis, by reason of death cm, centimetre

CMAA, Clergy Mutual Assurance Society

Cmd, Command Paper, from 1919 (see Cd) cmdg, commanding

CMG, Companion of St Michael and St George

CMR, Cape Mounted Rifles

CMS, Church Missionary Society

CO, Commanding Officer, Colonial Office, Crown Office, Criminal Office

Co, cobalt (chem)

Co, Company, County

c/o, care of

COD, cash on delivery

C of E, Church of England

C of GH, Cape of Good Hope

C of S, Chief of Staff

cogn, cognate

Col, Colossians (NT), Colonel

col, colony, colonial, colour(ed), college, column

Coll, College

coll, collective(ly)

collat, collateral

colloq, colloquial

Colo, Colorado (USA)

Coloss, Colossians (NT)

Col-Serjt, Colour Sergeant

Com, Commander, Commissioner, Committee, Commodore, Commonwealth, Communist comm, common, commune, commerce, communications, comedy, commentary, commission

Comdg, Commanding

Comdr, Commander

Comdt, Commandant

Com-in-C, Commander in Chief commero, commercial

Commn, Commission

Commr, Commissioner

comp, company, comparative, compare compositor, compound compar, comparative

Com Serj, Common Serjeant (City of London)

Comy-Gen, Commissary General

Con, Consul

con, Lat contra, against, cones conch, conchology

conf, Lat confer, compare

Cong, Congress, Congregation conj, conjunction, conjunctive, conjugation

Conn, Connecticut (USA)

conn, connected

Cons, Consul, Conservative cons, consonant

Conserv, Conservative

Consols, Consolidated Stock

constr, construction contr, contracted, contraction, contrary

Co-op, Co operative (Stores)

Cop, Copernican

COPEC (Copece), Conference on Politics, Economics, and Citizenship (Ch of Eng)

Copt, Coptic

Cor, Corinthians (NT), Coroner

Corn, Cornwall, Cornish

corol, corollary

Corp, Corporal, Corporation

correl, correlative

Corr Mem or Fell, Corresponding Member or Fellow (of a foreign learned society or academy) corrupt, corruption

COS, Charity Organisation Society cos, cosine

cosc, cosecant cosmog, cosmogony, cosmography coss, Lat consules, consuls cot, cotangent

cox, coxswain

CoY, Company

CP, Carriage Paid, Carter Paterson, Clerk of the Peace, Common Pleas, Central Provinces (India), Court of Probate

cp, candle power

cp, compare

CPC, Clerk of the Privy Council

Cpl, Corporal

CPR, Canadian Pacific Railway

CPRE, Council for the Preservation of Rural England

CPS, Lat Custos Privati Sigilli, Keeper of the Privy SealCR, Lat Carolus Rex, Charles, King, Caledonian Railway

Cr, chromium (chem)

Cr, Crown, credit(or) cr, created

cresc, crescendo (mus)

crim con, criminal conversation, i.e. adultery in old divorce law crystal, crystallography

CS, Chemical Society, Civil Service, Clerk to the Signet, Common Sergeant, Court of Session, Custos Sigilli, Keeper of the Seal

Cs, caesium (chem)

CSA, Confederate States of America, Confederate States Army

CSC, Conspicuous Service Cross

CSI, Companion of the Star of India

CSM, Company Sergeant-Major

CSSA, Civil Service Supply Association

CT, Certificated Teacher, Commercial Traveller

Ct, Count, Court

ct, caught (cricket), cent

CTC, Cyclists' Touring Club

Cte, Fr Comte, CountCtesse, Fr Comtesse, CountessCu, Lat cuprum, copper (chem)

CUAC, Cambridge University Athletics Club

CUAFC, Cambridge University Association Football Club

cub, cubic

CUBC, Cambridge University Boat Club

CUC, Cambridge University Cricket Club

CUGC, Cambridge University Golf Club

CUHC, Cambridge University Hockey Club cum, cumulative

Cumb, Cumberland

cum div, with dividend

Cum Pref, Cumulative Preference (shares)

CUMS, Cambridge University Musical Society cur, current, currency

CURFC, Cambridge University Rugby Football Club

CVO, Commander of the Royal Victorian Order cwo, cash with order

CWS, Co operative Wholesale Society cwt, hundredweight cyl, cylinder

Cym, Cymric

D, Roman numeral, 500

D, Don, Dom, Lat Deus, Godd, date, daughter, delete, Lat denarius, penny, pence, died, dollar

d—, damn

D(A)AG, Deputy (Assistant) Adjutant-General

dag, decagramme

DAH, disordered action of the heart

Dak, Dakota (USA)

dal, decalitre dam, decametre

Dan, Daniel (OT), Danah

DAQMG, Deputy Assistant Quarter-master General dat, date

dau, daughter

db, day book

DEE, Dame Commander of the British Empire

dbk, drawback

DC, District of Columbia (USA), direct current (elect)

DC, Ital da capo (mus), repeat from the beginning

DCL, Doctor of Civil Law

DCLI, Duke of Cornwall's Light Infantry

DCM, Distinguished Conduct Medal

DCS, Deputy Clerk of Session

D D, Doctor of Divinity D D, d d, Lat dono dedit, gave as a gift d—d, damned
 D D D, Lat dai, dicit, dedicat, gives, devotes, and dedicates D D S, Doctor of Dental Surgery deb, debenture Dec, December, Decorated (arohit), Decant (of choir) dec, deceased dec(l), declension Def, Deferred (stocks or shares), Defendant def, definite, definition deg, degree Del, Delaware (U S A) del(e), delete del(t), Lat delineavit, he (she) drew (it).
 Dem, Democrat
 demon(s), demonstrative D Eng, Doctor of Engineering Dent, dental, dentistry, dentist dep, departs (of train &c), deputy, department dep(t), department deriv, derivation
 Deut, Deuteronomy
 D F, Lat defensor fidei, Defender of the Faith, usually F D, Dean of the Faculty, direction finding D F C, Distinguished Flying Cross D F M, Distinguished Flying Medal dft, defendant, draft D G, Lat Dei gratia, by the grace of God, Lat Deo gratias, thanks to God, Director-General, Dragoon Guards dg, decigramme dial, dialect diam, diameter
 D I C, Diploma of the Imperial College. dict, dictionary diff, differ, difference, different dim, diminuendo (mus) dimin, diminutive Dioc, Diocese, Diocesan.
 Dir, Director
 dis, disc(t), discount Dist, District
 dist, distinguish(ed) Div, Division (army) div, dividend, division D L, Deputy-Lieutenant dl, declitre
 D L I, Durham Light Infantry
 D Lit, Doctor of Literature D Litt, (at Aberdeen) Doctor of Letters D L O, Dead Letter Office (now R L O, Returned Letter Office) D M, Doctor of Medicine, now usually M D, Deputy Master dm, decimetre
 D M R E, Diploma in Medical Radiology and Electorology D Mus, Doctor of Music, now Mus D(oc) D N B, Dictionary of National Biography do, ditto, the same doc, document
 D O M, Lat Deo optimo maximo, to God the best and greatest Dom, Lat Dominus, Lord, Master, Dominion D O M S, Diploma in Ophthalmic Medicine and Surgery Dor, Doric
 D O R A, Defence of the Realm Act(s) doz, dozen(s) D P, double pole
 D P H, Diploma in, Department of, Public Health D Ph, Doctor of Philosophy, usually Ph D D Phil, Doctor of Philosophy D P I, Director of Public Instruction D P O, Distributing Post Office dpt, department
 D Q M G, Deputy Quartermaster General
 D R, dead reckoning Dr, Doctor, debtor dr, drachm, drawer (banking) dram pers, Lat dramatis personae, characters of the play.

D S, Ital dal segno (mus), from the sign d s, days after sight (on bills of exchange) D S C, Distinguished Service Cross D Sc, Doctor of Science D S M, Distinguished Service Medal D S O, Distinguished Service Order d s p, Lat decessit sine prole, died without issue D T, (colloq) delirium tremens D Theol, Doctor of Theology D T M, Diploma in Tropical Medicine Du, Dutch
 Dunelm, Durham, in signature of Bishop D V, Lat Deo volente, God willing D V M, Doctor of Veterinary Medicine d v p, Lat decessit vitæ patris, died during life time of father D V S, Doctor of Veterinary Science or Surgery dwt, pennyweight dyn, dynamics
 D Z, Doctor of Zoology
 E, erbium (chem)
 E, earth, east, eastern (London postal district), second class ship at Lloyd's, Egyptian, in £E ea, each E & O E, errors and omissions excepted (mercantile) E B, Encyclopædia Britannica Ebor, fr Lat Eboracensis, of Eboracum, York, in signature of Archbishop E C, east central (London postal district) Eccl(es), Ecclesiastes (O T) eccl(es), ecclesiastical Ecclus, Ecclesiastics (O T, Apoc) econ, economics E C U, English Church Union ed, edited, edition, editor Edin, Edinburgh
 edit, edited, edition, editor E D S, English Dialect Society eds, editors educ, education Edw, Edward E E, Envoy Extraordinary, errors excepted (mercantile) E E T S, Early English Text Society e g, Lat exempli gratia, for example Egyptol, Egyptology
 E I, East Indian, East Indies, East India E I C, East India Company ejusd, Lat ejusdem, of the same el, elected eld, eldest elect, electricity Eliz, Elizabeth, Elizabethan Elz, Elzevir
 E M D P, electromotive difference of potential E M F, electromotive force Emp, Emperor, Empress
 E M U, electromagnetio units Ency, Encyclop(a)edia
 E N E, east north east Eng, England, English eng, engineer, engineering, engraver, engraving engin, engineering Engl, English
 ent(om), entomology, entomological Ent Sta Hall, Entered at Stationers' Hall Env Extr, Envoy Extraordinary Ep, Epistle
 E P D, Excess Profits Duty Eph, Ephesians (N T) Epiph, Epiphany
 episc, episcopal eq, equal, equivalent equiv, equivalent E R, East Riding, Yorkshire E R (et I), Lat Eduardus Rex (et Imperator), Edward King (and Emperor) eschat, eschatology E S E, east south-east esp(ce), especially Esq(re), Esquire.

est(ab), established Esth, Esther (O T)
 E S U, electrostatic units et al, Lat et alibi, and elsewhere, et alia, and other things, et alii, and other people E T C, Eastern Telegraph Co etc, Lat et cetera, and (the) other things eth, ethics, ethical ethnol, ethnology, ethnological et seq, et sqq, Lat et sequens, et sequentia, and the following E T U, Electrical Trades Union etymol, etymology, etymological euphem, euphemism, euphemistically.
 Ex, Exodus (O T) ex, examined, example, except exam, examination Exc, Excellency
 exc, except exc, Lat excudit, he (she) engraved (it) ex div, ex dividend Exod, Exodus (O T) ex off, Lat ex officio, by virtue of office Exon, Exeter, in signature of Bishop exor, executor exp, export, exporter Ez, Ezra (O T)
 Ezek, Ezekiel (O T)
 F, firm (of pencils) F, Fahrenheit, French
 f, fathmg, fathom, foot, filly, folio, franc f, Ital forte, loud (mus) F A, Football Association f a a, free of all average facet, facetious F A C S, Fellow of the American College of Surgeons fac(s), facsimile
 F A G S, Fellow of the American Geographical Society Fahr, Fahrenheit
 F A I, Fellow of the Auctioneers' Institute F A L P A, Fellow of the Incorporated Society of Auctioneers and Landed Property Agents F A S, Fellow of the Society of Arts, do of the Antiquarian Society (Edinburgh), do of the Anthropological Society f a s, free alongside ship FB, Fire Brigade, Feman Brotherhood, Free Baptist F B A, Fellow of the British Academy FBH, fire brigade hydrant F B I, Federation of British Industries
 F B S, Fellow of the Botanical Society, F B S E, do of the Botanical Society of Edinburgh F C, Football Club, Free Church (Scotland) F C A, Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants fcap, foolscap
 F C G I, Fellow of the City and Guilds of London Institute F C I I, Fellow of the Chartered Insurance Institute F C I S, Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Secretaries F C O, Fellow of the College of Organists, now F R C O F C P, Fellow of the College of Preceptors fcp, foolscap
 F C S, Fellow of the Chemical Society
 F D, Lat fidei defensor, Defender of the Faith, also D F Fe, Lat ferum, iron (chem) Feb(y), February fec, Lat fecit, he (she) did, made (it) fed, federal, federated F E I S, Fellow of the Educational Institute of Scotland fem, feminine F E S, Fellow of the Entomological Society, Fellow of the Ethnological Society feud, feudal(fism) ff, folios, following pages ff, Ital fortissimo very loud (mus) F F A, Fellow of the Faculty of Actuaries.

ty, faithfully FG, Foot Guards
fga, free of general average FGS, Fellow of the Geological Society FH, fire hydrant
FIA, Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries FIAA, Fellow Architect Member of the Incorporated Association of Architects and Surveyors FIAS, Fellow Surveyor Member of the Incorporated Association of Architects and Surveyors FIA T, Ital Fabrica Italiana Automobile Torino, make of motor car FIC, Fellow of the Institute of Chemistry FICA, Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants FICS, Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers FID, Fellow of the Institute of Directors Fid Def, Lat fidei defensor, Defender of the Faith fi fa, Lat fieri facias (law) fig, figure (illustration), figurative(ly) FI Inst, Fellow of the Imperial Institute FIJ, Fellow of the Institute of Journalists fin, financial, final, finished Finn, Finnish
F Inst P, Fellow of the Institute of Physics FIO, Fellow of the Institute of Ophthalmic Opticians FIP I, Fellow of the Institute of Patentees (Inc) FISA, Fellow of the Incorporated Secretaries Association FISE, Fellow of the Institution of Structural Engineers FJI, Fellow of the Institute of Journalists FK Q (L), Fellow of King's College (London) FL, florino (chem) fl, flora fl, Lat floruit, he (she) flourished, lived f l, Lat falsa lectio, false reading (of MS &c) FLA, Fellow of the Library Association Fla, Florida (USA)
FLAA, Fellow of the London Association of Accountants FLAS, Fellow of the Land Agents' Society Flem, Flemish flor, Lat floruit, he (she) flourished, lived FLS, Fellow of the Linnean Society FM, Field Marshal
f m, fathom FMS, Federated Malay States FO, Foreign Office, Field Officer, full organ (mus) fo, folio fo b, free on board fol, folio, following foli, following fo r, free on rail fort, fortification FP, fire plug, field punishment fp, foot-pound, foolscap fp, Ital forte piano, loud and soft (mus) fpa, free of particular average F Phys S, Fellow of the Physical Society FPS, Fellow of the Philosophical Society, Fellow of the Philharmonic Society, Fellow of the Philological Society Fr, Father, France, French, Friar fr, franc, from FR A I, Fellow of the Royal Anthropological Institute FRAM, Fellow of the Royal Academy of Music FRAS, Fellow of the Royal Aeronautical Society FRAS, Fellow of the Royal Astronomical Society, Fellow of the Royal Asiatic Society FRBS, Fellow of the Royal Botanic Society FRCI, Fellow of the Royal Colonial Institute FR CM, Fellow of the Royal College of Music FR CO, Fellow of the Royal College of Organists FRCP, Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians, FRCP E, do of Edinburgh, FRCP I, do of Ireland FRCS, Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons, FRCS E, do of Edinburgh, FRCSI, do of Ireland FR CVS, Fellow of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons FR Econ Soc, Fellow of the Royal Economic Society

-freq, frequentative, frequently FR FPS, Fellow of the Royal Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons FRGS, Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society FR Hist S, Fellow of the Royal Historical Society FR Hort S, Fellow of the Royal Horticultural Society Fri, Friday
FRIBA, Fellow of the Royal Institute of British Architects Fris, Frisian
Frisco, San Francisco, California
Frl, Frilium
FR Met S, Fellow of the Royal Meteorological Society FRMS, Fellow of the Royal Microscopical Society FRNSA, Fellow of the Royal Naval School of Architects FRPS, Fellow of the Royal Photographic Society FRPSL, Fellow of the Royal Philatelic Society, London FRS, Fellow of the Royal Society FRSA, Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts FRSAI, Fellow of the Royal Society of Antiquaries of Ireland FR San I, Fellow of the Royal Sanitary Institute FRSE, Fellow of the Royal Society of Edinburgh FRSGS, Fellow of the Royal Scottish Geographical Society FRSL, Fellow of the Royal Society of Literature FRSS, Fellow of the Royal Statistical Society FRSSA, Fellow of the Royal Scottish Society of Arts FRUI, Fellow of the Royal University of Ireland FS, Fleet Surgeon
fs, foot second FSA, Fellow of the Society of Antiquaries, Fellow of the Society of Arts FSA A, Fellow of the Society of Incorporated Accountants and Auditors FSI, Fellow of the Surveyors' Institute FSR, Field Service Regulations FSS, Fellow of the Statistical Society, now FRSS ft, foot, feet FTCD, Fellow of Trinity College, Dublin FTCL, Fellow of Trinity College (of Music), London fur, furlong fut, future FWB, four wheel brake, Free Will Baptist FW D, four wheel drive FZS, Fellow of the Zoological Society of London, FZS Scot, do of Scotland g, gauge, gramme
GA, General Assembly
Ga, Georgia (USA)
Ga, gallium (chem)
Gael, Gaelic
Gal, Galatians (NT)
gal, gallon Gaul, Gaulish gaz, gazette, gazetteer GB, Great Britain
GB & I, Great Britain and Ireland GB E, Knight (or Dame) Grand Cross of the British Empire GC, Grand Chaplain, Grand Chapter (free masonry)

GCB, Knight Grand Cross of the Bath GC C, Gonville and Caius College, Cambridge GCF, greatest common factor GCH, Knight Grand Cross of Hanover G C I E, Knight Grand Commander of the Indian Empire G C L H, Knight Grand Cross of the Legion of Honour GCM, greatest common measure GCM G, Knight Grand Cross of St Michael and St George GCR, Great Central Railway, now part of LNE (R) GCSI, Knight Grand Commander of the Star of India G C V O, Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Victorian Order Gdns, Gardens
Gds, Guards
Ge, germanium (chem)
Gen, General, Genesis (OT) gen, gender, genus, general(ly), generic geneal, genealogy genit, genitive Genl, General
Geo, George
geod, geodary geog, geography geol, geology
geom, geometry
GER, Great Eastern Railway, now part of LNE (R) ger, gerund
German, German, Germany
GFS, Girls' Friendly Society GFTU, General Federation of Trade Unions GG, Grenadier Guards
g gr, great gross, 144 dozens G HQ, General Headquarters Gib, (colloq), Gibraltar GJC, Grand Junction Canal Gk, Greek
GL, Grand Lodge (freemasonry)
Gl, glaucinum (chem) Glam, Glamorganshire Glos, Gloucestershire gloss, glossary Gloster, Gloucester
Gloucs, Gloucestershire GM, Grand Master (orders of knighthood and freemasonry), Gold Medalist (Hisley) gm, gramme
GMB, Great Master of the Bath, good merchantable brand (of metals) Gmo, Germanic
GMI E, Grand Master of the Indian Empire GMM G, Grand Master of St Michael and St George GMSI, Grand Master of the Star of India GMT, Greenwich Mean Time
G NR, Great Northern Railway G O, General Order
GOC, General Officer Commanding, G O C in C, do in Chief GOM, Grand Old Man (originally of W E Gladstone) GOP, Girls' Own Paper
Goth, Gothic
Gov, Governor
Gov -Gen, Governor General Govt, Government
GP, general practitioner (doctor), general paralysis of the insane (also GPI), Lat Gloria Patri, Glory to the Father GPDST, Girls' Public Day School Trust GPI, general paralysis of the insane GPM, Grand Past Master (freemasonry) GPO, General Post Office GR, General Reserve
GR (et I), Lat Georgius Rex (et Imperator), George, King (and Emperor) Gr, Greek
gr, gramme, grain gram, grammar Gr Gds, Grenadier Guards
grm, gramme GS, General Staff, General Service gs, grandson mag, magazine mag(n), magnetism, magneto M Agr(1c), Master of Agriculture (U S A) Maj, Major

 Maj-Gen, Major-General
 Mal, Malachi (O T)
 Malay, Malayan Manoun, Lat Mancunium, Manchester, in signature of Bishop Man(it), Manitoba (Canada) manuf, manufactured, manufacturer, manufacturing, manufactory Mar, March
 mar, married
 March, Marchioness Marq, Marquess
 masc, masculine Mass, Massachusetts (U S A) math(s), mathematics matric, matriculation Matt, Matthew (N T)
 M B, Lat Medicinae Baccalaureus, Bachelor of Medicine
 M B E, Member of the British Empire M B W, Metropolitan Board of Works (obs, now L C C) M C, Master of Ceremonies, Member of Congress, Member of Council, Military Cross M C C, Marylebone Cricket Club M Ch, Lat Magister Chirurgiae, Master of Surgery
 Moh, March
 M Ch D, Master of Dental Surgery
 M Ch Orth, Master of Orthopaedic Surgery M Com, Master of Commerce (Birmingham) M Comm, Master of Commerce and Administration (Manchester)
 M C P, Member of the College of Preceptors M C S, Madras Civil Service, Malay Civil Service
 M D, Lat Medicinae Doctor, Doctor of Medicine
 Md, Maryland (U S A) Middx, Middlesex
 Middle, See Mile
 Mme, See Mme
 M D S, Master in Dental Surgery
 M Du, Middle Dutch Midx, Middlesex
 M E, Methodist Episcopal, Middle English, Mining (Mechanical) Engineer Me, Maine (U S A) Me, Fr maître, title applied to barristers, etc meas, measure
 M E C, Member of Executive Council mech(an), mechanical, mechanics Med, Mediaeval med, medical, medicine Medit, Mediterranean (Sea)
 M E F, Mediterranean Expeditionary Force (Great War)
 mem, Lat memento, remember; memorandum memo, Lat memorandum, to be remembered M Eng, Master of Engineering M ès A, Fr Maître ès Arts, Master of Arts Messrs, Fr Messieurs, Gentlemen, also as pl of Mr Met, Metropolitan metal(l), metallurgy metaph, metaphorical, metaphysical, metaphysics meteor, meteorology Meth(od), Methodist
 meton, metonymy Met R, Metropolitan Railway mf, Ital mezzo forte (mus), moderately loud M F B, Metropolitan Fire Brigade (obs, now L C C) mid, manufactured mfg, manufacturing
 M F H, Master of Fox Hounds
 M F N, Most Favoured Nation M Fr, Middle French
 m g, machine-gun mg, milligramme
 M G C, Machine Gun Corps
 M G G S, Major General, General Staff Mgr, Ital Monsignor, of Papal dignitaries

M H A, Member of House of Assembly M H G, Middle High German M H K, Member of the House of Keys (Isle of Man)
 mho, unit of conductivity, reciprocal of the ohm (elect)
 M H R, Member of the House of Representatives
 M Hy, Master of Hygiene M I, Mounted Infantry
 Mic, Micah (O T)
 M I G E, Member of the Institution of Civil Engineers
 Mich, Michaelmas, Michigan (U S A) M I E E, Member of the Institution of Electrical Engineers
 M I J, Member of the Institute of Journalists mil, military, militia Mil Att, Military Attaché M I Mar E, Member of the Institute of Marine Engineers
 M I M E, Member of the Institution of Mechanical Engineers, Member of the Institution of Mining Engineers M I Mech E, Member of the Institution of Mechanical Engineers M I Min E, Member of the Institution of Mining Engineers
 M I M M, Member of the Institution of Mining and Metallurgy Min, Minister, Ministry min, mineralogy, mining, minute M I N A, Member of the Institution of Naval Architects mineral, mineralogy Minn, Minnesota (U S A) Min Plen, Minister Plenipotentiary M Inst C E, Member of the Institution of Civil Engineers
 M Inst E E, Member of the Institution of Electrical Engineers
 M Inst Mar E, Member of the Institute of Marine Engineers
 M Inst Mech E, Member of the Institution of Mechanical Engineers M Inst Met, Member of the Institute of Metals
 M Inst Min E, Member of the Institution of Mining Engineers M Inst M M, Member of the Institution of Mining and Metallurgy muso, miscellaneous, miscellany Miss, Mississippi (U S A) M J I, Member of the Institute of Journalists, now commonly M I J M J S, Member of the Japan Society mk, mark (com) mkt, market ml, millilitre
 M L A, Member of the Legislative Assembly, Modern Language Association M L C, Member of the Legislative Council M L G, Middle Low German Mlle, Fr Mademoiselle
 M L S B, Member of the London School Board (obs)
 M M, Master Mason, Military Medal MM, Majesties, Fr Messieurs mm, millimetre Mme, Fr Madame
 Mn, manganese (chem)
 M O, Medical Officer, Money Order Mo, molybdenum (chem) Mo, Missouri (U S A) mo, month
 Mod, Modern
 Mods, Moderations (Oxford University) M O H, Master of Otter Hounds, Medical Officer of Health, Ministry of Health mol wt, molecular weight Mon, Monday, Monmouthshire Mons, Fr Monsieur
 Mont, Montana (U S A) M O O, Money Order Office morph(ol), morphology M P, Member of Parliament, Metropolitan Police, Military Police m p, melting-point mp, Ital mezzo piano (mus), moderately soft M Ph, Master of Philosophy (U S A) m p h, miles per hour M P S, Member of the Pharmaceutical Society, do of the Philological Society, do of the Physical Society M R, Master of the Rolls, Midland Railway, now part of L M S (R), Municipal Reform Party, L O C

 Mr, Mister
 M R A S, Member of the Royal Academy of Science, Member of the Royal Asiatic Society
 M R C C, Member of the Royal College of Chemistry
 M R C P, Member of the Royal College of Physicians, M R C P E, do of Edinburgh, M R C P I, do of Ireland M R C S, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, M R C S E, do of Edinburgh, M R C S I, do of Ireland M R C V S, Member of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons M R G S, Member of the Royal Geographical Society
 M R I, Member of the Royal Institution
 M R I A, Member of the Royal Irish Academy
 Mrs, Mistress
 M R S L, Member of the Royal Society of Literature
 M R U S I, Member of the Royal United Service Institution
 M S, Master in Surgery, Military Secretary m s, month's sight MS, manuscript
 M S A, Master of Science and Art (U S A), Member of the Society of Arts M S C, Madras Staff Corps, Medical Staff Corps
 M Sc, Master of Science
 M S H, Master of Stag Hounds M S I, Member of the Sanitary Institute, Member of the Surveyors' Institution M S L, mean sea level MSS, manuscripts
 M T, mechanical transport Mt, mount(am) M'ter, Manchester
 mth, month Mt Rev, Most Reverend
 mus, music, museum Mus B(ao), Bachelor of Music Mus D(oc), Doctor of Music Mus M, Master of Music
 M V, motor vessel
 M V O, Member of the Royal Victorian Order
 M W, Most Worshipful, Most Worthy M W B, Metropolitan Water Board M W G M, Most Worshipful (Worthy)
 Grand Master (freemasonry)
 Mx, Middlesex
 myth(ol), mythological, mythology N, nitrogen (chem)
 N, Nationalist, New, north n, neuter, nominative, noon, noun N A, Nautical Almanac, North America(n) Na, Lat natrium, sodium (chem) n/a, no account (on cheques) Nah, Nahm (O T)
 N A S, National Academy of Science, U S A Nat, National, Nationalist, Natal nat hist, natural history Nat Ord, Natural Order nat phil, natural philosophy nat sc, natural science naut, nautical nav, naval, navigating, navigation, navy NB, New Brunswick, North Britain, North British, Lat nota bene, note well n.b, no ball (cricket)
 Nb, niobium (chem)
 N B A, North British Academy N B R, North British Railway, now part of L N E (R) N C, North Carolina (U S A) n c, nitro cellulose

N C C V D, National Council for Combating Venereal Diseases N C O, non commissioned officer N C U, National Cyclists' Union n d, no date, not dated (on cheques &c) N Dak, North Dakota (U S A) N D L, Norddeutscher Lloyd (German steamship company) N E, New England, no effects (banking, on cheques), north east, north eastern (London postal district) Ne, neon (chem)
 Neb(r), Nebraska (U S A) N E D, New English Dictionary, see O E D neg, negative Neh, Nebamah (O T)
 nem con, Lat nemine contradicente, no one contradicting nem dis, Lat nemine dissentiente, nobody dissenting N E R, North Eastern Railway, now part of L N E (R) Neth, Netherlands neut, neuter, neutral Nev, Nevada (U S A) N F, Newfoundland, Norman French Nfld, Nfld, Newfoundland N H, New Hampshire (U S A) N Heb, New Hebrides
 n h p, nominal horse power N H R U, National Home Reading Union N H Rules, National Hunt Rules N I, Native Infantry, Northern Ireland Ni, nickel (chem) N I D, Naval Intelligence Department n l pr, Lat nisi prius (law) N J, New Jersey (U S A) N L, National Liberal, Navy League N L C, National Liberal Club N L F, National Liberal Federation N L I, National Lifeboat Institution n m, nautical mile(s) N Mex, New Mexico (U S A) N N E, north north east N N W, north north west N O, Natural Order (bot and zool), New Orleans (U S A) n o, not out (cricket) No, numero, number N O D, Naval Ordnance Department nol pros, Lat nolle prosequi (law) nom(in), nominative, nominal Non-Coll, Non Collegiate non com, non commissioned (officer) Noncon, Nonconformist non obst, Lat non obstante, notwithstanding non pros, Lat non prosequitur, he does not prosecute non seq, Lat non sequitur, it does not follow n o p, not otherwise provided Norm, Norman
 Northants, Northamptonshire Northumb, Northumberland Norvic, Norwich, in signature of Bishop Norw, Norway, Norwegian Nos, numbers
 Notts, Nottinghamshire
 Nov, November
 N P, Notary Public
 n p, new paragraph N P D, North Polar distance N P L, National Physical Laboratory N R, North Riding (Yorkshire) nr, near N R A, National Rifle Association
 N S, New Style, of Gregorian Calendar, Nova Scotia, Lat non satis, not sufficient (funds) on cheques, do (in excellence) on examination papers &c N S A, National Skating Association N S I C, Noster Salvator Jesus Christus (Our Saviour Jesus Christ) N S L, National Service League, National Sunday League N S P C G, National Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Children N S Trip, Natural Science Tripos (Cambridge University) N S W, New South Wales (Australia)

N T, New Testament, Northern Territory (Australia) Nthn, northern N U, Northern Union (Rugby football) n u, name unknown
 N U J, National Union of Journalists Num., Numbers (O T) num, numerals, number numus, numismatics
 N U R, National Union of Railwaymen N U S E C, National Union of Societies for Equal Citizenship N U T, National Union of Teachers N U W S S, National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies N U W T, National Union of Women Teachers N V, New Version
 N V M, Nativity of the Virgin Mary N W, north west, north western (London postal district) N W M P, North West Mounted Police (Canada), now R C M P N W P (rov), North West Provinces (India) N W T, North-Western Territories (Canada)
 N Y, New York (state, U S A) N Y C, New York City (U S A) N Y K, Jap Nippon Yusen Kaisha, Japan Mail Steamship Company N Z, New Zealand

O, oxygen (chem) O, Ohio (U S A), Old.
 o, over(s) (cricket)
 o/a, on account of O B, outside broadcast ob, Lat obit, (he) died.
 Obad, Obadiah (O T) obb, obligato (mus) obdt, obedient O B E, Officer of the British Empire obj, object, objection, objective obs, observation, obsolete absol(esc), obsolescent ob s p, Lat obit sine prole, died without issue obstet, obstetrics O C, Officer Commanding, Old Catholic o'clock, o'clock Oct, October
 oct, octavo
 O D, Old Dutch, Ordnance Data O Dan, Old Danish
 O E, Old English, Old Etonian O E D, Oxford English Dictionary O F, Odd Fellows, Old French off, offered, office, official, official. offg, officiating offic, official
 O F M, Order of Friars Minor O Fr, Old French
 O Fris, Old Frisian
 O F S, Orange Free State
 O H B M S, On His (Her) Britannic Majesty's Service O H G, Old High German
 O H L, Oxford Higher Local (examinations) O H M S, On His (Her) Majesty's Service O Ir, Old Irish
 O K, All Correct (ord k'rect) Okla, Oklahoma (U S A) O L, Officer of the Order of Leopold, Belgium Ol, Olympiad
 O L G, Old Low German Olym, Olympiad
 O M, Order of Merit
 O M I, Oblate of Mary Immaculate O N, Old Norse
 onomat, onomatopoeia Ont, Ontario
 O P, Old Playgoers (club), Old Prices (theatre hut), opposite prompt (side, in theatre), Order of Preachers, out of print (of books) o p, over proof (spirit) op, Lat opus, a work op cit, Lat opere citato, in the work cited o ply, (signalers' slang) observation post o p n, Lat ora pro nobis, pray for us opp, opposes, opposite opt, Lat optimus, best, optime (adv), optative, optics, optical, optional O R, Official Receiver, Official Referee Or, Orient(al)

 orat, oratorical, oratory O R C, Orange River Colony (now O F S), Order of the Red Cross ord, ordained, order, ordinary, ordnance Ore(g), Oregon (U S A) orig, original(ly) ornith, ornithology ore, others
 Os, osmium (chem)
 O S, Old Saxon, Old Style (Julian Calendar), Order of Servites, ordinary seaman, Ordnance Survey o s, only son
 O S A, Order of St Augustine
 O S B, Order of St Benedict O S D, Order of St Dominic O S F, Order of St Francis O Slav, Old Slavonic
 O S N C, Orient Steam Navigation Company o s p, Lat obit sine prole, died without issue O Swed, Old Swedish
 O T, Old Testament
 O T C, Officers' Training Corps
 O U A C, Oxford University Athletic Club O U A F C, Oxford University Association Football Club O U B C, Oxford University Boat Club O U C C, Oxford University Cricket Club O U D S, Oxford University Dramatic Society O U G C, Oxford University Golf Club O U H C, Oxford University Hockey Club O U R F C, Oxford University Rugby Football Club Oxon, Oxfordshire, Oxford University, Oxford, in signature of Bishop oz, ounce(s)

P, phosphorus (chem)
 P, Pawn (chess), Progressive (party, I C C), President p, page, participle, past, perch, punt, population p, Ital piano, soft (mus) Pa, Pennsylvania (U S A) P A, Press Association p a, per annum paint, painting Pal, Palestine pal, palaeography, palaeontology palaeog, palaeography palaeont, palaeontology P & O, Peninsular and Oriental (steamship line) par, paragraph, parallel, parenthesis, parish parl, parliament, parliamentary pars, paragraphs part, participle, particular P A S I, Professional Associate of the Surveyors' Institution pass, passive P A T A, Proprietary Articles Trade Association path(ol), pathology Pat Off, Patent Office
 Paym, Paymaster
 Paym -Gen, Paymaster-General payt, payment
 P B, Lat Pharmacopoeia Britannica, British Pharmacopoeia, Plymouth Brother, Brethren, Prayer Book, Primitive Baptist(s) Pb, Lat plumbum, lead (chem) P C, Privy Council(lor), Police Constable, Perpetual Curate p o, Lat per centum, by the hundred, post card P C R C, Poor Clergy Relief Corporation P C S, Principal Clerk of Session P D, potential difference Pd, palladium (chem) pd, paid
 P D A D, Probate, Divorce, and Admiralty Division pdr., pounder (of gun, fish &c) P.E., Protestant Episcopal, Presiding Elder ped, pedal (mus.), pedestrian P.E.F., Palestine Exploration Fund.

P.E.I., Prince Edward Island pen(in), peninsula Penn., Pennsylvania (U.S.A.) Pent, Pentateuch per an, Lat per annum, per year, yearly. per cent, Lat per centum, per hundred perf, perfect, perforated (stamps) perh., perhaps per pro(o), Lat per procuracionem, by proxy, as agent &c Pers, Persia; Persian pers, person
Peruv, Peruvian
Pet, Peter (N.T.)
Petriburg, Peterborough, in signature of Bishop petrol, petrology P.F., Procurator Fiscal pf, Ital piano-forte, soft, then loud (mus.) pfid, preferred
P.G., paying guest
P.G.A., Professional Golfers' Association
P.G.D., Past Grand Deacon (freemasonry) P.G.M., Past Grand Master (freemasonry) phar(m), pharmaceutical; pharmacist, pharmacology; pharmacy Ph.B., Bachelor of Philosophy.
Ph.D., Doctor of Philosophy Phil, Philippians (N.T.) phil, philosophy, philology Philem, Philemon (N.T.) philol, philology phil(os), philosophy, philosophical phon(et), phonetics phonog, phonography phot(og), photography Phr, phrase phren, phrenology phys, physios, physical, physician, physicist, physiology physiol, physiology pinx, Lat pinxit, he (she) painted (it) pk, pack P.L., Primrose League, Post Laureate, Lat Pharmacopoeia Londinensis, London Pharmacopoeia pl, place, plural, plate P.L.A., Port of London Authority P.L.C., Poor Law Commissioners Plan, Plenipotentiary
P.-L.-M., Paris-Lyon-Mediterranée (railway) Pl -N, Place-Name
plup(t), pluperfect
P.M., Post Master (freemasonry), Prime Minister, Police Magistrate, Postmaster, Provost Marshal p.m., Lat post meridiem, afternoon, Lat post mortem, autopsy (colloq.) pm, premium
P.M.G., Postmaster-General; Paymaster-General P.M.O., Principal Medical Officer p.n., promissory note pnxt, Lat pinxit, he (she) painted (it) P.O., Petty Officer (nav.), Postal Order, Post Office p.o.d., pay on delivery poet, poetry, poetical Pol, Poland, Polish pol, political pol econ, political economy. polit, political; politics P.O.O., Post Office Order P.O.P., (photog) printing out paper. pop, popular, population Port, Portugal, Portuguese pos, position, positive P.O.S.B., Post Office Savings Bank posit, position, positive poss(ess), possessive P.P., Parish Priest (R.C.), past participle, Lat Pastor Pastorum, Shepherd of the Shepherds, as title of the Pope, Past President, Lat Pater patriae, father of his country

P.P., per pro(o) pp, pages pp, Ital pianissimo, very soft (mus.) P.P.C., Fr, pour prendre congé, to take leave p.p.i., policy proof of interest (insurance) ppp, Ital pianississimo, as softly as possible (mus.) P.P.S., additional postscript P.R., Prize Ring (obs), Lat Populus Romanus, the Roman people, Proportional Representation Pr, Priest, Primitive, Prince, Provencal pr, pair, par, present, price, printer, pronoun P.R.A., President of the Royal Academy P.R.B., Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood P.R.C., Lat post Roman conditum, after the foundation of Rome P.R.C.A., President of the Royal Cambrian Academy Preb, Prebendary, prebend. prec, preceding pred, predicate, predicatively Pref, Preface, Preference, preferred (stock and shares). prat, prefix prelim, preliminary (examination) prem, premium
prep, preparation, preparatory (school &c), preposition Pres, President
pres, present, presumptive Presb, Presbyter; Presbyterian.
Pres Part, present participles pret, pretense prev, previously Pri, Private (mil.)
Prim, Primary, Primate, Primitive.
Prin, Principal print, printer, printing priv, private, privative
prem, premium
P.R.H.A., President of the Royal Hibernian Academy pro, professional (cricketer, footballer &c) Prob, Probate (Division and Law Reports) prob, probably Proc, Proceedings, Proctor Prof, Professor
From, promenade (concert), promontory pron, pronominal, pronoun, pronounced, pronunciation prop, properly, property, proprietary, proposition propr, proprietary, proprietor pros, prosody Prot, Protestant pro tem, Lat pro tempore, for the time being Prov, Provencal, Proverbs (O.T.), Province, Provost Provang, Provencal Prov G.M., Provincial Grand Master (freemasonry) provinc, provincial prov, Lat proximo, next month prox acc., Lat proxime accessit, he came next, as in examination for prize &c P.R.S., President of the Royal Society prs, pairs
P.R.S.A., President of the Royal Scottish Academy P.R.S.E., President of the Royal Society of Edinburgh Prus(s), Prussia, Prussian.
P.S., Permanent Secretary, Police Sergeant, Lat post scriptum, postscript, Privy Seal, prompt side (in theatre) p.s., (mil.) passed School (of Instruction).
Ps, Psalms (O.T.) P.S.A., Pleasant Sunday Afternoons (movement) p.s.a., Graduate of the Royal Air Force Staff College p.s.c., Graduate of the Military (or Naval) Staff College. pseud, pseudonym, pseudonymous P.S.N.C., Pacific Steam Navigation Co. psych, psychic, psychical psychol, psychological, psychology P.T., Physical Training, Pupil Teacher, post town Pt, platinum (chem.) pt, part, payment, punt(s) Pte, Private P.T.O., please turn over pub, publisher, published, publication, public, public house P.U.C., Lat post urbem conditam, after the foundation of the city (Rome) punct, punctuation

P.V., Priest Vicar
P.W.D., Public Works Department pwt, (usually dwt) pennyweight. pxt, Lat pinxit, he (she) painted (it) Q, queen, question, coulomb (elect) q, quasi, query, quintal Q.A.B., Queen Anne's Bounty Q.B., Queen's Bench, Queen's Bays (2nd Dragoon Guards) Q.B.D., Queen's Bench Division (law reports) Q.C., Queen's Counsel
q.d., Lat quasi dicat, as if one should say, Lat quasi dictum, as if said q.e., Lat quod est, which is Q.E.D., Lat quod erat demonstrandum, which was to be proved (applied to a geometrical or other theorem) Q.E.F., Lat quod erat faciendum, which was to be done (applied to a geometrical or other problem) Q.E.I., Lat quod erat inveniendum, which was to be found Q.F., quick firing (gun) Q.M., Quartermaster qin, Lat quomodo, by what means Q.M.A.A.C., Queen Mary's Army Auxiliary Corps (W.A.A.C.) Q.M.G., Quartermaster General Qmr, Quartermaster
Q.M.S., Quartermaster Sergeant qn, question qq v., Lat quas vide, which (things) see qr(s), quarter(s), quire(s) Q.S., Quarter Sessions
Q.T., (slang) on the quiet, in Phr on the strict Q.T., privately, in secret qt, quantity, quart(s) qto, quarto qu, Lat quasi, as if, quære, query quad, quadrangle, quadrant, quadrat, quadruple quart, quarterly
Q.U.B., Queen's University, Belfast.
Que, Quebec
Queensl, Queensland
quor, quorum quot, quotation, quoted q.v., Lat quod vide, which see (in references), Lat quantum vis, as much as you wish qy, query
R, Railway, Réaumur (therm.), Republican, Lat rex, king, regina, queen, in criminal action at law, right, river, rook or castle (chess), ohm, unit of electrical resistance r, right, rod, rood, run(s) (cricket), rupee R., Lat recipe (in medical prescriptions) R., rupee(s)
R.A., Royal Academician, Royal Academy, Rear-Admiral, Road Association, Royal Arch (freemasonry), Royal Artillery Ra, radium (chem.)
R.A.A., Royal Academy of Arts R.A.C., Royal Agricultural College, Royal Automobile Club, Royal Arch Chapter (freemasonry) rad, Lat radix, root (math), radical R-Adm, Rear-Admiral
R.A.E., Royal Air Force Establishment R.Ae.S., Royal Aeronautical Society
R.A.F., Royal Air Force, Royal Aircraft Factory R.A.G.C., Royal and Ancient Golf Club, St Andrews disclosed what was in it, i.e. exposed his thought to consist of a proton combined pants, n. Add c (slang, US orig) Phr a kick in the pants, i.e. on the buttocks, but rail rail, Ital rallentando, gradually slower (mus) R A M, Royal Academy of Music R A M C, Royal Army Medical Corps R A N, Royal Australian Navy R A O B, Royal Antediluvian Order of Buffaloes

R A O C, Royal Army Ordnance Corps R A P C, Royal Army Pay Corps R A S, Royal Agricultural Society, Royal Astronomical Society
R A S C, Royal Army Service Corps R A V C, Royal Army Veterinary Corps.
R B, Rifle Brigade
Rb, rabidum (chem)
R B A, Royal Society of British Artists R B S, Royal Society of British Sculptors R C, Red Cross, Roman Catholic, right centre (of stage) R C A, Royal Cambrian Academy, Academic ian, Royal Canadian Academy, Royal College of Art, Railway Clerks' Association.
R C I, Royal Colonial Institute (now R E S) R C M, Royal College of Music (London) R C M P, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, formerly N W M P.
R C N, Royal Canadian Navy
R C O, Royal College of Organists.
R C P, Royal College of Physicians R C S, Royal College of Surgeons, Royal Corps of Signals
R C V S, Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons
R D, Refer to drawer (on cheques); Royal Dragoons, Royal Naval Reserve (and Volunteer Reserve) Decoration, Rural Dean Rd, Road
R D C, Royal Defence Corps, Rural Dis trict Council
R D S, Royal Drawing Society, Royal Dublin Society
R D Y, Royal Dockyard R E, Royal Engineers, Royal Society of Painter Etchers and Engravers, Royal Ex change
Rear-Adm, Rear Admiral.
Rec, Recorder
rec, recipe recd, received.
recit, recitative (mus) recognis, recognizances (law). rect, rectified
red, reduced.
redupl, reduplicated Ref, Referee, Reformation ref, referred, reference, reformed.
Ref Ch, Reformed Church reid, referred red(ax), reflexive Reg, Lat regina, queen, Registrar, Register reg, registered, regular(ly) regd, registered Reg-Gen, Registrar General.
Reg Prof, Regius Professor Regt, Regent; regiment rel, religion, religious, relative. reliq, religion Reliq, Lat reliquiae, remains Rep, Representative, Republic. Report, Reporter
repr, reprinted Repub, Republic, Republican.
R E S, Royal Empire Society (formerly R C I)
res, reserve, resigned, resident, residence ret(d), retired, returned, retained R et I, Lat Rez (Regina) et Imperator (Imperator), King (Queen) and Emperor (Empress), in British Royal signature retur, retainer (law) Rev, Reverend, Revelation (N T), Review rev, revolution (mechan), reverse(d), re vised, revision, revenues Rev Var, Revised Version (Bible) R F, Fr République française, French Re public, Royal Finishers R F A, Royal Field Artillery R F C, Royal Flying Corps (now R.A.F.) R F u e, Royal Fusiliers R G A, Royal Garrison Artillery

1429

R G G, Royal Grenadier Guards.
R G S, Royal Geographical Society Rgt, regiment
R H, Royal Highlanders; Royal Highness Rh, rhodium (chem)
r h, right hand R H A, Royal Horse Artillery, Royal Hibernian Academy, Academician rhet, rhetoric, rhetorical R H G, Royal Horse Guards.
R Hist S, Royal Historical Society
R H S, Royal Humane Society, Royal Horticultural Society, Royal Historical Society
R I, Rhode Island (U.S.A.), Royal Institute (of Painters in Water Colours), Royal Institution
R I A, Royal Irish Academy R I B A, Royal Institute of British Archi tects
R I C, Royal Irish Constabulary
R I M, Royal Indian Marine R I P, Lat regressat in pace, may he (she) rest in peace rit(ard), Ital ritardando, gradually slower (mus)
R L O, Returned Letter Office R L S, Robert Louis Stevenson Rly, Railway
R M, Royal Marines, Resident Magistrate (Ireland), Royal Mail rm, ream R M A, Royal Military Academy (Wool wich); Royal Marine Artillery, Royal Military Asylum
R M C, Royal Military College (Sandhurst)
R Met S, Royal Meteorological Society
R M L I, Royal Marine Light Infantry R M S, Royal Mail Service, Royal Mail Steamer, Royal Microscopical Society; Royal Society of Miniature Painters R M S F, Royal Mail Steam Packet (Co).
R N, Royal Navy
R N A F, Royal Naval Air Force (now
R A F)
R N A S, Royal Naval Air Service (now
R A F)
R N A V, Royal Naval Artillery Volunteers.
R N D, Royal Naval Division R N L I, Royal National Lifeboat Institu tion.
R N R, Royal Naval Reserve.
R N V R, Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve
R O, Recruiting Office, Order, Recruiting Officer; Relieving Officer, Recruiting Officer; Returning Officer.
Ro, Lat recto, on the right hand page.
Robt, Robert
Roffen, Rochester, in signature of Bishop.
R of O, Reserve of Officers R O I, Royal Institute of Oil Painters Roma, Romans (N T), Rome, Roman, Romanes (lang) rom, roman type Rom Cath, Roman Catholic Roy, Royal
R P, Royal Society of Portrait Painters.
R P D, Regius Professor of Divinity, Lat Reverendissimus Doctor, Doctor of Political Sciences
r p m, revolutions per minute R P S, Royal Photographic Society rpt, report
R R, Right Reverend Rr, Rear
R R C, (Lady of) the Royal Red Cross R S, Royal Society
Rs, rupees
R S A, Royal Scottish Academy, Academic ian, Royal Society of Antiquaries R S D, Royal Society of Dublin R S E, Royal Society of Edinburgh R S F S R, Russian Socialist Federal Soviet Republic (Russia proper) R S Fus, Royal Scots Fusiliers R S L, Royal Society of Literature, Royal Society of London
R S M, Regimental Sergeant Major, Royal School of Mines, Royal Society of Medicine.

Scot

R S O, Railway Sub Office, Railway Sort ing Office R S P C A, Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals R S S, Lat Regius Societatis Socius, Fellow of the Royal Society R S V P, Fr repondez s'il vous plait, please reply
R S W, Royal Scottish Society of Painters in Water Colours
R/T, radio telegraphy
R T C, Royal Tank Corps Rt Hon., Right Honourable R T O, Railway Transport Officer Rt Rev, Right Reverend R T S, Religious Tract Society, Royal Toxophilite Society
R U, Rugby Union (football) Ru, ruthenium (chem)
R U I, Royal University of Ireland R U Rif, Royal Ulster Rifles R U S I, Royal United Service Institution R U S Mus, Royal United Service Museum.
Rus, Russia, Russian
R V, Revised Version, Rifle Volunteers
R V C, Rifle Volunteer Corps R V O, Royal Victorian Order R W, Right Worshipful, Worthy R W A, Royal West of England Academy R W D G M, Right Worshipful Deputy Grand Master (freemasonry)
R W G M, Right Worshipful Grand Master R W G S, Right Worthy Grand Secretary R W G T, Right Worthy Grand Templar, Right Worthy Grand Treasurer.
R W G W, Right Worthy Grand Warden R W S, Royal Society of Painters in Water Colours
R W S G W, Right Worshipful Senior Grand Warden
Rs, tens of rupees
Ry, Railway
R Y S, Royal Yacht Squadron
S, sulphur (chem)
S, Saint, Signor; Señor, Socialist, soprano, south s, second, shilling, singular, son, sub stantive
S A, Salvation Army, South Africa, South America, South Australia s a, Lat sine anno, without date S A C, Scottish Automobile Club S A E, Society of Automobile Engineers Salop, Shropshire
Sam, Samuel (O T)
S and M, Sodor and Man, in signature of Bishop
Sarum, Salisbury, in signature of Bishop S A S, Lat Societatis Antiquariorum Socius, Fellow of the Society of Antiquaries Sask, Saskatchewan
Sat, Saturday
S A T B, soprano, alto, tenor, bass.
S B, simultaneous broadcast Sb, Lat antimony, antimony (chem) S C, Lat senatus consultum, decree of the senate, South Carolina (U.S.A.) s c, small capital letters.
So, scandium (chem) so, scene (play), scruple (weight) sc, Lat scilicet, namely, being understood; Lat sculpit, he (she) engraved (it) Soand, Scandinavian S C A P A (Soapa), Society for Checking the Abuses of Public Advertising s caps, small capital letters Sc B, Lat Scientiae Baccalaureus, Bachelor of Science
Sc D, Lat Scientiae Doctor, Doctor of Science sch, scholar, school, schooner sched, schedule sci, science, scientific sci fa, Lat scire facias, do you cause to know (law) scil, Lat scilicet, namely, being understood S C L, Student of Civil Law S C M, Student Christian Movement.
Scot, Scotland, Scottish.

scr, scruple (weight) Script, Scripture Scrt, Sanscrit
 sculp, sculptor, sculpture sculps, Lat sculpsit, he (she) engraved (it) sculpt, sculptor, sculpture S D, Senior Deacon (freemasonry) s d, several dates s d, Lat sine die, without day (appointed), indefinitely sd, said
 S Dak, South Dakota (U S A) S D F, Social Democratic Federation S D P, Social Democratic Party S E, south east, south eastern (London postal district) Se, selenium (chem)
 S E & C R, South-Eastern and Chatham Railway, now part of S R Sec, Secretary sec, second Sec Leg, Secretary of Legation
 S E C R, South-Eastern and Chatham Railway, now part of S R sect, section secy, secretary sel, selected, selection Sem, Seminary, Semite Sen, Senator, Senate, Senator Sen Opt, Senior Optime senr, senior Sep(t), September, Septuagint, usually LXX seq, seqq, Lat sequens, sequentia, the following S E R, South-Eastern Railway, now part of S R ser, series
 Serb, Serbia, Serbian Serg(t), Sergeant Serj(t), Sergeant servt, servant
 S F, Sinn Féin
s f, Lat sub finem, towards the end sf, Ital sforzando, with sudden emphasis (mus) S F A, Scottish Football Association sfz, Ital sforzando, with sudden emphasis (music) S G, Solicitor General, specific gravity S G W, Senior Grand Warden (freemasonry) S H, School House
 sh, shilling shd, should s h p, shaft horse-power s h v, Lat sub hac voce, or hoc verbo, under this word Si, silicon (chem)
 S I C, specific inductive capacity sig, signature S I M, Sergeant Instructor of Musketry sim, similar(ly), simile sin, sine (trigonometry) sing, singular, single S J, Society of Jesus (Jesuits)
 S J C, Supreme Judicial Court (U S A) Skrt(t), Sanskrit
 S L, Sergeant-at-Law Slav, Slavonic, Slavic
s l p, Lat sine legitima prole, without legitimate offspring S M, Sergeant-Major, short metre, silver medallist (Bisley)
 S M Lond Soc, Lat Societas Medicae Londinensis Socius, Member of the London Medical Society
 S M M, Lat Santa Mater Maria, Holy Mother Mary S M O, Senior Medical Officer s m p, Lat sine mascula prole, without male issue S M T O, Senior Mechanical Transport Officer Sn, Lat stannum, tin (chem) S O, Staff Officer, Sub Office, Stationery Office s o, seller's option Soc, Society, Socialist sociol, sociology, sociological sol, solicitor, solution Sol -Gen, Solicitor-General.

Som, Somerset
 Song of Sol, Song of Solomon (O T) sop, soprano SOS, wireless code signal for ships &c in extreme distress sost(en), Ital sostenuto, sustained (mus) sov, sovereign S P, small paper (edition), small pica (typography), starting price (betting) s p, Lat sine prole, without issue Sp, Spain, Spanish
 Span, Spanish
 S P C A, Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, now R S P C A S P C C, Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, now N S P C C S P C K, Society for the Promotion of Christian Knowledge S P E, Society for Pure English spec, special, specification specif, specific(ally) S P G, Society for the Propagation of the Gospel sp gr, specific gravity spirit, spiritualism
 S P Q R, Lat Senatus Populusque Romanus, the Senate and People of Rome, small profits and quick returns S P R, Society for Psychical Research s p s, Lat sine prole superstitie, without surviving issue S P S P, St Peter and St Paul (papal seal) spt, seaport
 S P V D, Society for the Prevention of Venereal Diseases sq, square sq, Lat sequens, the following Sqd Ldr, Squadron Leader (R A F) sqn, squadron sqq, Lat sequentia, the following S R, Southern Railway Sr, strontium (chem) Sr, Senior, Senior
 S R I, Lat Sacrum Romanum Imperium, Holy Roman Empire
 S R S, Lat Societatis Regiae Socius, Fellow of the Royal Society S S, screw steamer, Secretary of State, steamship, Straits Settlements, Sunday School SS, Saints, (Collar of) Esses, Lat Sanctissimus, Most Holy S S C, Solicitor of the Supreme Court, Scotland; Lat Societas Sanctae Crucis, Society of the Holy Cross SS D, Lat Sanctissimus Dominus, Most Holy Lord (the Pope) S S E, south-south-east S S F A, Soldiers' and Sailors' Families Association S S J E, Society of St John the Evangelist S S U, Sunday School Union S S W, south-south-west St, Saint, Street, Strait st, stone (weight), stumped (cricket), stanza stet stacc, staccato (mus) Staffs, Staffordshire
 stat, statics, stationary, statistics, statute S T B, Lat Sacrae Theologiae Baccalaureus, Bachelor of Sacred Theology S T D, Lat Sacrae Theologiae Doctor, Doctor of Theology Ste, Fr Sainte, feminine of Saint stereo, stereotype ster(l), sterling St Ex, Stock Exchange
 stg, sterling Stnn, southern Stup, Stipendiary (magistrate)
 S T L, Lat Sacrae Theologiae Lector, Reader in Sacred Theology S T M, Lat Sacrae Theologiae Magister, Master of Sacred Theology stn, station
 S'ton, Southampton
 S T P, Lat Sacrae Theologiae Professor, Professor of Sacred Theology str, steamer, stroke car

S T S, Scottish Text Society sub, subaltern, subject, submarine boat, subscription, substatute, suburb subj, subject, subjective, subjectively, subjunctive subst, substantive, substatute suc(c), succeeded, successor suff, sufficient, suffix Suff(r), Snuffragan sug(g), suggested, suggestion Sun, Sunday sup, superior, supreme, supplement sup, Lat supra, above super, superintendent, supernumerary. superl, superlative suppl(l), supplement, supplementary supr, anprame supt, superintendent surg, surgeon, surgery, surgical Surg -Gen, Surgeon-General Surr, Surrogate
 surv, surveying, surveyor, surviving Surv -Gen, Surveyor-General sus per col(l), Lat suspensio per collum, hanging by the neck (as capital punishment) S V, Lat Sancta Virgo, Holy Virgin, Lat Sanctus Vespera, Your Holiness
s. v., Lat sub voce, under the word, heading &c S W, Senior Warden (freemasonry), south-west, south-western (London postal district) Sw, Swed, Sweden, Swedish S W G, standard wire gauge Swit, Switzerland
 S Y, steam yacht syll, syllable sym, symbol, symphony syn, synonym, synonyms syst, system
 T, tenor, Turkish, in £T t, taken (batting), tempo (mus), ton t, Lat tempore, in the time of T A, telegraphic address, Territorial Army Ta, tantalum (chem) tal qual, Lat talis qualis, just as they come tan, tangent (math) t and o, taken and offered (betting) tar-mac, tar-macadam Tasm, Tasmania
 Tb, terblum (chem)
 T B, torpedo boat, tuberculosis T B D, torpedo boat destroyer T C, Tank Corps, temporary constable, Town Councillor T C D, Trinity College, Dublin T C F, Touring Club de France T D, Telegraph, Telephone, Department, Territorial Officers' Decoration Te, tellurium (chem) tech(n), technical(ly), technology technol, technology t e g, top edges gilt tel, telegram, telegraph, telephone teleg, telegram, telegraph, telegraphy. teleph, telephone, telephony telg, telegram temp, temperature, temporary temp, Lat tempore, in the time of ten, tenor ten, Ital tenuto (mus), held, sustained Tenn, Tennessee (U S A) term, termination, terminology Ter(r), Terrace, Territory Test, Testament, testamentary, testator Teut, Tentonic
 Tex, Texas (U S A) text rec, Lat textus receptus, the received, accepted text T F, Territorial Force
 Th, thorium (chem)
 Th, Thomas
 theat(r), theatre, theatrical theol, theological, theology. theor, theorem theos, theosophy therap, therapeutics therm, thermometer Thess, Thessalonians (N T).

disclosed what was in it, i.e. exposed his thought to consist of a proton combined with an electron.

pants, n Add o (slang, US orig) Phr a back in the pants, i.e. on the buttocks, but

Tho(s)

Tho(s), Thomas Thurs, Thursday
T H W M, Trinity high water mark.
Ti, titanium (chem)
T I H, Their Imperial Highnesses Tim, Timothy (NT)
tinct, tincture Tit, Titus (NT)
tit, title TI, thallium (chem)
T M, trench mortar T M O, telegraph money order tn, ton
T N T, trinitrotoluene (high explosive) T O, Telegraph, Telephone, Office, Transport Officer, turn over Tob, Tobit (OT, Apoc) Toc H, Talbot House
tonn, tonnage topog, topographical, topography tp, township, troop tpr, trooper
Tr, Treasurer, Trustee
tr, transactions, translate, translator, transport, transpos trans, transactions, transitive, translation, transport transf, transference, transferred transl, translated; translation T R C, Thames Rowing Club, tithe rent charge Treas, Treasurer, Treasury T R H, Their Royal Highnesses trig, trigonometry trop, tropic(s), tropical Trs, trustees trs, transpos Truron, Truro, in signature of Bishop T S H, Their Serene Highnesses T S O, Town Sub Office
T T, torpedo tubes
T U, Trades Union
T U C, Trades Union Congress, Trades Union Council Tues, Tuesday
Turk, Turkey, Turkish ZLO, London (broadcasting) T W U, Transport Workers' Union T Y C, Thames Yacht Club typ(og), typographical, typography

U, uranium (chem)
U, Unionist
u, uncle U C, Upper Canada
u c, upper case (printing) U C L, University College, London U D C, Union of Democratic Control, Urban District Council U F C, United Free (Church of Scotland) U G S S, Union of Girls' Schools for Social Service u i, Lat ut infra, as below U J D, Lat Utriusque Juris Doctor, Doctor of both (Civil and Canon) Laws U K, United Kingdom
U K A, United Kingdom Alliance ult, Lat ultima, in the last preceding month U M F C, United Methodist Free Churches unabr, unabridged Unit, Unitarian univ, university, universal(ly) unm, unmarried U P, United Presbyterian (Church) u p, under proof up, upper U P C, United Presbyterian Church U S, United Services, United States u s, Lat ut supra, as above U S A, United States of America, United States Army U S M, United States Mail, United States Marine U S M A, United States Military Academy U S N, United States Navy U S N A, United States Naval Academy U S P, United States Pharmacopoeia U S S, United States Senate, United States ship or steamer

1431

U S S C, United States Supreme Court U S S R, Union of Socialist Soviet Republics (Russia) usu, usually U S V, United States Volunteers Ut, Utah (USA)
ut dict, Lat ut dictum, as said ut inf, Lat ut infra, as below ut sup, Lat ut supra, as above V, Roman numeral, 5, vanadium (chem) V, volt (elect) v, verb, verso, versus v, Lat vice, in the place of, Lat vide, see, Ital voce, voice V A, Victoria and Albert (Order), Vicar Apostolic, Vice Admiral, Volunteer Aerial Va, Virginia (USA)
v a, Lat vixit annos, lived (so many) years V A D, Voluntary Aid Detachment (nursing service, Territorial Force) V-Adm, Vice Admiral val, value
V and M, Virgin and Martyr var, variant, variation, variety var lect, Lat varia lectio, variant reading (of MS &c) Vat, Vatican
vb, verb vbl, verbal
V C, Vice-Chancellor, Vice-Chairman, Vice Consul, Victoria Cross V D, Volunteer (Officers') Decoration, venereal disease v d, various dates
V D H, valvular disease of the heart Ven, Venerable verb (sat) ssp, Lat verbum sat sapientis, a word is enough to the wise Vert, Vertebrata vat, veterinary surgeon veter, veterinary v t, very fair V G, Vicar General
v g, very good v i, verb intransitive Vic, Victoria (queen)
Vice-Adm, Vice Admiral
Vice-Pras, Vice President Vict, Victoria (Australia) vid, Lat vide, see Vigorn, see Wigorn vil, village Vis(ct), Viscount viz, Lat videlect, namely v i, Lat varia lectio, variant reading (of MS &c) v/m, volts per metre V O, (Royal) Victorian Order Vo, Lat verso, on the left hand page voc, vocative vocab, vocabulary
Vol, Volunteer, Volume
V P, Vice President
V R C, Volunteer Rifle Corps
V R (et I), Victoria Regina (et Imperatrix), Victoria, Queen (and Empress) V Rev, Very Reverend V S, veterinary surgeon v s, Lat vide supra, see above, Ital volts subito (mus), turn over quickly vs, Lat versus, against V S C, Volunteer Staff Corps v t, verb transitive Vt, Vermont (USA)
V T C, Volunteer Training Corps Vulg, Vulgate
vulg, vulgar(ly) vv, verses vv II, Lat variae lectiones, variant readings (of MS &c) vy, very

W, (chem) tungsten (wolfram) W, west, Welsh, western (London postal district) w, wicket, wide (cricket), with, wifo W A, Western Australia, West Africa

Z S

W A A C, Women's Army Auxiliary Corps (Q M A A C) w a f, with oil faults W A F F, West African Frontier Force W Afr R, West African Regiment War, Warwickshire
Wash, Washington (USA)
W Aust, Western Australia
W B, Water Board, way bill W C, west central (London postal district), Wesleyan Chapel w c, water closet, without oharga W D, War Department, Works Department wd, would W E A, Workers' Educational Association Wed, Wednesday
w f, wrong fount (printing) W F L, Women's Freedom League W Gmc, West Germanic wh, which W Hampton, Wolverhampton whf, wharf
W I, West Indies, West India, West Indian Wigorn, Worcester, in signature of Bishop Wilts, Wiltshire
Winton, Winchester, in signature of Bishop W I R, West India Regiment Wis(e), Wisconsin (USA) Wisd, Wisdom (of Solomon) (OT, Apoc) wk, week, weak
W/L, wave length
Wm, William
W M S, Wesleyan Missionary Society
W N L F, Women's National Liberal Federation WN W, west north west W O, War Office, warrant officer Wor, Worshipful
Wores, Worcestershire
W P, weather permitting W P B, waste paper basket W R, West Riding, Yorkshire W R A F, Women's Royal Air Force W R N S, Women's Royal Naval Service W S, West Saxon, Writer to the Signet W S P U, Women's Social and Political Union W S W, west south west W T, wireless telegraphy, telephony wt, weight
W U S L, Women's United Service League
W Va, West Virginia (USA) Wyo, Wyoming (USA)

X, Roman numeral, 10 x-op, ex coupon x d, x-d, x-div, ex dividend Xa, xenon (chem) x-i, ex interest Xmas, Christmas
x-n, ex new shares Xt(ian), Christ(ian)
XX, XXX, double X, triple X, indicating strength of ales Yb, ytterbium (chem) yd, yard yday, yesterday

Yao(m), Yeomanry
Y L I, Yorkshire Light Infantry
Y M C A, Young Men's Christian Association Yorks, Yorkshire
Y P S C E, Young People's Society for Christian Endeavour yr, year, your, younger Y R A, Yacht Racing Association
yra, years, yours Yt, yttrium (chem)
Y W C A, Young Women's Christian Association

Zech, Zechariah (OT)
Zeph, Zephaniah (OT)
Zn, zinc (chem)
zool, zoology, zoological Zr, zirconium (chem)
Z S, Zoological Society

Appendix

By HUGH BUSS, M.A.

The following entries have, whenever possible, been made to read as continuations of entries that will be found in the body of the Dictionary. The word 'Add' means 'Add, at the end of the entry in the Dictionary, or of the division of it just mentioned'. The absence of any word 'Add' in an entry shows that it is not such a continuation but has been newly added.

Two additional abbreviations have been used Dict = (in) the body of the Dictionary Suppl = (in) this Supplement.

Unless otherwise stated, references are to the body of the Dictionary aerobatic, adj. [1 árobátik, 2 érabátik] See aero- & acrobat & -ic Of, pertaining to, performing, aerobatics aerobatics, n, fr prec (The performance of) feats of skill or of daring, in piloting aircraft through spectacular motions in the air, stunt flying age (I), n 2 Add Phr to be (or act) one's age, (slang, orig US), to behave in a reasonable manner, as befits one's years aide mémoire, n [1 ád máimwàhr, 2 éd memwàr] Fr, 'memorandum'. A note sent by a government through its Foreign Office to another Power, stating clearly its attitude on a point at issue air (I), n. 1 o Add to be on the air, (t) he broadcasted, (u) to be broadcasted from time to time aircraftman, n [1 árkrahftman, 2 éerkrahftmàn] aircraft & man Man in the ranks of the Royal Air Force airworthiness, n [1 árwèrdhíness, 2 éawídniss] See next word & -ness State, quality, of being airworthy airworthy, adj [1 árwèrdhí, 2 éawíðí] air & -worthy (of aircraft) Fit to undertake a flight, sound in all parts, construction, &c allelomorph, n [1 alélomorf, 2 aléloumórf] Gk alélōn, 'of each other', & Gk. morphé, 'shape', see morphology (biol.) One of any pair of organisms related, in respect of a particular feature, as dominant to recessive all-in, adj 1 attrib (of cost, insurance, arbitration, &c) All inclusive, including every possible item, contingency or dispute 2 (colloq) All in wrestling, an all-in contest, a type of wrestling match in which only very few kinds of foul are recognized 3 pred (slang, orig US) (of persons) Tired out, exhausted all-out, adv, fig, prob from motoring 'with all throbbles out' (slang) Using all one's strength and resources unreservedly to go all out, strive with all one's might altitude, n 1 b Phr grabbing for altitude, (slang) (t) trying to climb above an enemy in aerial combat, (u) (fig) becoming furiously angry analysis, n Add 3 Psycho analysis (of a person) under analysis angle (I), n Add 3 (slang, orig US) to get, use a new angle on something, find a new way of thinking about it

A + B theorem, n Major C H Douglas's contention that, if A denotes every firm's payments to individuals (wages, salaries, dividends) and B denotes its payments to other firms (for raw materials, plant, bank charges, &c), consumers, while their total incomes = A, must be charged in prices at the rate of A + B, if not more See Social Credit, Suppl apneusis, n [1 apnúsís, 2 apnúsis], fr. a- (priv) & Gk pneúsís, 'a breathing', fr pneúsaí, 'to breathe', see pneuma (med) Suspension of breathing, apnoea

Argos, n [1 árkos, 2 árkos], abbr fr All-Russian Co operative Society (USSR) Anglo Russian Trade Delegation arrive, vb intrans Add 4 (fr mod. Fr arriver) To achieve success and recognition astronomic(al), adj Add 2 (colloq, of figures, &c) Not unlike the inconceivably large figures used in measuring astronomical distances, astoundingly big, immense autarchy, n [1 awtárki, 2 óták], fr Germ autarchie, fr Gk autarkheia, 'self-sufficiency' (Gk arkhe, 'to suffice'), but perh influenced by Gk autarkhia, 'absolute power' (Gk. arkhe, 'to rule'), see auto- & arch- Economic self-sufficiency of a political unit authoritarian, b adj Add specif, of, pertaining to, a dictatorship, anti democratic, non parliamentary & oppressive towards civil liberties auto-radio-gram, n Radio gramophone fitted with a device for changing records automatically several times axe, vb trans, fr Phr the axe (See axe, Dict) (Colloq & chiefly in PP) To dismiss, dispense with, as a measure of drastic economy

Babbitt, n [1 hábit, 2 bæbit], fr. George F Babbitt, central figure of a novel by Sinclair Lewis A business man, or the like, typical of the low cultural and ethical standards associated with 20th century commercialism baby, n 1 Add Phr to be left holding the baby (colloq, fig) to be left with all the trouble, responsibility, &c, on one's hands, Add 4 (slang, orig US) Man's girl friend bakelite, n [1 hákelit, 2 bákalat], fr Baeyer, the inventor A synthetic resin of the phenol aldehyde type very widely used instead of wood, pottery, &c balletomania, n [1 háletómánia, 2 bælitoméniə] ballet & -mania Extravagant enthusiasm for witnessing performances of ballet band-pass, adj (wireless) Constructed on a special principle so that the receiving set will pass a predetermined width of frequencies band pass tuning bang-up, adj [1 háng up, 2 bæŋáp] (US slang) Very high class, excellent Cp slap-up.

bankocracy, n [1 bangkokrási, 2 bæŋkókra:si] bank & -cracy, 'government' 1 Dictation or control of state policy by a bank or banks 2 Bank directors, as dictators or controllers of state policy bankster, n [1 hangkster, 2 bæŋpsta] bank & -ster (Colloq) Derogatory term for a partisan of bankocracy barometer, n Add 2 (fig & gen) Any readily ascertainable factor that can be consulted as a safe indicator of more elusive fluctuations by elections as a barometer of public opinion barysphere, n [1 bárisfær, 2 bærisfær] See baro- & sphere (geol) Internal substance of the earth, enclosed by the lithosphere

Basic, Basic English, n & attrib n 1 n. The English Language systematically restricted to a vocabulary of 850 words (together with compounds and combinations of these), not counting words that may be considered as technical or of international currency Lamb's Stories from Shakespeare in Basic 2 attrib n Of, or belonging to, rendered in, Basic English the Basic Rules of Reason, principles of logic expounded in Basic English bathysphere, n [1 báthisfær, 2 bæpísfæ] See bathos & sphere Hollow sphere constructed so that it can be let down to a considerable depth in the sea (and eg bring up sample of water) bawl (I), vb trans 3 Add c to bawl (a person) out, (US slang), to reprove, reprimand him beacon (I), n 2 Add b (Beisha) beacon, a sign, consisting of a yellow globe on a metal post, indicating where pedestrians may safely cross the street bean, n Add 2 (slang, orig US) Head to bat someone on the bean, hit him on the head.

beat (I), vb trans Add 6 Beat up (slang, orig US), to maltreat cruelly, treat with brutal violence beauty parlour, n (colloq) Shop fitted out for women's haddressing, massage, &c beetle (IV), vb intrans, facet fr beetle (I) (slang) a To hurry, esp to beetle off, bells along, b to go, depart bell, n 1 Phrs Add to ring the bell (slang, orig US), to be successful, get good results (fig, from a strength testing mechanism which rings when heavily punched) bellyache, vi intrans [1 béliák, 2 heliæk] See belly, 2 (Am slang) to complain, whine besbozhnik, n pl -niks [1 besbozhnik, 2 heshbozhnik], Rnss, bes, 'without', bog, 'god', -nik (suff) (USSR) Member of the League of the Godless, for anti-religious propaganda bigful, n [1 híbfúð, 2 híbfúð], fr bib (I) & -ful, 2 Enough to cover a hub To slobber a bigful (of words), (US slang) to talk freely, have much to say, sometimes iron, op spit (III) B 1 b big end, n, abbr of big end bearing (motor-cars) The bearing or joint where the piston rod joins the crank shaft bird, n 3 Phr Add to give someone the bird, (slang) orig theatr, give him a rough house, now gen, get rid of, snub him, curly, rudely, to get the bird, be given it bit (I), n Add 4 Slang for piece of flesh, a girl or woman See piece (I), 6 black out, black-out, vi intrans & n 1 vi (theatr) To switch off all lights during a performance, purposely leaving the stage in complete darkness 2 n a (theatr) Instance, period, of blacking out, b (transf) a temporary failure of the electric light anywhere, c (fig) a temporary loss of memory

Blackshirt, n [1 hlakshért, 2 blæk[ít], fr the black shirt worn as uniform A member of the Fascist party See Fascist

Blump, n [hlamp] Imitative word Colonel Blump, figure in cartoons by Low caricaturing an extreme dehard type of outlook bloc, n, fr, 'block', see next entry block (I), n Add 8 Group of countries, political parties, &c, with some common policy blood group, n (med) All persons having the same type of blood, as recognised for purposes of transfusion, there are four such types and only certain combinations of them are safe body-line, adj (cricket) body line bowling, fast bowling aimed at the body of the batsman with the object of defeating him by intimidation, if he does not previously retire hurt

disclosed what was in it, i.e. exposed his

thought to consist of a proton combined

pants, n Add o (slang, US orig) Phr 4 kick in the pants, i.e. on the buttocks, but the action starting off a sham

BOKO

boko, n [1 bókō, 2 bókow] (slang) The human head boloney, baloney, n [1 bolóni, 2 belóuni] a insincere talk, b nonsensical talk bone (I), n 1 Add to cut (costs, &c) to this bone, reduce them to the minimum bonehead, n [1 bónhed, 2 bónhed] (Am slang) a blockhead, b fool's mistake boob, n [1 bōb, 2 búb] Slang, abbr of booby bottled, adj Add 2 (slang) Intoxicated bottle-neck, n Short strip of narrow road through which considerable traffic has to pass bounce (I), B vb trans Add 3 (slang orig US) To dismiss from a post bounce (II), n Add 3 (slang, orig US) The (grand) bounce, dismissal from a post box up, vb trans (slang) To bungle and mess up, make chaotic box-up, n (slang) a Instance of causing utter confusion by bungling, b confusion so caused brain trust, n a A group of advisers called in by President Franklin D Roosevelt, b (by extension) any group of 'experts' break (II), n Add 6 (Am slang) A run of luck (usu qualified by an adj) a bad break, a lucky break 7 (Am slang) A breach of good manners or of social discretion bromide, n Add 2 (Am slang) A dull, utterly conventional and un inventive person, b a remark characteristic of such a person, a cliché Brownian movement, n (phys) Erratic movement imposed on suspended particles by bombardment from molecules of the suspending medium Brownshirt, n [1 brounshert, 2 braun[át], fr the brown shirt worn as uniform A member of the Nazi party See Nazi Buchmanism, n [1 bookmunizm, 2 búk munizm], fr Rev Frank Buchman, its originator The so called 'Oxford Groups', an undenominational Protestant movement of the 1930's, emphasizing individual divine guidance and the method of evangelistic 'team-work' Buchmanite, n & adj [1 bókmanite, 2 búkmanit] prec & -ite an Adherent of Buchmanism, b adj of, pertaining to, Buchmanism bum, n, adj & vb intrans 1 n a Buttocks, b (Am slang) vagabond, tramp. 2 adj (slang, orig US) Worthless, rotten 3 vb intrans (slang) To tramp about, hike bumper, n Add 2 Metal projection on the front or back of a motor vehicle to take the first shock of a collision 3 (attrib, op 1) Bumper book, book containing little matter, but deceptively large in appearance burg, n [1 berg, 2 bíg], fr Germ burg, 'stronghold, &c', formerly 'walled town' (Colloq & facet, orig US) A town burp, vb intrans [1 bērp, 2 bāp] Imitative (US slang) To belch, eructate business, n 2 b Phr Add out of business, bankrupt butt (IV), vb Add B intrans Butt in, (colloq) to intrude, to break in upon proceedings, conversation, &c camera man, n (films) Man responsible for the lighting and, in conjunction with the director, for the angles from which shots are taken can (III), vb trans. Add 2 (fig, Am slang) To cease, stop, put a stop to (anything) canned, adj Add b (slang) intoxicated cash, vb Add B intrans Phr to cash in, (colloq) lit. & fig 'realize one's assets, 'make hay while the sun shines'

1433 cat (I), n 1 a Phr Add the cat's whiskers, (slang, orig US, with many variants) something quite out of the ordinary, remarkable, excellent, esp iron, i.e. in person's own estimation cat burglar, n (colloq) Burglar who enters a building by climbing in, e.g., through a skylight cert, n Slang abbr of certainly, sense 2, Dict chamber (I), n 4 Add o the coiled horn enclosed in a gramophone change (I), vb B intrans Add 5 (in motor driving) To change up, change down, obange to a higher, lower, gear chipper, adj [1 chipper, 2 tšipe] (US slang) Lively, in good form, in good spirits chisel (II), vb Add B intrans Oh'el in, (colloq) to intrude, interfere choke (II), n Add 2 Device for closing the air inlet in a petrol engine 3 (wire less) Coil for reducing the strength of an electric current by self induction clam, n Add 2 (fig, Am slang) A silent, uncommunicative person 3 vb intrans (Am slang) To be, or become, silent, uncommunicative clean (I), adj 1 Phr Add come clean, (gangster slang) make a clean breast of it Add 7 a Free from dishonesty, b free from obscenity, op dirty (I 3, Dict) clean-up, n Add o (slang, orig US) organized action to eradicate crime or corruption in a certain sphere or locality cobber, n [1 kóber, 2 kóbe] (Australian slang) A obum, pal cold-storage, n a Add also fig collective, adj 2 collective (farm), see kolichos, Suppl, collective security, (League of Nations) security for nations, obtained not by arming independently but by trusting in the united strength of the League as sufficient to restrain or resist an aggressor collectivize, vb trans [1 kuléktiviz, 2 kolektivoviz], fr prec & -ize To reorganize on collective lines Commintern, n [1 kómintern, 2 kómintān], abbr for 'Communist International' Committee elected by the Communist parties of all countries to co ordinate and direct the activities of those parties compensation, n Add 3 (psycho analysis) Cultivation of some trait or accomplishment as an offset to a feeling of inferiority that may be due to some physical or other disability concentration camp, n Place converted into, improvised as, a prison, e.g. for political prisoners or prisoners of war condition (II), vb trans 2 Add b to adopt measures for keeping (e.g., merchandise, art) in a state of freshness, c (psychol) to induce by association of stimuli to behave in a predetermined way in given circumstances, conditioned reflex, capacity to act in a familiar way to a new stimulus conditioning, n prec & -ing Process, effect, of being conditioned (as in prec) conk (II), vb intrans Imitative word (slang) To cease functioning, to become suddenly exhausted and inert, also conk out -conscious, suff used to form adjs expressing persons' full awareness of their connexion with (something) class conscious -consciousness, suff forming ns from prec consumer credit, n A proposed kind of money credit, non repayable, to be issued to the public in part claim for their share of the potential output of commodities See Social Credit continuity, n Add e special captions inserted between sections of a film to bridge over and explain, e.g. an imaginary interval of time, also attrib continuity writer, clerk co-op, n Slang abbr of (consumers') co-operative society, co-operator, n [1 kōōpērātor, 2 kou' ōpērētor], co-operate & -or One who co operates, specif, member of a consumers' co operative society core (I), n 4 Add b the hard core (esp of unemployment), irreducible residuum corporation, n 1 Add d (Fascist Italy) body representing employers and employees of an industry and responsible, under the State, for its direction, &c corporate, adj Add b of, pertaining to, having under it, corporations, as in prec; the corporate State crack (II), n Add 4 (slang, orig US) A witicism, a sententious, often a sarcastic, remark a was crack, (op crack (I) A 2) crackers, adj [1 krākētz, 2 krākēz] (slang) Mentally unbalanced, insane, dotty cramp (III), vb trans 3 (fig) Add Phr (of persons or things, colloq) to cramp one's style, put one ill at ease crash (I), vb A intrans Add: 4 Crash in (on), (slang) to intrude (on) B trans (slang) To intrude into (a party, &c) as a gate crasher, q v Suppl crush (II), n Add 3 Drink made of the juice of crushed fruit, squash, chiefly in compounds orange crush, &c 4 (slang) To have (got) a crush on (a person or thing), be very fond of cut (I), vb C Cut in (intrans), Add specif, a While driving a motor vehicle, to overtake and get in front of another motor vehicle, in circumstances which make it dangerous or inconsiderate to do so, b (in ball room dancing, of a man) to claim another man's partner from him while he is dancing with her cut (III), n Insert as 7 (films) An abrupt, instantaneous change from one shot to the next (Re number 7 as 8, 8 as 9) cutie, cutie, n [1 kúti, 2 kúdti], fr nute & -y (III). (US slang) A bright, rather smart young girl day, n 3 Add o Phr (slang) call it a day, reckon the day's work or main occupation finished, i.e. leave off anything dead (I), adj 5 a, Add Phr dead from the neck up, (slang, orig US) brainless, devoid of intelligence deal (III), n 1 Add a raw deal, (grossly) unfair treatment, op raw (II), Dict Add 3 a The New Deal, President Franklin D Roosevelt's attempted liberal reconstruction of the administrative and economic system in the USA, b (by extension) any similar or comparable attempt at reconstruction debunk, vb trans [1 débúnk, dibáuk] fr de- & bunk (III) (slang) To unmask, to divest of humbug decontaminate, vb trans [1 dēkuntāmināt, 2 dikontaminēt], fr de- & contaminate To rid of, purify from, contamination, specif, to rid of poison gas used in war fare deep (I), adj 1 a Phr Add to go (in) off the deep end, (colloq & fig) (i) to make the plunge, (u) to give vent to anger, vituperation definitely, adv Add b (colloq) yee indeed dendrite, n Add 2 (anat) Branching twig of a nerve cell deposit (II), n Add 2 An overdraft depress, vb trans 2 Add b (chiefly P.P pass) to deprive of trade and prosperity, depressed areas, regions so affected dilution, n 1 b, Add specif, the introduction of some semi skilled workers into a body of skilled workers dipper, n. Add o contrivance for dipping and raising the headlights of a motor car while driving it director, n Add o (films) person having supreme control of the actual production of a film, op producer, Suppl, assistant director, person responsible for assembling actors at the right time and for all details connected with the floor dispersion, n Add 3 (chem) A system in which one component consists of discrete particles (usually of colloidal dimensions) dispersed in the other component, which is a continuous medium called the vehicle dissociated, adj PP of dissociate (psychoanalysis) Suffering from loss of, failure to develop, some normal type(s) of association dissociated personality; op integrated, Suppl dissociation, n Add specif, (psychoanalysis) fact, instance, of being dissociated, as in prec dissolve (II), n (films) (The device, effect, of) making one shot dissolve into the next, growing less and less, while the new shot grows more and more, distinct distributism, n [1 distribútizm, 2 distribútizm] distribute & -ism Doctrine that the solution of economic problems lies, not in transferring ownership of land and capital to the state, but in distributing it from the few to all adult citizens distributist, n & adj [1 distribútist, 2 distribútist] prec & -ist a n Advocate, adherent of distributism; b adj of, pertaining to, distributism distributive, adj Add 3 Distributist distributor, n [1 distribúter, 2 distribúter] distribute & -or. Person or thing that distributes, specif, (motor-cars) device which determines the order in which the plugs shall spark dog (I.), n 1 a, Add the dogs, (slang) greyhound races or racing: he's lost money at the dogs; Add d (Am colloq, facet for sausage meat) hot dog, hot sausage sandwiched in bread 2, Add c (Canadian slang) side, swagger black sheep putting on dog, swaggering Englishman who has had to leave England in disgrace doggone, attrib adj [1 dógon, 2 dógn], fr the phr to go to the dogs (Am slang) Accursed, miserable, confounded doing, n, in pl Add 2 (slang) Casual and facet substitute word for a thing the name of which one cannot, or affects not to, remember, what-d'you-call it pass the doings to me doll (II), vb trans & intrans from doll (I) Doll up, (slang) dress up in best clothes dome (I), n 2 Add c (slang, orig US) the human head dominant, adj & n Add 3 adj & n (biol) (A Mendelian character) that prevails over a recessive and wholly or partially determines some feature of the organism dope (I), n See p 1417 To c Add inside dope, a tip from racing etables or the like, Phr to spill the dope, give inside information, to upset the dope, turn out widely, disconcertingly otherwise than as forecasted Add: 3 (US slang) A senseless, idiotic person. 4 (slang) Motor spirit double (III), n Add 6 A linked bet on two separate events, receiving heavier odds because of the greater risk to the backer

DIRECTOR

Douglasism, n [1 duglasizm, 2 dáglesizm] See Social Credit

Douglasite, n & adj [1 dúglasit, 2 daglasit] 1 n Social Creditor, q v Suppl 2 adj Of, or connected with, the doctrine of Social Credit or with the Social Credit movement drain (II), n 1 Add Phr to go down the drain, (slang) go from bad to worse draught (I), n 2 d Add Phr to feel the draught, (colloq & fig) be in financial straits drophead coupé, n (motor-cars) Coupé such that the roof folds down dust-up, n [1 dust úp, 2 dást úp] See dust (I 2) (colloq) A commotion, disturbance, row, free fight Dutch treat, n (US colloq) An occasion to which each of the party brings his own refreshments, to go Dutch, to adopt this arrangement easy (I.), adj 2 a Add Phr (slang) easy on the eye, pleasant to look at 4 Add on Easy Street (slang, orig US) eat (I), C b eat up, Add also fig, to cover (distance or ground) rapidly to eat up the road eats, n [1 éts, 2 its] (slang) Eatables ectogenesis, n [1 éktogénésis, 2 éktou-dzénsis] eoto- & genesis (biol) A predicted method of generating and developing human embryos, not in the uterus, but in the laboratory ectogenetic, adj [1 éktogénétik, 2 éktou-dzéustik] prec & genetic Of, pertaining to, produced by, ectogenesis edit, vb trans 2 Add b to edit a film, piece it together, editing out superfluous strips and reversing montage eidetic, adj [1 idéttik, 2 aiddítik], fr Gk eidētikós, adj fr eidos 'form, appearance', cogn w Gk idein 'to see' (psychol) (of images) Reviving an optical impression with hallucinatory clearness elevenness, n [1 elévnniz, 2 ilvnniz], facet double pl of eleven (slang) Mid-morning refreshment, e.g. coffee and biscuits emmetropia, n [1 émétrópia, 2 émétroupiá] Gk emmetros, adj '(being) in due measure', & Gk ops, 'eye' Normal sight emulsion, n Add 3 (obem) Colloidal dispersion of a liquid in a liquid endocrinology, n [1 éndokrinológj, 2 éndoukriúladzj] See endocrine & -ology (physiol) The theory and experimental study of the internal secretions of the ductless glands engram, n [1 éngram, 2 éngrém], fr Gk en, 'in', & -gram, fr Gk eggráphein, 'to inscribe, incise, engrave' (psychol) Presumed pattern of nerve-paths, due partly to heredity and partly to previous experience of the individual, and tending to cause specific behaviour, the physiological basis of a habit epieritic, adj [1 épikritik, 2 épikritik] See epi- & critio (physiol) (of sensations) Accurately localized and estimated, opposed to protopathic, Suppl epidiascope, n [1 épidiaskóp, 2 épidiaskoup] See epi- & dia- & -scope Instrument for projecting a magnified image of a small picture on to a white screen erg, n Add 2 (technocracy) A proposed unit for measuring the value of commodities according to the amount of mechanical energy consumed in the production of them ergolatri, n [1 érgolatrí, 2 árgolatrí] See ergon & -latri Idolization of work as a thing good in itself, whether directed towards a good purpose or not ergosophy, n [1 érgosofi, 2 árgesofi], fr ergon & Gk sophia, 'wisdom' Wisdom in the systematic utilization of physical sources of energy escapism, n [1 eskápiizm, 2 esképiizm] escape & -ism Escaping, tendency to escape, from unpleasant or intractable realities into fantasy escapist, n & adj [1 eskápišt, 2 esképišt] escape & -ist. a n One who has a tendency to escapism, b adj having this characteristic or tendency exchange (II), n 2 b, Add Exchange Equalization Fund or Account, a reserve fund set aside and used by the Bank of England on behalf of the Treasury for stabilizing the foreign exchange value of the pound sterling, since the abandonment of the gold standard exhibitionism, n [1 éksabíshunizm, 2 éksabíshenizm] exhibition & -ism 1 (psycho analysis) Morbid eagerness to display one's naked body 2 Excessive propensity for focussing the attention of others on oneself exhibitionist, n & adj [1 éksabíshunist, 2 éksabíshenist] prec & -ist a n One who is given to exhibitionism, b of, pertaining to, manifesting, exhibitionism eye (I.), n 1 c Phr Add easy on the eye, (slang) good-looking, of pleasing appearance face-lifting, n See lift (I), Suppl fade, vb intrans A 1 b Add; specif (wireless) to become weaker through fading fade-in, n (films) The gradual appearance of a new shot on the screen out of darkness into full intensity fade-out, n a (films) The gradual disappearance of a shot on the screen from full intensity into darkness, b (colloq & fig) gradual withdrawal from publicity fading, n, fr fade, Suppl (wireless) The periodical weakening of tone experienced in reception, esp on medium wave-lengths fall (I), vb intrans B Add Fall for, (slang, orig US) to fall a victim to, be captivated by, this charm, &c, of (a person or thing)

Fascism, n Add 2 Any similar or comparable movement or tendency elsewhere than in Italy boiled-shirt Fascism

Fascist, n & adj Add 3 (Person) having convictions, sympathies or tendencies similar or comparable to those of the Italian Fascists favouring, vbl n (films) Regulating the volume of sound recorded, by movement of the sound-boom, e.g. towards the actor who is speaking finger-tip control, n Arrangement of controls in a motor car, such that they can be operated without removing the hand from the steering wheel fit (I), n 1 Add to throw a fit, to be, to behave as one, shocked, infuriated, outraged

Five Year Plan, n (USSR) Comprehensive scheme for industrial and general development of resources, to cover a period of five years, the first such scheme was begun in 1928 flame (I), n 1 Add as interj, (slang) euphemism for 'bell' flash-back, n (films) Episode beginning with a sudden change to an earlier point of time flat (II.), adv 2 Add Phr to go flat out, op all-out, Suppl, flat spin, see spin, Suppl flick (II), n fr flicker (slang) A motion picture, film, cinema show, also pl flood-light, vb trans To illuminate (a building) with powerful electric lamps directed upwards and away from the spectator's eye flood lighting, n The kind of illumination described in prec floor (I), n 2 Add b the part of a film studio where the actors perform flop (I), vb intrans 1 Add o (fig & slang) to be a failure, a fiasco flop (III), n Add to go flop, (fig & slang) to be a failure, a fiasco fly (I), n 1 Phr Add (slang) there are no flies on (a person), he is very active (and efficient) for (I), prep 2 Add Phr (colloq) to be in for trouble, etc, to be in for it, (slang) to be for it [for it], have trouble, punishment, a reprimand, in store for one, to be out for trouble, for a row, etc, (colloq) be intending to cause it, to be out for (anything), (colloq) have it as one's aim free-for-all, n Cp Phr a free fight, under trees (I 9 a) (Am colloq) A rough and tumble, a row

Free Money, n Money which, as advocated by Silvio Gesell, automatically depreciates in value at a rate approximately equal to the average rate of depreciation in the value of commodities frig, n [1 frij, 2 fridž], slang abbr 'or refrigerator disclosed what was in it, 10 exposed his thought to consist of a proton combined with an electron.

pants, n Add o (slang, US orig) Phr 4 kick in the pants, 10 on the buttocks, but

FRONT (I)

front (I), n. 2 Add o (fig) any sphere of conflict, f a coalition of political forces, united front popular front (fr Fr front populaire) fundamentalism, n Add o (colloq) naive adherence to traditional beliefs of any kind, eg to Free Trade futitarian, n & adj [1 fütit'arian, 2 fütit'arian] Formed facet fr futile & utilitarian (facet) a (one who is) made and by narrowly utilitarian aims, b (one who is) pessimistic in outlook gain control, n (wireless) Volume control increasing and decreasing the amplification of a wireless receiver gangsterism, n [1 gángsterizm, 2 gəng'sterizm] gangster & -ism Gangster like behaviour gat, n [1 gət, 2 gæt] Am slang abbr of Gatling-gun gate-crash, vb intrans (slang) To effect entrance to a dance, party or entertainment without invitation or ticket of admission gate-crasher, n fr prec (slang) One who gate-crashes gee, interj [1 jē, 2 dʒi] Abbr for God or for Jesus (slang, orig US) gel, n [1 jəl, 2 dʒel] abbr fr gelatine (chem) A colloid which, under suitable conditions, has set or formed a jelly genotype, n [1 jənotip, 2 dʒenotaipt] Gk génos, 'birth, breed, &c', see genus & type. (hol) Hereditary genetic constitution of an organism gentleman, n 4 Add Phr gentleman's agreement, a mutual understanding (1) with no guarantee but the honour of those entering into it, (u) (euphemistically) with a more or less dishonest aim

G-man, n [1 jəmən, 2 dʒfman], abbr of government man (US) One of the American secret police

Gesellite, n & adj 1 n Follower of Silvio Gesell 2 adj Of, pertaining to, the doctrine of Free Money, q v Snpl gestalt, n [1 gəstalt, 2 gəstalt], Germ 'form' (psychol) An organized whole in experience, chiefly used attrib gestalt psychology, a theory which explains psychological phenomena by their relation to organized wholes, at least some of which are immediately given in experience

Gestapo, n [1 gəstəpə, 2 gəstəpə], abbr fr Germ geheime Staatspolizei, 'secret state police' The secret police organization of the Nazi régime in Germany

Get (I), vb trans & intrans A 1 Phr Add to get religion, socialism, films, &c, (colloq) become preoccupied with B intrans Add 5 Get! (imperat, slang), abbr for 'get along!' C Add Get (an idea, &c) across, trans (colloq, orig US), get the public to accept it Get away with, B Add to get away with it, (colloq) perpetrate something impudent, forbidden or risky without being punished, prevented, reprimanded, hurt, &c Get off, Add d (slang, orig US) to go wrong, make a mistake; esp to tell someone where he gets off Get off with, (slang) to establish amorous relations with (someone), get off (of two persons), to get off with each other Get over, Add 1 to get (a thing) over (1) finish and have done with it, (u) get it across (as above, Snpl) getaway, n [1 gətwā, 2 gətwēi] get (I C) (slang) Escape to make a getaway Gigolo, n [1 jɪɡolə, 2 dɪɡolə], Fr, formed fr gigole, 'loose woman' Male dancing partner, &c ginger (I), n. 2 n Add also attrib ginger group, a minority acting as a spur to a more passive majority give (I), vb A trans 1 Phr Add not to give a damn (for), (slang) not to care at all cp care (II 1 b) give-away, n, fr give (I) C & away (slang) a A betrayal (usu unintentional) of something intended to be kept hidden from observation or knowledge, b an act of giving, or throwing away an opportunity or something which should have been retained glacé, n [1 glāsən, 2 glāsh] See glacial & -ine (VI). a A substance similar in nature and use to cellophane, but semi-opaque and less glossy godbooster, n [1 gədbūstər, 2 gədbūstə], fr god & boost & -er (US slang) A minister of religion, a preacher godbox, n fr god & box, 5 (US slang) A church or chapel gold bloc(k), n Since 1931, the group of countries still on the gold standard, after Great Britain and many other countries went off it gold bullion standard, n A modified gold standard whereby a central bank is obliged to exchange its notes only for bar gold (value about $1,560 each bar) gold currency standard, n The gold standard, in the strict sense gold-digger, n Add 2 (slang, orig US) (fig) An adventurer who deliberately cultivates admirers for the sake of what money she can extract from them gold exchange standard, n A modified gold standard whereby a central bank is permitted to base part of its note issue, not on its own gold reserves, but on foreign exchange of a country that is on the gold standard gold standard, n a The monetary system by which a unit of currency is based strictly on gold, and a central bank is obliged to exchange its notes for gold on demand, and there is no restriction on the flow of gold into and out of a country, b loosely for gold bullion standard or gold exchange standard, q v gong (II), vb trans (slang, orig US, of motor police) To notify (the driver of a motor vehicle) by signal that he must stop gongster, n [1 gongstər, 2 gɒgstə] prec & -eter (slang, orig US) Motor police officer who gongs people goo, n [1 gū, 2 gū] (Am slang) a Any sticky substance, b (fig) sickly sentiment good (I), adj 1 Add d to be feeling good, (slang, orig US) to be in good health and spirits 2 b Phr Add not so good! (colloq iron) what a bad mistake, what a failure, &c good looker, n (slang) A handsome person good (II), n 4 (pl) b Add the goods (fig, slang) a The requisite qualities he has the goods, is thoroughly well qualified and competent, b exactly what is wanted I tell you, it's the goods, he's the goods goosey, adj [1 gūi, 2 gūi] goo & -y (IV). (Am slang) a Sticky, gummy, b sentimental goofar, n [1 gūfər, 2 gūfə] goof, p 1418, & -er (Am slang) Dupe, victim goofy, adj [1 gūfi, 2 gūfi] goof, p 1418, & -y (IV) (Am slang) Daff, stupid goo-goo eyes, n (slang, orig US) Ögling goosey (II), goosy, adj [1 gūsi, 2 gūsi] gooses & -y (IV) a (colloq) a (of persons) Scared, &c, see goose-flesh, Dict, b (of things) such as to make one scared, &c

Gosplan, n [1 gəsplən, 2 gəsplən] Russ, gosudarstvo, 'state' (USSR) State planning committee of the Soviet Union

Gostorg, n [1 gəstɔrg, 2 gəstɔrg] Russ, gos, abbr of gosudarstvo, 'state', & torg, 'trade' State trading department of the USSR gracing, n, abbr of greyhound-racing, (vulg slang) Participating in, witnessing, greyhound races

Greenshirt, n One belonging to that section of the Douglass movement which parades in green for the purpose of advertising the doctrine of Social Credit Also attrib

1435

HOOKY (II)

grid, n Add o specif, the grid, the system of overhead wires supported by iron pylons that distributes electric current from main generating stations to towns and intervening villages grill (II), vb A trans 1 Add d (slang) to subject to intimidation and harassment, eg in examination of suspects grilling, n, fr prec & -ing Process of being 'grilled', as in prec grim, adj Add o (slang, usu pred) Rather trying, mildly distressing grape (I), vb Add 2 intrans (fig, Am slang) To complain, whine Cp bellyache, Snpl grape (II), n 2 Add b (fig, slang, Am slang) a cause of annoyance gump, n [1 gump, 2 gamp], fr Mr Gump, name of a butt in the comic papers (US slang) A fool, blockhead, noodle gut (I), n 2 Add o pl (Am slang) Impudence, insolence Cp nerve (I 3 a) hang-over, n (slang) Unpleasant after effects of alcoholic indulgence hard-boiled, adj Add 2 a (of persons) Shrewd, hard headed, exacting, b (of schemes, &c), practical, esp in a financial sense have, vb trans A (end of) Various Phrs & idioms Add to have a person on, (slang) to deceive him have-on, n [1 havən, 2 havən], fr prec (slang) An instance of having a person, or people, on hay (I), n a Phr Add to hit the hay, (slang) retire to bed hay-wire, adj (US slang) Crazy, mad headliner, n [hedlaɪnə] headline & -er (slang, orig US) A principal performer, eg in a variety entertainment

Heavyside layer, n [1 hævɪsɪd, 2 hævɪsɪd], fr name of discoverer See ionosphere, Snpl heeby-jeebies, n pl [1 hībɪjībɪz, 2 hībɪdɪbɪz] (slang, orig US) State of alarm and trepidation he-man, n [1 hē mən, 2 hī mən] he & man (pleonastic emphasis) (slang, orig US) A sturdy and virile man, attractive to most women het up, adj [het əp], PP of heat (II) & up (slang, orig US) Emotionally disturbed, agitated, esp, annoyed all het up, thoroughly so high-hat, n & vb trans (slang, orig US) 1 n Supercilious person 2 vb trans To talk (patronizingly) down to high-pressure, adj b Add intensive high pressure salesmanship, methods (of business) high-stepper, n Add: a supercilious, presumptuous person, social climber hiker, n [1 hīkər, 2 hīkɪk] hike & -er (colloq) One who hikes, or is hiking hitch-hike, vb intrans To travel about with the help of lifts from motor vehicles Hitlerism, n [1 hɪtlərɪzəm, 2 hɪtlərɪzəm] fr Hitler & -ism See Nazism hock, vb trans [1 hɒk; 2 hɪk] (US slang) 2 Add b To pawn, put in pledge hock shop, (US slang) Pawn shop

-hog, element of abuse in slang compounds; road-hog, speed-hog a n one who selfishly and regardlessly drives a car at high speed, b vb intrans to road hog, &c, to behave in such a way hokum, hoozum, n [1 hɒkəm, 2 hɒkəm] 1 fr hocus-pocus & bunkum (US slang) State, oftentimes conventional situations and recipes for a plot, &c, in plays, novels and the like, esp Phr the same old hokum homo, adj & n [1 hɒmə, 2 hɒmɒl] 2 bɒmɒl, abbr of homosexual (slang) a adj homosexual, b n, a homosexual person hoony, n [1 hɒni, 2 hɒfi] (slang, orig US) a hokum (Suppl.), b hooloony (Suppl.) hooky (II), n (slang, orig US) To play hooky, play truant hoot (I), vb intrans 1 a Add Phr to hoot with laughter, (slang) to laugh uproariously hoot (II), n Add Phr (slang) not to care a hoot (or two hoots), not at all, Add b (slang) a reason for uproarious laughter, a great joke What a hoot!

horn (II), vb Add B intrans Horn in, (colloq orig US) to intrude, interfere, butt in hot (I), adj Add 7 (mus) Having an elaborate and stimulating jazz rhythm 8 (financ) (of Treasury Bonds) Just issued 9 Hot money, (slang, orig US) dangerous, because connected with some crime or illegality hot-gospeler, n [1 hotgospeler, 2 hot-gospeler, fr hot (5) & gospel & -er (US slang) A revivalist preacher hound (I), 3 Add b In compounds, (US slang) an uncompromising term for one who habitually hunts after a certain thing news hound, hunter after newspaper 'copy', publicity hound, one who is always trying to get himself into the news, emul hound, self appointed investigator and censor of public morals, sin-hound, prison chaplain how, 4 b Add also absol, (US slang) and how, (yes) in the extreme, to a remarkable extent, on a big scale it was a swell party, and how human, adj Add 3 n (colloq & usu in pl) a human being (a) hundred-per-cent, adj & adv (US colloq) Completely a hundred-per cent he man hundred-per-center, n preo & -er (US slang) a fervent American patriot, b whole hogger hunky-dory, pred adj [1 húngki dór, 2 hápki dór] (slang, orig US) Quite all right, fine, excellent hush-hush, adj, fr hush (IV) (colloq) Kept secret and so (sometimes intentionally) rather mysterious hypoplasia, n [1 hipópłázia, 2 háipou-plézia] See hypo- & plasma & -ia (anat) Under-developed condition of any part of an organism immunology, n [1 imúnoloji, 2 imjún-ledzi] See immune & -logy The study of immunity from disease, infection, &c, and the conditions governing it indicator, n Add b (chem) A compound which by means of a change in colour indicates a chemical change integrated, adj, P P of integrate (psychol) Successfully combined, co-ordinated, into a whole, cp dissociated, Snpl intelligence, n 1 a Add intelligence test, (psychol) supposedly scientific method of classifying persons according to their mental powers ionosphere, n [1 iónosfér, 2 arúnosáfio] ion & sphere The ionized region high up in the stratosphere from which wireless waves are reflected iron (III), vb trans 1. Add to iron out, (fig) keep (e.g. prices) from fluctuating -ish (I), Add d adv (of time, colloq) round about 4.30 ish isolationism, n [1 isoláshunizm; 2 díselé-íonizm] isolation & -ism A policy aiming at the greatest possible freedom for a nation from dependence on other nations, whether politically or economically isolationist, n & adj [1 isoláshuníst, 2 díselé-íoníst] isolation & -íst a n One who advocates or adopts a policy of isolationism, b adj of, pertaining to, isolationism isostasy, n. [1 ísostasi, 2 dístostasi] See iso- & stasis (geol) The hypothesis that between the land or water surface and the centre of the earth there is the same amount of matter under every unit of surface area isostatic, adj [1 ísostatik, 2 dístostatik] See prec & static Of, pertaining to, isostasy jerk (I), n 1 Add b (slang) to get a jerk on (with something), to hurry up, be quick (doing it) jigger (I), n Add 3 (slang, orig US) Any appliance or mechanical device, a contraption jitters, n pl [1 jítterz, 2 díttérz] The jitters, (Am slang) 'the creeps', nervous fuster, trepidation job (I), n 1 Phr Add on the job, busily at work kick (II), n d Add Phr to get a kick out of something, to find it stimulating, amusing, enjoyable knee-action spring, n A type of independent motor-car spring knock-out, n & adj Add 3 adj (in competitions) Such that a competitor or team defeated in any round does not compete again knock out competition, knock-out system

kolkhos, n [1 kolkos, 2 kólkra], Russ, abbr of kólléktív, 'collective' & khos, base of khozyaistvo, 'household', &c (USSR) Collective farm organized, esp under Five Year Plan, by pooling of peasant holdings cp sovkhos, Snpl

Komintern, n See Comintern

Komsomol, n [1 komsomol, 2 komsomól], Russ, abbr of kommunisticheski sojuz, 'union', & mólodezh, 'youth' (USSR) Communist League of Youth kulak, n [1 kóolak, 2 kúlak], Russ, 'fist, grasper' (USSR) Independent well-to-do peasant a class 'liquidated' under the system of 'collectives' lattice, n Add 4 The regular and more or less reticulate arrangement of atoms in a crystal Laurentian, n & adj [1 lórénshian, 2 lórén'jian] 1 n A follower or ardent admirer of D H Lawrence 2 adj Of, pertaining to, a Laurentian, tending to make a religion of primitiveness and sex lay (III), vb C Lay off, trans, to dismiss (an employee) temporarily through slackness of trade, &c left-wing, adj Of, pertaining to, the political Left, progressive lemon, n 1 Add Phr (slang) the answer's a lemon, the question is problematic, to hand someone a lemon, swindle him in a transaction libido, n [1 libído, libédo, 2 libáidow, libídw] Lat, see libidinous (psychoanalysis) Psychic urge, vital impetus, total life energy lift (I), vb trans A 5 Add c to lift a person's face, when the muscles of it have sagged, to restore it by surgical treatment to a more normal shape line (II), n Add 17 (slang, orig US) Information, special or inside information to get a line on, obtain information about line-up, n See line (III B) (colloq) Alignment liquidate, vb trans 1 Add o (colloq, orig USSR) to put an end to, suppress, stamp out (anything regarded as a public nuisance)

Locarno (agreement, pact), n [1 lókáhnó, 2 lókáhnou] fr the Locarno treaty of 1925 Any international treaty binding each of three or more nations to give full military assistance against the aggressor, in the event of one nation signatory to the treaty being attacked by any of the others, a regional pact an Eastern Locarno, a treaty of this kind between nations in Eastern Europe location scene, n (films) Scene produced not in the studio but at some chosen spot elsewhere logorrhoes, n [1 lògórrea, 2 lògourfe] logo- & Gk rhoia, 'a flow, flowing' (facet allusion to diarrhoea) Excessive flow of words, wordiness, verbosity, prolixity lorry-hop, vb intrans To travel by getting lifts on lorries and other motor vehicles lousy, adj Add c (slang) lousy with, very well provided with, esp, lousy with money lowdown, n 'fr criminals' slang usage. (slang orig US) True facts, correct information I'm giving you the lowdown magneto-, pref Add magnetometer, instrument for measuring the strength of the earth's magnetic field make-up, n Add d components elements in one's make up, fundamental qualities of one's nature

-making, adjectival suffix in compound with other adjectives (Colloq) Such as to make one this or that sick-making, shy making manage (I), A vb trans 2 Add c (financ) a managed currency, one that is off the gold standard and for whose stability the central bank is responsible man-sized, adj (Am slang) Large, difficult enough to occupy or tax a man's energies a man sized job

Marxian, n & adj [1 máhkshian, 2 mákshien] Next word & -ian 1 n Follower of Karl Marx, adherent of Marxism 2 adj Of, pertaining to, Marxism or Karl Marx

Marxism, n [1 máhkshizm, 2 máksizm] fr Karl Marx (1818-1883) & -ism The doctrine of Karl Marx concerning the materialist (ie economic) interpretation of history, the class struggle caused by capitalistic appropriation of 'surplus value', and the ultimate triumph of the proletariat, leading to a system of Communism

Marxist, n & adj [1 máhkshíst, 2 máksíst] fr prec & -íst Marxist matey, adj [1 máti, 2 méiti] mate (II) 1 & -y (IV) a (colloq) Somable, companionable, friendly mean (I), n 4 a Add Phr means test, official inquiry as to what means of subsistence an applicant for unemployment benefit can already obtain from members of the family and household where he lives family means test, household means test mechanization, n [1 mékanízáfshun, 2 mékanízáfshon] mechanize & -ation. a Technical transformation, for the sake of increased efficiency, by substituting machinery for direct human effort; b (specif) the transformation of military units, redesigning them for mobility and resistance to gun-fire mental (I), adj 1 Add c (slang, pred & often by hyperbole) mentally deficient feeble minded, stupid mezzo-brow, n & adj [1 métsáðbron, 2 métsoubrow] (Person) intermediate between highbrow and low brow (colloq) micro-waves, n Radio waves of wave length less than 1 metre make, n [1 mik, 2 mask] Slang abbr of microphone mill (I), n 1. a Add Phr (colloq) to go through the mill, to be severely disciplined, to get a grueling milking, vbl n 1 b (colloq) (The act of) being 'put through the mill', severely disciplined; a grueling experience mind, vb B intrans 1 Add mind out, (slang) look out, (and) keep (or get) out of the way

-minded, adjectival suffix 1. (preceded by an adj or adv) Having such and such a turn of mind politically-minded 2 c (colloq) Alive to the importance of each and-such air-minded, keenly interested in civil aviation, &c, b (commerce slang, willing to pay money for such and such telephone-minded, refrigerator-minded mitt, n abbr of mitten (slang, orig UÉ) Hand he gave me the frozen mitt, shook my hand very coldly, showed marked unfriendliness to me, I tipped his mitt (1) shook him by the hand, (u) (fig disclosed what was in it, i.e. exposed his plans or intentions mixing, vbl n (films) Re recording such as to mix in, e.g. music with the actors' voices money, n 5 Phrs Add it's money for jam, (slang) good remuneration or profit for little or no trouble, to be in the money, hohobbing with the rich Mongolian, 1 adj Add. b Mongolian idiosyncrasy, Mongolism Mongolism, n [1 monggolizm, 2 monggolizm] mongol & -izm A form of mental deficiency accompanied by physical resemblances to the Mongolian race monomark, n. [1 monómárk, 2 monómárk], (trade name) fr mono- & mark Mark, consisting chiefly of letters of the alphabet, which an individual person can use in the place of a permanent address and for the identification of his belongings montage, n Add b (more strictly) cut, cuts, designed to elicit an emotional response not registered in the shots themselves motorize, vb trans [1 mótoriz, 2 mótorizov], fr motor (I) 2 & -iza (esp. military units) To transform by substituting motor for horse transport mouthful, 3 (fig & sometimes iron, colloq) To say a mouthful, say something striking, important mud, n Phr Add (person's) name is mud, (colloq) he has lost any prestige, good name, credit, he once had museum-piece, n. a Valuable object in, suitable for, a museum, b (fig) person or thing of special interest or value, esp if not up to date nance, n [1 nans, 2 nans], abbr of next word An effeminate male person. nancy, adj & n [1 nánsi, 2 nánsi] fr the girl's name, Nancy a n An effeminate male person, b adj of this nature, Phr a nancy boy Nazi, n & adj [1 nátsi, 2 nátsi], Germ abbr of Nationalsozialist(ische) 1 n. a A member of the National Socialist party, formed by Adolf Hitler at Munich in 1925 with the aim of making Germany united and powerful after ridding it of Communism, Social Democracy, &c Success in the election of Jan & March, 1933, enabled this party to establish itself, ruthlessly sweeping away all opposition Cf Fascist b A member of the actively pro German party since formed in one of several other states, such as Austria 2 adj Of, or pertaining to, the Nazis or their system, aims or methods Nazism, Nazuism, n [1 nátsizm, náhtsizm, 2 nátsizm, nátsizm] The political system, the aims or the methods of the Nazis necking, vbl n (slang) Hugging, petting (demonstratively) neon, n Add neon sign, lettering, &c, usually forming an advertisement, lit up by means of neon light Nep, n [1 nep, 2 nep], Russ, abbr of noyaya ekonomicheskaya politika (USSR) The New Economic Policy, permitting a controlled capitalism in certain trades, from 1921 till the first Five Year Plan, Nep man, private entrepreneur or trader under Nep nerfs, interj & n. [1 nérts, 2 nérts] Imitative (vulg slang) See pschaw a interj b n nerfs to you! I (deliberately) say to you 'Nerts!'

netrino, n [1 nūtrānō, 2 nūtrīnōw] neutron & -ina (VI), b (phys) Electrically neutral particle having the same mass as an electron neutron, n [1 nūtrōn, 2 nūtrōn] neuter & ending on the anal of electron (phys) Particle having about the same mass as a proton, but without electrical charge It is thought to consist of a proton combined with an electron news, n pl Add c anything that the public can be induced to read about in newspapers cats are news now, news value (degree of salability as news) news reel, n A talking film giving items of current or recent news nitwit, n [1 nítwit, 2 nítwit], fr nit negative & wit (US slang) A dolt, blockhead no man, n (Am slang) An unobbliging and contrary man, who refuses to join in Cp yes man, Suppl Non-co-operation, n The Indian movement, led by Mahatma Gandhi, of non violent civil disobedience to British rule non-skid, adj Designed so as not to skid non-starter, n. [1 nōn stárter, 2 nōn státs] (colloq) A person, or horse, that fails to start as a competitor in a race Also fig nose-dive, nosedive, n & vb intrans Add 2 a n A débâcle, precipitate downward trend m fortune, &c. b vb to take such a downward trend nucleus, n Add 4 (phys) The positively charged central core of an atom nut, n Add 6 (Am slang) An idiot, dolt nuts, adj See prec & nut, 2, Dict (slang) Cracked, crazy, dotty okay, adv & adj [1 óká, 2 óuket], = O.K. oke, adv & adj [1 ók, 2 óuk], abbr fr preco (slang) Quite all right okay doko, adv & adj [1 ókí dók, 2 óukí dók], fr preco & doko, meaningless rhyming syllable (slang) Quite all right on (I), prep Add 9 At the expense of, a (financially) have this one on me, b (generally) the joke's on him o that's a new one on me, i.e. news to me (i.e. shows up my ignorance) once-over, n (slang, orig US) Cursory survey, hasty examination to give (person or thing) the once over one (II), n 2 Add b a one, (colloq & vulg) an odd, strange, eccentric, person you are a one! one-track, adj a (of railways, &c) Having only a single line of rails, b (fig) one idea'd a one track mind one way, one-way, adj Restricted to one direction one way traffic, lit & fig out for, to be See for, Suppl outsized, adj [dútsiz(d)] (of ready made clothes, & gen, colloq) Exceptionally large overall, vb trans & intrans (óuve kál] (in bridge) A trans a To outbid, b to overall one's hand, bid higher than it justifies, also fig B intrans a To outbid one's partner or opponent, b to overall one's hand over-compensation, n (psycho analysis) Excess of compensation, often taking the form of an overbearing manner, see compensation, Suppl Oxford group, n See Bushmanism Oxford-gronper, n (colloq) An adherent of the 'Oxford groups' panatrobe, n [1 pánatróp, 2 pánatroup], See pan- & trope Electrical contrivance, consisting of pick up, amplifier and loud-speaker, for making audible the sounds recorded on a gramophone record. panning, vbl n, abbr fr panorama (films) a Sweeping horizontally with the camera to get a panoramic effect, b the visual effect so produced pansy, n Add adj & vb trans & intrans Also add (slang) 2 n (fig) An effeminate male person given to self adornment 3 adj a (of persons) Effeminate and given to self adornment, b (of things) of, pertaining to, or in any way reminiscent of, such persons, chic 4 vb a trans, also pansy up, to render (oneself or one's intimate belongings) pansy or chic, b intrans, with reflexive meaning pants, n Add c (slang, US orig) Phr a lack in the pants, i.e. on the buttocks, but chiefly fig, (the administering of) a sharp check or rebuff park, vb trans Add 3 (slang) a To place a thing on one side or in some spot chosen for safety or convenience, b (facet, pretending that a person is an inanimate object) (i) to leave (e.g. a child) in someone's charge, (ii) to place in position, plant park yourself here part-time, adj, Employed for, taking up, only part of the working day a part time worker, a part time job part-timer, n (colloq) Part time worker party (I), n 2 a Add hen party, stag party, party consisting entirely of females, of males, petting party, see below pass (I), vb B trans 5 a Add Phr to pass the buck, hand on something embarrassing C Add Pass out, (colloq) (i) to faint, become unconscious, (ii) to become dead drunk, (iii) to die peak year, n A year for which statistics recording some selected data reach a maximum point as compared with surrounding years perishing, adj Add 2 (colloq, in place of an expletive) Confounded, infernal perm, n, slang abbr of permanent wave (colloq, hairdressing) petting, vbl n, fr pet (II) Caressing, a petting party, bout of caressing phase, n Add 4 (physical chem) One component of a heterogeneous mixture phenomenology, n [1 fenóménolój, 2 finóménoladz] phenomenon & -logy A recent school of philosophical thought originating from Husserl, which claims to reject rational concepts and judgments and to start from reality as it appears in pure intuition phenotype, n [1 fenotíp, 2 finotai:p] See (first element m) phenomamon & type (biol) The part of its hereditary constitution that an organism actually displays phony, adj [1 fóni, 2 foun], fr phone & -y (IV) (slang) Fishy, suggestive of foul play a phony message phut, adv [1 fút, 2 fat], fr Hind. phatna, 'to split, burst' To go phut, become suddenly broken, collapse, end in nothing phylogeny, n [1 filógeni, 2 faslodzeni] See phylogenesis & -y Phylogenesis physical chemistry, n Chemistry interpreted in terms of physics pick (II), vb trans c Pick up, 3 Add d (slang) to take into custody, arrest Add Pick on, to single (someone) out and pester, badger (him) pick-up, n Device by which the sound-track on a gramophone record causes corresponding variation in an electric current in a loud speaker piezo-electric effect, n [1 piézō, 2 paí zou], fr Gk piezein, 'to press' The production of an electro motive force in certain crystals by means of pressure pink (VI), vb intrans Imitative word (of petrol engines) To make a metallic sound, caused by premature explosion, to knock (B b) pipe (II), vb A intrans 2 Add d Phr (colloq) to pipe down, become less cock sure, less exorbitant plane table, n plane (IV) & table Drawing board mounted on a tripod and used, e.g., by surveyors plate (I), n 7 a Add (iii) Phr to hand someone something on a plate, (fig) surrender something gratuitously pointer, n Add 3 pointer (ad), (commerce slang) Small advertisement indicating where a larger one is to be found pop-shop, n (slang) Pawn shop positron, n [1 pozitron, 2 póztron] positive & ending on the anal of electron (phys). Positively charged particle having mass equal to that of the electron pot-bound, adj a (of a plant) Suffering from insufficiency of space for its roots in a pot, b (fig) suffering from lack of room to expand pres-selector gear, n (motor-cars) Gearing device such that the gear about to be engaged is previously selected producer, n 1 Add o person who takes the initiative and financial responsibility in producing a film; cp director, Snppl prom, n abbr of Promenade Concert protopathic, adj [1 prôtôpáthik, 2 prôtôpáthik] See proto- & pathos & -ic (physiol) (of sensations) Not accurately localized nor accurately estimated; opposed to epipathic, Suppl pseudo, adj, fr pseudo- (colloq, of things material & immaterial) Not genuine, not real, sham, counterfeit all this panelling is pseudo Sometimes of persons, see bogus, Suppl punk (I.), n Add o adj (slang, orig US) Rotten, worthless, no good at all put (I.), vb A trans 1 Add to stay put, (colloq, of a thing) to stay where, or as, it is put C Put over, Add b trans, (colloq, orig US) to get the public to accept (an idea, &c) radio- pref Add b to wireless radio-gramophone radio, n Add c a wireless receiving set radio-gram, n Colloq abbr for next word radio-gramophone, n Combined wireless receiving set and gramophone with pick-up (See pick-up, Suppl) rake-off, n (colloq) Pecuniary profit made illegitimately by one or more persons concerned in a transaction, also, middle-man's profit raspberry, n Add Phr (slang, orig US) to give, hand, (a person) a raspberry, insult by a gesture of contempt ray (II.), n 2 Add cosmic rays, a penetrating radiation producing ionization and coming from an extra terrestrial source reaction control, n Device for increasing the receptivity of a wireless receiving set recordist, n [1 rekórdist, 2 ríkaidist] record (I) & -ist Person responsible for everything connected with the audible part of a film during its production rectification, n Add 4 (elect) The process of converting an alternating into a direct current reducing, n See slimming, Suppl reflate, vb trans & intrans [1 refiát, 2 rifiát] See re- & inflate 1 trans To increase (the amount of money in circulation) towards what it was before a period of deflation began See inflate 2 intrans To increase the amount of money in circulation, as in 1 reflation, n [1 refiáshun, 2 rifiáshun] reflate & -ion Act or process of reflatng, state of being reflatd register (II.), vb A trans 1 Add c (i) (of a film) To depict, express (usu some emotion), (u) (by extension, gen, colloq) To express, represent relativistic, adj [1 relátivistik, 2 relétivistik], fr relativist & -ic In accordance with the principles of accepting the postulates of relativity relativistic, as opposed to Newtonian, mechanics re-recording, vbl n (film-producing) Changing the sound-track by mixing or by adding a voice or voices to it retread, n & vb trans [1 rétréd, 2 ritréd], fr re- & tread (II 2 c) a n. Motor-tire the original tread of which has been removed and replaced by new rubber, b vb trans to furnish with new treads revisionism, n [1 revizhunizm, 2 rvi-žonizm] revision & -ism Policy, advocacy, of revising something, specif, of revising (i) the Versailles and associated treaties, (u) Marxism revisionist, n & adj prec & -ist (One who works, or is) in favour of revisionism rexine, n [1 réksén, 2 réksin] A type of imitation cloth used for bookbinding, &c rheology, n [1 rélógi, 2 rifiédzi] rheo- & -logy The scientific study of the flow of liquids, gases and plastic substances ribbon development, n The uncontrolled building of houses and shops along main roads, esp those leading out of towns road-hog, n & vb intrans See -hog, Suppl rod, n 1 Add e (Am slang) revolver, gun roll (II), vb intrans C Roll in, Add (slang) to pay a casual or unexpected visit, to arrive Roll up, Add 3 To keep a rendezvous, put in an appearance, to arrive (in large numbers) rough-house, vb intrans, fr Phr a rough house, see under rough (I 4 a) To behave rowdily, to brawl roundabout, adj & n Add 3 n Arrangement of the roadways at a junction, such that traffic circulates in one direction round a central object or space routine, n [1 rútútnér, 2 rútútné] routine & -eer One who is efficient in routine work, but, through lack of imagination and originality, is unable to deal with wide issues and great changes, and expects others to be like himself rubber (III), vb abbr of next word rubber-neck, n & vb intrans [1 rúbernek, 2 rábernek] (slang, US origin) a n One who peers and pries about inquisitively, b vb to pry, peer about inquisitively rubber stamp, rubber-stamp, n & vb trans 1 n a III considered and quasi-mechanical approval or authorization; b a person who gives such authorization or approval 2 vb trans To authorize, as if mechanically, without consideration rube, n [1 rúb, 2 rúb] (US slang) A rustic, country bumpkin sadist, n [1 sáhdíst, 2 sádíst], fr sadism & -ist Person who displays sadism sadistic, adj [1 sádístik, 2 sádístik, sádístik], fr prec & -ic (Characteristic) of, pertaining to, a sadist salariat(e), n [1 sáldrát, 2 selcérét], fr salary (I) & -ate Salaried workers as a class sales-resistance, n (commerce slang, orig US) Resistance to salesmanship, refusal to buy or order goods, &c sanction (I.), n 2 Insert b (League of Nations) chiefly pl, measures concerted by League members against an aggressor nation, in order to coerce it into acceptance of arbitration financial sanctions, restriction or cessation of loan credits, economic sanctions, restriction or cessation of trade with it, military sanctions, force, e.g. a naval blockade sanctionist, adj & n [1 sángxshuníst, 2 sángxshuníst] prec & -ist (Person, advocating, supporting, sanctioning as in prec sap, n Abbr of saphead scene, n 4 a Add in films, a shot, see shot, Suppl schadenfreude, n [1 sháhdnsfróidér, 2 fádénfróidér] Germ fr schaden, 'injury', & freude, 'joy' Malicious joy at the misfortunes of others schizoid, adj & n [1 skízóid, 2 skáizóid] See next word & -oid Mildly schizophrenic (person) schizophrenia, n [1 skízófrénia, 2 skáizófrénia] See schizo- & phrenic Dementia praecox schizophrenic, adj [1 skízófrénik, 2 skáizófrénik] prec & -ic Suffering from, liable to, dementia praecox scram, n & vb intrans [1 skram, 2 skram], fr scramble (US slang) 1 n A hasty departure 2 vb intrans To depart hastily, esp imperat Scram! off with you!

screwy, adj Add 3 (US slang) Not quite right in the head, slightly mad See Phr to have a screw loose, under screw (I.) 1 scrip (II.), n Add c Paper or token money issued not by a bank or by a state treasury, but by a municipality or by some organization for production and exchange, and backed not by gold but by goods

Also attrib scrip money, scrip group, group of persons using this medium of exchange sedimented, adj [1 sédimentéd, 2 sédimentéd], fr sediment (chem) Having formed a sediment seersucker, n [1 sérsúker, 2 séssáke] (orig US) A cotton material with rough surface send (I.), vb C Add Send over, to broadcast, trans sense (I.), n Add B In combination with another noun, intuitive understanding and good judgment in a particular sphere road sense, but, for horse-sense, see Diot sensum, n, pl sensa [1 sénsun, a, 2 sénsam, -e], Lat (PP naut of sensitive, 'to feel'), 'a thing felt', see sense (philos)

(Term used for) the immediate content of sensation (to avoid pre-judging whether this content is mental or physical) sequence, n 3 Add d (films) succession of shots together forming a main division of a film servo (-assisted) break, n (motor cars) Some form of break such that the motion of the car reinforces the breaking which the driver applies to the shoes set (III), adj, 3. Add b (slang, orig US) ready to begin, ready to start away esp, all set, quite ready sez you, adverbial phr [1 sez yóu, 2 sez yú], for says (ie say) you (slang, US orig) (iron) As you say, (but I doubt it, or I don't believe it), sometimes interrog shemmuzzle, n [1 shemozi, 2 jímúzi] (US orig, slang) A rough and tumble, a row, an uproar shock-absorber, n (motor-cars) A device for damping out excessive road vibration and counteracting the effects of axle movement shoot (I.), vb A trans 4 Phr Add to shoot down (person or crowd), suppress, dispose of by shooting and killing or wounding; to shoot down (aircraft), bring down by gunfire, shot down, (slang, fig) decisively defeated in an argument short time, n Employment out down to some fraction of full time, with a corresponding curtailment of wages shot (III.), n 7 Add c An example, short continuous piece, of cinema photography an unusually interesting shot Long shot, shot taken from long distance, mid shot, shot taken from medium distance, crane shot, zoom shot, shot taken while the camera is moved by a crane, model shot, shot taken, not of the subject represented, but of a (small-scale) model of it Add 8 Phr (colloq, US) big shot, an important person show (II.), n 2 a Add (u.) (colloq) stage performance: leg show, revue, &c, in which the legs of the chorus are a prominent feature show-down, n, fr the 'showing down' (i.e. showing face upwards on the table) of the cards after bidding, &c, in certain card games (slang) a Any test of real strength and backing in a struggle, e.g. between political parties Phr if it comes to a show-down, b a frank avowal of, or exchange of confidences about, personal motives snip (II.), n. Add 4 (slang) A cert, see certainty (2), Diot siblings, n pl [1 síblíngz, 2 síblíngz], fr sib & -ling (I) (biol) Offspring of the same parents sign, vb B intrans 3 Add b sign in, out, off, &c, sign one's name as being, going to be, in, out, away from, &c simp, n (US slang) Abbr of simpleton sissy, n & adj [1 sisi, 2 sisi] a n An effeminate (male) person, b adj of this nature skin game, n Cp skin (II) 1 2 (slang) Fraud, deception, swindling slam (I), vb trans 1 Add d (fig) (Am slang) To criticize, censure slant (II), n Add 2 (slang orig US) A view, opinion, cp angle, Suppl shick, adj 1 Add c (of persons or things slang) smart but unsound, specious slum (II), vb intrans (colloq) To prattle slumming slimming, n & adj [1 slimming, 2 slimming], fr prec (colloq) 1 n Measures, treatment adopted by a person, esp through diet or drugs, with the object of making her, or his, figure slimmer adj 2 Of, pertaining to, slimming slimming diet, &c slip (I), vb A intrans 2 slip up, Add also fig, (colloq) to make a mistake slosh, n Add 2 (slang) A heavy resounding blow slosh (II), vb trans Cp slop (II) & slap (I) 1 To slosh (pant, &c) on, (colloq) spread it thickly, audibly (and clumsily) 2 (slang) To hit with a resounding blow smoke-screen, n Add 2 (fig) Anything done or put forward as a blind, to conceal one's real aims and activities snack-bar, n (Shop with a) bar or counter at which light refreshments are sold snap (I), vb B intrans Add 6 Phr snap into it, (slang, orig US) to make a vigorous start, act with decision, enthusiasm

Social Credit, n The mainly financial doctrine of Major C H Douglas. It claims that the potential abundance which industrial technique can now produce (with less and less labour) is 'the unearned increment of association', belongs to the whole community and ought to be made available to all as consumers, by certain changes in monetary policy, including the issue of National Dividends of Consumer Credit. See also A + B theorem, Suppl

Social Crediter, n Advocate, adherent of Social Credit, see prec sol (III), n abbr fr solution (chem) A colloidal solution solute, n [1 sölüt, 2 sölüt], see solution, (chem) The dissolved substance in a solution sound (VI), vb A trans 1 Add b trans, To explore (the upper air, esp the stratosphere and tropopause), eg by means of a balloon fitted with automatic recording instruments, and ascertain its temperature, density, movement, &c, at different heights, latitudes, &c sound-boom, n, fr sound (I) & boom (I 1) (films) Apparatus for moving a microphone about as required during a shot sound-box, n The part of a gramophone which contains the diaphragm sound camera, n Camera which records the sounds on the sound track of a film sound-head, n That part of a film projector which emits audible sound picked up from the sound track sound-track, n That part of a sound film on which accompanying sounds are recorded sour (I), adj 2 Add Phr to be sour on, (US slang) To hate, detest sour (III), vb 2 intrans Add b (fig) to sour on, (US slang) to change from liking to disliking (a person or thing) sourtop, n [1 sourtop, 2 sourtop], fr sour (I) 2 & top, 'head' (US slang) Morose, disagreeable person

Sovmarkom, n [1 sovmarkom, 2 sovmarkom], Russ, abbr of sovet, narod, 'people', & kommisior (USSR) Soviet of people's commissaries sovkhos, n [1 sovkos, 2 sovkos], Russ, abbr of soviat & khos, see kolkhos 'farm'

(USSR) State farm instituted on rationalized methods, esp under Five Year Plan Cp kolkhos, Suppl so what? Phr (slang, orig US) What of that? What has it to do with the matter in hand? What is the bearing of your remark? Has it any?

sozzled, adj [1 sozld, 2 sozld] Probably imitative word, cp soak (I B 2) & muzzy & fuddla (slang) Intoxicated special, adj 3 Add special areas, industrial regions in a condition of chronic depression speed-cop, n (slang, orig US) Police man on the watch for offences against the speed limit spigotty, adj [1 spigoti, 2 spigoti], ? origin (US slang) Strangely interesting, romantic spin (II), n Add 3 Phr to get into a flat spin, (i) (aeron) to spin round horizontally without hope of recovery, (ii) (fig & colloq) to get into inextricable difficulties stab (II), n Add c an attempt to have a stab at (something) stag (II), vb intrans (Stock Exchange) To act in the manner of a stag, see stag (4, Diet) stag party, n See party, Suppl stakhanovite, n & adj [1 stakhanovit, 2 stakhanovit], fr Stakhanov, a Russian miner who, in 1935, succeeded in increasing his individual output prodigiously a n One of those Russian workers belonging to a rank and file movement for the increase of industrial output through rationalization and individual initiative, b adj of, pertaining to, that movement stamped scrip, n Scrip money that has to be stamped at stated intervals (eg monthly) at a cost to the holder equalling its automatic depreciation in value, see Free Money & scrip, Suppl stand (I), vb C Stand off, Add trans, to discharge (an employee) temporarily, owing to slackness of trade, &c stay-in, attrib Stay in strike, a strike in which the employees remain on the premises of the employers, stay in lockers stick (I), vb A trans 2 Add d (slang) to put, (gangster slang) stick 'em up! put up your hands!

stiff (II), n 2 Add b A stupid or clumsy person, esp big stiff, an utter fool or bungler still (II), n Add 2 A single snapshot abstracted from a motion film and, in many cases, displayed as a photograph stung (I), vb A intrans 3 (fig), Add c (slang) to make (a person) pay an exorbitant price, to fleece stooge, n [1 stöö, 2 stöö] (slang, orig US) a (theatr) Butt in slapstick comedy, b scapegoat storm trooper, n Member of the semi-military nucleus of the Nazi party storm troops, n 1 Military units reserved for arduous offensive engagements 2 Body of storm troopers stratosphere, n [1 strätösfer, 2 strätösfer] See stratum & sphere The upper and more rarefied part of the atmosphere above the tropopause, see troposphere & tropopause, Suppl stroboscopes, n [1 stroboskop, 2 stroboskop] See stroboscope & -scope A device for studying periodic motion by means of intermittent glimpses stuff (I), n Add 4 (slang) In the phr to do one's stuff, special accomplishment or subject, prearranged performance or harangue Now then, do your stuff!

stylus bar, n [1 stilus bar, 2 stilus bar] See style & bar Rod conveying vibrations from the point of a gramophone needle to the centre of the diaphragm subotnik, n [1 soobotnik, 2 subotnik], Russ, fr subota, 'Saturday', & nik (suff) (USSR) Labour freely given to the State on off days sucker, n Add 6 (Am slang) a III in formed and gullible stock market speculator, sucker list, list of such people for the use of dishonest company promoters, b any gullible and easily exploitable person sugar daddy, n (slang, orig US) An elderly man who takes about, or keeps as his mistress, a young woman and, consciously or unconsciously, allows himself to be exploited by her as a liberal source of revenue and luxuries sunk, adj Add 2 pred (slang) Utterly frustrated, in a desperate situation or fix, now we're sunk, that finishes our chances super (II), adj, fr the prefix super-, (g & h) (slang) Excellent, unusually good, useful, clever, &c superhet, adj [1 süperhet, 2 süperhet], abbr of superheterodyne, super-, (h), & heterodyne (colloq) Excellently heterodyne superconductivity, n Increased electrical conductivity at exceptionally low temperatures surrealism, n [1 süréalizm, 2 süréalizm] fr Fr surréalisme, see sur- (II) & realism A recent movement in literature and art which originated in France. Its subject matter is derived chiefly from 'the unconscious', even from dreams, and its emphasis on immediacy and spontaneity, with a minimum of conscious elaboration, makes it an exaggerated antithesis of academic art surrealist, n & adj [1 süréalist, 2 süréalist] See prec & -ist 1 n An exponent or adherent of surrealism 2 adj Of, pertaining to, or exemplifying, surrealism suspension, n Add specif, (phys chem) a liquid containing finely divided & stably suspended solid particles suspensoid, n [1 suspensoid, 2 suspensoid], fr suspension & -oid (chem) The disperse phase in a suspension swill (II), n Add 4 (US slang) Swill swill (i) Garbage the inspection of which suggests a luxurious standard of living, (ii) excellent food and drink swish (III), adj (slang) Strikingly smart or stylish swop, swap (II), n Add Phr to take a swop, (commerce slang) meet with a rebuff in salesmanship synchro-mesh, n, abbr of synchronized mesh (motor cars) A device in the gear box for making the gears engage automatically at their correct speed tabloid press, n Contemptuous collective term for illustrated newspapers that give only scanty and compressed news

Tass (II), n, Russ, abbr fr Telegraphnoye Agentstvo Sovetskogo Soyuza (USSR) Telegraphic Agency of the Soviet Union teaser, n Add 3 teaser (ad), (commerce slang) advertisement designed to stimulate curiosity by holding out hopes of a startling future announcement technocracy, n [1 téknokras, 2 téknokras] See technic & -cracy A type of social organization, imagined and advocated by a group of Americans, in which engineers and technicians would exercise a decisive control of industry, maintaining output at the maximum in the interests of the public as consumers. See also erg, Suppl technocrat, n [1 téknokrat, 2 téknokrat] See technic & -crat 1 An advocate of technocracy 2 An engineer or technician, as controller of production in such a regime technocratic, adj [1 téknokratik, 2 téknokratik] prec & -ic Having the characteristics of a technocrat, or of a technocracy televisor, n [1 télevisor, 2 téleviseur] See television & -or (2) Instrument for receiving audio signals and converting them into visual signals tell, vb A trans 3 b, Add Phr you're telling me (slang) don't, or there's no need to, tell me that thixotropy, n [1 thiksotropi, 2 piksotropi], fr Gk thixis, 'a touching', fr base thig in thiggnanem, 'to touch', cogn w touch, &c, & -trope (chem) Property of a substance, apparently a liquid, whereby it can pass from gel to sol on agitation, and back to gel on standing thrombin, n [1 thrómbin, 2 prómbin], fr Gk thrómbos 'a clot' & -in (physiol) The substance in the blood which causes clotting thrombopenia, n [1 thrómbopénia, 2 prómbopénia], fr prec & Gk pénia, 'poverty' (physiol) Deficiency of thrombine in the blood throw, (I) vb A trans Add 9 (slang) To give (as a social gesture, e.g. a dinner, a cocktail party) Phr to throw a fit, (slang) see fit (I 1, Suppl) throwaway, n (slang) An advertising circular, leaflet throw-out, n Article thrown aside, esp in the factory where it is made, as defective or useless tiddly, adj [1 tídlí, 2 tídlí] (slang) Intoxicated tie (I), n 2 Add Phr the old school tie, (fig & colloq) (i) snobbishness of, (ii) solidarity, freemasonry among, members of certain Public Schools, &c tie (II), vb C Tie up, 3 Add Phr to tie (person) up (in knots), (colloq) put into (great) difficulties tie-up, n (commerce slang) Arrangement for the display of advertised goods simultaneously with advertisement of them in the press tightwad, n [1 títwod, 2 tástwəd] tight (6 b) & wad (I 2) (Am slang) A miser time-lag, n Interval of time between one phenomenon and another which is associated with it or caused by it tone-arm, n The part of a gramophone connecting the sound box to the horn topliner, n See headliner, Suppl totalitarian, adj [1 tótáitárian, 2 tótáitárian] totality & -arian a (concerned with) Arrogating (to the State & the ruling party) all rights and every liberty of choice, including those normally belonging to individuals and various corporate bodies the totalitarian State, b conscripting a country's entire resources in population and material tracking, vbl n, fr track (I) (films) a Moving the camera nearer and nearer to, or further away from, the subject, b the visual effect so produced trafficator, n, abbr of traffic-indicator (motor cars) Automatic red pointer for warning traffic whenever the driver intends to change direction trailer, n Add 4 Parts of a forthcoming film shown on the screen at a public performance, to advertise the film tropopause, n [1 trópópavz, 2 trópópávz], fr troposphere & pause A belt of atmosphere, about two miles thick, between the troposphere and the stratosphere, i.e. from seven to twelve miles above sea-level troposphere, n [1 trópósfer, 2 trópósáf], see trope & sphere That part of the atmosphere, which immediately surrounds the earth reaching up as far as the tropopause, and in which increase of height is associated with decrease of temperature, cp stratosphere, Suppl turn (I), vb A trans Add 11 To turn a film, be responsible for the action of the camera in the production of a film trust (I), n 3 Add c investment trust, a joint stock company whose profits are drawn from investments distributed among a number of other companies and from the inducious buying and selling of investments, fixed trust, investment trust whose capital is permanently invested in a few securities try (I), vb A trans 6 Add b to try (a thing) out, (colloq) (i) test it thoroughly, (ii) give it a trial try-on, n [traɪn] See try, A 4 b (ii) (slang) An instance of 'trying it on', seeing how far one will be allowed to go in some piece of audacity try-out, n [traɪaʊt] See try, Suppl (slang) a An instance of trying something out, b something that is being tried out turn-out, n Add 3 (colloq) Way in which, degree of smartness with which, a person is dressed and groomed twin, 2 n a Add identical twins, twins developed from the same fertilized ovum and therefore of identically the same genotype, fraternal twins, twins developed from different ova and spermatozoa and therefore of different genotypes, though from the same pregnancy udarnik, n, pl -niks [1 ódárnik, 2 údárnik], Russ, udar, 'a blow', & -nik (suff) (USSR) Shock-brigade, usu in an industrial sense ultra-short, adj & n See wave-length, Suppl unc, n [1 ungk, 2 apk], slang abbr of unconscious (qv, 4, Dict) underworld, n 3 Add b social circles in which obscure and possibly sinister moves, bargains, &c, are made political underworld unstuck, vb trans Add Phr to come unstuck, (slang) to get into difficulties up-and-up, n Phr (slang) to be on the up and up, to be succeeding, making progress, having a run of prosperity up-stage, adj [1 np stáj, 2 áp stéidz] up & stage (colloq) Supercilious, stand-offish, apt to give oneself airs vehicle, n 2 Add specif, (chem) medium in which a substance is dispersed to form a suspension or an emulsion virtual wealth, n The aggregate of goods and services that a community theoretically could at any time exchange for the aggregate of its money

Voks, n [1 vokz, 2 vokz] Russ, fr Vsesoyuznoye Obschestvo Kulturnoy Svyazi, 'All-Union Society for Cultural Relations' (USSR) Soviet-Union Society for Cultural Relations with foreign countries wad, (I), n 2 Add b (gen, slang) money.

waffle (II), vb intrans Imitative word (slang) To talk nonsense, blather walk (I), vb C Add Walk out (of an assembly), walk out ostentatiously to show strong disapproval or contempt Walk out on, (slang, orig US) decamp, clear off, leaving (person) in the lurch Cp on (9, Suppl) water-waggon, n Whesled vehicle for carrying water, Phr gone on the water-waggon, (slang, orig US) having forsworn all alcoholic drinks, for on, see diet, Dict -wave, suff, abbr for wave-length, in the adjs, short wave, medium-wave and long-wave, see next word wave-length, n b Add long, 600-30,000 metres, medium, 100-600 metres, short, 10-100 metres, ultra short, 1-10 metres wave mechanics, n A development of quantum mechanics in which matter is treated as a wave motion wet (I), adj Add 4 (slang) (of persons or things) Unacceptable, distasteful, foolish, sloppy, sentimental, you're all wet, quite off the track 5 n (slang) One who is wet, as in 4 whale (I), n Add a whale of a, (slang, orig US) a very big a whale of a lot whoopie, interj & n [1 wuopt, 2 wupf] (slang) a interj, expressing gaiety and exhilaration, b n riotous gaiety, Phrs to make whoopee, whoopie period, (US) period of prosperity wide (I), adj 3 Add (slang) to the wide (sc world), utterly done to the wide, utterly exhausted, done-for win (I), vb B intrans Win back, (colloq) to recover lost ground by strenuous efforts window-shopping, vbl n & adj (colloq) Gazing at what is displayed in shop windows wipe, n 1 Add b (films) (the device, effect, of) making one shot appear to be peeled off revealing another as if it had been underneath it wipe-out, n & attrib n (wireless) 1 n a The effect which a wireless transmitting station has of rendering all messages on its own wave-length inaudible within a certain radius, b the zone thus affected 2 n attrib wipe out zone or area wise (I), 2 Add (US slang) wise guy, a disconcertingly, irritatingly well-informed or conceited person, one who 'knows it all', a would be smart exposé of frauds, an iconoclast wise crack, wise-crack, n & vb intrans 1 n a A witicism, a sententious, esp a sarcastic, remark, b one who makes such remarks 2 vb To make such remarks wish, n Add 4 (psycho analysis) An unconscious desire which is tending to translate itself into action through some bodily mechanism, but which may be diverted or inhibited wish-fulfilment, n (psycho analysis) Fulfilment of a desire, either in a dream or in phantasy as expressed, e.g. in some inadvertent gesture or verbal error wiz, whiz, n, prob punning on whizz(z) & wizard (US slang) An expert wizard, adj, fr wizard (2) (slang) a (of persons or things) Clever, ingenious, b (chiefly of things) fascinating, attractive wog, n [1 wog, 2 wɒg], fr golliwog. (slang) A negro wolf (I), n 1 Add Phr (colloq & facet) Who's afraid of the big bad wolf? such-and-such villain or bug bear is not so formidable as may appear work (I), n 5 Add c a nasty piece of work, (slang) an objectionable person 9 Add c (gangster slang) give him the works, fire every cartridge in the revolver or gun at him worry (I), vb B intrans Phr Add I should worry, (colloq, iron) should not mind, should be glad wuzzy, n [1 wuzi, 2 wazi] Muzzy

X-unit, n The unit, $10^{-11} \times 1$ cm, used for wave lengths of X- and gamma-rays yen (II), n (Am slang) A yearning, ambition a yen for knowledge, a yen to write yes man, n (slang, orig US) A man who lacks initiative and obsequiously assents to the opinions of others zip, n Add zip fastener, ingenious metallic attachment to clothing, &c, enabling it to be undone or done up with a single pull, Add b (fig, slang) brisk energy or vigour zip (II), vb trans & intrans (slang) A intrans To dart, shoot, also fig, Phr to zip across the horizon, (Am slang) come suddenly into fame, prominence, notoriety B trans zip up, to put (more) briskness and vigour into (something) zoom, vb intrans & trans [1 zōm, 2 zūm] Imitative (slang) A vb intrans 1 To climb vertically in an aeroplane 2 (fig) To boom, make a great hit B trans To boost, advertise by high-pressure methods zoom, n, fr prec Vertical climb in flying

